COMPLAINT FOR ENFORCEMENT UNDER THE PRIVATE ATTORNEYS GENERAL ACT,
 CALIFORNIA LABOR CODE § 2698, ET SEQ. AND DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

COMES NOW, Plaintiff JOSE PEREDA (“Plaintiff”), individually, and on behalf of other aggrieved employees pursuant to the California Private Attorneys General Act, and alleges as follows:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This representative action is brought pursuant to the California Labor Code section 2698, et seq. The civil penalties sought by Plaintiff exceed the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court and will be established according to proof at trial.

2. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to the California Constitution, Article VI, Section 10, which grants the superior court “original jurisdiction in all other causes” except those given by statute to other courts. The statutes under which this action is brought do not specify any other basis for jurisdiction.

3. This Court has jurisdiction over Defendant because, upon information and belief, Defendant is a citizen of California, has sufficient minimum contacts in California, or otherwise intentionally avails itself of the California market so as to render the exercise of jurisdiction over it by the California courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice.

4. Venue is proper in this Court because, upon information and belief, Defendant maintains offices, has agents, and/or transacts business in the State of California, including the County of San Bernardino.

PARTIES

5. Plaintiff JOSE PEREDA is an individual residing in the State of California, County of San Bernardino.

6. Defendant RELISH LABS LLC, D/B/A HOME CHEF, at all times herein mentioned, was and is, upon information and belief, an employer whose employees are engaged throughout the State of California, including the County of San Bernardino.

7. At all relevant times, Defendant RELISH LABS LLC, D/B/A HOME CHEF was the “employer” of Plaintiff within the meaning of all applicable state laws and statutes.

8. At all times herein relevant, RELISH LABS LLC, D/B/A HOME CHEF and DOES 1 through 100, and each of them, were the agents, partners, joint venturers, joint employers, representatives, servants, employees, successors-in-interest, co-conspirators and assigns, each of the other, and at all times relevant hereto were acting within the course and scope of their authority as such agents, partners, joint venturers, representatives, servants, employees, successors, co-conspirators and/or assigns, and all acts or omissions alleged herein were duly committed with the ratification, knowledge, permission, encouragement, authorization and/or consent of each defendant designated as a DOE herein.

9. The true names and capacities, whether corporate, associate, individual or otherwise, of defendants DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, are unknown to Plaintiff who sues said defendants by such fictitious names. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based on that information and belief alleges, that each of the defendants designated as a DOE is legally responsible for the events and happenings referred to in this Complaint, and unlawfully caused the injuries and damages to Plaintiff as alleged in this Complaint. Plaintiff will seek leave of court to amend this Complaint to show the true names and capacities when the same have been ascertained.

10. RELISH LABS LLC, D/B/A HOME CHEF, RELISH LABS LLC, D/B/A HOME CHEF, LLC and DOES 1 through 100 will hereinafter collectively be referred to as "Defendants."

11. Plaintiff further alleges that Defendants including the unknown defendants identified as DOES, directly or indirectly controlled or affected the working conditions, wages, working hours, and conditions of employment of Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees so as to make each of said Defendants employers and employers liable under the statutory provisions set forth herein.

PAGA ALLEGATIONS

12. At all times herein set forth, California Private Attorneys General Act ("PAGA") was applicable to Plaintiff's employment by Defendants.

1 13. At all times herein set forth, PAGA provides that any provision of law under the
2 California Labor Code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the
3 LWDA for violations of the California Labor Code may, as an alternative, be recovered
4 through a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of herself and other current
5 or former employees pursuant to procedures outlined in California Labor Code section 2699.3.

6 14. Pursuant to PAGA, a civil action under PAGA may be brought by an “aggrieved
7 employee,” who is any person that was employed by the alleged violator and against whom
8 one or more of the alleged violations was committed.

9 15. Plaintiff was employed by Defendants and the alleged violation was committed
10 against his during his time of employment and he is, therefore, an aggrieved employee.
11 Plaintiff and the other employees are “aggrieved employees” as defined by California Labor
12 Code section 2699(c) in that they are all current or former employees of Defendants, and one
13 or more of the alleged violations were committed against them.

14 16. Pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2699.3 and 2699.5, an aggrieved
15 employee, including Plaintiff, may pursue a civil action arising under PAGA after the 16 following requirements have been met:

17 b. The aggrieved employee shall give written notice by online submission
18 (hereinafter “Employee’s Notice”) to the LWDA and by U.S. Certified
19 Mail the employer of the specific provisions of the California Labor
20 Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to 21 support the alleged violations.

22 c. The LWDA shall provide notice (hereinafter “LWDA Notice”) to the 23 employer and the aggrieved employee by certified mail that it does not
24 intend to investigate the alleged violation within sixty (60) calendar days
25 of the postmark date of the Employee’s Notice. Upon receipt of the 26 LWDA Notice, or if the LWDA Notice is not provided within sixty-five 27 (65) calendar days of the postmark date of the Employee’s Notice, the 28 aggrieved employee may commence a civil action pursuant to California

Labor Code section 2699 to recover civil penalties in addition to any other penalties to which the employee may be entitled.

17. On September 17, 2020, Plaintiff provided written notice by U.S. Certified Mail to the LWDA and to Defendant RELISH LABS LLC, D/B/A HOME CHEF of the specific provisions of the California Labor Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to support the alleged violations. Plaintiff has not received an LWDA Notice within sixty-five (65) calendar days of the date of submission of Plaintiff's Notice.

18. Therefore, Plaintiff has satisfied the administrative prerequisites under California Labor Code section 2699.3(a) to recover civil penalties against Defendants for violations of California Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 226(a), 226.7, 510, 512(a), 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800 and 2802.

GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

19. At all relevant times set forth herein, Defendants employed Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees, including but not limited to (a) all current and former hourly-paid or non-exempt individuals who were employed by any of the Defendants within the State of California ("aggrieved employees subgroup A"), and (b) all current and former salaried production supervisors, or persons who held similar job titles and/ or performed similar job duties, misclassified as "exempt" who were employed by any of the Defendants within the State of California ("aggrieved employees subgroup B")(collectively with subgroup A as "aggrieved employees").

20. Defendants, jointly and severally, employed Plaintiff as an hourly-paid, non-exempt employee, and as a salaried employee misclassified as "exempt" from approximately February 2019 to approximately June 2020 in the State of California, County of San Bernardino.

21. Defendants hired Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees in subgroup A, and failed to compensate them for all hours worked, missed meal periods or rest breaks.

22. Defendants hired Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees in subgroup B, misclassified them as “exempt” employees, and paid them on a salary basis, without compensation for overtime hours worked, missed meal periods or rest breaks.

23. Defendants had the authority to hire and terminate Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees, to set work rules and conditions governing Plaintiff’s and the other aggrieved employees’ employment, and to supervise their daily employment activities.

24. Defendants exercised sufficient authority over the terms and conditions of Plaintiff’s and the other aggrieved employees’ employment for them to be joint employers of Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees.

25. Defendants directly hired and paid wages and benefits to Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees.

26. Defendants continue to employ salaried, on-site employees misclassified as “exempt” within the State of California.

27. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees worked over eight (8) hours in a day, and/or forty (40) hours in a week during their employment with Defendants.

28. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants engaged in a uniform policy and systematic scheme of wage abuse against their “exempt” or salaried store-level employees. This scheme involved, inter alia, misclassifying these positions as “exempt” managerial employees for purposes of the payment of overtime compensation when, in fact, they were “non-exempt” non-managerial employees according to California law.

29. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees were entitled to receive certain wages for overtime compensation and that they were not receiving wages for overtime compensation.

30. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees the required rest and meal periods

1 during the relevant time period as required under the applicable Industrial Welfare
2 Commission (“IWC”) Wage Orders and thus they are entitled to any and all applicable
3 penalties.

4 31. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
5 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees were entitled to
6 receive all meal periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff’s and the other
7 aggrieved employee’s regular rate of pay when a meal period was missed, and they did not
8 receive all meal periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff’s and the other
9 aggrieved employee’s regular rate of pay when a meal period was missed.

10 32. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
11 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees were entitled to
12 receive all rest periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff’s regular rate of 13 pay when a rest period was missed, and they did not receive all rest periods or payment of one
14 additional hour of pay at Plaintiff’s and the other aggrieved employees’ regular rate of pay
15 when a rest period was missed.

16 33. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
17 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees were entitled to 18 receive at least minimum wages for compensation and that they were not receiving at least 19 minimum wages for all hours worked.

20 34. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
21 knew or should have known that the aggrieved employees were entitled to receive all wages
22 owed to them upon discharge or resignation, including overtime wages and meal and rest
23 period premiums, and they did not, in fact, receive all such wages owed to them at the time of 24 their discharge.

25 35. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
26 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees were entitled to
27 receive all wages owed to them during their employment. Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees did not receive payment of all wages, including overtime wages and meal and rest period premiums, within any time permissible under California Labor Code section 204.

36. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees were entitled to receive complete and accurate wage statements in accordance with California law, but, in fact, they did not receive complete and accurate wage statements from Defendants. The deficiencies included, inter alia, the failure to include the total number of hours worked by Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees.

37. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or should have known that Defendants had to keep complete and accurate payroll records for Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees in accordance with California law, but, in fact, did not keep complete and accurate payroll records.

38. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees were entitled to reimbursement for necessary business-related expenses and costs.

39. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or should have known that they had a duty to compensate Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees pursuant to California law, and that Defendants had the financial ability to pay such compensation, but willfully, knowingly, and intentionally failed to do so, and falsely represented to Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees that they were properly denied wages, all in order to increase Defendants' profits.

40. At all material times set forth herein, Defendants failed to pay overtime wages to Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees. Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees were required to work more than eight (8) hours per day and/or forty (40) hours per week without overtime compensation.

41. At all material times set forth herein, Defendants failed to provide uninterrupted meal and rest periods to Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees.

42. At all material times set forth herein, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees at least minimum wages for all hours worked.

43. At all material times set forth herein, Defendants failed to pay the aggrieved employees all wages owed to them upon discharge or resignation.

44. At all material times set forth herein, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees' wages within any time permissible under California law, including, inter alia, California Labor Code section 204.

45. At all material times set forth herein, Defendants failed to provide complete and accurate wage statements to Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees.

46. At all material times set forth herein, Defendants failed to keep complete and accurate payroll records for Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees.

47. At all material times set forth herein, Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees for necessary business-related expenses and costs.

48. At all material times set forth herein, Defendants failed to properly compensate Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees pursuant to California law in order to increase Defendants' profits.

49. California Labor Code section 218 states that nothing in Article 1 of the Labor Code shall limit the right of any wage claimant to "sue directly . . . for any wages or penalty due to him [or her] under this article."

INSTRUCTIONS ON HOW TO COMPLETE THE COVER SHEET

To Plaintiffs and Others Filing First Papers. If you are filing a first paper (for example, a complaint) in a civil case, you must complete and file, along with your first paper, the Civil Case Cover Sheet contained on page 1. This information will be used to compile statistics about the types and numbers of cases filed. You must complete items 1 through 6 on the sheet. In item 1, you must check one box for the case type that best describes the case. If the case fits both a general and a more specific type of case listed in item 1, check the more specific one. If the case has multiple causes of action, check the box that best indicates the primary cause of action. To assist you in completing the sheet, examples of the cases that belong under each case type in item 1 are provided below. A cover sheet must be filed only with your initial paper. Failure to file a cover sheet with the first paper filed in a civil case may subject a party, its counsel, or both to sanctions under rules 2.30 and 3.220 of the California Rules of Court.

To Parties in Rule 3.740 Collections Cases. A "collections case" under rule 3.740 is defined as an action for recovery of money owed in a sum stated to be certain that is not more than $25,000, exclusive of interest and attorney's fees, arising from a transaction in which property, services, or money was acquired on credit. A collections case does not include an action seeking the following: (1) tort damages, (2) punitive damages, (3) recovery of real property, (4) recovery of personal property, or (5) a prejudgment writ of attachment. The identification of a case as a rule 3.740 collections case on this form means that it will be exempt from the general time-for-service requirements and case management rules, unless a defendant files a responsive pleading. A rule 3.740 collections case will be subject to the requirements for service and obtaining a judgment in rule 3.740.

To Parties in Complex Cases. In complex cases only, parties must also use the Civil Case Cover Sheet to designate whether the case is complex. If a plaintiff believes the case is complex under rule 3.400 of the California Rules of Court, this must be indicated by completing the appropriate boxes in items 1 and 2. If a plaintiff designates a case as complex, the cover sheet must be served with the complaint on all parties to the action. A defendant may file and serve no later than the time of its first appearance a joinder in the plaintiff's designation, a counter-designation that the case is not complex, or, if the plaintiff has made no designation, a designation that the case is complex.
