RULES

Cal. Rules of Court 3.769..... 1, 11

I. INTRODUCTION

Plaintiffs Thomas Hardwick and Cara Noone (“Plaintiffs”) seek preliminary approval of a wage and hour class action and Private Attorneys General Act (“PAGA”) settlement achieved on behalf of all persons employed by Defendants Hoovestol, Inc. (“Hoovestol”) and 10 Roads, LLC (“10 Roads”) (collectively, Defendants”) in California and classified as a non-exempt employee who worked as a truck driver during the Class Period (the “Class”) and all persons employed by Defendants in California who worked during the PAGA Period (the “Aggrieved Employees”).

After engaging in substantial discovery, extensive motion practice, a full-day mediation before experienced class action mediator Steve Pearl, a second full-mediation before experienced class action mediator Gig Kyriacou, and hard-fought negotiations, the parties agreed to a non-reversionary gross settlement amount of $495,000, exclusive of employer-side payroll taxes. The settlement is strongly supported by experienced counsel, who carefully considered the strength of the claims and Defendants’ potential defenses, as well as the expense, complexity, risks, and likely duration of continued litigation.

Subject to Court-approval, and after deductions for Settlement Administration Costs, Class Representative Service Payments, Class Counsel’s attorneys’ fees and costs, and PAGA payment, the remaining amount will be distributed to Class Members who did not opt-out of the Settlement as follows:

Gross Settlement Amount	$495,000
PAGA Allocation	$25,000
Administration Fees and Costs	$7,650
Class Representative Service Payments	Up to a total of $22,500
Attorneys’ Fees	Up to $165,000
Attorneys’ Costs	Up to $35,000
Net Settlement Amount	At least $239,850

Through this motion, Plaintiffs respectfully request that the Court enter an order: (1) provisionally certifying the Class under Code of Civil Procedure section 382 and California Rule of Court 3.769(c) for settlement purposes; (2) preliminarily approving the Settlement; (3) approving as to form the Notice of Class Action Settlement and ordering that the Notice of Class Action

1 Settlement be distributed to all Class Members; (4) appointing Plaintiff Thomas Hardwick as the 2 Class and PAGA Representative; (5) appoints Cara Noone as the PAGA Representative; (6)
3 appointing ILYM Group, Inc. as the Settlement Administrator; (6) appointing James Hawkins 4 APLC as Class Counsel; and (7) setting this matter for a hearing on the issues of final approval of 5 the proposed Settlement, approval of the Class Representative Service Payments, approval of Class 6 Counsel's attorneys' fees and costs, and approval of the administration fees and costs.

7 II. SUMMARY OF THE LITIGATION

8 A. Plaintiff Hardwick

9 On May 22, 2020, Plaintiff Hardwick commenced this action by filing a Complaint alleging 10 causes of action based on violation of multiple California Labor Code violations including, but not 11 limited to sections 201-204, 226.2, 510, 1194, 1197, 1998, 226.7, 512, 2802, 2803, Business and 12 Professions Code sections 17200-17208 and sections 11 and 12 of the applicable IWC Wage Order.

13 On July 28, 2020, the Plaintiff Hardwick commenced a PAGA action by filing a Complaint 14 alleging causes of action based on claimed violations enumerated under Labor Code section 2699.5 15 including the following sections: 201-203, 226, 226.3, 226.7, 510, 512, 558, 1174, 1174.5, 1182.12, 16 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2699, 2800, 2802 and 2803. Pursuant to Labor Code section 17 2699.3, subd. (a), Plaintiffs gave timely written notice to Defendants and the LWDA by sending 18 the PAGA Notice on May 21, 2020.

19 On August 18, 2020, Defendants filed a Notice of Removal to the United States District
20 Court. Then, on September 18, 2020, Defendants filed an Answer to Plaintiff Hardwick's 21 Complaint. In its Answer, Defendants denied all allegations in the Complaint. Plaintiff propounded 22 multiple rounds of written discovery to Defendants whose responses included the production of 23 hundreds of pages of documents. Defendant also propounded discovery on Plaintiff. The parties 24 also engaged in deposition discovery including the depositions of the Plaintiff and Defendants' 25 person most qualified witnesses on various subject areas related to the allegations in the Complaint.

26 On October 22, 2020, Defendants filed a Notice of Removal of the PAGA action to the 27 Central District Court. Defendants then filed a Motion to Dismiss Plaintiff Hardwick's PAGA 28

1 action. On November 23, 202, Plaintiff Hardwick filed a Motion to Remand the PAGA action to 2 the Los Angeles Superior Court. On January 1, 2021, the Central District Court Granted Plaintiff
3 Hardwicks' Motion for Remand and denied Defendants' Motion to Dismiss as moot. Defendant 4 then filed an Answer to Plaintiff Hardwick's PAGA Complaint. In its Answer, Defendants denied 5 all allegations in the Complaint.

6 On September 12, 2022, the District Court granted Plaintiff Hardwick's motion for class 7 certification. The District Court certified the following class: all current and former hourly drivers 8 employed by Defendants in the State of California at any time from May 22, 2017 through the 9 present, who are not members of the Terry class or who performed worked after December 7, 2018.
10 The District Court also certified a Wage Statement Subclass and Waiting Time Penalty Subclass.

11 On November 25, 2022, Notice of Class Certification was mailed to the certified class. On 12 February 10, 2023, Defendants filed a Motion to Compel Arbitration and the parties filed cross-13 motions for summary judgment as to the certified claims. On April 14, 2023, the District Court 14 denied Defendants' motion to compel arbitration, finding that the overwhelming weight of evidence 15 submitted indicates that Defendants took actions in the litigation inconsistent with their right to 16 arbitrate and therefore waived their right to arbitration. The District Court also heard oral argument 17 on cross-motions for summary judgment and requested supplemental briefs. Before the District 18 Court issued its ruling on the motions for summary judgment, the Parties reached the present 19 settlement.

20 B. Plaintiff Noone

21 On December 1, 2021, Plaintiff Noone commenced a PAGA action by filing a Complaint 22 alleging causes of action based on claimed violations enumerated under Labor Code sections 2699.5
23 including, but not limited to the following sections: 201-203, 2802 and 2803. On February 5, 2021, 24 Defendant filed an Answer to the Plaintiff Noone's Complaint. In its Answer, Defendants denied 25 all allegations in the Plaintiff's Complaint.

26 C. Remand and Amended Complaint

27
28

1 For purposes of settlement, the Parties stipulated to remand the class action to this Court
2 and to file an amended complaint to add Plaintiff Noone and effectively consolidate the present 3 class action, the Hardwick PAGA action, and the Noone PAGA action.

4 D. Mediation

5 On December 16, 2021, the parties participated in an all-day mediation presided over by 6 Steven G. Pearl, which did not resolve these actions. On October 10, 2022, all parties participated 7 in an all-day mediation presided over by Gig Kyriacou, which did not resolve the actions. However, 8 the parties continued to engage in settlement discussions facilitated by Mr. Kyriacou, which 9 ultimately led to this Agreement to settle these actions.

10 III. SUMMARY OF THE SETTLEMENT

11 A. Gross Settlement Amount

12 Defendants shall pay a settlement payment in the total amount of $495,000 (the “Gross 13 Settlement Amount” or “GSA”). The Gross Settlement Amount shall not exceed $495,000 with 14 the exception of the escalator provision¹ and shall include all Individual Class Payments made to 15 Settlement Class Members; the Class Representative Service Payments; attorneys’ fees and costs 16 to Class Counsel; costs of settlement administration; and the PAGA Penalties payment. This is a 17 non-reversionary settlement. No portion of the Gross Settlement Amount will revert to Defendants.
(Settlement, ¶ 3.1).

18 B. PAGA Payment

19 Class Counsel requests that the Court approve a PAGA Allocation of an amount equal to, 20 and not to exceed, $25,000.00 to cover any and all claims for civil penalties based on the alleged 21 violations in the Action and the alleged violations included in the letters to the LWDA. The PAGA 22 Allocation will be deducted from the Gross Settlement Amount. (Settlement, ¶ 3.2.5). Seventy-five 23 percent (75%) ($18,750.00) of the PAGA Payment shall be payable to the LWDA as the LWDA’s 24 share of the settlement of civil penalties paid under this Settlement pursuant to PAGA, and twenty-

25
26 ¹ Defendants estimate that there are 18,669 Total Workweeks during the Class Period. If the actual 27 number of workweeks exceeds 20,000, the Gross Settlement Amount shall increase by the 28 percentage beyond the 20,000 (e.g., if the Total Workweeks is determined to be 22,000 workweeks, the Gross Settlement Amount will increase by 10%), and the Class Counsel Fees shall be calculated as a percentage of the increased Gross Settlement Amount.

1 five percent (25%) of the PAGA Payment ($6,250.00) will be paid to the Aggrieved Employees.
2 Defendants will not oppose this request.

3 C. Class Counsel Payment of Attorneys' Fees and Costs

4 Class Counsel requests that the Court approve an award of attorneys' fees in an amount not 5 to exceed 1/3 of the Gross Settlement Amount ($165,000.00) and reimbursement of litigation costs 6 in an amount not to exceed $35,000.00 subject to Court approval. Defendants will not oppose this 7 request. Attorneys' fees and costs shall be paid out of the Gross Settlement Amount. (Settlement, 8 ¶ 3.2.2).

9 D. Service Payment To Class Representatives

10 Plaintiffs request for a Service Payments in an amount not to exceed $15,000 to Plaintiff
11 Hardwick as the Class and PAGA representative and $7,500 to Plaintiff Noone as the PAGA 12 representative to be paid from the Gross Settlement Amount, for their service as representative for 13 the Class and Aggrieved Employees, in addition to any payment they may otherwise be entitled to 14 receive as a Settlement Class Member and/or Aggrieved Employee. (Settlement, ¶ 3.2.1.).

15 E. Settlement Administration Fees And Costs

16 The Parties have selected ILYM Group, Inc. to be the third-party Settlement Administrator 17 to disseminate the Class Notice, and to do, among others things set forth in this Settlement 18 Agreement, the formatting and printing of the Class Notice and other documents to be mailed to 19 the Settlement Class, handling the Class Data, updating Settlement Class Members' mailing 20 addresses before the initial mailing of the Class Notice, calculating estimated Individual Class 21 Payments and Individual PAGA Payments, declarations regarding mailing, and as may be required 22 by the Court, providing weekly status reports, resolving disputed claims, issuing Individual 23 Settlement Payment checks, tax calculations and reporting, voiding uncashed checks, handling 24 uncashed checks, etc. The administration of the Settlement is estimated to not exceed $7,650.00
25 and will be paid from the Gross Settlement Amount. (Settlement, ¶ 3.2.3.)

26 F. Net Settlement Amount

27 After deducting the PAGA Payment, the Court-approved sums for the Class Representative 28 Service Payment, Class Counsel's attorneys' fees and costs, and the Settlement Administrator's fees and expenses from the Gross Settlement Amount, the remaining balance ("Net Settlement Amount") will be distributed to Participating Class Members on a pro-rata basis. (Settlement, ¶¶

1 1.28, 3.2.4.2.) The Net Settlement Amount is estimated to be $239,850. The employer-side payroll 2 taxes will be paid in excess of the Gross Settlement Amount.

3 IV. PROPOSED NOTICE PROCESS

4 No Later than thirty (30) calendar days from the Order granting preliminary approval, 5 Defendant shall provide a database containing the following information for each Settlement Class 6 Member (“Class Data”): (1) the full name, last known address, and full social security number of 7 all Settlement Class Members; and (2) the information necessary to determine the estimated 8 settlement allocation to each Settlement Class Member, including without limitation, the total 9 number of work weeks in which each Settlement Class Member worked during the Class Period 10 and the total number of pay periods in which each PAGA Employee worked during the PAGA 11 Period. (Settlement, ¶ 4.2). This database shall be based on Defendants’ payroll and other business 12 records and shall be provided in a format acceptable to the Settlement Administrator. Within three 13 (3) business days of receiving the Class Data, the Administrator is to notify Class Counsel about 14 the receipt and provide details about the number of Class Members, PAGA Members, Workweeks, 15 and Pay Periods in the Class Data. At this time, the Parties will purpose of determine whether the 16 Escalator Provision has been triggered.

17 The Administrator is required to use their best efforts to send the Class Notice to all Class 18 Members identified in the Class Data via first-class United States Postal Service (USPS) mail as 19 soon as possible and no later than fourteen (14) days after receiving the Class Data.

20 The first page of the Class Notice will prominently estimate the dollar amounts of any 21 Individual Class Payment and/or Individual PAGA Payment payable to the Class Member and/or 22 Aggrieved Employee, along with the number of Workweeks and PAGA Pay Periods used to 23 calculate these amounts. Before mailing Class Notices, the Administrator will update Class Member 24 addresses using the National Change of Address database.

25 If any Class Notice is returned by the USPS as undelivered, the Administrator must re-mail 26 the Class Notice using any forwarding address provided by the USPS within three (3) business days 27 of receipt. If there is no forwarding address, the Administrator must conduct a Class Member 28 Address Search and re-mail the Class Notice to the most current address obtained. The

1 Administrator is not obligated to make further attempts to locate or send Class Notice to Class 2 Members whose Class Notice is returned a second time by the USPS.

3 V. PROPOSED CLASS RELEASE

4 A. Claims Released By the Class and the Class Representatives

5 Upon the full funding of the entire Gross Settlement Amount by the Defendants, including 6 all employer payroll taxes owed on the Wage Portion of the Individual Class Payments, the 7 Plaintiffs, Participating Class Members, and Class Counsel agree to release claims against all 8 Released Parties. This release is effective on the date of such full funding. (Settlement, ¶ 6).

9 Plaintiffs, along with their current and former spouses, representatives, agents, attorneys, 10 heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns, collectively agree to release and absolve the Released 11 Parties from all claims, dealings, or events that have emerged from their employment relationship 12 with the Defendants or any Released Party. This release encompasses a broad range of claims, 13 including but not limited to, allegations of wrongful termination, discrimination, harassment, or 14 retaliation under various legal frameworks such as Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 (42
15 U.S.C. Section 2000 et seq.), the California Fair Employment and Housing Act (Cal. Gov't Code 16 Section 12900 et seq.), and the California Labor Code. However, this release specifically excludes 17 Plaintiff Noone's claims in the pending lawsuit entitled Cara Noone v. 10 Roads Express, LLC, et 18 al., filed in the Alameda Superior Court under Case No. 23CV029324. (Settlement ¶ 6.1).

19 All Participating Class Members, for themselves and on behalf of their past and current 20 representatives, agents, attorneys, heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns, will release the 21 Released Parties from all claims that were or could have reasonably been brought forward, based 22 on the facts outlined in the Operative Complaint and discovered during the Actions. This release 23 specifically includes claims related to the alleged non-payment of minimum wage, overtime, and 24 sick pay; the alleged failure to provide meal breaks; the alleged failure to authorize and permit rest 25 periods; the alleged failure to reimburse necessary business expenses; the alleged failure to pay 26 wages promptly upon termination; the alleged failure to provide precise, itemized wage statements; 27 and any claims of unfair competition derived from these allegations. (Settlement, ¶ 6.2).

1 Every Non-Participating Class Member who qualifies as an Aggrieved Employee will 2 release, on their own behalf and on behalf of their past and present representatives, agents, 3 attorneys, heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns, any claims against the Released Parties for 4 PAGA penalties. This release applies to claims that were alleged, or could have reasonably been 5 alleged, based on the facts related to the PAGA Period as stated in the Operative Complaint and the 6 PAGA Notices, and discovered during the course of the Actions. The released claims specifically 7 include allegations of failure to pay minimum wage, overtime, and sick pay; failure to provide meal 8 breaks; failure to authorize and permit rest periods; failure to reimburse necessary business 9 expenses; failure to pay wages in a timely manner upon termination; and failure to provide accurate 10 and detailed wage statements. (Settlement, ¶ 6.3)

11 VI. COMPUTATION AND DISTRIBUTION OF NET SETTLEMENT AMOUNT AND 12 CLASS COUNSEL PAYMENT

13 A. Deposit of Gross Settlement Amount

14 The Administrator is required to mail checks for all Individual Class Payments, Individual 15 PAGA Payments, the LWDA PAGA Payment, the Administration Expenses Payment, the Class
16 Counsel Fees Payment, the Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment, and the Class 17 Representative Service Payment within fourteen (14) days after the Defendants fund the Gross 18 Settlement Amount. Disbursement of payments to Class Counsel and the Class Representative shall 19 not precede the disbursement of Individual Class Payments and Individual PAGA Payments
20 (Settlement, ¶ 4.4).

21 B. Formula For Calculating Individual Class Payments

22 Each Participating Class Member's Individual Class Payment will be determined by 23 dividing the Net Settlement Amount by the total number of Workweeks worked by all Participating 24 Class Members during the Class Period and then multiplying the result by each Participating Class 25 Member's Workweeks. Twenty percent (20%) of each Participating Class Member's Individual 26 Class Payment will be allocated to the settlement of wage claims and subject to tax withholding, 27 reported on an IRS W-2 Form. The remaining eighty percent (80%) will be allocated to the 28 settlement of claims for interest and penalties, not subject to wage withholdings, and reported on

1 IRS 1099 Forms. Participating Class Members assume full responsibility and liability for any 2 employee taxes owed on their Individual Class Payment (Settlement, ¶ 3.2.4).

3 C. Formula For Calculating Individual PAGA Payments

4 Each Aggrieved Employee's Individual PAGA Payment will be determined by (a) dividing 5 the amount of the Aggrieved Employees' 25% share of PAGA Penalties ($6,250.00) by the total 6 number of PAGA Period Pay Periods worked by all Aggrieved Employees during the PAGA Period
7 and (b) multiplying the result by each Aggrieved Employee's PAGA Period Pay Periods. Aggrieved 8 Employees assume full responsibility and liability for any taxes owed on their Individual PAGA 9 Payment. (Settlement ¶ 3.2.5.1).

10 D. Distribution of Net Settlement Amount and PAGA Payment to Class Members

11 The Administrator will issue checks for the Individual Class Payments and/or Individual 12 PAGA Payments and mail them to the Class Members via First Class U.S. Mail, postage prepaid.
13 The face of each check will prominently state the date (not less than 180 days after the date of 14 mailing) when the check will be voided. The Administrator will cancel all checks not cashed by the 15 void date. Non-Participating Class Members will not receive any Individual Class Payments, and 16 the amounts equivalent to their would-be payments will be retained in the Net Settlement Amount 17 for pro-rata distribution to Participating Class Members (Settlement, ¶ 4.4.1).

18 E. Class Counsel Payments, Class Representative Service Payment Awards, and 19 Settlement Administrator Expense Payment

20 The Settlement Administrator will issue payments to Class Representatives for their Class 21 Representative Service Payment, as approved by the Court. If the Court approves a Class 22 Representative Service Payment less than the amounts requested, the Administrator will allocate 23 the remainder to the Net Settlement Amount. (Settlement, ¶ 3.2.1).

24 The Settlement Administrator will also issue payments to Class Counsel for their Class 25 Counsel Fees Payment and Class Counsel Litigation expenses Payment, as approved by the Court.
26 If the Court approves a Class Counsel Fees Payment and/or a Class Counsel Litigation Expenses
27 Payment less than the amounts requested, the Administrator will allocate the remainder to the Net 28 Settlement Amount. (Settlement, ¶ 3.2.2).

1 The Administrator's Expenses Payment shall not exceed$7,650, except for a showing of 2 good cause and as approved by the Court. Any excess in Administration Expenses or lesser amounts 3 approved by the Court will be retained in the Net Settlement Amount (Settlement, ¶ 3.2.3).

4 VII. OBJECTIONS AND OPTING OUT OF THE SETTLEMENT

5 A. Objections to the Settlement

6 Only Participating Class Members are permitted to object to the class action components of 7 the Settlement, including the fairness of the Settlement and the amounts requested for Class Counsel 8 Fees, Litigation Expenses, and Class Representative Service Payment (Settlement, ¶ 8.7.1).

9 Participating Class Members may send written objections to the Administrator by fax, 10 email, or mail. These must be sent no later than 60 days after the mailing of the Class Notice, with 11 an additional 14 days allowed for those whose Class Notice was re-mailed (Settlement, ¶ 8.7.2).
12 Alternatively, Participating Class Members may choose to present verbal objections at the Final 13 Approval Hearing, either personally or through an attorney (Id.).

14 Non-Participating Class Members do not have the right to object to any of the class action 15 components of the Settlement (Settlement, ¶ 8.7.3).

16 B. Requests to be Excluded from the Settlement

17 Class Members who wish to opt-out of the Class Settlement must send a signed written 18 Request for Exclusion to the Administrator. This request must be sent via fax, email, or mail no 19 later than sixty (60) days after the Class Notice is mailed by the Administrator. An additional 20 fourteen-day (14-day) period is provided for those whose Class Notice was re-mailed (Settlement, 21 ¶ 8.5.1). The Request for Exclusion must include the Class Member's name, address, email address 22 or telephone number, and clearly communicate their decision to be excluded from the Settlement (Id.).

23 VIII. ESCALATOR PROVISION

24 Defendants estimate that there are 18,669 Total Workweeks during the Class Period. If the 25 actual number of workweeks exceeds 20,000, the Gross Settlement Amount shall increase by the 26 percentage beyond the 20,000 (e.g., if the Total Workweeks is determined to be 22,000 workweeks, 27
28

1 the Gross Settlement Amount will increase by 10%), and the Class Counsel Fees shall be calculated 2 as a percentage of the increased Gross Settlement Amount. (Settlement, ¶ 9).

3 IX. LEGAL ARGUMENT IN FAVOR OF PRELIMINARY APPROVAL

4 When a proposed class-wide settlement is reached, the settlement must be submitted to the 5 court for approval. (2 H. Newberg & A. Conte, Newberg on Class Actions, at § 11.41, p.11-87 (3d 6 ed. 1992. Preliminary approval is the first of three steps that comprise the approval procedure for 7 settlements of class actions. The second step is the dissemination of notice of the settlement to all 8 class members. The third step is a final settlement approval hearing, at which evidence and 9 argument concerning the fairness, adequacy, and reasonableness of the settlement may be presented 10 and class members may be heard regarding the settlement. (See Dunk v. Ford Motor Co (1996) 48 11 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1801 Manual for Complex Litigation, Second, §30.44 (1993); Cal. Rules of 12 Court, rule 3.769.) The primary question presented on an application for preliminary approval of a 13 proposed class action settlement is whether the proposed settlement is “within the range of possible 14 approval.”² (Manual for Complex Litigation, Second §30.44, at p. 229; Gautreaux v. Pierce, 690 15 F.2d 616, 621 n.3. (7th Cir. 1982) Preliminary approval is the prerequisite to giving notice so that 16 “the proposed settlement . . . may be submitted to members of the prospective Class for their 17 acceptance or rejection.” (Philadelphia Housing Authority v. American Radiator & Standard 18 Sanitary Corp., (323 F. Supp. 364, 372 (E.D. Pa. 1970). There is an initial presumption of fairness 19 when a proposed settlement negotiated at arm’s length by counsel is presented for court approval.
20 (Newberg, 3d Ed., § 11.41, 11-88.) The ultimate question of whether the proposed settlement 21 should be approved is made at a final approval hearing after notice is given.

22 A. The Proposed Settlement Meets the Standards for Preliminary Approval

23 Preliminary approval is warranted if the settlement falls within a “reasonable range.” (See 24 North County Contractor’s Ass’n, Inc. v. Touchstone Ins. Serv. (1994) 27 Cal. App. 4th 1085, 89-

25 _____
26 ² California courts look to federal authority on class actions. Vasquez v. Superior Court (1971) 4 27 Cal.3d 800, 821. “It is well established that in the absence of relevant state precedents trial courts 28 are urged to follow the procedures prescribed in Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure for conducting class actions.” (Frazier v. City of Richmond (1986) 184 Cal.App.3d 1491, 1499, citing Green v. Obledo (1981) 29 Cal.3d 126, 145-146.)

90; Conte & Newberg, Newberg on Class Actions, §§ 11.26 (4th ed. 2002) (“Newberg”). In reviewing the fairness of a class action settlement, due regard should be given to what is “otherwise a private consensual agreement between the parties.” Cellphone Termination Fee Cases (2010) 186 Cal.App.4th 1380, 1389 . The inquiry “must be limited to the extent necessary to reach a reasoned judgment that the agreement is not the product of fraud or overreaching by, or conclusion between, the negotiating parties, and that the settlement, taken as a whole, is fair, reasonable and adequate to all concerns.” (Id.). Reasonableness and fairness are presumed where (1) the settlement is reached through “arm’s-length bargaining”; (2) investigation and discovery are “sufficient to allow counsel and the court to act intelligently”; (3) counsel is “experienced in similar litigation”; and (4) the percentage of objectors “is small.” Dunk v. Ford Motor Co. (1996) 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1802 (1996). The Settlement here already satisfies the first three factors. Plaintiff will analyze the fourth factor in her motion for final approval.

1. The Settlement is Entitled to a Presumption of Fairness

a. The Settlement is the Result of Arm’s-Length Negotiations

Courts presume the absence of fraud and collusion in the negotiation of a settlement, unless contrary evidence is offered; thus, there is a presumption that settlement negotiations are conducted in good faith. Newberg, § 11.51. Here, the parties attended a full-day mediation with a well-respected neutral wage and hour mediator, Gig Kyriacou (Hawkins Decl. ¶¶ 19.) The Settlement negotiations were adversarial, conducted at arm’s length over many months and tempered by the efforts of both sides to serve the interests of their clients and, in the case of Plaintiffs’ Counsel, the interests of the Class Members. (Id.)

b. Class Counsel Conducted Significant Investigation

Plaintiff’s Counsel thoroughly investigated the proposed Class Members’ claims, applicable law, and potential defenses using extensive discovery, motion practice, and close scrutiny of the fluctuating state of California’s wage and hour laws. As described more extensively in the accompanying Hawkins Declaration, Plaintiffs’ Counsel conducted extensive investigation of the claims asserted in the class and PAGA actions including substantial written discovery, depositions, legal research, motion practice including a motion to dismiss, motion for remand, motion to compel

1 arbitration, motion for class certification, and cross-motions for summary judgment, expert 2 damages analysis, and two full-day mediations. Using the information obtained through their 3 research and investigation, Plaintiff's Counsel assessed the reasonable value of the class claims.
4 (Hawkins Decl. ¶¶ 4-30)

5 c. Class Counsel is Experienced in Similar Litigation

6 Plaintiffs are represented by James Hawkins, APLC. Class Counsel has extensive 7 experience prosecuting wage and hour cases on behalf of employees and others who have had their 8 rights violated. (Hawkins Decl. ¶ 92.) James Hawkins, APLC, currently serving as plaintiffs' 9 counsel of record, has participated in hundreds of wage and hour class action and representative 10 action cases pending in both state and federal court. Class Counsel has litigated many wage and 11 hour class action cases and has successfully resolved cases involving the same issues presented in 12 this matter. (Id.)

13 2. The Proposed Settlement is Reasonable Given the Strengths of 14 Plaintiffs' Claims and the Risks and Expense of Litigation

15 Courts have discretion to approve a settlement by assessing several well-recognized factors, 16 including the "strength of plaintiff's case, risk, expense, complexity and likely duration of further 17 litigation and risk of maintaining the class action through trial." Munoz v. BCI Coca-Cola Bottling 18 Co. (2010) 186 Cal.App.4th 399, 407; see Kuller v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc. (2008) 168 Cal.App.4th 19 116, 129. A settlement does not have to provide 100% of the damages sought to be considered a 20 fair and reasonable settlement. Rebney v. Wells Fargo Bank (1991) 220 Cal.App.3d 1117, 1139 , 21 overruled on other grounds. Rather, compromise is expected:

22 Compromise is inherent and necessary in the settlement process...even if "the relief 23 afforded by the proposed settlement is substantially narrower than it would be if the suits 24 were to be successfully litigated," this is no bar to a class settlement because "the public interest may indeed be served by a voluntary settlement in which each side gives ground in the interest of avoiding litigation."

25 Wershba v. Apple Computer, Inc. (2001) 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 250.

26 Here, Plaintiffs' Counsel calculated Defendants' total potential exposure assuming 27 Plaintiffs prevailed on all aspects of their claims at trial to be approximately $9,682,397 but weighed 28 that value against the chance of maintaining class certification, defeating Defendants' motion for

1 summary judgment, and prevailing at trial, and determined that the realistic liability on the crux of 2 the claims asserted was approximately $2,311,490 including PAGA penalties. (Hawkins Decl. ¶¶ 3 79-93). While Plaintiffs believed and continue to believe this is a strong, the significant risks and 4 expenses associated with trial must be taken into account. In determining whether the amount 5 offered for settlement was reasonable, Plaintiffs' Counsel weighed that figure against many risk 6 factors. Defendants have many strong arguments, which could render the Class Members' claims 7 worthless at the summary judgment stage or trial. (Hawkins Decl. ¶¶ 45-78).

8 As set forth more extensively in the Hawkins Declaration, Defendants denied all allegations 9 and contends that it complied with the applicable law at all times. Defendants contended that it paid 10 all wages owed, including proper calculations of minimum, regular, overtime, and double time rates 11 and wages, prohibited off the clock work, and that it properly provided all rest and meal periods as 12 a matter of policy and practice, and also paid break premiums at the correct rate and where 13 applicable. (Id.) Defendants further argued that Settlement Class Members were not required to 14 incur any expenses that were not reimbursed. (Id.). Defendant contended that to the extent any 15 expense was incurred, it reimbursed employees for business expenses, and otherwise at all times 16 complied with the California Labor Code. (Id.). Defendants argued that they timely furnished 17 accurate itemized wage statements, that they complied with all wage statement requirements, and 18 that all information on the wage statements was accurate and reflected the amount of money paid 19 to employees. (Id.). Defendants contended that all non-exempt employees were paid for all time 20 worked. (Id.).

21 Defendants also contended that Plaintiffs could not demonstrate that any violation was 22 intentional or willful and that penalties were not available for certain derivative violations. (Id.).
23 Defendants also contended that no employee suffered injury because of any alleged violations. (Id.).

24 The Settlement compares favorably to other class settlements in terms of potential recovery.
25 (See Linney v. Cellular Alaska P'ship, 151 F.3d 1234, 1242 (9th Cir. 1998) ["The fact that a 26 proposed settlement may only amount to a fraction of the potential recovery does not, in and of 27 itself, mean that the proposed settlement is grossly inadequate and should be disapproved," quoting 28 City of Detroit v. Grinnell Corp., 495 F.2d. 448, 455 & n.2 (2d Cir. 1974)]; In re MyFord Touch

1 Consumer Litig., 2019 WL 1411510, at *10 (N.D. Cal. Mar. 28, 2019) [observing that “the very 2 essence of settlement is compromise” and citing cases where settlements ranged from 5% to 10%
3 of potential recovery]; Glass v. UBS Fin. Servs., 2007 WL 221862, at *9 (N.D. Cal. Jan. 26, 2007)
4 [approving settlement that constituted approximately 25% of the estimated actual damages].) The 5 Settlement here is consistent with these approved percentages.

6 Where both sides face significant uncertainty, the attendant risks favor settlement. (Hanlon
7 v. Chrysler Corp., 150 F.3d 1011, 1026 (9th Cir. 1998). Even though Plaintiffs dispute the merits 8 of Defendants’ defenses, they cannot ignore the fact that if those defenses were successful, they 9 would eliminate or substantially reduce any recovery on behalf of the Settlement Class. After arm’s-10 length negotiations between experienced and informed counsel and with the assistance of the 11 mediator, the Parties recognized the potential risks and agreed on the Gross Settlement Amount of 12 $495,000, which is approximately 21% of the realistic liability for the claims. (Id.) As the Glass 13 court held:

14 In light of the above-referenced uncertainty in the law, the risk, expense, 15 complexity, and likely duration of further litigation likewise favors the settlement.
16 Regardless of how this Court might have rules on the merits of the legal issues, the 17 losing party likely would have appealed, and the parties would have faced the 18 expense and uncertainty of litigating an appeal. “The expense and possible duration of the litigation should be considered in evaluating the reasonableness of [a] settlement.” See In re Mego Financial Corp. Securities Litigation, 213 F.3d 454, 458 (9th Cir. 2000).

19 (Glass, supra, 2007 WL 221862, at *9). Here, the risk of further litigation is substantial, while the 20 benefit of the Settlement is immediate and real. “Generally, unless the settlement is clearly 21 inadequate, its acceptable and approval are preferable to lengthy and expensive litigation with 22 uncertain results.” (Ching v. Siemens Indus, Inc., 2014 WL 2926210, at *4 (quotation omitted) (N.D.
23 Cal. June 27, 2014). This factor weighs in favor of approval.

24 3. The Requested Service Payment Should be Provisionally Approved.

25 Plaintiffs seek a Service Payment for taking on the responsibilities of representing the 26 interests of all Settlement Class Members and Aggrieved Employees and assuming risks and 27 potential costs that were not agreed to by any other Settlement Class Members. A named plaintiff 28 is eligible for payment that reasonably compensated them for undertaking and fulfilling a fiduciary

1 duty to represent absent class members. Cellphone Termination Fee Cases (2010) 186 Cal.App.4th 2 1380, 1393 ; Bell v. Farmers, Ins. Exch. (2004) 115 Cal.App.4th 715, 726. Here, Plaintiffs provided 3 additional data and information to counsel, relayed their experiences to counsel, and analyzed the 4 Settlement and determined that it was in the best interests of the Settlement Class of which they 5 were a part. Their consultation with counsel to assist in evaluating the Settlement was vital in 6 bringing this matter to a resolution. (See, Hawkins Decl. ¶¶ 82-83; Declaration of Thomas 7 Hardwick; Declaration of Cara Noone).

8 No action likely would have been taken by Settlement Class Members individually, and no 9 compensation would have been recovered for them, but for Plaintiffs' service on behalf of the 10 Settlement Class and Aggrieved Employees. By actively pursuing this action, Plaintiffs furthered 11 the California public policy goal of enforcing the State's wage and hour laws. See Sav-On Drug 12 Stores, Inc. v. Superior Court (2004) 34 Cal.4th 319, 340 The proposed Service Payment of $15,000 13 to Plaintiff Hardwick for bringing class and PAGA action and $7,500 for Plaintiff Noone for bring 14 the PAGA action and their service as the representatives and for their general release of all claims 15 is reasonable and should be approved.

16 B. The Requested Attorneys' Fees and Costs Should be Preliminarily Approved

17 The purpose of an attorneys' fee award in class action litigation is to reward counsel who 18 took risk of non-payment and invested in a case that achieved a substantial positive result for the 19 class. Attorneys' fees are awarded as a matter of equity. California courts routinely award attorneys' 20 fees equaling one-third of the potential value of the common fund. See Chavez v. Netflix, Inc.
21 (2008) 162 Cal.App.4th 43, 66, n.11 (2008) ("Empirical studies show that, regardless of whether 22 the percentage method of the lodestar method is used, fee awards in class actions average around 23 one-third of the recovery"). In the present case, Plaintiffs' Counsel will seek approval of one-third 24 of the Gross Settlement Amount or up to $165,000.00 under the common fund theory, as well as 25 actual litigation costs up to $35,000.00. At final approval, Plaintiffs' Counsel will fully brief the 26 merits of their request for attorneys' fees and costs.

1 X. CONCLUSION

2 The parties have negotiated a fair and reasonable Settlement of the class and PAGA claims.
3 Plaintiffs respectfully request that the Court preliminarily approve the Settlement, direct notice to 4 be sent to the Class Members, and schedule a date to conduct the final approval hearing.
