DEFENDANTS.

CASE NO. 20CV365909

[Case assigned for All Purposes to Hon. Judge
Patricia M. Lucas, in Dept. 3]

FIRST AMENDED CLASS AND REPRESENTATIVE ACTION COMPLAINT

1. Failure to Pay Wages and/or Overtime Under Labor Code §§ 510, 511, 1194, and 1199
2. Failure to Provide Meal Breaks Pursuant to Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512
3. Penalties Pursuant to Labor Code § 203
4. Violation of Business & Professions Code § 17200
5. Penalties Pursuant to Labor Code §2699, et seq.

1 Plaintiff TRAE WENINGER, an individual, on behalf of himself, all others similarly
2 situated, and on behalf of the people of the State of California and as an “aggrieved employee”
3 under Labor Code Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, §2699, et seq. (hereafter “PAGA”),
4 complains of Defendant BOOSTER FUELS, INC. (“Defendant”) and each of them, as follows:

5 I.

6 INTRODUCTION

7 1. This is a Class and Representative Action, pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure §
8 382, and Labor Code §2699, et seq., on behalf of Plaintiff and a Proposed Class defined as:

9 All persons who are employed or have been employed as an hourly
10 employee by BOOSTER FUELS, INC., in the State of California
11 since four (4) years prior to the filing of this action to the present.
12 (“Proposed Class”)

13 2. Plaintiff submitted this Complaint for filing on the date indicated in the signature 14 line below. Due to the unprecedented Court closure reflected in the Order issued by the Court on 15 March 16, 2020 suspending all non-essential functions for the duration of the “Shelter in Place”, 16 Plaintiff is uncertain as to when this Complaint will be accepted for filing and conformed by the 17 Clerk of this Court. Plaintiff takes the position that the applicable Statute of Limitations shall run,
18 in all respects, from the date of submission of the Complaint for filing as reflected in the signature 19 line below.

20 3. From at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this action continuing to the present,
21 Defendant has had a consistent policy of failing to pay wages and/or overtime to all Proposed Class 22 members when they work more than eight hours in a day or forty hours in a week. Plaintiff and 23 other Proposed Class members were not properly compensated for overtime at the appropriate rate
24 of pay because Defendant failed to lawfully adopt an alternative workweek schedule in compliance
25 with Industrial Welfare Commission (“IWC”) Wage Order 9-2001(3)(B)-(C) and the Labor Code.

26 4. From at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this action and continuing to the 27 present, Defendant has had a consistent policy of failing to inform Proposed Class members of 28 their right to take meal periods by way of a lawful policy and requiring Proposed Class members within the State of California, including Plaintiff, to work at least five (5) hours without a meal period and failing to pay such employees one (1) hour of pay at the employees' regular rate of compensation for each workday that the meal period is not provided or provided after five (5) hours, as required by California state wage and hour laws.

5. For at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this action continuing to the present, Defendant has failed to comply with Industrial Welfare Commission ("IWC") Wage Order 9-2001(7) by failing to maintain time records showing when Plaintiff and members of the Proposed Class beings and ends each meal period.

6. For at least three (3) years prior to the filing of this action continuing to the present, Defendant has failed to pay all wages due at the time of termination or resignation to Plaintiff and the Proposed Class.

7. Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and all Proposed Class members brings this action pursuant to Labor Code §§ 201, 202, 203, 226.7, 510, 511, 512, 1194, and 1199; Wage Order 9-2001; and California Code of Regulations, Title 8, Section 11090, seeking unpaid wages/overtime, meal period penalties, other penalties, injunctive and other equitable relief, and reasonable attorneys' fees and costs.

8. Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and all Proposed Class members, pursuant to Business & Professions Code §§ 17200-17208, also seeks injunctive relief, restitution, and disgorgement of all benefits Defendant enjoyed from its unlawful conduct as described herein.

9. For at least one (1) year prior to the date of the letter sent to the Labor Workforce and Development Agency ("LWDA") and Defendant giving notice of the claims pursuant to PAGA and continuing to the present, Defendant has violated several Labor Code provisions, as detailed below, giving rise to a claim pursuant to PAGA. Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and all aggrieved employees presently or formerly employed by Defendant during the liability period as defined in his PAGA notice letter (see Exhibit "1"), brings this representative action pursuant to Labor Code §2699, et seq. seeking penalties for Defendant's failure to pay wages and/or overtime, failure to provide compliant meal periods, and failure to pay all wages due upon termination.

1 II.

2 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

3 10. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction over all causes of action asserted herein
4 pursuant to Article VI, § 10 of the California Constitution and California Code of Civil Procedure
5 § 410.10 by virtue of the fact that this is a civil action in which the matter in controversy, exclusive 6 of interest, exceeds $25,000, and because each cause of action asserted arises under the laws of the 7 State of California or is subject to adjudication in the courts of the State of California.

8 11. This Court has personal jurisdiction over Defendant because Defendant has caused 9 injuries in the County of Santa Clara and the State of California through their acts, and by their 10 violation of the California Labor Code, California state common law, and California Business & 11 Professions Code § 17200, et seq.

12 12. Venue as to each Defendant is proper in this judicial district, pursuant to Code of 13 Civil Procedure § 395. Defendant operates within California and does business within Santa Clara
14 County. The unlawful acts alleged herein have a direct effect on Plaintiff and all Proposed Class 15 members within the State of California and the county of Santa Clara.

16 13. This case should be classified as complex according to Rule 3.400 of the California
17 Rules of Court, and assigned to a complex litigation judge and department, as it will involve
18 substantial documentary evidence, a large number of witnesses, and is likely to involve extensive 19 motion practice raising difficult or novel issues that will be time-consuming to resolve and would 20 require substantial post judgment judicial supervision.

21 III.

22 PARTIES

23 A. PLAINTIFF

24 14. Plaintiff TRAE WENINGER is a resident of California.

25 15. Plaintiff and all Proposed Class members, were regularly required to:

- 26 a. Work without being paid for all hours at the appropriate rate of pay;
27 b. Work without being provided lawful meal periods;
28 c. Work without Defendant maintaining records showing when Plaintiff and members of the Proposed Class begins and ends each meal period.

16. Defendant willfully failed to compensate Plaintiff and all Proposed Class members for wages at the termination of their employment with Defendant.

17. As a result of this conduct, Defendant has engaged in unfair competition and unlawful business practices.

18. Plaintiff and all aggrieved employees as defined in his notice letter to the LWDA are “aggrieved employees” within the meaning of Labor Code § 2699, et seq. (see Labor Code §2699(c).)

B. DEFENDANTS

19. Defendant BOOSTER FUELS, INC. is believed to be a Delaware corporation operating within the State of California. Defendant’s corporate address is believed to be 1840 Gateway Drive, Suite 200, San Mateo, CA 94404. Upon information and belief, Defendant employed Plaintiff and similarly situated persons as hourly employees within California. Defendant has done and does business throughout the State of California.

20. The true names and capacities, whether individual, corporate, associate, or otherwise, of Defendants sued herein as DOES 1 to 50, inclusive, are currently unknown to Plaintiff, who therefore sues Defendants by such fictitious names under Code of Civil Procedure § 474. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that each of the Defendants designated herein as a DOE is legally responsible in some manner for the unlawful acts referred to herein. Plaintiff will seek leave of court to amend this Complaint to reflect the true names and capacities of the Defendants designated hereinafter as DOES when such identities become known.

21. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that each Defendant acted in all respects pertinent to this action as the agent of the other Defendants, carried out a joint scheme, business plan or policy in all respects pertinent hereto, and the acts of each Defendant are legally attributable to the other Defendants. Furthermore, Defendants in all respects acted as the employer and/or joint employer of Plaintiff and the Proposed Class members.

22. Furthermore, Defendants acted in all respects as the employers or joint employers of the Proposed Class. Defendants, and each of them, exercised control over the wages, hours or

1 working conditions of the Proposed Class, or suffered or permitted the Proposed Class to work, or 2 engaged, thereby creating a common law employment relationship, with the Proposed Class.
3 Therefore, Defendants, and each of them, employed or jointly employed the Proposed Class.

4 IV.

5 FACTUAL BACKGROUND

6 23. Plaintiff and the Proposed Class are, and at all times pertinent hereto, have been 7 classified as non-exempt employees by Defendant. Defendant hires employees who work as 8 hourly employees who are paid on an hourly basis.

9 24. Upon information and belief, Plaintiff and the Proposed Class are covered by 10 California Industrial Welfare Commission Occupational Wage Order No. 9-2001 (Title 8 Cal.
11 Code of Regs. § 11090).

12 25. On a regular and consistent basis, Plaintiff and the Proposed Class members were 13 not paid at the proper rate of compensation for hours worked in excess of eight hours in a workday
14 or forty hours in a workweek because Defendant failed to lawfully adopt an alternative workweek 15 schedule in compliance with IWC Wage Order 9-2001(3)(B)-(C) and the Labor Code.

16 26. Defendant failed to inform Plaintiff and the Proposed Class of their right to take 17 meal periods by way of a lawful policy. Plaintiff and all Proposed Class members have been 18 forced by Defendant to work over five (5) hours in one day without being provided a thirty (30)
19 minute uninterrupted meal break and not being compensated one (1) hour of pay at the regular rate
20 of compensation for each workday that a meal period was not provided or provided after five (5)
21 hours, all in violation of California labor laws, regulations, and Industrial Welfare Commission 22 Wage Orders.

23 27. Defendant has failed to comply with IWC Wage Order 9-2001(7) by failing to 24 maintain time records showing when the employee begins and ends each meal period.

25 28. Defendant willfully failed to pay wages and compensation, when Plaintiff and all 26 Proposed Class members quit or were discharged. This failure was willful, without legal 27 justification, and interfered with Plaintiff's and Class members' rights.

28 29. As a result of the acts alleged herein, Defendant violated Labor Code §2699, et seq.

1 V.

2 CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

3 30. Plaintiff brings this action on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated as 4 a Class Action pursuant to § 382 of the Code of Civil Procedure. Plaintiff seeks to represent a 5 proposed class composed of and defined as follows:

6 All persons who are employed or have been employed as an hourly
7 employee by BOOSTER FUELS, INC., in the State of California
8 since four (4) years prior to the filing of this action to the present.
9 (“Proposed Class”)

10 31. Plaintiff reserves the right under Rule 3.765(b) of the California Rules of Court to 11 amend or modify the class description with greater specificity, by division into subclasses, or by 12 limitation to particular issues.

13 32. This action has been brought and may properly be maintained as a class action
14 under the provisions of § 382 of the Code of Civil Procedure because there is a well-defined 15 community of interest in the litigation and the Proposed Classes are easily ascertainable.

16 A. NUMEROSITY

17 33. The potential members of the Proposed Class as defined are so numerous that 18 joinder of all the members of the Proposed Class is impracticable. While the precise number of 19 proposed Class members has not been determined at this time, Plaintiff is informed and believes
20 that Defendant currently employ, and during the relevant time periods employed over 50 members 21 of the Proposed Class.

22 34. Plaintiff alleges that Defendant’s employment records would provide information 23 as to the number and location of all Proposed Class members. Joinder of all members of the 24 Proposed Class is not practicable.

25 B. COMMONALITY

26 35. There are questions of law and fact common to the Proposed Class that predominate
27 over any questions affecting only individual Proposed Class members. These common questions 28 of law and fact include, without limitation:

a. Whether Defendant failed to pay wages and/or overtime compensation as required by the Labor Code and Wage Orders under Labor Code §§ 510, 1194, and 1199;

b. Whether Defendant violated Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512, and IWC Wage Order 9-2001 or other applicable IWC Wage Orders, by failing to inform Plaintiff and the Proposed Class of their right to take meal periods and by failing to provide required meal periods throughout the term of employment and failing to compensate said employees one (1) hours wages in lieu of rest periods;

c. Whether Defendant violated Labor Code Wage Order 9-2001 or other applicable IWC Wage Orders, and Cal. Code Regs., Title 8, Section 11090 by failing to keep records of meal periods;

d. Whether Defendant violated §§ 201-203 of the Labor Code by failing to pay compensation due and owing at the time that any Proposed Class member's employment with Defendant terminated;

e. Whether Defendant violated § 17200, et seq. of the Business & Professions Code by engaging in the acts previously alleged; and

f. Whether Plaintiff and the members of the Proposed Class are entitled to equitable relief pursuant to Business & Professions Code § 17200, et seq.

g. Whether Defendant violated Labor Code § 2699, et seq. by engaging in the acts alleged herein.

C. TYPICALITY

36. The claims of Plaintiff are typical of the claims of the Proposed Class. Plaintiff and all members of the Proposed Class sustained injuries and damages arising out of and caused by Defendant's common course of conduct in violation of laws, regulations that have the force and effect of law, and statutes as alleged herein.

D. ADEQUACY OF REPRESENTATION

37. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately represent and protect the interests of the members of the Proposed Class.

38. Counsel who represent Plaintiff and the Proposed Class are competent and experienced in litigating large employment class actions.

E. SUPERIORITY OF CLASS ACTION

39. A class action is superior to other available means for the fair and efficient adjudication of this controversy. Individual joinder of all Proposed Class members is not practicable, and questions of law and fact common to the Proposed Class predominate over any questions affecting only individual members of the Proposed Class. Each member of the Proposed Class has been damaged and is entitled to recovery by reason of Defendant's illegal policy and/or practice of failing to pay all wages due, failing to provide meal periods, and failing to pay all wages upon resignation or termination.

40. Class action treatment will allow those similarly situated persons to litigate their claims in the manner that is most efficient and economical for the parties and the judicial system. Plaintiff is unaware of any difficulties that are likely to be encountered in the management of this action that would preclude its maintenance as a class action.

VI.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

PLAINTIFF ON BEHALF OF HIMSELF AND THE PROPOSED CLASS

FAILURE TO PAY WAGES AND/OR OVERTIME UNDER

LABOR CODE §§ 510, 511, 1194, AND 1199

41. Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and the Proposed Class, realleges and incorporates by reference all previous paragraphs.

42. Defendant engaged in a practice of failing to pay wages and/or overtime pursuant to Labor Code §§ 510, 511, 1194, and 1199.

43. Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1199 require an employer to pay its employees the legal minimum wage and the legal overtime compensation applicable. Labor Code § 510(a) states that eight hours of labor constitutes a day's work and any work in excess of eight hours in one workday and any work in excess of 40 hours in any one workweek must be compensated at the rate of no less than one and one-half times the regular rate of pay for an employee. Any work in excess of 12 hours in one day shall be compensated at the rate of no less than twice the regular rate of pay.

44. Labor Code § 511 and IWC Wage Order 9-2001(3)(B) provide, upon the proposal

1 of an employer, for the adoption of an alternative workweek schedule that authorizes work by the 2 affected employees for no longer than ten (10) hours per day within a 40-hour workweek without 3 the payment to the affected employees of an overtime rate of compensation pursuant to this section.
4 A proposal to adopt an alternative workweek schedule shall be deemed adopted only if it receives
5 approval in a secret ballot election by at least two-thirds of affected employees in a readily 6 identifiable work unit.

7 45. Defendant failed to pay wages and/or overtime to Plaintiff and all aggrieved
8 employees because Defendant failed to adopt an alternative workweek schedule that complies with 9 the election procedures set forth in IWC Wage Order 9-2001(3)(C) and Labor Code § 511. To 10 adopt an alternative workweek schedule, Defendant conducted a secret ballot election with only 6 11 employees despite there being far more than 6 employees present at work at the time of voting.
12 As such, Defendant failed to lawfully adopt an alternative workweek schedule and failed to 13 properly compensate Plaintiff and members of the Proposed Class for overtime when they worked 14 over eight hours in a workday or forty hours in a workweek.

15 46. By their policy of requiring Plaintiff and members of the Proposed Class to work
16 in excess of eight (8) hours in a workday and/or forty (40) hours in a workweek without properly
17 compensating them at the rate of one-half (1 ½) times their regular rate of pay, Defendant willfully
18 violated the provisions of Labor Code §§ 510, 1194 and 1199.

19 47. As a result of the unlawful acts of Defendant, Plaintiff and the Proposed Class 20 members have been deprived of wages and/or overtime in amounts to be determined at trial, and 21 are entitled to recovery of such amounts, plus interest and penalties thereon, attorneys' fees, and 22 costs.

23 VII.

24 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

25 PLAINTIFF ON BEHALF OF HIMSELF AND THE PROPOSED CLASS

26 FAILURE TO PROVIDE MEAL PERIODS PURSUANT TO

27 LABOR CODE § 226.7 AND LABOR CODE § 512

28 48. Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and the Proposed Class, realleges and incorporates by reference all previous paragraphs.

49. Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512 require an employer to pay an additional hour of compensation for each meal period the employer fails to provide. Employees are entitled to a first meal period of at least thirty (30) minutes for shifts over five (5) hours, to be provided within the first five (5) hours of the shift, and a second meal period of at least thirty (30) minutes for shifts over ten (10) hours. If an employee is entitled to a second meal period, it must be provided after no more than ten (10) hours of work.

50. Defendant failed to maintain a policy informing Plaintiff and the Proposed Class of these rights.

51. Plaintiff and the Proposed Class consistently worked shifts over five (5) hours. Defendant failed to provide Plaintiff and the Proposed Class with timely meal periods of not less than thirty (30) minutes within the first five (5) hours of the shift as required by the Labor Code during the relevant time period. Defendant failed to pay a meal period premium, in lieu of providing a compliant meal period.

52. Further, IWC Wage Orders 9-2001(7), 5-2000(7), 5-1998(7) require Defendant to maintain time records showing, among other things, when the employee begins and ends each meal period. Labor Code § 1199 also prohibits an employer from causing any employee to work under conditions of labor prohibited by an order of the IWC or from violating, refusing, or neglecting to comply with any order of the commission's orders regarding wages, hours, and working conditions. Defendant does not record the time for Plaintiff and the Proposed Class. As such, Defendant has violated this statute and the Wage Order by failing to keep accurate records.

53. Pursuant to Labor Code § 226.7, Plaintiff and the Proposed Class are entitled to damages in an amount equal to one (1) hour of wages per missed meal break, per day in a sum to be proven at trial.

1 VIII.

2 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

3 PLAINTIFF ON BEHALF OF HIMSELF AND THE PROPOSED CLASS

4 WAITING TIME PENALTIES UNDER LABOR CODE § 203

5 54. Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and the Proposed Class, realleges and incorporates
6 by reference all previous paragraphs.

7 55. Numerous members of the Proposed Class including the Plaintiff are no longer
8 employed by Defendant. They were either fired or quit Defendant's employ.

9 56. Defendant's failure to pay wages, as alleged above was willful in that Defendant
10 knew wages to be due but failed to pay them, thus entitling Plaintiff and the Proposed Class to 11 penalties under Labor Code § 203, which provides that an employee's wages shall continue as a 12 penalty until paid for a period of up to thirty (30) days from the time they were due.

13 57. Defendant has failed to pay Plaintiff and others a sum certain at the time of 14 termination or within seventy-two (72) hours of their resignation, and have failed to pay those 15 sums for thirty (30) days thereafter. Pursuant to the provisions of Labor Code § 203, Plaintiff and 16 the Proposed Class are entitled to a penalty in the amount of Plaintiff's and the Proposed Class 17 Members' daily wage multiplied by thirty (30) days.

18 IX.

19 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

20 PLAINTIFF ON BEHALF OF HIMSELF AND THE PROPOSED CLASS

21 UNFAIR COMPETITION PURSUANT TO BUSINESS & PROFESSIONS CODE § 17200

22 58. Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and the Proposed Class, realleges and incorporates
23 by reference all previous paragraphs.

24 59. This is a Class Action for Unfair Business Practices. Plaintiff, on behalf of himself, 25 on behalf of the general public, and on behalf of the Proposed Class, bring this claim pursuant to 26 Business & Professions Code § 17200, et seq. The conduct of Defendant as alleged in this 27 Complaint has been and continues to be unfair, unlawful, and harmful to Plaintiff, the general
28 public, and the Proposed Class. Plaintiff seeks to enforce important rights affecting the public

1 interest within the meaning of Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5.

2 60. Plaintiff is a “person” within the meaning of Business & Professions Code § 17204,
3 and therefore has standing to bring this cause of action for injunctive relief, restitution, and other
4 appropriate equitable relief.

5 61. Business & Profession Code § 17200, et seq. prohibits unlawful and unfair business 6 practices.

7 62. California’s wage and hour laws express fundamental public policies. Providing 8 employees with proper wages and compensation are fundamental public policies of this State and 9 of the United States. Labor Code § 90.5(a) articulates the public policies of this State to enforce 10 vigorously minimum labor standards, to ensure that employees are not required or permitted to 11 work under substandard and unlawful conditions, and to protect law-abiding employers and their 12 employees from competitors who lower their costs by failing to comply with minimum labor 13 standards.

14 63. Defendant has violated statutes and public policies as alleged herein. Through the 15 conduct alleged in this Complaint, Defendant has acted contrary to these public policies, have 16 violated specific provisions of the Labor Code, and have engaged in other unlawful and unfair
17 business practices in violation of Business & Profession Code § 17200, et seq., depriving Plaintiff,
18 and all persons similarly situated, and all interested persons of rights, benefits, and privileges
19 guaranteed to all employees under law.

20 64. Defendant’s conduct, as alleged hereinabove, constitutes unfair competition in 21 violation of § 17200, et seq. of the Business & Professions Code.

22 65. Defendant, by engaging in the conduct herein alleged, either knew or in the exercise 23 of reasonable care, should have known that the conduct was unlawful. As such it is a violation of 24 § 17200, et seq. of the Business & Professions Code.

25 66. As a proximate result of the above-mentioned acts of Defendant, Plaintiff and 26 others similarly situated have been damaged in a sum as may be proven.

27 67. Unless restrained, Defendant will continue to engage in the unlawful conduct as 28 alleged above. Pursuant to the Business & Professions Code, this court should make such orders or judgments, including the appointment of a receiver, as may be necessary to prevent the use or employment by Defendant, its agents, or employees, of any unlawful or deceptive practices prohibited by the Business & Professions Code, and/or, including but not limited to, restitution and disgorgement of profits which may be necessary to restore Plaintiff and members of the Proposed Class the money Defendant has unlawfully failed to pay.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

PENALTIES PURSUANT TO LABOR CODE §2699, ET SEQ.

67. Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and all aggrieved employees, reallege and incorporated by reference all previous paragraphs.

68. As a result of the acts alleged above and specifically incorporated herein, Plaintiff seeks penalties under Labor Code §2699, et seq use of Defendant's violation of Labor Code §§ 201, 202, 203, 226.7, 510, 511, 512, 1194, and 1199; Wage Order 9-2001; and California Code of Regulations, Title 8, Section 11090, which call for civil penalties.

69. For each such penalty, Plaintiff and the aggrieved employees are entitled to penalties in an amount to be shown at trial, subject to the following formula:

a. $100 for the initial violation per employee per pay period.

b. $200 for each subsequent violation per employee per pay period.

70. These penalties shall be allocated seventy-five percent (75%) to the LWDA and twenty-five percent (25%) to the affected employees.

71. On March 31, 2020, pursuant to Labor Code § 2699.3(a)(1), Plaintiff uploaded a notice letter to the LWDA¹ and mailed a letter by certified mail to Defendant BOOSTER FUELS, INC.'s entity address, which is 1840 Gateway Drive, Suite 200, San Mateo, CA 94404, as proscribed by the Code, describing Defendant's conduct in violation of Labor Code §§ 201, 202, 203, 226.7, 510, 511, 512, 1194, and 1199. (see Exhibit "1.") Plaintiff also obtained an e-filing confirmation from the LWDA confirming receipt of the notice (see Exhibit “2”).

¹ Plaintiff electronically filed a PAGA Claim Notice to the LWDA, via the State of California Labor and Workforce Development Agency / Department of Industrial Relations website (<https://dir.tfaforms.net/266>).

73. As no letter evidencing the LWDA’s intention to investigate was received by Plaintiff’s Counsel within sixty-five (65) calendar days, Plaintiff is entitled to commence a civil action as though the LWDA had not chosen to investigate pursuant to Labor Code §2699.3(a)(2)(A). Plaintiff will also provide the LWDA with a filed-stamped copy of the First Amended Class and Representative Action Complaint immediately.

RELIEF REQUESTED

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for the following relief:

1. For compensatory damages in the amount of unpaid wages and/or overtime not paid to Plaintiff and each member of the Proposed Class from at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this action to the present as may be proven;

2. For compensatory damages in the amount of Plaintiff’s and each Proposed Class members’ hourly wage for each meal period missed or taken late from at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this action to the present as may be proven;

3. For penalties pursuant to Labor Code § 203 for all employees who were terminated or resigned equal to their daily wage times thirty (30) days;

4. An award of prejudgment and post judgment interest;

5. An order enjoining Defendant and its agents, servants, and employees, and all persons acting under, in concert with, or for it from providing Plaintiff with proper wages and/or overtime, meal periods, and wages upon termination/resignation pursuant to Labor Code §§ 201, 202, 203, 226.7, 510, 511, 512, 1194, 1199, and IWC Wage Order 9-2001;

6. For restitution for unfair competition pursuant to Business & Professions Code § 17200, et seq., including disgorgement or profits, in an amount as may be proven;

Re: TRAE WENINGER v. BOOSTER FUELS, INC.
California Labor Code § 2699 Penalties

Gentlepersons:

This office represents TRAE WENINGER (“Plaintiff”) and a proposed group of current and former employees working for BOOSTER FUELS, INC. (“Defendant”) in the State of California. The purpose of this letter is to comply with the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, pursuant to California Labor Code § 2698, et. seq. We herein set forth the facts and theories of California Labor Code violations which we allege Defendant engaged in with respect to Plaintiff and all of Defendant’s aggrieved employees.

Plaintiff wishes to bring a representative action on behalf of himself and the State of California as well as on behalf of a group of aggrieved employees defined as: All persons who are employed or have been employed as an hourly employee by BOOSTER FUELS, INC., in the State of California who worked one or more pay periods since one (1) year prior to the date of this letter and continuing to the present. (“aggrieved employees”).

Defendant engaged in a practice of failing to pay wages/overtime pursuant to Labor Code §§ 510, 511, 1194, and 1199. Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1199 require an employer to pay its employees the legal minimum wage and the legal overtime compensation applicable. Labor Code § 510(a) states that eight hours of labor constitutes a day’s work and any work in excess of eight hours in one workday and any work in excess of 40 hours in any one workweek must be compensated at the rate of no less than one and one-half times the regular rate of pay for an employee. Any work in excess of 12 hours in one day shall be compensated at the rate of no less than twice the regular rate of pay.

Labor Code § 511 and IWC Wage Order 9-2001(3)(B) provide, upon the proposal of an employer, for the adoption of an alternative workweek schedule that authorizes work by the affected employees for no longer than 10 hours per day within a 40-hour workweek without the payment to the affected employees of an overtime rate of compensation pursuant to this section. A proposal to adopt an alternative workweek schedule shall be deemed adopted only if it receives approval in a secret ballot election by at least two-thirds of affected employees in a readily identifiable work unit.

Here, Defendant has had a consistent policy of failing to pay wages and/or overtime to Plaintiff and all aggrieved employees because Defendant adopted an alternative workweek schedule that fail to comply with the election procedures set forth in IWC Wage Order 9-2001(3)(C) and the Labor Code. Defendant conducted a secret ballot election wherein only 6 employees cast a secret ballot, despite there being far more than 6 employees present at work at the time of voting. As such, Defendant failed to lawfully adopt an alternative workweek schedule and failed to properly compensate Plaintiff and all aggrieved employees for overtime when they worked over eight hours in a workday.

Labor Code § 512 states that an employer may not employ an employee for a work period of more than five hours per day without providing the employee with a meal period of not less than 30 minutes. Additionally, an employer may not employ an employee for a work period of more than 10 hours per day without providing the employee with a second meal period of not less than 30 minutes. Pursuant to Labor Code § 226.7(c), if an employer fails to provide an employee with a lawful meal period, the employer must pay the employee one (1) hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of compensation for each workday that a thirty minute uninterrupted meal period was not provided, was not provided in full, or was not provided in a timely manner. Labor Code § 226.7 requires that an employer pay an employee one (1) hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of compensation for each workday that a thirty minute uninterrupted period was not provided, not provided in full, or was not provided in a timely manner.

Defendant failed to apprise Plaintiff and the aggrieved employees of their rights associated with meal periods and failed to provide compliant meal periods. Defendant required Plaintiff and the aggrieved employees to work shifts without providing them with meal periods of at least thirty minutes in length within the first five hours of their shifts. Further, Plaintiff and the aggrieved employees were not compensated with one (1) hour of wages for each missed meal period as required by Labor Code § 226.7.

Further, Industrial Welfare Commission ("IWC") Wage Order 9-2001 section 7(a)(3) requires an employer to keep records of when the employee begins and ends each work period and meal period. Labor Code § 1199 prohibits an employer from causing any employee to work under conditions of labor prohibited by an order of the IWC or from violating, refusing, or neglecting to comply with any order of the commission's orders regarding wages, hours, and working conditions. Defendant does not record the time for Plaintiff and the aggrieved employees. As such, Defendant has violated this statute and the Wage Order by failing to keep accurate records.

Labor Code § 203 provides that if "an employer willfully fails to pay...any wages of an employee who is discharged or who quits, the wages of the employee shall continue as a penalty from the due date thereof at the same rate until paid or until an action therefor is commenced; but the wages shall not continue for more than 30 days.” Here, Plaintiff and all aggrieved employees were not paid all wages due upon their separation from Defendant’s employ. As such, Plaintiff is an aggrieved employee and Defendant failed to pay Plaintiff and all aggrieved employees all wages due at the time of termination or within seventy-two (72) hours of their resignation, and have failed to pay those sums for thirty (30) days thereafter in violation of Labor Code § 203.

We are constrained to move forward with the filing of this complaint alleging causes of action pursuant to Labor Code §§ 201, 202, 203, 226.7, 510, 511, 512, 1194, and 1199 with or without the PAGA claim. Thus, any action by the LWDA would not resolve the entirety of the case, and the interest of judicial economy will be served by allowing the case to proceed as a cohesive whole.

Very truly yours,

approval in a secret ballot election by at least two-thirds of affected employees in a readily identifiable work unit.

Here, Defendant has had a consistent policy of failing to pay wages and/or overtime to Plaintiff and all aggrieved employees because Defendant adopted an alternative workweek schedule that fail to comply with the election procedures set forth in IWC Wage Order 9-2001(3)(C) and the Labor Code. Defendant conducted a secret ballot election wherein only 6 employees cast a secret ballot, despite there being far more than 6 employees present at work at the time of voting. As such, Defendant failed to lawfully adopt an alternative workweek schedule and failed to properly compensate Plaintiff and all aggrieved employees for overtime when they worked over eight hours in a workday.

Labor Code § 512 states that an employer may not employ an employee for a work period of more than five hours per day without providing the employee with a meal period of not less than 30 minutes. Additionally, an employer may not employ an employee for a work period of more than 10 hours per day without providing the employee with a second meal period of not less than 30 minutes. Pursuant to Labor Code § 226.7(c), if an employer fails to provide an employee with a lawful meal period, the employer must pay the employee one (1) hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of compensation for each workday that a thirty minute uninterrupted meal period was not provided, was not provided in full, or was not provided in a timely manner. Labor Code § 226.7 requires that an employer pay an employee one (1) hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of compensation for each workday that a thirty minute uninterrupted period was not provided, not provided in full, or was not provided in a timely manner.

Defendant failed to apprise Plaintiff and the aggrieved employees of their rights associated with meal periods and failed to provide compliant meal periods. Defendant required Plaintiff and the aggrieved employees to work shifts without providing them with meal periods of at least thirty minutes in length within the first five hours of their shifts. Further, Plaintiff and the aggrieved employees were not compensated with one (1) hour of wages for each missed meal period as required by Labor Code § 226.7.

Further, Industrial Welfare Commission ("IWC") Wage Order 9-2001 section 7(a)(3) requires an employer to keep records of when the employee begins and ends each work period and meal period. Labor Code § 1199 prohibits an employer from causing any employee to work under conditions of labor prohibited by an order of the IWC or from violating, refusing, or neglecting to comply with any order of the commission's orders regarding wages, hours, and working conditions. Defendant does not record the time for Plaintiff and the aggrieved employees. As such, Defendant has violated this statute and the Wage Order by failing to keep accurate records.

Labor Code § 203 provides that if "an employer willfully fails to pay...any wages of an employee who is discharged or who quits, the wages of the employee shall continue as a penalty from the due date thereof at the same rate until paid or until an action therefor is commenced; but the wages shall not continue for more than 30 days.” Here, Plaintiff and all aggrieved employees were not paid all wages due upon their separation from Defendant’s employ. As such, Plaintiff is an aggrieved employee and Defendant failed to pay Plaintiff and all aggrieved employees all wages due at the time of termination or within seventy-two (72) hours of their resignation, and have failed to pay those sums for thirty (30) days thereafter in violation of Labor Code § 203.

We are constrained to move forward with the filing of this complaint alleging causes of action pursuant to Labor Code §§ 201, 202, 203, 226.7, 510, 511, 512, 1194, and 1199 with or without the PAGA claim.
