[Hon. Evelio Grillo, Department 21]

PLAINTIFF'S NOTICE OF MOTION AND MOTION FOR FINAL APPROVAL OF CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT;
MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES IN SUPPORT

of William L. Marder; Declaration of Janele
Aldana; Declaration of Taylor Mitzner;
[Proposed] Order and Final Judgment]*

Date: August 15, 2023
Time: 10:00 a.m.
Department: 21

Reservation ID: 756487160578

Complaint Filed: August 25, 2020

1 TO THE COURT, DEFENDANTS, AND THEIR COUNSEL OF RECORD:

2 PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that on August 15, 2023, at 10:00 a.m., or as soon thereafter as the 3 matter may be heard in Department 21, of the above-entitled court located at 1221 Oak Street, Oakland,
4 California 94612, Plaintiff, Janele Aldana, will and hereby does seek an Order:

- 5 1. granting final approval to the Amended Joint Stipulation of Class Action Settlement (the 6 “Agreement”) in this action;
- 7 2. approving distribution of the settlement funds to Settlement Class Members and Aggrieved
8 Employees pursuant to the terms of the Agreement;
- 9 3. approving Plaintiff’s request for a service award of $10,000.00 to the Class Representative
10 pursuant to the terms of the Agreement;
- 11 4. approving Class Counsel’s request for an award of attorneys’ fees of 33⅓% of the 12 $1,575,000.00 Gross Settlement Amount, or $525,000.00, and reimbursement of litigation
13 costs of $11,368.85 pursuant to the terms of the Agreement;
- 14 5. approving Plaintiff’s request for payment of the settlement administration costs to Phoenix
15 Settlement Administrators in the amount of $11,500.00 pursuant to the terms of the 16 Agreement;
- 17 6. approving Plaintiff’s request for payment to the Labor & Workforce Development Agency of 18 $120,000.00 pursuant to the terms of the Agreement; and
- 19 7. entering final judgment as to all members of the Settlement Class and the State of California
20 (including the Labor and Workforce Development Agency) in this action.

21 This motion is made pursuant to Rule 3.769 of the California Rules of Court, which provides for 22 Court approval of the settlement of a purported class action and allows the Court to grant final 23 certification of a class for settlement purposes. The overwhelmingly positive Class response—as shown 24 by the lack of any objections to the settlement and also the lack of any opt outs—supports that the 25 settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate, and should be granted final approval.

26 This motion will be based on the attached Memorandum of Points and Authorities, the 27 supporting Declarations of Larry W. Lee, Simon L. Yang, William L. Marder, Plaintiff Janele Aldana, 28

1 and Taylor Mitzner of Phoenix Settlement Administrators, upon the oral arguments of counsel (should 2 there be any), and on the complete records and file herein.

SUMMARY OF MOTION

On August 25, 2020, Plaintiff, Janele Aldana, filed this class and Labor Code Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 (“PAGA”) action against Defendants Dal-Tile Services, Inc. and Mohawk Industries, Inc. The lawsuit alleges Defendants failed to furnish lawful wage statements. Specifically, Plaintiff alleges that employees are furnished wage statements that fail to show the pay period start date. Plaintiff also alleges that non-exempt employees who are paid overtime or meal period premiums are furnished wage statements that fail to show the total hours worked. Defendants deny the allegations.

Plaintiff now seeks the Court’s final approval of the Amended Joint Stipulation of Class Action Settlement (the “Agreement”). The Agreement provides for a $1,575,000.00 fund to be created for the benefit of the Class, from which attorneys’ fees, litigation costs, a service award to the Class Representative, payment to the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”), and costs of settlement administration are to be paid. The net settlement fund after these deductions will be paid to Settlement Class Members and Aggrieved Employees.

The history of this litigation was previously detailed in Plaintiff’s Preliminary Approval Motion. On April 21, 2023, the Court preliminarily approved this settlement. It directed distribution of the Notice of Class Action Settlement (“Class Notice”) and scheduled the hearing for final approval of settlement (the “Preliminary Approval Order”).

As directed by the Court, the Administrator, Phoenix Settlement Administrators, distributed the Class Notice to 550 Class Members. Declaration of Taylor Mitzner on behalf of Phoenix Settlement Administrators (“Admin Decl.”) ¶ 5. Not a single objection has been submitted. Id. ¶ 9. Nor has any request for exclusion been received. Id. ¶ 8. As such, there is a 100% participation rate. Id. ¶ 11. Based on the Class Members’ response, an inference can be made that the Class supports the Court’s Preliminary Approval Order finding that the Agreement is fair and reasonable.

In addition to the results of the notice process, the points discussed in Plaintiff’s Preliminary Approval Motion also support final approval of the settlement:

- The settlement provides a total settlement sum of $1,575,000.00;
- The settlement is fair given that Class Members will receive (after deductions for fees, costs, etc.) a substantial amount of money (on average, each Settlement Class Member will receive approximately $1,631.15, see Admin Decl. ¶¶ 14-15);

- Class Members did not need to submit claim forms to participate in the settlement, but are being paid automatically;
- The allocation reflects that payment of claims will be paid to all Class Members in proportion to the number of relevant wage statements received by each Class Member during the Class Period;
- Plaintiff conducted significant investigation in this case, including extensive formal and informal discovery and exchanges of information by Plaintiff and Defendants of class data for the entire class necessary for Plaintiff to fully evaluate this case; and
- California’s LWDA will also be the beneficiary of this settlement as it will receive $120,000.00, should this settlement be granted final approval.

Accordingly, the Court should grant Final Approval consistent with the Preliminary Approval Order.

DISCUSSION

I. Class Members Were Provided Notice of the Settlement.

The notice procedures required by the Preliminary Approval Order have been followed and satisfy all due process rights of Class Members. The Preliminary Approval Order contemplated that Phoenix Settlement Administrators would serve as the Administrator. It also contemplated that the Class Notice would be sent to all Class Members by first class mail, as specified in the Agreement.

As clearly stated in the Admin Declaration, notice was provided to Class Members, as required by the Preliminary Approval Order. On May 5, 2023, the Administrator received a Class Member mailing list from Defendants’ counsel that included 550 Class Members. Admin Decl. ¶ 3. On May 12, 2023, each of the persons identified on the mailing list were sent the Class Notice via first class mail. Id. ¶ 5. The Class Notice provided Class Members with Class Counsel’s contact information, where they could further seek information regarding the settlement, leave questions for the Administrator, and update their addresses. From the date of mailing, 12 mailed Class Notices were returned to the Administrator. Id. ¶ 6. After an address trace was performed, each of these 12 Class Notices were then re-mailed to an updated address. Id. None of the Class Notices remain undeliverable. Id. ¶ 7.

Plaintiff provided the “best notice practicable” in this case as necessary to protect the due process rights of class members. See Phillips Petroleum Co. v. Shutts, 472 U.S. 797, 811-12 (1985) (providing “best notice practicable” with description of the litigation and explanation of opt-out rights satisfies due process); Eisen v. Carlisle & Jacquelin, 417 U.S. 156, 174-75 (1974) (explaining individual notice must be sent to class members who can be identified through reasonable means); Mullane v.

1 Central Hanover Bank & Trust Co., 339 U.S. 306, 314 (1950) (stating best practicable notice is that 2 which is “reasonably calculated, under all the circumstances, to apprise interested parties of the 3 pendency of the action and afford them an opportunity to present their objections”).

4 Here, Class Members were mailed a notice that explained the settlement and allowed Class
5 Members to seek information, ask questions, and object, if so desired. As such, proper notice has been 6 given to the Class Members. Thus, the Court may determine the fairness and adequacy of the settlement
7 and enter its Order granting final approval, secure in the knowledge that all absent Class Members have 8 been given the opportunity to participate fully in the claims, exclusion, and the approval process.

9 II. The Fair, Adequate, and Reasonable Settlement Should Be Given Final Approval.

10 A. The Strength of the Case and Likelihood of Class Certification Support Approval.

11 The Court already addressed the requirements for certifying a class for settlement purposes in its 12 Order granting preliminary approval. Plaintiff briefly addresses the requirements again here.

13 1. The Class Is Ascertainable.

14 “Whether a class is ascertainable is determined by examining (1) the class definition, (2) the size
15 of the class, and (3) the means available for identifying the class members.” Reyes v. San Diego County
16 Board of Supervisors, 196 Cal. App. 3d 1263, 1271 (1987); see also Code Civ. Proc. § 382.

17 Here, the Class includes (i) any current or former exempt employee of Defendants in the State of 18 California who at any time during the Class Period received wage statements that did not include the pay
19 period start date, and (ii) any current or former non-exempt employee of Defendants in the State of 20 California who at any time during the Class Period received wage statements that either did not include 21 the pay period start date or showed overtime or meal period premiums hours that resulted in an 22 inaccurate total hours worked. Agreement § 1.5. The Class Period is from April 6, 2019, through 23 November 29, 2022. Id. § 1.7.

24 There are 550 individuals that comprise the Class. Admin Decl. ¶ 3.¹ This is more than the 25 minimum required to certify a class. Within the context of manageability, the issue is whether there
26

28 ¹ All Class Members are also Aggrieved Employees. Agreement § 1.5. The PAGA Period is the same as the Class Period. Id. § 1.7.

exists sufficient means for identifying class members at the remedial stage. Reyes, 196 Cal. App. 3d at 1274-75. Here, Class Members have already been identified and have already been sent notice.

2. There Is a Community of Interest.

The “community of interest” requirement embodies three separate factors: (1) predominant common questions of law or fact; (2) class representatives whose claims are typical of the class; and (3) class representatives who can adequately represent the class. Richmond v. Dart Industries, Inc., 29 Cal. 3d 462, 470 (1981); Reese v. Wal-Mart Stores, Inc., 73 Cal. App. 4th 1225, 1234 (1999).

a. There Are Predominant Common Questions of Law and Fact.

“The ultimate question in every case of this type [class actions] is whether ... the issues which may be jointly tried, when compared with those requiring separate adjudication, are so numerous and substantial that the maintenance of a class action would be advantageous to the judicial process and to the litigants.” Lockheed Martin Corp. v. Superior Court, 29 Cal. 4th 1096, 1104-05 (2003).

Here, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants, as a matter of common corporate policy, practice, or procedure, failed to furnish wage statements that accurately itemize and show either the pay period start date and, for non-exempt employees who are paid overtime or meal period premiums, the total hours worked. While Defendants deny that liability could be established on a class-wide basis and contend instead that liability would need to be conducted on a case-by-case basis, common questions predominate Plaintiff’s theory of liability.

b. Plaintiff’s Claims Are Typical of the Class Claims.

A class representative’s claim must be “typical” but not necessarily identical to the claims of other class members; it is sufficient that the representative is similarly situated so that he or she will have the motive to litigate on behalf of the class. Classen v. Weller, 145 Cal. App. 3d 27, 45 (1983). Courts look to “whether the action is based on conduct which is not unique to the named Plaintiff” and whether other class members were injured by the same conduct. Hanon v. Dataproducts Corp., 976 F.2d 497, 508 (9th Cir. 1992). The purpose of the typicality requirement “is to assure that the interest of the named representative aligns with the interests of the class.” Id. at 508.

Plaintiff was employed by Defendants and alleges that she was subjected to the same payroll policies and wage statement practices as all other Class Members. Specifically, like other members of

1 the Class, Plaintiff alleges she received wage statements that do not show the total hours worked or the 2 start date for the period being paid. Declaration of Janele Aldana (“Aldana Decl.”) ¶ 2. In sum, Plaintiff
3 alleges she was subjected to the same policies and practices as other Class Members. Plaintiff’s claims
4 thus are typical to those of Class Members.

5 c. Plaintiff Adequately Represented the Class.

6 The class representative, through qualified counsel, must be capable of “vigorously and 7 tenaciously” protecting the interests of the class members. Simons v. Horowitz, 151 Cal. App. 3d 834,
8 846 (1984). Here, Plaintiff does not have any interests adverse to the Class, nor have any such issues
9 been raised or presented. Plaintiff has taken all necessary steps to represent the interests of the Class, 10 including providing information and documents to her counsel and reviewing pleadings in this case.
11 Aldana Decl. ¶¶ 3-5. For such reasons, Plaintiff has adequately represented Class Members.

12 B. Defendants’ Allegations and Position on Class Certification Support Approval.

13 Defendants assert that even assuming that a class could have been certified, Plaintiff would be 14 unable to establish classwide liability. For example, Defendants contended that liability under Section 15 226(e) would be subject to defenses requiring proof of injuries resulting from knowing and intentional
16 violations.² Likewise, Defendants contended that PAGA penalties in any event would be subject to 17 discretionary reductions. Based thereon, Defendants continue to maintain that they are not liable for the 18 allegations made by Plaintiff or for the amounts alleged by Plaintiff.

19 C. Risks, Expenses, and Complexity of Further Litigation Support Approval.

20 Plaintiff believes that a class can be certified. However, Plaintiff also believes in the fairness of 21 the settlement when factoring in the uncertainty and risks involved in not prevailing on the theory of 22 liability alleged in the Complaint, the possibility of non-certification, and the potential for appeals.

23 There is always a risk that the court will not grant certification of the class. As Defendants allege 24 that a class could not have been certified, there was at least a substantial risk that Plaintiff would not 25 have obtained the total amount of penalties alleged. There also were a substantial number of complex
26 issues that would have necessitated significant expenditure of time and expenses. Therefore, the risks, 27 expenses, and complexity of further litigation warrant granting of this motion.

28 _____
² Except as otherwise noted, all “Section” references are to the Labor Code.

D. The Settlement Terms and Negotiation—as Well as the Class Member Response—
All Support the Conclusion that the Settlement is Fair, Adequate, and Reasonable.

Without reiterating the details in the Preliminary Approval Motion showing that the Agreement (and the negotiation process that led up to it) is fair and adequate, Plaintiff highlights the following facts. The settlement does not merely achieve a fair result for the Class; it achieves an excellent result: indeed, Class Members will receive (after deductions for fees, costs, etc.) a substantial amount of money (on average, each Settlement Class Member will receive approximately $1,631.15. Admin Decl. ¶¶ 14-15. Moreover, the Agreement was the product of negotiation between highly able and experienced attorneys on both sides who possessed the relevant data and extensive legal research which they had carefully analyzed. Declaration of Larry W. Lee (“Lee Decl.”) ¶¶ 4-5.

Following notice to the Class, not a single request for exclusion or objection to the settlement has been received to date. Admin Decl. ¶¶ 8-9. The Court may appropriately infer that the class action settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable, given that not a single Class Member has submitted an objection. See Class Plaintiffs v. City of Seattle, 955 F.2d 1268, 1291 (9th Cir. 1992). Indeed, the Class Member response suggests the preliminarily approved settlement should now be granted final approval.

III. Well-Established Legal Principles Support Final Approval of the Settlement.

On a motion for final approval of a class action settlement under Code of Civil Procedure section 382 and Rule 3.769 of the California Rules of Court, a court’s inquiry is whether the settlement is “fair, adequate and reasonable.” Officers for Justice v. Civil Serv. Comm’n, 688 F.2d 615, 625 (9th Cir. 1982). A settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable, and therefore merits final approval, when “the interests of the class are better served by the settlement than by further litigation.” See Manual for Complex Litigation, Fourth § 21.6 at 309 (Fed. Jud. Ctr., 4th ed. 2004) (“MCL”). The law favors settlement, particularly in class actions and other complex cases, where substantial resources can be conserved by avoiding the time, cost, and rigors of formal litigation. See 4 Alba Conte & Herbert B. Newberg, Newberg on Class Actions § 11.41 (4th ed. 2002); Class Plaintiffs v. City of Seattle, 955 F.2d 1268, 1276 (9th Cir. 1992); Van Bronkhorst v. Safeco Corp., 529 F.2d 943, 950 (9th Cir. 1976).

Although the Court possesses “broad discretion” in determining that a proposed class action settlement is fair, the Court’s role must be limited to the extent necessary to reach a reasoned judgment

1 that the agreement is not the product of fraud or overreaching by, or collusion between, the negotiating
2 parties, and that the settlement, taken as a whole, is fair, reasonable, and adequate to all concerned. See
3 Officers for Justice, 688 F.2d at 625. Accordingly, the Court should give due regard to what is otherwise
4 a “private consensual agreement” between the parties. Id.; see also Church v. Consolidated Freightways,
5 Inc., 1993 WL 149840 (N.D. Cal. 1993); In re Wash. Pub. Power Supply Sys. Sec. Litig., 720 F. Supp.
6 1379 (D. Ariz. 1989), aff’d sub nom.; City of Seattle, 955 F.2d 1268; MCL § 21.6 at 309 (“The judicial 7 role in reviewing a proposed settlement is critical, but limited to approving the proposed settlement,
8 disapproving it, or imposing conditions on it. The judge cannot rewrite the agreement”).

9 As the Court of Appeal has cautioned:

10 It cannot be overemphasized that neither the trial court in approving the settlement nor 11 this Court in reviewing that approval have the right or duty to reach any ultimate 12 conclusions on the issues of fact and law which underlie the merits of the dispute. It is 13 well settled that in the judicial consideration of proposed settlements, ‘the [trial] judge does not try out or attempt to decide the merits of the controversy,’ [citation] and the appellate court ‘need not and should not reach any dispositive conclusions on the admittedly unsettled legal issue.

14 7-Eleven Owners for Fair Franchising v. Southland Corp., 85 Cal. App. 4th 1135, 1146 (2000).

15 A court’s review and approval of a PAGA settlement is subject to a similar standard as that for 16 class action settlement approval. A court should evaluate a PAGA settlement to determine whether it is 17 fair, reasonable, and adequate in view of PAGA’s purposes to remediate present labor law violations,
18 deter future ones, and to maximize enforcement of state labor laws. Moniz v. Adecco USA, Inc., 72 Cal.
19 App. 5th 56, 77 (2021).

20 A. The Settlement is Presumed to Be Fair

21 The Court should begin with the presumption that the settlement is fair and should be approved:

22 [A] presumption of fairness exists where: (1) the settlement is reached through arm’s-23 length bargaining; (2) investigation and discovery are sufficient to allow counsel and the 24 court to act intelligently; (3) counsel is experienced in similar litigation; and (4) the percentage of objectors is small.

25 Dunk v. Ford Motor Co., 48 Cal. App. 4th 1794, 1802 (1996); accord, Ellis v. Naval Air Rework
26 Facility, 87 F.R.D. 15, 18 (N.D. Cal. 1980); In re Wash. Pub Power Supply, 720 F. Supp. at 1387.

27 The settlement in the case at bar warrants approval and carries a presumption of fairness. As 28 previously noted in the application for Preliminary Approval, this current settlement was negotiated at 1 arm's length. Lee Decl. ¶¶ 4-5. Class Counsel engaged in extensive factual investigation before settling,

2 including the exchange of extensive formal and informal discovery and class data enabling Class
3 Counsel to evaluate the full extent of Defendants' potential liability. Id. ¶ 4. Further, Class Counsel is 4 highly experienced in this type of litigation. As shown in the supporting declarations, Class Counsel has 5 significant experience in class actions and employment wage and hour matters. Id. ¶¶ 6-8; Declaration of 6 Simon L. Yang ("Yang Decl.") ¶¶ 4-6; Declaration of William L. Marder ("Marder Decl.") ¶¶ 3-10.

7 B. Two-Way Costs and Other Risks Inherent in Litigation Favor Final Approval.

8 To assess the fairness, adequacy, and reasonableness of a class action settlement, the Court also 9 should weigh the immediacy and certainty of substantial settlement proceeds against the risks inherent in 10 continued litigation. See also In re General Motors Corp., 55 F.3d 768, 806 (3d Cir. 1995) ("present
11 value of the damages plaintiffs would likely recover if successful, appropriately discounted for the risk
12 of not prevailing, should be compared with the amount of the proposed settlement"); Girsh v. Jepson,
13 521 F.2d 153, 157 (3d Cir. 1975); Boyd v. Bechtel Corp., 485 F. Supp. 610, 616-17 (N.D. Cal. 1979).

14 If Plaintiff pursued this case without settlement and failed to prevail, Plaintiff would have been 15 potentially responsible for Defendants' costs. Likewise, any other current or former employees that 16 bring individual claims also would face the uncertainty of prevailing and the possibility of paying costs
17 to Defendants. For that reason, many of these current and former employees likely would not pursue 18 claims. This lawsuit thus achieves a true benefit for the Class that they otherwise might not get or even 19 seek as individuals. Here, given that a fair and reasonable settlement has been reached, neither Plaintiff
20 nor any of the Class Members will be required to pay for Defendants' litigation costs.

21 The risks of this case were weighed by Class Counsel and should be considered a significant
22 factor by the Court in its determination of final approval. Class Counsel obtained a significant settlement
23 for the Class that resulted in a fair recovery which at the same time provides for finality and no risk of 24 costs by the Class Members or Class Representative.

25 C. The Complexity, Expense, and Likely Duration of Continued Litigation Against 26 Defendants Favor Final Approval.

27 Another factor considered by courts in approving a settlement is the complexity, expense, and 28 likely duration of the litigation. See Officers for Justice, 688 F.2d at 625; Girsh, 521 F.2d at 157. In

1 applying this factor, courts weigh the benefits of settlement against the expense and delay involved in 2 achieving a favorable result at trial. Young v. Katz, 447 F.2d 431, 433-34 (5th Cir. 1971).

3 The Agreement affords the Class prompt, fair relief while avoiding significant legal and factual
4 battles that otherwise may have prevented the Class from obtaining any recovery at all. While Class
5 Counsel believe the Class Members' claims are meritorious and can be successfully litigated, they are 6 experienced and fully understand the inherent risks and uncertainty involved with such matters as the 7 resolution of class certification, the outcome of a potential trial, and the outcome of any appeals that 8 would inevitably follow should the Class prevail at trial. Class Counsel has also assessed the same risks
9 in connection with the current settlement. Because the settlement provides immediate and substantial 10 relief, without the attendant risks and delay of continued litigation—not to mention the threat of 11 litigation fees and costs—Class Counsel believe that the settlement warrants the Court's final approval.

12 While continued litigation could have led to appeals on several issues, the settlement that was 13 reached provides to all Class Members—regardless of their means—fair relief in a prompt and efficient
14 manner. Were the Court to deny final approval, the Class Members would be left without a remedy as a 15 practical matter and courts across the State would have to address the issues presented here in a 16 piecemeal, costly, and time-consuming manner. The settlement in this case is therefore consistent with 17 the “overriding public interest in settling and quieting litigation” that is “particularly true in class action
18 suits.” See Van Bronkhorst, 529 F.2d at 950; see also 4 Newberg § 11.41. Here, litigation of this case 19 through trial and appeals would require extended litigation.

20 D. The Opinion of Experienced Counsel Favors Final Approval.

21 Class Counsel supports the settlement as fair, reasonable, and adequate, as in the best interest of 22 the Class Members as a whole, and fair, reasonable, and adequate in view of PAGA's purposes. Lee 23 Decl. ¶ 5; Yang Decl. ¶ 2; Marder Decl. ¶ 2. Similarly, counsel for Defendants is in favor of this 24 settlement. The endorsement of qualified and well-informed counsel of a settlement as fair, reasonable,
25 and adequate is entitled to significant weight by the Court in its final approval determination. See 26 Officers for Justice, 688 F.2d at 625; Ellis, 87 F.R.D. at 18; Boyd, 485 F. Supp. at 617; Linney v.
27 Cellular Alaska P'ship, 151 F.3d 1234, 1242 (9th Cir. 1998).

IV. The Proposed Payments and Procedures Should Be Approved.

A. The Proposed Procedure for Uncashed Settlement Checks Should Be Approved.

As referenced in the Motion for Preliminary Approval, to the extent any uncashed settlement funds remain after 180 days, the Parties have agreed that the funds (upon the expiration date) would be distributed pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 384 with 100% of the sum to be paid to Legal Aid at Work. None of the settlement funds will revert to Defendants.

B. The Requested Class Representative Service Award Should Be Approved.

Class Representative Janele Aldana requests a service award of $10,000.00.³ Plaintiff met with Class Counsel to provide substantive information regarding Defendants' practices. Aldana Decl. ¶ 3. Plaintiff provided invaluable information, evidence, and documents that resulted in this settlement.

In addition to the invaluable services that she provided and at least 50.0 hours she devoted to the litigation on behalf of the Class, Aldana Decl. ¶ 3, Plaintiff took significant risks, both professionally and monetarily, in acting as Class Representative to seek benefits for the Class. Because the claims Plaintiff alleged involved the payment of costs to the prevailing party, Plaintiff could have possibly faced paying the costs of Defendants had she not prevailed in this action. Moreover, Plaintiff understood that an individual case would have resolved much faster than a class action and involved much less financial risk than a class action. Despite this, Plaintiff agreed to pursue this case on behalf of the Class. Id. ¶ 8.

Also, given that future employers are much less likely to hire individuals who have filed employment-related lawsuits, particularly cases of this nature, the Class Representative also faces significant risk in not being able to find suitable employment—all as a result of filing of this case against Defendants. Plaintiff took these risks upon herself to the benefit of the Class. Aldana Decl. ¶ 8. Class Members did not have to file individual lawsuits and bear the risks of payment of costs if they did not ³ Courts have routinely granted approval of settlements containing such incentive awards. See Van Vranken v. Atlantic Richfield Co., 901 F. Supp. 294, 299-300 (N.D. Cal. 1995) (incentive award of $50,000); In re Dun & Bradstreet Credit Servs. Customer Litig., 130 F.R.D. 366, 374 (S.D. Ohio 1990) (two incentive awards of $55,000, and three incentive awards of $35,000); Brotherton v. Cleveland, 141 F. Supp. 2d 907, 913-14 (S.D. Ohio 2001) (granting a $50,000 incentive award); Enter. Energy Corp. v. Columbia Gas Transmission Corp., 137 F.R.D. 240, 251-52 (S.D. Ohio 1991) ($50,000 awarded to each class representative); Glass v. UBS Fin. Servs., 2007 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 8476, at *51-52 (N.D. Cal. Jan. 27, 2007) (awarding $25,000 incentive award in FLSA overtime wages class action); Cook v. Niedert, 142 F.3d 1004, 1016 (7th Cir. 1998) (affirming $25,000 incentive award to class representative).

1 prevail, nor did they have to face the potential for retaliation and not getting future employment had they
2 filed a lawsuit which is a public record. These are significant benefits that weigh in favor of granting the 3 requested award. Moreover, this litigation has resulted in a significantly valuable benefit to the Class,
4 and Plaintiff took on substantial risks in helping to get this financial benefit to the Class. As such, the 5 award should be granted to Plaintiff for her commitment, dedication, and risks taken for this litigation.

6 Equally important, Plaintiff provided a general release and waiver of the protections of Civil 7 Code section 1542. Aldana Decl. ¶ 9. This is a more extensive release than that provided by the Class at 8 large and also supports the request for the award. With respect to the general release, Plaintiff did not 9 proceed with litigation of all of her potential claims and instead strategically pursued the targeted 10 Section 226(a) claims in this lawsuit to maximize her ability to recover penalties for the alleged 11 violations of Section 226(a) for the class and State. Yang Decl. ¶ 10. Plaintiff nonetheless agreed to the 12 general release for the benefit of the Class and State.

13 C. The Requested Attorneys' Fees Should Be Approved.

14 1. The Percentage of the Fund Method Supports the Requested Fees.

15 Class Counsel seeks a fee award calculated at 33⅓% of the total value of the settlement for the 16 successful prosecution and resolution of this action. California state and federal courts have recognized
17 that an appropriate method for determining award of attorneys' fees is based on a percentage of the total
18 value of benefits to class members by the settlement. Wershba v. Apple Computer, Inc., 91 Cal. App. 4th
19 224, 254 (2001); Serrano v. Priest, 20 Cal. 3d 25, 34 (1977); Boeing Co. v. Van Gemert, 444 U.S. 472, 20 478 (1980); Vincent v. Hughes Air West, Inc., 557 F.2d 759, 769 (9th Cir. 1997). The purpose of this 21 equitable doctrine is to avoid unjust enrichment to the Class and to "spread litigation costs
22 proportionally among all the beneficiaries so that the active beneficiary does not bear the entire burden
23 alone." Vincent, 557 F.2d at 769.

24 The California Supreme Court has provided guidance regarding the award of attorneys' fees in 25 wage and hour class action settlements. Under California law, the award of attorneys' fees in common 26 fund wage and hour class action settlements should start with the percentage method. See Laffitte v.
27 Robert Half Int'l, 1 Cal. 5th 480, 503 (2016) ("We join the overwhelming majority of federal and state
28 courts in holding that when class action litigation establishes a monetary fund for the benefit of the class

1 members, and the trial court in its equitable powers awards class counsel a fee out of that fund, the court
2 may determine the amount of a reasonable fee by choosing an appropriate percentage of the fund
3 created”). Under the percentage of the fund method, a court’s objective remains to “mimic the market”
4 in fixing a reasonable fee. See Gaskill v. Gordon, 160 F.3d 361, 363 (7th Cir. 1998) (Posner, J.) (“When
5 a fee is set by a court rather than by contract, the object is to set it at a level that will approximate what 6 the market will set The judge, in other words, is trying to mimic the market in legal services.”).

7 First, the fee award representing 33⅓% of the fund clearly falls within that range and is 8 consistent with other rulings of other courts and comprehensive surveys of class action settlements and 9 fee awards. Attorneys’ fees awards of 35% of the fund are within the expected range in the “market in 10 legal services. See Fitzpatrick, An Empirical Study of Class Action Settlements and Their Fee Award, 7
11 J. Empirical Leg. Stud. 811, 833 (2010) (analyzing 444 cases between 2006-2007 and concluding that 12 “[m]ost fee awards were between 25 percent and 35 percent”).⁴

13 Second, the results delivered by Class Counsel also support the requested percentage of the fund.
14 Here, Plaintiff and her counsel secured a $1,575,000.00 settlement. Here, Class Counsel negotiated a 15 settlement that requires Defendants to pay $25.25 per relevant wage statement. Admin Decl. ¶ 11. This 16 is an excellent result for Class Members, who will receive (after deductions for fees, costs, etc.) a 17 substantial amount of money (on average, each Settlement Class Member will receive approximately 18 $1,631.15. Admin Decl. ¶¶ 14-15.

19 Third, “the response of the class members to attorneys’ fee notice, though not decisive, is 20 relevant to the . . . reasonable determination” regarding fees. Swedish Hospital v. Shalala, 1 F.3d 1261, 21 1272 (D.C. Cir. 1993). A positive response rate tends to suggest that the court’s “approximation of the 22 market” for fees is well supported. Id. at 1269. Here, the Class Notice specifically notified the Class that 23 Class Counsel would be seeking $525,000.00 in attorneys’ fees. Here, zero Class Members chose to opt 24 out. Zero chose to object.

25 ⁴ Such a fee award mimics the market and “is supported by the fact that typical contingency fee 26 agreements provide that class counsel will recover 33% if the case is resolved before trial and 40% if the 27 case is tried.” Fernandez v. Victoria Secret Stores LLC, 2008 WL 8150856, at *16 n.59 (C.D. Cal. July 28 21, 2008) (citing Brickman, Effective Hourly Rates of Contingency-Fee Lawyers: Competing Data and Non-Competitive Fees (Fall 2003) 81 Wash U. L. Q. 653, 659 n. 11). Indeed, a fee award of 35% of the fund is consistent with “empirical studies [that] show that . . . fee awards in class actions average around one-third of the recovery.” Chavez v. Netflix, Inc., 162 Cal. App. 4th 43, 66 n.11 (2008).

1 Fourth, it is recognized that one of the primary factors justifying an enhanced attorney’s fees
2 reward is the attendant risks inherent in the litigation. As observed in City of Detroit v. Grinnell Corp.:

3 No one expects a lawyer whose compensation is contingent upon his success to charge, when 4 successful, as little as he would charge a client who had agreed to pay for his services, regardless
5 of success. Nor, particularly in complicated cases producing large recoveries, is it just to make a 6 fee depend solely on the reasonable amount of time expended.

7 495 F.2d 448, 470 (2d Cir. 1974). Here, it is clear that a settlement fund of $1,575,000.00 has been 8 created. For Class Counsel, the fees here were wholly contingent in nature and the case presented far
9 more risk than the usual contingent fee case. Among the risks was the cost inherent in class action
10 litigation, as well as a long battle with corporate Defendants who had retained a premier and highly 11 experienced defense firm. For such reasons, Class Counsel’s request for attorneys’ fees in the amount of $525,000.00 is fair, reasonable, and adequate.

12 2. The Lodestar Cross-Check Supports the Requested Fees.

13 The amount requested is reasonable for an additional reason. While the primary method 14 employed to determine fees is the percentage method, courts have discretion to use the lodestar method
15 to “cross-check” the amount of fees calculated by way of percentage. The Laffitte court emphasized, 16 however, that “the lodestar calculation, when used in this manner, does not override the trial court’s 17 primary determination of the fee as a percentage of the common fund and thus does not impose an 18 absolute maximum or minimum on the potential fee award.” Laffitte, 1 Cal. 5th at 505 (emphasis 19 added); In re Rite Aid Corp. Secs. Litig., 396 F.3d 294, 306-307 (3d Cir. 2005) (“[The lodestar cross-20 check does not trump the primary reliance on the percentage of common fund method”).

21 Courts find reasonable multipliers in a lodestar cross-check can “range from 2 to 4 or even 22 higher.” Wershba v. Apple Computer, Inc., 91 Cal. App. 4th 224, 255 (2001).⁵ Indeed, the intermediate 23 court in Laffitte—after finding that “2 to 4” is a reasonable range for multipliers on a cross-check—
24 affirmed a 2.13 multiplier. Laffitte, 231 Cal. App. 4th at 881-82.⁶ Moreover, the Ninth Circuit has cited

26 ⁵ Accord Chavez, 162 Cal. App. 4th at 60 (applying a 2.5 multiplier on a lodestar cross-check); Sutter
27 Health Uninsured Pricing Cases, 171 Cal. App. 4th 495, 512 (2009) (applying a 2.52 multiplier on a 28 cross-check); City of Oakland v. Oakland Raiders, 203 Cal. App. 3d 78 (1988) (affirming a 2.34 multiplier without remand).

⁶ The intermediate court opinion was affirmed in full upon review by the California Supreme Court.

1 with approval a comprehensive study of fees awarded by the percentage method showing that the 2 majority of multipliers awarded are “in the 1.5-3.0” range. See Vizcaino v. Microsoft Corp., 290 F.3d
3 1043, 1051 (9th Cir. 2002) (affirming a multiplier of 3.65 in an employment class action case and 4 analyzing the multiplier awarded in over 30 cases).⁷

5 With respect to Class Counsel’s lodestar, at least 330.8 hours have been expended by Class
6 Counsel litigating this case. Lee Decl. ¶ 10, Ex. B; Yang Decl. ¶ 8, Ex. A; Marder Decl. ¶ 12, Ex. A.
7 Moreover, Class Counsel expects to incur approximately 40.0 hours of anticipated time spent to attend
8 the final approval hearing, secure final approval, and respond to post-final approval phone calls and 9 correspondence from the Administrator, defense counsel, and Class Members. Lee Decl. ¶ 10; Yang
10 Decl. ¶ 8; Marder Decl. ¶ 12. Courts are quite liberal in the evidence required to prove an attorney’s 11 hours. Detailed time records are not required; an attorney’s testimony alone may suffice: “Testimony of 12 an attorney as to the number of hours worked on a particular case is sufficient evidence to support an 13 award of attorney fees, even in the absence of detailed time records.” Martino v. Denevi, 182 Cal. App.
14 3d 553, 559 (1986).

15 Reasonable hours include, in addition to time spent during litigation, the time spent before the 16 action is filed, including time spent interviewing the clients, investigating the facts and the law, and 17 preparing the initial pleadings. New York Gaslight Club, Inc. v. Carey, 447 U.S. 54, 62 (1980). The fee
18 award should also include fees incurred to establish and defend the attorneys’ fee claim. Serrano v.
19 Unruh, 32 Cal. 3d 621, 639 (1982). The hours for which Plaintiff’s Counsel seeks compensation involve 20 only these types of tasks. Thus, the number of hours for which fees are sought is reasonable.

21 A reasonable hourly rate is the prevailing rate charged by attorneys of similar skill and 22 experience in the relevant community. PLCM Group, Inc. v. Drexler, 22 Cal. 4th 1084, 1095 (2000).
23 The court may consider other factors when determining a reasonable hourly rate, e.g., the attorney’s skill

24 ⁷ Federal district courts applying California law have likewise routinely approved cross-check
25 multipliers between 2.0 and 3.0 in employment cases. See, e.g., Willner v. Manpower Inc., 2015 WL
26 3863625, at *7 (N.D. Cal. June 22, 2015) (affirming a 2.10 multiplier on settlement of California Labor
27 Code violations); Dyer v. Wells Fargo Bank, N.A., 303 F.R.D. 326, 334 (N.D. Cal. 2014) (approving
28 attorneys’ fees that resulted in lodestar multiplier of 2.83); Hopkins v. Stryker Sales Corp., 2013 WL 496358, at *5 (N.D. Cal. Feb. 6, 2013) (approving a multiplier of 2.76 in settlement of Labor Code violations). Other courts have found even higher multipliers to be reasonable by comparison to other cases. See Craft v. County of San Bernardino, 624 F. Supp. 2d 1113, 1125-26 (C.D. Cal. 2008) (approving a 5.2 multiplier after surveying a large body of cases affirming a higher multiplier).

1 and experience, the nature of the work performed, the relevant area of expertise and the attorney's
2 customary billing rates. Flannery v. California Highway Patrol, 61 Cal. App. 4th 629, 632-33 (1998).

3 Here, Mr. Lee's hourly rate is $800. Lee Decl. ¶ 10. Mr. Marder's hourly rate is $750. Marder
4 Decl. ¶ 11. Mr. Yang's hourly rate is $750. Yang Decl. ¶ 7. Plaintiff's Counsel's skill and experience
5 justify the requested rates. As shown in the supporting declarations, Plaintiff's Counsel has significant
6 experience in the area of employment and wage and hour class and representative actions. Plaintiff's
7 Counsel's practices focus on representing employees in employment matters, particularly wage and hour
8 cases on a contingency basis. Lee Decl. ¶¶ 6-8; Yang Decl. ¶¶ 4-6; Marder Decl. ¶¶ 5-12.

9 Based on the rates and 370.8 total hours, the lodestar for Class Counsel through the finalization
10 of this settlement will be approximately $283,390.00. Lee Decl. ¶ 10; Yang Decl. ¶ 8; Marder Decl. ¶¶
11 11-12. The requested attorneys' fees result in a modest multiplier of approximately 1.85 and are 12 reasonable and fair, based on the factors described above. The cross-check and modest multiplier 13 support the fee requested.

14 D. The Court Should Approve the Request for Reimbursement of Costs.

15 The request for reimbursement of costs, in the amount of $11,368.85 is fair and reasonable. As 16 set forth in Plaintiff's counsel's declaration, the costs were all directly incurred in the prosecution of this 17 action. Lee Decl. ¶ 9, Ex. A. As such, this request should be approved.

18 E. The Administrator's Fees and Costs Should Be Approved.

19 Pursuant to the terms of the Agreement, the fees and costs of the Administrator, Phoenix
20 Administrators, are to be paid out of the class settlement funds. As shown in the Declaration of Taylor
21 Mitzner, the settlement administration fees expended in this matter amount to a total of $11,500.00.
22 Admin Decl. ¶ 16, Ex. B. For such reasons, it is requested that the Administrator's fees be approved.

23 V. Notice to the LWDA Has Been Provided.

24 On April 27, 2023, Plaintiff uploaded the Order Granting Plaintiff's Motion for Preliminary 25 Approval of Class Action Settlement to the LWDA's website. Lee Decl. ¶ 10. Concurrent with the filing
26 of this motion, Plaintiff also has uploaded the final approval motion to the LWDA. Id.

1 CONCLUSION

2 Plaintiff respectfully submits that the standards for final approval have been met and the terms of 3 the Agreement are fair, adequate, and reasonable. Accordingly, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the 4 Court enter an Order in the form proposed and submitted.
