2. Failure to Permit Rest Breaks;
3. Failure to Provide Accurate Itemized Wage Statements;
4. Failure to Pay All Wages Due Upon Separation of Employment; and
5. Violation of Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.
6. Enforcement of Labor Code § 2698 et seq. (“PAGA”)

1 Plaintiff Evanina Alaniz, individually and on behalf of others similarly situated, alleges 2 as follows:

3 NATURE OF ACTION AND INTRODUCTORY STATEMENT

4 1. Plaintiff Evanina Alaniz (“Plaintiff”) brings this putative class and 5 representative action pursuant to the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, Cal. Lab. Code. §
6 2698 et seq., against defendants Watermark Retirement Communities, LLC; Watermark
7 Retirement Communities, Inc.; Watermark Services, IV, LLC and DOES 1 through 20, 8 inclusive (collectively, “Defendants”), on behalf of herself individually and on behalf of non-
9 exempt employees employed by Defendants throughout California.

10 2. Defendants are in the business of providing senior residence and healthcare 11 services.

12 3. Through this action, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants have engaged in a 13 systematic pattern of wage and hour violations under the California Labor Code and Industrial 14 Welfare Commission (“IWC”) Wage Orders, all of which contribute to Defendants’ deliberate 15 unfair competition.

16 4. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Defendants have 17 increased their profits by violating state wage and hour laws by, among other things:

- 18 (a) Failing to provide meal periods or compensation in lieu thereof;
19 (b) Failing to authorize or permit rest breaks or provide compensation in lieu thereof;
20 (c) Failing to provide accurate itemized wage statements; and 21 (d) Failing to pay all wages due upon separation of employment.

22 5. Plaintiff brings this lawsuit seeking monetary relief against Defendants on 23 behalf of herself and all others similarly situated in California to recover, among other things, 24 unpaid wages and benefits, interest, attorneys’ fees, costs and expenses and penalties pursuant 25 to Labor Code §§ 201-204, 210, 226, 226.3, 226.7, 512, 558, 1174, 1174.5, 2810.5, and 2698,
26 et seq.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

6. This is a class action, pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 382. The monetary damages and restitution sought by Plaintiff exceeds the minimal jurisdictional limits of the Superior Court and will be established according to proof at trial.

7. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to the California Constitution, Article VI, § 10, which grants the Superior Court original jurisdiction in all causes except those given by statutes to other courts. The statutes under which this action is brought do not specify any other basis for jurisdiction.

8. This Court has jurisdiction over all Defendants because, upon information and belief, they are citizens of California, have sufficient minimum contacts in California or otherwise intentionally avail themselves of the California market so as to render the exercise of jurisdiction over them by the California courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice.

9. Venue is proper in this Court because, upon information and belief, Defendants reside, transact business or have offices in this county or the acts and omissions alleged herein took place in this county.

THE PARTIES

10. Plaintiff is a citizen of California. Plaintiff was employed by Defendants during the Class Period in California.

11. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Defendants at all times hereinafter mentioned, were and are employers as defined in and subject to the Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders, whose employees were and are engaged throughout this county and the State of California.

12. Plaintiff is unaware of the true names or capacities of the defendants sued herein under the fictitious names DOES 1 through 20, but will seek leave of this Court to amend this Complaint and serve such fictitiously named defendants once their names and capacities become known.

1 13. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that each defendant acted
2 in all respects pertinent to this action as the agent of the other defendant, carried out a joint
3 scheme, business plan or policy in all respects pertinent hereto, and the acts of each defendant
4 are legally attributable to the other defendant. Furthermore, defendants in all respects acted as 5 the employer and/or joint employer of Plaintiff and the class members.

6 14. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that each and all of the 7 acts and omissions alleged herein were performed by, or are attributable to, Defendants and/or 8 DOES 1 through 20, acting as the agent or alter ego for the other, with legal authority to act on 9 the other's behalf. The acts of any and all Defendants were in accordance with, and represent,
10 the official policy of Defendants.

11 15. At all relevant times, Defendants, and each of them, acted within the scope of 12 such agency or employment, or ratified each and every act or omission complained of herein.
13 At all relevant times, Defendants, and each of them, aided and abetted the acts and omissions of 14 each and all the other Defendants in proximately causing the damages herein alleged.

15 16. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that each of said
16 Defendants is in some manner intentionally, negligently or otherwise responsible for the acts, 17 omissions, occurrences and transactions alleged herein.

18 CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

19 17. Plaintiff brings this action under Code of Civil Procedure § 382 on behalf of 20 herself and all others similarly situated who were affected by Defendants' Labor Code,
21 Business and Professions Code §§ 17200 and IWC Wage Order violations.

22 18. All claims alleged herein arise under California law for which Plaintiff seeks 23 relief authorized by California law.

24 19. Plaintiff's proposed Class consists of and is defined as follows:

25 Class
26
27
28

1 All California citizens currently or formerly employed as non-exempt employees
2 by Defendants in the State of California from April 6, 2016¹ to the date of class certification.

3 20. Plaintiff also seeks to certify the following Subclass of employees:

4 Waiting Time Subclass

5 All members of the Class who separated their employment from Defendants from 6 April 6, 2017 to the date of class certification.

7 21. Members of the Class and Subclass described above will be collectively referred 8 to as “class members.” Plaintiff reserves the right to establish other or additional subclasses, or 9 modify any Class or Subclass definition, as appropriate based on investigation, discovery and 10 specific theories of liability.

11 22. This action has been brought and may properly be maintained as a class action
12 under the California Code of Civil Procedure § 382 because there are common questions of law
13 and fact as to the Class that predominate over questions affecting only individual members 14 including, but not limited to:

- 15 (a) Whether Defendants deprived Plaintiff and class members of timely meal periods;
- 16 (b) Whether Defendants deprived Plaintiff and class members of rest breaks;
- 17 (c) Whether Defendants failed to timely pay Plaintiff and former class members all 18 wages due upon termination or within 72 hours of resignation;
- 19 (d) Whether Defendants failed to furnish Plaintiff and class members with accurate, 20 itemized wage statements; and
- 21 (e) Whether Defendants engaged in unfair business practices in violation of Business
22 & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

23 23. There is a well-defined community of interest in this litigation and the Class is 24 readily ascertainable:

- 25 (a) Numerosity: The members of the Class are so numerous that joinder of all 26 members is impractical. Although the members of the Class are unknown

27 ¹ The statute of limitations for this matter was tolled pursuant to Cal. Rules of Court, 28 Appendix I, Emergency Rule No. 9.

1 to Plaintiff at this time, on information and belief, the Class is estimated to 2 be greater than 100 individuals. The identity of the class members are 3 readily ascertainable by inspection of Defendants' employment and payroll 4 records.

5 (b) Typicality: The claims (or defenses, if any) of Plaintiff are typical of the 6 claims (or defenses, if any) of the Class because Defendants' failure to 7 comply with the provisions of California wage and hour laws entitled each
8 class member to similar pay, benefits and other relief. The injuries
9 sustained by Plaintiff are also typical of the injuries sustained by the Class
10 because they arise out of and are caused by Defendants' common course of 11 conduct as alleged herein.

12 (c) Adequacy: Plaintiff is qualified to, and will fairly and adequately represent 13 and protect the interests of all members of the Class because it is in her best 14 interest to prosecute the claims alleged herein to obtain full compensation
15 and penalties due to her and the Class. Plaintiff's attorneys, as proposed 16 class counsel, are competent and experienced in litigating large
17 employment class actions and are versed in the rules governing class action 18 discovery, certification and settlement. Plaintiff has incurred and,
19 throughout the duration of this action, will continue to incur attorneys' fees 20 and costs that have been and will be necessarily expended for the 21 prosecution of this action for the substantial benefit of each class member.

22 (d) Superiority: The nature of this action makes the use of class action
23 adjudication superior to other methods. A class action will achieve
24 economies of time, effort and expense as compared with separate lawsuits, 25 and will avoid inconsistent outcomes because the same issues can be 26 adjudicated in the same manner and at the same time for each Class. If 27 appropriate this Court can, and is empowered to, fashion methods to 28 efficiently manage this case as a class action.

1 (e) Public Policy Considerations: Employers in the State of California and 2 other states violate employment and labor laws every day. Current 3 employees are often afraid to assert their rights out of fear of direct or 4 indirect retaliation. Former employees are fearful of bringing actions
5 because they believe their former employers might damage their future
6 endeavors through negative references and/or other means. Class actions
7 provide the class members who are not named in the complaint with a 8 type of anonymity that allows for the vindication of their rights at the 9 same time as affording them privacy protections.

10 GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

11 24. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants employed Plaintiff and other 12 persons as non-exempt employees.

13 25. Plaintiff was employed in a non-exempt position at Defendants' California 14 business location(s).

15 26. Defendants continue to employ non-exempt employees within California.

16 27. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that at all times herein
17 mentioned, Defendants were advised by skilled lawyers, employees and other professionals
18 who were knowledgeable about California's wage and hour laws, employment and personnel
19 practices and the requirements of California law.

20 28. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or 21 should have known that Plaintiff and class members were entitled to receive all required meal
22 periods or payment of one (1) additional hour of pay at Plaintiff and class members' regular 23 rate of pay when they did not receive a timely meal period. In violation of the Labor Code and 24 IWC Wage Orders, Plaintiff and class members did not receive all timely meal periods or
25 payment of one (1) additional hour of pay at Plaintiff and class members' regular rate of pay
26 when they did not receive a timely meal period.

27 29. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or 28 should have known that Plaintiff and class members were entitled to receive all rest breaks or

1 payment of one (1) additional hour of pay at Plaintiff and class members' regular rate of pay
2 when a rest break was missed. In violation of the Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders, Plaintiff
3 and class members did not receive all rest breaks or payment of one (1) additional hour of pay
4 at Plaintiff and class members' regular rate of pay when a rest break was missed.

5 30. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or 6 should have known that Plaintiff and class members were entitled to receive itemized wage
7 statements that accurately showed their gross and net wages earned, inclusive dates of pay
8 periods, total hours worked and all applicable hourly rates in effect and the number of hours
9 worked at each hourly rate in accordance with California law. In violation of the Labor Code,
10 Plaintiff and class members were not provided with accurate itemized wage statements.

11 31. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or 12 should have known that Plaintiff and Waiting Time Subclass members were entitled to timely 13 payment of wages due upon separation of employment. In violation of the Labor Code, 14 Plaintiff and Waiting Time Subclass members did not receive payment of all wages within 15 permissible time periods.

16 32. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or 17 should have known they had a duty to compensate Plaintiff and class members, and Defendants 18 had the financial ability to pay such compensation but willfully, knowingly and intentionally
19 failed to do so all in order to increase Defendants' profits.

20 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

21 FAILURE TO PROVIDE MEAL PERIODS

22 (Violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512; Violation of IWC Wage Order § 11)

23 33. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporates by reference all paragraphs above as 24 though fully set forth herein.

25 34. Labor Code § 226.7 provides that no employer shall require an employee to work
26 during any meal period mandated by the IWC Wage Orders.

27 35. Section 11 of the applicable IWC Wage Order states, "no employer shall employ 28 any person for a work period of more than five (5) hours without a meal period of not less than

1 30 minutes, except that when a work period of not more than six (6) hours will complete the 2 day's work the meal period may be waived by mutual consent of the employer and the 3 employee."

4 36. Labor Code § 512(a) provides that an employer may not require, cause or permit 5 an employee to work for a period of more than five (5) hours per day without providing the 6 employee with an uninterrupted meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes, except that if 7 the total work period per day of the employee is not more than six (6) hours, the meal period
8 may be waived by mutual consent of both the employer and the employee.

9 37. Labor Code § 512(a) also provides that an employer may not employ an 10 employee for a work period of more than ten (10) hours per day without providing the employee
11 with a second meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes, except that if the total hours
12 worked is no more than twelve (12) hours, the second meal period may be waived by mutual 13 consent of the employer and the employee only if the first meal period was not waived.

14 38. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and class members did not receive 15 compliant meal periods for each five hours worked per day.

16 39. Labor Code § 226.7(b) and section 11 of the applicable IWC Wage Order require 17 an employer to pay an employee one additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of 18 compensation for each work day that a meal period is not provided.

19 40. At all relevant times, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and class members meal
20 period premiums for meal period violations pursuant to Labor Code § 226.7(b) and section 11
21 of the applicable IWC Wage Order.

22 41. As a result of Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and class members an
23 additional hour of pay for each day a meal period was not provided, Plaintiff and class members
24 suffered and continue to suffer a loss of wages and compensation.

25 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

26 FAILURE TO PERMIT REST BREAKS

27 (Violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7; Violation of IWC Wage Order § 12)

1 42. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporates by reference all paragraphs above as
2 though fully set forth herein.

3 43. Labor Code § 226.7(a) provides that no employer shall require an employee to 4 work during any rest period mandated by the IWC Wage Orders.

5 44. Section 12 of the applicable IWC Wage Order states “every employer shall 6 authorize and permit all employees to take rest periods, which insofar as practicable shall be in 7 the middle of each work period” and the “authorized rest period time shall be based on the total
8 hours worked daily at the rate of ten (10) minutes net rest time per four (4) hours or major 9 fraction thereof” unless the total daily work time is less than three and one-half (3½) hours.

10 45. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and class members did not receive a ten 11 (10) minute rest period for every four (4) hours or major fraction thereof worked.

12 46. Labor Code § 226.7(b) and section 12 of the applicable IWC Wage Order 13 requires an employer to pay an employee one additional hour of pay at the employee’s regular 14 rate of compensation for each work day that the rest period is not provided.

15 47. At all relevant times, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and class members rest 16 period premiums for rest period violations pursuant to Labor Code § 226.7(b) and section 12 of 17 the applicable IWC Wage Order.

18 48. As a result of Defendants’ failure to pay Plaintiff and class members an 19 additional hour of pay for each day a rest period was not provided, Plaintiff and class members
20 suffered and continue to suffer a loss of wages and compensation.

21 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

22 FAILURE TO PROVIDE ACCURATE ITEMIZED WAGE STATEMENTS

23 (Violation of Labor Code § 226)

24 49. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporates by reference all paragraphs above as 25 though fully set forth herein.

26 50. Labor Code § 226(a) requires Defendants to provide each employee with an 27 accurate wage statement in writing showing nine pieces of information, including: (1) gross
28 wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee, (3) the number of piece-rate units

1 earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all 2 deductions, provided that all deductions made on written orders of the employee may be
3 aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the period
4 for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee and the last four digits of his or 5 her social security number or an employee identification number other than a social security
6 number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer, and (9) all applicable 7 hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at 8 each hourly rate by the employee.

9 51. During the relevant time period, Defendants have knowingly and intentionally
10 failed to comply with Labor Code § 226(a) on wage statements that were provided to Plaintiff
11 and class members. The deficiencies include, among other things, the failure to correctly state
12 accurate inclusive dates of the pay period for Plaintiff and class members.

13 52. As a result of Defendants' violation of California Labor Code § 226(a), Plaintiff
14 and class members have suffered injury and damage to their statutorily protected rights.
15 Specifically, Plaintiff and class members have been injured by Defendants' intentional
16 violation of California Labor Code § 226(a) because they were denied both their legal right to 17 receive, and their protected interest in receiving, accurate itemized wage statements under 18 California Labor Code § 226(a). Plaintiff has had to file this lawsuit in order to determine the 19 extent of the underpayment of wages, thereby causing Plaintiff to incur expenses and lost time.
20 Plaintiff would not have had to engage in these efforts and incur these costs had Defendants 21 provided the accurate wages earned. This has also delayed Plaintiff's ability to demand and 22 recover the underpayment of wages from Defendants.

23 53. California Labor Code § 226(a) requires an employer to pay the greater of all 24 actual damages or fifty dollars ($50.00) for the initial pay period in which a violation occurred,
25 and one hundred dollars ($100.00) per employee for each violation in subsequent pay periods, 26 plus attorney's fees and costs, to each employee who was injured by the employer's failure to 27 comply with California Labor Code § 226(a).

54. Defendants' violations of California Labor Code § 226(a) prevented Plaintiff and class members from knowing, understanding and disputing the wages paid to them, and resulted in an unjustified economic enrichment to Defendants. As a result of Defendants' knowing and intentional failure to comply with California Labor Code § 226(a), Plaintiff and class members have suffered an injury, and the exact amount of damages and/or penalties is all in an amount to be shown according to proof at trial.

55. Plaintiff and class members are also entitled to injunctive relief under California Labor Code § 226(h), compelling Defendants to comply with California Labor Code § 226, and seek the recovery of attorneys' fees and costs incurred in obtaining this injunctive relief.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

FAILURE TO PAY ALL WAGES DUE UPON SEPARATION OF EMPLOYMENT AND WITHIN THE REQUIRED TIME

(Violation of Labor Code §§ 201, 202 and 203)

56. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporates by reference all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

57. California Labor Code §§ 201 and 202 provide that if an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately, and that if an employee voluntarily leaves his employment, his wages shall become due and payable not later than seventy-two (72) hours thereafter, unless the employee has given seventy-two (72) hours previous notice of his intention to quit, in which case the employee is entitled to his wages at the time of quitting.

58. During the relevant time period, Defendants willfully failed to pay Plaintiff and Waiting Time Subclass members all their earned wages upon termination including, but not limited to, proper minimum wages and overtime compensation, either at the time of discharge or within seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendants' employ.

59. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and Waiting Time Subclass members all their earned wages at the time of discharge or within seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendants' employ is in violation of Labor Code §§ 201 and 202.

1 60. California Labor Code § 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay
2 wages owed immediately upon discharge or resignation in accordance with Labor Code §§ 201
3 and 202, then the wages of the employee shall continue as a penalty from the due date at the 4 same rate until paid or until an action is commenced; but the wages shall not continue for more 5 than thirty (30) days.

6 61. Plaintiff and Waiting Time Subclass members are entitled to recover from 7 Defendants the statutory penalty which is defined as Plaintiff's and Waiting Time Subclass
8 members' regular daily wages for each day they were not paid, at their regular hourly rate of 9 pay, up to a thirty (30) day maximum pursuant to Labor Code § 203.

10 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

11 VIOLATION OF BUSINESS AND PROFESSIONS CODE §§ 17200, ET SEQ.

12 62. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporates by reference all paragraphs above as 13 though fully set forth herein.

14 63. Defendants' conduct, as alleged herein, has been and continues to be unfair,
15 unlawful and harmful to Plaintiff and class members. Plaintiff seek to enforce important rights
16 affecting the public interest within the meaning of Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5.

17 64. Defendants' activities, as alleged herein, violate California law and constitute 18 unlawful business acts or practices in violation of California Business and Professions Code 19 §§ 17200, et seq.

20 65. A violation of Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq. may be 21 predicated on the violation of any state or federal law.

22 66. Defendants' policies and practices have violated state law in at least the 23 following respects:

- 24 (a) Failing to provide timely meal periods without paying Plaintiff and class 25 members premium wages for every day said meal periods were not 26 provided in violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512;

- 1 (b) Failing to authorize or permit rest breaks without paying Plaintiff and 2 class members premium wages for every day said rest breaks were not 3 authorized or permitted in violation of Labor Code § 226.7;
- 4 (c) Failing to provide Plaintiff and class members with accurate itemized 5 wage statements in violation of Labor Code § 226; and
- 6 (e) Failing to timely pay all earned wages to Plaintiff and Waiting Time
7 Subclass members upon separation of employment in violation of Labor
8 Code §§ 201, 202 and 203.

9 67. Defendants intentionally avoided paying Plaintiff and class members' wages and 10 monies, thereby creating for Defendants an artificially lower cost of doing business in order to 11 undercut their competitors and establish and gain a greater foothold in the marketplace.

12 68. Pursuant to Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq. Plaintiff and class 13 members are entitled to restitution of the wages unlawfully withheld and retained by 14 Defendants during a period that commences four years prior to the filing of the Complaint; an 15 award of attorneys' fees pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5 and other applicable
16 laws; and an award of costs.

17 SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

18 ENFORCEMENT OF LABOR CODE §§ 2698 ET SEQ. ("PAGA")

19 69. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporate by reference the previous paragraphs as 20 though fully set forth herein.

21 70. Pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(a), any provision of the Labor Code that provides 22 for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the Labor and Workforce Development Agency
23 ("LWDA") or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards, agencies, or employees for 24 violation of the Labor Code may, as an alternative, be recovered through a civil action brought by 25 an aggrieved employee on behalf of himself or herself and other current or former employees
26 pursuant to the procedures specified in Labor Code § 2699.3.

27 71. For all provisions of the Labor Code except those for which a civil penalty is 28 specifically provided, Labor Code § 2699(f) imposes upon Defendants a penalty of one hundred

1 dollars ($100.00) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation and two
2 hundred dollars ($200.00) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent pay
3 period in which Defendants violated these provisions of the Labor Code.

4 72. Defendants' conduct violates numerous Wage Order and Labor Code sections, 5 including, but not limited to, the following:

- 6 a. violation of Labor Code §§ 201-204, and 210 for failure to timely pay all 7 earned wages owed to Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees during 8 employment and upon separation of employment as herein alleged;
- 9 b. violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512 for failure to provide meal
10 periods to Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees and failure to pay 11 premium wages for missed meal periods as herein alleged;
- 12 c. violation of Labor Code § 226.7 for failure to permit rest breaks to 13 Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees and failure to pay premium wages 14 for missed rest periods as herein alleged;
- 15 d. violation of Labor Code § 226 for failure to provide accurate itemized
16 wage statements to Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees as herein 17 alleged;
- 18 e. violation of Labor Code §§ 1174 and 1174.5 for failure to maintain 19 accurate and complete records showing, among other things, the hours 20 worked daily by and the wages paid to aggrieved employees; and
- 21 f. violation of Labor Code § 2810.5 for failure to include compliant notice of 22 the employer entity to Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees as herein 23 alleged.

24 73. Plaintiff is an "aggrieved employee" because she was employed by the alleged 25 violator and had one or more of the violations committed against her, and therefore is properly
26 suited to represent the interests of all other aggrieved employees.

74. Plaintiff has exhausted the procedural requirements under Labor Code § 2699.3 as to Defendants and is therefore able to pursue a claim for penalties on behalf of herself and all other aggrieved employees under PAGA.
