Attorneys for Plaintiffs and Aggrieved Employees

SUPERIOR COURT OF CALIFORNIA COUNTY OF SAN FRANCISCO

JOHN DOE, PAOLA CORREA, and DEWAYNE CASSEL, on behalf of the State of California and aggrieved employees,

Plaintiffs,

vs.

GOOGLE, INC., ALPHABET, INC.,
ADECCO USA INC., ADECCO GROUP
NORTH AMERICA and ROES 1 through 10,

Defendants.

Case No. CGC-16-556034

DECLARATION OF CHRIS BAKER IN SUPPORT OF PLAINTIFFS' MOTIONS
FOR APPROVAL, FEES, COSTS, AND SERVICE AWARDS

REDACTED

Date: November 2, 2023

Time: 2:00 p.m.

Judge: Hon. Ethan P. Schulman

Dept: Dept. 304 (COMPLEX)

1 My name is Chris Baker. I am a shareholder in Baker Curtis & Schwartz (BCS) and a 2 counsel of record for Plaintiffs in this case. I have personal knowledge of these facts.

3 1. I attach to this declaration true and correct copies of the following documents.

4 2. Exhibit 1 is a copy of the parties' Settlement Agreement.

5 3. Exhibit 2 is printouts of the superior court on-line dockets in this case and Cassel,
6 as well as the dockets of the Court of Appeal, the California Supreme Court, and the United States
7 Supreme Court with respect to Plaintiffs' appeal of the Court's judgment and orders sustaining
8 Defendants' demurrers on the basis of Garmon preemption,

9 4. Exhibit 3 is a redacted excerpt from the transcript of a TGIF company-wide
10 meeting held at Google on May 16, 2016.

11 5. Exhibit 4 is a declaration signed by John Doe.

12 6. Exhibit 5 is a declaration signed by DeWayne Cassel.

13 7. Exhibit 6 is a declaration signed by Paola Correa.

14 8. Exhibit 7 is a copy of the San Mateo Superior Court's order approving the 15 settlement in Moniz v. Adecco. Moniz asserted in its first motion for settlement approval that 16 Adecco's exposure exceeded $5,000,000,000. The San Mateo court approved a settlement amount 17 of approximately $4,500,000, or

18 9. Exhibit 8 is a chart identifying all settlements that, based on data provided to BCS
19 by the LWDA pursuant to a California Public Records Act, potentially included an award of 20 PAGA penalties in the eight figures. The original data was not particularly accurate because it was 21 based on what litigants submitted to the agency. To improve its accuracy, my firm accessed the 22 settlements and judgments referenced in the LWDA production to determine the actual amount 23 allocated to gross penalties. According to our analysis, the proposed Settlement in this case is the 24 largest PAGA-only settlement in the history of PAGA and second largest PAGA penalty recovery.

25 Exposure Analysis

26 10. We calculate Google's exposure in this case in the following manner. During the 27 entire Covered Period, there are 96,939 unique employees and 9,667,556 total pay periods.
28 Assuming a per employee penalty of $10,000 under Labor Code § 1102.5 and a $100 per

1 employee pay period penalty under Labor Code §§ 432.5, 232, 232.5, 1101, 1102, and 1197.5, the
2 maximum stacked exposure is $4,518,514.600. (Note that Plaintiffs did not assert claims under 3 Labor Code §§ 1101 and 1102 until “Period C,” the time frame in which Google published its
4 community guidelines that Plaintiffs claimed prohibited certain political activity.)

5 11. Alternatively, if we stack the penalties based on a “primary rights theory” (were, for 6 example, the political speech claims give rise to one penalty instead of two), the exposure drops to 7 $3,122,052,900.

8 12. If there is no stacking such that there is only one penalty per employee pay period
9 across the Covered Period, the exposure is $966,755,600.

10 13. Finally, if we calculate the exposure in the manner used by the superior court in 11 Moniz v. Adecco, i.e., one violation per employee, the stacked exposure is $38,775,600 and the 12 unstacked exposure is $9,693,900. Plaintiffs disagree with this exposure analysis.

13 Plan of Allocation

14 14. Assuming the Court awards Plaintiffs’ requested fees, costs, and service awards, the 15 net settlement amount will be $17,600,577.05. Of this amount, and consistent with PAGA, the 16 LWDA will receive $13,200,432.79 (75%) and the PAGA Group Members will share a
17 distribution fund of $4,400,144.26 (25%). From the distribution fund, each PAGA Group Member 18 will receive a flat sum of $20.00 and a pro-rata share of per pay period penalties based on their
19 work during Periods A and C. Due to the evolution of Google’s policies, Period A pay periods
20 receive a five-unit value, Period B pay periods receive zero value, and Period C pay periods 21 receive a one-unit value.

22 15. Under the plan of allocation set forth in the Settlement, we estimate that the gross
23 penalty for the Labor Code § 1102.5 violations is $126.98 per employee, the gross penalty during 24 Period A is an additional $5.96 per pay period, and the gross penalty during Period C is an 25 additional $1.91. Specifically:

1 Labor Code § 1102.5 “Per Employee” Violations = $126.98 x 96,939 employees = $12,309,314.22
2 Period A “Per Pay Period” Violations = $5.96 x 1,218,703 pay periods = $7,263,469.88
3 Period C “Per Pay Period” Violations = $1.19 x 6,208,727 pay periods = $7,388,385.13
4 Total = $26,961.169.23

5 Baker Curtis & Schwartz

6 16. The current shareholders of Baker Curtis & Schwartz, P.C., – currently myself, Bob
7 Dolinko, and Deborah Schwartz – are former management-side employment lawyers who worked 8 together at Thelen Marrin Johnson & Bridges and then Nixon Peabody. Collectively, we have 9 more than fifty years of experience litigating complex employment disputes. Mike Curtis, our 10 former shareholder, also worked with us at Thelen and Nixon.

11 17. One way to judge a firm is by the reputation or quality of its adversaries.
12 BCS has been or is currently adverse to the following law firms – listed in no particular order – in 13 competition, PAGA, or employment cases: Quinn Emanuel, Orrick, Arnold & Porter, Kirkland &
14 Ellis, Davis Polk, Goodwin Proctor, Perkins Coie, Sidley Austin, Morgan Lewis, Munger Tolles, 15 Pillsbury Winthrop, Latham, Reed Smith, Seyfarth, and, of course, Paul Hastings. Each of these 16 firms is regularly identified as among the top 100 most prestigious law firms in the country.

17 18. With respect to the claims released by the proposed Settlement, BCS litigated
18 against many current and former highly-credentialed and successful Paul Hasting attorneys,
19 including: Cameron Fox (Head of Paul Hastings’ Los Angeles Office and Traditional Labor
20 Group), Al Latham (named one of the five best labor lawyers in America), Felicia Davis (Chair of 21 Paul Hastings Los Angeles Employment Law Department), Zach Hutton (Chair of its Los Angeles
22 Employment Law Department and Co-chair of its Wage and Hour Practice Group), Bradford
23 Newman (then-Chair of its Employee Mobility and Trade Secret Practice), and Paul Cane (Co-24 chair of its Appellate Practice Group).

25 19. Some of the cases in which our lawyers have served as lead counsel in either the 26 competition or representative action areas include Hertz Corporation v. Friend (2010) 559 U.S.
27 77, Smigelski v. PennyMac Financial Services, Inc. (Cal.App. Dec. 19, 2018) 2018 WL 6629406, 28 reviewed denied S253796 (Cal. Apr. 10, 2019), cert denied, (2019)140 S.Ct. 223, Veeva Systems

1 Inc. v. Quintiles IMS (Cal.App. Oct. 31, 2019) 2019 WL 5654387, Doe v. Google Inc. (2020) 54
2 Cal.App.5th 948, review denied (Cal. Jan 13, 2021), cert denied (2021) 142 S.Ct. 337, Moniz v.
3 Adecco (2021) 72 Cal.App.5th 56, Khan v. IQVIA Inc. (Md.App. Mar. 4, 2022), 2022 WL 632868,
4 and Markham v. Variable Annuity Life Insurance Co. (S.D. Tex Oct. 5, 2022) 2022 WL 5213229.

5 Attorney Rates

6 20. Baker Curtis & Schwartz focuses on representing employees in individual, class,
7 collective, PAGA, and other qui tam matters. While we primarily work on a contingency basis, we 8 also represent employees – mainly senior executives and high-income employees – and discrete 9 corporations on an hourly basis.

10 21. It is our practice to assess our rates in the first quarter of each year to ensure they 11 are consistent with the market for our services.

12 22. Our current hourly rates range from $550 to $1000 an hour. The current billing
13 rates are as follows: Baker ($1,000), Dolinko ($935), Schwartz ($875), Curtis ($875), Kmetz ($550
14 – Associate), and Jackson ($280 – senior data and e-discovery analyst). I am confident our rates 15 are reasonable and competitive because these are the rates that are actually paid to us by 16 individuals and corporate clients for hourly matters, including litigation matters. They are also 17 lower than many of the firms to whom we are regularly adverse.

18 The Value of Time Invested By BCS

19 23. BCS records our time (for contingency matters and otherwise) on a 20 contemporaneous basis. These records are kept in the ordinary course of business. In preparing 21 the present fee application, I provided BCS's time records to O&G for analysis and review. In 22 determining the "net" lodestar and hours for purposes of this motion, I understand O&G deleted all 23 entries that included the words Adecco, Moniz, adult content, or medical release as potentially 24 unrelated to the time incurred in prosecuting the speech suppression claims against Google. This
25 reduced BCS's "gross" hours by 1,393 and its "gross" lodestar by $1,343,520, resulting in 3,658
26 "net" hours and a "net" lodestar of $3,488,409. I note that BCS has received, to date, fees in the 27 amount of $579,000 from the PAGA settlements involving the adult content release and the 28 medical release. It also received a sanction award of $10,900 arising from Cassel's successful

1 motions to compel as to Google.

2 24. The dockets attached as Exhibit 1 evidence the time spent by BCS and Outten &
3 Golden (O&G) on these cases, including before the association of O&G. The work was extensive
4 and always challenging. As the dockets establish, the description of the work set forth in the 5 motions accompanying this declaration is accurate if incomplete. Among other things, there were 6 two failed mediations (one with David Rotman and a second with Tony Favilla and Stephanie 7 Chow), extensive settlement negotiations, exhaustive meet and confer efforts, and ongoing 8 interactions, proceedings, and correspondence with the National Labor Relations Board (where 9 Google sought to broaden the Board's assertion of jurisdiction over Plaintiffs' claims and Plaintiffs 10 sought to narrow it). I devoted a year and a half of my working life to the claims released by the 11 Settlement. Thus precluded BCS from taking other profitable work, including a substantial 12 amount of hourly work.

13 Litigation Costs

14 25. Excluding costs associated with the claims against Adecco, BCS's out of pocket
15 litigation costs in this case total $79,556.23. They are broken down as follows:

17 Category	Amount
18 Depositions	$30,800.81
19 ESI Vendors and Storage	$22,980.83
20 Court Reporter Transcripts	$1,814.34
21 Mediation	$11,750
22 Legal Research	$475.03
23 Postage	$363.11
24 Filing Fees	$11,372.11
25 Total	$79,556.23

26 26. Plaintiffs previously recovered $18,464.51 in costs through the resolution of the 27 adult content liability and medical release claims. After deducting this amount from the costs set 28 forth above, the net amount of costs incurred in litigating the claims against Google is $61,091.72.

2. PROCEDURAL HISTORY AND RECITALS

2.1 The Action. On December 20, 2016, Plaintiff Doe filed the original complaint in this Action, seeking relief under PAGA based on allegations that Google Inc. adopted and enforced unlawful policies and practices, and required employees to agree to and sign certain unlawful documents, in violation of the California Labor Code. Through amendments to the original complaint, PAGA Representatives Correa and Gudeman joined the Action as plaintiffs, and Google LLC, Alphabet Inc., and Adecco USA Inc. were added as defendants. Google denied the allegations and contended that it complied with all applicable laws.

2.2 Plaintiffs' Counsel's Investigation. Plaintiffs' Counsel thoroughly investigated the claims against Defendants in the Action and analyzed all applicable defenses raised by Defendants. The Parties have engaged in substantial discovery with the close supervision of the Court.

2.3 Negotiation of Settlement. Plaintiffs' Counsel engaged in arms-length negotiations with Defendants at mediations on March 22, 2018 (conducted by David Rotman) and April 19, 2022 (conducted Tony Piazza and Stephanie Chow). These mediations did not immediately resolve the Released Claims. Thereafter, the Parties resumed engaging in mediated settlement negotiations with the aid of Stephanie Chow in July 2023. The Parties reached an agreement in principle, and executed a Memorandum of Agreement, on or around September 1, 2023.

2.4 Fair, Adequate, and Reasonable Settlement. The Parties agree that the Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate under applicable law and will so represent to the Court.

2.5 The Parties' Intent. It is the desire of the Parties to fully, finally, and forever settle, compromise, and discharge any and all claims, rights, demands, charges, complaints, causes of action, obligations or liability of any and every kind that were or could have been asserted in the Action.

2.6 The Parties' Agreement to Cooperate. The Parties agree to cooperate and to take all steps necessary and appropriate to effectuate all aspects of this Settlement.

3. SETTLEMENT ADMINISTRATOR

3.1 Settlement Administrator. The Parties shall request that the Court appoint Rust Consulting as Settlement Administrator. All disputes relating to the Settlement Administrator's performance of its duties, after good-faith efforts by the Parties to first resolve such disputes, will be referred to the Court, if necessary, which will have continuing jurisdiction over this Settlement until all payments and obligations contemplated by this Settlement have been fully completed.

3.2 Responsibilities of the Settlement Administrator. The Settlement Administrator shall be responsible for: preparing, printing, calculating, and/or disseminating to PAGA Group Members the PAGA Notice Letter and Settlement Checks; performing a skip trace up to two (2) times and resending, within one day of receipt, any Settlement Checks returned without a forwarding address or resending to those with a new forwarding address; responding to requests or communications made by the Parties; preparing, sending, and/or wire transferring to Plaintiffs' Counsel's approved Costs and Fees and PAGA Representative Service Awards in accordance with this Agreement and the Approval Order; remitting the LWDA Payment to the LWDA; responding to inquiries of Plaintiffs' Counsel and Defendants' Counsel consistent with the Settlement Administrator's duties specified herein; referring inquiries to Plaintiffs' Counsel as appropriate; promptly apprising counsel for the Parties of the activities of the Settlement Administrator; maintaining adequate records of its activities, including the dates of mailings and re-mailings discussed herein; providing a compliance affidavit if requested by the parties; establishing and administering the QSF; calculating and distributing the Individual Settlement Payments in accordance with the Court's Approval Order and the Plan of Allocation, as provided herein, and complying with all applicable tax reporting obligations, including preparing and filing all applicable tax forms; and such other tasks as set forth herein, or as the Parties mutually agree.

3.3 Data for Settlement Administrator. Within ten (10) calendar days of the Effective Date, Defendants shall provide to the Settlement Administrator the PAGA Group List.

4. DISTRIBUTION OF SETTLEMENT PROCEEDS

4.1 Funding of Total Settlement Amount. The Settlement Administrator will provide Defendants with ACH information and a completed W-9 within five (5) days after the Approval Order. Defendants will transfer the Total Settlement Amount via ACH, for placement in a Qualified Settlement Fund, within sixty (60) days after the Administrator provides Defendants with ACH information and a completed W-9 form. However, in no event will Defendants fund the Settlement

1 before the Effective Date. Any interest earned on the Total Settlement Amount will become a part of 2 the Total Settlement Amount.

3 4.2 Attorneys' Fees and Costs. Plaintiffs and their Counsel intend to move for an
4 award of fees and costs to be paid from the Common Fund created by the Settlement. Defendants agree
5 not to oppose this motion so long as the motion does not seek fees above one-third (1/3) of the Gross
6 Settlement Amount and (b) costs and expenses of suit supported by adequate documentation by 7 Plaintiffs' Counsel (collectively referred to as "Attorneys' Fees and Costs"). Except as provided in this
8 Settlement, Defendants shall have no liability for any other Attorneys' Fees or Costs. Plaintiffs'
9 Counsel shall be solely and legally responsible to pay any and all applicable taxes on the payment made
10 pursuant to this subparagraph and agrees to indemnify and hold harmless Defendants from any claim or 11 liability for taxes, penalties or interest for which Plaintiffs' Counsel are responsible as a result of the 12 payment or any allocation of the payment made pursuant to this paragraph. Plaintiffs' Counsel shall 13 provide a W-9 to the Settlement Administrator, and an IRS Form 1099 shall be provided by the 14 Settlement Administrator to Plaintiffs' Counsel for the total payment made pursuant to this 15 subparagraph.

16 4.2.1 Approval of Attorneys' Fees and Costs Not Material. The Court's 17 approval of the Attorneys' Fees and Costs is not a material term of the Settlement. If the Court does not
18 approve or approves only a lesser amount than that requested by Plaintiffs' Counsel for Attorneys' Fees
19 or Costs, the other terms of this Settlement shall remain in effect. The Court's refusal to approve the 20 Attorneys' Fees or Costs requested by Plaintiffs' Counsel does not give Plaintiffs or Plaintiffs' Counsel
21 any basis to abrogate the Settlement. Any amount of the Attorneys' Fees and Costs requested by 22 Plaintiffs' Counsel but unapproved by the Court shall be allocated to the Net Settlement Amount.

23 4.2.2 Timing of Payment of Attorneys' Fees and Costs. The Settlement
24 Administrator shall pay to Plaintiffs' Counsel any approved Attorneys' Fees and Costs upon request
25 after the Effective Date.

26 4.3 Service Award Payments to PAGA Representatives. Plaintiffs intend to move
27 for Service Awards to be paid from the Common Fund created by the Settlement. Defendants agree not 28 to oppose this motion so long as the motion does not seek Service Awards that, in the aggregate, exceed

1 more than $120,000. Any Service Award approved by the Court would be in addition to the PAGA
2 Representatives' Individual Settlement Payment. Any payments made pursuant to this paragraph will be
3 paid in a lump sum to each awardee, without payroll tax deductions and withholding, and the PAGA
4 Representatives will be issued a Form 1099 with respect to the payment.

5 4.3.1 Approval of Service Award Not Material. The Court's approval of the 6 Service Award is not a material term of this Agreement. If the Court does not approve or approves only
7 a lesser amount than that requested for the Service Awards, then the other terms of this Agreement shall 8 remain in effect. To the extent that the Court approves less than the Service Awards requested by 9 Plaintiffs, the difference will be included in the Net Settlement Amount.

10 4.3.2 Timing and tax reporting of Service Award. The Settlement
11 Administrator shall pay any Service Award upon request after the Effective Date. The Settlement
12 Administrator shall issue an IRS Form 1099 to Named Plaintiff for the Service Award.

13 4.4 Administration Costs. The parties estimate that Administration Costs will not 14 exceed $153,900. If costs exceed that amount, the Settlement Administrator will inform Plaintiffs
15 promptly, before incurring any such costs, and Plaintiffs shall request approval for any reasonable
16 additional costs from the Court. The Administration Costs will be paid from the Gross Settlement
17 Amount, and any funds reserved to cover Administration Costs but not spent on administration shall be 18 included in the Net Settlement Amount. Upon completion of administration of the Settlement set forth
19 in this Agreement, the Settlement Administrator shall provide written certification of such completion to 20 Plaintiffs and Google.

21 4.4.1 Timing of Payment of Administration Costs. The Settlement
22 Administrator may pay itself any approved Administration Costs from the Total Settlement Amount at 23 any time after the Effective Date.

24 4.4.2 Approval of Administration Costs Not Material. The Court's approval
25 of the Administration Costs is not a material term of this Agreement. If the Court does not approve 26 particular Administration Costs, then the other terms of this Agreement shall remain in effect.

1 4.5 LWDA Payment. The Parties will seek approval from the Court for an LWDA
2 Payment consisting of seventy-five percent (75%) of the Net Settlement Amount as the LWDA's
3 proportionate share of the settlement of civil penalties paid under this Settlement pursuant to PAGA.

4 4.6 Timing of the LWDA Payment. The Settlement Administrator shall pay the 5 LWDA Payment to the LWDA within ten (10) calendar days after the Effective Date.

6 4.7 PAGA Distribution Fund. The remaining twenty-five percent (25%) of the Net
7 Settlement Amount will constitute the "PAGA Distribution Fund" for distribution to PAGA Group
8 Members.

9 4.7.1 Plan of Allocation. Each PAGA Group Member's Individual Settlement
10 Payment will be calculated as follows. Each PAGA Group Member will receive five (5) Points for pay
11 periods employed in California during Period A, zero (0) Points for pay periods employed in California
12 during Period B, and one (1) Point for pay periods employed in California during Period C. Each
13 Individual Settlement Payment will equal (1) a Fixed Payment of twenty dollars ($20), which shall be
14 the same for all PAGA Group Members regardless of their number of pay periods in the Covered Period
15 or when those pay periods occurred, plus (2) a Variable Payment calculated as the portion of the PAGA
16 Distribution Fund remaining after allocation of all Fixed Payments times that PAGA Group Member's 17 proportionate share of all Points attributable to all PAGA Group Members.

18 4.7.2The Settlement Administrator will calculate all Individual Settlement
19 Payments to PAGA Group Members, the LWDA Payment, the Service Awards, the Plaintiffs' Counsel
20 Fees and Expenses Payment, and the Settlement Administrator's fees and expenses in accordance with 21 the Court's orders, the Settlement, and the Plan of Allocation, and it will provide the Parties with its 22 calculations for the Parties' review.

23 4.8 Timing and Tax Reporting of the Individual Settlement Payments. The 24 Settlement Administrator shall issue a Settlement Check to each PAGA Group Member for their
25 Individual Settlement Payment, along with the PAGA Notice Letter, no later than thirty (30) calendar
26 days after receiving the PAGA Group List. Prior to mailing, the Settlement Administrator will update
27 the mailing addresses contained in the PAGA Member Data against the National Change of Address
28 Database. Individual Settlement Payments will be characterized entirely as Form 1099 income.

1 4.9 Undeliverable or Uncashed Checks. Any Individual Settlement Payment
2 checks returned to the Settlement Administrator as undeliverable shall be sent within five (5) calendar
3 days via First Class U.S. Mail to the forwarding address affixed thereto. If no forwarding address is 4 provided, the Settlement Administrator shall attempt to determine the correct address using a single 5 computer skip-trace search, and it shall then perform a re-mailing within five (5) calendar days. Any
6 Individual Settlement Payment checks that remain undeliverable or uncashed one hundred eighty (180)
7 calendar days after the postmarked date of the initial mailing of the Individual Settlement Payments will
8 be cancelled and the funds associated with such checks will be sent to the California State Controller's
9 Office Unclaimed Property Fund in the names of such PAGA Group Members. The Settlement
10 Administrator shall notify Plaintiffs' Counsel and Defendants' Counsel of any undeliverable checks.

11 4.10 Tax Payment Considerations. Plaintiffs' Counsel and Defendants and their 12 counsel are not giving any tax advice in connection with the Settlement or any payments to be made 13 pursuant to the Settlement.

14 5. RELEASES

15 5.1 Release by PAGA Group Members. As of the Effective Date, Plaintiffs, on 16 behalf of themselves, the State of California, the LWDA, and the PAGA Group Members fully release
17 and discharge Google and the Released Parties from any and all claims for relief under PAGA, whether 18 termed "individual" or "representative," of whatever kind or nature, whether known or unknown, arising 19 during the Covered Period based on or reasonably related to the facts and claims alleged by Plaintiffs in 20 the Action and Plaintiffs' notice letters to the LWDA including, but not limited to claims under 21 California Labor Code sections 98(k), 98.6, 232, 232.5, 432.5, 1101, 1102, 1102.5, and 1197.5(j)-(k)
22 and any resulting claim for attorneys' fees and costs under PAGA (the "Released Claims").

23 5.2 Additional Releases by PAGA Representatives. The PAGA Representatives
24 release any and all known and unknown claims alleged in the Action against the Released Parties arising 25 at any time before the PAGA Representative signed the Memorandum of Agreement in this Action, 26 ("Representative Released Claims"), and waive the protection of California Civil Code section 1542 as 27 it relates to the Representative Released Claims. With respect to the Representative Released Claims
28 only, the Parties stipulate and agree that, if or when the Effective Date occurs, the PAGA

Representatives shall have individually, by operation of the judgment and approval order entered by the Court, waived and relinquished, to the fullest extent permitted by law, the provisions, rights, and benefits of section 1542 of the California Civil Code, which provides:

A GENERAL RELEASE DOES NOT EXTEND TO CLAIMS THAT THE CREDITOR OR RELEASING PARTY DOES NOT KNOW OR SUSPECT TO EXIST IN HIS OR HER FAVOR AT THE TIME OF EXECUTING THE RELEASE AND THAT, IF KNOWN BY HIM OR HER, WOULD HAVE MATERIALLY AFFECTED HIS OR HER SETTLEMENT WITH THE DEBTOR OR RELEASED PARTY.

5.3 No Admission of Liability. By entering into this Settlement, Defendants in no way admit any violation of law or any liability whatsoever to the PAGA Representatives or PAGA Group Members. The Parties understand and agree that this Settlement shall be inadmissible for any purpose in any proceeding, except an action or proceeding to approve, interpret, or enforce the terms of this Settlement. The Parties agree that, to the extent permitted by law, this Settlement may be pleaded as a full and complete defense to, and may be used as the basis for an injunction against any action, suit, or other proceeding that may be instituted, prosecuted, or attempted in breach of this Settlement.

6. SETTLEMENT APPROVAL PROCEDURE

6.1 Settlement Approval. The Parties will cooperate in seeking approval of the Settlement, including through Plaintiffs providing a draft of their Motion for Settlement Approval to Google five days before Plaintiffs file it. Plaintiffs will consider in good faith all comments and input provided by Defendants. In addition, Google will have the right to file its own brief in support of or in response to the Motion. The Parties further agree to fully cooperate in the drafting and/or filing of any further documents reasonably necessary to be prepared or filed and shall take all steps that may be requested by the Court relating to the approval and implementation of the Settlement. The Parties agree that the LWDA and PAGA Group Members can comment on (including object to) the Settlement, but there is no statutory right for any PAGA Group Member to opt out or otherwise exclude themselves from the Settlement.

6.2 Effect of Failure to Obtain Approval. If the Court does not approve the Settlement and issue the Final Order as requested, the Parties will meet and confer to address the Court's concerns and determine whether resolution of the Action can be obtained in a manner consistent with the

1 Court's concerns. If the Court does not grant approval of the Settlement, or if the Court's approval of
2 the Settlement is reversed or materially modified on appellate review, then the Settlement will become
3 null and void. A modification of Plaintiffs' Counsel's Fees and Expenses Payment, of the PAGA
4 Representative Service Awards, or of the Plan of Allocation shall not be deemed a material modification
5 of the Settlement.

6 6.3 Provision of Judgment to LWDA. Plaintiffs shall submit a copy of the 7 Judgment in this Action and a copy of any other order providing for or denying an award of civil
8 penalties to the LWDA within ten (10) days after entry of the Judgment and/or order, in compliance with 9 section 2699(l)(3) of the California Labor Code. If Plaintiffs fail to satisfy this condition in strict 10 compliance with section 2699(l)(3) of the California Labor Code, Defendants shall promptly notify 11 Plaintiffs and cooperate in remedying the noncompliance to pursue approval and finality of the 12 Settlement

13 7. MISCELLANEOUS

14 7.1 Representations and Warranties. The parties represent and warrant that they
15 are aware of no PAGA notices or complaints filed, threatened, or contemplated against Google alleging 16 claims that overlap with those alleged in this Action. Each Party will immediately advise the other of 17 any change in circumstances or facts that render these representations and warranties incomplete or 18 untrue.

19 7.2 Confidentiality Proceeding Court Approval. Prior to filing of the Motion for 20 Settlement Approval, Plaintiffs and their attorneys will not issue any press or other media releases or 21 have any communication with the press or media or anyone other than family members, clients, PAGA
22 Group Members, financial advisors, retained experts, vendors, and Google's co-defendant Adecco in 23 this Action, regarding the Settlement, other than to respond by reference to already-filed publicly 24 available information in response to press inquiries.

25 7.3 Parties' Authority. The signatories hereto represent that they are fully 26 authorized to enter into this Settlement and are fully authorized to bind the Parties to all terms stated 27 herein.
28

1 7.4 Representation by Counsel. The Parties acknowledge that they have been
2 represented by counsel throughout all negotiations that preceded the execution of this Agreement, and 3 that this Agreement has been executed with the consent and advice of counsel, and reviewed in full.

4 7.5 Entire Agreement. This Settlement constitutes the entire agreement between the 5 Parties with regard to the subject matter contained herein, and supersedes any other agreements,
6 understandings, or representations between the Parties.

7 7.6 Arms' Length Negotiation; Materiality of Terms. The Parties have negotiated
8 all the terms and conditions of this Agreement at arms' length. All terms and conditions of this 9 Agreement in the exact form set forth in this Agreement are material to this Agreement and have been 10 relied upon by the Parties in entering into this Agreement, unless otherwise expressly stated.

11 7.7 Counterparts. This Settlement may be executed in counterparts, and when each 12 party has signed and delivered at least one such counterpart, each counterpart shall be deemed an 13 original, and when taken together with other signed counterparts, shall constitute one signed Settlement,
14 which shall be binding upon and effective as to all Parties.

15 7.8 Facsimile or Scanned Signatures. Any party may sign and deliver this 16 Settlement by signing on the designated signature block and transmitting that signature page via 17 facsimile, DocuSign, or as an attachment to an e-mail to counsel for the other party. Any signature
18 made and transmitted by facsimile or as an attachment to an e-mail for the purpose of executing this
19 Settlement shall be deemed an original signature for purposes of this Settlement and shall be binding
20 upon the party who transmits the signature page.

21 7.9 Waivers, etc. to Be in Writing. No waiver, modification or amendment of the 22 terms of this Agreement, whether purportedly made before or after the Court's approval of this
23 Agreement, shall be valid or binding unless in writing, signed by or on behalf of all Parties and then
24 only to the extent set forth in such written waiver, modification or amendment, subject to any required
25 Court approval. Any failure by any Party to insist upon the strict performance by the other Party of any 26 of the provisions of this Agreement shall not be deemed a waiver of future performance of the same
27 provisions or of any of the other provisions of this Agreement, and such party, notwithstanding such 28

1 failure, shall have the right thereafter to insist upon the specific performance of any and all of the 2 provisions of this Agreement.

3 7.10 Construction. The determination of the terms and conditions of this Settlement
4 has been by mutual agreement of the Parties. Each party participated jointly in the drafting of this
5 Settlement, and the terms and conditions of this Settlement are not intended to be, and shall not be,
6 construed against any party by virtue of draftsmanship.

7 7.10.1 Captions. The captions or headings of the sections and paragraphs of this 8 Settlement have been inserted for convenience of reference only and shall have no effect upon the 9 construction or interpretation of any part of this Settlement.

10 7.10.2 Invalidity of Any Provision. Before declaring any provision of this
11 Settlement invalid, the Court shall first attempt to construe the provisions valid to the fullest extent
12 possible consistent with applicable precedents so as to render all provisions of this Settlement valid and 13 enforceable.

14 7.11 Binding on Successors and Assigns. This Agreement will be binding upon, and 15 inure to the benefit of, the successors or assigns of the Parties hereto.

16 7.12 No Assignment. Plaintiffs represent and warrant that they have not assigned or 17 transferred, or purported to assign or transfer, to any person or entity, any claim or any portion thereof or 18 interest therein, including, but not limited to, any interest in the Action, or any related action.

19 7.13 Continuing Jurisdiction. The Court shall retain jurisdiction over the 20 implementation of this Settlement as well as any and all matters arising out of, or related to, the 21 implementation of this Settlement. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, the Court shall not 22 have jurisdiction to modify the terms of the Settlement without the consent of all of the Parties.

23 7.14 Governing Law. This Settlement was made and entered into in the State of 24 California. All terms of this Settlement shall be governed by and interpreted according to the laws of 25 the State of California.

Notice of Settlement of PAGA Representative Action
Doe v. Google, San Francisco Superior Court, Case No. CGC-16-556034

You are receiving this notice because the San Francisco County Superior Court approved a settlement in the above case and you are a member of the group that is entitled to receive payment. Enclosed please find a check with your portion of the settlement proceeds.

A settlement (the “Settlement”) has been reached between Plaintiffs John Doe, Paola Correa, and DeWayne Cassel on behalf of the State of California and Defendants Google, LLC and Alphabet, Inc. (“Defendants”) in a representative action pending in the San Francisco County Superior Court, Case No. CGC-16-556034 (the “Lawsuit”).

In the Lawsuit, Plaintiffs alleged certain of Google’s employment contracts, policies, and practices (“Policies”) violate various California laws that protect competition and employee speech. The applicable California laws are:

- Labor Code §§ 96(k), 98.6, and 232.5, which generally give employees the right to engage in lawful conduct outside of work and to disclose information about working conditions.
- Labor Code §§ 232 and 1197.5(k), which generally give employees the right to disclose or discuss information about wages.
- Labor Code §§ 1101-1102, which generally give employees the right to engage in political activity in their personal capacities.
- Labor Code § 1102.5 and Government Code § 12964.5, which generally give employees the right to disclose information about reasonably suspected violations of the law internally, to government agencies, or to third parties, and to not release certain claims as a condition of initial or continuing employment.
- Business and Professions Code § 16600, which generally give employees the right to practice their profession or trade without restraint.

Google denies Plaintiffs’ allegations. Google emphasizes that California Googlers have all the specific rights above. Specifically, Google’s policies do not limit Googlers’ rights to disclose or use information, or communicate, whether orally or in writing, (1) about compensation or other terms of employment or working conditions, (2) about reasonably-suspected violations of law. Employees have these rights, to the extent they are not limited by other laws. Employees can exercise these rights without providing Google with notice or seeking its approval. Google will not retaliate against any employee for, nor interfere with, the lawful exercise of these rights.

However, the parties entered the Settlement to avoid the risks, uncertainties, and expense of further litigation.

Plaintiffs pursued claims for penalties against Defendants on behalf of the State of California under the California Private Attorneys General Act (“PAGA”), which provides that 75% of any recovery be paid to the State of California and 25% of any recovery be paid to the Representative Group. The Settlement releases claims for penalties under PAGA based on the foregoing alleged violations for the time period from October 16, 2015 through September 15, 2023. While you were not a party to the Lawsuit, you and the State of California have been bound by the Settlement and resulting judgment entered in this matter by the Court as to civil penalties under PAGA. The Settlement does not limit your rights with respect to non-PAGA claims.

The San Francisco County Superior Court approved the parties’ settlement of $27,000,000 on [DATE]. By approving the settlement, the Court did not decide in Plaintiffs’ or Defendants’ favor or otherwise rule on the merits of the lawsuit. The Net Settlement Amount after the Court-approved attorney’s fees, costs, administration costs, and service awards is $XX. Seventy-five percent will be paid to the State of California, and twenty-five percent will be paid to you and the other PAGA Settlement Members.

According to Defendants’ records, you worked for Google in California at some point between October 16, 2015 and September 15, 2023 and are therefore entitled to a share of the Settlement. Your Settlement payment is enclosed with this Notice. Your payment, like everyone else’s, is calculated as follows: a $20 fixed amount plus a proportionate share of the remaining money available for all covered individuals, based on a point system, with 5 points per pay period worked in the period October 16, 2015 through March 15, 2017 and 1 point per pay period worked in the period May 20, 2019 through September 15, 2023. The fixed payment applies to everyone equally, regardless of how much or when they worked during the October 16, 2015 through September 15, 2023 time period covered by the Settlement. The payment is characterized as Form 1099 income. You are responsible for any taxes payable on the amount you have received. As indicated on the check, you have 180 days from the date of mailing to cash the check. If you do not cash your check within 180 days, the check will be voided, and the money will be submitted in your name to the State of California’s unclaimed property fund.

Exhibit 4

DECLARATION OF JOHN DOE

I, John Doe, declare:

1. I have personal knowledge of the below facts.

2. I began working for Google/Alphabet (“Google”) in July 2014 at Nest (one of the Alphabet’s “other bets” companies). All my performance reviews in 2014 and 2015 were “strongly exceeds expectations.”

3. On April 19, 2016, an article came out in Recode about memes that employees had created about Nest and its CEO, Tony Fadell, on Google’s memegen application. I did not leak these memes to the press. I did not leak these memes to anyone. I had, however, posted some entirely different memes about Nest’s working conditions to a private Facebook page. I deleted those different memes from the Facebook page soon thereafter when a co-worker reminded me I was sure to get fired if those memes ever got out. To my knowledge, none of the different memes I posted and then deleted from the private Facebook page ever appeared in the press.

4. On April 21, 2016, a Stopleaks investigator named Zachary Brown came to my desk. He said he wanted to meet with me privately. He led to me a conference room where Brian Katz was waiting. A human resources representative named Arianna Tortorici was present by video conference. Mr. Katz asked me why I thought I was there. I said I didn’t know, and he kept repeating the question. I eventually asked if it had to do with all the press stories about Nest and Mr. Fadell. Mr. Katz asked me if I had been following the press and I said I had. Katz asked me if I had provided information the press, and I said I had not.

5. Katz told me he knew I was lying, that I was hiding things from him, that Google already knew what had happened and what I had done, and that this was my opportunity to tell them what I had done in order to make things better for myself. I repeatedly told Katz I hadn’t given anything to the press. He accused me of selling information to press, asking whether I had shared so much information that I just didn’t remember, or if I was selling it to the press, or words to the effect. He continued to say that he knew I was lying and that Google had proof I had given something to the press. I told him I would like to see this proof because I hadn’t given anything to the press.

6. Katz then told me to forget about the press, and he asked me if I had ever done anything or shared information with colleagues related to recent news stories. At this point, I told him that I had posted some memes to the private Facebook group. Katz wanted to know who belonged to the Facebook group. I told him I didn't feel comfortable sharing that information.

7. Katz then asked me about the April 19 Recode article concerning the memes. I told him I felt relief when I read the Recode article because the memes published by Recode were not the memes I had posted and deleted from the Facebook page. Katz told me he knew I was lying. He told me Google had been watching me for a while, and that Google saw when I was opening news articles, and that I had visited the TGIF page where the leaked transcript resided, and they had proof that I leaked things to the press. I continued to deny leaking anything the press. Katz told me that he had the story, that it looked bad, and that I wasn't cooperating.

8. I asked if I was being fired. Ms. Tortorici told me I was being placed on administrative leave. They took away my FOB, key access, and corporate computer. Mr. Brown then walked me back to my desk and told me to gather my personal belongings because I wouldn't be returning.

9. On April 27, 2017, I had a follow up call with Ariana Tortorici and another HR representative named Fiona O'Donnell. They told me I was being fired for violating Google's data policy and corporate conduct guidelines.

10. I retained the law firm of Baker Curtis & Schwartz in this time period.

11. I understand that, on May 6, 2016, Mr. Katz announced to Google's entire workforce that they had identified and fired the person who had leaked the memes to the press for "intentional disregard of confidentiality." I did not leak the memes.

12. I understand my attorneys filed my first PAGA notice on May 17, 2016.

13. On June 29, 2016, Google offered to reinstate my employment and promote me, saying they believed the situation involving my employment termination could have been handled differently. I accepted this offer and returned to work with a promotion.

14. A short time later, Nest held an all-hands meeting where Nest's executives announced it was "litigation free" for the first time since 2012. One Nest employee asked me if I was upset that my “lawsuit” didn’t count. Another Nest employee asked me if I planned to put “suing the company” on my upcoming performance review. These comments made me sad and uncomfortable.

15. On December 20, 2016, my PAGA complaint was filed. In February 2017, I filed an arbitration demand that did not allege any PAGA claims. The matter that was the subject of the arbitration has been resolved in early 2018.

16. I have not received any personal benefit from bringing the PAGA case, other than a $1000 service award resulting from the claims arising from Google’s adult content liability release.

17. I have provided significant and ongoing support for the claims alleged in this case. This support includes, but is not limited to, reviewing and commenting on draft pleadings, searching for and providing internal documents to my counsel about Google’s speech suppression policies and conduct, reviewing, revising, and signing numerous declarations in support of various motions in this case, the Cassel case, the shareholder derivative action, and responding to Google’s discovery. I also met with government investigators and attended the deposition of Google’s in-house counsel, two separate mediations, and a court hearing involving Google’s motion for a protective order (which, had it been successful, could have resulted in a gag order on my ability to disclose information about the claims alleged in the action). I estimate, conservatively, that I have spent much more than 100 hours providing support for this case over the past seven years.

18. The case has impacted mental health. I brought this case under a pseudonym for the reasons stated in my complaint. Throughout this litigation, I have feared being doxed, retaliated against, and ostracized. A number of Google employees and executives continue to be hostile to employees whom they believe to be “leakers.” For example, a number of years ago, someone leaked the contents of a TGIF meeting concerning Project Dragonfly (Google’s planned search engine for China) to the New York Times while the meeting was happening. The reporter proceeded to live tweet the TGIF meeting. One employee yelled “Fuck you leakers.” This kind of hostility towards perceived “leakers” is commonplace.

19. I now have a job within Google that I really enjoy. I excel at this job and I have received another promotion. I like the people I work with. Right now, I keep my head down and I do my work.

I do not want to lose my job, and I remain afraid that the Stopsleak team or Google's legal department will come after me again and accuse me of doing things I didn't do, or fire me for doing something that I have the right to do, such as bring this lawsuit, aid in its prosecution, or share and then delete silly memes on a private Facebook page.

20. At the same time, employees should have the right to report wrongdoing, misconduct, or illegal activity, to the press or otherwise. And they shouldn't be treated like criminals for exercising their rights under California law. I am proud of the impact this case has had, and I wholeheartedly support the settlement that we have reached.

I declare, under penalty of perjury, under the laws of the State of California, that the foregoing is true and correct. Executed on October 11, 2023 in Mountain View, California.

Exhibit 5

DECLARATION OF DEWAYNE CASSEL

I, DeWayne Cassel, declare:

1. I have personal knowledge of these facts.

2. I am certified in business relationship management. As the name suggests, business relationship management involves managing and improving the relationship between a business and one or more “business partners” to ensure the business’s goals and needs are met. “Business partners” are typically internal or external service organizations – such as IT, human resources, or management consultants – that support the business’s operations.

3. Prior to joining Google, I worked at Caterpillar for more than ten years managing large-scale projects involving its IT systems, including its print divisions, voice and video technology, and manufacturing execution systems. During my last few years at Caterpillar, I supported a number of Caterpillar business units (e.g., finance, data centers) in a business relationship management capacity. Depending on the job, I had up to fifteen direct reports at Caterpillar, not including vendors and contractors.

4. I am a Black man, now in my 60s.

5. I moved to California to work for Google/Alphabet (“Google”) in August 2016. I was hired to work as a Partner Operations Manager. According to the job description, I would be “responsible for the end-to-end relationship with our partners, from on-boarding to optimization, and be the voice of the partner in feature prioritization discussions,” “work closely with internal teams to create and streamline business and operational processes,” “manage strategic partners’ tactical product integration and management” and “collaborate with internal stakeholders to define and prioritize new tools and product features to improve external partner processes and performance.” This is business relationship management.

6. But I was placed in a job doing tech support resolving customer tickets for “Google My Business.” This job involved, for example, helping small retail customers remove algorithmically placed, but irrelevant, photos from their Google My Business search results. I politely complained to my manager, explaining the disconnect between the job I was offered and the job I was assigned. He told me not to worry because Google was committed to hiring and retaining African Americans.

7. Things went downhill from there.

8. In May 2017, I went on medical leave (for both physical and mental health reasons) and retained Baker Curtis & Schwartz (“BCS”). BCS filed a PAGA notice on my behalf on July 31, 2017. In August, my doctor referred me to an oncologist who stated he needed the approval of Google’s third-party administrator before seeing me. Google’s TPA refused to speak to me, or approve my oncology referral, because I had hired a lawyer. That eventually got sorted out. I saw the oncologist and was, luckily, cancer-free. I prepared to return to work at Google with accommodations in November 2017. Google refused to permit my return unless I completed more medical release forms.

9. On November 15, 2017, I filed the complaint in my case. Among other things, I challenged Google’s medical release forms as violating the law. They required me to give Google access to all my health information, even information not connected to my disabilities. I also challenged Google’s speech suppression and retaliation policies.

10. I understand Google threatened to seek sanctions against me unless I dismissed my case against Alphabet and stayed my entire case against Google, even the medical release part.

11. In March 2018, after a mediation, Google settled my medical release claims under PAGA and, in October 2018, the Court approved the settlement. My other claims were then either stayed or referred to arbitration.

12. In January and March of 2019, my attorney filed additional PAGA notices concerning Google’s policies and agreements. Consistent with these notices, I understand that my attorney represented to Google that I intended to amend my complaint to add an unfair competition claim related to the non-solicitation provision in Google’s confidentiality agreement. In May 2019, Google announced that it would no longer seek to enforce the provision. I understand that, shortly thereafter, Google informed my attorney that it would seek sanctions against me if included that claim in my complaint.

13. Google then canceled my long-term disability insurance. Later, it placed me on paid leave – and provided me with backpay — after a court hearing where I understand my attorney explained his intent to file a motion for a temporary injunction.

14. Google kept me on paid leave from 2018 through April 2021, claiming there were no jobs available that were consistent with my qualifications or requested accommodations. e.g., necessary breaks to stand up and stretch and working in a division of Google other than the one in which I was hired.

15. Between 2017 and October 2019, I understand Google hired more than 35,000 individuals in new roles while I remained on leave. I applied for more than a one hundred jobs within Google without success during this time frame. I also applied for jobs outside of Google, again without success. My complaint had been reported by the press. Even today, if you Google my name, my allegations appear on the first search page. There is a prominent “Quora” entry about me where a former assistant state’s attorney opines that I am making a “wild accusation” and that it’s “rather astonishing that a lawyer would sign off” on my case. It can be found at <https://www.quora.com/What-is-the-bait-and-switch-Google-is-being-accused-of-in-the-civil-lawsuit-DeWayne-Cassel-v-Google>.

16. In August of 2020, at my attorneys’ request, I forwarded additional emails and other information relevant to my claims to a personal Gmail account set up for this purpose. I explained to Google what I was doing and the reason I was doing it. Google then removed my access to its Google’s work platforms, making it more difficult for me to access Google’s internal job postings to search for a job or communicate with my co-workers.

17. Eventually, in April 2021, Google placed me in a marketing position. I doubted my ability to perform this role – I am a business relationship manager not a marketer – but I wanted to work and contribute. I told Google I would do the best that I could. In February 2022, I was told I was not suited for the position and placed on a PIP in May 2022. Soon thereafter, because of set back related to my physical disability, I once again went on leave.

18. I separated from Google in May 2023. In the same time frame, my individual claims against Google were resolved.

19. I have not received any personal benefit from bringing the PAGA claims resolved in the Settlement. I have provided significant and ongoing support for these claims. This support includes, but is not limited to, reviewing and commenting on draft pleadings, searching for and providing internal documents to my counsel about Google’s speech suppression policies and conduct, reviewing, revising, and signing declarations in support of various motions in my case and the shareholder derivative action, and responding to Google’s discovery. I also attended and participated in a mediation focused on the claims. I estimate, conservatively, that I have spent well more than 80 hours providing support for the claims released by the Settlement over the past seven years.

20. I strongly support our Settlement with the Google and the changes we have accomplished. At the same time, the case has taken its toll. I feel like Google robbed me of some my best work years. While I am currently on long-term disability, I am recuperating and would like to work again. I do not know if an employer will ever hire me, though, given what has been said about me on the internet.

I declare, under penalty of perjury, under the laws of the State of California, that the foregoing is true and correct. Executed on October 11, 2023 in Peoria, Illinois.

Exhibit 6

DECLARATION OF PAOLA CORREA

I, Paola Correa, declare:

1. I have personal knowledge of the below facts.

2. I am a Latina woman and an immigrant from Bogota, Colombia.

3. I was first employed by Google in 2013 and again in 2014 as a summer intern. Google featured me in its YouTube video about Google's internships ("Google interns' first week"). I was very proud to work for Google, and Google asked me to speak about my experiences as part of the video and as part of the BOLD internship program.

4. Following college, in August of 2015, Google asked me to join a team as a temporary employee through Adecco, with the opportunity to be converted to a full-time Google employee. Adecco then hired me to work for Google. I initially worked for Google as a Sales Coordinator and then as an Inside Sales Specialist. I worked at Google's Mountain View location and I was supervised by a Google manager.

5. In the fall and winter of 2016, I joined the "Purple Squirrel" social media platform. I understood a lot of employees were joining because the platform was founded by a former Google employee.

6. Through this platform, I spoke with two college students about working at Google. I shared with them my own experiences, I gave them resume advice, and I told them how to tell their own stories. Because of the YouTube video, college students often reach out to me, asking to learn from my experiences, through LinkedIn, Facebook and otherwise. I tried to help people who reached out to me about their careers and I encouraged them to apply to the Google internship.

7. On December 13, 2016, I came to work and it was a great day. However, I saw that there was a mandatory meeting set for me between 3:00 and 4:00 p.m. I asked my Google manager if there were any problems, and she said everything was okay on her end.

8. I attended the meeting. It was in a conference room. Google's Adecco representative was there. He told me that someone from the investigations team would be joining via video conference. She then did so. The investigator asked me a number of questions about my conversations with the college students, including whether I had told them anything about how to get hired at Google and whether I worked for Google. The investigator accused me of giving away Google's interview questions, accused me of saying I worked for or at Google, and disclosing confidential information.

9. I answered the investigator's questions as best I could. I explained that the Purple Squirrel platform makes clear that individuals are not official company representatives. I told them that I had basically just shared my own experiences with these students and gave them resume tips and encouragement. The meeting was very disconcerting. Google's Adecco representative then took away my Google computer and badge. He told me I was on temporary leave and he escorted me out the building. I was not allowed to retrieve the personal items from my desk, like spare clothes and my blender.

10. The next day, the Adecco representative told me I had violated the confidentiality rules because I said I had worked for or at Google (which I did). He then sent me an email from his google.com email address explaining that I was fired.

11. After I learned about this case, I retained Baker Curtis & Schwartz. I decided to join the case as a plaintiff. We also included Adecco as a defendant. That was seven years ago!

12. In the Spring of 2017, Google hired me to work as a community manager through a different staffing firm. Because I needed the job, I again signed Google's confidentiality agreement. I was supposed to start on June 12, 2017. However, on June 8 (four days before my start date), Google rescinded my job offer. The staffing firm told me it was because Google had placed me on its "do-not-hire" list.

13. In September 2018, I resolved my individual claims, if any, against Google.

14. I have done everything my attorneys have asked of me in this case, including answering discovery, being available for mediations involving Google, reviewing and revising documents and declarations, and providing documents and information. I am unsure of how much time I spent on the claims against Adecco as opposed to the claims against Google, but I have easily spent more than 60 or 70 hours on the claims in total.

15. I also had some difficulty finding employment in California. I feared it was because I had decided to participate in this case. It is a scary thing to sue your employer, especially ones as large as Google and Adecco. I worry about how long this case has been going on and having my name associated with it.

16. I also did not know what I could or could not say about my employment with Google for fear that I would violate a confidentiality agreement. This makes it hard because students and others continue to reach out to me about working them, and I feel like I have to be very careful about helping them. I enjoyed helping them.

17. I have not received any personal benefit from bringing this case, other than the service awards resulting from the claims arising from Google's adult content liability release.

18. Other than with respect to things that should be secret, I think people should be allowed to talk about their work without getting fired. I think that's important. I hope our settlement makes it easier for others to know they don't have to stay silent no matter what and that they have the right to speak out when they should.

I declare, under penalty of perjury, under the laws of the State of California, that the foregoing is true and correct. Executed on October 11, 2023 in Miami, Florida.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED as follows:

1. Plaintiff Rachel Moniz's and Defendant Adecco USA Inc.'s Renewed Motion to Approve Settlement Pursuant to Private Attorneys General Action of 2004, filed December 28, 2022, is GRANTED. Defendant's Joinder in Plaintiff's Motion is GRANTED. The Settlement set forth in the Settlement Agreement dated November 2022, attached as Exhibit 1 to the Declaration of David Liembach filed December 28, 2022, is approved, pursuant to Labor Code Section 2699(1)(2). The non-reversionary Total Settlement Amount of $4,598,187 plus interest, plus corrective practices and policies by Adecco USA Inc., is fair, adequate and reasonable in view of PAGA's purposes to remediate present labor law violations, deter future ones, and to maximize enforcement of state labor laws.

2. To the extent there is any ambiguity, counsel for Plaintiff and Defendant stipulated that the Release and Released Claims in the Settlement Agreement are for the Covered Period of February 1, 2016 to July 3, 2019.

3. The proposed Letter Notice to the Aggrieved Employees, to accompany the payment of their share of civil penalties, is approved.

4. The request that $15,000 of the Total Settlement Amount (in addition to her pro rate share of civil penalties as an Aggrieved Employee), upon which Defendant agreed and stipulated, be allocated to Plaintiff Rachel Moniz is GRANTED, on the basis that she is giving a broader release/waiver of statutory claims, not just a release of PAGA claims, and thus includes settlement of some individual claims, not just representative claims.

5. A maximum of $78,000 is allocated from the Total Settlement Amount for payment of services, costs, fees, and expenses to the Settlement Administrator, namely JND Class Action Administration – and no additional fees shall be incurred without prior Court approval.

6. Reimbursement of out of pocket expenses of $45,114.34 in costs is allocated from the Total Settlement Amount to Plaintiff's counsel, Schneider Wallace Cottrell Konecky Wotkyns LLP, and all future and further costs will be borne by Plaintiff's counsel, unless otherwise ordered by the Court.

7. The Net Settlement Amount will be split between the State of California and the Aggrieved Employees as proscribed by PAGA: 75% of the Net Settlement Amount will be remitted to the Labor and Workforce Development Agency of the State of California, and the remaining 25% of the Net Settlement Amount will be remitted to the PAGA Settlement Members, i.e., the Aggrieved Employees. Of that portion of the Settlement Amount civil penalties to the PAGA Settlement Members, i.e., the Aggrieved Employees, it shall be divided equally per person, with no distinction between Associate Employees and Colleague Employees.

8. As non-party Correa has indicated she will be seeking a fee award, the Court defers any award of attorneys' fees to Plaintiff's counsel as an allocation from the Total Settlement Amount until after determination of the Correa fee motion. Accordingly, Judgment will not be entered until after the fee determination.

9. A briefing schedule and hearing date were STIPULATED by counsel for the parties and counsel for the Correa at the hearing on January 31, 2023, which is adopted by the Court, as follows:

Correa's Motion for award of attorneys' fees shall be filed and served on or before March 1, 2023. Any Opposition shall be filed and served on or before March 15, 2023. Any Reply shall be filed and served on or before March 22, 2023. Hearing on the motion is set for Tuesday, April 25, 2023 at 2:00 p.m. in Department 2 of this Court.

THE COURT FINDS as follows:

Nature of the Claims

This is a PAGA Representative Action, pursuant to Labor Code Section 2698 et seq., asserting a claim for violations pertaining to confidentiality provisions in a written employment agreement. The alleged "aggrieved employees" are California full-time employees (called Colleagues) and temporary employees (called Associates) of Adecco USA Inc. during the period February 1, 2016 to March 24, 2019 for allege violations of Labor Code Sections 232, 1197.5(k), 232.5, 1102.5, and 432.5, based upon Defendant employer Adecco allegedly requiring Colleagues and Associates to agree in writing not to discuss or disclose their working conditions including salary, benefits, and compensation.

Defendant Adecco USA, Inc. hired Plaintiff Rachel Moniz in Fall 2011. As a condition of employment, Plaintiff was required to execute a form employment agreement. That agreement contains a non-disclosure provision on: (1) all records containing non-public information that is of commercial value, including her salary and benefits; (2) all non-public knowledge that is of commercial value to Defendant or its competitors that she acquired through her employment; and (3) all records containing non-public information and/or all non-public knowledge relating to Defendant's customers. Plaintiff was continuously employed by Adecco until the Spring of 2016. According to its terms, the non-disclosure provision remains effective after termination.

Plaintiff Moniz asserted a claim under PAGA for civil penalties based upon five violations of the Labor Code as follows: (1) prohibiting disclosure of wage information (§232); (2) prohibiting disclosure of wage information (§1197.5(k)(1)); (3) prohibiting disclosure of working conditions (§232.5); (4) prohibiting disclosure of a violation of statute, rule or regulation (§1102.5); and (5) requiring Plaintiff to agree to any term or condition known by the employer to be prohibited by law (§432.5).

Procedural Background

This Moniz PAGA representative action was filed April 18, 2017. The case was deemed complex and single assigned for all purposes to Department 2 by Order filed June 20, 2017. On July 25, 2017, Adecco filed a demurrer in Moniz asserting Garmon federal preemption. That demurrer was overruled at the hearing on September 6, 2017, and Defendant Adecco filed its Answer in Moniz on September 21, 2017. Discovery proceeded. This Moniz case was then set for trial by the January 18, 2018 CMC Order #5. Court Trial was set to commence on September 4, 2018, and pretrial dates and deadlines set, including merits discovery cutoff June 8, 2018, summary judgment hearing June 22, 2018, expert discovery cutoff July 13, 2018, and Pretrial Conference August 17, 2018.

On June 22, 2018, hearing was held on the parties' competing motions for summary adjudication of the issue of the scope of Plaintiff's LWDA Notice, which is the predicate to what claims can be pursued in this PAGA action. The parties represented to the Court that this was a key issue in the case, requiring resolution before any settlement discussions might be viable. Order on the motions for summary adjudication was issued July 31, 2018.

As a consequence, Defendant requested a trial continuance, which was granted and continued to March 19, 2019, and the parties conducted additional discovery as to the Associates employed by Defendant Adecco during the relevant time period.

Through the assistance of an experienced mediator, at sessions held in January 2019, the parties reached a settlement. A formal written Settlement Agreement was executed in May 2019. At the hearing on the original motion for settlement approval, held on May 24, 2019, the Court itself questioned the breadth of the proposed Release, as it included claims that are not subject to PAGA, i.e., claims not based upon the California Labor Code. The Court indicated that, as this was a PAGA-only lawsuit and settlement, that the Release needed to be modified to specifically provide that it was only a Release of claims under PAGA for civil penalties and only based upon claims under the California Labor Code. Counsel for the parties agreed to such modification, and hearing on the motion for settlement approval was continued in order to facilitate the amendment.

Further hearing was held on June 11, 2019. In the interim on June 3, 2019, Plaintiff filed the Supplemental Declaration of Carolyn Hunt Cottrell, in support of the motion, including a revised Settlement Agreement dated June 3, 2019 (rather than simply an amendment to the prior settlement agreement). Modifications reflect “the Parties’ revised release clarifying that the released claims are limited to those claims that could have been brought under PAGA based upon the allegation in Plaintiffs Complaint. The revision also clarifies that Plaintiff Moniz, alone, is releasing any individual claims under California Business and Professions Code section 17200 set seq., 18 U.S.C. section 1833.

and 17 CFR 240.021F.” The Settlement Agreement of June 2019 was approved by this Court, and judgment and order of approval entered on July 3, 2019.

The Judgment and Order approving the Settlement was vacated after post-judgment motions, pursuant to Order dated August 27, 2019, on the basis that Plaintiff and Defendant had failed to give the LWDA the required statutory notices.

The Court then set a briefing schedule to consider, again, the same proposed Settlement, but with the requisite notice to the LWDA and the opportunity for the LWDA to comment upon the proposed Settlement. Accordingly, Plaintiff and Defendant filed their “renewed” motion for approval of the PAGA Settlement, including prior filings on the prior motion. Hearing was held on October 16, 2019.

By Order on November 22, 2019, this Court granted the motion for approval of the PAGA settlement. On January 15, 2020, the Court issued an Order regarding attorneys’ fees and expenses awards. Judgment was entered February 10, 2020, and non-party objector Correa appealed.

On appeal, in Moniz v. Adecco USA Inc. (2021) 72 Cal.App.5th 56, the Court of Appeal upheld this Court determinations: (1) as to the standard a trial court should use to review a PAGA settlement; (2) that the LWDA does not have a statutory right to object or comment upon a PAGA settlement, but that the Court considered the comments in making its decision; (3) that Moniz pre-litigation LWDA Notice adequately exhausted the administrative prerequisites for the claims sought to be settled, as held by this Court on motion for summary judgment; (4) that the release was not invalid because it purported to include PAGA claims not listed in the Plaintiff’s prelitigation LWDA notice; and (5) that the release was not overbroad. The Court of Appeal chose not to address this Court’s finding that the total amount of the settlement was fair, and that there was no finding of collusion. The Court of Appeal reversed on only one ground: That this Court did not specifically and affirmatively address and consider the proposed disproportionate allocation of the recovery (constituting civil penalties) between the “aggrieved employees”, in that the proposed distribution would give a large amount of civil penalties to each Colleague aggrieved employee than to each Associate aggrieved employee.

We find that the trial court applied an appropriate standard of review by inquiring whether the settlement was ‘fair, adequate, and reasonable’ as well as meaningful and consistent with the purposes of PAGA, and we reject many of Correa’s contentions regarding the settlement’s purported substantive and procedural deficiencies.

Nonetheless, we reverse the judgment because we cannot infer from the record that the trial court assessed the fairness of the settlement’s allocation of civil penalties between the affected aggrieved employees or whether such allocation comports with PAGA.

Id., at pp. 64-65.

We agree with Correa that the settlement’s allocation of shares of civil penalties to colleagues that is fifteen times greater than the shares allocated to Associates does not seem to have been justified below and may be contrary to PAGA’s purposes.

Id., at p. 87.

Upon remand, Plaintiff and Defendant filed another motion for PAGA settlement approval on May 11, 2022. The Settlement presented for approval was identical to the June 2019 Settlement that was the subject of the Appeal – including the same disproportionate allocation as to the aggrieved employees was proposed by the parties.

The Court of Appeal highlighted the one term that gave it concern, and the parties chose not to change it. By Order entered September 9, 2022, this Court denied the motion, as the terms of the Settlement were contrary to the Decision of the Court of Appeal.

On December 28, 2022, Plaintiff filed a Renewed Motion for PAGA settlement approval, with a new Settlement Agreement dated November 2022, specifically changing the allocation of Settlement funds among the Aggrieved Employees to be equal per person – without distinction between Colleague Employees and Associate Employees of Adecco – with the remaining terms basically being the same as previously proposed (and previously approved by this Court).

The Settlement as proposed is consistent with the Decision of the Court of Appeal; and is also consistent with the nature of PAGA claims, i.e., that they are only civil penalties and are not damages for individual injuries.

PAGA Settlements Are Subject to Court Approval

Labor Code Section 2699 et seq. provides for private citizens who are aggrieved employees to prosecute civil actions against their employer for violation of the California Labor Code, and seek recovery of civil penalties. (Labor Code §2699(a).) Written notice of the factual circumstances and alleged violations is required to be given to the employer and the LWDA, prior to bringing a representative lawsuit under PAGA. (Labor Code §2699.3.) The employer has the opportunity to “cure” the violations, and the LWDA is given the opportunity to investigate the claims. Commonly, the LWDA decides not to investigate, and permits the aggrieved employee to proceed with the PAGA lawsuit – indeed the purpose of PAGA is expressly because the LWDA is under-staffed and under-funded to investigate and prosecute violations of the Labor Code.

In our case, the LWDA chose not to investigate, and chose not to intervene and take over prosecution of the claims. The LWDA did not oppose the current Settlement or this motion for approval.

Under PAGA, civil penalties recovery is divided 75% to the Labor and Workforce Development Agency, and 25% to the aggrieved employees. (Labor Code §2699(i).)

If a settlement is reached, Section 2699(l)(2) provides that the settlement must be approved by the Court, and that the LWDA is entitled to receive a copy: “The superior court shall review and approve any settlement of any civil action filed pursuant to this part. The proposed settlement shall be submitted to the agency at the same time that it is submitted to the court.”

Although the PAGA statute requires Court approval of any settlement, it does not set forth any particular criteria. Moniz v. Adecco was the first reported California appellate decision to set the standard. In analogous class actions, the Court approval of a class action settlement requires consideration of whether the proposed settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate to the certified class. The Court of Appeal stated that the standard is whether the PAGA settlement is fair, adequate and reasonable in view of PAGA’s purposes to remediate present labor law violations, deter future ones, and to maximize enforcement of state labor laws. Moniz, 72 Cal.App.5th at p. 77. [The Court of Appeal also held that this Court used this standard in its prior approval order.]

Key Settlement Terms

The Settlement is for over $4.5 million in civil penalties for technical violations of the Labor Code, based upon confidentiality and non-disclosure provisions in form employment agreements. The Settlement is for violations against Aggrieved Employees, referred to as the “PAGA Settlement Members”, defined as “all of Defendant’s California employees from February 1, 2016 through March 24, 2019.” There are approximately 61,617 such Aggrieved Employees.

In addition, Defendant agreed to revise its form employment agreements: “As additional consideration for this Settlement and as a direct result of this Settlement, Defendant agrees to revise its Colleague Agreement and Associate Agreement and related policies which allegedly limit employees from disclosing their own salary, wages, benefits and related working conditions and/or from discussing same with others; and/or from engaging in whistleblowing activity.”

The Settlement Amount may not revert to the Defendant. The net proceeds of the Settlement are allocated, in conformity with PAGA, 75% to the LWDA and 25% to the Aggrieved Employees, divided among the Aggrieved Employees on a per person basis.

Defendant receives a Release of PAGA civil penalty claims, based upon the factual allegations in this case, i.e., the employment agreement confidentiality and nondisclosure provisions, for any such violations of the Labor Code committed against the aggrieved Associate and Colleague employees during the relevant time period. The Representative Plaintiff Moniz gave Defendant a broader Release/Waiver of her claims and potential individual claims based upon the factual allegations in this lawsuit, under California or federal law, and not limited to PAGA penalties. Moniz has requested an enhancement award of $15,000 for the settlement of such claims and her broader release.

The Settlement Is Fair, Reasonable, Adequate and Promotes Labor Code Enforcement

The Court finds that the proposed $4.5 million settlement of PAGA civil penalties for violations of the Labor Code arising from nondisclosure and confidentiality provisions in the Adecco employment agreement with full-time and part-time employees is fair, reasonable, and adequate. The Court finds that the $4.5 million Settlement, which includes a change of policy by Adecco in the language of its employment agreements to directly address the concerns raised by this lawsuit, is meaningful, and consistent with the underlying purpose of the statute to benefit the public.

This Court finds that this Settlement is consistent with the stated purpose of PAGA that “the vigorous assessment and collection of civil penalties as provided in the Labor Code” is the “meaningful deterrent to unlawful conduct”. (Legislative History of PAGA, Section 1 of Stats. 2003 c. 906 (SB 796).)

Non-party objector Correa makes bald assertions that this Settlement is the result of “collusion” and “reverse auction”. The Court finds that such allegations are unfounded by any substantive evidence, and the Settlement (and the procedural journey to obtain approval) belies any notion of collusion. On the contrary, the Court finds that PAGA penalties recovery of $4.5 million is substantive and an excellent result.

In bringing a PAGA Representative Action, the Plaintiff is seeking to impose and recover civil penalties on behalf of the State and on behalf of aggrieved employees. The civil penalties are set by statute, and have nothing to do with any “damages” actually suffered by any particular employee. The civil penalty is for the violation of the Labor Code itself. The emphasis is upon recovery payable to the State (75%), not to the employees (25%). The distinction between claims for damages and claims for civil penalties was identified and discussed by the California Supreme Court in Arias v. Superior Court (2009) 46 Cal.4th 969 and in Kim v. Reins International California Inc. (2020) 9 Cal.5th 73.

The difference between damages and civil penalties is that damages are to compensate an injured individual based upon the harm imposed, whereas civil penalties are a public punishment having no direct relationship with any actual injury.

“Civil penalties are imposed ‘as a means of securing obedience’ to statutes and regulations validly adopted under the policy power.

Hinerfeld-Ward Inc. v. Lipian (2010) 188 Cal.App.4th 86, 98.

In regards to the maximum penalties available for the Labor Code violations alleged by Plaintiff as a representative of the other aggrieved employees under Sections 232, 1197.5(k), 232.5, and 432.5, the statutory penalty is $100 per employee for the initial violation and $200 per employee per pay period for each subsequent violation. There is a lack of evidence of any actual multiple violations, given that the employee entered into the allegedly unlawful agreement at the start of employment. If calculated as a single violation¹, the realistic maximum is approximately $6.2 million; if calculated as four violations, the realistic maximum is approximately $24.8 million. Accordingly a Settlement of $4.5 million is a significant and substantive recovery, and a fair and adequate settlement pretrial.

In making the assessment of the value of the PAGA claims settled versus the amount of the Settlement, it must be remembered that PAGA gives the Court discretion to award less than the maximum civil penalties – a very likely scenario in this lawsuit on these particular claims. There is also a lack of evidence that these Aggrieved Employees actually suffered any personal monetary damages or loss as a result of the confidentiality and non-disclosure provision in their Adecco employment agreement – and even if they did, they still have the right and ability to sue Adecco directly for any such damages claims, as this Settlement only pertains to PAGA penalties. The settling parties have also set forth facts and issues demonstrating the risks of proceeding to trial and difficulties of proof. Further, settlements pretrial are commonly, if not universally, less than total potential damages, and discounted for the reality that there will be a greater net amount, as fees and expenses to be subtracted prior to distribution to the settling parties, will stop mounting.

Plaintiff also alleged a claim under Section 1102.5, which prohibits an employer from preventing, barring, or retaliating against an employee who is a whistleblower to government agencies and regulators. Subsection f thereof states: “In addition to other penalties, an employer that is a corporation or limited liability company is liable for a civil penalty not exceeding ten thousand dollars ($10,000) for each violation of this section.” “Not to exceed” means that it could be as little as $1. No evidence is presented that anyone was actually prevented or impeded from an attempt to be a whistleblower.

Accordingly it is highly unlikely that $10,000, or multiples of $10,000, in civil penalties would be access against Defendants for any allege violation of Section 1102.5.
