PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that on November 20, 2026, at 9:00 a.m. or as soon thereafter as the matter may be heard before the Honorable Christine Van Aken in Department 301 of the Superior Court of the State of California, for the County of San Francisco, located at 400 McAllister Street, San Francisco, CA 94102, United States, Plaintiff Michaela Goslin ("Plaintiff") will and hereby does move for entry of the following orders:

1. Granting approval, pursuant to California Labor Code section 2699(l)(2), of the settlement between Plaintiff and Defendants DOMA Title of California, Inc., DOMA Holdings, Inc., North American Title Insurance Company, North American Services, LLC; and States Title Holding, Inc. (collectively, the "Defendants") of the claims brought pursuant to the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 ("PAGA"), as set forth in the Private Attorneys General Act Settlement Agreement and Release ("Settlement," "Agreement," or "Settlement Agreement"), attached as "EXHIBIT 2" to the Declaration of Brian J. St. John, including and not limited to, the plan of allocation and distribution of the Gross Settlement Payment for payment of the LWDA Payment to the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency ("LWDA"), individual settlement shares to the Covered Employees, Attorneys' Fees and Litigation Costs to Plaintiff's Counsel, Settlement Administration Costs to the Settlement Administrator, and PAGA Representative Payment to Plaintiff;
2. Approving the Net Settlement Amount, estimated to be no less than $183,214.20 which will be distributed to the LWDA and the Covered Employees, pursuant to California Labor Code section 2699(i), of which 75% will be paid to the LWDA and 25% will be paid to the Covered Employees;
3. Appointing Phoenix Settlement Administrators ("Phoenix") as the Settlement Administrator, to handle the administration of the Settlement;
4. Directing Defendants to fund the Gross Settlement Payment, and directing the Settlement Administrator to distribute payments in accordance with the Settlement Agreement;
5. Directing the mailing of individual settlement share checks to the Covered Employees along with the Cover Letter, which is substantially similar in content and form to that attached as "EXHIBIT 3" to the Settlement Agreement;

6. Awarding $10,000.00 to Plaintiff Michaela Goslin as her PAGA Representative Payment;
7. Awarding up to $12,000.00 to the Settlement Administrator as Settlement Administration Costs; and
8. Awarding to Lawyers for Justice, PC ("Plaintiff's Counsel") the amount of $115,500.00 as compensation for reasonable attorneys' fees and the amount of $9,285.80 for reimbursement of litigation costs and expenses (together, "Attorneys' Fees and Litigation Costs"), pursuant to California Labor Code section 2699(g)(1).

Unless otherwise specified, all citations and references to the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, California Labor Code sections 2698, et seq. are to the version of statute prior to the recent amendment effective July 1, 2024; the amended statute does not apply to the above-captioned action and the Settlement pursuant to California Labor Code section 2699(v)(1), as amended, because the above-captioned action was filed prior to June 19, 2024.

The Settlement Agreement and moving and supporting papers for this motion are being concurrently submitted to the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency in conformity with California Labor Code section 2699(l)(2).

This motion is made pursuant to California Labor Code section 2699(l)(2), which provides for review and approval by the Court of the settlement of a civil action filed pursuant to PAGA, and Rule 3.1113(e) of the California Rules of Court, which permits the Court to extend the page limit for memoranda.

This motion will be based upon the following Memorandum of Points and Authorities, the Settlement Agreement, the Declarations of Plaintiff's Counsel (Brian J. St. John) and Plaintiff Michaela Goslin in support thereof, as well as the pleadings and other records on file with the Court in this matter, and such evidence and oral argument as may be presented at the hearing on this motion.

MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I. SUMMARY OF MOTION

Plaintiff Michaela Goslin ("Plaintiff") seeks approval of the Private Attorneys General Act Settlement Agreement and Release ("Settlement," "Agreement," or "Settlement Agreement") entered into between Plaintiff, individually and on behalf of the State of California with respect to Covered Employees, and Defendants DOMA Title of California, Inc., DOMA Holdings, Inc., North American Title Insurance Company, North American Services, LLC; and States Title Holding, Inc. (collectively, the "Defendants"), pursuant to California Labor Code section 2699(l)(2).[1] Plaintiff and Defendants (together, the "Parties") have agreed to resolve the above-captioned action, brought pursuant to the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, California Labor Code section 2698, et seq. ("PAGA"), for a Gross Settlement Payment of $330,000.00.[2]

The Settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable, as it represents a reasoned compromise of a disputed claim that has been reached through arm's-length negotiations, in light of the risks, complexity, and expense of further litigation, and the strengths of the PAGA claim. The Settlement meets the requirements for Court approval based upon the relevant fairness factors. The Court is respectfully requested to approve the Settlement, award the Attorneys' Fees and Litigation Costs, Settlement Administration Costs, and PAGA Representative Payment and approve the LWDA Payment.

The Settlement Agreement and moving and supporting papers for this motion are being concurrently submitted to the LWDA and Plaintiff now moves for an order granting approval of the Settlement, in conformity with California Labor Code section 2699(l)(2).[3] In order to efficiently present the Court with adequate information, Plaintiff also moves for an order permitting the filing of this memorandum, although it exceeds the page limit set forth in California Rules of Court, Rule 3.1113(d).

[1] The Private Attorneys General Act Settlement Agreement and Release ("Settlement Agreement") is attached as "EXHIBIT 2" to the Declaration of Brian J. St. John ("St. John Decl.").
[2] Settlement Agreement, § II.4.
[3] The Court is referred to the concurrently-filed Proof of Service, which confirms submission of the papers to the LWDA.

II. FACTUAL BACKGROUND AND RELEVANT PROCEDURAL HISTORY

For a discussion of relevant procedural history and facts regarding this case, please see the Declaration of Brian J. St. John at paragraphs 9 to 12.

III. SUMMARY OF THE SETTLEMENT TERMS

A. Scope of the Settlement

If the Court grants approval of the Settlement, Plaintiff and the State of California with respect to Covered Employees[4] will release the Released Parties[5] from the Released Claims[6].

B. Funding and Distribution of the Gross Settlement Payment

Under the terms of the Settlement Agreement, Defendants will pay a Gross Settlement Payment of $330,000.00[7], which is inclusive of the following: (1) Attorneys' Fees and Litigation Costs to be paid to Lawyers for Justice, PC ("Plaintiff's Counsel"), (2) PAGA Representative Payment to Plaintiff, (3) Settlement Administration Costs to be paid to the Settlement Administrator, and (4) Net Settlement Amount to be paid to the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency ("LWDA") and Covered Employees. The Net Settlement Amount will be the Gross Settlement Payment less the Court-approved Attorneys' Fees and Litigation Costs, Settlement Administration Costs, and PAGA Representative Payment; the Net Settlement Amount is currently estimated to be no less than $183,214.20.[8] The Net Settlement Amount will be distributed as follows: 75% of the Net Settlement Amount (or approximately $137,410.65) will be distributed to the LWDA and 25% of the Net Settlement Amount (or approximately $45,803.55) will be distributed to the Covered Employees on a pro rata basis, based on their Compensable Pay Periods.[9]

Within seven (7) calendar days of the Effective Date, the Settlement Administrator shall provide Defendants with wire transfer instructions. Within fourteen (14) calendar days of receipt of the wire transfer instructions and Defendants' receipt of a completed form W-9, [4] Settlement Agreement, § II.3, and St. John Decl., ¶ 13. "PAGA Period" is defined as the period of March 14, 2022, through the date of the Order Approving Settlement and Judgment. Settlement Agreement, § II.2.

[5] The definition of the "Released Parties" is set forth in the Settlement Agreement, § II.8.
[6] The definition of the "Released Claims" is set forth in the Settlement Agreement, § II.8.

Defendants will wire the Gross Settlement Payment of $330,000.00 to the Settlement Administrator and will provide the Settlement Administrator with the following information for each of the Covered Employees (collectively, this information is referred to as the "Covered Employee Data List"): (i) first and last name; (ii) last known mailing address and telephone number; (iii) Social Security Number; and (iv) payroll information sufficient to identify the total number of Pay Periods worked by all Covered Employees during the PAGA Period.[10]

No later than forty-five (45) calendar days after the Settlement Administrator receives the Covered Employee Data List and Gross Settlement Payment from Defendants, the Settlement Administrator will calculate payments and mail the agreed-upon Cover Letter[11] and individual settlement share[12] checks (together, the "Settlement Package") to all Covered Employees by U.S. First Class Mail.[13] For each Settlement Package that is returned as undeliverable within thirty (30) calendar days of the initial mailing, the Settlement Administrator will promptly attempt to locate an alternate, updated address for the Covered Employee at issue, by using a skip-trace search and shall attempt a re-mailing of the Settlement Package.[14]

The individual settlement share checks issued to Covered Employees will remain valid for 180 calendar days, and thereafter, will be canceled.[15] Funds associated with canceled checks will be transmitted to the California State Controllers' Office Unclaimed Property Division in the name of the Covered Employee(s) at issue and in the amount of his or her respective individual settlement share(s).[16]

[10] Id., § II.11.c.

[11] The Parties have prepared a simple Cover Letter for transmission to the Covered Employees along with their Individual Settlement Share checks, substantially in the form attached as "EXHIBIT 4" to the Settlement Agreement. The Cover Letter informs the Covered Employees about the Actions and the Settlement.

[12] Each Covered Employees share, will be calculated by the Settlement Administrator based on their Compensable Pay Periods. Id., § 11(d)(v). The payments to Covered Employees for their individual settlement share are considered 100% penalties to be reported on IRS Form 1099, if required. Id., § 12.

C. Standards for Approval of PAGA Settlement

The PAGA allows an "aggrieved employee" to bring a civil action on behalf of the State of California to recover civil penalties that normally the LWDA can pursue on behalf of employees against an employer without employees' involvement or approval. Unnamed employees need not be given notice of the PAGA claim, nor do they have the ability to opt-out of the representative PAGA claim.[17] Before bringing a civil action under PAGA, an employee must comply with California Labor Code section 2699.3. See Cal. Lab. Code § 2699(a). Plaintiff has complied.

The settlement of a PAGA action requires court approval. See Cal. Lab. Code § 2699(l)(2). However, a PAGA claim asserted on a non-class representative basis and is not a class action but a law enforcement action.[18] A court's review of a PAGA settlement involves consideration of unique factors that render the approval process distinct from, and simpler than the two-step court approval process for a class action settlement. A court reviewing a PAGA settlement need only "ensur[e] that a negotiated resolution is fair to those affected." Williams v. Superior Court (2017) 3 Cal.5th 531, 549 (citing Cal. Lab. Code § 2699(l)(2)). Although California Labor Code section 2699(l) does not set forth the criteria on which a PAGA settlement is to be judged, courts have approved settlements of PAGA claims.[19]

In a PAGA case, the court's focus is not the monetary amount which aggrieved employees or the State stand to receive, but instead, whether the total settlement amount achieves the PAGA's objectives. The purpose of the PAGA is "to incentivize private parties to recover civil penalties for the government that otherwise may not have been assessed and collected by overburdened state enforcement agencies." See Ochoa-Hernandez, supra, 2010 WL 1340777, at *4 (citing Arias, supra, 46 Cal.4th at 986). Penalties recovered under the PAGA are, in part, to "be distributed to the [LWDA] for enforcement of labor laws . . . and for education of employers and employees about their rights and responsibilities under this code, to be continuously appropriated to supplement and not supplant the funding to the agency for those purposes." See Cal. Lab. Code § 2699(j).

IV. THE SETTLEMENT IS FAIR AND SHOULD BE APPROVED

The Settlement resulted from hard-fought negotiations, fulfills the objectives of the PAGA statute, is fair, adequate, and reasonable, and meets all of the criteria for approval for the reasons discussed below.

A. The Factors Giving Rise to a Presumption of Fairness Exist

The Parties reached the Settlement after conducting extensive, arm's-length settlement negotiations and the involvement of a neutral mediator Hon. Raul A. Ramirez (Ret.).[20] A settlement that is "the product of extensive and hard-fought adversarial negotiations between the parties" is entitled to a presumption of fairness. Wershba v. Apple Computer, Inc. (2001) 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 245.

As discussed in the Declaration of Brian J. St. John, the Settlement is presumptively fair because: (1) it is the product of adversarial non-collusive, and arm's-length negotiations with the assistance of an independent mediator knowledgeable in complex labor and employment matters; (2) it was negotiated by counsel with significant experience in similar complex labor and employment matters; and (3) it occurred after counsel for the Parties engaged in significant investigation to evaluate the strength and potential value of the PAGA claim, and risks and expenses of litigating this claim through trial.[21]

Based on all of the information available to the Parties, the Parties agree that this matter

[20] St. John Decl., ¶ 17.
[21] Id.., ¶¶ 2-7, 16-31.

LAWYERS for JUSTICE, PC
450 North Brand Boulevard, Suite 900

is well-suited for settlement given the strengths and weaknesses of the PAGA claim and the facts and circumstances of the case.[22] Plaintiff's Counsel has extensive experience handling representative and class action wage-and-hour litigation and used that experience to achieve a settlement recovery for Plaintiff, the State of California, and the Covered Employees.[23] Therefore, the Court should give considerable weight to the competency, experience, and opinion of counsel and the involvement of a neutral mediator in assuring that the settlement is a product of arm's length bargaining.[24]

B. The Relative Strengths and Weaknesses of the PAGA Claim and the Range of Possible Outcomes Strongly Favor Approval of the Settlement

For a discussion of the relative strengths and weaknesses of the PAGA claim and the range of possible outcomes in the litigation, see the Declaration of Brian J. St. John at paragraphs 20-31.

C. The Settlement Avoids Risky, Complex, and Lengthy Further Litigation

Courts favor voluntary conciliation and settlement of complex litigation. Class Plaintiffs v. City of Seattle (9th Cir. 1992) 955 F.2d 1268, 1276. Generally, unless the settlement is clearly inadequate, its acceptance and approval are preferable to lengthy and expensive litigation with uncertain results. Nat'l Rural Telecomms. Coop. v. DIRECTV, Inc. (C.D. Cal. Jan. 5, 2004) 221 F.R.D. 523, 526.

Prior to reaching the Settlement, the Parties investigated the veracity, strength, and scope of the PAGA claim and allegations and considered thousands of pages of information, documents, and data relevant to Plaintiff's claim and Defendants' defenses thereto.[25] The Parties thoroughly and sufficiently evaluated the PAGA claim and related allegations, including, and not limited to, calculating the potential monetary recovery under PAGA.[26] Plaintiff's

[22] Id., ¶ 45.
[23] Id., ¶¶ 2-7.
[24] See Kirkorian v. Borelli (N.D. Cal. 1988) 695 F.Supp. 446, 451 (opinion of experienced counsel is entitled to considerable weight); Boyd v. Bechtel Corp. (N.D. Cal. 1979) 485 F.Supp. 610, 616-17, 622 (recommendations of plaintiffs' counsel should be given a presumption of reasonableness); see also Satchell v. Fed. Express Corp. (N.D. Cal. Apr. 13, 2007) 2007 WL 1114010, at *4 (stating that the "assistance of an experienced mediator in the settlement process confirms that the settlement is non-collusive").

Counsel performed other work as well, which is discussed in the Declaration of Brian J. St. John.[27]

Had the case not settled, the Parties would have conducted extensive additional formal discovery, including propounding additional written discovery requests as well as multiple depositions of party and percipient witnesses all over the State of California, to prepare the case for trial. From the inception of this litigation, Defendants indicated that they would aggressively litigate this case.[28] Even if Defendants failed on their defenses, litigating a complex PAGA action is inherently expensive, and the litigation could continue beyond entry of judgment if either party were to appeal adverse rulings.[29] Additionally, there is a real possibility that Plaintiff could recover nothing, either for herself or on behalf of the State of California or other Covered Employees after years of costly and labor-intensive litigation. Avoiding these risks and the likelihood of future contentious litigation, which would involve significant costs, favors settlement.

D. The Settlement Is Fair, Adequate, and Reasonable

The Settlement provides significant benefits to the State of California and the Covered Employees and falls well-within the range of acceptable settlements under the circumstances. "[T]he very essence of a settlement is compromise, 'a yielding of absolutes and an abandoning of highest hopes.'" Officers for Justice v. Civil Service Comm'n (9th Cir. 1981) 688 F.2d 615, 624. "The proposed settlement is not to be judged against a hypothetical or speculative measure of what might have been achieved by the negotiators." Id. at 625.

The Settlement is a compromise of highly disputed claims. Plaintiff and her counsel recognize the expense and length of continued proceedings necessary to pursue the matter through trial and any possible appeals.[30] Plaintiff and her counsel have also taken into account the uncertainty and risk of the outcome of further litigation, and the difficulties and delays inherent in such litigation.[31] Plaintiff and her counsel are also aware of the burdens of proof necessary to establish liability, both generally and in response to Defendants' defenses thereto, and the difficulties in establishing Defendants' liability for, and the right to recover, penalties on behalf of Plaintiff, the State of California, and other Covered Employees.[32] Plaintiff and her counsel have also taken into account Defendants' agreement to enter into a settlement that confers significant relief upon the Covered Employees and the State of California.[33]

Considering all of the facts in this case, Plaintiff and her counsel have determined that the Settlement represents a fair, adequate, and reasonable resolution of the PAGA claim, and that it is in the best interests of the Covered Employees and the State of California.[34]

The result achieved in this case, and the monetary recovery provided by this settlement, are well-within the range of an acceptable settlement under the circumstances, especially when compared to trial court penalties assessments in contested cases and the settlement of PAGA claims in other cases. Here, the value obtained for settlement of the PAGA claim is significant, and it will be distributed in accordance with and in fulfillment of the objectives of the PAGA statute.

E. The Experience and Views of Plaintiff's Counsel Favor Approval of the Settlement

Plaintiff's Counsel are highly experienced in complex representative and class action wage-and-hour litigation.[35] In the view of Plaintiff's Counsel, the benefits conferred by the settlement are eminently fair and reasonable, and in the best interests of the State of California and the Covered Employees in light of the risk, delay, and uncertainty of continued litigation and the substantial monetary benefits provided for by the Settlement.[36] Furthermore, courts have acknowledged that "the interests of plaintiff, counsel and other potentially aggrieved employees are largely aligned. All stand to gain from proving as convincingly as possible as many Labor Code violations as the evidence will sustain[.]" Williams, supra, 548 (citing Cal. Lab. Code § 2699(g)(1)(i)).

V. THE REQUESTED ATTORNEYS' FEES AWARD SHOULD BE APPROVED

A. A Fee Award of a Percentage of the Entire Fund Is Appropriate

The Settlement provides for attorneys' fees in an amount of up to 35% of the Gross Settlement Payment, which is $115,500.00 subject to approval and award by the Court.[37] The requested attorneys' fees award is commensurate with: (1) the risk that Plaintiff's Counsel took in bringing and litigating the case, (2) the time, effort, and expense dedicated to the case, (3) the skill and determination that Plaintiff's Counsel has shown, (4) the results that Plaintiff's Counsel has achieved in the case, (5) the value that Plaintiff's Counsel has achieved in the case, and (6) the other cases that Plaintiff's Counsel has turned down in order to work on this matter.

Plaintiff's Counsel is entitled to recover reasonable attorneys' fees and costs as a matter of right under PAGA. See Cal. Lab. Code § 2699(g)(1) ("Any employee who prevails in any [PAGA] action shall be entitled to an award of reasonable attorney's fees and costs"). Plaintiff's Counsel is also entitled to fees and costs under California Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5, as the instant PAGA action is by definition "for the benefit" of others and secures monetary recovery for a large number of allegedly aggrieved employees, as well as the State of California.[38] The settlement will also provide funds to the state labor agency, to enhance enforcement of labor laws and education of "employers and employees about their rights and responsibilities under [the California Labor Code]." Cal. Lab. Code § 2699(i).

Courts may calculate and award attorneys' fees as a percentage of a monetary fund that has, by litigation, been preserved or recovered for the benefit of others. Laffitte v. Robert Half Int'l, Inc. (2016) 1 Cal.5th 480 at 486 & 506. Trial courts "retain the discretion to forgo a lodestar cross-check and [may] use other means to evaluate the reasonableness of a requested percentage fee." Id. (internal quotes omitted); see also Wershba, supra, 91 Cal.App. 4th at 253.

Courts award fees as an economic incentive for lawyers to pursue litigation that will enhance and facilitate access to the judicial system for meritorious claims, deter wrongdoing,

[37] Id., ¶ 40.

[38] See Estrada v. FedEx Ground Package Sys. Inc. (2007) 154 Cal.App.4th 1, 16-17 (recognizing that recovery obtained on behalf of 209 individuals satisfies the "significant benefit," "public interest," and "large class of persons" requirements of Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5, regardless of plaintiff's personal motivation).

LAWYERS for JUSTICE, PC

and address multiple similar alleged wrongs that would not be economically feasible to pursue individually, such as here. See A. Conte, Attorney Fee Awards (2d ed. 1993) 104, at 6.

The percentage method is particularly appropriate where a monetary settlement has been recovered and "the benefit [recovered can be] easily quantified." In re Bluetooth Headset Prods. Liab. Litig. (9th Cir. 2011) 654 F.3d 935, 942. Where the amount of a settlement is a "certain easily calculable sum of money," California courts may calculate attorneys' fees as a reasonable percentage of the settlement created. Weil and Brown, California Practice Guide, Civil Procedure Before Trial, Chapter 14, section 14:145; Dunk v. Ford Motor Co.(1996) 48 Cal. App. 4th 1794, 1808.

The percentage fee method is preferred in representative actions because "it better approximates the workings of the marketplace than the lodestar approach." Lealao v. Beneficial Cal., Inc. (2000) 82 Cal.App.4th 19, 49. California law provides that the award for attorneys' fees should be equivalent to fees freely negotiated in the legal marketplace and paid in comparable litigation based on the result achieved and risk incurred. See Lealao, supra, 82 Cal.App.4th at 47-50; Laffitte, supra, 1 Cal.5th 480 at 503. In cases where the settlement agreement provides that the defendant will pay the plaintiff's attorneys a percentage of the fund created by the settlement, use of that percentage method is appropriate. Lealao, supra, 82 Cal.App.4th at 32. Fee awards that are too small will "chill the private enforcement essential to the vindication of many legal rights and obstruct the representative actions that often relieve the courts of the need to separately adjudicate numerous claims." Id. at 53. Therefore, fees in representative actions should approximate the probable terms of a contingent fee contract negotiated by a sophisticated attorney and client in comparable litigation. Id. at 48. "The ultimate goal . . . is the award of a 'reasonable' fee to compensate counsel for their efforts, irrespective of the method of calculation." Consumer Privacy Cases (2009) 175 Cal.App.4th 545, 557-58 (quoting Apple Computer, Inc. v. Superior Court (2005) 126 Cal.App.4th, 1253, 1270).

Plaintiff's Counsel's application for attorneys' fees in light of the facts and circumstances surrounding the case is well-within the range of reasonableness. Courts have awarded fees as high as 50% of the settlement in complex actions, depending on the circumstances of the case.[39]

LAWYERS for JUSTICE, PC
450 North Brand Boulevard, Suite 900
Glendale, California 91203

Plaintiff's Counsel has performed significant work in this matter, as discussed in the Declaration of Brian J. St. John with the very real possibility of an unsuccessful outcome and no fee recovery of any kind.[40] In the present case, Plaintiff's Counsel has borne all of the risks and costs of litigation and will not receive any compensation until recovery is obtained.[41] Plaintiff's Counsel is experienced in complex wage-and-hour litigation and used that experience to obtain a significant settlement recovery for Plaintiff, the Covered Employees, and the State of California.[42] Considering the amount of fees requested, work performed, risks incurred, results obtained, and experience of Plaintiff's Counsel in handling similar matters, Plaintiff maintains that the requested attorneys' fees are reasonable and should be awarded.

B. The Requested Fee Award is Reasonable Based on the Factors Considered in Determination of Fee Awards

The factors which courts consider in determining whether fee awards are reasonable, all of which support the fee award requested by Plaintiff's Counsel, are: the time and labor required; the novelty and difficulty of the questions involved; the skill requisite to perform the legal services properly; the preclusion of other employment by the attorney due to the acceptance of the case; the customary fee; whether the fee is fixed or contingent; the time limitation imposed by the client or the circumstances; the amount involved and results obtained; the experience, reputation, and ability of the attorney; the undesirability of the case; the nature and length of the professional relationship with the client; and awards in similar cases. Camden I Condominium Association, Inc. v. Dunkel (11th Cir. 1991) 946 F.2d 768, 772. Some of the most relevant factors to this Court's fee determination will be addressed below.

[39] See In re Ampicillin Antitrust Litig. (D.D.C. 1981) 526 F.Supp. 494 (awarding attorneys' fees in the amount of 45% of the $7.3 million total settlement amount); Beech Cinema, Inc. v. Twentieth-Century Fox Film Corp. (S.D.N.Y. 1979) 480 F.Supp. 1195 (awarding approximately 53% of the settlement as attorneys' fees). California courts routinely approve attorneys' fees awards "average[ing] around one-third of the recovery." Chavez v. Netflix, Inc. (2008) 162 Cal.App.4th 43, 66 n.11 (lower court found the range of contingency fees in marketplace to be 20%-40% and determined such a percentage fee was appropriate).

It should be highlighted that the percentage award sought is commensurate with the time, effort, and expense dedicated to the case, the contingent nature of Plaintiff's Counsel's representation and the risks taken in commencing the case, the skill and determination required, the results that Plaintiff's Counsel has achieved, and the value of the settlement that Plaintiff's Counsel has obtained on behalf of Plaintiff, the Covered Employees, and the State of California. For the reasons discussed herein, an award of attorneys' fees in the amount of 35% of the Gross Settlement Payment is reasonable.

1. Time & Labor

Plaintiff's Counsel has used its experience and skills in litigating complex wage-and-hour actions to bring this matter to a successful conclusion. Prior to commencing this lawsuit, Plaintiff's Counsel conducted a significant amount of investigation into the factual and legal issues, Defendants' business, and their operations and employment policies, practices, and procedures.[43] During the litigation of the case, Plaintiff's Counsel interviewed and obtained information from Plaintiff, Defendants, and other sources, conducted legal research, reviewed and analyzed thousands of pages of documents and data, prepared for and participated in mediation and robust settlement discussions, evaluated the PAGA claim, and calculated the potential monetary recovery under PAGA.[44] Plaintiff's Counsel also met and conferred with Defendants' counsel regarding the pleadings, case management, discovery, arbitration, mediation, and settlement negotiations, among other issues.[45] Plaintiff's Counsel performed other work including, inter alia, case strategy and analysis; and engaging in extensive settlement negotiations.[46]

Plaintiff's Counsel dedicated the full extent of staffing and monetary resources necessary to prosecute the case with maximum efficiency and has fully and actively participated in the litigation process. The Attorney Task and Time Chart, which is attached as "EXHIBIT 4" to the accompanying Declaration of Brian J. St. John, sets forth in detail the hours that Plaintiff's Counsel has spent performing tasks in this matter. Attorneys at Lawyers for Justice, PC have spent 213.10 hours to obtain a recovery on behalf of Plaintiff, the Covered Employees, and the State of California. These hours were required to bring the case to its successful conclusion.

In light of the value of time expended and the carrying of costs involved in this litigation, the requested attorneys' fees award is fair, adequate, and reasonable.

2. The Skill Required to Perform Legal Services Properly

The skill required to properly litigate this case is evident not only in the results achieved, but in the steps necessary to reach the same. Defendants retained highly-respected counsel to represent their defenses. Plaintiff's Counsel's effort and skill were used to, among other things, investigate the allegations and gather facts, research the legal issues, analyze data, documents, and information obtained from Defendants, Plaintiff, and through other sources, to evaluate the PAGA claim and negotiate the settlement. Despite all of the obstacles that had to be overcome, Plaintiff's Counsel used their extensive experience and skill in the handling of complex wage-and-hour matters to advocate for and obtain a recovery now, with maximum efficiency, as opposed to the possibility of recovery in the future, after significant expense and time.[47]

3. Whether the Fee Is Fixed or Contingent

Plaintiff's Counsel has provided representation on a contingency basis, has borne all of the risks and costs of litigation, and will not receive any compensation until recovery is obtained.[48] Plaintiff's Counsel have invested 213.10 hours performing work in this matter. Plaintiff's Counsel is also requesting reimbursement of litigation costs and expenses of $9,285.80.[49] If Plaintiff's Counsel had not been successful, the time that they have devoted to litigating the case would have been for naught and would not have produced any fee or any reimbursement of costs or expenses. Plaintiff's Counsel are well-experienced in complex wage-and-hour litigation and used that experience to obtain a great result in this matter.[50] The skill and determination that Plaintiff's Counsel has shown throughout the prosecution of the case justifies the requested attorneys' fees and costs. Considering the amounts requested, work performed, and risks incurred, the requested fees and costs are reasonable and should be awarded.

4. The Amount Involved and the Results Achieved

The Settlement represents an excellent resolution of this lawsuit, given the uncertainty and risks of further litigation.[51] Had the case not settled, Defendants would have vigorously defended the case, and would have challenged manageability and liability, and also sought a reduction in the amount assessed as civil penalties. Defendants, however, faced risks too, including and not limited to, the risk of trial and the risk of having the Court assess civil penalties. Additionally, preparing for trial would have been extraordinarily expensive for the Parties. At this stage, the settlement is preferred over continued litigation because such resolution saves time and money that would otherwise go to litigation. The risks and expenses of further litigation outweighed any benefit that might have been gained otherwise. The Settlement provides an immediate recovery and avoids an uncertain result in the future and additional risk, expense, and delay (e.g., prolonged expert discovery, trial preparation, and appellate review of those proceedings).

The results achieved, in light of the difficulties inherent in similar cases and the specific difficulties faced in this case, are considerable. Plaintiff's Counsel obtained a settlement that provides for a Gross Settlement Payment of $330,000.00, and it is currently estimated that the Net Settlement Amount available for distribution to the Covered Employees and the State of California is approximately $183,214.20[52]

5. The Reputation and Ability of the Attorneys

Plaintiff's Counsel is a recognized class action and complex litigation law firm, and its attorneys employed their knowledge, skill, and experience to bring the case to a successful conclusion. Plaintiff's Counsel has years of wage-and-hour class action and complex litigation experience, has recovered millions of dollars on behalf of thousands of individuals in California, and has successfully handled numerous significant wage-and-hour class action and representative action cases.[53]

C. The Lodestar Methodology Also Justifies Approval of the Requested Fees.

While the percentage-of-the-benefit approach is endorsed as the better approximation of the workings of the marketplace than the lodestar approach, courts may also use the lodestar method to "cross-check" the results of the other.[54] The lodestar is calculated based on reasonable hours at reasonable prevailing hourly rates for the attorneys, and counsel is entitled to compensation for every hour reasonably spent on the matter. Ketchum v. Moses (2001) 24 Cal.4th 1122, 1131-33.

The reasonableness of hours is assessed by "the entire course of the litigation, including pretrial matters, settlement negotiations, discovery, litigation tactics, and the trial itself[.]" Vo v. Las Virgenes Municipal Water Dist. (2000) 79 Cal.App.4th 440, 447. As set forth above in Part VI. infra, and also discussed in the Declaration of Brian J. St. John, Plaintiff's Counsel performed significant work in this matter. The Attorney Task and Time Chart sets forth in detail the numerous tasks that Plaintiff's Counsel performed in this case, and the time required for completing those tasks.[55] The chart demonstrates that Lawyers for Justice, PC has spent a total of 213.10 hours on this matter, which is reasonable.

Both California and federal courts recognize that attorneys should be compensated for providing representation on a contingency basis and for taking on the risks associated with said representation, and be provided with financial incentives to enforce important rights and protections like those at issue here. See Ketchum, supra, 24 Cal.4th at 1132-33. In awarding attorneys' fees, the aim is to mirror "the established practice in the private legal market of rewarding attorneys for taking the risk of nonpayment by paying them a premium over their normal hourly rates for winning contingency cases." See id.

[53] St. John Decl., ¶¶ 2-7.

[54] Laffitte, supra, 1 Cal.5th at 505 (explaining that "[a] lodestar cross-check is simply a quantitative method for bringing a measure of the time spent by counsel into the trial court's reasonableness determination" and "the lodestar calculation . . . does not override the trial court's primary determination of the fee as a percentage" and "does not impose an absolute maximum or minimum on the potential fee award."); see also, e.g., Vizcaino v. Microsoft Corp., (9th Cir. 2002) 290 F.3d 1043, 1050 ("[W]hile the primary basis of the fee award remains the percentage method, the lodestar may provide a useful perspective on the reasonableness of a given percentage award.").

LAWYERS for JUSTICE, PC

Plaintiff's Counsel has been actively involved in the prosecution of this case and their work on this matter has precluded other employment. Here, Plaintiff's Counsel bore the risk that, despite all of their efforts and skills employed, there may be no recovery. Ultimately, Plaintiff's Counsel was successful in reaching a settlement of $330,000.00.[56]

As set forth in the Declaration of Brian J. St. John, the professional backgrounds and experience of Plaintiff's Counsel support a reasonable blended hourly rate of compensation of at least $850 per hour for services provided by Plaintiff's Counsel.[57] Lawyers for Justice, PC has been awarded attorneys' fees, compensating the firm at the rate of at least $850 for legal services performed, by courts of this state.[58] While the circumstance of every case is unique, the fact remains that the work performed and efforts undertaken by Plaintiff's Counsel in this matter justify the requested attorneys' fees award.

Applying the rate of $850 per hour to 213.10 hours worked by Plaintiffs' Counsel, would place a base lodestar value of $181,135.00 on the services provided by Plaintiffs' Counsel. However, Plaintiff's Counsel only seeks an attorneys' fee award of $115,500.00 (equal to 35% of the Gross Settlement Payment based on the Settlement Agreement).

The lodestar method as a cross-check to the percentage figure sought strongly supports the reasonableness of the requested attorneys' fees. Accordingly, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court approve and grant an attorneys' fees award in the amount of $115,500.00 to Plaintiff's Counsel, which is reasonable and justified on a percentage-basis, and also based on a lodestar cross-check.

VI. REIMBURSEMENT OF PLAINTIFF'S COUNSEL LITIGATION COSTS AND EXPENSES SHOULD BE APPROVED

The Settlement provides for reimbursement of litigation costs and expenses of up to $15,000.00. As set forth in the Declaration of Brian J. St. John, Plaintiff's Counsel seeks reimbursement of $9,285.80 in litigation costs and expenses.[59] These expenses were reasonable and necessary in the prosecution of this matter and to obtain the Settlement.[60] Accordingly, the Court is requested to award reimbursement of litigation costs and expenses to Plaintiff's Counsel in the amount of $9,285.80.

VII. THE SETTLEMENT ADMINISTRATION COSTS SHOULD BE APPROVED

As set forth in the Settlement Agreement, the Parties have agreed to retain, subject to approval by the Court, Phoenix Settlement Administrators to handle the administration of the Settlement. The fees and expenses of the Settlement Administrator are estimated not to exceed $12,000.00. These costs include, but are not limited to, expenses for preparing, translating, printing, and mailing the Cover Letter and individual settlement shares checks to the Covered Employees (i.e., Settlement Package); performing skip-trace searches; re-mailing the returned Settlement Packages; and handling inquiries from Covered Employees regarding the Settlement, among other things. Accordingly, the Court should grant approval of the Settlement Administration Costs in the amount of up to $12,000.00 to Phoenix Class Action Administration Solutions, a necessary third-party for handling the settlement process.

VIII. THE PAGA REPRESENTATIVE PAYMENT SHOULD BE APPROVED

The Settlement provides for a PAGA Representative Payment to be paid to Plaintiff in the amount of $10,000.00 for her PAGA Representative Payment.[61] It is reasonable and just for Plaintiff to receive this payment. Plaintiff contributed considerable time and effort to the litigation of this case in order to enforce the California Labor Code on behalf of the State of California and for the benefit of other Covered Employees. Plaintiff discussed her employment with her counsel, gathered and produced relevant documents and information, and provided the facts and evidence necessary to attempt to prove the allegations.[62] Plaintiff was available whenever her counsel needed her and tried to obtain and provide documents and information that would aid in the litigation of the PAGA claim and pursuit of recovery on behalf of the State

[61] Settlement Agreement, § II.6. The PAGA statute recognizes that a plaintiff employee may pursue or recover other remedies and relief available to the plaintiff employee under state or federal law through an action under PAGA. See, Cal. Lab. Code § 2699(k)(1) (formerly Cal. Lab. Code § 2699(g)(1). As such, it is appropriate for Plaintiff to receive a payment for her broader individual release of claims.

of California and Covered Employees.[63]

IX. CONCLUSION

For the reasons discussed above and in the accompanying declarations, the Court is respectfully requested to approve the Settlement, including the plan of allocation and distribution of the Gross Settlement Payment, and permit the filing of a memorandum that exceeds the page limit.
