DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

SUMMONS ISSUED

PER LOCAL RULE, THIS CASE IS ASSIGNED TO
DEPT 39, FOR ALL
PURPOSES.

COME NOW, Plaintiffs Francesca Burke and Ashley Thompson (“Plaintiffs”), individually, and on behalf of other members of the general public similarly situated and aggrieved employees pursuant to the Private Attorneys General Act, and allege as follows:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This class action is brought pursuant to the California Code of Civil Procedure section 382. The monetary damages and restitution sought by Plaintiffs exceed the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court and will be established according to proof at trial.

2. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to the California Constitution, Article VI, Section 10, which grants the superior court “original jurisdiction in all other causes” except those given by statute to other courts. The statutes under which this action is brought do not specify any other basis for jurisdiction.

3. This Court has jurisdiction over Defendants because, upon information and belief, Defendants are citizens of California, have sufficient minimum contacts in California, or otherwise intentionally avail themselves of the California market so as to render the exercise of jurisdiction over them by the California courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice.

4. Venue is proper in this Court because, upon information and belief, Defendants maintain offices, have agents, and/or transact business in the State of California, including the County of Contra Costa. The majority of the acts and omissions alleged herein relating to Plaintiffs took place in the State of California. Defendants employed Plaintiffs within the State of California, County of Contra Costa.

PARTIES

5. Plaintiffs Francesca Burke and Ashley Thompson are individuals residing in the State of California, County of Contra Costa.

1 6. Defendants OLD REPUBLIC HOME PROTECTION COMPANY, INC. and 2 OLD REPUBLIC HOME PROTECTION SERVICES, INC. at all times herein mentioned, were
3 and are, upon information and belief, California corporations, and at all times herein
4 mentioned, was and is, an employer whose employees are engaged throughout the State of 5 California, including the County of Contra Costa.

6 7. At all relevant times, Defendants OLD REPUBLIC HOME PROTECTION
7 COMPANY, INC. and OLD REPUBLIC HOME PROTECTION SERVICES, INC. were the 8 “employer” of Plaintiffs within the meaning of all applicable California laws and statutes.

9 8. At all times herein relevant, Defendants OLD REPUBLIC HOME
10 PROTECTION COMPANY, INC., OLD REPUBLIC HOME PROTECTION SERVICES, INC.
11 and DOES 1 through 100, and each of them, were the agents, partners, joint venturers, joint 12 employers, representatives, servants, employees, successors-in-interest, co-conspirators and 13 assigns, each of the other, and at all times relevant hereto were acting within the course and 14 scope of their authority as such agents, partners, joint venturers, joint employers, 15 representatives, servants, employees, successors, co-conspirators and assigns, and all acts or 16 omissions alleged herein were duly committed with the ratification, knowledge, permission, 17 encouragement, authorization, and consent of each defendant designated herein.

18 9. The true names and capacities, whether corporate, associate, individual or 19 otherwise, of Defendants DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, are unknown to Plaintiffs, who sue
20 said defendants by such fictitious names. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based on 21 that information and belief allege, that each of the Defendants designated as a DOE is legally
22 responsible for the events and happenings referred to in this Complaint, and unlawfully caused 23 the injuries and damages to Plaintiffs and the other class members as alleged in this Complaint.
24 Plaintiffs will seek leave of court to amend this Complaint to show the true names and 25 capacities when the same have been ascertained.

26 ///

27 ///

28 ///

10. Defendants OLD REPUBLIC HOME PROTECTION COMPANY, INC., OLD REPUBLIC HOME PROTECTION SERVICES, INC. and DOES 1 through 100 will hereinafter collectively be referred to as “Defendants.”

11. Plaintiffs further allege that Defendants directly or indirectly controlled or affected the working conditions, wages, working hours, and conditions of employment of Plaintiffs and the other class members so as to make each of said Defendants employers and employers liable under the statutory provisions set forth herein.

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

12. Plaintiffs bring this action on their own behalf and on behalf of all other members of the general public similarly situated, and, thus, seek class certification under Code of Civil Procedure section 382.

13. The proposed class is defined as follows:

All current and former hourly-paid or non-exempt employees of Defendants within the State of California at any time during the period from April 27, 2016¹ to final judgment.

14. Plaintiffs reserve the right to establish subclasses as appropriate.

15. The class is ascertainable and there is a well-defined community of interest in the litigation:

a. Numerosity: The class members are so numerous that joinder of all class members is impracticable. The membership of the entire class is unknown to Plaintiffs at this time; however, the class is estimated to be greater than fifty (50) individuals and the identity of such membership is readily ascertainable by inspection of Defendants’ employment records.

¹ Per Emergency Rule 9 (Tolling statute of limitations for civil causes of action) of the Judicial Council’s Emergency Rules Related to COVID-19, all statute of limitations for civil causes of action that exceed 180 days are tolled from April 6, 2020 until October 1, 2020. Accordingly, Plaintiffs’ claims were tolled during that time period.

- 1 b. Typicality: Plaintiffs' claims are typical of all other class members'
- 2 claims as demonstrated herein. Plaintiffs will fairly and adequately
- 3 protect the interests of the other class members with whom they have a
- 4 well-defined community of interest.
- 5 c. Adequacy: Plaintiffs will fairly and adequately protect the interests of
- 6 each class member, with whom they have a well-defined community of
- 7 interest and typicality of claims, as demonstrated herein. Plaintiffs have
- 8 no interest that is antagonistic to the other class members. Plaintiffs'
- 9 attorneys, the proposed class counsel, are versed in the rules governing
- 10 class action discovery, certification, and settlement. Plaintiffs have
- 11 incurred, and during the pendency of this action will continue to incur,
- 12 costs and attorneys' fees, that have been, are, and will be necessarily
- 13 expended for the prosecution of this action for the substantial benefit of
- 14 each class member.
- 15 d. Superiority: A class action is superior to other available methods for the
- 16 fair and efficient adjudication of this litigation because individual joinder
- 17 of all class members is impractical.
- 18 e. Public Policy Considerations: Certification of this lawsuit as a class
- 19 action will advance public policy objectives. Employers of this great
- 20 state violate employment and labor laws every day. Current employees
- 21 are often afraid to assert their rights out of fear of direct or indirect
- 22 retaliation. However, class actions provide the class members who are
- 23 not named in the complaint anonymity that allows for the vindication of
- 24 their rights.

25 16. There are common questions of law and fact as to the class members that

26 predominate over questions affecting only individual members. The following common

27 questions of law or fact, among others, exist as to the members of the class:

28 ///

- a. Whether Defendants' failure to pay wages, without abatement or reduction, in accordance with the California Labor Code, was willful;
- b. Whether Defendants failed to pay their hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the State of California for all hours worked, missed meal periods and rest breaks in violation of California law;
- c. Whether Defendants required Plaintiffs and the other class members to work over eight (8) hours per day and/or over forty (40) hours per week and failed to pay the legally required overtime compensation to Plaintiffs and the other class members;
- d. Whether Defendants properly calculated the regular rate for Plaintiffs and the other class members to worked overtime and earned incentive pay;
- e. Whether Defendants deprived Plaintiffs and the other class members of meal and/or rest periods or required Plaintiffs and the other class members to work during meal and/or rest periods without compensation;
- f. Whether Defendants failed to pay minimum wages to Plaintiffs and the other class members for all hours worked;
- g. Whether Defendants failed to pay all wages due to Plaintiffs and the other class members within the required time upon their discharge or resignation;
- h. Whether Defendants failed to timely pay all wages due to Plaintiffs and the other class members during their employment;
- i. Whether Defendants complied with wage reporting as required by the California Labor Code, including, inter alia, section 226;
- j. Whether Defendants failed to reimburse class members for necessary business-related expenses and costs;
- k. Whether Defendants' conduct was willful or reckless;

- 1 l. Whether Defendants engaged in unfair business practices in violation of 2 California Business & Professions Code section 17200, et seq.;
3 m. The appropriate amount of damages, restitution, and/or monetary
4 penalties resulting from Defendants' violation of California law; and 5 n. Whether Plaintiffs and the other class members are entitled to 6 compensatory damages pursuant to the California Labor Code.

7 GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

8 17. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants employed Plaintiffs
9 and other persons as hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the State of California.

11 employee until in or about February of 2020 in the State of California, County of Contra Costa.

21 class members.

23 State of California.

24 23. Plaintiffs and the other class members worked over eight (8) hours in a day,
25 and/or forty (40) hours in a week during their employment with Defendants.

26 ///

27 ///

28 ///

1 24. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants
2 engaged in a uniform policy and systematic scheme of wage abuse against their hourly-paid or
3 non-exempt employees within the State of California. This scheme involved, inter alia, failing
4 to pay them for all hours worked, missed meal periods, and missed rest breaks in violation of 5 California law.

6 25. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants
7 knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and the other class members were entitled to receive
8 certain wages for overtime compensation and that Plaintiffs and the other class members were 9 not receiving wages for overtime compensation.

10 26. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants
11 failed to provide Plaintiffs and the other class members the required rest and meal periods
12 during the relevant time period as required under the Industrial Welfare Commission Wage
13 Orders and thus they are entitled to any and all applicable penalties.

14 27. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants
15 knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and the other class members were entitled to receive
16 all timely and complete meal periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiffs'
17 and the other class members' regular rate of pay when a meal period was missed, late or 18 interrupted, and that Plaintiffs and the other class members did not receive all timely and 19 proper meal periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at their regular rate of pay when 20 a meal period was missed.

21 28. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants
22 knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and other class members were entitled to receive all
23 timely rest periods without interruption or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiffs'
24 and the other class members' regular rate of pay when a rest period was missed, late or 25 interrupted, and that Plaintiffs and the other class members did not receive all rest periods or 26 payment of one additional hour of pay at their regular rate of pay when a rest period was 27 missed.

28 ///

1 29. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants
2 knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and the other class members were entitled to receive
3 at least minimum wages for compensation and that Plaintiffs and the other class members were 4 not receiving at least minimum wages for all hours worked.

5 30. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants
6 knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and the other class members were entitled to receive
7 the wages owed to them upon discharge or resignation, including overtime and minimum
8 wages and meal and rest period premiums, and that Plaintiffs and the other class members did
9 not, in fact, receive such wages owed to them at the time of their discharge or resignation.

10 31. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants
11 knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and the other class members were entitled to receive
12 complete and accurate wage statements in accordance with California law, but, in fact,
13 Plaintiffs and the other class members did not receive complete and accurate wage statements
14 from Defendants. The deficiencies included, inter alia, the failure to include the total number
15 of hours worked by Plaintiffs and the other class members.

16 32. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants
17 knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and the other class members were entitled to 18 reimbursement for necessary business-related expenses.

19 33. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants
20 knew or should have known that Defendants had to keep complete and accurate payroll records
21 for Plaintiffs and the other class members in accordance with California law, but, in fact, did
22 not keep complete and accurate payroll records for Plaintiffs and the other class members.

23 34. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants
24 knew or should have known that they had a duty to compensate Plaintiffs and the other class
25 members pursuant to California law, and that Defendants had the financial ability to pay such 26 compensation, but willfully, knowingly, and intentionally failed to do so, and falsely
27 represented to Plaintiffs and the other class members that they were properly denied wages, all
28 in order to increase Defendants' profits.

35. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants failed to pay overtime wages to Plaintiffs and the other class members for all hours worked. Plaintiffs and other class members were required to work more than eight (8) hours per day and/or forty (40) hours per week without overtime compensation.

(Against OLD REPUBLIC HOME PROTECTION COMPANY, INC., OLD REPUBLIC HOME PROTECTION SERVICES, INC. and DOES 1 through 100)

43. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference the allegations contained in Paragraphs 1 through 42, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

1 44. California Labor Code section 1198 and the applicable Industrial Welfare
2 Commission (“IWC”) Wage Order provide that it is unlawful to employ persons without
3 compensating them at a rate of pay either time-and-one-half or two-times that person’s regular 4 rate of pay, depending on the number of hours worked by the person on a daily or weekly
5 basis.

6 45. Specifically, the applicable IWC Wage Order provides that Defendants are and 7 were required to pay Plaintiffs and the other class members employed by Defendants, who 8 work(ed) more than eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek, at 9 the rate of time-and-one-half for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or more

13 times their regular rate of pay for all hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in a day.

14 47. California Labor Code section 510 codifies the right to overtime compensation
15 at one-and-one-half times the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours
16 in a day or forty (40) hours in a week or for the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh day 17 of work, and overtime compensation at twice the regular hourly rate for hours worked in 18 excess of twelve (12) hours in a day or in excess of eight (8) hours in a day on the seventh day
19 of work.

21 members worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day, and/or in excess of forty (40) hours in a 22 week.

23 49. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants intentionally and 24 willfully failed to pay overtime wages owed to Plaintiffs and the other class members.

25 50. Defendants’ failure to pay Plaintiffs and the other class members the unpaid
26 balance of overtime compensation, as required by California laws, violates the provisions of 27 California Labor Code sections 510 and 1198, and is therefore unlawful.

28 ///

3 (Against OLD REPUBLIC HOME PROTECTION COMPANY, INC., OLD REPUBLIC

5 85. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1
6 through 84, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set
7 forth herein.

8 86. During the relevant time period set forth herein, California Labor Code section
9 226(a) provides that every employer shall furnish each of his or her employees an accurate
10 itemized statement in writing showing (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the 11 employee, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the 12 employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided that all deductions made on 13 written orders of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages
14 earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the 15 employee and his or her social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity
16 that is the employer, and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the 17 corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee. The deductions
18 made from payments of wages shall be recorded in ink or other indelible form, properly dated,
19 showing the month, day, and year, and a copy of the statement or a record of the deductions
20 shall be kept on file by the employer for at least three years at the place of employment or at a
21 central location within the State of California.

22 87. Defendants have intentionally and willfully failed to provide Plaintiffs and the 23 other class members with complete and accurate wage statements. The deficiencies include
24 but are not limited to: the failure to include the total number of hours worked by Plaintiffs and 25 other class members.

26 88. As a result of Defendants' violation of California Labor Code section 226(a),
27 Plaintiffs and the other class members have suffered injury and damage to their statutorily
28 protected rights.

89. More specifically, Plaintiffs and the other class members have been injured by Defendants' intentional and willful violation of California Labor Code section 226(a) because they were denied both their legal right to receive, and their protected interest in receiving, accurate and itemized wage statements pursuant to California Labor Code section 226(a).

90. Plaintiffs and the other class members are entitled to recover from Defendants the greater of their actual damages caused by Defendants' failure to comply with California Labor Code section 226(a), or an aggregate penalty not exceeding four thousand dollars per employee.

91. Plaintiffs and the other class members are also entitled to injunctive relief to ensure compliance with this section, pursuant to California Labor Code section 226(g).

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code §§ 2800 and 2802)

(Against OLD REPUBLIC HOME PROTECTION COMPANY, INC., OLD REPUBLIC HOME PROTECTION SERVICES, INC. and DOES 1 through 100)

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code §§ 2698, et seq.)

(Against OLD REPUBLIC HOME PROTECTION COMPANY, INC., OLD REPUBLIC HOME PROTECTION SERVICES, INC. and DOES 1 through 100)

95. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 94, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

96. PAGA expressly establishes that any provision of the California Labor Code which provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the LWDA, or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards, agencies or employees for a violation of the California Labor Code, may be recovered through a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of himself or herself, and other current or former employees.

97. On July 22, 2020, Plaintiffs provided written notice to the LWDA and Defendants of the specific provisions of the Labor Code they contend were violated, and the theories supporting their contentions. Attached hereto as Exhibit 1 and incorporated by reference is a copy of the July 22, 2020 written notice to the LWDA. Plaintiffs believe that on or about September 25, 2020, the sixty-five (65) day notice period expired as to all Defendants, and the LWDA did not take any action to investigate or prosecute this matter. Therefore, Plaintiffs exhausted their administrative remedies.

96. Plaintiffs and the other hourly-paid or non-exempt employees are “aggrieved employees” as defined by California Labor Code § 2699(c) in that they are all current and former hourly-paid or non-exempt employees of Defendants within the State of California who worked for Defendants at any time during the period from July 22, 2019 to the present, and one or more of the alleged violations was committed against them.

Re: OLD REPUBLIC HOME PROTECTION COMPANY, INC. AND OLD REPUBLIC HOME PROTECTION SERVICES, INC.

Dear Representative:

We have been retained to represent Mlls. Francesca Burke and Ashley Thompson against Old Republic Home Protection Company, Inc. and Old Republic Home Protection Services, Inc. (including any and all affiliates, managers, members, subsidiaries, and parents, and their shareholders, officers, directors, and employees), any individual, owner, officer and managing agent, DOES 1-10 as an "Employer" or person acting on behalf of an "Employer" pursuant to California Labor Code section 558.1, and DOES 11-20¹ for violations of California wage-and-hour laws (hereinafter collectively referred to as "OLD REPUBLIC").

Mlls. Francesca Burke and Ashley Thompson are pursuing their California Labor Code section 2698, et seq., the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 ("PAGA") claim on a representative basis. Therefore, Mlls. Francesca Burke and Ashley Thompson may seek penalties and wages for violations of the Labor Code on behalf of the State of California and aggrieved employees, which are recoverable under PAGA. This letter is sent in compliance with the reporting requirements of California Labor Code section 2699.3.

Old Republic Home Protection Company, Inc. is a California corporation located at 2 Annabel Lane Suite 112, San Ramon, California 94583. Old Republic Home Protection Services, Inc. is an Illinois corporation located at 2 Annabel Lane Suite 130, San Ramon, California 94583.

¹ Mlls. Burke and Thompson do not know the true names or capacities, whether individual, partner or corporate, of DOES 1 through 20, inclusive, and for that reason, said DOES are designated under such fictitious names. Mlls. Burke and Thompson will amend this notice when the true names and capacities are known. Mlls. Burke and Thompson are informed and believe that each DOE was responsible in some way for the matters alleged herein and proximately caused Mlls. Burke and Thompson, and other current and former aggrieved employees to be subject to the illegal employment practices, wrongs and injuries complained of herein.

OLD REPUBLIC employed Ms. Burke as an hourly-paid non-exempt Authorization Agent within one year of the date of this letter (until on or about February 4, 2020) in the State of California. OLD REPUBLIC employed Ms. Thompson as an hourly-paid non-exempt Service Support Specialist within one year of the date of this letter (until in or about October of 2019) in the State of California. OLD REPUBLIC directly controlled the wages, hours and working conditions of Mlls. Burke and Thompson's employment.

The "aggrieved employees" that Mlls. Francesca Burke and Ashley Thompson may seek penalties on behalf of are all current and former hourly-paid or non-exempt employees (whether hired directly or through staffing agencies or labor contractors) of OLD REPUBLIC within the State of California.

OLD REPUBLIC failed to properly pay its hourly-paid or non-exempt employees for all hours worked, failed to properly provide or compensate minimum and overtime wages and for meal and rest breaks, failed to issue compliant wage statements and failed to reimburse for all necessary business-related costs and expenses, thus resulting in other Labor Code violations as stated below.

Pursuant to Huff v. Securitas Security Services, 23 Cal. App. 5th 745, 751 (2018), an employee who brings a representative action and was affected by at least one of the violations alleged in the complaint has standing to pursue penalties on behalf of the state not only for that violation, but for violations affecting other employees as well. Accordingly, Mlls. Francesca Burke and Ashley Thompson have standing to pursue penalties on behalf of the state for violations affecting all the aggrieved employees at OLD REPUBLIC, regardless of their classification, job title, locations, or whether they were hired directly or through a labor contractor or staffing agency.

OLD REPUBLIC has violated and/or continues to violate, among other provisions of the California Labor Code and applicable wage law, California Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 218.5, 221, 226(a), 226.3, 226.7, 510, 512(a), 558, 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800 and 2802, and the IWC Wage Orders.

California Labor Code sections 510, 1194, and 1198 require employers to pay at least minimum wage for all hours worked, pay time-and-a-half, or double time overtime wages, and make it unlawful to work employees for hours longer than eight hours in one day and/or over forty hours in one week without paying the premium overtime rates. During the relevant time period, Mlls. Francesca Burke and Ashley Thompson, and other aggrieved employees routinely worked in excess of 8 hours in a day and 40 hours in a week. OLD REPUBLIC failed to compensate Mlls. Francesca Burke and Ashley Thompson, and other aggrieved employees for all hours worked and performing off-the-clock work, including pre- and post-shift, while working on-call shifts and during meal breaks. OLD REPUBLIC also failed to include non-discretionary bonuses and incentives in Mlls. Francesca Burke and Ashley Thompson, and other aggrieved employees' regular rate for purposes of overtime compensation. Therefore, Mlls. Francesca Burke and Ashley Thompson, and other aggrieved employees were entitled to receive certain wages for overtime compensation, but they were not paid for all overtime hours worked.

California Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512 require employers to pay an employee one additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate for each workday that a meal or rest break is not provided. During the relevant time period, OLD REPUBLIC routinely required Mlls. Francesca Burke and Ashley Thompson, and other aggrieved employees to work through, interrupt, cut short, and/or delay their meal and rest breaks to comply with OLD REPUBLIC policies and expectations, and meet production goals. Moreover, OLD REPUBLIC failed to authorize and permit Mlls. Francesca Burke and Ashley Thompson, and other aggrieved employees to take the requisite number of meal and rest breaks, including second meal breaks and third rest breaks, when working shifts exceeding 10 hours in length. Despite these facts, OLD REPUBLIC failed to compensate Mlls. Francesca Burke and Ashley Thompson, and other aggrieved employees all the premium wages they were owed.

California Labor Code section 201 requires that if an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately. California Labor Code section 202 requires that if an employee not having a written contract for a definite period quits his or her employment, his or her wages shall become due and payable not later than 72 hours thereafter, unless the employee has given 72 hours previous notice of his or her intention to quit, in which case the employee is entitled to his or her wages at the time of quitting. California Labor Code section 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay, without abatement or reduction, in accordance with Labor Code sections 201, 201.3, 201.5, 201.6, 201.8, 201.9, 202, and 205.5, any wages of an employee who is discharged or who quits, the wages of the employee shall continue as a penalty from the due date thereof at the same rate until paid or until an action therefor is commenced; but the wages shall not continue for more than 30 days. During the relevant time period, OLD REPUBLIC failed to pay Mlls. Francesca Burke and Ashley Thompson, and other aggrieved employees all wages, including for uncompensated off-the-clock work and premium wages for failing to provide legally mandated meal and rest breaks as explained above, due to them within any time period specified by California Labor Code sections 201 and 203 and therefore is liable under California Labor Code section 203.

California Labor Code section 204 requires that all wages earned by any person in any employment between the 1st and the 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month, other than those wages due upon termination of an employee, are due and payable between the 16th and the 26th day of the month during which the labor was performed, and that all wages earned by any person in any employment between the 16th and the last day, inclusive, of any calendar month, other than those wages due upon termination of an employee, are due and payable between the 1st and the 10th day of the following month. California Labor Code section 204 also requires that all wages earned for labor in excess of the normal work period shall be paid no later than the payday for the next regular payroll period. During the relevant time period, OLD REPUBLIC failed to pay Mlls. Francesca Burke and Ashley Thompson, and other aggrieved employees all wages due to them, including for uncompensated off-the-clock work and premium wages as explained above, within any time period specified by California Labor Code section 204.

California Labor Code section 226 requires employers to make, keep and provide complete and accurate itemized wage statements to their employees. During the relevant time period, OLD REPUBLIC did not provide Mlls. Francesca Burke and Ashley Thompson, and other aggrieved employees with complete and accurate itemized wage statements. The wage statements they received from OLD REPUBLIC were in violation of California Labor Code section 226(a). The violations include, but are not limited to, the failure to include (1) gross wages earned by Mlls. Francesca Burke and Ashley Thompson, and other aggrieved employees, (2) total hours worked by Mlls. Francesca Burke and Ashley Thompson, and other aggrieved employees, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate by Mlls. Francesca Burke and Ashley Thompson, and other aggrieved employees (4) all deductions for Mlls. Francesca Burke and Ashley Thompson, and other aggrieved employees, (5) net wages earned by Mlls. Francesca Burke and Ashley Thompson, and other aggrieved employees, (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which Mlls. Francesca Burke and Ashley Thompson, and other aggrieved employees are paid, (7) the name of the aggrieved employee and only the last four digits of his or her social security number or an employee identification number other than a social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by Mlls. Francesca Burke and Ashley Thompson, and other aggrieved employees.

California Labor Code section 558 allows recovery of penalties. (a) Any employer or other person acting on behalf of an employer who violates, or causes to be violated, a section of this chapter or any provision regulating hours and days of work in any order of the Industrial Welfare Commission shall be subject to a civil penalty as follows: (1) For any initial violation, fifty dollars ($50) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages. (2) For each subsequent violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages. (3) Wages recovered pursuant to this section shall be paid to the affected employee. Mlls. Francesca Burke and Ashley Thompson, and other aggrieved employees have been denied their wages and premium wages and, therefore, are entitled to penalties.

California Labor Code sections 1174(d) requires an employer to keep, at a central location in the state or at the plants or establishments at which employees are employed, payroll records showing the hours worked daily by and the wages paid to, and the number of piece-rate units earned by and any applicable piece rate paid to, employees employed at the respective plants or establishments. These records shall be kept with rules established for this purpose by the commission, but in any case, shall be kept on file for not less than two years. During the relevant time period, OLD REPUBLIC failed to keep accurate and complete payroll records showing the hours worked daily and the wages paid, to Mlls. Francesca Burke and Ashley Thompson, and other aggrieved employees.

California Labor Code sections 1194, 1197 and 1197.1 provide the minimum wage to be paid to employees, and the payment of a lesser wage than the minimum so fixed is unlawful. During the relevant time period, OLD REPUBLIC did not provide Mlls. Francesca Burke and Ashley Thompson, and other aggrieved employees with the minimum wages to which they were entitled despite constructive and actual knowledge of off-the-clock work, including pre- and post-shift, while working on-call, and during meal breaks.

California Labor Code sections 2800 and 2802 require an employer to reimburse its employee for all necessary expenditures incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the discharge of his or her job duties or in direct consequence of his or her obedience to the directions of the employer. During their employment, Mlls. Francesca Burke and Ashley Thompson, and other aggrieved employees incurred necessary business-related expenses and costs that were not fully reimbursed by OLD REPUBLIC, including for using their personal cellular phones and vehicles for work purposes.

We believe that Mlls. Francesca Burke and Ashley Thompson, and other current and former California-based hourly-paid or non-exempt employees are entitled to penalties and wages as allowed under California Labor Code section 2698, et seq. for violations of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 218.5, 221, 226(a), 226.3, 226.7, 510, 512(a), 558, 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800 and 2802, and the IWC Wage Orders.

California Labor Code section 2699.3 requires that a claimant send a certified letter to the employer in questions and the California Labor & Workforce Development Agency setting forth the claims, and the basis for the claims, thereby giving the California Labor & Workforce Development Agency an opportunity to investigate the claims and/or take any action it deems appropriate.

The purpose of this letter is to satisfy the requirement created by California Labor code section 2699 prior to seeking penalties allowed by law for the aforementioned statutory violations. We look forward to determining whether California Labor & Workforce Development Agency intends to take any action in reference to these claims. We kindly request that you respond to this notice according to the time frame contemplated by the California Labor Code.

Mlls. Francesca Burke and Ashley Thompson, will seek these penalties and wages on their own behalf and on behalf of other similarly situated California-based hourly-paid or non-exempt employees of OLD REPUBLIC within one year of the date of this letter, as allowed by law.
