1. I am an attorney licensed to practice before all of the courts of the State of California. I am partner in the law firm of KINGSLEY SZAMET EMPLOYMENT LAWYERS and one of the attorneys of record for Plaintiff Farzad Azima in the above-entitled action. I have personal knowledge of the facts set forth herein, and if called upon as a witness, I could and would testify competently thereto.

3. I graduated from the University of California, Santa Barbara, in 1993 with a degree in History. I graduated from Loyola Law School of Los Angeles in 1996. I am admitted to practice before the following Courts: United States Supreme Court; United States District Court, Northern, Eastern, Southern and Central of California; all California State Courts.

LITIGATION BACKGROUND

6. On November 16, 2020, Plaintiff filed a class action complaint against Defendants Big Hit Entertainment Co., Ltd. and Freenjoy alleging a variety of wage and hour claims, and on June 14, 2021, Plaintiff filed a First Amended Complaint adding an additional cause of action for penalties pursuant to Labor Code § 2699, et seq., the Private Attorneys General Act (“PAGA”) based on the underlying Labor Code violations already pled.

7. The operative complaint is the Second Amended Complaint (“SAC”) filed on December 7, 2021 against Defendants for 1) Failure to Provide Meal Breaks; 2) Failure to Provide Rest Breaks; 3) Failure to Pay Overtime Wages; 4) Waiting Time Penalties; 5) Failure to Provide Itemized Wage Statements; 6) Violation of the Private Attorneys General Act of 2014 (“PAGA”); and 7) Unlawful and Unfair Business Practices. On November 24, 2020, Plaintiff sent a notice letter to the Labor Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) regarding his intent to seek civil penalties for the same Labor Code violations above, under Labor Code section 2699, et seq. Plaintiff dismissed Defendant Big Hit Entertainment Co., Ltd. on October 5, 2022.

THE DISCOVERY PROCESS

8. The Parties engaged in extensive formal discovery in this Action before attending mediation. Starting on June 26, 2021, Plaintiff served multiple rounds of discovery, specifically Requests for Production of Documents and Special Interrogatories, to Defendant. Defendant also produced pay records for mediation purposes.

9. On November 9, 2023, the Parties attended private mediation with Hon. Carl J. West (Ret.), but the Parties ultimately could not come to an agreement to settle the Action. On October 11, 2023, Defendant produced its tax returns, which Plaintiff's Counsel thoroughly analyzed.

10. After continuous meet and confer efforts, the Parties decided to attend a second private mediation with Hon. Carl J. West (Ret.) on March 12, 2025, which led to the Agreement to settle the Action.

11. Defendant denies any liability or wrongdoing of any kind associated with the claims alleged in the Action, disputes the damages and penalties claimed by Plaintiff, and further contends that, for any purpose other than settlement, Plaintiff's claims are not appropriate for class or representative action treatment. Defendant contends, among other things that, at all times, it has complied with the California Labor Code, and the Industrial Wage Commission Orders.

12. Based on their own independent investigation and evaluation, Class Counsel is of the opinion that the Agreement with Defendant is fair, reasonable and adequate, and in the best interest of the settlement class in light of all known facts and circumstances, including the risk of

1 significant delay, defenses asserted by Defendant, uncertainties regarding a class and 2 representative action trial on the merits, and numerous potential appellate issues. Although 3 Defendant denies any liability, Defendant is agreeing to this Agreement solely to avoid the cost of 4 litigation. Accordingly, the Parties and their counsel desire to fully, finally, and forever settle,
5 compromise and discharge all disputes and claims arising from or relating to the Action on the 6 terms set forth here.

7 13. On October 1, 2025 the Court issued an Order preliminarily approving the 8 settlement in this case, approving the proposed Class Notice, ordering that the Administrator send 9 notice to the Class, and setting a date for the Final Approval and Fairness Hearing.

10 SETTLEMENT

11 14. For purposes of settlement, the Class is defined as:
12 “all current and former non-exempt employees of Freenjoy, Inc. in 13 California who worked on the “On” by BTS music video production
14 and were compensated by Freenjoy. Inc. based on a guaranteed amount for 10 or 12 hours of work per day from February 3, 2020
to February 6, 2020. (the "Class").”

15 15. The Class Period is February 3, 2020, until February 6, 2020.

16 16. Based on documents and other information produced by Defendant, there are 17 approximately 80 Aggrieved Employees who collectively worked a total of 80 PAGA Pay Periods.

18 17. For purposes of settlement, the Aggrieved Employees are defined as:
19 “all current and former non-exempt employees of Freenjoy, Inc. in 20 California who worked on the “On” by BTS music video production and were compensated by Freenjoy. Inc. based on a guaranteed
amount for 10 or 12 hours of work per day from February 3, 2020
to February 6, 2020.”

21 18. The PAGA Period is February 3, 2020 to February 6, 2020.

22 19. Based on documents and other information produced by Defendant, there are 23 approximately 80 Aggrieved Employees who collectively worked a total of 80 PAGA Pay Periods.

24 20. As detailed fully in the Agreement, the Settlement provides for Defendant to pay a 25 Gross Settlement Amount of $550,000.00, which includes the sum of the Individual Class 26 Payments, the Class Representative service award, the Class Counsel Award, PAGA Payment, and 27 the Settlement Administration Costs.

1 CLASS NOTICE

2 21. The Court approved the proposed Class Notice, and directed the mailing of the 3 Notice by first-class mail to Settlement Class Members in accordance with the proposed
4 implementation schedule

5 CLASS COUNSEL'S KULLAR ANALYSIS

6 22. All settlement discussions were made by experienced and informed counsel, who 7 believe that this settlement represents a favorable resolution for the Settlement Class Members.

8 23. The settlement negotiations have been, at all times, adversarial and non-collusive,
9 with the aid of a mediator, and no self-dealing or other type of misconduct by either side has taken 10 place.

11 24. The Parties engaged in formal and informal discovery that permitted Class Counsel 12 to fairly evaluate the strength of the case and the risks associated with ongoing litigation.

13 25. In addition, Defendant produced additional data and documents informally for 14 purposes of settlement. This included Plaintiff's personnel file and pay statements time and pay 15 data, and wage statements issued to Settlement Class Members.

16 26. Receipt of appropriate discovery allowed Class Counsel to fairly evaluate the 17 exposure and risks associated with each claim alleged in the lawsuit.

18 27. Class Counsel have significant experience in cases of this type, including several 19 years prosecuting wage, hour, and working condition violations.

20 28. Class Counsel believes that the settlement is fair, reasonable, adequate, and in the 21 best interests of the class and that the average recovery for each Settlement Class Member of 22 $3,679.01 is substantial, given the risks inherent in litigation and the defenses asserted.

23 29. The proposed settlement satisfies each of these factors.

24 30. The discovery permitted Class Counsel to fairly evaluate the strength of the case
25 and the risks associated with ongoing litigation.

26 31. Class Counsel is experienced in handling wage and hour class actions and, after 27 weighing all of the following factors, supports this Agreement.

28 ///

The Risks Associated with the Wages/Overtime Claim

32. Plaintiff maintains that Defendant subjected Plaintiff and the Proposed Class to an unlawful Belo contract. Plaintiff contends that the base hourly rate of pay for Plaintiff and the Proposed Class was incorrectly calculated because Defendant paid a fixed daily salary. Plaintiff alleges that Defendant failed to blend nondiscretionary bonuses into the regular rate of pay.

33. Plaintiff specifically contends that Defendant's compensation structure of $225 for up to 10 hours of work, including overtime, is an unlawful agreement.

34. Defendant also admitted to paying Plaintiff a rate of $225 per day for up to 10 hours of work. Defendant also guaranteed a minimum of $225 per day. (Id.) Plaintiff contends that Defendant's compensation structure of $225 includes payment for 8 regular nonovertime hours and 2 overtime hours.

35. However, Defendant argued that the $225 is broken down into 8 hours at $20.4545 per hour, and 2 hours of overtime at $30.6818 per hour. While Plaintiff contends that this is Defendant's attempt to end-run around overtime laws and "back in the regular rate" (given the odd hourly rates to four decimal places), Plaintiff must acknowledge the risk that this calculation does result in an overtime rate that equals 1.5 times the base rate and as such, would adequately compensate Plaintiff and the Proposed Class for exactly 10 hours of work.

36. Plaintiff maintains that Defendant paid Plaintiff based on a fixed salary of $225 per day for work performed on February 3 and 6, 2020 on the Music Video. Plaintiff contends that it makes no difference under the Labor Code and Wage Orders that the salary was earned daily, paid out at the end of a pay period consisting of two worked days, which was the duration of Plaintiff's employment. Plaintiff maintains that the amount of $225 was fixed; Defendant paid overtime when Plaintiff worked over ten hours. Plaintiff asserts this is in line with a fixed salary, except additional compensation beyond the fixed salary must be paid for all overtime hours after eight hours of work. (Lab. Code, § 515(d)(2).) Plaintiff earned a fixed salary each day he worked, i.e. a daily salary, for the duration of his employment. Importantly, the Court denied Defendant's MSJ, holding that Plaintiff was paid a daily salary. This is applicable to all putative class members paid a daily rate, i.e. a daily salary, such that this issue is appropriate for class certification. Accordingly,

1 Plaintiff contends that Labor Code section 515(d)(2) applies to Plaintiff and the Class members,
2 further contends that the base hourly rate of pay should have been $28.125, not $20.45, and any
3 additional hours of work beyond 8 hours must be paid according to the overtime requirements of 4 Wage Order 12-2001.

5 37. Plaintiff contends that his hourly rate of pay is determined by taking the salary,
6 $225, divided by the number of non-overtime hours, 8. This equals an hourly rate of $28.125. Any 7 additional hours of work beyond 8 hours must be paid according to the overtime requirements of 8 Wage Order 12-2001. That is, the overtime rate (1.5x) for the 9th and 10th hour of work is 9 $42.1875, and the double time rate (2x) for the 11th hour and on is $56.25. Plaintiff maintains that 10 Defendant failed to pay Plaintiff at the appropriate rates of pay when it paid Plaintiff at an hourly 11 rate of $20.4545. Pursuant to Labor Code section 515(d)(2), Plaintiff contends that Defendant has 12 failed to compensate Plaintiff a) at the appropriate rates of pay; and b) for overtime hours worked 13 (since $225 only covers nonovertime hours).

14 38. However, Defendant argued that it did not pay a salary since Plaintiff and the 15 Proposed Class did not “regularly receive” this salary, given that they were only employed for a 16 four-day music video shoot.

17 39. As explained above, Defendant vigorously argued that it correctly paid overtime 18 under its own calculations of $20.4545 per hour for 8 regular hours, and 2 hours of overtime at 19 $30.6818 per hour. Furthermore, Defendant was adamant that at trial, the factfinder would disagree
20 that Plaintiff and the Proposed Class were paid on a regular, “salary basis” given that the relevant 21 time period where is a single workweek. While Plaintiff disagrees that Defendant’s argument is 22 legally correct or persuasive, Plaintiff must also acknowledge that for settlement purposes, the 23 damages resulting from this claim is limited to a relatively short time period.

24 40. Failure to Blend Nondiscretionary Bonuses. Plaintiff maintains that Defendant 25 consistently failed to blend the non-discretionary flat sum bonuses into the regular rate of pay for 26 purposes of overtime.

27 41. Plaintiff maintains that he and Class members earned three flat sum bonuses – two 28 smoke bumps at $20 each and 1 stunt bump at $75 – for performing with certain conditions on set

1 (standing on rocks and smoky conditions).

2 42. In response, Defendant maintained that it was not required to include these bumps
3 because they are considered “talent fees,” and were properly excluded from the regular rate
4 calculation.

5 The Risks Associated with the Meal and Rest Break Claims

6 43. Plaintiff contends that Defendant does not have any meal or rest break policies
7 applicable to “extras” during the shooting of the Music Video.

8 44. There is no policy to communicate information about breaks to “extras”, failing to 9 authorize lawful breaks.

10 45. Plaintiff and Class members were not free to come and go as they pleased during 11 purported breaks.

12 46. Plaintiff maintains that he and Class members were constrained to the premises of 13 the shoot during the workdays and would have had to ask Defendant if they wanted to leave the 14 holding area. Specifically, on Day 4, Plaintiff asserts that it was an important filming day and they 15 had to move quickly, so the meal break was on set rather than base, and at any moment they could 16 have been called to shoot.

17 47. Additionally, Plaintiff maintains that, on Day 1, Defendant was rushing Plaintiff
18 and the Proposed Class to leave as soon as possible once filming was finished for the day. On Day
19 1, Plaintiff contends that he did not complete all work, including returning wardrobe, retrieving 20 his phone, and making it back to the parking lot, until after 12:00 p.m.

21 48. Plaintiff maintains that he would have been entitled to a meal break premium had 22 the payroll record reflected his actual end time. While one version of his payroll record states that 23 he ended at 12:00 p.m., another states that he worked ten hours with a proper meal period.

24 49. There are a couple risks on the meal and rest period claims that Plaintiff needed to 25 factor when evaluating this settlement.

26 50. The main risk is that Defendant did pay meal premiums on Day 4 to Plaintiff and 27 other employees, which Defendant would argue that it did properly pay any and all meal premiums
28 to the Proposed Class. Although Plaintiff does not agree with this, even if such practices or policies

1 were credited, there remains a risk because, under Ferra, any missed or improperly provided meal
2 periods require payment of an additional hour at the employee's regular rate, including the value
3 of nondiscretionary earnings such as flat sum bonuses. However, the ultimate liability could vary
4 depending on how the Court would evaluate the implementation of meal breaks and calculates
5 premium pay.

6 51. This presented a risk on the meal period claim that Plaintiff considered when 7 evaluating this settlement.

8 52. Further, Plaintiff must acknowledge the rest claim poses serious risks as to 9 establishing liability because there are no time records to evaluate the rest period claim at all.
10 Plaintiff would have to rely on testimonial evidence and just as with meal periods, there is risk as 11 to both sides as to what declarations and depositions of class members might reveal.

12 The Risks Associated with the Wage Statement Claim

13 53. Plaintiff maintains that Defendant failed to issue accurate, itemized wage
14 statements to Plaintiff by failing to accurately list hours worked, applicable rates of pay, premium
15 pay earned for unlawful meal and rest breaks, and thereby affecting the accuracy of gross and net 16 wages earned. These inaccuracies stem from Defendant's violations recounted above. Plaintiff also 17 contends that Defendant listed 10 hours for Plaintiff on February 3, 2020, which Defendant claims
18 Plaintiff did not work. Defendant should have listed the $225 salary separately instead of depicting 19 purportedly inaccurate hours.

20 54. Plaintiff maintains that the information provided by Defendant on the wage
21 statement was completely wrong and Plaintiff and Class members were thereby injured

22 55. As this is a derivative claim, the same risks present for the above claims were 23 present for this claim.

24 The Risks Associated with the Waiting Time Penalty Claim

25 56. Plaintiff and numerous Class members are no longer employed by Defendant.
26 Plaintiff contends that Defendant failed to pay all wages owed and due upon their termination 27 and/or resignation.

28 57. The waiting time penalties are derivative of Defendant's failure to properly pay

1 Plaintiff and Class members for all hours worked at the applicable rates of pay and failure to pay
2 meal and rest period premiums.

3 58. Plaintiffs factored in the risk of establishing that any violation was “willful” and 4 the fact that this claim is derivative.

5 The Risks Associated with the PAGA Claim

6 59. Here, the Parties discounted the PAGA claim for multiple reasons.

7 60. The Aggrieved Employees’ PAGA claims are arguably derivative of all the 8 foregoing class claims. If Plaintiff cannot establish liability on the underlying claim (taking into 9 account the risks discussed above), then the derivative PAGA claim will also necessarily fail.

10 61. A court has discretion to award less than the maximum penalty.

11 62. The likelihood of the Court reducing the PAGA damages awarded to Plaintiff and 12 the Aggrieved Employees – assuming liability is proven as to each of Plaintiff’s claims – is also 13 higher in this case where these same individuals will also be receiving money for the same 14 unlawful conduct under the class claims.

15 63. There is significant expense associated with the class certification process, which 16 the Parties can avoid by entering into the contemplated Agreement now.

17 64. If the Court did eventually certify a meal or wage statement class, trial of a case
18 involving approximately 80 settlement Class Members would require the retention of expensive 19 expert witnesses, the accrual of extensive litigation costs, and a significant time overlay by the 20 parties.

21 65. Moreover, given the complexity and unsettled nature of the issues in this case it is 22 likely that any outcome at trial would have resulted in a lengthy and costly appeal. An appeal 23 would result in further delay for the settlement Class Members who are waiting for a resolution in 24 this matter.

25 66. This case has not been certified to be tried as a class action. While Plaintiff believes 26 there is strong evidence to support certification of several possible subclasses certification is 27 always hard fought and subject to judicial discretion. Moreover, in class actions, decertification is 28 always a possibility. In attempting to certify a class, the parties would need to conduct multiple

1 depositions, including of the Class Representative and of several person(s) most knowledgeable
2 regarding Defendant's meal and rest policies. There is a risk for both sides as to what these 3 depositions will reveal and whether they will support class certification to the extent expected.

4 67. It was very difficult for the Parties to reach this Settlement of $550,000.00.

5 68. This Settlement is the result of adversarial, non-collusive, and arms-length
6 negotiations. The Parties arrived at it after extensive investigation and discovery, careful
7 evaluation of the law, risks, and all information substantiating the amount of penalties reasonably
8 likely to be awarded to the class were the trier of fact to find Defendant liable, and the assistance
9 of an experienced mediator, Hon. Carl J. West.

10 69. Plaintiff assessed the full value of the unpaid wages claim, without any discount, at 11 approximately $27,000.00 due to underpayment from Defendant's alleged failure to blend and 12 failure to pay at the correct overtime rate. This was calculated using an overtime rate of $42.1875
13 and assuming that each putative class member has two hours of unpaid overtime for each shoot
14 day.

15 70. Plaintiff assessed the full value of the meal and rest period claims, without any 16 discount, at approximately $18,000.00.

17 71. However, this amount is overstated because it assumes that each putative class
18 member worked each of the four days in the workweek and were denied a meal and rest break each 19 day.

20 72. The waiting time penalties claim drove this settlement. Plaintiff valued the waiting 21 time claim, tied to the wages/overtime claim, at $742,500.00. The reason for this figure is because 22 a day's worth of wages for each putative class member is $309.375, which is a higher-than-average
23 daily rate (\$309.375 daily rate $\times$ 30 days $\times$ 80 putative class members = \$742,500.) Even using 24 Defendant's daily rate of \$225, the value of this claim is at least \$540,000.00.

25 73. As to the exposure for PAGA penalties under Labor Code §2699, et seq., Plaintiff 26 valued this claim at approximately $8,000.00.

27 74. This was based upon 80 PAGA pay period at issue during the PAGA relevant time
28 period (80 aggrieved employees were during February 3 to February 6, 2020, which is only one

PAGA pay period per employee), multiplied by $100 per pay period (80 pay periods in the data x $100 = $8,000.00.

75. Thus, per Plaintiff's assessment, the maximum potential value of all of Plaintiff's and the Class members' claims was approximately $1,115,500.

76. However, in looking at just the core damages related to the claims for alleged unpaid wages and meal and rest period violations the maximum exposure was $45,000.

77. The amount attributable to statutory and civil penalties far outweighs the exposure on the underlying claims.

78. Plaintiff and Class Counsel believe that examining the core exposure together with the significant foregoing risks on the merits, supports a finding that the Gross Settlement Amount of $550,000.00 is exceptional and will be well-received by the Proposed Class.

79. As outlined above, Class Counsel conducted a thorough investigation into the facts of the claims alleged. The agreement to settle did not occur until Class Counsel exchanged and possessed sufficient information to make an informed judgement regarding the likelihood of success on the merits and the results that could be obtained through further litigation.

18 class actions that have been approved for class certification. Since 2011, Kingsley Szamet
19 Employment Lawyers has moved for class certification in 16 matters and has successfully obtained
20 class certification in 15 of those cases. A brief sampling of which includes:

21 a. Melendrez v. JK Communications, No. BC497692, (L.A. Super. Ct., filed
22 December 19, 2012) (court granted contested class certification and appointed 23 Kingsley Szamet Employment Lawyers class counsel).

24 b. Amaro et al. v Gerawan Farming, Inc., No. 1:14-cv-00147-DAD-SAB (E.D. Cal.,
25 filed February 3, 2014) (court granted contested class certification and appointed 26 Kingsley Szamet Employment Lawyers co-class counsel).

27 c. Suarez v. Mazatlan, Inc., No. 37-2015-00002978-CU-OE-CTL (S.D. Super. Ct.,
28 filed January 27, 2015) (court granted contested class certification and appointed Kingsley Szamet Employment Lawyers class counsel).

d. Ruiz v. Daniel C. Salas Harvesting, Inc., Kings County Superior Court (16C0214).
contested class certification granted in June 2020.

e. Weldon v. Geo Corrections & Detentions, LLC, Kern County Superior Court (BCV-16-102833), contested class certification granted in 2018.

f. Patton v. Skyler Electric, Nevada County Superior Court, (CU17-082544), contested class certification granted in June 2020.

g. Hameister v. Jaco Oil Company, Kern County Superior Court (BCV-17-102876), contested class certification granted in August 2020.

82. After factoring in the risks explained above, Class Counsel believes that the proposed settlement is fair and reasonable.

83. There is no governmental participation in this action.

84. The proposed plan of allocation distributes Agreement funds proportionally to each class member's potential damages and should therefore be approved as fair, adequate, and reasonable.

ATTORNEYS' FEE AWARD

85. As detailed fully in the Agreement and set forth above, the Agreement provides for Defendant to create a Gross Settlement Amount of $550,000.00. From that fund, Plaintiff requests an award of attorneys' fees in the amount of $192,500.00, or 35% of the Gross Settlement Amount created on behalf of members of the Class.

86. In addition to the complexity of this case, Class Counsel has borne the entire risk and costs of this litigation during the entire time that it has been pending, all on a pure contingency basis. Through the investment of substantial effort and resources, Class Counsel has secured an on behalf of the Settlement Class Members where the average amount of recovery per Settlement Class Member is $3,679.01. Defendant vigorously contested liability, the amount of claimed damages, and the propriety of class certification. It is this kind of situation, involving complex issues, that has been recognized as justifying a substantial attorney fee award.

87. I am very familiar with the contingent fee market throughout California and in the

1 Los Angeles County area, particularly as it pertains to complex employment, wage and hour, and 2 class action litigation. On behalf of my firm, I have negotiated numerous contingency fee
3 agreements with plaintiffs, both as individuals and as representatives in class action suits. Many 4 of those agreements provided that counsel will receive a fee that is between 33% and 40% of any
5 recovery that is obtained, and, in addition, that counsel be reimbursed for the costs they incurred
6 out of the recovery amount. The Plaintiff in this action signed a contingency fee agreement that 7 stated that counsel would be able to make a fee of up to 40% of any recovery if the case settles.
8 These are typical and standard percentages in employment-related contingency agreements
9 throughout California. Indeed, in my opinion, the Class Members in this complex wage and hour
10 case could not have retained competent counsel in California, particularly with the considerable 11 skill and expertise of my firm, for any amount significantly less than the contingency fee 12 percentage provided in this retainer agreement. Class Counsel has never been paid any money for 13 attorneys' fees in this case and has advanced all costs.

14 88. There are always risks attendant to billing cases on a contingency basis. Those 15 risks are even higher in the current economic climate. KINGSLEY SZAMET EMPLOYMENT
16 LAWYERS bills the vast majority of its cases on contingency, and has been affected by recent 17 bankruptcy filings. In three separate cases, Lozoya v. Shore House Café, Inc., No. 30-2008-
18 00082103-CU-OE-CJC (Orange Super. Ct. filed Mar. 7, 2008) and Davis v. Crossfire Marketing
19 Group, LLC, No. CIVRS1207797 (San Bernardino Super. Ct. filed October 5, 2012), the 20 defendants both filed for bankruptcy protection in June 2011 and January 2015 after years of 21 litigation. My firm advanced costs and incurred thousands of dollars in fees that will never be 22 recovered.

23 89. Additionally, there are cases where Class Counsel takes on the extreme risk of 24 attempting to certify a class case, often times turning down class or individual settlement offers 25 that Class Counsel feels are not in the best interest of the class, only to lose class certification and 26 the costs and fees associated with the litigation. See e.g., Prosad v. Del Taco Restaurant Services,
27 Inc., No. BC426538 (L.A. Super. Ct. filed Nov. 2009); Perez v. Safelite Group, Inc., CV-10-8653-
28 RGK(FFMx) (C.D. Cal. filed October 5, 2010).

1 90. When Class Counsel's motions for class certification are denied, Class Counsel
2 often appeals the orders. Sometimes, these denials are overturned (Perez v. Safelite Group, Inc., 3 553 Fed.Appx. 667 (9th Cir. 2015); Anderson v. Total Renal Care, Inc., No. B236207 (Cal. Ct.
4 App. 2012)) and other times Class Counsel is unsuccessful (Prosad v. Del Taco Restaurant
5 Services, Inc., No. B238605 (CA. Ct. App. 2012)).

6 91. In addition to appealing class certification denials, KINGSLEY SZAMET
7 EMPLOYMENT LAWYERS has been involved in numerous lengthy and protracted appeals
8 process before the California Court of Appeal, the Ninth Circuit, the Seventh Circuit, and the 9 United States Supreme Court. Our firm specifically has taken and lost some issues on appeal that 10 required the write-off of significant legal fees. Also, our firm has been successful on appeal and 11 overturned unfavorable lower court rulings or successfully fought to have successful rulings
12 affirmed. Below is just a sample of some of these appeals:

- 13 a. D'Este v. Bayer Corp., 565 F.3d 1119 (9th Cir. 2009) (lower court ruling that 14 pharmaceutical sales representatives are exempt employees affirmed);
- 15 b. Budrow v. Dave & Buster's of California, Inc., 171 Cal. App. 4th 875 (2009) (lower 16 court ruling in employer's favor that certain employees can share in mandatory tip 17 pool affirmed);
- 18 c. Etheridge v. Reins Int'l California, Inc., 172 Cal. App. 4th 908 (2009) (lower court
19 ruling in employer's favor that certain employees can share in mandatory tip pool 20 affirmed);
- 21 d. Areso v. CarMax, Inc., 195 Cal. App. 4th 996 (2011) (lower court ruling in 22 employer's favor approving employer's commission pay plan affirmed) ;
- 23 e. Christopher v. SmithKline Beecham Corp., 132 S. Ct. 2156, 183 L. Ed. 2d 153
24 (2012) (lower court ruling that pharmaceutical sales representatives are exempt 25 employees affirmed);
- 26 f. Schaefer-LaRose v. Eli Lilly & Co., 679 F.3d 560 (7th Cir. 2012) (lower court ruling 27 that pharmaceutical sales representatives are exempt employees affirmed);
- 28 g. Fowler v. Carmax, Inc., No. B238426, 2013 WL 1208111 (Cal. Ct. App. Mar. 26, 2013), cert. granted, judgment vacated sub nom. CarMax Auto Superstores California, LLC v. Fowler, 134 S. Ct. 1277, 188 L. Ed. 2d 290 (2014) (lower court granted employer's motion to compel arbitration, Court of Appeal reversed, U.S. Supreme Court affirmed lower court);

h. Salazar v. Apple Am. Grp., LLC, No. E059562, 2015 WL 314703 (Cal. Ct. App. Jan. 26, 2015), review denied (Apr. 22, 2015), cert. denied, 136 S. Ct. 688, 193 L. Ed. 2d 519 (2015) (lower court ruling in employee's favor on motion to compel arbitration affirmed);

i. Anaya v. J's Maint. Serv., Inc., No. B261662, 2016 WL 519867 (Cal. Ct. App. Feb. 9, 2016) (lower court ruling in employee's favor on motion to compel arbitration affirmed);

j. Cortez v. Doty Bros. Equipment Company, Inc. (2017) 15 Cal.App.5th 1 (reversing in part and affirming in part trial courts order compelling arbitration);

k. Lopez v. Friant & Associates, L.L.C. (2017) 15 Cal.App.5th 773 (reversing summary judgement in favor of employer on wage statement claim);

l. Kane v. Valley Slurry Seal Company, Case No. C079558, Cal. Ct. App. May 8, 2018) (affirming judgement for employees after bench trial);

m. Kim v. Reins International California, Case No. S246911. Oral argument was held before the California Supreme Court on January 6, 2020 and a decision was published in March 2020.

92. Unlike plaintiffs' firms, which bear the risk of loss on contingency cases, defense firms are able to bill their clients for time spent on a case. As verified by a survey conducted by the National Law Journal nearly a decade ago, six California firms provided their hourly billing rates and of the six firms, five regularly charged in excess of $500 for their partners. In fact, four of these firms charged as high as $600, $620, $650 and up to $850 per hour. These firms are located in Orange County, Los Angeles County, San Francisco County, and San Diego County. This survey is attached hereto as Exhibit 2.

93. While plaintiffs' firms strive to take on cases that are meritorious (for ethical as

1 well as monetary reasons), as this Court knows, many of these cases hinge on the decision of class
2 certification. Recently, there has been a renewed effort by defense counsel and/or their clients to 3 challenge these cases and to push back, especially on certification motions. In addition, many 4 novel legal issues have gone up on appeal, which has complicated the landscape for settlement.

5 CLASS COUNSEL’S HOURS AND HOURLY RATES ARE REASONABLE

6 94. Class Counsel’s aggregate lodestar amounts to $171,890.00 (without future hours)¹,
7 which represents 204.3 hours of attorney work² on this litigation incurred from its inception
8 through the filing of Plaintiff’s Motion for Final Approval.

9 95. As such, Class Counsel is asking for a multiplier of 1.12.

10 96. The amount of time spent on this case (over 204.3 hours), which culminated in a 11 very favorable proposed Settlement for the Settlement Class Members, is reasonable given the 12 complexity and novelty of the issues involved, the vigorous defense, the length and intensity of 13 the litigation, and the exceptional results obtained.

14 97. Class Counsel litigated this action with great efficiency in light of the amount of 15 work required to achieve the Settlement.

16 98. The requested hourly rates in this case range from $508.00 per hour to $1,227.00.

17 99. Class Counsel’s hourly rates are fully supported by their experience and reputation 18 in handling complex employment litigation, including wage and hour class actions.

19 100. I am a 28-year attorney with expertise in wage and hour class action lawsuits.

20 101. I have litigated several hundred such cases, including at the appellate level at the 21 U.S. Supreme Court, California Supreme Court, the Ninth Circuit, and the California Court of 22 Appeal.

23 102. I am also a prolific speaker at various seminars on employment law and has 24 contributed to legal publications on employment topics.

25 103. In light of the impending increase of experienced lawyers in specialized practice, I

26 ¹ Though Class Counsel will certainly continue to spend time working on this matter for tasks
27 such as preparing for and attending the final approval hearing, overseeing the administration 28 process, and communicating with Settlement Class Members, Plaintiff’s Counsel are not requesting approval of future hours.

1 believe that the hourly rates charged by my firm are fair and reasonable and are comparable to or 2 less than those charged by my colleagues in California and the national market for prosecuting or 3 defending class actions.

4 104. My office billed for the following four attorneys for work performed on this case:
5 Liane Katzenstein Ly, Jessica Adlouni, Jessica Bulaon, and me.

6 105. Jessica Adlouni is an Associate Attorney at Kingsley Szamet Employment
7 Lawyers. She is billed at $690 per hour. Ms. Adlouni obtained her Bachelor of Arts from UCLA
8 and her juris doctor from UCLA School of Law in May 2019.

9 106. Jessi Bulaon is an Associate Attorney at Kingsley Szamet Employment Lawyers.
10 Ms. Bulaon is a graduate of UCLA where she obtained her Bachelor of Arts in Sociology. In 2021,
11 she earned her J.D. from Southwestern Law School, where she was a member on the Law Review
12 and the Dean's List. While at Southwestern, she was awarded the Exceptional Achievement Award 13 in Employment Law Survey course and Witkin Award in her Labor Law course. Ms. Bulaon also 14 clerked at a plaintiff-side employment law firm for 1.5 years until she was admitted to practice in 15 December of 2021. She is billed at $570 per hour.

16 107. Liane Katzenstein Ly, a former partner at Kingsley Szamet Employment Lawyers, 17 had a billing rate of $800 per hour. She is an honors graduate of Florida State University, and 18 received her JD from University of California Davis School of Law in 2008, where she was an 19 editor of the Environmental Law Journal and a board member of the King Hall Negotiations Team.
20 Ms. Ly left the firm in 2025.

21 108. The qualifications of Co-Counsel Kim Legal, APC and Helen Kim Law, APC are 22 discussed in the concurrently filed Declaration of Frank H. Kim and Declaration of Helen Kim.

23 109. An article in the Wall Street Journal on February 9, 2016 titled Legal Hours Cross
24 New Mark: $1,500 an Hour states that "a review of filings over the past three months in about two 25 dozen bankruptcy cases shows that senior partners routinely charge between $1,200 and $1,300 an 26 hour, with top rates at several large law firms exceeding $1,400." The article also explains that 27 "despite low inflation and weak demand for legal services, rates at large corporate law firms have 28 risen by 3% to 4% a year since the economic downturn." Finally, the article notes that "the average highest rate paid for law-firm partners was $875 an hour in 2015.” This article is attached hereto as Exhibit 3.

110. Class Counsel’s charged rate are commensurate with the prevailing market rates in Los Angeles County for attorneys of comparable experience and skill handling complex litigation.

111. Class Counsel’s rates in calculating the lodestar are the same rates charged to non-contingent hourly clients and thus necessarily reflect the current market value of counsel’s legal services.

112. Class Counsel made all reasonable attempts to avoid duplication of assignments and to assign tasks to timekeepers at the appropriate billing rates.

113. Finally, Class Counsel’s rates are in line with the 2025-2026 Laffey Matrix, which is a fee scale that courts often consult in determining the reasonableness of hourly rates. Under the adjusted Laffey Matrix, a reasonable rate for an attorney with 20+ years of experience, such as myself, is $1227, a reasonable rate for an attorney with 16 years of experience, such as Ms. Ly, is $1,019, a reasonable rate for an attorney with 4-7 years of experience, such as Ms. Adlouni, is $627, and a reasonable rate for an attorney with 3 or less years of experience, such as Ms. Bulaon is $508. A true and correct copy of the 2025-2026 Adjusted Laffey Matrix is attached hereto as Exhibit 4.

114. Kingsley Szamet Employment Lawyers’s attorneys’ fees in the present case are broken down as follows:

ATTORNEY	HOURS	HOURLY RATE	TOTALS
Eric B. Kingsley	21.40	$1,250.00	$26,750.00
Jessica Adlouni	57.50	$690.00	$39,675.00
Jessi Bulaon	11.00	$570.00	$6,270.00
Liane Katzenstein Ly	28.90	$800.00	$23,120.00
KINGSLEY TOTAL	118.8-		$95,815.00³

³ Though Class Counsel will certainly continue to spend time working on this matter for tasks such as preparing for and attending the final approval hearing, overseeing the administration

Helen U. Kim	23.0	$895.00	$20,585.00
KIM LEGAL, APC TOTAL ATTORNEYS' FEES	23.0		$20,585.00

115. The aggregate lodestar is set forth below:

ATTORNEY	HOURS	TOTALS
KINGSLEY SZAMET EMPLOYMENT LAWYERS	118.80	$95,815.00
KIM LEGAL, APC	62.50	$55,490.00
HELEN KIM LAW, APC	23.00	$20,585.00
TOTAL ATTORNEYS' FEES	204.30	$171,890.00

116. Kingsley Szamet Employment Lawyers, Liane Ly Law, Kim Legal, APC, and Helen Kim Law, APC have entered into written fee sharing agreements that was also signed by the named Plaintiff.

117. In conjunction with Kim Legal, APC, and Helen Kim Law, APC, Kingsley Szamet Employment Lawyers has spent significant time extensively investigating, researching, and litigating this matter, including but not limited to the following:

- a. intake and interviewing Plaintiff and witnesses and flushing out facts and issues;
- process, and communicating with Settlement Class Members, Plaintiff's Counsel are not requesting approval of future hours.

- b. researching employer and related causes of action;
- c. researching other pending and former matters against Defendant;
- d. fact development and investigating Defendant's ownership structure
- e. researching and analyzing relevant claims under B&P 17200;
- f. investigation and discussion regarding job functions, duties, compensation, policies, and procedures, etc.;
- g. regular meetings and or communicating with the Plaintiff;
- h. regular meetings and or communicating with Co-Counsel;
- i. drafting pleadings (Complaints, Motion for Preliminary Approval, various documents related to Preliminary Approval, Motion for Final Approval, various documents related to Final approval, etc.);
- j. researching private right of action and various impact on class actions;
- k. interviewing and obtaining declarations from Class Members;
- l. preparing for and attending mediation;
- m. discussing issues related to damage model calculations;
- n. preparing and analyzing damage models;
- o. negotiating the terms of the settlement;
- p. reviewing and making changes to the Agreement;
- q. drafting and editing all documents for Preliminary and Final Approval;
- r. monitoring Notice and settlement administration procedures;
- s. coordinating and overseeing all aspects of the administration of the Settlement (review documentation, approve form and content, etc.); and multiple communications with defense counsel.

118. Based on the aggregate lodestar, Class Counsel is requesting a multiplier of 1.12.

119. I believe the request for attorneys' fees in the amount of $35,000.00 is fair and reasonable given the complexity and novelty of the issues involved, the vigorous defense, and the exceptional results obtained. As explained above, Class Counsel's diligent litigation efforts and experience led to an outstanding settlement.

1 FACTORS THAT SUPPORT THE APPROVAL OF A MULTIPLIER

2 120. This case dealt with difficult legal and factual questions. Significantly, the risk
3 attendant to the underlying claims in this matter was great considering Defendant's defenses. As 4 discussed in detail in the extensive risk analysis section in Plaintiff's Motion for Preliminary 5 Approval of Settlement, were this case to proceed, Defendant would have a strong incentive to 6 litigate tenaciously. There are genuine issues in dispute, as evidenced by the Court's denial of 7 Defendant's Motion for Summary Judgment.

8 121. As discussed above and in Frank H. Kim and Helen U. Kim's Declarations, Class
9 Counsel are skilled wage and hour practitioners with decades of experience who diligently 10 prepared and litigated this matter as discussed.

11 122. To achieve the ultimate result in this case, Co-lead Class Counsel had to incur 12 substantial risk and expense, and were precluded from taking other fee generating employment for 13 204.3 hours of attorney time.

14 123. This matter had been handled purely on a contingency fee basis and Class Counsel
15 have advanced many thousands of dollars in costs while deferring all payment of fees, with no
16 guarantee that any of the fees incurred or costs advanced would ever be recovered, and diverting 17 significant firm resources to prosecution of this matter.

18 124. Class Counsel believe this is an exceptional result that has been well received by 19 Settlement Class Members with an average net recovery of $3,679.01 per Settlement Class 20 Member.

21 125. There have been zero (0) opt-outs or objections to date.

22 ATTORNEY COSTS

23 126. In addition to their request for fees, Class Counsel further request reimbursement 24 of the reasonable out-of-pocket expenses advanced and/or incurred by them in connection with 25 this litigation, in the amount of $35,000.00.

26 127. To date, Kingsley Szamet Employment Lawyers has incurred $26,322.96 in costs.

27 128. Co-Counsel Kim Legal, APC has incurred $ 8,775.19 in costs, and Helen Kim Law, 28 APC has no separate costs.

1 129. Class Counsel anticipates incurring an additional $365.40 in costs to file, serve, and 2 copy this motion; to prepare for and attend the hearing; and for future copy charges, however,
3 pursuant to the Agreement, Class Counsel shall not seek an amount in excess of $35,000.00 for 4 litigation costs.

5 130. Class Counsel's final costs are $35,098.15. As such, Class Counsel is requesting a 6 maximum cost reimbursement of $35,000.00.

7 131. All of the requested costs are reasonable in amount and were necessarily incurred
8 by Class Counsel in prosecuting this litigation. A true and correct copy of Kingsley's cost ledger
9 is attached hereto as Exhibit 5.

10 132. All of these costs have been incurred in the course of this litigation, and all costs
11 advanced have already been paid by Class Counsel.

12 THE NAMED PLAINTIFFS' ENHANCEMENT SHOULD BE APPROVED

13 133. Finally, Plaintiff's Counsel request an enhancement of $5,000.00 to the named 14 Plaintiff Farzad Azima for his work on behalf of the Class.

15 134. Farzad Azima is an adequate class representatives because he has diligently,
16 adequately and fairly represented the Class and have not placed their interests above any member 17 of the Class.

18 135. Class Counsel requests an enhancement for Mr. Azima's valiant effort and time
19 expended in this matter. The time spent by Farzad Azima is significant and includes the following:
20 (1) researching and retaining competent counsel; (2) providing information to Class Counsel
21 regarding the nature of the work at Defendant; (3) compiling relevant documents; (4) working 22 closely with Class Counsel to develop the theories of liability and martial relevant evidence; (5)
23 regularly discussing the status of the case with Class Counsel; (6) discussing the case via telephone
24 with many Class members; (7) making himself available for a full-day of mediation; and (8)
25 responding promptly to Class Counsel's communications regarding settlement.

26 136. As set forth in the Agreement, Plaintiff will also be entering into a general release
27 of liability pursuant to Civil Code Section 1542.

28 137. Class Counsel considers this to be a fair and reasonable enhancement.

1 138. The enhancement takes into consideration the time, effort, and expense incurred by 2 Farzad Azima in coming forward to litigate this matter on behalf of all Settlement Class Members.

3 139. Plaintiff was at risk for paying for Defendant’s legal fees and costs in the event
4 that Defendant prevailed at trial.

5 140. The Class has benefited from Mr. Azima’s action in stepping forward on their 6 behalf to bring this lawsuit.

7 141. Further, The Class Notice disclosed the enhancement award.

8 142. As of today, no Settlement Class Member has objected to the proposed 9 enhancement.

10 143. Under the circumstances, a representative payment of $5,000.00 is justified and the 11 Court should award this payment to Farzad Azima from the Gross Settlement Amount as provided 12 in the Agreement.

13 PROOF OF SUBMISSION TO THE LABOR AND WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT

14 AGENCY

15 144. As indicated on the Proof of Service, Plaintiff’s accompanying Motion for Final 16 Approval of Attorneys’ Fees and Costs (“Motion”) was uploaded to the Labor and Workforce
17 Development Agency’s (“LWDA”) website on the date this Motion was filed. Proof of submission
18 of Plaintiff’s Motion, all related documents, and copy of the email from the LWDA confirming 19 receipt is attached hereto as Exhibit “6”.

20 EXHIBITS

hour claims, and on June 14, 2021, Plaintiff filed a First Amended Complaint adding an additional cause of action for penalties pursuant to Labor Code § 2699, et seq., the Private Attorneys General Act (“PAGA”) based on the underlying Labor Code violations already pled. The operative complaint is the Second Amended Complaint (“SAC”; “Operative Complaint”) filed on December 7, 2021 against Defendants for 1) Failure to Provide Meal Breaks; 2) Failure to Provide Rest Breaks; 3) Failure to Pay Overtime Wages; 4) Waiting Time Penalties; 5) Failure to Provide Itemized Wage Statements; 6) Violation of the Private Attorneys General Act of 2014 (“PAGA”); and 7) Unlawful and Unfair Business Practices. Plaintiff dismissed Defendant Big Hit Entertainment Co., Ltd. on October 5, 2022.

Defendant denies the allegations in the Operative Complaint, denies any failure to comply with the laws identified in in the Operative Complaint and denies any and all liability for the causes of action alleged.

Foot Locker Retail, Inc.* (2008) 168 Cal.App.4th 116, 129-130 (“Dunk/Kullar”).

Except as otherwise provided by Paragraph 9 below, Defendant promises to pay $550,000.00 and no more as the Gross Settlement Amount and to separately pay any and all employer payroll taxes owed on the Wage Portions of the Individual Class Payments. The Wage Portions are subject to tax withholding and will be reported on an IRS W-2 Form. 80% of each Participating Class Member's Individual Class Payment will be allocated to settlement of claims for interest and penalties (the "Non-Wage Portion"). The Non-Wage Portions are not subject to wage withholdings and will be reported on IRS 1099 Forms. Participating Class Members assume full responsibility and liability for any employee taxes owed on their Individual Class Payment.

3.2.4.2. Effect of Non-Participating Class Members on Calculation of Individual Class Payments. Non-Participating Class Members will not receive any Individual Class Payments. The Administrator will retain amounts equal to their Individual Class Payments in the Net Settlement Amount for distribution to Participating Class Members on a pro rata basis.

3.2.5. To the LWDA and Aggrieved Employees: PAGA Penalties in the amount of $15,000.00 to be paid from the Gross Settlement Amount, with 75% ($11,250.00) allocated to the LWDA PAGA Payment and 25% ($3,750.00) allocated to the Individual PAGA Payments.

3.2.5.1. The Administrator will calculate each Individual PAGA Payment by (a) dividing the amount of the Aggrieved Employees' 25% share of PAGA Penalties ($3,750.00) by the total number of PAGA Period Pay Periods worked by all Aggrieved Employees during the PAGA Period and (b) multiplying the result by each Aggrieved Employee's PAGA Period Pay Periods. Aggrieved Employees assume full responsibility and liability for any taxes owed on their Individual PAGA Payment.

Not later than e.g., 15 days after the Court grants Preliminary Approval of the Settlement, Defendant will simultaneously deliver the Class Data to the Administrator, in the form of a Microsoft Excel spreadsheet. To protect Class Members' privacy rights, the Administrator must maintain the Class Data in confidence, use the Class Data only for purposes of this Settlement and for no other purpose, and restrict access to the Class Data to Administrator employees who need access to the Class Data to effect and perform under this Agreement. Defendant has a continuing duty to immediately notify Class Counsel if it discovers that the Class Data omitted class member identifying information and to provide corrected or updated Class Data as soon as reasonably feasible. Without any extension of the deadline by which Defendant must send the Class Data to the Administrator, the Parties and their counsel will expeditiously use best efforts, in good faith, to reconstruct or otherwise resolve any issues related to missing or omitted Class Data.

Installment payments will be held by the Class Administrator. In the event the Court denies final approval of the settlement, payments made by Defendant shall be returned to Defendant in full.
- 4.4. Payments from the Gross Settlement Amount. Within 14 days after the Effective Date, the Administrator shall disburse all amounts then held in trust from the Gross Settlement Amount, including payments for: (a) Individual Class Payments to Participating Class Members; (b) Individual PAGA Payments to Aggrieved Employees; (c) the LWDA PAGA Payment; (d) the Administration Expenses Payment; (e) the Class Counsel Fees Payment; (f) the Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment; and (g) the Class Representative Service Payment. - 4.4.1. The Administrator will issue checks for the Individual Class Payments and/or Individual PAGA Payments and send them to the Class Members via First Class U.S. Mail, postage prepaid. The face of each check shall prominently state the date (not less than 180 days after the date of mailing) when the check will be voided. The Administrator will cancel all checks not cashed by the void date. The Administrator will send checks for Individual Settlement Payments to all Participating Class Members (including those for whom Class Notice was returned undelivered). The Administrator will send checks for Individual PAGA Payments to all Aggrieved Employees including Non-Participating Class Members who qualify as Aggrieved Employees (including those for whom Class Notice was returned undelivered). The Administrator may send Participating Class Members a single check combining the Individual Class Payment and the Individual PAGA Payment. Before mailing any checks, the Settlement Administrator must update the recipients' mailing addresses using the National Change of Address Database.

4.4.2. The Administrator must conduct a Class Member Address Search for all other Class Members whose checks are returned undelivered without USPS forwarding address. Within 7 days of receiving a returned check the Administrator must re-mail checks to the USPS forwarding address provided or to an address ascertained through the Class Member Address Search. The Administrator need not take further steps to deliver checks to Class Members whose re-mailed checks are returned as undelivered. The Administrator shall promptly send a replacement check to any Class Member whose original check was lost or misplaced, requested by the Class Member prior to the void date.

4.4.3. For any Class Member whose Individual Class Payment check or Individual PAGA Payment check is uncashed and cancelled after the void date, the Administrator shall transmit the funds represented by such checks to the California Controller's Unclaimed Property Fund in the name of the Class Member thereby leaving no "unpaid residue" subject to the requirements of California Code of Civil Procedure Section 384, subd. (b).

4.4.4. The payment of Individual Class Payments and Individual PAGA Payments shall not obligate Defendant to confer any additional benefits or make any additional payments to Class Members (such as 401(k) contributions or bonuses) beyond those specified in this Agreement.

7.4.4 The deadlines for Class Members' written objections, Challenges to Workweeks and/or Pay Periods, and Requests for Exclusion will be extended an additional 14 days beyond the 60 days otherwise provided in the Class Notice for all Class Members whose notice is re-mailed. The Administrator will inform the Class Member of the extended deadline with the re-mailed Class Notice.

7.4.5 If the Administrator, Defendant or Class Counsel is contacted by or otherwise discovers any persons who believe they should have been included in the Class Data and should have received Class Notice, the Parties will expeditiously meet and confer in person or by telephone, and in good faith, in an effort to agree on whether to include them as Class Members. The Class Member may challenge the allocation by communicating with the Administrator via fax, email or mail. The Administrator must encourage the challenging Class Member to submit supporting documentation. In the absence of any contrary documentation, the Administrator is entitled to presume that the Workweeks contained in the Class Notice are correct so long as they are consistent with the Class Data. The Administrator's determination of each Class Member's allocation of Workweeks and/or Pay Periods shall be final and not appealable or otherwise susceptible to challenge. The Administrator shall promptly provide copies of all challenges to calculation of Workweeks and/or Pay Periods to Defense Counsel and Class Counsel and the Administrator's determination the challenges.

7.7.3 Non-Participating Class Members have no right to object to any of the class action components of the Settlement.

- 7.8 Administrator Duties. The Administrator has a duty to perform or observe all tasks to be performed or observed by the Administrator contained in this Agreement or otherwise.
- 7.8.1 Website, Email Address and Toll-Free Number. Not later than 5 days after the expiration of the deadline for submitting Requests for Exclusion, the Administrator shall email a list to Class Counsel and Defense Counsel containing (a) the names and other identifying information of Class Members who have timely submitted valid Requests for Exclusion (“Exclusion List”); (b) the names and other identifying information of Class Members who have submitted invalid Requests for Exclusion; (c) copies of all Requests for Exclusion from Settlement submitted (whether valid or invalid).
- 7.8.3 Weekly Reports. The Administrator must, on a weekly basis, provide written reports to Class Counsel and Defense Counsel that, among other things, tally the number of: Class Notices mailed or re-mailed, Class Notices returned undelivered, Requests for Exclusion (whether valid or invalid) received, objections received, challenges to Workweeks and/or Pay Periods received and/or resolved, and checks mailed for Individual Class Payments and Individual PAGA Payments (“Weekly Report”). The Weekly Reports must include provide the Administrator’s assessment of the validity of Requests for Exclusion and attach copies of all Requests for Exclusion and objections received.
- 7.8.4 Workweek and/or Pay Period Challenges. The Administrator has the authority to address and make final decisions consistent with the terms of this Agreement on all Class Member challenges over the calculation of Workweeks and/or Pay Periods. The Administrator’s decision shall be final and not appealable or otherwise susceptible to challenge.
- 7.8.5 Administrator’s Declaration. Not later than 14 days before the date by which Plaintiff is required to file the Motion for Final Approval of the Settlement, the Administrator will provide to Class Counsel and Defense Counsel, a signed declaration suitable for filing in Court attesting to its due diligence and compliance with all of its obligations under this Agreement, including, but not limited to, its mailing of Class Notice, the Class Notices returned as undelivered, the re-mailing of Class Notices, attempts to locate Class Members, the total number of Requests for Exclusion from Settlement it received (both valid or invalid), the number of written objections and attach the Exclusion List. The Administrator will supplement its declaration as needed or requested by the Parties and/or the Court. Class Counsel is responsible for filing the Administrator's declaration(s) in Court.

7.8.6 Final Report by Settlement Administrator. Within 10 days after the Administrator disburses all funds in the Gross Settlement Amount, the Administrator will provide Class Counsel and Defense Counsel with a final report detailing its disbursements by employee identification number only of all payments made under this Agreement. At least 15 days before any deadline set by the Court, the Administrator will prepare, and submit to Class Counsel and Defense Counsel, a signed declaration suitable for filing in Court attesting to its disbursement of all payments required under this Agreement. Class Counsel is responsible for filing the Administrator's declaration in Court.

8. CLASS SIZE ESTIMATES and ESCALATOR CLAUSE Based on its records, Defendant estimates that, as of the date of this Settlement Agreement, (1) there are 80 Class Members and 1 Workweek during the Class period and (2) there were 80 Aggrieved Employees who worked 1 Pay Period during the PAGA Period.

8.1 Increase in Class Members. Upon receipt of the Class Data, in the event that the number of Class Members exceeds this estimate by more than 5%, the Administrator shall notify the Parties that of the number of Class Members. To the extent the number of Class Members in the Class Settlement Period increases by more than 5%, Defendant shall have the option to increase the Gross Settlement Amount by a proportionate amount. For example, if the number of Settlement Class Members increases by 6%, Defendant shall have the option to increase the Gross Settlement Amount by 1%. If Defendant elects not to increase the Gross Settlement Amount proportionately, Defendant shall notify Class Counsel of its decision in writing within ten (10) days of receiving the number of Class Members from the Administrator. Within ten (10) days of receipt of such written notice from Defendant, Plaintiff shall have the option to terminate this Settlement Agreement via written notice to Defense Counsel and the Parties will be restored to their positions prior to the Settlement and the Settlement shall be null and void.

9. DEFENDANT'S RIGHT TO WITHDRAW. If the number of valid Requests for Exclusion identified in the Exclusion List exceeds 10% of the total of all Class Members, Defendant may, but is not obligated, elect to withdraw from the Settlement. The Parties agree that, if Defendant withdraws, the Settlement shall be void ab initio, have no force or effect whatsoever, and that neither Party will have any further obligation to perform under this Agreement; provided, however, Defendant will remain responsible for paying all Settlement Administration Expenses incurred to that point. Defendant must notify Class Counsel and the Court of its election to withdraw not later than seven days after the Administrator sends the final Exclusion List to Defense Counsel; late elections will have no effect.

10. MOTION FOR FINAL APPROVAL. Not later than 16 court days before the calendared Final Approval Hearing, Plaintiff will file in Court, a motion for final approval of the Settlement that includes a request for approval of the PAGA settlement under Labor Code section 2699, subd. (l), a Proposed Final Approval Order and a proposed Judgment (collectively “Motion for Final Approval”). Plaintiff shall provide drafts of these documents to Defense Counsel not later than seven days prior to filing the Motion for Final Approval. Class Counsel and Defense Counsel will expeditiously meet and confer in person or by telephone, and in good faith, to resolve any disagreements concerning the Motion for Final Approval.

10.1 Response to Objections. Each Party retains the right to respond to any objection raised by a Participating Class Member, including the right to file responsive documents in Court no later than five court days prior to the Final Approval Hearing, or as otherwise ordered or accepted by the Court.

10.2 Duty to Cooperate. If the Court does not grant Final Approval or conditions Final Approval on any material change to the Settlement (including, but not limited to, the scope of release to be granted by Class Members), the Parties will expeditiously work together in good faith to address the Court’s concerns by revising the Agreement as necessary to obtain Final Approval. The Court’s decision to award less than the amounts requested for the Class Representative Service Payment, Class Counsel Fees Payment, Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment and/or Administrator Expenses Payment shall not constitute a material modification to the Agreement within the meaning of this paragraph.

10.3 Continuing Jurisdiction of the Court. The Parties agree that, after entry of Judgment, the Court will retain jurisdiction over the Parties, Action, and the Settlement solely for purposes of (i) enforcing this Agreement and/or Judgment, (ii) addressing settlement administration matters, and (iii) addressing such post-Judgment matters as are permitted by law.

10.4 Waiver of Right to Appeal. Provided the Judgment is consistent with the terms and conditions of this Agreement, specifically including the Class Counsel Fees Payment and Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment reflected set forth in this Settlement, the Parties, their respective counsel, and all Participating Class Members who did not object to the Settlement as provided in this Agreement, waive all rights to appeal from the Judgment, including all rights to post-judgment and appellate proceedings, the right to file motions to vacate judgment, motions for new trial, extraordinary writs, and appeals. The waiver of appeal does not include any waiver of the right to oppose such motions, writs or appeals. If an objector appeals the Judgment, the Parties’ obligations to perform under this Agreement will be suspended until such time as the appeal is finally resolved and the Judgment becomes final, except as to matters that do not affect the amount of the Net Settlement Amount.

10.5 Appellate Court Orders to Vacate, Reverse, or Materially Modify Judgment. If the reviewing Court vacates, reverses, or modifies the Judgment in a manner that requires a material modification of this Agreement (including, but not limited to, the scope of release to be granted by Class Members), this Agreement shall be null and void. The Parties shall nevertheless expeditiously work together in good faith to address the appellate court's concerns and to obtain Final Approval and entry of Judgment, sharing, on a 50-50 basis, any additional Administration Expenses reasonably incurred after remittitur. An appellate decision to vacate, reverse, or modify the Court's award of the Class Representative Service Payment or any payments to Class Counsel shall not constitute a material modification of the Judgment within the meaning of this paragraph, as long as the Gross Settlement Amount remains unchanged.

11. AMENDED JUDGMENT. If any amended judgment is required under Code of Civil Procedure section 384, the Parties will work together in good faith to jointly submit and a proposed amended judgment.

12. ADDITIONAL PROVISIONS.

12.1 No Admission of Liability, Class Certification or Representative Manageability for Other Purposes. This Agreement represents a compromise and settlement of highly disputed claims. Nothing in this Agreement is intended or should be construed as an admission by Defendant that any of the allegations in the Operative Complaint have merit or that Defendant has any liability for any claims asserted; nor should it be intended or construed as an admission by Plaintiff that Defendant's defenses in the Action have merit. The Parties agree that class certification and representative treatment is for purposes of this Settlement only. If, for any reason the Court does grant Preliminary Approval, Final Approval or enter Judgment, Defendant reserves the right to contest certification of any class for any reasons, and Defendant reserves all available defenses to the claims in the Action, and Plaintiff reserves the right to move for class certification on any grounds available and to contest Defendant's defenses. The Settlement, this Agreement and Parties' willingness to settle the Action will have no bearing on, and will not be admissible in connection with, any litigation (except for proceedings to enforce or effectuate the Settlement and this Agreement).

12.2 Confidentiality Prior to Preliminary Approval. Plaintiff, Class Counsel, Defendant and Defense Counsel separately agree that, until the Motion for Preliminary Approval of Settlement is filed, they and each of them will not disclose, disseminate and/or publicize, or cause or permit another person to disclose, disseminate or publicize, any of the terms of the Agreement directly or indirectly, specifically or generally, to any person, corporation, association, government agency, or other entity except: (1) to the Parties' attorneys, accountants, or spouses, all of whom will be instructed to keep this Agreement confidential; (2) counsel in a related matter; (3) to the extent necessary to report income to appropriate taxing authorities; (4) in response to a court order or subpoena; or (5) in response to an inquiry or subpoena issued by a state or federal government agency. Each Party agrees to immediately notify each other Party of any judicial or agency order, inquiry, or subpoena seeking such information. Plaintiff, Class Counsel, Defendant and Defense Counsel separately agree not to, directly or indirectly, initiate any conversation or other communication, before the filing of the Motion for Preliminary Approval, any with third party regarding this Agreement or the matters giving rise to this Agreement except to respond only that “the matter was resolved,” or words to that effect. This paragraph does not restrict Class Counsel’s communications with Class Members in accordance with Class Counsel’s ethical obligations owed to Class Members.

- 12.3 No Solicitation. The Parties separately agree that they and their respective counsel and employees will not solicit any Class Member to opt out of or object to the Settlement, or appeal from the Judgment. Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to restrict Class Counsel’s ability to communicate with Class Members in accordance with Class Counsel’s ethical obligations owed to Class Members.
- 12.4 Integrated Agreement. Upon execution by all Parties and their counsel, this Agreement together with its attached exhibits shall constitute the entire agreement between the Parties relating to the Settlement, superseding any and all oral representations, warranties, covenants, or inducements made to or by any Party.
- 12.5 Attorney Authorization. Class Counsel and Defense Counsel separately warrant and represent that they are authorized by Plaintiff and Defendant, respectively, to take all appropriate action required or permitted to be taken by such Parties pursuant to this Agreement to effectuate its terms, and to execute any other documents reasonably required to effectuate the terms of this Agreement including any amendments to this Agreement.
- 12.6 Cooperation. The Parties and their counsel will cooperate with each other and use their best efforts, in good faith, to implement the Settlement by, among other things, modifying the Settlement Agreement, submitting supplemental evidence and supplementing points and authorities as requested by the Court. In the event the Parties are unable to agree upon the form or content of any document necessary to implement the Settlement, or on any modification of the Agreement that may become necessary to implement the Settlement, the Parties will seek the assistance of a mediator and/or the Court for resolution.
- 12.7 No Prior Assignments. The Parties separately represent and warrant that they have not directly or indirectly assigned, transferred, encumbered, or purported to assign, transfer, or encumber to any person or entity and portion of any liability, claim, demand, action, cause of action, or right released and discharged by the Party in this Settlement.
- 12.8 No Tax Advice. Neither Plaintiff, Class Counsel, Defendant nor Defense Counsel are providing any advice regarding taxes or taxability, nor shall anything in this Settlement be relied upon as such within the meaning of United States Treasury Department Circular 230 (31 CFR Part 10, as amended) or otherwise.

- 12.9 Modification of Agreement. This Agreement, and all parts of it, may be amended, modified, changed, or waived only by an express written instrument signed by all Parties or their representatives, and approved by the Court.
- 12.10 Agreement Binding on Successors. This Agreement will be binding upon, and inure to the benefit of, the successors of each of the Parties.
- 12.11 Applicable Law. All terms and conditions of this Agreement and its exhibits will be governed by and interpreted according to the internal laws of the state of California, without regard to conflict of law principles.
- 12.12 Cooperation in Drafting. The Parties have cooperated in the drafting and preparation of this Agreement. This Agreement will not be construed against any Party on the basis that the Party was the drafter or participated in the drafting.
- 12.13 Confidentiality. To the extent permitted by law, all agreements made, and orders entered during Action and in this Agreement relating to the confidentiality of information shall survive the execution of this Agreement.
- 12.14 Use and Return of Class Data. Information provided to Class Counsel pursuant to Cal. Evid. Code §1152, and all copies and summaries of the Class Data provided to Class Counsel by Defendant in connection with the mediation, other settlement negotiations, or in connection with the Settlement, may be used only with respect to this Settlement, and no other purpose, and may not be used in any way that violates any existing contractual agreement, statute, or rule of court. Not later than 90 days after the date when the Court discharges the Administrator's obligation to provide a Declaration confirming the final pay out of all Settlement funds, Plaintiff shall destroy, all paper and electronic versions of Class Data received from Defendant unless, prior to the Court's discharge of the Administrator's obligation, Defendant makes a written request to Class Counsel for the return, rather than the destructions, of Class Data.
- 12.15 Headings. The descriptive heading of any section or paragraph of this Agreement is inserted for convenience of reference only and does not constitute a part of this Agreement.
- 12.16 Calendar Days. Unless otherwise noted, all reference to "days" in this Agreement shall be to calendar days. In the event any date or deadline set forth in this Agreement falls on a weekend or federal legal holiday, such date or deadline shall be on the first business day thereafter.

EXHIBIT "A"

COURT APPROVED NOTICE OF CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT AND HEARING DATE FOR FINAL COURT APPROVAL

FARZAD AZIMA, individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated, PLAINTIFF v. BIG HIT ENTERTAINMENT CO., LTD., a corporation; FREENJOY, INC., a corporation; and DOES 1 thru 50, inclusive, DEFENDANTS, Los Angeles County Superior Court Case No. 20STCV43656

The Superior Court for the State of California authorized this Notice. Read it carefully!
It's not junk mail, spam, an advertisement, or solicitation by a lawyer. You are not being sued.

You may be eligible to receive money from an employee class action lawsuit (“Action”) against Freenjoy, Inc. (“Defendant” or “Freenjoy”) for alleged wage and hour violations. The Action was filed by a former Freenjoy employee Farzad Azima (“Plaintiff”) and seeks payment of (1) back wages and other relief for a class of non-exempt employees (“Class Members”) who worked for Freenjoy during the Class Period (XX through XX); and (2) penalties under the California Private Attorney General Act (“PAGA”) for all non-exempt employees who worked for Freenjoy during the PAGA Period (XX, through XX (“Aggrieved Employees”).

The proposed Settlement has two main parts: (1) a Class Settlement requiring Defendant to fund Individual Class Payments, and (2) a PAGA Settlement requiring Defendant to fund Individual PAGA Payments and pay penalties to the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”).

Based on Defendant’s records, and the Parties’ current assumptions, your Individual Class Payment is estimated to be $ [REDACTED] (less withholding) and your Individual PAGA Payment is estimated to be $ [REDACTED]. The actual amount you may receive likely will be different and will depend on a number of factors. (If no amount is stated for your Individual PAGA Payment, then according to Defendant’s records you are not eligible for an Individual PAGA Payment under the Settlement because you didn’t work during the PAGA Period.)

The above estimates are based on Defendant’s records showing that you worked [REDACTED] workweeks during the Class Period and you worked [REDACTED] workweeks during the PAGA Period. If you believe that you worked more workweeks during either period, you can submit a challenge by the deadline date. See Section 4 of this Notice.

The Court has already preliminarily approved the proposed Settlement and approved this Notice. The Court has not yet decided whether to grant final approval. Your legal rights are affected whether you act or not act. Read this Notice carefully. You will be deemed to have carefully read and understood it. At the Final Approval Hearing, the Court will decide whether to finally approve the Settlement and how much of the Settlement will be paid to Plaintiff and Plaintiff’s attorneys (“Class Counsel”). The Court will also decide whether to enter a judgment that requires Defendant to make payments under the Settlement and requires Class Members and Aggrieved Employees to give up their rights to assert certain claims against Defendant.

If you worked for Defendant during the Class Period and/or the PAGA Period, you have two basic options under the Settlement:

(1) Do Nothing. You don't have to do anything to participate in the proposed Settlement and be eligible for an Individual Class Payment and/or an Individual PAGA Payment. As a Participating Class Member, though, you will give up your right to assert Class Period wage claims and PAGA Period penalty claims against Defendant.

(2) Opt-Out of the Class Settlement. You can exclude yourself from the Class Settlement (opt-out) by submitting the written Request for Exclusion or otherwise notifying the Administrator in writing. If you opt-out of the Settlement, you will not receive an Individual Class Payment. You will, however, preserve your right to personally pursue Class Period wage claims against Defendant, and, if you are an Aggrieved Employee, remain eligible for an Individual PAGA Payment. You cannot opt-out of the PAGA portion of the proposed Settlement.

Freenjoy will not retaliate against you for any actions you take with respect to the proposed Settlement.

SUMMARY OF YOUR LEGAL RIGHTS AND OPTIONS IN THIS SETTLEMENT

You Don't Have to Do Anything to Participate in the Settlement	If you do nothing, you will be a Participating Class Member, eligible for an Individual Class Payment and an Individual PAGA Payment (if any). In exchange, you will give up your right to assert the wage claims against Defendant that are covered by this Settlement (Released Claims).
You Can Opt-out of the Class Settlement but not the PAGA Settlement The Opt-out Deadline is [date]	If you don't want to fully participate in the proposed Settlement, you can opt-out of the Class Settlement by sending the Administrator a written Request for Exclusion. Once excluded, you will be a Non-Participating Class Member and no longer eligible for an Individual Class Payment. Non-Participating Class Members cannot object to any portion of the proposed Settlement. See Section 6 of this Notice. You cannot opt-out of the PAGA portion of the proposed Settlement. Defendant must pay Individual PAGA Payments to all Aggrieved Employees and the Aggrieved Employees must give up their rights to pursue Released Claims (defined below).
Participating Class Members Can Object to the Class Settlement but not the PAGA Settlement Written Objections Must be Submitted by [date]	All Class Members who do not opt-out ("Participating Class Members") can object to any aspect of the proposed Settlement. The Court's decision whether to finally approve the Settlement will include a determination of how much will be paid to Class Counsel and Plaintiff who pursued the Action on behalf of the Class. You are not personally responsible for any payments to Class Counsel or Plaintiff, but every dollar paid to Class Counsel and Plaintiff reduces the overall amount paid to Participating Class Members. You can object to the amounts requested by Class Counsel or Plaintiff if you think they are unreasonable. See Section 7 of this Notice.

You Can Participate in the [date] Final Approval Hearing	The Court's Final Approval Hearing is scheduled to take place on [date]. You don't have to attend but you do have the right to appear (or hire an attorney to appear on your behalf at your own cost), in person, by telephone or by using the Court's virtual appearance platform. Participating Class Members can verbally object to the Settlement at the Final Approval Hearing. See Section 8 of this Notice.
You Can Challenge the Calculation of Your Workweeks/Pay Periods Written Challenges Must be Submitted by [date]	The amount of your Individual Class Payment and PAGA Payment (if any) depend on how many workweeks you worked at least one day during the Class Period and how many Pay Periods you worked at least one day during the PAGA Period, respectively. The number Class Period Workweeks and number of PAGA Period Pay Periods you worked according to Defendant's records is stated on the first page of this Notice. If you disagree with either of these numbers, you must challenge it by [date]. See Section 4 of this Notice.

1. WHAT IS THE ACTION ABOUT?

Plaintiff is a former Freenjoy employee. The Action accuses Freenjoy of violating California labor laws by failing to pay overtime wages, wages due upon termination and failing to provide meal periods, rest breaks and accurate itemized wage statements. Based on the same claims, Plaintiff has also asserted a claim for civil penalties under the California Private Attorneys General Act (Labor Code §§ 2698, et seq.) ("PAGA"). Plaintiff is represented by attorneys in the Action: Eric B. Kingsley, Jessica Adlouni for Kingsley Szamet Employment Lawyers; Liane Katzenstein Ly for Liane Ly Law; Frank H. Kim for Kim Legal, APC; and Helen U. Kim for Helen Kim Law, APC "Class Counsel.")

Defendant strongly denies violating any laws or failing to pay any wages and contends it complied with all applicable laws.

2. WHAT DOES IT MEAN THAT THE ACTION HAS SETTLED?

So far, the Court has made no determination whether Defendant or Plaintiff is correct on the merits. In the meantime, Plaintiff and Defendant hired an experienced, neutral mediator in an effort to resolve the Action by negotiating an to end the case by agreement (settle the case) rather than continuing the expensive and time-consuming process of litigation. The negotiations were successful. By signing a lengthy written settlement agreement ("Agreement") and agreeing to jointly ask the Court to enter a judgment ending the Action and enforcing the Agreement, Plaintiff and Defendant have negotiated a proposed Settlement that is subject to the Court's Final Approval. Both sides agree the proposed Settlement is a compromise of disputed claims. By agreeing to settle, Defendant does not admit any violations or concede the merit of any claims.

Plaintiff and Class Counsel strongly believe the Settlement is a good deal for you because they believe that: (1) Defendant has agreed to pay a fair, reasonable and adequate amount considering the strength of the claims and the risks and uncertainties of continued litigation; and (2) Settlement is in the best interests of the Class Members and Aggrieved Employees. The Court preliminarily approved the proposed Settlement as fair, reasonable and adequate, authorized this Notice, and scheduled a hearing to determine Final Approval.

3. WHAT ARE THE IMPORTANT TERMS OF THE PROPOSED SETTLEMENT?

1. Defendant Will Pay $550,000.00 as the Gross Settlement Amount (Gross Settlement). Defendant has agreed to deposit the Gross Settlement into an account controlled by the Administrator of the Settlement. The Administrator will use the Gross Settlement to pay the Individual Class Payments, Individual PAGA Payments, Class Representative Service Payment, Class Counsel's attorney's fees and expenses, the Administrator's expenses, and penalties to be paid to the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency ("LWDA"). Defendant will fund the Gross Settlement Amount, and also fund the amounts necessary to fully pay Defendant's share of payroll taxes by transmitting the funds to the Administrator as follows: the first installment of $200,000 is due within 60 days of execution of this Agreement or in no event later than October 3, 2025. The balance of $350,000 will be payable in thirty-six (36) equal monthly installments commencing thirty days after the initial payment and concluding no later than November 15, 2028, pending final approval of the settlement. Assuming the Court grants Final Approval, the Judgment will be final on the date the Court enters Judgment, or a later date if Participating Class Members object to the proposed Settlement or the Judgment is appealed.
2. Court Approved Deductions from Gross Settlement. At the Final Approval Hearing, Plaintiff and/or Class Counsel will ask the Court to approve the following deductions from the Gross Settlement, the amounts of which will be decided by the Court at the Final Approval Hearing:
 - A. Up to $192,500.00 (35% of the Gross Settlement to Class Counsel for attorneys' fees and up to $[amount] for their litigation expenses. To date, Class Counsel have worked and incurred expenses on the Action without payment.
 - B. Up to $5,000.00 as a Class Representative Award for filing the Action, working with Class Counsel and representing the Class. A Class Representative Award will be the only monies Plaintiff will receive other than Plaintiff's Individual Class Payment and any Individual PAGA Payment.
 - C. Up to $4,500.00 to the Administrator for services administering the Settlement.
 - D. Up to $15,000.00 for PAGA Penalties, allocated 75% to the LWDA PAGA Payment and 25% in Individual PAGA Payments to the Aggrieved Employees based on their PAGA Period Pay Periods.

Participating Class Members have the right to object to any of these deductions. The Court will consider all objections.

3. Net Settlement Distributed to Class Members. After making the above deductions in amounts approved by the Court, the Administrator will distribute the rest of the Gross Settlement (the “Net Settlement”) by making Individual Class Payments to Participating Class Members based on their Class Period Workweeks.
4. Taxes Owed on Payments to Class Members. Plaintiff and Defendant are asking the Court to approve an allocation of 20% of each Individual Class Payment to taxable wages (“Wage Portion”) and 80% to interest, etc. (“Non-Wage Portion.”). The Wage Portion is subject to withholdings and will be reported on IRS W-2 Forms. Defendant will separately pay employer payroll taxes it owes on the Wage Portion. The Individual PAGA Payments are counted as penalties rather than wages for tax purposes. The Administrator will report the Individual PAGA Payments and the Non-Wage Portions of the Individual Class Payments on IRS 1099 Forms.

Although Plaintiff and Defendant have agreed to these allocations, neither side is giving you any advice on whether your Payments are taxable or how much you might owe in taxes. You are responsible for paying all taxes (including penalties and interest on back taxes) on any Payments received from the proposed Settlement. You should consult a tax advisor if you have any questions about the tax consequences of the proposed Settlement.

5. Need to Promptly Cash Payment Checks. The front of every check issued for Individual Class Payments and Individual PAGA Payments will show the date when the check expires (the void date). If you don’t cash it by the void date, your check will be automatically cancelled, and the monies will be deposited with the California Controller's Unclaimed Property Fund in your name. If the monies represented by your check is sent to the Controller’s Unclaimed Property, you should consult the rules of the Fund for instructions on how to retrieve your money.
6. Requests for Exclusion from the Class Settlement (Opt-Outs). You will be treated as a Participating Class Member, participating fully in the Class Settlement, unless you notify the Administrator in writing, not later than [date], that you wish to opt-out. The easiest way to notify the Administrator is to send a written and signed Request for Exclusion by the [date] Response Deadline. The Request for Exclusion should be a letter from a Class Member or his/her representative setting forth a Class Member’s name, present address, telephone number, and a simple statement electing to be excluded from the Settlement. Excluded Class Members (i.e., Non-Participating Class Members) will not receive Individual Class Payments, but will preserve their rights to personally pursue wage and hour claims against Defendant.

You cannot opt-out of the PAGA portion of the Settlement. Class Members who exclude themselves from the Class Settlement (Non-Participating Class Members) remain eligible for Individual PAGA Payments and are required to give up their right to assert PAGA claims against Defendant based on the PAGA Period facts alleged in the Action.

7. The Proposed Settlement Will be Void if the Court Denies Final Approval. It is possible the Court will decline to grant Final Approval of the Settlement or decline enter a Judgment. It is also possible the Court will enter a Judgment that is reversed on appeal. Plaintiffs and Defendant have agreed that, in either case, the Settlement will be void: Defendant will not pay any money and Class Members will not release any claims against Defendant.
8. Administrator. The Court has appointed a neutral company, [name] (the “Administrator”) to send this Notice, calculate and make payments, and process Class Members’ Requests for Exclusion. The Administrator will also decide Class Member Challenges over Workweeks, mail and re-mail settlement checks and tax forms, and perform other tasks necessary to administer the Settlement. The Administrator’s contact information is contained in Section 9 of this Notice.
9. Participating Class Members’ Release. After the Judgment is final and Defendant has fully funded the Gross Settlement and separately paid all employer payroll taxes, Participating Class Members will be legally barred from asserting any of the claims released under the Settlement. This means that unless you opted out by validly excluding yourself from the Class Settlement, you cannot sue, continue to sue, or be part of any other lawsuit against Defendant or related entities for wages based on the Class Period facts and PAGA penalties based on PAGA Period facts, as alleged in the Action and resolved by this Settlement.

The Participating Class Members will be bound by the following release:

All Participating Class Members, on behalf of themselves and their respective former and present representatives, agents, attorneys, heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns, release Released Parties from (i) all claims that were alleged, or reasonably could have been alleged, based on the Class Period facts stated in the Operative Complaint and ascertained in the course of the Action, including, 1) Failure to Provide Meal Breaks; 2) Failure to Provide Rest Breaks; 3) Failure to Pay Overtime Wages; 4) Waiting Time Penalties; 5) Failure to Provide Itemized Wage Statements. Except as set forth in Section 5.3 of this Agreement, Participating Class Members do not release any other claims, including claims for vested benefits, wrongful termination, violation of the Fair Employment and Housing Act, unemployment insurance, disability, social security, workers’ compensation, or claims based on facts occurring outside the Class Period.

10. Aggrieved Employees’ PAGA Release. After the Court’s judgment is final, and Defendant has paid the Gross Settlement (and separately paid the employer-side payroll taxes), all Aggrieved Employees will be barred from asserting PAGA claims against Defendant, whether or not they exclude themselves from the Settlement. This means that all Aggrieved Employees, including those who are Participating Class Members and those who opt-out of the Class Settlement, cannot sue, continue to sue, or participate in any other PAGA claim against Defendant or its related entities based on the PAGA Period facts alleged in the Action and resolved by this Settlement.

The Aggrieved Employees' Releases for Participating and Non-Participating Class Members are as follows:

All Non-Participating Class Members who are Aggrieved Employees are deemed to release, on behalf of themselves and their respective former and present representatives, agents, attorneys, heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns, the Released Parties from all claims for PAGA penalties that were alleged, or reasonably could have been alleged, based on the PAGA Period facts stated in the Operative Complaint, Plaintiff's November 24, 2020 PAGA Letter, and ascertained in the course of the Action, including, 1) Failure to Provide Meal Breaks; 2) Failure to Provide Rest Breaks; 3) Failure to Pay Overtime Wages; 4) Waiting Time Penalties; 5) Failure to Provide Itemized Wage Statements.

4. HOW WILL THE ADMINISTRATOR CALCULATE MY PAYMENT?

1. Individual Class Payments. The Administrator will calculate Individual Class Payments by (a) dividing the Net Settlement Amount by the total number of Workweeks worked by all Participating Class Members, and (b) multiplying the result by the number of Workweeks worked by each individual Participating Class Member.
2. Individual PAGA Payments. The Administrator will calculate Individual PAGA Payments by (a) dividing $3,750.00 by the total number of PAGA Pay Periods worked by all Aggrieved Employees and (b) multiplying the result by the number of PAGA Period Pay Periods worked by each individual Aggrieved Employee.
3. Workweek/Pay Period Challenges. The number of Class Workweeks you worked during the Class Period and the number of PAGA Pay Periods you worked during the PAGA Period, as recorded in Defendant's records, are stated in the first page of this Notice. You have until [date] to challenge the number of Workweeks and/or Pay Periods credited to you. You can submit your challenge by signing and sending a letter to the Administrator via mail, email or fax. Section 9 of this Notice has the Administrator's contact information.

You need to support your challenge by sending copies of pay stubs or other records. The Administrator will accept Defendant's calculation of Workweeks and/or Pay Periods based on Defendant's records as accurate unless you send copies of records containing contrary information. You should send copies rather than originals because the documents will not be returned to you. The Administrator will resolve Workweek and/or Pay Period challenges based on your submission and on input from Class Counsel (who will advocate on behalf of Participating Class Members) and Defendant's Counsel. The Administrator's decision is final. You can't appeal or otherwise challenge its final decision.

5. HOW WILL I GET PAID?

1. Participating Class Members. The Administrator will send, by U.S. mail, a single check to every Participating Class Member (i.e., every Class Member who doesn't opt-out) including those who also qualify as Aggrieved Employees. The single check will combine the Individual Class Payment and the Individual PAGA Payment.
2. Non-Participating Class Members. The Administrator will send, by U.S. mail, a single Individual PAGA Payment check to every Aggrieved Employee who opts out of the Class Settlement (i.e., every Non-Participating Class Member).

Your check will be sent to the same address as this Notice. If you change your address, be sure to notify the Administrator as soon as possible. Section 9 of this Notice has the Administrator's contact information.

6. HOW DO I OPT-OUT OF THE CLASS SETTLEMENT?

Submit a written and signed letter with your name, present address, telephone number, and a simple statement that you do not want to participate in the Settlement. The Administrator will exclude you based on any writing communicating your request be excluded. Be sure to personally sign your request, identify the Action as Farzad Azima v. Freenjoy, Inc. and include your identifying information (full name, address, telephone number, approximate dates of employment, and social security number for verification purposes). You must make the request yourself. If someone else makes the request for you, it will not be valid. The Administrator must be sent your request to be excluded by [date], or it will be invalid. Section 9 of the Notice has the Administrator's contact information.

7. HOW DO I OBJECT TO THE SETTLEMENT?

Only Participating Class Members have the right to object to the Settlement. Before deciding whether to object, you may wish to see what Plaintiff and Defendant are asking the Court to approve. At least 15 days before the [date] Final Approval Hearing, Class Counsel and/or Plaintiff will file in Court (1) a Motion for Final Approval that includes, among other things, the reasons why the proposed Settlement is fair, and (2) a Motion for Fees, Litigation Expenses and Service Award stating (i) the amount Class Counsel is requesting for attorneys' fees and litigation expenses; and (ii) the amount Plaintiff is requesting as a Class Representative Service Award. Upon reasonable request, Class Counsel (whose contact information is in Section 9 of this Notice) will send you copies of these documents at no cost to you. You can also view them on the Administrator's Website [need details] or the Court's website [need details].

A Participating Class Member who disagrees with any aspect of the Agreement, the Motion for Final Approval and/or Motion for Fees, Litigation Expenses and Service Award may wish to object, for example, that the proposed Settlement is unfair, or that the amounts requested by Class Counsel or Plaintiff are too high or too low. The deadline for sending written objections to the Administrator is [date]. Be sure to tell the Administrator what you object to, why you object, and any facts that support your objection. Make sure you identify the Action (Farzad Azima v. Freenjoy, Inc.) and include your name, current address, telephone number, and approximate dates of employment for Defendant and sign the objection. Section 9 of this Notice has the Administrator's contact information.

Alternatively, a Participating Class Member can object (or personally retain a lawyer to object at your own cost) by attending the Final Approval Hearing. You (or your attorney) should be ready to tell the Court what you object to, why you object, and any facts that support your objection. Legal Fees Cross New Mark: $1,500 an Hour

Billing rates for partners at elite corporate law firms keep rising, despite low inflation, weak demand

Updated Feb. 9, 2016 10:11 a.m. ET

The day of the $1,500-an-hour lawyer has arrived.

Partners at some of the nation's top law firms are approaching—and, in a few cases, surpassing—that watershed billing rate, making the $1,000-an-hour legal fees that once seemed so steep look quaint by comparison.

Despite low inflation and weak demand for legal services, rates at large corporate law firms have risen by 3% to 4% a year since the economic downturn, according to Citi Private Bank's Law Firm Group.

“We just raise them every year,” said John Altorelli, a finance lawyer at DLA Piper LLP in New York, who says the firm has set his rate at more than $1,500 an hour. Mr. Altorelli, who filed for personal bankruptcy in 2014 to halt a legal battle with the estate of his former law firm, Dewey & LeBoeuf LLP, cracked the $1,000-an-hour mark a decade ago. His fees have risen steadily ever since.

To soften the blow to clients, Mr. Altorelli does more than half his work on some kind of fixed-fee basis. “Using hourly rates is really anachronistic, but we still do it,” he said.

Raising rates ensures that law firms keep up with the competition and helps them wrest more money from clients, who routinely demand discounts for all but the most sensitive work.

“If you think of the rules of supply and demand, how in the world can they keep raising their rates?” said Jeff Carr, a former general counsel of oil-and-gas services and equipment company FMC Technologies who for years has been an outspoken opponent of hourly legal rates.

The rate creep has boosted law firms’ revenue at a time when many of them are under pressure from lower-cost legal-service providers and corporate clients that are keeping more legal work in-house. Revenue at law firms rose 4% last year, according to Wells Fargo Private Bank’s Legal Specialty Group, though demand rose just 0.5%.

“Lots of law firms will charge whatever the market can bear,” said the head of one of the nation’s 200 largest law firms.

Documents filed in chapter 11 bankruptcy cases offer a rare public glimpse at mounting fees. These court filings show the rates of partners specializing in corporate restructuring, as well as those with specialties like tax, litigation and corporate law.

A review of filings over the past three months in about two dozen bankruptcy cases shows that senior partners routinely charge between $1,200 and $1,300 an hour, with top rates at several large law firms exceeding $1,400.

Proskauer Rose LLP’s hourly partner billing rate has climbed as high as $1,475, while Ropes & Gray LLP’s tops out at $1,450, court papers show.

Kirkland & Ellis LLP’s top hourly billing rate is now $1,445. And rates at two firms—Akin Gump Strauss Hauer & Feld LLP and Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP—peak at $1,425 an hour.

Representatives of the law firms declined to comment.

THE WALL STREET JOURNAL.

Martin Bienenstock, who leads Proskauer's restructuring practice, called the $1,225 an hour he billed clients last year "a market rate similar to my peers at other firms," and said he charges the same rate for nonbankruptcy work.

"The clients have kept coming back and growing during my 38-year career," he said in an email, adding that clients generally prefer dealing directly with senior lawyers versus younger associates with lower rates.

In disclosing their firmwide rate increases, many firms tell the courts it is a standard way of keeping pace with "economic and other conditions." These include rising fixed costs, such as real estate and salaries.

In theory, a law-firm partner's pay rises and falls with the success of the firm. But, as competition for top talent increases, many firms feel the need to guarantee salaries or ensure a partner's pay doesn't fall, even in down years.

Still, only elite lawyers can charge $1,400 an hour or more. Such rates are found almost exclusively in New York and other major markets, and only in the least price-sensitive fields like mergers and acquisitions, restructuring, tax, antitrust and high-stakes litigation and appeals.

For lawyers at the very top of those fields, hourly rates can hit $1,800 or even $1,950.

"You have a very few people at the very top where price is almost no object," said legal consultant Bruce MacEwen, who likens it to the way celebrities, sports stars and best-selling authors are paid. "It is a talent market."

Most lawyers in the U.S. fall well below those high marks. In a survey of in-house legal departments by BTI Consulting Group, the average highest rate paid for law-firm partners was $875 an hour in 2015, up more than 27% from three years earlier. Of the respondents, 38% had paid more than $1,000 an hour for a lawyer, and the highest rate those in the survey paid was $1,600 an hour.

For many firms, the stated rate is simply a starting point in discussions with corporate law departments. As a result, said legal consultant Ward Bower of Altman Weil, “sophisticated” law firms tend to implement annual rate increases to offset clients’ requests for discounts.

Such discounts are becoming more commonplace. A decade ago, law firms could typically get clients to pay around 92% of their stated rates, according to Thomson Reuters Peer Monitor. Last year, that fell to less than 83%.

Smaller companies can get squeezed the most on fees, because they don’t send enough work to any one law firm to get the best deals.

Companies with $4 billion or more in annual revenue were twice as likely as those with less than $100 million in revenue to use some form of alternative fee, according to a survey from industry trade group the Association of Corporate Counsel.

Some industry watchers view the raise-and-discount approach with skepticism.

“If clients are pushing back on rates, the answer isn’t to raise them” and then ask for a discount, Mr. MacEwen said. “The answer is to provide better total value.”

* $i_{\frac{1}{2}}$ Years Out of Law School $i_{\frac{1}{2}}$ is calculated from June 1 of each year, when most law students graduate. $i_{\frac{1}{2}}1-3$ " includes an attorney in his 1st, 2nd and 3rd years of practice, measured from date of graduation (June 1). $i_{\frac{1}{2}}4-7$ " applies to attorneys in their 4th, 5th, 6th and 7th years of practice. An attorney who graduated in May 1996 would be in tier $i_{\frac{1}{2}}1-3$ " from June 1, 1996 until May 31, 1999, would move into tier $i_{\frac{1}{2}}4-7$ " on June 1, 1999, and tier $i_{\frac{1}{2}}8-10$ " on June 1, 2003.
