DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

[Amount in Controversy Exceeds $25,000.00]

COMES NOW plaintiff JORGE GARCIA MORALES ("Plaintiff"), on behalf of Plaintiff and all others similarly situated, and alleges as follows:

GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

INTRODUCTION

1. This is a Class Action, pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 382, against BALDY'S RESTAURANT GROUP LLC doing business as LITTLE FAT'Y, and any of its respective subsidiaries or affiliated companies within the State of California ("BALDY") and DAVID KUO, an individual ("KUO" and, together with BALDY and DOES 1 through 100, as further defined below, "Defendants") on behalf of Plaintiff and all other current and former non-exempt California employees employed by or formerly employed by Defendants ("Class Members").

PARTIES

A. Plaintiff

2. Plaintiff is a resident of the State of California. At all relevant times herein, Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges that Defendants employed Plaintiff as a non-exempt employee, with duties that included, but were not limited to, preparing and cooking food as well as washing dishes. Plaintiff is informed and believes that Plaintiff worked for Defendants from approximately 2014 through on or about September of 2019.

B. Defendants

3. Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that defendant BALDY is, and at all times relevant hereto was, a limited liability company organized and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of California and doing business in the County of Los Angeles, State of California.

4. Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that defendant KUO is, and at all times relevant hereto was, an individual residing in California, as well as owner or principal of BALDY, and DOES 1 through 100, as further defined below. Plaintiff is further informed and believes and based thereon alleges that KUO violated, or caused to be violated, the above-referenced and below-referenced Labor Code provisions in violation of Labor Code section 1 558.1.

2 5. The true names and capacities, whether individual, corporate, associate, or otherwise,
3 of defendants sued herein as DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, are currently unknown to Plaintiff,
4 who therefore sues defendants by such fictitious names under Code of Civil Procedure section 474.
5 Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that each of the defendants designated 6 herein as DOE is legally responsible in some manner for the unlawful acts referred to herein.
7 Plaintiff will seek leave of court to amend this Complaint to reflect the true names and capacities of 8 the defendants designated hereinafter as DOES when such identities become known. Plaintiff is 9 informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that each defendant acted in all respects pertinent
10 to this action, as the agent of the other defendant(s), carried out a joint scheme, business plan or 11 policy in all respects pertinent hereto, and the acts of each defendant are legally attributable to the 12 other defendants. Whenever, heretofore or hereinafter, reference is made to "Defendants," it shall 13 include BALDY, KUO, and any of their parent, subsidiary, or affiliated companies within the State
14 of California, as well as DOES 1 through 100 identified herein.

15 JOINT LIABILITY ALLEGATIONS

16 6. Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that all the times
17 mentioned herein, each of the Defendants was the agent, principal, employee, employer, 18 representative, joint venture or co-conspirator of each of the other defendants, either actually or 19 ostensibly, and in doing the things alleged herein acted within the course and scope of such agency, 20 employment, joint venture, and conspiracy.

21 7. All of the acts and conduct described herein of each and every corporate defendant 22 was duly authorized, ordered, and directed by the respective and collective defendant corporate 23 employers, and the officers and management-level employees of said corporate employers. In 24 addition thereto, said corporate employers participated in the aforementioned acts and conduct of 25 their said employees, agents, and representatives, and each of them; and upon completion of the 26 aforesaid acts and conduct of said corporate employees, agents, and representatives, the defendant
27 corporation respectively and collectively ratified, accepted the benefits of, condoned, lauded, 28 acquiesced, authorized, and otherwise approved of each and all of the said acts and conduct of the 1 aforementioned corporate employees, agents and representatives.

2 8. Plaintiff is further informed and believes and based thereon alleges that KUO
3 violated, or caused to be violated, the above-referenced and below-referenced Labor Code
4 provisions in violation of Labor Code section 558.1.

5 9. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that there exists such a 6 unity of interest and ownership between Defendants, and each of them, that their individuality and 7 separateness have ceased to exist.

8 10. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges that despite the 9 formation of the purported corporate existence of BALDY, and DOES 1 through 50, inclusive (the 10 "Alter Ego Defendants"), they, and each of them, are one and the same with KUO and DOES 51
11 through 100 ("Individual Defendants"), and each of them, due to, but not limited to, the following 12 reasons:

13 A. The Alter Ego Defendants are completely dominated and controlled by the Individual 14 Defendants who personally committed the wrongful and illegal acts and violated the 15 laws as set forth in this Complaint, and who has hidden and currently hide behind the 16 Alter Ego Defendants to perpetrate frauds, circumvent statutes, or accomplish some 17 other wrongful or inequitable purpose;

18 B. The Individual Defendants derive actual and significant monetary benefits by and 19 through the Alter Ego Defendants' unlawful conduct. and by using the Alter Ego
20 Defendants as the funding source for the Individual Defendants' own personal 21 expenditures;

22 C. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that the Individual Defendants 23 and the Alter Ego Defendants, while really one and the same, were segregated to 24 appear as though separate and distinct for purposes of perpetrating a fraud,
25 circumventing a statute, or accomplishing some other wrongful or inequitable 26 purpose;

27 D. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that the business affairs of the 28 Individual Defendants and the Alter Ego Defendants are, and at all relevant times

mentioned herein were, so mixed and intermingled that the same cannot reasonably be segregated, and the same are inextricable confusion. The Alter Ego Defendants are, and at all relevant times mentioned herein were, used by the Individual Defendants as mere shells and conduits for the conduct of certain of their, and each of their affairs. The Alter Ego Defendants are, and at all relevant times mentioned herein were, the alter egos of the Individual Defendants;

E. The recognition of the separate existence of the Individual Defendants and the Alter Ego Defendants would promote injustice insofar that it would permit defendants to insulate themselves from liability to Plaintiff for violations of the Civil Code, Labor Code, and other statutory violations. The corporate existence of these defendants should thus be disregarded in equity and for the ends of justice because such disregard is necessary to avoid fraud and injustice to Plaintiff herein;

F. Accordingly, the Alter Ego Defendants constitute the alter ego of the Individual Defendants (and vice versa), and the fiction of their separate corporate existence must be disregarded;

11. As a result of the aforementioned facts, Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges that Defendants, and each of them, are joint employers.

JURISDICTION

12. Jurisdiction exists in the Superior Court of the State of California pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 410.10.

13. Venue is proper in Los Angeles County, California pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure sections 392, et seq. because, among other things, Los Angeles County is where the causes of action complained of herein arose; the county in which the employment relationship began; the county in which performance of the employment contract, or part of it, between Plaintiff and Defendants was due to be performed; the county in which the employment contract, or part of it, between Plaintiff and Defendants was actually performed; and the county in which Defendants, or some of them, reside. Moreover, the unlawful acts alleged herein have a direct effect on Plaintiff and Class Members in Los Angeles County, and because Defendants employ numerous Class

1 Members in Los Angeles County.

2 14. Plaintiff is an “aggrieved employee” under PAGA, as he was employed by 3 Defendants during the applicable statutory period and suffered one or more of the Labor Code
4 violations set forth herein. Accordingly, Plaintiff seeks to recover, on behalf of himself and all other
5 aggrieved current and former employees of Defendants, the civil penalties provided by PAGA plus
6 reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs, as the term “civil penalty” is defined under ZB N.A. v. Superior
7 Court (2019) 8 Cal.5th 175.

8 15. Plaintiff seeks to recover the PAGA civil penalties through a representative action
9 permitted by PAGA and the California Supreme Court in, among other authorities, Arias v. Superior
10 Court (2009) 46 Cal.4th 969. According to the same authorities, class certification of the PAGA
11 allegations described herein is not required.

12 16. During the period beginning one (1) year preceding the provision of notice to the 13 LWDA regarding the herein-described Labor Code violations (the “Civil Penalty Period”),
14 Defendants violated, inter alia, Labor Code sections 200, 201, 202, 203, 204, 226, 226.3, 246, 432, 15 510, 512, 558, 1174, 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198.5, and 2699, among others.

16 17. Labor Code section 2699, subdivisions (a) and (g), authorizes aggrieved employees
17 such as Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and all other aggrieved current and former employees within 18 the statutory period, to bring a civil action to recover civil penalties pursuant to the procedures
19 specified in Labor Code section 2699.3.

20 18. On or around July 24, 2020, Plaintiff provided written notice under Labor Code
21 section 2699.3 online and by certified mail, with return receipt requested, of Defendants’ violation 22 of various, including the herein-described, provisions of the Labor Code. to the Labor and 23 Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”), as well as by certified mail, with return receipt 24 requested to Defendants, and each of them.

25 19. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699.3, subdivision (a)(2)(A), the LWDA did not 26 provide notice of its intention to investigate Defendants’ alleged violations within sixty-five (65)
27 calendar days of the July 24, 2020 postmarked date of the herein-described notice sent by Plaintiff
28 to the LWDA and Defendants.

1 FACTUAL BACKGROUND

2 20. For at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this action and continuing to the 3 present, Defendants have, at times, failed to pay overtime wages to Plaintiff and Class Members, or 4 some of them, in violation of California state wage and hour laws as a result of, without limitation,
5 Plaintiff and Class Members working over eight (8) hours per day, forty (40) hours per week, and 6 seven consecutive work days in a work week without being properly compensated for hours worked 7 in excess of (8) hours per day in a work day, forty (40) hours per week in a work week, and/or hours 8 worked on the seventh consecutive work day in a work week by, among other things, failing to 9 accurately track and/or pay for all hours actually worked; engaging, suffering, or permitting
10 employees to work off the clock, including, without limitation, by requiring employees to complete
11 pre-shift tasks before clocking in and post-shift tasks after clocking out: to clock out for meal periods
12 and continue working; failing to include all forms of remuneration, including shift rate differentials, 13 non-discretionary bonuses and/or incentive pay, into the regular rate of pay for the purpose of 14 calculating overtime pay; paying straight pay instead of overtime; and failing to pay overtime hours
15 at the proper overtime rate of pay or otherwise improper rate of pay, to the detriment of Plaintiff and 16 Class Members.

17 21. For at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this Action and continuing to the 18 present, Defendants have, at times, failed to pay minimum wages to Plaintiff and Class Members,
19 or some of them, in violation of California state wage and hour laws as a result of, among other 20 things, at times, failing to accurately track and/or pay for all hours actually worked; engaging, 21 suffering, or permitting employees to work off the clock, including, without limitation, by requiring 22 employees to complete pre-shift tasks before clocking in and post-shift tasks after clocking out, and 23 to clock out for meal periods and continue working; and failing to pay split shift premiums, to the 24 detriment of Plaintiff and Class Members.

25 22. For at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this Action and continuing to the 26 present, Defendants have, at times, failed to provide Plaintiff and Class Members, or some of them, 27 full, timely thirty (30) minute uninterrupted meal period for days on which they worked more than 28 five (5) hours in a work day and a second thirty (30) minute uninterrupted meal period for days on

1 which they worked in excess of ten (10) hours in a work day, and failing to provide compensation
2 for such unprovided meal periods as required by California wage and hour laws.

3 23. For at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this action and continuing to the 4 present, Defendants have, at times, failed to authorize and permit Plaintiff and Class Members, or 5 some of them, to take rest periods of at least ten (10) minutes per four (4) hours worked or major 6 fraction thereof and failed to provide compensation for such unprovided rest periods as required by 7 California wage and hour laws.

8 24. For at least three (3) years prior to the filing of this action and continuing to the 9 present, Defendants have, at times, failed to pay Plaintiff and Class Members, or some of them, the 10 full amount of their wages owed to them upon termination and/or resignation as required by Labor
11 Code sections 201 and 202.

12 25. For at least one (1) year prior to the filing of this Action and continuing to the present, 13 Defendants have, at times, failed to furnish Plaintiff and Class Members, or some of them, with 14 itemized wage statements that accurately reflect gross wages earned; total hours worked; net wages 15 earned; all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of 16 hours worked at each hourly rate; and other such information as required by Labor Code section
17 226, subdivision (a). As a result thereof, Defendants have further failed to furnish employees with 18 an accurate calculation of gross and gross wages earned, as well as gross and net wages paid.

19 26. For at least three (3) years prior to the filing of this action and continuing to the 20 present, Defendants have, at times, failed to indemnify Class Members, or some of them, for the 21 costs incurred in purchasing mandatory work shoes.

22 27. Plaintiff, on Plaintiff's own behalf and on behalf of Class Members, brings this action
23 pursuant to, including but not limited to, Labor Code sections 200, 201, 202, 203, 226, 226.7, 510,
24 512, 558.1, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 2802, and California Code of Regulations, Title 8, section 11040,
25 seeking overtime wages, minimum wages, payment of premium wages for missed meal and rest 26 periods, waiting time penalties, wage statement penalties, failure to indemnify work-related 27 expenses, other such provisions of California law, and reasonable attorneys' fees and costs.

28 28. Plaintiff, on Plaintiff's own behalf and on behalf of Class Members, pursuant to

1 Business and Professions Code sections 17200 through 17208, also seeks (an) injunction(s)
2 prohibiting Defendants from further violating the Labor Code and requiring the establishment of 3 appropriate and effective means to prevent further violations, as well as all monies owed but 4 withheld and retained by Defendants to which Plaintiff and Class Members are entitled, as well as 5 restitution of amounts owed.

6 CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

7 29. Plaintiff brings this action on behalf of Plaintiff and Class Members as a class action
8 pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 382. Plaintiff seeks to represent a class of all current 9 and former non-exempt employees of Defendants within the State of California at any time
10 commencing four (4) years preceding the filing of Plaintiff's complaint up until the time that notice
11 of the class action is provided to the class (collectively referred to as "Class Members").

12 30. Plaintiff reserves the right under California Rule of Court rule 3.765, subdivision (b)
13 to amend or modify the class description with greater specificity, further divide the defined class 14 into subclasses, and to further specify or limit the issues for which certification is sought.

15 31. This action has been brought and may properly be maintained as a class action under 16 the provisions of Code of Civil Procedure section 382 because there is a well-defined community
17 of interest in the litigation and the proposed Class is easily ascertainable.

18 A. Numerosity

19 32. The potential Class Members as defined are so numerous that joinder of all the 20 members of the Class is impracticable. While the precise number of Class Members has not been 21 determined yet, Plaintiff is informed and believes that there are over forty (40) Class Members
22 employed by Defendants within the State of California.

23 33. Accounting for employee turnover during the relevant periods necessarily increases 24 this number. Plaintiff alleges Defendants' employment records would provide information as to the 25 number and location of all Class Members. Joinder of all members of the proposed Class is not 26 practicable.

27 B. Commonality

28 34. There are questions of law and fact common to Class Members. These common

1 questions include, but are not limited to:

- 2 A. Did Defendants violate Labor Code sections 510 and 1194 by failing to pay all hours
- 3 worked at a proper overtime rate of pay?
- 4 B. Did Defendants violate Labor Code sections 510, 1194 and 1197 by failing to pay
- 5 for all other time worked at the employee's regular rate of pay and a rate of pay that
- 6 is greater than the applicable minimum wage?
- 7 C. Did Defendants violate Labor Code section 512 by not authorizing or permitting
- 8 Class Members to take compliant meal periods?
- 9 D. Did Defendants violate Labor Code section 226.7 by not providing Class Members
- 10 with additional wages for missed or interrupted meal periods?
- 11 E. Did Defendants violate applicable Wage Orders by not authorizing or permitting
- 12 Class Members to take compliant rest periods?
- 13 F. Did Defendants violate Labor Code section 226.7 by not providing Class Members
- 14 with additional wages for missed rest periods?
- 15 G. Did Defendants violate Labor Code sections 201 and 202 by failing to pay Class
- 16 Members upon termination or resignation all wages earned?
- 17 H. Are Defendants liable to Class Members for waiting time penalties under Labor Code
- 18 section 203?
- 19 I. Did Defendants violate Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a) by not furnishing
- 20 Class Members with accurate wage statements?
- 21 J. Did Defendants fail to indemnify Class Members for all necessary expenditures or
- 22 losses incurred in direct consequence of the discharge of their duties or by obedience
- 23 to the directions of Defendants as required under Labor Code section 2802?
- 24 K. Did Defendants violate the Unfair Competition Law, Business and Professions Code
- 25 section 17200, et seq., by their unlawful practices as alleged herein?
- 26 L. Are Class Members entitled to restitution of wages under Business and Professions
- 27 Code section 17203?
- 28 M. Are Class Members entitled to costs and attorneys' fees?

1 N. Are Class Members entitled to interest?

2 C. Typicality

3 35. The claims of Plaintiff herein alleged are typical of those claims which could be 4 alleged by any Class Members, and the relief sought is typical of the relief which would be sought
5 by each Class Member in separate actions. Plaintiff and Class Members sustained injuries and 6 damages arising out of and caused by Defendants' common course of conduct in violation of laws
7 and regulations that have the force and effect of law and statutes as alleged herein.

8 D. Adequacy of Representation

9 36. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately represent and protect the interest of Class 10 Members. Counsel who represents Plaintiff is competent and experienced in litigating wage and 11 hour class actions.

12 E. Superiority of Class Action

13 37. A class action is superior to other available means for the fair and efficient 14 adjudication of this controversy. Individual joinder of all Class Members is not practicable, and 15 questions of law and fact common to Class Members predominate over any questions affecting only 16 individual Class Members. Class Members, as further described therein, have been damaged and 17 are entitled to recovery by reason of Defendants' policies and/or practices that have resulted in the 18 violation of the Labor Code at times, as set out herein.

19 38. Class action treatment will allow Class Members to litigate their claims in a manner 20 that is most efficient and economical for the parties and the judicial system. Plaintiff is unaware of 21 any difficulties that are likely to be encountered in the management of this action that would 22 preclude its maintenance as a class action.

23 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

24 (Failure to Pay Overtime Wages – Against All Defendants)

25 39. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference all of the allegations contained in 26 the preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth hereat.

27 40. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and Class Members were employees or former 28 employees of Defendants covered by Labor Code sections 510, 1194 and 1199, as well as applicable

1 Wage Orders.

2 41. At all times relevant to this Complaint, Labor Code section 510 was in effect and 3 provided: "(a) Eight hours of labor constitutes a day's work. Any work in excess of eight hours in 4 one workday and any work in excess of forty hours in any one workweek . . . shall be compensated
5 at the rate of no less than one and one-half times the regular rate of pay for an employee."

6 42. At all times relevant to this Complaint, Labor Code section 510 further provided that 7 "[a]ny work in excess of 12 hours in one day shall be compensated at the rate of no less than twice
8 the regular rate of pay for an employee. In addition, any work in excess of eight hours on any 9 seventh day of a workweek shall be compensated at the rate of no less than twice the regular rate of 10 pay."

11 43. Four (4) years prior to the filing of the Complaint in this Action through the present,
12 Plaintiff and Class Members, at times, worked for Defendants during shifts that consisted of more
13 than eight (8) hours in a workday and/or more than forty hours in a workweek, and/or seven (7)
14 consecutive workdays in a workweek, without being paid overtime wages for all hours worked as a
15 result of, including but not limited to, Defendants failing to accurately track and/or pay for all hours 16 actually worked; engaging, suffering, or permitting employees to work off the clock, including,
17 without limitation, by requiring employees to complete pre-shift tasks before clocking in and post-18 shift tasks after clocking out, and to clock out for meal periods and continue working; failing to 19 include all forms of remuneration, including shift rate differentials, non-discretionary bonuses
20 and/or incentive pay, into the regular rate of pay for the purpose of calculating overtime pay; paying 21 straight pay instead of overtime; and failing to pay overtime hours at the proper overtime rate of pay 22 or otherwise improper rate of pay, to the detriment of Plaintiff and Class Members.

23 44. Accordingly, by requiring Plaintiff and Class Members to, at times, work greater 24 than eight (8) hours per workday, forty (40) hours per workweek, and/or seven (7) straight workdays
25 without properly compensating overtime wages at the proper overtime rate of pay, Defendants, on 26 occasion, willfully violated the provisions of the Labor Code, among others, sections 510, 1194, and 27 applicable IWC Wage Orders, and California law.

28 45. As a result of the unlawful acts of Defendants, Plaintiff and Class Members have

1 been deprived of overtime wages in amounts to be determined at trial. and are entitled to recovery,
2 plus interest and penalties thereon, attorneys' fees and costs, pursuant to Labor Code section 1194
3 and 1199, Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5 and 1032, and Civil Code section 3287.

4 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

5 (Failure to Pay Minimum Wages – Against All Defendants)

6 46. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference all of the allegations contained in 7 the preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth hereat.

8 47. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and Class Members were employees or former 9 employees of Defendants covered by Labor Code sections 1197, 1199 and applicable Wage Orders.

10 48. Pursuant to Labor Code section 1197 and applicable Wage Orders, Plaintiff and 11 Class Members were entitled to receive minimum wages for all hours worked or otherwise under 12 Defendants' control.

13 49. For four (4) years prior to the filing of the Complaint in this Action through the 14 present, Defendants failed, at times, failing to accurately track and/or pay for all hours actually 15 worked; engaging, suffering, or permitting employees to work off the clock. including, without 16 limitation, by requiring employees to complete pre-shift tasks before clocking in and post-shift tasks
17 after clocking out, and to clock out for meal periods and continue working; and failing to pay split
18 shift premiums to the detriment of Plaintiff and Class Members.

19 50. As a result of Defendants' unlawful conduct, Plaintiff and Class Members have 20 suffered damages in an amount, subject to proof, to the extent they were not paid minimum wages 21 for all hours worked or otherwise due.

22 51. Pursuant to Labor Code sections 218.6, 1194, 1194.2, Code of Civil Procedure
23 sections 1021.5 and 1032, and Civil Code section 3287, Plaintiff and Class Members are entitled to 24 recover the full amount of unpaid minimum wages, interest and penalties thereon, liquidated 25 damages, reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit.

1 owed for missed, untimely, interrupted, incomplete and/or on-duty meal periods.

2 59. Plaintiff and Class Members are entitled to recover the full amount of their unpaid
3 additional pay for unprovided compliant meal periods, in amounts to be determined at trial, plus 4 interest and penalties thereon, attorneys' fees, and costs, under Labor Code sections 226 and 226.7, 5 Code of Civil Procedure sections 1021.5 and 1032, and Civil Code section 3287.

6 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

7 (Failure to Provide Rest Periods – Against All Defendants)

8 60. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference all of the allegations contained in 9 the preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth hereat.

10 61. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and Class Members were employees or former 11 employees of Defendants covered by applicable Wage Orders.

12 62. California law and applicable Wage Orders require that employers "authorize and 13 permit" employees to take ten (10) minute rest periods in about the middle of each four (4) hour
14 work period "or major fraction thereof." Accordingly, employees who work shifts of three and-a-15 half (3 ½) to six (6) hours must be provided ten (10) minutes of paid rest period, employees who 16 work shifts of more than six (6) and up to ten (10) hours must be provided with twenty (20) minutes
17 of paid rest period, and employees who work shifts of more than ten (10) hours must be provided 18 thirty (30) minutes of paid rest period.

19 63. Pursuant to Labor Code section 226.7, if an employer fails to provide an employee
20 with a meal period or rest period as provided in the applicable Wage Order of the Industrial Welfare
21 Commission, the employer shall pay the employee one (1) additional hour of pay at the employee's 22 regular rate of compensation for each work day that the rest period is not provided.

23 64. For four (4) years prior to the filing of the Complaint in this Action through the 24 present, Plaintiff and Class Members were, at times, not authorized or permitted to take complete,
25 timely 30-minute, duty-free uninterrupted rest periods every four (4) hours of work or major fraction
26 thereof. Moreover, at times, Defendants failed to provide one (1) additional hour of pay at the Class
27 Member's regular rate of compensation on the occasions that Class Members were not authorized 28 or permitted to take compliant rest periods.

65. By their failure, at times, to authorize and permit Plaintiff and Class Members to take rest periods contemplated by California law, and one (1) additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of compensation for such unprovided rest periods, as alleged above, Defendants willfully violated the provisions of Labor Code section 226.7 and applicable Wage Orders.

66. As a result of Defendants' unlawful conduct, Plaintiff and Class Members have suffered damages in an amount, subject to proof, to the extent they were not paid additional pay owed for rest periods that they were not authorized or permitted to take.

67. Plaintiff and Class Members are entitled to recover the full amount of their unpaid additional pay for unprovided compliant meal periods, in amounts to be determined at trial, plus interest and penalties thereon, attorneys' fees, and costs, under Labor Code sections 226 and 226.7, Code of Civil Procedure sections 1021.5 and 1032, and Civil Code section 3287.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Failure to Pay All Wages Due Upon Termination – Against All Defendants)

68. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference all of the allegations contained in the preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth hereat.

69. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and Class Members were employees or former employees of Defendants covered by Labor Code sections 201, 202 and 203, as well as applicable Wage Orders.

70. Pursuant to Labor Code sections 201 and 202, Plaintiff and Class Members were entitled upon termination to timely payment of all wages earned and unpaid prior to termination. Discharged Class Members were entitled to payment of all wages earned and unpaid prior to discharge immediately upon termination. Class Members who resigned were entitled to payment of all wages earned and unpaid prior to resignation within 72 hours after giving notice of resignation or, if they gave 72 hours previous notice, they were entitled to payment of all wages earned and unpaid at the time of resignation.

71. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that in the three (3) years before the filing of the Complaint in this Action through the present, Defendants, due to the failure, at times, to provide overtime wages mentioned above, failed to pay Plaintiff and Class

1 Members all wages earned prior to resignation or termination in accordance with Labor Code
2 sections 201 or 202.

3 72. Plaintiff is informed and believes Defendants' failure, at times, to pay Plaintiff and 4 Class Members all wages earned prior to termination or resignation in accordance with Labor Code
5 sections 201 and 202 was willful. Defendants had the ability to pay all wages earned by Plaintiff
6 and Class Members at the time of termination in accordance with Labor Code sections 201 and 202,
7 but intentionally adopted policies or practices incompatible with the requirements of Labor Code
8 sections 201 and 202 resulting in the failure, at times, to pay all wages earned prior to termination 9 or resignation.

10 73. Pursuant to Labor Code section 203, Plaintiff and Class Members are entitled to 11 waiting time penalties from the date their earned and unpaid wages were due, upon termination or 12 resignation, until paid, up to a maximum of thirty (30) days.

13 74. As a result of Defendants' unlawful conduct, Plaintiff and Class Members have 14 suffered damages in an amount subject to proof, to the extent they were not paid for all wages earned 15 prior to termination or resignation.

16 75. Pursuant to Labor Code section 203 and 218.6, Code of Civil Procedure sections
17 1021.5 and 1032, and Civil Code section 3287, Plaintiff and Class Members are entitled to recover
18 waiting time penalties, interest, and their costs of suit, as well.

19 SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

20 (Failure to Provide Accurate Wage Statements – Against All Defendants)

21 76. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference all of the allegations contained in 22 the preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth hereat.

23 77. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and Class Members were employees or former 24 employees of Defendants covered by Labor Code section 226, as well as applicable Wage Orders.

25 78. Pursuant to Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a), Plaintiff and Class Members 26 were entitled to receive, semi-monthly or at the time of each payment of wages, an accurate itemized
27 statement that accurately reflects, among other things, gross wages earned; total hours worked; net 28 wages earned; and all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding

1 number of hours worked at each hourly rate, among other things.

2 79. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that in the one (1) year
3 before the filing of the Complaint in this Action through the present. Defendants failed to comply
4 with Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a) by adopting policies and practices that resulted in their 5 failure, at times, to furnish Plaintiff and Class Members with accurate itemized statements that 6 accurately reflect, among other things, gross wages earned; total hours worked; net wages earned;
7 all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours
8 worked at each hourly rate, among other things.

9 80. Defendants' failure to, at times, provide Plaintiff and Class Members with accurate
10 wage statements was knowing, intentional, and willful. Defendants had the ability to provide 11 Plaintiff and the other Class Members with accurate wage statements, but, at times, willfully
12 provided wage statements that Defendants knew were not accurate.

13 81. As a result of Defendants' unlawful conduct, Plaintiff and Class Members have 14 suffered injury. The absence of accurate information on Class Members' wage statements at times 15 has delayed timely challenge to Defendants' unlawful pay practices; requires discovery and 16 mathematical computations to determine the amount of wages owed; causes difficulty and expense
17 in attempting to reconstruct time and pay records; and led to submission of inaccurate information 18 about wages and amounts deducted from wages to state and federal governmental agencies, among 19 other things.

20 82. Pursuant to Labor Code section 226, subdivision (e), Plaintiff and Class Members
21 are entitled to recover $50 for the initial pay period during the period in which violation of Labor
22 Code section 226 occurred and $100 for each violation of Labor Code section 226 in a subsequent 23 pay period, not to exceed an aggregate $4,000.00 per employee.

24 83. Pursuant to Labor Code sections 226, subdivisions (e) and (g), Code of Civil 25 Procedure section 1032, Civil Code section 3287, Plaintiff and Class Members are entitled to 26 recover the full amount of penalties due under Labor Code section 226, subdivision (e), reasonable 27 attorneys' fees, and costs of suit.

28 / / /

92. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges that the unlawful conduct of Defendants alleged herein constitutes unfair competition within the meaning of Business and Professions Code section 17200. Due to their unlawful business practices in violation of the Labor Code, Defendants have gained a competitive advantage over other comparable companies doing business in the State of California that comply with their obligations to compensate employees in accordance with the Labor Code.

93. As a result of Defendants' unfair competition as alleged herein. Plaintiff and Class Members have suffered injury in fact and lost money or property.

94. Pursuant to Business and Professions Code section 17203, Plaintiff and Class Members are entitled to (an) injunction(s) prohibiting Defendants from further violating the Labor Code and requiring the establishment of appropriate and effective means to prevent further violations, as well as restitution of all wages and other monies owed to them under the Labor Code, including interest thereon, in which they had a property interest and which Defendants nevertheless failed to pay them and instead withheld and retained for themselves. Restitution of the money owed to Plaintiff and Class Members is necessary to prevent Defendants from becoming unjustly enriched by their failure to comply with the Labor Code.

95. Plaintiff and Class Members are entitled to costs of suit under Code of Civil Procedure section 1032 and interest under Civil Code section 3287.

NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Civil Penalties Under Labor Code § 210 – Against All Defendants)

96. Plaintiff re-alleges each and every allegation set forth in the preceding paragraphs and incorporates each by reference as though fully set forth hereat.

97. At all relevant times herein, Labor Code section 204, requires and required that: "[l]abor performed between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month shall be paid for between the 16th and 26th day of the month during which the labor was performed, and labor performed between the 16th and the last day, inclusive, of any calendar month, shall be paid for between the 1st and 10th day of the following month."

98. At all relevant times herein, Labor Code section 210, subdivision (a) states and stated

1 that "[i]n addition to, and entirely independent and apart from, any other penalty provided in this
2 article, every person who fails to pay the wages of each employee as provided in Sections 201.3, 3 204, 204b, 204.1, 205, 205.5, and 1197.5, shall be subject to a civil penalty as follows: (1) For any 4 initial violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each failure to pay each employee" and "(2) For 5 each subsequent violation, or any willful or intentional violation, two hundred dollars ($200) for 6 each failure to pay each employee, plus 25 percent of the amount unlawfully withheld."

7 99. At all relevant times herein, Defendants have had a consistent policy or practice of 8 failing to pay Plaintiff and/or Aggrieved Employees during their employment on a timely basis as 9 per Labor Code section 204. Thus, pursuant to Labor Code section 210, Plaintiff and other
10 Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover civil penalties for Defendants' violations of Labor
11 Code section 204, in the amount of one hundred dollars ($100) for each Aggrieved Employee for 12 each initial violation per employee, and two hundred dollars ($200) for each Aggrieved Employee
13 for each subsequent violation in connection with each payment that was made in violation of Labor
14 Code section 204.

15 TENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

16 (Civil Penalties Under Labor Code § 226.3 – Against All Defendants)

17 100. Plaintiff re-alleges each and every allegation set forth in the preceding paragraphs
18 and incorporates each by reference as though fully set forth hereat.

19 101. Defendants had and have a policy or practice of failing to comply with Labor Code
20 section 226, subdivision (a) by intentionally failing to furnish Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees
21 with itemized wage statements that accurately reflect gross wages earned; total hours worked; net
22 wages earned; the name and address of each employer with whom they have been placed to work;
23 all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours
24 worked at each hourly rate; the legal name of the employer and/or the name and address of the legal 25 entity securing the employer's services if the employer is a farm labor contractor; and other such 26 information as required by Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a).

27 102. Labor Code section 226.3 states that "[a]ny employer who violates subdivision (a)
28 of Section 226 shall be subject to a civil penalty in the amount of two hundred fifty dollars ($250)

1 per employee per violation in an initial citation and one thousand dollars ($1,000) per employee for 2 each violation in a subsequent citation, for which the employer fails to provide the employee a wage
3 deduction statement or fails to keep the records required in subdivision (a) of Section 226.”

4 103. Labor Code section 226.3 further provides that “[t]he civil penalties provided for in 5 this section are in addition to any other penalty provided by law.”

6 104. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants had 7 and have a policy or practice of failing to furnish non-exempt employees, including, without 8 limitation, Plaintiff, with itemized wage statements that accurately reflect gross wages earned; total 9 hours worked; net wages earned; all deductions; all applicable hourly rates in effect and the 10 corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate in effect during the pay period; the legal 11 name of the employer and/or the name and address of the legal entity securing the employer’s services
12 if the employer is a farm labor contractor; and other such information as required by Labor Code 13 section 226, subdivision (a).

14 105. Pursuant to Labor Code section 226.3, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees are 15 entitled to recover civil penalties for Defendants’ violation of Labor Code section 226, subdivision
16 (a) in the amount of two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period
17 for the initial violation, and one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay 18 period for each subsequent violation.

19 ELEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

20 (Violation of Labor Code § 558 – Against All Defendants)

21 106. Plaintiff re-alleges each and every allegation set forth in the preceding paragraphs
22 and incorporates each by reference as though fully set forth hereat.

23 107. Pursuant to Labor Code section 558, subdivision (a): “Any employer or other person 24 acting on behalf of an employer who violates, or causes to be violated . . . any provision regulating 25 hours and days of work in any of the Industrial Welfare Commission” shall be subject to a civil 26 penalty as follows:

- 27 (1) For any initial violation, fifty dollars ($50) for each underpaid employee and for each
28 pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient

1 to recover underpaid wages;

2 (2) For each subsequent violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid
3 employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to 4 an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages;

5 (3) Wages recovered pursuant to this section shall be paid to the affected employee.”

6 108. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon allege, that Defendants, and 7 each of them, violated, or caused to be violated, the Labor Code sections described herein, including
8 causing Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees not to: be paid overtime wages and minimum 9 wages; receive meal and rest periods or compensation in lieu thereof; be paid timely wages during 10 their employment and after their employment separation; receive accurate, itemized wage 11 statements; be provided with the opportunity to inspect employment records; be provided with 12 notice as required under Labor Code section 2810.5; be provided with the proper accrual and use of 13 paid sick leave; and/or be paid out all paid time off and/or vacation wages owed at the proper rate 14 of pay.

15 109. As a direct and proximate result of the herein-described Labor Code violations,
16 pursuant to Labor Code section 558, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover
17 civil penalties for Defendants’ herein-described Labor Code violations in the amount fifty dollars
18 ($50) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period for the initial violation, and one hundred dollars
19 ($100) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period for each subsequent violation.

20 TWELFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

21 (Violation of Labor Code § 1174.5 – Against All Defendants)

22 110. Plaintiff re-alleges each and every allegation set forth in the preceding paragraphs
23 and incorporates each by reference as though fully set forth hereat.

24 111. At all times mentioned herein, Labor Code section 1174. subdivision (b) has required 25 every person employing labor in California to “[a]llow any member of the commission or the 26 employees of the Division of Labor Standards Enforcement free access to the place of business or 27 employment of the person to secure any information or make any investigation that they are 28 authorized by this chapter to ascertain or make. The commission may inspect or make excerpts,

1 relating to the employment of employees, from the books, reports, contracts, payrolls, documents,
2 or papers of the person.”

3 112. At all times mentioned herein, Labor Code section 1174, subdivision (c) has required
4 every person employing labor in California to “[k]eep a record showing the names and addresses of 5 all employees employed and the ages of all minors.”

6 113. At all times mentioned herein, Labor Code section 1174, subdivision (d) has required
7 every person employing labor in California to “[k]eep, at a central location in the state or at the 8 plants or establishments at which employees are employed, payroll records showing the hours
9 worked daily by and the wages paid to, and the number of piece-rate units earned by and applicable
10 piece rate paid to, employees employed at the respective plants or establishments. These records 11 shall be kept in accordance with rules established for this purpose by the commission, but in any 12 case, shall be kept on file for not less than three years. An employer shall not prohibit an employee
13 from maintaining a personal record of hours worked, or, if paid on a piece-rate basis, piece-rate units 14 earned.”

15 114. Pursuant to Labor Code section 1174.5, “[a]ny person employing labor who willfully
16 fails to maintain the records required by subdivision (c) of [Labor Code] Section 1174 or accurate
17 and complete records required by subdivision (d) of [Labor Code] Section 1174, or to allow any 18 member of the commission or employees of the division to inspect records pursuant to subdivision
19 (b) of [Labor Code] Section 1174, shall be subject to a civil penalty of five hundred dollars ($500).

20 115. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants have 21 willfully failed to maintain the records required by Labor Code subdivision (c), failed to maintain 22 accurate and complete records required by Labor Code subdivision (d), and/or failed to allow 23 inspection of records as required by Labor Code subdivision (b).

24 116. As a direct and proximate result of the herein-described Labor Code violations,
25 pursuant to Labor Code section 1174.5, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees are entitled to 26 recover civil penalties for Defendants’ herein-described Labor Code violations in the amount of five 27 hundred dollars ($500) per violation per Aggrieved Employee.

28 / / /

THIRTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of Labor Code § 1197.1 – Against All Defendants)

117. Plaintiff re-alleges each and every allegation set forth in the preceding paragraphs and incorporates each by reference as though fully set forth hereat.

118. Pursuant to Labor Code section 1197.1, subdivision (a): "Any employer or other person acting either individually or as an officer, agent, or employee of another person, who pays or causes to be paid to any employee a wage less than the minimum fixed by an applicable state or local law, or by an order of the commission shall be subject to a civil penalty, restitution of wages, liquidated damages payable to the employee, and any applicable penalties imposed pursuant to Section 203 as follows:

(1) For any initial violation that is intentionally committed, one hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee is underpaid. This amount shall be in addition to an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages, liquidated damages pursuant to Section 1194.2, and any applicable penalties imposed pursuant to Section 203.

(2) For each subsequent violation for the same specific offense, two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee is underpaid regardless of whether the initial violation is intentionally committed. This amount shall be in addition to an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages, liquidated damages pursuant to Section 1194.2, and any applicable penalties imposed pursuant to Section 203.

(3) Wages, liquidated damages, and any applicable penalties imposed pursuant to Section 203, recovered pursuant to this section shall be paid to the affected employee."

119. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants caused Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees not to be paid minimum wages as a result of Defendants, without limitation, routinely failing to pay Plaintiff or other Aggrieved Employees' wages for all hours worked or otherwise under Defendants' control due to, without limitation, routinely failing to

1 accurately track and/or pay for all hours actually worked; detrimental rounding or manipulation of 2 time entries; paying straight pay instead of overtime or otherwise failing to pay overtime hours at 3 the proper overtime rate of pay; engaging, suffering, or permitting employees to work off the clock.

4 120. As a direct and proximate result of the herein-described Labor Code violations,
5 pursuant to Labor Code section 1197.1, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees are entitled to
6 recover civil penalties for Defendants' herein-described Labor Code violations in the amount one
7 hundred dollars ($100) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period for the initial violation, and 8 two hundred and fifty dollars ($250) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period for each 9 subsequent violation.

10 FOURTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

11 (Civil Penalties Under Labor Code § 2699 – Against All Defendants)

12 121. Plaintiff re-alleges each and every allegation set forth in the preceding paragraphs
13 and incorporates each by reference as though fully set forth hereat.

14 122. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699, subdivision (a), notwithstanding any other 15 provision of law, any provision of the Labor Code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed 16 and collected by the LWDA or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards, agencies or 17 employees for a violation of the Labor Code may, as an alternative, be recovered through a civil 18 action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of himself or herself and other current or former 19 employees pursuant to the procedures specified in Labor Code section 2699.3.

20 123. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699, subdivision (f), for all provisions of the Labor
21 Code except those for which a civil penalty is specifically provided, the established civil penalty for 22 a violation of those provisions is as follows: if, at the time of the alleged violation, the person
23 employs one or more employees, the civil penalty is one hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved
24 employee per pay period for the initial violation and two hundred dollars ($200) for each aggrieved 25 employee per pay period for each subsequent violation.

26 124. Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that Defendants, and 27 each of them, violated the Labor Code sections described herein, including, without limitation, for 28 the failure to: pay overtime wages and minimum wages; provide meal and rest periods or

1 compensation in lieu thereof; provide accurate, itemized wage statements; pay timely wages during 2 employment and after employment separation; provide employees the opportunity to inspect
3 employment records; reimburse Aggrieved Employees for costs incurred in furtherance of their 4 work duties; provide notice as required under Labor Code section 2810.5; provide the proper accrual
5 and use of paid sick leave; and paying employees all owed paid time off and vacation time owed by 6 separation at the proper rate of pay, entitling Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees to civil 7 penalties for each of these Labor Code violations in the amounts set forth in Labor Code section 8 2699, subdivision (f).

9 125. Moreover, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees within the State of California 10 whom he seeks to represent are entitled to an award of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs in 11 connection with their herein-described claims for civil penalties.

12 DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

13 126. Plaintiff demands a trial by jury on all causes of action contained herein.

14 PRAYER

15 WHEREFORE, on behalf of Plaintiff, Class Members and Aggrieved Employees, Plaintiff
16 prays for judgment against Defendants as follows:

- 17 A. An order certifying this case as a Class Action;
- 18 B. An Order appointing Plaintiff as Class representative and appointing Plaintiff's 19 counsel as class counsel;
- 20 C. Damages for all wages earned and owed, including minimum and overtime wages 21 under Labor Code sections 510, 558.1, 1194, 1197 and 1199;
- 22 D. Liquidated damages pursuant to Labor Code sections 558.1 and 1194.2;
- 23 E. Damages for unpaid premium wages from missed meal and rest periods under, 24 among other Labor Code sections, 512, 558.1 and 226.7;
- 25 F. Penalties for inaccurate wage statements under Labor Code sections 226,
