1 Plaintiff Madison Gratalo (“Plaintiff”), on behalf of the State of California and Aggrieved
2 Employees, complains and alleges as follows:

3 INTRODUCTION

4 1. Plaintiff brings this enforcement action against Defendants Aya Healthcare, Inc.
5 (“Aya”), Aya Healthcare Services Inc. (“Aya Services”), and Aya Healthcare Local LLC (“Aya
6 Local”) (collectively “Defendants”) on behalf of the State of California to collect penalties as a 7 result of Defendants’ systematic violations of California labor law with respect to Defendants’ non-8 exempt hourly workers in the State of California (the “Aggrieved Employees”).

9 2. Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees are current and former non-exempt, hourly
10 workers employed by Defendants in California.¹

11 3. Plaintiff challenges Defendants’ policies and practices of: (1) failing to pay Plaintiff 12 and Aggrieved Employees overtime wages; (2) failing to provide or make available to Plaintiff and 13 Aggrieved Employees code-compliant meal periods, and failing to pay requisite premiums for non-14 compliant meal breaks; (3) failing to authorize and permit code-compliant rest periods to Plaintiff
15 and Aggrieved Employees, and failing to pay requisite premiums for non-compliant rest periods;
16 (4) failing to provide Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees true and accurate itemized wage
17 statements; and (5) failing to pay Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees all wages owed upon 18 separation from employment.

19 4. Plaintiff, on behalf of the State of California, seeks to recover penalties and 20 reasonable attorneys’ fees for these violations pursuant to Sections 2699(a) and (f) of the California
21 Labor Code Private Attorneys General Act (“PAGA”).

22 PARTIES

23 5. Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees are all current and former non-exempt, hourly 24 employees of Defendants in the State of California. The Aggrieved Employees work as, among 25 other positions, registered nurses, certified nursing assistants, and related hourly non-exempt 26 positions.

27
28 ¹ Although Plaintiff is a former employee, the Aggrieved Employees include current and former employees.

1 6. Plaintiff is an individual over the age of eighteen and, at all times relevant to this
2 Complaint, was a resident of the State of California.

3 7. Plaintiff worked for Defendants in California as a Registered Nurse (“RN”). Plaintiff
4 worked for Defendants as an hourly, non-exempt employee from approximately May 2025 to 5 December 2025.

6 8. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Aya Healthcare, Inc. is a 7 Delaware corporation with its principal place of business in San Diego, California. Aya conducts 8 substantial business operations within the state, and employs and/or has employed hourly, non-9 exempt employees—including Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees —within California. Service of 10 process may be effectuated upon its registered agent: CSC - Lawyers Incorporating Service, 11 Registered Corporate 1505 Agent, 2710 Gateway Oaks Drive, Suite 150N, Sacramento, CA 95833.

12 9. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Aya Healthcare Services, 13 Inc. is a Delaware corporation with its principal place of business in San Diego, California. Aya 14 Services conducts substantial business operations within the state, and employs and/or has 15 employed hourly, non-exempt employees—including Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees —within 16 California. Service of process may be effectuated upon its registered agent: CSC - Lawyers
17 Incorporating Service, Registered Corporate 1505 Agent, 2710 Gateway Oaks Drive, Suite 150N,
18 Sacramento, CA 95833.

19 10. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Aya Healthcare Local,
20 LLC is a California limited liability company with its principal place of business in San Diego, 21 California. Aya Services conducts substantial business operations within the state, and employs 22 and/or has employed hourly, non-exempt employees—including Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees
23 —within California. Service of process may be effectuated upon its registered agent: CSC - Lawyers
24 Incorporating Service, Registered Corporate 1505 Agent, 2710 Gateway Oaks Drive, Suite 150N,
25 Sacramento, CA 95833.

26 11. Plaintiff is informed, believes, and based thereon, alleges that in California, 27 Defendants act as an intermediary between healthcare facilities needing staff and clinicians by 28 providing both staffing services and technology solutions.

12. Plaintiff is informed, believes, and thereon alleges that Defendants employ and/or employed hundreds of hourly, non-exempt workers similarly situated to Plaintiff in California. Plaintiff is informed, believes, and thereon alleges that, in California, Defendants act as an intermediary between healthcare facilities needing staff and clinicians by providing both staffing services and technology solutions. Plaintiff is informed, believes, and thereon alleges that Defendants employ Aggrieved Employees, among other hourly employees, in this County and throughout California.

13. At all material times, Defendants have done business under the laws of California, have places of business in California, including in the jurisdiction of this court, and has employed Aggrieved Employees in this County and elsewhere in California. Defendants are a “person” as defined in Cal. Lab. Code § 18 and an “employer” as that term is used in the Labor Code, the IWC Wage Orders regulating wages, hours, and working conditions, and Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code § 17201.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

14. Venue is proper in this County pursuant to Cal. Code Civ. Proc. §§ 393 and/or 395.5. Defendants conduct business and employ Aggrieved Employees in this County, and therefore the liability and the cause, or some part of the cause, arose in this County.

15. Defendants are corporations headquartered and have their principal place of business in this County, and therefore venue is proper in this County pursuant to Cal. Code Civ. Proc. § 395.5.

16. This Court has jurisdiction over Plaintiff's claims pursuant to the Cal. Lab. Code and the applicable IWC Wage Orders. The Court also has jurisdiction over Defendants because it is a company authorized to do business in the State of California, and because Defendants, in fact, do business and employ workers in the State of California.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

17. Upon information and belief, Defendants are a large healthcare staffing and talent software company that places healthcare professionals, such as nurses and allied health workers, in temporary or permanent positions.

18. Plaintiff worked for Defendants in Oakland, California as a non-exempt Registered Nurse (“RN”) from approximately May 2025 to December 2025. Plaintiff was assigned to work at Alameda Highland Hospital in the Labor and Delivery Unit. Plaintiff's assignment began in mid-May 2025, was extended multiple times, and ended on December 26, 2025.

19. Although Plaintiff's shifts varied in length, Plaintiff worked approximately 12 hours or more per shift, three (3) shifts per week. Although Plaintiff's weekly hours vary, Plaintiff worked approximately 36 to 40 hours per week, or more. Plaintiff was paid an hourly rate of $35.70 per hour.

20. Plaintiff is informed, believes, and thereon alleges that Defendants employ and have employed hundreds of hourly, non-exempt workers in California.

21. Defendants pay Aggrieved Employees, including Plaintiff, on an hourly rate basis.

22. Plaintiff is informed, believes, and based thereon, alleges that Aggrieved Employees are employed by Defendants in a similar manner throughout the State of California, including in this County, and perform work materially similar to Plaintiff.

23. Aggrieved Employees perform their jobs under Defendants' supervision using materials and technology approved and supplied by Defendants.

24. Aggrieved Employees are required to follow and abide by Defendants' common work, time, and pay policies and procedures in the performance of their jobs.

25. At the end of each pay period, Aggrieved Employees receive wages from Defendants that are determined by common systems and methods that Defendants select and control.

26. Plaintiff is informed, believes, and thereon alleges that Defendants' policies and practices at all relevant times have been similar for Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees, regardless of location in California. Upon information and belief, Aggrieved Employees also worked more than eight (8) hours per day and/or more than forty (40) hours in at least one workweek during the one year before this Complaint was filed.

27. Defendants deny Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees compliant 30-minute meal periods. Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees meal periods are interrupted and/or cut short. Since the flow of patients is unpredictable, Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees are called back early from meal periods by supervisors to help with admission of new patients, or with patient care.

28. For example, when Plaintiff was on her meal period, a new patient came in for

1 admission who was in active labor, and there was not enough staff to admit the patient. Defendants
2 called Plaintiff's work phone knowing Plaintiff was on her meal period, and asked her to return to 3 work to admit the patient.

4 29. For each day Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees work shifts over ten (10) hours,
5 Defendants also systematically deny Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees compliant second 30-
6 minute duty-free meal periods before the end of the tenth hour of work. Plaintiff and Aggrieved
7 Employees are not provided with the opportunity to take a second meal period. Defendants schedule
8 Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees to work through their tenth hour of work without a second meal 9 period.

10 30. Despite their failure to provide Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees with complaint
11 duty-free first and second meal breaks, Defendants fail to pay Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees 12 requisite meal period premiums.

13 31. Defendants deny Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees duty-free rest periods of at least 14 ten (10) minutes of rest time for every four (4) hours of work. Here again, Defendants fail to pay 15 Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees requisite rest period premiums.

16 32. Plaintiff is informed, believes, and thereon alleges that Defendants utilize and apply
17 these meal and rest period policies and practices across all of Defendants' facilities and worksites
18 throughout California.

19 33. Defendants deny Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees proper compensation for 20 overtime hours worked. Whenever Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees work holidays, Defendants 21 pay Aggrieved Employees a higher hourly rate of pay. However, during these holiday shifts, 22 Defendants do not pay Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees 1.5 times their hourly rate of pay for 23 hours worked over eight hours.

24 34. For example, for the pay period starting on November 23, 2025, to November 29,
25 2025, Plaintiff worked one holiday shift of 12.01 hours. Defendants paid Plaintiff a higher hourly 26 rate of $110.00 for the full 12.01 hours.

27 35. Alternatively, Defendants do not account for this higher hourly rate when calculating 28 Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees' regular rate of pay for purposes of paying overtime. Rather,

1 Defendants pay Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees overtime at the rate of 1.5 times of their usual
2 hourly rate of pay.

3 36. In addition, Defendants pay Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees nondiscretionary 4 bonuses in the form of, inter alia, discounts to restaurants, gyms, travel, auto, apparel, and 5 electronics. However, Defendants do not account for the dollar value of these nondiscretionary
6 bonuses when determining Plaintiff's regular rate of pay for purposes of paying overtime wages.
7 Defendants only calculate Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees' regular rate at 1.5 times their usual
8 hourly rate of pay.

9 37. Defendants' failure to pay all overtime wages, and failure to provide compliant meal
10 and rest breaks also result in a failure to provide Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees with accurate
11 itemized wage statements as required by California law. The wage statements Defendants provide 12 are not accurate because they do not reflect payment for all overtime, and premium pay for non-13 compliant first and second meal and rest breaks.

14 38. Defendants do not provide Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees with full payment of 15 all wages owed at the end of employment. These workers are owed wages and premium pay for 16 overtime and missed meal and rest breaks when their employment ends. These amounts remain 17 unpaid after voluntary and involuntary termination. As a consequence, Defendants are subject to 18 waiting time penalties under the California Labor Code.

19 39. Plaintiff is informed, believes, and thereon allege that Defendants knew or should 20 have known that Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees regularly do not receive timely and compliant 21 meal and rest breaks, premium pay for overtime and missed or non-compliant breaks, payment for 22 all hours worked, or accurate wage statements, and that Defendants do not timely pay all final 23 wages. Thus, Defendants' denial of wages, compliant meal and rest periods and related premium 24 pay, failure to provide complete and accurate wage statements, and failure to timely pay all final 25 wages is and/or was deliberate and willful.

26 40. Plaintiff is informed, believes, and thereon alleges that Defendants' unlawful conduct 27 has been widespread, repeated, and consistent as to Aggrieved Employees and throughout 28 Defendants' operations in the State of California. All violations alleged herein are continuing and 1 ongoing.

2 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

3 Penalties Pursuant to Cal. Lab. Code § 2699(f)

4 Failure to Pay Overtime Premiums

5 (On Behalf of the State of California and Aggrieved Employees)

6 41. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates the foregoing paragraphs as though fully set forth
7 herein.

8 42. Cal. Lab. Code § 2699(f) provides:

9 For all provisions of this code except those for which a civil penalty is specifically
10 provided, there is established a civil penalty for a violation of these provisions, as 11 follows: . . . (2) If, at the time of the alleged violation, the person employs one or more
12 employees, the civil penalty is one hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation and two hundred dollars ($200) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent violation.

13 43. Cal. Lab. Code § 510 provides, in relevant part:

14 Eight hours of labor constitutes a day's work. Any work in excess of eight hours in 15 one workday and any work in excess of 40 hours in any one workweek and the first 16 eight hours worked on the seventh day of work in any one workweek shall be 17 compensated at the rate of no less than one and one-half times the regular rate of pay 18 for an employee. Any work in excess of 12 hours in one day shall be compensated at 19 the rate of no less than twice the regular rate of pay for an employee. In addition, any work in excess of eight hours on any seventh day of a workweek shall be compensated at the rate of no less than twice the regular rate of pay of an employee. Nothing in this section requires an employer to combine more than one rate of overtime compensation in order to calculate the amount to be paid to an employee for any hour of overtime work.

20 44. Cal. Lab. Code § 1194 provides, in relevant part:

21 Notwithstanding any agreement to work for a lesser wage, any employee receiving 22 less than the legal minimum wage or the legal overtime compensation applicable to 23 the employee is entitled to recover in a civil action the unpaid balance of the full amount of this minimum wage or overtime compensation, including interest thereon, reasonable attorney's fees, and costs of suit.

24 45. Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees work overtime hours for Defendants without 25 being paid all wages and overtime premiums, or when paid overtime premiums not being paid at 26 the appropriate rate in violation of the Cal. Lab. Code, the applicable IWC Wage Orders, and other
27 applicable law. Defendants do not consider per diem payments made to Plaintiff and Aggrieved
28 Employees when determining the overtime and double time rates.

46. To the extent that any violation alleged herein does not carry penalties under Cal. Lab. Code § 2699(a), Plaintiff seeks civil penalties pursuant to Cal. Lab. Code § 2699(f) for each pay period in which Plaintiff and an Aggrieved Employees were aggrieved, in the amounts established by Cal. Lab. Code § 2699(f). Plaintiff seeks penalties pursuant to Cal. Lab. Code § 2699(f) for Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees for violations of Cal. Lab. Code provisions including, but not limited to, Cal. Lab. Code §§ 510 1194, 1198, IWC Wage Order 4-2001, and any other violation alleged herein which does not carry penalties under Cal. Lab. Code § 2699(a).

47. Pursuant to Cal. Lab. Code §§ 2699.3(a)(1) and (2), on March 13, 2026, Plaintiff provided the Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) with notice of her intention to file this claim. On this same date, Plaintiff mailed Defendants a copy of such notice via certified mail. At least sixty-five calendar days have passed without response from the LWDA. Plaintiff satisfied the administrative prerequisites to commence this civil action in compliance with Cal. Lab. Code § 2699.3(a).

48. Plaintiff seeks the aforementioned penalties on behalf of the State, other Aggrieved Employees, and herself as set forth in Cal. Lab. Code § 2699(g)(1).

49. Defendants are liable to Plaintiff, Aggrieved Employees, and the State of California for the civil penalties set forth in this Complaint. Plaintiff is also entitled to an award of attorneys' fees and costs as set forth below.

50. Wherefore, Plaintiff requests relief as hereinafter provided.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

Penalties Pursuant to Cal. Lab. Code § 2699(f)

Failure to Provide Meal Periods

(On Behalf of the State of California and Aggrieved Employees)

51. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates the foregoing paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

52. Cal. Lab. Code § 2699(f) provides:

For all provisions of this code except those for which a civil penalty is specifically provided, there is established a civil penalty for a violation of these provisions, as follows: . . . (2) If, at the time of the alleged violation, the person employs one or more

1 employees, the civil penalty is one hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved
2 employee per pay period for the initial violation and two hundred dollars ($200) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent violation.

3 53. Cal. Lab. Code § 200 defines wages as “all amounts for labor performed by
4 employees of every description, whether the amount is fixed or ascertained by the standard of time,
5 task, piece, commission basis or method of calculation.”

6 54. Cal. Lab. Code §§ 226.7 and 512 and IWC Wage Order 4-2001 require Defendants to 7 authorize, permit, and/or make available timely and compliant meal periods to their employees. Cal.
8 Lab. Code §§ 226.7 and 512 and IWC Wage Order 4-2001 prohibit employers from employing an 9 employee for more than five (5) hours without a meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes,
10 and from employing an employee more than ten (10) hours per day without providing the employee 11 with a second meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes.

12 55. Despite these requirements, Defendants knowingly and willfully refuse to perform
13 their obligation to provide or make available to Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees the ability to 14 take the off-duty meal periods to which they are entitled.

15 56. To the extent that any violation alleged herein does not carry penalties under Cal. Lab.
16 Code § 2699(a), Plaintiff seeks civil penalties pursuant to Cal. Lab. Code § 2699(f) for each pay
17 period in which Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees were aggrieved, in the amounts established by 18 Cal. Lab. Code § 2699(f). Plaintiff seeks penalties pursuant to Cal. Lab. Code § 2699(f) for Plaintiff
19 and Aggrieved Employees for violations of Cal. Lab. Code provisions including, but not limited to,
20 Cal. Lab. Code §§ 226.7, 512, 1198, IWC Wage Order 4-2001, and any other violation alleged herein
21 which does not carry penalties under Cal. Lab. Code § 2699(a).

22 57. Pursuant to Cal. Lab. Code §§ 2699.3(a)(1) and (2), on March 13, 2026, Plaintiff
23 provided the LWDA with notice of her intention to file this claim. On this same date, Plaintiff mailed
24 Defendants a copy of such notice via certified mail. At least sixty-five calendar days have passed
25 without response from the LWDA. Plaintiff satisfied the administrative prerequisites to commence
26 this civil action in compliance with Cal. Lab. Code § 2699.3(a).

27 58. Plaintiff seeks the aforementioned penalties on behalf of the State, other Aggrieved
28

1 Employees, and herself as set forth in Cal. Lab. Code § 2699(g)(1).

2 59. Defendants are liable to Plaintiff, Aggrieved Employees, and the State of California
3 for the civil penalties set forth in this Complaint. Plaintiff is also entitled to an award of attorneys'
4 fees and costs as set forth below.

5 60. Wherefore, Plaintiff requests relief as hereinafter provided.

6 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

7 Penalties Pursuant to Cal. Lab. Code § 2699(f)

8 Failure to Provide Rest Periods

9 (On Behalf of the State of California and Aggrieved Employees)

10 61. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates the foregoing paragraphs as though fully set forth
11 herein.

12 62. Cal. Lab. Code § 2699(f) provides:

13 For all provisions of this code except those for which a civil penalty is specifically 14 provided, there is established a civil penalty for a violation of these provisions, as
15 follows: . . . (2) If, at the time of the alleged violation, the person employs one or more
16 employees, the civil penalty is one hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation and two hundred dollars ($200) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent violation.

17 63. Cal. Lab. Code § 200 defines wages as “all amounts for labor performed by 18 employees of every description, whether the amount is fixed or ascertained by the standard of time,
19 task, piece, commission basis or method of calculation.”

20 64. Cal. Lab. Code §§ 226.7 and the applicable Wage Order require employers to 21 authorize and permit non-exempt workers to take ten minutes of net rest time per four (4) hours or 22 major fraction thereof of work, and to pay non-exempt workers their full wages during those rest 23 periods.

24 65. Under Cal. Lab. Code § 226.7(b) an employer must pay an employee denied a 25 required rest period is required to pay one hour of pay at the employee’s regular rate of compensation 26 for each workday that the rest period was not authorized and permitted and/or not made available.

27 66. Despite these requirements, Defendants knowingly and willfully refuse to perform
28 their obligation to provide or make available to Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees the ability to

1 take the rest breaks to which they are entitled. Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees are unable to take 2 compliant rest periods because Defendants do not allow Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees to take 3 rest periods due to workload demands that required Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees to continue
4 assisting Defendants' patients, coworkers, and attending to Defendants' calls and supervisor calls.
5 When Plaintiff attempts to take a rest period, such rest periods were interrupted or cut short for her 6 to continue assisting patients and/or employees of the Defendants.

7 67. To the extent that any violation alleged herein does not carry penalties under Cal. Lab.
8 Code § 2699(a), Plaintiff seeks civil penalties pursuant to Cal. Lab. Code § 2699(f) for each pay
9 period in which Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees were aggrieved, in the amounts established by 10 Cal. Lab. Code § 2699(f). Plaintiff seeks penalties pursuant to Cal. Lab. Code § 2699(f) for Plaintiff
11 and Aggrieved Employees for violations of Cal. Lab. Code provisions including, but not limited to,
12 Cal. Lab. Code §§ 226.7, 512, 1198, IWC Wage Order 4-2001, and any other violation alleged herein
13 which does not carry penalties under Cal. Lab. Code § 2699(a).

14 68. Pursuant to Cal. Lab. Code §§ 2699.3(a)(1) and (2), on March 13, 2026, Plaintiff
15 provided the LWDA with notice of her intention to file this claim. On this same date, Plaintiff mailed
16 Defendants a copy of such notice via certified mail. At least sixty-five calendar days have passed
17 without response from the LWDA. Plaintiff satisfied the administrative prerequisites to commence
18 this civil action in compliance with Cal. Lab. Code § 2699.3(a).

19 69. Plaintiff seeks the aforementioned penalties on behalf of the State, other Aggrieved
20 Employees, and herself as set forth in Cal. Lab. Code § 2699(g)(1).

21 70. Defendants are liable to Plaintiff, Aggrieved Employees, and the State of California
22 for the civil penalties set forth in this Complaint. Plaintiff is also entitled to an award of attorneys'
23 fees and costs as set forth below.

24 71. Wherefore, Plaintiff requests relief as hereinafter provided.

1 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

2 Penalties Pursuant to Cal. Lab. Code § 2699(a)

3 Failure to Provide True and Accurate Itemized Wage Statements

4 (On Behalf of the State of California and Aggrieved Employees)

5 72. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates the foregoing paragraphs as though fully set forth
6 herein.

7 73. Cal. Lab. Code § 2699(a) provides:

8 Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any provision of this code that provides 9 for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the Labor and Workforce
10 Development Agency or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards, 11 agencies, or employees, for a violation of this code, may, as an alternative, be 12 recovered through a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of 13 himself or herself and to other current or former employees.

14 74. Cal. Lab. Code § 226(a) provides:

15 An employer, semimonthly or at the time of each payment of wages, shall furnish to 16 their employee, either as a detachable part of the check, draft, or voucher paying the 17 employee's wages, or separately if wages are paid by personal check or cash, an 18 accurate itemized statement in writing showing (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours 19 worked by the employee, except as provided in subdivision (j), (3) the number of 20 piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece-21 rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided that all deductions made on written orders of 22 the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned, (6) the 23 inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the 24 employee and only the last four digits of their social security number or an employee 25 identification number other than a social security number, (8) the name and address of 26 the legal entity that is the employer and, if the employer is a farm labor contractor, as 27 defined in subdivision (b) of Section 1682, the name and address of the legal entity 28 that secured the services of the employer, and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee...

22 75. Cal. Lab. Code § 226(e)(1) provides, in relevant part:

23 An employee suffering injury as a result of a knowing and intentional failure by an 24 employer to comply with subdivision (a) is entitled to recover the greater of all actual 25 damages or fifty dollars ($50) for the initial pay period in which a violation occurs and 26 one hundred dollars ($100) per employee for each violation in a subsequent pay 27 period, not to exceed an aggregate penalty of four thousand dollars ($4,000), and is 28 entitled to an award of costs and reasonable attorney's fees.

27 76. Cal. Lab. Code § 226.3 provides:

28 Any employer who violates subdivision (a) of Section 226 shall be subject to a civil penalty in the amount of two hundred fifty dollars ($250) per employee per violation

1 in an initial citation and one thousand dollars ($1,000) per employee for each violation
2 in a subsequent citation, for which the employer fails to provide the employee a wage
3 deduction statement or fails to keep the records required in subdivision (a) of Section
4 226. The civil penalties provided for in this section are in addition to any other penalty
5 provided by law.

6 77. Cal. Lab. Code § 226 also requires employers to keep records required to be 7 maintained under § 226(a) for at least three (3) years.

8 78. Cal. Lab. Code § 1174(d) provides, in relevant part:

9 [Employers shall] [k]eep, at a central location in the state or at the plants or 10 establishments at which employees are employed, payroll records showing the hours 11 worked daily by and the wages paid to, and the number of piece-rate units earned by 12 and any applicable piece rate paid to, employees employed at the respective plants or 13 establishments. These records shall be kept in accordance with rules established for 14 this purpose by the commission...

15 79. Cal. Lab. Code § 1174.5 provides, in relevant part:
