DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

1 Plaintiff ALEJANDRO OLIVARES, CESAR VALENZUELA, AND JUAN GALVEZ
2 MARTINEZ (“Plaintiffs”), based upon facts that either have evidentiary support or are likely to
3 have evidentiary support after a reasonable opportunity for further investigation and discovery,
4 alleges as follows:

5 INTRODUCTION & PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

6 1. Plaintiffs bring this action against Defendants LINDE GAS & EQUIPMENT, INC.
7 and DOES 1 through 10 (hereinafter collectively referred to as “Defendants”) for California Labor
8 Code violations and unfair business practices stemming from Defendants’ failure to pay for all
9 hours worked (minimum, straight time, and overtime wages), failure to provide meal periods,
10 failure to authorize and permit rest periods, failure to timely pay final wages, failure to furnish
11 accurate wage statements, failure to timely pay all wages during employment, failure to indemnify
12 employees for expenditures. failure to maintain accurate records of hours worked and meal periods,
13 failure to provide sick leave pay, failure to pay reporting time pay, and failure to provide suitable 14 seating.

15 2. Plaintiffs bring the First through Thirteenth Causes of Action individually and as a
16 class action on behalf of themselves and certain current and former employees of Defendants
17 (hereinafter collectively referred to as the “Class” or “Class Members,” and defined more fully 18 below). The Class consists of Plaintiffs and all other persons who have been employed by any 19 Defendant in California as an hourly-paid or non-exempt employee during the statute of limitations
20 period applicable to the claims pleaded here.

21 3. Plaintiffs bring the Fourteenth Cause of Action as a representative action under the 22 PAGA to recover civil penalties that are owed to Plaintiffs, the State of California, and past and 23 present non-exempt employees employed by Defendants in the State of California during the 24 statute of limitations period for her PAGA claim.

25 4. Defendants own/owned and operate/operated an industry, business, and 26 establishment within the State of California, including Santa Cruz County. As such, and based 27 upon all the facts and circumstances incident to Defendants’ business in California, Defendants are 28

1 subject to the California Labor Code, Wage Orders issued by the Industrial Welfare Commission
2 (“IWC”), and the California Business & Professions Code.

3 5. Despite these requirements, throughout the statutory period, Defendants maintained 4 a systematic, company-wide policy and practice of:

- 5 (a) Failing to pay employees for all hours worked, including all minimum,
6 straight time, and overtime wages in compliance with the California Labor
7 Code and IWC Wage Orders;
- 8 (b) Failing to provide employees with timely and duty-free meal periods in 9 compliance with the California Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders, failing
10 to maintain accurate records of all meal periods taken or missed, and failing
11 to pay an additional hour’s pay for each workday a meal period violation 12 occurred;
- 13 (c) Failing to authorize and permit employees to take timely and duty-free rest
14 periods in compliance with the California Labor Code and IWC Wage
15 Orders, and failing to pay an additional hour’s pay for each workday a rest 16 period violation occurred;
- 17 (d) Willfully failing to pay employees all expenditures, minimum wages,
18 straight time wages, overtime wages, reporting time pay, meal period
19 premium wages, and rest period premium wages due within the time period
20 specified by California law when employment terminates;
- 21 (e) Failing to provide employees with accurate, itemized wage statements
22 containing all the information required by the California Labor Code and 23 IWC Wage Orders;
- 24 (f) Failure to pay final wages owed at the termination of employment in 25 compliance with the California Labor Code;
- 26 (g) Failure to pay all earned wages during employment in compliance with the 27 California Labor Code;
- 28

- (h) Failing to indemnify employees for expenditures incurred in direct discharge of duties of employment;
- (i) Failing to maintain accurate records of hours worked and all meal periods taken or missed, as required by the California Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders;
- (j) Failing to provide employees with sick leave pay as required by the California Labor Code;
- (k) Failing to pay employees reporting time pay when they were sent home early before they had a chance to work at least half of their scheduled shifts; and
- (l) Failing to provide suitable seating in compliance with IWC Wage Order.

6. On information and belief, Defendants, and each of them were on actual and constructive notice of the improprieties alleged herein and intentionally refused to rectify their unlawful policies. Defendants' violations, as alleged above, during all relevant times herein were willful and deliberate.

7. At all relevant times, Defendants were and are legally responsible for all of the unlawful conduct, policies, practices, acts and omissions as described in each and all of the foregoing paragraphs as the employer of Plaintiff and the Class. Further, Defendants are responsible for each of the unlawful acts or omissions complained of herein under the doctrine of "respondeat superior."

THE PARTIES

A. Plaintiffs

8. Plaintiff ALEJANDRO OLIVARES, is a California resident who works for Defendants in Santa Cruz County, California as an hourly-paid, non-exempt employee from approximately 2002 to approximately November 14, 2023.

9. Plaintiff CESAR VALENZUELA, is a California resident who works for Defendants in Santa Cruz County, California as an hourly-paid, non-exempt employee from approximately August 2018 to approximately April 17, 2023.

10. Plaintiff JUAN GALVEZ MARTINEZ, is a California resident who works for Defendants in Santa Cruz County, California as an hourly-paid, non-exempt employee from approximately December 2020 to approximately October 2022.

11. Plaintiffs reserve the right to seek leave to amend this complaint to add new Plaintiffs, if necessary, in order to establish suitable representative(s) pursuant to La Sala v. American Savings and Loan Association (1971) 5 Cal.3d 864, 872, and other applicable law.

B. Defendants

12. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based upon that information and belief allege, that Defendants LINDE GAS & EQUIPMENT, INC. and DOES 1 through 10 are, and at all times herein mentioned, were:

- (a) A business entity qualified to do business and actually conducting business in numerous counties throughout the State of California, including in Santa Cruz County; and,
- (b) The employer of Plaintiffs and the current and/or former employer of the putative Class because Defendant LINDE GAS & EQUIPMENT, INC. suffered and permitted Plaintiffs and the Class to work, and/or controlled their wages, hours, or working conditions.

13. Plaintiffs do not know the true names or capacities of the persons or entities sued herein as Does 1-10, inclusive, and therefore sues said Defendants by such fictitious names. Each of the Doe Defendants was in some manner legally responsible for the damages suffered by Plaintiffs and the Class as alleged herein. Plaintiffs will amend this complaint to set forth the true names and capacities of these Defendants when they have been ascertained, together with appropriate charging allegations, as may be necessary.

14. At all times mentioned herein, the Defendants named as Does 1-10, inclusive, and each of them, were residents of, doing business in, availed themselves of the jurisdiction of, and/or injured a significant number of the Plaintiff and the Class in the State of California.

15. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that at all relevant times each Defendant, directly or indirectly, or through agents or other persons, employed Plaintiffs and the other employees described in the class definitions below, and exercised control over their wages, hours, and working conditions. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that, at all relevant times, each Defendant was the principal, agent, partner, joint venturer, officer, director, controlling shareholder, subsidiary, affiliate, parent corporation, successor in interest and/or predecessor in interest of some or all of the other Defendants, and was engaged with some or all of the other Defendants in a joint enterprise for profit, and bore such other relationships to some or all of the other Defendants so as to be liable for their conduct with respect to the matters alleged below. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that each Defendant acted pursuant to and within the scope of the relationships alleged above, that each Defendant knew or should have known about, and authorized, ratified, adopted, approved, controlled, aided and abetted the conduct of all other Defendants.

16. Defendants, including DOES 1 THROUGH 10, were Plaintiffs' employers or persons acting on behalf of Plaintiffs' employer, within the meaning of California Labor Code section 558.1 and, as such, are liable as the employer for violations of Labor Code sections 203, 226, 226.7, 1193.6, 1194, or 2802, at all relevant times.

ALLEGATIONS COMMON TO ALL CAUSES OF ACTION

17. Plaintiffs worked for Defendants in California as an hourly-paid, non-exempt employee. During Plaintiffs' employment for Defendants, Defendants paid Plaintiffs an hourly wage and classified him as non-exempt from overtime. Defendants typically scheduled Plaintiffs to work at least five days in a workweek and at least eight hours per day, but Plaintiffs regularly worked more than eight hours in a workday and more than forty (40) hours in a workweek.

18. Throughout Plaintiffs' employment, Defendants failed to pay for all hours worked (including minimum, straight time, and overtime wages), failed to provide Plaintiffs with legally compliant meal periods, failed to authorize and permit Plaintiffs to take rest periods, failed to timely pay all final wages to Plaintiffs when Defendants terminated his employment, failed to provide Plaintiffs with reporting time pay, failed to timely pay all wages during employment, failed to maintain accurate records of hours worked and meal periods, failed to provide Plaintiffs with sick leave pay, failed to provide Plaintiffs with reporting time pay, failed to provide Plaintiffs suitable seating, failed to furnish accurate wage statements to Plaintiffs, and failed to indemnify

1 Plaintiffs for expenditures. As discussed below, Plaintiffs' experience working for Defendants
2 was typical and illustrative.

3 19. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants maintained a policy and practice of not
4 paying Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees for all hours worked, including 5 minimum, straight time, and overtime wages. Defendants required Plaintiffs, the Class, and the 6 Aggrieved Employees to work "off-the-clock", uncompensated, by, for example, requiring
7 Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to respond and answer calls and messages
8 before and after their shifts. Some of this unpaid work should have been paid at the overtime
9 rate. In failing to pay for all hours worked, Defendants also failed to maintain accurate records of 10 the hours Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees worked and their meal periods.

11 20. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants wrongfully failed to provide Plaintiffs,
12 the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees with legally compliant meal periods. Defendants
13 regularly, but not always, required Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to work in 14 excess of five consecutive hours a day without providing a 30-minute, uninterrupted, and duty-free
15 meal period for every five hours of work, or without compensating Plaintiffs, the Class, and the 16 Aggrieved Employees for meal periods that were not provided by the end of the fifth hour of work
17 or tenth hour of work. Instead, Defendants continued to assert control over Plaintiffs, the Class,
18 and the Aggrieved Employees by requiring, pressuring, or encouraging them to perform work tasks
19 which could not be completed without working in lieu of taking mandatory meal periods, or by 20 denying Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees permission to take a meal period.
21 Accordingly, Defendants' policy and practice was not to provide meal periods to Plaintiffs, the 22 Class, and the Aggrieved Employees in compliance with California law. Defendants also 23 maintained a policy and practice of not recording the times that Plaintiffs, the Class, and the 24 Aggrieved Employees took meal periods, if they were provided.

25 21. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants have wrongfully failed to authorize
26 and permit Plaintiffs the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to take legally compliant rest
27 periods. Defendants regularly required Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to work
28 in excess of four consecutive hours a day without Defendants authorizing and permitting them to

1 take a 10-minute, uninterrupted, duty-free rest period for every four hours of work (or major
2 fraction of four hours), or without compensating Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved
3 Employees for rest periods that were not authorized or permitted. Instead, Defendants continued
4 to assert control over Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees by requiring, pressuring,
5 or encouraging them to perform work tasks which could not be completed without working in lieu
6 of taking mandatory rest periods, or by denying Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees
7 permission to take a rest period. Accordingly, Defendants' policy and practice was to not authorize
8 and permit Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to take rest periods in compliance
9 with California law.

10 22. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants willfully failed and refused to timely
11 pay Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees all final wages due at their termination of 12 employment. In addition, Plaintiffs' final paychecks did not include payment for all expenditures,
13 minimum wages, straight time wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages, and rest
14 period premium wages owed to them by Defendants at the conclusion of their employment. On 15 information and belief, Defendants' failure to timely pay Plaintiffs' final wages when their 16 employment terminated was not a single, isolated incident, but was instead consistent with 17 Defendants' policy and practice that applied to Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees.

18 23. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants willfully failed and refused to provide 19 Plaintiffs and the Class with paid sick leave of at least twenty-four (24) hours per calendar year or 20 12-month period. On information and belief, Defendants' failure to provide Plaintiffs with sick
21 leave pay in accordance with California Labor Code § 246 was not a single, isolated incident, but 22 was instead consistent with Defendants' policy and practice that applied to Plaintiffs and the Class.

23 24. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiffs, the Class,
24 and the Aggrieved Employees suitable seating when the nature of these employees' work
25 reasonably permitting sitting.

26 25. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants failed to furnish Plaintiffs, the Class,
27 and the Aggrieved Employees with accurate, itemized wage statements showing all applicable
28 hourly rates, all overtime hourly rates, and all gross and net wages earned (including correct hours

1 worked, correct wages for meal periods that were not provided in accordance with California law,
2 and correct wages for rest periods that were not authorized and permitted to take in accordance
3 with California law). As a result of these violations of California Labor Code § 226(a), the 4 Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees suffered injury because, among other things:

- 5 (a) the violations led them to believe that they were not entitled to be paid
6 minimum, straight time, overtime, meal period premium, and rest period
7 premium wages, even though they were entitled;
- 8 (b) the violations led them to believe that they had been paid the minimum,
9 straight time, overtime, meal period premium, and rest period premium 10 wages, even though they had not been;
- 11 (c) the violations led them to believe they were not entitled to be paid minimum,
12 straight time, overtime, meal period premium, and rest period premium
13 wages at the correct California rate even though they were entitled;
- 14 (d) the violations led them to believe they had been paid minimum, straight time, 15 overtime, meal period premium, and rest period premium wages at the 16 correct California rate even though they had not been;
- 17 (e) the violations hindered them from determining the amounts of minimum,
18 straight time, overtime, meal period premium, and rest period premium
19 wages owed to them;
- 20 (f) in connection with their employment before and during this action, and in 21 connection with prosecuting this action, the violations caused them to have 22 to perform mathematical computations to determine the amounts of wages
23 owed to them, computations they would not have to make if the wage
24 statements contained the required accurate information;
- 25 (g) by understating the wages truly due to them, the violations caused them to 26 lose entitlement and/or accrual of the full amount of Social Security, 27 disability, unemployment, and other governmental benefits;
- 28

(h) the wage statements inaccurately understated the wages, hours, and wage rates to which Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were entitled, and Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were paid less than the wages and wage rates to which they were entitled.

Thus, Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees are owed the amounts provided for in California Labor Code § 226(e) and injunctive relief under California Labor Code § 226(h).

26. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants have wrongfully required Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to pay expenses that they incurred in direct discharge of their duties for Defendants. Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees regularly paid out-of-pocket for necessary employment-related expenses, including, without limitation, use of personal cellphone for work related purposes. Defendants required Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to use personal cell phones to perform their work duties.

27. Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees incurred substantial expenses as a direct result of performing their job duties for Defendants, but Defendants failed to indemnify Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees for these employment-related expenses.

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

28. Plaintiffs bring certain claims individually, as well as on behalf of each and all other persons similarly situated, and thus, seeks class certification under California Code of Civil Procedure § 382.

29. All claims alleged herein arise under California law for which Plaintiffs seek relief authorized by California law.

30. The proposed Class consists of and is defined as:

All persons who worked for any Defendant in California as an hourly-paid or non-exempt employee at any time during the period beginning four years and 178 days before the filing of the initial complaint in this action and ending when notice to the Class is sent.¹

31. At all material times, Plaintiffs were members of the Class.

¹ In response to the COVID-19 pandemic, the Judicial Council of California adopted Emergency Rule 9(a) (California Rules of Court), whereby “statutes of limitations and repose for civil causes of action that exceed 180 days are tolled from April 6, 2020 to October 1, 2020.”

1 32. Plaintiffs undertook this concerted activity to improve the wages and working
2 conditions of all Class Members.

3 33. There is a well-defined community of interest in the litigation and the Class is 4 readily ascertainable:

5 (a) Numerosity: The members of the Class (and each subclass, if any) are so
6 numerous that joinder of all members would be unfeasible and impractical.
7 The membership of the entire Class is unknown to Plaintiff at this time;
8 however, the Class is estimated to be greater than forty (40) individuals and 9 the identity of such membership is readily ascertainable by inspection of 10 Defendants' records.

11 (b) Typicality: Plaintiffs are qualified to, and will, fairly and adequately protect
12 the interests of each Class Member with whom there is a shared, well-
13 defined community of interest, and Plaintiffs' claims (or defenses, if any)
14 are typical of all Class Members' claims as demonstrated herein.

15 (c) Adequacy: Plaintiffs are qualified to, and will, fairly and adequately protect
16 the interests of each Class Member with whom there is a shared, well-
17 defined community of interest and typicality of claims, as demonstrated
18 herein. Plaintiffs have no conflicts with or interests antagonistic to any Class
19 Member. Plaintiffs' attorneys, the proposed class counsel, are versed in the 20 rules governing class action discovery, certification, and settlement.
21 Plaintiffs have incurred, and throughout the duration of this action, will 22 continue to incur costs and attorneys' fees that have been, are, and will be 23 necessarily expended for the prosecution of this action for the substantial 24 benefit of each class member.

25 (d) Superiority: A Class Action is superior to other available methods for the 26 fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy, including consideration of:

27 1) The interests of the members of the Class in individually controlling 28 the prosecution or defense of separate actions;

- 2) The extent and nature of any litigation concerning the controversy already commenced by or against members of the Class;
- 3) The desirability or undesirability of concentrating the litigation of the claims in the particular forum; and,
- 4) The difficulties likely to be encountered in the management of a class action.

(e) Public Policy Considerations: The public policy of the State of California is to resolve the California Labor Code claims of many employees through a class action. Indeed, current employees are often afraid to assert their rights out of fear of direct or indirect retaliation. Former employees are also fearful of bringing actions because they believe their former employers might damage their future endeavors through negative references and/or other means. Class actions provide the class members who are not named in the complaint with a type of anonymity that allows for the vindication of their rights at the same time as their privacy is protected.

34. There are common questions of law and fact as to the Class (and each subclass, if any) that predominate over questions affecting only individual members, including without limitation, whether, as alleged herein, Defendants have:

- (a) Failed to pay Class Members for all hours worked, including minimum, straight time, reporting time pay, and overtime wages;
- (b) Failed to provide meal periods and pay meal period premium wages to Class Members;
- (c) Failed to authorize and permit rest periods and pay rest period premium wages to Class Members;
- (d) Failed to provide Class Members with all wages during employment;
- (e) Failed to provide Class Members with timely final wages;
- (f) Failed to provide Class Members with sick leave pay;
- (g) Failed to provide Class Members with suitable seating;

- (h) Failed to maintain accurate records of hours worked and meal periods for Class Members;
- (i) Failed to provide Class Members with accurate wage statements;
- (j) Failed to indemnify Class Members for expenditures; and,
- (k) Violated California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200 et. seq. as a result of their illegal conduct as described above.

35. This Court should permit this action to be maintained as a class action pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 382 because:

- (a) The questions of law and fact common to the Class predominate over any question affecting only individual members;
- (b) A class action is superior to any other available method for the fair and efficient adjudication of the claims of the members of the Class;
- (c) The members of the Class are so numerous that it is impractical to bring all members of the class before the Court;
- (d) Plaintiff, and the other members of the Class, will not be able to obtain effective and economic legal redress unless the action is maintained as a class action;
- (e) There is a community of interest in obtaining appropriate legal and equitable relief for the statutory violations, and in obtaining adequate compensation for the damages and injuries for which Defendants are responsible in an amount sufficient to adequately compensate the members of the Class for the injuries sustained;
- (f) Without class certification, the prosecution of separate actions by individual members of the class would create a risk of:
 - 1) Inconsistent or varying adjudications with respect to individual members of the Class which would establish incompatible standards of conduct for Defendants; and/or,
 - 2) Adjudications with respect to the individual members which would,

as a practical matter, be dispositive of the interests of other members not parties to the adjudications, or would substantially impair or impede their ability to protect their interests, including but not limited to the potential for exhausting the funds available from those parties who are, or may be, responsible Defendants; and,

(g) Defendants have acted or refused to act on grounds generally applicable to the Class, thereby making final injunctive relief appropriate with respect to the class as a whole.

36. Plaintiffs contemplate the eventual issuance of notice to the proposed members of the Class that would set forth the subject and nature of the instant action. The Defendants' own business records may be utilized for assistance in the preparation and issuance of the contemplated notices. To the extent that any further notices may be required, Plaintiffs contemplate the use of additional techniques and forms commonly used in class actions, such as published notice, e-mail notice, website notice, first-class mail, or combinations thereof, or by other methods suitable to the Class and deemed necessary and/or appropriate by the Court.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

(Against All Defendants for Failure to Pay Minimum and Straight Time Wages for All Hours Worked)

37. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference and re-allege as if fully stated herein paragraphs 1 through 27 in this Complaint.

38. "Hours worked" is the time during which an employee is subject to the control of an employer, and includes all the time the employee is suffered or permitted to work, whether or not required to do so.

39. At all relevant times herein mentioned, Defendants knowingly failed to pay to Plaintiffs, and the Class compensation for all hours they worked. By their failure to pay compensation for each hour worked as alleged above, Defendants willfully violated the provisions of California Labor Code § 1194, and any additional applicable Wage Orders, which require such compensation to non-exempt employees.

40. Accordingly, Plaintiffs and the Class are entitled to recover minimum and straight time wages for all non-overtime hours worked for Defendants.

41. By and through the conduct described above, Plaintiffs, and the Class have been deprived of their rights to be paid wages earned by virtue of their employment with Defendants.

42. By virtue of the Defendants' unlawful failure to pay additional compensation to Plaintiffs and the Class for their non-overtime hours worked without pay, Plaintiffs and the Class suffered, and will continue to suffer, damages in amounts which are presently unknown to Plaintiffs and the Class and which will be ascertained according to proof at trial.

43. By failing to keep adequate time records required by California Labor Code § 1174(d), Defendants have made it difficult to calculate the full extent of minimum wage compensation due Plaintiffs and the Class.

44. Pursuant to California Labor Code § 1194.2, Plaintiffs and the Class are entitled to recover liquidated damages (double damages) for Defendants' failure to pay minimum wages.

45. California Labor Code § 204 requires employers to provide employees with all wages due and payable twice a month. Throughout the statute of limitations period applicable to this cause of action, Plaintiffs and the Class were entitled to be paid twice a month at rates required by law, including minimum and straight time wages. However, during all such times, Defendants systematically failed and refused to pay Plaintiffs and the Class all such wages due and failed to pay those wages twice a month.

46. Plaintiff and the Class are also entitled to seek recovery of all unpaid minimum and straight time wages, interest, and reasonable attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to California Labor Code §§ 218.5, 218.6, and 1194(a).

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

(Against All Defendants for Failure to Pay Overtime Wages)

47. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference and re-allege as if fully stated herein paragraphs 1 through 27 in this Complaint.

48. California Labor Code § 510 provides that employees in California shall not be employed more than eight hours in any workday or forty (40) hours in a workweek unless they

1 receive additional compensation beyond their regular wages in amounts specified by law.

2 49. California Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1198 provide that employees in California shall 3 not be employed more than eight hours in any workday unless they receive additional 4 compensation beyond their regular wages in amounts specified by law. Additionally, California
5 Labor Code § 1198 states that the employment of an employee for longer hours than those fixed 6 by the IWC is unlawful.

7 50. At all times relevant hereto, Plaintiffs and the Class have worked more than eight
8 hours in a workday and/or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek, as employees of Defendants.

9 51. At all times relevant hereto, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiffs and the Class
10 overtime compensation for the hours they have worked in excess of the maximum hours
11 permissible by law as required by California Labor Code §§ 510 and 1198.

12 52. By virtue of Defendants' unlawful failure to pay additional premium rate
13 compensation at the correct regular rate to the Plaintiffs and the Class for their overtime hours
14 worked, Plaintiffs and the Class have suffered, and will continue to suffer, damages in amounts
15 which are presently unknown to them but which exceed the jurisdictional minimum of this Court
16 and which will be ascertained according to proof at trial.

17 53. By failing to keep adequate time records required by Labor Code § 1174(d), 18 Defendants have made it difficult to calculate the full extent of overtime compensation due to 19 Plaintiff and the Class.

20 54. Plaintiffs and the Class also request recovery of overtime compensation according 21 to proof, interest, attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to California Labor Code § 1194(a), as well
22 as the assessment of any statutory penalties against Defendants, in a sum as provided by the 23 California Labor Code and/or other statutes.

24 55. California Labor Code § 204 requires employers to provide employees with all 25 wages due and payable twice a month. The Wage Orders also provide that every employer shall 26 pay to each employee, on the established payday for the period involved, overtime wages for all
27 overtime hours worked in the payroll period. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and the Class
28 with all compensation due, in violation of California Labor Code § 204.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

(Against All Defendants for Failure to Provide Meal Periods)

56. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference and re-allege as if fully stated herein paragraphs 1 through 27 in this Complaint.

57. Under California law, Defendants have an affirmative obligation to relieve the Plaintiffs and the Class of all duty in order to take their first daily meal periods no later than the start of Plaintiffs' and the Class' sixth hour of work in a workday, and to take their second meal periods no later than the start of the eleventh hour of work in the workday. California Labor Code § 512, and Section 11 of the applicable Wage Orders require that an employer provide unpaid meal periods of at least thirty (30) minutes for each five-hour period worked. It is a violation of California Labor Code § 226.7 for an employer to require any employee to work during any meal period mandated under any Wage Order.

58. Despite these legal requirements, Defendants regularly failed to provide Plaintiffs and the Class with both meal periods as required by California law. By their failure to permit and authorize Plaintiffs and the Class to take all meal periods as alleged above (or due to the fact that Defendants made it impossible or impracticable to take these uninterrupted meal periods), Defendants willfully violated the provisions of California Labor Code § 226.7 and the applicable Wage Orders.

59. Under California law, Plaintiffs and the Class are entitled to be paid one hour of additional wages for each workday he or she was not provided with all required meal period(s), plus interest thereon.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Against All Defendants for Failure to Authorize and Permit Rest Periods)

60. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference and re-allege as if fully stated herein paragraphs 1 through 27 in this Complaint.

61. Defendants are required by California law to authorize and permit breaks of ten uninterrupted minutes for each four hours of work or major fraction of four hours (i.e. more than two hours). California Labor Code § 512, the applicable Wage Orders require that the employer

1 permit and authorize all employees to take paid rest periods of ten minutes each for each 4-hour
2 period worked. Thus, for example, if an employee's work time is six hours and ten minutes, the 3 employee is entitled to two rest breaks. Each failure to authorize rest breaks as so required is itself
4 a violation of California's rest break laws. It is a violation of California Labor Code § 226.7 for 5 an employer to require any employee to work during any rest period mandated under any Wage
6 Order.

7 62. Despite these legal requirements, Defendants failed to authorize Plaintiffs and the 8 Class to take rest breaks, regardless of whether employees worked more than four hours in a
9 workday. By their failure to permit and authorize Plaintiffs and the Class to take rest periods as 10 alleged above (or due to the fact that Defendants made it impossible or impracticable to take these 11 uninterrupted rest periods), Defendants willfully violated the provisions of California Labor Code
12 § 226.7 and the applicable Wage Orders.

13 63. Under California law, Plaintiffs and the Class are entitled to be paid one hour of 14 premium wages rate for each workday he or she was not provided with all required rest break(s), 15 plus interest thereon.

16 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

17 (Against All Defendants for Failure to Pay Wages of Discharged Employees – Waiting Time 18 Penalties)

19 64. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference and re-allege as if fully stated herein paragraphs
20 1 through 27 in this Complaint.

21 65. At all times herein set forth, California Labor Code §§ 201 and 202 provide that if 22 an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due 23 and payable immediately, and that if an employee voluntarily leaves his or her employment, his or 24 her wages shall become due and payable not later than seventy-two (72) hours thereafter, unless 25 the employee has given seventy-two (72) hours previous notice of his or her intention to quit, in 26 which case the employee is entitled to his or her wages at the time of quitting.

27 66. Within the applicable statute of limitations, the employment of many other members
28 of the Class ended, i.e. was terminated by quitting or discharge, and the employment of others will

1 be. However, during the relevant time period, Defendants failed, and continue to fail to pay
2 terminated Class Members, without abatement, all wages required to be paid by California Labor
3 Code §§ 201 and 202 either at the time of discharge, or within seventy-two (72) hours of their 4 leaving Defendants' employ.

5 67. Defendants' failure to pay those Class members who are no longer employed by 6 Defendants their wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge, or within seventy-two (72)
7 hours of their leaving Defendants' employ, is in violation of California Labor Code §§ 201 and 8 202.

9 68. California Labor Code § 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay
10 wages owed, in accordance with §§ 201 and 202, then the wages of the employee shall continue as 11 a penalty wage from the due date, and at the same rate until paid or until an action is commenced;
12 but the wages shall not continue for more than thirty (30) days.

13 69. The Class is entitled to recover from Defendants their additionally accruing wages
14 for each day they were not paid, at their regular hourly rate of pay, up to thirty (30) days maximum 15 pursuant to California Labor Code § 203.

16 70. Pursuant to California Labor Code §§ 218.5, 218.6 and 1194, the Class is also 17 entitled to an award of reasonable attorneys' fees, interest, expenses, and costs incurred in this 18 action.

19 SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

20 (Against All Defendants for Failure to Provide and Maintain Accurate and Compliant 21 Wage Records)

22 71. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference and re-allege as if fully stated herein paragraphs
23 1 through 27 in this Complaint.

24 72. At all material times set forth herein, California Labor Code § 226(a) provides that 25 every employer shall furnish each of his or her employees an accurate itemized wage statement in 26 writing showing nine pieces of information, including: (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours
27 worked by the employee, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate
28 if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided that all deductions made

1 on written orders of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned,
2 (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee
3 and the last four digits of his or her social security number or an employee identification number
4 other than a social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the 5 employer, and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding 6 number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee.

7 73. Defendants have intentionally and willfully failed to provide employees with 8 complete and accurate wage statements. The deficiencies include, among other things, the failure
9 to correctly identify the gross wages earned by Plaintiffs and the Class, the failure to list the true
10 “total hours worked by the employee,” and the failure to list the true net wages earned.

11 74. As a result of Defendants’ violation of California Labor Code § 226(a), Plaintiffs 12 and the Class have suffered injury and damage to their statutorily protected rights.

13 75. Specifically, Plaintiffs and the members of the Class have been injured by 14 Defendants’ intentional violation of California Labor Code § 226(a) because they were denied both 15 their legal right to receive, and their protected interest in receiving, accurate, itemized wage
16 statements under California Labor Code § 226(a).

17 76. Calculation of the true wage entitlement for Plaintiffs and the Class is difficult and 18 time consuming. As a result of this unlawful burden, Plaintiffs and the Class were also injured as 19 a result of having to bring this action to attempt to obtain correct wage information following
20 Defendants’ refusal to comply with many of the mandates of California’s Labor Code and related 21 laws and regulations.

22 77. Plaintiffs and the Class are entitled to recover from Defendants the greater of their 23 actual damages caused by Defendants’ failure to comply with California Labor Code § 226(a), or 24 an aggregate penalty not exceeding four thousand dollars ($4,000) per employee.

25 78. Plaintiffs and the Class are also entitled to injunctive relief, as well as an award of 26 attorney’s fees and costs to ensure compliance with this section, pursuant to California Labor Code
27 § 226(h).
28

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Against All Defendants for Failure to Pay All Wages During Employment)

79. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference and re-allege all preceding paragraphs as though fully stated herein paragraphs 1 through 27 in this Complaint.

80. Labor Code § 204 requires employers to pay employees all earned wages two times per month. Throughout the statute of limitations period applicable to this cause of action, employees were entitled to be paid twice a month at their regular rates, including all meal period premium wages owed, rest period premium wages owed, and wages owed for overtime hours worked. However, during all such times, Defendants systematically failed and refused to pay the employees all wages due, and failed to pay those wages twice a month, in that employees were not paid all wages for all meal periods not provided by Defendants, all wages for all rest periods not authorized and permitted by Defendants, and all wages for all hours worked.

As a result, Defendants owe employees the legally required wages not paid, and Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees suffered damages in those amounts.EIGHTH CAUSE

OF ACTION

(Against All Defendants for Failure to Indemnify Employees for Expenditures)

81. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference and re-allege as if fully stated herein paragraphs 1 through 27 in this Complaint.

82. As set forth above, Plaintiffs and the Class were required to incur substantial necessary expenditures and losses in direct consequence of the discharge of their duties or of their obedience to directions of Defendants.

83. Defendants violated California Labor Code § 2802, by failing to pay and indemnify Plaintiffs and the Class for necessary expenditures and losses incurred in direct consequence of the discharge of their duties or of their obedience to directions of Defendants.

84. As a result, Plaintiffs and the Class were damaged at least in the amounts of the expenses they paid, or which were deducted by Defendants from their wages.

85. Plaintiffs and the Class are entitled to reasonable attorney's fees, expenses, and costs of suit pursuant to California Labor Code § 2802(c) and interest pursuant to California Labor Code § 2802(b).

NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Against All Defendants for Failure to Maintain Required Records)

86. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference and re-allege all preceding paragraphs as if fully stated herein paragraphs 1 through 27 in this Complaint.

87. At all times relevant hereto, as part of Defendants' illegal payroll policies and practices to deprive Plaintiffs, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees of all wages earned and due, Defendants knowingly and intentionally failed to maintain records as required under California Labor Code §§ 226, 1174, and IWC Wage Order No. 7-2001, § 7, including but not limited to the following records: total daily hours worked by each employee; applicable rates of pay; all deductions; meal periods; time records showing when each employee begins and ends each work period; and accurate itemized statements.

88. As a proximate result of Defendants' unlawful actions and omissions, Plaintiffs and the Class have damages in an amount according to proof at trial, and are entitled to all wages earned and due, plus interest thereon. Additionally, Plaintiffs and the Class are entitled to all available statutory penalties, including but not limited to civil penalties pursuant to California Labor Code §§ 226(e), 226.3, and 1174.5, and an award of costs, expenses, and reasonable attorneys' fees, including but not limited to those provided in California Labor Code § 226(e), as well as other available remedies

TENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Against All Defendants for Failure to Provide Sick Leave Pay)

89. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference and re-allege all preceding paragraphs as though fully stated herein paragraphs 1 through 27 in this Complaint.

90. At all times herein set forth, California Labor Code § 246 provides that employees shall provide employees with paid sick leave of at least twenty-four (24) hours per calendar year or 12-month period.

1 91. Additionally, California Labor Code § 246(I)(1) provides that paid sick time for 2 non-exempt employees shall be calculated in the same manner as the regular rate of pay for the 3 workweek in which the employee uses paid sick time, whether or not the employee actually 4 works overtime in that workweek.

5 92. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiffs and the 6 Class with sick leave pay in accordance with California Labor Code § 246.

7 93. Plaintiffs and the Class are entitled to recover all remedies available for violations
8 of California Labor Code § 246.

9 94. Pursuant to California Labor Code §§ 218.5, 218.6 and 1194, the Class is also entitled 10 to an award of reasonable attorneys' fees, interest, expenses, and costs incurred in this action.

11 ELEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

12 (Against All Defendants for Failure to Provide Reporting Time Pay)

13 95. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference and re-allege as if fully stated herein paragraphs 1
14 through 27 in this Complaint.

15 96. Labor Code section 1198 makes it illegal to employ an employee under conditions of 16 labor that are prohibited by the applicable wage order and requires that "the standard conditions
17 of labor fixed by the commission shall be the . . . standard conditions of labor for employees. The 18 employment of any employee. . . under conditions of labor prohibited by the order is unlawful."

19 97. The IWC Wage Orders, require that reporting time pay be provided to any employee 20 who is required to report for work and does report, but is not put to work or is furnished less than 21 half said employee's usual or scheduled day's work.

22 98. Defendants had a company-wide practice of sending employees home early from 23 their shifts, including before they had worked at least half of their regular shift.

24 99. Although Plaintiff and Class Members would report to work based on the schedule
25 Defendants provided to them, Defendants would send them home before they had worked at least 26 half of their scheduled shifts without giving them reporting time pay.

27 100. Accordingly, Plaintiff and Class Members were not properly compensated with 28 reporting time pay in violation of Labor Code section 1198.

TWELFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Against All Defendants for Violation of Failure to Provide Suitable Seating)

101. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference and re-allege as if fully stated herein paragraphs 1 through 27 in this Complaint.

102. In violation of the applicable sections of the California Labor Code and the requirements of the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission (“IWC”) Wage Order, Defendants as a matter of company policy, practice and procedure, intentionally, knowingly and systematically failed to provide Plaintiffs and the Class suitable seating when the nature of these employees’ work reasonably permitted sitting.

103. Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and the Class were entitled to suitable seating and/or were entitled to sit when it did not interfere with the performance of their duties, and that Defendants did not provide suitable seating and/or did not allow them to sit when it did not interfere with the performance of their duties.

104. By reason of this conduct applicable to Plaintiffs and the Class, Defendants violated California Labor Code Section 1198 and Wage Order 9-2001, Section 14 by failing to provide suitable seats. Plaintiffs seek penalties on behalf of Plaintiff and, the Class as provided herein. Providing suitable seating is the Defendants’ burden. As a result of Defendants’ intentional disregard of the obligation to meet this burden, Defendants violated the California Labor Code and regulations promulgated thereunder as herein alleged.

THIRTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Against All Defendants for Violation of California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.)

105. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference and re-allege as if fully stated herein paragraphs 1 through 27 in this Complaint.

106. Defendants, and each of them, are “persons” as defined under California Business & Professions Code § 17201.

107. Defendants’ conduct, as alleged herein, has been, and continues to be, unfair, unlawful, and harmful to Plaintiffs, other Class members, and to the general public. Plaintiffs seek

1 to enforce important rights affecting the public interest within the meaning of Code of Civil
2 Procedure § 1021.5.

3 108. Defendants' activities, as alleged herein, are violations of California law, and
4 constitute unlawful business acts and practices in violation of California Business & Professions
5 Code §§ 17200, et seq.

6 109. A violation of California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq. may be
7 predicated on the violation of any state or federal law. All of the acts described herein as violations
8 of, among other things, the California Labor Code, are unlawful and in violation of public policy;
9 and in addition are immoral, unethical, oppressive, fraudulent and unscrupulous, and thereby
10 constitute unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices in violation of California Business
11 & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

12 Failure to Pay Minimum and Straight Time Wages

13 110. Defendants' failure to pay minimum and straight time wages, and other benefits in 14 violation of the California Labor Code constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited by 15 California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

16 Failure to Pay Overtime Wages

17 111. Defendants' failure to pay overtime compensation and other benefits in violation of 18 California Labor Code §§ 510, 1194, and 1198 constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity
19 prohibited by California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

20 Failure to Provide Meal Periods

21 112. Defendants' failure to provide meal periods in accordance with California Labor
22 Code §§ 226.7 and 512, and the IWC Wage Orders, as alleged above, constitutes unlawful and/or 23 unfair activity prohibited by California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

24 Failure to Authorize and Permit Rest Periods

25 113. Defendants' failure to authorize and permit rest periods in accordance with 26 California Labor Code § 226.7 and the IWC Wage Orders, as alleged above, constitutes unlawful 27 and/or unfair activity prohibited by Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

28 Failure to Timely Pay All Earned Wages Twice Per Month

114. Defendants' failure to pay all wages due, and failure to pay those wages twice a month, including wages for meal periods not provided by Defendants, for rest periods not authorized and permitted by Defendants, for all hours worked, and for sick leave, as required under Labor Code § 204, as alleged above, constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited by Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

Failure to Maintain Accurate Records of Hours Worked and Meal Periods

115. Defendants' failure to maintain accurate records of hours worked and all meal periods taken or missed, as required under Labor Code § 1174(d) and applicable IWC Wage Orders, as alleged above, constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited by Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

Failure to Provide Sick Leave Pay

116. Defendants' failure to provide sick leave pay in accordance with California Labor Code § 246, as alleged above, constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited by California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

Failure to Provide Suitable Seating

117. Defendants' failure to provide adequate seating to their employees although the nature of their work would have reasonably permitted the use of seat, as required under Labor Code § 1194 and applicable IWC Wage Orders, as alleged above, constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited by California Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

Failure to Timely Pay All Wages at Termination

118. Defendants' failure to pay all wages timely at termination in accordance with California Labor Code §§ 201, 202, and 203, as alleged above, constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited by California Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

Failure to Pay Reporting Time Pay

119. Defendants' failure to pay reporting time pay in accordance with California Labor Code § 1198 and the applicable IWC Wage Orders, including but not limited to IWC Wage Order No. 9-2001 § 5, as alleged above, constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited by California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

Failure to Indemnify Business Expenses

120. Defendants' failure to reimburse expenses incurred in accordance with California Labor Code § 2802, as alleged above, constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited by California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200 et seq.

121. By and through their unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices described herein, the Defendants, have obtained valuable property, money and services from Plaintiffs, and all persons similarly situated, and has deprived Plaintiffs, and all persons similarly situated, of valuable rights and benefits guaranteed by law, all to their detriment.

122. Plaintiffs and the Class Members suffered monetary injury as a direct result of Defendants' wrongful conduct.

123. Plaintiffs, individually, and on behalf of members of the putative Class, are entitled to, and do, seek such relief as may be necessary to disgorge money and/or property which the Defendants have wrongfully acquired, or of which Plaintiffs and the Class have been deprived, by means of the above-described unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices. Plaintiffs and the Class are not obligated to establish individual knowledge of the wrongful practices of Defendants in order to recover restitution.

124. Plaintiffs, individually, and on behalf of members of the putative class, are further entitled to, and d, seek a declaration that the above-described business practices are unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent, and injunctive relief restraining the Defendants, and each of them, from engaging in any of the above-described unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices in the future.

125. Plaintiffs, individually, and on behalf of members of the putative class, have no plain, speedy, and/or adequate remedy at law to redress the injuries which the Class Members suffered as a consequence of the Defendants' unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices. As a result of the unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices described above, Plaintiffs, individually, and on behalf of members of the putative Class, have suffered and will continue to suffer irreparable harm unless the Defendants, and each of them, are restrained from continuing to engage in said unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices.

126. Plaintiffs also allege that if Defendants are not enjoined from the conduct set forth herein above, they will continue to avoid paying the appropriate taxes, insurance and other withholdings.

127. Pursuant to California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq., Plaintiffs and putative Class Members are entitled to restitution of the wages withheld and retained by Defendants during a period that commences four years and 178 days prior to the filing of this complaint; a permanent injunction requiring Defendants to pay all outstanding wages due to Plaintiffs and Class Members; an award of attorneys' fees pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5 and other applicable laws; and an award of costs.

FOURTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Against All Defendants for Violation of California Labor Code § 2699, et seq.)

128. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference and re-allege as if fully stated herein paragraphs 1 through 27 in this Complaint.

129. At all times herein mentioned, Defendants were subject to the Labor Code of the State of California and the applicable IWC Orders.

130. California Labor Code § 2699(a) specifically provides for a private right of action to recover penalties for violations of the Labor Code: "Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any provision of this code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the Labor and Workforce Development Agency or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards, agencies, or employees, for a violation of this code, may, as an alternative, be recovered through a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of himself and other current or former employees pursuant to the procedures specified in Section 2699.3."

131. Plaintiffs have exhausted their administrative remedies pursuant to California Labor Code § 2699.3. They gave written notice by online filing to the LWDA and by certified mail to Defendant of the specific provisions of the Labor Code that Defendant violated against Plaintiffs and current and former aggrieved employees, including the facts and theories to support the violations. Plaintiffs also paid the filing fee.

132. Therefore, the administrative prerequisites under California Labor Code section 2699.3(a) to recover civil penalties against Defendants have been satisfied.

133. The statute of limitations is tolled while a plaintiff exhausts his or her administrative remedies with California's LWDA prior to suit, which is required by the statute. (See Labor Code § 2699.3(d).)

134. More than sixty-five (65) days have elapsed since Plaintiffs provided notice, but the LWDA has not indicated that it intends to investigate Defendants' Labor Code violations discussed in the notice. Accordingly, Plaintiffs may commence a civil action to recover penalties under Labor Code § 2699 pursuant to § 2699.3 for the violations of the Labor Code described in this Complaint. These penalties include, but are not limited to, penalties under California Labor Code §§ 210, 226.3, 1174.5, 1197.1, and 2699(f)(2).

135. Based on the conduct described in this Complaint, Plaintiff is entitled to an award of civil penalties on behalf of the State of California and similarly Aggrieved Employees of Defendants. The exact amount of the applicable penalties, in all, is in an amount to be shown according to proof at trial. These penalties are in addition to all other remedies permitted by law.

136. In addition, Plaintiffs seek an award of reasonable attorney's fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(g)(1), which states, "Any employee who prevails in any action shall be entitled to an award of reasonable attorney's fees and costs."

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

Plaintiffs, individually, and on behalf of all others similarly situated only with respect to the class claims, pray for relief and judgment against Defendants, jointly and severally, as follows:

Class Certification

1. That this action be certified as a class action with respect to the First, Second, Third, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Seventh, Eighth, Ninth, Tenth, Eleventh, and Twelfth Causes of Action;
2. That Plaintiffs be appointed as the representative of the Class; and,
3. That counsel for Plaintiffs be appointed as Class Counsel.

As to the First Cause of Action

4. That the Court declare, adjudge, and decree that Defendants violated California

1 Labor Code §§ 204 and 1194 and applicable IWC Wage Orders by willfully failing to pay all
2 minimum and straight time wages due;

3 5. For unpaid wages as may be appropriate;

4 6. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid compensation commencing from the date
5 such amounts were due;

6 7. For liquidated damages;

7 8. For reasonable attorneys' fees and for costs of suit incurred herein pursuant to
8 California Labor Code § 1194(a); and,

9 9. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

10 As to the Second Cause of Action

11 10. That the Court declare, adjudge, and decree that Defendants violated California
12 Labor Code §§ 510 and 1198 and applicable IWC Wage Orders by willfully failing to pay all
13 overtime wages due;

14 11. For unpaid wages at overtime wage rates as may be appropriate;

15 12. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid overtime compensation commencing from 16 the date such amounts were due;

17 13. For reasonable attorneys' fees and for costs of suit incurred herein pursuant to 18 California Labor Code § 1194(a); and,

19 14. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

20 As to the Third Cause of Action

21 15. That the Court declare, adjudge, and decree that Defendants violated California
22 Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512, and the IWC Wage Orders;

23 16. For unpaid meal period premium wages as may be appropriate;

24 17. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid compensation commencing from the date
25 such amounts were due;

26 18. For reasonable attorneys' fees under California Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5, 27 and for costs of suit incurred herein; and,

28 19. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

As to the Fourth Cause of Action

20. That the Court declare, adjudge, and decree that Defendants violated California Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512, and the IWC Wage Orders;

21. For unpaid rest period premium wages as may be appropriate;

22. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid compensation commencing from the date such amounts were due;

23. For reasonable attorneys' fees under California Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5, and for costs of suit incurred herein; and,

24. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

As to the Fifth Cause of Action

25. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California Labor Code §§ 201, 202, and 203 by willfully failing to pay all compensation owed at the time of termination of the employment;

26. For statutory wage penalties pursuant to California Labor Code § 203 for former employees who have left Defendants' employ;

27. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid wages from the date such amounts were due;

28. For reasonable attorneys' fees and for costs of suit incurred herein; and,

29. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

As to the Sixth Cause of Action

30. That the Court declare, adjudge, and decree that Defendants violated the record keeping provisions of California Labor Code § 226(a) and applicable IWC Wage Orders, and willfully failed to provide accurate itemized wage statements thereto;

31. For all actual damages, according to proof;

32. For statutory penalties pursuant to California Labor Code § 226(e);

33. For injunctive relief to ensure compliance with this section, pursuant to California Labor Code § 226(h);

34. For reasonable attorneys' fees and for costs of suit incurred herein; and,

35. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

As to the Seventh Cause of Action

36. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California Labor Code § 204 by willfully failing to pay all compensation owed during the employment;

37. For all actual damages, according to proof;

38. For statutory wage penalties pursuant to California Labor Code § 203 for former employees who have left Defendants' employ;

39. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid wages from the date such amounts were due;

40. For reasonable attorneys' fees and for costs of suit incurred herein; and,

41. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

As to the Eighth Cause of Action
