DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

COMES NOW, Plaintiffs ANNA M. ANDRADE-SALINAS and WISDOM KUNITZ (“Plaintiffs,” “Plaintiff Andrade-Salinas,” and “Plaintiff Kunitz”), individually, and on behalf of other members of the general public similarly situated and aggrieved employees pursuant to the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 (“PAGA”), and alleges as follows:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This class action is brought pursuant to the Code of Civil Procedure section 382. The monetary damages and restitution sought by Plaintiffs exceeds the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court and will be established according to proof at trial.

2. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to the California Constitution, Article VI, Section 10, which grants the superior court “original jurisdiction in all other causes” except those given by statute to other courts. The statutes under which this action is brought do not specify any other basis for jurisdiction.

3. This Court has jurisdiction over Defendants because, upon information and belief, Defendants are citizens of California and have sufficient minimum contacts in California, or otherwise intentionally avail themselves of the California market so as to render the exercise of jurisdiction over them by the California courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice.

4. Venue is proper in this Court because, upon information and belief, Defendants maintain offices, have agents, and/or transact business in the State of California, including the County of Sacramento. The majority of the acts and omissions alleged herein relating to Plaintiffs took place in the State of California. Defendants employed Plaintiffs within the State of California, County of Sacramento.

PARTIES

5. Plaintiff Andrade-Salinas and Plaintiff Kunitz are individuals residing in the State of California, County of Sacramento.

1 6. Defendant GOLDEN POND, L.P., at all times herein mentioned, was and is,
2 upon information and belief, a California corporation, and at all times herein mentioned, was
3 and is, an employer whose employees are engaged throughout the State of California,
4 including the County of Sacramento.

5 7. At all relevant times, Defendant GOLDEN POND, L.P. was the “employer” of 6 Plaintiffs within the meaning of all applicable California laws and statutes.

7 8. At all times herein relevant, Defendants GOLDEN POND, L.P. and DOES 1
8 through 100, and each of them, were the agents, partners, joint venturers, joint employers,
9 representatives, servants, employees, successors-in-interest, co-conspirators and assigns, each
10 of the other, and at all times relevant hereto were acting within the course and scope of their 11 authority as such agents, partners, joint venturers, joint employers, representatives, servants,
12 employees, successors, co-conspirators and assigns, and all acts or omissions alleged herein
13 were duly committed with the ratification, knowledge, permission, encouragement,
14 authorization, and consent of each defendant designated herein.

15 9. The true names and capacities, whether corporate, associate, individual or 16 otherwise, of Defendants DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, are unknown to Plaintiffs, who sue
17 said defendants by such fictitious names. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based on 18 that information and belief alleges, that each of the Defendants designated as a DOE is legally
19 responsible for the events and happenings referred to in this Complaint, and unlawfully caused
20 the injuries and damages to Plaintiffs and the other class members as alleged in this Complaint.
21 Plaintiffs will seek leave of court to amend this Complaint to show the true names and 22 capacities when the same have been ascertained.

23 10. Defendants GOLDEN POND, L.P. and DOES 1 through 100 will hereinafter
24 collectively be referred to as “Defendants.”

25 ///

26 ///

27 ///

11. Plaintiffs further allege that Defendants directly or indirectly controlled or affected the working conditions, wages, working hours, and conditions of employment of Plaintiffs and the other class members so as to make each of said Defendants employers and employers liable under the statutory provisions set forth herein.

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

12. Plaintiffs bring this action on their own behalf and on behalf of all other members of the general public similarly situated, and, thus, seeks class certification under Code of Civil Procedure section 382.

13. The proposed class is defined as follows:

All current and former hourly-paid, non-exempt employees of Defendants within the State of California at any time during the period from August 23, 2016 to August 5, 2022, excluding employees who signed Pick-Up Stix settlements.

14. Plaintiffs reserve the right to establish subclasses as appropriate.

15. The class is ascertainable and there is a well-defined community of interest in the litigation:

a. Numerosity: The class members are so numerous that joinder of all class members is impracticable. The membership of the entire class is unknown to Plaintiffs at this time. However, the class is estimated to be greater than three hundred (300) individuals and the identity of such membership is readily ascertainable by inspection of Defendants' employment records.

b. Typicality: Plaintiffs' claims are typical of all other class members' claims as demonstrated herein. Plaintiffs will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the other class members with whom they have a well-defined community of interest.

1 c. Adequacy: Plaintiffs will fairly and adequately protect the interests of 2 each class member, with whom they have a well-defined community of 3 interest and typicality of claims, as demonstrated herein. Plaintiffs have 4 no interest that is antagonistic to the other class members. Plaintiffs'
5 attorneys, the proposed class counsel, are versed in the rules governing
6 class action discovery, certification, and settlement. Plaintiffs have 7 incurred, and during the pendency of this action will continue to incur,
8 costs and attorneys' fees, that have been, are, and will be necessarily 9 expended for the prosecution of this action for the substantial benefit of 10 each class member.

11 d. Superiority: A class action is superior to other available methods for the 12 fair and efficient adjudication of this litigation because individual joinder
13 of all class members is impractical.

14 e. Public Policy Considerations: Certification of this lawsuit as a class
15 action will advance public policy objectives. Employers of this great 16 state violate employment and labor laws every day. Current employees
17 are often afraid to assert their rights out of fear of direct or indirect
18 retaliation. However, class actions provide the class members who are 19 not named in the complaint anonymity that allows for the vindication of 20 their rights.

21 16. There are common questions of law and fact as to the class members that 22 predominate over questions affecting only individual members. The following common
23 questions of law or fact, among others, exist as to the members of the class:

24 a. Whether Defendants' failure to pay wages, without abatement or 25 reduction, in accordance with the Labor Code, was willful;

26 ///

27 ///

- b. Whether Defendants failed to pay their hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the State of California for all hours worked, missed meal periods and rest breaks in violation of the law;
- c. Whether Defendants required Plaintiffs and the other class members to work over eight (8) hours per day and/or over forty (40) hours per week and failed to pay the legally required overtime compensation to Plaintiffs and the other class members;
- d. Whether Defendants properly calculated the regular rate for Plaintiffs and the other class members to worked overtime and earned incentive pay and sick leave pay;
- e. Whether Defendants deprived Plaintiffs and the other class members of meal and/or rest periods or required Plaintiffs and the other class members to work during meal and/or rest periods without compensation;
- f. Whether Defendants failed to pay minimum wages to Plaintiffs and the other class members for all hours worked;
- g. Whether Defendants failed to pay all wages due to Plaintiffs and the other class members within the required time upon their discharge or resignation;
- h. Whether Defendants failed to timely pay all wages due to Plaintiffs and the other class members during their employment;
- i. Whether Defendants complied with wage reporting as required by the Labor Code, including, inter alia, section 226;
- j. Whether Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiffs and the other class members for necessary business-related expenses and costs;
- k. Whether Defendants' conduct was willful or reckless;
- l. Whether Defendants engaged in unfair business practices in violation of Business & Professions Code section 17200, et seq.;

1 m. The appropriate amount of damages, restitution, and/or monetary
2 penalties resulting from Defendants' violation of the law; and

3 n. Whether Plaintiffs and the other class members are entitled to 4 compensatory damages pursuant to the Labor Code.

5 GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

6 17. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants employed Plaintiffs
7 and other persons as hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the State of California.

8 18. Defendants, jointly and severally, employ Plaintiff Andrade-Salinas as an 9 hourly-paid, non-exempt employee from September of 2019 to April of 2020 in the State of 10 California, County of Sacramento. Defendants, jointly and severally, employ Plaintiff Kunitz
11 as an hourly-paid, non-exempt employee from May 2020 to June 2021 in the State of 12 California, County of Sacramento.

14 members; to set work rules and conditions governing Plaintiffs' and other class members'
15 employment; and to supervise their daily employment activities.

17 Plaintiffs and other class members' employment for them to be joint employers of Plaintiffs
18 and the other class members.

20 class members.

21 22. Defendants continue to employ hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the 22 State of California.

27 ///

1 24. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants
2 engaged in a uniform policy and systematic scheme of wage abuse against their hourly-paid or
3 non-exempt employees within the State of California. This scheme involved, inter alia, failing
4 to pay them for all hours worked, sick leave, missed meal periods, and missed rest breaks in 5 violation of the law.

6 25. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants
7 knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and the other class members were entitled to receive
8 certain wages for overtime compensation and that Plaintiffs and the other class members were 9 not receiving wages for overtime compensation.

10 26. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants
11 failed to provide Plaintiffs and the other class members the required rest and meal periods
12 during the relevant time period as required under the Industrial Welfare Commission Wage
13 Orders and thus they are entitled to any and all applicable penalties.

14 27. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants
15 knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and the other class members were entitled to receive
16 all timely and complete meal periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiffs'
17 and the other class members' regular rate of pay when a meal period was missed, late or 18 interrupted, and that Plaintiffs and the other class members did not receive all timely and 19 proper meal periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at their regular rate of pay when 20 a meal period was missed.

21 28. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants
22 knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and other class members were entitled to receive all
23 timely rest periods without interruption or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiffs 24 and the other class members' regular rate of pay when a rest period was missed, late or 25 interrupted, and that Plaintiffs and the other class members did not receive all rest periods or 26 payment of one additional hour of pay at their regular rate of pay when a rest period was 27 missed.

1 29. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants
2 knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and the other class members were entitled to receive
3 at least minimum wages for compensation and that Plaintiffs and the other class members were 4 not receiving at least minimum wages for all hours worked.

5 30. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants
6 knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and the other class members were entitled to receive
7 the wages owed to them upon discharge or resignation, including overtime and minimum
8 wages and meal and rest period premiums, and that Plaintiffs and the other class members did
9 not, in fact, receive such wages owed to them at the time of their discharge or resignation.

10 31. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants
11 knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and the other class members were entitled to receive
12 complete and accurate wage statements in accordance with the law, but, in fact, Plaintiffs and 13 the other class members did not receive complete and accurate wage statements from 14 Defendants. The deficiencies included, inter alia, the failure to include the total number of 15 hours worked by Plaintiffs and the other class members.

16 32. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants
17 knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and the other class members were entitled to 18 reimbursement for necessary business-related expenses.

19 33. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants
20 knew or should have known that Defendants had to keep complete and accurate payroll records
21 for Plaintiffs and the other class members in accordance with the law, but, in fact, did not keep 22 complete and accurate payroll records for Plaintiffs and the other class members.

23 ///

24 ///

25 ///

1 34. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants
2 knew or should have known that they had a duty to compensate Plaintiffs and the other class
3 members pursuant to the law, and that Defendants had the financial ability to pay such
4 compensation, but willfully, knowingly, and intentionally failed to do so, and falsely
5 represented to Plaintiffs and the other class members that they were properly denied wages, all
6 in order to increase Defendants' profits.

7 35. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants failed to pay
8 overtime wages to Plaintiffs and the other class members for all hours worked. Plaintiffs and 9 other class members were required to work more than eight (8) hours per day and/or forty (40)

25 compensate Plaintiffs and the other class members pursuant to the law in order to increase
26 Defendants' profits.

43. Labor Code section 218 states that nothing in Article 1 of the Labor Code shall limit the right of any wage claimant to “sue directly . . . for any wages or penalty due to him [or her] under this article.”

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code §§ 510 and 1198)

(Against GOLDEN POND, L.P. and DOES 1 through 100)

44. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference the allegations contained in Paragraphs 1 through 43, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

45. Labor Code section 1198 and the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission (“IWC”) Wage Order provide that it is unlawful to employ persons without compensating them at a rate of pay either time-and-one-half or two-times that person’s regular rate of pay, depending on the number of hours worked by the person on a daily or weekly basis.

46. Specifically, the applicable IWC Wage Order provides that Defendants are and were required to pay Plaintiffs and the other class members employed by Defendants, who work(ed) more than eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek, at the rate of time-and-one-half for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek.

47. The applicable IWC Wage Order further provides that Defendants are and were required to pay Plaintiffs and the other class members overtime compensation at a rate of two times their regular rate of pay for all hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in a day.

48. Labor Code section 510 codifies the right to overtime compensation at one-and-one-half times the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or forty (40) hours in a week or for the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh day of work, and overtime compensation at twice the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in a day or in excess of eight (8) hours in a day on the seventh day of work.

49. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Plaintiffs and the other class members worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day, and/or in excess of forty (40) hours in a week.

50. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants intentionally and willfully failed to pay overtime wages owed to Plaintiffs and the other class members.

51. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiffs and the other class members the unpaid balance of overtime compensation, as required by the laws, violates the provisions of Labor Code sections 510 and 1198, and is therefore unlawful.

52. Pursuant to Labor Code section 1194, Plaintiffs and the other class members are entitled to recover unpaid overtime compensation, as well as interest, costs, and attorneys' fees.

12 showing the month, day, and year, and a copy of the statement or a record of the deductions
13 shall be kept on file by the employer for at least three years at the place of employment or at a
14 central location within the State of California.

15 88. Defendants have intentionally and willfully failed to provide Plaintiffs and the 16 other class members with complete and accurate wage statements. The deficiencies include
17 but are not limited to: the failure to include the total number of hours worked by Plaintiffs and 18 other class members.

19 89. As a result of Defendants' violation of Labor Code section 226(a), Plaintiffs and

21 90. More specifically, Plaintiffs and the other class members have been injured by 22 Defendants' intentional and willful violation of Labor Code section 226(a) because they were 23 denied both their legal right to receive, and their protected interest in receiving, accurate and 24 itemized wage statements pursuant to Labor Code section 226(a).

25 91. Plaintiffs and the other class members are entitled to recover from Defendants
26 the greater of their actual damages caused by Defendants' failure to comply with Labor Code
27 section 226(a), or an aggregate penalty not exceeding four thousand dollars per employee.

1 97. PAGA expressly establishes that any provision of the Labor Code which
2 provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the LWDA, or any of its 3 departments, divisions, commissions, boards, agencies or employees for a violation of the 4 Labor Code, may be recovered through a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on 5 behalf of himself or herself, and other current or former employees.

6 98. On December 11, 2020, Plaintiff Andrade-Salinas provided written notice to the 7 LWDA and Defendants of the specific provisions of the Labor Code she contends were 8 violated, and the theories supporting her contentions. Attached hereto as Exhibit 1 and 9 incorporated by reference is a copy of the December 11, 2020 written notice to the LWDA.
10 Plaintiff Andrade-Salinas believes that on or about February 15, 2021 the sixty-five (65) day
11 notice period expired as to all Defendants and the LWDA did not take any action to investigate
12 or prosecute this matter. Therefore, Plaintiff Andrade-Salinas exhausted the statutory time
13 period to bring this action.

14 99. Plaintiff Andrade-Salinas and the other hourly-paid or non-exempt employees
15 are “aggrieved employees” as defined by Labor Code section 2699(c) in that they are all
16 current and former hourly-paid, non-exempt employees of Defendants within the State of 17 California at any time during the period from December 11, 2019 to August 5, 2022, excluding 18 employees who signed Pick-Up Stix settlements, and one or more of the alleged violations was 19 committed against them.

20 Failure to Pay Minimum and Overtime Wages

21 100. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to compensate their non-
22 exempt employees minimum wages for all hours worked and overtime wages for all hours
23 worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or forty (40) hours in a workweek, pursuant to the 24 mandate of Labor Code sections 510, 1194, 1197, and 1198.

25 101. As a policy and practice, Defendants failed to compensate Plaintiff Andrade-
26 Salinas and the other aggrieved current and former employees for all hours worked, resulting 27 in a failure to pay all minimum wages and overtime wages, where applicable.
28

1 Failure to Provide Meal Periods and Rest Breaks

2 102. In accordance with the mandates of Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512,
3 Defendants were required to authorize and permit their non-exempt employees to take a 10-
4 minute rest break for every four (4) hours worked or major fraction thereof and were further
5 required to provide their non-exempt employees with a 30-minute meal period for every five 6 (5) hours worked.

7 103. As a policy and practice, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff Andrade-Salinas
8 and the other aggrieved current and former employees with legally-mandated meal periods and 9 rest breaks and failed to pay proper compensation for this failure.

10 Failure to Timely Pay Wages During Employment

11 104. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to pay their employees
12 within a specified time period pursuant to the mandate of Labor Code section 204.

13 105. As a policy and practice, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff Andrade-Salinas and 14 the other aggrieved current and former employees all wages due and owing them within the 15 required time period.

16 Failure to Timely Pay Wages Upon Termination

17 106. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to pay their employees all
18 wages owed in a timely fashion at the end of employment pursuant to Labor Code sections 201
19 to 204.

20 107. As a result of Defendants' Labor Code violations alleged above, Defendants
21 failed to pay Plaintiff Andrade-Salinas and the other aggrieved former employees their final
22 wages pursuant to Labor Code sections 201 to 204 and accordingly owe waiting time penalties
23 pursuant to Labor Code section 203.

24 Failure to Provide Complete and Accurate Wage Statements

25 108. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to keep accurate records
26 regarding their California employees pursuant to the mandate of Labor Code sections 226,
27 1174, and 1776.

1 109. As a result of Defendants' various Labor Code violations, Defendants failed to
2 keep accurate records regarding Plaintiff Andrade-Salinas and the other aggrieved current and 3 former employees. For example, Defendants failed in their affirmative obligation to keep 4 accurate records regarding Plaintiff Andrade-Salinas and the other aggrieved current and
5 former employees' gross wages earned, total hours worked, all deductions, net wages earned,
6 and all applicable hourly rates and the number of hours worked at each hourly rate.

7 Failure to Reimburse Business Expenses

8 110. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to reimburse its 9 employees for any and all necessary expenditures or losses incurred by the employees in direct
10 consequences of the discharge or his or her duties pursuant to the mandate of Labor Code
11 sections 2800 and 2802.

12 111. As a policy and practice, Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiff Andrade-
13 Salinas and the other aggrieved current and former employees for all business expenses
14 incurred and owing them within the required time period.

15 Failure to Provide Paid Sick Days

16 112. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to provide their 17 employees with paid sick days pursuant to Labor Code section 246.

18 113. As a policy and practice, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff Andrade-Salinas
19 and other aggrieved current and former employees with paid sick days pursuant to Labor Code
20 section 246.

21 Penalties

22 114. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699, Plaintiff Andrade-Salinas, individually, 23 and on behalf of the other current and former aggrieved employees, requests and is entitled to 24 recover from Defendants, and each of them, civil penalties, interest, attorneys' fees and costs, 25 including but not limited to:

- 26 a. Penalties under Labor Code section 2699 in the amount of a hundred dollars
27 ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation,
28

1 and two hundred dollars ($200) for each aggrieved employee per pay period
2 for each subsequent violation;

3 b. Penalties under Code of Regulations Title 8 section 11040 in the amount of 4 fifty dollars ($50) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial 5 violation, and one hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per 6 pay period for each subsequent violation;

7 c. Penalties under Labor Code section 210 in addition to, and entirely
8 independent and apart from, any other penalty provided in the Labor Code in 9 the amount of a hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay
10 period for the initial violation, and two hundred dollars ($200) for each
11 aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent violation;

12 d. Penalties under Labor Code section 1197.1 in the amount of a hundred 13 dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial 14 violation, and two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for each aggrieved employee
15 per pay period for each subsequent violation;

16 e. Any and all additional penalties as provided by the Labor Code and/or other 17 statutes; and

18 f. Attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code sections 210, 1194, and 19 2699, and any other applicable statute.

20 NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

21 (Violation of California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.)

22 (Against GOLDEN POND, L.P. and DOES 1 through 100)

23 115. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1
24 through 114, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set
25 forth herein.

21 necessarily limited to the loss of money and/or property.

Re: CLAREMONT RETIREMENT MANAGEMENT SERVICES, INC.

Dear Representative:

We have been retained to represent Anna M. Andrade-Salinas against Claremont Retirement Management Services, Inc. (including any and all affiliates, managers, members, subsidiaries, and parents, and their shareholders, officers, directors, and employees), any individual, owner, officer and managing agent, DOES 1-10 as an "Employer" or person acting on behalf of an "Employer" pursuant to California Labor Code section 558.1, and DOES 11-20¹ for violations of California wage-and-hour laws (hereinafter collectively referred to as "CLAREMONT").

Ms. Andrade-Salinas is pursuing her California Labor Code section 2698, et seq., the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 ("PAGA") claim on a representative basis. Therefore, Ms. Andrade-Salinas may seek penalties and wages for violations of the Labor Code on behalf of the State of California and aggrieved employees, which are recoverable under PAGA. This letter is sent in compliance with the reporting requirements of California Labor Code section 2699.3.

Claremont Retirement Management Services, Inc. is a California corporation located at 10 Crow Canyon Ct. #101, San Ramon, California 94583.

¹ Ms. Andrade-Salinas does not know the true names or capacities, whether individual, partner or corporate, of DOES 1 through 20, inclusive, and for that reason, said DOES are designated under such fictitious names. Ms. Andrade-Salinas will amend this notice when the true names and capacities are known. Ms. Andrade-Salinas is informed and believes that each DOE was responsible in some way for the matters alleged herein and proximately caused Ms. Andrade-Salinas and other current and former aggrieved employees to be subject to the illegal employment practices, wrongs and injuries complained of herein.

CLAREMONT employed Ms. Andrade-Salinas as an hourly-paid non-exempt Caregiver within one year of the date of this letter (until in or around April of 2020²) in the State of California. CLAREMONT directly controlled the wages, hours and working conditions of Ms. Andrade-Salinas and other aggrieved employees' employment, including daily supervision, scheduling, retention/termination and timekeeping.

The "aggrieved employees" that Ms. Andrade-Salinas may seek penalties on behalf of are all current and former hourly-paid or non-exempt employees (whether hired directly or through staffing agencies) of CLAREMONT within the State of California.

CLAREMONT failed to properly pay its hourly-paid or non-exempt employees for all hours worked, failed to properly provide or compensate minimum and overtime wages and for meal and rest breaks, failed to issue compliant wage statements and failed to reimburse for all necessary business-related costs and expenses, thus resulting in other Labor Code violations as stated below.

Pursuant to Huff v. Securitas Security Services, 23 Cal. App. 5th 745, 751 (2018), an employee who brings a representative action and was affected by at least one of the violations alleged in the complaint has standing to pursue penalties on behalf of the state not only for that violation, but for violations affecting other employees as well. Accordingly, Ms. Andrade-Salinas has standing to pursue penalties on behalf of the state for violations affecting all the aggrieved employees at CLAREMONT, regardless of their classification, job title, locations, or whether they were hired directly or through a staffing agency.

CLAREMONT has violated and/or continues to violate, among other provisions of the California Labor Code and applicable wage law, California Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 218.5, 221, 226(a), 226.3, 226.7, 510, 512(a), 558, 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800 and 2802, and the IWC Wage Orders.

² Per Emergency Rule 9 (Tolling statute of limitations for civil causes of action) of the Judicial Council's Emergency Rules Related to COVID-19, all statute of limitations for civil causes of action that exceed 180 days are tolled from April 6, 2020 until October 1, 2020. Therefore, the one (1) year statute of limitations for Ms. Andrade-Salinas' PAGA cause of action is tolled.

California Labor Code sections 510, 1194, and 1198 require employers to pay at least minimum wage for all hours worked, pay time-and-a-half, or double-time overtime wages, and make it unlawful to work employees for hours longer than eight hours in one day and/or over forty hours in one week without paying the premium overtime rates. During the relevant time period, Ms. Andrade-Salinas and other aggrieved employees routinely worked in excess of 8 hours in a day and 40 hours in a week. CLAREMONT failed to compensate Ms. Andrade-Salinas and other aggrieved employees for all hours worked and performing off-the-clock work, including pre- and post-shift, while handling emergencies and during meal breaks. CLAREMONT also failed to include non-discretionary bonuses and incentives in aggrieved employees' regular rate of pay for purposes of overtime compensation. Moreover, CLAREMONT maintained an illegal rounding policy that negatively affected aggrieved employees' time and pay. Therefore, Ms. Andrade-Salinas and other aggrieved employees were entitled to receive certain wages for overtime compensation, but they were not paid for all overtime hours worked.

California Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512 require employers to pay an employee one additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate for each workday that a meal or rest break is not provided. During the relevant time period, CLAREMONT routinely required Ms. Andrade-Salinas and other aggrieved employees to work through, interrupt, cut short, and/or delay their meal and rest breaks to comply with CLAREMONT policies and expectations. CLAREMONT also failed to adequately staff its facilities and provide coverage to Ms. Andrade-Salinas and other aggrieved employees, so they may be relieved of all work duties and take legally compliant meal and rest breaks. Moreover, CLAREMONT failed to authorize and permit Ms. Andrade-Salinas and other aggrieved employees to take the requisite number of meal and rest breaks, including second meal breaks and third rest breaks, when working shifts exceeding 10 hours in length. Despite these facts, CLAREMONT failed to compensate Ms. Andrade-Salinas and other aggrieved employees all the premium wages they were owed.

California Labor Code section 201 requires that if an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately. California Labor Code section 202 requires that if an employee not having a written contract for a definite period quits his or her employment, his or her wages shall become due and payable not later than 72 hours thereafter, unless the employee has given 72 hours previous notice of his or her intention to quit, in which case the employee is entitled to his or her wages at the time of quitting. California Labor Code section 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay, without abatement or reduction, in accordance with Labor Code sections 201, 201.3, 201.5, 201.6, 201.8, 201.9, 202, and 205.5, any wages of an employee who is discharged or who quits, the wages of the employee shall continue as a penalty from the due date thereof at the same rate until paid or until an action therefor is commenced; but the wages shall not continue for more than 30 days. During the relevant time period, CLAREMONT failed to pay Ms. Andrade-Salinas and other aggrieved employees all wages, including for uncompensated off-the-clock work, unpaid overtime premiums and premium wages for failing to provide legally mandated meal and rest breaks, due to them within any time period specified by California Labor Code sections 201 and 203 and therefore is liable under California Labor Code section 203.

California Labor Code section 204 requires that all wages earned by any person in any employment between the 1st and the 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month, other than those wages due upon termination of an employee, are due and payable between the 16th and the 26th day of the month during which the labor was performed, and that all wages earned by any person in any employment between the 16th and the last day, inclusive, of any calendar month, other than those wages due upon termination of an employee, are due and payable between the 1st and the 10th day of the following month. California Labor Code section 204 also requires that all wages earned for labor in excess of the normal work period shall be paid no later than the payday for the next regular payroll period. During the relevant time period, CLAREMONT failed to pay Ms. Andrade-Salinas and other aggrieved employees all wages due to them, including for uncompensated off-the-clock work, unpaid overtime premiums and premium wages for failing to provide legally mandated meal and rest breaks within any time period specified by California Labor Code section 204.

California Labor Code section 226 requires employers to make, keep and provide complete and accurate itemized wage statements to their employees. During the relevant time period, CLAREMONT did not provide Ms. Andrade-Salinas and other aggrieved employees with complete and accurate itemized wage statements. The wage statements they received from CLAREMONT were in violation of California Labor Code section 226(a). The violations include, but are not limited to, the failure to include (1) gross wages earned by Ms. Andrade-Salinas and other aggrieved employees, (2) total hours worked by Ms. Andrade-Salinas and other aggrieved employees, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate by Ms. Andrade-Salinas and other aggrieved employees (4) all deductions for Ms. Andrade-Salinas and other aggrieved employees, (5) net wages earned by Ms. Andrade-Salinas and other aggrieved employees, (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which Ms. Andrade-Salinas and other aggrieved employees are paid, (7) the name of the aggrieved employee and only the last four digits of his or her social security number or an employee identification number other than a social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by Ms. Andrade-Salinas and other aggrieved employees.

California Labor Code section 558 allows recovery of penalties. (a) Any employer or other person acting on behalf of an employer who violates, or causes to be violated, a section of this chapter or any provision regulating hours and days of work in any order of the Industrial Welfare Commission shall be subject to a civil penalty as follows: (1) For any initial violation, fifty dollars ($50) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages. (2) For each subsequent violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages. (3) Wages recovered pursuant to this section shall be paid to the affected employee. Ms. Andrade-Salinas and other aggrieved employees have been denied their wages and premium wages and, therefore, are entitled to penalties.

California Labor Code sections 1174(d) requires an employer to keep, at a central location in the state or at the plants or establishments at which employees are employed, payroll records showing the hours worked daily by and the wages paid to, and the number of piece-rate units earned by and any applicable piece rate paid to, employees employed at the respective plants or establishments. These records shall be kept with rules established for this purpose by the commission, but in any case, shall be kept on file for not less than two years. During the relevant time period, CLAREMONT failed to keep accurate and complete payroll records showing the hours worked daily and the wages paid, to Ms. Andrade-Salinas and other aggrieved employees.

California Labor Code sections 1194, 1197 and 1197.1 provide the minimum wage to be paid to employees, and the payment of a lesser wage than the minimum so fixed is unlawful. During the relevant time period, CLAREMONT did not provide Ms. Andrade-Salinas and other aggrieved employees with the minimum wages to which they were entitled despite constructive and actual knowledge of off-the-clock work, including pre- and post-shift, during emergencies and during meal breaks.

California Labor Code sections 2800 and 2802 require an employer to reimburse its employee for all necessary expenditures incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the discharge of his or her job duties or in direct consequence of his or her obedience to the directions of the employer. During their employment, aggrieved employees incurred necessary business-related expenses and costs that were not fully reimbursed by CLAREMONT, including for purchasing uniforms they were required to wear while working and using their personal cellular phones for work purposes.

We believe that Ms. Andrade-Salinas and other current and former California-based hourly-paid or non-exempt employees are entitled to penalties as allowed under California Labor Code section 2698, et seq. for violations of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 218.5, 221, 226(a), 226.3, 226.7, 510, 512(a), 558, 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800 and 2802, and the IWC Wage Orders.

California Labor Code section 2699.3 requires that a claimant send a certified letter to the employer in questions and the California Labor & Workforce Development Agency setting forth the claims, and the basis for the claims, thereby giving the California Labor & Workforce Development Agency an opportunity to investigate the claims and/or take any action it deems appropriate.

The purpose of this letter is to satisfy the requirement created by California Labor code section 2699 prior to seeking penalties allowed by law for the aforementioned statutory violations. We look forward to determining whether California Labor & Workforce Development Agency intends to take any action in reference to these claims. We kindly request that you respond to this notice according to the time frame contemplated by the California Labor Code.

Ms. Andrade-Salinas will seek these penalties on her own behalf and on behalf of other similarly situated California-based hourly-paid or non-exempt employees of CLAREMONT within one year of the date of this letter, as allowed by law.
