3 and all others similarly situated, and alleges as follows:

4 GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

5 INTRODUCTION

6 1. This is a Class Action, pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 382, against KRG 7 JCS REDONDO BEACH, LLC, California limited liability company and any of its respective 8 subsidiaries or affiliated companies within the State of California ("JCS REDONDO"), KRG JCS, 9 LLC, a Nevada limited liability company and any of its respective subsidiaries or affiliated 10 companies within the State of California ("KRG JCS"), JCS HOLDING, LLC, a California limited 11 liability company and any of its respective subsidiaries or affiliated companies within the State of 12 California ("JCS HOLDING" and collectively, with JCS REDONDO, KRG JCS, and DOES 1 13 through 100, as further defined below, "Defendants") on behalf of Plaintiff and all other current and 14 former non-exempt California employees employed by or formerly employed by Defendants 15 ("Class Members").

16 2. This is a representative action, pursuant to the Labor Code Private Attorneys General 17 Act of 2004, codified at Labor Code section 2698, et seq. ("PAGA"), against JCS REDONDO, a 18 California limited liability company and any of its respective subsidiaries or affiliated companies 19 within the State of California; KRG JCS, Nevada limited liability company and any of its respective 20 subsidiaries or affiliated companies within the State of California; and JCS HOLDING, a California 21 limited liability company and any of its respective subsidiaries or affiliated companies within the 22 State of California, as a proxy of the Labor and Workforce Development Agency of the State of 23 California ("LWDA"), on behalf of Plaintiff and all other current and former non-exempt employees 24 of Defendants working within the Civil Penalty Period, as further defined herein, and, as it pertains 25 to the alleged claims for failure to comply with Labor Code section 2810.5, Labor Code section 203, 26 Labor Code section 226, Labor Code section 227.3, Labor Code section 246, et seq., Labor Code 27 section 2802, restraints on competition, whistleblowing and freedom of speech on behalf of all 28 employees of Defendants working within the Civil Penalty Period (collectively, "Aggrieved Employees”).

PARTIES

A. Plaintiff

3. Plaintiff is a resident of the State of California. At all relevant times herein, Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges that Defendants employed Plaintiff as a non-exempt employee, with duties that included, but were not limited to, serving restaurant patrons, training servers, and assisting management. Plaintiff is informed and believes that Plaintiff worked for Defendants from approximately August of 2019 through the present.

B. Defendants

4. Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that defendant JCS REDONDO is, and at all times relevant hereto was, a limited liability company organized and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of California and doing business in the County of Los Angeles, State of California.

5. Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that defendant KRG JCS is, and at all times relevant hereto was, a limited liability company organized and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of Nevada and doing business in the County of Los Angeles, State of California.

6. Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that defendant JCS HOLDING is, and at all times relevant hereto was, a limited liability company organized and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of California and doing business in the County of Los Angeles, State of California.

7. The true names and capacities, whether individual, corporate, associate, or otherwise, of defendants sued herein as DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, are currently unknown to Plaintiff, who therefore sues defendants by such fictitious names under Code of Civil Procedure section 474. Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that each of the defendants designated herein as DOE is legally responsible in some manner for the unlawful acts referred to herein. Plaintiff will seek leave of court to amend this Complaint to reflect the true names and capacities of the defendants designated hereinafter as DOES when such identities become known. Plaintiff is

1 informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that each defendant acted in all respects pertinent 2 to this action, as the agent of the other defendant(s), carried out a joint scheme, business plan or 3 policy in all respects pertinent hereto, and the acts of each defendant are legally attributable to the 4 other defendants. Whenever, heretofore or hereinafter, reference is made to "Defendants," it shall 5 include JCS REDONDO, KRG JCS, JCS HOLDING, and any of their parent, subsidiary, or 6 affiliated companies within the State of California, as well as DOES 1 through 100 identified herein.

7
JOINT LIABILITY ALLEGATIONS

8 8. Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that all the times 9 mentioned herein, each of the Defendants was the agent, principal, employee, employer, 10 representative, joint venture or co-conspirator of each of the other defendants, either actually or 11 ostensibly, and in doing the things alleged herein acted within the course and scope of such agency, 12 employment, joint venture, and conspiracy.

13 9. All of the acts and conduct described herein of each and every corporate defendant 14 was duly authorized, ordered, and directed by the respective and collective defendant corporate 15 employers, and the officers and management-level employees of said corporate employers. In 16 addition thereto, said corporate employers participated in the aforementioned acts and conduct of 17 their said employees, agents, and representatives, and each of them; and upon completion of the 18 aforesaid acts and conduct of said corporate employees, agents, and representatives, the defendant 19 corporation respectively and collectively ratified, accepted the benefits of, condoned, lauded, 20 acquiesced, authorized, and otherwise approved of each and all of the said acts and conduct of the 21 aforementioned corporate employees, agents and representatives.

22 10. As a result of the aforementioned facts, Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based 23 thereon alleges that Defendants, and each of them, are joint employers.

24
JURISDICTION

25 11. Jurisdiction exists in the Superior Court of the State of California pursuant to Code 26 of Civil Procedure section 410.10.

2 12. Venue is proper in Los Angeles County, California pursuant to Code of Civil 3 Procedure sections 392, et seq. because, among other things, Los Angeles County is where the 4 causes of action complained of herein arose; the county in which the employment relationship 5 began; the county in which performance of the employment contract, or part of it, between Plaintiff 6 and Defendants was due to be performed; the county in which the employment contract, or part of 7 it, between Plaintiff and Defendants was actually performed; and the county in which Defendants, 8 or some of them, reside. Moreover, the unlawful acts alleged herein have a direct effect on Plaintiff 9 and Class Members in Los Angeles County, and because Defendants employ numerous Class 10 Members in Los Angeles County.

11 13. Plaintiff is an “aggrieved employee” under PAGA, as Plaintiff was employed by 12 Defendants during the applicable statutory period and suffered one or more of the Labor Code 13 violations set forth herein. Accordingly, Plaintiff seeks to recover civil penalties, as the term “civil 14 penalty” is defined under ZB N.A. v. Superior Court (2019) 8 Cal.5th 175, under the Labor Code 15 Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, codified at Labor Code section 2698, et seq. (“PAGA”) plus 16 reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs, for Plaintiff and all other aggrieved current and former 17 employees of Defendants during the Civil Penalty Period.

18 14. Specifically, Plaintiff seeks to recover PAGA civil penalties through a representative 19 action permitted by PAGA and the California Supreme Court in, among other authorities, Arias v.
20 Superior Court (2009) 46 Cal.4th 969. According to the same authorities, class certification of the 21 PAGA allegations described herein is not required.

22 15. During the period beginning one (1) year preceding the provision of notice to the 23 LWDA regarding the herein-described Labor Code violations (the “Civil Penalty Period”), 24 Defendants violated, inter alia, Labor Code sections 96, 98.6, 200, 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 226, 25 226.3, 226.7, 227.3, 232, 232.5, 246, et seq., 432, 510, 512, 558, 1102.5, 1174, 1174.5, 1194, 1197, 26 1197.1, 1197.5, 1198.5, 2699, 2802, and 2810.5, among others.

27 ///

28 ///

2 16. Labor Code section 2699, subdivisions (a) and (g), authorizes aggrieved employees 3 such as Plaintiff, on behalf of Plaintiff and all other aggrieved current and former employees within 4 the statutory period, to bring a civil action to recover civil penalties pursuant to the procedures 5 specified in Labor Code section 2699.3.

6 17. On or around October 23, 2020, Plaintiff provided written notice pursuant to Labor 7 Code section 2699.3 online and by certified mail, with return receipt requested, of Defendants' 8 violation of various, including the herein-described, provisions of the Labor Code, to the LWDA, 9 as well as by certified mail, with return receipt requested to Defendants, and each of them.

10 18. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699.3, subdivision (a)(2)(A), the LWDA did not 11 provide notice of its intention to investigate Defendants' alleged violations within sixty-five (65) 12 calendar days of the October 23, 2020 postmarked date of the herein-described notice sent by 13 Plaintiff to the LWDA and Defendants.

14 FACTUAL BACKGROUND

15 19. For at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this Action and continuing to the 16 present, Defendants have, at times, failed to pay overtime wages to Plaintiff and Class Members, or 17 some of them, in violation of California state wage and hour laws as a result of, without limitation, 18 Plaintiff and Class Members working over eight (8) hours per day, forty (40) hours per week, and 19 seven consecutive work days in a work week without being properly compensated for hours worked 20 in excess of (8) hours per day in a work day, forty (40) hours per week in a work week, and/or hours 21 worked on the seventh consecutive work day in a work week by, among other things, failing to 22 accurately track and/or pay for all hours actually worked at the proper overtime rate of pay, to the 23 detriment of Plaintiff and Class Members.

24 20. For at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this Action and continuing to the 25 present, Defendants have, at times, failed to pay minimum wages to Plaintiff and Class Members, 26 or some of them, in violation of California state wage and hour laws as a result of, among other 27 things, at times, failing to accurately track and/or pay for all hours actually worked at their regular 28 rate of pay that is above the minimum wage, to the detriment of Plaintiff and Class Members.

1 ///

2 21. For at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this Action and continuing to the 3 present, Defendants have, at times, failed to provide Plaintiff and Class Members, or some of them, 4 full, timely thirty (30) minute uninterrupted meal period for days on which they worked more than 5 five (5) hours in a work day and a second thirty (30) minute uninterrupted meal period for days on 6 which they worked in excess of ten (10) hours in a work day, and failing to provide compensation 7 for such unprovided meal periods as required by California wage and hour laws.

8 22. For at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this Action and continuing to the 9 present, Defendants have, at times, failed to authorize and permit Plaintiff and Class Members, or 10 some of them, to take rest periods of at least ten (10) minutes per four (4) hours worked or major 11 fraction thereof and failed to provide compensation for such unprovided rest periods as required by 12 California wage and hour laws.

13 23. For at least three (3) years prior to the filing of this Action and continuing to the 14 present, Defendants have, at times, failed to pay Plaintiff and Class Members, or some of them, the 15 full amount of their wages owed to them upon termination and/or resignation as required by Labor 16 Code sections 201 and 202.

17 24. For at least one (1) year prior to the filing of this Action and continuing to the present, 18 Defendants have, at times, failed to furnish Plaintiff and Class Members, or some of them, with 19 itemized wage statements that accurately reflect gross wages earned; total hours worked; net wages 20 earned; all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of 21 hours worked at each hourly rate; the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer; and 22 other such information as required by Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a). As a result thereof, 23 Defendants have further failed to furnish employees with an accurate calculation of gross and net 24 wages earned, as well as gross and net wages paid.

25 25. For at least three (3) years prior to the filing of this Action and continuing to the 26 present, Defendants have, at times, failed to indemnify Plaintiff and Class Members, or some of 27 them, for the costs incurred in purchasing mandatory work uniforms, laundering mandatory work 28 uniforms, and purchasing cellular phones and cellular phone plans necessary to perform work duties.

1 26. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants have had a policy or practice of 2 failing to comply with the notice requirements of Labor Code section 2810.5 (i.e., the Wage Theft 3 Protection Act of 2011) by, among other things, failing to provide Plaintiff and other Aggrieved 4 Employees with the rates of pay and overtime rates of pay applicable to their employment; 5 allowances claimed as part of the minimum wage; the regular payday designated by Defendants; the 6 name, address, and telephone number of the workers' compensation insurance carrier; information 7 regarding paid sick leave; and other pertinent information required to be disclosed by Defendants 8 under Labor Code section 2810.5.

9 27. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and 10 other Aggrieved Employees with the amount of paid sick leave required to be provided pursuant to 11 California law (including, without limitation Labor Code section 246, et seq.), and also did not 12 permit its use upon request as contemplated under California laws, to the detriment of Plaintiff and 13 all other Aggrieved Employees.

14 28. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants have had a policy or practice of 15 failing to pay Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees their wages in accordance with Labor Code 16 Section 204, which requires that: "[l]abor performed between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, of 17 any calendar month shall be paid for between the 16th and 26th day of the month during which the 18 labor was performed, and labor performed between the 16th and the last day, inclusive of any 19 calendar month, shall be paid for between the 1st and 10th day of the following month."

20 29. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice 21 of preventing Plaintiff and/or Aggrieved Employees from using or disclosing the skills, knowledge 22 and experience they obtained at Defendants for purposes of competing with Defendants, including, 23 without limitation, preventing Employees from disclosing their wages in negotiating a new job with 24 a prospective employer, and from disclosing who else works at Defendants and under what 25 circumstances that they might be receptive to an offer from a rival employer. Plaintiff is informed 26 and believes that this policy and/or practice violates Business and Professions Code sections 17200, 27 16600 and 16700, and, by virtue thereof, various provisions of the Labor Code, including Labor 28 Code sections 232, 232.5, and 1197.5, subdivision (k).

1 30. Defendants had and have a policy or practice of preventing Plaintiff and/or other 2 Aggrieved Employees from disclosing violations of state and federal law, either within Defendants 3 to their managers or outside to private attorneys or government officials, among others, in violation 4 of Business and Professions Code section 17200, and, thus, in violation of Labor Code section 5 1102.5. In addition, Plaintiff is informed and believes that Defendants' herein-described policies 6 and/or practices prevent Plaintiff and/or other Aggrieved Employees from disclosing information 7 about unsafe or discriminatory working conditions, or about wage and hour violations in violation 8 of Labor Code section 232 and 232.5.

9 31. Defendants had and have a policy or practice of preventing Plaintiff and/or other 10 Aggrieved Employees from engaging in lawful conduct during non-work hours, thus violating state 11 statutes entitling employees to disclose wages, working conditions, and illegal conduct, including, 12 without limitation, Labor Code sections 96, subdivision (k), 98.6, 232, 232.5, and 1197.5, 13 subdivision (k). Plaintiff is informed and believes that this lawful conduct includes the exercise of 14 Plaintiff's and/or other Aggrieved Employee's constitutional rights of freedom of speech and 15 economic liberty.

16 32. Plaintiff, on Plaintiff's own behalf and on behalf of Class Members, brings this 17 Action pursuant to, including but not limited to, Labor Code sections 200, 201, 202, 203, 226, 226.7, 18 510, 512, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 2802, and applicable Wage Orders of the Industrial Welfare 19 Commission ("IWC") including, but not limited to, California Code of Regulations, Title 8, section 20 11050, seeking overtime wages, minimum wages, payment of premium wages for missed meal and 21 rest periods, waiting time penalties, wage statement penalties, indemnification of work-related 22 expenses, other such provisions of California law, and reasonable attorneys' fees and costs.

23 33. Plaintiff, in Plaintiff's representative capacity, seeks civil penalties under Labor 24 Code sections 210, 226.3, 558, 1174.5, 1197.1, and 2699 for the herein-described acts, which violate 25 the California Labor Code as described above, including on behalf of Plaintiff and other Aggrieved 26 Employees pursuant to PAGA.

1 CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

2 34. Plaintiff brings this action on behalf of Plaintiff and Class Members as a class action 3 pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 382. Plaintiff seeks to represent a class of all current 4 and former non-exempt employees of Defendants within the State of California at any time 5 commencing four (4) years preceding the filing of Plaintiff's complaint up until the time that notice 6 of the class action is provided to the class (collectively referred to as "Class Members").

7 35. Plaintiff reserves the right under California Rule of Court rule 3.765, subdivision (b) 8 to amend or modify the class description with greater specificity, further divide the defined class 9 into subclasses, and to further specify or limit the issues for which certification is sought.

10 36. This action has been brought and may properly be maintained as a class action under 11 the provisions of Code of Civil Procedure section 382 because there is a well-defined community 12 of interest in the litigation and the proposed Class is easily ascertainable.

13 A. Numerosity

14 37. The potential Class Members as defined are so numerous that joinder of all the 15 members of the Class is impracticable. While the precise number of Class Members has not been 16 determined yet, Plaintiff is informed and believes that there are over seventy-five (75) Class 17 Members employed by Defendants within the State of California.

18 38. Accounting for employee turnover during the relevant periods necessarily increases 19 this number. Plaintiff alleges Defendants' employment records would provide information as to the 20 number and location of all Class Members. Joinder of all members of the proposed Class is not 21 practicable.

22 B. Commonality

23 39. There are questions of law and fact common to Class Members. These common 24 questions include, but are not limited to:

- 25 A. Did Defendants violate Labor Code sections 510 and 1194 by failing to pay all hours 26 worked at a proper overtime rate of pay?

27 ///

28 ///

- 1 B. Did Defendants violate Labor Code sections 510, 1194 and 1197 by failing to pay 2 for all other time worked at the employee's regular rate of pay and a rate of pay that 3 is greater than the applicable minimum wage?
- 4 C. Did Defendants violate Labor Code section 512 by not authorizing or permitting 5 Class Members to take compliant meal periods?
- 6 D. Did Defendants violate Labor Code section 226.7 by not providing Class Members 7 with additional wages for missed or interrupted meal periods?
- 8 E. Did Defendants violate applicable Wage Orders by not authorizing or permitting 9 Class Members to take compliant rest periods?
- 10 F. Did Defendants violate Labor Code section 226.7 by not providing Class Members 11 with additional wages for missed rest periods?
- 12 G. Did Defendants violate Labor Code sections 201 and 202 by failing to pay Class 13 Members upon termination or resignation all wages earned?
- 14 H. Are Defendants liable to Class Members for waiting time penalties under Labor Code 15 section 203?
- 16 I. Did Defendants violate Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a) by not furnishing 17 Class Members with accurate wage statements?
- 18 J. Did Defendants fail to indemnify Class Members for all necessary expenditures or 19 losses incurred in direct consequence of the discharge of their duties or by obedience 20 to the directions of Defendants as required under Labor Code section 2802?
- 21 K. Did Defendants violate the Unfair Competition Law, Business and Professions Code 22 section 17200, et seq., by their unlawful practices as alleged herein?
- 23 L. Are Class Members entitled to restitution of wages under Business and Professions 24 Code section 17203?
- 25 M. Are Class Members entitled to costs and attorneys' fees?
- 26 N. Are Class Members entitled to interest?

27 ///

28 ///

1 C. Typicality

2 40. The claims of Plaintiff herein alleged are typical of those claims which could be 3 alleged by any Class Members, and the relief sought is typical of the relief which would be sought 4 by each Class Member in separate actions. Plaintiff and Class Members sustained injuries and 5 damages arising out of and caused by Defendants' common course of conduct in violation of laws 6 and regulations that have the force and effect of law and statutes as alleged herein.

7 D. Adequacy of Representation

8 41. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately represent and protect the interest of Class 9 Members. Counsel who represents Plaintiff is competent and experienced in litigating wage and 10 hour class actions.

11 E. Superiority of Class Action

12 42. A class action is superior to other available means for the fair and efficient 13 adjudication of this controversy. Individual joinder of all Class Members is not practicable, and 14 questions of law and fact common to Class Members predominate over any questions affecting only 15 individual Class Members. Class Members, as further described therein, have been damaged and 16 are entitled to recovery by reason of Defendants' policies and/or practices that have resulted in the 17 violation of the Labor Code at times, as set out herein.

18 43. Class action treatment will allow Class Members to litigate their claims in a manner 19 that is most efficient and economical for the parties and the judicial system. Plaintiff is unaware of 20 any difficulties that are likely to be encountered in the management of this action that would 21 preclude its maintenance as a class action.

22 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

23 (Failure to Pay Overtime Wages – Against All Defendants)

24 44. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference all of the allegations contained in 25 the preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth hereat.

26 45. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and Class Members were employees or former 27 employees of Defendants covered by Labor Code sections 510, 1194 and 1199, as well as applicable
28 Wage Orders.

1 46. At all times relevant to this Complaint, Labor Code section 510 was in effect and 2 provided: "(a) Eight hours of labor constitutes a day's work. Any work in excess of eight hours in 3 one workday and any work in excess of forty hours in any one workweek . . . shall be compensated 4 at the rate of no less than one and one-half times the regular rate of pay for an employee."

5 47. At all times relevant to this Complaint, Labor Code section 510 further provided that 6 "[a]ny work in excess of 12 hours in one day shall be compensated at the rate of no less than twice 7 the regular rate of pay for an employee. In addition, any work in excess of eight hours on any 8 seventh day of a workweek shall be compensated at the rate of no less than twice the regular rate of 9 pay."

10 48. Four (4) years prior to the filing of the Complaint in this Action through the present, 11 Plaintiff and Class Members, at times, worked for Defendants during shifts that consisted of more 12 than eight (8) hours in a workday and/or more than forty hours in a workweek, and/or seven (7) 13 consecutive workdays in a workweek, without being paid overtime wages for all hours worked as a 14 result of, including but not limited to, Defendants failing to accurately track and/or pay for all hours 15 actually worked at the proper overtime rate of pay, to the detriment of Plaintiff and Class Members.

16 49. Accordingly, by requiring Plaintiff and Class Members to, at times, work greater 17 than eight (8) hours per workday, forty (40) hours per workweek, and/or seven (7) straight workdays 18 without properly compensating overtime wages at the proper overtime rate of pay, Defendants, on 19 occasion, willfully violated the provisions of the Labor Code, among others, sections 510, 1194, and 20 applicable IWC Wage Orders, and California law.

21 50. As a result of the unlawful acts of Defendants, Plaintiff and Class Members have 22 been deprived of overtime wages in amounts to be determined at trial, and are entitled to recovery, 23 plus interest and penalties thereon, attorneys' fees and costs, pursuant to Labor Code section 1194 24 and 1199, Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5 and 1032, and Civil Code section 3287.

1 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

2 (Failure to Pay Minimum Wages – Against All Defendants)

3 51. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference all of the allegations contained in 4 the preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth hereat.

5 52. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and Class Members were employees or former 6 employees of Defendants covered by Labor Code sections 1197, 1199 and applicable Wage Orders.

7 53. Pursuant to Labor Code section 1197 and applicable Wage Orders, Plaintiff and 8 Class Members were entitled to receive minimum wages for all hours worked or otherwise under 9 Defendants' control.

10 54. For four (4) years prior to the filing of the Complaint in this Action through the 11 present, Defendants failed, at times, to accurately track and/or pay for all hours actually worked at 12 their regular rate of pay that is above the minimum wage, to the detriment of Plaintiff and Class 13 Members.

14 55. As a result of Defendants' unlawful conduct, Plaintiff and Class Members have 15 suffered damages in an amount, subject to proof, to the extent they were not paid minimum wages 16 for all hours worked or otherwise due.

17 56. Pursuant to Labor Code sections 218.6, 1194, 1194.2, Code of Civil Procedure 18 sections 1021.5 and 1032, and Civil Code section 3287, Plaintiff and Class Members are entitled to 19 recover the full amount of unpaid minimum wages, interest and penalties thereon, liquidated 20 damages, reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit.

21 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

22 (Failure to Provide Meal Periods – Against All Defendants)

23 57. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference all of the allegations contained in 24 the preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth hereat.

25 58. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and Class Members were employees or former 26 employees of Defendants covered by Labor Code section 512 and applicable Wage Orders.

27 ///

28 ///

1 59. Pursuant to Labor Code section 512 and applicable Wage Orders, no employer shall 2 employ an employee for a work period of more than five (5) hours without a timely meal break of 3 not less than thirty (30) minutes in which the employee is relieved of all of his or her duties.
4 Furthermore, no employer shall employ an employee for a work period of more than ten (10) hours 5 per day without providing the employee with a second timely meal period of not less than thirty (30) 6 minutes in which the employee is relieved of all of his or her duties.

7 60. Pursuant to Labor Code section 226.7, if an employer fails to provide an employee
8 with a meal period as provided in the applicable Wage Order of the Industrial Welfare Commission, 9 the employer shall pay the employee one (1) additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate 10 of compensation for each workday that the meal period is not provided.

11 61. For four (4) years prior to the filing of the Complaint in this Action through the 12 present, Plaintiff and Class Members were, at times, not provided complete, timely 30-minute, duty-13 free uninterrupted meal periods every five hours of work without waiving the right to take them, as 14 permitted. Moreover, at times, Defendants failed to provide one (1) additional hour of pay at the 15 Class Member's regular rate of compensation on the occasions that Class Members were not 16 provided compliant meal periods.

17 62. By their failure to provide Plaintiff and Class Members compliant meal periods as 18 contemplated by Labor Code section 512, among other California authorities, and failing, at times, 19 to provide compensation for such unprovided meal periods, as alleged above, Defendants willfully 20 violated the provisions of Labor Code section 512 and applicable Wage Orders.

21 63. As a result of Defendants' unlawful conduct, Plaintiff and Class Members have 22 suffered damages in an amount, subject to proof, to the extent they were not paid additional pay 23 owed for missed, untimely, interrupted, incomplete and/or on-duty meal periods.

24 64. Plaintiff and Class Members are entitled to recover the full amount of their unpaid 25 additional pay for unprovided compliant meal periods, in amounts to be determined at trial, plus 26 interest and penalties thereon, attorneys' fees, and costs, under Labor Code sections 226 and 226.7, 27 Code of Civil Procedure sections 1021.5 and 1032, and Civil Code section 3287.

1 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

2 (Failure to Provide Rest Periods – Against All Defendants)

3 65. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference all of the allegations contained in 4 the preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth hereat.

5 66. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and Class Members were employees or former 6 employees of Defendants covered by applicable Wage Orders.

7 67. California law and applicable Wage Orders require that employers “authorize and 8 permit” employees to take ten (10) minute rest periods in about the middle of each four (4) hour 9 work period “or major fraction thereof.” Accordingly, employees who work shifts of three and-a-10 half (3 ½) to six (6) hours must be provided ten (10) minutes of paid rest period, employees who 11 work shifts of more than six (6) and up to ten (10) hours must be provided with twenty (20) minutes 12 of paid rest period, and employees who work shifts of more than ten (10) hours must be provided 13 thirty (30) minutes of paid rest period.

14 68. Pursuant to Labor Code section 226.7, if an employer fails to provide an employee
15 with a meal period or rest period as provided in the applicable Wage Order of the Industrial Welfare 16 Commission, the employer shall pay the employee one (1) additional hour of pay at the employee’s 17 regular rate of compensation for each work day that the rest period is not provided.

18 69. For four (4) years prior to the filing of the Complaint in this Action through the 19 present, Plaintiff and Class Members were, at times, not authorized or permitted to take complete, 20 timely 30-minute, duty-free uninterrupted rest periods every four (4) hours of work or major fraction 21 thereof. Moreover, at times, Defendants failed to provide one (1) additional hour of pay at the Class 22 Member’s regular rate of compensation on the occasions that Class Members were not authorized 23 or permitted to take compliant rest periods.

24 70. By their failure, at times, to authorize and permit Plaintiff and Class Members to take 25 rest periods contemplated by California law, and one (1) additional hour of pay at the employee’s 26 regular rate of compensation for such unprovided rest periods, as alleged above, Defendants 27 willfully violated the provisions of Labor Code section 226.7 and applicable Wage Orders.

28 71. As a result of Defendants’ unlawful conduct, Plaintiff and Class Members have

1 suffered damages in an amount, subject to proof, to the extent they were not paid additional pay 2 owed for rest periods that they were not authorized or permitted to take.

3 72. Plaintiff and Class Members are entitled to recover the full amount of their unpaid 4 additional pay for unprovided compliant meal periods, in amounts to be determined at trial, plus
5 interest and penalties thereon, attorneys' fees, and costs, under Labor Code sections 226 and 226.7, 6 Code of Civil Procedure sections 1021.5 and 1032, and Civil Code section 3287.

7 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

8 (Failure to Pay All Wages Due Upon Termination – Against All Defendants)

9 73. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference all of the allegations contained in 10 the preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth hereat.

11 74. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and Class Members were employees or former 12 employees of Defendants covered by Labor Code sections 201, 202 and 203, as well as applicable
13 Wage Orders.

14 75. Pursuant to Labor Code sections 201 and 202, Plaintiff and Class Members were 15 entitled upon termination to timely payment of all wages earned and unpaid prior to termination.
16 Discharged Class Members were entitled to payment of all wages earned and unpaid prior to 17 discharge immediately upon termination. Class Members who resigned were entitled to payment 18 of all wages earned and unpaid prior to resignation within 72 hours after giving notice of resignation 19 or, if they gave 72 hours previous notice, they were entitled to payment of all wages earned and 20 unpaid at the time of resignation.

21 76. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that in the three (3) 22 years before the filing of the Complaint in this Action through the present, Defendants, due to the 23 failure, at times, to provide overtime and minimum wages mentioned above, failed to pay Plaintiff 24 and Class Members all wages earned prior to resignation or termination in accordance with Labor 25 Code sections 201 or 202.

26 ///

27 ///

28 ///

77. Plaintiff is informed and believes Defendants' failure, at times, to pay Plaintiff and Class Members all wages earned prior to termination or resignation in accordance with Labor Code sections 201 and 202 was willful. Defendants had the ability to pay all wages earned by Plaintiff and Class Members at the time of termination in accordance with Labor Code sections 201 and 202, but intentionally adopted policies or practices incompatible with the requirements of Labor Code sections 201 and 202 resulting in the failure, at times, to pay all wages earned prior to termination or resignation.

78. Pursuant to Labor Code section 203, Plaintiff and Class Members are entitled to waiting time penalties from the date their earned and unpaid wages were due, upon termination or resignation, until paid, up to a maximum of thirty (30) days.

79. As a result of Defendants' unlawful conduct, Plaintiff and Class Members have suffered damages in an amount subject to proof, to the extent they were not paid for all wages earned prior to termination or resignation.

80. Pursuant to Labor Code section 203 and 218.6, Code of Civil Procedure sections 1021.5 and 1032, and Civil Code section 3287, Plaintiff and Class Members are entitled to recover waiting time penalties, interest, and their costs of suit, as well.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Failure to Provide Accurate Wage Statements – Against All Defendants)

81. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference all of the allegations contained in the preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth hereat.

82. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and Class Members were employees or former employees of Defendants covered by Labor Code section 226, as well as applicable Wage Orders.

83. Pursuant to Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a), Plaintiff and Class Members were entitled to receive, semi-monthly or at the time of each payment of wages, an accurate itemized statement that accurately reflects, among other things, gross wages earned; total hours worked; net wages earned; all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate; and the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer, among other things.

1 84. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that in the one (1) year 2 before the filing of the Complaint in this Action through the present, Defendants failed to comply 3 with Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a) by adopting policies and practices that resulted in their 4 failure, at times, to furnish Plaintiff and Class Members with accurate itemized statements that 5 accurately reflect, among other things, gross wages earned; total hours worked; net wages earned;
6 all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours 7 worked at each hourly rate; and the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer, among 8 other things.

9 85. Defendants' failure to, at times, provide Plaintiff and Class Members with accurate 10 wage statements was knowing, intentional, and willful. Defendants had the ability to provide 11 Plaintiff and the other Class Members with accurate wage statements, but, at times, willfully 12 provided wage statements that Defendants knew were not accurate.

13 86. As a result of Defendants' unlawful conduct, Plaintiff and Class Members have 14 suffered injury. The absence of accurate information on Class Members' wage statements at times 15 has delayed timely challenge to Defendants' unlawful pay practices; requires discovery and 16 mathematical computations to determine the amount of wages owed; causes difficulty and expense 17 in attempting to reconstruct time and pay records; and led to submission of inaccurate information 18 about wages and amounts deducted from wages to state and federal governmental agencies, among 19 other things.

20 87. Pursuant to Labor Code section 226, subdivision (e), Plaintiff and Class Members 21 are entitled to recover $50 for the initial pay period during the period in which violation of Labor 22 Code section 226 occurred and $100 for each violation of Labor Code section 226 in a subsequent 23 pay period, not to exceed an aggregate $4,000.00 per employee.

24 88. Pursuant to Labor Code sections 226, subdivisions (e) and (g), Code of Civil 25 Procedure section 1032, Civil Code section 3287, Plaintiff and Class Members are entitled to 26 recover the full amount of penalties due under Labor Code section 226, subdivision (e), reasonable 27 attorneys' fees, and costs of suit.

1 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

2 (Violation of Labor Code § 2802 – Against All Defendants)

3 89. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference all of the allegations contained in 4 the preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth hereat.

5 90. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and Class Members were employees or former 6 employees of Defendants covered by Labor Code section 2802 and applicable Wage Orders.

7 91. Labor Code section 2802, subdivision (a) provides that “an employer shall indemnify 8 his or her employee for all necessary expenditures or losses incurred by the employee in direct 9 consequence of the discharge of his or her duties . . .”

10 92. For three (3) years prior to the filing of the Complaint in this Action through the 11 present, Defendants required Plaintiff and Class Members, or some of them, to incur, at times, 12 necessary expenditures or losses in direct consequence of the discharge of their duties or at the 13 obedience to the directions of Defendants that included, without limitation, purchasing mandatory 14 work uniforms, laundering mandatory work uniforms, and purchasing and maintaining cellular 15 phones and cellular phone plans.

16 93. During that time period, Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges 17 that Defendants failed and refused, and still fail and refuse, at times, to reimburse Plaintiff and Class 18 Members for those losses and/or expenditures.

19 94. As a result of Defendants’ unlawful conduct, Plaintiff and Class Members have 20 suffered damages in an amount subject to proof, to the extent they were not reimbursed for the 21 herein-described losses and/or expenditures.

22 95. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2802, Code of Civil Procedure sections 1021.5 and 23 1032, and Civil Code section 3287, Plaintiff and Class Members are entitled to recover 24 reimbursement for their herein-described losses and/or expenditures, reasonable attorneys’ fees and 25 costs of suit.

1 EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

2 (Unfair Competition – Against All Defendants)

3 96. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference all of the allegations contained in 4 the preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth hereat.

5 97. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges that the unlawful 6 conduct of Defendants alleged herein constitutes unfair competition within the meaning of Business 7 and Professions Code section 17200. Due to their unlawful business practices in violation of the 8 Labor Code, Defendants have gained a competitive advantage over other comparable companies 9 doing business in the State of California that comply with their obligations to compensate employees 10 in accordance with the Labor Code.

11 98. As a result of Defendants' unfair competition as alleged herein, Plaintiff and Class 12 Members have suffered injury in fact and lost money or property.

13 99. Pursuant to Business and Professions Code section 17203, Plaintiff and Class 14 Members are entitled to (an) injunction(s) prohibiting Defendants from further violating the Labor 15 Code and requiring the establishment of appropriate and effective means to prevent further 16 violations, as well as restitution of all wages and other monies owed to them under the Labor Code, 17 including interest thereon, in which they had a property interest and which Defendants nevertheless 18 failed to pay them and instead withheld and retained for themselves. Restitution of the money owed 19 to Plaintiff and Class Members is necessary to prevent Defendants from becoming unjustly enriched 20 by their failure to comply with the Labor Code.

21 100. Plaintiff and Class Members are entitled to costs of suit under Code of Civil 22 Procedure section 1032 and interest under Civil Code section 3287.

23 NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

24 (Civil Penalties Under Labor Code § 210 – Against All Defendants)

25 101. Plaintiff re-alleges each and every allegation set forth in the preceding paragraphs 26 and incorporates each by reference as though fully set forth hereat.

27 ///

28 ///

102. At all relevant times herein, Labor Code section 204, requires and required that:

“[l]abor performed between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month shall be paid for between the 16th and 26th day of the month during which the labor was performed, and labor performed between the 16th and the last day, inclusive, of any calendar month, shall be paid for between the 1st and 10th day of the following month.”

103. At all relevant times herein, Labor Code section 210, subdivision (a) states and stated that “[i]n addition to, and entirely independent and apart from, any other penalty provided in this article, every person who fails to pay the wages of each employee as provided in Sections 201.3, 204, 204b, 204.1, 205, 205.5, and 1197.5, shall be subject to a civil penalty as follows: (1) For any initial violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each failure to pay each employee” and “(2) For each subsequent violation, or any willful or intentional violation, two hundred dollars ($200) for each failure to pay each employee, plus 25 percent of the amount unlawfully withheld.”

104. At all relevant times herein, Defendants have had a consistent policy or practice of failing to pay Plaintiff and/or Aggrieved Employees during their employment on a timely basis as per Labor Code section 204. Thus, pursuant to Labor Code section 210, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover civil penalties for Defendants' violations of Labor Code section 204, in the amount of one hundred dollars ($100) for each Aggrieved Employee for each initial violation per employee, and two hundred dollars ($200) for each Aggrieved Employee for each subsequent violation in connection with each payment that was made in violation of Labor Code section 204.

TENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Civil Penalties Under Labor Code § 226.3 – Against All Defendants)

105. Plaintiff re-alleges each and every allegation set forth in the preceding paragraphs and incorporates each by reference as though fully set forth hereat.

106. Defendants had and have a policy or practice of failing to comply with Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a) by intentionally failing to furnish Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees with itemized wage statements that accurately reflect gross wages earned; total hours worked; net wages earned; the name and address of each employer with whom they have been placed to work;

1 all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours 2 worked at each hourly rate; the legal name of the employer and/or the name and address of the legal 3 entity securing the employer's services if the employer is a farm labor contractor; and other such 4 information as required by Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a).

5 107. Labor Code section 226.3 states that "[a]ny employer who violates subdivision (a) 6 of Section 226 shall be subject to a civil penalty in the amount of two hundred fifty dollars ($250) 7 per employee per violation in an initial citation and one thousand dollars ($1,000) per employee for 8 each violation in a subsequent citation, for which the employer fails to provide the employee a wage 9 deduction statement or fails to keep the records required in subdivision (a) of Section 226."

10 108. Labor Code section 226.3 further provides that "[t]he civil penalties provided for in 11 this section are in addition to any other penalty provided by law."

12 109. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants had 13 and have a policy or practice of failing to furnish non-exempt employees, including, without 14 limitation, Plaintiff, with itemized wage statements that accurately reflect gross wages earned; total 15 hours worked; net wages earned; all deductions; all applicable hourly rates in effect and the 16 corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate in effect during the pay period; the legal 17 name of the employer and/or the name and address of the legal entity securing the employer's services 18 if the employer is a farm labor contractor; and other such information as required by Labor Code 19 section 226, subdivision (a).

20 110. Pursuant to Labor Code section 226.3, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees are 21 entitled to recover civil penalties for Defendants' violation of Labor Code section 226, subdivision 22 (a) in the amount of two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period 23 for the initial violation, and one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay 24 period for each subsequent violation.

25 ELEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

26 (Violation of Labor Code § 558 – Against All Defendants)

27 111. Plaintiff re-alleges each and every allegation set forth in the preceding paragraphs 28 and incorporates each by reference as though fully set forth hereat.

1 112. Pursuant to Labor Code section 558, subdivision (a): "Any employer or other person 2 acting on behalf of an employer who violates, or causes to be violated . . . any provision regulating 3 hours and days of work in any of the Industrial Welfare Commission" shall be subject to a civil 4 penalty as follows:

5 (1) For any initial violation, fifty dollars ($50) for each underpaid employee and for each 6 pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient 7 to recover underpaid wages;

8 (2) For each subsequent violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid 9 employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to 10 an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages;

11 (3) Wages recovered pursuant to this section shall be paid to the affected employee."

12 113. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon allege, that Defendants, and 13 each of them, violated, or caused to be violated, the Labor Code sections described herein, including 14 causing Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees not to: be paid overtime wages and minimum 15 wages; receive meal and rest periods or compensation in lieu thereof; be paid timely wages during 16 their employment and after their employment separation; receive accurate, itemized wage 17 statements; be provided with the opportunity to inspect employment records; be provided with 18 notice as required under Labor Code section 2810.5; be provided with the proper accrual and use of 19 paid sick leave; and/or be paid out all paid time off and/or vacation wages owed at the proper rate 20 of pay.

21 114. As a direct and proximate result of the herein-described Labor Code violations, 22 pursuant to Labor Code section 558, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover 23 civil penalties for Defendants' herein-described Labor Code violations in the amount fifty dollars 24 ($50) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period for the initial violation, and one hundred dollars 25 ($100) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period for each subsequent violation.

1 TWELVETH CAUSE OF ACTION

2 (Violation of Labor Code § 1174.5 – Against All Defendants)

3 115. Plaintiff re-alleges each and every allegation set forth in the preceding paragraphs 4 and incorporates each by reference as though fully set forth hereat.

5 116. At all times mentioned herein, Labor Code section 1174, subdivision (b) has required 6 every person employing labor in California to “[a]llow any member of the commission or the 7 employees of the Division of Labor Standards Enforcement free access to the place of business or 8 employment of the person to secure any information or make any investigation that they are 9 authorized by this chapter to ascertain or make. The commission may inspect or make excerpts, 10 relating to the employment of employees, from the books, reports, contracts, payrolls, documents, 11 or papers of the person.”

12 117. At all times mentioned herein, Labor Code section 1174, subdivision (c) has required 13 every person employing labor in California to “[k]eep a record showing the names and addresses of 14 all employees employed and the ages of all minors.”

15 118. At all times mentioned herein, Labor Code section 1174, subdivision (d) has required 16 every person employing labor in California to “[k]eep, at a central location in the state or at the 17 plants or establishments at which employees are employed, payroll records showing the hours 18 worked daily by and the wages paid to, and the number of piece-rate units earned by and applicable 19 piece rate paid to, employees employed at the respective plants or establishments. These records 20 shall be kept in accordance with rules established for this purpose by the commission, but in any 21 case, shall be kept on file for not less than three years. An employer shall not prohibit an employee 22 from maintaining a personal record of hours worked, or, if paid on a piece-rate basis, piece-rate units 23 earned.”

24 119. Pursuant to Labor Code section 1174.5, “[a]ny person employing labor who willfully 25 fails to maintain the records required by subdivision (c) of [Labor Code] Section 1174 or accurate 26 and complete records required by subdivision (d) of [Labor Code] Section 1174, or to allow any 27 member of the commission or employees of the division to inspect records pursuant to subdivision 28 (b) of [Labor Code] Section 1174, shall be subject to a civil penalty of five hundred dollars ($500).

1 120. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants have 2 willfully failed to maintain the records required by Labor Code subdivision (c), failed to maintain 3 accurate and complete records required by Labor Code subdivision (d), and/or failed to allow 4 inspection of records as required by Labor Code subdivision (b).

5 121. As a direct and proximate result of the herein-described Labor Code violations, 6 pursuant to Labor Code section 1174.5, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees are entitled to 7 recover civil penalties for Defendants' herein-described Labor Code violations in the amount of five 8 hundred dollars ($500) per violation per Aggrieved Employee.

9 THIRTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

10 (Violation of Labor Code § 1197.1 – Against All Defendants)

11 122. Plaintiff re-alleges each and every allegation set forth in the preceding paragraphs 12 and incorporates each by reference as though fully set forth hereat.

13 123. Pursuant to Labor Code section 1197.1, subdivision (a): "Any employer or other 14 person acting either individually or as an officer, agent, or employee of another person, who pays 15 or causes to be paid to any employee a wage less than the minimum fixed by an applicable state or 16 local law, or by an order of the commission shall be subject to a civil penalty, restitution of wages, 17 liquidated damages payable to the employee, and any applicable penalties imposed pursuant to 18 Section 203 as follows:

19 (1) For any initial violation that is intentionally committed, one hundred dollars 20 ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the 21 employee is underpaid. This amount shall be in addition to an amount 22 sufficient to recover underpaid wages, liquidated damages pursuant to Section 23 1194.2, and any applicable penalties imposed pursuant to Section 203.

24 (2) For each subsequent violation for the same specific offense, two hundred fifty 25 dollars ($250) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the 27 intentionally committed. This amount shall be in addition to an amount 28 sufficient to recover underpaid wages, liquidated damages pursuant to Section

1 1194.2, and any applicable penalties imposed pursuant to Section 203.

2 (3) Wages, liquidated damages, and any applicable penalties imposed pursuant to 3 Section 203, recovered pursuant to this section shall be paid to the affected 4 employee.”

5 124. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants caused 6 Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees not to be paid minimum wages as a result of Defendants, without 7 limitation, routinely failing to pay Plaintiff or other Aggrieved Employees’ wages for all hours 8 worked or otherwise under Defendants’ control due to, without limitation, routinely failing to 9 accurately track and/or pay for all hours actually worked; detrimental rounding or manipulation of 10 time entries; paying straight pay instead of overtime or otherwise failing to pay overtime hours at 11 the proper overtime rate of pay; engaging, suffering, or permitting employees to work off the clock.

12 125. As a direct and proximate result of the herein-described Labor Code violations, 13 pursuant to Labor Code section 1197.1, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees are entitled to 14 recover civil penalties for Defendants’ herein-described Labor Code violations in the amount one 15 hundred dollars ($100) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period for the initial violation, and 16 two hundred and fifty dollars ($250) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period for each 17 subsequent violation.

18 FOURTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

19 (Civil Penalties Under Labor Code § 2699 – Against All Defendants)

20 126. Plaintiff re-alleges each and every allegation set forth in the preceding paragraphs 21 and incorporates each by reference as though fully set forth hereat.

22 127. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699, subdivision (a), notwithstanding any other 23 provision of law, any provision of the Labor Code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed 24 and collected by the LWDA or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards, agencies or 25 employees for a violation of the Labor Code may, as an alternative, be recovered through a civil 26 action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of himself or herself and other current or former 27 employees pursuant to the procedures specified in Labor Code section 2699.3.

28 ///

1 128. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699, subdivision (f), for all provisions of the Labor 2 Code except those for which a civil penalty is specifically provided, the established civil penalty for 3 a violation of those provisions is as follows: if, at the time of the alleged violation, the person 4 employs one or more employees, the civil penalty is one hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved 5 employee per pay period for the initial violation and two hundred dollars ($200) for each aggrieved 6 employee per pay period for each subsequent violation.

7 129. Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that Defendants, and
