*[Assigned for all purposes to the Honorable
Thomas S. Clark, Dept. 17]*

DECLARATION OF LATLC
PRESIDENT DANIEL KRAMER IN SUPPORT OF PLAINTIFF'S MOTION FOR PRELIMINARY APPROVAL OF CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT

*[Filed with Memorandum of Points and Authorities the Declaration of Justin F.
Marquez, and Proposed Order]*

PRELIMINARY APPROVAL HEARING

Date: October 26, 2021

Time: 8:30 a.m.

Dept: 17

1 I, Daniel Kramer declare as follows:

2 1. I am President of the Los Angeles Trial Lawyers' Charities ("LATLC").
3 I have personal knowledge of all the facts stated herein, and if called to testify as a
4 witness, I could and would competently testify to them.

5 2. I submit this declaration in support of Plaintiffs' motion for preliminary
6 approval of settlement and in support of the cy pres distribution to LATLC.

7 The Proposed Settlement

8 3. After reviewing the terms of the proposed settlement, I approve of the 9 settlement for its fairness, adequacy, and reasonableness, as well as for its 10 consideration of the public good.

11 4. The donation of the remainder of the common fund, after the deduction
12 of claims, fees, and costs, will represent a generous and beneficial gift to LATLC and 13 the underserved persons whom LATLC serves.

14 Utilization of the Funds

15 5. In the past, LATLC has been the cy pres recipient in ten wage and hour
16 class action cases, including Espinosa v. Big Lots Settlement Fund, Case No.
17 CIV236538 (Ven. Sup. Ct. 2005); Solis v. Hi-Tech Collision, Case No. BC336338
18 (L.A. Sup. Ct. 2005); Greenberg v. E-Trade Financial Corp., Case No. BC360152
19 (L.A. Sup. Ct.); Elias v. El Pollo Loco, Inc., Case No. BC313875 (L.A. Sup. Ct.);
20 Babayán v. BLS Limousine Service, Case No. BC418088 (L.A. Sup. Ct.); Gutierrez v.
21 California Commerce Club, Case No. BC360704 (L.A. Sup. Ct.), Kalbaklian v. PSI
22 Services, Case No. BC637011; Romagnolo v LA Bite; Eubanks v Panther II
23 Transportation, Case 1:11-CV-02705-SC; and, Glynn Van Norton v Associated
24 Ready Mixed Concrete, Case BC 648499.

25 6. As the facts below attest, the proposed cy pres award to LATLC is a
26 commendable utilization of unpaid residuals because it furthers the essential public
27 interest of improving the conditions of the oppressed and underserved, fighting
28 unemployment, and enhancing education, safety, access to shelter, and opportunities.

1 7. In connection with this cy pres wage and hour award, LATLC will
2 allocate the award to specific charitable efforts specifically related to employment
3 and professional development and monitor those charitable efforts to ensure the cy
4 pres funds are indeed utilized for the earmarked purposes.

5 8. Since it began in 2006, LATLC has donated $2,778,784.69 to 6 organizations helping people seek employment and promoting educational and 7 professional opportunities. Specifically, $597,025.03 was donated to the following 8 organizations:

- 9 a. The LA Mission: LATLC has donated $96,570.03 to the LA Mission
10 which provides, among other things, training programs for people
11 seeking employment;
- 12 b. The United States Veterans Initiative: LATLC has donated $55,000.00 to 13 U.S. Vets that provides housing, employment and counseling services to 14 the men and women from all branches of the Armed Forces;

16 Women's Center, addressing the needs of women overcoming poverty
17 and homelessness in the Skid Row area;
- 18 d. Imagine LA: LATLC has donated $79,500.00 to Imagine LA whose 19 mission is to end the cycle of family homelessness; because of their 20 mentoring programs, family incomes are up 71% and their children are 21 thriving in school and graduating;
- 22 e. Clothes the Deal: LATLC has donated $16,000.00 to Clothes the Deal, 23 an organization that provides business clothing and accessories to help
24 low-income people achieve their career goals; and
- 25 f. Additionally, LATLC has donated $272,500.00 to programs such as 26 Youth Mentoring Connection ($112,000.00), The Harmony Project
27 ($75,000.00), Alliance for College Ready Schools ($47,500.00), and 28 L.A. LGBT Center ($38,000.00) which are aimed at training and educating the youth of Los Angeles, thereby giving them access to better educational and professional opportunities.

9. The cy pres funds would allow LATLC to continue to provide professional advancement opportunities to countless underserved members of the greater Los Angeles community.

ATTENTION: CALIFORNIA CLASS ACTION ATTORNEYS
Please Consider LATLC as Your Next Cy Pres Recipient

Dear Sir or Madam:

We are the Los Angeles Trial Lawyers' Charities (LATLC), a 501(c)(3) tax exempt non-profit corporation. We are trial lawyers who work to improve the lives of the most vulnerable among us and tackle a wide range of issues of great socioeconomic importance within our community. We assist persons with disabilities, aid survivors of abuse, provide funding for children's education and extracurricular activities, support military veterans, and serve the homeless, hungry, and unemployed through financial support and community service. Most of the funds raised by LATLC go directly to members of our community, with only 17.0% allocated as administrative costs. (Because of decreased revenues due to the pandemic, administrative costs were 28.0% in 2020.) Most within our leadership and membership also are leaders and members of CAOC, CAALA, AAJ, CELA, and other legal organizations working hard every day for the people of our great state of California.

We humbly ask you to join our cause and take part in LATLC's new outreach initiative called the Cy Pres Program.

Through the Cy Pres Program, LATLC is reaching out to every lawyer who has litigated a class action in any California state or federal court within the past 24 months. Our hope is that you will consider recommending LATLC as a cy pres recipient on one or more of your cases in the near future, should the facts of your particular case support it.

Included with this letter is LATLC's Cy Pres Program Packet, which consists of the following:

- Literature about LATLC, including "What We Do," "Who We Support," "Why We Began," "LATLC By The Numbers" and a basic LATLC Fact Sheet;
- An informative article entitled Who Gets the Leftovers? Understanding California's Cy Pres Doctrine; and
- A sample Declaration In Support of Motion for Preliminary Approval previously used by several class action law firms to successfully direct cy pres funds to LATLC.

With its broad range of services and work with partner charities, LATLC is an ideal candidate for cy pres awards in several class action arenas.

For example, LATLC has received approval as a cy pres recipient from several California courts presiding over wage and hour class actions as a result of LATLC's work with U.S. Vets, Ability First, Youth Mentoring Connection, Exceptional Children's Foundation, and Imagine LA. Funds have been utilized to provide professional and educational advancement opportunities to members of the greater Los Angeles community.

Through our work feeding the hungry with partner charities such as LA Mission, Downtown Women's Center, and The People Concern, among others, LATLC is also an ideal candidate for cy pres awards in consumer fraud class actions like food product mislabeling and dietary supplement cases.

If you have negotiated a class action settlement with a cy pres component and are looking for potential designees to work with you towards achieving preliminary and/or final approval, please contact LATLC to determine whether our organization would be an appropriate recipient. A member of our Board will be assigned to work with your team to provide everything you need to ensure a successful approval process.

We humbly ask for your support by allowing LATLC to present an application to receive cy pres funds in your next class action settlement.

In addition, LATLC is making a push to increase our class action attorney representation on LATLC's Honorary Board of Governors (HBOG), the support of whom is vital to fulfilling our mission to make a positive difference in greater Los Angeles on issues related to education, children, survivors of abuse, persons with disabilities, and the homeless and hungry. Our current Honorary Board membership can be viewed at <http://www.latlc.org/Honorary-Board/>.

We also ask for your support in joining LATLC's Honorary Board of Governors today. Please access the online contribution form at <http://www.latlc.org/Donate.shtml>.

With gratitude,

signature events

In 2016, LATLC initiated its first independent event – THE ANNUAL HOLIDAY GIVEAWAY – at the New Prospect Baptist Church in south central Los Angeles. Now called "Comfort & Joy," LATLC partners with LAPD's Newton Division and the event has grown to 550 families, 2,000 attendees, and 208 volunteers. We distribute thousands of toys, along with all the "makings" of a family dinner and a "Holiday Market" with much needed household items. LATLC also creates a full holiday village, with snacks, games, arts and crafts, a petting zoo, pony rides plus "Mr. and Mrs. Santa Claus!" Even during the pandemic LATLC continued to share "Comfort & Joy" items throughout south central Los Angeles, with Newton police officers serving as "patrol car Santas" and personally delivering the items. A second community event was added in 2017 – THE GREAT TRYKE GIVEAWAY – and to date we have presented customized bicycles to 82 special needs children. A third event, the DAY OF DIGNITY for the homeless, includes personal services, clothing, showers, and 500 toiletry kits assembled by volunteers at the CAALA convention.

WHO GETS THE LEFTOVERS?

Understanding California's Cy Pres Doctrine¹

Cy pres—pronounced “sigh pray” (although some people pronounce it “see pray”)—is an abbreviated version of the French phrase cy près comme possible, which translates to “as near as possible.” When applied to a class action lawsuit, the doctrine allows for residual funds from a settlement to be distributed to a nonprofit organization “whose mission is consistent with the goals of the underlying litigation,” says Ryan J. Clarkson, President and principal shareholder at Clarkson Law Firm, P.C. in Los Angeles, California.

Pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure Section 384, the leftovers may be distributed to one or more nonprofits that “promote justice for all Californians.” More specifically, funds are generally distributed to nonprofit organizations or foundations that support projects that will benefit the class or similarly situated persons, or that promote the law consistent with the objectives and purposes of the underlying cause of action, to child advocacy programs, or to nonprofit organizations providing civil legal services to the indigent.

Example: LATLC

With its wide range of services, the Los Angeles Trial Lawyers' Charities (LATLC) is an ideal candidate for cy pres awards.

LATLC works with numerous charities in the greater Los Angeles area, focusing on issues related to children's education, survivors of abuse, persons with disabilities, and the homeless and hungry.

Money from cy pres awards are put directly back into the Los Angeles community. For example, cy pres awards will help LATLC fund grants and scholarships for at-risk youths, clothe and feed the homeless, and render much needed support to various other groups in the Los Angeles area.

CY PRES EXPLAINED

The Process

Potential recipients are typically proposed by plaintiff's counsel; as a general rule, the defendant and defense counsel are not involved in the selection process, but they, as well as the class members, have the opportunity to object. The cy pres candidates are presented to the court in a written pleading. The trial judge makes the final decision subject to possible appellate review.

Choices

Courts carefully review the proposed cy pres recipients as part of their evaluation of the class action settlement.

It is not unheard of for a court to reject a proposed recipient. For example, in Dennis v. Kellogg Company, plaintiffs proposed that the cy pres award go to charities that provide food to people in need. While the agreement was deemed a “noble goal,” the Ninth Circuit said, “not just any worthy recipient can qualify as an appropriate cy pres beneficiary.” The settlement was reversed and remanded, and negotiations were reopened to select organizations that work to protect consumers from injuries caused by false advertising, a closer match to the issues of the lawsuit.

Choosing the right charities to pitch can be a daunting task considering there are about 1.5 million nonprofit organizations in the United States. Before entering into a settlement negotiation, attorneys familiarize themselves with programs, gather current information from organizations, brochures, documents, websites, and prepare to present the judge with a few options.

With its broad range of services and work with partner charities, LATLC is an ideal candidate for cy pres awards in a wide breadth of class action arenas.

For example, LATLC has received approval as a cy pres recipient from several California courts presiding over wage and hour class actions as a result of LATLC’s work with the LA Mission, Clothes the Deal, Youth Mentoring Connection, and LA Alliance. Funds have been utilized to provide professional and educational advancement opportunities to members of the greater Los Angeles community. In addition, through our work feeding the hungry with partner charities such as LA Mission, Downtown Women’s Center, and Ocean Park Community Center, among others, LATLC is also an ideal candidate for cy pres awards in consumer fraud class actions like food mislabeling and dietary supplement cases.

If you have a class action settlement with a cy pres component and are looking for potential cy pres designees to work with you towards achieving preliminary and/or final approval, please contact LATLC to determine whether our organization would be an appropriate recipient. A member of our Board will be assigned to work with your team to provide everything you need to ensure a successful approval process.
