Attorneys for Plaintiff Antonio Gonzalez, individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated

SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

FOR THE COUNTY OF LOS ANGELES

ANTONIO GONZALEZ, individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated

Plaintiff,

vs.

AUSTIN PANG GLOVES MFG. (U.S.A.)
CORP.; and DOES 1 through 20, inclusive,

Defendants.

Case No. 20STCV16450

Assigned for All Purposes to:
Hon. Monica Bachner
Dept. 71

FIRST AMENDED CLASS ACTION COMPLAINT FOR:

1. Failure to Pay Overtime Wages;
2. Failure to Provide Meal Periods;
3. Failure to Permit Rest Breaks;
4. Failure to Provide Accurate Itemized Wage Statements;
5. Failure to Pay All Wages Due Upon Separation of Employment;
6. Violation of Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.; and

1 Plaintiff Antonio Gonzalez, individually and on behalf of others similarly situated,
2 alleges as follows:

3 NATURE OF ACTION AND INTRODUCTORY STATEMENT

4 1. Plaintiff Antonio Gonzalez (“Plaintiff”) brings this putative class action against 5 defendants Austin Pang Gloves MFG. (U.S.A.) Corp. and DOES 1 through 20, inclusive
6 (collectively, “Defendants”), on behalf of himself individually and non-exempt employees
7 employed by Defendants throughout California.

8 2. Defendants are in the business of wholesale sales.

9 3. Through this action, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants have engaged in a 10 systematic pattern of wage and hour violations under the California Labor Code and Industrial 11 Welfare Commission (“IWC”) Wage Orders, all of which contribute to Defendants’ deliberate 12 unfair competition.

13 4. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Defendants have 14 increased their profits by violating state wage and hour laws by, among other things:

15 (a) Failing to pay overtime wages at the proper rates;

16 (b) Failing to provide meal periods or compensation in lieu thereof;

17 (c) Failing to authorize or permit rest breaks or provide compensation in lieu thereof;

18 (d) Failing to provide accurate itemized wage statements; and 19 (e) Failing to pay all wages due upon separation of employment.

20 5. Plaintiff brings this lawsuit seeking monetary relief against Defendants on 21 behalf of himself and all others similarly situated in California to recover, among other things, 22 unpaid wages and benefits, interest, attorneys’ fees, costs and expenses and penalties pursuant 23 to Labor Code §§ 201-204, 210, 226, 226.3, 226.7, 510, 512, 558, 1174, 1174.5, 1194, 1198, 24 and 2698, et seq.

25 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

26 6. This is a class action, pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 382. The 27 monetary damages and restitution sought by Plaintiff exceeds the minimal jurisdictional limits
28 of the Superior Court and will be established according to proof at trial.

7. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to the California Constitution, Article VI, § 10, which grants the Superior Court original jurisdiction in all causes except those given by statutes to other courts. The statutes under which this action is brought do not specify any other basis for jurisdiction.

8. This Court has jurisdiction over all Defendants because, upon information and belief, they are citizens of California, have sufficient minimum contacts in California or otherwise intentionally avail themselves of the California market so as to render the exercise of jurisdiction over them by the California courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice.

9. Venue is proper in this Court because, upon information and belief, Defendants reside, transact business or have offices in this county and the acts and omissions alleged herein took place in this county.

THE PARTIES

10. Plaintiff is a citizen of California. Plaintiff was employed by Defendants during the Class Period in California.

11. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Defendants at all times hereinafter mentioned, were and are employers as defined in and subject to the Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders, whose employees were and are engaged throughout this county and the State of California.

12. Plaintiff is unaware of the true names or capacities of the defendants sued herein under the fictitious names DOES 1 through 20, but will seek leave of this Court to amend this Complaint and serve such fictitiously named defendants once their names and capacities become known.

13. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that each defendant acted in all respects pertinent to this action as the agent of the other defendant, carried out a joint scheme, business plan or policy in all respects pertinent hereto, and the acts of each defendant are legally attributable to the other defendant. Furthermore, defendants in all respects acted as the employer and/or joint employer of Plaintiff and the class members.

14. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that each and all of the acts and omissions alleged herein were performed by, or are attributable to, Defendants and/or DOES 1 through 20, acting as the agent or alter ego for the other, with legal authority to act on the other's behalf. The acts of any and all Defendants were in accordance with, and represent, the official policy of Defendants.

15. At all relevant times, Defendants, and each of them, acted within the scope of such agency or employment, or ratified each and every act or omission complained of herein. At all relevant times, Defendants, and each of them, aided and abetted the acts and omissions of each and all the other Defendants in proximately causing the damages herein alleged.

16. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that each of said Defendants is in some manner intentionally, negligently or otherwise responsible for the acts, omissions, occurrences and transactions alleged herein.

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

17. Plaintiff brings this action under Code of Civil Procedure § 382 on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated who were affected by Defendants' Labor Code, Business and Professions Code §§ 17200 and IWC Wage Order violations.

18. All claims alleged herein arise under California law for which Plaintiff seeks relief authorized by California law.

19. Plaintiff's proposed Class consists of and is defined as follows:

Class

All California citizens currently or formerly employed as non-exempt employees by Defendants in the State of California from April 6, 2016¹ to the date of class certification.

20. Plaintiff also seeks to certify the following Subclass of employees:

Waiting Time Subclass

All members of the Class who separated their employment from Defendants from April 6, 2017 to the date of class certification.

21. Members of the Class and Subclass described above will be collectively referred ¹ The statute of limitations for this matter was tolled pursuant to Cal. Rules of Court, Appendix I, Emergency Rule No. 9.

1 to as “class members.” Plaintiff reserves the right to establish other or additional subclasses, or 2 modify any Class or Subclass definition, as appropriate based on investigation, discovery and 3 specific theories of liability.

4 22. This action has been brought and may properly be maintained as a class action
5 under the California Code of Civil Procedure § 382 because there are common questions of law
6 and fact as to the Class that predominate over questions affecting only individual members 7 including, but not limited to:

- 8 (a) Whether Defendants paid Plaintiff and class members overtime compensation at 9 the proper rates;
- 10 (b) Whether Defendants deprived Plaintiff and class members of timely meal periods;
- 11 (c) Whether Defendants deprived Plaintiff and class members of rest breaks;
- 12 (d) Whether Defendants failed to timely pay Plaintiff and former class members all 13 wages due upon termination or within 72 hours of resignation;
- 14 (e) Whether Defendants failed to furnish Plaintiff and class members with accurate, 15 itemized wage statements; and
- 16 (f) Whether Defendants engaged in unfair business practices in violation of Business
17 & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

18 23. There is a well-defined community of interest in this litigation and the Class is 19 readily ascertainable:

- 20 (a) Numerosity: The members of the Class are so numerous that joinder of all
21 members is impractical. Although the members of the Class are unknown 22 to Plaintiff at this time, on information and belief, the Class is estimated to 23 be greater than 100 individuals. The identity of the class members are 24 readily ascertainable by inspection of Defendants’ employment and payroll 25 records.
- 26 (b) Typicality: The claims (or defenses, if any) of Plaintiff are typical of the 27 claims (or defenses, if any) of the Class because Defendants’ failure to 28 comply with the provisions of California wage and hour laws entitled each

1 class member to similar pay, benefits and other relief. The injuries
2 sustained by Plaintiff are also typical of the injuries sustained by the Class
3 because they arise out of and are caused by Defendants' common course of 4 conduct as alleged herein.

5 (c) Adequacy: Plaintiff is qualified to, and will fairly and adequately represent
6 and protect the interests of all members of the Class because it is in his best
7 interest to prosecute the claims alleged herein to obtain full compensation
8 and penalties due to him and the Class. Plaintiff's attorneys, as proposed 9 class counsel, are competent and experienced in litigating large
10 employment class actions and are versed in the rules governing class action
11 discovery, certification and settlement. Plaintiff has incurred and,
12 throughout the duration of this action, will continue to incur attorneys' fees 13 and costs that have been and will be necessarily expended for the 14 prosecution of this action for the substantial benefit of each class member.

15 (d) Superiority: The nature of this action makes the use of class action
16 adjudication superior to other methods. A class action will achieve
17 economies of time, effort and expense as compared with separate lawsuits, 18 and will avoid inconsistent outcomes because the same issues can be 19 adjudicated in the same manner and at the same time for each Class. If 20 appropriate this Court can, and is empowered to, fashion methods to 21 efficiently manage this case as a class action.

22 (e) Public Policy Considerations: Employers in the State of California and 23 other states violate employment and labor laws every day. Current 24 employees are often afraid to assert their rights out of fear of direct or 25 indirect retaliation. Former employees are fearful of bringing actions
26 because they believe their former employers might damage their future
27 endeavors through negative references and/or other means. Class actions 28 provide the class members who are not named in the complaint with a

1 type of anonymity that allows for the vindication of their rights at the 2 same time as affording them privacy protections.

3 GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

4 24. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants employed Plaintiff and other 5 persons as non-exempt employees.

6 25. Plaintiff was employed in a non-exempt position at Defendants' California
7 business location(s).

8 26. Defendants continue to employ non-exempt employees within California.

9 27. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that at all times herein
10 mentioned, Defendants were advised by skilled lawyers, employees and other professionals
11 who were knowledgeable about California's wage and hour laws, employment and personnel
12 practices and the requirements of California law.

13 28. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Defendants 14 improperly calculated the overtime rate of pay for Plaintiff and Class Members because the 15 rates did not include non-discretionary wages, including, but not limited to, bonuses, shift 16 premiums, and/or other incentive pay into the computation of their regular rate of pay for 17 purposes of calculating the overtime rate of pay.

18 29. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or 19 should have known that Plaintiff and class members were entitled to receive all required meal
20 periods or payment of one (1) additional hour of pay at Plaintiff and class members' regular 21 rate of pay when they did not receive a timely meal period. In violation of the Labor Code and 22 IWC Wage Orders, Plaintiff and class members did not receive all timely meal periods or
23 payment of one (1) additional hour of pay at Plaintiff and class members' regular rate of pay
24 when they did not receive a timely meal period.

25 30. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or 26 should have known that Plaintiff and class members were entitled to receive all rest breaks or
27 payment of one (1) additional hour of pay at Plaintiff and class members' regular rate of pay
28 when a rest break was missed. In violation of the Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders, Plaintiff

1 and class members did not receive all rest breaks or payment of one (1) additional hour of pay
2 at Plaintiff and class members' regular rate of pay when a rest break was missed.

3 31. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or 4 should have known that Plaintiff and class members were entitled to receive itemized wage
5 statements that accurately showed their gross and net wages earned, inclusive dates of pay
6 periods, total hours worked and all applicable hourly rates in effect and the number of hours
7 worked at each hourly rate in accordance with California law. In violation of the Labor Code,
8 Plaintiff and class members were not provided with accurate itemized wage statements.

9 32. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or 10 should have known that Plaintiff and Waiting Time Subclass members were entitled to timely 11 payment of wages due upon separation of employment. In violation of the Labor Code, 12 Plaintiff and Waiting Time Subclass members did not receive payment of all wages within 13 permissible time periods.

14 33. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or 15 should have known they had a duty to compensate Plaintiff and class members, and Defendants
16 had the financial ability to pay such compensation but willfully, knowingly and intentionally
17 failed to do so all in order to increase Defendants' profits.

18 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

19 FAILURE TO PAY OVERTIME WAGES

20 (Violation of Labor Code §§ 510, 1194 and 1198; Violation of IWC Wage Order § 3)

21 34. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporates by reference all paragraphs above as
22 though fully set forth herein.

23 35. Labor Code § 1198 and the applicable IWC Wage Order provide that it is 24 unlawful to employ persons without compensating them at a rate of pay either one and one-half 25 or two times the person's regular rate of pay, depending on the number of hours worked by the 26 person on a daily or weekly basis.

27 36. Pursuant to California Labor Code §§ 510 and 1194, during the relevant time
28 period, Defendants were required to compensate Plaintiff and class members for all overtime

1 hours worked, calculated at one and one-half (1½) times the regular rate of pay for hours
2 worked in excess of eight (8) hours per day and/or forty (40) hours per week and for the first
3 eight (8) hours of the seventh consecutive work day, with double time after eight (8) hours on 4 the seventh day of any work week, or after twelve (12) hours in any work day.

5 37. Plaintiff and class members were non-exempt employees entitled to the 6 protections of California Labor Code §§ 510 and 1194.

7 38. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and class
8 members overtime wages at the correct rate because they failed to include non-discretionary 9 wages, including, but not limited to, bonuses, shift premiums, and/or other incentive pay in the 10 computation of their overtime rate of pay, which caused Plaintiff and Class Members to not be 11 paid all overtime wages owed.

12 39. In violation of state law, Defendants have knowingly and willfully refused to 13 perform their obligations and compensate Plaintiff and class members for all wages earned as 14 alleged above.

15 40. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and class members the unpaid balance of 16 overtime compensation, as required by California law, violates the provisions of Labor Code 17 §§ 510 and 1198, and is therefore unlawful.

18 41. Pursuant to Labor Code § 1194, Plaintiff and class members are entitled to 19 recover their unpaid overtime compensation as well as interest, costs and attorneys' fees.

20 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

21 FAILURE TO PROVIDE MEAL PERIODS

22 (Violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512; Violation of IWC Wage Order § 11)

23 42. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporates by reference all paragraphs above as
24 though fully set forth herein.

25 43. Labor Code § 226.7 provides that no employer shall require an employee to work
26 during any meal period mandated by the IWC Wage Orders.

27 44. Section 11 of the applicable IWC Wage Order states, "no employer shall employ 28 any person for a work period of more than five (5) hours without a meal period of not less than

1 30 minutes, except that when a work period of not more than six (6) hours will complete the 2 day's work the meal period may be waived by mutual consent of the employer and the 3 employee."

4 45. Labor Code § 512(a) provides that an employer may not require, cause or permit
5 an employee to work for a period of more than five (5) hours per day without providing the 6 employee with an uninterrupted meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes, except that if 7 the total work period per day of the employee is not more than six (6) hours, the meal period
8 may be waived by mutual consent of both the employer and the employee.

9 46. Labor Code § 512(a) also provides that an employer may not employ an 10 employee for a work period of more than ten (10) hours per day without providing the employee
11 with a second meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes, except that if the total hours
12 worked is no more than twelve (12) hours, the second meal period may be waived by mutual 13 consent of the employer and the employee only if the first meal period was not waived.

14 47. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and class members did not receive 15 compliant meal periods for each five hours worked per day.

16 48. Labor Code § 226.7(b) and section 11 of the applicable IWC Wage Order require 17 an employer to pay an employee one additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of 18 compensation for each work day that a meal period is not provided.

19 49. At all relevant times, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and class members meal
20 period premiums for meal period violations pursuant to Labor Code § 226.7(b) and section 11
21 of the applicable IWC Wage Order.

22 50. As a result of Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and class members an
23 additional hour of pay for each day a meal period was not provided, Plaintiff and class members
24 suffered and continue to suffer a loss of wages and compensation.

25 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

26 FAILURE TO PERMIT REST BREAKS

27 (Violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7; Violation of IWC Wage Order § 12)

28 51. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporates by reference all paragraphs above as

1 though fully set forth herein.

2 52. Labor Code § 226.7(a) provides that no employer shall require an employee to 3 work during any rest period mandated by the IWC Wage Orders.

4 53. Section 12 of the applicable IWC Wage Order states “every employer shall 5 authorize and permit all employees to take rest periods, which insofar as practicable shall be in 6 the middle of each work period” and the “authorized rest period time shall be based on the total
7 hours worked daily at the rate of ten (10) minutes net rest time per four (4) hours or major 8 fraction thereof” unless the total daily work time is less than three and one-half (3½) hours.

9 54. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and class members did not receive a ten 10 (10) minute rest period for every four (4) hours or major fraction thereof worked.

11 55. Labor Code § 226.7(b) and section 12 of the applicable IWC Wage Order 12 requires an employer to pay an employee one additional hour of pay at the employee’s regular 13 rate of compensation for each work day that the rest period is not provided.

14 56. At all relevant times, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and class members rest 15 period premiums for rest period violations pursuant to Labor Code § 226.7(b) and section 12 of 16 the applicable IWC Wage Order.

17 57. As a result of Defendants’ failure to pay Plaintiff and class members an 18 additional hour of pay for each day a rest period was not provided, Plaintiff and class members
19 suffered and continue to suffer a loss of wages and compensation.

20 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

21 FAILURE TO PROVIDE ACCURATE ITEMIZED WAGE STATEMENTS

22 (Violation of Labor Code § 226)

23 58. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporates by reference all paragraphs above as
24 though fully set forth herein.

25 59. Labor Code § 226(a) requires Defendants to provide each employee with an 26 accurate wage statement in writing showing nine pieces of information, including: (1) gross
27 wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee, (3) the number of piece-rate units
28 earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all

1 deductions, provided that all deductions made on written orders of the employee may be
2 aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the period
3 for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee and the last four digits of his or 4 her social security number or an employee identification number other than a social security
5 number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer, and (9) all applicable
6 hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at 7 each hourly rate by the employee.

8 60. During the relevant time period, Defendants have knowingly and intentionally
9 failed to comply with Labor Code § 226(a) on wage statements that were provided to Plaintiff
10 and class members. The deficiencies include, among other things, the failure to correctly state
11 accurate inclusive dates of the pay period for Plaintiff and class members.

12 61. As a result of Defendants' violation of California Labor Code § 226(a), Plaintiff
13 and class members have suffered injury and damage to their statutorily protected rights.
14 Specifically, Plaintiff and class members have been injured by Defendants' intentional
15 violation of California Labor Code § 226(a) because they were denied both their legal right to 16 receive, and their protected interest in receiving, accurate itemized wage statements under 17 California Labor Code § 226(a). Plaintiff has had to file this lawsuit in order to determine the 18 extent of the underpayment of wages, thereby causing Plaintiff to incur expenses and lost time.
19 Plaintiff would not have had to engage in these efforts and incur these costs had Defendants
20 provided the accurate wages earned. This has also delayed Plaintiff's ability to demand and 21 recover the underpayment of wages from Defendants.

22 62. California Labor Code § 226(a) requires an employer to pay the greater of all 23 actual damages or fifty dollars ($50.00) for the initial pay period in which a violation occurred,
24 and one hundred dollars ($100.00) per employee for each violation in subsequent pay periods,
25 plus attorney's fees and costs, to each employee who was injured by the employer's failure to 26 comply with California Labor Code § 226(a).

27 63. Defendants' violations of California Labor Code § 226(a) prevented Plaintiff 28 and class members from knowing, understanding and disputing the wages paid to them, and

1 resulted in an unjustified economic enrichment to Defendants. As a result of Defendants'
2 knowing and intentional failure to comply with California Labor Code § 226(a), Plaintiff and 3 class members have suffered an injury, and the exact amount of damages and/or penalties is all
4 in an amount to be shown according to proof at trial.

5 64. Plaintiff and class members are also entitled to injunctive relief under California
6 Labor Code § 226(h), compelling Defendants to comply with California Labor Code § 226, and 7 seek the recovery of attorneys' fees and costs incurred in obtaining this injunctive relief.

8 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

9 FAILURE TO PAY ALL WAGES DUE UPON SEPARATION OF EMPLOYMENT AND 10 WITHIN THE REQUIRED TIME

11 (Violation of Labor Code §§ 201, 202 and 203)

12 65. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporates by reference all paragraphs above as
13 though fully set forth herein.

14 66. California Labor Code §§ 201 and 202 provide that if an employer discharges an 15 employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable 16 immediately, and that if an employee voluntarily leaves his employment, his wages shall 17 become due and payable not later than seventy-two (72) hours thereafter, unless the employee 18 has given seventy-two (72) hours previous notice of his intention to quit, in which case the 19 employee is entitled to his wages at the time of quitting.

20 67. During the relevant time period, Defendants willfully failed to pay Plaintiff and 21 Waiting Time Subclass members all their earned wages upon termination including, but not 22 limited to, proper minimum wages and overtime compensation, either at the time of discharge
23 or within seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendants' employ.

24 68. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and Waiting Time Subclass members all 25 their earned wages at the time of discharge or within seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving 26 Defendants' employ is in violation of Labor Code §§ 201 and 202.

27 69. California Labor Code § 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay
28 wages owed immediately upon discharge or resignation in accordance with Labor Code §§ 201

1 and 202, then the wages of the employee shall continue as a penalty from the due date at the 2 same rate until paid or until an action is commenced; but the wages shall not continue for more
3 than thirty (30) days.

4 70. Plaintiff and Waiting Time Subclass members are entitled to recover from 5 Defendants the statutory penalty which is defined as Plaintiff's and Waiting Time Subclass
6 members' regular daily wages for each day they were not paid, at their regular hourly rate of 7 pay, up to a thirty (30) day maximum pursuant to Labor Code § 203.

8 SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

9 VIOLATION OF BUSINESS AND PROFESSIONS CODE §§ 17200, ET SEQ.

10 71. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporates by reference all paragraphs above as
11 though fully set forth herein.

12 72. Defendants' conduct, as alleged herein, has been and continues to be unfair,
13 unlawful and harmful to Plaintiff and class members. Plaintiff seek to enforce important rights
14 affecting the public interest within the meaning of Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5.

15 73. Defendants' activities, as alleged herein, violate California law and constitute 16 unlawful business acts or practices in violation of California Business and Professions Code 17 §§ 17200, et seq.

18 74. A violation of Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq. may be 19 predicated on the violation of any state or federal law.

20 75. Defendants' policies and practices have violated state law in at least the 21 following respects:

- 22 (a) Failing to pay all overtime wages at the proper rate to Plaintiff and class
23 members in violation of Labor Code §§ 510, 1194 and 1198;
- 24 (b) Failing to provide timely meal periods without paying Plaintiff and class 25 members premium wages for every day said meal periods were not 26 provided in violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512;
- 27 (c) Failing to authorize or permit rest breaks without paying Plaintiff and 28 class members premium wages for every day said rest breaks were not

1 authorized or permitted in violation of Labor Code § 226.7;

2 (d) Failing to provide Plaintiff and class members with accurate itemized
3 wage statements in violation of Labor Code § 226; and

4 (e) Failing to timely pay all earned wages to Plaintiff and Waiting Time
5 Subclass members upon separation of employment in violation of Labor
6 Code §§ 201, 202 and 203.

7 76. Defendants intentionally avoided paying Plaintiff and class members' wages and 8 monies, thereby creating for Defendants an artificially lower cost of doing business in order to 9 undercut their competitors and establish and gain a greater foothold in the marketplace.

10 77. Pursuant to Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq. Plaintiff and class 11 members are entitled to restitution of the wages unlawfully withheld and retained by 12 Defendants during a period that commences four years prior to the filing of the Complaint; an 13 award of attorneys' fees pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5 and other applicable
14 laws; and an award of costs.

15 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

16 ENFORCEMENT OF LABOR CODE §§ 2698 ET SEQ. ("PAGA")

17 78. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporate by reference the previous paragraphs as 18 though fully set forth herein.

19 79. Pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(a), any provision of the Labor Code that provides 20 for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the Labor and Workforce Development Agency
21 ("LWDA") or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards, agencies, or employees for 22 violation of the Labor Code may, as an alternative, be recovered through a civil action brought by 23 an aggrieved employee on behalf of himself or herself and other current or former employees
24 pursuant to the procedures specified in Labor Code § 2699.3.

25 80. For all provisions of the Labor Code except those for which a civil penalty is 26 specifically provided, Labor Code § 2699(f) imposes upon Defendants a penalty of one hundred 27 dollars ($100.00) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation and two 28

1 hundred dollars ($200.00) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent pay
2 period in which Defendants violated these provisions of the Labor Code.

3 81. Defendants' conduct violates numerous Wage Order and Labor Code sections, 4 including, but not limited to, the following:

- 5 a. violation of Labor Code §§ 201-203, 204, 210, 510, 1194, and 1198 for 6 failure to timely pay all earned wages owed to Plaintiff and other 7 aggrieved employees during employment and upon separation of 8 employment as herein alleged;
- 9 b. violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512 for failure to provide meal
10 periods to Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees and failure to pay 11 premium wages for missed meal periods as herein alleged;
- 12 c. violation of Labor Code § 226.7 for failure to permit rest breaks to 13 Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees and failure to pay premium wages 14 for missed rest periods as herein alleged;
- 15 d. violation of Labor Code § 226 for failure to provide accurate itemized
16 wage statements to Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees as herein 17 alleged; and
- 18 e. violation of Labor Code §§ 1174 and 1174.5 for failure to maintain 19 accurate and complete records showing, among other things, the hours 20 worked daily by and the wages paid to aggrieved employees.

21 82. Plaintiff is an "aggrieved employee" because he was employed by the alleged 22 violator and had one or more of the violations committed against him, and therefore is properly 23 suited to represent the interests of all other aggrieved employees.

24 83. Plaintiff has exhausted the procedural requirements under Labor Code § 2699.3 as 25 to Defendants and is therefore able to pursue a claim for penalties on behalf of himself and all 26 other aggrieved employees under PAGA.
