Plaintiff JUAN VIDAL ("Plaintiff") individually and on behalf of other members of the general public similarly situated, and as a private attorney general, alleges as follows:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. Plaintiff brings this action against Defendants J.B. HUNT TRANSPORT SERVICES, INC., MSG SERVICES GROUP INC., BRIGHT SKY INC., and DOES 1 THROUGH 50 (hereinafter also collectively referred to as "Defendants") for California Labor Code violations, unfair business practices, and civil penalties stemming from Defendants' failure to pay overtime compensation, failure to provide meal periods, failure to authorize and permit rest periods, failure to pay minimum wage, failure to timely pay wages, failure to provide accurate wage statements, failure to maintain accurate payroll records, and failure to reimburse necessary business-related expenses.

2. Plaintiff's First through Tenth Causes of Action are brought as a class action on behalf of himself and similarly situated current and former employees of Defendants (hereinafter collectively referred to as the "Class" or "Class Members", as defined more fully in paragraph 14, below) pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure section 382. The monetary damages and restitution sought by Plaintiff exceeds the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court

1 and will be established according to proof at trial.

2 3. Plaintiff's Eleventh Cause of Action is brought as a representative action on behalf
3 of himself and certain other current and former employees of Defendants against whom one or 4 more of the alleged violations was committed (hereinafter collectively referred to as the 5 "Aggrieved Employees") pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2698, et seq. Plaintiff is an 6 aggrieved employee against whom one or more of the alleged violations occurred. The civil 7 penalties sought by Plaintiff exceed the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court and will 8 be established according to proof at trial.

9 4. The Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to the California Constitution,
10 Article VI, Section 10, which grants the superior court "original jurisdiction in all other causes"
11 except those given by statute to other courts. The statutes under which this action is brought do 12 not specify any other basis for jurisdiction.

13 5. This Court has jurisdiction over Defendants because, upon information and belief, 14 Defendants are citizens of California, have sufficient minimum contacts in California, or 15 otherwise intentionally avail themselves of the California market so as to render the exercise of 16 jurisdiction over them by the California courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play and 17 substantial justice.

18 6. Venue is proper in this Court because, upon information and belief, Defendants 19 maintain offices, have agents, and/or transact business in the State of California, County of Los 20 Angeles.

21 PARTIES

22 7. Plaintiff JUAN VIDAL is an individual residing in the County of Los Angeles, 23 State of California.

24 8. Defendant J.B. HUNT TRANSPORT SERVICES, INC. is and at all times herein
25 mentioned was, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of California, 26 and registered to do business in the state of California.

27 9. Defendant MSG SERVICES GROUP, INC. is and at all times herein mentioned
28 was, a Corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of Illinois, and registered

1 to do business in the state of California.

2 10. Defendant BRIGHT SKY INC. is and at all times herein mentioned was, a
3 Corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of Illinois, and registered to do
4 business in the state of California.

5 11. Plaintiff is ignorant of the identities of defendants Does 1 through 50, inclusive,
6 and therefore sues these defendants by such fictitious names. The Doe defendants may be 7 individuals, partnerships, or corporations. Plaintiff is informed and believe, and thereon alleges,
8 that, at all times mentioned herein, each of the Doe defendants was the parent, subsidiary, agent, 9 servant, employee, co-venturer, and/or co-conspirator of each of the other defendants, and was at 10 all times mentioned acting within the scope, purpose, consent, knowledge, ratification and 11 authorization of such agency, employment, joint venture and conspiracy. Plaintiff will amend this 12 Complaint to allege their true names and capacities when ascertained. Plaintiff is informed and 13 believes and thereon alleges that each of the fictitiously named Doe defendants is responsible in 14 some manner for the occurrences herein alleged, and that Plaintiff's damages as herein alleged 15 were proximately caused by its conduct. J.B. HUNT TRANSPORT SERVICES, INC., MSG 16 SERVICES GROUP, INC., BRIGHT SKY, INC. and Doe Defendants 1 through 50 are collectively referred to herein as "Defendants."

17 12. Defendants are and at all times herein mentioned were, (a) conducting business in 18 the County of Los Angeles, State of California, and (b) the employer of Plaintiff consistent with 19 the California Labor Code and Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders ("Wage Orders").

20 13. Plaintiff further alleges that Defendants, directly or indirectly controlled or 21 affected the working conditions, wages, working hours, and conditions of employment of 22 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees so as to make each of said Defendants 23 employers and employers jointly liable under the statutory provisions set forth herein.

24 CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

25 14. Plaintiff brings the First through Tenth Causes of Action as class action on his own 26 behalf and on behalf of all other members of the general public similarly situated, and, thus, seeks 27 class certification under Code of Civil Procedure section 382.
28

1 15. The proposed class is defined as follows: All current and former non-exempt
2 employees of any of the Defendants within the State of California at any time commencing four
3 (4) years preceding the filing of Plaintiff's complaint up until the time that notice of the certified
4 class action is provided to the class (hereinafter referred to as the "Class" or "Class Members.")

5 16. Plaintiff reserves the right to establish other subclasses as appropriate.

6 17. The Class is ascertainable and there is a well-defined community of interest in the 7 litigation:

8 a. Numerosity: The Class Members are so numerous that joinder of all Class 9 Members is impracticable. The membership of the entire Class is unknown to 10 Plaintiff at this time; however, the Class is estimated to be over fifty (50) 11 individuals and the identity of such membership is readily ascertainable by 12 inspection of Defendants' employment records.

13 b. Typicality: Plaintiff's claims are typical of all other Class Members demonstrated 14 herein. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the other Class 15 Members with whom he has a well-defined community of interest.

16 c. Adequacy: Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of each Class
17 Member, with whom he has a well-defined community of interest and typicality 18 of claims, as demonstrated herein. Plaintiff has no interest that is antagonistic to 19 the other Class Members. Plaintiff's attorneys, the proposed class counsel, are 20 versed in the rules governing class action discovery, certification, and settlement.
21 Plaintiff has incurred, and during the pendency of this action will continue to 22 incur, costs and attorneys' fees, that have been, are, and will be necessarily 23 expended for the prosecution of this action for the substantial benefit of each Class 24 Member.

25 d. Superiority: A class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and 26 efficient adjudication of this litigation because individual joinder of all Class
27 Members is impractical.

28 e. Public Policy Considerations: Certification of this lawsuit as a class action will

1 advance public policy objectives. Employers of this great state violate
2 employment and labor laws every day. Current employees are often afraid to 3 assert their rights out of fear of direct or indirect retaliation. However, class
4 actions provide the Class Members who are not named in the complaint
5 anonymity that allows for the vindication of their rights.

6 18. There are common questions of law and fact as to the Class that predominate over 7 questions affecting only individual members. The following common questions of law or fact,
8 among others, exist as to the members of the Class:

- 9 a. Whether Defendants' failure to pay wages, without abatement, or reduction, in 10 accordance with the California Labor Code was willful;
- 11 b. Whether Defendants had a corporate policy and practice of failing to pay Plaintiff 12 and the other Class Members for all hours worked, and missed, short, late or 13 interrupted meal periods and rest breaks in violation of California law;
- 14 c. Whether Defendants required Plaintiff and the other Class Members to work more 15 than eight (8) hours per day and/or more than forty (40) hours per week and failed
16 to pay the legally required overtime compensation to Plaintiff and the other Class
17 Members;
- 18 d. Whether Defendants deprived Plaintiff and the other Class Members of meal
19 and/or rest periods or required Plaintiff and the other Class Members to work 20 during meal and/or rest periods without compensation;
- 21 e. Whether Defendants failed to pay meal period premium wages to Class Members 22 when they were not provided with a legally compliant meal period;
- 23 f. Whether Defendants failed to pay rest period premium wages to class Members
24 when they were not authorized and permitted to take legally compliant rest 25 periods.
- 26 g. Whether Defendants failed to pay minimum wages to Plaintiff and the other Class 27 Members for all hours worked;
- 28 h. Whether Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members the required minimum wage pursuant to California law;

- i. Whether Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members proper overtime compensation pursuant to California law;
- j. Whether Defendants failed to pay all wages due to Plaintiff and the other Class Members within the time required upon their discharge or resignation from employment;
- k. Whether Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiff and the other Class Members for all necessary business-related expenses and costs in violation of Cal. Labor Code section 2802;
- l. Whether Defendants failed to timely pay all wages due to Plaintiff and the other Class Members during their employment;
- m. Whether Defendants complied with wage reporting as required by the California Labor Code, including section 226;
- n. Whether Defendants kept complete and accurate payroll records as required by the California Labor Code, including section 1174(d);
- o. Whether Defendants' conduct was with malice, fraud or oppression;
- p. Whether Defendants' conduct was willful or reckless;
- q. Whether Defendants engaged in unfair business practices in violation of California Business & Professions Code section 17200, et seq. based on its improper withholding of compensation and deduction of wages;
- r. The appropriate amount of damages, restitution, and/or monetary penalties resulting from Defendants' violation of California law; and
- s. Whether Plaintiff and the other Class Members are entitled to compensatory damages pursuant to the California Labor Code.

GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

19. Defendants are a transportation service company.

20. Defendants employed Plaintiff to work as an appliance installer from approximately November 2017 to August 2018, and approximately March 2019 to July 29, 2019.

1 21. At all relevant times set forth herein, Defendants employed Plaintiff, the Class,
2 and the Aggrieved Employees as hourly-paid or non-exempt employees.

3 22. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants had the authority to 4 hire and terminate Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees; to directly or indirectly 5 control work rules, working conditions, wages, working hours, and conditions of employment of 6 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees; and to hire and terminate the employment of 7 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees.

8 23. At all times herein mentioned, Defendants were subject to the Labor Code of the 9 State of California and the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Orders.

10 24. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges that Defendants engaged in 11 an ongoing and systematic scheme of wage abuse against their hourly-paid or non-exempt
12 employees. As set forth in more detail below, this scheme involved, inter alia, regularly requiring 13 Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to work off the clock without compensation, thereby 14 failing to pay them for all hours worked, including minimum and overtime wages. In addition, 15 Defendants routinely failed to permit Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to take timely and 16 duty-free meal periods and rest periods in violation of California law. Defendants also failed to reimburse Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for all necessary business-related expenses.

17 25. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants have implemented
18 policies and practices which failed to provide Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees
19 with timely and duty-free meal periods. Defendants routinely failed to relieve Plaintiff, the Class,
20 and the Aggrieved Employees of all duties during their meal periods, regularly failed to relinquish
21 control over Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees during their meal periods,
22 regularly failed to permit Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees a reasonable 23 opportunity to take their meal periods, and regularly impeded or discouraged Plaintiff, the Class,
24 and the Aggrieved Employees from taking thirty (30) minute uninterrupted meal breaks no later
25 than the end of their fifth hour of work and/or from taking a second thirty (30) minute
26 uninterrupted meal break no later than their tenth hour of work for shifts lasting more than ten 27 (10) hours. Defendants also failed to maintain accurate records of meal periods taken by Plaintiff, 28

1 the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees.

2 26. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants did not adequately
3 inform Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees of their right to take meal periods under
4 California law. Moreover, Defendants systematically disregarded their own written policies
5 regarding the provision and timing of meal periods for Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
6 Employees. Instead, Defendants' actual policy and practice was to schedule Plaintiff, the Class,
7 and the Aggrieved Employees in a way the prohibited them from taking timely and duty-free meal
8 periods, and to require Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to work through their 9 meal periods, for which they were not compensated.

10 27. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants failed to pay
11 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees premium wages for meal periods that were 12 missed, late, interrupted, or shortened in violation of California law. Defendants knew or should 13 have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were entitled to receive all
14 meal periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at their regular rate of pay when a meal
15 period was missed, short, late, and/or interrupted. Notwithstanding this knowledge, Defendants 16 routinely failed to provide legally compliant meal periods to Plaintiff, the Class, and the 17 Aggrieved Employees, and routinely failed pay one additional hour of pay to Plaintiff, the Class, 18 and the Aggrieved Employees at their regular rate of pay when a meal period was missed, short, late, and/or interrupted.

19 28. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants have implemented
20 policies and practices which prohibited Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees from 21 taking timely and duty-free rest periods. Defendants regularly failed to provide, authorize, and 22 permit Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to take full, uninterrupted, off-duty rest
23 periods for every shift lasting three and one-half (3.5) to six (6) hours and/or two full,
24 uninterrupted, off-duty rest periods for every shift lasting six (6) to ten (10) hours, and failed to 25 make a good faith effort to authorize, permit, and provide such rest breaks in the middle of each 26 work period.

27 29. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants did not adequately
28

1 inform Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees of their right to take rest periods under
2 California law. Moreover, Defendants systematically disregarded their own written policies
3 regarding the provision and timing of rest periods for Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
4 Employees. Instead, Defendants' actual policy and practice was to schedule Plaintiff, the Class,
5 and the Aggrieved Employees in a way that regularly prohibited them from taking timely and 6 duty free rest periods, and to regularly require Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees
7 to work through their rest periods.

8 30. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants failed to pay
9 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees premium wages for rest periods that were 10 missed, late, interrupted, or shortened in violation of California law. Defendants knew or should
11 have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were entitled to receive all
12 rest periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at their regular rate of pay when a rest period
13 was missed, short, late, and/or interrupted. Notwithstanding this knowledge, Defendants routinely
14 failed to authorize and permit Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to take duty-free
15 rest periods, and failed to pay one additional hour of pay to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved 16 Employees at their regular rate of pay when a rest period was missed, short, late and/or interrupted.

17 31. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendant regularly required 18 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to perform work off-the-clock. Although 19 Defendants prohibited overtime, Defendants still regularly required that Plaintiff, the Class, and 20 the Aggrieved Employees complete all of their assigned duties. To do so, Plaintiff, the Class, and 21 the Aggrieved Employees were regularly required to perform work off-the-clock for which they 22 were not compensated.

23 32. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants implemented policies 24 that prohibited Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees from accurately recording the 25 actual time worked, resulting in a failure to pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees 26 all wages owed.

27 33. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Plaintiff, the Class, and the 28

Aggrieved Employees worked more than eight (8) hours in a day, and/or forty (40) hours in a week.

34. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to pay overtime compensation to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees when they worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a single work day and/or forty (40) hours in a single work week. Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were entitled to receive certain wages for overtime compensation and that they were not receiving wages for overtime compensation.

35. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees at least minimum wages for all hours worked. Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were entitled to receive at least minimum wages for all hours worked and that they were not receiving at least minimum wages for all hours worked. Defendants' failure to pay minimum wages included, inter alia, failing to pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees at the required minimum wage pursuant to California law, requiring Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to perform work off the clock.

36. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees all wages owed to them upon discharge or resignation. Defendant knew or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were entitled to receive all wages owed to them upon termination within the time permissible under California Labor Code section 202. Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees did not receive payment of all final wages owed to them upon discharge or resignation, including overtime compensation and minimum wages within any time permissible under California Labor Code section 202.

37. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees all wages within any time permissible under California law, including, inter alia, California Labor Code section 204. Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were entitled to

1 receive all wages owed to them during their employment. Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
2 Employees did not receive payment of all wages, including overtime compensation, minimum
3 wages, and meal and rest period premiums, within any time permissible under California Labor
4 Code section 204.

5 38. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to 6 provide complete or accurate wage statements to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
7 Employees. Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
8 Employees were entitled to receive complete and accurate wage statements in accordance with 9 California law, but, in fact, they did not receive complete and accurate wage statements from 10 Defendants. The deficiencies included, inter alia, the failure to include the total number of hours
11 worked, the actual gross wages earned, the correct rates of pay, work periods, meal periods, total 12 daily hours worked, and total hours worked per payroll period, and the name and address of the legal entity of the employer.

13 39. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to 14 keep complete or accurate payroll records for Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees.
15 Defendants knew or should have known that Defendants were required keep complete and 16 accurate payroll records for Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees in accordance with 17 California law, but, in fact, did not keep complete and accurate payroll records.

18 40. Throughout the time period involved in this Case, Defendants failed to reimburse 19 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees for all necessary business-related expenses, 20 including but not limited to drills, drill-bits, batteries, work boots, and wrenches. Defendants 21 knew or should have known that Defendants were required to reimburse Plaintiff, the Class, and 22 the Aggrieved Employees for all necessary business-related expenses and costs, but, in fact, failed
23 to do so in violation of California law.

24 41. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants knew or should have 25 known that they had a duty to compensate Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees 26 pursuant to California law. Defendants had the financial ability to pay such compensation, but 27 willfully, knowingly, and intentionally failed to do so, and falsely represented to Plaintiff, the 28

1 Class, and the Aggrieved Employees that they paid all wages owed to them, all in order to increase
2 Defendants' profits.

3 42. California Labor Code section 218 states that nothing in Article 1 of the Labor
4 Code shall limit the right of any wage claimant to "sue directly ... for any wages or penalty due 5 to him [or her] under this article."

6 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

7 (Violation of California Labor Code §§ 510 and 1198)

8 (Against All Defendants)

9 43. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and 10 every allegation set forth above.

11 44. California Labor Code section 1198 and the applicable Industrial Welfare 12 Commission ("IWC") Wage Order provide that it is unlawful to employ persons without 13 compensating them at a rate of pay either time-and-one-half or two-times that person's regular 14 rate of pay, depending on the number of hours worked by the person on a daily or weekly basis.

15 45. Specifically, the applicable IWC Wage Order provides that Defendants are and 16 were required to pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members employed by Defendants, and working 17 more than eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek, at the rate of 18 time-and-one-half for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty 19 (40) hours in a workweek.

20 46. The applicable IWC Wage Order further provides that Defendants are and were 21 required to pay Plaintiff and the Class overtime compensation at a rate of two times their regular 22 rate of pay for all hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in a day and for all hours worked 23 in excess of eight (8) hours on the seventh day of work in a workweek.

24 47. California Labor Code section 510 codifies the right to overtime compensation at 25 one-and-one-half times the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a 26 day or forty (40) hours in a week or for the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh day of 27 work, and no overtime compensation at twice the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess
28 of twelve (12) hours in a day or in excess of eight (8) hours in a day on the seventh day of work.

48. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and the other Class Members regularly worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day, and/or in excess of forty (40) hours in a week.

49. During the relevant time period, Defendants intentionally and willfully failed to pay overtime wages owed to Plaintiff and the other Class Members.

50. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members the unpaid balance of overtime compensation, as required by California laws, violates the provisions of California Labor Code sections 510 and 1198, and is therefore unlawful.

51. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194, Plaintiff and the other Class Members are entitled to recover unpaid overtime compensation, as well as interest, costs, and attorneys' fees.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512(a))

(Against All Defendants)

52. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and every allegation set forth above.

53. At all relevant times, the relevant IWC Order and California Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512(a) were applicable to Plaintiff and the other Class Members' employment by Defendants.

54. At all relevant times, California Labor Code section 226.7 provides that no employer shall require an employee to work during any meal or rest period mandated by an applicable order of the California IWC.

55. At all relevant times, the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code section 512(a) provide that an employer may not require, cause or permit an employee to work for a work period of more than five (5) hours per day without providing the employee with a meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes, except that if the total work period per day of the employee is no more than six (6) hours, the meal period may be waived by mutual consent of both the employer and employee.

56. At all relevant times, California Labor Code section 512(a) further provides that

1 an employer may not require, cause or permit an employee to work for a work period of more
2 than ten (10) hours per day without providing the employee with a second uninterrupted meal
3 period of not less than thirty (30) minutes, except that if the total hours worked is no more than 4 twelve (12) hours, the second meal period may be waived by mutual consent of the employer and 5 the employee only if the first meal period was not waived.

6 57. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and the other Class Members who were 7 scheduled to work for a period of time longer than six (6) hours, and who did not waive their 8 legally-mandated meal periods by mutual consent, were required to work for periods longer than 9 five (5) hours without an uninterrupted meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes.

10 58. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and the other Class Members who were 11 scheduled to work for a period of time in excess of ten (10) hours were required to work for 12 periods longer than ten (10) hours without a second uninterrupted meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes.

13 59. During the relevant time period, Defendants intentionally and willfully required
14 Plaintiff and the other Class Members to miss their meal periods and to take meal periods that 15 were late, shortened, or interrupted, and failed to compensate Plaintiff and the other Class
16 Members the full meal period premium for missed, shortened, late, or interrupted meal periods.

17 60. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other 18 Class Members the full meal period premiums due pursuant to California Labor Code section 19 226.7.

20 61. Defendants' conduct violates the applicable IWC Wage Order and California
21 Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512(a).

22 62. Pursuant to the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code section
23 226.7(b), Plaintiff and the other Class Members are entitled to recover from Defendants one 15 Code section 17200, et seq.

16 108. A violation of California Business & Professions Code section 17200, et seq. may 17 be predicated on the violation of any state or federal law. In this instant case, Defendants' policies

(Violation of California Labor Code § 2699, Et Seq.)

(Against All Defendants)

113. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and every allegation set forth above.

114. Plaintiff brings his eleventh cause of action as a representative action on behalf of himself and similarly Aggrieved Employees in the capacity as a private attorney general pursuant to the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, California Labor Code section 2698, et seq. ("PAGA").

115. PAGA specifically provides for a private right of action to recover civil penalties for violations of the Labor Code as follows: "Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any provision of this code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the Labor and Workforce Development Agency or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards, agencies, or employees, for a violation of this code, may, as an alternative, be recovered through a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of himself or herself and other current or former employees pursuant to the procedures specified in Section 2699.3." Cal. Lab. Code § 2699(a).

116. Plaintiff was employed by Defendants and the Labor Code violations alleged above were committed against him during his time of employment. Plaintiff is therefore, an "aggrieved employee" under PAGA.

1 117. As set forth in detail above, during all times relevant to this Action, Defendant
2 has routinely subjected Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to violations of California Labor 3 Codes by:

- 4 a. Failing to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees all earned minimum wage
5 compensation in violation of Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1198 et seq.;
- 6 b. Failing to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees all earned overtime
7 compensation in violation of Labor Code §§ 204, 510, 1194, and 1198 et seq.;
- 8 c. Failing to provide legally required meal periods to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved 9 Employees, and failing to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees an additional 10 hour of premium pay for meal period violations in violation of Labor Code §§ 11 226.7 and 512.

14 Employees an additional hour of premium pay for rest period violations in 15 violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512.
- 16 e. Failing to timely pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees all wages at end of 17 their employment in violation of Labor Code § 203.
- 18 f. Failing to timely pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees all wages owed 19 during employment in violation of Labor Code § 204.
- 20 g. Failing to furnish Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees with complete, accurate, 21 itemized wage statements in violation of Labor Code § 226;
- 22 h. Failing to maintain accurate records relating to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved
23 Employees' work periods, meal periods, total daily hours, hours per pay period, 24 and applicable pay rates.
- 25 i. Failing to reimburse Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for necessary
26 business-related expenses in violation of Labor Code §§ 2800 and 2802.

27 118. Pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2699 and 2699.5, Plaintiff, 28 individually and on behalf of the Aggrieved Employees and the State of California, requests and

1 is entitled to recover penalties against Defendants for the Labor Code violations described above,
2 including but not limited to penalties under California Code of Regulations Title section 11010,

4 and any and all additional penalties and sums as provided by the California Labor Code and/or 5 other statutes. The exact amount of the applicable penalties, in all, is in an amount to be shown 6 according to proof at trial.

7 119. Plaintiff has exhausted his administrative remedies pursuant to Labor Code §

9 and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) and by certified mail to the Defendants, notified
10 Defendants and the LWDA of the specific provisions of the Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders 11 that Defendants have violated, including the facts and theories to support the violations, and of 12 Plaintiff’s intent to bring a claim for civil penalties under PAGA. Plaintiff also paid the filing fee 13 required under Labor Code § 2699.3. As of the filing of this Complaint, more than 65 days have 14 elapsed since the mailing of Plaintiff’s April 23, 2020 notice, and the Labor and Workforce
15 Development Agency has not indicated that it intends to investigate the violations discussed in the 16 notice. Accordingly, Plaintiff may commence a civil action to recover penalties for himself and 17 other Aggrieved Employees pursuant to Labor Code § 2699.3.

18 120. Plaintiff was compelled to retain the services of counsel to file this court action to 19 protect his interests and the Aggrieved Employees, and to assess and collect the civil penalties
20 owed by Defendants. Plaintiff therefore seeks an award of reasonable attorney’s fees and costs
21 pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(g)(1), and any other applicable statute.

22 121. Plaintiff may amend this complaint as a matter of right pursuant to California
23 Labor Code § 2699.3 as this complaint has been filed within sixty days of the time periods
24 specified in Labor Code §2699.3
