I, Eric B. Kingsley, state and declare as follows:

1. I am an attorney admitted before all courts of the State of California and a partner in the law firm of Kingsley Szamet Employment Lawyers, counsel of record for Plaintiff in this action. I am completely familiar with the present litigation, including the pleadings, discovery, and filings submitted in this matter. I make this Declaration from my own personal knowledge, and, if called upon, I could and would competently testify to the following.

2. I graduated from the University of California, Santa Barbara, in 1993 with a degree in History. I graduated from Loyola Law School of Los Angeles in 1996. I am admitted to practice before the following Courts: United States Supreme Court; United States District Court, Northern, Eastern, Southern and Central of California; all California State Courts.

3. I make this Declaration in support of Plaintiff's Motion for Preliminary Approval of the Class Action Settlement in the above-captioned case.

RELEVANT PROCEDURAL HISTORY

4. Freenjoy is a production company that produced the Music Video “On” by BTS (“Music Video”). Defendant hired Plaintiff as an Extra on the Music Video, which is a nonexempt employee. The Music Video was scheduled to shoot from February 3-6, 2020, and Plaintiff worked on February 3 (Day 1) and February 6 (Day 4). The Music Video “was a non-union, non-SAG production” and Plaintiff was non-union.

5. On November 16, 2020, Plaintiff filed a class action complaint against Defendants Big Hit Entertainment Co., Ltd. and Freenjoy alleging a variety of wage and hour claims, and on June 14, 2021, Plaintiff filed a First Amended Complaint adding an additional cause of action for penalties pursuant to Labor Code § 2699, et seq., the Private Attorneys General Act (“PAGA”) based on the underlying Labor Code violations already pled. The operative complaint is the Second Amended Complaint (“SAC”) filed on December 7, 2021 against Defendants for 1) Failure to Provide Meal Breaks; 2) Failure to Provide Rest Breaks; 3) Failure to Pay Overtime Wages; 4) Waiting Time Penalties; 5) Failure to Provide Itemized Wage Statements; 6) Violation of the Private Attorneys General Act of 2014 (“PAGA”); and 7) Unlawful and Unfair Business Practices.

1 On November 24, 2020, Plaintiff sent a notice letter to the Labor Workforce Development Agency
2 (“LWDA”) regarding his intent to seek civil penalties for the same Labor Code violations above,
3 under Labor Code section 2699, et seq. Plaintiff dismissed Defendant Big Hit Entertainment Co.,
4 Ltd. on October 5, 2022.

5 THE DISCOVERY PROCESS AND MEDIATION

6 6. The Parties engaged in extensive formal discovery in this Action before attending
7 mediation. Starting on June 26, 2021, Plaintiff served multiple rounds of discovery, specifically
8 Requests for Production of Documents and Special Interrogatories, to Defendant. Defendant also 9 produced pay records for mediation purposes.

10 7. On November 9, 2023, the Parties attended private mediation with Hon. Carl J.
11 West (Ret.), but the Parties ultimately could not come to an agreement to settle the Action. On 12 October 11, 2023, Defendant produced its tax returns, which Plaintiff’s Counsel thoroughly 13 analyzed.

14 8. After continuous meet and confer efforts, the Parties decided to attend a second
15 private mediation with Hon. Carl J. West (Ret.) on March 12, 2025, which led to the Agreement
16 to settle the Action.

17 9. Defendant denies any liability or wrongdoing of any kind associated with the claims
18 alleged in the Action, disputes the damages and penalties claimed by Plaintiff, and further contends
19 that, for any purpose other than settlement, Plaintiff’s claims are not appropriate for class or 20 representative action treatment. Defendant contends, among other things, that, at all times, it has 21 complied with the California Labor Code, and the Industrial Wage Commission Orders.

22 10. Based on their own independent investigation and evaluation, Class Counsel is of 23 the opinion that the Agreement with Defendant is fair, reasonable and adequate, and in the best 24 interest of the settlement class in light of all known facts and circumstances, including the risk of 25 significant delay, defenses asserted by Defendant, uncertainties regarding a class and 26 representative action trial on the merits, and numerous potential appellate issues. Although 27 Defendant denies any liability, Defendant is agreeing to this Agreement solely to avoid the cost of 28 litigation. Accordingly, the Parties and their counsel desire to fully, finally, and forever settle,

1 compromise and discharge all disputes and claims arising from or relating to the Action on the
2 terms set forth here.

3 CERTIFICATION FOR SETTLEMENT PURPOSES

4 11. First, Defendant has agreed in the Agreement to provide a class list to the 5 Administrator containing the name, last known mailing address, social security number, and 6 number of Class Period Workweeks and PAGA Pay Periods for all putative class members after 7 issuance of the preliminary approval order.

8 12. Second, settlement Class Member consist of Defendant's employees, and 9 Defendant is required to keep records of its employees' names, home addresses, and social security
10 numbers. (See Wage Order 12-2001, subsection 7(c).)

11 13. Third and finally, Defendant formally and informally produced Plaintiff's
12 personnel file and pay statements time and pay data, and wage statements for settlement Class
13 Members containing class member contact information, which confirms that all settlement Class
14 Member may be readily identified based on Defendant's records.

15 14. Plaintiff is confident he will be able to establish that the proposed settlement Class
16 is ascertainable and sufficiently numerous.

17 15. Here, Plaintiff argues that there are questions of law and fact common to the 18 proposed settlement Class that predominate over any questions affecting only individual Class
19 Members. These common questions include:

- 20 1) Whether Defendant failed to pay all wages and/or overtime compensation;
- 21 2) Whether Defendant failed to provide lawfully required meal periods and/or 22 failed to compensate employees one (1) hour's wages in lieu thereof;
- 23 3) Whether Defendant failed to provide lawfully required rest periods and/or 24 failed to compensate employees one (1) hour's wages in lieu thereof;
- 25 4) Whether Defendant failed to provide accurate itemized wage statements;
- 26 5) Whether Defendant failed to pay compensation due and owing upon 27 termination of employment;
- 28 6) Whether Defendant engaged in unfair competition; and,

1 7) Whether Defendant violated § 2699, et seq. of the Labor Code by engaging 2 in the acts previously alleged.

3 16. Plaintiff's challenge to Defendant's uniform policies and practices involves 4 common factual and legal issues that are amenable to class treatment.

5 17. Plaintiff maintains that the proposed Settlement Class Members suffered the same
6 injuries, in the same manner: (1) settlement Class Members did not receive all wages and or 7 overtime wages as required; (2) settlement Class Members did not receive their meal and rest
8 periods as required; (3) settlement Class Members were not provided accurate itemized wage
9 statements; and (4) settlement Class Members were not paid all wages owed upon
10 termination/resignation. Plaintiff alleges that settlement Class Members worked in the same
11 capacity for the same employer and were subject to the same employment policies and practices,
12 the questions of fact and claims regarding the status of these employees are the same for each 13 member of the settlement Class. Accordingly, for purposes of settlement, certification for 14 settlement purposes is appropriate.

15 18. Plaintiff worked as an Extra on a Music Video for Defendant, which is a nonexempt
16 employee. Plaintiff alleges that he: (1) worked without being paid all wages and/or overtime; (2)
17 worked without being provided meal/rest periods as required by law; (3) worked without being 18 provided accurate itemized wage; and (4) worked without being paid all wages due upon
19 separation. He also alleges that he experienced derivative claims for unfair business competition 20 (B&P Code §17200) and Labor Code §2699, et seq. Plaintiff also contends that his claims are 21 typical of those of the settlement Class.

22 19. Plaintiff believes that he is capable of fairly representing and adequately protecting
23 the interests of the proposed settlement Class Members. The members of the proposed Settlement
24 Class all worked for Defendant during the relevant time period and incurred the same type of 25 alleged damages with regard to Defendant's alleged violations of the law. Moreover, Plaintiff has 26 agreed to serve as Class Representative and has retained qualified Counsel who is experienced in 27 prosecuting wage and hour class actions. This demonstrates his commitment to bringing about the 28 best possible results for the benefit of the proposed settlement Class. Plaintiff has provided his

1 Counsel with all necessary and pertinent information. Plaintiff has been a very active participant
2 in the litigation including having frequent contact with settlement Class Members, responding to
3 formal discovery, and working closely with Class Counsel to develop the theories of liability.
4 Plaintiff also was informed of and involved in all of the Settlement negotiations. Therefore,
5 Plaintiff believes that he has and will continue to adequately represent the proposed settlement
6 Class Members.

7 20. In this regard, the superiority of class treatment is evident here because individual
8 pursuit of class members' claims may not be economically viable. The only alternative to 9 certification would be to force 80 employees to join this action, file individual, uniform actions,
10 or abandon their legal rights altogether. Plaintiff maintains that this economic reality would result
11 in a windfall for Defendant if this case were not certified.

12 THE PROPOSED SETTLEMENT

13 21. Originally, Plaintiff's class definition encompassed a much larger class of 14 approximately 8,000 individuals. However, during settlement negotiations, Defendant contended
15 that a settlement at that size would bankrupt the company. The Parties redefined the class definition
16 to comprise of the most likely claims that would succeed amongst a subset of the larger class. As 17 such, the Parties reached a settlement based on a much narrower proposed class.

18 22. For purposes of Agreement, the settlement class is defined as: "all current and 19 former non-exempt employees of Freenjoy, Inc. in California who worked on the "On" by BTS
20 music video production and were compensated by Freenjoy. Inc. based on a guaranteed amount 21 for 10 or 12 hours of work per day from February 3, 2020 to February 6, 2020." ("Class").

22 23. The Class Period is February 3, 2020, until February 6, 2020.

23 24. Based on documents and other information produced by Defendant, there are 24 approximately 80 members of the Class who worked a total of 80 total Workweeks.

25 25. For purposes of the Agreement, the Aggrieved Employees are defined as: "all 26 current and former non-exempt employees of Freenjoy, Inc. in California who worked on the "On"
27 by BTS music video production and were compensated by Freenjoy. Inc. based on a guaranteed
28 amount for 10 or 12 hours of work per day from February 3, 2020 to February 6, 2020."

1 (“Aggrieved Employees”).

2 26. The PAGA Period is February 3, 2020 to February 6, 2020.

3 27. Based on documents and other information produced by Defendant, there are 4 approximately 80 Aggrieved Employees who collectively worked a total of 80 PAGA Pay Periods.

5 28. As detailed fully in the Agreement, the Settlement provides for Defendant to pay a
6 Gross Settlement Amount of $550,000.00, which includes the sum of the Individual Class
7 Payments, the Class Representative service award, the Class Counsel Award, PAGA Payment, and 8 the Settlement Administration Costs.

9 29. The Net Settlement Amount is the Gross Settlement Amount, less Class Counsel
10 Award, Class Representative Enhancement, PAGA Payment, and Settlement Administration
11 Costs.

12 KULLAR ANALYSIS

13 30. The proposed settlement satisfies each of the Kullar factors.

14 31. The extensive discovery conducted in this Action permitted Class Counsel to fairly 15 evaluate the strength of the case and the risks associated with ongoing litigation.

16 32. Class Counsel is experienced in handling wage and hour class actions and, after 17 weighing all of the following factors, supports this Agreement.

18 33. There are three issues under this claim. First, Plaintiff maintains that Defendant
19 subjected Plaintiff and the Proposed Class to an unlawful Belo contract. Second, Plaintiff contends
20 that the base hourly rate of pay for Plaintiff and the Proposed Class was incorrectly calculated
21 because Defendant paid a fixed daily salary. Third, Plaintiff alleges that Defendant failed to blend
22 nondiscretionary bonuses into the regular rate of pay.

23 34. Plaintiff specifically contends that Defendant’s compensation structure of $225 for 24 up to 10 hours of work, including overtime, is an unlawful agreement.

25 35. Defendant also admitted to paying Plaintiff a rate of $225 per day for up to 10 hours
26 of work. Defendant also guaranteed a minimum of $225 per day. Plaintiff contends that 27 Defendant’s compensation structure of $225 includes payment for 8 regular nonovertime hours
28 and 2 overtime hours.

1 36. However, Defendant argued that the $225 is broken down into 8 hours at $20.4545
2 per hour, and 2 hours of overtime at $30.6818 per hour. While Plaintiff contends that this is
3 Defendant's attempt to end-run around overtime laws and "back in the regular rate" (given the odd
4 hourly rates to four decimal places), Plaintiff must acknowledge the risk that this calculation does
5 result in an overtime rate that equals 1.5 times the base rate and as such, would adequately
6 compensate Plaintiff and the Proposed Class for exactly 10 hours of work.

7 37. Plaintiff maintains that Defendant paid Plaintiff based on a fixed salary of $225 per 8 day for work performed on February 3 and 6, 2020 on the Music Video. Plaintiff contends that it
9 makes no difference under the Labor Code and Wage Orders that the salary was earned daily, paid
10 out at the end of a pay period consisting of two worked days, which was the duration of Plaintiff's
11 employment. Plaintiff maintains that the amount of $225 was fixed; Defendant paid overtime when 12 Plaintiff worked over ten hours. Plaintiff asserts this is in line with a fixed salary, except additional 13 compensation beyond the fixed salary must be paid for all overtime hours after eight hours of 14 work. (Lab. Code, § 515(d)(2).) Plaintiff earned a fixed salary each day he worked, i.e. a daily
15 salary, for the duration of his employment. Importantly, the Court denied Defendant's MSJ,
16 holding that Plaintiff was paid a daily salary. This is applicable to all putative class members paid
17 a daily rate, i.e. a daily salary, such that this issue is appropriate for class certification. Accordingly,
18 Plaintiff contends that Labor Code section 515(d)(2) applies to Plaintiff and the Class members,
19 further contends that the base hourly rate of pay should have been $28.125, not $20.45, and any 20 additional hours of work beyond 8 hours must be paid according to the overtime requirements of 21 Wage Order 12-2001.

22 38. Plaintiff contends that his hourly rate of pay is determined by taking the salary,
23 $225, divided by the number of non-overtime hours, 8. This equals an hourly rate of $28.125.
24 (Ibid.) Any additional hours of work beyond 8 hours must be paid according to the overtime
25 requirements of Wage Order 12-2001. That is, the overtime rate (1.5x) for the 9th and 10th hour of 26 work is $42.1875, and the double time rate (2x) for the 11th hour and on is $56.25. Plaintiff
27 maintains that Defendant failed to pay Plaintiff at the appropriate rates of pay when it paid Plaintiff
28 at an hourly rate of $20.4545. Pursuant to Labor Code section 515(d)(2), Plaintiff contends that

1 Defendant has failed to compensate Plaintiff a) at the appropriate rates of pay; and b) for overtime
2 hours worked (since $225 only covers nonovertime hours).

3 39. However, Defendant argued that it did not pay a salary since Plaintiff and the 4 Proposed Class did not “regularly receive” this salary, given that they were only employed for a
5 four-day music video shoot.

6 40. As explained above, Defendant vigorously argued that it correctly paid overtime
7 under its own calculations of $20.4545 per hour for 8 regular hours, and 2 hours of overtime at 8 $30.6818 per hour. Furthermore, Defendant was adamant that at trial, the factfinder would disagree
9 that Plaintiff and the Proposed Class were paid on a regular, “salary basis” given that the relevant
10 time period where is a single workweek. While Plaintiff disagrees that Defendant’s argument is 11 legally correct or persuasive, Plaintiff must also acknowledge that for settlement purposes, the 12 damages resulting from this claim is limited to a relatively short time period.

13 41. Plaintiff maintains that Defendant consistently failed to blend the non-discretionary 14 flat sum bonuses into the regular rate of pay for purposes of overtime.

15 42. Plaintiff maintains that he and Class members earned three flat sum bonuses – two 16 smoke bumps at $20 each and 1 stunt bump at $75 – for performing with certain conditions on set
17 (standing on rocks and smoky conditions). Plaintiff and Class members volunteered to perform
18 under these conditions in response to Defendant’s request for volunteers and promise of pay.
19 Plaintiff asserts that these flat sums incentivized work under certain conditions are flat sum
20 bonuses required to be blended into Plaintiff and Class members’ regular rate of pay.

21 43. In response, Defendant maintained that it was not required to include these bumps
22 because they are considered “talent fees,” and were properly excluded from the regular rate
23 calculation.

24 44. Plaintiff contends that Defendant does not have any meal or rest break policies
25 applicable to “extras” during the shooting of the Music Video. There is no policy to communicate 26 information about breaks to “extras”, failing to authorize lawful breaks.

27 45. Second, Plaintiff and Class members were not free to come and go as they pleased 28 during purported breaks. Plaintiff maintains that he and Class members were constrained to the

1 premises of the shoot during the workdays and would have had to ask Defendant if they wanted to
2 leave the holding area. Specifically, on Day 4, Plaintiff asserts that it was an important filming day
3 and they had to move quickly, so the meal break was on set rather than base, and at any moment
4 they could have been called to shoot. (See Augustus v. ABM Security Services, Inc. (2016) 2 Cal.5th
5 257, 270 [employees who must “remain at the ready” are performing work and not free to use time
6 for their own purposes].)

7 46. Additionally, Plaintiff maintains that, on Day 1, Defendant was rushing Plaintiff
8 and the Proposed Class to leave as soon as possible once filming was finished for the day. On Day
9 1, Plaintiff contends that he did not complete all work, including returning wardrobe, retrieving
10 his phone, and making it back to the parking lot, until after 12:00 p.m. (Morillion v. Royal Packing 11 Co. (2000) 22 Cal.4th 575, 582 [Under California’s control test, “an employee who is subject to 12 an employer’s control does not have to be working during that time to be compensated.”]; Id. at p.
13 587 [Compulsory travel time, including time spent waiting on employer transportation, is 14 compensable]; See Frlekin v. Apple Inc. (2020) 8 Cal.5th 1038, 1042, reh'g denied (May 13, 2020)
15 [exit searches compensable].)

16 47. Plaintiff maintains that he would have been entitled to a meal break premium had 17 the payroll record reflected his actual end time. While one version of his payroll record states that 18 he ended at 12:00 p.m., another states that he worked ten hours with a proper meal period.

19 48. There are a couple risks on the meal and rest period claims that Plaintiff needed to 20 factor when evaluating this settlement.

21 49. The main risk is that Defendant did pay meal premiums on Day 4 to Plaintiff and 22 other employees, which Defendant would argue that it did properly pay any and all meal premiums
23 to the Proposed Class. Although Plaintiff does not agree with this, even if such practices or policies
24 were credited, there remains a risk because, under Ferra, any missed or improperly provided meal
25 periods require payment of an additional hour at the employee’s regular rate, including the value
26 of nondiscretionary earnings such as flat sum bonuses. However, the ultimate liability could vary
27 depending on how the Court would evaluate the implementation of meal breaks and calculates
28 premium pay.

1 50. This presented a risk on the meal period claim that Plaintiff considered when
2 evaluating this settlement.

3 51. Further, Plaintiff must acknowledge the rest claim poses serious risks as to 4 establishing liability because there are no time records to evaluate the rest period claim at all.
5 Plaintiff would have to rely on testimonial evidence and just as with meal periods, there is risk as 6 to both sides as to what declarations and depositions of class members might reveal.

7 52. Plaintiff maintains that Defendant failed to issue accurate, itemized wage
8 statements to Plaintiff by failing to accurately list hours worked, applicable rates of pay, premium
9 pay earned for unlawful meal and rest breaks, and thereby affecting the accuracy of gross and net
10 wages earned. These inaccuracies stem from Defendant's violations recounted above. Plaintiff also 11 contends that Defendant listed 10 hours for Plaintiff on February 3, 2020, which Defendant claims
12 Plaintiff did not work. Defendant should have listed the $225 salary separately instead of depicting 13 purportedly inaccurate hours.

14 53. As this is a derivative claim, the same risks present for the above claims were 15 present for this claim.

16 54. Plaintiff contends that Defendant failed to pay all wages owed and due upon their 17 termination and/or resignation.

18 55. Here, the waiting time penalties are derivative of Defendant's failure to properly
19 pay Plaintiff and Class members for all hours worked at the applicable rates of pay and failure to 20 pay meal and rest period premiums.

21 56. Plaintiffs factored in the risk of establishing that any violation was "willful" and 22 the fact that this claim is derivative.

23 57. First, the Aggrieved Employees' PAGA claims are arguably derivative of all the 24 foregoing class claims. If Plaintiff cannot establish liability on the underlying claim (taking into 25 account the risks discussed above), then the derivative PAGA claim will also necessarily fail.

26 58. Second, a court has discretion to award less than the maximum penalty.

27 59. Third, the likelihood of the Court reducing the PAGA damages awarded to Plaintiff
28 and the Aggrieved Employees – assuming liability is proven as to each of Plaintiff's claims – is

1 also higher in this case where these same individuals will also be receiving money for the same
2 unlawful conduct under the class claims.

3 60. There is significant expense associated with the class certification process, which 4 the Parties can avoid by entering into the contemplated Agreement now.

5 61. If the Court did eventually certify a meal or wage statement class, trial of a case
6 involving approximately 80 settlement Class Members would require the retention of expensive
7 expert witnesses, the accrual of extensive litigation costs, and a significant time overlay by the 8 parties.

9 62. Moreover, given the complexity and unsettled nature of the issues in this case it is 10 likely that any outcome at trial would have resulted in a lengthy and costly appeal. An appeal
11 would result in further delay for the settlement Class Members who are waiting for a resolution in 12 this matter.

13 63. This case has not been certified to be tried as a class action. While Plaintiff believes 14 there is strong evidence to support certification of several possible subclasses, certification is 15 always hard fought and subject to judicial discretion. Moreover, in class actions, decertification
16 is always a possibility. In attempting to certify a class, the parties would need to conduct multiple 17 depositions, including of the Class Representative and of several person(s) most knowledgeable 18 regarding Defendant's meal and rest policies. There is a risk for both sides as to what these 19 depositions will reveal and whether they will support class certification to the extent expected.

20 64. It was very difficult for the Parties to reach this Settlement of $550,000.00.

21 65. This Settlement is the result of adversarial, non-collusive, and arms-length
22 negotiations. The Parties arrived at it after extensive investigation and discovery, careful 23 evaluation of the law, risks, and all information substantiating the amount of penalties reasonably
24 likely to be awarded to the class were the trier of fact to find Defendant liable, and the assistance
25 of an experienced mediator, Hon. Carl J. West.

26 66. Plaintiff assessed the full value of the unpaid wages claim, without any discount, at 27 approximately $27,000.00 due to underpayment from Defendant's alleged failure to blend and 28 failure to pay at the correct overtime rate. This was calculated using an overtime rate of $42.1875

1 and assuming that each putative class member has two hours of unpaid overtime for each shoot
2 day.

3 67. Plaintiff assessed the full value of the meal and rest period claims, without any 4 discount, at approximately $18,000.00.

5 68. However, this amount is overstated because it assumes that each putative class
6 member worked each of the four days in the workweek and were denied a meal and rest break each
7 day.

8 69. The waiting time penalties claim drove this settlement. Plaintiff valued the waiting
9 time claim, tied to the wages/overtime claim, at $742,500.00. The reason for this figure is because
10 a day's worth of wages for each putative class member is $309.375, which is a higher-than-average
11 daily rate (\$309.375 daily rate $\times$ 30 days $\times$ 80 putative class members = \$742,500.) Even using 12 Defendant's daily rate of \$225, the value of this claim is at least \$540,000.00.

13 70. As to the exposure for PAGA penalties under Labor Code §2699, et seq., Plaintiff
14 valued this claim at approximately $8,000.00.

15 71. This was based upon 80 PAGA pay period at issue during the PAGA relevant time
16 period (80 aggrieved employees were during February 3 to February 6, 2020, which is only one
17 PAGA pay period per employee), multiplied by \$100 per pay period (80 pay periods in the data $\times$
18 $100 = $8,000.00.

19 72. Thus, per Plaintiff's assessment, the maximum potential value of all of Plaintiff's
20 and the Class members' claims was approximately $1,115,500.

21 73. However, in looking at just the core damages related to the claims for alleged 22 unpaid wages and meal and rest period violations the maximum exposure was $45,000.

23 74. The amount attributable to statutory and civil penalties far outweighs the exposure
24 on the underlying claims.

25 75. Plaintiff and Class Counsel believe that examining the core exposure together with 26 the significant foregoing risks on the merits, supports a finding that the Gross Settlement Amount
27 of $550,000.00 is exceptional and will be well-received by the Proposed Class.

Except as otherwise provided by Paragraph 9 below, Defendant promises to pay $550,000.00 and no more as the Gross Settlement Amount and to separately pay any and all employer payroll taxes owed on the Wage Portions of the Individual Class Payments. Defendant has no obligation to pay the Gross Settlement Amount (or any payroll taxes) prior to the deadline stated in Paragraph 6.1 of this Agreement. The Administrator will disburse the entire Gross Settlement Amount without asking or requiring Participating Class Members or Aggrieved Employees to submit any claim as a condition of payment. None of the Gross Settlement Amount will revert to Defendant.

3.2.1. To Plaintiff: Class Representative Service Payment to the Class Representative of not more than $5,000.00 (in addition to any Individual Class Payment and any Individual PAGA Payment the Class Representative is entitled to receive as a Participating Class Member). Defendant will not oppose Plaintiff's request for a Class Representative Service Payment that does not exceed this amount. As part of the motion for Class Counsel Fees Payment and Class Litigation Expenses Payment, Plaintiff will seek Court approval for any Class Representative Service Payments no later than 16 court days prior to the Final Approval Hearing. If the Court approves a Class Representative Service Payment less than the amount requested, the Administrator will retain the remainder in the Net Settlement Amount. The Administrator will pay the Class Representative Service Payment using IRS Form 1099. Plaintiff assumes full responsibility and liability for employee taxes owed on the Class Representative Service Payment.

3.2.2. To Class Counsel: A Class Counsel Fees Payment of not more than 35 %, which is currently estimated to be $192,500.00 and a Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment of not more than $35,000.00. Defendant will not oppose requests for these payments provided that do not exceed these amounts. Plaintiff and/or Class Counsel will file a motion for Class Counsel Fees Payment and Class Litigation Expenses Payment no later than 16 court days prior to the Final Approval Hearing. If the Court approves a Class Counsel Fees Payment and/or a Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment less than the amounts requested, the Administrator will allocate the remainder to the Net Settlement Amount. Released Parties shall have no liability to Class Counsel or any other Plaintiff's Counsel arising from any claim to any portion any Class Counsel Fee Payment and/or Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment. The Administrator will pay the Class Counsel Fees Payment and Class Counsel Expenses Payment using one or more IRS 1099 Forms. 3.2.3. To the Administrator: An Administrator Expenses Payment not to exceed $4,500.00 except for a showing of good cause and as approved by the Court. To the extent the Administration Expenses are less or the Court approves payment less than $4,500.00, the Administrator will retain the remainder in the Net Settlement Amount.

3.2.4. To Each Participating Class Member: An Individual Class Payment calculated by (a) dividing the Net Settlement Amount by the total number of Workweeks worked by all Participating Class Members during the Class Period and (b) multiplying the result by each Participating Class Member's Workweeks.

3.2.4.1. Tax Allocation of Individual Class Payments. 20% of each Participating Class Member's Individual Class Payment will be allocated to settlement of wage claims (the "Wage Portion"). The Wage Portions are subject to tax withholding and will be reported on an IRS W-2 Form. 80% of each Participating Class Member's Individual Class Payment will be allocated to settlement of claims for interest and penalties (the "Non-Wage Portion"). The Non-Wage Portions are not subject to wage withholdings and will be reported on IRS 1099 Forms. Participating Class Members assume full responsibility and liability for any employee taxes owed on their Individual Class Payment.

3.2.4.2. Effect of Non-Participating Class Members on Calculation of Individual Class Payments. Non-Participating Class Members will not receive any Individual Class Payments. The Administrator will retain amounts equal to their Individual Class Payments in the Net Settlement Amount for distribution to Participating Class Members on a pro rata basis.

3.2.5. To the LWDA and Aggrieved Employees: PAGA Penalties in the amount of $15,000.00 to be paid from the Gross Settlement Amount, with 75% ($11,250.00) allocated to the LWDA PAGA Payment and 25% ($3,750.00) allocated to the Individual PAGA Payments.

3.2.5.1. The Administrator will calculate each Individual PAGA Payment by (a) dividing the amount of the Aggrieved Employees' 25% share of PAGA Penalties ($3,750.00) by the total number of PAGA Period Pay Periods worked by all Aggrieved Employees during the PAGA Period and (b) multiplying the result by each Aggrieved Employee's PAGA Period Pay Periods. Aggrieved Employees assume full responsibility and liability for any taxes owed on their Individual PAGA Payment.

3.2.5.2. If the Court approves PAGA Penalties of less than the amount requested, the Administrator will allocate the remainder to the Net Settlement Amount. The Administrator will report the Individual PAGA Payments on IRS 1099 Forms.

To protect Class Members' privacy rights, the Administrator must maintain the Class Data in confidence, use the Class Data only for purposes of this Settlement and for no other purpose, and restrict access to the Class Data to Administrator employees who need access to the Class Data to effect and perform under this Agreement. Defendant has a continuing duty to immediately notify Class Counsel if it discovers that the Class Data omitted class member identifying information and to provide corrected or updated Class Data as soon as reasonably feasible. Without any extension of the deadline by which Defendant must send the Class Data to the Administrator, the Parties and their counsel will expeditiously use best efforts, in good faith, to reconstruct or otherwise resolve any issues related to missing or omitted Class Data.
- 4.3. Funding of Gross Settlement Amount. Defendant shall fully fund the Gross Settlement Amount, and also fund the amounts necessary to fully pay Defendant's share of payroll taxes by transmitting the funds to the Administrator as follows: the first installment of $200,000 is due within 60 days of execution of this Agreement or in no event later than October 3, 2025. - 4.4.1. The Administrator will issue checks for the Individual Class Payments and/or Individual PAGA Payments and send them to the Class Members via First Class U.S. Mail, postage prepaid. The face of each check shall prominently state the date (not less than 180 days after the date of mailing) when the check will be voided. The Administrator will cancel all checks not cashed by the void date. The Administrator will send checks for Individual Settlement Payments to all Participating Class Members (including those for whom Class Notice was returned undelivered). The Administrator will send checks for Individual PAGA Payments to all Aggrieved Employees including Non-Participating Class Members who qualify as Aggrieved Employees (including those for whom Class Notice was returned undelivered). Before mailing any checks, the Settlement Administrator must update the recipients' mailing addresses using the National Change of Address Database.

4.4.2. The Administrator must conduct a Class Member Address Search for all other Class Members whose checks are returned undelivered without USPS forwarding address. Within 7 days of receiving a returned check the Administrator must re-mail checks to the USPS forwarding address provided or to an address ascertained through the Class Member Address Search. 4.4.3. For any Class Member whose Individual Class Payment check or Individual PAGA Payment check is uncashed and cancelled after the void date, the Administrator shall transmit the funds represented by such checks to the California Controller's Unclaimed Property Fund in the name of the Class Member thereby leaving no "unpaid residue" subject to the requirements of California Code of Civil Procedure Section 384, subd. Except as set forth in Section 5.3 of this Agreement, Participating Class Members do not release any other claims, including claims for vested benefits, wrongful termination, violation of the Fair Employment and Housing Act, unemployment insurance, disability, social security, workers' compensation, or claims based on facts occurring outside the Class Period.

- 6.1 Defendant's Declaration in Support of Preliminary Approval. Within 15 days of the full execution of this Agreement, Defendant will prepare and deliver to Class Counsel a signed Declaration from Defendant and Defense Counsel disclosing all facts relevant to any actual or potential conflicts of interest with the Administrator. In their Declarations, Defense Counsel and Defendant shall aver that they are not aware of any other pending matter or action asserting claims that will be extinguished or adversely affected by the Settlement.
- 6.2 Plaintiff's Responsibilities. Plaintiff will prepare and deliver to Defense Counsel all documents necessary for obtaining Preliminary Approval, including: (i) a draft of the notice, and memorandum in support, of the Motion for Preliminary Approval that includes an analysis of the Settlement under Dunk/Kullar and a request for approval of the PAGA Settlement under Labor Code Section 2699, subd. Class Counsel is responsible for delivering the Court's Preliminary Approval to the Administrator.
- 6.4 Duty to Cooperate. If the Parties disagree on any aspect of the proposed Motion for Preliminary Approval and/or the supporting declarations and documents, Class Counsel and Defense Counsel will expeditiously work together on behalf of the Parties by meeting in person or by telephone, and in good faith, to resolve the disagreement. If the Court does not grant Preliminary Approval or conditions Preliminary Approval on any material change to this Agreement, Class Counsel and Defense Counsel will

7. SETTLEMENT ADMINISTRATION.

- 7.1 Selection of Administrator. The Parties have jointly selected Apex Class Action Administration to serve as the Administrator and verified that, as a condition of appointment, Apex Class Action Administration agrees to be bound by this Agreement and to perform, as a fiduciary, all duties specified in this Agreement in exchange for payment of Administration Expenses. The Parties and their Counsel represent that they have no interest or relationship, financial or otherwise, with the Administrator other than a professional relationship arising out of prior experiences administering settlements.
- 7.2 Employer Identification Number. The Administrator shall have and use its own Employer Identification Number for purposes of calculating payroll tax withholdings and providing reports state and federal tax authorities.

- 7.4.2 Using best efforts to perform as soon as possible, and in no event later than 14 days after receiving the Class Data, the Administrator will send to all Class Members identified in the Class Data, via first-class United States Postal Service ("USPS") mail, the Class Notice with Spanish translation, if applicable substantially in the form attached to this Agreement as Exhibit A. The first page of the Class Notice shall prominently estimate the dollar amounts of any Individual Class Payment and/or Individual PAGA Payment payable to the Class Member, and the number of Workweeks and PAGA Pay Periods (if applicable) used to calculate these amounts. Before mailing Class Notices, the Administrator shall update Class Member addresses using the National Change of Address database.
- 7.4.3 Not later than 3 business days after the Administrator's receipt of any Class Notice returned by the USPS as undelivered, the Administrator shall re-mail the Class Notice using any forwarding address provided by the USPS. If the USPS does not provide a forwarding address, the Administrator shall conduct a Class Member Address Search, and re-mail the Class Notice to the most current address obtained. The Administrator has no obligation to make further attempts to locate or send Class Notice to Class Members whose Class Notice is returned by the USPS a second time.

7.4.4 The deadlines for Class Members' written objections, Challenges to Workweeks and/or Pay Periods, and Requests for Exclusion will be extended an additional 14 days beyond the 60 days otherwise provided in the Class Notice for all Class Members whose notice is re-mailed. The Administrator will inform the Class Member of the extended deadline with the re-mailed Class Notice.

7.4.5 If the Administrator, Defendant or Class Counsel is contacted by or otherwise discovers any persons who believe they should have been included in the Class Data and should have received Class Notice, the Parties will expeditiously meet and confer in person or by telephone, and in good faith, in an effort to agree on whether to include them as Class Members. If the Parties agree, such persons will be Class Members entitled to the same rights as other Class Members, and the Administrator will send, via email or overnight delivery, a Class Notice requiring them to exercise options under this Agreement not later than 14 days after receipt of Class Notice, or the deadline dates in the Class Notice, whichever are later.

A Request for Exclusion is a letter from a Class Member or his/her representative that reasonably communicates the Class Member's election to be excluded from the Settlement and includes the Class Member's name, address and email address or telephone number. To be valid, a Request for Exclusion must be timely faxed, emailed, or postmarked by the Response Deadline.

7.5.2 The Administrator may not reject a Request for Exclusion as invalid because it fails to contain all the information specified in the Class Notice. The Administrator shall accept any Request for Exclusion as valid if the Administrator can reasonably ascertain the identity of the person as a Class Member and the Class Member's desire to be excluded. The Administrator's determination shall be final and not appealable or otherwise susceptible to challenge. If the Administrator has reason to question the authenticity of a Request for Exclusion, the Administrator may demand additional proof of the Class Member's identity. The Administrator's determination of authenticity shall be final and not appealable or otherwise susceptible to challenge.

entitled to all benefits and bound by all terms and conditions of the Settlement, including the Participating Class Members' Releases under Paragraphs 6.2 and 6.3 of this Agreement, regardless whether the Participating Class Member actually receives the Class Notice or objects to the Settlement.

7.5.4 Every Class Member who submits a valid and timely Request for Exclusion is a Non-Participating Class Member and shall not receive an Individual Class Payment or have the right to object to the class action components of the Settlement. Because future PAGA claims are subject to claim preclusion upon entry of the Judgment, Non-Participating Class Members who are Aggrieved Employees are deemed to release the claims identified in Paragraph 6.4 of this Agreement and are eligible for an Individual PAGA Payment.

7.6 Challenges to Calculation of Workweeks. Each Class Member shall have 60 days after the Administrator mails the Class Notice (plus an additional 14 days for Class Members whose Class Notice is re-mailed) to challenge the number of Class Workweeks and PAGA Pay Periods (if any) allocated to the Class Member in the Class Notice. The Class Member may challenge the allocation by communicating with the Administrator via fax, email or mail. The Administrator must encourage the challenging Class Member to submit supporting documentation. In the absence of any contrary documentation, the Administrator is entitled to presume that the Workweeks contained in the Class Notice are correct so long as they are consistent with the Class Data. The Administrator's determination of each Class Member's allocation of Workweeks and/or Pay Periods shall be final and not appealable or otherwise susceptible to challenge. The Administrator shall promptly provide copies of all challenges to calculation of Workweeks and/or Pay Periods to Defense Counsel and Class Counsel and the Administrator's determination the challenges.

7.7 Objections to Settlement.

7.7.1 Only Participating Class Members may object to the class action components of the Settlement and/or this Agreement, including contesting the fairness of the Settlement, and/or amounts requested for the Class Counsel Fees Payment, Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment and/or Class Representative Service Payment.

7.7.2 Participating Class Members may send written objections to the Administrator, by fax, email, or mail. In the alternative, Participating Class Members may appear in Court (or hire an attorney to appear in Court) to present verbal objections at the Final Approval Hearing. A Participating Class Member who elects to send a written objection to the Administrator must do so not later than 60 days after the Administrator's mailing of the Class Notice (plus an additional 14 days for Class Members whose Class Notice was re-mailed).

7.7.3 Non-Participating Class Members have no right to object to any of the class action components of the Settlement.

- 7.8 Administrator Duties. The Administrator has a duty to perform or observe all tasks to be performed or observed by the Administrator contained in this Agreement or otherwise.
- 7.8.1 Website, Email Address and Toll-Free Number. The Administrator will establish and maintain and use an internet website to post information of interest to Class Members including the date, time and location for the Final Approval Hearing and copies of the Settlement Agreement, Motion for Preliminary Approval, the Preliminary Approval, the Class Notice, the Motion for Final Approval, the Motion for Class Counsel Fees Payment, Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment and Class Representative Service Payment, the Final Approval and the Judgment. The Administrator will also maintain and monitor an email address and a toll-free telephone number to receive Class Member calls, faxes and emails.
- 7.8.2 Requests for Exclusion (Opt-outs) and Exclusion List. The Administrator will promptly review on a rolling basis Requests for Exclusion to ascertain their validity. Not later than 5 days after the expiration of the deadline for submitting Requests for Exclusion, the Administrator shall email a list to Class Counsel and Defense Counsel containing (a) the names and other identifying information of Class Members who have timely submitted valid Requests for Exclusion (“Exclusion List”); (b) the names and other identifying information of Class Members who have submitted invalid Requests for Exclusion; (c) copies of all Requests for Exclusion from Settlement submitted (whether valid or invalid).
- 7.8.3 Weekly Reports. The Administrator must, on a weekly basis, provide written reports to Class Counsel and Defense Counsel that, among other things, tally the number of: Class Notices mailed or re-mailed, Class Notices returned undelivered, Requests for Exclusion (whether valid or invalid) received, objections received, challenges to Workweeks and/or Pay Periods received and/or resolved, and checks mailed for Individual Class Payments and Individual PAGA Payments (“Weekly Report”). The Weekly Reports must include provide the Administrator’s assessment of the validity of Requests for Exclusion and attach copies of all Requests for Exclusion and objections received.
- 7.8.4 Workweek and/or Pay Period Challenges. The Administrator has the authority to address and make final decisions consistent with the terms of this Agreement on all Class Member challenges over the calculation of Workweeks and/or Pay Periods. The Administrator’s decision shall be final and not appealable or otherwise susceptible to challenge.
- 7.8.5 Administrator’s Declaration. Not later than 14 days before the date by which Plaintiff is required to file the Motion for Final Approval of the Settlement, the Administrator will provide to Class Counsel and Defense Counsel, a signed declaration suitable for filing in Court attesting to its due diligence and compliance with all of its obligations under this Agreement, including, but not limited to, its mailing of Class Notice, the Class Notices returned as undelivered, the re-mailing of Class Notices, attempts to locate Class Members, the total number of Requests for Exclusion from Settlement it received (both valid or invalid), the number of written objections and attach the Exclusion List. The Administrator will supplement its declaration as needed or requested by the Parties and/or the Court. Class Counsel is responsible for filing the Administrator's declaration(s) in Court.

7.8.6 Final Report by Settlement Administrator. Within 10 days after the Administrator disburses all funds in the Gross Settlement Amount, the Administrator will provide Class Counsel and Defense Counsel with a final report detailing its disbursements by employee identification number only of all payments made under this Agreement. At least 15 days before any deadline set by the Court, the Administrator will prepare, and submit to Class Counsel and Defense Counsel, a signed declaration suitable for filing in Court attesting to its disbursement of all payments required under this Agreement. Class Counsel is responsible for filing the Administrator's declaration in Court.

8. CLASS SIZE ESTIMATES and ESCALATOR CLAUSE Based on its records, Defendant estimates that, as of the date of this Settlement Agreement, (1) there are 80 Class Members and 1 Workweek during the Class period and (2) there were 80 Aggrieved Employees who worked 1 Pay Period during the PAGA Period.

8.1 Increase in Class Members. Upon receipt of the Class Data, in the event that the number of Class Members exceeds this estimate by more than 5%, the Administrator shall notify the Parties that of the number of Class Members. To the extent the number of Class Members in the Class Settlement Period increases by more than 5%, Defendant shall have the option to increase the Gross Settlement Amount by a proportionate amount. For example, if the number of Settlement Class Members increases by 6%, Defendant shall have the option to increase the Gross Settlement Amount by 1%. If Defendant elects not to increase the Gross Settlement Amount proportionately, Defendant shall notify Class Counsel of its decision in writing within ten (10) days of receiving the number of Class Members from the Administrator. Within ten (10) days of receipt of such written notice from Defendant, Plaintiff shall have the option to terminate this Settlement Agreement via written notice to Defense Counsel and the Parties will be restored to their positions prior to the Settlement and the Settlement shall be null and void.

9. DEFENDANT'S RIGHT TO WITHDRAW. If the number of valid Requests for Exclusion identified in the Exclusion List exceeds 10% of the total of all Class Members, Defendant may, but is not obligated, elect to withdraw from the Settlement. The Parties agree that, if Defendant withdraws, the Settlement shall be void ab initio, have no force or effect whatsoever, and that neither Party will have any further obligation to perform under this Agreement; provided, however, Defendant will remain responsible for paying all Settlement Administration Expenses incurred to that point. Defendant must notify Class Counsel and the Court of its election to withdraw not later than seven days after the Administrator sends the final Exclusion List to Defense Counsel; late elections will have no effect.

10. MOTION FOR FINAL APPROVAL. Not later than 16 court days before the calendared Final Approval Hearing, Plaintiff will file in Court, a motion for final approval of the Settlement that includes a request for approval of the PAGA settlement under Labor Code section 2699, subd. 10.3 Continuing Jurisdiction of the Court. The Parties agree that, after entry of Judgment, the Court will retain jurisdiction over the Parties, Action, and the Settlement solely for purposes of (i) enforcing this Agreement and/or Judgment, (ii) addressing settlement administration matters, and (iii) addressing such post-Judgment matters as are permitted by law.

The waiver of appeal does not include any waiver of the right to oppose such motions, writs or appeals. If an objector appeals the Judgment, the Parties’ obligations to perform under this Agreement will be suspended until such time as the appeal is finally resolved and the Judgment becomes final, except as to matters that do not affect the amount of the Net Settlement Amount.

10.5 Appellate Court Orders to Vacate, Reverse, or Materially Modify Judgment. If the reviewing Court vacates, reverses, or modifies the Judgment in a manner that requires a material modification of this Agreement (including, but not limited to, the scope of release to be granted by Class Members), this Agreement shall be null and void. The Parties shall nevertheless expeditiously work together in good faith to address the appellate court's concerns and to obtain Final Approval and entry of Judgment, sharing, on a 50-50 basis, any additional Administration Expenses reasonably incurred after remittitur. An appellate decision to vacate, reverse, or modify the Court's award of the Class Representative Service Payment or any payments to Class Counsel shall not constitute a material modification of the Judgment within the meaning of this paragraph, as long as the Gross Settlement Amount remains unchanged.

The Parties agree that class certification and representative treatment is for purposes of this Settlement only. If, for any reason the Court does grant Preliminary Approval, Final Approval or enter Judgment, Defendant reserves the right to contest certification of any class for any reasons, and Defendant reserves all available defenses to the claims in the Action, and Plaintiff reserves the right to move for class certification on any grounds available and to contest Defendant's defenses. The Settlement, this Agreement and Parties' willingness to settle the Action will have no bearing on, and will not be admissible in connection with, any litigation (except for proceedings to enforce or effectuate the Settlement and this Agreement).

Class Counsel and Defense Counsel separately warrant and represent that they are authorized by Plaintiff and Defendant, respectively, to take all appropriate action required or permitted to be taken by such Parties pursuant to this Agreement to effectuate its terms, and to execute any other documents reasonably required to effectuate the terms of this Agreement including any amendments to this Agreement.
- 12.6 Cooperation. The Parties and their counsel will cooperate with each other and use their best efforts, in good faith, to implement the Settlement by, among other things, modifying the Settlement Agreement, submitting supplemental evidence and supplementing points and authorities as requested by the Court. In the event the Parties are unable to agree upon the form or content of any document necessary to implement the Settlement, or on any modification of the Agreement that may become necessary to implement the Settlement, the Parties will seek the assistance of a mediator and/or the Court for resolution.
- 12.7 No Prior Assignments. The Parties separately represent and warrant that they have not directly or indirectly assigned, transferred, encumbered, or purported to assign, transfer, or encumber to any person or entity and portion of any liability, claim, demand, action, cause of action, or right released and discharged by the Party in this Settlement.

COURT APPROVED NOTICE OF CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT AND HEARING DATE FOR FINAL COURT APPROVAL

FARZAD AZIMA, individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated, PLAINTIFF v. BIG HIT ENTERTAINMENT CO., LTD., a corporation; FREENJOY, INC., a corporation; and DOES 1 thru 50, inclusive, DEFENDANTS, Los Angeles County Superior Court Case No. 20STCV43656

The Superior Court for the State of California authorized this Notice. Read it carefully!
It's not junk mail, spam, an advertisement, or solicitation by a lawyer. You are not being sued.

You may be eligible to receive money from an employee class action lawsuit (“Action”) against Freenjoy, Inc. (“Defendant” or “Freenjoy”) for alleged wage and hour violations. The Action was filed by a former Freenjoy employee Farzad Azima (“Plaintiff”) and seeks payment of (1) back wages and other relief for a class of non-exempt employees (“Class Members”) who worked for Freenjoy during the Class Period (XX through XX); and (2) penalties under the California Private Attorney General Act (“PAGA”) for all non-exempt employees who worked for Freenjoy during the PAGA Period (XX, through XX (“Aggrieved Employees”).

The proposed Settlement has two main parts: (1) a Class Settlement requiring Defendant to fund Individual Class Payments, and (2) a PAGA Settlement requiring Defendant to fund Individual PAGA Payments and pay penalties to the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”).

Based on Defendant’s records, and the Parties’ current assumptions, your Individual Class Payment is estimated to be $ [REDACTED] (less withholding) and your Individual PAGA Payment is estimated to be $ [REDACTED]. The actual amount you may receive likely will be different and will depend on a number of factors. (If no amount is stated for your Individual PAGA Payment, then according to Defendant’s records you are not eligible for an Individual PAGA Payment under the Settlement because you didn’t work during the PAGA Period.)

The above estimates are based on Defendant’s records showing that you worked [REDACTED] workweeks during the Class Period and you worked [REDACTED] workweeks during the PAGA Period. If you believe that you worked more workweeks during either period, you can submit a challenge by the deadline date. See Section 4 of this Notice.

The Court has already preliminarily approved the proposed Settlement and approved this Notice. The Court has not yet decided whether to grant final approval. Your legal rights are affected whether you act or not act. Read this Notice carefully. You will be deemed to have carefully read and understood it. At the Final Approval Hearing, the Court will decide whether to finally approve the Settlement and how much of the Settlement will be paid to Plaintiff and Plaintiff’s attorneys (“Class Counsel”). The Court will also decide whether to enter a judgment that requires Defendant to make payments under the Settlement and requires Class Members and Aggrieved Employees to give up their rights to assert certain claims against Defendant.

If you worked for Defendant during the Class Period and/or the PAGA Period, you have two basic options under the Settlement:

(1) Do Nothing. You don't have to do anything to participate in the proposed Settlement and be eligible for an Individual Class Payment and/or an Individual PAGA Payment. As a Participating Class Member, though, you will give up your right to assert Class Period wage claims and PAGA Period penalty claims against Defendant.

(2) Opt-Out of the Class Settlement. You can exclude yourself from the Class Settlement (opt-out) by submitting the written Request for Exclusion or otherwise notifying the Administrator in writing. If you opt-out of the Settlement, you will not receive an Individual Class Payment. You will, however, preserve your right to personally pursue Class Period wage claims against Defendant, and, if you are an Aggrieved Employee, remain eligible for an Individual PAGA Payment. You cannot opt-out of the PAGA portion of the proposed Settlement.

Freenjoy will not retaliate against you for any actions you take with respect to the proposed Settlement.

SUMMARY OF YOUR LEGAL RIGHTS AND OPTIONS IN THIS SETTLEMENT

You Don't Have to Do Anything to Participate in the Settlement	If you do nothing, you will be a Participating Class Member, eligible for an Individual Class Payment and an Individual PAGA Payment (if any). In exchange, you will give up your right to assert the wage claims against Defendant that are covered by this Settlement (Released Claims).
You Can Opt-out of the Class Settlement but not the PAGA Settlement The Opt-out Deadline is [date]	If you don't want to fully participate in the proposed Settlement, you can opt-out of the Class Settlement by sending the Administrator a written Request for Exclusion. Once excluded, you will be a Non-Participating Class Member and no longer eligible for an Individual Class Payment. Non-Participating Class Members cannot object to any portion of the proposed Settlement. See Section 6 of this Notice. You cannot opt-out of the PAGA portion of the proposed Settlement. Defendant must pay Individual PAGA Payments to all Aggrieved Employees and the Aggrieved Employees must give up their rights to pursue Released Claims (defined below).
Participating Class Members Can Object to the Class Settlement but not the PAGA Settlement Written Objections Must be Submitted by [date]	All Class Members who do not opt-out ("Participating Class Members") can object to any aspect of the proposed Settlement. The Court's decision whether to finally approve the Settlement will include a determination of how much will be paid to Class Counsel and Plaintiff who pursued the Action on behalf of the Class. You are not personally responsible for any payments to Class Counsel or Plaintiff, but every dollar paid to Class Counsel and Plaintiff reduces the overall amount paid to Participating Class Members. You can object to the amounts requested by Class Counsel or Plaintiff if you think they are unreasonable. See Section 7 of this Notice.

You Can Participate in the [date] Final Approval Hearing	The Court's Final Approval Hearing is scheduled to take place on [date]. You don't have to attend but you do have the right to appear (or hire an attorney to appear on your behalf at your own cost), in person, by telephone or by using the Court's virtual appearance platform. Participating Class Members can verbally object to the Settlement at the Final Approval Hearing. See Section 8 of this Notice.
You Can Challenge the Calculation of Your Workweeks/Pay Periods Written Challenges Must be Submitted by [date]	The amount of your Individual Class Payment and PAGA Payment (if any) depend on how many workweeks you worked at least one day during the Class Period and how many Pay Periods you worked at least one day during the PAGA Period, respectively. The number Class Period Workweeks and number of PAGA Period Pay Periods you worked according to Defendant's records is stated on the first page of this Notice. If you disagree with either of these numbers, you must challenge it by [date]. See Section 4 of this Notice.

1. WHAT IS THE ACTION ABOUT?

Plaintiff is a former Freenjoy employee. The Action accuses United Autoof violating California labor laws by failing to pay overtime wages, wages due upon termination and failing to provide meal periods, rest breaks and accurate itemized wage statements. Based on the same claims, Plaintiff has also asserted a claim for civil penalties under the California Private Attorneys General Act (Labor Code §§ 2698, et seq.) ("PAGA"). Plaintiff is represented by attorneys in the Action: Eric B. Kingsley, Jessica Adlouni for Kingsley Szamet Employment Lawyers; Liane Katzenstein Ly for Liane Ly Law; Frank H. Kim for Kim Legal, APC; and Helen U. Kim for Helen Kim Law, APC "Class Counsel.")

Defendant strongly denies violating any laws or failing to pay any wages and contends it complied with all applicable laws.

2. WHAT DOES IT MEAN THAT THE ACTION HAS SETTLED?

So far, the Court has made no determination whether Defendant or Plaintiff is correct on the merits. In the meantime, Plaintiff and Defendant hired an experienced, neutral mediator in an effort to resolve the Action by negotiating an to end the case by agreement (settle the case) rather than continuing the expensive and time-consuming process of litigation. The negotiations were successful. By signing a lengthy written settlement agreement ("Agreement") and agreeing to jointly ask the Court to enter a judgment ending the Action and enforcing the Agreement, Plaintiff and Defendant have negotiated a proposed Settlement that is subject to the Court's Final Approval. Both sides agree the proposed Settlement is a compromise of disputed claims. By agreeing to settle, Defendant does not admit any violations or concede the merit of any claims.

Plaintiff and Class Counsel strongly believe the Settlement is a good deal for you because they believe that: (1) Defendant has agreed to pay a fair, reasonable and adequate amount considering the strength of the claims and the risks and uncertainties of continued litigation; and (2) Settlement is in the best interests of the Class Members and Aggrieved Employees. The Court preliminarily approved the proposed Settlement as fair, reasonable and adequate, authorized this Notice, and scheduled a hearing to determine Final Approval.

3. WHAT ARE THE IMPORTANT TERMS OF THE PROPOSED SETTLEMENT?

1. Defendant Will Pay $550,000.00 as the Gross Settlement Amount (Gross Settlement). Defendant has agreed to deposit the Gross Settlement into an account controlled by the Administrator of the Settlement. The Administrator will use the Gross Settlement to pay the Individual Class Payments, Individual PAGA Payments, Class Representative Service Payment, Class Counsel's attorney's fees and expenses, the Administrator's expenses, and penalties to be paid to the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency ("LWDA"). Assuming the Court grants Final Approval, Defendant will fund the Gross Settlement not more than 14 days after the Judgment entered by the Court become final. The Judgment will be final on the date the Court enters Judgment, or a later date if Participating Class Members object to the proposed Settlement or the Judgment is appealed.
2. Court Approved Deductions from Gross Settlement. At the Final Approval Hearing, Plaintiff and/or Class Counsel will ask the Court to approve the following deductions from the Gross Settlement, the amounts of which will be decided by the Court at the Final Approval Hearing:
 - A. Up to $192,500.00 (35% of the Gross Settlement to Class Counsel for attorneys' fees and up to $[amount] for their litigation expenses. To date, Class Counsel have worked and incurred expenses on the Action without payment.
 - B. Up to $5,000.00 as a Class Representative Award for filing the Action, working with Class Counsel and representing the Class. A Class Representative Award will be the only monies Plaintiff will receive other than Plaintiff's Individual Class Payment and any Individual PAGA Payment.
 - C. Up to $4,500.00 to the Administrator for services administering the Settlement.
 - D. Up to $15,000.00 for PAGA Penalties, allocated 75% to the LWDA PAGA Payment and 25% in Individual PAGA Payments to the Aggrieved Employees based on their PAGA Period Pay Periods.

Participating Class Members have the right to object to any of these deductions. The Court will consider all objections.

3. Net Settlement Distributed to Class Members. After making the above deductions in amounts approved by the Court, the Administrator will distribute the rest of the Gross Settlement (the “Net Settlement”) by making Individual Class Payments to Participating Class Members based on their Class Period Workweeks.

4. Taxes Owed on Payments to Class Members. Plaintiff and Defendant are asking the Court to approve an allocation of 20% of each Individual Class Payment to taxable wages (“Wage Portion”) and 80% to interest, etc. (“Non-Wage Portion.”). The Wage Portion is subject to withholdings and will be reported on IRS W-2 Forms. Defendant will separately pay employer payroll taxes it owes on the Wage Portion. The Individual PAGA Payments are counted as penalties rather than wages for tax purposes. The Administrator will report the Individual PAGA Payments and the Non-Wage Portions of the Individual Class Payments on IRS 1099 Forms.

Although Plaintiff and Defendant have agreed to these allocations, neither side is giving you any advice on whether your Payments are taxable or how much you might owe in taxes. You are responsible for paying all taxes (including penalties and interest on back taxes) on any Payments received from the proposed Settlement. You should consult a tax advisor if you have any questions about the tax consequences of the proposed Settlement.

5. Need to Promptly Cash Payment Checks. The front of every check issued for Individual Class Payments and Individual PAGA Payments will show the date when the check expires (the void date). If you don’t cash it by the void date, your check will be automatically cancelled, and the monies will be deposited with the California Controller's Unclaimed Property Fund in your name. If the monies represented by your check is sent to the Controller’s Unclaimed Property, you should consult the rules of the Fund for instructions on how to retrieve your money.
6. Requests for Exclusion from the Class Settlement (Opt-Outs). You will be treated as a Participating Class Member, participating fully in the Class Settlement, unless you notify the Administrator in writing, not later than [date], that you wish to opt-out. The easiest way to notify the Administrator is to send a written and signed Request for Exclusion by the [date] Response Deadline. The Request for Exclusion should be a letter from a Class Member or his/her representative setting forth a Class Member’s name, present address, telephone number, and a simple statement electing to be excluded from the Settlement. Excluded Class Members (i.e., Non-Participating Class Members) will not receive Individual Class Payments, but will preserve their rights to personally pursue wage and hour claims against Defendant.

You cannot opt-out of the PAGA portion of the Settlement. Class Members who exclude themselves from the Class Settlement (Non-Participating Class Members) remain eligible for Individual PAGA Payments and are required to give up their right to assert PAGA claims against Defendant based on the PAGA Period facts alleged in the Action.

7. The Proposed Settlement Will be Void if the Court Denies Final Approval. It is possible the Court will decline to grant Final Approval of the Settlement or decline enter a Judgment. It is also possible the Court will enter a Judgment that is reversed on appeal. Plaintiffs and Defendant have agreed that, in either case, the Settlement will be void:

Defendant will not pay any money and Class Members will not release any claims against Defendant.

8. Administrator. The Court has appointed a neutral company, [name] (the “Administrator”) to send this Notice, calculate and make payments, and process Class Members’ Requests for Exclusion. The Administrator will also decide Class Member Challenges over Workweeks, mail and re-mail settlement checks and tax forms, and perform other tasks necessary to administer the Settlement. The Administrator’s contact information is contained in Section 9 of this Notice.
9. Participating Class Members’ Release. After the Judgment is final and Defendant has fully funded the Gross Settlement and separately paid all employer payroll taxes, Participating Class Members will be legally barred from asserting any of the claims released under the Settlement. This means that unless you opted out by validly excluding yourself from the Class Settlement, you cannot sue, continue to sue, or be part of any other lawsuit against Defendant or related entities for wages based on the Class Period facts and PAGA penalties based on PAGA Period facts, as alleged in the Action and resolved by this Settlement.

The Participating Class Members will be bound by the following release:

All Participating Class Members, on behalf of themselves and their respective former and present representatives, agents, attorneys, heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns, release Released Parties from (i) all claims that were alleged, or reasonably could have been alleged, based on the Class Period facts stated in the Operative Complaint and ascertained in the course of the Action, including, 1) Failure to Provide Meal Breaks; 2) Failure to Provide Rest Breaks; 3) Failure to Pay Overtime Wages; 4) Waiting Time Penalties; 5) Failure to Provide Itemized Wage Statements. Except as set forth in Section 5.3 of this Agreement, Participating Class Members do not release any other claims, including claims for vested benefits, wrongful termination, violation of the Fair Employment and Housing Act, unemployment insurance, disability, social security, workers’ compensation, or claims based on facts occurring outside the Class Period.

10. Aggrieved Employees’ PAGA Release. After the Court’s judgment is final, and Defendant has paid the Gross Settlement (and separately paid the employer-side payroll taxes), all Aggrieved Employees will be barred from asserting PAGA claims against Defendant, whether or not they exclude themselves from the Settlement. This means that all Aggrieved Employees, including those who are Participating Class Members and those who opt-out of the Class Settlement, cannot sue, continue to sue, or participate in any other PAGA claim against Defendant or its related entities based on the PAGA Period facts alleged in the Action and resolved by this Settlement.

The Aggrieved Employees’ Releases for Participating and Non-Participating Class Members are as follows:

All Non-Participating Class Members who are Aggrieved Employees are deemed to release, on behalf of themselves and their respective former and present representatives, agents, attorneys, heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns, the Released Parties from all claims for PAGA penalties that were alleged, or reasonably could have been alleged, based on the PAGA Period facts stated in the Operative Complaint, Plaintiff's November 24, 2020 PAGA Letter, and ascertained in the course of the Action, including, 1) Failure to Provide Meal Breaks; 2) Failure to Provide Rest Breaks; 3) Failure to Pay Overtime Wages; 4) Waiting Time Penalties; 5) Failure to Provide Itemized Wage Statements.

4. HOW WILL THE ADMINISTRATOR CALCULATE MY PAYMENT?

1. Individual Class Payments. The Administrator will calculate Individual Class Payments by (a) dividing the Net Settlement Amount by the total number of Workweeks worked by all Participating Class Members, and (b) multiplying the result by the number of Workweeks worked by each individual Participating Class Member.
2. Individual PAGA Payments. The Administrator will calculate Individual PAGA Payments by (a) dividing $6,875.00 by the total number of PAGA Pay Periods worked by all Aggrieved Employees and (b) multiplying the result by the number of PAGA Period Pay Periods worked by each individual Aggrieved Employee.
3. Workweek/Pay Period Challenges. The number of Class Workweeks you worked during the Class Period and the number of PAGA Pay Periods you worked during the PAGA Period, as recorded in Defendant's records, are stated in the first page of this Notice. You have until [date] to challenge the number of Workweeks and/or Pay Periods credited to you. You can submit your challenge by signing and sending a letter to the Administrator via mail, email or fax. Section 9 of this Notice has the Administrator's contact information.

You need to support your challenge by sending copies of pay stubs or other records. The Administrator will accept Defendant's calculation of Workweeks and/or Pay Periods based on Defendant's records as accurate unless you send copies of records containing contrary information. You should send copies rather than originals because the documents will not be returned to you. The Administrator will resolve Workweek and/or Pay Period challenges based on your submission and on input from Class Counsel (who will advocate on behalf of Participating Class Members) and Defendant's Counsel. The Administrator's decision is final. You can't appeal or otherwise challenge its final decision.

5. HOW WILL I GET PAID?

1. Participating Class Members. The Administrator will send, by U.S. mail, a single check to every Participating Class Member (i.e., every Class Member who doesn't opt-out) including those who also qualify as Aggrieved Employees. The single check will combine the Individual Class Payment and the Individual PAGA Payment.

2. Non-Participating Class Members. The Administrator will send, by U.S. mail, a single Individual PAGA Payment check to every Aggrieved Employee who opts out of the Class Settlement (i.e., every Non-Participating Class Member).

Your check will be sent to the same address as this Notice. If you change your address, be sure to notify the Administrator as soon as possible. Section 9 of this Notice has the Administrator's contact information.

6. HOW DO I OPT-OUT OF THE CLASS SETTLEMENT?

Submit a written and signed letter with your name, present address, telephone number, and a simple statement that you do not want to participate in the Settlement. The Administrator will exclude you based on any writing communicating your request be excluded. Be sure to personally sign your request, identify the Action as Farzad Azima v. Freenjoy, Inc. and include your identifying information (full name, address, telephone number, approximate dates of employment, and social security number for verification purposes). You must make the request yourself. If someone else makes the request for you, it will not be valid. The Administrator must be sent your request to be excluded by [date], or it will be invalid. Section 9 of the Notice has the Administrator's contact information.

7. HOW DO I OBJECT TO THE SETTLEMENT?

Only Participating Class Members have the right to object to the Settlement. Before deciding whether to object, you may wish to see what Plaintiff and Defendant are asking the Court to approve. At least 15 days before the [date] Final Approval Hearing, Class Counsel and/or Plaintiff will file in Court (1) a Motion for Final Approval that includes, among other things, the reasons why the proposed Settlement is fair, and (2) a Motion for Fees, Litigation Expenses and Service Award stating (i) the amount Class Counsel is requesting for attorneys' fees and litigation expenses; and (ii) the amount Plaintiff is requesting as a Class Representative Service Award. Upon reasonable request, Class Counsel (whose contact information is in Section 9 of this Notice) will send you copies of these documents at no cost to you. You can also view them on the Administrator's Website [need details] or the Court's website [need details].

A Participating Class Member who disagrees with any aspect of the Agreement, the Motion for Final Approval and/or Motion for Fees, Litigation Expenses and Service Award may wish to object, for example, that the proposed Settlement is unfair, or that the amounts requested by Class Counsel or Plaintiff are too high or too low. The deadline for sending written objections to the Administrator is [date]. Be sure to tell the Administrator what you object to, why you object, and any facts that support your objection. Make sure you identify the Action (Farzad Azima v. Freenjoy, Inc.) and include your name, current address, telephone number, and approximate dates of employment for Defendant and sign the objection. You (or your attorney) should be ready to tell the Court what you object to, why you object, and any facts that support your objection.
