Plaintiff JESUS MAYORAL, an individual on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated (hereinafter collectively referred to as "Plaintiffs"), hereby file this Complaint against Defendant ANTELOPE VALLEY FAIR ASSOCIATION, a California corporation; and DOES 1 through 100, Inclusive (hereinafter collectively referred to as "Defendants"). Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and on the basis of that information and belief, allege as follows:

I. INTRODUCTION

1. This is Class Action, pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure §382 on behalf of plaintiff and other non-exempt current and former employees employed by ANTELOPE VALLEY FAIR ASSOCIATION and DOES 1 through 100, Inclusive. These Defendants and DOES are collectively hereinafter referred to as "Defendants". Defendant ANTELOPE VALLEY FAIR ASSOCIATION and DOES 1 through 100 who were joint employers of Plaintiffs in that they were operating as a joint enterprises and both suffered and permitted Plaintiffs to work for each and both of them; controlled Plaintiffs hours and working conditions; Controlled Plaintiffs wages; Both made the decision to hire Plaintiff and had control of Plaintiff's employment and therefore jointly employed Plaintiffs. These Defendants and DOES are collectively hereinafter referred to as "Defendants".

2. This is a civil action seeking recovery for Defendants' violations of California Labor Code ("Labor Code") §1194, et seq., §1197, §200 et seq., Labor Code §500 et seq., California Business and Professions Code ("B& PC") §17000 et seq. and §17200 , et seq., the applicable Wage Order(s) issued by the California Industrial Welfare Commission (hereinafter, the "IWC Wage Order(s)") and related common law principles.

3. Plaintiffs' action seeks monetary damages, including full restitution from Defendants as a result of Defendants' unlawful, fraudulent and/or unfair business practices.

4. The acts complained of herein occurred, occur and will occur, at least in part, within the time period from four (4) years preceding the filing of this complaint, up to and through the time of trial for this matter.

RELEVANT EMPLOYEES

5. The relevant employees are Defendants' non-exempt current and former employees, employed in California by Defendants.

6. Defendants' non-exempt current and former employees are paid by Defendants on an hourly pay basis.

7. The obligations and responsibilities of Defendants' current and former non-exempt, hourly paid employees employed in California by Defendants are virtually identical from location to location and employee to employee. Any differences in job activities between the different individuals in these positions were and are legal insignificant to the issues presented by this action.

SUMMARY OF CLAIMS

8. With regard to Defendants' California based non-exempt, hourly paid current and former employees that worked at Defendants locations in California, Defendants have established pay policies that violate California law, including failing to pay an overtime rate, also having an unlawful rounding policy which does not compensate said employees for the time they actually worked and as a result Defendants have also failed to pay all wages due including overtime wages for all hours worked and failed to pay the required minimum wage for all hours worked. Further Defendants have failed to provide timely uninterrupted 30 minute meal periods; failed to provide paid rest periods; failed to timely furnish accurate itemized wage statements; violated Labor Code §203; and conducted unfair business practices.

II. PARTIES

PLAINTIFF JESUS MAYORAL

9. Plaintiff JESUS MAYORAL (hereinafter "MAYORAL" or "Plaintiff") is an individual over the age of eighteen (18) and is now and/or at all times mentioned in this Complaint was a resident

1 of California, county of Los Angeles.

2 10. Plaintiff MAYORAL worked for Defendants as a non-exempt hourly employee. Plaintiff
3 is a former employee of Defendants.

4 11. Plaintiff seeks unpaid wages, penalties and other compensation from Defendants for the 5 relevant time period because Defendants have (Plaintiff himself was harmed by):

- 6 a. Failed to pay all wages due including overtime wages for all hours worked;
- 7 b. Failed to pay the required minimum wage for all hours worked;
- 8 c. failed to provide meal periods
- 9 d. failed to provide paid rest periods;
- 10 e. failed to timely furnish accurate itemized wage statements;
- 11 f. violated Labor Code §203; and
- 12 g. Conducted unfair business practices.

13 DEFENDANTS

14 12. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that, at all times herein
15 mentioned, defendant ANTELOPE VALLEY FAIR ASSOCIATION was and is a California
16 corporation duly organized, authorized, and licensed to do business in the State of California with its 17 primary place of business in Los Angeles County. Defendants ANTELOPE VALLEY FAIR
18 ASSOCIATION and DOES 1 through 100 were joint employers of Plaintiffs in that they were 19 operating as a joint enterprises and both suffered and permitted Plaintiffs to work for each and both of 20 them; controlled Plaintiffs hours and working conditions; Controlled Plaintiffs wages; Defendants
21 ANTELOPE VALLEY FAIR ASSOCIATION and DOES 1 through 100 made the decision to hire
22 Plaintiff and had control of Plaintiff's employment and therefore jointly employed Plaintiffs. These 23 Defendants and DOES are collectively hereinafter referred to as "Defendants".

24 DOES 1 TO 100, INCLUSIVE

25 13. DOES 1 to 100, inclusive are not, and/or at all times mentioned in this Complaint were 26 doing business in the State of California.

27 14. Plaintiffs do not know the true names or capacities, whether individual, partner or 28 corporate, of DOES 1 to 100, inclusive and for that reason, DOES 1 to 100 are sued under such

1 fictitious names pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure ("CCP") §474.

2 15. Plaintiffs will seek leave of court to amend this Complaint to allege such names and 3 capacities as soon as they are ascertained.

4 ALL DEFENDANTS

5 16. Defendants, and each of them, are now and/or at all times mentioned in this Complaint
6 were in some manner legally responsible for the events, happenings and circumstances alleged in this 7 Complaint.

8 17. Defendants, and each of them, proximately subjected Plaintiffs to the unlawful practices,
9 wrongs, complaint, injuries and/or damages alleged in the Complaint.

10 18. Defendants, and each of them, are now and/or at all times mentioned in this Complaint
11 were the agents, servants and/or employees of some or all other Defendants, and vice versa, and in 12 doing the things alleged in this Complaint, Defendants are now and/or at all times mentioned in this 13 Complaint were acting within the course and scope of that agency, servitude and/or employment.

14 19. Defendants, and each of them, are now and/or at all times mentioned in this Complaint
15 were members of and/or engaged in a joint venture, partnership and common enterprise, and were 16 acting within the course and scope of, and in pursuance of said joint venture, partnership and common 17 enterprise.

18 20. Defendants, and each of them, at all times mentioned in this Complaint concurred and 19 contributed to the various acts and omissions of each and every one of the other Defendants in 20 proximately causing complaint, injuries and/or damages alleged in this Complaint.

21 21. Defendants, and each of them, at all times mentioned in this Complaint approved of,
22 condoned and/or otherwise ratified each and every one of the acts and/or omissions alleged in this
23 Complaint.

24 22. Defendants, and each of them, at all times mentioned in this Complaint aided and 25 abetted the acts and omissions of each and every one of the other Defendants thereby proximately
26 causing the damages alleged in this Complaint.

27 III. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

28 23. The California Superior Court has jurisdiction in this matter due to Defendants'

1 violations of Labor Code §201 et seq, Labor Code §500 et seq., Labor Code §1194, Business &
2 Professions Code §17200 et seq., the IWC Wage Order(s) and related common law principles.

3 24. The California Superior Court also has jurisdiction in this matter because both the 4 individual and aggregate monetary damages and restitution sought herein exceed the minimal
5 jurisdictional limits of the Superior court and will be established at trial according to proof.

6 25. The California Superior Court also has jurisdiction in this matter because the individual
7 claims of the members of the Classes herein are under the seventy-five thousand ($75,000)
8 jurisdictional threshold for Federal Court and the aggregate claim is under five million dollars
9 ($5,000,000) threshold of the Class Action Fairness Act of 2005 ("CAFA"). Further, there is no federal 10 question at issue, as the issues herein are based solely on California statutes and law, including the 11 Labor Code, IWC Wage Order(s), CCP, and Business & Profession Code. The present action is also 12 exempt from CAFA because this matter is a local controversy within the meaning of CAFA as follows:

13 1) More than two thirds of the putative class members are citizens of California 2) the principal injuries
14 resulting from defendant's conduct occurred in California 3) no class action asserting similar factual 15 allegations has been filed against any defendant in the preceding three years and 4) at least one
16 defendant is a citizen of California and significant relief is sought from that defendant and that 17 defendant's conduct is a significant basis for the claims.

18 26. Venue is proper in Los Angeles County pursuant to CCP §395(a) and CCP §395.5 in 19 that liability arose there because at least some of the transactions that are the subject matter of this 20 Complaint occurred therein and/or each Defendant either is found, maintains offices, transacts business, 21 and/or has an agent therein.

22 IV. CLASS ALLEGATIONS

23 27. CCP §382 provides in pertinent part: "... [W]hen the question is one of a common or 24 general interest, of many persons, or when the parties are numerous, and it is impracticable to bring 25 them all before the court, one or more may sue or defend for the benefit of all.

26 28. Plaintiffs bring this suit as a class action pursuant to CCP § 382, on behalf of individuals
27 who are entitled to the monies unlawfully withheld by Defendants.

28 29. The putative classes Plaintiffs will seek to certify are currently composed of and defined

1 as follows:

2 a. All of Defendants' California-based non-exempt, hourly paid current and former
3 employees, employed during the relevant time period (as defined, supra) to whom Defendants failed to
4 pay overtime wages (hereinafter, the "Overtime Class");

5 b. All of Defendants' California-based non-exempt, hourly-paid current and former
6 employees, employed during the relevant time period to whom Defendants failed to pay the required
7 minimum wage (hereinafter, the "Minimum Wage Class");

8 c. All of Defendants' California-based non-exempt, hourly paid current and former 9 employees, employed during the relevant time period (as defined, supra) to whom Defendants failed to 10 provide the legally requisite meal periods (hereinafter, the "Meal Period Class");

11 d. All of Defendants' California-based non-exempt, hourly paid current and former
12 employees, employed during the relevant time period (as defined, supra) to whom Defendants' failed
13 to provide the legally requisite rest periods (hereinafter, the "Rest Period Class");

14 e. All of Defendants' California-based non-exempt, hourly paid current and former 15 employees, employed during the relevant time period (as defined, supra) to whom Defendants failed to 16 provide accurate itemized wage statements (hereinafter, the "Wage Statement Class");

17 f. All of Defendants' California-based non-exempt, hourly paid current and former 18 employees, employed during the relevant time period (as defined, supra) to whom Defendants'
19 willfully failed to pay and all wages (hereinafter, the "LC203 Class").

20 g. All of Defendants' California-based non-exempt, hourly paid current and former 21 employees, employed during the relevant time period (as defined supra) to whom Defendants' have 22 engaged in unlawful, unfair and/or fraudulent business acts or practices prohibited by B & PC Section
23 17200 (hereinafter, the "17200 Class").

24 30. The Overtime Class, Minimum Wage Class, Meal Period Class, Rest Period Class, 25 Wage Statement Class, LC 203 Class and 17200 Class are hereinafter collectively referred to as the 26 "Classes."

27 31. Throughout discovery in this litigation, Plaintiffs may find it appropriate and/or 28 necessary to amend the definition of the Classes. In any event, Plaintiffs will formally define and

1 designate a class definition at such time when Plaintiffs seek to certify the Classes alleged herein.

2 32. Numerosity (CCP §382):

- 3 a. The potential quantity of members of the Classes as defined is so numerous that joinder
4 of all members is unfeasible and impractical.
- 5 b. The disposition of the claims of the members of the Classes through this class action will 6 benefit both the parties and this Court.
- 7 c. The quantity of members of the Classes is unknown to Plaintiffs at this time; however, it 8 is estimated that the membership of the Classes numbers greater than 100 individuals.
- 9 d. The quantity and identity of such members is readily ascertainable via inspection of 10 Defendants' records.

11 33. Superiority (CCP §382): The nature of this action and the nature of the laws available to 12 Plaintiffs makes the use of the class action format particularly efficient and the appropriate procedure to 13 afford relief to Plaintiffs for the wrongs alleged herein, as follows:

- 14 a. California has a public policy which encourages the use of the class action device;
- 15 b. By establishing a technique whereby the claims of many individuals can be resolved at 16 the same time, the class suit both eliminate the possibility of repetitious litigation and 17 provides small claimants with a method of obtaining redress for claims which would 18 otherwise may be too small to warrant individual litigation;
- 19 c. This case involves large corporate Defendants and a large number of individual Class 20 Members with many relatively small claims and common issues of law and fact;
- 21 d. If each individual member of the Classes was required to file an individual lawsuit, the 22 large corporate Defendants would necessarily gain an advantage because Defendants
23 would be able to exploit and overwhelm the limited resources of each individual member 24 of the Classes with Defendants superior financial and legal resources;
- 25 e. Requiring each individual member of the Classes to pursue an individual remedy would 26 also discourage the assertion of lawful claims by the members of the Classes who would 27 be disinclined to pursue an action against Defendants because of an applicable and 28 justifiable fear of retaliation and permanent damage to their lives, careers and well-being;

- f. Proof of a common business practice or factual pattern, of which the members of the Classes experienced, is representative of the Classes herein and will establish the rights of each of the members of the Classes to recover on the causes of action alleged herein;
  - g. Absent class treatment, the prosecution of separate actions by the individual members of the Classes, even if possible, would likely create:
    - i) a substantial risk of each individual plaintiff presenting in separate, duplicative proceedings the same or essentially similar arguments and evidence, including expert testimony;
    - ii) a multiplicity of trial conducted at enormous expense to both the judicial system and the litigants;
    - iii) inconsistent or varying verdicts or adjudications with respect to the individual members of the Classes against Defendants; and
    - iv) potentially incompatible standards of conduct for Defendants;
    - v) potentially incompatible legal determinations with respect to individual members of the Classes which would, as a practical matter, be dispositive of the interest of the other members of the Classes who are not parties to the adjudications or which would substantially impair or impede the ability of the members of the Classes to protect their interests.
  - h. The claims of the individual members of the Classes are not sufficiently large to warrant vigorous individual prosecution considering all of the concomitant costs and expenses attendant thereto;
  - i. Courts seeking to preserve efficiency and other benefits of class actions routinely fashion methods to manage any individual questions; and
  - j. The Supreme Court of California urges trial courts, which have an obligation to consider the use of innovative procedural tools to certify a manageable class, to be procedurally innovative in managing class actions.
34. Well-defined Community of Interest: Plaintiffs also meet the established standards for

1 class certification (see, e.g. Lockheed Martin Corp. V. Superior Court (2003) 29 Cal. 4th 1096), as 2 follows:

3 a. Typicality: The claims of Plaintiff MAYORAL are typical of the claims of all members
4 of the Classes Plaintiff seeks to represent because all members of the Classes sustained injuries and
5 damages arising out of Defendants' common course of conduct in violation of law and the injuries and 6 damages of all members of the Classes were caused by Defendants' wrongful conduct in violation of 7 law, as alleged herein.

8 b. Adequacy: Plaintiff MAYORAL:

- 9 i) is an adequate representative of the Classes Plaintiff seeks to represent;
- 10 ii) will fairly protect the interests of the members of the Classes;
- 11 iii) has no interests antagonistic to the members of the Classes; and
- 12 iv) will vigorously pursue this suit via attorneys who are competent, skilled and 13 experienced in litigating matters of this type.

14 c. Predominate Common Questions of Law or Fact: There are common questions of law
15 and/or fact as to the members of the Classes which predominate over questions affecting only 16 individual members of the Classes, including with limitation:

- 17 i) whether Defendants failed to pay the legal and appropriate overtime compensation to the 18 members of the Overtime Class in violation of the Labor Code and the IWC Wage Order(s);
- 19 ii) whether Defendants failed to pay the legal and appropriate minimum wage to the members of 20 the Minimum Wage Class in violation of the Labor Code and the IWC Wage Order(s);
- 21 iii) whether Defendants failed and continue to failed to provide meal periods to the members of 22 the Meal Period Class in violation of the Labor Code and the IWC Wage Orders;
- 23 iv) whether Defendants failed and continue to fail to authorize and permit paid rest periods to 24 the members of the Rest Period Class in violation of the Labor Code and section 12 of the IWC Wage
25 Orders;
- 26 v) whether Defendants failed to timely furnish accurate itemized statements to the members of 27 the Wage Statement Class;
- 28 vi) whether Defendants are liable pursuant to Labor Code §203;

vii) whether Defendants conduct conducts unfair competition within the meaning of B & PC §17200 et seq.

viii) whether Defendants' conduct constitutes unfair business practices within the meaning of B & PC §17200, et seq.;

ix) whether the members of the Classes are entitled to compensatory damages, and if so, the means of measuring such damages;

x) whether the members of the Classes are entitled to injunctive relief;

xi) whether the members of the Classes are entitled to restitution; and

xii) whether Defendants are liable for attorneys' fees and costs.

35. Whether each member of the Classes might be required to ultimately justify an individual claim does not preclude maintenance of a class action (see, e.. Collins v. Rocha (1972) 7 Cal. 3d 232, 238).

V. CAUSES OF ACTION

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

FAILURE TO PAY OVERTIME WAGES

(On Behalf of the Overtime Class)

(Against All Defendants)

36. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference and reallege each and every one of the allegations contained in the preceding and foregoing paragraphs of this Complaint as if fully set forth herein.

37. Labor Code §204 establishes the fundamental right of all employees in the State of California to be paid wages, including straight time and overtime, in a timely fashion for their work.

38. Labor Code §510(a) states in pertinent part: "Any work in excess of eight hours in one workday and any work in excess of 40 hours in any one workweek and the first eight hours worked on the seventh day of work in any one workweek shall be compensated at the rate of no less than one and one-half times the regular rate of pay for an employee."

39. Labor Code §510 (a) further provides that "Any work in excess of 12 hours in one day shall be compensated at the rate of no less than twice the regular rate of pay for an employee."

40. Pursuant to Labor Code §1198, it is unlawful to employ person for longer than the hours

1 set by the Industrial Welfare Commission or under conditions prohibited by the IWC Wage Order(s).

2 41. Defendants, as a matter of established company policy and procedure, at each and every
3 one of the individual facilities owned and/or operated by Defendants, consistently:

4 a. Administered a uniform company policy and practice regarding the payment of wage to the 5 member of the Overtime Class;

6 b. Scheduled to work and in fact required the members of the Overtime Class to work in excess
7 of eight (8) hours per workday and/or in excess of forty (40) hours per workweek without paying
8 overtime compensation for all such excess hours worked by requiring the Overtime Class to remain
9 under Defendant's control without paying them therefore which resulted in;

10 c. Failure to pay members of the Overtime Class overtime compensation for work in excess of 11 eight (8) hours per day and/or forty (40) hours per week;

12 d. Failure to pay members of the Overtime Class overtime compensation for work in excess of 13 12 hours per day;

14 e. Failure to pay members of the Overtime Class overtime compensation for the first eight hours
15 worked on the seventh day of work in any one workweek;

16 f. Did not employ the members of the Overtime Class using: i) an alternative workweek
17 schedule pursuant to Labor Code §511; and did not employ the members of the Overtime Class using 18 ii) an alternative workweek schedule adopted pursuant to a collective bargaining agreement.

19 g. Required that the members of the Overtime Class to spend more than fifty percent (50%) of 20 their work performing non-exempt tasks; and

21 h. Disseminated incorrect information throughout Defendant's facilities and amongst 22 Defendants' employees reciting that, under Defendants' labor policies and practices and under 23 California law, the members of the Overtime Class were not entitled to overtime compensation.

24 42. Defendants' pattern, practice and uniform administration of corporate policy regarding 25 illegal employee compensation as described herein is unlawful and creates as entitlement, pursuant to 26 Labor Code §218 and §1194(a), to recovery by the members of the Overtime Classes, in a civil action,
27 for the unpaid balance of the full amount of the overtime wages owing, including interest thereon,
28 reasonable attorneys' fees, and costs of suit.

1           43.     That calculation of individual damages for the members of the Wage Class may at 2 some point be required does not foreclose the possibility of taking common evidence on questions
3 regarding their entitlement to overtime compensation (see, e.g. Collins v. Rocha (1972) 7 Cal. 3d 232;
4 Hypolite v. Carleson (1975) 52 Cal. App. 3d 566; Employment Development Dept. v. Superior Court
5 (1981) 30 Cal. 3d 256.

6           44.     Pursuant to Labor Code §1194(a) and Civil Code §3287, the members of the Overtime
7 Class seek recovery of pre-judgment interest on all amounts recovered herein.

8           45.     Pursuant to Labor Code §1194, the members of the Overtime Class request that the 9 Court award reasonable attorneys' fees and costs incurred by them in this action.

10                               SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

11                               FAILURE TO PAY MINIMUM WAGES

12                               (On Behalf of the Minimum Wage Class)

13                               (Against All Defendants)

14           46.     Plaintiffs incorporate by reference and reallege each and every one of the allegations
15 contained in the preceding and foregoing paragraphs of this Complaint as if fully set forth herein.

16           47.     Plaintiff incorporates by reference and reallege each and every one of the allegations
17 contained in the preceding and foregoing paragraphs of this Complaint as if fully set forth herein.

18           48.     Pursuant to Labor Code §1197, payment of less than the minimum wage fixed by the 19 Labor Commission is unlawful.

20           49.     California Code of Regulations Title 8, §11000(s) and the IWC Wage Orders §4(A)
21 state: "Every employer shall pay to each employee... wages not less than eight dollars ($8.00) per hour
22 for all hours worked, effective January 1, 2008... and not less than nine dollars ($9.00) per hours for all
23 hours worked, effective July 1, 2014... and not less than ten dollars ($10.00) per hour for all hours
24 worked, effective January 2016.

25           50.     Defendants, as a matter of established company policy and procedure, at each and every 26 one of the individual facilities owned and/or operated by Defendants which resulted in the members of 27 the Minimum Wage Class earning less than the legal minimum wage in the State of California.

28           51.     Defendants' pattern and practice in uniform administration of corporate policy regarding

1 Defendants' failure to pay the legal minimum wage to the members of the Minimum Wage Class as
2 described herein is unlawful and creates entitlement, pursuant to Labor Code §1194(a), to recovery by
3 the members of the Minimum Wage Class, in a civil action, for the unpaid balance of the full amount of 4 the unpaid minimum wages owed, calculated as the difference between the straight time compensation
5 paid and the applicable minimum wage, including interest thereon.

6 52. Pursuant to Labor Code §1194.2(a) (which provides that in any action under Labor Code
7 §1194, an employee shall be entitled to recover liquidated damages, the members of the Minimum
8 Wage Class seek recovery of liquidated damages on the straight-time portion of uncompensated hours
9 of work (not including the overtime portion thereof) in an amount equal to the wages unlawfully unpaid
10 and interest thereon.

11 53. Pursuant to Labor Code §218.6, Labor Code §1194(a) and CC §3287, the members of 12 the Minimum Wage Class seek recover of pre-judgment interest on all amount recovered herein.

13 54. Pursuant to Labor Code §1194(a), the members of the Minimum Wage Class request
14 that the Court award reasonable attorneys' fees and costs incurred by them in this action.

15 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

16 FAILURE TO PROVIDE MEAL PERIODS

17 (On Behalf of the Meal Period Class)

18 (Against All Defendants)

19 55. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference and reallege each and every one of the allegations
20 contained in the preceding and foregoing paragraphs of this Complaint as if fully set forth herein.

21 56. Labor Code §226.7(a) provides that "No employer shall require any employee to work
22 during any meal or rest period mandated by an applicable order of the Industrial Welfare Commission."

23 57. Labor Code §512 provides that "An employer may not employ an employee for a work
24 period of more than five hours per day without providing the employee with a meal period of not less
25 than 30 minutes, except that if the total work period per day of the employee is no more than six hours,
26 the meal period may be waived by mutual consent of both the employer and employee".

27 58. Labor Code §512 further provides that "An employer may not employ an employee 28

1 for a work period of more than 10 hours per day without providing the employee with a second meal
2 period of not less than 30 minutes, except that if the total hours worked is no more than 12 hours, the
3 second meal period may be waived by mutual consent of the employer and the employer only if the first
4 meal period was not waived.”

5 59. Labor Code §516 provides that the Industrial Welfare Commission may adopt or amend
6 working condition orders with respect to meal periods for any workers in California consistent with the 7 heal and welfare of those workers.

8 60. Section 11(A) of the IWC Wage Order(s) provides that “Unless the employee is relieved
9 of all duty during a 30 minutes meal period, the meal period shall be considered an “on duty” meal
10 period and counted as time worked. An “on duty” meal period shall be permitted only when the nature
11 of the work prevents an employee from being relieved of all duty and when by written agreement
12 between the parties an on-the-job paid meal period is agreed to. The written agreement shall state that 13 the employee may, in writing, revoke the agreement at any time.”

14 61. Section 11(B) of the IWC Wage Orders(s) provides that “if an employer fails to provide 15 an employee a meal period in accordance with the applicable provision of this order, the employer shall
16 pay the employee one (1) hour of pay at the employee’s regular rate of compensation for each workday
17 that the meal period is not provided.”

18 62. The members of the Meal Period Class consistently worker over five (5) hours per shift
19 and therefore were entitled to a meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes prior to exceeding five 20 (5) hours of employment.

21 63. Further, some members of the Meal Period Class consistently worked over ten (10)
22 hours per shift and therefore were entitled to a second meal period of not less than 30 minutes.

23 64. The members of the Meal Period Class did not validly or legally wavier their meal
24 periods, by mutual consent with Defendants or otherwise.

25 65. The members of the Meal Period Class did not enter into any written agreement with 26 Defendants agreeing to an on-the-job paid meal period.

1           66.     As a matter of Defendants' established company policy, Defendant failed to comply with
2 the meal period requirements established by Labor Code §226.7, Labor Code §512, Labor Code §516
3 and Section 11 of the IWC Wage Order(s).

4           67.     Pursuant to Section 11(B) of the IWC Wages Order(s) and Labor Code §226.7(b) which 5 states "if an employer fails to provide an employee a meal or rest period in accordance with an
6 applicable order of the industrial Welfare Commission, the employer shall pay the employee one
7 additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of compensation for each work day that the meal
8 or rest period is not provided," the member of the Meal Period Class are entitled to damages in an 9 amount equal to one(1) additional hours of pay at each employee's regular rate of compensation for 10 each work day that the meal period was not provided.

11           68.     Pursuant to Civil Code §3287, the members of the Meal Period Class seek recovery of 12 pre-judgment interest on all amounts recovered herein.

13                               FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

14                               FAILURE TO AUTHORIZE AND PERMIT PAID REST PERIODS

15                               (On Behalf of the Rest Period Class)

16                               (Against All Defendants)

17           69.     Plaintiffs incorporate by reference and reallege each and every one of the allegations
18 contained in the preceding and foregoing paragraphs of this Complaint as if fully set forth herein.

19           70.     Labor Code §226.7(a) states: "No employer shall require any employee to work during 20 any meal or rest period mandated by an applicable order of the Industrial Welfare Commission."

21           71.     Labor Code §516 provides that the Industrial Welfare commission may adopt or amend
22 working conditions orders with respect to break periods for any workers in California consistent with 23 the health and welfare of those workers.

24           72.     Section 12(A) of the IWC Wage Order(s) states: "Every employer shall authorize and 25 permit all employee to take rest periods, which insofar as practicable shall be in the middle of each
26 work period. The authorized rest period time shall be based on the total hours worked daily at the rate
27 of ten (10) minutes net rest time per four (4) hours or major fraction thereof. However, a rest period
28 need not be authorized for employees whose total daily work time is less than three and one-half (3 ½)

1 hours. Authorized rest period time shall be counted as hours worked for which there shall be no
2 deduction from wages.”

3 73. Section 12(B) of the IWC Wage Order(s) states: “If an employer fails to provide an 4 employee a rest period in accordance with the applicable provisions of this order, the employer shall
5 pay the employee one (1) hour of pay at the employee’s regular rate of compensation for each workday
6 that the rest period is not provided.”

7 74. The members of the Rest Period Class consistently worked over four (4) hours per shift
8 and therefore were entitled to a rest period of not less than ten (10) minutes prior to exceeding four (4)
9 hours of employment.

10 75. As a matter of Defendants’ established company policy, Defendants failed to authorize 11 and permit the required rest periods established by Labor Code § 226.7 and Labor Code § 516 and 12 Section 12 of the IWC Wage Order(s).

13 76. Pursuant to Section 12 of the IWC Wage Orders(s) and Labor Code § 226.7(b) which 14 states “if an employer fails to provide an employee a meal or rest period in accordance with an
15 applicable order of the Industrial Welfare Commission, the employer shall pay the employee one
16 additional hour of pay at the employee’s regular rate of compensation for each work day that the meal
17 or rest period is not provided,” the members of the Rest Period Class are entitled to damages in an 18 amount equal to one (1) additional hour of pay at each employee’s regular rate of compensation for 19 each work day that the rest period was not so provided.

20 77. Pursuant to Labor Code § 218.6 and CC § 3287, the members of the Rest Period Class
21 seek recovery of pre-judgment interest on all amounts recovered herein.

22 78. Pursuant to Labor Code the members of the Rest Period Class request that the Court
23 award reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs incurred by them in this action.

24 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

25 FAILURE TO TIMELY FURNISH ACCURATE ITEMIZED WAGE STATEMENTS

26 (On Behalf of the Wage Statement Class)

27 (Against All Defendants)

1           79.     Plaintiffs incorporate by reference and reallege each and every one of the allegations
2 contained in the preceding and foregoing paragraphs of this Complaint as if fully set forth herein.

3           80.     Labor Code § 226(a) states in pertinent part: “Every employer shall, semimonthly or at 4 the time of each payment of wages, furnish each of his or her employees, either as a detachable part of 5 the check, draft, or voucher paying the employee’s wages, or separately when wages are paid by 6 personal check or cash, an accurate itemized statement in writing showing (1) gross wages earned, (2)
7 total hours worked by the employee...(4) all deductions...(5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive dates of 8 the period for which the employee is paid...(8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the 9 employer, and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during each the pay period and the corresponding 10 number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee...”.

11           81.     Further, the IWC Wage Orders § 7(A) states in pertinent part: “(A) Every employer shall 12 keep accurate information with respect to each employee including the following: (3) Time records
13 showing when the employee begins and ends each work period. Meal periods, split shift intervals, and 14 total daily hours worked shall also be recorded...(5) Total hours worked in the payroll period and 15 applicable rates of pay....”

16           82.     Therefore, pursuant to Labor Code § 226(a) and the IWC Wage Orders § 7(A),
17 California employers are required to maintain accurate records pertaining to the total hours worked for 18 Defendants by the members of the Wage Statement Class, including but not limited to, beginning and 19 ending of each work period, meal period and split shift interval, the total daily hours worked, total 20 wages paid, and the total hours worked per pay period and applicable rates of pay,

21           83.     As a pattern and practice, in violation of Labor Code § 226(a) and the IWC Wage Orders
22 § 7(A), Defendants did not and still do not furnish each of the members of the Wage Statement Class
23 with an accurate itemized statement in writing showing (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked
24 by the employee, (3) all deductions, (4) net wages earned and/or (5) all applicable hourly rates in effect
25 during each respective pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by 26 each respective individual.

27           84.     As a pattern and practice, in violation of Labor Code § 226(a) and the IWC Wage Orders
28 § 7(A), Defendants did not and do not maintain accurate records pertaining to the total hours worked

1 for Defendants by the members of the Wage Statement Class, including but not limited to, beginning
2 and ending of each work period, meal period and split shift interval, the total daily hours worked, and
3 the total hours worked per pay period and applicable rates of pay.

4 85. Plaintiffs and the members of the Wage Statement Class have suffered injury as a result
5 of Defendants' failure to maintain accurate records for the members of the Wage Statement Class have 6 suffered injury as a result of Defendants' failure to maintain accurate records for the members of the 7 Wage Statement Class in that the members of the Wage Statement Class were not timely provided
8 written accurate itemized statements showing all requisite information, including but not limited to total
9 hours worked by the employee, gross wages earned, net wages earned, all deductions, and all
10 applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked 11 at each hourly at each hourly rate, in violation of Labor Code § 226 and the IWC Wage Orders § 7(A),
12 such that the members of the Wage Statement Class were misled by Defendants as to the correct
13 information regarding various items, including but not limited to total hours worked by the employee,
14 gross wages earned, net wages earned, all deductions, and all applicable hourly rates in effect during the 15 pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate.

16 86. Pursuant to Labor Code § 226(e), the members of the Wage Statement Class are entitled 17 to fifty dollars ($50.00) per employer for the initial pay period in which a violation hereunder occurs
18 and one hundred dollars ($100.00) per employer for each violation in a subsequent pay period, not 19 exceeding an aggregate penalty of four thousand dollars ($4,000.00).

20 87. Pursuant to Labor Code § 226(g), the currently-employed members of the Wage
21 Statement Class are entitled to injunctive relief to ensure Defendants' compliance with Labor Code § 22 226.

23 88. Pursuant to Labor Code § 226(e) and/or § 226(g), the members of the Wage Statement
24 Class are also entitled to an award of costs and reasonable attorneys' fees.

25 SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

26 VIOLATIONS OF LABOR CODE § 203

27 (On Behalf of the LC 203 Class Members)

28 (Against All Defendants)

1 89. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference and reallege each and every one of the allegations
2 contained in the preceding and foregoing paragraphs of this Complaint as if fully set forth herein.

3 90. Labor Code § 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay, without abatement
4 or reduction, in accordance with Labor Code §§ 201 and 202 any wages of an employee who is
5 discharged or who quits, the wages of the employee shall continue at the same rate, for up to thirty (30) 6 days from the due date thereof, until paid or until action therefore is commenced.

7 91. The members of the LC 203 Class are no longer employed by Defendants as they were 8 either discharged from or quit Defendants' employ.

9 92. Defendants had a consistent and uniform policy, practice and procedure of willfully
10 failing to pay the earned wages of Defendants' former employees, according to amendment or proof.

11 93. Defendants willfully failed to pay the members of the LC 203 Class their entire wages
12 due and owing at the time of their termination or within seventy-two (72) hours of their resignation, and 13 failed to pay those sums for thirty (30) days thereafter.

14 94. Defendants' willful failure to pay wages to the members of the LC 203 Class violates 15 Labor Code § 203 because Defendants knew or should have known wages were due to the members of 16 the LC 203 Class, but Defendants failed to pay them.

17 95. Thus, the members of the LC 203 Class are entitled to recovery pursuant to Labor Code
18 § 203, in the amount of each LC 203 Class members' daily wage multiplied by thirty (30) days.<sup>5</sup>

19 96. Pursuant to CC § 3287, the members of the LC 203 Class seek recovery of prejudgment
20 interest on all amounts recovered herein.

21 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

22 UNFAIR BUSINESS PRACTICES

23 (On Behalf of the 17200 Class)

24 (Against All Defendants)

25 97. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference and reallege each and every one of the allegations
26 contained in the preceding and foregoing paragraphs of this Complaint as if fully set forth herein.

27 98. B&PC § 17200 provides in pertinent part "...[U]nfair competition shall mean and include 28 any unlawful, unfair or fraudulent business act...."

1           99.     B&PC § 17205 provides that unless otherwise expressly provided, the remedies or
2 penalties provided for unfair competition “are cumulative to each other and to the remedies or penalties
3 available under all other laws of this state.”

4           100.   B&PC § 17204 provides that an action for any relief from unfair competition may be
5 prosecuted by any person who has suffered injury in fact and has lost money or property as a result of 6 such unfair competition.

7           101.   Defendants have engaged in unlawful, unfair and fraudulent business acts or practices
8 prohibited by B&PC § 17200, including those set forth in the preceding and foregoing paragraphs of 9 the complaint, thereby depriving Plaintiffs and all others similarly situated of the minimum working 10 standards and conditions due to them under the Labor Code and/or the IWC Wage Orders, as 11 specifically described herein.

12           102.   Defendants have engaged in unfair business practices in California by practicing,
13 employing and utilizing the employment practices outlined in the preceding paragraphs, specifically, by 14 requiring employees to perform the labor services complained of herein without the requisite 15 compensation.

16           103.   Defendants’ use of such practices constitutes an unfair business practice, unfair
17 competition and provides an unfair advantage over Defendants’ competitors.

18           104.   Plaintiffs have suffered injury in fact and have lost money or property as a result of such 19 unfair competition.

20           105.   Plaintiffs seek full restitution from Defendants, as necessary and according to proof,
21 restore any and all monies withheld, acquired and/or converted by Defendants by means of the unfair
22 practices complained of herein.

23           106.   Further, if Defendants are not enjoined set forth, above, Defendants will continue to 24 practice, employ and utilize the employment practices outlined in the preceding paragraphs.

25           107.   Therefore, Plaintiffs request that the Court issue a preliminary and permanent injunction
26 prohibiting Defendants from engaging in the foregoing conduct.

27           108.   Plaintiffs seek the appointment of a receiver, as necessary, to establish the total monetary
28 relief sought from Defendants.

1 EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

2 PENALTIES PURSUANT TO LABOR CODE §2698 et seq.

3 (On Behalf of All Classes)

4 (Against All Defendants)

5 109. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference and reallege each and every one of the allegations
6 contained in the preceding and foregoing paragraphs of this Complaint as if fully set forth herein.

7 110. Here, Defendants violated various provisions of the Labor Code and relevant portions of 8 the applicable Wage Order as referenced in the causes of action supra.

9 111. This cause of action and this representation is brought by Plaintiffs on behalf of 10 themselves and Defendants' current and former non-exempt hourly paid employees to whom 11 defendants violated the applicable California wage and hour laws as referenced supra.

12 112. As set forth supra Defendants consistently implemented, maintained and enforced unlawful 13 policies and practices regarding Plaintiffs and the aggrieved employees in violations of California wage
14 and hour laws and identified supra and Labor Code Sections 2698 et seq.

15 113. Such policies and practices, as described supra, violated the Labor Code, and therefore 16 trigger civil penalties insofar as the underlying provisions are enumerated in Labor Code Section
17 2699.5. Therefore, Plaintiffs on behalf of themselves and all aggrieved employees bring this 18 representative PAGA action pursuant to the violation of the Labor Code referenced supra seeking 19 penalties for the violations alleged herein, reasonable attorney's fees and costs, and other relief deemed 20 proper.

21 114. Pursuant to Labor Code Section 2699(a) (which provides that any provision of the Labor
22 Code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the Labor and Workforce
23 Development Agency, may as an alternative, be recovered through a civil action brought by an 24 aggrieved employee, on behalf of himself or herself and other current or former employees), the 25 members of all Classes seek recovery of applicable civil penalties.

26 115. Pursuant to Labor Code Section 2699(e) (which provides that for all provision of the 27 Labor Code except those for which a civil penalty is specifically provided, there is established a civil 28

1 penalty for a violation of these provisions), the members of all Classes seek recovery of the applicable
2 civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code §2699( e) (2) as follows:

3 a. One hundred dollars ($100.00) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial 4 violation; and

5 b. Two hundred dollars ($200.00) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each
6 subsequent violation.

7 c. Further for penalties under Labor Code Section 558, in addition to and entirely independent
8 and apart from any other penalty provided in the Labor Code in the amount of $50 for each underpaid 9 aggrieved employee for each pay period the aggrieved was underpaid and $100 for each subsequent 10 violation for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid.

11 d. In addition, Plaintiffs seek and are entitled to fifty percent (50%) of all penalties under Labor
12 Code §2699 to be allocated to the General Fund, and twenty five percent (25%) of all penalties obtained
13 to be allocated to the LWDA, for education of employers and employees about their rights and 14 responsibilities under the Labor Code, and twenty-five (25%) to all aggrieved employees.

15 116. Further, Plaintiffs are entitled to recover reasonable attorney's fees and costs pursuant to 16 Labor Code §§2699(g)(1), 218.5 and any other applicable statutes.

17 117. Labor Code §§2699.3(a) states in pertinent part: "A civil action by an aggrieved employee
18 pursuant to subdivision(a) or (f) of Section 2699 alleging a violation of any provisions listed in Section
19 2699.5 shall commence only after the following requirement have been met: (1) the aggrieved
20 employee or representative shall give... notice ...to the LWDA and the employer of the specific 21 provision of this code alleged to have been violated."

22 118. Here, Plaintiffs' civil action alleged violation of provision listed in Labor Code §2699.5.
23 As such, Labor Code §2699.3(a) applies to this action.

24 119. Plaintiffs complied with Labor Code §2699.3(a) in that Plaintiffs gave proper notice to the 25 LWDA and Defendants to the specific provision of the Labor Code alleged to have been violated.

26 120. Labor Code §2699.3(a) further states in pertinent part: "(2)(A) The agency shall notify the 27 employer and the aggrieved employee or representative by certified mail that it does not intend to 28 investigated the alleged violation within 60 calendar days of the postmark date of the notice received

1 pursuant to paragraph (1) Upon receipt of that notice or if no notice is provided within 65 calendar days
2 of the postmark date of the notice give in pursuant to paragraph (1), the aggrieved employee my
3 commenced a civil action pursuant to section 2699.”

4 121. Plaintiffs have complied with Labor Code §2699.3(a) and have been given authorization
5 therefrom to commence a civil action which includes a cause of action pursuant to Labor Code §2699.
