(PRIVATE ATTORNEYS GENERAL ACT)

1 Plaintiff ARTURO MARTINEZ (“Plaintiff”) individually and on behalf of other members 2 of the general public similarly situated, and as a private attorney general, alleges as follows:

3 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

4 1. Plaintiff brings this action against Defendants MERIT LOGISTICS, LLC and 5 DOES 1 THROUGH 50 (hereinafter also collectively referred to as “Defendants”) for California 6 Labor Code violations, unfair business practices, and civil penalties stemming from Defendants’ 7 failure to pay overtime compensation, failure to provide meal periods, failure to authorize and 8 permit rest periods, failure to pay minimum wage, failure to timely pay wages, failure to provide 9 accurate wage statements, failure to maintain accurate payroll records, and failure to reimburse 10 necessary business-related expenses.

11 2. Plaintiff’s First through Tenth Causes of Action are brought as a class action on 12 behalf of himself and similarly situated current and former employees of Defendants (hereinafter 13 collectively referred to as the “Class” or “Class Members”, as defined more fully in paragraph 14 14, below) pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure section 382. The monetary damages 15 and restitution sought by Plaintiff exceeds the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court 16 and will be established according to proof at trial.

17 3. Plaintiff’s Eleventh Cause of Action is brought as a representative action on behalf 18 of himself and certain other current and former employees of Defendants against whom one or 19 more of the alleged violations was committed (hereinafter collectively referred to as the 20 “Aggrieved Employees”) pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2698, et seq. Plaintiff is an 21 aggrieved employee against whom one or more of the alleged violations occurred. The civil 22 penalties sought by Plaintiff exceed the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court and will 23 be established according to proof at trial.

24 4. The Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to the California Constitution, 25 Article VI, Section 10, which grants the superior court “original jurisdiction in all other causes” 26 except those given by statute to other courts. The statutes under which this action is brought do 27 not specify any other basis for jurisdiction.

28 5. This Court has jurisdiction over Defendants because, upon information and belief,

1 Defendants are citizens of California, have sufficient minimum contacts in California, or 2 otherwise intentionally avail themselves of the California market so as to render the exercise of 3 jurisdiction over them by the California courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play and 4 substantial justice.

5 6. Venue is proper in this Court because, upon information and belief, Defendants 6 maintain offices, have agents, and/or transact business in the State of California, County of 7 Riverside.

8 PARTIES

9 7. Plaintiff ARTURO MARTINEZ is an individual residing in the State of 10 California.

11 8. Defendant MERIT LOGISTICS, LLC is and at all times herein mentioned was, a 12 limited liability company organized and existing under the laws of the State of California, and 13 registered to do business in the state of California.

14 9. Plaintiff is ignorant of the identities of defendants Does 1 through 50, inclusive, 15 and therefore sues these defendants by such fictitious names. The Doe defendants may be 16 individuals, partnerships, or corporations. Plaintiff is informed and believe, and thereon alleges, 17 that, at all times mentioned herein, each of the Doe defendants was the parent, subsidiary, agent, 18 servant, employee, co-venturer, and/or co-conspirator of each of the other defendants, and was at 19 all times mentioned acting within the scope, purpose, consent, knowledge, ratification and 20 authorization of such agency, employment, joint venture and conspiracy. Plaintiff will amend this 21 Complaint to allege their true names and capacities when ascertained. Plaintiff is informed and 22 believes and thereon alleges that each of the fictitiously named Doe defendants is responsible in 23 some manner for the occurrences herein alleged, and that Plaintiff's damages as herein alleged 24 were proximately caused by its conduct. MERIT LOGISTICS, LLC and Doe Defendants 1 25 through 50 are collectively referred to herein as "Defendants."

26 10. Defendants are and at all times herein mentioned were, (a) conducting business in 27 the County of Riverside, State of California, and (b) the employer of Plaintiff consistent with the 28 California Labor Code and Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders ("Wage Orders").

11. Plaintiff further alleges that Defendants, directly or indirectly controlled or affected the working conditions, wages, working hours, and conditions of employment of Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees so as to make each of said Defendants employers and employers jointly liable under the statutory provisions set forth herein.

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

12. Plaintiff brings the First through Tenth Causes of Action as class action on his own behalf and on behalf of all other members of the general public similarly situated, and, thus, seeks class certification under Code of Civil Procedure section 382.

13. The proposed class is defined as follows: All current and former non-exempt employees of any of the Defendants within the State of California at any time commencing four (4) years preceding the filing of Plaintiff's complaint up until the time that notice of the certified class action is provided to the class (hereinafter referred to as the "Class" or "Class Members.")

14. Plaintiff reserves the right to establish other subclasses as appropriate.

15. The Class is ascertainable and there is a well-defined community of interest in the litigation:

- a. Numerosity: The Class Members are so numerous that joinder of all Class Members is impracticable. The membership of the entire Class is unknown to Plaintiff at this time; however, the Class is estimated to be over fifty (50) individuals and the identity of such membership is readily ascertainable by inspection of Defendants' employment records.
- b. Typicality: Plaintiff's claims are typical of all other Class Members demonstrated herein. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the other Class Members with whom he has a well-defined community of interest.
- c. Adequacy: Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of each Class Member, with whom he has a well-defined community of interest and typicality of claims, as demonstrated herein. Plaintiff has no interest that is antagonistic to the other Class Members. Plaintiff's attorneys, the proposed class counsel, are versed in the rules governing class action discovery, certification, and settlement.

1 Plaintiff has incurred, and during the pendency of this action will continue to 2 incur, costs and attorneys' fees, that have been, are, and will be necessarily 3 expended for the prosecution of this action for the substantial benefit of each Class 4 Member.

5 d. Superiority: A class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and 6 efficient adjudication of this litigation because individual joinder of all Class 7 Members is impractical.

8 e. Public Policy Considerations: Certification of this lawsuit as a class action will 9 advance public policy objectives. Employers of this great state violate 10 employment and labor laws every day. Current employees are often afraid to 11 assert their rights out of fear of direct or indirect retaliation. However, class 12 actions provide the Class Members who are not named in the complaint 13 anonymity that allows for the vindication of their rights.

14 16. There are common questions of law and fact as to the Class that predominate over 15 questions affecting only individual members. The following common questions of law or fact, 16 among others, exist as to the members of the Class:

- 17 a. Whether Defendants' failure to pay wages, without abatement, or reduction, in 18 accordance with the California Labor Code was willful;
- 19 b. Whether Defendants had a corporate policy and practice of failing to pay Plaintiff 20 and the other Class Members for all hours worked, and missed, short, late or 21 interrupted meal periods and rest breaks in violation of California law;
- 22 c. Whether Defendants required Plaintiff and the other Class Members to work more 23 than eight (8) hours per day and/or more than forty (40) hours per week and failed 24 to pay the legally required overtime compensation to Plaintiff and the other Class 25 Members;
- 26 d. Whether Defendants deprived Plaintiff and the other Class Members of meal 27 and/or rest periods or required Plaintiff and the other Class Members to work 28 during meal and/or rest periods without compensation;

- e. Whether Defendants failed to pay meal period premium wages to Class Members when they were not provided with a legally compliant meal period;
- f. Whether Defendants failed to pay rest period premium wages to class Members when they were not authorized and permitted to take legally compliant rest periods.
- g. Whether Defendants failed to pay minimum wages to Plaintiff and the other Class Members for all hours worked;
- h. Whether Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members the required minimum wage pursuant to California law;
- i. Whether Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members proper overtime compensation pursuant to California law;
- j. Whether Defendants failed to pay all wages due to Plaintiff and the other Class Members within the time required upon their discharge or resignation from employment;
- k. Whether Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiff and the other Class Members for all necessary business-related expenses and costs in violation of Cal. Labor Code section 2802;
- l. Whether Defendants failed to timely pay all wages due to Plaintiff and the other Class Members during their employment;
- m. Whether Defendants complied with wage reporting as required by the California Labor Code, including section 226;
- n. Whether Defendants kept complete and accurate payroll records as required by the California Labor Code, including section 1174(d);
- o. Whether Defendants' conduct was with malice, fraud or oppression;
- p. Whether Defendants' conduct was willful or reckless;
- q. Whether Defendants engaged in unfair business practices in violation of California Business & Professions Code section 17200, et seq. based on its improper withholding of compensation and deduction of wages;

1 separate from any piece-rate compensation at least the applicable minimum wage rate, and failed
2 to pay overtime to Plaintiff, the Class, and Aggrieved Employees for all overtime hours worked 3 based on regular rates of pay correctly calculated to include all applicable remuneration, including 4 piece-rate pay. In addition, Defendants routinely failed to permit Plaintiff, the Class, and the 5 Aggrieved Employees to take timely and duty-free meal periods and rest periods in violation of 6 California law. Defendants also failed to reimburse Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved 7 Employees for all necessary business-related expenses.

8 23. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants have implemented
9 policies and practices which failed to provide Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees 10 with timely and duty-free meal periods. Defendants routinely failed to relieve Plaintiff, the Class, 11 and the Aggrieved Employees of all duties during their meal periods, regularly failed to relinquish 12 control over Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees during their meal periods, 13 regularly failed to permit Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees a reasonable 14 opportunity to take their meal periods, and regularly impeded or discouraged Plaintiff, the Class, 15 and the Aggrieved Employees from taking thirty (30) minute uninterrupted meal breaks no later 16 than the end of their fifth hour of work and/or from taking a second thirty (30) minute 17 uninterrupted meal break no later than their tenth hour of work for shifts lasting more than ten 18 (10) hours. Defendants also failed to maintain accurate records of meal periods taken by Plaintiff, 19 the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees.

20 24. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants did not adequately 21 inform Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees of their right to take meal periods under 22 California law. Moreover, Defendants systematically disregarded their own written policies
23 regarding the provision and timing of meal periods for Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
24 Employees. Instead, Defendants' actual policy and practice was to schedule Plaintiff, the Class, 25 and the Aggrieved Employees in a way the prohibited them from taking timely and duty-free meal 26 periods, and to require Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to work through their 27 meal periods, for which they were not compensated. Employer also required Plaintiff, the Class, 28 and the Aggrieved Employees to remain on-call and respond to work-related requests at all times,

1 including during purported meal periods, which included monitoring and responding to in-person 2 verbal interruptions.

3 25. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants failed to pay 4 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees premium wages for meal periods that were 5 missed, late, interrupted, or shortened in violation of California law. Defendants knew or should 6 have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were entitled to receive all 7 meal periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at their regular rate of pay when a meal 8 period was missed, short, late, and/or interrupted. Notwithstanding this knowledge, Defendants 9 routinely failed to provide legally compliant meal periods to Plaintiff, the Class, and the 10 Aggrieved Employees, and routinely failed pay one additional hour of pay to Plaintiff, the Class, 11 and the Aggrieved Employees at their regular rate of pay when a meal period was missed, short, 12 late, and/or interrupted.

13 26. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants have implemented 14 policies and practices which prohibited Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees from 15 taking timely and duty-free rest periods. Defendants regularly failed to provide, authorize, and 16 permit Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to take full, uninterrupted, off-duty rest 17 periods for every shift lasting three and one-half (3.5) to six (6) hours and/or two full, 18 uninterrupted, off-duty rest periods for every shift lasting six (6) to ten (10) hours, and failed to 19 make a good faith effort to authorize, permit, and provide such rest breaks in the middle of each 20 work period.

21 27. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants did not adequately 22 inform Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees of their right to take rest periods under 23 California law. Moreover, Defendants systematically disregarded their own written policies
24 regarding the provision and timing of rest periods for Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
25 Employees. Instead, Defendants' actual policy and practice was to schedule Plaintiff, the Class, 26 and the Aggrieved Employees in a way that regularly prohibited them from taking timely and 27 duty free rest periods, and to regularly require Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees 28 to work through their rest periods. Employer also required Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved

1 Employees to remain on-call and respond to work-related requests at all times, including during 2 purported rest periods, which included monitoring and responding to in-person verbal 3 interruptions.

4 28. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants failed to compensate 5 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees for nonproductive rest period time separate 6 from any piece-rate compensation at least the applicable minimum wage rate

7 29. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants failed to pay 8 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees premium wages for rest periods that were 9 missed, late, interrupted, or shortened in violation of California law. Defendants knew or should 10 have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were entitled to receive all 11 rest periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at their regular rate of pay when a rest period 12 was missed, short, late, and/or interrupted. Notwithstanding this knowledge, Defendants routinely 13 failed to authorize and permit Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to take duty-free 14 rest periods, and failed to pay one additional hour of pay to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved 15 Employees at their regular rate of pay when a rest period was missed, short, late and/or interrupted.

16 30. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendant regularly required 17 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to perform work off-the-clock. Although 18 Defendants prohibited overtime, Defendants still regularly required that Plaintiff, the Class, and 19 the Aggrieved Employees complete all of their assigned duties. To do so, Plaintiff, the Class, and 20 the Aggrieved Employees were regularly required to perform work off-the-clock for which they 21 were not compensated.

22 31. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants employed a time 23 rounding policy that was not neutral and designed to consistently round time in Defendants' favor, 24 ensuring that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were oftentimes not paid for all 25 time worked.

26 32. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants implemented policies 27 that prohibited Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees from accurately recording the 28

1 actual time worked, resulting in a failure to pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees 2 all wages owed.

3 33. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants routinely required 4 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees while off-the-clock. Defendants did not 5 compensate Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees for spent spend undergoing these 6 security checks.

7 34. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Plaintiff, the Class, and the 8 Aggrieved Employees worked more than eight (8) hours in a day, and/or forty (40) hours in a 9 week.

10 35. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to 11 pay overtime compensation to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees when they 12 worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a single work day and/or forty (40) hours in a single work 13 week. Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved 14 Employees were entitled to receive certain wages for overtime compensation and that they were 15 not receiving wages for overtime compensation.

16 36. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants failed to pay 17 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees for all overtime hours worked based on regular 18 rates of pay correctly calculated to include all applicable remuneration, including piece-rate pay.

19 37. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to 20 pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees at least minimum wages for all hours 21 worked. Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved 22 Employees were entitled to receive at least minimum wages for all hours worked and that they 23 were not receiving at least minimum wages for all hours worked. Defendants' failure to pay 24 minimum wages included, inter alia, failing to pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved 25 Employees at the required minimum wage pursuant to California law, requiring Plaintiff, the 26 Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to perform work off the clock, failing to pay Plaintiff, the 27 Class, and the Aggrieved Employees for nonproductive time separate from any piece-rate 28 compensation at least the applicable minimum wage rate, implementing time rounding policies

1 that resulted in the systematic underpayment of wages to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
2 Employees, and requiring Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to undergo security 3 checks while off-the-clock.

4 38. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to 5 pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees all wages owed to them upon discharge or 6 resignation. Defendant knew or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved 7 Employees were entitled to receive all wages owed to them upon termination within the time 8 permissible under California Labor Code section 202. Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved 9 Employees did not receive payment of all final wages owed to them upon discharge or resignation, 10 including overtime compensation and minimum wages within any time permissible under 11 California Labor Code section 202.

12 39. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to 13 pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees all wages within any time permissible 14 under California law, including, inter alia, California Labor Code section 204. Defendants knew 15 or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were entitled to 16 receive all wages owed to them during their employment. Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved 17 Employees did not receive payment of all wages, including overtime compensation, minimum 18 wages, meal and rest period premiums, within any time permissible under California Labor Code 19 section 204.

20 40. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to 21 provide complete or accurate wage statements to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved 22 Employees. Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved 23 Employees were entitled to receive complete and accurate wage statements in accordance with 24 California law, but, in fact, they did not receive complete and accurate wage statements from 25 Defendants. The deficiencies included, inter alia, the failure to include the actual hours worked, 26 the actual gross wages earned, the correct rates of pay, meal and rest premiums owed, the number 27 of piece rate units earned and any applicable piece rates paid, the total hours of compensable rest 28 and recovery periods, the rate of compensation and gross wages paid for rest and recovery periods,

1 the total hours of nonproductive time, and the rate of compensation and gross wages paid for 2 nonproductive time

3 41. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to 4 keep complete or accurate payroll records for Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees.
5 Defendants knew or should have known that Defendants were required keep complete and 6 accurate payroll records for Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees in accordance with 7 California law, but, in fact, did not keep complete and accurate payroll records.

8 42. Throughout the time period involved in this Case, Defendants failed to reimburse 9 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees for all necessary business-related expenses, 10 including but not limited to costs associated with the use of their personal vehicles, personal cell 11 phones, and personal tools and equipment. Defendants knew or should have known that 12 Defendants were required to reimburse Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees for all 13 necessary business-related expenses and costs, but, in fact, failed to do so in violation of 14 California law.

15 43. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants knew or should have 16 known that they had a duty to compensate Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees 17 pursuant to California law. Defendants had the financial ability to pay such compensation, but 18 willfully, knowingly, and intentionally failed to do so, and falsely represented to Plaintiff, the 19 Class, and the Aggrieved Employees that they paid all wages owed to them, all in order to increase 20 Defendants' profits.

21 44. California Labor Code section 218 states that nothing in Article 1 of the Labor 22 Code shall limit the right of any wage claimant to "sue directly ... for any wages or penalty due 23 to him [or her] under this article."

24 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

25 (Violation of California Labor Code §§ 510 and 1198)

26 (Against All Defendants)

27 45. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and 28 every allegation set forth above.

1 46. California Labor Code section 1198 and the applicable Industrial Welfare 2 Commission (“IWC”) Wage Order provide that it is unlawful to employ persons without 3 compensating them at a rate of pay either time-and-one-half or two-times that person’s regular 4 rate of pay, depending on the number of hours worked by the person on a daily or weekly basis.

5 47. Specifically, the applicable IWC Wage Order provides that Defendants are and 6 were required to pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members employed by Defendants, and working 7 more than eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek, at the rate of 8 time-and-one-half for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty 9 (40) hours in a workweek.

10 48. The applicable IWC Wage Order further provides that Defendants are and were 11 required to pay Plaintiff and the Class overtime compensation at a rate of two times their regular 12 rate of pay for all hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in a day and for all hours worked 13 in excess of eight (8) hours on the seventh day of work in a workweek.

14 49. California Labor Code section 510 codifies the right to overtime compensation at 15 one-and-one-half times the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a 16 day or forty (40) hours in a week or for the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh day of 17 work, and no overtime compensation at twice the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess 18 of twelve (12) hours in a day or in excess of eight (8) hours in a day on the seventh day of work.

19 50. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and the other Class Members regularly 20 worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day, and/or in excess of forty (40) hours in a week.

21 51. During the relevant time period, Defendants intentionally and willfully failed to 22 pay overtime wages owed to Plaintiff and the other Class Members.

23 52. Defendants’ failure to pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members the unpaid 24 balance of overtime compensation, as required by California laws, violates the provisions of 25 California Labor Code sections 510 and 1198, and is therefore unlawful.

26 53. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194, Plaintiff and the other Class 27 Members are entitled to recover unpaid overtime compensation, as well as interest, costs, and 28 attorneys’ fees.

ELEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION
(Violation of California Labor Code § 2699, Et Seq.)
(Against All Defendants)

115. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and every allegation set forth above.

116. Plaintiff brings his eleventh cause of action as a representative action on behalf of himself and similarly Aggrieved Employees in the capacity as a private attorney general pursuant to the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, California Labor Code section 2698, et seq. (“PAGA”).

117. PAGA specifically provides for a private right of action to recover civil penalties for violations of the Labor Code as follows: “Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any provision of this code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the Labor and Workforce Development Agency or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards, agencies, or employees, for a violation of this code, may, as an alternative, be recovered through a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of himself or herself and other current or former employees pursuant to the procedures specified in Section 2699.3.” Cal. Lab. Code § 2699(a).

118. Plaintiff was employed by Defendants and the Labor Code violations alleged above were committed against him during his time of employment. Plaintiff is therefore, an “aggrieved employee” under PAGA.

119. As set forth in detail above, during all times relevant to this Action, Defendant has routinely subjected Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to violations of California Labor Codes by:

- a. Failing to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees all earned minimum wage compensation in violation of Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1198 et seq.;
- b. Failing to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees all earned overtime compensation in violation of Labor Code §§ 204, 510, 1194, and 1198 et seq.;

- c. Failing to provide legally required meal periods to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees, and failing to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees an additional hour of premium pay for meal period violations in violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512.
- d. Failing to provide authorize and permit Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to take duty-free rest periods, and failing to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees an additional hour of premium pay for rest period violations in violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512.
- e. Failing to timely pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees all wages at end of their employment in violation of Labor Code § 203.
- f. Failing to timely pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees all wages owed during employment in violation of Labor Code § 204.
- g. Failing to furnish Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees with complete, accurate, itemized wage statements in violation of Labor Code § 226;
- h. Failing to maintain accurate records relating to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees' work periods, meal periods, total daily hours, hours per pay period, and applicable pay rates.
- i. Failing to reimburse Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for necessary business-related expenses in violation of Labor Code §§ 2800 and 2802.

120. Pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2699 and 2699.5, Plaintiff, individually and on behalf of the Aggrieved Employees and the State of California, requests and is entitled to recover penalties against Defendants for the Labor Code violations described above, including but not limited to penalties under California Code of Regulations Title section 11010, penalties under California Labor Code sections 2699, 558, 210, 1197.1, 226, 226.3 and 1174.5, and any and all additional penalties and sums as provided by the California Labor Code and/or other statutes. The exact amount of the applicable penalties, in all, is in an amount to be shown according to proof at trial.

121. Plaintiff has exhausted his administrative remedies pursuant to Labor Code § 2699.3. On June 5, 2020, Plaintiff, through his counsel of record, by online filing with the Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) and by certified mail to the Defendants, notified Defendants and the LWDA of the specific provisions of the Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders that Defendants have violated, including the facts and theories to support the violations, and of Plaintiff’s intent to bring a claim for civil penalties under PAGA. Plaintiff also paid the filing fee required under Labor Code § 2699.3. As of the filing of this Complaint, more than 65 days have elapsed since the mailing of Plaintiff’s June 5, 2020 notice, and the Labor and Workforce Development Agency has not indicated that it intends to investigate the violations discussed in the notice. Accordingly, Plaintiff may commence a civil action to recover penalties for himself and other Aggrieved Employees pursuant to Labor Code § 2699.3.

122. Plaintiff was compelled to retain the services of counsel to file this court action to protect his interests and the Aggrieved Employees, and to assess and collect the civil penalties owed by Defendants. Plaintiff therefore seeks an award of reasonable attorney’s fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(g)(1), and any other applicable statute.

123. Plaintiff may amend this complaint as a matter of right pursuant to California Labor Code § 2699.3 as this complaint has been filed within sixty days of the time periods specified in Labor Code §2699.3
