ORDER AND JUDGMENT APPROVING
PAGA SETTLEMENT, NOTICE TO AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES AND
DISTRIBUTION OF THE GROSS PROCEEDS
OF SETTLEMENT (rev)

Date: November 18, 2021
Time: 2:00 PM
Dept: CX 102

29 The Motion for Approval of PAGA Settlement Notice to Aggrieved Employees and Distribution of
30 the Gross Proceeds of Settlement by Plaintiff Rebecca Dalton came regularly on calendar on November
31 18, 2021, in Department CX 102, before the Honorable Peter Wilson, Judge. Appearing for the moving
32 party was counsel of record, Maurice Mandel II. Defendants (did not appear) (appeared through counsel

1 Klatte, Budensiek & Young-Agriesti, LLP., Summer Young-Agriesti, Esq.) The court notes the LWDA
2 was timely served with the moving papers and notice of this motion yet did not file any objections or
3 opposition to this motion.

4 The case at issue includes a number of non-PAGA, individual claims by Plaintiff Rebecca Dalton
5 (Plaintiff) against her former employer, including claims arising under the California Fair Employment
6 and Housing Act (FEHA or FEHA claims); and wage claims under both the California Labor Code and
7 the California Unfair Competition Law (UCL), in a complaint filed January 8, 2021. Plaintiff filed a First
8 Amended Complaint (FAC), on March 29, 2021, which is the operative pleading, and which included an
9 additional Representative claim for violations of the California Labor Code pursuant to the California
10 Private Attorneys General Act (PAGA). Plaintiff's instant motion, and other associated filings followed.
11 In these papers, the parties established that the statutory requirements of a PAGA claim and settlement
12 were properly met (Mot. at pp 6-7), explained why the proposed settlement is fair and reasonable (id. at pp 13 8-17), and provided support for the requested proposed distributions, including the attorney's fees and 14 costs.

15 Having considered the parties' Settlement Agreement ("Settlement"), the documents and evidence
16 presented in support thereof, and recognizing the disputed factual and legal issues involved in this case,
17 the risks of further prosecution, the benefits to be received by the State of California and the Aggrieved
18 Employees pursuant to the Settlement, the fair, reasonable, and adequate nature of the settlement obtained
19 as a result of good faith arm's-length negotiations between the parties, with the participation of an
20 independent and experienced employment mediator, the Court hereby makes a final ruling that the 21 settlement is approved pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(l); and approves the proposed individual settlement
22 distribution to Plaintiff Rebecca Dalton and her attorney's of record, PAGA payment, distribution of 23 PAGA proceeds to Aggrieved Employees, Notice of PAGA settlement to Aggrieved Employees, and
24 payment to the settlement administrator, Phoenix Settlement Administrators, as more fully ordered below..

1 Good cause appearing therefor, the Court hereby GRANTS Plaintiff's Motion for Settlement
2 Approval of Claims Brought under the Private Attorneys General Act and Reasonable Attorneys' Fees,
3 Costs, and Enhancement Award and ORDERS as follows:

5 IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

- 6 1. Definitions:

- d. “Defendant Releasees” means Defendants and their respective agents, attorneys, insurers, past, present and future divisions, affiliates, any DBAs, predecessors, successors, shareholders, officers, directors, managers, employees, trustees, representatives, administrators, fiduciaries, assigns, subrogees, executors, partners, parents, subsidiaries, privies, and/or any and all persons and/or corporate entities acting by, through, under or in concert with any of them.
- e. “Gross Settlement Amount” refers to the maximum settlement amount of $85,000.00 agreed to by the parties at the mediation held on August 30, 2021 with an independent mediator. The Gross Settlement amount includes all monies for payment of both Plaintiff’s individual claims and the PAGA payments to the LWDA and the Aggrieved Employees.
- f. “LWDA” means the Labor and Workforce Development Agency of the state of California.
- g. “PAGA Notice” means the notice to the Aggrieved Employees submitted by Plaintiff and approved by this Order.
- h. “Gross PAGA settlement” means the $1000.00 paid by Defendants in settlement of the PAGA claims, and includes the $750.00 paid to the LWDA, and the $250.00 paid to the Aggrieved Employees.
- i. “Released Claims” means those claims released by the Aggrieved Employees.
2. The Court finds the applicable requirements of the California Code of Civil Procedure §

1 382 and California Rules of Court, Rule 3.769 have been satisfied with respect to the Settlement; the
2 LWDA; and the Aggrieved Employees.

3 3. The Court approves Plaintiff Rebecca Dalton to serve as representative of the PAGA
4 group.

6 4. The Court appoints and approves the law firms of William M. Crosby, Esq.; and Maurice
7 Mandel II, Esq., to serve as Representative Counsel for the represented PAGA group.

8 5. The Court has appointed Phoenix Settlement Administrators (Phoenix) to serve as the 9 Claims Administrator.

10 6. The Court finds that the Notice of PAGA Settlement- 1. Fully and accurately informs the 11 members of the PAGA group of all material terms of the Settlement, 2. Was the best notice practicable
12 under the circumstances, 3. Was valid, due and sufficient notice to all members of the PAGA group, 4.
13 Fully complied with the laws of the State of California, the United States Constitution, due process and 14 other applicable law.
15

16 7. Pursuant to California law, the Court hereby grants Approval of the Settlement, and finds it
17 reasonable and adequate and in the best interests of the PAGA group as a whole. More specifically, the 18 Court finds:
19

- 20 a. The Settlement was reached following meaningful discovery and investigation conducted
21 by Representative Counsel,
22 b. The Settlement is the result of serious, informed, adversarial and arms length negotiations
23 between the Parties (assisted by an independent, neutral mediator), and 24 c. The terms of the Settlement are in all respects, fair, adequate and reasonable. In so finding,
25 the Court has considered all the Evidence presented, including evidence regarding the 26 strength of Plaintiffs' cases, the risk, expense and complexity of the claims presented, the 27 likely duration of further litigation, the monetary payments provided in the Settlement, the 28

1 extent of investigation and discovery completed, and the experience and views of Class
2 Counsel. The Court has further considered the fact that there have been no objections or
3 Opposition to the Settlement from the represented parties or the LWDA, and that the
4 LWDA was provided notice of this hearing and the moving papers.

6 8. The court concludes that the $85,000.00 gross settlement, as approved, is fair, adequate and
7 reasonable, and approves the following specific awards:

- 8 a. The Court notes that Plaintiff Rebecca Dalton has waived an enhancement award for the 9 PAGA recovery; and approves the distributions to Plaintiff Dalton of $1,500.00 as regular 10 wages, subject to withholding and employment taxes, reported on a W-2 (prepared by the 11 Defendants), and $51,023.89 as general damages for the alleged violations of the FEHA,
12 and for interest, and penalties for violations of the Labor Code and UCL. (Unfair 13 Competition Law; Bus.&Prof. Code §§ 179200 et. seq.), reported on a 1099. The 14 Settlement Administrator is relieved of duties in handling these distributions which shall be 15 sent from the Defendants directly to William M. Crosby, counsel for Plaintiff Dalton.
16
17 b. $3326.11 to plaintiffs' counsel for plaintiffs' attorney costs, as requested. The Settlement
18 Administrator is relieved of duties in handling this distribution which shall be sent from the 19 Defendants directly to William M. Crosby, counsel for Plaintiff Dalton.;
20
21 c. $28,000.00 as attorney's fees, for representation of the individual Plaintiff, Rebecca
22 Dalton, on her individual claims for violation of the FEHA, the UCL, and the Labor Code.
23 The Court notes that counsel has waived any fee for representation of the PAGA group.
24 The Court finds these amounts are fair and reasonable given the work performed by
25 Plaintiff's counsel on the individual claims, the complexity and novelty of the issues
26 presented, the significant risks incurred in handling this matter on a contingency basis and 27 advancing substantial costs without any guarantee of reimbursement or recovery, and in consideration of conducting an investigation and a recovery for the PAGA group, without seeking additional compensation therefore. The Settlement Administrator is relieved of duties in handling this distribution which shall be sent from the Defendants directly to William M. Crosby, counsel for Plaintiff Dalton.
28

- d. $150.00 to the Administrator, Phoenix Settlement Administrators, as requested; and
- e. $750.00 to the LWDA for its share of the gross amount of $1000.00 PAGA penalties, as requested.
- f. The aggrieved employees, numbering 22, shall receive a proportionate share of the $250.00 for PAGA penalties that is not paid to the LWDA; on a per capita basis. The payment will be about $11.36 per person. This shall be distributed by the administrator, on information provided by the employer.

9. Any interest accumulated while funds were on deposit with the Settlement Administrator shall be distributed proportionately.
