DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

COMES NOW, Plaintiff DANIEL SONICO (“Plaintiff”), individually, and on behalf of other members of the general public similarly situated and on behalf of aggrieved employees pursuant to the Private Attorneys General Act (“PAGA), and alleges as follows:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This class action is brought pursuant to the California Code of Civil Procedure section 382. The monetary damages and restitution sought by Plaintiff exceeds the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court and will be established according to proof at trial.

2. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to the California Constitution, Article VI, Section 10, which grants the superior court “original jurisdiction in all other causes” except those given by statute to other courts. The statutes under which this action is brought do not specify any other basis for jurisdiction.

3. This Court has jurisdiction over Defendants because, upon information and belief, Defendants are citizens of California, have sufficient minimum contacts in California, or otherwise intentionally avail themselves of the California market so as to render the exercise of jurisdiction over them by the California courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice.

4. Venue is proper in this Court because, upon information and belief, Defendants maintain offices, have agents, and/or transact business in the State of California, including the County of Alameda. The majority of the acts and omissions alleged herein relating to Plaintiff took place in the State of California. Defendants employed Plaintiff within the State of California, County of Alameda.

PARTIES

5. Plaintiff DANIEL SONICO is an individual residing in the State of California, County of Alameda.

6. Defendant JI MEDICAL, INC. d/b/a RAMAT MEDICAL at all times herein mentioned, was and is, upon information and belief, a California corporation, and at all times herein mentioned, was and is, an employer whose employees are engaged throughout the State of California, including the County of Alameda.

7. At all times herein relevant, Defendants JI MEDICAL, INC. d/b/a RAMAT MEDICAL and DOES 1 through 100, and each of them, were the agents, partners, joint venturers, joint employers, representatives, servants, employees, successors-in-interest, co-conspirators and assigns, each of the other, and at all times relevant hereto were acting within the course and scope of their authority as such agents, partners, joint venturers, joint employers, representatives, servants, employees, successors, co-conspirators and assigns, and all acts or omissions alleged herein were duly committed with the ratification, knowledge, permission, encouragement, authorization, and consent of each defendant designated herein.

8. The true names and capacities, whether corporate, associate, individual or otherwise, of Defendants DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, are unknown to Plaintiff, who sues said defendants by such fictitious names. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based on that information and belief alleges, that each of the Defendants designated as a DOE is legally responsible for the events and happenings referred to in this Complaint, and unlawfully caused the injuries and damages to Plaintiff and the other class members as alleged in this Complaint. Plaintiff will seek leave of court to amend this Complaint to show the true names and capacities when the same have been ascertained.

9. Defendants JI MEDICAL, INC. d/b/a RAMAT MEDICAL and DOES 1 through 100 will hereinafter collectively be referred to as “Defendants.”

10. Plaintiff further alleges that Defendants directly or indirectly controlled or affected the working conditions, wages, working hours, and conditions of employment of Plaintiff and the other class members so as to make each of said Defendants employers and employers liable under the statutory provisions set forth herein.

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

11. Plaintiff brings this action on his own behalf and on behalf of all other members of the general public similarly situated, and, thus, seeks class certification under Code of Civil Procedure section 382.

12. The proposed class is defined as follows:

All current and former California-based (i.e., currently “residing” in California with the intent to remain in California indefinitely) hourly-paid or non-exempt employees (either directly or through a staffing agency or labor contractor) of Defendants within the State of California at any time during the period from May 11, 2016 to January 31, 2021.

13. Plaintiff reserves the right to establish subclasses as appropriate.

14. The class is ascertainable and there is a well-defined community of interest in the litigation:

a. Numerosity: The class members are so numerous that joinder of all class members is impracticable. The membership of the entire class is unknown to Plaintiff at this time; however, the class is estimated to be greater than fifty (50) individuals and the identity of such membership is readily ascertainable by inspection of Defendants' employment records.

b. Typicality: Plaintiff's claims are typical of all other class members' claims as demonstrated herein. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the other class members with whom he has a well-defined community of interest.

c. Adequacy: Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of each class member, with whom he has a well-defined community of interest and typicality of claims, as demonstrated herein. Plaintiff has no interest that is antagonistic to the other class members. Plaintiff's attorneys, the proposed class counsel, are versed in the rules governing class action discovery, certification, and settlement. Plaintiff has incurred, and during the pendency of this action will continue to incur, costs and attorneys' fees, that have been, are, and will be necessarily expended for the prosecution of this action for the substantial benefit of each class member.

d. Superiority: A class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of this litigation because individual joinder of all class members is impractical.

- e. Public Policy Considerations: Certification of this lawsuit as a class action will advance public policy objectives. Employers of this great state violate employment and labor laws every day. Current employees are often afraid to assert their rights out of fear of direct or indirect retaliation. However, class actions provide the class members who are not named in the complaint anonymity that allows for the vindication of their rights.

15. There are common questions of law and fact as to the class members that predominate over questions affecting only individual members. The following common questions of law or fact, among others, exist as to the members of the class:

- a. Whether Defendants' failure to pay wages, without abatement or reduction, in accordance with the California Labor Code, was willful;
- b. Whether Defendants failed to pay their hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the State of California for all hours worked, missed meal periods and rest breaks in violation of California law;
- c. Whether Defendants required Plaintiff and other class members to work over eight (8) hours per day and/or over forty (40) hours per week and failed to pay the legally required overtime compensation to Plaintiff and the other class members;
- d. Whether Defendants properly calculated the regular rate for Plaintiff and the other class members to worked overtime and earned bonuses and/or incentive pay;
- e. Whether Defendants deprived Plaintiff and other class members of meal and/or rest periods or required Plaintiff and the other class members to work during meal and/or rest periods without compensation;
- f. Whether Defendants failed to pay minimum wages to Plaintiff and other class members for all hours worked;

- 1 g. Whether Defendant maintained an illegal rounding policy
- 2 h. Whether Defendants failed to pay all wages due to Plaintiff and other
- 3 class members within the required time upon their discharge or
- 4 resignation;
- 5 i. Whether Defendants failed to timely pay all wages due to Plaintiff and
- 6 other class members during their employment;
- 7 j. Whether Defendants complied with wage reporting as required by the
- 8 California Labor Code, including, inter alia, section 226;
- 9 k. Whether Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiff and other class members
- 10 for necessary business-related expenses and costs;
- 11 l. Whether Defendants' conduct was willful or reckless;
- 12 m. Whether Defendants engaged in unfair business practices in violation of
- 13 California Business & Professions Code section 17200, et seq.;
- 14 n. The appropriate amount of damages, restitution, and/or monetary
- 15 penalties resulting from Defendants' violation of California law; and
- 16 o. Whether Plaintiff and other class members are entitled to compensatory
- 17 damages pursuant to the California Labor Code.

18 GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

19 16. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants employed Plaintiff

20 and other persons as hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the State of California.

21 17. Defendants, jointly and severally, employed Plaintiff as an hourly-paid, non-

22 exempt employee from in or about 2017 to 2018 in the State of California, County of Alameda.

23 18. Defendants, jointly and severally, hired Plaintiff and other class members and 24 classified them as hourly-paid, non-exempt employees, and failed to compensate them for all

25 hours worked, missed meal periods, and/or missed rest breaks.

26 19. Defendants had the authority to hire and terminate Plaintiff and other class

27 members; to set work rules and conditions governing Plaintiff's and the other class members'

28 employment; and to supervise their daily employment activities.

1 20. Defendants exercised sufficient authority over the terms and conditions of 2 Plaintiff and other class members' employment for them to be joint employers of Plaintiff and
3 other class members.

4 21. Defendants directly hired and paid wages and benefits to Plaintiff and other
5 class members.

6 22. Defendants continue to employ hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the 7 State of California.

8 23. Plaintiff and other class members worked over eight (8) hours in a day, and/or 9 forty (40) hours in a week during their employment with Defendants.

10 24. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
11 engaged in a pattern and practice of wage abuse against their hourly-paid or non-exempt
12 employees within the State of California. This scheme involved, inter alia, failing to pay them
13 for all hours worked, missed meal periods, and missed rest breaks in violation of California 14 law.

15 25. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
16 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and other class members were entitled to receive 17 certain wages for overtime compensation and that they were not receiving wages for overtime
18 compensation.

19 26. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
20 failed to provide Plaintiff and other class members the required rest and meal periods during 21 the relevant time period as required under the Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders 22 and thus they are entitled to any and all applicable penalties.

23 27. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
24 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and other class members were entitled to receive all 25 timely and complete meal periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's and 26 other class members' regular rate of pay when a meal period was missed, late or interrupted,
27 and they did not receive all timely and proper meal periods or payment of one additional hour
28 of pay at Plaintiff's and other class members' regular rate of pay when a meal period was missed.

28. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff and other class members were entitled to receive all timely rest periods without interruption or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff and the other class members' regular rate of pay when a rest period was missed, late or interrupted, and they did not receive all rest periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's and the other class members' regular rate of pay when a rest period was missed.

29. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff and other class members were entitled to receive at least minimum wages for compensation and that they were not receiving at least minimum wages for all hours worked.

30. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff and other class members were entitled to receive the wages owed to them upon discharge or resignation, including overtime and minimum wages and meal and rest period premiums, and they did not, in fact, receive such wages owed to them at the time of their discharge or resignation.

31. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff and other class members were entitled to receive complete and accurate wage statements in accordance with California law, but, in fact, they did not receive complete and accurate wage statements from Defendants. The deficiencies included, inter alia, the failure to include the total number of hours worked by Plaintiff and other class members.

32. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff and other class members were entitled to reimbursement for necessary business-related expenses.

33. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or should have known that Defendants had to keep complete and accurate payroll records for Plaintiff and other class members in accordance with California law, but, in fact, did not

1 keep complete and accurate payroll records.

2 34. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
3 knew or should have known that they had a duty to compensate Plaintiff and other class
4 members pursuant to California law, and that Defendants had the financial ability to pay such
5 compensation, but willfully, knowingly, and intentionally failed to do so, and falsely
6 represented to Plaintiff and other class members that they were properly denied wages, all in 7 order to increase Defendants' profits.

8 35. As a pattern and practice, during the relevant time period set forth herein,
9 Defendants failed to pay overtime wages to Plaintiff and other class members for all hours
10 worked. Plaintiff and other class members were required to work more than eight (8) hours per 11 day and/or forty (40) hours per week without overtime compensation.

12 36. As a pattern and practice, during the relevant time period set forth herein,
13 Defendants failed to provide the requisite uninterrupted and timely meal and rest periods to 14 Plaintiff and other class members.

15 37. As a pattern and practice, during the relevant time period set forth herein,
16 Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and other class members at least minimum wages for all 17 hours worked.

18 38. As a pattern and practice, during the relevant time period set forth herein,
19 Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and other class members the wages owed to them upon 20 discharge or resignation.

21 39. As a pattern and practice, during the relevant time period set forth herein,
22 Defendants failed to provide complete or accurate wage statements to Plaintiff and other class
23 members.

24 40. As a pattern and practice, during the relevant time period set forth herein,
25 Defendants failed to keep complete or accurate payroll records for Plaintiff and other class
26 members.

27 ///

28 ///

41. As a pattern and practice, during the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants failed to properly compensate Plaintiff and other class members pursuant to California law in order to increase Defendants' profits.

42. California Labor Code section 218 states that nothing in Article 1 of the Labor Code shall limit the right of any wage claimant to “sue directly . . . for any wages or penalty due to him [or her] under this article.”

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code §§ 510 and 1198)

(Against JI MEDICAL, INC. d/b/a RAMAT MEDICAL and DOES 1 through 100)

43. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in Paragraphs 1 through 42, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

44. California Labor Code section 1198 and the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission (“IWC”) Wage Order provide that it is unlawful to employ persons without compensating them at a rate of pay either time-and-one-half or two-times that person’s regular rate of pay, depending on the number of hours worked by the person on a daily or weekly basis.

45. Specifically, the applicable IWC Wage Order provides that Defendants are and were required to pay Plaintiff and other class members employed by Defendants, who work(ed) more than eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek, at the rate of time-and-one-half for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek.

46. The applicable IWC Wage Order further provides that Defendants are and were required to pay Plaintiff and other class members overtime compensation at a rate of two times their regular rate of pay for all hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in a day.

47. California Labor Code section 510 codifies the right to overtime compensation at one-and-one-half times the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or forty (40) hours in a week or for the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh day

1 of work, and overtime compensation at twice the regular hourly rate for hours worked in
2 excess of twelve (12) hours in a day or in excess of eight (8) hours in a day on the seventh day
3 of work.

4 48. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Plaintiff and other class
5 members worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day, and/or in excess of forty (40) hours in a 6 week.

7 49. As a pattern and practice, during the relevant time period set forth herein,
8 Defendants intentionally and willfully failed to pay overtime wages owed to Plaintiff and other
9 class members.

10 50. Defendants' pattern and practice of failing to pay Plaintiff and other class
11 members the unpaid balance of overtime compensation, as required by California laws, 12 violates the provisions of California Labor Code sections 510 and 1198, and is therefore 13 unlawful.

14 51. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194, Plaintiff and other class 15 members are entitled to recover unpaid overtime compensation, as well as interest, costs, and 16 attorneys' fees.

17 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

18 (Violation of California Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512(a))

19 (Against JI MEDICAL, INC. d/b/a RAMAT MEDICAL and DOES 1 through 100)

20 52. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs
21 1 through 51, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set
22 forth herein.

23 53. During the relevant time period set forth herein, the IWC Order and California
24 Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512(a) were applicable to Plaintiff's and other class members'
25 employment by Defendants.

26 54. During the relevant time period set forth herein, California Labor Code section
27 226.7 provides that no employer shall require an employee to work during any meal or rest
28 period mandated by an applicable order of the California IWC.

1 55. During the relevant time period set forth herein, the applicable IWC Wage
2 Order and California Labor Code section 512(a) provide that an employer may not require,
3 cause or permit an employee to work for a work period of more than five (5) hours per day
4 without providing the employee with a meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes, except
5 that if the total work period per day of the employee is no more than six (6) hours, the meal
6 period may be waived by mutual consent of both the employer and employee.

7 56. During the relevant time period set forth herein, the applicable IWC Wage
8 Order and California Labor Code section 512(a) further provide that an employer may not
9 require, cause, or permit an employee to work for a work period of more than ten (10) hours
10 per day without providing the employee with a second uninterrupted meal period of not less
11 than thirty (30) minutes, except that if the total hours worked is no more than twelve (12)
12 hours, the second meal period may be waived by mutual consent of the employer and the 13 employee only if the first meal period was not waived.

14 57. As a pattern and practice, during the relevant time period set forth herein,
15 Plaintiff and other class members who were scheduled to work for a period of time no longer
16 than six (6) hours, and who did not waive their legally-mandated meal periods by mutual 17 consent, were required to work for periods longer than five (5) hours without an uninterrupted 18 meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes and/or without a rest period.

19 58. As a pattern and practice, during the relevant time period set forth herein,
20 Plaintiff and other class members who were scheduled to work for a period of time in excess of 21 six (6) hours were required to work for periods longer than five (5) hours without an 22 uninterrupted meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes and/or without a rest period.

23 59. As a pattern and practice, during the relevant time period set forth herein,
24 Defendants intentionally and willfully required Plaintiff and other class members to work
25 during meal periods and failed to compensate Plaintiff and the other class members the full 26 meal period premium for work performed during meal periods.

27 ///

28 ///

60. As a pattern and practice, during the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and other class members the full meal period premium due pursuant to California Labor Code section 226.7.

61. Defendants' conduct violates applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512(a).

62. Pursuant to the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code section 226.7(b), Plaintiff and other class members are entitled to recover from Defendants one additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of compensation for each workday that the meal or rest period is not provided.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code § 226.7)

(Against JI MEDICAL, INC. d/b/a RAMAT MEDICAL and DOES 1 through 100)

63. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 62, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

64. During the relevant time period set forth herein, the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code section 226.7 were applicable to Plaintiff's and the other class members' employment by Defendants.

65. During the relevant time period set forth herein, California Labor Code section 226.7 provides that no employer shall require an employee to work during any rest period mandated by an applicable order of the California IWC.

66. During the relevant time period set forth herein, the applicable IWC Wage Order provides that "[e]very employer shall authorize and permit all employees to take rest periods, which insofar as practicable shall be in the middle of each work period" and that the "rest period time shall be based on the total hours worked daily at the rate of ten (10) minutes net rest time per four (4) hours or major fraction thereof" unless the total daily work time is less than three and one-half (3 ½) hours.

67. As a pattern and practice, during the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants required Plaintiff and other class members to work four (4) or more hours without authorizing or permitting a ten (10) minute rest period per each four (4) hour period worked.

68. As a pattern and practice, during the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants willfully required Plaintiff and the other class members to work during rest periods and failed to pay Plaintiff and the other class members the full rest period premium for work performed during rest periods.

69. As a pattern and practice, during the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other class members the full rest period premium due pursuant to California Labor Code section 226.7

70. Defendants' conduct violates applicable IWC Wage Orders and California Labor Code section 226.7.

71. Pursuant to the applicable IWC Wage Orders and California Labor Code section 226.7(b), Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to recover from Defendants one additional hour of pay at the employees' regular hourly rate of compensation for each workday that the rest period was not provided.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1197)

(Against JI MEDICAL, INC. d/b/a RAMAT MEDICAL and DOES 1 through 100)

72. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 71 and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

73. During the relevant time period set forth herein, California Labor Code sections 1194 and 1197 provide that the minimum wage to be paid to employees, and the payment of a lesser wage than the minimum so fixed, is unlawful.

74. As a pattern and practice, during the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants failed to pay minimum wages to Plaintiff and other class members as required, pursuant to California Labor Code sections 1194 and 1197.

75. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and other class members the minimum wage as required violates California Labor Code sections 1194 and 1197. Pursuant to those sections, Plaintiff and other class members are entitled to recover the unpaid balance of their minimum wage compensation as well as interest, costs, and attorney's fees, and liquidated damages in an amount equal to the wages unlawfully unpaid and interest thereon.

76. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194.2, Plaintiff and other class members are entitled to recover liquidated damages in an amount equal to the wages unlawfully unpaid and interest thereon.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code §§ 201 and 202)

(Against JI MEDICAL, INC. d/b/a RAMAT MEDICAL and DOES 1 through 100)

77. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 76, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

78. During the relevant time period set forth herein, California Labor Code sections 201 and 202 provide that if an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately, and if an employee quits his or her employment, his or her wages shall become due and payable not later than seventy-two (72) hours thereafter, unless the employee has given seventy-two (72) hours' notice of his or her intention to quit, in which case the employee is entitled to his or her wages at the time of quitting.

79. As a pattern and practice, during the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants intentionally and willfully failed to pay Plaintiff and other class members who are no longer employed by Defendants their wages, earned and unpaid, within seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendants' employ.

80. Defendants' pattern and practice of failing to pay Plaintiff and other class members who are no longer employed by Defendants their wages, earned and unpaid, within seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendants' employ, is in violation of California Labor

Code sections 201 and 202.

81. California Labor Code section 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay wages owed, in accordance with sections 201 and 202, then the wages of the employee shall continue as a penalty from the due date thereof at the same rate until paid or until an action is commenced; but the wages shall not continue for more than thirty (30) days.

82. Plaintiff and other class members are entitled to recover from Defendants the statutory penalty wages for each day they were not paid, up to a thirty (30) day maximum pursuant to California Labor Code section 203.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code § 226(a))

(Against JI MEDICAL, INC. d/b/a RAMAT MEDICAL and DOES 1 through 100)

83. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 82, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

84. During the relevant time period set forth herein, California Labor Code section 226(a) provides that every employer shall furnish each of his or her employees an accurate itemized statement in writing showing (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided that all deductions made on written orders of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee and his or her social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer, and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee. The deductions made from payments of wages shall be recorded in ink or other indelible form, properly dated, showing the month, day, and year, and a copy of the statement or a record of the deductions shall be kept on file by the employer for at least three years at the place of employment or at a central location within the State of California.

1 85. As a pattern and practice, Defendants have intentionally and willfully failed to
2 provide Plaintiff and other class members with complete and accurate wage statements. The
3 deficiencies include but are not limited to: the failure to include the total number of hours
4 worked by Plaintiff and other class members.

5 86. As a result of Defendants' violation of California Labor Code section 226(a),
6 Plaintiff and other class members have suffered injury and damage to their statutorily protected
7 rights.

8 87. More specifically, Plaintiff and other class members have been injured by 9 Defendants' intentional and willful violation of California Labor Code section 226(a) because 10 they were denied both their legal right to receive, and their protected interest in receiving,
11 accurate and itemized wage statements pursuant to California Labor Code section 226(a).

12 88. Plaintiff and other class members are entitled to recover from Defendants the 13 greater of their actual damages caused by Defendants' failure to comply with California Labor
14 Code section 226(a), or an aggregate penalty not exceeding four thousand dollars per 15 employee.

16 89. Plaintiff and other class members are also entitled to injunctive relief to ensure 17 compliance with this section, pursuant to California Labor Code section 226(g).

18 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

19 (Violation of California Labor Code §§ 2800 and 2802)

20 (Against JI MEDICAL, INC. d/b/a RAMAT MEDICAL and DOES 1 through 100)

21 90. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1
22 through 89, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set
23 forth herein.

24 91. Pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2800 and 2802, an employer must 25 reimburse its employee for all necessary expenditures incurred by the employee in direct 26 consequence of the discharge of his or her job duties or in direct consequence of his or her 27 obedience to the directions of the employer.

28 ///

92. Defendants have intentionally and willfully failed to reimburse Plaintiff and other class members for all necessary business-related expenses and costs. Class members are entitled to recover from Defendants their business-related expenses and costs incurred during the course and scope of their employment, plus interest accrued from the date on which the employee incurred the necessary expenditures at the same rate as judgments in civil actions in the State of California.

EIGHT CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of Labor Code Section 2698, et seq. (“PAGA”))

(Against JI MEDICAL, INC. d/b/a RAMAT MEDICAL and DOES 1 through 100)

93. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference paragraphs 1 through 92 as though fully set forth herein.

94. PAGA expressly establishes that any provision of the California Labor Code which provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”), or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards, agencies or employees for a violation of the California Labor Code, may be recovered through a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of himself or herself, and other current or former employees.

95. On December 7, 2020, Plaintiff provided written notice to the LWDA and Defendants of the specific provisions of the Labor Code he contends were violated, and the theories supporting his contentions. Attached hereto as Exhibit 1 and incorporated by reference is a copy of the written notice to the LWDA. Plaintiff believes that on or about February 10, 2021, the sixty-five (65) day notice period expired as to all Defendants, and the LWDA did not take any action to investigate or prosecute this matter. Therefore, Plaintiff has exhausted the statutory time period to bring this action.

96. Plaintiff and the other hourly-paid or non-exempt employees are “aggrieved employees” as defined by California Labor Code § 2699(c) in that they are all current or former employees of Defendants who worked for Defendants at any time during the period from December 7, 2019 to the present, and one or more of the alleged violations was committed

1 against them.

2 Failure to Pay Minimum and Overtime Wages

3 97. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to compensate their non-
4 exempt employees minimum wages for all hours worked and overtime wages for all hours
5 worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or forty (40) hours in a workweek, pursuant to the 6 mandate of Labor Code §§ 510, 1194, 1197, and 1198.

7 98. As a pattern and practice, Defendants failed to compensate Plaintiff and other
8 aggrieved current and former employees for all hours worked, resulting in a failure to pay all 9 minimum wages and overtime wages, where applicable.

10 Failure to Provide Meal Periods and Rest Breaks

11 99. In accordance with the mandates of Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512, Defendants
12 were required to authorize and permit their non-exempt employees to take a 10-minute rest break
13 for every four (4) hours worked or major fraction thereof, and were further required to provide 14 their non-exempt employees with a 30-minute meal period for every five (5) hours worked.

15 100. As a pattern and practice, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and other 16 aggrieved current and former employees with legally-mandated meal periods and rest breaks and 17 failed to pay proper compensation for this failure.

18 Failure to Timely Pay Wages During Employment

19 101. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to pay their employees
20 within a specified time period pursuant to the mandate of Labor Code § 204.

21 102. As a pattern and practice, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and other aggrieved
22 current and former employees all wages due and owing them within the required time period.

23 Failure to Timely Pay Wages Upon Termination

24 103. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to pay their employees all
25 wages owed in a timely fashion at the end of employment pursuant to California Labor Code §§
26 201 to 204.

27 104. As a result of Defendants' Labor Code violations alleged above, Defendants
28 failed to pay Plaintiff and the other aggrieved former employees their final wages pursuant to

1 Labor Code §§ 201 to 204 and accordingly owe waiting time penalties pursuant to Labor Code §
2 203.

3 Failure to Provide Complete and Accurate Wage Statements

4 105. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to keep accurate records
5 regarding their California employees pursuant to the mandate of Labor Code §§ 226 and 1174.

6 106. As a result of Defendants' various Labor Code violations, Defendants failed to 7 keep accurate records regarding Plaintiff and other aggrieved current and former employees. For 8 example, Defendants failed in their affirmative obligation to keep accurate records regarding 9 Plaintiff and other aggrieved current and former employees' gross wages earned, total hours 10 worked, all deductions, net wages earned, and all applicable hourly rates and the number of 11 hours worked at each hourly rate.

12 Failure to Reimburse Business Expenses

13 107. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to reimburse its employees
14 for any and all necessary expenditures or losses incurred by the employees in direct
15 consequences of the discharge or his or her duties pursuant to the mandate of Labor Code §§
16 2800 and 2802.

17 108. As a pattern and practice, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and other aggrieved
18 current and former employees all business expenses incurred and owing them within the required
19 time period.

20 Penalties

21 109. Pursuant to California Labor Code § 2699, Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of 22 other current and former aggrieved employees, requests and is entitled to recover from 23 Defendants, and each of them, civil penalties, interest, attorneys' fees and costs pursuant, as well
24 as all statutory penalties against Defendants, and each of them, including but not limited to:

25 110. Penalties under California Labor Code § 2699 in the amount of a hundred dollars
26 ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation, and two hundred 27 dollars ($200) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent violation;

28 ///

111. Penalties under California Code of Regulations Title 8 § 11040 in the amount of fifty dollars ($50) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation, and one hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent violation;

112. Penalties under California Labor Code § 210 in addition to, and entirely independent and apart from, any other penalty provided in the California Labor Code in the amount of a hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation, and two hundred dollars ($200) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent violation;

113. Penalties under Labor Code § 1197.1 in the amount of a hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation, and two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent violation;

114. An amount sufficient to recover unpaid wages under Labor Code § 558;

115. An amount sufficient to recover unpaid wages under Labor Code § 1197.1;

116. Any and all additional penalties as provided by the Labor Code and/or other statutes; and

117. Attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code §§ 210, 1194, and 2699, and any other applicable statute.

NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.)

(Against JI MEDICAL, INC. d/b/a RAMAT MEDICAL and DOES 1 through 100)

118. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 117, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

119. Defendants' conduct, as alleged herein, has been, and continues to be unfair, unlawful and harmful to Plaintiff, other class members, to the general public, and Defendants' competitors. Accordingly, Plaintiff seeks to enforce important rights affecting the public interest within the meaning of Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5.

120. Defendants' activities as alleged herein are violations of California law, and constitute unlawful business acts and practices in violation of California Business & Professions Code section 17200, et seq.

121. A violation of California Business & Professions Code section 17200, et seq. may be predicated on the violation of any state or federal law. In this instant case, Defendants' pattern and practice of requiring Plaintiff and other class members work overtime hours without paying them proper compensation violate California Labor Code sections 510 and 1198. Additionally, Defendants' pattern and practice of requiring Plaintiff and other class members, to work through their meal and rest periods without paying them proper compensation violate California Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512(a). Moreover, Defendants' pattern and practice of failing to timely pay wages to Plaintiff and other class members violate California Labor Code sections 201 and 202. Defendants also violated California Labor Code sections 226(a), 1194, 1197, 2800 and 2802.

122. As a result of the herein described violations of California law, Defendants unlawfully gained an unfair advantage over other businesses.

123. Plaintiff and other class members have been personally injured by Defendants' unlawful business acts and practices as alleged herein, including but not necessarily limited to the loss of money and/or property.

124. Pursuant to California Business & Professions Code sections 17200, et seq., Plaintiff and other class members are entitled to restitution of the wages withheld and retained by Defendants during a period that commences four years prior to the filing of this Complaint; an award of attorneys' fees pursuant to California Code of Civil procedure section 1021.5 and other applicable laws; and an award of costs.

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of other members of the general public similarly situated, requests a trial by jury.

Re: Ji MEDICAL, INC. d/b/a RAMAT MEDICAL

Dear Representative:

We have been retained to represent Daniel Sonico against Ji Medical, Inc. d/b/a Ramat Medical (including any and all affiliates, subsidiaries, and parents, and their shareholders, officers, directors, and employees), any individual, owner, officer and managing agent, DOES 1-10 as an "Employer" or person acting on behalf of an "Employer" pursuant to California Labor Code section 558.1, and DOES 11-20¹ for violations of California wage-and-hour laws (hereinafter collectively referred to as "Ji Medical, Inc.").

Mr. Sonico is pursuing his California Labor Code section 2698, et seq., the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 ("PAGA") claim on a representative basis. Therefore, Mr. Sonico may seek penalties and wages for violations of the Labor Code on behalf of the State of California and aggrieved employees, which are recoverable under PAGA. This letter is sent in compliance with the reporting requirements of California Labor Code section 2699.3.

Ji Medical, Inc. is a California corporation headquartered at 5812 West. Pico Blvd. A, Los Angeles, California 90019.

Ji Medical, Inc. employed Mr. Sonico as an hourly-paid, non-exempt Porter within the relevant time period in the State of California. Ji Medical, Inc., directly controlled the wages, hours and working conditions of Mr. Sonico's employment.

The "aggrieved employees" that Mr. Sonico may seek penalties on behalf of are all current and former hourly-paid or non-exempt employees (whether hired directly or placed through a labor contractor or staffing agency) of Ji Medical, Inc., within the State of California.

¹ Mr. Sonico does not know the true names or capacities, whether individual, partner or corporate, of DOES 1 through 20, inclusive, and for that reason, said DOES are designated under such fictitious names. Mr. Sonico will amend this notice when the true names and capacities are known. Mr. Sonico is informed and believes that each DOE was responsible in some way for the matters alleged herein and proximately caused Mr. Sonico and other current and former aggrieved employees to be subject to the illegal employment practices, wrongs and injuries complained of herein.

Ji Medical, Inc., failed to properly pay its hourly-paid or non-exempt employees for all hours worked, failed to properly provide or compensate minimum and overtime wages and for meal and rest breaks, failed to issue compliant wage statements, and failed to reimburse for all necessary business-related costs and expenses, thus resulting in other Labor Code violations as stated below.

Pursuant to Huff v. Securitas Security Services, 23 Cal. App. 5th 745, 751 (2018), an employee who brings a representative action and was affected by at least one of the violations alleged in the complaint has standing to pursue penalties on behalf of the state not only for that violation, but for violations affecting other employees as well. Accordingly, Mr. Sonico has standing to pursue penalties on behalf of the state for violations affecting all the aggrieved employees at Ji Medical, Inc., regardless of their classification, job title, locations, or whether they were hired directly or through a labor contractor or staffing agency.

Ji Medical, Inc., has violated and/or continues to violate, among other provisions of the California Labor Code and applicable wage law, California Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 218.5, 221, 226(a), 226.3, 226.7, 510, 512(a), 558, 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800 and 2802.

California Labor Code sections 510, 1194, and 1198 require employers to pay at least minimum wage for all hours worked, pay time-and-a-half, or double time overtime wages, and make it unlawful to work employees for hours longer than eight hours in one day and/or over forty hours in one week without paying the premium overtime rates. During the relevant time period, Mr. Sonico and other aggrieved employees regularly worked in excess of 8 hours in a day and 40 hours in a week. Ji Medical, Inc., failed to compensate aggrieved employees for all hours worked and for performing off-the-clock work, including drivers constantly disinfecting mattresses and running maintenance on the vehicles off the clock at the end of the day and on weekends, and during meal breaks. Ji Medical, Inc., also failed to factor non-discretionary bonuses and incentives in Mr. Sonico's and other aggrieved employees' regular rate of pay for purposes of overtime compensation. Therefore, Mr. Sonico and other aggrieved employees were entitled to receive certain wages for overtime compensation, but they were not paid for all overtime hours worked.

California Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512 require employers to pay an employee one additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate for each workday that a meal or rest break is not provided. During the relevant time period, Ji Medical, Inc., routinely required Mr. Sonico and other aggrieved employees to work through, interrupt, cut short, and/or delay their meal and rest breaks to comply with Ji Medical, Inc.'s, expectations. Ji Medical, Inc., drivers were never relieved of duty while driving on their routes, meaning if Ji Medical, Inc., noticed that drivers are stopping or taking too long between stop, it instructed them to continue working in order to meet delivery time windows. Moreover, Ji Medical, Inc., failed to authorize and permit Mr. Sonico and other aggrieved employees to take the requisite number of meal and rest breaks, including second meal breaks and third rest breaks, when working shifts exceeding 10 hours in length. Further, Ji Medical, Inc., required its employees to finish each trip as hastily and efficiently as possible and to minimize the amount of time they spent performing their duties, which pressured employees to forego meal breaks and rest periods. Lastly, Ji Medical, Inc.'s, employees were often not relieved of all duty, meaning Ji Medical, Inc., never relinquished control, were not provided a reasonable opportunity to take all their breaks, and were impeded and discouraged from taking breaks. Despite these facts, Ji Medical, Inc., failed to compensate Mr. Sonico and other aggrieved employees all the premium wages they were owed.

California Labor Code section 201 requires that if an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately. California Labor Code section 202 requires that if an employee not having a written contract for a definite period quits his or her employment, his or her wages shall become due and payable not later than 72 hours thereafter, unless the employee has given 72 hours previous notice of his or her intention to quit, in which case the employee is entitled to his or her wages at the time of quitting. California Labor Code section 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay, without abatement or reduction, in accordance with Labor Code sections 201, 201.3, 201.5, 201.6, 201.8, 201.9, 202, and 205.5, any wages of an employee who is discharged or who quits, the wages of the employee shall continue as a penalty from the due date thereof at the same rate until paid or until an action therefor is commenced; but the wages shall not continue for more than 30 days. During the relevant time period, Ji Medical, Inc., failed to pay Mr. Sonico and other aggrieved employees all wages, including for uncompensated off-the-clock work and premium wages for failing to provide legally mandated meal and rest breaks, due to them within any time period specified by California Labor Code sections 201 and 203 and therefore is liable under California Labor Code section 203.

California Labor Code section 204 requires that all wages earned by any person in any employment between the 1st and the 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month, other than those wages due upon termination of an employee, are due and payable between the 16th and the 26th day of the month during which the labor was performed, and that all wages earned by any person in any employment between the 16th and the last day, inclusive, of any calendar month, other than those wages due upon termination of an employee, are due and payable between the 1st and the 10th day of the following month. California Labor Code section 204 also requires that all wages earned for labor in excess of the normal work period shall be paid no later than the payday for the next regular payroll period. During the relevant time period, Ji Medical, Inc., failed to pay Mr. Sonico and other aggrieved employees all wages due to them within any time period specified by California Labor Code section 204.

California Labor Code section 226 requires employers to make, keep and provide complete and accurate itemized wage statements to their employees. During the relevant time period, Ji Medical, Inc., did not provide Mr. Sonico and other aggrieved employees with complete and accurate itemized wage statements. The wage statements they received from Ji Medical, Inc., were in violation of California Labor Code section 226(a). The violations include, but are not limited to, the failure to include (1) gross wages earned by Mr. Sonico and other aggrieved employees, (2) total hours worked by Mr. Sonico and other aggrieved employees, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate by Mr. Sonico and other aggrieved employees (4) all deductions for Mr. Sonico and other aggrieved employees, (5) net wages earned by Mr. Sonico and other aggrieved employees, (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which Mr. Sonico and other aggrieved employees are paid, (7) the name of the aggrieved employee and only the last four digits of his or her social security number or an employee identification number other than a social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by Mr. Sonico and other aggrieved employees.

California Labor Code section 558 allows recovery of penalties and wages. (a) Any employer or other person acting on behalf of an employer who violates, or causes to be violated, a section of this chapter or any provision regulating hours and days of work in any order of the Industrial Welfare Commission shall be subject to a civil penalty as follows: (1) For any initial violation, fifty dollars ($50) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages. (2) For each subsequent violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages. (3) Wages recovered pursuant to this section shall be paid to the affected employee. Mr. Sonico and other aggrieved employees have been denied their wages and premium wages and, therefore, are entitled to penalties.

California Labor Code sections 1174(d) requires an employer to keep, at a central location in the state or at the plants or establishments at which employees are employed, payroll records showing the hours worked daily by and the wages paid to, and the number of piece-rate units earned by and any applicable piece rate paid to, employees employed at the respective plants or establishments. These records shall be kept with rules established for this purpose by the commission, but in any case, shall be kept on file for not less than two years. During the relevant time period, Ji Medical, Inc., failed to keep accurate and complete payroll records showing the hours worked daily and the wages paid, to Mr. Sonico and other aggrieved employees.

California Labor Code sections 1194, 1197 and 1197.1 provide the minimum wage to be paid to employees, and the payment of a lesser wage than the minimum so fixed is unlawful. During the relevant time period, Ji Medical, Inc., did not provide Mr. Sonico and other aggrieved employees with the minimum wages to which they were entitled despite constructive and actual knowledge of off-the-clock work, including pre- and post-shift and during meal breaks.

December 7, 2020

California Labor Code sections 2800 and 2802 require an employer to reimburse its employee for all necessary expenditures incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the discharge of his or her job duties or in direct consequence of his or her obedience to the directions of the employer. During their employment, Mr. Sonico and other aggrieved employees incurred necessary business-related expenses and costs that were not fully reimbursed by Ji Medical, Inc., including for the use of their personal cellular phones for work purposes, for gas expenses, and for purchasing work pants and slip-restraint shoes.

We believe that Mr. Sonico and other current and former California-based hourly-paid or non-exempt employees of Ji Medical, Inc., are entitled to penalties and wages as allowed under California Labor Code section 2698, et seq. for violations of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 218.5, 221, 226(a), 226.3, 226.7, 510, 512(a), 558, 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800 and 2802.

California Labor Code section 2699.3 requires that a claimant send a certified letter to the employer in questions and the California Labor & Workforce Development Agency setting forth the claims, and the basis for the claims, thereby giving the California Labor & Workforce Development Agency an opportunity to investigate the claims and/or take any action it deems appropriate.

The purpose of this letter is to satisfy the requirement created by California Labor code section 2699 prior to seeking penalties allowed by law for the aforementioned statutory violations. We look forward to determining whether California Labor & Workforce Development Agency intends to take any action in reference to these claims. We kindly request that you respond to this notice according to the time frame contemplated by the California Labor Code.

Mr. Sonico will seek these penalties and wages on his own behalf and on behalf of other similarly situated California-based hourly-paid or non-exempt employees of Ji Medical, Inc., within one year of the date of this letter, as allowed by law.

If you have any questions or require additional information, please do not hesitate to contact us. Thank you for your attention to this matter and the noble cause you advance each and every day.

Very truly yours,
