Article II.

Background.

Section 2.01 Background.

- (a) On September 11, 2020, Plaintiff, on behalf of herself and similarly situated aggrieved employees, submitted a notice to the California Labor & Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) memorializing claims against Defendant for violations of the California Labor Code, including claims for failure to pay Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees all wages earned, in violation of Labor Code sections 510, 558, and 1194; failure to pay premium wages to Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees who were denied rest periods, in violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7, 510, 558 and 1194 and IWC Wage Order 2-2001; failure to pay premium wages to Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees who were denied meal periods, in violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512 and IWC Wage Order 2-2001; failure to provide Plaintiff and other non-exempt Aggrieved Employees with wage statements that fully and accurately itemized the requirements set forth in Labor Code §§ 226(a) and 226.3; failure to reimburse Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees for necessary business expenses incurred in direct consequence of the discharge of their duties, in violation of Labor Code § 2802; failure to pay Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees all wages due at the separation of her employment based on the time frames required by Labor Code §§ 201 and 202, in violation of Labor Code §§ 201, 202, and 227.3.

- (b) On November 24, 2020, Plaintiff filed her Complaint in the Superior Court of the State of California, County of San Mateo, entitled Pamela Williams, et al. v. Stonemor, Inc., et al., Case No. 20-CIV-05216. On January 5, 2021, Plaintiff filed the operative First Amended Complaint. On December 23, 2021, Plaintiff filed an Amendment to Complaint to correct the name of the defendant from Stonemor, Inc. to Stonemor GP, LLC. Through this Settlement, the Parties have agreed to resolve Plaintiff's claims under the PAGA based on alleged violations of Labor Code §§ 201, 202, 226(a), 226.3, 226.7, 227.3, 510, 512, 558, 1194, 2802, and 2699 premised on Defendant's alleged failure to pay all wages due, provide all meal and rest periods or premium compensation in lieu thereof, timely pay all wages due upon separation of employment, reimburse all business expenses, and issue complete and accurate wage statements.
- (c) On October 4, 2023, the Parties engaged in mediation with Judge Ronald Sabraw (Ret.), an experienced and reputable wage and hour and PAGA action mediator. In advance of mediation, the Parties engaged in informal discovery to determine the total number of aggrieved employees and implicated pay periods at issue, together with a review of the pertinent policies and procedures. At all times, the Parties' settlement negotiations have been non-collusive, adversarial, and at arm's length.
- (d) The Parties agree that the investigation and evaluation discussed above, as well as discovery and the information exchanged to date, are more than sufficient to assess the merits of the respective Parties' positions and to compromise the issues on a fair and equitable basis. Plaintiff, Plaintiff's Counsel, Defendant, and Defendant's Counsel have concluded that it is desirable that the PAGA claims asserted in the Action be settled in a manner and upon such terms and conditions set forth herein in order to avoid further expense, inconvenience and distraction of further legal proceedings, and the risk of an adverse outcome each of the Parties potentially face. Plaintiff, Plaintiff's Counsel, Defendant, and Defendant's Counsel are of the opinion that the Agreement for the consideration and terms set forth herein is fair, reasonable, and adequate in light of all known facts and circumstances.
- (e) This Agreement contemplates the (a) entry of an order by the Court approving the payment allocated for settlement of the PAGA Gross Settlement Amount; (b) dismissal of the Action with prejudice; and (c) all Parties bearing their respective fees and costs except as expressly provided in this Agreement. These terms are material provisions of this Agreement.

Defendant denies each and every claim and contention alleged in the Action, and has always maintained that it never engaged in any unlawful acts regarding any of the matters alleged in the Action.

Article III.

Scope of the Aggrieved Employees.

Section 3.01 The scope of individuals encompassed under the Agreement, who are entitled to all benefits as authorized under the Agreement and subject to all obligations and duties required under the Agreement, shall include all Aggrieved Employees as defined in Section 1.01(a).

Article IV.

Approval and Implementation of Settlement.

Section 4.01 Cooperation.

The Parties will cooperate in obtaining, through a stipulation, or an unopposed motion to be filed by Plaintiff's Counsel, if required, an Order from the Court approving the payment of the PAGA Gross Settlement Amount as described in this Agreement at the earliest possible date. Concurrently with the submission of this Agreement to the Court, Plaintiff shall submit it to the LWDA as required by PAGA.

The Parties agree to use their best efforts to expedite the preparation and submission of the settlement documents. The Parties further agree to fully cooperate in the drafting and/or filing of any further documents or filings reasonably necessary to be prepared or filed, shall take all steps that may be requested by the Court relating to, or that are otherwise necessary to, the approval and implementation of the payment of the PAGA Gross Settlement Amount and dismissal of the Litigation as described in this Agreement.

The Court's approval of the payment of the PAGA Gross Settlement Amount as described in this Agreement shall be embodied in a written Order, which shall be transmitted by Plaintiff's Counsel to the LWDA within ten (10) calendar days upon entry, as required by PAGA. Should the Court not grant approval of the payment of the PAGA Gross Settlement Amount as described in this Agreement or decline to dismiss the Action with prejudice, this Agreement shall be null and void and have no further effect, and all sums paid by Defendant, if any, shall be promptly returned to them.

Section 4.02 Settlement Payment Procedures.

(a) Payment of PAGA Gross Settlement Amount and Notice to Aggrieved Employees.

- (1) Defendant shall pay the total amount of One Hundred Thirty Thousand Dollars ($130,000) to settle the Action. This amount, i.e., the PAGA Gross Settlement Amount, shall cover, resolve, and fully satisfy any and all amounts owed to Plaintiff, the Aggrieved Employees, the State of California, and Plaintiff's Counsel, including all amounts allocated to attorneys' fees and costs, in settlement of all Released Claims, as defined herein. The Parties agree that there are no circumstances that would require Defendant to pay any amount greater than the PAGA Gross Settlement Amount in connection with this Agreement unless the escalator clause in paragraph 7.15 herein is invoked. In the event that this Agreement is canceled, rescinded, terminated, voided or nullified, or if for any reason the Effective Date does not occur, however that may occur as permitted herein, or the settlement is barred by operation of law, invalidated, or ordered not to be carried out by a court of competent jurisdiction, Defendant shall have no obligation to pay any of the PAGA Gross Settlement Amount and the Parties' respective positions shall be restored to positions prior to the settlement. Further, in that event, nothing in this Agreement, the negotiations leading to this settlement, nor any papers prepared in connection with this Agreement shall be admissible in any proceeding for any purpose whatsoever.

- (2) Plaintiff's Counsel will apply to the Court for an award of attorneys' fees not to exceed one-third (33-1/3%) of the PAGA Gross Settlement Amount. Plaintiff's Counsel will also seek reimbursement of reasonable litigation costs not to exceed $18,000 (attorneys' fees and reasonable litigation costs are referred to as "Plaintiff's Counsel Payment"). Defendant will not oppose or object to Plaintiff's Counsel's application for fees and costs consistent with this section. In the event that the Court does not approve an award of attorneys' fees equal to the requested amount, or the Court alters the payment methodology described herein, Plaintiff's Counsel agrees not to seek additional review of the Court's decision regarding attorneys' fees, and this Settlement will be enforceable. Any reduction in this payment by the Court is not grounds to void this Agreement and any funds requested but not awarded as attorneys' fees or costs will be distributed to the LWDA and Aggrieved Employees pursuant to the distribution terms of the Agreement or any terms imposed by the Court.
- (3) The "Net Settlement Fund" shall be calculated by deducting from the PAGA Gross Settlement Amount Plaintiff's Counsel Payment, up to $7,500 to Plaintiff as an enhancement and general release payment, and up to $4,000 to compensate the parties' chosen Settlement Administrator. Seventy-five percent (75%) of the Net Settlement Fund, which shall be distributed to the LWDA, and the remaining twenty-five percent (25%) of the Net Settlement Fund shall be distributed to the Aggrieved Employees.
- (4) The Twenty-Five percent (25%) of the Net Settlement Fund to be distributed to the Aggrieved Employees will be divided by the total number of pay periods worked by all of them in California during the PAGA Release Period to yield the Pay Period Value. Each Aggrieved Employee will be paid an amount equal to their individual number of pay periods worked in California during the PAGA Release Period multiplied by the Pay Period Value.
- (5) Defendant shall deposit the PAGA Gross Settlement Amount into a Qualified Settlement Fund pursuant to Section 468B(g) of the Internal Revenue Code set up by the Settlement Administrator no later than thirty (30) calendar days after the Effective Date.
- (6) Defendant will provide the Settlement Administrator with a confidential list of the names and addresses of the Aggrieved Employees, together with the number of their individual pay periods worked during the PAGA Release Period, within thirty (30) calendar days after the Effective Date. This information will be provided confidentially to the Settlement Administrator only, and the Settlement Administrator will treat the information as private and confidential and take all necessary precautions to maintain the confidentiality of such information. This information is to be used only to carry out the Settlement Administrator's duties as specified in this Agreement.

- (7) No later than twenty-one (21) calendar days after Defendant's deposit of the PAGA Gross Settlement Amount, the Settlement Administrator shall transmit the Notice of PAGA Settlement (attached hereto as Exhibit "A"), together with settlement checks containing their full individual settlement amounts, with no claims process required, to all Aggrieved Employees by first-class United States mail, postage prepaid, to the last known address of each recipient with directions to the Postmaster to forward the Notice of PAGA Settlement and return all undeliverable Notices. No later than twenty-one (21) calendar days after Defendant's deposit of the PAGA Gross Settlement Amount, the respective shares shall be paid to Plaintiff's Counsel, the Settlement Administrator, Plaintiff for her enhancement and general release payment, and the LWDA to satisfy their payments herein.
- (8) For each settlement check and Notice of PAGA Settlement to Aggrieved Employees that is returned as undeliverable, the Settlement Administrator shall promptly attempt to locate the Aggrieved Employee by using an address refresher database. If no current address is located, the individual payment for that individual will be deemed undeliverable. If any Aggrieved Employees cannot be located within two attempts at mailings by the Settlement Administrator, the individual payment for that individual will be deemed undeliverable. The value of checks uncashed more than 180 days after issuance shall be paid to the Office of the California State Controller – Unclaimed Property Fund, to be held in the name of the respective Aggrieved Employees.
- (9) 100% of the PAGA Gross Settlement Amount is considered penalties and will not be subject to local, state or federal tax withholdings. All recipients of payments under this Agreement have their payments reported on an IRS Form 1099. The Settlement Administrator shall issue IRS Form 1099s (if required) to the Aggrieved Employees.

Article V.

Limitations On Use Of This Settlement.

Section 5.01 No Admission.

Defendant has denied and continues to deny all claims asserted in the Action. It is understood and agreed by the Parties that this is a compromise and settlement of all disputed claims, and that the promises and payment in consideration of this Agreement shall not be construed to be an admission of any liability or obligation whatsoever by Defendant or Released Parties to any other party or to any other person whomsoever. Defendant has agreed to resolve the asserted PAGA claims in the Action via this Agreement, but to the extent this Agreement is deemed void or the Court does not enter an order granting this Agreement, Defendant does not waive, and is expressly reserving, all rights to challenge all such claims and allegations in the Action upon all procedural and factual grounds, including, without limitation, the ability to challenge representative or collective treatment on any grounds, as well as to assert any and all other potential defenses or privileges.

Section 5.02 Non-Evidentiary Use.

This Agreement is made for the sole purpose of settling the PAGA claims asserted in the Action, and may only be used as evidence of the resolution detailed herein. However, neither this Agreement, nor any of its terms, nor any of the negotiations connected with it or proceedings relating to this Agreement, payouts or anything else associated with it, shall be offered or used as evidence by any of the Parties, or their respective counsel in the Litigation or in any other action or proceeding, including to establish any liability or admission on the part of Defendant or any Released Parties or to establish the existence of any condition constituting a violation of, or noncompliance with, federal, state, local or other applicable law; provided, however, this shall not prevent this Agreement from being used, offered, or received in evidence in any proceeding to enforce, construe, or finalize this Agreement. Neither this Agreement, nor any of its terms or provisions, nor any of the negotiations connected with it or proceedings relating to this Agreement, payouts or other events associated with it, shall be construed as an admission or concession by Defendant or any Released Parties or establishment of any such violation(s) or failure(s) to comply with any applicable law. If the Court does not enter an order approving the Agreement, this Agreement shall be deemed null and void; it shall be of no force or effect whatsoever; it shall not be referred to or utilized for any purpose whatsoever; and the negotiation, terms, and entry of this Agreement shall remain subject to the provisions of California Evidence Code Sections 1119 and 1152, Federal Rule of Evidence 408, and any other analogous rules of evidence that may be applicable. Defendant specifically retains the right to defend, on the merits, against any non-settled claims brought by any Aggrieved Employees.

Section 5.03 Nullification.

(a) If the Court should for any reason fail to approve this Agreement, then (a) this Agreement shall be considered null and void, (b) neither this Agreement nor any of the related negotiations or proceedings shall be of any force or effect, and (c) all Parties to this Agreement shall stand in the same position, without prejudice, as if the Agreement had been neither entered into nor filed with the Court.

(b) Invalidation of any material portion of this Agreement shall invalidate this Agreement in its entirety unless the Parties shall subsequently agree in writing that the remaining provisions shall remain in full force and effect. Material terms of this Agreement include: the definition of Aggrieved Employees; the definition of Effective Date; the definition of PAGA Release Period; the definition of Released Claims; the definition of Released Parties; the definition of Net Settlement Fund; the requirement for entry of an order by the Court approving this Agreement and dismissing the Action with prejudice. The following terms are not material to this Agreement: Plaintiff's Counsel Payment; the amount of the Settlement Administration Fee; the allocation within the Net Settlement Fund.

Article VI.

Release and Waiver of Claims.

Section 6.01 Limited Release By Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees.

Upon Court approval of the Settlement, dismissal of the action, and subject to Defendant's funding in full of the PAGA Gross Settlement Amount, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees will fully and finally release and discharge Defendant and its former, present, and future owners, parents, affiliates, and subsidiaries, and all of their current, former, and future officers, directors, members, managers, partners, shareholders, agents, employees, joint ventures, successors, assigns, attorneys, accountants, insurers, or legal representatives (the "Released Parties"), from all claims, rights, demands, liabilities, and causes of action for civil penalties under the PAGA that arose during the PAGA Release Period that were alleged in the Action, including but not limited to the following claims: (a) failure to pay all wages owed; (b) failure to provide compliant meal periods, or premium pay for non-compliant meal periods; (c) failure to authorize and permit complaint rest periods, or premium pay for non-complaint rest periods; (d) failure to provide accurate, itemized wage statements; (e) failure to timely pay wages upon separation of employment; (f) failure to reimburse all necessary business expenses; (g) all claims for PAGA penalties that could have been premised on the facts, claims, causes of action, or legal theories described above; and (h) all other claims under PAGA that could have been premised on the facts, claims, causes of action, or legal theories described above and in Plaintiff's First Amended Complaint, including but not limited to California Labor Code sections 201, 202, 226(a), 226.3, 226.7, 227.3, 510, 512, 558, 1194, 2802, and 2699 (the "Released Claims").

Plaintiff and the State of California shall be deemed to have, and by operation of the Order granting approval of this Agreement, shall have fully, finally, and forever released, relinquished, and discharged each and all of the Released Parties from the Released Claims that arose during the PAGA Release Period. As a result of this release, Aggrieved Employees will be unable to bring a claim under, or recover in any other claim brought under the PAGA for any violations of the Released Claims that took place during the PAGA Release Period.

Section 6.02 General Release as to Plaintiff's Claims

Complete and General Release: In exchange for the consideration, promises and covenants contained in this Agreement, and subject to Defendant's full payment of the PAGA Gross Settlement Amount as provided herein, Plaintiff, on behalf of herself and her agents, representatives, attorneys, spouses, heirs, executors, administrators, successors and assigns, now or hereafter, hereby releases, waives and forever discharges Defendant and the Released Parties, from any and all claims, liabilities, causes of action, charges, complaints, obligations, costs, losses, damages, injuries, attorneys' fees, and other legal responsibilities, of any form whatsoever, whether known or unknown, unforeseen, unanticipated, unsuspected, or latent, which Plaintiff or her heirs, administrators, executors, successors in interest, and/or assigns have incurred or expect to incur, or now own or hold, or have at any time heretofore owned or held, or may at any time own, hold, or claim to hold by reason of any matter or thing arising from any cause whatsoever prior to the date of Plaintiff's execution of this Agreement related in any way to her employment with Defendant or separation thereof from Defendant ("Plaintiff's General Release").

The scope of Plaintiff's General Release extends to claims including, but not limited to, any alleged (a) violation of the National Labor Relations Act, Title VII of the Civil Rights Act, the California Fair Employment and Housing Act, the Americans With Disabilities Act of 1990, the Fair Labor Standards Act, the California Labor Code, any applicable California Wage Order, the California Private Attorneys General Act (to include but not limited to, acting as a PAGA representative), the Occupational Safety and Health Act, the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1985, the California Family Rights Act, the Employee Retirement Income Security Act (excluding vested benefits), the California Unfair Business Practices Act/Unfair Competition Law, the Family and Medical Leave Act, the California Family Rights Act, the Worker Adjustment and Retraining Notification Act, and any state law equivalent; (b) harassment, discrimination, and/or retaliation on the basis of age, race, color, ancestry, national origin (including language use restrictions), citizenship, religious creed (including religious dress and grooming practices), sex marital status, domestic partnership status, sexual orientation, gender, gender identity or gender expression, veteran status, military status, political affiliation, family care or medical leave status or the denial of family and medical care leave, physical or mental disability (including HIV and AIDS), medical condition (including cancer and genetic characteristics), genetic information or any other basis protected by applicable federal, state and/or local laws, regulations, rules, ordinances and/or orders, failure to prevent harassment, discrimination, and/or retaliation, failure to accommodate, failure to engage in the interactive process, retaliation; (c) any whistleblower or retaliation claims on the basis of any protected activity or other protected basis; (d) breach of any express or implied promise, contract or agreement (express or implied), or breach of the implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing; (e) any tort or common law claims, including wrongful discharge, intentional or negligent infliction of emotional distress, negligence, fraud, misrepresentation, defamation, interference with prospective economic advantage, or other tort or common law actions; (f) claims for misclassification, wage and hour, or other claims related to hours, conditions, or compensation related to work; and (g) any other violation of local, state, or federal law, constitution, statute, regulation or ordinance, public policy, contract, or tort or common law claim, whether for legal or equitable relief, having any bearing whatsoever on the terms and conditions of employment, or association or working relationship, with any of the Released Parties, including but not limited to any allegations for penalties, interest, costs and fees, including attorneys' fees, incurred in any of these matters, which Plaintiff ever had, now has, or may have prior to the date of Plaintiff's execution of this Agreement. All such claims, liabilities or causes of action (including, without limitation, claims for related attorneys' fees and costs) are forever barred by this Agreement regardless of the forum in which they may be brought. The Parties intend for Plaintiff's General Release to be as broad as possible.

Plaintiff represents and acknowledges that the enhancement and general release payment contained herein shall constitute the entire consideration provided to Plaintiff and Plaintiff will not seek any further compensation for any claim, damage, cost, or attorney's fees in connection with the matters encompassed in the Agreement. Plaintiff represents and acknowledges that the enhancement and general release payment contained herein constitutes a full satisfaction and accord of any claims Plaintiff has or may have against any of the Released Parties. Plaintiff acknowledges the Payment constitutes ample consideration, the sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, for Plaintiff's promises in the Agreement.

Section 1542 Waiver: Plaintiff stipulates and agrees that she expressly waives and relinquishes, to the fullest extent permitted by law, the provisions, rights, and benefits of Section 1542 of the California Civil Code, or any other similar provision under federal or state law, which provides:

A general release does not extend to claims that the creditor or releasing party does not know or suspect to exist in his or her favor at the time of executing the release and that, if known by him or her, would have materially affected his or her settlement with the debtor or released party.

Plaintiff may hereafter discover facts in addition to or different from those she now knows or believes to be true with respect to the subject matter of the Release, but Plaintiff upon the Effective Date shall fully, finally, and forever settle and release any and all of the claims released pursuant to Plaintiff's General Release, whether known or unknown, suspected or unsuspected, contingent or non-contingent, which now exist, or heretofore have existed upon any theory of law or equity now existing or coming into existence in the future, including, but not limited to, conduct that is negligent, intentional, with or without malice, or a breach of any duty, law, or rule, without regard to the subsequent discovery or existence of such different or additional facts.

Non-Waivable Rights: Plaintiff's General Release does not apply to any claims that cannot be released as a matter of law. The provisions of this Section 6.02 also do not preclude filing a charge or complaint with or from participating in an investigation or proceeding conducted by the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission ("EEOC"), the National Labor Relations Board ("NLRB"), the Occupational Safety and Health Administration ("OSHA"), or any other federal, state, or local agency charged with the enforcement of any employment laws, although Plaintiff understands that by signing this Agreement, she waives the right to recover any damages or to receive other relief directly from the Released Parties in any claim or suit brought by or through the EEOC, NLRB, OSHA or any other federal, state, or local agency on her behalf.

Section 6.03 Tax Treatment and Tax Indemnification.

Aggrieved Employees will assume any tax obligations or consequences which may arise from this Settlement.

If any state or federal taxing authority contacts, investigates, or pursues any action against any Aggrieved Employees for their individual share of taxes related to any payments made under this Agreement, each Aggrieved Employee shall be responsible for his/her own defense of and payment for any claim of unpaid taxes, interest, or penalties brought by any state or federal taxing authority for the Aggrieved Employee's share of any state or federal tax obligation, and shall not seek any indemnification from Defendant in this regard. If an Aggrieved Employee has questions about any liability to any state or federal taxing authority, they shall their tax advisor. The Aggrieved Employees shall not contact Defendant, any of the Released Parties, or Defense Counsel.

Article VII.

Miscellaneous Provisions.

Section 7.01 Voluntariness and Advice of Counsel.

This Agreement is executed voluntarily and without duress or undue influence on the part of or on behalf of any of the Parties, or of any other person, firm or other entity. The Parties to this Agreement are represented by competent counsel, and they have had the opportunity to consult with competent counsel. Plaintiff, Defendant, and their respective legal counsel believe it is in their best interests to enter into this Agreement at this time. Plaintiff and her counsel, acting in the best interest of the Aggrieved Employees, wish to resolve this matter in a fair and cost-effective manner that benefits the Aggrieved Employees without the expense, delay, diversion, and risk of protracted and complex litigation. The Parties to this Agreement agree that it reflects a good faith compromise of their claims, based upon their assessment of the mutual risks and costs of further litigation.

Section 7.02 Amendments.

The terms and provisions of this Agreement may be amended only by a written agreement that is both (a) signed by the Plaintiff, Plaintiff's Counsel, Defendant, and Defense Counsel who executed this Agreement and (b) approved by the Court. Any waiver of any provision of this Agreement shall not constitute a waiver of any other provision of this Agreement unless expressly so indicated otherwise.

Section 7.03 No Modifications and Void Ab Initio.

This Agreement may not be changed, altered, or modified, except as provided for in this Agreement, in writing signed by the Parties hereto, and approved by the Court. If the Court does not enter an order granting approval of the Agreement, if the Court's approval of the settlement is reversed, if the Agreement is materially modified by the Court or on appellate review, or if the Effective Date does not occur, this Agreement shall be deemed Void Ab Initio. Void Ab Initio shall mean the Parties will be returned to the status quo prior to this Agreement being reached and it will be as if the Agreement was never entered into. If Void Ab Initio, the Agreement shall be of no force or effect whatsoever, it shall not be referred to or utilized for any purpose whatsoever, and the negotiation, terms and entry of the Agreement shall remain subject to the provisions of California Evidence Code Sections 1119 and 1152, Federal Rule of Evidence 408, and any other analogous rules of evidence that may be applicable. A material modification shall have the same meaning as that term is used in California law regarding contracts. This Agreement may not be discharged except by performance in accordance with its terms

Section 7.04 Assignment.

None of the rights, commitments, or obligations recognized under this Agreement may be assigned by any Party, Aggrieved Employee, Plaintiff's Counsel, or Defense Counsel without the express written consent of each other Party and their respective counsel hereto. The representations, warranties, covenants, and agreements contained in this Agreement are for the sole benefit of the Parties under this Agreement, and shall not be construed to confer any right or to avail any remedy to any other person. Plaintiff expressly warrants that she has not transferred to any person or entity any right or cause of action, or claim released by this Agreement.

Section 7.05 Governing Law.

This Agreement shall be governed, construed, and interpreted, and the rights of the Parties shall be determined, in accordance with the laws of the State of California, and shall in all cases be interpreted in accordance with the plain meaning of its terms and not strictly for or against any of the Parties hereto.

Section 7.06 Entire Agreement.

This Agreement contains the entire understanding of the Parties hereto in respect of the subject matter contained herein. This Agreement supersedes all prior agreements and understandings among the Parties hereto with respect to the settlement of the Litigation.

Section 7.07 Headings and Captions.

Paragraph titles or captions contained in the Agreement are inserted as a matter of convenience and for reference, and in no way define, limit, extend, or describe the scope of this Agreement, or any provision thereof.

Section 7.08 No Press Release or Publicity Regarding the Terms of the Settlement.

Plaintiff and Plaintiff's Counsel, as well as Defendant and Defendant's Counsel, agree that they will not issue any media or press release, initiate any contact with the media or the press, respond to any media or press inquiry, or have any communications with the media or the press about the fact, amount, or terms of this Agreement, except to (i) Aggrieved Employees, but only upon inquiry, and (ii) the Court and the LWDA, but only as necessary to obtain Court approval of the Settlement. Plaintiff and her counsel also will not post any information about the Settlement on social media or their firms' websites.

Section 7.09 Waiver of Compliance.

Any failure of any Party, Defense Counsel, and/or Plaintiff's Counsel hereto to comply with any obligation, covenant, agreement, or condition herein may be expressly waived in writing, to the extent permitted under applicable law, by the Party or Parties and their respective counsel hereto entitled to the benefit of such obligation, covenant, agreement, or condition. A waiver or failure to insist upon strict compliance with any representation, warranty, covenant, agreement, or condition shall not operate as a waiver of, or estoppel with respect to, any subsequent or other failure.

Section 7.10 Counterparts.

This Agreement, and any amendments hereto, may be executed in any number of counterparts and any Party and/or their respective counsel hereto may execute any such counterpart, each of which when executed and delivered shall be deemed to be an original and all of which counterparts taken together shall constitute but one and the same instrument. It shall not be necessary in making proof of this Agreement or any counterpart hereof to produce or account for any of the other counterparts.

Section 7.11 Attorneys' Fees and Costs.

With respect to this Agreement, neither Plaintiff's Counsel nor any other attorneys acting for, or purporting to act for the Aggrieved Employees, or Plaintiff may recover or seek to recover any amounts for fees, costs, or disbursements from the Released Parties or the PAGA Gross Settlement Amount except as expressly provided herein. Defendant shall bear its own attorney's fees and costs, and neither Plaintiff's Counsel, Aggrieved Employees or the Plaintiff shall be responsible for Defendant's attorney's fees and costs. If any party moves the Court to enforce this Agreement, the prevailing party shall be entitled to recover from the other party all attorneys' fees and costs incurred to enforce this Agreement.

Section 7.12 Dispute(s).

Case No. 20-CIV-05216

NOTICE OF SETTLEMENT OF PRIVATE ATTORNEYS GENERAL ACT CLAIM (CAL. LABOR CODE § 2698 ET SEQ.)

You have been identified as an individual who currently and/or formerly worked for Defendant Stonemor GP, LLC (“Defendant”) in California, as a non-exempt employee at any time between September 11, 2019 and October 4, 2023. (“Aggrieved Employee”).

On November 24, 2020, Plaintiff Pamela Williams (the “Plaintiff”) commenced a lawsuit in the Superior Court of California, County of San Mateo, Case Number 20-CIV-05216 to recover civil penalties (the “Lawsuit”). Plaintiff alleges in the lawsuit that Defendant failed to pay all minimum and overtime wages due, provide all meal and rest periods or premium compensation in lieu thereof, timely pay all wages due upon separation of employment, reimburse all business expenses, and issue complete and accurate wage statements. For these alleged violations, Plaintiff seeks penalties pursuant to the California Labor Code’s Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, codified at Labor Code § 2698 et seq. (“PAGA”).

Defendant denies Plaintiff’s allegations and disputes all of Plaintiff’s claims. The Lawsuit was litigated and following an investigation, the Parties reached a settlement which takes into account the uncertainties and risks of proceeding with litigation.

The Court approved the settlement on [REDACTED] and has determined that the settlement is fair and reasonable. The payment which accompanies this notice is made to you pursuant to the terms of the Settlement.

The Court-approved settlement contains the following release of claims, to which you are bound:

Upon Court approval of the Settlement, dismissal of the action, and subject to Defendant's funding in full of the PAGA Gross Settlement Amount, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees will fully and finally release and discharge Defendant and its former, present, and future owners, parents, affiliates, and subsidiaries, and all of their current, former, and future officers, directors, members, managers, partners, shareholders, agents, employees, joint ventures, successors, assigns, attorneys, accountants, insurers, or legal representatives (the "Released Parties"), from all claims, rights, demands, liabilities, and causes of action for civil penalties under the PAGA that arose during the PAGA Release Period that were alleged in the Action, including but not limited to the following claims: (a) failure to pay all wages owed; (b) failure to provide compliant meal periods, or premium pay for non-compliant meal periods; (c) failure to authorize and permit complaint rest periods, or premium pay for non-complaint rest periods; (d) failure to provide accurate, itemized wage statements; (e) failure to timely pay wages upon separation of employment; (f) failure to reimburse all necessary business expenses; (g) all claims for PAGA penalties that could have been premised on the facts, claims, causes of action, or legal theories described above; and (h) all other claims under PAGA that could have been premised on the facts, claims, causes of action, or legal theories described above and in Plaintiff's First Amended Complaint, including but not limited to California Labor Code sections 201, 202, 226(a), 226.3, 226.7, 227.3, 510, 512, 558, 1194, 2802, and 2699 (the "Released Claims").

Plaintiff and the State of California shall be deemed to have, and by operation of the Order granting approval of this Agreement, shall have fully, finally, and forever released, relinquished, and discharged each and all of the Released Parties from the Released Claims that arose during the PAGA Release Period. As a result of this release, Aggrieved Employees will be unable to bring a claim under, or recover in any other claim brought under the PAGA for any violations of the Released Claims that took place during the PAGA Release Period.
