DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

COMES NOW, Plaintiff MICHANE GREENE (“Plaintiff”), individually, and on behalf of other members of the general public similarly situated, and alleges as follows:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This class action is brought pursuant to the California Code of Civil Procedure section 382. The monetary damages and restitution sought by Plaintiff exceeds the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court and will be established according to proof at trial. The “amount in controversy” for the named Plaintiff, including claims for compensatory damages, restitution, penalties, wages, premium pay, and pro rata share of attorneys’ fees, is less than seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000).

2. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to the California Constitution, Article VI, Section 10, which grants the superior court “original jurisdiction in all other causes” except those given by statute to other courts. The statutes under which this action is brought do not specify any other basis for jurisdiction.

3. This Court has jurisdiction over Defendants because, upon information and belief, Defendants are citizens of California, have sufficient minimum contacts in California, or otherwise intentionally avail themselves of the California market so as to render the exercise of jurisdiction over them by the California courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice.

4. Venue is proper in this Court because, upon information and belief, Defendants maintain offices, have agents, and/or transact business in the State of California, including the County of Bernardino. The majority of the acts and omissions alleged herein relating to Plaintiff took place in the State of California. Defendants employed Plaintiff within the State of California, County of San Bernardino.

PARTIES

5. Plaintiff MICHANE GREENE is an individual residing in the State of California, County of San Bernardino.

6. Defendant INFORMATION RESOURCES, INC. at all times herein mentioned,

1 was and is, upon information and belief, a Delaware corporation, and at all times herein
2 mentioned, was and is, an employer whose employees are engaged throughout the State of 3 California, including the County of San Bernardino.

4 7. Defendant FIELD AUDIT SERVICES TEAM, LLC d/b/a SCANSCAPE at all
5 times herein mentioned, was and is upon information and belief, a Delaware company, and at 6 all time herein mentioned, was and is, an employer whose employees are engaged throughout 7 the State of California, including the County of San Bernardino.

8 8. At all relevant times, Defendants INFORMATION RESOURCES, INC. or 9 FIELD AUDIT SERVICES TEAM, LLC d/b/a SCANSCAPE was the “employer” of Plaintiff
10 within the meaning of all applicable California laws and statutes.

11 9. At all times herein relevant, Defendants INFORMATION RESOURCES, INC., 12 FIELD AUDIT SERVICES TEAM, LLC d/b/a SCANSCAPE and DOES 1 through 100, and 13 each of them, were the agents, partners, joint venturers, joint employers, representatives, 14 servants, employees, successors-in-interest, co-conspirators and assigns, each of the other, and 15 at all times relevant hereto were acting within the course and scope of their authority as such 16 agents, partners, joint venturers, joint employers, representatives, servants, employees, 17 successors, co-conspirators and assigns, and all acts or omissions alleged herein were duly 18 committed with the ratification, knowledge, permission, encouragement, authorization, and 19 consent of each defendant designated herein.

20 10. The true names and capacities, whether corporate, associate, individual or 21 otherwise, of Defendants DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, are unknown to Plaintiff, who sues
22 said defendants by such fictitious names. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based on that 23 information and belief alleges, that each of the Defendants designated as a DOE is legally
24 responsible for the events and happenings referred to in this Complaint, and unlawfully caused 25 the injuries and damages to Plaintiff and the other class members as alleged in this Complaint.
26 Plaintiff will seek leave of court to amend this Complaint to show the true names and 27 capacities when the same have been ascertained.

11. Defendants INFORMATION RESOURCES, INC., FIELD AUDIT SERVICES TEAM, LLC d/b/a SCANSCAPE, and DOES 1 through 100 will hereinafter collectively be referred to as “Defendants.”

12. Plaintiff further alleges that Defendants directly or indirectly controlled or affected the working conditions, wages, working hours, and conditions of employment of Plaintiff and the other class members so as to make each of said Defendants employers and employers liable under the statutory provisions set forth herein.

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

13. Plaintiff brings this action on her own behalf and on behalf of all other members of the general public similarly situated, and, thus, seeks class certification under Code of Civil Procedure section 382.

14. The proposed class is defined as follows:

All current and former hourly-paid or non-exempt employees of Defendant Information Resources Inc. or Defendant Field Audit Services, Team, LLC within the State of California at any time during the period from November 18, 2016 to November 30, 2021.

15. Plaintiff reserves the right to establish subclasses as appropriate.

16. The class is ascertainable and there is a well-defined community of interest in the litigation:

- a. Numerosity: The class members are so numerous that joinder of all class members is impracticable. The membership of the entire class is unknown to Plaintiff at this time; however, the class is estimated to be greater than fifty (50) individuals and the identity of such membership is readily ascertainable by inspection of Defendants’ employment records.
- b. Typicality: Plaintiff’s claims are typical of all other class members’ claims as demonstrated herein. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the other class members with whom she has a well-defined community of interest.

c. Adequacy: Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of each class member, with whom she has a well-defined community of interest and typicality of claims, as demonstrated herein. Plaintiff has no interest that is antagonistic to the other class members. Plaintiff's attorneys, the proposed class counsel, are versed in the rules governing class action discovery, certification, and settlement. Plaintiff has incurred, and during the pendency of this action will continue to incur, costs and attorneys' fees, that have been, are, and will be necessarily expended for the prosecution of this action for the substantial benefit of each class member.

d. Superiority: A class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of this litigation because individual joinder of all class members is impractical.

e. Public Policy Considerations: Certification of this lawsuit as a class action will advance public policy objectives. Employers of this great state violate employment and labor laws every day. Current employees are often afraid to assert their rights out of fear of direct or indirect retaliation. However, class actions provide the class members who are not named in the complaint anonymity that allows for the vindication of their rights.

17. There are common questions of law and fact as to the class members that predominate over questions affecting only individual members. The following common questions of law or fact, among others, exist as to the members of the class:

- a. Whether Defendants' failure to pay wages, without abatement or reduction, in accordance with the California Labor Code, was willful;
- b. Whether Defendants failed to pay their hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the State of California for all hours worked, missed meal periods and rest breaks in violation of California law;

c. Whether Defendants required Plaintiff and the other class members to work over eight (8) hours per day and/or over forty (40) hours per week and failed to pay the legally required overtime compensation to Plaintiff and the other class members;

d. Whether Defendants properly calculated the regular rate for Plaintiff and the other class members who worked overtime and earned incentive pay;

e. Whether Defendants deprived Plaintiff and the other class members of meal and/or rest periods or required Plaintiff and the other class members to work during meal and/or rest periods without compensation;

f. Whether Defendants failed to pay minimum wages to Plaintiff and the other class members for all hours worked;

g. Whether Defendants failed to pay all wages due to Plaintiff and the other class members within the required time upon their discharge or resignation;

h. Whether Defendants failed to timely pay all wages due to Plaintiff and the other class members during their employment;

i. Whether Defendants complied with wage reporting as required by the California Labor Code, including, inter alia, section 226;

j. Whether Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiff and the other class members for necessary business-related expenses and costs;

k. Whether Defendants' conduct was willful or reckless;

l. Whether Defendants engaged in unfair business practices in violation of California Business & Professions Code section 17200, et seq.;

m. The appropriate amount of damages, restitution, and/or monetary penalties resulting from Defendants' violation of California law; and

n. Whether Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to compensatory damages pursuant to the California Labor Code.

GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

18. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants employed Plaintiff and other persons as hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the State of California.

19. Defendants, jointly and severally, employed Plaintiff as an hourly-paid, non-exempt employee from 2018 to 2020 in the State of California, County of San Bernardino.

20. Defendants had the authority to hire and terminate Plaintiff and other class members; to set work rules and conditions governing Plaintiff's and other class members' employment; and to supervise their daily employment activities.

21. Defendants exercised sufficient authority over the terms and conditions of Plaintiff and other class members' employment for them to be joint employers of Plaintiff and the other class members.

22. Defendants directly hired and paid wages and benefits to Plaintiff and other class members.

23. Defendants continue to employ hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the State of California.

24. Plaintiff and other class members worked over eight (8) hours in a day, and/or forty (40) hours in a week during their employment with Defendants.

25. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants engaged in a pattern and practice of wage abuse against their hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the State of California. This scheme involved, inter alia, failing to pay them for all hours worked, missed meal periods, and missed rest breaks in violation of California law.

26. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff and other class members were entitled to receive certain wages for overtime compensation and that Plaintiff and other class members were not

1 receiving wages for overtime compensation.

2 27. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
3 failed to provide Plaintiff and other class members the required rest and meal periods during
4 the relevant time period as required under the Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders
5 and thus they are entitled to any and all applicable penalties.

6 28. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
7 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and other class members were entitled to receive all
8 timely and complete meal periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's and 9 the other class members' regular rate of pay when a meal period was missed, late or 10 interrupted, and that Plaintiff and other class members did not receive all timely and proper
11 meal periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at their regular rate of pay when a meal 12 period was missed.

13 29. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
14 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and other class members were entitled to receive all
15 timely rest periods without interruption or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff 16 and the other class members' regular rate of pay when a rest period was missed, late or 17 interrupted, and that Plaintiff and other class members did not receive all rest periods or 18 payment of one additional hour of pay at their regular rate of pay when a rest period was 19 missed.

20 30. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
21 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and other class members were entitled to receive at 22 least minimum wages for compensation and that Plaintiff and other class members were not 23 receiving at least minimum wages for all hours worked.

24 31. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
25 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and other class members were entitled to receive the 26 wages owed to them upon discharge or resignation, including overtime and minimum wages
27 and meal and rest period premiums, and that Plaintiff and other class members did not, in fact,
28

1 receive such wages owed to them at the time of their discharge or resignation.

2 32. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
3 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and other class members were entitled to receive
4 complete and accurate wage statements in accordance with California law, but, in fact,
5 Plaintiff and other class members did not receive complete and accurate wage statements from 6 Defendants. The deficiencies included, inter alia, the failure to include the total number of 7 hours worked by Plaintiff and other class members.

8 33. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
9 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to 10 reimbursement for necessary business-related expenses.

11 34. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
12 knew or should have known that Defendants had to keep complete and accurate payroll records
13 for Plaintiff and other class members in accordance with California law, but, in fact, did not 14 keep complete and accurate payroll records for Plaintiff and other class members.

15 35. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
16 knew or should have known that they had a duty to compensate Plaintiff and other class
17 members pursuant to California law, and that Defendants had the financial ability to pay such 18 compensation, but willfully, knowingly, and intentionally failed to do so, and falsely 19 represented to Plaintiff and other class members that they were properly denied wages, all in 20 order to increase Defendants' profits.

21 36. As a pattern and practice, during the relevant time period set forth herein,
22 Defendants failed to pay overtime wages to Plaintiff and other class members for all hours
23 worked. Plaintiff and other class members were required to work more than eight (8) hours 24 per day and/or forty (40) hours per week without overtime compensation.

25 37. As a pattern and practice, during the relevant time period set forth herein,
26 Defendants failed to provide the requisite uninterrupted and timely meal and rest periods to 27 Plaintiff and other class members.

1 compensating them at a rate of pay either time-and-one-half or two-times that person's regular
2 rate of pay, depending on the number of hours worked by the person on a daily or weekly
3 basis.

4 46. Specifically, the applicable IWC Wage Order provides that Defendants are and 5 were required to pay Plaintiff and other class members employed by Defendants, who 6 work(ed) more than eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek, at 7 the rate of time-and-one-half for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or more
8 than forty (40) hours in a workweek.

9 47. The applicable IWC Wage Order further provides that Defendants are and were 10 required to pay Plaintiff and other class members overtime compensation at a rate of two times
11 their regular rate of pay for all hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in a day.

12 48. California Labor Code section 510 codifies the right to overtime compensation
13 at one-and-one-half times the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours
14 in a day or forty (40) hours in a week or for the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh 15 day of work, and overtime compensation at twice the regular hourly rate for hours worked in 16 excess of twelve (12) hours in a day or in excess of eight (8) hours in a day on the seventh day 17 of work.

18 49. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Plaintiff and other class 19 members worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day, and/or in excess of forty (40) hours in 20 a week.

21 50. As a pattern and practice, during the relevant time period set forth herein,
22 Defendants intentionally and willfully failed to pay overtime wages owed to Plaintiff and other 23 class members (but not all).

24 51. Defendants' pattern and practice of failing to pay Plaintiff and other class
25 members the unpaid balance of overtime compensation, as required by California laws, 26 violates the provisions of California Labor Code sections 510 and 1198, and is therefore 27 unlawful.

52. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194, Plaintiff and other class members are entitled to recover unpaid overtime compensation, as well as interest, costs, and attorneys' fees.

2 if the first meal period was not waived.

3 58. As a pattern and practice, during the relevant time period set forth herein,
4 Plaintiff and other class members (but not all) who were scheduled to work for a period of 5 time no longer than six (6) hours, and who did not waive their legally-mandated meal periods
6 by mutual consent, were required to work for periods longer than five (5) hours without an

22 hours without an uninterrupted meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes and/or without 23 a rest period.

24 62. As a pattern and practice, during the relevant time period set forth herein,

27 (but not all) the full meal period premium for work performed during meal periods.
28

63. As a pattern and practice, during the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and other class members (but not all) the full meal period premium due pursuant to California Labor Code section 226.7.

67. During the relevant time period set forth herein, the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code section 226.7 were applicable to Plaintiff's and other class members' employment by Defendants.

23 75. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1
24 through 73 and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set
25 forth herein.

26 76. During the relevant time period set forth herein, California Labor Code sections 27 1194 and 1197 provide that the minimum wage to be paid to employees, and the payment of

14 (Violation of California Labor Code §§ 201 and 202)

15 (Against DEFENDANTS and

16 DOES 1 through 100)

17 80. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1
18 through 78, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set
19 forth herein.

20 81. During the relevant time period set forth herein, California Labor Code sections
21 201 and 202 provide that if an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid
22 at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately, and if an employee quits his or her
23 employment, his or her wages shall become due and payable not later than seventy-two (72)
24 hours thereafter, unless the employee has given seventy-two (72) hours notice of his or her 25 intention to quit, in which case the employee is entitled to his or her wages at the time of 26 quitting.

27 82. As a pattern and practice, during the relevant time period set forth herein,
28

Defendants intentionally and willfully failed to pay Plaintiff and other class members (but not all) who are no longer employed by Defendants their wages, earned and unpaid, within seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendants' employ.

84. California Labor Code section 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay wages owed, in accordance with sections 201 and 202, then the wages of the employee shall continue as a penalty from the due date thereof at the same rate until paid or until an action is commenced; but the wages shall not continue for more than thirty (30) days.

85. Plaintiff and other class members are entitled to recover from Defendants the statutory penalty wages for each day they were not paid, up to the thirty (30) day maximum as provided by Labor Code section 203.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code § 226(a))

(Against DEFENDANTS and

DOES 1 through 100)

86. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 84, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

87. During the relevant time period set forth herein, California Labor Code section 226(a) provides that every employer shall furnish each of his or her employees an accurate itemized statement in writing showing (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided that all deductions made on written orders of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages

1 earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of 2 the employee and his or her social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal
3 entity that is the employer, and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period
4 and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee. The 5 deductions made from payments of wages shall be recorded in ink or other indelible form,
6 properly dated, showing the month, day, and year, and a copy of the statement or a record of 7 the deductions shall be kept on file by the employer for at least three years at the place of 8 employment or at a central location within the State of California.

9 88. As a pattern and practice, Defendants have intentionally and willfully failed to 10 provide Plaintiff and other class members (but not all) with complete and accurate wage
11 statements. The deficiencies include but are not limited to: the failure to include the total
12 number of hours worked by Plaintiff and other class members.

13 89. As a result of Defendants' violation of California Labor Code section 226(a),
14 Plaintiff and other class members have suffered injury and damage to their statutorily 15 protected rights.

16 90. More specifically, Plaintiff and other class members have been injured by 17 Defendants' intentional and willful violation of California Labor Code section 226(a) because 18 they were denied both their legal right to receive, and their protected interest in receiving,
19 accurate and itemized wage statements pursuant to California Labor Code section 226(a).

20 91. Plaintiff and other class members are entitled to recover from Defendants the 21 greater of their actual damages caused by Defendants' failure to comply with California Labor
22 Code section 226(a), or an aggregate penalty not exceeding four thousand dollars per 23 employee.

1 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

2 (Violation of California Labor Code §§ 2800 and 2802)

3 (Against DEFENDANTS and

4 DOES 1 through 100)

5 93. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1
6 through 91, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set
7 forth herein.

8 94. Pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2800 and 2802, an employer must 9 reimburse its employee for all necessary expenditures incurred by the employee in direct 10 consequence of the discharge of his or her job duties or in direct consequence of his or her 11 obedience to the directions of the employer.

12 95. Defendants have intentionally and willfully failed to reimburse Plaintiff and other 13 class members (but not all) for all necessary business-related expenses and costs. Plaintiff and 14 other class members are entitled to recover from Defendants their business-related expenses and 15 costs incurred during the course and scope of their employment, plus interest accrued from the 16 date on which the employee incurred the necessary expenditures at the same rate as judgments
17 in civil actions in the State of California.

18 EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

19 (Violation of California Labor Code §§ 2698, et seq.)

20 (Against DEFENDANTS and

21 DOES 1 through 100)

22 96. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1
23 through 94, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set
24 forth herein.

25 97. PAGA expressly establishes that any provision of the California Labor Code
26 which provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the LWDA, or any of its 27 departments, divisions, commissions, boards, agencies or employees for a violation of the 28

California Labor Code, may be recovered through a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of himself or herself, and other current or former employees.

98. On August 31, 2020, Plaintiff provided written notice to the LWDA and Defendants of the specific provisions of the Labor Code she contends were violated, and the theories supporting her contentions. Plaintiff believes that on or about November 4, 2020, the sixty-five (65) day notice period expired, and the LWDA did not take any action to investigate or prosecute this matter. Therefore, Plaintiff exhausted the statutory time period to bring this action. Attached hereto as Exhibit 1 and incorporated by reference is a copy of the written notice to the LWDA.

96. Plaintiff and the other hourly-paid or non-exempt employees are “aggrieved employees” as defined by California Labor Code § 2699(c) in that they are all current and former hourly-paid or non-exempt employees of Defendants within the State of California who worked for Defendants at any time during the period from August 31, 2019 to November 30, 2021, and one or more of the alleged violations was committed against them.

Failure to Pay Minimum and Overtime Wages

97. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to compensate their non-exempt employees minimum wages for all hours worked and overtime wages for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or forty (40) hours in a workweek, pursuant to the mandate of Labor Code §§ 510, 1194, 1197, and 1198.

98. As a policy and practice, Defendants failed to compensate Plaintiff and the other aggrieved current and former employees for all hours worked, resulting in a failure to pay all minimum wages and overtime wages, where applicable.

Failure to Provide Meal Periods and Rest Breaks

99. In accordance with the mandates of Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512, Defendants were required to authorize and permit their non-exempt employees to take a 10-minute rest break for every four (4) hours worked or major fraction thereof, and were further required to provide their non-exempt employees with a 30-minute meal period for every five (5) hours worked.

100. As a policy and practice, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and the other aggrieved current and former employees with legally-mandated meal periods and rest breaks and failed to pay proper compensation for this failure.

Failure to Timely Pay Wages During Employment

101. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to pay their employees within a specified time period pursuant to the mandate of Labor Code § 204.

102. As a policy and practice, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other aggrieved current and former employees all wages due and owing them within the required time period.

Failure to Timely Pay Wages Upon Termination

103. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to pay their employees all wages owed in a timely fashion at the end of employment pursuant to California Labor Code §§ 201 to 204.

104. As a result of Defendants' Labor Code violations alleged above, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other aggrieved former employees their final wages pursuant to Labor Code §§ 201 to 204 and accordingly owe waiting time penalties pursuant to Labor Code § 203.

Failure to Provide Complete and Accurate Wage Statements

105. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to keep accurate records regarding their California employees pursuant to the mandate of Labor Code §§ 226, 1174 and 1776.

106. As a result of Defendants' various Labor Code violations, Defendants failed to keep accurate records regarding Plaintiff and the other aggrieved current and former employees. For example, Defendants failed in their affirmative obligation to keep accurate records regarding Plaintiff and the other aggrieved current and former employees' gross wages earned, total hours worked, all deductions, net wages earned, and all applicable hourly rates and the number of hours worked at each hourly rate.

1 Failure to Reimburse Business Expenses

2 107. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to reimburse its employees
3 for any and all necessary expenditures or losses incurred by the employees in direct
4 consequences of the discharge or his or her duties pursuant to the mandate of Labor Code §§
5 2800 and 2802.

6 108. As a policy and practice, Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiff and the other
7 aggrieved current and former employees for all business expenses incurred and owing them
8 within the required time period.

9 Penalties

10 109. Pursuant to California Labor Code § 2699, Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf 11 of the other current and former aggrieved employees, requests and is entitled to recover from 12 Defendants, and each of them, civil penalties, interest, attorneys' fees and costs, including but 13 not limited to:

- 14 a. Penalties under California Labor Code § 2699 in the amount of a hundred 15 dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial 16 violation, and two hundred dollars ($200) for each aggrieved employee per 17 pay period for each subsequent violation;
- 18 b. Penalties under California Code of Regulations Title 8 § 11040 in the amount 19 of fifty dollars ($50) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the 20 initial violation, and one hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved 21 employee per pay period for each subsequent violation;
- 22 c. Penalties under California Labor Code § 210 in addition to, and entirely 23 independent and apart from, any other penalty provided in the California
24 Labor Code in the amount of a hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved
25 employee per pay period for the initial violation, and two hundred dollars 26 ($200) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent 27 violation;

- 1 d. Penalties under Labor Code § 1197.1 in the amount of a hundred dollars
2 ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation,
3 and two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for each aggrieved employee per pay
4 period for each subsequent violation;
- 5 e. Any and all additional penalties as provided by the Labor Code and/or other 6 statutes; and
- 7 f. Attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code §§ 210, 1194, and 2699,
8 and any other applicable statute.

1 members, to work through their meal and rest periods without paying them proper
2 compensation violate California Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512(a). Moreover,
3 Defendants' pattern and practice of failing to timely pay wages to Plaintiff and other class

Re: INFORMATION RESOURCES, INC. d/b/a SCANSCAPE

Dear Representative:

We have been retained to represent Michane Greene against Information Resources, Inc. d/b/a ScanScape (including any and all affiliates, managers, members, subsidiaries, and parents, and their shareholders, officers, directors, and employees), any individual, owner, officer and managing agent, DOES 1-10 as an "Employer" or person acting on behalf of an "Employer" pursuant to California Labor Code section 558.1, and DOES 11-20¹ for violations of California wage-and-hour laws (hereinafter collectively referred to as "IRI").

Ms. Greene is pursuing her California Labor Code section 2698, et seq., the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 ("PAGA") claim on a representative basis. Therefore, Ms. Greene may seek penalties and wages for violations of the Labor Code on behalf of the State of California and aggrieved employees, which are recoverable under PAGA. This letter is sent in compliance with the reporting requirements of California Labor Code section 2699.3.

Information Resources, Inc. d/b/a ScanScape is a Delaware corporation located at 150 N. Clinton St., Chicago, Illinois 60661.

IRI employed Ms. Greene as an hourly-paid non-exempt Field Service Representative within one year of the date of this letter (until in or about²) in the State of California. IRI directly controlled the wages, hours and working conditions of Ms. Greene's employment.

¹ Ms. Greene does not know the true names or capacities, whether individual, partner or corporate, of DOES 1 through 20, inclusive, and for that reason, said DOES are designated under such fictitious names. Ms. Greene will amend this notice when the true names and capacities are known. Ms. Greene is informed and believes that each DOE was responsible in some way for the matters alleged herein and proximately caused Ms. Greene and other current and former aggrieved employees to be subject to the illegal employment practices, wrongs and injuries complained of herein.

² Per Emergency Rule 9 (Tolling statute of limitations for civil causes of action) of the Judicial Council's Emergency Rules Related to COVID-19, all statute of limitations for civil causes of action that exceed 180 days are tolled from April 6, 2020 until October 1, 2020. Therefore, the one (1) year statute of limitations for Ms. Greene's PAGA cause of action is tolled.

The “aggrieved employees” that Ms. Greene may seek penalties on behalf of are all current and former hourly-paid or non-exempt employees (whether hired directly or through staffing agencies) of IRI within the State of California.

IRI failed to properly pay its hourly-paid or non-exempt employees for all hours worked, failed to properly provide or compensate minimum and overtime wages and for meal and rest breaks, failed to issue compliant wage statements and failed to reimburse for all necessary business-related costs and expenses, thus resulting in other Labor Code violations as stated below.

Pursuant to Huff v. Securitas Security Services, 23 Cal. App. 5th 745, 751 (2018), an employee who brings a representative action and was affected by at least one of the violations alleged in the complaint has standing to pursue penalties on behalf of the state not only for that violation, but for violations affecting other employees as well. Accordingly, Ms. Greene has standing to pursue penalties on behalf of the state for violations affecting all the aggrieved employees at IRI, regardless of their classification, job title, locations, or whether they were hired directly or through a labor contractor or staffing agency.

IRI has violated and/or continues to violate, among other provisions of the California Labor Code and applicable wage law, California Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 218.5, 221, 226(a), 226.3, 226.7, 510, 512(a), 551, 552, 558, 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800 and 2802, and the IWC Wage Orders.

California Labor Code sections 510, 1194, and 1198 require employers to pay at least minimum wage for all hours worked, pay time-and-a-half, or double time overtime wages, and make it unlawful to work employees for hours longer than eight hours in one day and/or over forty hours in one week without paying the premium overtime rates. During the relevant time period, Ms. Greene and other aggrieved employees routinely worked in excess of 8 hours in a day and 40 hours in a week. IRI failed to compensate Ms. Greene and other aggrieved employees for all hours worked and performing off-the-clock work, including travel time, pre- and post-shift, and during meal breaks. Additionally, IRI maintained an illegal rounding policy that negatively affected Ms. Greene and other aggrieved employees’ time and pay. IRI also failed to include non-discretionary bonuses and incentives in Ms. Greene and other aggrieved employees’ regular rate of pay for purposes of overtime compensation. Moreover, IRI automatically deducted meal breaks for Ms. Greene and other aggrieved employees regardless whether they were provided the breaks. Therefore, Ms. Greene and other aggrieved employees were entitled to receive certain wages for overtime compensation, but they were not paid for all overtime hours worked.

California Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512 require employers to pay an employee one additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate for each workday that a meal or rest break is not provided. During the relevant time period, IRI routinely required Ms. Greene and other aggrieved employees to work through, interrupt, cut short, and/or delay their meal and rest breaks to comply with IRI policies and expectations. IRI also failed to provide adequate coverage so Ms. Greene and other aggrieved employees could be relieved of work duties and take their meal and rest breaks. Moreover, IRI failed to authorize and permit Ms. Greene and other aggrieved employees to take the requisite number of meal and rest breaks, including second meal breaks and third rest breaks, when working shifts exceeding 10 hours in length. Despite these facts, IRI failed to compensate Ms. Greene and other aggrieved employees all the premium wages they were owed.

California Labor Code section 201 requires that if an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately. California Labor Code section 202 requires that if an employee not having a written contract for a definite period quits his or her employment, his or her wages shall become due and payable not later than 72 hours thereafter, unless the employee has given 72 hours previous notice of his or her intention to quit, in which case the employee is entitled to his or her wages at the time of quitting. California Labor Code section 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay, without abatement or reduction, in accordance with Labor Code sections 201, 201.3, 201.5, 201.6, 201.8, 201.9, 202, and 205.5, any wages of an employee who is discharged or who quits, the wages of the employee shall continue as a penalty from the due date thereof at the same rate until paid or until an action therefor is commenced; but the wages shall not continue for more than 30 days. During the relevant time period, IRI failed to pay Ms. Greene and other aggrieved employees all wages due to them within any time period specified by California Labor Code sections 201 and 203, including for all hours worked, uncompensated off-the-clock work and premium wages for failing to provide legally mandated meal and rest breaks, and therefore is liable under California Labor Code section 203.

California Labor Code section 204 requires that all wages earned by any person in any employment between the 1st and the 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month, other than those wages due upon termination of an employee, are due and payable between the 16th and the 26th day of the month during which the labor was performed, and that all wages earned by any person in any employment between the 16th and the last day, inclusive, of any calendar month, other than those wages due upon termination of an employee, are due and payable between the 1st and the 10th day of the following month. California Labor Code section 204 also requires that all wages earned for labor in excess of the normal work period shall be paid no later than the payday for the next regular payroll period. During the relevant time period, IRI failed to pay Ms. Greene and other aggrieved employees all wages due to them within any time period specified by California Labor Code section 204, including for all hours worked, uncompensated off-the-clock work and premium wages for failing to provide legally mandated meal and rest breaks.

California Labor Code section 226 requires employers to make, keep and provide complete and accurate itemized wage statements to their employees. During the relevant time period, IRI did not provide Ms. Greene and other aggrieved employees with complete and accurate itemized wage statements. The wage statements they received from IRI were in violation of California Labor Code section 226(a). The violations include, but are not limited to, the failure to include (1) gross wages earned by Ms. Greene and other aggrieved employees, (2) total hours worked by Ms. Greene and other aggrieved employees, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate by Ms. Greene and other aggrieved employees (4) all deductions for Ms. Greene and other aggrieved employees, (5) net wages earned by Ms. Greene and other aggrieved employees, (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which Ms. Greene and other aggrieved employees are paid, (7) the name of the aggrieved employee and only the last four digits of his or her social security number or an employee identification number other than a social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by Ms. Greene and other aggrieved employees.

California Labor Code section 558 allows recovery of penalties. (a) Any employer or other person acting on behalf of an employer who violates, or causes to be violated, a section of this chapter or any provision regulating hours and days of work in any order of the Industrial Welfare Commission shall be subject to a civil penalty as follows: (1) For any initial violation, fifty dollars ($50) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages. (2) For each subsequent violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages. (3) Wages recovered pursuant to this section shall be paid to the affected employee. Ms. Greene and other aggrieved employees have been denied their wages and premium wages and, therefore, are entitled to penalties.

California Labor Code sections 1174(d) requires an employer to keep, at a central location in the state or at the plants or establishments at which employees are employed, payroll records showing the hours worked daily by and the wages paid to, and the number of piece-rate units earned by and any applicable piece rate paid to, employees employed at the respective plants or establishments. These records shall be kept with rules established for this purpose by the commission, but in any case, shall be kept on file for not less than two years. During the relevant time period, IRI failed to keep accurate and complete payroll records showing the hours worked daily and the wages paid, to Ms. Greene and other aggrieved employees.

California Labor Code sections 1194, 1197 and 1197.1 provide the minimum wage to be paid to employees, and the payment of a lesser wage than the minimum so fixed is unlawful. During the relevant time period, IRI did not provide Ms. Greene and other aggrieved employees with the minimum wages to which they were entitled despite constructive and actual knowledge of failing to pay them for all hours worked and off-the-clock work, including travel time, pre- and post-shift and during meal breaks.

California Labor Code sections 2800 and 2802 require an employer to reimburse its employee for all necessary expenditures incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the discharge of his or her job duties or in direct consequence of his or her obedience to the directions of the employer. During their employment, Ms. Greene and other aggrieved employees incurred necessary business-related expenses and costs that were not fully reimbursed by IRI, including for purchasing equipment (like measurement tape) they needed to perform their work, using their personal cellular phones to communicate with management, and using their personal vehicles to travel to jobsites to perform their job duties.

We believe that Ms. Greene and other current and former California-based hourly-paid or non-exempt employees are entitled to penalties as allowed under California Labor Code section 2698, et seq. for violations of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 218.5, 221, 226(a), 226.3, 226.7, 510, 512(a), 551, 552, 558, 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800 and 2802, and the IWC Wage Orders.

California Labor Code section 2699.3 requires that a claimant send a certified letter to the employer in questions and the California Labor & Workforce Development Agency setting forth the claims, and the basis for the claims, thereby giving the California Labor & Workforce Development Agency an opportunity to investigate the claims and/or take any action it deems appropriate.

The purpose of this letter is to satisfy the requirement created by California Labor code section 2699 prior to seeking penalties allowed by law for the aforementioned statutory violations. We look forward to determining whether California Labor & Workforce Development Agency intends to take any action in reference to these claims. We kindly request that you respond to this notice according to the time frame contemplated by the California Labor Code.

Ms. Greene will seek these penalties and wages on her own behalf and on behalf of other similarly situated California-based hourly-paid or non-exempt employees of IRI within one year of the date of this letter, as allowed by law.

If you have any questions or require additional information, please do not hesitate to contact us. Thank you for your attention to this matter and the noble cause you advance each and every day.

Very truly yours,
