[Consolidated with Case No.
37-2021- 00047190-CU-OE-CTL]

DECLARATION OF KYLE NORDREHAUG IN SUPPORT OF MOTION FOR PRELIMINARY APPROVAL OF CLASS
SETTLEMENT

Hearing Date: December 1, 2023

Hearing Time: 8:30 a.m.

Judge: Hon. Robert Longstreth
Dept.: 65

Action Filed: February 9, 2021

Trial Date: Not set

1 I, Kyle Nordrehaug, declare as follows:

2 1. I am a partner of the law firm of Blumenthal Nordrehaug Bhowmik De Blouw LLP,
3 counsel of record for Plaintiffs the Estate of Chris Farley, Shelby Ward, Darlene Griffith, and Irene
4 Imson (“Plaintiffs”) in this matter. As such, I am fully familiar with the facts, pleadings and history
5 of this matter. The following facts are within my own personal knowledge, and if called as a
6 witness, I could testify competently to the matters stated herein.

7 2. This declaration is being submitted in support of Plaintiffs’ unopposed motion for 8 preliminary approval of the proposed class action settlement with Defendant Sharp Memorial
9 Hospital (“Defendant”), which motion seeks entry of an order: (1) preliminarily approving the 10 proposed settlement of this class action with Defendant; (2) for settlement purposes only,
11 conditionally certifying the Class, which is comprised of “all individuals who are or previously
12 were employed by Defendant who were classified as non-exempt employees, excluding bargaining
13 unit nurses, at any time during the Class Period” of February 9, 2017 through April 23, 2023; (3)
14 provisionally appointing Plaintiffs as the representatives of the Class; (4) provisionally appointing
15 Norman B. Blumenthal, Kyle R. Nordrehaug, and Aparajit Bhowmik of Blumenthal Nordrehaug
16 Bhowmik De Blouw LLP and Matthew J. Matern and Launa Adolph of Matern Law Group, PC as 17 Class Counsel for the Class; (5) approving the form and method for providing class-wide notice;
18 (6) directing that notice of the proposed settlement be given to the Class; (7) appointing ILYM
19 Group as the Administrator; and (8) scheduling a final approval hearing date (proposed for April 20 26, 2024) to consider Plaintiffs’ motion for final approval of the settlement and for approval of 21 attorneys’ fees and expenses. Attached hereto as Exhibit #1 is a copy of the fully executed Class
22 Action and PAGA Settlement Agreement (“Agreement”) along with exhibits thereto. The form of 23 the Agreement is based upon the Los Angeles County Superior Court model form for a class and 24 PAGA settlement. This Declaration incorporates by reference the definitions in the Agreement, and 25 all terms defined therein shall have the same meaning as set forth in the Agreement.

1 Fairness of Settlement

2 3. As consideration for this Settlement, the Gross Settlement Amount is Four Million
3 Sixty Thousand Dollars ($4,060,000) to be paid by Defendant, as set forth in the Agreement. The 4 Gross Settlement Amount will settle all issues pending in the Action between the Parties and will be
5 made in full and final settlement of the Released Class Claims. The Gross Settlement Amount
6 includes all payments of Individual Class Payments to the Participating Class Members,
7 Administration Expenses Payment, Class Counsel Fees Payment, Class Counsel Litigation
8 Expenses Payment, Class Representative Service Payments, and the PAGA Penalties. The Gross
9 Settlement Amount does not include the employer's share of payroll taxes which will be separately
10 paid by Defendant. The Settlement is all-in with no reversion to Defendant and no need to submit a 11 claim form.

12 4. The relief provided in the Settlement will benefit all members of the Class. The 13 Settlement does not grant preferential treatment to Plaintiffs or segments of the Class in any way.
14 Payments to the Class Members are all determined under a neutral methodology. Each
15 Participating Class Member will receive the same opportunity to participate in and receive payment
16 through a neutral formula that is based upon the Pay Periods worked by that individual.

17 5. On January 23, 2023, the Parties participated in an all-day mediation session
18 presided over by Tripper Ortman, Esq., a respected and experienced mediator of wage and hour
19 class actions. In preparation for the mediation, Defendant provided Class Counsel with necessary
20 information for the members of the Class, including time punch data, payroll data and data
21 concerning the composition of the Class. Plaintiffs analyzed the data with the assistance of 22 damages expert, Berger Consulting, and prepared and submitted a mediation brief and damage
23 valuation to the Mediator. Following this all-day mediation, the Parties agreed to this Settlement,
24 which was memorialized in the form of a Memorandum of Understanding. The final settlement
25 terms were negotiated and set forth in the Agreement now presented for this Court's approval.
26 Importantly, Plaintiffs and Class Counsel believe that this Settlement is fair, reasonable and 27 adequate.

6. Based upon 6,444 Class Members who collectively worked 428,302 Pay Periods (Agreement at ¶4.1), the Gross Settlement Amount provides a value of $630 per Class Member and $9.47 per Pay Period and after deductions, the Net Settlement Amount provides an average recovery of $377.66 per Class Member and $5.68 per Pay Period. The calculations to compensate for the amount due to the Class Members at the time this Settlement was negotiated were calculated by Plaintiffs' expert, Berger Consulting, in advance of mediation. Class Counsel analyzed the data for putative class members and determined the potential maximum damages for the class claims. For the Class, the maximum value of the claim for unpaid wages based on the alleged regular rate miscalculation for meal period premiums and sick pay was $157,351, the maximum value of the claim for unpaid minimum and overtime wages due to alleged rounding practices was $1,717,608, the maximum potential unpaid meal period wages were estimated to be $23,279,949 based upon a potential 23% violation rate observed in the records and after crediting premiums paid, the maximum potential rest period damages were estimated to be $15,192,523 based upon one missed rest period per pay period, and the maximum potential damages for failure to provide expense reimbursement were calculated to be $1,011,565. In total, the damages for the Class were calculated to have a maximum potential total value of $41,358,996. In addition, Plaintiff calculated that the maximum value of the potential waiting time penalties were between $1,847,760 and $11,821,894 and the maximum value of the potential wage statement penalties were between $3,501,150 and $12,394,250, both ranges depending on the predicate violation giving rise to the penalty.¹ Defendant contends that these valuations grossly overstate the damages (and therefore the resulting penalties) because they do not account for the fact that rounding overpaid employees and the existence of meal period waivers. Defendant vigorously disputed Plaintiffs' calculations and

¹ While Plaintiffs alleged claims for statutory penalties pursuant to Labor Code Sections 203 and 226, at mediation Plaintiffs recognized that these claims were subject to additional, separate defenses asserted by Defendant, including, a good faith dispute defense as to whether any premium wages for meal or rest periods or other wages were owed given Defendant's position that Plaintiff and Class Members were properly compensated. See Nordstrom Commission Cases, 186 Cal. App. 4th 576, 584 (2010) ("There is no willful failure to pay wages if the employer and employee have a good faith dispute as to whether and when the wages were due.").

1 exposure theories. Consequently, the Gross Settlement Amount represents more than 9.8% of the 2 potential maximum damages at issue for the Class in this case, assuming these amounts could all be
3 proven in full at trial.² The above maximum calculations should then be adjusted in consideration
4 for both the risk of class certification and the risk of establishing class-wide liability on all claims.
5 Given the amount of the Settlement as compared to the potential value of the claims, the Settlement
6 is most certainly fair and reasonable.

8 Procedural History of the Litigation

9 7. On January 20, 2021, Plaintiff Farley filed with the LWDA and served on Defendant
10 a notice under Labor Code section 2699.3 identifying the alleged Labor Code violations to recover
11 civil penalties on behalf of Aggrieved Employees for various Labor Code violations ("PAGA 12 Notice"). A true and correct copy of the PAGA Notice is attached hereto as Exhibit #3. On 13 February 9, 2021, Plaintiff Farley filed a Class Action Complaint against Defendant in the Superior
14 Court of the State of California, County of San Diego (hereinafter the "Action"). This Class Action
15 Complaint asserted class claims against Defendant for: (1) unfair competition in violation of Cal.
16 Bus & Prof. Code §§ 17200, et seq.; (2) failure to pay minimum wages in violation of California
17 Labor Code §§ 1194, 1197 & 1197.1; (3) failure to pay overtime wages in violation of California
18 Labor Code §§ 510, 1194 & 1198; (4) failure to provide required meal periods in violation of 19 California Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512; (5) failure to provide required rest periods in violation of 20 Cal. Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512; (6) failure to reimburse employees for required expenses in 21 violation of California Labor Code § 2802; (7) failure to provide accurate itemized wage statements
22 in violation of California Labor Code § 226; (8) failure to provide wages when due in violation of 23 California Labor Code §§ 201, 202 and 203; and, (9) failure to provide personnel files in violation
24 of California Labor Code § 1198.5. On July 26, 2021, Chris Farley filed a First Amended Complaint
25

26 ² Because the PAGA claim does not provide a recovery to the Class, Plaintiffs did not include 27 the PAGA claim in this discussion of the class claim valuation. The PAGA claim is addressed in 28 the Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶ 33.

1 in the Farley Action adding a cause of action against Defendant for violation of the Private Attorney
2 General Act, Cal. Labor Code §§ 2698, et seq. ("PAGA").

3 8. On November 5, 2021, Plaintiff Imson filed a Class Action Complaint against 4 Defendant in the Superior Court of the State of California, County of San Diego which asserted the 5 same claims as were alleged in the Farley action.

6 9. On March 14, 2023, the Parties filed a stipulation to consolidate the Farley Action
7 and the Imson Action. On April 12, 2023, Plaintiffs filed the consolidated complaint in the Actions,
8 the Second Amended Class Action Complaint. The Second Amended Complaint is the operative 9 complaint in the Action (the "Operative Complaint").

10 10. Over the course of litigation, the Parties engaged in the investigation of the claims, 11 including production of documents, class data, and other information, allowing for the full and 12 complete analysis of liabilities and defenses to the claims in the Action. Plaintiffs performed
13 extensive discovery, which included the production and analysis thousands of pages of documents
14 and depositions. The information for mediation obtained by Plaintiffs included: (1) data concerning 15 the class composition; (2) payroll and time punch data covering more than 2,819,181 shifts; (3)
16 Defendant's wage and hour policies and job descriptions; (4) the employment file for the Plaintiffs;
17 and, (5) samples of wage statements provided by Defendant. As such, Class Counsel received the 18 data and information for the Class, which was sufficient for Plaintiffs' expert to prepare the 19 valuations of the claims for the Class.

20 11. Class Counsel has extensive experience in litigating wage and hour class actions in 21 California. The Parties have vigorously litigated the Action since inception. During the course of 22 litigation, the Parties each performed analysis of the merits and value of the claims. Plaintiffs and 23 Defendant have engaged in substantial research and investigation in connection with the Action.
24 Class Counsel has thoroughly analyzed the value of the claims during the prosecution of this Action
25 and utilized an expert to perform an analysis of the data and valuation of the claims.

26 12. Plaintiffs and Defendant agreed to discuss resolution of the Action through a 27 mediation. Prior to mediation, the Parties engaged in the above investigation and the exchange of 28

1 documents and information in connection with the Action. On January 23, 2023, the Parties
2 participated in an all-day mediation presided over by Tripper Ortman, a respected and experienced
3 mediator of wage and hour class actions. Following the mediation, each side, represented by its 4 respective counsel, were able to agree to settle the Action based upon a mediator's proposal which
5 was memorialized in a memorandum of understanding. The Parties then negotiated the final terms
6 of the settlement as set forth in the Agreement. At all times, the negotiations were arm's length and 7 contentious.

8 13. Although a settlement has been reached, Defendant denies any liability or 9 wrongdoing of any kind associated with the claims alleged in the Actions and further deny that, for 10 any purpose other than settlement, the Actions are appropriate for class and/or representative
11 treatment. Defendant contends, among other things, that it has properly compensated the Class
12 Members on a salary basis and complied at all times with the California Labor Code, applicable
13 Wage Order, and all other laws and regulations. Further, Defendant contends that class certification
14 is inappropriate for any reason other than for settlement. Plaintiffs contend that Defendant violated
15 California wage and hour laws. Plaintiffs further contend that the Action is appropriate for class
16 certification on the basis that the claims meet the requisites for class certification. Without 17 admitting that class certification is proper, Defendant has stipulated that the above Class may be 18 certified for settlement purposes only. (Agreement at ¶ 2.9.) The Parties agree that certification for 19 settlement purposes is not an admission that class certification is proper. Further, the Agreement is 20 not admissible in this or any other proceeding as evidence that the Class could be certified absent a 21 settlement. Solely for purposes of settling the Action, the Parties stipulate and agree that the 22 requisites for establishing class certification with respect to the Class are satisfied.

23 14. Class Counsel has conducted a thorough investigation into the facts of the class
24 action. Over the course of more than two years, Class Counsel diligently evaluated the Class
25 Members' claims against Defendant. Prior to the settlement negotiations, counsel for Defendant
26 provided Class Counsel with access to necessary information for the Class. In addition, Class
27 Counsel previously negotiated settlements with other employers in actions involving nearly 28

1 identical issues and analogous defenses. Based on the foregoing data and their own independent
2 investigation, evaluation and experience, Class Counsel believes that the settlement with Defendant
3 on the terms set forth in the Agreement is fair, reasonable, and adequate and is in the best interest of 4 the Class in light of all known facts and circumstances, including the risk of significant delay,
5 defenses asserted by Defendant, and potential appellate issues.

7 Settlement Terms and Plan of Allocation

8 15. The Gross Settlement Amount is Four Million Sixty Thousand Dollars ($4,060,000).
9 (Agreement at ¶ 1.22.) Under the Settlement, the Gross Settlement Amount consists of the 10 following elements: (i) all Individual Class Payments and Individual PAGA Payments; (ii) the 11 LWDA PAGA Payment; (iii) the Class Counsel Fees Payment and the Class Counsel Litigation
12 Expenses Payment; (iv) the Class Representative Service Payments; and (v) the Administration
13 Expenses Payment. (Agreement at ¶ 1.22.) The Gross Settlement Amount does not include
14 Defendant's share of payroll taxes. (Agreement at ¶ 3.1.) The Gross Settlement Amount shall be 15 all-in with no reversion to Defendant. (Agreement at ¶ 3.1.)

16 16. Within thirty (30 business days of the Effective Date, Defendant shall deposit the 17 Gross Settlement Amount with the Administrator. (Agreement at ¶ 4.3.) The distribution of 18 Individual Class Payments to Participating Class Members along with the other Court-approved
19 distributions shall be made by the Administrator within fourteen (14) days after Defendant fully 20 funds the Gross Settlement Amount. (Agreement at ¶ 5.1.)

21 17. The amount remaining in the Gross Settlement Amount after the deduction of 22 Court-approved amounts for Individual PAGA Payments, the LWDA PAGA Payment, the Class
23 Representative Service Payments, the Class Counsel Fees Payment, the Class Counsel Litigation
24 Expenses Payment, and the Administration Expenses Payment (called the "Net Settlement 25 Amount") shall be allocated to Class Members as their Individual Class Payments. (Agreement at 26 ¶¶ 1.28 and 3.2.) From the Net Settlement Amount, the Individual Class Payment for each 27 Participating Class Member will be calculated by (i) dividing the Net Settlement Amount by the 28

1 total number of Pay Periods worked by all Participating Class Members during the Class Period and 2 (b) multiplying the result by each Participating Class Member's Pay Periods. (Agreement at ¶
3 3.2(e).) Pay Periods will be based on Defendant's records; however, Class Members will have the 4 right to challenge their Workweeks.

5 18. Class Members may choose to opt-out of the Settlement by following the directions
6 in the Class Notice. (Agreement at ¶ 8.5, Ex. A.) All Class Members who do not "opt out" will be 7 deemed Participating Class Members who will be bound by the Settlement and will be entitled to 8 receive an Individual Class Payment. (Agreement at ¶ 8.5(c).) All Aggrieved Employees,
9 including those who submit an opt-out request, will still be paid their allocation of the PAGA
10 Penalties and will remain subject to the release of the Released PAGA Claims regardless of their 11 request for exclusion. (Agreement at ¶¶ 1.39 and 8.5(d).) Finally, the Class Notice will advise the 12 Class Members of their right to object to the Settlement and/or dispute their Pay Periods.
13 (Agreement at ¶¶ 8.6 and 8.7, Ex. A.)

14 19. A Participating Class Member must cash his or her Individual Class Payment check
15 within 180 days after it is mailed. (Agreement at ¶ 5.2.) Any settlement checks not cashed within 16 180 days will be voided and any funds represented by such checks to the San Diego County Bar
17 Foundation, a Court-approved nonprofit organization or foundation consistent with Code of Civil 18 Procedure Section 384(b) ("Cy Pres Recipient"). (Agreement at ¶ 5.4.)

19 20. Subject to Court approval, the Parties have agreed on ILYM Group to administer the 20 settlement in this action ("Administrator"). (Agreement at ¶ 1.2.) The Administrator will be paid
21 for settlement administration in an amount not to exceed $60,000. (Agreement at ¶ 3.2(c).)

22 21. Subject to Court approval, the Agreement provides for Class Counsel to be awarded
23 a sum not to exceed one-third of the Gross Settlement Amount, as the Class Counsel Fees Payment.
24 (Agreement at ¶ 3.2(b).) Class Counsel will also be allowed to apply separately for an award of 25 Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment in an amount not to exceed $48,000. (Agreement at ¶ 26 3.2(b).) Subject to Court approval, the Agreement provides for a payment of no more than $10,000
27 each to the Plaintiffs as their Class Representative Service Payments. (Agreement at ¶ 3.2(a).)

1 22. Subject to Court approval, One Hundred Twenty-Five Thousand Dollars ($125,000)
2 will be paid from the Gross Settlement Amount for PAGA Penalties under the California Private
3 Attorneys General Act, Cal. Labor Code Section 2698, et seq. ("PAGA"). Pursuant to the express
4 requirements of Labor Code § 2699(i), the PAGA Penalties shall be allocated as follows: 75%
5 ($93,750) shall be allocated to the Labor Workforce Development Agency ("LWDA") as its share
6 of the civil penalties and 25% ($31,250) allocated to the Individual PAGA Payments to be 7 distributed to the Aggrieved Employees based on the number of their respective PAGA Pay
8 Periods. (Agreement at ¶ 3.2(d).) As set forth in the accompanying proof of service, the LWDA has 9 been served with this motion and the Agreement.

10
11 Risks of Continued Litigation and Standards for Approval

12 23. Plaintiffs and Class Counsel recognize the expense and length of continuing to 13 litigate and trying this Action against Defendant and then litigating possible appeals which could 14 take several years. Class Counsel has also taken into account the uncertain outcome and risk of 15 litigation, especially in complex class actions such as this Action. Class Counsel is also mindful of 16 and recognizes the inherent problems of proof under, and alleged defenses to, the claims asserted in 17 the Action. Based upon their evaluation, Plaintiffs and Class Counsel have determined that the 18 Settlement set forth in the Agreement is in the best interest of the Class Members.

19 24. Here, a number of defenses asserted by Defendant present serious threats to the 20 claims of the Plaintiffs and the other Class Members. Defendant asserted that Defendant's practices
21 complied with all applicable Labor laws. Defendant argued that all work time was properly 22 recorded and paid for all time actually worked and that their neutral rounding actually overpaid the 23 employees so that there were no unpaid wages. Defendant argues that there was no underpayment
24 of wages due to the alleged miscalculation of the regular rate. Defendant at all times took the 25 position that it correctly calculated and paid the regular rate for overtime, sick pay and premiums.
26 Defendant contends that its meal and rest period policies fully complied with California law and 27 Defendant did not fail to provide the opportunity for legally required meal and rest breaks. In 28

1 addition, Defendant argued that Plaintiffs failed to consider that most of the employees signed meal
2 period waivers that are applicable to employees in the healthcare field who can waive one of their
3 two meal periods, and/or otherwise waived their meal periods, that meal period premiums were 4 automatically paid based on a facially non-compliant meal period based on an employee's waiver,
5 and that employees could put into be paid a "no break" premium if not authorized and permitted to 6 take a legally required break, and did so every pay period. Defendant could argue that its payment
7 of significant meal period premiums was evidence of their lawful practices. As to expense
8 reimbursement, Defendant contended that it did not fail to provide reimbursement for necessary
9 business expenses and that claimed cellphone expenses were incurred voluntarily and/or for the 10 convenience of employees and is therefore not required reimbursement. Defendant further provided 11 evidence and argued that hospital phones were provided to employees to use in order for them to 12 perform their job duties. Defendant argued that the decisions in Brinker v. Superior Court, 53 Cal.
13 4th 1004 (2012), Lockheed Martin Corp. v. Superior Ct., 29 Cal. 4th 1096, 1108 (2003), and 14 Salazar v. See's Candy Shops Inc., 64 Cal.App.5th 85 (2021), weakened Plaintiffs' claims, on 15 liability, value, and class certifiability as to the meal and rest period claims. Defendant also argues 16 that based on its facially lawful practices, it acted in good faith and without willfulness, which if 17 accepted would negate the claims for waiting time penalties and/or inaccurate wage statements. If 18 successful, Defendant's defenses could eliminate or substantially reduce any recovery to the Class.
19 While Plaintiffs believe that these defenses could be overcome, Defendant maintains these defenses
20 have merit and therefore present a serious risk to recovery by the Class.

21 25. There was also a significant risk that, if the Action was not settled, Plaintiffs would 22 be unable to obtain class certification and thereby not recover on behalf of any employees other
23 than herself. Defendant argued that the individual experience of each putative class member varied
24 with respect to the claims. Defendant could also contest class certification by arguing injury and 25 good faith were case-by-case determinations that precluded class certification. Plaintiffs are aware 26 of other cases where class certification of similar claims was denied. See e.g. Cacho v. Eurostar,
27 Inc., 43 Cal. App. 5th 885 (2019) (denying certification of rest break claims). Finally, even if class
28

1 certification was successful, as demonstrated by the California Supreme Court decision in Duran v.
2 U.S. Bank National Assn., 59 Cal. 4th 1 (2014), there are significant hurdles to overcome for a class
3 wide recovery even where the class has been certified. While other cases have approved class
4 certification in wage and hour claims, class certification in this action would have been hotly
5 disputed and was by no means a foregone conclusion.

6 26. This settlement is therefore certainly entitled to preliminary approval. Were this 7 case to go to trial, the Plaintiffs and the other Class Members would need to prove, among other
8 things, that wages were owed on a class-wide basis. This was and is a substantial risk.

9 27. Plaintiffs will apply to the Court for Class Representative Service Payments in 10 consideration for their service and for the risks undertaken on behalf of the Class. (Agreement at ¶ 11 3.2(a).) Plaintiffs performed their duties admirably by working with Class Counsel. The 12 Declarations of the Plaintiffs are presented herewith in support. For purposes of this preliminary 13 approval stage, the requested service award of $10,000 is well within the accepted range of awards
14 for purposes of preliminary approval. See e.g. Mathein v. Pier 1 Imps. (U.S.), Inc., 2018 U.S. Dist.
15 LEXIS 71386 (E.D. Cal. 2018) (awarding $12,500 where average class member payment was 16 $351); Holman v. Experian Info. Solutions, Inc., 2014 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 173698 (N.D. Cal. 2014)
17 (approving $10,000 service award where class member recovery was $375); Rausch v. Hartford
18 Fin. Servs. Grp., 2007 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 14740, 2007 WL 671334 (D. Or. 2007) (approving award 19 of $10,000 where class member recoveries were as little as $150); Louie v. Kaiser Foundation
20 Health Plan, Inc., 2008 WL 4473183, *7 (S.D. Cal. Oct. 06, 2008) (awarding $25,000 service 21 award to each of six plaintiffs in overtime class action); Glass v. UBS Fin. Servs., 2007 WL 221862, 22 *16-17 (N.D. Cal. Jan. 27 2007) (awarding $25,000 service award in overtime class action and a 23 pool of $100,000 in enhancements). As explained in Glass, service awards are routinely awarded 24 to class representatives to compensate the employees for the time and effort expended on the case,
25 for the risk of litigation, for the fear of suing an employer and retaliation there from, and to serve as 26 an incentive to vindicate the statutory rights of all employees. 2007 WL 221862 at *16-17. Below,
27 I provided a long list of similar Court-approved service awards.

1 28. The stage of the proceedings at which this Settlement was reached also militates in 2 favor of preliminary approval and ultimately, final approval of the Settlement. Class Counsel has
3 conducted a thorough investigation into the facts of the class action. Class Counsel began
4 investigating the Class Members' claims before the Action was filed. Class Counsel engaged in an 5 investigation of the claims and conducted a review and analysis of the relevant documents and data.
6 Class Counsel performed extensive discovery, which included the production of thousands of pages
7 of documents and several depositions. Class Counsel was also experienced with the claims at issue
8 here, as Class Counsel previously litigated and settled similar claims in other actions. Accordingly,
9 the agreement to settle did not occur until Class Counsel possessed sufficient information to make 10 an informed judgment regarding the likelihood of success on the merits and the results that could be 11 obtained through further litigation.

12 29. Based on the foregoing data and their own independent investigation and evaluation,
13 Class Counsel is of the opinion that the Settlement with Defendant for the consideration and on the 14 terms set forth in the Agreement is fair, reasonable, and adequate and is in the best interest of the 15 Class in light of all known facts and circumstances, including the risk of significant delay, defenses
16 asserted by Defendant, and numerous potential appellate issues. There can be no doubt that counsel
17 for both Parties possessed sufficient information to make an informed judgment regarding the 18 likelihood of success on the merits and the results that could be obtained through further litigation.

19
20 Class Certification Issues

21 30. Plaintiffs contend that the proposed settlement meets all of the requirements for class
22 certification under California Code of Civil Procedure § 382 as demonstrated below, and therefore,
23 the Court may appropriately approve the Class as defined in the Agreement. This Court should 24 conditionally certify the Class for settlement purposes only, defined as follows:

25 All individuals who are or previously were employed by Defendant who were
26 classified as non-exempt employees, excluding bargaining unit nurses, at any time
27 during the Class Period.

27 (Agreement at ¶ 1.5.)
28

1 The “Class Period” is from February 9, 2017 through April 23, 2023. (Agreement at ¶ 1.13.)

2 a. Numerosity - Here, Plaintiffs assert that the 6,444 individuals who comprise
3 the Class can be identified based on Defendant’s records and are sufficiently numerous for class
4 certification.

5 b. Common Issues Predominate - Here, Plaintiffs contend that common 6 questions of law and fact are present, and specifically the common questions of whether 7 Defendant’s practices were lawful, whether Class Members were lawfully compensated for all
8 hours worked, whether Defendant properly paid wages using the correct regular rate, whether the 9 Defendant failed to provide all legally required meal and rest periods to class members, whether 10 Defendant failed to provide required expense reimbursement, and whether Class Members are 11 entitled to damages and penalties as a result of these practices. Plaintiff contends that certification
12 of this Class is appropriate because Defendant allegedly engaged in uniform practices with respect
13 to the Class Members. As a result, these common questions of liability could be answered on a 14 class wide basis.

15 c. Typicality - In the Action, Plaintiffs contend that the typicality requirement
16 is satisfied. The Plaintiffs worked for Defendant as non-exempt employees during the Class Period.
17 Plaintiffs contend that, like every other member of the Class, they were subject to the same
18 practices and policies of Defendant and were subject to the same defenses. Thus, Plaintiffs assert
19 that the claims of the Plaintiffs and the Class Members arise from the same course of conduct by the 20 Defendant, involve the same employment policies and practices of Defendant, and are based on the 21 same legal theories.

22 d. Adequacy - Plaintiffs contends that the Class Members are adequately
23 represented here because Plaintiffs and representing counsel (a) do not have any conflicts of interest
24 with other class members, and (b) will prosecute the case vigorously on behalf of the class. This 25 requirement is met here. First, Plaintiffs are well aware of their duties as the representatives of the 26 Class and have actively participated in the prosecution of this case to date. Plaintiffs effectively
27 communicated with counsel, provided documents to counsel and participated in the investigation
28 and negotiations in the Action. Second, Plaintiffs retained competent counsel who are experienced

1 in employment class actions and who have no conflicts. Third, there is no antagonism between the 2 interests of the Plaintiffs and those of the Class. Both the Plaintiffs and the Class Members seek
3 monetary relief under the same set of facts and legal theories. The original Plaintiff Chris Farley
4 recently passed away during the pendency of this lawsuit, and his financial claims in this matter are 5 now being pursued by the Estate of Chris Farley, which has submitted a declaration. The Estate of 6 Farley has the same interest in seeking monetary relief for these financial claims, no different than 7 Chris Farley. During the pendency of the Chris Farley performed all duties of a class
8 representative, including giving his testimony in a deposition. In light of this Chris Farley and now
9 the Estate of Farley have represented and can continue to represent the interest if the Class in this 10 Settlement, and are deservedly entitled to the service award for this work on behalf of the Class.

11 31. Class Counsel's Adequacy of Representation and Absence of Conflict: Blumenthal
12 Nordrehaug Bhowmik De Blouw LLP is experienced in prosecuting class action lawsuits and can 13 competently represent the Class. Other lawyers at my firm and I have extensive class litigation
14 experience. We have handled a number of class actions and complex cases and have acted both as 15 counsel and as lead and co-lead counsel in a variety of these matters. We have successfully
16 prosecuted and obtained significant recoveries in numerous class action lawsuits and other lawsuits
17 involving complex issues of law and fact. My firm is particularly experienced in wage and hour
18 employment law class actions, including claims for misclassification, overtime, expense
19 reimbursement, unlawful deduction of wages, and missed rest and meal periods. Blumenthal
20 Nordrehaug Bhowmik De Blouw LLP has been involved as class counsel in over hundreds of wage
21 and hour class actions. Blumenthal Nordrehaug Bhowmik De Blouw LLP has been found to be 22 adequate counsel by the courts throughout California. We have been approved as experienced class
23 counsel by both state and federal courts in California in contested class certification proceedings. A
24 true and correct copy of the resume of my firm is attached hereto as Exhibit #2. The Class in this 25 settlement is defined as "all individuals who are or previously were employed by Defendant who 26 were classified as non-exempt employees, excluding bargaining unit nurses, at any time during the 27 Class Period." I have reviewed my firm's cases and representation of other plaintiffs and there is no
28 conflict or representation which would prevent my firm from representing the interests of the Class

1 this case. My firm only represents employees, and not employers. My firm has never represented
2 Defendant nor any affiliate of the Defendant. My firm's only interest in the subject matter of this
3 litigation is to ensure a recovery to the Class and to maximize that recovery. Finally, our allegiance
4 to the Class and the claims of the Class is not inconsistent with our allegiance to pursue the claims
5 on behalf of other employees and classes as the claims are all against different and distinct
6 employers. I can think of no conflict that would arise in our representation of the Class and our 7 adequate representation of the Class is evidenced by the successful prosecution of the class claims
8 to reach an excellent recovery for the Class. Moreover, neither the Plaintiffs nor Class Counsel have 9 any affiliation with the Administrator for this settlement. Thus, the adequacy requirement for my 10 firm is satisfied.

11 32. The Class Notice, drafted jointly and agreed upon by the Parties through their 12 respective counsel and to be approved by the Court, includes all relevant information. (See Exhibit
13 "A" to the Agreement.) The Class Notice will include, among other information: (i) information
14 regarding the Action; (ii) the impact on the rights of the Class Members if they do not opt out,
15 including a description of the applicable release; (iii) information to the Class Members regarding 16 how to opt out and how to object to the Settlement; (iv) the estimated Individual Class Payment for 17 each of the Class Members; (iii) the amount of attorneys' fees and expenses to be sought; (v) the 18 amount of the Plaintiffs' service award request; and (vi) the anticipated expenses of the 19 Administrator. The Class Notice will state that the Class Members shall have forty-five (45) days
20 from the date that the Class Notice is mailed to them (the "Response Deadline") to request
21 exclusion (opt-out), which Response Deadline shall be extended in the event of a re-mailing.
22 (Agreement at ¶¶ 1.43, 8.5(a), 8.7.) Class Members shall be given the opportunity to object to the 23 Settlement and/or requests for attorneys' fees and expenses and to appear at the Final Approval
24 Hearing. (Agreement at ¶ 8.7.) Class Members who do not submit a timely and proper request to 25 opt-out will automatically receive a payment of their Individual Class Payment. This notice
26 program was designed to meaningfully reach the Class Members and it advises them of all pertinent
27 information concerning the Settlement.
28

1 33. The PAGA Claim -

2 a. Approval of PAGA Settlements. The decision in O'Connor v. Uber, 201
3 F.Supp.3d 1110, 1133 (N.D. Cal. 2016), and the LWDA's Response therein is illustrative. The 4 LWDA first states that "when viewing the monetary relief allocated to PAGA claims under a
5 settlement, the LWDA recognizes that the PAGA sum need not necessarily be viewed through the 6 same lens as the relief obtained by absent class members on other claims (i.e., the percentage of 7 recovery-to-exposure on the PAGA claims need not necessarily equal the percentage of recovery on 8 the other claims)." (LWDA Response at p.3). The LWDA also indicated that the payment of 9 money to the aggrieved employees furthers the purposes of PAGA and that the Court considers that 10 primary consideration. "The LWDA recognizes that this Court does not review the PAGA 11 allocation in isolation, but rather reviews the settlement as a whole, to determine whether it is 12 fundamentally fair, reasonable and adequate, with primary consideration for the interests of absent
13 class members." (LWDA Response at p.4).

14 b. Valuation of the PAGA Claim. For mediation, Plaintiffs calculated the 15 value of the alleged PAGA claim as to Aggrieved Employees for civil penalties to be between 16 $11,052,350 and $22,104,700 for a single violation in every one of the estimated 221,047 pay
17 periods at issue in the PAGA Period, depending on whether the violation was $50 per pay period as 18 in the case of Labor Code § 558(a)(1) or the standard amount of $100 per pay period for violation
19 of Labor Code § 1198. This valuation assumed that PAGA civil penalties would be awarded at the 20 maximum rate per pay period but without stacking.³ The PAGA allocation in the Settlement is 21 $125,000. This allocation is justified by several important considerations. First, the PAGA claim
22 was subject to the same risks as the underlying class claims. Second, Defendant asserted additional 23 defenses to the PAGA claim, not only as to liability but also as to the amount of the penalties.
24 Defendant could also argue that no penalties prior to the PAGA notification should be awarded, and

26 ³ Stacking is where more than one civil penalty is imposed in a pay period for the same conduct.
27 The valuation of between $11,052,350 and $22,104,700 is the civil penalty amount without 28 stacking. If stacking is permitted, then the valuation increases with each additional penalty added to each pay period. Plaintiffs, however, are not aware of any PAGA award which permitted stacking and in the cases cited herein, only one penalty per pay period was assessed.

1 I am aware of one Court which has so ruled. These additional defenses present a risk to the PAGA
2 claim and the potential that some or all of the PAGA penalties sought may not be awarded. Second,
3 in Carrington v. Starbucks Corp., 30 Cal. App. 5th 504 (2018), the court affirmed a judgment which
4 only provided for a PAGA penalty of $5 per violation. Therefore, at trial, any PAGA penalties
5 awarded could be significantly less than Plaintiff's calculation even where Plaintiff prevailed on the 6 PAGA claim. Even if we assume that violations for all 221,047 pay periods were established, using 7 the valuation from Carrington results in a potential recovery of only $1,105,235 under PAGA. This
8 means that the PAGA allocation in the Agreement is a reasonable recovery when compared to this
9 potential PAGA recovery. Fourth, the interests of PAGA are also served by the Class recovery
10 under the reasoning of the LWDA in O'Connor v. Uber.

11 c. Comparable PAGA Settlements. In reaching the settlement of the PAGA
12 claim, Class Counsel was also aware of what allocations other Courts have approved for similar 13 PAGA settlements as compared to the total settlement amount. A class settlement that allocates
14 approximately 3% of the total settlement value to resolve the PAGA claims applicable to the class
15 is also supported by what has been approved in other wage-and-hour class settlements. Indeed,
16 Courts typically approve lower PAGA settlement amounts in the range of between 0.27 to 2 percent
17 of the total settlement. See Davis v. Brown Shoe Co., 2015 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 149010 (E.D. Cal.
18 2015) (PAGA Payment of $5,000 in a $1.5 million class settlement); Zamora v. Ryder Integrated

27
28 34. Attorneys' Fees - The Class Counsel Fees Payment is capped at one-third of the

1 Gross Settlement Amount. A fee award that is capped at one-third of the common fund is fair and 2 reasonable, and at the time of final approval, my firm will present lodestar to further support the
3 reasonableness of the requested fee award. My firm has been regularly awarded attorney's fees
4 equal to one-third of the common fund in Court-approved wage and hour class settlements. Some 5 of the class action awards obtained by Class Counsel in similar employment actions throughout the 6 state bear out the reasonableness of a fee and costs award equivalent to one-third (1/3) of the total
7 settlement value: On December 4, 2018, in Panda Express Wage and Hour Cases (Los Angeles
8 Superior Court, Case No. JCCP 4919) Judge Carolyn Kuhl awarded Class Counsel a one-third fee
9 award in a wage and hour class settlement. On February 1, 2019, in Solarcity Wage and Hour

3 Moran v. Sharp Healthcare (San Diego County Superior Court Case No. 37-2019-00050203),
4 Judge Richard Whitney approved a one-third fee award in a wage and hour class settlement. A fee
5 award equal to one-third of the common fund is therefore reasonable in light of the fees that have 6 been awarded in other similar cases.

8 35. Class Representative Service Payment - The reasonableness of the requested service
9 award is also established by reference to the amounts that other California courts have found to be 10 reasonable in wage and hour class action settlements: Zamora v. Balboa Life & Casualty, LLC,

36. Potentially Related Other Actions - I am unaware of any other related cases pending

3 Defendant (other than the PAGA Notice served in this case).

5 37. Administration - The administration estimate from Ilym Group was selected, as it
6 provided for an estimate of $49,650 to perform the settlement administration for a Class of up
7 6,444, with any difference between the actual expenses and the budget of $60,000 to be retained in 8 the Net Settlement Amount for distribution to the Class. I have used ILYM Group successfully as 9 the administrator in other class settlements and know them to be competent and experienced. My 10 firm has no relationship or connection with ILYM Group, and thus no conflict of interest exists.
11 Filed herewith is the Declaration of Lisa Mullins from ILYM Group attesting to their experience

- 5.3. The Administrator must conduct a Class Member Address Search for all other Class Members whose checks are returned undelivered without USPS forwarding address. Within 7 days of receiving a returned check the Administrator must re-mail checks to the USPS forwarding address provided or to an address ascertained through the Class Member Address Search. The Administrator need not take further steps to deliver checks to Class Members whose re-mailed checks are returned as undelivered. The Administrator shall promptly send a replacement check to any Class Member whose original check was lost or misplaced, requested by the Class Member prior to the void date.

(a) Waiver of Rights Under Civil Code Section 1542. Plaintiffs acknowledge that Plaintiffs may discover facts or law different from, or in addition to, the facts or law that Plaintiffs now know or believe to be true but agrees, nonetheless, that Plaintiffs' Release shall be and remain effective in all respects, notwithstanding such different or additional facts or Plaintiffs' discovery of them. For purposes of Plaintiffs' Release, plaintiff the Estate of Chris Farley, plaintiff Shelby Ward, and plaintiff Darlene Griffith expressly waive and relinquish the provisions, rights, and benefits, if any, of section 1542 of the California Civil Code, which reads:

A general release does not extend to claims that the creditor or releasing party does not know or suspect to exist in his or her favor at the time of executing the release, and that if known by him or her would have materially affected his or her settlement with the debtor or Released Party.

6.2. Release by Participating Class Members. All Participating Class Members, on behalf of themselves and their respective former and present representatives, agents, attorneys, heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns, release Released Parties from the Released Class Claims.

6.3. Release of PAGA Claims. All Aggrieved Employees and the LWDA are deemed to release, on behalf of themselves and their respective former and present representatives, agents, attorneys, heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns, the Released Parties from all of the Released PAGA Claims. The Parties agree there is no statutory right for any PAGA Employee to object, opt out or otherwise exclude himself or herself from the PAGA part of the Settlement. The Parties further agree there is no right or opportunity for any PAGA Employee to appeal the approval of the Settlement by the Court. The Parties will jointly defend against any appeal filed with respect to the Final Order as it pertains to the PAGA part of the Settlement.

7. MOTION FOR PRELIMINARY APPROVAL. The Parties agree to jointly prepare and file a motion for preliminary approval (“Motion for Preliminary Approval”) that complies with the Court’s procedures and instructions.

7.1. Defendant’s Responsibilities. Within 14 days of the full execution of this Agreement, Defendant will prepare and deliver to Class Counsel a signed Declaration disclosing all facts relevant to any actual or potential conflicts of interest with the Administrator and the Cy Pres Recipient.

7.2. Plaintiffs’ Responsibilities. Plaintiffs will prepare and deliver to Defense Counsel all documents necessary for obtaining Preliminary Approval, including: (i) a draft of the notice, and memorandum in support, of the Motion for Preliminary Approval that includes an analysis of the Settlement under Dunk/Kullar and a request for approval of the PAGA Settlement under Labor Code Section 2699, subd. (f)(2)); (ii) a draft proposed Order Granting Preliminary Approval and Approval of PAGA Settlement; (iii) a draft proposed Class Notice; (iv) a signed declaration from the Administrator attaching its “not to exceed” bid for administering the Settlement and attesting to its willingness to serve; competency; operative procedures for protecting the security of Class Data; amounts of insurance coverage for any data breach, defalcation of funds or other misfeasance; all facts relevant to any actual or potential conflicts of interest with Class Members and/or the proposed Cy Pres Recipient; and the nature and extent of any financial relationship with Plaintiffs, Class Counsel or Defense Counsel; (v) a signed declaration from Plaintiffs confirming willingness and competency to serve and disclosing all facts relevant to any actual or potential conflicts of interest with Class Members, and/or the Administrator and/or the proposed Cy Pres Recipient; (v) a signed declaration from each Class Counsel firm attesting to its competency to represent the Class Members; its timely transmission to the LWDA of all necessary PAGA documents (initial notice of violations (Labor Code section 2699.3, subd. (a)), Operative Complaint (Labor Code section 2699, subd. (l)(1)), this Agreement (Labor Code section 2699, subd. (l)(2)); and (vi) all facts relevant to any actual or potential conflict of interest with Class Members, the Administrator and/or the Cy Pres Recipient, if any. In their Declarations, Plaintiffs and Class Counsel Declaration shall aver that they are not aware of any other pending matter or action asserting claims that will be extinguished or adversely affected by the Settlement.

7.3. Responsibilities of Counsel. Class Counsel and Defense Counsel are jointly responsible for expeditiously finalizing and filing the Motion for Preliminary Approval no later than 30 days after the full execution of this Agreement; obtaining a prompt hearing date for the Motion for Preliminary Approval; and for appearing in Court to advocate in favor of the Motion for Preliminary Approval. Class Counsel is responsible for delivering the Court's Preliminary Approval to the Administrator.

7.4. Duty to Cooperate. If the Parties disagree on any aspect of the proposed Motion for Preliminary Approval and/or the supporting declarations and documents, Class Counsel and Defense Counsel will expeditiously work together on behalf of the Parties by meeting in person or by telephone, and in good faith, to resolve the disagreement. If the Court does not grant Preliminary Approval or conditions Preliminary Approval on any material change to this Agreement, Class Counsel and Defense Counsel will expeditiously work together on behalf of the Parties by meeting in person or by telephone, and in good faith, to modify the Agreement and otherwise satisfy the Court's concerns.

8. SETTLEMENT ADMINISTRATION

8.1. Selection of Administrator. The Parties have jointly selected ILYM Group, Inc. to serve as the Administrator and verified that, as a condition of appointment, ILYM Group, Inc. agrees to be bound by this Agreement and to perform, as a fiduciary, all duties specified in this Agreement in exchange for payment of Administration Expenses. The Administrator's duties will include preparing, printing, and mailing the Class Notice Packet to all Class Members; conducting a National Change of Address search to update Class Member addresses before mailing the Class Notice Packets; re-mailing Class Notice Packets that are returned to the Class Member's new address; setting up a toll-free telephone number and email and a fax number to receive communications from Class Members; receiving and reviewing for validity completed Requests for Exclusion; providing the Parties with weekly status reports about the delivery of Class Notice Packets and receipt of Requests for Exclusion, objections and disputes; calculating Individual Class Payments and Individual PAGA Payments; issuing the checks to effectuate the payments due under the Settlement; issuing the tax reports required under this Settlement; and otherwise administering the Settlement pursuant to this Agreement. The Parties and their Counsel represent that they have no interest or relationship, financial or otherwise, with the Administrator other than a professional relationship arising out of prior experiences administering settlements.

8.2. Employer Identification Number. The Administrator shall have and use its own Employer Identification Number for purposes of calculating payroll tax withholdings and providing reports state and federal tax authorities.

8.3. Qualified Settlement Fund. The Administrator shall establish a settlement fund that meets the requirements of a Qualified Settlement Fund ("QSF") under US Treasury Regulation section 468B-1.

8.4. Notice to Class Members.

- (a) No later than three (3) business days after receipt of the Class Data, the Administrator shall notify Class Counsel that the list has been received and state the number of Class Members, PAGA Members, Pay Periods and PAGA Pay Periods in the Class Data.
- (b) Using best efforts to perform as soon as possible, and in no event later than 14 days after receiving the Class Data, the Administrator will send to all Class Members identified in the Class Data, via first-class United States Postal Service (“USPS”) mail, the Class Notice, substantially in the form attached to this Agreement as Exhibit A. The first page of the Class Notice shall prominently estimate the dollar amounts of any Individual Class Payment and/or Individual PAGA Payment payable to the Class Member, and the number of Pay Periods and PAGA Pay Periods used to calculate these amounts. Before mailing Class Notices, the Administrator shall update Class Member addresses using the National Change of Address database.
- (c) Not later than 7 days after the Administrator’s receipt of any Class Notice returned by the USPS as undelivered, the Administrator shall re-mail the Class Notice using any forwarding address provided by the USPS. If the USPS does not provide a forwarding address, the Administrator shall conduct a Class Member Address Search, and re-mail the Class Notice to the most current address obtained. The Administrator has no obligation to make further attempts to locate or send Class Notice to Class Members whose Class Notice is returned by the USPS a second time.
- (d) The deadlines for Class Members’ written objections, Challenges to Pay Periods, and Requests for Exclusion will be extended an additional 14 days beyond the Response Deadline provided in the Class Notice for all Class Members whose notice is re-mailed. The Administrator will inform the Class Member of the extended deadline with the re-mailed Class Notice.
- (d) If the Administrator, the Parties, Defense Counsel or Class Counsel is contacted by or otherwise discovers any persons who believe they should have been included in the Class Data and should have received Class Notice, the Parties will expeditiously meet and confer in person or by telephone, and in good faith, in an effort to agree on whether to include them as Class Members. If the Parties agree, such persons will be Class Members entitled to the same rights as other Class Members, and the Administrator will send, via email or overnight delivery, a Class Notice requiring them to exercise options under this Agreement not later than 14 days after receipt of Class Notice.

8.5. Requests for Exclusion (Opt-Outs).

- (a) Class Members who wish to exclude themselves (opt-out of) the Class Settlement must send the Administrator, by fax, email, or mail, a signed written Request for Exclusion not later than the Response Deadline (plus an additional 14 days for Class Members whose Class Notice is re-mailed). A Request for Exclusion is a letter from a Class Member or his/her representative that reasonably communicates the Class Member’s election to be excluded from the Settlement and includes the Class Member’s name, address and email address or telephone number. To be valid, a Request for Exclusion must be timely faxed, emailed, or postmarked by the Response Deadline.

- (b) The Administrator may not reject a Request for Exclusion as invalid because it fails to contain all the information specified in the Class Notice. The Administrator shall accept any Request for Exclusion as valid if the Administrator can reasonably ascertain the identity of the person as a Class Member and the Class Member's desire to be excluded. The Administrator's determination shall be final and not appealable or otherwise susceptible to challenge. If the Administrator has reason to question the authenticity of a Request for Exclusion, the Administrator may demand additional proof of the Class Member's identity. The Administrator's determination of authenticity shall be final and not appealable or otherwise susceptible to challenge.
- (c) Every Class Member who does not submit a timely and valid Request for Exclusion is deemed to be a Participating Class Member under this Agreement, entitled to all benefits and bound by all terms and conditions of the Settlement, including the Participating Class Members' Releases under Paragraph 6.2 of the Agreement, regardless of whether the Participating Class Member actually receives the Class Notice or objects to the Settlement.
- (d) Every Class Member who submits a valid and timely Request for Exclusion is a Non-Participating Class Member and shall not receive an Individual Class Payment or have the right to object to the class action components of the Settlement. Because future PAGA claims are subject to claim preclusion upon entry of the Judgment, Non-Participating Class Members who are Aggrieved Employees are deemed to release the claims identified in Paragraph 6.3 of this Agreement and are eligible for an Individual PAGA Payment. If a Class Member submits both a Request for Exclusion and an objection, only the Request for Exclusion will be accepted and the objection will be void.

8.6. Challenges to Calculation of Pay Periods. Each Class Member shall have until the Response Deadline (plus an additional 14 days for Class Members whose Class Notice is re-mailed) to challenge the number of Class Pay Periods and PAGA Pay Periods allocated to the Class Member in the Class Notice. The Class Member may challenge the allocation by communicating with the Administrator via fax, email or mail. The Administrator must encourage the challenging Class Member to submit supporting documentation. In the absence of any contrary documentation, the Administrator is entitled to presume that the Pay Periods contained in the Class Notice are correct so long as they are consistent with the Class Data. The Administrator's determination of each Class Member's allocation of Pay Periods shall be final and not appealable or otherwise susceptible to challenge. The Administrator shall promptly provide copies of all challenges to the calculation of Pay Periods to Defense Counsel and Class Counsel and the Administrator's determination as to the challenges.

8.7. Objections to Settlement.

- (a) Only Participating Class Members may object to the class action components of the Settlement and/or this Agreement, including contesting the fairness of the Settlement, and/or amounts requested for the Class Counsel Fees Payment, Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment and/or Class Representative Service Payment.
- (b) Participating Class Members may send written objections to the Administrator, by fax, email, or mail. In the alternative, or in addition to a written objection, Participating Class Members may appear in Court (or hire an attorney to appear in Court) to present verbal objections at the Final Approval Hearing. A Participating Class Member who elects to send a written objection to the Administrator must do so not later than the Response Deadline (plus an additional 14 days for Class Members whose Class Notice was re-mailed).
- (c) Non-Participating Class Members have no right to object to any of the class action components of the Settlement. If a Class Member submits both a Request for Exclusion and an objection, only the Request for Exclusion will be accepted and the objection will be void.

8.8. Administrator Duties. The Administrator has a duty to perform or observe all tasks to be performed or observed by the Administrator contained in this Agreement or otherwise.

- (a) Website, Email Address and Toll-Free Number. The Administrator will establish and maintain and use an internet website to post information of interest to Class Members including the date, time and location for the Final Approval Hearing and copies of the Settlement Agreement, Motion for Preliminary Approval, the Preliminary Approval, the Class Notice, the Motion for Final Approval, the Motion for Class Counsel Fees Payment, Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment and Class Representative Service Payment, the Final Approval and the Judgment. The Administrator will also maintain and monitor an email address and a toll-free telephone number to receive Class Member calls, faxes and emails.
- (b) Request for Exclusion (Opt-Outs) and Exclusion List. The Administrator will promptly review on a rolling basis Requests for Exclusion to ascertain their validity. Not later than 7 days after the expiration of the deadline for submitting Requests for Exclusion, the Administrator shall email a list to Class Counsel and Defense Counsel containing (a) the names and other identifying information of Class Members who timely submitted valid Requests for Exclusion (“Exclusion List”); (b) the names and other identifying information of Class Members who submitted invalid Requests for Exclusion; (c) copies of all Requests for Exclusion from Settlement submitted (whether valid or invalid).
- (c) Pay Period Challenges. The Administrator has the authority to address and make final decisions consistent with the terms of this Agreement on all Class Member challenges over the calculation of Pay Periods. The Administrator’s decision shall be final and not appealable or otherwise susceptible to challenge.

- (d) Weekly Reports. The Administrator must, on a weekly basis, provide written reports to Class Counsel and Defense Counsel that, among other things, tally the number of: Class Notices mailed or re-mailed, Class Notices returned undelivered, Requests for Exclusion (whether valid or invalid) received, objections received, challenges to Pay Periods received and/or resolved, and checks mailed for Individual Class Payments and Individual PAGA Payments (“Weekly Report”). The Weekly Reports must include provide the Administrator’s assessment of the validity of Requests for Exclusion and attach copies of all Requests for Exclusion and objections received.
- (e) Administrator’s Declaration. Not later than 7 days before the date by which Plaintiffs are required to file the Motion for Final Approval of the Settlement, the Administrator will provide to Class Counsel and Defense Counsel, a signed declaration suitable for filing in Court attesting to its due diligence and compliance with all of its obligations under this Agreement, including, but not limited to, its mailing of Class Notice, the Class Notices returned as undelivered, the re-mailing of Class Notices, attempts to locate Class Members, the total number of Requests for Exclusion from Settlement it received (both valid or invalid), and the number of written objections and attach the Exclusion List. The Administrator will supplement its declaration as needed or requested by the Parties and/or the Court. Class Counsel is responsible for filing the Administrator’s declaration(s) in Court.
- (f) Final Report by Administrator. Within 10 days after the Administrator disburses all funds of the Gross Settlement Amount, the Administrator will provide Class Counsel and Defense Counsel with a final report detailing its disbursements by employee identification number only of all payments made under this Agreement. At least 7 days before any deadline set by the Court, the Administrator will prepare, and submit to Class Counsel and Defense Counsel, a signed declaration suitable for filing in Court attesting to its disbursement of all payments required under this Agreement. Class Counsel is responsible for filing the Administrator's declaration in Court. If a second declaration attesting to the distribution of uncashed checks is required, the Administrator shall provide this second declaration at least 7 days before any deadline for a second declaration and Class Counsel shall be responsible for filing the second declaration with the Court.

9. CLASS SIZE MODIFICATION AND ESCALATOR CLAUSE. Based on its records, Defendant provided figures as to the Class size as set forth in paragraph 4.1 above. If the number of Pay Periods actually worked by the Class Members during the Class Period is more than 10% greater than 428,302 (i.e., if the total number of Pay Periods is 471,133 or more), Defendant can either (a) increase the Gross Settlement Amount by a proportionate amount for each additional Pay Period in excess of the 10% (i.e., 428,302); or (b) cut off the Class Period as of the date that the number of Pay Periods in the Class Period exceeded 471,133.

10. DEFENDANT’S RIGHT TO WITHDRAW. If the number of valid Requests for Exclusion identified in the Exclusion List exceeds 5% of the total of all Class Members, Defendant may, but is not obligated to, elect to withdraw from the Settlement. The Parties agree that, if Defendant withdraws, the Settlement shall be void ab initio, have no force or effect whatsoever, and that neither Party will have any further obligation to perform under this Agreement; provided, however, Defendant will remain responsible for paying all Settlement Administration Expenses incurred as of the date Defendant makes this election to withdraw. Defendant must notify Class Counsel and the Court of its election to withdraw not later than 7 days after the Administrator sends the final Exclusion List to Defense Counsel. Invalid Requests for Exclusion will have no effect on this threshold for an election.

11. MOTION FOR FINAL APPROVAL. Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, not later than 16 court days before the calendared Final Approval Hearing, Plaintiffs will file in Court, a motion for final approval of the Settlement that includes a request for approval of the PAGA settlement under Labor Code section 2699(l), a Proposed Final Approval Order and a proposed Judgment (collectively “Motion for Final Approval”). Plaintiffs shall provide drafts of these documents to Defense Counsel not later than 7 days prior to filing the Motion for Final Approval. Class Counsel and Defense Counsel will expeditiously meet and confer and in good faith, to resolve any disagreements concerning the Motion for Final Approval.

- 11.1. Response to Objections. Each Party retains the right to respond to any objection raised by a Participating Class Member, including the right to file responsive documents in Court no later than 5 court days prior to the Final Approval Hearing, or as otherwise ordered or accepted by the Court.
- 11.2. Duty to Cooperate. If the Court does not grant Final Approval or conditions Final Approval on any material change to the Settlement (including, but not limited to, the scope of release to be granted by Class Members), the Parties will expeditiously work together in good faith to address the Court’s concerns by revising the Agreement as necessary to obtain Final Approval. The Court’s decision to award less than the amounts requested for a Class Representative Service Payment, Class Counsel Fees Payment, Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment and/or Administration Expenses Payment shall not constitute a material modification to the Agreement within the meaning of this paragraph.
- 11.3. Continuing Jurisdiction of the Court. The Parties agree that, after entry of Judgment, the Court will retain jurisdiction over the Parties, Action, and the Settlement under C.C.P. section 664.6 solely for purposes of (i) enforcing this Agreement and/or Judgment, (ii) addressing settlement administration matters, and (iii) addressing such post-Judgment matters as are permitted by law.
- 11.4. Waiver of the Right to Appeal. Provided the Judgment is consistent with the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the Parties, their respective counsel, and all Participating Class Members who did not object to the Settlement as provided in this Agreement, waive all rights to appeal from the Judgment, including all rights to post-judgment and appellate proceedings, the right to file motions to vacate judgment, motions for new trial, extraordinary writs, and appeals. The waiver of appeal does not include any waiver of the right to oppose such motions, writs or appeals. If an objector appeals the Judgment, the Parties' obligations to perform under this Agreement will be suspended until such time as the appeal is finally resolved and the Judgment becomes final, except as to matters that do not affect the amount of the Net Settlement Amount.

11.5. Appellate Court Orders to Vacate, Reverse, or Materially Modify Judgment. If the reviewing Court vacates, reverses, or modifies the Judgment in a manner that requires a material modification of this Agreement (including, but not limited to, the scope of release to be granted by Class Members), this Agreement shall be null and void. The Parties shall nevertheless expeditiously work together in good faith to address the appellate court's concerns and to obtain Final Approval and entry of Judgment, sharing, on an equal basis, any additional Administration Expenses reasonably incurred at the time of remittitur. An appellate decision to vacate, reverse, or modify the Court's award of the Class Representative Service Payment or any payments to Class Counsel shall not constitute a material modification of the Judgment within the meaning of this paragraph, as long as the Gross Settlement Amount remains unchanged.

12. AMENDED JUDGMENT. If any amended judgment is required under Code of Civil Procedure section 384, the Parties will work together in good faith to jointly submit and a proposed amended judgment.

13. ADDITIONAL PROVISIONS

13.1. No Admission of Liability, Class Certification or Representative Manageability for Other Purposes. This Agreement represents a compromise and settlement of highly disputed claims. Nothing in this Agreement is intended or should be construed as an admission by Defendant that any of the allegations in the Operative Complaint have merit or that Defendant has any liability for any claims asserted; nor should it be intended or construed as an admission by Plaintiffs that Defendant's defenses in the Actions have merit. The Parties agree that class certification and representative treatment is for purposes of this Settlement only. If, for any reason the Court does not grant Preliminary Approval or Final Approval or enter Judgment pursuant to this Agreement, Defendant reserves the right to contest certification of any class for any reasons, and Defendant reserves all available defenses to the claims in the Actions, and Plaintiffs reserve the right to move for class certification on any grounds available and to contest Defendant's defenses. The Settlement, this Agreement and the Parties' willingness to settle the Actions will have no bearing on, and will not be admissible in connection with, any litigation (except for proceedings to enforce or effectuate the Settlement and this Agreement).

13.2. Confidentiality Prior to Preliminary Approval. Neither Plaintiffs nor Class counsel will publicize this settlement by Defendant's name or location (i.e., an institution in San Diego), through a press release, posting on Class Counsel's website, in social media or by any other public means, other than necessary court filings and proceedings associated with the Settlement. Plaintiffs, Class Counsel, Defendant and Defense Counsel separately agree that, until the Motion for Preliminary Approval of Settlement is filed, they and each of them will not disclose, disseminate and/or publicize, or cause or permit another person to disclose, disseminate or publicize, any of the terms of the Agreement directly or indirectly, specifically or generally, to any person, corporation, association, government agency, or other entity except: (1) to the Parties' attorneys, accountants, or spouses, all of whom will be instructed to keep this Agreement confidential; (2) counsel in a related matter; (3) to the extent necessary to report income to appropriate taxing authorities; (4) in response to a court order or subpoena; or (5) in response to an inquiry or subpoena issued by a state or federal government agency. Each Party agrees to immediately notify each other Party of any judicial or agency order, inquiry, or subpoena seeking such information. Plaintiffs, Class Counsel, Defendant and Defense Counsel separately agree not to, directly or indirectly, initiate any conversation or other communication, before the filing of the Motion for Preliminary Approval, with any third party regarding this Agreement or the matters giving rise to this Agreement except to respond only that "the matter was resolved," or words to that effect. This paragraph does not restrict Class Counsel's communications with Class Members in accordance with Class Counsel's ethical obligations owed to Class Members.

13.3. No Solicitation. The Parties separately agree that they and their respective counsel and employees have not and will not solicit any Class Member to opt out of or object to the Settlement, or appeal from the Judgment. Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to restrict Class Counsel's ability to communicate with Class Members in accordance with Class Counsel's ethical obligations owed to Class Members.

13.4. Integrated Agreement. Upon execution by all Parties and their counsel, this Agreement together with its attached exhibits shall constitute the entire agreement between the Parties relating to the Settlement, superseding any and all oral representations, warranties, covenants, or inducements made to or by any Party.

13.5. Attorney Authorization. Class Counsel and Defense Counsel separately warrant and represent that they are authorized by Plaintiffs and Defendant, respectively, to take all appropriate action required or permitted to be taken by such Parties pursuant to this Agreement to effectuate its terms, and to execute any other documents reasonably required to effectuate the terms of this Agreement including any amendments to this Agreement.

13.6. Cooperation. The Parties and their counsel will cooperate with each other and use their best efforts, in good faith, to implement the Settlement by, among other things, modifying the Settlement Agreement, submitting supplemental evidence and supplementing points and authorities as requested by the Court. In the event the Parties are unable to agree upon the form or content of any document necessary to implement the Settlement, or on any modification of the Agreement that may become necessary to implement the Settlement, the Parties will seek the assistance of a mediator and/or the Court for resolution.

13.7. Prior Assignments. The Parties separately represent and warrant that they have not directly or indirectly assigned, transferred, encumbered, or purported to assign, transfer, or encumber to any person or entity and portion of any liability, claim, demand, action, cause of action, or right released and discharged by the Party in this Settlement.

- 13.8. Tax Advice. Neither Plaintiffs, Class Counsel, Defendant nor Defense Counsel are providing any advice regarding taxes or taxability, nor shall anything in this Settlement be relied upon as such within the meaning of United States Treasury Department Circular 230 (31 CFR Part 10, as amended) or otherwise.
- 13.9. Modification of Agreement. This Agreement, and all parts of it, may be amended, modified, changed, or waived only by an express written instrument signed by all Parties or their representatives, and approved by the Court.
- 13.10. Agreement Binding on Successors. This Agreement will be binding upon, and inure to the benefit of, the successors of each of the Parties.
- 13.11. Applicable Law. All terms and conditions of this Agreement and its exhibits will be governed by and interpreted according to the internal laws of the state of California, without regard to conflict of law principles.
- 13.12. Cooperation in Drafting. The Parties have cooperated in the drafting and preparation of this Agreement. This Agreement will not be construed against any Party on the basis that the Party was the drafter or participated in the drafting.
- 13.13. Confidentiality. To the extent permitted by law, all agreements made, and orders entered during Actions and in this Agreement relating to the confidentiality of information shall survive the execution of this Agreement.
- 13.14. Use and Return of Class Data. Information provided to Class Counsel pursuant to Cal. Evid. Code §1152, and all copies and summaries of the Class Data provided to Class Counsel by Defendant in connection with the mediation, other settlement negotiations, or in connection with the Settlement, may be used only with respect to this Settlement, and no other purpose, and may not be used in any way that violates any existing contractual agreement, statute, or rule of court. Not later than 90 days after the date when the Court discharges the Administrator's obligation to provide a Declaration confirming the final pay out of all Settlement funds, Plaintiffs shall destroy all paper and electronic versions of Class Data received from Defendant.
- 13.15. Headings. The descriptive heading of any section or paragraph of this Agreement is inserted for convenience of reference only and does not constitute a part of this Agreement.
- 13.16. Calendar Days. Unless otherwise noted, all reference to "days" in this Agreement shall be to calendar days. In the event any date or deadline set forth in this Agreement falls on a weekend or federal legal holiday, such date or deadline shall be on the first business day thereafter.
- 13.17. Notice. All notices, demands or other communications between the Parties in connection with this Agreement will be in writing and deemed to have been duly given as of the third business day after mailing by United States mail, or the day sent by email or messenger, addressed as follows:

The Superior Court for the State of California authorized this Notice. Read it carefully!

YOUR LEGAL RIGHTS MAY BE AFFECTED WHETHER YOU ACT OR DO NOT ACT. PLEASE READ THIS NOTICE CAREFULLY.

You may be eligible to receive money from a consolidated employee class action lawsuit (“Action”) against Defendant Sharp Memorial Hospital (“Defendant”) for alleged wage and hour violations. The Action is brought by Plaintiffs the Estate of Chris Farley, Shelby Ward, Darlene Griffith, and Irene Imson (“Plaintiffs”) and seeks payment of (1) wages and other relief for a Class of all individuals who are or previously were employed by Defendant who were classified as non-exempt employees, excluding bargaining unit nurses, at any time during the Class Period (February 9, 2017 through April 23, 2023) (“Class Members”), and (2) penalties under the California Private Attorney General Act (“PAGA”) for all current and former non-exempt employees of Defendant, excluding bargaining unit nurses, at any time during the PAGA Period (January 20, 2020 through April 23, 2023) (“Aggrieved Employees”).

The proposed Settlement includes the following: (1) a Class Settlement requiring Defendant to fund Individual Class Payment payments to Class Members, and (2) a PAGA Settlement requiring the payment of PAGA Penalties to be allocated to the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) and to Aggrieved Employees.

Based on Defendant’s records, and the Parties’ current assumptions, your Individual Class Payment is estimated to be <<$ _____>> (less withholding) and your share of the PAGA Penalties (“Individual PAGA Payment”) is estimated to <<be $ _____>>. The actual amount you may receive likely will be different and will depend on a number of factors. (If no amount is stated for your Individual PAGA Payment, then according to Defendant’s records you are not eligible for an Individual PAGA Payment under the Settlement because you didn’t work during the PAGA Period.)

The above estimates are based on Defendant’s records showing that you worked << _____>> Pay Periods during the Class Period and you worked << _____>> PAGA Pay Periods. If you believe that you worked more pay periods during either period, you can submit a challenge by the deadline date. See Section 5 of this Notice below.

The Court has already preliminarily approved the proposed Settlement and approved this Notice. The Court has not yet decided whether to grant final approval. Your legal rights are affected whether you act or do not act. Read this Notice carefully. You will be deemed to have carefully read and understood it. At the Final Approval Hearing, the Court will decide whether to finally approve the Settlement and how much of the Settlement will be paid to Plaintiffs and Plaintiffs' attorneys ("Class Counsel"). The Court will also decide whether to enter a judgment that requires payments under the Settlement and requires Class Members and Aggrieved Employees to give up their rights to assert certain claims against Defendant.

If you worked for Defendant during the Class Period and/or the PAGA Period, you have two basic options under the Settlement:

- (1) Do Nothing. You don't have to do anything to participate in the proposed Settlement and be eligible for an Individual Class Payment and/or an Individual PAGA Payment. As a Participating Class Member, though, you will give up your right to assert Class Period wage claims and PAGA Period penalty claims (if any) against Defendant as described below in Section 4 below.
- (2) Opt-Out of the Class Settlement. You can exclude yourself from the Class Settlement (opt-out) by submitting the written Request for Exclusion or otherwise notifying the Administrator in writing. If you opt-out of the Settlement, you will not receive an Individual Class Payment, however you will preserve your right to personally pursue wage claims against Defendant, and, if you are an Aggrieved Employee, remain eligible for an Individual PAGA Payment. You cannot opt-out of the PAGA portion of the proposed Settlement.

Defendant will not retaliate against you for any actions you take with respect to the proposed Settlement.

SUMMARY OF YOUR LEGAL RIGHTS AND OPTIONS IN THIS SETTLEMENT:
You Don't Have to Do Anything to Participate in the Settlement	If you do nothing, you will be a Participating Class Member, eligible for an Individual Class Payment and an Individual PAGA Payment (if any). In exchange, you will give up your right to assert the wage claims against Defendant that are covered by this Settlement (Released Class Claims). Additional information is set forth below.
You Can Opt-out of the Class Settlement but not the PAGA Settlement The Opt-out Deadline is ____.	If you don't want to fully participate in the proposed Settlement, you can opt-out of the Class Settlement by sending the Administrator a written Request for Exclusion. If you request exclusion, you will receive no money from the Settlement and you will not be bound by the Class Settlement. Once excluded, you will be a Non-Participating Class Member and no longer eligible for an Individual Class Payment. Non-Participating Class Members cannot object to any portion of the proposed Settlement. See Section 7 of this Notice. However, you cannot opt-out of the PAGA portion of the proposed Settlement. If you are also an Aggrieved Employee and exclude yourself, you will still be paid your Individual PAGA Payment and will remain bound by the release of the Released PAGA Claims regardless of whether you submit a Request for Exclusion.

Participating Class Members Can Object to the Class Settlement but not the PAGA Settlement Written Objections Must be Submitted by _____	All Class Members who do not opt-out (“Participating Class Members”) can object to any aspect of the proposed Settlement. The Court’s decision whether to finally approve the Settlement will include a determination of how much will be paid to Class Counsel and Plaintiffs who pursued the Action on behalf of the Class. You are not personally responsible for any payments to Class Counsel or Plaintiffs, but every dollar paid to Class Counsel and Plaintiffs reduces the overall amount paid to Participating Class Members. You can object to the amounts requested by Class Counsel or Plaintiffs if you think they are unreasonable. See Section 8 of this Notice.
You Can Participate in the Final Approval Hearing	The Court’s Final Approval Hearing is scheduled to take place on _____ at _____ [a.m./p.m.], at the San Diego County Superior Court, located at 330 West Broadway, San Diego, CA 92101, in Department 65 before Judge Ronald F. Frazier. This hearing may change as explained below in Section 9. You don’t have to attend but you do have the right to appear (or hire an attorney to appear on your behalf at your own cost), in person, by telephone or by using the Court’s virtual appearance platform. Participating Class Members can verbally object to the Settlement at the Final Approval Hearing. See Section 9 of this Notice
You Can Challenge the Calculation of Your Pay Periods / PAGA Pay Periods Written Challenges Must be Submitted by _____	The amount of your Individual Class Payment and your Individual PAGA Payment (if any) depend on how many Pay Periods you worked at least one day during the Class Period and how many PAGA Pay Periods you worked at least one day during the PAGA Period, respectively. The number of Pay Periods during the Class Period and number of PAGA Period Pay Periods you worked according to Defendant’s records is stated on the first page of this Notice. If you disagree with either of these numbers, you must challenge it by _____. See Section 5 of this Notice

1. Why did I get this Notice?

A proposed class action settlement (the “Settlement”) of the above-captioned action pending in the Superior Court of the State of California, in and for the County of San Diego (the “Court”), has been reached between Plaintiffs and Defendant and has been granted preliminary approval by the Court. You may be entitled to receive money from this Settlement.

You have received this Notice because you have been identified as a member of the Class, which is defined as:

All individuals who are or previously were employed by Defendant who were classified as non-exempt employees, excluding bargaining unit nurses, at any time during the Class Period.

The “Class Period” is February 9, 2017 through April 23, 2023.

2. What is this class action lawsuit about?

On February 9, 2021, Chris Farley commenced filed a Complaint against Defendant in the Superior Court of the State of California, County of San Diego, Case No. 37-2021-00006007-CU-OE-CTL (“Farley Action”). The Farley Action asserted class claims for unfair competition, failure to pay minimum wages, failure to pay overtime wages, failure to provide required meal periods and unpaid premiums, failure to provide required rest periods and unpaid premiums, failure to reimburse employees for required expenses, failure to provide accurate itemized wage statements, and failure to pay wages when due. On July 26, 2021, Chris Farley filed a First Amended Complaint in the Farley Action adding a cause of action against Defendant for violation of the Private Attorney General Act, Cal. Labor Code §§ 2698, et seq. (“PAGA”).

On November 5, 2021, plaintiff Irene Imson filed a complaint against Defendant in the Superior Court of the State of California, County of San Diego, Case No. 37-2021-00047190-CU-OE-CTL (“Imson Action”). The Imson Action asserted the same class claims as the Farley Action. These two lawsuits are referred to in this Class Notice as the “Action.”

On March 14, 2023, the Parties filed a stipulation to consolidate the Farley Action and the Imson Action and to add Plaintiffs Shelby Ward and Darlene Griffith. On April 12, 2023, Plaintiffs filed the Second Amended Class Action Complaint in the Action, which is referred to as the “Operative Complaint”. The Operative Complaint asserts the following class claims against the Defendant: unfair competition, failure to pay minimum wages, failure to pay overtime wages, failure to provide required meal periods and unpaid premiums, failure to provide required rest periods and unpaid premiums, failure to reimburse employees for required expenses, failure to provide accurate itemized wage statements, failure to pay wages when due, failure to maintain required records, and a representative claim for violation of PAGA.

Defendant denies that it has done anything wrong and disputes all the claims in the Action. For example, Defendant contends that Plaintiffs and the Class Members were, at all times, properly compensated for wages under California law; that Plaintiffs and the Class Members were provided with meal and rest periods in compliance with California law; that Defendant did not fail to pay to Plaintiffs or any Class Members any wages allegedly due during employment and at the time of their termination; that Defendant complied with California wage statement and record requirements; that Defendant did not violate California Business and Professions Code section 17200 et seq.; that Defendant are not liable for any of the penalties sought or that could be sought in the Action; and that this Action cannot be maintained as a class or representative action.

The Court granted preliminary approval of the Settlement on <<INSERT PRELIMINARY APPROVAL DATE>>. At that time, the Court also preliminarily approved the Plaintiffs to serve as the Class Representatives, and the law firms of Blumenthal Nordrehaug Bhowmik De Blouw LLP and Matern Law Group, PC to serve as Class Counsel.

The Court has not ruled on the merits of Plaintiffs' claims. However, to avoid additional expense, inconvenience, and interference with the business operations of Defendant, the Parties concluded that it is in their best interests and the interests of the Class to settle the Action now on the terms summarized in this Notice. The Settlement was reached after mediation and arm's-length negotiations between the Parties. The Plaintiffs and Class Counsel think the settlement is in the best interest of all Class Members.

Accordingly, the Settlement constitutes a compromise of disputed claims and should not be construed as an admission of liability on the part of Defendant, who expressly denies all liability.

3. What are the terms of the Settlement?

Gross Settlement Amount. Defendant has agreed to pay an "all in" amount of Four Million Sixty Thousand Dollars ($4,060,000) (the "Gross Settlement Amount") to fund the settlement of the Action. The Gross Settlement Amount includes all payments of Individual Class Payments to Participating Class Members, the Administration Expenses Payment, the Class Representative Service Payments, Class Counsel Fees Payment, Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment, and the PAGA Penalties for civil penalties under PAGA. Any employer-side payroll taxes on the portion of the Individual Class Payments allocated to wages shall be separately paid by Defendant. Within thirty (30) days of the Effective Date, Defendant will fund the Gross Settlement Amount by depositing the money with the Administrator. The "Effective Date" means 61 days after the Court enters Judgment, unless there are appeals in which case the Effective Date is when the Judgment is no longer subject to appeal. Fourteen (14) days after the Settlement is funded, the Administrator will mail checks for the Individual Class Payments to Participating Class Members.

Court Approved Deductions from Gross Settlement Amount. The proposed payments, subject to Court approval, will be deducted from the Gross Settlement Amount before payments of Individual Class Payments are made to Class Members who do not request exclusion ("Participating Class Members"). At the Final Approval Hearing, Plaintiff and/or Class Counsel will ask the Court to approve the following deductions from the Gross Settlement, the amounts of which will be decided by the Court at the Final Approval Hearing:

- Administration Expenses Payment. Payment to the Administrator, estimated not to exceed $60,000, for expenses, including expenses of notifying the Class Members of the Settlement, processing Request for Exclusions, and distributing settlement checks and tax forms.
- Attorneys' Fees and Costs. Payment to Class Counsel of reasonable attorneys' fees not to exceed one-third (1/3) of the Gross Settlement Amount, which presently equals $1,353,333, and an additional amount to reimburse actual litigation costs incurred by the Plaintiffs not to exceed $48,000. Class Counsel has been prosecuting the Action on behalf of Plaintiffs and the Class on a contingency fee basis (that is, without being paid any money to date) and has been paying all litigation costs and expenses. The Class

Counsel Fees Payment shall be made as follows: 85% to Blumenthal Nordrehaug Bhowmik De Blouw LLP And 15% to Matern Law Group, PC. The amounts stated are what Class Counsel will be requesting and the final amounts to be paid will be decided at the Final Approval Hearing.

- Class Representative Service Payments. Class Representative Service Payments in an amount not more than $10,000 each to the four (4) named Plaintiffs as service awards, for a combined total of $40,000, or such lesser amount as may be approved by the Court, to compensate them for services on behalf of the Class in initiating and prosecuting the Action, and for the risks they undertook. The amounts stated are what Plaintiffs will be requesting and the final amounts to be paid will be decided at the Final Approval Hearing.
- PAGA Penalties. A payment of $125,000 relating to Plaintiff's claim under PAGA, 75% ($93,750) of which will be paid to the State of California's Labor and Workforce Development Agency ("LWDA"). The remaining 25% ($31,250) will be distributed to the Aggrieved Employees. The Administrator will calculate each Individual PAGA Payment by (a) dividing the amount of the Aggrieved Employees' 25% share of PAGA Penalties ($31,250) by the total number of PAGA Period Pay Periods worked by all Aggrieved Employees during the PAGA Period and (b) multiplying the result by each Aggrieved Employee's PAGA Period Pay Periods. "PAGA Pay Period" means any pay period during which an Aggrieved Employee worked for Defendant for at least one day during the PAGA Period and for which a wage statement was actually issued. The PAGA Period is January 20, 2020 through April 23, 2023.

Participating Class Members have the right to object to any of these deductions. The Court will consider all objections.

Calculation of Payments to Class Members. After all of the payments of the court-approved Attorneys' Fees and Costs, the Class Representative Service Payments, the PAGA Penalties, and the Administration Expenses Payment are deducted from the Gross Settlement Amount, the remaining portion, the "Net Settlement Amount", shall be distributed as Individual Class Payments to the Participating Class Members. The Net Settlement Amount is estimated to be at least $2,433,667. The Administrator will pay an Individual Class Payment from the Net Settlement Amount to each Participating Class Member. The Individual Class Payment for each Participating Class Member calculated by (a) dividing the Net Settlement Amount by the total number of Pay Periods worked by all Participating Class Members during the Class Period and (b) multiplying the result by each Participating Class Member's Pay Periods. The number of Pay Periods worked will be based on Defendant's records, however, Class Members may challenge the number of Pay Periods worked as explained below.

If the Settlement is approved by the Court and you do not exclude yourself, you will automatically be mailed a check for your Individual Class Payment to the same address as this Class Notice. You do not have to do anything to receive a payment. If your address has changed, you must contact the Administrator to inform them of your correct address to ensure you receive your payment.

Tax Matters. Twenty Percent (20%) of each Participating Class Member's Individual Class Payment is in settlement of wage claims (the "Wage Portion"). Accordingly, the Wage Portion is subject to wage withholdings, and shall be reported on IRS Form W-2. Eighty Percent (80%) of each Participating Class Member's Individual Class Payment is in settlement of claims for alleged claims for non-wages, expense reimbursement, interest and penalties due to employees (collectively the "Non-Wage Portion"). The Non-Wage Portion shall not be subject to wage withholdings, and shall be reported on IRS Form 1099. The employee portion of all applicable income and payroll taxes will be the responsibility of the Participating Class Members. Neither Class Counsel nor Defendant's Counsel intend anything contained in this Class Notice to constitute advice regarding taxes or taxability. The tax issues for each Participating Class Member are unique to him/her, and each Participating Class Member may wish to consult a tax advisor concerning the tax consequences of the payments received under the Settlement.

Conditions of Settlement. This Settlement and your receipt of the Individual Class Payment are conditioned upon the Court entering an order granting final approval of the Settlement and entering judgment.

The Proposed Settlement Will be Void if the Court Denies Final Approval. It is possible the Court will decline to grant Final Approval of the Settlement or decline to enter a Judgment. It is also possible the Court will enter a Judgment that is reversed on appeal. Plaintiffs and Defendant have agreed that, in either case, the Settlement will be void: Defendant will not pay any money and Class Members will not release any claims against Defendant.

Need to Promptly Cash Payment Checks. The front of every check issued will show the date when the check expires (the void date). If you don't cash it by the void date, your check will be automatically cancelled, and the monies will be transmitted to the San Diego County Bar Foundation, a Court-approved nonprofit organization or foundation consistent with Code of Civil Procedure Section 384(b) ("Cy Pres Recipient").

4. What Do I Release Under the Settlement?

Released Class Claims. As of the Effective Date and upon full funding of the Gross Settlement Amount by Defendant, Defendant and the Released Parties shall receive a release from the Participating Class Members of the "Released Class Claims", which are all of the following claims for violations of the Labor Code that were actually alleged or that could have been alleged based upon the facts alleged in the Operative Complaint in the Actions on behalf of the Participating Class Members for the entire Class Period, as well as any and all wage and hour claims and that were asserted or could have been asserted based upon the facts alleged in the Operative Complaint in the Actions, arising at any time during the Class Period, including: (a) failure to pay wages including overtime and minimum wage for all hours worked; (b) failure to provide meal periods; (c) failure to provide rest periods; (d) failure to timely pay wages at termination/end of employment and during employment; (e) failure to provide accurate wage statements; (f) failure to indemnify for necessary business expenses; (g) failure to maintain records as required by Labor Code sections 226, 1174 and Wage Order 5; (h) unfair business practices (Business and Professions Code section 17200 et seq.); (i) claims for violation of the provisions of Wage Order 5 regarding alleged unpaid wages (both minimum wage and overtime), failure to provide meal periods, failure to authorize and permit rest breaks, failure to provide seating; (j) claims for the attorney's fees and costs incurred in the prosecution of the Actions on behalf of the Participating Class Members; (k) any other claims, remedies, penalties, or interest that could have been plead based on the facts alleged in the Operative Complaint filed in the Actions; (l) all claims that Plaintiffs, the Class Members may have against the Released Parties relating to: (i) the payment, taxation, and allocation of attorney's fees and costs to Plaintiffs' Counsel pursuant to this Settlement Agreement; and (ii) the payment, taxation, and allocation of Class Representative Service Payments pursuant to the Agreement. Except as expressly set forth in this Agreement, Participating Class Members do not release any other claims, including claims for vested benefits, wrongful termination, violation of the Fair Employment and Housing Act, unemployment insurance, disability, social security, workers' compensation, or claims based on facts occurring outside the Class Period.

This means that, if you do not timely and formally exclude yourself from the settlement, you cannot sue, continue to sue, or be part of any other lawsuit against Defendant and any other Released Party about the Released Class Claims resolved by this Settlement. It also means that all of the Court's orders in the Action will apply to you and legally bind you.

Released PAGA Claims. As of the Effective Date and upon full funding of the Gross Settlement Amount by Defendant, Defendant and the Released Parties shall receive a release from the State of California and the Aggrieved Employees of the "Released PAGA Claims", which are all claims for civil penalties under PAGA, that were actually alleged or that could have been alleged in the Actions by Plaintiffs, on behalf of the State of California, and the Aggrieved Employees for the entire PAGA Period, as well as any and all claims for PAGA Penalties that were asserted or could have been asserted based on the factual or legal allegations contained in the PAGA Notice and Operative Complaint in the Actions, arising at any time during the PAGA Period, including: (a) penalties under PAGA for alleged violations of Labor Code sections 201-203, 204 et. seq., 210, 226, 226.7, 233, 246, 351, 510, 512, 558, 1174, 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 1198.5, 2699 et. seq., 2802, (b) penalties under PAGA for violation of the provisions of Wage Order 5 regarding alleged unpaid wages (both minimum wage and overtime), failure to provide meal periods, failure to authorize and permit rest breaks, failure to provide seating; (c) claims for the attorney's fees and costs incurred in the prosecution of this Actions on behalf of the Aggrieved Employees. The Released PAGA Claims do not include PAGA claims outside of the PAGA Period.

Released Parties. The Released Parties collectively mean: Defendant as well as its affiliated organizations.

PRELIMINARY APPROVAL ORDER

1 This matter, having come before the Honorable Ronald F. Frazier of the Superior Court of 2 the State of California, in and for the County San Diego, on _____[DATE], for the motion
3 by Plaintiffs the Estate of Chris Farley, Shelby Ward, Darlene Griffith, and Irene Imson
4 (“Plaintiffs”) for preliminary approval of the class settlement with Defendant Sharp Memorial
5 Hospital (“Defendant”). The Court, having considered the briefs, argument of counsel and all
6 matters presented to the Court and good cause appearing, hereby GRANTS Plaintiffs’ Motion for 7 Preliminary Approval of Class Action Settlement.

9 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

10 1. The Court preliminarily approves the Class Action and PAGA Settlement
11 Agreement (“Agreement”) attached as Exhibit ____ to the Declaration of Kyle Nordrehaug in 12 Support of Plaintiffs’ Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action Settlement. This is based 13 on the Court’s determination that the Settlement set forth in the Agreement is within the range of 14 possible final approval, pursuant to the provisions of Section 382 of the California Code of Civil 15 Procedure and California Rules of Court, rule 3.769.

16 2. This Order incorporates by reference the definitions in the Agreement, and all 17 terms defined therein shall have the same meaning in this Order as set forth in the Agreement.

18 3. The Gross Settlement Amount is Four Million Sixty Thousand Dollars
19 ($4,060,000). It appears to the Court on a preliminary basis that the settlement amount and terms
20 are fair, adequate and reasonable as to all potential Class Members when balanced against the 21 probable outcome of further litigation and the significant risks relating to certification, liability and 22 damages issues. It further appears that investigation and research have been conducted such that 23 counsel for the Parties are able to reasonably evaluate their respective positions. It further appears
24 to the Court that settlement at this time will avoid substantial additional costs by all Parties, as 25 well as avoid the delay and risks that would be presented by the further prosecution of the Action.
26 It further appears that the Settlement has been reached as the result of serious and non-collusive,
27 arms-length negotiations. The Court therefore preliminarily finds that the Settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable when balanced against the probable outcome of further litigation and the significant risks relating to certification, liability, and damages issues.

4. The Agreement specifies for an attorneys' fees award not to exceed one-third of the Gross Settlement Amount, an award of litigation expenses incurred, not to exceed $48,000, and proposed Class Representative Service Payments to each of the Plaintiffs in an amount not to exceed $10,000 each. The Court will not approve the amount of attorneys' fees and costs, nor the amount of any service award, until the Final Approval Hearing.

5. The Court recognizes that Plaintiffs and Defendant stipulate and agree to certification of a class for settlement purposes only. This stipulation will not be deemed admissible in this or any other proceeding should this Settlement not become final. For settlement purposes only, the Court conditionally certifies the following Class: "all individuals who are or previously were employed by Defendant who were classified as non-exempt employees, excluding bargaining unit nurses, at any time during the Class Period." The Class Period is February 9, 2017 through April 23, 2023.

6. The Court concludes that, for settlement purposes only, the Class meets the requirements for certification under section 382 of the California Code of Civil Procedure in that: (a) the Class is ascertainable and so numerous that joinder of all members of the Class is impracticable; (b) common questions of law and fact predominate, and there is a well-defined community of interest amongst the members of the Class with respect to the subject matter of the litigation; (c) the claims of the Plaintiffs are typical of the claims of the members of the Class; (d) the Plaintiffs can fairly and adequately protect the interests of the members of the Class; (e) a class action is superior to other available methods for the efficient resolution of this controversy; and (f) counsel for the Class is qualified to act as counsel for the Class and the Plaintiffs are adequate representatives of the Class.

7. The Court provisionally appoints Plaintiffs as the representatives of the Class. The Court provisionally appoints Norman B. Blumenthal, Kyle R. Nordrehaug, and Aparajit Bhowmik of Blumenthal Nordrehaug Bhowmik De Blouw LLP and Matthew J. Matern and Launa Adolph

1 of Matern Law Group, PC as Class Counsel for the Class.

2 8. The Court hereby approves, as to form and content, the Court Approved Notice of 3 Proposed Settlement of Class Action and Hearing Date for Final Court Approval (“Class Notice”)
4 attached to the Agreement as Exhibit A. The Court finds that the Class Notice appears to fully and 5 accurately inform the Class of all material elements of the proposed Settlement, of the Class
6 Members’ right to be excluded from the Class by submitting a written opt-out request, and of each
7 Class Member’s right and opportunity to object to the Settlement. The Court further finds that the 8 distribution of the Class Notice substantially in the manner and form set forth in the Agreement
9 and this Order meets the requirements of due process, is the best notice practicable under the 10 circumstances, and shall constitute due and sufficient notice to all persons entitled thereto. The 11 Court orders the mailing of the Class Notice by first class mail, pursuant to the terms set forth in 12 the Agreement.

13 9. The Court hereby appoints ILYM Group as Administrator. No later than fifteen 14 (15) calendar days after preliminary approval of the Settlement by the Court, Defendant shall 15 provide to the Administrator an electronic spreadsheet with the Class Data. The Administrator
16 will perform address updates and verifications as necessary prior to the mailing of the Class
17 Notice. Using best efforts to mail it as soon as possible, and in no event later than 14 days after 18 receiving the Class Data, the Administrator will mail the Class Notice Packets to all Class
19 Members via first-class U.S. Mail. Before mailing Class Notices, the Administrator shall update
20 Class Member addresses using the National Change of Address database.

21 10. The Court hereby preliminarily approves the proposed procedure for exclusion
22 from the Settlement. Any Class Member may individually choose to opt out of and be excluded
23 from the Class as provided in the Class Notice by following the instructions for requesting 24 exclusion from the Class that are set forth in the Class Notice. All Requests for Exclusion must be 25 postmarked by no later than the Response Deadline, which is forty-five (45) calendar days after 26 the date of the mailing of the Class Notice, and received by the Administrator. If the Class Notice
27 Packet is re-mailed, the Response Deadline will be extended an additional 14 days. Any such

1 person who chooses to opt out of and be excluded from the Class will not be entitled to any
2 recovery under the Settlement and will not be bound by the class portion of the Settlement or have
3 any right to object, appeal or comment thereon. Class Members who have not requested exclusion
4 shall be bound by all determinations of the Court, the Agreement and the Judgment. A Request
5 for Exclusion may only opt out that particular individual, and any attempt to effect an opt out of a
6 group, class, or subclass of individuals is not permitted and will be deemed invalid. Subject to the 7 Court's final approval of the Settlement, the Aggrieved Employees will be paid their allocation of 8 the PAGA Penalties and will remain bound by the release of the Released PAGA Claims in the 9 Agreement regardless of their Request for Exclusion as there is no right for Aggrieved Employees
10 to opt of the settlement of the PAGA claims.

11 11. Any Class Member who has not opted out ("Participating Class Member") may 12 appear at the final approval hearing and may object or express the Member's views regarding the 13 Settlement, and may present evidence and file briefs or other papers that may be proper and 14 relevant to the issues to be heard and determined by the Court as provided in the Notice.
15 Participating Class Members will have until the Response Deadline, which is forty-five (45)
16 calendar days from the date of the mailing of the Class Notices, to submit their written objections
17 to the Administrator in accordance with the instructions in the Class Notice. If the Class Notice
18 Packet is re-mailed, the Response Deadline for written objections will be extended an additional 19 14 days. Alternatively, Participating Class Members may appear at the Final Approval Hearing to 20 make an oral objection.

21 12. A Final Approval Hearing shall be held before this Court on _____ 22 _____ at _____ in Department 65 at the San Diego County Superior Court to determine 23 all necessary matters concerning the Settlement, including: whether the proposed settlement of the 24 Action on the terms and conditions provided for in the Agreement is fair, adequate and reasonable
25 and should be finally approved by the Court; whether the Final Approval Order and Judgment
26 should be entered herein; whether the plan of allocation contained in the Agreement should be 27 approved as fair, adequate and reasonable to the Class Members; and to finally approve attorneys'

1 fees and costs, the service awards, and the expenses of the Administrator. All papers in support of 2 the motion for final approval and the motion for attorneys' fees, costs and service awards, both
3 motions to be heard at the Final Approval Hearing, shall be filed with the Court and served on all 4 counsel no later than sixteen (16) court days before the hearing.

5 13. Neither the Settlement nor any exhibit, document, or instrument delivered
6 thereunder shall be construed as a concession or admission by Defendant in any way that the 7 claims asserted have any merit or that this Action was properly brought as a class or representative
8 action, and shall not be used as evidence of, or used against Defendant as, an admission or 9 indication in any way, including with respect to any claim of any liability, wrongdoing, fault or 10 omission by Defendant or with respect to the truth of any allegation asserted by any person.
11 Whether or not the Settlement is finally approved, neither the Settlement, nor any exhibit,
12 document, statement, proceeding or conduct related to the Settlement, nor any reports or accounts
13 thereof, shall in any event be construed as, offered or admitted in evidence as, received as or 14 deemed to be evidence for any purpose adverse to the Defendant, including, but not limited to,
15 evidence of a presumption, concession, indication or admission by Defendant of any liability,
16 fault, wrongdoing, omission, concession or damage.

17 14. In the event the Settlement does not become effective in accordance with the terms
18 of the Agreement, or the Settlement is not finally approved, or is terminated, canceled or fails to 19 become effective for any reason, this Order shall be rendered null and void and shall be vacated,
20 and the Parties shall revert to their respective positions as of before entering into the Agreement,
21 and expressly reserve their respective rights regarding the prosecution and defense of this Action,
22 including all available defenses and affirmative defenses, and arguments that any claim in the 23 Action could not be certified as a class action and/or managed as a representative action. In such 24 an event, the Court's orders regarding the Settlement, including this Order, shall not be used or 25 referred to in litigation for any purpose.

26 15. The Court reserves the right to adjourn or continue the date of the final approval
27 hearing and all dates provided for in the Agreement without further notice to Class Members and 28

1 retains jurisdiction to consider all further applications arising out of or connected with the
2 proposed Settlement.

3 16. The Action is stayed and all trial and related pre-trial dates are vacated, subject to 4 further orders of the Court at the Final Approval Hearing.

5 IT IS SO ORDERED.

[PROPOSED] FINAL APPROVAL ORDER AND JUDGMENT

Hearing Date:
Hearing Time:

Judge: Hon. Ronald F. Frazier
Dept.: 71

Date Action Filed: February 9, 2021
Trial Date: Not set

1 The motions of Plaintiffs the Estate of Chris Farley, Shelby Ward, Darlene Griffith, and 2 Irene Imson (“Plaintiffs”) for an order finally approving the Class Action and PAGA Settlement
3 Agreement (“Agreement”) with Defendant Sharp Memorial Hospital (“Defendant”) and for an 4 award of attorneys’ fees and costs, service payment, and the fees of the Administrator duly came 5 on for hearing on _____ before the Honorable Ronald F. Frazier.

7 I.

8 FINDINGS

9 Based on the oral and written argument and evidence presented in connection with the 10 motion, the Court makes the following findings:

- 11 1. All terms used herein shall have the same meaning as defined in the Agreement.
- 12 2. This Court has jurisdiction over the subject matter of this litigation pending before
13 the California Superior Court for the County of San Diego, and over all Parties to this litigation, 14 including the Class.
- 15 3. Based on a review of the papers submitted by Plaintiffs and a review of the 16 applicable law, the Court finds that the Gross Settlement Amount of Four Million Sixty Thousand 17 Dollars ($4,060,000) and the terms set forth in the Agreement are fair, reasonable, and adequate.
- 18 4. The Court further finds that the Settlement was the result of arm’s length 19 negotiations conducted after Class Counsel had adequately investigated the claims and became 20 familiar with the strengths and weaknesses of those claims. In particular, the amount of the 21 Settlement, the significant risks relating to certification, liability, and damages issues, and the 22 assistance of an experienced mediator in the settlement process, among other factors, support the 23 Court’s conclusion that the Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate.

24 Preliminary Approval of the Settlement

- 25 5. On _____, the Court granted preliminary approval of the Settlement. At 26 this same time, the Court approved conditional certification of the Class for settlement purposes 27 only.

1 Notice to the Class

2 6. In compliance with the Preliminary Approval Order, the Class Notice was mailed
3 by first class mail to members of the Class at their last known addresses on or about
4 _____. Mailing of the Class Notice to their last known addresses was the best notice
5 option under the circumstances and was reasonably calculated to communicate actual notice of the 6 litigation and the proposed settlement to the Class. The Class Notice given to the Class Members
7 fully and accurately informed the Class Members of all material elements of the proposed 8 Settlement and of their opportunity to object to or comment thereon or to seek exclusion from the 9 Settlement; constituted valid, due, and sufficient notice to all Class Members; and complied fully 10 with the laws of the State of California, the United States Constitution, due process and other 11 applicable law. The Class Notice fairly and adequately described the Settlement and provided 12 Class Members adequate instructions and a variety of means to obtain additional information.

13 7. The Response Deadline for opting out of the Class or submitting written objections
14 to the Settlement was _____, which was extend by 14 days for re-mailed Class Notices.
15 There was an adequate interval between mailing of the Class Notice and the response deadline to 16 permit Class Members to choose what to do and act on their decision. A full opportunity has been 17 afforded to the Participating Class Members to participate in this hearing, and all Participating 18 Class Members and other persons wishing to be heard have been heard. Class Members also have 19 had a full and fair opportunity to exclude themselves from the proposed Settlement and Class.
20 Accordingly, the Court determines that all Class Members who did not timely and properly submit 21 a request for exclusion are bound by the Settlement and this Final Approval Order and Judgment.

22 Fairness Of Settlement

23 8. The Agreement is entitled to a presumption of fairness. Dunk v. Ford Motor Co.
24 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1801 (1996).

25 a. The settlement was reached through arm's-length bargaining between the 26 parties during an all-day mediation before Tripper Ortman, a respected and experienced mediator
27
28

1 of wage and hour class actions. There has been no collusion between the parties in reaching the
2 proposed settlement.

3 b. Plaintiffs' investigation and discovery have been sufficient to allow the 4 Court and counsel to act intelligently.

5 c. Counsel for both parties are experienced in similar employment class action
6 litigation. All counsel recommended approval of the Agreement.

7 d. The percentage of objectors and requests for exclusion is small. ____
8 objections were received. _____ requests for exclusion were received.

9 e. The participation rate was high. _____ Participating Class Members will 10 be mailed a settlement payment, representing ____% of the overall Class.

11 9. The consideration to be given to the Class Members under the terms of the 12 Agreement is fair, reasonable and adequate considering the strengths and weaknesses of the claims
13 asserted in this action and is fair, reasonable and adequate compensation for the release of Class
14 Members' claims, given the uncertainties and significant risks of the litigation and the delays
15 which would ensue from continued prosecution of the action.

16 10. The Agreement is approved as fair, adequate and reasonable and in the best 17 interests of the Class Members.

18 Attorneys' Fees and Costs

19 11. An award of $_____ for attorneys' fees, representing one-third of the 20 Gross Settlement Amount, and $_____ for litigation costs and expenses, is reasonable, 21 in light of the contingent nature of Class Counsel's fee, the hours worked by Class Counsel, and 22 the results achieved by Class Counsel. The requested award has been supported by Class
23 Counsel's lodestar and billing statement.

24 Class Representative Service Payments

25 12. The Agreement provides for a Class Representative Service Payments of not more
26 than $10,000 to each of the Plaintiff, subject to the Court's approval. The Court finds that Class
27 Representative Service Payments in the amount of $_____ to the Plaintiffs are reasonable in 28

1 light of the risks and burdens undertaken by the Plaintiffs in the litigation, for their time and effort
2 in bringing and prosecuting this matter on behalf of the Class, and for their execution of a general
3 release.

4 Administration Expenses Payment

5 13. The Administrator shall calculate and administer the payment to be made to the 6 Participating Class Members in the manner set forth in the Agreement, transmit payment for 7 attorneys' fees and costs to Class Counsel, transmit the Class Representative Service Payments to 8 the Plaintiffs, distribute the PAGA Penalties, issue any required tax reporting forms, calculate 9 withholdings and perform the other remaining duties set forth in the Agreement. The 10 Administrator has documented $_____ in fees and expenses, and this amount is reasonable in 11 light of the work performed by the Administrator.

12 PAGA Penalties

13 14. The Agreement provides for PAGA Penalties out of the Gross Settlement Amount
14 of $125,000, which shall be allocated with 75% ($93,750) allocated to the LWDA PAGA Payment
15 and 25% ($31,250) allocated to the Individual PAGA Payments to be distributed to the Aggrieved
16 Employees. The Administrator will calculate each Individual PAGA Payment by (a) dividing the 17 amount of the Aggrieved Employees' 25% share of PAGA Penalties ($31,250) by the total
18 number of PAGA Period Pay Periods worked by all Aggrieved Employees during the PAGA
19 Period and (b) multiplying the result by each Aggrieved Employee's PAGA Period Pay Periods.
20 The Aggrieved Employees are all current and former non-exempt employees of Defendant,
21 excluding bargaining unit nurses, at any time during the PAGA Period, which is January 20, 2020
22 through April 23, 2023. The Court finds the PAGA Penalties to be reasonable. All Aggrieved
23 Employees will be sent their share of the PAGA Penalties and will be subject to the release of the 24 Released PAGA Claims as set forth below, whether or not they opt out of the Settlement, because 25 the Aggrieved Employees do not have the right to opt out of the PAGA portion of the Settlement.

1 II.
2 ORDERS

3 Based on the foregoing findings, and good cause appearing, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

4 1. The certification of the Class for the purposes of settlement is confirmed. The 5 Class is defined as follows:

6 All individuals who are or previously were employed by Defendant who were
7 classified as non-exempt employees, excluding bargaining unit nurses, at any time
8 during the Class Period.

9 The "Class Period" is February 9, 2017 through April 23, 2023.

10 2. All persons who meet the foregoing definition are members of the Class, except for 11 those individuals who filed a valid request for exclusion ("opt out") from the Class. [INSERT
12 REFERENCE TO IDENTIFY ANY OPT OUTS]. Any opt-out who is also an Aggrieved
13 Employee is still bound by the release of the Released PAGA Claims.

14 3. The Agreement is hereby finally approved as fair, reasonable, adequate, and in the 15 best interest of the Class.

16 4. Class Counsel are awarded attorneys' fees in the amount of $_____ and 17 costs in the amount of $_____. Class Counsel shall not seek or obtain any other 18 compensation or reimbursement from Defendant, Plaintiffs or members of the Class.

19 5. The payment of the Class Representative Service Payments in the amount of $ 20 _____ to each of the Plaintiffs is approved.

21 6. The payment of $_____ to the Administrator for their fees and expenses
22 is approved.

23 7. The PAGA Penalties in the amount of $125,000 are approved and shall be allocated
24 in accordance with the Agreement.

25 8. The Agreement and this Settlement are not an admission by Defendant, nor is this 26 Final Approval Order and Judgment a finding, of the validity of any claims in the Action or of any 27 wrongdoing by Defendant or that this Action is appropriate for class treatment (other than for 28

1 settlement purposes). Neither this Final Approval Order and Judgment, the Agreement, nor any
2 document referred to herein, nor any action taken to carry out the Agreement is, may be construed
3 as, or may be used as an admission by or against Defendant of any fault, wrongdoing or liability
4 whatsoever. The entering into or carrying out of the Agreement, and any negotiations or 5 proceedings related thereto, shall not in any event be construed as, or deemed to be evidence of, an
6 admission or concession with regard to the denials or defenses by Defendant. Notwithstanding
7 these restrictions, Defendant may file in the Action or in any other proceeding this Final Approval
8 Order and Judgment, the Agreement, or any other papers and records on file in the Action as 9 evidence of the Settlement to support a defense of res judicata, collateral estoppel, release, or other
10 theory of claim or issue preclusion or similar defense as to the Released Class Claims and/or the 11 Released PAGA Claims.

12 9. Notice of entry of this Final Approval Order and Judgment shall be given to all
13 Parties by Class Counsel on behalf of Plaintiffs and all Class Members. The Final Approval Order
14 and Judgment shall be posted on Class Counsel's website as set forth in the Class Notice to the 15 Class. It shall not be necessary to send notice of entry of this Final Approval Order and Judgment
16 to individual Class Members.

17 10. If the Agreement does not become final and effective in accordance with the terms
18 of the Agreement, then this Final Approval Order and Judgment, and all orders entered in 19 connection herewith, shall be rendered null and void and shall be vacated, and the Parties shall 20 revert to their respective positions as of before entering into the Agreement, and expressly reserve
21 their respective rights regarding the prosecution and defense of this Action, including all available
22 defenses and affirmative defenses, and arguments that any claim in the Action could not be 23 certified as a class action and/or managed as a representative action.

25 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDICATED AND DECREED THAT:

26 1. Except as set forth in the Agreement and this Final Approval Order and Judgment,
27 Plaintiff, and all members of the Class, shall take nothing in the Action.

1 2. Pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure section 664.6, the Court shall retain 2 jurisdiction to construe, interpret, implement and enforce the Agreement, to hear and resolve any
3 contested challenge to a claim for settlement benefits, and to supervise and adjudicate any dispute
4 arising from or in connection with the distribution of settlement benefits.

5 3. The Parties are authorized to agree to and to adopt such amendments, modifications
6 and expansions of the Agreement and all exhibits attached thereto which are consistent with this 7 Final Approval Order and Judgment and as approved by the Court.

8 4. Each party shall bear its own attorneys' fees and costs, except as otherwise
9 provided in the Agreement and in this Final Approval Order and Judgment.

REPORTED CASES

Sakkab v. Luxottica Retail N. Am., Inc., 803 F.3d 425 (9th Cir. 2015) (The panel reversed the district court's order granting Luxottica Retail North America, Inc.'s motion to compel arbitration of claims and dismissing plaintiff's first amended complaint, in a putative class action raising class employment-related claims and a non-class representative claim for civil penalties under the Private Attorney General Act.);

Securitas Security Services USA, Inc. v. Superior Court, 234 Cal. App. 4th 1109 (Cal. Feb. 27, 2015) (Court of Appeal concluded the trial court correctly ruled that Iskanian rendered the PAGA waiver within the parties' dispute resolution agreement unenforceable. However, the Court of Appeal then ruled the trial court erred by failing to invalidate the non-severable class action waiver from the agreement and remanded the entire complaint, including class action and PAGA claims, be litigated in the Superior Court);

Sussex v. United States Dist. Court for the Dist. of Nev., 781 F.3d 1065 (9th Cir. 2015) (The panel determined that the district court clearly erred in holding that its decision to intervene mid-arbitration was justified under Aerojet-General. Specifically, the panel held that the district court erred in predicting that an award issued by the arbitrator would likely be vacated because of his "evident partiality" under 9 U.S.C. § 10(a)(2).);

Provost v. YourMechanic, Inc., 2020 Cal. App. Lexis 955 (Oct. 15, 2020) (Court of Appeals affirmed denial of arbitration of PAGA claim, and held in a case of first impression, that there was no additional standing rules for PAGA claim brought by independent contractor);

Re: Notice Of Violations Of California Labor Code Sections §§ 201, 202, 203, 204 et seq., 210, 226(a), 226.7, 233, 246 351, 510, 512, 558(a)(1)(2), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2802, California Code of Regulations, Title 8, Section 11040, Subdivision 5(A)-(B), California Code of Regulations, Title 8, Section 1 1070(14) (Failure to Provide Seating), Violation of Applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Order(s), and Pursuant To California Labor Code Section 2699.5.

Dear Sir/Madam:

“Aggrieved Employees” refers to all individuals who are or previously were employed by Defendant Sharp Memorial Hospital in California and classified as non-exempt employees during the time period of January 20, 2020 until a date as determined by the Court. Our offices represent Plaintiff Chris Farley (“Plaintiff”), and other Aggrieved Employees in a lawsuit against Defendant Sharp Memorial Hospital (“Defendant”). Plaintiff was employed by Defendant in California as a Pharmacy Technician from August of 2015 to November of 2020 and was classified as a non-exempt employee entitled to the legally required meal and rest breaks and payment for all time worked under Defendant’s control. Defendant, however, unlawfully failed to record and pay Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees for, including but not limited to, all of their time worked, including minimum and overtime wages, for all of their missed meal and rest breaks, and for all of their time spent working off the clock. Moreover, when Defendant required Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees to report for work, but “furnished less than half said employee’s usual or scheduled day’s work,” Defendant violated Cal. Code Regs., tit. 8 § 11040, subd. 5(A) by failing to pay Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees for at least two (2) hours’ worth of work at their regular rate of pay. In addition, when Defendant required Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees to respond to and engage in additional work, this resulted in a second reporting for work in a single workday, and Defendant failed to pay these employees reporting time pay as required by Cal. Code Regs., tit. 8, § 11040, subd. 5(B). Further, Defendant failed to advise Plaintiff and the other Aggrieved Employees of their right to take separately and hourly paid duty-free ten (10) minute rest periods. See Vaquero v. Stoneledge Furniture, LLC, 9 Cal. App. 5th 98, 110 (2017). Additionally, pursuant to Labor Code § 204 et seq., Defendant failed to timely provide Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees with their wages. Plaintiff further contends that Defendant failed to provide accurate wage statements to him, and other Aggrieved Employees, in violation of California Labor Code section 226(a). Additionally, Plaintiff contends that Defendant failed to comply with Industrial Wage Order 7(A)(3) in that Defendant failed to keep time records showing when Plaintiff began and ended each shift and meal period. Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees perform tasks that reasonably permit sitting, and a seat would not interfere with their performance of any of their tasks that may require them to stand. Defendant fails to provide Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees with suitable seats. Said conduct, in addition to the foregoing, as well as the conduct alleged in the incorporated Complaint, violates Labor Code §§ 201, 202, 203, 204 et seq., 210, 226(a), 226.7, 351, 510, 512, 558(a)(1)(2), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2802, California Code of Regulations, Title 8, Section 11040, Subdivision 5(A)-(B), California Code of Regulations, Title 8, Section 1 1070(14) (Failure to Provide Seating), Violation of the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Order(s), and is therefore actionable under California Labor Code section 2699.3.

A true and correct copy of the Complaint by Plaintiff against Defendant, which (i) identifies the alleged violations, (ii) details the facts and theories which support the alleged violations, (iii) details the specific work performed by Plaintiff, (iii) sets forth the people/entities, dates, classifications, violations, events, and actions which are at issue to the extent known to Plaintiff, and (iv) sets forth the illegal practices used by Defendant, is attached hereto. This information provides notice to the Labor and Workforce Development Agency of the facts and theories supporting the alleged violations for the agency's reference. Plaintiff therefore incorporates the allegations of the attached Complaint into this letter as if fully set forth herein. If the agency needs any further information, please do not hesitate to ask.

This notice is provided to enable Plaintiff to proceed with the Complaint against Defendant as authorized by California Labor Code section 2699, et seq. The filing fee of $75 was paid online to the LWDA. The lawsuit consists of other Aggrieved Employees. As counsel, our intention is to vigorously prosecute the claims as alleged in the Complaint, and to procure civil penalties as provided by the Private Attorney General Statue of 2004 on behalf of Plaintiff and all Aggrieved Employees.

Your earliest response to this notice is appreciated. If you have any questions of concerns, please do not hesitate to contact me at the above number and address.

Respectfully,

/s/ Nicholas J. De Blouw
