1 Plaintiff Jurennny Flores Ceron (“Plaintiff”), based upon facts that either have evidentiary
2 support or are likely to have evidentiary support after a reasonable opportunity for further 3 investigation and discovery, alleges as follows:

4 INTRODUCTION & PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

5 1. Plaintiff brings this action against Defendants Assa Abloy Residential Group, Inc., 6 Emtek Products, Inc., and Does 1 through 10 (collectively referred to as “Defendants”) for 7 California Labor Code violations and unfair business practices stemming from Defendants’
8 failure to pay minimum and regular rate wages, failure to pay overtime wages, failure to provide 9 meal periods, failure to authorize and permit rest periods, failure to maintain accurate records of 10 hours worked and meal periods, failure to timely pay all wages to terminated employees, and 11 failure to furnish accurate wage statements.

12 2. Plaintiff brings the First through Seventh Causes of Action individually and as a 13 class action on behalf of herself and certain current and former employees of Defendants 14 (hereinafter collectively referred to as the “Class” or “Class Members” and defined more fully 15 below). The Class consists of Plaintiff and all other persons who have been employed by any 16 Defendant in California and classified as a non-exempt employee during the statute of limitations
17 period applicable to the claims pleaded here.

18 3. Plaintiff brings the Eighth Cause of Action as a representative action under the 19 California Private Attorney General Act (“PAGA”) to recover civil penalties that are owed to 20 Plaintiff, the State of California, and past and present non-exempt, hourly-paid employees of 21 Defendants who worked in California during the applicable statute of limitations period
22 (hereinafter referred to as the “Aggrieved Employees”).

23 4. Defendants own/owned and operate/operated an industry, business, and 24 establishment within the State of California, including Los Angeles County. As such, and based 25 upon all the facts and circumstances incident to Defendants’ business in California, Defendants
26 are subject to the California Labor Code, Wage Orders issued by the Industrial Welfare
27 Commission (“IWC”), and the California Business & Professions Code.

1 5. Despite these requirements, throughout the statutory period Defendants 2 maintained a systematic, company-wide policy and practice of:

- 3 (a) Failing to pay employees for all hours worked, including all minimum
4 wages, overtime wages, in compliance with the California Labor Code and 5 IWC Wage Orders;
- 6 (b) Failing to maintain accurate records of the hours employees worked;
- 7 (c) Failing to provide employees with timely and duty-free meal periods in 8 compliance with the California Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders, failing 9 to maintain accurate records of all meal periods taken or missed, and 10 failing to pay an additional hour's pay for each workday a meal period 11 violation occurred;
- 12 (d) Failing to authorize and permit employees to take timely and duty-free rest
13 periods in compliance with the California Labor Code and IWC Wage
14 Orders, and failing to pay an additional hour's pay for each workday a rest 15 period violation occurred;
- 16 (e) Willfully failing to pay employees all minimum wages, overtime wages, 17 meal period premium wages, and rest period premium wages due within 18 the time period specified by California law when employment terminates; 19 and
- 20 (f) Failing to provide employees with accurate, itemized wage statements
21 containing all the information required by the California Labor Code and 22 IWC Wage Orders.

23 6. On information and belief, Defendants, and each of them were on actual and 24 constructive notice of the improprieties alleged herein and intentionally refused to rectify their 25 unlawful policies. Defendants' violations, as alleged above, during all relevant times herein were 26 willful and deliberate.

27 7. At all relevant times, Defendants were and are legally responsible for all of the 28 unlawful conduct, policies, practices, acts and omissions as described in each and all of the foregoing paragraphs as the employer of Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees. Further, Defendants are responsible for each of the unlawful acts or omissions complained of herein under the doctrine of “respondeat superior”.

THE PARTIES

A. Plaintiff

8. Plaintiff is a California resident who worked for Defendants in Los Angeles County, California as a packer from approximately October 2019 to May 2020.

9. Plaintiff reserves the right to seek leave to amend this complaint to add new plaintiffs, if necessary, in order to establish suitable representative(s) pursuant to La Sala v. American Savings and Loan Association (1971) 5 Cal.3d 864, 872, and other applicable law.

B. Defendants

10. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based upon that information and belief alleges, that Defendants Assa Abloy Residential Group, Inc., and Emtek Products, Inc. are:

- (a) California corporations with their principal places of business in Los Angeles, California.
- (b) Business entities conducting business in numerous counties throughout the State of California, including in Los Angeles County; and
- (c) The former employer of Plaintiff, and the current and/or former employer of the putative Class. Assa Abloy Residential Group, Inc., and Emtek Products, Inc. suffered and permitted Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to work, and/or controlled their wages, hours, or working conditions.
- (d)

11. Plaintiff does not know the true names or capacities of the persons or entities sued herein as Does 1-10, inclusive, and therefore sues said Defendants by such fictitious names. Each of the Doe Defendants was in some manner legally responsible for the damages suffered by Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees as alleged herein. Plaintiff will amend this complaint to set forth the true names and capacities of these Defendants when they have been ascertained, together with appropriate charging allegations, as may be necessary.

12. At all times mentioned herein, the Defendants named as Does 1-10, inclusive, and each of them, were residents of, doing business in, availed themselves of the jurisdiction of, and/or injured a significant number of the Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees in the State of California.

13. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that at all relevant times each Defendant, directly or indirectly, or through agents or other persons, employed Plaintiff and the other employees described in the class definitions below, and exercised control over their wages, hours, and working conditions. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that, at all relevant times, each Defendant was the principal, agent, partner, joint venturer, officer, director, controlling shareholder, subsidiary, affiliate, parent corporation, successor in interest and/or predecessor in interest of some or all of the other Defendants, and was engaged with some or all of the other Defendants in a joint enterprise for profit, and bore such other relationships to some or all of the other Defendants so as to be liable for their conduct with respect to the matters alleged below. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that each Defendant acted pursuant to and within the scope of the relationships alleged above, that each Defendant knew or should have known about, and authorized, ratified, adopted, approved, controlled, aided and abetted the conduct of all other Defendants.

ALLEGATIONS COMMON TO ALL CAUSES OF ACTION

14. Plaintiff Jurennny Flores Ceron worked for Defendants in Los Angeles County, California as a packer. At all times Defendants classified Plaintiff as non-exempt from California's overtime requirements. During the statutory time period, Plaintiff was typically scheduled to work 5 days in a workweek, and typically in excess of 8 hours in a single workday.

15. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff for all hours worked (including minimum wages and overtime compensation), failed to provide Plaintiff with uninterrupted meal periods, failed to authorize and permit Plaintiff to take uninterrupted rest periods, failed to maintain accurate records of the hours Plaintiff worked, failed to timely pay all

1 final wages to Plaintiff when Defendants terminated Plaintiff's employment, and failed to furnish 2 accurate wage statements to Plaintiff. As discussed below, Plaintiff's experience working for 3 Defendants was typical and illustrative.

4 16. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants maintained a policy and practice of 5 not paying Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees for all hours worked, including all
6 overtime wages. Defendants regularly use a system of time rounding in a manner that resulted,
7 over a period of time, in failing to compensate Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees
8 properly for all the time they have actually worked, even though the realities of Defendants' 9 operations are such that it is possible, practical, and feasible to count and pay for work time to 10 the minute. Also, Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were typically required to 11 work "off the clock". For example, Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were 12 required to wait in line in order to clock into work each workday, uncompensated. Additionally,
13 beginning approximately April 2020, Defendants required Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
14 Employees to have their temperatures checked prior to clocking into work each workday,
15 requiring additional waiting time. Further, in the event an employee's temperature was higher 16 than required, that employee was set aside to wait for a period of time before taking his/her 17 temperature again. In the event that employee's temperature was not too high, he/she was 18 permitted to clock into work. If that employee's temperature was too high, that employee was 19 required to return home without clocking into work. As a result, Defendants frequently paid 20 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees less than all their work time, some of which 21 should have been paid at the overtime rate. As a further result, Defendants failed to maintain 22 accurate records of the hours Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees worked.

23 17. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants have wrongfully failed to provide 24 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees with legally compliant meal periods.
25 Defendants regularly, but not always, required Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees 26 to work in excess of five consecutive hours a day without providing a 30-minute, continuous and 27 uninterrupted, duty-free meal period for every five hours of work, or without compensating
28 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees for meal periods that were not provided by the

1 end of the fifth hour of work or tenth hour of work. Defendants did not adequately inform
2 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees of their right to take a meal period by the end
3 of the fifth hour of work, or, for shifts greater than 10 hours, by the end of the tenth hour of 4 work. Defendants also did not have adequate policies or practices to document and verify
5 whether Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were taking their required meal
6 periods. Accordingly, Defendants' policy and practice was to not provide meal periods to 7 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees in compliance with California law.

8 18. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants have wrongfully failed to authorize 9 and permit Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to take timely and duty-free rest
10 periods. Defendants regularly, but not always, required Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved 11 Employees to work in excess of four consecutive hours a day without Defendants authorizing and 12 permitting them to take a 10-minute, continuous and uninterrupted, rest period for every four 13 hours of work (or major fraction of four hours), or without compensating Plaintiff, the Class, and 14 the Aggrieved Employees for rest periods that were not authorized or permitted. Further,
15 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were not authorized to take a third rest period
16 in those instances where they worked in excess of 10 hours per workday. Accordingly, 17 Defendants' policy and practice was to not authorize and permit Plaintiff, the Class, and the 18 Aggrieved Employees to take rest periods in compliance with California law.

19 19. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants willfully failed and refused to timely
20 pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees at the conclusion of their employment all 21 wages, including overtime wages.

22 20. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants failed to furnish Plaintiff, the Class,
23 and the Aggrieved Employees with accurate, itemized wage statements showing all applicable
24 hourly rates, and all hours worked, correct wages earned for hours worked, correct overtime 25 hours worked, correct wages for meal periods that were not provided in accordance with 26 California law, and correct wages for rest periods that were not authorized and permitted to take 27 in accordance with California law). As a result of these violations of California Labor Code §
28

1 226(a), Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees suffered injury because, among other 2 things:

- 3 (a) the violations led them to believe that they were not entitled to be paid
4 minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages, and rest
5 period premium wages to which they were entitled, even though they were 6 entitled;
- 7 (b) the violations led them to believe that they had been paid the minimum,
8 overtime, meal period premium, and rest period premium wages to which 9 they were entitled, even though they had not been;
- 10 (c) the violations led them to believe they were not entitled to be paid
11 minimum, overtime, meal period premium, and rest period premium wages 12 at the correct California rate even though they were;
- 13 (d) the violations led them to believe they had been paid minimum, overtime,
14 meal period premium, and rest period premium wages at the correct 15 California rate even though they had not been;
- 16 (e) the violations hindered them from determining the amounts of minimum, 17 overtime, meal period premium, and rest period premium owed to them;
- 18 (f) in connection with their employment before and during this action, and in 19 connection with prosecuting this action, the violations caused them to have 20 to perform mathematical computations to determine the amounts of wages
21 owed to them, computations they would not have to make if the wage 22 statements contained the required accurate information;
- 23 (g) by understating the wages truly due them, the violations caused them to 24 lose entitlement and/or accrual of the full amount of Social Security, 25 disability, unemployment, and other governmental benefits;
- 26 (h) the wage statements inaccurately understated the wages, hours, and wage
27 rates to which Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were 28

1 entitled, and Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were paid
2 less than the wages and wage rates to which they were entitled.
3 Thus, Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees are owed the amounts provided for in 4 California Labor Code § 226(e).

5 CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

6 21. Plaintiff brings certain claims individually, as well as on behalf of each and all
7 other persons similarly situated, and thus, seeks class certification under California Code of Civil 8 Procedure § 382.

9 22. All claims alleged herein arise under California law for which Plaintiff seeks relief
10 authorized by California law.

11 23. The proposed Class consists of and is defined as:

12 All persons who worked for any Defendants in California as an hourly-paid, 13 non-exempt employee at any time during the period beginning June 16, 2018 and ending when notice to the Class is sent.

14 24. At all material times, Plaintiff was a member of the Class.

15 25. Plaintiff undertakes this concerted activity to improve the wages and working 16 conditions of all Class Members.

17 26. There is a well-defined community of interest in the litigation and the Class is 18 readily ascertainable:

19 (a) Numerosity: The members of the Class (and each subclass, if any) are so 20 numerous that joinder of all members would be unfeasible and impractical.
21 The membership of the entire Class is unknown to Plaintiff at this time, 22 however, the Class is estimated to be greater than 100 individuals and the 23 identity of such membership is readily ascertainable by inspection of 24 Defendants' records.

25 (b) Typicality: Plaintiff is qualified to, and will, fairly and adequately protect 26 the interests of each Class Member with whom there is a shared, well-
27 defined community of interest, and Plaintiff's claims (or defenses, if any) 28

are typical of all Class Members' claims as demonstrated herein.

(c) Adequacy: Plaintiff is qualified to, and will, fairly and adequately protect the interests of each Class Member with whom there is a shared, well-defined community of interest and typicality of claims, as demonstrated herein. Plaintiff has no conflicts with or interests antagonistic to any Class Member. Plaintiff's attorneys, the proposed class counsel, are versed in the rules governing class action discovery, certification, and settlement. Plaintiff has incurred, and throughout the duration of this action, will continue to incur costs and attorneys' fees that have been, are, and will be necessarily expended for the prosecution of this action for the substantial benefit of each class member.

(d) Superiority: A Class Action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy, including consideration of:

- 1) The interests of the members of the Class in individually controlling the prosecution or defense of separate actions;
- 2) The extent and nature of any litigation concerning the controversy already commenced by or against members of the Class;
- 3) The desirability or undesirability of concentrating the litigation of the claims in the particular forum; and
- 4) The difficulties likely to be encountered in the management of a class action.

(e) Public Policy Considerations: The public policy of the State of California is to resolve the California Labor Code claims of many employees through a class action. Indeed, current employees are often afraid to assert their rights out of fear of direct or indirect retaliation. Former employees are also fearful of bringing actions because they believe their former employers might damage their future endeavors through negative

1 references and/or other means. Class actions provide the class members
2 who are not named in the complaint with a type of anonymity that allows 3 for the vindication of their rights at the same time as their privacy is 4 protected.

5 27. There are common questions of law and fact as to the Class (and each subclass, if 6 any) that predominate over questions affecting only individual members, including without 7 limitation, whether, as alleged herein, Defendants have:

- 8 (a) Failed to pay Class Members for all hours worked, including minimum 9 wages, and overtime wages;
- 10 (b) Failed to provide meal periods and pay meal period premium wages to 11 Class Members;
- 12 (c) Failed to authorize and permit rest periods and pay rest period premium
13 wages to Class Members;
- 14 (d) Failed to promptly pay all wages due to Class Members upon their 15 discharge or resignation;
- 16 (e) Failed to provide Class Members with accurate wages statements;
- 17 (f) Failed to maintain accurate records of all hours Class Members worked, 18 and all meal periods Class Members took or missed; and
- 19 (g) Violated California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200 et. seq. as a 20 result of their illegal conduct as described above.

21 28. This Court should permit this action to be maintained as a class action pursuant to 22 California Code of Civil Procedure § 382 because:

- 23 (a) The questions of law and fact common to the Class predominate over any 24 question affecting only individual members;
- 25 (b) A class action is superior to any other available method for the fair and 26 efficient adjudication of the claims of the members of the Class;
- 27 (c) The members of the Class are so numerous that it is impractical to bring all 28 members of the class before the Court;

- 1 (d) Plaintiff, and the other members of the Class, will not be able to obtain
2 effective and economic legal redress unless the action is maintained as a 3 class action;
- 4 (e) There is a community of interest in obtaining appropriate legal and 5 equitable relief for the statutory violations, and in obtaining adequate 6 compensation for the damages and injuries for which Defendants are 7 responsible in an amount sufficient to adequately compensate the members
8 of the Class for the injuries sustained;
- 9 (f) Without class certification, the prosecution of separate actions by 10 individual members of the class would create a risk of:
- 11 1) Inconsistent or varying adjudications with respect to individual
12 members of the Class which would establish incompatible standards
13 of conduct for Defendants; and/or
- 14 2) Adjudications with respect to the individual members which would,
15 as a practical matter, be dispositive of the interests of other
16 members not parties to the adjudications, or would substantially 17 impair or impede their ability to protect their interests, including but 18 not limited to the potential for exhausting the funds available from 19 those parties who are, or may be, responsible Defendants; and,

20 29. Plaintiff contemplates the eventual issuance of notice to the proposed members of 21 the Class that would set forth the subject and nature of the instant action. The Defendants' own 22 business records may be utilized for assistance in the preparation and issuance of the 23 contemplated notices. To the extent that any further notices may be required, Plaintiff would 24 contemplate the use of additional techniques and forms commonly used in class actions, such as 25 published notice, e-mail notice, website notice, first-class mail, or combinations thereof, or by 26 other methods suitable to the Class and deemed necessary and/or appropriate by the Court.

1 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

2 (Against all Defendants for Failure to Pay Minimum Wages for All Hours Worked)

3 30. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein
4 paragraphs 1 through 20 in this Complaint.

5 31. “Hours worked” is the time during which an employee is subject to the control of 6 an employer, and includes all the time the employee is suffered or permitted to work, whether or 7 not required to do so.

8 32. At all relevant times herein mentioned, Defendants knowingly failed to pay to 9 Plaintiff and the Class compensation for all hours they worked. By their failure to pay 10 compensation for each hour worked as alleged above, Defendants willfully violated the 11 provisions of Section 1194 of the California Labor Code, and any additional applicable Wage
12 Orders, which require such compensation to non-exempt employees.

13 33. Accordingly, Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to recover minimum wages for all 14 non-overtime hours worked for Defendants.

15 34. By and through the conduct described above, Plaintiff and the Class have been 16 deprived of their rights to be paid wages earned by virtue of their employment with Defendants.

17 35. By virtue of the Defendants’ unlawful failure to pay additional compensation to 18 Plaintiff and the Class for their non-overtime hours worked without pay, Plaintiff and the Class 19 suffered, and will continue to suffer, damages in amounts which are presently unknown to 20 Plaintiff and the Class, but which exceed the jurisdictional minimum of this Court, and which 21 will be ascertained according to proof at trial.

22 36. By failing to keep adequate time records required by California Labor Code §
23 1174(d), Defendants have made it difficult to calculate the full extent of minimum wage
24 compensation due Plaintiff and the Class.

25 37. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194.2, Plaintiff and the Class are 26 entitled to recover liquidated damages (double damages) for Defendants’ failure to pay minimum 27 wages.
28

1 38. California Labor Code section 204 requires employers to provide employees with 2 all wages due and payable twice a month. Throughout the statute of limitations period applicable
3 to this cause of action, Plaintiff and the Class were entitled to be paid twice a month at rates
4 required by law, including minimum wages. However, during all such times, Defendants
5 systematically failed and refused to pay Plaintiff and the Class all such wages due, and failed to 6 pay those wages twice a month.

7 39. Plaintiff and the Class are also entitled to seek recovery of all unpaid minimum
8 wages, interest, and reasonable attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to California Labor Code §§
9 218.5, 218.6, and 1194(a).

10 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

11 (Against all Defendants for Failure to Pay Overtime Wages)

12 40. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein
13 paragraphs 1 through 20 in this Complaint.

14 41. California Labor Code § 510 provides that employees in California shall not be 15 employed more than eight (8) hours in any workday or forty (40) hours in a workweek unless 16 they receive additional compensation beyond their regular wages in amounts specified by law.

17 42. California Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1198 provide that employees in California 18 shall not be employed more than eight hours in any workday unless they receive additional 19 compensation beyond their regular wages in amounts specified by law. Additionally, California
20 Labor Code § 1198 states that the employment of an employee for longer hours than those fixed 21 by the Industrial Welfare Commission is unlawful.

22 43. At all times relevant hereto, Plaintiff and the Class have worked more than eight 23 hours in a workday, as employees of Defendants.

24 44. At all times relevant hereto, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the Class
25 overtime compensation for the hours they have worked in excess of the maximum hours
26 permissible by law as required by California Labor Code § 510 and 1198. Plaintiff and the Class 27 are regularly required to work overtime hours.
28

1 45. By virtue of Defendants' unlawful failure to pay additional premium rate
2 compensation to the Plaintiff and the Class for their overtime hours worked, Plaintiff and the 3 Class have suffered, and will continue to suffer, damages in amounts which are presently
4 unknown to them but which exceed the jurisdictional minimum of this Court and which will be 5 ascertained according to proof at trial.

6 46. By failing to keep adequate time records required by Labor Code § 1174(d), 7 Defendants have made it difficult to calculate the full extent of overtime compensation due to 8 Plaintiff and the Class.

9 47. Plaintiff and the Class also request recovery of overtime compensation according 10 to proof, interest, attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to California Labor Code § 1194(a), as well
11 as the assessment of any statutory penalties against Defendants, in a sum as provided by the 12 California Labor Code and/or other statutes.

13 48. California Labor Code § 204 requires employers to provide employees with all 14 wages due and payable twice a month. The Wage Orders also provide that every employer shall 15 pay to each employee, on the established payday for the period involved, overtime wages for all
16 overtime hours worked in the payroll period. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and the Class
17 with all compensation due, in violation of California Labor Code § 204.

18 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

19 (Against All Defendants for Failure to Provide Meal Periods)

20 49. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein
21 paragraphs 1 through 20 in this Complaint.

22 50. Under California law, Defendants have an affirmative obligation to relieve the 23 Plaintiff and the Class of all duty in order to take their first daily meal periods no later than the 24 start of Plaintiff and the Class' sixth hour of work in a workday, and to take their second meal
25 periods no later than the start of the eleventh hour of work in the workday. Section 512 of the 26 California Labor Code, and Section 11 of the applicable Wage Orders require that an employer
27 provide unpaid meal periods of at least 30 minutes for each five-hour period worked. It is a violation of Section 226.7 of the California Labor Code for an employer to require any employee to work during any meal period mandated under any Wage Order.
28

51. Despite these legal requirements, Defendants regularly failed to provide Plaintiff and the Class with both meal periods as required by California law. By their failure to permit and authorize Plaintiff and the Class to take all meal periods as alleged above (or due to the fact that Defendants made it impossible or impracticable to take these uninterrupted meal periods), Defendants willfully violated the provisions of Section 226.7 of the California Labor Code and the applicable Wage Orders.

52. Under California law, Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to be paid one hour of additional wages for each workday he or she was not provided with all required meal period(s), plus interest thereon.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Against All Defendants for Failure to Authorize and Permit Rest Periods)

53. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein paragraphs 1 through 20 in this Complaint.

54. Defendants are required by California law to authorize and permit breaks of 10 uninterrupted minutes for each four hours of work or major fraction of four hours (i.e. more than two hours). Section 512 of the California Labor Code, the applicable Wage Orders require that the employer permit and authorize all employees to take paid rest periods of 10 minutes each for each 4-hour period worked. Thus, for example, if an employee's work time is 6 hours and ten minutes, the employee is entitled to two rest breaks. Each failure to authorize rest breaks as so required is itself a violation of California's rest break laws. It is a violation of Section 226.7 of the California Labor Code for an employer to require any employee to work during any rest period mandated under any Wage Order.

55. Despite these legal requirements, Defendants failed to authorize Plaintiff and the Class to take rest breaks, regardless of whether employees worked more than 4 hours in a workday. By their failure to permit and authorize Plaintiff and the Class to take rest periods as alleged above (or due to the fact that Defendants made it impossible or impracticable to take

1 these uninterrupted rest periods), Defendants willfully violated the provisions of Section 226.7 of 2 the California Labor Code and the applicable Wage Orders.

3 56. Under California law, Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to be paid one hour of 4 premium wages rate for each workday he or she was not provided with all required rest break(s), 5 plus interest thereon.

6 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

7 (Against all Defendants for Failure to Pay Wages of Discharged Employees – Waiting Time 8 Penalties)

9 57. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein
10 paragraphs 1 through 20 in this Complaint.

11 58. At all times herein set forth, California Labor Code §§ 201 and 202 provide that if 12 an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are 13 due and payable immediately, and that if an employee voluntarily leaves his or her employment, 14 his or her wages shall become due and payable not later than seventy-two (72) hours thereafter, 15 unless the employee has given seventy-two (72) hours previous notice of his or her intention to 16 quit, in which case the employee is entitled to his or her wages at the time of quitting.

17 59. Within the applicable statute of limitations, the employment of Plaintiff and many 18 other members of the Class ended, i.e. was terminated by quitting or discharge, and the 19 employment of others will be. However, during the relevant time period, Defendants failed, and 20 continue to fail to pay terminated Class Members, without abatement, all wages required to be 21 paid by California Labor Code sections 201 and 202 either at the time of discharge, or within 22 seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendants' employ.

23 60. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and those Class members who are no longer
24 employed by Defendants their wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge, or within 25 seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendants' employ, is in violation of California Labor
26 Code §§ 201 and 202.

27 61. California Labor Code § 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay 28 wages owed, in accordance with sections 201 and 202, then the wages of the employee shall

1 continue as a penalty wage from the due date, and at the same rate until paid or until an action is 2 commenced; but the wages shall not continue for more than thirty (30) days.

3 62. Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to recover from Defendants their additionally 4 accruing wages for each day they were not paid, at their regular hourly rate of pay, up to 30 days
5 maximum pursuant to California Labor Code § 203.

6 63. Pursuant to California Labor Code §§ 218.5, 218.6 and 1194, Plaintiff and the 7 Class are also entitled to an award of reasonable attorneys' fees, interest, expenses, and costs
8 incurred in this action.

9 SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

10 (Against all Defendants for Failure to Provide and Maintain Accurate and 11 Compliant Wage Records)

12 64. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein
13 paragraphs 1 through 20 in this Complaint.

14 65. At all material times set forth herein, California Labor Code § 226(a) provides that 15 every employer shall furnish each of his or her employees an accurate itemized wage statement
16 in writing showing nine pieces of information, including: (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours
17 worked by the employee, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate
18 if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided that all deductions made
19 on written orders of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages 20 earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the 21 employee and the last four digits of his or her social security number or an employee 22 identification number other than a social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal 23 entity that is the employer, and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and 24 the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee.

25 66. Defendants have intentionally and willfully failed to provide employees with 26 complete and accurate wage statements. The deficiencies include, among other things, the 27 failure to correctly identify the gross wages earned by Plaintiff and the Class, the failure to list 28 the true "total hours worked by the employee," and the failure to list the true net wages earned.

1 67. As a result of Defendants’ violation of California Labor Code § 226(a), Plaintiff
2 and the Class have suffered injury and damage to their statutorily-protected rights.

3 68. Specifically, Plaintiff and the members of the Class have been injured by 4 Defendants’ intentional violation of California Labor Code § 226(a) because they were denied
5 both their legal right to receive, and their protected interest in receiving, accurate, itemized wage
6 statements under California Labor Code § 226(a).

7 69. Calculation of the true wage entitlement for Plaintiff and the Class is difficult and 8 time consuming. As a result of this unlawful burden, Plaintiff and the Class were also injured as 9 a result of having to bring this action to attempt to obtain correct wage information following
10 Defendants’ refusal to comply with many of the mandates of California’s Labor Code and related 11 laws and regulations.

12 70. Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to recover from Defendants the greater of their 13 actual damages caused by Defendants’ failure to comply with California Labor Code § 226(a), or 14 an aggregate penalty not exceeding four thousand dollars per employee.

15 71. Plaintiff and the Class are also entitled to an award of attorney’s fees and costs to 16 ensure compliance with this section, pursuant to California Labor Code § 226(h).

17 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

18 (Against all Defendants for Violation of California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, 19 et seq.)

20 72. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein
21 paragraphs 1 through 20 in this Complaint.

22 73. Defendants, and each of them, are “persons” as defined under California Business
23 & Professions Code § 17201.

24 74. Defendants’ conduct, as alleged herein, has been, and continues to be, unfair, 25 unlawful, and harmful to Plaintiff, other Class members, and to the general public. Plaintiff seek 26 to enforce important rights affecting the public interest within the meaning of Code of Civil 27 Procedure § 1021.5.
28

75. Defendants' activities, as alleged herein, are violations of California law, and constitute unlawful business acts and practices in violation of California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

76. A violation of California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq. may be predicated on the violation of any state or federal law. All of the acts described herein as violations of, among other things, the California Labor Code, are unlawful and in violation of public policy; and in addition are immoral, unethical, oppressive, fraudulent and unscrupulous, and thereby constitute unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices in violation of California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

Failure to Pay Minimum Wages

77. Defendants' failure to pay minimum wages, and other benefits in violation of the California Labor Code constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited by California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

Failure to Pay Overtime Wages

78. Defendants' failure to pay overtime compensation and other benefits in violation of California Labor Code §§ 510, 1194, and 1198 constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited by California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

Failure to Maintain Accurate Records of All Hours Worked

79. Defendants' failure to maintain accurate records of all hours worked in accordance with California Labor Code § 1174.5 and the IWC Wage Orders constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited by California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

80. By and through their unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices described herein, the Defendants, have obtained valuable property, money and services from Plaintiff, and all persons similarly situated, and have deprived Plaintiff, and all persons similarly situated, of valuable rights and benefits guaranteed by law, all to their detriment.

81. Plaintiff and the Class Members suffered monetary injury as a direct result of Defendants' wrongful conduct.

1 82. Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of members of the putative Class, are entitled 2 to, and do, seek such relief as may be necessary to disgorge money and/or property which the 3 Defendants have wrongfully acquired, or of which Plaintiff and the Class have been deprived, by 4 means of the above-described unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices. Plaintiff and 5 the Class are not obligated to establish individual knowledge of the wrongful practices of 6 Defendants in order to recover restitution.

7 83. Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of members of the putative class, have no
8 plain, speedy, and/or adequate remedy at law to redress the injuries which the Class Members
9 suffered as a consequence of the Defendants' unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business
10 practices. As a result of the unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices described 11 above, Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of members of the putative Class, suffered and will 12 continue to suffer irreparable harm unless the Defendants, and each of them, are restrained from 13 continuing to engage in said unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices.

14 84. Plaintiff also alleges that if Defendants are not enjoined from the conduct set forth 15 herein above, they will continue to avoid paying the appropriate taxes, insurance and other 16 withholdings.

17 85. Pursuant to California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq., Plaintiff
18 and putative Class Members are entitled to restitution of the wages withheld and retained by 19 Defendants during a period that commences four years prior to the filing of this complaint an 20 award of attorneys' fees pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5 and other 21 applicable laws; and an award of costs.

22 EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

23 (Against all Defendants for Civil Penalties Under the Private Attorneys General Act of 24 2004, Cal. Lab. Code § 2698 et seq.)

25 86. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein
26 paragraphs 1 through 20 in this Complaint.

27 87. At all times herein mentioned, Defendants were subject to the Labor Code of the 28 State of California and the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Orders.

1 88. California Labor Code § 2699(a) specifically provides for a private right of action
2 to recover penalties for violations of the Labor Code: “Notwithstanding any other provision of 3 law, any provision of this code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by 4 the Labor and Workforce Development Agency or any of its departments, divisions,
5 commissions, boards, agencies, or employees, for a violation of this code, may, as an alternative,
6 be recovered through a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of herself or 7 herself and other current or former employees pursuant to the procedures specified in Section 8 2699.3.”

9 89. Plaintiff has exhausted her administrative remedies pursuant to California Labor
10 Code § 2699.3. On September 1, 2020, he gave written notice by online filing to the Labor and 11 Workforce Development Agency and by certified mail to Defendants of the specific provisions
12 of the Labor Code that Defendants have violated against Plaintiff and certain current and former 13 aggrieved employees, including the facts and theories to support the violations. Plaintiff also 14 paid the filing fee. Plaintiff’s PAGA case number is LWDA-CM-804733-20.

15 90. More than 65 days has elapsed since Plaintiff provided notice, but the Labor and 16 Workforce Development Agency has not indicated that it intends to investigate Defendants’
17 Labor Code violations discussed in the notice. Accordingly, Plaintiff may commence a civil 18 action to recover penalties under Labor Code § 2699 pursuant to § 2699.3 for the violations of 19 the Labor Code described in this Complaint. These penalties include, but are not limited to, 20 penalties under California Labor Code §§ 210, 226.3, 558, and 2699(f)(2).

21 91. In addition, Plaintiff seeks penalties for Defendants’ violation of California Labor
22 Code § 1174(d). Pursuant to California Labor Code § 1174.5, any person, including any entity, 23 employing labor who willfully fails to maintain accurate and complete records required by 24 California Labor Code § 1174 is subject to a penalty under § 1174.5. Pursuant to the applicable
25 IWC Order § 7(A)(3), every employer shall keep time records showing when the employee
26 begins and ends each work period. Meal periods, and total hours worked daily shall also be 27 recorded. Additionally, pursuant to the applicable IWC Order § 7(A)(5), every employer shall 28 keep total hours worked in the payroll period and applicable rates of pay.

92. During the time period of employment for Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees, Defendants failed to maintain records pursuant to the Labor Code and IWC Orders by failing to maintain accurate records showing meal periods. Defendants' failure to provide and maintain records required by the Labor Code IWC Wage Orders deprived Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees the ability to know, understand and question the accuracy and frequency of meal periods. Therefore, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees had no way to dispute the resulting failure to pay wages, all of which resulted in an unjustified economic enrichment to Defendants. As a direct result, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees have suffered and continue to suffer, substantial losses related to the use and enjoyment of such wages, lost interest on such wages and expenses and attorney's fees in seeking to compel Defendants to fully perform its obligation under state law, all to their respective damage in amounts according to proof at trial. Because of Defendants' knowing failure to comply with the Labor Code and applicable IWC Wage Orders, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees have also suffered an injury in that they were prevented from knowing, understanding, and disputing the wage payments paid to them.

93. Based on the conduct described in this Complaint, Plaintiff is entitled to an award of civil penalties on behalf of herself, the State of California, and similarly Aggrieved Employees of Defendants. The exact amount of the applicable penalties, in all, is in an amount to be shown according to proof at trial. These penalties are in addition to all other remedies permitted by law.

94. In addition, Plaintiff seeks an award of reasonable attorney's fees and costs pursuant to California Labor Code § 2699(g)(1), which states, "Any employee who prevails in any action shall be entitled to an award of reasonable attorney's fees and costs."

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of all others similarly situated only with respect to the class claims, pray for relief and judgment against Defendants, jointly and severally, as follows:

Class Certification

1. That this action be certified as a class action with respect to the First, Second, Third, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, and Eighth Causes of Action;

2. That Plaintiff be appointed as the representative of the Class; and
3. That counsel for Plaintiff be appointed as Class Counsel.

As to the First Cause of Action

4. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California Labor Code §§ 204 and 1194 and applicable IWC Wage Orders by willfully failing to pay all minimum wages due;

5. For general unpaid wages as may be appropriate;

6. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid compensation commencing from the date such amounts were due;

7. For liquidated damages;

8. For reasonable attorneys' fees and for costs of suit incurred herein pursuant to California Labor Code § 1194(a); and,

9. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

As to the Second Cause of Action

10. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California Labor Code §§ 510 and 1198 and applicable IWC Wage Orders by willfully failing to pay all overtime wages due;

11. For general unpaid wages at overtime wage rates as may be appropriate;

12. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid overtime compensation commencing from the date such amounts were due;

13. For reasonable attorneys' fees and for costs of suit incurred herein pursuant to California Labor Code § 1194(a); and,

14. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

As to the Third Cause of Action

15. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512, and the IWC Wage Orders;

16. For unpaid meal period premium wages as may be appropriate;

1 17. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid compensation commencing from the date
2 such amounts were due;

3 18. For reasonable attorneys' fees under California Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5, and 4 for costs of suit incurred herein; and

5 19. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

6 As to the Fourth Cause of Action

7 20. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California Labor
8 Code §§ 226.7 and 512, and the IWC Wage Orders;

9 21. For unpaid rest period premium wages as may be appropriate;

10 22. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid compensation commencing from the date
11 such amounts were due;

12 23. For reasonable attorneys' fees under California Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5, and 13 for costs of suit incurred herein; and

14 24. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

15 As to the Fifth Cause of Action

16 25. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California Labor
17 Code §§ 201, 202, and 203 by willfully failing to pay all compensation owed at the time of 18 termination of the employment;

19 26. For statutory wage penalties pursuant to California Labor Code § 203 for former 20 employees who have left Defendants' employ;

21 27. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid wages from the date such amounts were due;

22 28. For reasonable attorneys' fees and for costs of suit incurred herein; and

23 29. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

24 As to the Sixth Cause of Action

25 30. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated the record
26 keeping provisions of California Labor Code § 226(a) and applicable IWC Wage Orders, and 27 willfully failed to provide accurate itemized wage statements thereto;

1 31. For statutory penalties and actual damages pursuant to California Labor Code §
2 226(e);

3 32. For injunctive relief to ensure compliance with this section, pursuant to California
4 Labor Code § 226(h);

5 33. For reasonable attorneys' fees and for costs of suit incurred herein; and

6 34. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

7 As to the Seventh Cause of Action

8 35. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California
9 Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq. by failing to pay wages for all hours worked 10 (including minimum and overtime wages), and failing to maintain accurate records of all hours
11 worked and meal periods;

12 36. For restitution of unpaid wages to Plaintiff and all Class Members and prejudgment 13 interest from the day such amounts were due and payable;

14 37. For the appointment of a receiver to receive, manage and distribute any and all funds
15 disgorged from Defendants and determined to have been wrongfully acquired by Defendants as a 16 result of violations of California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200 et seq.;

17 38. For reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit incurred herein pursuant to California
18 Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5;

19 39. For injunctive relief to ensure compliance with this section, pursuant to California
20 Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.; and,

21 40. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

22 As to the Eighth Cause of Action

23 41. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated the California
24 Labor Code by failing to pay all wages owed, including overtime, failure to provide meal
25 periods, failing to maintain accurate records of meal periods, failing to authorize and permit rest
26 periods, failing to pay final wages at termination, and failing to furnish accurate wage statements;

27 42. For all actual, consequential and incidental losses and damages, according to proof;

43. For all civil penalties pursuant to California Labor Code § 2699, et seq., and all other applicable Labor Code provisions;

44. For reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit incurred herein pursuant to California Labor Code § 2699; and,

45. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

As to all Causes of Action

46. For any additional relief that the Court deems just and proper.
