1 I. INTRODUCTION

2 Plaintiff Martina Avery (“Plaintiff”) respectfully submits this memorandum in support of the 3 unopposed motion for preliminary approval of the proposed class action settlement with Defendant 4 Sleep Data Services LLC (“Defendant”), and seeks entry of an order: (1) preliminarily approving the 5 proposed settlement of this class action with Defendant; (2) for settlement purposes only, conditionally 6 certifying the Class, which is comprised of “all individuals who worked for Defendant in California as 7 non-exempt employees at any time during the Class Period ” of April 22, 2019 to September 22, 2021; 8 (3) provisionally appointing Plaintiff as the representatives of the Class; (4) provisionally appointing 9 Norman B. Blumenthal, Kyle R. Nordrehaug, Aparajit Bhowmik, Piya Mukherjee, and Charlotte James 10 of Blumenthal Nordrehaug Bhowmik De Blouw LLP as Class Counsel for the Class; (5) approving the 11 form and method for providing class-wide notice; (6) directing that notice of the proposed settlement 12 be given to the class; (7) appointing Simpluris as Settlement Administrator, and (8) scheduling a final 13 approval hearing date to consider Plaintiff’s motion for final approval of the settlement and entry of the 14 Judgment, and Plaintiff’s motion for approval of attorneys’ fees and expenses.

15 Plaintiff and Defendant (collectively the “Parties”) have reached a full and final settlement of 16 the above-captioned action, which is embodied in the Class Action Settlement Agreement
17 ("Agreement") filed concurrently with the Court.¹ A copy of the fully executed Agreement is attached 18 as Exhibit #1 to the Declaration of Kyle Nordrehaug (“Decl. Nordrehaug”), served and filed herewith.

19 As consideration for this Settlement, the Gross Settlement Amount is Two Hundred 20 Seventy-Seven Thousand and Five Hundred Dollars ($277,500) to be paid by Defendant, as set forth 21 in the Agreement. The Gross Settlement Amount is all-inclusive of all payments contemplated in this 22 resolution, excluding any employer-side payroll taxes on the portion of the Settlement Shares allocated 23 to wages which shall be separately paid by Defendant to the Settlement Administrator. The Settlement 24 is all-in with no reversion to Defendant and no need to submit a claim form. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶3.

25 On June 9, 2021, the Parties participated in an all -day mediation presided over by Hon. Louis 26 Meisinger (Ret.), a respected jurist and mediator of wage and hour representative and class actions.

27

 ¹ Capitalized terms shall have the same meaning as defined in the Agreement.

1 During the mediation, each side, represented by its respective counsel, was able to agree to settle the 2 Claims, which settlement was memorialized in a Memorandum of Understanding.. Decl. Nordrehaug 3 at ¶5. The Settlement is fair, reasonable and adequate, and should be preliminarily approved because 4 there is a substantial monetary payment, and there are substantial litigation and class-certification risks.
5 Therefore, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court grant preliminary approval of the Agreement 6 and enter the proposed order submitted herewith.

7 II. DESCRIPTION OF THE SETTLEMENT

8 The Gross Settlement Amount is Two Hundred Seventy-Seven Thousand and Five Hundred 9 Dollars ($277,500) (Agreement at ¶¶ I(S) and III(B).) Under the Settlement, the Gross Settlement
10 Amount consists of the following elements: (1) Settlement Shares to the Participating Class Members, 11 (2) Settlement Administration Expenses, (3) Class Counsel Fees Payment, Class Counsel Litigation 12 Expenses Payment, (4) Class Representative Service Payment, and (5) the PAGA Payment, and 13 excluding any employer payroll taxes, if any, due on the portion of the Settlement Shares allocated to 14 wages which shall not be paid from the Gross Settlement and shall be the separate additional obligation
15 of Defendant.. (Agreement at ¶¶ I(S) and III(B).) The Gross Settlement Amount does not include 16 Defendant's share of payroll taxes. (Agreement at ¶¶ I(S) and III(B).) The Gross Settlement Amount 17 shall be all-in with no reversion to Defendant. (Agreement at ¶¶ I(S) and III(B).) Decl. Nordrehaug 18 at ¶15.

19 Defendant shall fund the Gross Settlement Amount and the amount necessary to pay 20 Defendant's share of payroll taxes within thirty (30) days of the Effective Date. (Agreement at ¶ 21 III(F)(9).) Within fifteen (15) days after Defendant funds the Gross Settlement Amount, the Settlement 22 Administrator will make payment of all Class Settlement Shares to Participating Class Members.
23 (Agreement at ¶ III(F)(9).) Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶16.

24 The Net Settlement Amount shall equal the Gross Settlement Amount less the Court approved
25 amounts for the Class Representative Service Payment, the Class Counsel Fees Payment, Class Counsel 26 Litigation Expenses Payment, the PAGA Payment, and the Settlement Administration Expenses.
27 (Agreement at ¶ I(U).) The Net Settlement Amount will be distributed as the Settlement Shares to the 28 Class Members who do not timely request exclusion ("Participating Class Member"). (Agreement at ¶¶ III(D)(1).) The Settlement Share will be calculated as follows: (a) the Settlement Administrator shall then divide the Net Settlement Amount by the total number of workweeks to determine a dollar amount per week ("Weekly Rate"); and (b) the Settlement Administrator shall then take the number of weeks worked by each Participating Class Member and multiply it by the Weekly Rate to calculate their Settlement Share. (Agreement at ¶ III(D)(2).) Workweeks will be based on Defendant's records, however Class Members will have the right to challenge their workweeks. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶17.

Class Members may choose to opt-out of the Settlement by following the directions in the Class Notice. (Agreement at ¶ III(F)(2)), Ex. A.) All Class Members who do not "opt out" will be deemed Participating Class Members who will be bound by the Settlement and will be entitled to receive a Settlement Share. An Aggrieved Employee who opts out the Settlement will still be paid their allocation of the PAGA Payment and will remain subject to the release of the PAGA Released Claims, regardless of their request for exclusion. (Agreement at ¶ III(F)(3)(c).) Finally, the Class Notice will also advise the Class Members of their right to object to the Settlement and/or dispute their workweeks. (Agreement at ¶ III(F)(3)), Ex. A.) Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶18.

A Participating Class Member must cash his or her Settlement Share check within 180 days after it is mailed. (Agreement at ¶ III(F)(10).) The Settlement Administrator will send a reminder to Participating Class Members who have not cashed their checks within 120 days after its last mailing to the affected individual. (Agreement at ¶ III(F)(10).) Any settlement checks not cashed within 180 days will be voided and any the funds from such uncashed checks will be paid to the California State Controller's Unclaimed Property Fund in the name of and for the benefit of the individual who did not cash their check. (Agreement at ¶ III(F)(10).) Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶19.

The Parties have agreed to use Simpluris as the Settlement Administrator. (Agreement at ¶ III(E).) From the Gross Settlement Amount, the Settlement Administrator shall be paid for the expenses of administering the Settlement in an amount not to exceed $10,000. (Agreement at ¶ III(C)(4).) Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶20.

Subject to Court approval, the Agreement provides for Class Counsel to be awarded a sum not to exceed one-third (1/3) of the Gross Settlement Amount, as the Class Counsel Fees Payment. (Agreement at ¶ III(C)(2).) Class Counsel will also be allowed to apply separately for an award of

1 Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment in an amount not to exceed $25,000. (Agreement at ¶ 2 III(C)(2).) Subject to Court approval, the Agreement provides for a payment of no more than $10,000
3 to the Plaintiff as the Class Representative Service Payment. (Agreement at ¶ III(C)(1).) Decl.
4 Nordrehaug at ¶21.

5 The Parties will seek approval from the Court for the PAGA Payment of $25,000 out of the 6 Gross Settlement Amount, which shall be allocated 75% ($18,750) to the LWDA as the LWDA's share
7 of the PAGA Payment pursuant to PAGA and 25% ($6,250) will be distributed to the Aggrieved 8 Employees based on their respective pay periods worked during the PAGA Period. (Agreement at ¶ 9 III(C)(3).) All Aggrieved Employees will be sent their share of the PAGA Payment and will be subject 10 to the release of the PAGA Released Claims, whether or not they opt out of the Settlement. (Agreement 11 at ¶ III(C)(3).) As set forth in the accompany proof of service, the LWDA has been served with this 12 motion and the Agreement. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶22.

13 III. CASE BACKGROUND

14 The description of the case and claims, along with the procedural history is set forth in the 15 Declaration of Kyle Nordrehaug at ¶¶ 7-14. The Parties engaged in thorough investigation and the 16 exchange of documents and information in connection with the Action which permitted Class Counsel 17 to perform a thorough analysis of the claims. Decl. Nordrehaug, ¶¶ 10 and 14. The Parties participated 18 in mediation with Hon. Louis Meisinger (Ret.) on June 9, 2021, which after arm's length negotiations, 19 resulted in this Settlement. Decl. Nordrehaug, ¶12.

20 IV. THE SETTLEMENT MEETS THE CRITERIA NECESSARY FOR THIS COURT TO 21 GRANT PRELIMINARY APPROVAL

22 When a proposed class-wide settlement is reached, the settlement must be submitted to the court 23 for approval. 2 H. Newberg & A. Conte, Newberg on Class Actions (3d ed. 1992) at §11.41, p.11-87.
24 California "[p]ublic policy generally favors the compromise of complex class action litigation."
25 Nordstrom Comm'n Cases, 186 Cal. App. 4th 576, 581 (2010) quoting Cellphone Termination Fee 26 Cases, 180 Cal.App.4th 1110, 1117-18 (2009). Class action settlements are approved where the 27 proposed settlement is "fair, adequate and reasonable." Dunk v. Ford Motor Co., 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 28 1801 (1996) (citing Officers for Justice v. Civil Serv. Comm'n, 688 F.2d 615, 625 (9th Cir. 1982), cert.

1 denied, 459 U.S. 1217 (1983)).

2 Preliminary approval is the first of three steps that comprise the approval procedure for 3 settlements of class actions. The second step is the dissemination of notice of the settlement to all class 4 members. The third step is a final settlement approval hearing, at which evidence and argument 5 concerning the fairness, adequacy, and reasonableness of the settlement may be presented, and class
6 members may be heard regarding the settlement. See Dunk v. Ford Motor Co., 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 7 1801 (1996); Manual for Complex Litigation, Second §30.44 (1993); Cal. Rules of Court, rule 3.769.

8 The primary question presented on an application for preliminary approval of a proposed class 9 action settlement is whether the proposed settlement is “within the range of possible approval.”
10 Manual for Complex Litigation, Second §30.44 at 229; Gautreaux v. Pierce, 690 F.2d 616, 621 n.3 (7th 11 Cir. 1982).² Preliminary approval is merely the prerequisite to giving notice so that “the proposed 12 settlement... may be submitted to members of the prospective Class for their acceptance or rejection.” 13 Sayaman v. Baxter Healthcare Corp., 2010 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 151997, *3 (C.D. Cal. 2010). There is 14 “a presumption of fairness . . . where . . . [a] settlement is reached through arms-length bargaining.”
15 Wershba v. Apple Computer, Inc., 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 245 (2001) (citation omitted); see also Cho v.
16 Seagate Tech. Holdings, Inc., 177 Cal. App. 4th 734, 742-45 (2009) (upholding trial court's 17 determination that settlement was “fair, reasonable and adequate” where the settlement “provided 18 valuable benefits to the class . . . that were ‘particularly valuable in light of the risks plaintiff would have 19 faced if she proceeded to litigate her case.’”); Newberg, 3d Ed., §11.41, p.11-88. However, the ultimate 20 question of whether the proposed settlement is fair, reasonable and adequate is made after notice of the 21 settlement is given to the class members and a final settlement hearing is held by the Court.

22 A. The Role Of The Court In Preliminary Approval Of A Class Action Settlement

23 The approval of a proposed settlement of a class action suit is a matter within the broad 24 discretion of the trial court. Wershba, supra, 91 Cal.App.4th at 234-235; Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th 1794.

26 ² California courts look to federal authority on class actions. Vasquez v. Superior Court, 4 Cal.3d 27 800, 821 (1971). “It is well established that in the absence of relevant state precedents trial courts are 28 urged to follow the procedures prescribed in Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure for conducting class actions.” Frazier v. City of Richmond, 184 Cal. App.3d 1491, 1499 (1986), citing Green v. Obledo, 29 Cal.3d 126, 145-146 (1981).

1 Preliminary approval does not require the trial court to answer the ultimate question of whether a 2 proposed settlement is fair, reasonable and adequate. That final determination is made only after notice 3 of the settlement has been given to the class members and after they have been given an opportunity 4 to voice their views of the settlement or to be excluded from the settlement. 3B J. Moore, Moore's 5 Federal Practice §§23.80 - 23.85 (2003).

6 In considering a potential settlement for preliminary approval purposes, the trial court does not 7 have to reach any ultimate conclusions on the issues of fact and law which underlie the merits of the 8 dispute, and need not engage in a trial on the merits. Wershba, supra, 91 Cal.App.4th at 239-40; Dunk, 9 supra, 48 Cal.App. 4th at 1807. The Ninth Circuit explains, “the very essence of a settlement is 10 compromise, ‘a yielding of absolutes and an abandoning of highest hopes.’” Officers for Justice, 688 11 F.2d at 624. The question whether a proposed settlement is fair, reasonable and adequate necessarily 12 requires a judgment and evaluation by the attorneys for the parties based upon a comparison of “the 13 terms of the compromise with the likely rewards of litigation.” Weinberger v. Kendrick, 698 F.2d 61, 14 73 (2d Cir. 1982), cert. denied 464 U.S. 818 (1983) (quoting Protective Comm. for Indep. Stockholders 15 of TMT Trailer Ferry, Inc. v. Anderson, 390 U.S. 414, 424-25 (1968)). Thus, when analyzing the 16 settlement, the amount is “not to be judged against a hypothetical or speculative measure of what might 17 have been achieved by the negotiators.” Officers for Justice, 688 F.2d at 625, 628.

18 With regard to class action settlements, the opinions of counsel should be given considerable 19 weight both because of counsel’s familiarity with this litigation and previous experience with cases 20 such as these. Officers for Justice, 688 F.2d at 625; In re Wash. Public Power Supply System Sec.
21 Litig., 720 F. Supp. 1379, 1392 (D. Ariz. 1989); Kirkorian v. Borelli, 695 F. Supp. 446, 451 (N.D. Cal.
22 1988); Weinberger, 698 F.2d at 74. “The recommendations of plaintiffs’ counsel should be given a 23 presumption of reasonableness.” Boyd v. Bechtel Corp., 485 F.Supp. 610, 622 (N.D. Cal. 1979). As 24 a result, courts hold that the recommendation of counsel is entitled to significant weight. Nat’l Rural 25 Telecomms. Coop. v. DIRECTV, Inc., 221 F.R.D. 523, 528 (C.D. Cal. 2004).

26 B. Factors To Be Considered In Granting Preliminarily Approval

27 A number of factors are to be considered in evaluating a settlement for purposes of preliminary 28 approval. In determining whether to grant preliminary approval, the court considers whether the "(1)

1 the proposed settlement appears to be the product of serious, informed, non-collusive negotiations, (2) 2 has no obvious deficiencies, (3) does not improperly grant preferential treatment to class representatives 3 or segments of the class, and (4) falls within the range of possible approval." In re Tableware Antitrust 4 Litig., 484 F.Supp. 2d 1078, 1079 (N.D. Cal. 2007). No one factor should be determinative, but rather 5 all factors should be considered. The analysis has been summarized as follows:

6 If the proposed settlement appears to be the product of serious, informed, noncollusive 7 negotiations, has no obvious deficiencies, does not improperly grant preferential 8 treatment to class representatives or segments of the class, and falls within the range of 9 possible approval, then the court should direct that notice be given to the class members of a formal fairness hearing, at which evidence may be presented in support of and in opposition to the settlement.

10 Manual of Complex Litigation, Second § 30.44, at 229.

11 Here, the Settlement meets all of these criteria for preliminary approval.

12 1. The Settlement is the Product of Serious, Informed and Arm's Length Negotiations by Experienced Counsel

13 This settlement is the result of extensive and hard-fought litigation as well as negotiations 14 before an experienced and well-respected mediator. Defendant has expressly denied and continues to 15 deny any wrongdoing or legal liability arising out of the conduct alleged in the Action. Plaintiff and 16 Class Counsel have determined that it is desirable and beneficial to the Class to resolve the Released
17 Class Claims in accordance with this Settlement upon full funding of the Settlement.³

18 Class Counsel are experienced and qualified to evaluate the class claims, the defenses asserted, 19 and the risks and benefits of trial and settlement, and Class Counsel are particularly experienced in 20 wage and hour employment class actions, as Class Counsel has previously litigated and certified similar 21 claims against other employers. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶31. The view of qualified and well-informed 22 counsel that a class action settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable is entitled to significant weight.
23 See Kullar v. Foot Locker, 168 Cal. App. 4th 116, 133 (2008) (the trial court "undoubtedly should

25 ³ The release applicable to the Class is appropriately tethered to solely to the allegations in the 26 Action as the "Released Class Claims" are "all claims alleged in the operative complaint, or which 27 could have been asserted in the operative complaint premised on the facts asserted therein, which arose 28 during the Class Period, and expressly excluding all other claims, including claims for vested benefits, wrongful termination, unemployment insurance, disability, social security, and workers' compensation, and class claims outside of the Class Period ("Released Class Claims"). (Agreement at ¶(III)(G)(1).)

1 continue to place reliance on the competence and integrity of counsel, the involvement of a qualified 2 mediator, and the paucity of objectors to the settlement."); Dunk, 48 Cal. App. 4th at 1802.

3 The Parties attended an arms-length mediation session with Hon. Louis Meisinger (Ret.), a 4 respected and experienced mediator of wage and hour class actions, in order to reach this Settlement.
5 In preparation for the mediation, Defendant provided Class Counsel with necessary information for the 6 members of the Class, including time data, payroll data and data concerning the composition of the 7 Class. Class Counsel analyzed the data with the assistance of damages expert, Berger Consulting, and 8 prepared and submitted a mediation brief and damage valuation to the Mediator. At the conclusion of 9 the all-day mediation, the Parties agreed to this Settlement. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶ 5. Importantly, 10 Plaintiff and Class Counsel believe that this Settlement is fair, reasonable and adequate.

11 As consideration for this Settlement, the Gross Settlement Amount to be paid by Defendant is 12 Two Hundred Seventy-Seven Thousand and Five Hundred Dollars ($277,500). The Settlement is all-in 13 with no reversion to Defendant and no need to submit a claim form. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶ 3.

14 Class Counsel has conducted a thorough investigation into the facts of the class action. Over 15 the course of nearly two years, Class Counsel has diligently evaluated the Class Members' claims 16 against Defendant. Prior to the settlement negotiations, counsel for Defendant provided Class Counsel 17 with access to necessary information for the Class. In addition, Class Counsel previously negotiated 18 settlements with other employers in actions involving nearly identical issues and analogous defenses.
19 Based on the foregoing data and their own independent investigation, evaluation and experience, Class 20 Counsel believes that the settlement with Defendant on the terms set forth in the Agreement is fair, 21 reasonable, and adequate and is in the best interest of the Class in light of all known facts and 22 circumstances, including the risk of significant delay, defenses asserted by Defendant, and potential 23 appellate issues. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶ 14.

24 Plaintiff and Class Counsel recognize the expense and length of continuing to litigate and trying 25 these Action against Defendant through possible appeals which could take several years. Class Counsel 26 has also taken into account the uncertain outcome and risk of litigation, especially in complex class 27 actions such as these Action. Class Counsel is also mindful of and recognize the inherent problems of 28 proof under, and alleged defenses to, the claims asserted in the Action. Based upon their evaluation,

1 Plaintiff and Class Counsel have determined that the Settlement set forth in the Agreement is in the best 2 interest of the Class Members. Decl. Nordrehaug, ¶ 23.

3 Here, there can be no dispute that the litigation has been hard-fought with aggressive and 4 capable advocacy on both sides. The Parties were represented by experienced and capable counsel who 5 zealously advocated their positions. Accordingly, “[t]here is likewise every reason to conclude that 6 settlement negotiations were vigorously conducted at arms’ length and without any suggestion of undue 7 influence.” In re Wash. Public Power Supply System Sec. Litig., 720 F. Supp. at 1392.

8 2. The Settlement Has No "Obvious Deficiencies" and Falls Well Within 9 the Range for Approval

10 The proposed Settlement herein has no "obvious deficiencies" and is well within the range of 11 possible approval. All Class Members will receive an opportunity to participate in the Settlement and 12 receive payment according to the same formula. (Agreement at ¶ III(D)(2).) The Gross Settlement 13 Amount provides an average value of $928 per Class Member and $17.80 per workweek, and after 14 deductions, the Net Settlement Amount provides an average recovery of $384 per Class Member and 15 $7.37 per work week. Decl. Nordrehaug, ¶6.

16 The calculations to compensate for the amount due to the Class Members at the time this 17 Settlement was negotiated were calculated by Plaintiff’s expert, Berger Consulting, in advance of 18 mediation. For the individuals whose claims are at issue in this Actions, Plaintiff analyzed the data for 19 putative class members and determined the potential maximum damages for the class claims. For the 20 Class, Plaintiff determined that the unpaid wages due to the alleged failure to pay overtime wages based 21 on the regular rate miscalculation to be $46,785, maximum potential off-the-clock damages to be 22 $308,114, maximum potential rest period damages were estimated to be $366,663, maximum meal 23 period damages at a 25% violation rate were estimated to be $364,453, and the maximum damages for 24 unreimbursed expenses were estimated to be $228,200 at a rate of $200 of unreimbursed expenses
25 incurred each month. In total, the damages for the Class were calculated to have a maximum total value 26 of $1,314,215. In addition, Plaintiff calculated that the maximum value of the waiting time penalties 27 were $683,950 and the maximum value of the wage statement penalties to be $428,100, however, these 28 wage statement and waiting time penalties claims potentially have a much smaller value, even if

1 damages were awarded, to the extent that they are only derivative of the meal and rest break claims.⁴
2 Decl. Nordrehaug, ¶6.

3 Consequently, the Gross Settlement Amount represents more than 21% of the value of the 4 potential maximum damages at issue for the Class in this case, assuming these amounts could all be 5 proven in full at trial.⁵ The above maximum calculations should then be adjusted in consideration for 6 both the risk of certification and the risk of establishing class-wide liability on all claims. Given the 7 amount of the Settlement as compared to the potential value of the claims, the Settlement is most 8 certainly fair and reasonable.⁶ Clearly, the goal of this litigation has been met. Decl. Nordrehaug, ¶6.

9 Where both sides face significant uncertainty, the attendant risks favor settlement. Hanlon v.
10 Chrysler Corp., 150 F.3d 1011, 1026 (9th Cir. 1998). Here, a number of defenses asserted by 11 Defendant present serious threats to the claims of the Plaintiff and the other Class Members, including 12 that there would be no class without settlement given that the Plaintiff and the Class Members signed 13 arbitration agreements. Defendant also asserted that Defendant's practices complied with all applicable 14

15 ⁴ While Plaintiff alleged claims for statutory penalties pursuant to Labor Code Sections 203 and 16 226, Plaintiff recognized that these claims were subject to various defenses asserted by Defendant, 17 including, but not limited to, a good faith dispute defense as to whether any premium wages for meal 18 or rest periods or other wages were owed given Defendant's position that Plaintiff were properly 19 compensated. See Nordstrom Commission Cases, 186 Cal. App. 4th 576, 584 (2010) ("There is no 20 willful failure to pay wages if the employer and employee have a good faith dispute as to whether and 21 when the wages were due."). Additionally, Courts have held that violations of the meal and rest period 22 regulations, which require payment of a "premium wage" for each improper meal period, do not give 23 rise to claims under sections 203 and 226. See Ling v. P.F. Chang's China Bisto, Inc., 245 Cal. App.
24 4th 1242, 1261 (2016) and Maldonado v. Epsilon Plastics, Inc., 22 Cal. App. 5th 1308, 1336 (2018).
25 As a result, the viability of Plaintiff's claims on these theories is uncertain.

26 ⁵ Because the PAGA claim does not provide a recovery to the Class, Plaintiff has not included the 27 PAGA claim in this discussion. The PAGA claim is addressed in the Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶ 33.

28 ⁶ See Dunleavy v. Nadler (In re Mego Fin. Corp. Sec. Litig.), 213 F.3d 454, 459 (9th Cir. 2000) approving settlement which represented "roughly one-sixth of the potential recovery"); Stovall-Gusman
v. W.W. Granger, Inc., 2015 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 78671, at *12 (N.D. Cal. 2015) (granting final approval where "the proposed Total Settlement Amount represents approximately 10% of what class might have been awarded had they succeeded at trial."); Viceral v. Mistras Grp., Inc., 2016 WL 5907869 (N.D.
Cal. 2016) (approving wage and hour class action settlement amounting to 8.1% of full verdict value); Ma v. Covidien Holding, Inc., 2014 WL 2472316, (C.D. Cal. 2014) (approving wage and hour class action settlement worth "somewhere between 9% and 18%" of full verdict value).

1 Labor laws. Defendant argued that all work time was paid for and that the regular rate was properly
2 calculated. Defendant contended that their meal and rest period policies fully complied with California 3 law and that although Defendant's timekeeping system recorded meal periods, all meal periods were 4 provided. Further, Defendant argued that Defendant was not required to record rest periods. Finally,
5 Defendant could argue that the Supreme Court decision in Brinker v. Superior Court, 53 Cal. 4th 1004
6 (2012), weakened Plaintiff's claims, on liability, value, and class certifiability as to the meal and rest 7 period claims. Defendant also argues that based on their facially lawful practices, they acted in good 8 faith and without willfulness, which if accepted would negate the claims for waiting time penalties 9 and/or inaccurate wage statements. In fact, under the current state of the law, it is questionable whether 10 these penalties could be awarded at all based upon the alleged meal and rest period violations. If 11 successful, Defendant's defenses could eliminate or substantially reduce any recovery to the Class.
12 While Plaintiff believes that these defenses could be overcome, Defendant maintains these defenses 13 have merit and therefore present a serious risk to recovery by the Class. Decl. Nordrehaug, ¶ 24.

14 There was also a significant risk that, if the Action was not settled, Plaintiff would be unable 15 to move for class certification given the existence of an arbitration agreement and thereby not recover 16 on behalf of any employees other than herself. Even if Plaintiff could move for class certification, 17 Defendant argued that the individual experience of each putative class member varied with respect to 18 the claims. Defendant could also contest class certification by arguing injury and good faith were case 19 by case determinations that precluded class certification. Plaintiff is aware of cases where class 20 certification of similar claims was denied. See e.g. Cacho v. Eurostar, Inc., 43 Cal. App. 5th 885, 256 21 Cal. Rptr. 3d 547 (2019) (denying certification of meal and rest break claims). Defendant also 22 contended that individual differences in work experiences not only impacted damages but would also 23 impact certification. Finally, even if class certification was successful, as demonstrated by the 24 California Supreme Court decision in Duran v. U.S. Bank National Assn., 59 Cal. 4th 1 (2014), there 25 are significant hurdles to overcome for a class wide recovery even where the class has been certified.
26 While other cases have approved class certification in wage and hour claims, class certification in this 27 action would have been hotly disputed and was by no means a foregone conclusion. Decl. Nordrehaug, 28 ¶ 25.

1 After arm's length negotiations between experienced and informed counsel, the Parties 2 recognized the potential risks and agreed on the Settlement with a Gross Settlement Amount of 3 $277,500. As the Court held in Glass, where the parties faced uncertainties similar to those here:

4 In light of the above-referenced uncertainty in the law, the risk, expense, complexity, 5 and likely duration of further litigation likewise favors the settlement. Regardless of 6 how this Court might have ruled on the merits of the legal issues, the losing party likely 7 would have appealed, and the parties would have faced the expense and uncertainty of 8 litigating an appeal. 'The expense and possible duration of the litigation should be 9 considered in evaluating the reasonableness of [a] settlement.'"

10 2007 WL 221862, at *4 (quoting In re Mego Financial Corp. Securities Litigation, 213 F.3d 454, 458 11 (9th Cir. 2000).)

12 3. The Settlement Does Not Improperly Grant Preferential Treatment To 13 Class Representatives or Segments Of The Class

14 The relief provided in the Settlement will benefit all members of the Class. The Settlement does 15 not grant preferential treatment to Plaintiff or segments of the Class in any way. Payments to the Class 16 Members are all determined under a neutral methodology. Each Participating Class Member will 17 receive the same opportunity to participate in and receive payment through a neutral formula that is 18 based upon the weeks worked by that individual. Decl. Nordrehaug, ¶4.

19 Plaintiff will apply to the Court for a Class Representative Service Payment in consideration 20 for the service and for the risks undertaken on behalf of the class. (Agreement at ¶ III(C)(1).) Plaintiff 21 performed her duty admirably by working with Class Counsel. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶27. At this stage, 22 the requested service award of $10,000 is well within the accepted range of awards for purposes of 23 preliminary approval. See e.g. Mathein v. Pier 1 Imps. (U.S.), Inc., 2018 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 71386 (E.D.
24 Cal. 2018) (awarding $12,500 where average class member payment was $351); Holman v. Experian 25 Info. Solutions, Inc., 2014 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 173698 (N.D. Cal. 2014) (approving $10,000 service 26 award where class member recovery was $375); Louie v. Kaiser Foundation Health Plan, Inc., 2008 27 WL 4473183, *7 (S.D.Cal. 2008) (awarding $25,000 service award to each of six plaintiffs in overtime 28 class action); Glass v. UBS Fin. Servs., 2007 WL 221862, *16-17 (N.D.Cal. 2007) (awarding $25,000 service award in overtime class action and a pool of $100,000 in enhancements). As explained in Glass, service awards are routinely awarded to class representatives to compensate the employees for the time and effort expended on the case, for the risk of litigation, for the fear of suing an employer and

1 retaliation there from, and to serve as an incentive to vindicate the statutory rights of all employees.
2 2007 WL 221862 at *16-17.

3 4. The Stage Of The Proceedings Are Sufficiently Advanced To Permit
4 Preliminary Approval Of The Settlement

5 The stage of the proceedings at which this Settlement was reached also militates in favor of 6 preliminary approval and ultimately, final approval of the Settlement. Class Counsel has conducted 7 a thorough investigation into the facts of the class action. Class Counsel began investigating the Class 8 Members' claims before the Action was filed. Class Counsel conducted a review and analysis of the 9 relevant documents and data. Class Counsel was also experienced with the claims at issue here, as 10 Class Counsel previously litigated and settled similar claims in other actions. Accordingly, the 11 agreement to settle did not occur until Class Counsel possessed sufficient information to make an 12 informed judgment regarding the likelihood of success on the merits and the results that could be 13 obtained through further litigation. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶28.

14 Based on the foregoing data and their own independent investigation and evaluation, Class 15 Counsel is of the opinion that the Settlement with Defendant for the consideration and on the terms set 16 forth in the Agreement is fair, reasonable, and adequate and is in the best interest of the Class in light 17 of all known facts and circumstances, including the risk of significant delay, defenses asserted by 18 Defendant, and numerous potential appellate issues. There can be no doubt that Counsel for both 19 parties possessed sufficient information to make an informed judgment regarding the likelihood of 20 success on the merits and the results that could be obtained through further litigation. Decl.
21 Nordrehaug at ¶29.

22 In Glass, the Northern District of California granted final approval of an overtime wage action 23 although in Glass no formal discovery had been conducted prior to the settlement:

24 Here, no formal discovery took place prior to settlement. As the Ninth Circuit has 25 observed, however, "[i]n the context of class action settlements, 'formal discovery is not a necessary ticket to the bargaining table' where the parties have sufficient information to make an informed decision about settlement."

26 Glass, 2007 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 8476 at *14 (quoting In re Mego Financial Corp. Securities Litigation, 27 213 F.3d at 459).

28 Here, Class Counsel was in far superior position to evaluate the fairness of this Settlement

1 because Class Counsel performed formal discovery, received all necessary information which was 2 evaluated with the assistance of an expert, and also performed independent investigations and due 3 diligence to confirm the accuracy of the information supplied by Defendant.

4 V. THE CLASS IS PROPERLY CERTIFIED FOR SETTLEMENT PURPOSES ONLY

5 Plaintiff contends that the proposed settlement meet all of the requirements for class 6 certification under California Code of Civil Procedure § 382 as demonstrated below, and therefore, the 7 Court may appropriately approve the Class as defined in the Agreement. This Court should 8 conditionally certify the Classes for settlement purposes only, defined as follows:

9 All individuals who worked for Defendant in California as nonexempt employees at any 10 time during the Class Period.

11 (Agreement at ¶ I(C).)

12 The “Class Period” is from April 22, 2019 to September 22, 2021. (Agreement at ¶ I(J).)

13 A. California Code of Civil Procedure § 382

14 Plaintiff seeks certification of this Class for settlement purposes under California Code of Civil 15 Procedure § 382. The California Supreme Court has summarized the standard for determining whether 16 class certification is appropriate as follows:

17 Code of Civil Procedure Section 382 authorizes class actions “when the question is one 18 of a common or general interest, of many persons, or when the parties are numerous, 19 and it is impracticable to bring them all before the court....” The party seeking 20 certification has the burden to establish the existence of both an ascertainable class and a well-defined community of interest among class members. (citations omitted). The “community of interest” requirement embodies three factors: (1) predominant common questions of law or fact; (2) class representatives with claims or defenses typical of the class; and (3) class representatives who can adequately represent the class.

21 Sav-On Drug Stores, Inc. v. Superior Court, 34 Cal. 4th 319, 326 (2004).

22 While Defendant reserve all rights to dispute that the Plaintiff can satisfy these requirements, 23 the Parties agree that Defendant will not dispute that these requirements may be satisfied in this case 24 for purposes of settlement only and therefore, the proposed Class should be certified for purposes of 25 settlement only. (Agreement at ¶ II(D).)

26 B. The Proposed Class Is Ascertainable and Numerous

27 Plaintiff brings this action on behalf of a Class of individuals during the applicable Class Period.
28 Plaintiff asserts that all of these individuals are ascertainable because the class members can readily be

1 determined through examination of Defendant's files. Given that the Class consists of approximately 2 299 members, Plaintiff maintains that numerosity is clearly satisfied. See Bowles v. Superior Court, 3 44 Cal.2d 574 (1955) (class with 10 members sufficiently numerous); Rose v. City of Hayward, 126
4 Cal.App.3d 926, 934 (1981) (class of 48 members satisfies numerosity requirement.) Here, Plaintiff 5 asserts that the 299 current and former employees that comprise the Class can be identified based on 6 Defendant's records and are sufficiently numerous for class certification. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶30.

7 C. Common Issues of Law and Fact Predominate

8 Predominance of common issues of law or fact does not require that the common issues be 9 dispositive of the entire controversy or even that they be dispositive of all liability issues. 1 Newberg 10 on Class Actions, Section 4.25 at 4-82, 4-83 (1992). "Predominance is a comparative concept, and 'the 11 necessity for class members to individually establish eligibility and damages does not mean individual 12 fact questions predominate.'" Sav-On, 34 Cal. 4th at 334.

13 Commonality exists if there is a predominant common legal question regarding how an 14 employer's policies impact its employees. Ghazaryan v. Diva Limousine, Ltd., 169 Cal. App. 4th 1524, 15 1536 (2008) ("[T]he common legal question remains the overall impact of Diva's policies on its 16 drivers.") Whether the plaintiff is likely to prevail on their theory of recovery is irrelevant at the 17 certification stage since the question is "essentially a procedural one that does not ask whether an action 18 is legally or factually meritorious." Linder v. Thrifty Oil Co., 23 Cal. 4th 429, 439-440 (2003).

19 Here, Plaintiff contends that common questions of law and fact are present, and specifically the 20 common questions of whether Defendant miscalculated the regular rate, whether Defendant properly 21 paid wages for all hours worked, whether the Defendant failed to provide meal and rest periods, 22 whether Defendant failed to provide required expense reimbursement, and whether Class Members are 23 entitled to damages and penalties as a result of these practices. Decl. Nordrehaug, ¶30. Defendant 24 disputes that common questions predominate but will not oppose such a finding for purposes of this 25 Settlement only.

26 D. The Claims of the Plaintiff Are Typical of the Class Claims

27 The typicality requirement requires the Plaintiff to demonstrate that the members of the class 28 have the same or similar claims as the Plaintiff. "The typicality requirement is met when the claims

1 of the [p]laintiff arise from the same event or are based on the same legal theories.” Tate v.
2 Weyerhaeuser Co., 723 F.2d 598, 608 (8th Cir. 1983). In Hanlon, supra, 150 F.3d at 1020, the Ninth 3 Circuit held that “[u]nder the rule’s permissive standards, representative claims are ‘typical’ if they are 4 reasonably coextensive with those of absent class members; they need not be substantially identical.”

5 In the instant case, Plaintiff contends that there can be little doubt that the typicality requirement 6 is satisfied. The Plaintiff, like every other member of the Class, worked for Defendant as non-exempt 7 employees during the Class Period. Plaintiff contends that, like every other member of the Class, she 8 was subject to the same practices and policies of Defendant and are subject to the same defenses. Thus, 9 Plaintiff asserts that the claims of the Plaintiff and the Class Members arise from the same course of 10 conduct by the Defendant, involve the same employment policies and practices of Defendant, and are 11 based on the same legal theories. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶30. For purposes of settlement, Plaintiff asserts 12 that the typicality requirement is met as to the common issues presented in this case. Defendant does 13 not oppose a finding of typicality for purposes of this Settlement only.

14 E. The Class Representation Fairly and Adequately Protects the Class

15 Plaintiff contends that the Class Members are adequately represented here because Plaintiff and 16 representing counsel (a) do not have any conflicts of interest with other class members, and (b) will 17 prosecute the case vigorously on behalf of the class. Hanlon, 150 F.3d at 1020. This requirement is 18 met here. First, Plaintiff is well aware of her duties as the representatives and has actively participated 19 in the prosecution of this case to date. She effectively communicated with counsel, provided 20 documents to counsel and participated in the investigation and negotiations in the Action. Second, 21 Plaintiff retained competent counsel who are experienced in employment class actions and who have 22 no conflicts. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶ 31. Third, there is no antagonism between the interests of the 23 Plaintiff and those of the Class. Both the Plaintiff and the Class Members seek monetary relief under 24 the same set of facts and legal theories. Defendant disputes that the adequacy requirement is satisfied 25 but will not oppose such a finding for purposes of this Settlement only.

26 F. The Superiority Requirement Is Met

27 To certify a class, the Court must also determine that a class action is superior to other available 28 methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy. “Where classwide litigation of

1 common issues will reduce litigation costs and promote greater efficiency, a class action may be 2 superior to other methods of litigation.” Valentino v. Carter-Wallace, Inc., 97 F.3d 1227, 1234 (9th Cir.
3 1996). As courts have previously observed:

4 Absent class treatment, each individual plaintiff would present in separate, duplicative 5 proceedings the same or essentially the same arguments and evidence, including expert 6 testimony. The result would be a multiplicity of trials conducted at enormous expense 7 to both the judicial system and the litigants. “It would be neither efficient nor fair to 8 anyone, including defendants, to force multiple trials to hear the same evidence and 9 decide the same issues.”

10 Sav-On, 34 Cal. 4th at 340, citing Boggs v. Divested Atomic Corp., 141 F.R.D. 58, 67 (S.D. Ohio 1991).

11 Here, Plaintiff contends that a class action is the superior mechanism for resolution of the claims 12 as pled by the Plaintiff. While Defendant disputes that class treatment is superior, Defendant does not 13 dispute a finding of superiority in this action for purposes of this Settlement only.

14 VI. THE PROPOSED METHOD OF CLASS NOTICE IS APPROPRIATE

15 The Court has broad discretion in approving a practical notice program. The Parties have 16 agreed upon procedures by which the Class Members will be provided with written notice of the 17 Settlement similar to that approved and utilized in hundreds of class action settlements. In accordance 18 with the Agreement, Defendant will provide to the Settlement Administrator an electronic database 19 containing each Class Member’s Class Data. (Agreement at ¶ III(F)(2)(a).) Within 14 days after 20 receiving the Class Data, the Settlement Administrator will mail the Class Notice Packets to all Class 21 Members via first-class U.S. Mail using the most current mailing address information available.
22 (Agreement at ¶ III(F)(2)(b).) The Class Notice, drafted jointly and agreed upon by the Parties through 23 their respective counsel and to be approved by the Court, includes all relevant information. (See Exhibit 24 “A” to the Agreement.) The Class Notice will include, among other information: (i) information 25 regarding the Action; (ii) the impact on the rights of the Class Members if they do not opt out; (iii)
26 information to the Class Members regarding how to opt out and how to object to the Settlement; (iv) 27 the estimated Settlement Share for each of the Class Members; (iii) the amount of attorneys’ fees and 28 expenses to be sought; (v) the amount of the Plaintiff’s service award request; and (vi) the anticipated expenses of the Settlement Administrator. The Parties agree that the Class Notice Packet will also include a Spanish translation of the Class Notice. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶32.

1 The Class Notice will state that the Class Members shall have forty-five (45) days from the date
2 that the Notice is mailed to them to request exclusion (opt-out) or to submit an objection. (Agreement 3 at ¶ III(F)(3)(c).) In the event of a re-mailing, the Response Deadline will be extended by an additional 4 15 days. (Agreement at ¶ III(F)(3)(c).) Class Members shall be given the opportunity to object to the 5 Settlement and/or requests for attorneys' fees and expenses and to appear at the Final Approval
6 Hearing. (Agreement at ¶ III(F)(3)(a).) Class Members who do not submit a timely and proper request 7 to opt-out will automatically receive a payment of their Settlement Share. This notice program was 8 designed to meaningfully reach the Class Members and it advises them of all pertinent information 9 concerning the Settlement. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶32. The mailing and distribution of the Class Notice 10 satisfies the requirements of due process and is the best notice practicable under the circumstances and 11 complies with Rules of Court 3.766 and 3.769(f).

12 VIII. CONCLUSION

13 Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court preliminarily approve the proposed settlement and 14 sign the proposed Preliminary Approval Order, which is submitted herewith, and schedule the final 15 fairness hearing for a date that is at least one hundred twenty (120) days from the date of Preliminary 16 Approval.
