DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

COMES NOW, Plaintiff JOSEPH JIMENEZ (“Plaintiff”), individually, and on behalf of other members of the general public similarly situated, and alleges as follows:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This class action is brought pursuant to the California Code of Civil Procedure section 382. The monetary damages and restitution sought by Plaintiff exceeds the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court and will be established according to proof at trial.

2. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to the California Constitution, Article VI, Section 10, which grants the superior court “original jurisdiction in all other causes” except those given by statute to other courts. The statutes under which this action is brought do not specify any other basis for jurisdiction.

3. This Court has jurisdiction over Defendants because, upon information and belief, Defendants are citizens of California, have sufficient minimum contacts in California, or otherwise intentionally avail themselves of the California market so as to render the exercise of jurisdiction over them by the California courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice.

4. Venue is proper in this Court because, upon information and belief, Defendants maintain offices, have agents, and/or transact business in the State of California, including the County of Los Angeles. The majority of the acts and omissions alleged herein relating to Plaintiff took place in the State of California. Defendants employed Plaintiff within the State of California, County of Los Angeles.

PARTIES

5. Plaintiff JOSEPH JIMENEZ is an individual residing in the State of California, County of Orange.

6. Defendant MAKITA U.S.A., INC., at all times herein mentioned, was and is, upon information and belief, a California corporation, and at all times herein mentioned, was and is, an employer whose employees are engaged throughout the State of California, including the County of Los Angeles

1 7. At all times herein relevant, Defendants MAKITA U.S.A., INC. and DOES 1
2 through 100, and each of them, were the agents, partners, joint venturers, joint employers,
3 representatives, servants, employees, successors-in-interest, co-conspirators and assigns, each
4 of the other, and at all times relevant hereto were acting within the course and scope of their
5 authority as such agents, partners, joint venturers, joint employers, representatives, servants,
6 employees, successors, co-conspirators and assigns, and all acts or omissions alleged herein
7 were duly committed with the ratification, knowledge, permission, encouragement,
8 authorization, and consent of each defendant designated herein.

9 8. The true names and capacities, whether corporate, associate, individual or 10 otherwise, of Defendants DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, are unknown to Plaintiff, who sues
11 said defendants by such fictitious names. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based on that 12 information and belief alleges, that each of the Defendants designated as a DOE is legally
13 responsible for the events and happenings referred to in this Complaint, and unlawfully caused 14 the injuries and damages to Plaintiff and the other class members as alleged in this Complaint.
15 Plaintiff will seek leave of court to amend this Complaint to show the true names and 16 capacities when the same have been ascertained.

17 9. Defendants MAKITA U.S.A., INC. and DOES 1 through 100 will hereinafter
18 collectively be referred to as "Defendants."

19 10. Plaintiff further alleges that Defendants directly or indirectly controlled or 20 affected the working conditions, wages, working hours, and conditions of employment of 21 Plaintiff and the other class members so as to make each of said Defendants employers and 22 employers liable under the statutory provisions set forth herein.

23 CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

24 11. Plaintiff brings this action on his own behalf and on behalf of all other members
25 of the general public similarly situated, and, thus, seeks class certification under Code of Civil 26 Procedure section 382.

27 ///

28 ///

12. The proposed class is defined as follows:

All current and former hourly-paid or non-exempt employees hired directly by Makita within the State of California at any time during the period from four June 4, 2016 to May 31, 2021.

13. Plaintiff reserves the right to establish subclasses as appropriate.

14. The class is ascertainable and there is a well-defined community of interest in the litigation:

a. Numerosity: The class members are so numerous that joinder of all class members is impracticable. The membership of the entire class is unknown to Plaintiff at this time; however, the class is estimated to be greater than fifty (50) individuals and the identity of such membership is readily ascertainable by inspection of Defendants' employment records.

b. Typicality: Plaintiff's claims are typical of all other class members' claims as demonstrated herein. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the other class members with whom he has a well-defined community of interest.

c. Adequacy: Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of each class member, with whom he has a well-defined community of interest and typicality of claims, as demonstrated herein. Plaintiff has no interest that is antagonistic to the other class members. Plaintiff's attorneys, the proposed class counsel, are versed in the rules governing class action discovery, certification, and settlement. Plaintiff has incurred, and during the pendency of this action will continue to incur, costs and attorneys' fees, that have been, are, and will be necessarily expended for the prosecution of this action for the substantial benefit of each class member.

1 d. Superiority: A class action is superior to other available methods for the
2 fair and efficient adjudication of this litigation because individual joinder
3 of all class members is impractical.

4 e. Public Policy Considerations: Certification of this lawsuit as a class
5 action will advance public policy objectives. Employers of this great
6 state violate employment and labor laws every day. Current employees
7 are often afraid to assert their rights out of fear of direct or indirect
8 retaliation. However, class actions provide the class members who are 9 not named in the complaint anonymity that allows for the vindication of 10 their rights.

11 15. There are common questions of law and fact as to the class members that 12 predominate over questions affecting only individual members. The following common 13 questions of law or fact, among others, exist as to the members of the class:

14 a. Whether Defendants' failure to pay wages, without abatement or 15 reduction, in accordance with the California Labor Code, was willful;

16 b. Whether Defendants failed to pay their hourly-paid or non-exempt
17 employees within the State of California for all hours worked, missed
18 meal periods and rest breaks in violation of California law;

19 c. Whether Defendants required Plaintiff and other class members to work 20 over eight (8) hours per day and/or over forty (40) hours per week and 21 failed to pay the legally required overtime compensation to Plaintiff and 22 the other class members as required by inter alia Labor Code sections
23 510, 1198, and the applicable IWC Wage Order;

24 d. Whether Defendants properly calculated the regular rate for Plaintiff and 25 the other class members to worked overtime and earned bonuses and/or 26 incentive pay;

27 ///

28 ///

- 1 e. Whether Defendants deprived Plaintiff and other class members of meal
2 and/or rest periods or required Plaintiff and the other class members to
3 work during meal and/or rest periods without compensation under, inter
4 alia, Labor Code sections 226.7, 512, 558, and the provisions of the 5 applicable Wage Order issued by the Industrial Welfare Commission;
- 6 f. Whether Defendants failed to pay minimum wages to Plaintiff and other
7 class members for all hours worked under, inter alia, Labor Code section
8 1194, et seq.;
- 9 g. Whether Defendant maintained an illegal rounding policy;
- 10 h. Whether Defendants failed to pay all wages due to Plaintiff and other 11 class members within the required time upon their discharge or 12 resignation under Labor Code sections 201, 202, and 203 ;
- 13 i. Whether Defendants failed to timely pay all wages due to Plaintiff and 14 other class members during their employment under Labor Code sections 15 204, 204a, 204b, 204c, 204.2, 204.3, and 210;
- 16 j. Whether Defendants complied with wage reporting as required by the 17 California Labor Code, including, inter alia, section 226;
- 18 k. Whether Defendants failed to reimburse class members for necessary
19 business-related expenses and costs under Labor code section 2802 ;
- 20 l. Whether Defendants' conduct was willful or reckless;
- 21 m. Whether Defendants engaged in unfair business practices in violation of 22 California Business & Professions Code section 17200, et seq.;
- 23 n. The appropriate amount of damages, restitution, and/or monetary 24 penalties resulting from Defendants' violation of California law; and
- 25 o. Whether Plaintiff and other class members are entitled to compensatory
26 damages pursuant to the California Labor Code.

GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

16. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants employed Plaintiff and other persons as hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the State of California.

17. Defendants, jointly and severally, employed Plaintiff as an hourly-paid, non-exempt employee from in or about February of 2019 to September of 2019 in the State of California, County of Los Angeles.

18. Defendants, jointly and severally, hired Plaintiff and other class members and classified them as hourly-paid, non-exempt employees, and failed to compensate them for all hours worked, missed meal periods, and/or missed rest breaks.

19. Defendants had the authority to hire and terminate Plaintiff and other class members; to set work rules and conditions governing Plaintiff and the other class members' employment; and to supervise their daily employment activities.

20. Defendants exercised sufficient authority over the terms and conditions of Plaintiff and other class members' employment for them to be joint employers of Plaintiff and other class members.

21. Defendants directly hired and paid wages and benefits to Plaintiff and other class members.

22. Defendants continue to employ hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the State of California.

23. Plaintiff and other class members worked over eight (8) hours in a day, and/or forty (40) hours in a week during their employment with Defendants.

24. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants engaged in a pattern and practice of wage abuse against their hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the State of California. This scheme involved, inter alia, failing to pay them for all hours worked, missed meal periods, and missed rest breaks in violation of California law.

1 25. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
2 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and other class members were entitled to receive
3 certain wages for overtime compensation and that they were not receiving wages for overtime
4 compensation.

5 26. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
6 failed to provide Plaintiff and other class members the required rest and meal periods during
7 the relevant time period as required under the Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders
8 and thus they are entitled to any and all applicable penalties.

9 27. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
10 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and other class members were entitled to receive all
11 timely and complete meal periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's and 12 other class members' regular rate of pay when a meal period was missed, late or interrupted,
13 and they did not receive all timely and proper meal periods or payment of one additional hour
14 of pay at Plaintiff's and other class members' regular rate of pay when a meal period was 15 missed.

16 28. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
17 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and other class members were entitled to receive all
18 timely rest periods without interruption or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff 19 and the other class members' regular rate of pay when a rest period was missed, late or 20 interrupted, and they did not receive all rest periods or payment of one additional hour of pay
21 at Plaintiff's and the other class members' regular rate of pay when a rest period was missed.

22 29. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
23 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and other class members were entitled to receive at 24 least minimum wages for compensation and that they were not receiving at least minimum
25 wages for all hours worked.

26 ///

27 ///

28 ///

1 30. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
2 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and other class members were entitled to receive the
3 wages owed to them upon discharge or resignation, including overtime and minimum wages
4 and meal and rest period premiums, and they did not, in fact, receive such wages owed to them
5 at the time of their discharge or resignation.

6 31. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
7 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and other class members were entitled to receive
8 complete and accurate wage statements in accordance with California law, but, in fact, they 9 did not receive complete and accurate wage statements from Defendants. The deficiencies
10 included, inter alia, the failure to include the total number of hours worked by Plaintiff and 11 other class members.

12 32. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
13 knew or should have known that Defendants had to keep complete and accurate payroll records
14 for Plaintiff and other class members in accordance with California law, but, in fact, did not 15 keep complete and accurate payroll records.

16 33. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
17 knew or should have known that they had a duty to compensate Plaintiff and other class
18 members pursuant to California law, and that Defendants had the financial ability to pay such 19 compensation, but willfully, knowingly, and intentionally failed to do so, and falsely
20 represented to Plaintiff and other class members that they were properly denied wages, all in 21 order to increase Defendants' profits.

22 34. As a pattern and practice, during the relevant time period set forth herein,
23 Defendants failed to pay overtime wages to Plaintiff and other class members for all hours
24 worked. Plaintiff and other class members were required to work more than eight (8) hours
25 per day and/or forty (40) hours per week without overtime compensation.

26 35. As a pattern and practice, during the relevant time period set forth herein,
27 Defendants failed to provide the requisite uninterrupted and timely meal and rest periods to 28 Plaintiff and other class members.

36. As a pattern and practice, during the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and other class members at least minimum wages for all hours worked.

37. As a pattern and practice, during the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and other class members the wages owed to them upon discharge or resignation.

38. As a pattern and practice, during the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants failed to provide complete or accurate wage statements to Plaintiff and other class members.

39. As a pattern and practice, during the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants failed to keep complete or accurate payroll records for Plaintiff and other class members.

40. As a pattern and practice, during the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants failed to properly compensate Plaintiff and other class members pursuant to California law in order to increase Defendants' profits.

41. California Labor Code section 218 states that nothing in Article 1 of the Labor Code shall limit the right of any wage claimant to “sue directly . . . for any wages or penalty due to him [or her] under this article.”

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code §§ 510 and 1198)

(Against MAKITA U.S.A., INC. and DOES 1 through 100)

42. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in Paragraphs 1 through 41, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

1 43. California Labor Code section 1198 and the applicable Industrial Welfare
2 Commission (“IWC”) Wage Order provide that it is unlawful to employ persons without
3 compensating them at a rate of pay either time-and-one-half or two-times that person’s regular 4 rate of pay, depending on the number of hours worked by the person on a daily or weekly
5 basis.

6 44. Specifically, the applicable IWC Wage Order provides that Defendants are and 7 were required to pay Plaintiff and other class members employed by Defendants, who 8 work(ed) more than eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek, at 9 the rate of time-and-one-half for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or more 10 than forty (40) hours in a workweek.

11 45. The applicable IWC Wage Order further provides that Defendants are and were 12 required to pay Plaintiff and other class members overtime compensation at a rate of two times
13 their regular rate of pay for all hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in a day.

14 46. California Labor Code section 510 codifies the right to overtime compensation
15 at one-and-one-half times the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours
16 in a day or forty (40) hours in a week or for the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh 17 day of work, and overtime compensation at twice the regular hourly rate for hours worked in 18 excess of twelve (12) hours in a day or in excess of eight (8) hours in a day on the seventh day
19 of work.

20 47. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Plaintiff and other class
21 members worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day, and/or in excess of forty (40) hours in 22 a week.

23 48. As a pattern and practice, during the relevant time period set forth herein,
24 Defendants intentionally and willfully failed to pay overtime wages owed to Plaintiff and other
25 class members.

26 ///

27 ///

28 ///

49. Defendants' pattern and practice of failing to pay Plaintiff and other class members the unpaid balance of overtime compensation, as required by California laws, violates the provisions of California Labor Code sections 510 and 1198, and is therefore unlawful.

50. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194, Plaintiff and other class members are entitled to recover unpaid overtime compensation, as well as interest, costs, and attorneys' fees.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512(a))

(Against MAKITA U.S.A., INC. and DOES 1 through 100)

51. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 50, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

52. During the relevant time period set forth herein, the IWC Order and California Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512(a) were applicable to Plaintiff's and other class members' employment by Defendants.

53. During the relevant time period set forth herein, California Labor Code section 226.7 provides that no employer shall require an employee to work during any meal or rest period mandated by an applicable order of the California IWC.

54. During the relevant time period set forth herein, the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code section 512(a) provide that an employer may not require, cause or permit an employee to work for a work period of more than five (5) hours per day without providing the employee with a meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes, except that if the total work period per day of the employee is no more than six (6) hours, the meal period may be waived by mutual consent of both the employer and employee.

1 55. During the relevant time period set forth herein, the applicable IWC Wage Order
2 and California Labor Code section 512(a) further provide that an employer may not require,
3 cause, or permit an employee to work for a work period of more than ten (10) hours per day
4 without providing the employee with a second uninterrupted meal period of not less than thirty 5 (30) minutes, except that if the total hours worked is no more than twelve (12) hours, the 6 second meal period may be waived by mutual consent of the employer and the employee only 7 if the first meal period was not waived.

8 56. As a pattern and practice, during the relevant time period set forth herein,
9 Plaintiff and other class members who were scheduled to work for a period of time no longer
10 than six (6) hours, and who did not waive their legally-mandated meal periods by mutual
11 consent, were required to work for periods longer than five (5) hours without an uninterrupted 12 meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes and/or without a rest period.

13 57. As a pattern and practice, during the relevant time period set forth herein,
14 Plaintiff and other class members who were scheduled to work for a period of time in excess
15 of six (6) hours were required to work for periods longer than five (5) hours without an 16 uninterrupted meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes and/or without a rest period.

17 58. As a pattern and practice, during the relevant time period set forth herein,
18 Defendants intentionally and willfully required Plaintiff and other class members to work
19 during meal periods and failed to compensate Plaintiff and the other class members the full 20 meal period premium for work performed during meal periods.

21 59. As a pattern and practice, during the relevant time period set forth herein,
22 Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and other class members the full meal period premium due
23 pursuant to California Labor Code section 226.7.

24 60. Defendants' conduct violates applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor
25 Code sections 226.7 and 512(a).

26 ///

27 ///

28 ///

61. Pursuant to the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code section 226.7(b), Plaintiff and other class members are entitled to recover from Defendants one additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of compensation for each workday that the meal or rest period is not provided.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code § 226.7)

(Against MAKITA U.S.A., INC. and DOES 1 through 100)

62. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 61, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

63. During the relevant time period set forth herein, the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code section 226.7 were applicable to Plaintiff's and the other class members' employment by Defendants.

64. During the relevant time period set forth herein, California Labor Code section 226.7 provides that no employer shall require an employee to work during any rest period mandated by an applicable order of the California IWC.

65. During the relevant time period set forth herein, the applicable IWC Wage Order provides that "[e]very employer shall authorize and permit all employees to take rest periods, which insofar as practicable shall be in the middle of each work period" and that the "rest period time shall be based on the total hours worked daily at the rate of ten (10) minutes net rest time per four (4) hours or major fraction thereof" unless the total daily work time is less than three and one-half (3 ½) hours.

66. As a pattern and practice, during the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants required Plaintiff and other class members to work four (4) or more hours without authorizing or permitting a ten (10) minute rest period per each four (4) hour period worked.

67. As a pattern and practice, during the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants willfully required Plaintiff and the other class members to work during rest periods and failed to pay Plaintiff and the other class members the full rest period premium for work performed during rest periods.

68. As a pattern and practice, during the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other class members the full rest period premium due pursuant to California Labor Code section 226.7

69. Defendants' conduct violates applicable IWC Wage Orders and California Labor Code section 226.7.

70. Pursuant to the applicable IWC Wage Orders and California Labor Code section 226.7(b), Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to recover from Defendants one additional hour of pay at the employees' regular hourly rate of compensation for each workday that the rest period was not provided.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1197)

(Against MAKITA U.S.A., INC. and DOES 1 through 100)

71. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 70 and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

72. During the relevant time period set forth herein, California Labor Code sections 1194 and 1197 provide that the minimum wage to be paid to employees, and the payment of a lesser wage than the minimum so fixed, is unlawful.

73. As a pattern and practice, during the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants failed to pay minimum wages to Plaintiff and other class members as required, pursuant to California Labor Code sections 1194 and 1197.

74. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and other class members the minimum wage as required violates California Labor Code sections 1194 and 1197. Pursuant to those sections, Plaintiff and other class members are entitled to recover the unpaid balance of their minimum wage compensation as well as interest, costs, and attorney's fees, and liquidated damages in an amount equal to the wages unlawfully unpaid and interest thereon.

75. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194.2, Plaintiff and other class members are entitled to recover liquidated damages in an amount equal to the wages unlawfully unpaid and interest thereon.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code §§ 201, 202, and 203)

(Against MAKITA U.S.A., INC. and DOES 1 through 100)

76. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 75, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

77. During the relevant time period set forth herein, California Labor Code sections 201 and 202 provide that if an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately, and if an employee quits his or her employment, his or her wages shall become due and payable not later than seventy-two (72) hours thereafter, unless the employee has given seventy-two (72) hours' notice of his or her intention to quit, in which case the employee is entitled to his or her wages at the time of quitting.

78. As a pattern and practice, during the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants intentionally and willfully failed to pay Plaintiff and other class members who are no longer employed by Defendants their wages, earned and unpaid, within seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendants' employ.

79. Defendants' pattern and practice of failing to pay Plaintiff and other class members who are no longer employed by Defendants their wages, earned and unpaid, within seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendants' employ, is in violation of California Labor Code sections 201, 202, and 227.3.

80. California Labor Code section 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay wages owed, in accordance with sections 201 and 202, then the wages of the employee shall continue as a penalty from the due date thereof at the same rate until paid or until an action is commenced; but the wages shall not continue for more than thirty (30) days.

81. Plaintiff and other class members are entitled to recover from Defendants the statutory penalty wages for each day they were not paid, up to a thirty (30) day maximum pursuant to California Labor Code section 203.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code § 226(a))

(Against MAKITA U.S.A., INC. and DOES 1 through 100)

82. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 81, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

1 83. During the relevant time period set forth herein, California Labor Code section
2 226(a) provides that every employer shall furnish each of his or her employees an accurate
3 itemized statement in writing showing (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the 4 employee, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the 5 employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided that all deductions made
6 on written orders of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages
7 earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of 8 the employee and his or her social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal 9 entity that is the employer, and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period
10 and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee. The 11 deductions made from payments of wages shall be recorded in ink or other indelible form, 12 properly dated, showing the month, day, and year, and a copy of the statement or a record of 13 the deductions shall be kept on file by the employer for at least three years at the place of 14 employment or at a central location within the State of California.

15 84. As a pattern and practice, Defendants have intentionally and willfully failed to 16 provide Plaintiff and other class members with complete and accurate wage statements. The 17 deficiencies include but are not limited to: the failure to include the total number of hours
18 worked by Plaintiff and other class members.

19 85. As a result of Defendants' violation of California Labor Code section 226(a),
20 Plaintiff and other class members have suffered injury and damage to their statutorily
21 protected rights.

22 86. More specifically, Plaintiff and other class members have been injured by 23 Defendants' intentional and willful violation of California Labor Code section 226(a) because 24 they were denied both their legal right to receive, and their protected interest in receiving,
25 accurate and itemized wage statements pursuant to California Labor Code section 226(a).

26 ///

27 ///

28 ///

1 87. Plaintiff and other class members are entitled to recover from Defendants the
2 greater of their actual damages caused by Defendants' failure to comply with California Labor
3 Code section 226(a), or an aggregate penalty not exceeding four thousand dollars per 4 employee.

5 88. Plaintiff and other class members are also entitled to injunctive relief to ensure
6 compliance with this section, pursuant to California Labor Code section 226(g).

7 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

8 (Violation of California Business & Professions Code § 17200, et seq.)

9 (Against MAKITA U.S.A., INC. and DOES 1 through 100)

10 89. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1
11 through 88, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set 12 forth herein.

13 90. Defendants' conduct, as alleged herein, has been, and continues to be unfair,
14 unlawful and harmful to Plaintiff, other class members, to the general public, and Defendants'
15 competitors. Accordingly, Plaintiff seeks to enforce important rights affecting the public
16 interest within the meaning of Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5.

17 91. Defendants' activities as alleged herein are violations of California law, and 18 constitute unlawful business acts and practices in violation of California Business &
19 Professions Code section 17200, et seq.

20 ///

22 ///

92. A violation of California Business & Professions Code section 17200, et seq. may be predicated on the violation of any state or federal law. In this instant case, Defendants' pattern and practice of requiring Plaintiff and other class members work overtime hours without paying them proper compensation violate California Labor Code sections 510 and 1198. Additionally, Defendants' pattern and practice of requiring Plaintiff and other class members, to work through their meal and rest periods without paying them proper compensation violate California Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512(a). Moreover, Defendants' pattern and practice of failing to timely pay wages to Plaintiff and other class members violate California Labor Code sections 201 and 202. Defendants also violated California Labor Code sections 226(a), 1194, 1197, 2800 and 2802.

93. As a result of the herein described violations of California law, Defendants unlawfully gained an unfair advantage over other businesses.

94. Plaintiff and other class members have been personally injured by Defendants' unlawful business acts and practices as alleged herein, including but not necessarily limited to the loss of money and/or property.

95. Pursuant to California Business & Professions Code sections 17200, et seq., Plaintiff and other class members are entitled to restitution of the wages withheld and retained by Defendants during a period that commences four years prior to the filing of this Complaint; an award of attorneys' fees pursuant to California Code of Civil procedure section 1021.5 and other applicable laws; and an award of costs.

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code §§ 2698, et seq.)

(Against MAKITA U.S.A., INC., and DOES 1 through 100)

96. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 95, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

1 97. PAGA expressly establishes that any provision of the California Labor Code
2 which provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the LWDA, or any of its 3 departments, divisions, commissions, boards, agencies or employees for a violation of the 4 California Labor Code, may be recovered through a civil action brought by an aggrieved
5 employee on behalf of himself or herself, and other current or former employees.

6 98. On May 28, 2020, Plaintiff provided written notice to the LWDA and 7 Defendants of the specific provisions of the Labor Code he contends were violated, and the 8 theories supporting his contentions. Attached hereto as Exhibit 1 and incorporated by 9 reference is a copy of the May 28, 2020 written notice to the LWDA. Plaintiff believes that on 10 or about August 1, 2020, the sixty-five (65) day notice period expired as to all Defendants and 11 the LWDA did not take any action to investigate or prosecute this matter. Therefore, Plaintiff
12 exhausted the statutory time period to bring this action.

13 96. Plaintiff and the other hourly-paid or non-exempt employees are “aggrieved 14 employees” as defined by California Labor Code § 2699(c) in that they are all current and 15 former hourly-paid or non-exempt employees of Defendants within the State of California
16 who worked for Defendants at any time during the period from May 28, 2019 to the present,
17 and one or more of the alleged violations was committed against them.

18 Failure to Pay Minimum and Overtime Wages

19 97. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to compensate their non-
20 exempt employees minimum wages for all hours worked and overtime wages for all hours
21 worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or forty (40) hours in a workweek, pursuant to the 22 mandate of Labor Code §§ 510, 1194, 1197, and 1198.

23 98. As a policy and practice, Defendants failed to compensate Plaintiff and the other 24 aggrieved current and former employees for all hours worked, resulting in a failure to pay all 25 minimum wages and overtime wages, where applicable.

26 ///

27 ///

28 ///

1 Failure to Provide Meal Periods and Rest Breaks

2 99. In accordance with the mandates of Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512, Defendants
3 were required to authorize and permit their non-exempt employees to take a 10-minute rest
4 break for every four (4) hours worked or major fraction thereof, and were further required to 5 provide their non-exempt employees with a 30-minute meal period for every five (5) hours
6 worked.

7 100. As a policy and practice, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and the other
8 aggrieved current and former employees with legally-mandated meal periods and rest breaks
9 and failed to pay proper compensation for this failure.

10 Failure to Timely Pay Wages During Employment

11 101. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to pay their employees
12 within a specified time period pursuant to the mandate of Labor Code § 204.

13 102. As a policy and practice, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other
14 aggrieved current and former employees all wages due and owing them within the required
15 time period.

16 Failure to Timely Pay Wages Upon Termination

17 103. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to pay their employees all
18 wages owed in a timely fashion at the end of employment pursuant to California Labor Code
19 §§ 201 to 204.

20 104. As a result of Defendants' Labor Code violations alleged above, Defendants
21 failed to pay Plaintiff and the other aggrieved former employees their final wages pursuant to 22 Labor Code §§ 201 to 204 and accordingly owe waiting time penalties pursuant to Labor Code
23 § 203.

24 Failure to Provide Complete and Accurate Wage Statements

25 105. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to keep accurate records
26 regarding their California employees pursuant to the mandate of Labor Code §§ 226, 1174 and 27 1776.

28 ///

106. As a result of Defendants' various Labor Code violations, Defendants failed to keep accurate records regarding Plaintiff and the other aggrieved current and former employees. For example, Defendants failed in their affirmative obligation to keep accurate records regarding Plaintiff and the other aggrieved current and former employees' gross wages earned, total hours worked, all deductions, net wages earned, and all applicable hourly rates and the number of hours worked at each hourly rate.

Failure to Reimburse Business Expenses

107. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to reimburse its employees for any and all necessary expenditures or losses incurred by the employees in direct consequences of the discharge or his or her duties pursuant to the mandate of Labor Code §§ 2800 and 2802.

108. As a policy and practice, Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiff and the other aggrieved current and former employees for all business expenses incurred and owing them within the required time period.

Penalties

109. Pursuant to California Labor Code § 2699, Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of the other current and former aggrieved employees, requests and is entitled to recover from Defendants, and each of them, civil penalties, interest, attorneys' fees and costs, including but not limited to:

a. Penalties under California Labor Code § 2699 in the amount of a hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation, and two hundred dollars ($200) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent violation;

b. Penalties under California Code of Regulations Title 8 § 11040 in the amount of fifty dollars ($50) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation, and one hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent violation;

1 c. Penalties under California Labor Code § 210 in addition to, and entirely
2 independent and apart from, any other penalty provided in the California Labor Code in the 3 amount of a hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial 4 violation, and two hundred dollars ($200) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each
5 subsequent violation;

6 d. Penalties under Labor Code § 1197.1 in the amount of a hundred dollars ($100)
7 for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation, and two hundred fifty 8 dollars ($250) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent violation;

9 e. Any and all additional penalties as provided by the Labor Code and/or other 10 statutes; and

11 Attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code §§ 210, 1194, and 2699, and any 12 other applicable statute.

13 DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

14 Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of other members of the general public similarly 15 situated, requests a trial by jury.

16 PRAYER FOR RELIEF

17 WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, individually and on behalf of all other members of the 18 general public similarly situated, prays for relief and judgment against Defendants, jointly and 19 severally, as follows:

20 Class Certification

- 21 1. That this action be certified as a class action;
22 2. That Plaintiff be appointed as representative of the Class;
23 3. That counsel for Plaintiff be appointed as Class Counsel; and 24 4. That Defendants provide to Class Counsel immediately the names and most 25 current contact information (address, e-mail and telephone numbers) of all class members.

26 ///

27 ///

28 ///

1 As to the First Cause of Action

2 5. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California
3 Labor Code sections 510 and 1198 and applicable IWC Wage Orders by willfully failing to
4 pay all overtime wages due to Plaintiff and the other class members;

5 6. For general unpaid wages at overtime wage rates and such general and special
6 damages as may be appropriate;

7 7. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid overtime compensation commencing
8 from the date such amounts were due;

9 8. For reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit incurred herein pursuant to 10 California Labor Code section 1194; and

11 9. For such other and further relief as the court may deem just and proper.

12 As to the Second Cause of Action

13 10. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California
14 Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512 and applicable IWC Wage Orders by willfully failing to 15 provide all meal periods (including second meal periods) to Plaintiff and the other class
16 members;

17 11. That the Court make an award to Plaintiff and the other class members of one
18 (1) hour of pay at each employee's regular rate of compensation for each workday that a meal
19 period was not provided;

20 12. For all actual, consequential, and incidental losses and damages, according to 21 proof;

22 13. For premium wages pursuant to California Labor Code section 226.7(b);

23 14. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid wages from the date such amounts were 24 due;

25 15. For reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit incurred herein; and 26 16. For such other and further relief as the court may deem just and proper.

27 ///

28 ///

As to the Third Cause of Action

17. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California Labor Code section 226.7 and applicable IWC Wage Orders by willfully failing to provide all rest periods to Plaintiff and the other class members;

18. That the Court make an award to Plaintiff and the other class members of one (1) hour of pay at each employee's regular rate of compensation for each workday that a rest period was not provided;

19. For all actual, consequential, and incidental losses and damages, according to proof;

20. For premium wages pursuant to California Labor Code section 226.7(b);

21. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid wages from the date such amounts were due; and

22. For such other and further relief as the court may deem just and proper.

As to the Fourth Cause of Action

23. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California Labor Code sections 1194 and 1197 by willfully failing to pay minimum wages to Plaintiff and the other class members;

24. For general unpaid wages and such general and special damages as may be appropriate;

25. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid compensation from the date such amounts were due;

26. For reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit incurred herein pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194(a);

27. For liquidated damages pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194.2; and

28. For such other and further relief as the court may deem just and proper.

As to the Fifth Cause of Action

29. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, and 227.3 by willfully failing to pay all compensation owed at the time of termination of the employment of the other class members no longer employed by Defendants;

30. For all actual, consequential, and incidental losses and damages, according to proof;

31. For statutory wage penalties pursuant to California Labor Code section 203 for the other class members who have left Defendants' employ;

32. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid compensation from the date such amounts were due; and

33. For such other and further relief as the court may deem just and proper.

As to the Sixth Cause of Action

34. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated the record keeping provisions of California Labor Code section 226(a) and applicable IWC Wage Orders as to Plaintiff and other class members, and willfully failed to provide accurate itemized wage statements thereto;

35. For actual, consequential and incidental losses and damages, according to proof;

36. For injunctive relief to ensure compliance with this section, pursuant to California Labor Code section 226(g); and

37. For such other and further relief as the court may deem just and proper.

As to the Seventh Cause of Action

38. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California Business and Professions Code section 17200, et seq. by failing to provide Plaintiff and other class members all overtime compensation due to them, failing to provide all meal and rest periods to Plaintiff and the other class members, failing to pay at least minimum wages to Plaintiff and the other class members, failing to pay Plaintiff's and other class members' wages timely as required by California Labor Code section 201, 202.

1 39. For restitution of unpaid wages to Plaintiff and other class members and all pre-
2 judgment interest from the day such amounts were due and payable;

3 40. For the appointment of a receiver to receive, manage and distribute any and all
4 funds disgorged from Defendants and determined to have been wrongfully acquired by 5 Defendants as a result of violation of California Business and Professions Code section 17200,
6 et seq.;

7 41. For reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit incurred herein pursuant to
8 California Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5;

9 42. For injunctive relief to ensure compliance with this section, pursuant to 10 California Business and Professions Code section 17200, et seq.; and

11 43. For such other and further relief as the court may deem just and proper.

12 As to the Eighth Cause of Action

13 44. Upon the Cause of Action, for civil penalties pursuant to statute as set forth in 14 Labor Code § 2698 et seq., for Defendants' violations of Labor Code §§ 201, 202, 203, 204,
15 218.5, 221, 226(a), 226.3, 226.7, 510, 512(a), 558, 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800
16 and 2802.

17 45. Upon the Cause of Action, for costs and attorneys' fees pursuant to Labor Code 18 §§ 210, 218.5, 1194, and 2699, and any other applicable statute; and 19 46. For such other and further relief the court may deem just and proper.

Re: MAKITA U.S.A., INC.

Dear Representative:

We have been retained to represent Joseph Jimenez against Makita U.S.A., Inc. (including any and all affiliates, managers, members, subsidiaries, and parents, and their shareholders, officers, directors, and employees), any individual, owner, officer and managing agent, DOES 1-10 as an "Employer" or person acting on behalf of an "Employer" pursuant to California Labor Code section 558.1, and DOES 11-20¹ for violations of California wage-and-hour laws (hereinafter collectively referred to as "MAKITA").

Mr. Jimenez is pursuing his California Labor Code section 2698, et seq., the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 ("PAGA") claim on a representative basis. Therefore, Mr. Jimenez may seek penalties and wages for violations of the Labor Code on behalf of the State of California and aggrieved employees, which are recoverable under PAGA. This letter is sent in compliance with the reporting requirements of California Labor Code section 2699.3.

Makita U.S.A., Inc. is a California corporation located at 14930 Northam Street, La Mirada, California 90638.

MAKITA employed Mr. Jimenez as an hourly-paid non-exempt Material Handler/Order Picker within one year of the date of this letter (until in or about September of 2019) in the State of California. Helpmates placed Mr. Jimenez at Makita U.S.A., Inc. MAKITA directly controlled the wages, hours and working conditions of Mr. Jimenez's employment. Additionally, MAKITA managers directly supervised Mr. Jimenez's work.

¹ Mr. Jimenez does not know the true names or capacities, whether individual, partner or corporate, of DOES 1 through 20, inclusive, and for that reason, said DOES are designated under such fictitious names. Mr. Jimenez will amend this notice when the true names and capacities are known. Mr. Jimenez is informed and believes that each DOE was responsible in some way for the matters alleged herein and proximately caused Mr. Jimenez and other current and former aggrieved employees to be subject to the illegal employment practices, wrongs and injuries complained of herein.

The “aggrieved employees” that Mr. Jimenez may seek penalties on behalf of are all current and former hourly-paid or non-exempt employees (whether hired directly or through staffing agencies or labor contractors) of MAKITA within the State of California.

MAKITA failed to properly pay its hourly-paid or non-exempt employees for all hours worked, failed to properly provide or compensate minimum and overtime wages and for meal and rest breaks, failed to issue compliant wage statements and failed to reimburse for all necessary business-related costs and expenses, thus resulting in other Labor Code violations as stated below.

Pursuant to Huff v. Securitas Security Services, 23 Cal. App. 5th 745, 751 (2018), an employee who brings a representative action and was affected by at least one of the violations alleged in the complaint has standing to pursue penalties on behalf of the state not only for that violation, but for violations affecting other employees as well. Accordingly, Mr. Jimenez has standing to pursue penalties on behalf of the state for violations affecting all the aggrieved employees at MAKITA, regardless of their classification, job title, locations, or whether they were hired directly or through a labor contractor or staffing agency.

MAKITA has violated and/or continues to violate, among other provisions of the California Labor Code and applicable wage law, California Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 218.5, 221, 226(a), 226.3, 226.7, 510, 512(a), 558, 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800 and 2802, and the IWC Wage Orders.

California Labor Code sections 510, 1194, and 1198 require employers to pay at least minimum wage for all hours worked, pay time-and-a-half, or double time overtime wages, and make it unlawful to work employees for hours longer than eight hours in one day and/or over forty hours in one week without paying the premium overtime rates. During the relevant time period, Mr. Jimenez and other aggrieved employees routinely worked in excess of 8 hours in a day and 40 hours in a week. MAKITA failed to compensate Mr. Jimenez and the other aggrieved employees for all hours worked and performing off-the-clock work, including pre- and post-shift and during meal breaks. MAKITA also failed to include non-discretionary bonuses and incentives in aggrieved employees’ regular rate of pay for purposes of overtime compensation. Therefore, Mr. Jimenez and other aggrieved employees were entitled to receive certain wages for overtime compensation, but they were not paid for all overtime hours worked.

California Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512 require employers to pay an employee one additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate for each workday that a meal or rest break is not provided. During the relevant time period, MAKITA routinely required Mr. Jimenez and other aggrieved employees to work through, interrupt, cut short, and/or delay their meal and rest breaks to comply with MAKITA policies and expectations, and meet production goals. Further, MAKITA failed to authorize and permit Mr. Jimenez and other aggrieved employees to take the requisite number of meal and rest breaks, including second meal breaks and third rest breaks, while working shifts exceeding 10 hours in length. Despite these facts, MAKITA failed to compensate Mr. Jimenez and other aggrieved employees all the premium wages they were owed.

California Labor Code section 201 requires that if an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately. California Labor Code section 202 requires that if an employee not having a written contract for a definite period quits his or her employment, his or her wages shall become due and payable not later than 72 hours thereafter, unless the employee has given 72 hours previous notice of his or her intention to quit, in which case the employee is entitled to his or her wages at the time of quitting. California Labor Code section 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay, without abatement or reduction, in accordance with Labor Code sections 201, 201.3, 201.5, 201.6, 201.8, 201.9, 202, and 205.5, any wages of an employee who is discharged or who quits, the wages of the employee shall continue as a penalty from the due date thereof at the same rate until paid or until an action therefor is commenced; but the wages shall not continue for more than 30 days. During the relevant time period, MAKITA failed to pay Mr. Jimenez and other aggrieved employees all wages, including for uncompensated off-the-clock work and premium wages for failing to provide legally mandated meal and rest breaks, due to them within any time period specified by California Labor Code sections 201 and 203 and therefore is liable under California Labor Code section 203.

California Labor Code section 204 requires that all wages earned by any person in any employment between the 1st and the 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month, other than those wages due upon termination of an employee, are due and payable between the 16th and the 26th day of the month during which the labor was performed, and that all wages earned by any person in any employment between the 16th and the last day, inclusive, of any calendar month, other than those wages due upon termination of an employee, are due and payable between the 1st and the 10th day of the following month. California Labor Code section 204 also requires that all wages earned for labor in excess of the normal work period shall be paid no later than the payday for the next regular payroll period. During the relevant time period, MAKITA failed to pay Mr. Jimenez and other aggrieved employees all wages due to them within any time period specified by California Labor Code section 204.

California Labor Code section 226 requires employers to make, keep and provide complete and accurate itemized wage statements to their employees. During the relevant time period, MAKITA did not provide Mr. Jimenez and other aggrieved employees with complete and accurate itemized wage statements. The wage statements they received from MAKITA were in violation of California Labor Code section 226(a). The violations include, but are not limited to, the failure to include (1) gross wages earned by Mr. Jimenez and other aggrieved employees, (2) total hours worked by Mr. Jimenez and other aggrieved employees, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate by Mr. Jimenez and other aggrieved employees (4) all deductions for Mr. Jimenez and other aggrieved employees, (5) net wages earned by Mr. Jimenez and other aggrieved employees, (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which Mr. Jimenez and other aggrieved employees are paid, (7) the name of the aggrieved employee and only the last four digits of his or her social security number or an employee identification number other than a social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by Mr. Jimenez and other aggrieved employees.

California Labor Code section 558 allows recovery of penalties. (a) Any employer or other person acting on behalf of an employer who violates, or causes to be violated, a section of this chapter or any provision regulating hours and days of work in any order of the Industrial Welfare Commission shall be subject to a civil penalty as follows: (1) For any initial violation, fifty dollars ($50) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages. (2) For each subsequent violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages. (3) Wages recovered pursuant to this section shall be paid to the affected employee. Mr. Jimenez and other aggrieved employees have been denied their wages and premium wages and, therefore, are entitled to penalties.

California Labor Code sections 1174(d) requires an employer to keep, at a central location in the state or at the plants or establishments at which employees are employed, payroll records showing the hours worked daily by and the wages paid to, and the number of piece-rate units earned by and any applicable piece rate paid to, employees employed at the respective plants or establishments. These records shall be kept with rules established for this purpose by the commission, but in any case, shall be kept on file for not less than two years. During the relevant time period, MAKITA failed to keep accurate and complete payroll records showing the hours worked daily and the wages paid, to Mr. Jimenez and other aggrieved employees.

California Labor Code sections 1194, 1197 and 1197.1 provide the minimum wage to be paid to employees, and the payment of a lesser wage than the minimum so fixed is unlawful. During the relevant time period, MAKITA did not provide Mr. Jimenez and other aggrieved employees with the minimum wages to which they were entitled despite constructive and actual knowledge of off-the-clock work, including pre- and post-shift and during meal breaks.

California Labor Code sections 2800 and 2802 require an employer to reimburse its employee for all necessary expenditures incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the discharge of his or her job duties or in direct consequence of his or her obedience to the directions of the employer. During their employment, aggrieved employees incurred necessary business-related expenses and costs that were not fully reimbursed by MAKITA, including for purchasing personal protective equipment they were required to wear while working.

We believe that Mr. Jimenez and other current and former California-based hourly-paid or non-exempt employees are entitled to penalties and wages as allowed under California Labor Code section 2698, et seq. for violations of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 218.5, 221, 226(a), 226.3, 226.7, 510, 512(a), 558, 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800 and 2802, and the IWC Wage Orders.

California Labor Code section 2699.3 requires that a claimant send a certified letter to the employer in questions and the California Labor & Workforce Development Agency setting forth the claims, and the basis for the claims, thereby giving the California Labor & Workforce Development Agency an opportunity to investigate the claims and/or take any action it deems appropriate.

The purpose of this letter is to satisfy the requirement created by California Labor code section 2699 prior to seeking penalties allowed by law for the aforementioned statutory violations. We look forward to determining whether California Labor & Workforce Development Agency intends to take any action in reference to these claims. We kindly request that you respond to this notice according to the time frame contemplated by the California Labor Code.

Mr. Jimenez will seek these penalties and wages on his own behalf and on behalf of other similarly situated California-based hourly-paid or non-exempt employees of MAKITA within one year of the date of this letter, as allowed by law.
