PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that on November 13, 2026, at 8:30 a.m., in Department 14 of the above-entitled Court, located at 1200 Aguajito Road, Monterey, California 93940, Plaintiff Rafael Lira Cupa ("Plaintiff" or "Class Representative") will and hereby does move for an order granting final approval of:

1. Making final the Court's previous preliminary certification of the class for settlement purposes, and approving the Joint Stipulation of Settlement and Release of Class Action and PAGA Actions, Amendment No.1 to the Joint Stipulation of Settlement and Release of Class Action and PAGA Actions, and Amendment No. 2 to the Joint Stipulation of Settlement and Release of Class Action and PAGA Actions (collectively, "Settlement," "Agreement," or "Settlement Agreement"), on the grounds that the Settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable because, inter alia:

- A Net Settlement Amount of approximately $536,884.79 will be fully distributed to the Settlement Class Members who do not submit a timely and valid Opt-Out ("Participating Settlement Class Member"); and
- No Objections were submitted to the settlement administrator, Apex Class Action Administration, LLC ("Apex" or "Settlement Administrator");
- One (1) Opt-Out was submitted to Apex by Settlement Class Member Susan Ajeska.

2. Awarding payment in the amount of $438,333.33 to Lawyers for Justice, PC ("Class Counsel"), representing one-third (1/3) of the Gross Settlement Amount, for attorneys' fees, which is reasonable and justified on a percentage-basis and also based on a lodestar cross-check;

3. Awarding payment in the amount of $13,791.88 to Class Counsel for reimbursement of litigation costs and expenses;

4. Awarding payment in the amount of $15,990.00 to the Settlement Administrator for Administration Expenses;

5. Awarding payment in the amount of $10,000.00 to Plaintiff Rafael Lira Cupa, as an Enhancement Payment; and

6. Approving the allocation of the penalties under the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, California Labor Code § 2698, et seq. ("PAGA"), in the amount of $300,000.00 ("PAGA Payment"), of which 75%, or $225,000.00, will be paid to the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency ("LWDA") ("LWDA Payment") and 25%, or $75,000.00 will be distributed to PAGA Members on a pro rata basis, based on Pay Periods during the PAGA Period ("Individual PAGA Payment").

This motion is made pursuant to Rules 3.764, 3.769, and 3.1113(e) of the California Rules of Court, which, respectively, require that a memorandum in support of class certification not exceed 20 pages, require approval by the Court of a class action settlement, and permit the Court to extend the page limit for memoranda, and California Labor Code section 2699(l)(2), which requires approval by the Court of a PAGA settlement. Unless otherwise specified, all citations and references to the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, California Labor Code sections 2698, et seq. ("PAGA") are to the version of that statute prior to the recent amendment effective July 1, 2024; the amended statute does not apply to the Action, or the Settlement pursuant to California Labor Code section 2699(v)(1), as amended, because the notice to the Labor and Workforce Development Agency was filed prior to June 19, 2024.

This motion is based upon the following Memorandum of Points and Authorities; the Declarations of Class Counsel (Yasmin Hosseini), Class Representative (Rafael Lira Cupa), and Settlement Administrator (Beth Paris of Apex) in support thereof; the pleadings and other records on file with the Court in this matter; and such evidence and oral argument as may be presented at the hearing on this motion.

MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I. SUMMARY OF MOTION

Plaintiff Rafael Lira Cupa ("Plaintiff" or "Class Representative") seeks final approval of: (1) the settlement reached between Plaintiff and Defendant organicgirl, LLC ("Defendant") (together with Plaintiff, the "Parties") which provides for Defendant's payment of a Gross Settlement Amount of $1,315,000.00; (2) attorneys' fees in the amount of $438,333.33, which is thirty-three point three three percent (33.33%) of the Gross Settlement Amount, and reimbursement of litigation costs and expenses in the amount of $13,791.88 (together, referred to as the "Class Counsel's Attorneys' Fees and Expenses") to Lawyers for Justice, PC ("Class Counsel"); (3) payment in the amount of $15,990.00 to Apex Class Action Administration, LCC ("Settlement Administration Costs"); (4) payment in the amount of $10,000.00 to Plaintiff Rafael Lira Cupa ("Enhancement Payment"); and (5) allocation of $300,000.00 for penalties under the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, California Labor Code § 2698, et seq. ("PAGA Amount").[1]

Plaintiff requests that the Court make final its preliminary certification of the class for settlement purposes. The Settlement resolves the Released Class Claims and provides relief to a class consisting of the following individuals: all current and former hourly-paid employees who worked for Defendant within the State of California at any time during the Class Period (i.e., the time period of November 15, 2019, through December 31, 2024) ("Settlement Class" or "Settlement Class Members").[2]

The Settlement also resolves the Released PAGA Claims pertaining to the employment of the following alleged aggrieved employees: all current and former hourly-paid employees who worked for Defendant within the State of California at any time during the PAGA Period (i.e., the time period of September 8, 2022, through December 31, 2024) ("PAGA Members").[3]

[1] Joint Stipulation of Settlement and Release of Class Action and PAGA Actions, Amendment No.1 to the Joint Stipulation of Settlement and Release of Class Action and PAGA Actions, and Amendment No. 2 to the Joint Stipulation of Settlement and Release of Class Action and PAGA Actions (collectively, "Settlement," "Agreement," or "Settlement Agreement"), §§ 5.1, 5.6, 5.9, & 6.1.
[2] Id.., §§ 1.33 & 1.39.
[3] Id., §§ 1.25 & 1.34

This matter involved, and the settlement is the product of meaningful and extensive investigations, and review and analysis of a volume of information, documents, and data exchanged by the Parties in the course of litigation and mediation and settlement negotiations (which involved one full day mediation conducted by Daniel J. Turner, Esq.).[4]

This case has required 326 hours of attorney time by Class Counsel.[5] As will be demonstrated herein, the request for attorneys' fees, which represents one-third (1/3) of the Gross Settlement Amount, is fully supported by the use of the percentage-fee method. Courts have historically awarded fees of up to fifty percent (50%) of the recovery. The requested attorneys' fees are also supported under the lodestar cross-check method.[6]

The requests for Class Counsel's Attorneys' Fees and Expenses, Enhancement Payment, Administration Expenses, and allocation for the PAGA Payment were fully disclosed in the Notice of Class Action Settlement ("Notice Packet") that was mailed to the Settlement Class Members. Most importantly, as of the date of this Motion, no Settlement Class Member has objected to the Settlement or to the contemplated Class Counsel's Attorneys' Fees and Costs, Enhancement Payment, Administration Expenses, or allocation for the PAGA Payment.

The Settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable, and is the product of arm's-length, good-faith negotiations by experienced counsel presided over by a highly regarded mediator who is experienced in mediating wage-and-hour class action lawsuits. Accordingly, the Court should grant final approval of the Settlement, and award the Class Counsel's Attorneys' Fees and Expenses, Enhancement Payment, Administration Expenses, and allocation for the PAGA Payment in the full amounts requested herein.

In order to efficiently present the Court with adequate information to determine whether to grant final approval of the Settlement, and award Class Counsel's Attorneys' Fees and Expenses, Enhancement Payment, Administration Expenses, and allocation for the PAGA Payment, Plaintiff also moves for an order permitting the filing of this single consolidated memorandum, although it exceeds the page limit established by California Rules of Court, Rule 3.764, instead of filing several separate motions.

II. RELEVANT PROCEDURAL HISTORY AND FACTUAL BACKGROUND SINCE PRELIMINARY APPROVAL

For a discussion of relevant procedural history and facts regarding this matter since preliminary approval, please see the Declaration of Yasmin Hosseini at paragraphs 2 to 4.

III. THE CLASS SHOULD BE CERTIFIED FOR SETTLEMENT PURPOSES

For the reasons previously addressed by way of Plaintiff's moving and supporting papers for the Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action Settlement (namely, that the relevant class certification factors are satisfied, i.e., ascertainability, numerosity, community of interest, typicality, adequacy of representation, superiority, and manageability), as well as the reasons discussed herein regarding the completion of the due process notice procedure, the Court is requested to now make final its preliminary certification of the class for settlement purposes.

IV. SUMMARY OF THE SETTLEMENT TERMS, NOTICE PROCESS, AND PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

Under the terms of the Settlement Agreement, Defendant has agreed to pay a Gross Settlement Amount of $1,315,000.00 on a non-reversionary basis,[7] and separately the amounts necessary to pay Defendant's share of corporate, federal, state, or local payroll taxes, including those collected under authority of the Federal Insurance Contributions Act ("FICA"), FUTA and/or SUTA on the portion of the Participating Settlement Class Member's Individual Settlement Payment that constitutes wages ("Employer Taxes"). Within fourteen calendar (14) days (or the next available business day if the 14th day occurs on a weekend) of the Effective Date, Defendant shall transmit the Gross Settlement Amount and the Employer's Taxes to the Settlement Administrator.[8] Subject to approval by the Court, the Net Settlement Amount will be calculated by deducting the Class Counsel's Attorneys' Fees and Expenses, Enhancement Payment, Administration Expenses, and PAGA Payment.[9] The Net Settlement Amount, which is estimated to be $536,884.79, will be fully distributed to Participating Settlement Class Members in accordance with the Settlement Agreement.[10] The PAGA Payment of $300,000.00 will be distributed to the Labor and Workforce Development Agency ("LWDA") (in the amount of $225,000.00) and to the PAGA Members (in the amount of $75,000.00) in accordance with the Settlement Agreement.[11]

Apex Class Action Administration, LLC ("Settlement Administrator" or "Apex") will determine each Participating Settlement Class Member's (i.e., Settlement Class Members who did not timely opt out of the Class Settlement) pro rata share of the Net Settlement Amount ("Individual Settlement Payments")[12], according to the following methodology: the Settlement Administrator will divide each Participating Settlement Class Member's individual number of Workweeks credited during the Class Period by the total number of Workweeks credited to all Participating Class members during the Class Period, and will then multiply the result by the Net Settlement Amount.[13]

The Settlement Administrator will calculate each PAGA Members' pro rata share of the 25% portion of the PAGA Payment ("Individual PAGA Payment") as follows: the Administrator will divide the amount of the PAGA Members' 25% share of the PAGA Payment (i.e., $75,000) by the total number of Pay Periods credited to all PAGA Members during the PAGA Period, and multiply the result by each PAGA Member's individual number of Pay Periods credited during the PAGA Period to arrive at each PAGA Member's estimated individual PAGA Payment that he or she may be eligible to receive under the PAGA Settlement.

Settlement Class Members had sixty (60) calendar days from the initial mailing of the Notice Packet ("Response Deadline") to dispute the number of Workweeks and/or Pay Periods credited to each of them, opt out of the Class Settlement, and/or object to the Settlement.[14] The [10] This amount is higher than the amount stated in Paragraph 16 of the accompanying Apex Decl., because the Settlement Administrator's calculation assumes that Class Counsel will obtain litigation costs and expenses in the maximum amount of $16,000.00, which is allocated under the Settlement. However, Class Counsel seeks the amount of only $13,791.88 for reimbursement of litigation costs and expenses, and the difference of $2,208.12 will remain part of the Net Settlement Amount.

Response Deadline was August 7, 2026, and the extended Response Deadline was August 24, 2026, for Settlement Class Members who were re-mailed the Notice Packet.[15] As of the date of this motion, the Settlement Administrator has received one (1) written requests for exclusion from the Class Settlement ("Opt-Out") and zero (0) written objections to the Class Settlement ("Objection") from Settlement Class Members.[16]

Each Individual Class Payment will be allocated as follows: twenty percent (20%) to wages which will be reported on an IRS Form W-2; forty percent (40%) to interest which will be reported on an IRS Form 1099; and the remaining forty percent (40%) to penalties which will be reported on an IRS Form 1099.[17] The Settlement Administrator will withhold the employee's share of taxes and withholdings with respect to the wages portion of the Individual Settlement Payment, and issue checks to Participating Settlement Class Members for their Individual Class Payments (i.e., payment of their Individual Settlement Payment net of these taxes and withholdings).[18] Defendant will fund, and the Settlement Administrator will pay and compute, the employer's share of payroll taxes and contributions with respect to the wage portion of Individual Class Payments (i.e., Employer's Taxes) in addition to the Gross Settlement Amount.[19] The Individual PAGA Payments will be allocated as one hundred percent (100%) penalties and will be reported on an IRS Form-1099. [20]

The Administrator shall distribute the following payments: Within twenty-eight (28) calendar days of the Effective Date, the Settlement Administrator will calculate and pay the following: Individual Class Payments to Participating Settlement Class Members, the Court-awarded Class Counsel's Attorneys' Fees and Expenses to Class Counsel, the Court-awarded Enhancement Payment to Plaintiff, the Court-approved Individual PAGA Payment checks to PAGA Members, the Court-approved LWDA Payment to the LWDA, and the Court-awarded Administration Expenses to itself.[21]

Individual Class Payment and Individual PAGA Payment checks will be valid and negotiable for one hundred eighty (180) calendar days from the date the checks are mailed, and thereafter, shall be canceled.[22] The funds associated with such canceled checks will be distributed by the Administrator to the cy pres recipient, Bay Area Legal Aid (BayLegal), 1735 Telegraph Avenue, Oakland, California 94612.[23] All Participating Settlement Class Members and PAGA Members shall be bound by the terms and conditions of this Settlement Agreement regardless of whether or not they cash or otherwise negotiate their Individual Class Payment and/or Individual PAGA Payment checks.[24]

V. THE SETTLEMENT ADMINISTRATION PROCESS

The Court directed Apex to administer and effectuate the notice and settlement administration process, as set forth in the Court's May 12, 2026 Preliminary Approval Order. On May 28, 2026, Apex received a mailing list from Defendant's counsel that contained each Settlement Class Members' and PAGA Members' last known full name, last known mailing address, telephone numbers, Social Security Number, total number of relevant Workweeks for the Class Period, and total number of Pay Periods worked during the PAGA Period, and such other information as was necessary for Apex to calculate Workweeks and/or Pay Periods during the Class Period (collectively, "Class List and Data").[25]

The Class List and Data contained information for 1,570 individuals identified as Settlement Class Members and 972 individuals identified as PAGA Members, for a total of 1,582 individuals.[26] Apex reviewed and cleansed the data for duplicates, discrepancies, and potential omissions. Apex identified discrepancies in the number of Workweeks and PAGA Pay Periods, including duplicate records, and sought clarification from Defendant before finalizing the Class List and Data. The final Class List and Data consisted of 1,570 individuals identified as Settlement Class Members and 968 individuals identified as PAGA Members, for a total of 1,570 individuals.[27] The mailing addresses contained in the Class List and Data were verified and updated utilizing the U.S. Postal Service's National Change of Address Database ("NCOA").[28]

On June 8, 2026, Apex mailed the Notice Packet via U.S. first class mail to all 1,570 individuals identified as Settlement Class Members and/or PAGA Members in the Class List and Data.[29]

A total of 148 Notice Packets were returned as undeliverable to Apex. Apex performed a skip-trace search on the 148 Notice Packets that were returned to Apex to obtain updated addresses for remailing the Notice Packets. The skip-trace effort located an updated address for 111 Settlement Class Members, and Apex promptly re-mailed the Notice Packet to the updated addresses.[30] There are 33 mailed Notice Packets that remain undeliverable.[31]

The Administrator has received zero (0) Objections, one (1) Request for Exclusion, and zero (0) disputes from Settlement Class Members by the Response Deadline of August 7, 2026 or the extended Response Deadline of August 24, 2026 for those Notice Packets that were re-mailed.[32]

To date, there are 1,569 Settlement Class Members who did not submit a timely and valid Request for Exclusion ("Participating Settlement Class Members"), and who will be paid their portion of the Net Settlement Amount. The Net Settlement Amount of approximately $536,884.79 and the PAGA Payment of $300,000.00 will be distributed in accordance with the terms of the Settlement.[33]

VI. THE COURT SHOULD GRANT FINAL APPROVAL OF THE CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT.

In reviewing a class settlement, the court need not reach any ultimate conclusions on the issues of fact and law that underlie the merits of the dispute. 7-Eleven Owners for Fair Franchising v. Southland Corp. (2000) 85 Cal.App.4th 1135, 1146. The inquiry is not whether the settlement agreement is the best one that class members could have possibly obtained, but whether the settlement, taken as a whole, is "fair, adequate, and reasonable"—and the trial court has broad discretion to determine this. Chavez v. Netflix, Inc. (2008) 162 Cal.App.4th 43, 52-55. A settlement need not obtain 100 percent of the damages sought in order to be fair, reasonable, and ultimately, meaningful. Wershba v. Apple Computer, Inc. (2001) 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 251. Even if the proposed settlement affords relief that is substantially narrower than it would be if the case were to be successfully litigated, that is no bar to a class settlement because the public interest may indeed be served by a voluntary settlement in which each side gives ground in the interest of avoiding prolonged litigation. Id.

To determine whether the settlement is fair and reasonable, relevant factors to consider are:

> the strength of plaintiffs' case, the risk, expense, complexity and likely duration of further litigation, the risk of maintaining class action status through trial, the amount offered in settlement, the extent of discovery completed and the stage of the proceedings, the experience and views of counsel, the presence of a governmental participant, and the reaction of the class members to the proposed settlement.

Dunk v. Ford Motor Co. (1996) 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1801. The list of factors is not exclusive and the court can consider different factors based on the circumstances of each case." Wershba at 245. At the final approval stage, a presumption of fairness exists where, as here:

> "(1) the settlement is reached through arm's-length bargaining; (2) investigation and discovery are sufficient to allow counsel and the court to act intelligently; (3) counsel is experienced in similar litigation; and (4) the percentage of objectors is small."

Id. at 1802. "Due regard should be given to what is otherwise a private consensual agreement between the parties." Dunk at 1801.

A. The Settlement Resulted from Arm's-Length Negotiations Based Upon Extensive Investigation and Formal and Informal Discovery.

The Parties actively litigated the case since the initial complaint was filed on November 15, 2023. Class Counsel conducted significant investigation, and extensive formal and informal discovery into the facts of the case, to assess the veracity, strength, and scope of the claims, and was preparing for class certification and trial prior to reaching the Settlement.[34]

[34] Hosseini Decl., ¶ 7.

The Parties formally and informally exchanged a volume of information, documents, and data throughout the course of the litigation and in connection with the mediations and settlement negotiations.[35] Class Counsel informally exchanged a volume of information, documents, and data obtained from Plaintiff, Defendant, and other sources, including: employment records of Plaintiff, a detailed sampling of Plaintiff's, Settlement Class Members', and PAGA Members' timekeeping, payroll, and reimbursement data, Defendant's Employee Handbook and wage and hour policies (including, but not limited to, Defendant's California Meal Periods Policy and Rest Periods Policy, Overtime Policy, Dress Code Policy, Expenses Policy, and Timekeeping Policy), earning statements, company policy acknowledgments and forms (including, but not limited to, Defendant's Handbook/Policy Employee Acknowledgment, Employee Acknowledgement of Receipt of the Meal Periods Policy and Rest Periods Policy, First Meal Period Waiver Form, and Second Meal Period Waiver Form), internal memorandum, job descriptions, and other operations and employment policies, practices, and procedures documents, among other information and documents.[36] Class Counsel had the opportunity to interview Plaintiff and other percipient witnesses.[37] Class Counsel developed liability, damages, and penalties valuation models in the course of litigation and in connection with the mediation and settlement negotiations, and met and conferred with Defendant's counsel on numerous occasions, e.g., to discuss issues relating to the pleadings, case management, motion practice, and production of information, documents, and data in the course of litigation and in connection with the mediation and settlement negotiations, and settlement.[38] Other work performed by Class Counsel included, and was not limited to, case strategy and analysis; researching, drafting, reviewing, and/or revising the pleadings, motion-related papers, the mediation briefing and supporting materials, and settlement documents; drafting and propounding multiple sets of formal written discovery requests on Defendant; reviewing Defendant's responses and objections to written discovery requests and deposition notices, and preparing for and taking the deposition of Defendant's person most knowledgeable;

and preparing for and attending court proceedings, mediation, and settlement negotiations, among other tasks.[39]

The Parties participated in a formal, full-day mediation conducted by Daniel J. Turner, Esq. ("Mediator"), who is well-regarded mediator experienced in mediating complex labor and employment matters.[40] In the course of mediation and settlement negotiations, the Parties exchanged information, documents, and data and discussed all aspects of the case, including and not limited to, the risks and delays of further litigation, the risks and expenses to the Parties of proceeding with class certification, representative adjudication, and trial; the law relating to class certification, manageability, off-the-clock theory, regular rates of pay, meal and rest periods (including inter alia, on premises breaks), business expense reimbursements, recordkeeping and wage statement requirements, arbitration agreements, representative PAGA claims and penalties, and wage-and-hour law and enforcement; Plaintiff's claims and allegations, and Defendant's defenses thereto, as well as the evidence produced and analyzed; and the possibility of appeals, among other things.[41] During all settlement discussions, the Parties conducted their negotiations at arm's length in an adversarial position.[42] Arriving at a settlement that was acceptable to the Parties was not easy.[43] Defendant and its counsel felt very strongly about Defendant's ability to prevail on the merits and to avoid class certification and representative adjudication and prevail on the merits, while, Plaintiff and Class Counsel believed that they would be able to obtain class certification and prevail at trial.[44] After conducting significant formal and informal discovery and investigations, extensive settlement negotiations, and with the aid of the Mediator's evaluation, the Parties agreed that this matter was well-suited for settlement given the legal issues relating to Plaintiff's principal claims, as well as the costs and risks to the Parties that would attend further litigation.[45]

The Settlement takes into account the strengths and weaknesses of each side's position and the uncertainty of how this matter might have concluded at certification, trial, and/or appeals.[46] The Settlement was based on a volume of facts, evidence, and investigation.[47] Additionally, Class Counsel has extensive experience in handling complex wage-and-hour actions, including significant experience in employment class action litigation.[48]

B. The Risks Inherent in Continued Litigation Favor Final Approval of the Settlement.

The risks inherent in litigating the claims through certification proceedings, trial, and/or appeals, favor resolving this matter for a Gross Settlement Amount of $1,315,000.00.[49] The Settlement was calculated using information and data uncovered through extensive case investigation, formal and informal discovery, and the exchange of information in the context of litigation, mediation, and ongoing settlement negotiations.[50] Had the action not settled, Defendant would have vigorously challenged class certification, manageability, and liability. Defendant contended that individualized questions of fact predominated over any common issues, and these issues would pose challenges to certification and representative adjudication. Defendant would have likely argued again at trial, if any, that Plaintiff's claims were not appropriate for class-wide and/or representative adjudication. On the other hand, Defendant also faced the risk of the Court certifying a class and allowing a jury to decide Plaintiff's claims on a class-wide or representative basis. Also, preparation for trial would have been expensive for all Parties.

It is preferable to reach an early resolution of a dispute because such resolutions save time and money that would otherwise go to litigation. If this matter had settled after further litigation, the settlement amount would have taken into account the additional costs incurred, and there might have been less money available for Settlement Class Members, PAGA Members, and the State of California after all was said and done. This is not just an abstract contention. The risks and expenses of further litigation outweighed any benefit that might have been gained otherwise. These risks of further litigation include a determination that the claims were unsuitable for class treatment and/or representative adjudication, failure to obtain certification, class de-certification after certification of a class, allowing a jury to decide the claims asserted in this matter, and the real possibility of no recovery after years of litigation. Additionally, the Parties were moving into the phase of the litigation where they would have to conduct a significant amount of additional discovery, including and not limited to, additional depositions of Defendant's Person Most Knowledgeable designees, expert witnesses, and percipient witnesses, such as managers, supervisors, and other current and former employees throughout the State of California. Additional discovery would have certainly arisen, which would have cost the Parties additional time and money. In contrast, the Settlement provides real and significant benefits for the Settlement Class, PAGA Members, and the State of California here and now, while avoiding the further expenses, risks, and delay of prolonged litigation with only the possibility of recovery.

It would be grossly inefficient for such a large class of current and former employees to bring individual actions to recover from Defendant for the alleged violations of wage-and-hour laws. Moreover, the potential individual recovery that could be obtained by a Settlement Class Member would not be significant enough to provide him or her with the incentive to sue. By granting final approval of the Settlement, the Court can approve a resolution that provides a certain and substantial recovery for Settlement Class Members, PAGA Members, and the State of California.

C. The Settlement Is Fair, Reasonable, and Adequate.

The Settlement, which provides for a Gross Settlement Amount of $1,315,000.00, represents a fair, reasonable, and adequate resolution of this matter. The Settlement was calculated using information and data uncovered through extensive case investigation, formal and informal discovery, and the exchange of information in the context of litigation, mediation, and extensive settlement negotiations. The Settlement takes into account the potential risks and rewards inherent in any case and, in particular, in this matter. Moreover, considering the facts in this matter, the Gross Settlement Amount represents a considerable recovery.

LAWYERS for JUSTICE, PC
450 North Brand Blvd., Suite 900
Glendale, California 91203

The Gross Settlement Amount will be fully paid out, in accordance with the terms of the Settlement. As discussed in Section IV, supra, each Participating Settlement Class Member will be paid a pro rata share of the Net Settlement Amount (which is currently estimated to be $536,884.79), based on the number of Workweeks credited to them during the Class Period, in relation to the number of Workweeks worked by all Participating Settlement Class Members, and each PAGA Member will be paid a pro rata share of the 25% share of the PAGA Payment (i.e.,$75,000), based on their tenure with Defendant, i.e., the Pay Period total, in relation to the number of PAGA Periods worked by all PAGA Members.[51] The highest Individual Class Payment to a Participating Settlement Class Member is currently estimated to be $1,396.78 and the average Individual Class Payment is currently estimated to be $340.78.[52] The highest Individual PAGA Payment to a PAGA Member is current estimated to be $180.42 and the average Individual PAGA Payment is currently estimated to be $77.48.[53] These are significant individual recoveries, particularly in light of the risks of litigation.

Class Counsel believes that the Settlement as a whole is fair, reasonable, and adequate.[54] Although Class Counsel's recommendations are not conclusive, the Court can properly take the recommendations into account, particularly if Class Counsel appears to be competent, has experience with this type of litigation, and significant discovery and investigation have been completed, as is the case here. Conte & Newberg, Newberg on Class Actions (4th Ed., 2002) § 11.47. Accordingly, the Court should grant final approval of the Settlement.

D. The Class Was Represented by Competent Counsel.

Class Counsel has extensive experience in employment class action law and complex wage-and-hour litigation.[55] Lawyers for Justice, PC has been appointed class counsel in numerous complex wage-and-hour cases, and has recovered millions of dollars for individuals in California.[56] Both Parties' counsel were capable of assessing the strengths and weaknesses of the Settlement Class Members' claims against Defendant and the benefits of the Settlement under the circumstances of the lawsuit and in the context of a private, consensual settlement agreement.

E. There Are No Written Objections to the Class Settlement.

The Settlement has been well received by the Class – not a single Settlement Class Member objected to the.[57] Specifically, no objections have been made as to the Gross Settlement Amount or contemplated Class Counsel's Attorneys' Fees and Expenses, Enhancement Payment, Administration Expenses, and allocation for the PAGA Payment. California courts have consistently found that a small number of objectors indicates support for a settlement and strongly favors final approval.[58]

Here, the lack of any objections speaks volumes about the fairness, reasonableness, and adequacy of this Settlement. Accordingly, the Settlement as a whole is presumed to be fair, reasonable, and adequate, and the Court should grant final approval of the Settlement in its entirety. Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th at 1802.

VII. THE CLASS COUNSEL'S ATTORNEYS' FEES REQUESTED SHOULD BE APPROVED.

A. A Fee Award of a Percentage of the Entire Fund Is Appropriate.

Under the terms of the Settlement Agreement, Defendant will pay a Gross Settlement Amount of $1,315,000.00.[59] The requested attorneys' fees are one-third (1/3) (i.e., $438,333.33) of the total value of the monetary settlement.[60] In light of Class Counsel's successful prosecution and resolution of this matter, the requested attorneys' fees are appropriate and reasonable.

Where the amount of a settlement is a "certain easily calculable sum of money," California courts may calculate attorneys' fees as a reasonable percentage of the settlement. Weil and Brown, California Practice Guide, Civil Procedure Before Trial, Chapter 14, § 14:145; In re Bluetooth Headset Prods. Liab. Litig. (9th Cir. 2011) 654 F.3d 935, 942 (The percentage method is particularly appropriate where a monetary settlement has been recovered and "the benefit [recovered can be] easily quantified."); see also Laffitte v. Robert Half Int'l Inc. (2016) 1 Cal.5th 480, 503; Dunk at 1808. Courts may calculate and award attorneys' fees as a percentage of a monetary fund that has, by litigation, been preserved or recovered for the benefit of others. Laffitte at 486 & 506. Trial courts "retain the discretion to forgo a lodestar cross-check and [may] use other means to evaluate the reasonableness of a requested percentage fee." Id. (internal quotes omitted); see also Wershba, supra, 91 Cal.App. 4th at 253.

Courts award fees as an economic incentive for lawyers to pursue litigation that will enhance and facilitate access to the judicial system for meritorious claims, deter wrongdoing, and address multiple similar alleged wrongs that would not be economically feasible to pursue individually, such as here. See A. Conte, Attorney Fee Awards (2d ed. 1993) 104, at 6.

The percentage fee method is preferred in representative actions because "it better approximates the workings of the marketplace than the lodestar approach." Lealao v. Beneficial Cal., Inc. (2000) 82 Cal.App.4th 19, 49. California law provides that the award for attorneys' fees should be equivalent to fees freely negotiated in the legal marketplace and paid in comparable litigation based on the result achieved and risk incurred. Id. at 47-50; Laffitte at 503. In cases where the settlement agreement provides that the defendant will pay the plaintiff's attorneys a percentage of the fund created by the settlement, use of that percentage method is appropriate. Lealao at 32. Fee awards that are too small will "chill the private enforcement essential to the vindication of many legal rights and obstruct the representative actions that often relieve the courts of the need to separately adjudicate numerous claims." Id. at 53. Therefore, fees in representative actions should approximate the probable terms of a contingent fee contract negotiated by a sophisticated attorney and client in comparable litigation. Id. at 48. "The ultimate goal . . . is the award of a 'reasonable' fee to compensate counsel for their efforts, irrespective of the method of calculation." Consumer Privacy Cases (2009) 175 Cal.App.4th 545, 557-58 (quoting Apple Computer, Inc. v. Superior Court (2005) 126 Cal.App.4th, 1253, 1270).

Class Counsel's application for attorneys' fees in light of the facts and circumstances surrounding the case is well-within the range of reasonableness. Courts have awarded fees as high as 50% of the settlement in complex actions, depending on the circumstances of the case.[61]

Class Counsel has performed significant work in this matter, as discussed in the Declaration of Yasmin Hosseini, with the very real possibility of an unsuccessful outcome and no fee recovery of any kind.[62] In the present matter, Class Counsel has borne all of the risks and costs of litigation and will not receive any compensation until recovery is obtained.[63] Class Counsel is experienced in complex wage-and-hour litigation and used that experience to obtain a significant settlement recovery for Plaintiff, the Settlement Class, PAGA Members, and the State of California.[64] Considering the amount of fees requested, work performed, risks incurred, results obtained, and experience of Class Counsel in handling similar matters, Plaintiff maintains that the requested attorneys' fees are reasonable and should be awarded.

Compensating class counsel in class litigation on a percentage basis, as requested herein, makes good sense because: (1) it is consistent with the private marketplace where contingent fee attorneys are customarily compensated on such a basis; (2) it aligns the interests of class counsel and absent class members in achieving the maximum possible resolution of the case; and (3) it encourages the most efficient and expeditious resolution of the litigation by providing an incentive for early, yet reasonable, settlement. The attorney fee request here satisfies all of these factors and should be approved on a percentage basis.

[61] See In re Ampicillin Antitrust Litig. (D.D.C. 1981) 526 F.Supp. 494 (awarding attorneys' fees in the amount of 45% of the $7.3 million total settlement amount); Beech Cinema, Inc. v. Twentieth-Century Fox Film Corp. (S.D.N.Y. 1979) 480 F.Supp. 1195 (awarding approximately 53% of the settlement as attorneys' fees). California courts routinely approve attorneys' fees awards "average[ing] around one-third of the recovery." Chavez v. Netflix, Inc. (2008) 162 Cal.App.4th 43, 66 n.11 (lower court found the range of contingency fees in marketplace to be 20%-40% and determined such a percentage fee was appropriate).

The percentage method is consistent with, and is intended to mirror, the practice in the private marketplace where contingent-fee attorneys typically negotiate percentage-fee arrangements with their clients. The named plaintiff's agreement to pay a contingent fee is powerful evidence of a reasonable fee. One of the best ways to demonstrate the value of counsel's work to the class is to review the consideration agreed to be paid by the named plaintiff. If the named plaintiff has employed counsel on a contingency-fee basis, it would indeed be inequitable for the members of the class, who will enjoy the benefits of the settlement without incurring the risks of bringing the claim, to pay less than the named plaintiff. In this case, Plaintiff has agreed to a contingency fee agreement of at least one-third (1/3) of the recovery.[65]

Class Counsel has obtained a substantial recovery on behalf of Plaintiff, the Settlement Class, PAGA Members, and the State of California and the results achieved justify an attorneys' fees award that is the equivalent of the standard market fee and that is consistent with the contingency-fee agreement entered into by and between Plaintiff and Class Counsel. Thus, the requested attorneys' fees are appropriate.

B. The Class Counsel's Attorneys' Fees Requested Are Reasonable Based on the Factors Considered in Determination of Fee Awards.

The factors which courts consider in determining whether fee awards are reasonable, all of which support the fee award requested by Class Counsel, are: the time and labor required; the novelty and difficulty of the questions involved; the skill requisite to perform the legal services properly; the preclusion of other employment by the attorney due to the acceptance of the case; the customary fee; whether the fee is fixed or contingent; the time limitation imposed by the client or the circumstances; the amount involved and results obtained; the experience, reputation, and ability of the attorney; the undesirability of the case; the nature and length of the professional relationship with the client; and awards in similar cases. Camden I Condominium Association, Inc. v. Dunkel (11th Cir. 1991) 946 F.2d 768, 772. Some of the most relevant factors to this Court's fee determination will be addressed below.

[65] Hosseini Decl., ¶ 10.

The award of attorneys' fees in the amount of $438,333.33 (which is 1/3 of the Gross Settlement Amount) is commensurate with the time, effort, and expense dedicated to this matter, the contingent nature of Class Counsel's fee recovery and the risks taken, the skill and determination required, the results that Class Counsel has achieved, and the value of the settlement that Class Counsel has obtained in this matter.

1. Time & Labor.

Class Counsel used its experience and skills, and dedicated the full extent of resources, to litigate and bring this matter to a successful conclusion.[66]

As outlined in the Declaration of Yasmin Hosseini, Class Counsel has fully and actively participated in litigation of this matter.[67] Prior to commencing the lawsuit, Class Counsel had conducted a significant amount of investigation into the factual and legal issues, Defendant's business and its operations, and employment policies, practices, and procedures.[68] During the litigation of this matter, Class Counsel had the opportunity to interview Plaintiff and other percipient witnesses; reviewed and analyzed a volume of information, documents and data obtained from Defendant, Plaintiff, and other sources; and prepared liability, damages, penalties, and valuation calculations.[69] Class Counsel also met and conferred with Defendant's counsel on numerous occasions e.g., to discuss issues relating to the pleadings, case management, motion practice, formal and informal discovery, and the production of information, documents and data among other things, and prepared for and attended court proceedings, mediation, and settlement negotiations.[70]

Counsel has dedicated staffing and monetary resources necessary to prosecute this matter diligently and with maximum efficiency and has fully and actively participated in the litigation process.[71] The Attorney Task and Time Chart, which is attached as "EXHIBIT 1" to the accompanying Declaration of Yasmin Hosseini, sets forth in detail the hours that attorneys at Lawyers for Justice, PC have spent performing tasks in this matter.[72] Class Counsel has spent 326 hours performing tasks and to obtain a significant recovery in this matter.[73] These hours were required to bring this matter to its successful conclusion. In light of the value of Class Counsel's work and the carrying of costs involved in litigating this matter, the requested attorneys' fees are fair, adequate, and reasonable.

2. The Skill Required to Perform Legal Services Properly.

The skill required to properly litigate this matter is evident from the results achieved, the steps necessary to reach those results, and that Defendant retained well-respected counsel to represent it.

Class Counsel exercised its skill to perform significant investigation, analysis, and research prior to filing the case, during the litigation, and prior to and during the mediation and settlement negotiations. Class Counsel took steps to prepare the matter for class certification and representative adjudication and had every intention of taking this matter to trial on a class-wide basis if Defendant did not offer an appropriate class-wide settlement. Despite all of the obstacles that had to be overcome, as demonstrated in the Declaration of Yasmin Hosseini, Class Counsel used its extensive experience in the handling of class actions and complex wage-and-hour matters in order to obtain the Settlement with maximum efficiency.[74]

3. Whether the Fee Is Fixed or Contingent.

Plaintiff entered into a contingency fee agreement with Class Counsel, and the representation of the Settlement Class provided by Class Counsel has been wholly contingent.[75] Class Counsel has invested 326 hours of time to obtain relief on behalf of Plaintiff, the Settlement Class, PAGA Members, and the State of California.[76] Class Counsel has also incurred litigation costs and expenses in the amount of $13,791.88.[77] Thus, Class Counsel has borne all of the risks and costs of litigation and will not receive any compensation until recovery is obtained.[78]

In determining the reasonableness of a fee award in a class action settlement, whether or not representation is provided on a contingency basis is an important factor:

> A contingent fee must be higher than a fee for the same legal services paid as they are performed. The contingent fee compensates the lawyer not only for the legal services he renders but for the loan of those services. A lawyer who both bears the risk of not being paid and provides legal services is not receiving the fair market value of his work if he is paid only for the second of these functions. If he is paid no more, competent counsel will be reluctant to accept fee award cases.

Cates v. Chiang (2013) 213 Cal.App.4th 791, 823 (internal quotes and citations omitted). Class Counsel litigated this matter on a contingent basis with all of the concomitant risk factors inherent in such an uncertain undertaking. Had Class Counsel not been successful, the time that Class Counsel has devoted to litigating this matter would have been for naught and would not have produced any fee or any reimbursement of costs or expenses. See Vizcaino v. Microsoft (9th Cir. 2002) 290 F.3d 1043, 1048-49 (discussing the risks of engaging in litigation without certainty of compensation).

4. The Amount Involved and the Results Achieved.

The Settlement represents an excellent resolution of this matter, given the risks inherent in litigating the matter through class certification proceedings, trial, and/or appeals. Had this matter not settled, Defendant would have vigorously challenged certifiability, manageability, and liability. Defendant, however, faced risks if the Court certified a class and allowed a jury to decide the claims. Additionally, preparing this matter for trial would have been expensive for the Parties. The Settlement at this stage is preferred over continued litigation because such resolutions save time and money that would otherwise go to litigation. The risks and expenses of further litigation outweighed any benefit that might have been gained otherwise. The Settlement provides an immediate recovery, as opposed to an uncertain result in the future after costly, risk, and prolonged litigation involving expert discovery, trial preparation, class certification proceedings, and appellate review of those proceedings.

The results achieved, in light of the difficulties inherent in similar cases and the specific

LAWYERS for JUSTICE, PC
450 North Brand Blvd., Suite 900
Glendale, California 91203

difficulties faced in this matter, are considerable.[79] Class Counsel obtained a settlement of $1,315,000.00.[80] The Settlement has yielded a positive response from the Settlement Class Members—no Class Members objected to the Class Settlement.[81]

5. The Reputation and Ability of the Attorneys.

Lawyers for Justice, PC is a recognized class action law firm that employed its attorneys' knowledge, skills, and experience in bringing this case to a successful conclusion.[82] Class Counsel has years of complex and class action litigation experience, has recovered millions of dollars on behalf of thousands of individuals in California, and has successfully handled numerous significant wage-and-hour class action and complex cases. [83]

C. The Lodestar Methodology Also Justifies Approval of the Requested Fees.

While the percentage-of-the-benefit approach is endorsed as the better approximation of the workings of the marketplace than the lodestar approach, courts may also use the lodestar method to "cross-check" the results of the other.[84] The lodestar is calculated based on reasonable hours at reasonable prevailing hourly rates for the attorneys, and counsel is entitled to compensation for every hour reasonably spent on the matter. Ketchum v. Moses (2001) 24 Cal.4th 1122, 1131-33. The reasonableness of hours is assessed by "the entire course of the litigation, including pretrial matters, settlement negotiations, discovery, litigation tactics, and the trial itself[.]" Vo v. Las Virgenes Municipal Water Dist. (2000) 79 Cal.App.4th 440, 447.

As discussed above in Part VII.B.1, infra, and also discussed in the Declaration of Yasmin Hosseni, Class Counsel expended significant time and labor in this highly contested matter.[85] Class Counsel has been actively involved in the prosecution of the case, and the work performed in said case has precluded other employment.[86] Class Counsel bore the risk that, despite all of its efforts and skills employed, there may be no recovery.[87] Ultimately, Class Counsel was successful in reaching a settlement of $1,315,000.00.[88] The Attorney Task and Time Chart sets forth in detail the numerous tasks that Class Counsel performed in this matter, and the time required for completing those tasks.[89] The chart demonstrates that Class Counsel has spent a total of 326 hours litigating this matter and finalizing the Settlement.[90] In light of the facts and circumstances of this matter, as well as the results that Class Counsel has achieved, Class Counsel has spent a reasonable number of hours performing work on this matter. In addition, Class Counsel will continue to perform work on this matter through the date of final approval and in connection with the implementation of the Settlement.

As set forth in the Declaration of Yasmin Hosseini, the professional background and experience of Class Counsel support a reasonable rate of compensation of at least $850 per hour for services provided by Class Counsel.[91] Lawyers for Justice, PC has been awarded attorneys' fees, compensating the firm at the blended rate of at least $850 per hour for legal service performed, by courts of this state.[92] While the circumstances of every case are unique, the fact remains that the work performed by Class Counsel in this matter justify the requested attorneys' fees.

Applying the rate of $850 per hour to 326 hours worked by Class Counsel, would place a base lodestar value of $277,100.00 on the services provided by Class Counsel.

It also bears noting that a court may apply a multiplier in consideration for risk, efficiency, and/or obtaining a substantial result, to enhance the lodestar for purpose of cross-check. See Ketchum at 1133-34 (holding that a risk multiplier may be applied to compensate contingency fee attorneys at a fair market rate).[93] The risks involved, skill required, complexity of the matter, and results obtained warrant upward enhancement of the lodestar.[94] In determining whether or not to enhance the lodestar, California courts take into account multiple factors, many of which were specifically addressed above in §§ VII.B, infra. See, Cates at 822-23. Multiple factors warrant enhancement of the lodestar in the case, including the following: the time and labor required; the skill requisite to perform the legal services properly; the preclusion of other employment by the attorney due to the acceptance of this case; the contingent nature of the fee; the amount involved and results obtained; the experience, reputation, and ability of the attorney; and awards in similar cases. Ketchum at 1134. Therefore, a multiplier of n/a should be applied. Applying the rate of $850 per hour to 326 hours for services provided by Class Counsel results in a base lodestar value of $277,100.00 for the work performed by Class Counsel, and applying a modest multiplier of 1.59[95], the total enhanced lodestar fees are $440,589.00.

[93] Courts have approved fee awards with multipliers of 2 and even higher. See, e.g., City of Oakland v. Oakland Raiders (1988) 203 Cal.App.3d 78 (affirming a 2.34 multiplier without remand); Wershba, supra, 91 Cal.App.4th at 255 ("Multipliers can range from 2 to 4 or even higher."); Sutter Health Uninsured Pricing Cases (2009) 171 Cal.App.4th 495, 512 (applying a 2.52 multiplier on a lodestar cross-check); Chavez v. Netflix, Inc. (2008) 162 Cal.App.4th 43, 66 (applying a 2.5 multiplier in a consumer class action).

The lodestar method as a cross-check to the percentage award sought herein, strongly supports the reasonableness of the requested attorneys' fees. The nature of the work performed, skill exercised, and the outcome in this matter—which involves an outstanding monetary recovery involving a Gross Settlement Amount of $1,315,000.00 (with a Net Settlement Amount of approximately at least $536,884.79 to be paid to Participating Settlement Class Member (with gross Individual Class Payments averaging approximately more than $340.78), payment of $75,000.00 to PAGA Members, and payment of $225,000.00 to the State of California)—support the percentage fee sought. Accordingly, the Court is respectfully requested to award attorneys'

[94] Even when courts have opted to award fees in settlement fund cases based on time reasonably expended on the action, courts have generally awarded these fees based on the actual time expended (the lodestar) in conjunction with a multiplier of between 2 and 4. Kerr v. Screen Extras Guild, Inc. (9th Cir. 1975) 526 F.2d 67. Adjustment of the base lodestar figure to compute an award of attorneys' fees for a claim under the California Labor Code is appropriate. See Id., at 1135-36; Serrano v. Priest (1977) 20 Cal.3d 25, 48-49. Courts frequently apply multipliers to enhance the lodestar to reflect the risks involved, the complexity of the litigation, and the other relevant facts. Vizcaino, 290 F.3d at 1051; Graham v. DaimlerChrysler Corp. (2004) 34 Cal.4th 553, 579 ("One of the most common fee enhancers [...] is for contingency risk."). Such an enhancement "mirrors the established practice in the private legal market of rewarding attorneys for taking the risk of nonpayment by paying them a premium over their normal hourly rates for winning contingency cases." Vizcaino, 290 F.3d at 1051; accord Ketchum, 24 Cal.4th at 1132-33. A risk multiplier also serves to bring the financial incentives for enforcing important rights "into line with incentives [attorneys] have to undertake claims for which they are paid on a fee-for-services basis." Ketchum at 1132.

[95] Larger multipliers have been awarded in similar cases, and the total amount of fees sought by Class Counsel is also reasonable compared to fees awarded in similar cases. Courts routinely enhance lodestar amounts based on multipliers that "range from 2 to 4 or even higher." Wershba, supra, 91 Cal.App.4th at 255 (emphasis added); see also, e.g., Chavez v. Netflix, Inc. (2008) 162 Cal.App.4th 43, 66 (approving multiplier of 2.5); Vizcaino, 290 F.3d at 1051 (approving multiplier of 3.65); Wal-Mart Stores, Inc. v. Visa U.S.A., Inc. (2d Cir. 2005) 396 F.3d 96, 123 (approving multiplier of 3.5); Craft v. County of San Bernardino (C.D. Cal. 2006) 624 F.Supp.2d 1113, 1125 (awarding multiplier of 5.2 and referring to other cases with cross-check multipliers ranging from 4.5 to 19.6).

fees in the amount of $438,333.33 to Class Counsel.

VIII. REIMBURSMENT OF CLASS COUNSEL'S ATTORNEYS' EXPENSES SHOULD BE APPROVED.

The Settlement provides for reimbursement of litigation costs and expenses of up to $16,000.00. As set forth in the Declaration of Yasmin Hosseini, Class Counsel only seeks reimbursement of $13,791.88 in litigation costs and expenses incurred in this matter.[96] This amount was reasonable and necessary in the prosecution of this matter and to obtain the Settlement, and is less than the maximum amount allocated under the Settlement Agreement.[97] The cost savings of $2,208.12 will be part of the Net Settlement Amount, which will be distributed to Participating Settlement Class Members in accordance with the Settlement.[98] Accordingly, Plaintiff requests that the Court award litigation costs and expenses in the amount of $13,791.88 to Class Counsel.

IX. THE ADMINISTRATION EXPENSES SHOULD BE APPROVED.

As set forth in the accompanying Apex Declaration, the total costs incurred and to be incurred by Apex for the notice and settlement administration process are $15,990.00.[99] The costs incurred and to be incurred include, but are not limited to, establishing and maintaining a settlement fund account; establishing and maintaining a calendar of administrative deadlines and responsibilities; processing, issuing, and transmitting settlement payments; distributing notice of the Settlement to the Settlement Class; receiving and validating Opt-Out requests, Objections, or Workweeks and/or Pay Period disputes submitted by Settlement Class Members; calculating Employer Taxes and providing appropriate forms and calculations to Defendant; providing counsel with weekly reports; and other tasks as the Parties mutually agree or the Court orders Apex to perform.[100]

Accordingly, the Court should grant final approval of payment to Apex, a necessary third-party for its handling of the notice and settlement process, in the amount of $15,990.00.

X. THE ENHANCEMENT PAYMENT SHOULD BE APPROVED.

Plaintiff requests an Enhancement Payment, in the amount of $10,000.00 to himself, for his efforts and work spearheading the prosecution of this matter and serving as the Class Representative, as well as his broader individual waiver and release of claims with a California Civil Code Section 1542 waiver. Such enhancement awards are common, and the one requested here is reasonable.[101]

Plaintiff spent a substantial amount of time and effort providing the facts and evidence necessary to support the prosecution of the claims.[102] Plaintiff was available whenever Class Counsel needed him and actively tried to obtain, and gave, information to support the pursuit of this matter.[103]

Accordingly, it is appropriate and just for Plaintiff Rafael Lira Cupa to receive $10,000.00 as a reasonable Enhancement Payment, in addition to his individual settlement payments.

XI. CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, the Court is respectfully requested to grant final approval of the Settlement, approve and award Class Counsel's Attorneys' Fees and Expenses to Class Counsel, the Enhancement Payment to Plaintiff, Administration Expenses to the Administrator, and the PAGA Payment, in their entirety, as sought herein; and permit the filing of a memorandum that exceeds the page limit.
