SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA FOR THE COUNTY OF LOS ANGELES

RUTH NORIEGA, individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated,

Plaintiff,

vs.

VISTA VERANDA VILLAGE CORP., a
California corporation; and DOES 1
through 20, inclusive,

Defendants.

Case No. 20STCV41622

*Assigned for All Purposes to the:
Honorable Yvette M. Palazuelos
Dept. 9*

FIRST AMENDED CLASS ACTION COMPLAINT FOR:

1. Failure to Pay Minimum Wages;
2. Failure to Pay Overtime Wages;
3. Failure to Provide Meal Periods;
4. Failure to Permit Rest Breaks;
5. Failure to Provide Accurate Itemized Wage Statements;
6. Failure to Pay All Wages Due Upon Separation of Employment;
7. Failure to Reimburse Necessary Business Expenses;
8. Violation of Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.; and
9. Enforcement of Labor Code § 2698 et seq. ("PAGA")

1 Plaintiff Ruth Noriega, individually, and on behalf of others similarly situated, alleges
2 as follows:

3 NATURE OF ACTION AND INTRODUCTORY STATEMENT

4 1. Plaintiff Ruth Noriega (“Plaintiff”) brings this putative class action and 5 representative action pursuant to the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, Cal. Lab. Code. §
6 2698 et seq., against defendants Vista Veranda Village Corp., a California corporation, and 7 DOES 1 through 20, inclusive (collectively, “Defendants”), on behalf of herself individually
8 and a putative class of California citizens who are and were employed by Defendants as non-
9 exempt employees throughout California.

10 2. Defendants provides medical services in California.

11 3. Through this action, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants have engaged in a
12 systematic pattern of wage and hour violations under the California Labor Code and Industrial 13 Welfare Commission (“IWC”) Wage Orders, all of which contribute to Defendants’ deliberate
14 unfair competition.

15 4. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Defendants have 16 increased their profits by violating state wage and hour laws by, among other things:

- 17 (a) failing to pay all wages (including minimum wages and overtime 18 wages);
- 19 (b) failing to provide lawful meal periods or compensation in lieu thereof;
- 20 (c) failing to authorize or permit lawful rest breaks or provide compensation 21 in lieu thereof;
- 22 (d) failing to provide accurate itemized wage statements;
- 23 (e) failing to reimburse necessary business expenses; and
- 24 (f) failing to pay all wages due upon separation of employment.

25 5. Plaintiff seeks monetary relief against Defendants on behalf of herself and all 26 others similarly situated in California to recover, among other things, unpaid wages and 27 benefits, interest, attorneys’ fees, costs and expenses, and penalties pursuant to Labor Code §§
28

201-204, 210, 226, 226.3, 226.7, 510, 512, 558, 1174, 1174.5, 1182.12, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800, 2802, 2698, et seq., and Code of California Civil Procedure § 1021.5.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

6. This is a class action pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 382 and a representative action brought under the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, Cal. Lab. Code §§ 2698, et seq. (“PAGA”). The monetary damages and restitution sought by Plaintiff exceeds the minimal jurisdictional limits of the Superior Court and will be established according to proof at trial.

7. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to the California Constitution, Article VI, § 10, which grants the Superior Court original jurisdiction in all causes, except those given by statutes to other courts. The statutes under which this action is brought do not specify any other basis for jurisdiction.

8. This Court has jurisdiction over all Defendants because, upon information and belief, they are citizens of California, have sufficient minimum contacts in California, or otherwise intentionally avail themselves of the California market so as to render the exercise of jurisdiction over them by the California courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice.

9. Venue is proper in this Court because, upon information and belief, Defendants reside, transact business, or have offices in this county, and the acts and omissions alleged herein took place in this county.

THE PARTIES

10. Plaintiff is a resident of California and worked for Defendants in California during the relevant time periods as alleged herein.

11. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges that at all times hereinafter mentioned, Defendants were and are subject to the Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders as employers, whose employees were and are engaged throughout this county and the State of California.

1 12. Plaintiff is unaware of the true names or capacities of the defendants sued herein
2 under the fictitious names DOES 1 through 20, but will seek leave of this Court to amend this
3 Complaint and serve such fictitiously named defendants once their names and capacities
4 become known.

5 13. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that DOES 1 through 20
6 are or were the partners, agents, owners, shareholders, managers, or employees of Defendants
7 at all relevant times.

8 14. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that each defendant acted 9 in all respects pertinent to this action as the agent of the other defendant, carried out a joint
10 scheme, business plan, or policy in all respects pertinent hereto, and the acts of each defendant
11 are legally attributable to the other defendant. Furthermore, defendants in all respects acted as 12 the employer and/or joint employer of Plaintiff and the class members.

13 15. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that each and all of the 14 acts and omissions alleged herein were performed by, or are attributable to, Defendants and/or 15 DOES 1 through 20, acting as the agent or alter ego for the other, with legal authority to act on 16 the other's behalf. The acts of any and all Defendants were in accordance with, and represent,
17 the official policy of Defendants.

18 16. At all relevant times, Defendants, and each of them, acted within the scope of 19 such agency or employment, or ratified each and every act or omission complained of herein.
20 At all relevant times, Defendants, and each of them, aided and abetted the acts and omissions of 21 each and all the other Defendants in proximately causing the damages herein alleged.

22 17. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that each of said
23 Defendants is in some manner intentionally, negligently, or otherwise responsible for the acts,
24 omissions, occurrences, and transactions alleged herein.

25 CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

26 18. Plaintiff brings this action under Code of Civil Procedure § 382 on behalf of 27 herself and all others similarly situated who were affected by Defendants' Labor Code,
28 Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, and IWC Wage Order violations.

1 19. All claims alleged herein arise under California law for which Plaintiff seeks
2 relief authorized by California law.

3 20. Plaintiff's proposed class consists of and is defined as follows:

4 Class

5 All California citizens currently or formerly employed by Defendants as non-
6 exempt in the State of California at any time between May 3, 2016¹ and the date
7 the class is certified ("Class").

8 21. Plaintiff also seeks to certify the following subclass of employees:

9 Waiting Time Subclass

10 All Class Members who separated their employment with Defendants at any time
11 between May 3, 2017 and the date the class is certified ("Subclass" or "Waiting 12 Time Subclass").

13 22. Plaintiff reserves the right to modify or re-define the Class, establish additional 14 subclasses, or modify or re-define any class or subclass definition as appropriate based on 15 investigation, discovery, and specific theories of liability.

16 23. Members of the Class and the Subclass described above will be collectively
17 referred to as "Class Members."

18 24. There are common questions of law and fact as to the Class Members that 19 predominate over any questions affecting only individual members including, but not limited to,
20 the following:

21 (a) Whether Defendants fail to pay Plaintiff and Class Members all wages 22 (including minimum wages and overtime wages) for all hours worked by 23 Plaintiff and Class Members.

24 (b) Whether Defendants required Plaintiff and Class Members to work over 25 eight (8) hours per day, over twelve (12) hours per day, over forty (40)
26

27 ¹ The statute of limitations for this matter was tolled between April 6, 2020 and October 1, 2020,
28 pursuant to Cal. Rules of Court, Appendix I, Emergency Rule No. 9.

1 hours per week, and/or seven (7) consecutive days and failed to pay them
2 overtime compensation at the proper rate.

3 (c) Whether Defendants deprived Plaintiff and Class Members of full,
4 timely meal periods or required Plaintiff and Class Members to work
5 through meal periods without proper compensation.

6 (d) Whether Defendants deprived Plaintiff and Class Members of rest breaks
7 or required Plaintiff and Class Members to work through rest breaks
8 without proper compensation.

9 (e) Whether Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and Class Members
10 accurate itemized wage statements.

11 (f) Whether Defendants failed to timely pay the Waiting Time Subclass all 12 wages due upon termination or within seventy-two (72) hours of 13 resignation.

14 (g) Whether Defendants required Plaintiff and Class Members to incur
15 business expenses without reimbursing them.

16 (h) Whether Defendants' conduct was willful or reckless.

17 (i) Whether Defendants engaged in unfair business practices in violation of 18 Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

19 25. There is a well-defined community of interest in this litigation and the proposed 20 Class and Subclass are readily ascertainable:

21 (a) Numerosity: The Class Members are so numerous that joinder of all
22 members is impractical. Although the members of the entire Class and Subclass are unknown
23 to Plaintiff at this time, on information and belief, the class is estimated to be greater than 24 twenty-five (25) individuals. The identities of the Class Members are readily ascertainable by 25 inspection of Defendants' employment and payroll records.

26 (b) Typicality: The claims (or defenses, if any) of Plaintiff are typical of the 27 claims (or defenses, if any) of the Class Members because Defendants' failure to comply with 28 the provisions of California's wage and hour laws entitled each Class Member to similar pay, benefits, and other relief. The injuries sustained by Plaintiff are also typical of the injuries sustained by the Class Members because they arise out of and are caused by Defendants' common course of conduct as alleged herein.

(c) Adequacy: Plaintiff will fairly and adequately represent and protect the interests of all Class Members because it is in her best interest to prosecute the claims alleged herein to obtain full compensation and penalties due to her and the Class Members. Plaintiff's attorneys, as proposed class counsel, are competent and experienced in litigating large employment class actions and versed in the rules governing class action discovery, certification, and settlement. Plaintiff has incurred and, throughout the duration of this action, will continue to incur attorneys' fees and costs that have been and will be necessarily expended for the prosecution of this action for the substantial benefit of the Class Members.

(d) Superiority: The nature of this action makes use of class action adjudication superior to other methods. A class action will achieve economies of time, effort, and expense as compared with separate lawsuits and will avoid inconsistent outcomes because the same issues can be adjudicated in the same manner for the entire Class and Subclass at the same time. If appropriate, this Court can, and is empowered to, fashion methods to efficiently manage this case as a class action.

(e) Public Policy Considerations: Employers in the State of California violate employment and labor laws every day. Current employees are often afraid to assert their rights out of fear of direct or indirect retaliation. Former employees are fearful of bringing actions because they believe their former employers might damage their future endeavors through negative references and/or other means. Class actions provide class members who are not named in the complaint with a type of anonymity that allows for the vindication of their rights while affording them privacy protections.

GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

26. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants employed Plaintiff and other California residents as non-exempt employees at Defendants' California business location(s).

1 27. Defendant employed Plaintiff as a non-exempt employee at Defendants'
2 California business location.

3 28. Defendants continue to employ non-exempt employees within California.

4 29. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that at all times herein
5 mentioned, Defendants were advised by skilled lawyers, employees, and other professionals
6 who were knowledgeable about California's wage and hour laws, employment and personnel
7 practices, and the requirements of California law.

8 30. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or 9 should have known that Plaintiff and Class Members were entitled to receive wages for all time
10 worked (including minimum wages and overtime wages) and that they were not receiving all 11 wages earned for work that was required to be performed. In violation of the Labor Code and 12 IWC Wage Orders, Plaintiff and Class Members were not paid all wages (including minimum 13 wages and overtime wages) for all hours worked.

14 31. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or 15 should have known that Plaintiff and Class Members were entitled to receive all required meal
16 periods or payment of one (1) additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's and Class Members' regular 17 rate of pay when they did not receive a timely, uninterrupted meal period. In violation of the 18 Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders, Plaintiff and Class Members did not receive all meal
19 periods or payment of one (1) additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's and Class Members' regular 20 rate of pay when they did not receive a timely, uninterrupted meal period.

21 32. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or 22 should have known that Plaintiff and Class Members were entitled to receive all rest breaks or 23 payment of one (1) additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's and Class Members' regular rate of pay
24 when a rest break was missed. In violation of the Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders, Plaintiff
25 and Class Members did not receive all rest breaks or payment of one (1) additional hour of pay
26 at Plaintiff's and Class Members' regular rate of pay when a rest break was missed.

27 33. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or
28 should have known that Plaintiff and Class Members were entitled to receive itemized wage

1 statements that accurately showed the following information pursuant to the Labor Code: (1)
2 gross wages earned; (2) total hours worked by the employee; (3) the number of piece-rate units
3 earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis; (4) all
4 deductions, provided that all deductions made on written orders of the employee may be
5 aggregated and shown as one item; (5) net wages earned; (6) the inclusive dates of the period
6 for which the employee is paid; (7) the name of the employee and only the last four digits of his
7 or her social security number or an employee identification number other than a social security
8 number; (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer; and (9) all applicable
9 hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at 10 each hourly rate by the employee. In violation of the Labor Code, Plaintiff and Class Members 11 were not provided with accurate itemized wage statements.

12 34. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or 13 should have known that the Waiting Time Subclass was entitled to timely payment of wages
14 due upon separation of employment. In violation of the Labor Code, the Waiting Time Subclass
15 did not receive payment of all wages within permissible time periods.

16 35. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or 17 should have known that Plaintiff and class members were entitled to reimbursement for 18 necessary expenditures incurred in connection with the performance and execution of their job
19 duties. In violation of the California Labor Code, Plaintiff and class members did not receive 20 adequate reimbursement for necessary business expenses, including but not limited to 21 reimbursement for use of their personal cell phones and personal protective equipment.

22 36. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or 23 should have known they had a duty to compensate Plaintiff and Class Members, and 24 Defendants had the financial ability to pay such compensation but willfully, knowingly, and 25 intentionally failed to do so in order to increase Defendants' profits.

26 37. Therefore, Plaintiff brings this lawsuit seeking monetary and injunctive relief
27 against Defendants on behalf of herself and all Class Members to recover, among other things,
28 unpaid wages (including minimum wages and overtime wages), unpaid meal period premium

1 payments, unpaid rest period premium payments, interest, attorneys' fees, penalties, costs, and 2 expenses.

3 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

4 FAILURE TO PAY MINIMUM WAGES

5 (Violation of Labor Code §§ 1182.12, 1194, 1194.2, and 1197;

6 Violation of IWC Wage Order §3-4)

7 38. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporates by reference all paragraphs above as
8 though fully set forth herein.

9 39. Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1197 provide that the minimum wage for employees
10 fixed by the IWC is the minimum wage to be paid to employees, and the payment of a lesser 11 wage than the minimum so fixed is unlawful.

12 40. During the relevant time period, Defendants paid Plaintiff and Class Members
13 less than minimum wages when they failed to pay proper compensation for all hours worked,
14 including time worked during missed and/or interrupted meal periods as herein alleged. To the 15 extent these hours do not qualify for the payment of overtime, Plaintiff and Class Members 16 were not being paid at least the lawful minimum wage for their work.

17 41. During the relevant time period, Defendants regularly failed to pay at least 18 minimum wage to Plaintiff and Class Members for all hours worked pursuant to Labor Code
19 §§ 1194 and 1197.

20 42. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and Class Members the required minimum
21 wage violates Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1197. Pursuant to these sections, Plaintiff and Class
22 Members are entitled to recover the unpaid balance of their minimum wage compensation as 23 well as interest, costs, and attorneys' fees.

24 43. Pursuant to Labor Code § 1194.2, Plaintiff and Class Members are entitled to 25 recover liquidated damages in an amount equal to the wages unlawfully unpaid and the accrued
26 interest thereon.

1 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

2 FAILURE TO PAY OVERTIME

3 (Violation of Labor Code §§ 510, 1194, and 1198; Violation of IWC Wage Order § 3)

4 44. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporates by reference all paragraphs above as
5 though fully set forth herein.

6 45. Labor Code § 1198 and the applicable IWC Wage Order provide that it is 7 unlawful to employ persons without compensating them at a rate of pay either one and one-half
8 (1½) or two (2) times the person's regular rate of pay, depending on the number of hours or 9 days worked by the person on a daily or weekly basis.

10 46. Specifically, the applicable IWC Wage Orders provide that Defendants are and 11 were required to pay overtime compensation to Plaintiff and Class Members at the rate of one 12 and one-half times (1½) their regular rate of pay when working and for all hours worked in 13 excess of eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek and for the first 14 eight (8) hours of work on the seventh day of work in a workweek.

15 47. The applicable IWC Wage Orders further provide that Defendants are and were 16 required to pay overtime compensation to Plaintiff and Class Members at a rate of two times
17 their regular rate of pay when working and for all hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours
18 in a day or in excess of eight (8) hours on the seventh day of work in a workweek.

19 48. California Labor Code § 510 codifies the right to overtime compensation at one 20 and one-half (1½) times the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in 21 a day or forty (40) hours in a week and for the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh
22 consecutive day of work, and overtime compensation at twice the regular hourly rate for hours
23 worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in a day or in excess of eight (8) hours in a day on the 24 seventh day of work in a workweek.

25 49. Labor Code § 510 and the applicable IWC Wage Orders provide that 26 employment of more than six days in a workweek is only permissible if the employer pays
27 proper overtime compensation as set forth herein.
28

1 50. Plaintiff and Class Members were non-exempt employees entitled to the 2 protections of California Labor Code §§ 510 and 1194.

3 51. During the relevant time period, Defendants required Plaintiff and Class
4 Members to work in excess of eight (8) hours in a day, forty (40) hours in a week, and/or for a
5 seventh consecutive day in a workweek without paying Plaintiff and Class Members proper
6 overtime wages for their work.

7 52. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and Class
8 Members overtime wages for all overtime hours worked when Plaintiff and Class Members
9 worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day, forty (40) hours in a week and/or for a seventh
10 consecutive day of work in a workweek, or when Plaintiff and Class Members worked in 11 excess of twelve (12) hours in a day and/or in excess of eight (8) hours on the seventh day of 12 work in a work week. Further, Plaintiff and Class Members were required to work to complete
13 required trainings without being compensated for these hours worked, which caused Plaintiff
14 and Class Members to not be paid the correct amount of overtime wages.

15 53. In violation of state law, Defendants knowingly and willfully refused to perform
16 their obligations and compensate Plaintiff and Class Members for all wages earned and all
17 hours worked, including, but not limited to time worked during missed and/or interrupted meal
18 periods as alleged above.

19 54. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and Class Members the unpaid balance of 20 overtime and double time compensation, as required by California law, violates the provisions
21 of Labor Code §§ 510 and 1198, and is therefore unlawful.

22 55. Pursuant to Labor Code § 1194, Plaintiff and Class Members are entitled to 23 recover their unpaid overtime and double time compensation as well as interest, costs, and 24 attorneys' fees.

1 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

2 FAILURE TO PROVIDE MEAL PERIODS

3 (Violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512; Violation of IWC Wage Order § 11)

4 56. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporates by reference all paragraphs above as
5 though fully set forth herein

6 57. Labor Code § 226.7 provides that no employer shall require an employee to work
7 during any meal period mandated by the IWC Wage Orders.

8 58. Section 11 of the applicable IWC Wage Order states, “[n]o employer shall 9 employ any person for a work period of more than five (5) hours without a meal period of not 10 less than 30 minutes, except that when a work period of not more than six (6) hours will 11 complete the day’s work the meal period may be waived by mutual consent of the employer and 12 the employee.”

13 59. Labor Code § 512(a) provides that an employer may not require, cause, or permit 14 an employee to work for a period of more than five (5) hours per day without providing the 15 employee with an uninterrupted meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes, except that if 16 the total work period per day of the employee is not more than six (6) hours, the meal period
17 may be waived by mutual consent of both the employer and the employee.

18 60. Labor Code § 512(a) also provides that an employer may not employ an 19 employee for a work period of more than ten (10) hours per day without providing the employee
20 with a second meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes, except that if the total hours
21 worked is no more than twelve (12) hours, the second meal period may be waived by mutual
22 consent of the employer and the employee only if the first meal period was not waived.

23 61. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and Class Members did not receive 24 compliant meal periods for working more than five (5) and/or ten (10) hours per day because 25 their meal periods were missed, late, short, interrupted, and/or they were not permitted to take a
26 second meal period.

62. Labor Code § 226.7(b) and section 11 of the applicable IWC Wage Order requires an employer to pay an employee one (1) additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of compensation for each work day that a compliant meal period is not provided.

63. At all relevant times, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and Class Members meal period premiums for missed, late, short, and/or interrupted meal periods pursuant to Labor Code § 226.7(b) and section 11 of the applicable IWC Wage Order.

64. As a result of Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and Class Members an additional hour of pay for each day a compliant meal period was not provided, Plaintiff and Class Members suffered and continue to suffer a loss of wages and compensation.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

FAILURE TO PERMIT REST BREAKS

(Violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7; Violation of IWC Wage Order § 12)

65. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporates by reference all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

66. Labor Code § 226.7(a) provides that no employer shall require an employee to work during any rest period mandated by the IWC Wage Orders.

67. Section 12 of the applicable IWC Wage Order states “[e]very employer shall authorize and permit all employees to take rest periods, which insofar as practicable shall be in the middle of each work period[,]” and the “[a]uthorized rest period time shall be based on the total hours worked daily at the rate of ten (10) minutes net rest time per four (4) hours or major fraction thereof[,]” unless the total daily work time is less than three and one-half (3½) hours.

68. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and Class Members did not receive a ten (10) minute rest period for every four (4) hours or major fraction thereof worked because they were required to work through their daily rest periods, were not permitted to take timely rest periods, and/or were not authorized to take their rest periods.

69. Labor Code § 226.7(b) and section 12 of the applicable IWC Wage Order requires an employer to pay an employee one (1) additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of compensation for each work day that a compliant rest period is not provided.

1 70. At all relevant times, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and Class Members rest
2 period premiums for missed, late, and/or interrupted rest periods pursuant to Labor Code §
3 226.7(b) and section 12 of the applicable IWC Wage Order.

4 71. As a result of Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and Class Members an
5 additional hour of pay for each day a compliant rest period was not provided, Plaintiff and Class
6 Members suffered and continue to suffer a loss of wages and compensation.

7 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

8 FAILURE TO PROVIDE ACCURATE ITEMIZED WAGE STATEMENTS

9 (Violation of Labor Code § 226)

10 72. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporates by reference all paragraphs above as
11 though fully set forth herein.

12 73. Labor Code § 226(a) requires Defendants to provide each employee with an 13 accurate wage statement in writing showing nine pieces of information, including, the 14 following: (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee, (3) the number of 15 piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece-rate
16 basis, (4) all deductions, provided that all deductions made on written orders of the employee
17 may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the 18 period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee and the last four digits of 19 his or her social security number or an employee identification number other than a social 20 security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer, and (9) all
21 applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours
22 worked at each hourly rate by the employee.

23 74. During the relevant time period, Defendants have knowingly and intentionally
24 failed to comply with Labor Code § 226(a) on wage statements that were provided to Plaintiff
25 and Class Members. Defendants provided Plaintiff and Class Members with wage statements
26 that were missing or inaccurately stated one or more of the following items: (1) gross wages
27 earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and 28 any applicable piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions,

1 provided that all deductions made on written orders of the employee may be aggregated and
2 shown as one item, (5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which the
3 employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee and the last four digits of his or her social
4 security number or an employee identification number other than a social security number, (8)
5 the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer, and/or (9) all applicable hourly
6 rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each
7 hourly rate by the employee.

8 75. As a result of Defendants' knowing and intentional failure to comply with Labor
9 Code § 226(a), Plaintiff and Class Members have suffered injury and damage to their 10 statutorily-protected rights. Specifically, Plaintiff and Class Members are deemed to suffer an 11 injury pursuant to Labor Code § 226(e) where, as here, Defendants intentionally violated Labor
12 Code § 226(a). Plaintiff and Class Members were denied both their legal right to receive, and 13 their protected interest in receiving, accurate itemized wage statements under Labor Code
14 § 226(a). In addition, because Defendants failed to provide the accurate rates of pay on wage
15 statements, Defendants prevented Plaintiff and Class Members from determining if all hours
16 worked were paid at the appropriate rate and the extent of the underpayment. Plaintiff has had 17 to file this lawsuit in order to analyze the extent of the underpayment, thereby causing Plaintiff
18 to incur expenses and lost time. Plaintiff would not have had to engage in these efforts and 19 incur these costs had Defendants provided the accurate hours worked, wages earned, and rates
20 of pay. This has also delayed Plaintiff's ability to demand and recover the underpayment of 21 wages from Defendants.

22 76. Plaintiff and Class Members are entitled to recover from Defendants the greater 23 of all actual damages caused by Defendants' failure to comply with Labor Code § 226(a) or 24 fifty dollars ($50.00) for the initial pay period in which a violation occurred and one hundred 25 dollars ($100.00) per employee for each violation in subsequent pay periods in an amount not 26 exceeding four thousand dollars ($4,000.00) per employee, plus attorneys' fees and costs.

27 77. Defendants' violations of California Labor Code § 226(a) prevented Plaintiff
28 and Class Members from knowing, understanding, and disputing the wages paid to them and

1 resulted in an unjustified economic enrichment to Defendants. As a result of Defendants'
2 knowing and intentional failure to comply with California Labor Code § 226(a), Plaintiff and
3 Class Members have suffered an injury, in the exact amount of damages and/or penalties to be 4 shown according to proof at trial.

5 78. Class Members that are still employed by Defendants are also entitled to 6 injunctive relief under California Labor Code § 226(h), compelling Defendants to comply with 7 California Labor Code § 226. Accordingly, affected Class Members seek the recovery of 8 attorneys' fees and costs incurred in obtaining this injunctive relief.

10 SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

11 FAILURE TO PAY ALL WAGES DUE UPON SEPARATION OF EMPLOYMENT

12 (Violation of Labor Code §§ 201, 202, and 203)

13 79. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporates by reference all paragraphs above as
14 though fully set forth herein.

15 80. Labor Code §§ 201 and 202 provide that if an employer discharges an employee,
16 the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately, and that 17 if an employee voluntarily leaves his employment, his or her wages shall become due and 18 payable not later than seventy-two (72) hours thereafter, unless the employee has given 19 seventy-two (72) hours previous notice of an intention to quit, in which case the employee is 20 entitled to his or her wages at the time of quitting.

21 81. During the relevant time period, Defendants willfully failed to pay the Waiting
22 Time Subclass all their earned wages upon termination, including, but not limited to, proper
23 minimum wage and overtime compensation, meal period premiums, and rest period premiums
24 either at the time of discharge or within seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendants'
25 employ.

26 82. Defendants' failure to pay the Waiting Time Subclass all their earned wages at 27 the time of discharge or within seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendants' employ is 28 in violation of Labor Code §§ 201 and 202.

1 83. Labor Code § 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay wages owed
2 immediately upon discharge or resignation in accordance with Labor Code §§ 201 and 202,
3 then the wages of the employee shall continue as a penalty from the due date at the same rate
4 until paid or until an action is commenced; but the wages shall not continue for more than thirty 5 (30) days.

6 84. Pursuant to Labor Code § 203, the Waiting Time Subclass is entitled to recover
7 from Defendants the statutory penalty, which is defined as the Waiting Time Subclass
8 members' regular daily wages at their regular hourly rate of pay for each day they were not 9 paid, up to a maximum of thirty (30) days.

10 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

11 FAILURE TO REIMBURSE ALL BUSINESS EXPENSES

12 (Violation of Labor Code §§ 2800, 2802)

13 85. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporates by reference all paragraphs above as
14 though fully set forth herein.

15 86. Labor Code § 2800 states that an employer shall in all cases indemnify his 16 employee for losses.

17 87. Labor Code § 2802 requires employers to indemnify their employees for all
18 necessary expenditures or losses incurred by employees in direct consequence of the discharge
19 of their duties.

20 88. Section 9 of the applicable IWC Wage Order states that when tools or 21 equipment are required by the employer or are necessary to the performance of a job, such tools
22 and equipment shall be provided and maintained by the employer.

23 89. During the relevant time period, Defendants required Plaintiff and class
24 members to use their personal cellular devices for business purposes and purchase their own
25 protective equipment, without reimbursing Plaintiff and class members for these expenses.

26 90. In violation of Labor Code §§ 2800 and 2802, Defendants failed to indemnify
27 Plaintiff and class members for these expenses.
28

1 91. In committing the violations as herein alleged, Defendants have intentionally
2 and willfully failed to fully reimburse Plaintiff and class members for necessary business-
3 related costs and expenses. As a direct result, Plaintiff and class members have suffered and 4 continue to suffer substantial losses relating to the use and enjoyment of such compensation,
5 wages, expenses, and attorney's fees.

6 EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

7 VIOLATION OF BUSINESS AND PROFESSIONS CODE §§ 17200, ET SEQ.

8 (Violation of Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.)

9 92. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporates by reference all paragraphs above as
10 though fully set forth herein.

11 93. California Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq., prohibits acts of 12 unfair competition, which includes any "unlawful, unfair or fraudulent business act or practice .
13 ..."

14 94. A violation of California Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq., may 15 be predicated on a violation of any state or federal law. In the instant case, Defendants' policies
16 and practices violated state law, causing Plaintiff and Class Members to suffer and continue to 17 suffer injuries-in-fact.

18 95. Defendants' policies and practices violated state law in at least the following 19 respects:

- 20 (a) Failing to pay all wages earned (including minimum wage and overtime
21 wages) to Plaintiff and Class Members in violation of Labor Code §§
22 510, 1182.12, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, and 1198.
- 23 (b) Failing to provide compliant meal periods without paying Plaintiff and 24 Class Members premium wages for every day said meal periods were not 25 provided in violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512.
- 26 (c) Failing to authorize or permit compliant rest breaks without paying 27 Plaintiff and Class Members premium wages for every day said rest breaks were not authorized or permitted in violation of Labor Code § 226.7.
28

(d) Failing to provide Plaintiff and Class Members with accurate itemized wage statements in violation of Labor Code § 226.

(e) Failing to timely pay all earned wages to the members of the Waiting Time Subclass upon separation of employment in violation of Labor Code §§ 201, 202, and 203.

(f) Failing to provide Plaintiff and Class Members with reimbursements for necessary business expenses in violation of Labor Code § 2802.

96. As alleged herein, Defendants systematically engaged in unlawful conduct in violation of the California Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders, such as failing to pay all wages (minimum and overtime wages), failing to provide meal periods and rest breaks or compensation in lieu thereof, failing to furnish accurate wage statements, failing to pay all wages due and owing upon separation of employment in a timely manner, and failing to reimburse business expenses, all in order to decrease their costs of doing business and increase their profits.

97. At all relevant times herein, Defendants held themselves out to Plaintiff and Class Members as being knowledgeable concerning the labor and employment laws of California.

98. At all times relevant herein, Defendants intentionally avoided paying Plaintiff and Class Members wages and monies, thereby creating for Defendants an artificially lower cost of doing business in order to undercut their competitors and establish and/or gain a greater foothold in the marketplace.

99. As a result of Defendants' intentional, willful, purposeful, and wrongful misrepresentation of their conformance with the California Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders, Plaintiff and Class Members suffered a loss of wages and monies, all in an amount to be shown according to proof at trial.

100. By violating the foregoing statutes and regulations as herein alleged, Defendants' acts constitute unfair and unlawful business practices under California Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

101. As a result of the unfair and unlawful business practices of Defendants, as alleged herein, Plaintiff and Class Members are entitled to injunctive relief, disgorgement, and restitution in an amount to be shown according to proof at trial.

102. Plaintiff seeks to enforce important rights affecting the public interest within the meaning of California Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5. Defendants' conduct, as alleged herein, has been and continues to be unfair, unlawful, and harmful to Plaintiff, Class Members, and the general public. Based on Defendants' conduct as alleged herein, Plaintiff and Class Members are entitled to an award of attorneys' fees pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5.

NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

ENFORCEMENT OF LABOR CODE §§ 2698 ET SEQ. (“PAGA”)

103. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporate by reference the previous paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

104. Pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(a), any provision of the Labor Code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards, agencies, or employees for violation of the Labor Code may, as an alternative, be recovered through a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of himself or herself and other current or former employees pursuant to the procedures specified in Labor Code § 2699.3.

105. For all provisions of the Labor Code except those for which a civil penalty is specifically provided, Labor Code § 2699(f) imposes upon Defendants a penalty of one hundred dollars ($100.00) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation and two hundred dollars ($200.00) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent pay period in which Defendants violated these provisions of the Labor Code.

1 106. Defendants' conduct violates numerous Wage Order and Labor Code sections,
2 including, but not limited to, the following:

- 3 a. violation of Labor Code §§ 201-203, 204, 210, 510, 1182.12, 1194, 1197,
4 and 1198 for failure to timely pay all earned wages (including minimum
5 wage and overtime wages) owed to Plaintiff and other aggrieved
6 employees during employment and upon separation of employment as 7 herein alleged;
- 8 b. violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512 for failure to provide meal
9 periods to Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees and failure to pay 10 premium wages for missed meal periods as herein alleged;
- 11 c. violation of Labor Code § 226.7 for failure to permit rest breaks to 12 Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees and failure to pay premium wages 13 for missed rest periods as herein alleged;
- 14 d. violation of Labor Code § 226 for failure to provide accurate itemized
15 wage statements to Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees as herein 16 alleged;
- 17 e. violation of Labor Code §§ 1174 and 1174.5 for failure to maintain 18 accurate and complete records showing, among other things, the hours
19 worked daily by and the wages paid to aggrieved employees as herein 20 alleged; and
- 21 f. violation of Labor Code §§ 2800 and 2802 for failure to reimburse
22 necessary business expenses to Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees as 23 herein alleged.

24 107. Plaintiff is an "aggrieved employee" because she was employed by the alleged 25 violator and had one or more of the violations committed against her, and therefore is properly
26 suited to represent the interests of all other aggrieved employees.
27
28

108. Plaintiff has exhausted the procedural requirements under Labor Code § 2699.3 as to Defendants and is therefore able to pursue a claim for penalties on behalf of herself and all other aggrieved employees under PAGA.

109. Pursuant to Labor Code §§ 2699(a), 2699.3 and 2699.5, Plaintiff is entitled to recover civil penalties, in addition to other remedies, for violations of the Labor Code sections cited above.

110. For bringing this action, Plaintiff is entitled to attorney's fees and costs incurred herein.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

Plaintiff, on her own behalf and on behalf of all others similarly situated, prays for relief and judgment against Defendants, jointly and severally, as follows:

1. For certification under California Code of Civil Procedure § 382 of the proposed Class, Waiting Time Subclass, and any other appropriate subclasses;
2. For appointment of Ruth Noriega as the class representative;
3. For appointment of Aegis Law Firm, PC, as class counsel for all purposes;
4. For compensatory damages in an amount according to proof at trial;
5. For an award of damages in the amount of unpaid compensation including, but not limited to, unpaid wages, benefits, and penalties;
6. For economic and/or special damages in an amount according to proof at trial;
7. For liquidated damages pursuant to Labor Code § 1194.2;
8. For statutory penalties to the extent permitted by law, including those pursuant to the Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders;
9. For injunctive relief as provided by the California Labor Code and California Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.;
10. For restitution as provided by Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.;
11. For an order requiring Defendants to restore and disgorge all funds to each employee acquired by means of any act or practice declared by this Court to be unlawful,

1 unfair, or fraudulent and, therefore, constituting unfair competition under Business and
2 Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.;

3 12. For pre-judgment interest;

4 13. For civil penalties;

5 14. For reasonable attorneys' fees, costs of suit, and interest to the extent permitted
6 by law, including, but not limited to, Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5 and Labor Code §§
7 226(e) and 1194, and 2698 et seq.; and

8 15. For such other relief as the Court deems just and proper.
