1 Plaintiff GONZALO OLGUIN (“Plaintiff”) individually and on behalf of other members
2 of the general public similarly situated, and as a private attorney general, alleges as follows:

3 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

4 1. Plaintiff brings this action against Defendants SPARTAN EMPLOYER
5 SERVICES, INC., LA BARCA TORTILLERIA, INC. and DOES 1 THROUGH 50 (hereinafter
6 also collectively referred to as “Defendants”) for California Labor Code violations, unfair
7 business practices, and civil penalties stemming from Defendants’ failure to pay overtime
8 compensation, failure to provide meal periods, failure to authorize and permit rest periods, failure
9 to pay minimum wage, failure to timely pay wages, failure to provide accurate wage statements, 10 and failure to maintain accurate payroll records.

11 2. Plaintiff’s First through Ninth Causes of Action are brought as a class action on 12 behalf of himself and similarly situated current and former employees of Defendants (hereinafter
13 collectively referred to as the “Class” or “Class Members”, as defined more fully in paragraph 14 14, below) pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure section 382. The monetary damages
15 and restitution sought by Plaintiff exceeds the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court 16 and will be established according to proof at trial.

17 3. Plaintiff’s Tenth Cause of Action is brought as a representative action on behalf 18 of himself and certain other current and former employees of Defendants against whom one or 19 more of the alleged violations was committed (hereinafter collectively referred to as the 20 “Aggrieved Employees”) pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2698, et seq. Plaintiff is an 21 aggrieved employee against whom one or more of the alleged violations occurred. The civil 22 penalties sought by Plaintiff exceed the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court and will 23 be established according to proof at trial.

24 4. The Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to the California Constitution,
25 Article VI, Section 10, which grants the superior court “original jurisdiction in all other causes”
26 except those given by statute to other courts. The statutes under which this action is brought do 27 not specify any other basis for jurisdiction.

28 5. This Court has jurisdiction over Defendants because, upon information and belief,

1 Defendants are citizens of California, have sufficient minimum contacts in California, or 2 otherwise intentionally avail themselves of the California market so as to render the exercise of 3 jurisdiction over them by the California courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play and 4 substantial justice.

5 6. Venue is proper in this Court because, upon information and belief, Defendants
6 maintain offices, have agents, and/or transact business in the State of California, County of Los 7 Angeles.

8 PARTIES

9 7. Plaintiff GONZALO OLGUIN is an individual residing in the County of Los 10 Angeles, State of California.

11 8. Defendant SPARTAN EMPLOYER SERVICES, INC. is, and at all times herein
12 mentioned was, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of California and 13 registered to do business in the state of California.

14 9. Defendant LA BARCA TORTILLERIA, INC. is, and at all times herein
15 mentioned was, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of California and
16 registered to do business in the state of California.

17 10. Plaintiff is ignorant of the identities of defendants Does 1 through 50, inclusive, 18 and therefore sues these defendants by such fictitious names. The Doe defendants may be 19 individuals, partnerships, or corporations. Plaintiff is informed and believe, and thereon alleges,
20 that, at all times mentioned herein, each of the Doe defendants was the parent, subsidiary, agent, 21 servant, employee, co-venturer, and/or co-conspirator of each of the other defendants, and was at 22 all times mentioned acting within the scope, purpose, consent, knowledge, ratification and 23 authorization of such agency, employment, joint venture and conspiracy. Plaintiff will amend this 24 Complaint to allege their true names and capacities when ascertained. Plaintiff is informed and 25 believes and thereon alleges that each of the fictitiously named Doe defendants is responsible in 26 some manner for the occurrences herein alleged, and that Plaintiff's damages as herein alleged 27 were proximately caused by its conduct. Defendants SPARTAN EMPLOYER SERVICES, INC., 28 LA BARCA TORTILLERIA, INC., and Doe Defendants 1 through 50 are collectively referred to herein as “Defendants.”

11. Defendants are and at all times herein mentioned were, (a) conducting business in the County of Los Angeles, State of California, and (b) the employer of Plaintiff consistent with the California Labor Code and Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders (“Wage Orders”).

12. Plaintiff further alleges that Defendants, directly or indirectly controlled or affected the working conditions, wages, working hours, and conditions of employment of Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees so as to make each of said Defendants employers and employers jointly liable under the statutory provisions set forth herein.

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

13. Plaintiff brings the First through Ninth Causes of Action as class action on his own behalf and on behalf of all other members of the general public similarly situated, and, thus, seeks class certification under Code of Civil Procedure section 382.

14. The proposed class is defined as follows: All current and former non-exempt employees of any of the Defendants within the State of California at any time commencing four (4) years preceding the filing of Plaintiff’s complaint up until the time that notice of the certified class action is provided to the class (hereinafter referred to as the “Class” or “Class Members.”)

15. Plaintiff reserves the right to establish other subclasses as appropriate.

16. The Class is ascertainable and there is a well-defined community of interest in the litigation:

a. Numerosity: The Class Members are so numerous that joinder of all Class Members is impracticable. The membership of the entire Class is unknown to Plaintiff at this time; however, the Class is estimated to be over fifty (50) individuals and the identity of such membership is readily ascertainable by inspection of Defendants’ employment records.

b. Typicality: Plaintiff’s claims are typical of all other Class Members demonstrated herein. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the other Class Members with whom he has a well-defined community of interest.

c. Adequacy: Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of each Class

1 Member, with whom he has a well-defined community of interest and typicality
2 of claims, as demonstrated herein. Plaintiff has no interest that is antagonistic to 3 the other Class Members. Plaintiff's attorneys, the proposed class counsel, are 4 versed in the rules governing class action discovery, certification, and settlement.
5 Plaintiff has incurred, and during the pendency of this action will continue to 6 incur, costs and attorneys' fees, that have been, are, and will be necessarily 7 expended for the prosecution of this action for the substantial benefit of each Class 8 Member.

- 9 d. Superiority: A class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and 10 efficient adjudication of this litigation because individual joinder of all Class 11 Members is impractical.
- 12 e. Public Policy Considerations: Certification of this lawsuit as a class action will 13 advance public policy objectives. Employers of this great state violate 14 employment and labor laws every day. Current employees are often afraid to 15 assert their rights out of fear of direct or indirect retaliation. However, class 16 actions provide the Class Members who are not named in the complaint anonymity that allows for the vindication of their rights.

17 17. There are common questions of law and fact as to the Class that predominate over 18 questions affecting only individual members. The following common questions of law or fact, 19 among others, exist as to the members of the Class:

- 20 a. Whether Defendants' failure to pay wages, without abatement, or reduction, in 21 accordance with the California Labor Code was willful;
- 22 b. Whether Defendants had a corporate policy and practice of failing to pay Plaintiff 23 and the other Class Members for all hours worked, and missed, short, late or 24 interrupted meal periods and rest breaks in violation of California law;
- 25 c. Whether Defendants required Plaintiff and the other Class Members to work more 26 than eight (8) hours per day and/or more than forty (40) hours per week and failed
27 to pay the legally required overtime compensation to Plaintiff and the other Class 28

Members;

- d. Whether Defendants deprived Plaintiff and the other Class Members of meal and/or rest periods or required Plaintiff and the other Class Members to work during meal and/or rest periods without compensation;
- e. Whether Defendants failed to pay meal period premium wages to Class Members when they were not provided with a legally compliant meal period;
- f. Whether Defendants failed to pay rest period premium wages to class Members when they were not authorized and permitted to take legally compliant rest periods.
- g. Whether Defendants failed to pay minimum wages to Plaintiff and the other Class Members for all hours worked;
- h. Whether Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members the required minimum wage pursuant to California law;
- i. Whether Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members proper overtime compensation pursuant to California law;
- j. Whether Defendants failed to pay all wages due to Plaintiff and the other Class Members within the time required upon their discharge or resignation from employment;
- k. Whether Defendants failed to timely pay all wages due to Plaintiff and the other Class Members during their employment;
- l. Whether Defendants complied with wage reporting as required by the California Labor Code, including section 226;
- m. Whether Defendants kept complete and accurate payroll records as required by the California Labor Code, including section 1174(d);
- n. Whether Defendants' conduct was with malice, fraud or oppression;
- o. Whether Defendants' conduct was willful or reckless;
- p. Whether Defendants engaged in unfair business practices in violation of California Business & Professions Code section 17200, et seq. based on its improper withholding of compensation and deduction of wages;

q. The appropriate amount of damages, restitution, and/or monetary penalties resulting from Defendants' violation of California law; and

r. Whether Plaintiff and the other Class Members are entitled to compensatory damages pursuant to the California Labor Code.

GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

18. Defendant SPARTAN EMPLOYER SERVICES, INC. is a staffing company that provides full-time, part-time, and temporary workers to employers throughout California.

19. Defendant LA BARCA TORTILLERIA, INC. is producer of fresh tortillas.

20. Defendants employed Plaintiff to work as a janitor from approximately February 6, 2019 to October 30, 2019.

21. At all relevant times set forth herein, Defendants employed Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees as hourly-paid or non-exempt employees.

22. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants had the authority to hire and terminate Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees; to directly or indirectly control work rules, working conditions, wages, working hours, and conditions of employment of Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees; and to hire and terminate the employment of Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees.

23. At all times herein mentioned, Defendants were subject to the Labor Code of the State of California and the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Orders.

24. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges that Defendants engaged in an ongoing and systematic scheme of wage abuse against their hourly-paid or non-exempt employees. As set forth in more detail below, this scheme involved, inter alia, regularly failing to pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees overtime compensation when they worked over 8 hours in a day or 40 hours, and failing to pay double time compensation when they worked over 12 hours in a day. In addition, Defendants regularly required Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to work off the clock without compensation, thereby failing to pay them for all hours worked, including minimum and overtime wages. Defendants also

1 implemented time rounding and editing practices that resulted in the systematic underpayment of 2 wages to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees, including minimum and overtime
3 wages. Defendants also implemented policies that prohibited Plaintiff, the Class, and the 4 Aggrieved Employees from accurately recording the actual time worked, resulting in a failure to 5 pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees all wages owed. In addition, Defendants
6 routinely failed to permit Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to take timely and 7 duty-free meal periods and rest periods in violation of California law.

8 25. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants have implemented
9 policies and practices which failed to provide Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees
10 with timely and duty-free meal periods. Defendants routinely failed to relieve Plaintiff, the Class,
11 and the Aggrieved Employees of all duties during their meal periods, regularly failed to relinquish
12 control over Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees during their meal periods,
13 regularly failed to permit Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees a reasonable 14 opportunity to take their meal periods, and regularly impeded or discouraged Plaintiff, the Class,
15 and the Aggrieved Employees from taking thirty (30) minute uninterrupted meal breaks no later
16 than the end of their fifth hour of work and/or from taking a second thirty (30) minute
17 uninterrupted meal break no later than their tenth hour of work for shifts lasting more than ten 18 (10) hours. Defendants also failed to maintain accurate records of meal periods taken by Plaintiff, 19 the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees.

20 26. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants did not adequately
21 inform Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees of their right to take meal periods under
22 California law. Moreover, Defendants systematically disregarded their own written policies
23 regarding the provision and timing of meal periods for Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
24 Employees. Instead, Defendants' actual policy and practice was to schedule Plaintiff, the Class,
25 and the Aggrieved Employees in a way the prohibited them from taking timely and duty-free meal
26 periods, and to require Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to work through their 27 meal periods, for which they were not compensated.

28 27. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants failed to pay

1 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees premium wages for meal periods that were
2 missed, late, interrupted, or shortened in violation of California law. Defendants knew or should
3 have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were entitled to receive all
4 meal periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at their regular rate of pay when a meal
5 period was missed, short, late, and/or interrupted. Notwithstanding this knowledge, Defendants
6 routinely failed to provide legally compliant meal periods to Plaintiff, the Class, and the 7 Aggrieved Employees, and routinely failed pay one additional hour of pay to Plaintiff, the Class,
8 and the Aggrieved Employees at their regular rate of pay when a meal period was missed, short, late, and/or interrupted.

9 28. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants have implemented
10 policies and practices which prohibited Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees from 11 taking timely and duty-free rest periods. Defendants regularly failed to provide, authorize, and 12 permit Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to take full, uninterrupted, off-duty rest 13 periods for every shift lasting three and one-half (3.5) to six (6) hours and/or two full,
14 uninterrupted, off-duty rest periods for every shift lasting six (6) to ten (10) hours, and failed to 15 make a good faith effort to authorize, permit, and provide such rest breaks in the middle of each 16 work period.

17 29. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants did not adequately
18 inform Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees of their right to take rest periods under
19 California law. Moreover, Defendants systematically disregarded their own written policies
20 regarding the provision and timing of rest periods for Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
21 Employees. Instead, Defendants' actual policy and practice was to schedule Plaintiff, the Class, 22 and the Aggrieved Employees in a way that regularly prohibited them from taking timely and 23 duty free rest periods, and to regularly require Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees 24 to work through their rest periods.

25 30. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants failed to pay
26 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees premium wages for rest periods that were 27 missed, late, interrupted, or shortened in violation of California law. Defendants knew or should 28

1 have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were entitled to receive all
2 rest periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at their regular rate of pay when a rest period
3 was missed, short, late, and/or interrupted. Notwithstanding this knowledge, Defendants routinely
4 failed to authorize and permit Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to take duty-free
5 rest periods, and failed to pay one additional hour of pay to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
6 Employees at their regular rate of pay when a rest period was missed, short, late and/or 7 interrupted.

8 31. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendant regularly required 9 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to perform work off-the-clock. Although 10 Defendants prohibited overtime, Defendants still regularly required that Plaintiff, the Class, and 11 the Aggrieved Employees complete all of their assigned duties. To do so, Plaintiff, the Class, and 12 the Aggrieved Employees were regularly required to perform work off-the-clock for which they 13 were not compensated.

14 32. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants employed a time
15 rounding policy that was not neutral and designed to consistently round time in Defendants' favor,
16 ensuring that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were oftentimes not paid for all 17 time worked.

18 33. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants implemented policies 19 that prohibited Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees from accurately recording the 20 actual time worked, resulting in a failure to pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees 21 all wages owed.

22 34. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Plaintiff, the Class, and the 23 Aggrieved Employees worked more than eight (8) hours in a day, and/or forty (40) hours in a 24 week.

25 35. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to 26 pay overtime compensation to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees when they 27 worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a single work day and/or forty (40) hours in a single work
28 week. Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved

1 Employees were entitled to receive certain wages for overtime compensation and that they were 2 not receiving wages for overtime compensation.

3 36. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to 4 pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees at least minimum wages for all hours
5 worked. Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
6 Employees were entitled to receive at least minimum wages for all hours worked and that they
7 were not receiving at least minimum wages for all hours worked. Defendants' failure to pay
8 minimum wages included, inter alia, failing to pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved 9 Employees at the required minimum wage pursuant to California law, requiring Plaintiff, the 10 Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to perform work off the clock, and implementing time
11 rounding policies that resulted in the systematic underpayment of wages to Plaintiff, the Class, 12 and the Aggrieved Employees.

13 37. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to 14 pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees all wages owed to them upon discharge or 15 resignation. Defendant knew or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
16 Employees were entitled to receive all wages owed to them upon termination within the time
17 permissible under California Labor Code section 202. Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
18 Employees did not receive payment of all final wages owed to them upon discharge or resignation, 19 including overtime compensation and minimum wages within any time permissible under 20 California Labor Code section 202.

21 38. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to 22 pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees all wages within any time permissible
23 under California law, including, inter alia, California Labor Code section 204. Defendants knew 24 or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were entitled to 25 receive all wages owed to them during their employment. Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
26 Employees did not receive payment of all wages, including overtime compensation, minimum
27 wages, and meal and rest period premiums, within any time permissible under California Labor
28 Code section 204.

1 39. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to
2 provide complete or accurate wage statements to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
3 Employees. Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
4 Employees were entitled to receive complete and accurate wage statements in accordance with 5 California law, but, in fact, they did not receive complete and accurate wage statements from 6 Defendants. The deficiencies included, inter alia, the failure to include the total number of hours
7 worked, the actual gross wages earned, and the rate of pay and hours worked for each temporary 8 assignment.

9 40. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to 10 keep complete or accurate payroll records for Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees.
11 Defendants knew or should have known that Defendants were required keep complete and 12 accurate payroll records for Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees in accordance with 13 California law, but, in fact, did not keep complete and accurate payroll records.

14 41. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants knew or should have 15 known that they had a duty to compensate Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees 16 pursuant to California law. Defendants had the financial ability to pay such compensation, but 17 willfully, knowingly, and intentionally failed to do so, and falsely represented to Plaintiff, the 18 Class, and the Aggrieved Employees that they paid all wages owed to them, all in order to increase 19 Defendants' profits.

20 42. California Labor Code section 218 states that nothing in Article 1 of the Labor 21 Code shall limit the right of any wage claimant to "sue directly ... for any wages or penalty due 22 to him [or her] under this article."

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code §§ 510 and 1198)

(Against All Defendants)

24 43. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and 25 every allegation set forth above.

26 44. California Labor Code section 1198 and the applicable Industrial Welfare 27
28

Commission (“IWC”) Wage Order provide that it is unlawful to employ persons without compensating them at a rate of pay either time-and-one-half or two-times that person’s regular rate of pay, depending on the number of hours worked by the person on a daily or weekly basis.

45. Specifically, the applicable IWC Wage Order provides that Defendants are and were required to pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members employed by Defendants, and working more than eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek, at the rate of time-and-one-half for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek.

46. The applicable IWC Wage Order further provides that Defendants are and were required to pay Plaintiff and the Class overtime compensation at a rate of two times their regular rate of pay for all hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in a day and for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours on the seventh day of work in a workweek.

47. California Labor Code section 510 codifies the right to overtime compensation at one-and-one-half times the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or forty (40) hours in a week or for the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh day of work, and no overtime compensation at twice the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in a day or in excess of eight (8) hours in a day on the seventh day of work.

48. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and the other Class Members regularly worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day, and/or in excess of forty (40) hours in a week.

49. During the relevant time period, Defendants intentionally and willfully failed to pay overtime wages owed to Plaintiff and the other Class Members.

50. Defendants’ failure to pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members the unpaid balance of overtime compensation, as required by California laws, violates the provisions of California Labor Code sections 510 and 1198, and is therefore unlawful.

51. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194, Plaintiff and the other Class Members are entitled to recover unpaid overtime compensation, as well as interest, costs, and attorneys’ fees.

(Violation of California Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512(a))

(Against All Defendants)

53. At all relevant times, the relevant IWC Order and California Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512(a) were applicable to Plaintiff and the other Class Members' employment by Defendants.

55. At all relevant times, the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code section 512(a) provide that an employer may not require, cause or permit an employee to work for a work period of more than five (5) hours per day without providing the employee with a meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes, except that if the total work period per day of the employee is no more than six (6) hours, the meal period may be waived by mutual consent of both the employer and employee.

56. At all relevant times, California Labor Code section 512(a) further provides that an employer may not require, cause or permit an employee to work for a work period of more than ten (10) hours per day without providing the employee with a second uninterrupted meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes, except that if the total hours worked is no more than twelve (12) hours, the second meal period may be waived by mutual consent of the employer and the employee only if the first meal period was not waived.

57. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and the other Class Members who were scheduled to work for a period of time longer than six (6) hours, and who did not waive their legally-mandated meal periods by mutual consent, were required to work for periods longer than five (5) hours without an uninterrupted meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes.

58. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and the other Class Members who were

1 scheduled to work for a period of time in excess of ten (10) hours were required to work for 2 periods longer than ten (10) hours without a second uninterrupted meal period of not less than 3 thirty (30) minutes.

4 59. During the relevant time period, Defendants intentionally and willfully required
5 Plaintiff and the other Class Members to miss their meal periods and to take meal periods that 6 were late, shortened, or interrupted, and failed to compensate Plaintiff and the other Class
7 Members the full meal period premium for missed, shortened, late, or interrupted meal periods.

8 60. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other
9 Class Members the full meal period premiums due pursuant to California Labor Code section 10 226.7.

11 61. Defendants' conduct violates the applicable IWC Wage Order and California
12 Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512(a).

13 62. Pursuant to the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code section
14 226.7(b), Plaintiff and the other Class Members are entitled to recover from Defendants one 15 additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of compensation for each work day that the 16 meal period was not provided.

17 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

18 (Violation of California Labor Code § 226.7)

19 (Against All Defendants)

20 63. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and 21 every allegation set forth above.

22 64. At all times herein set forth, the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor 23 Code section 226.7 were applicable to Plaintiff and the other class members' employment by 24 Defendants.

25 65. At all relevant times, California Labor Code section 226.7 provides that no
26 employer shall require an employee to work during any rest period mandated by an applicable
27 order of the California IWC.

28 66. At all relevant times, the applicable IWC Wage Order provides that "[e]very 1 employer shall authorize and permit all employees to take rest periods, which insofar as 2 practicable shall be in the middle of each work period” and that the “rest period time shall be

3 based on the total hours worked daily at the rate of ten (10) minutes net rest time per four (4)
4 hours or major fraction thereof unless the total daily work time is less than three and one-half 5 (3.5) hours.”

25 79. During the relevant time period, the employment of Plaintiff and many other Class

15 every allegation set forth above.

16 97. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 1174(d), an employer shall keep, at a

18 payroll records showing the hours worked daily by and the wages paid to, and the number of 19 piece-rate units earned by and any applicable piece rate paid to, employees employed at the 20 respective plants or establishments. These records shall be kept in accordance with rules
21 established for this purpose by the commission, but in any case, shall be kept on file for not less 22 than three years.

23 98. Defendants have intentionally and willfully failed to keep accurate and complete 24 payroll records showing the hours worked and the wages paid to Plaintiff and the Class.

25 99. Because of Defendants' violation of California Labor Code section 1174(d), 26 Plaintiff and the Class have suffered injury and damage to their statutorily-protected rights.

27 100. More specifically, Plaintiff and the Class have been injured by Defendants'
28 intentional and willful violation of California Labor Code section 1174(d) because they were

1 denied both their legal right and protected interest, in having available, accurate and complete
2 payroll records pursuant to California Labor Code section 1174(d).

3 NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

4 (Violation of Cal. Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.)

5 (Against All Defendants)

6 101. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and
7 every allegation set forth above.

8 102. Defendants' conduct, as alleged herein, has been, and continues to be, unfair,
9 unlawful and harmful to Plaintiff and the Class, to the general public, and Defendants'
10 competitors. Accordingly, Plaintiff seeks to enforce important rights affecting the public interest 11 within the meaning of Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5.

12 103. Defendants' activities as alleged herein are violations of California law, and 13 constitute unlawful business acts and practices in violation of California Business & Professions 14 Code section 17200, et seq.

15 104. A violation of California Business & Professions Code section 17200, et seq. may 16 be predicated on the violation of any state or federal law. In this instant case, Defendants' policies 17 and practices of requiring employees, including Plaintiff and the Class, to work overtime without 18 paying them proper compensation violate California Labor Code sections 510 and 1198.
19 Additionally, Defendants' policies and practices of requiring employees, including Plaintiff and 20 the Class, to work through their meal and rest periods without paying them proper compensation 21 violate California Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512(a). Moreover, Defendants' policies and 22 practices of failing to timely pay wages to Plaintiff and the Class violate California Labor Code 23 sections 201, 202, 203 and 204.

24 105. Defendants also violated California Labor Code sections, 221, 226(a), 1194, 1197, 25 1197.1, 510, and 1174(d).

26 106. As a result of the herein described violations of California law, Defendants 27 unlawfully gained an unfair advantage over other businesses.

28 107. Plaintiff and the Class have been personally injured by Defendants' unlawful

1 business acts and practices as alleged herein, including but not necessarily limited to the loss of 2 money and/or property.

3 108. Pursuant to California Business & Professions Code sections 17200, et seq.,
4 Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to restitution of the wages withheld and retained by Defendants
5 during a period that commences four years prior to the filing of this Complaint; an award of 6 attorneys' fees pursuant to California Code of Civil procedure section 1021.5 and other applicable
7 laws; and an award of costs.

8 TENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

9 (Violation of California Labor Code § 2699, Et Seq.)

10 (Against All Defendants)

11 109. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and 12 every allegation set forth above.

13 110. Plaintiff brings his tenth cause of action as a representative action on behalf of 14 himself and similarly Aggrieved Employees in the capacity as a private attorney general pursuant 15 to the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, California Labor Code section 2698, et seq.
16 (“PAGA”).

17 111. PAGA specifically provides for a private right of action to recover civil penalties 18 for violations of the Labor Code as follows: “Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any 19 provision of this code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the Labor
20 and Workforce Development Agency or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards, 21 agencies, or employees, for a violation of this code, may, as an alternative, be recovered through 22 a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of himself or herself and other current 23 or former employees pursuant to the procedures specified in Section 2699.3.” Cal. Lab. Code § 24 2699(a).

25 112. Plaintiff was employed by Defendants and the Labor Code violations alleged above
26 were committed against him during his time of employment. Plaintiff is therefore, an “aggrieved 27 employee” under PAGA.

28 113. As set forth in detail above, during all times relevant to this Action, Defendant

1 has routinely subjected Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to violations of California Labor
2 Codes by:

- 3 a. Failing to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees all earned minimum wage
4 compensation in violation of Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1198 et seq.;
- 5 b. Failing to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees all earned overtime
6 compensation in violation of Labor Code §§ 204, 510, 1194, and 1198 et seq.;
- 7 c. Failing to provide legally required meal periods to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved
8 Employees, and failing to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees an additional 9 hour of premium pay for meal period violations in violation of Labor Code §§ 10 226.7 and 512.
- 11 d. Failing to provide authorize and permit Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to 12 take duty-free rest periods, and failing to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved 13 Employees an additional hour of premium pay for rest period violations in 14 violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512.
- 15 e. Failing to timely pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees all wages at end of 16 their employment in violation of Labor Code § 203.
- 17 f. Failing to timely pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees all wages owed 18 during employment in violation of Labor Code § 204.
- 19 g. Failing to furnish Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees with complete, accurate, 20 itemized wage statements in violation of Labor Code § 226;
- 21 h. Failing to maintain accurate records relating to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved
22 Employees' work periods, meal periods, total daily hours, and hours per pay 23 period.

24 114. Pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2699 and 2699.5, Plaintiff, 25 individually and on behalf of the Aggrieved Employees and the State of California, requests and 26 is entitled to recover penalties against Defendants for the Labor Code violations described above,
27 including but not limited to penalties under California Code of Regulations Title section 11010,
28 penalties under California Labor Code sections 2699, 558, 210, 1197.1, 226, 226.3 and 1174.5,

1 and any and all additional penalties and sums as provided by the California Labor Code and/or 2 other statutes. The exact amount of the applicable penalties, in all, is in an amount to be shown 3 according to proof at trial.

4 115. Plaintiff has exhausted his administrative remedies pursuant to Labor Code §
5 2699.3. On April 27, 2020, Plaintiff, through his counsel of record, by online filing with the Labor
6 and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) and by certified mail to the Defendants, notified
7 Defendants and the LWDA of the specific provisions of the Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders
8 that Defendants have violated, including the facts and theories to support the violations, and of 9 Plaintiff’s intent to bring a claim for civil penalties under PAGA. Plaintiff also paid the filing fee 10 required under Labor Code § 2699.3. As of the filing of this Complaint, more than 65 days have 11 elapsed since the mailing of Plaintiff’s April 27, 2020 notice, and the Labor and Workforce
12 Development Agency has not indicated that it intends to investigate the violations discussed in the 13 notice. Accordingly, Plaintiff may commence a civil action to recover penalties for himself and 14 other Aggrieved Employees pursuant to Labor Code § 2699.3.

15 116. Plaintiff was compelled to retain the services of counsel to file this court action to 16 protect his interests and the Aggrieved Employees, and to assess and collect the civil penalties
17 owed by Defendants. Plaintiff therefore seeks an award of reasonable attorney’s fees and costs
18 pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(g)(1), and any other applicable statute.

19 117. Plaintiff may amend this complaint as a matter of right pursuant to California
20 Labor Code § 2699.3 as this complaint has been filed within sixty days of the time periods
21 specified in Labor Code §2699.3
