MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I. INTRODUCTION

Plaintiffs Nicolas Lucero and Julian Mendoza Padilla (collectively, “Plaintiffs”) seek preliminary approval of a proposed $1,200,000.00 non-reversionary, wage and hour class action settlement with Defendant Nissho of California, Inc. (“Defendant,” and together with Plaintiffs, the “Parties”). The Class Action and PAGA Settlement Agreement (“Settlement” or “Settlement Agreement”) will provide substantial monetary payments to approximately 1,286 class members. And, as set forth more fully below, the proposed Settlement satisfies all the criteria for settlement approval under California law. The Settlement was reached after extensive investigation, discovery, and negotiations. The negotiations were at arms-length and were facilitated by an experienced class action mediators, Steven Kruis and Honorable Amy D. Hogue, Ret., over the course of multiple mediation sessions conducted via Zoom. After extensive negotiations and discussions regarding the strengths and weaknesses of Plaintiff’s claims and Defendant’s defenses, the Parties executed the settlement agreement on March 4, 2025. Accordingly, Plaintiffs request that the Court preliminarily approve the proposed Settlement, certify the proposed settlement class, approve the proposed notice, and set a final approval hearing.

II. SUMMARY OF THE LITIGATION AND SETTLEMENT

A. Plaintiffs’ Claims

This is a wage and hour class and Private Attorneys General Act (“PAGA”) (Cal. Lab. Code §§ 2699, et seq.) representative action. Plaintiffs and the putative class members worked in California as hourly-paid or non-exempt employees for Defendant during the class period. Defendant specializes in the landscaping industry and operates at least five physical locations throughout San Diego and Riverside counties, with operations covering all of Southern California. (Declaration of Benjamin H. Haber in Support of Plaintiffs’ Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action Settlement [“Haber Decl.”], ¶ 2.)

Plaintiffs allege that Defendant’s payroll, timekeeping, and wage and hour practices resulted in Labor Code violations. Plaintiffs allege that Defendant failed to pay for all hours worked. Plaintiffs further allege that Defendant failed to: provide employees with legally

1 compliant meal and rest periods; and Defendant failed to reimburse business expenses. Based 2 on these allegations, Plaintiffs assert related claims for failure to pay wages during employment, 3 failure to pay all final wages at termination, failure to provide accurate wage statements, failure
4 to keep requisite payroll records, unfair business practices, and civil penalties under PAGA.
5 (Haber Decl., ¶ 3.)

6 On January 13, 2021, Plaintiff Lucero filed a putative wage and hour class action
7 complaint against Defendant for: (1) failure to pay minimum and straight time wages; (2) failure 8 to pay overtime wages; (3) failure to provide meal periods; (4) failure to authorize and permit 9 rest periods; (5) failure to timely pay final wages at termination; (6) failure to provide accurate 10 itemized wage statements; (7) failure to indemnify employees for expenditures; and (8) unfair 11 business practices (“Lucero Action”). (Haber Decl., ¶ 4.) Plaintiff Lucero sent a notice to 12 Defendant and the California Labor & Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) alleging 13 similar wage and hour violations pursuant to the PAGA on January 19, 2021. (Id.)

14 On March 30, 2022, Plaintiff Padilla filed a putative wage and hour class action 15 complaint against Defendant for: (1) failure to pay all lawful wages owed; (2) failure to provide 16 compliant meal breaks; (3) failure to authorize and permit rest periods; (4) failure to reimburse 17 expenses; (5) failure to timely pay wages during and at the time of termination of employment;
18 (6) failure to provide accurate, itemized wage statements; and (7) violation of California’s 19 Unfair Competition Law (“Padilla Action”). (Haber Decl., ¶ 5; Declaration of Lance Dacre In 20 Support of Plaintiffs’ Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action Settlement (“Dacre 21 Decl.”) ¶ 2.) On March 30, 2022, Plaintiff Padilla provided notice to the LWDA and Defendant
22 regarding his intention to file a claim under PAGA. On June 21, 2022, Plaintiff Padilla filed a 23 First Amended Complaint adding a claim for civil penalties under PAGA. (Haber Decl., ¶ 5; 24 Dacre Decl., ¶ 3.) On July 13, 2022, the Court consolidated the Lucero Action and the Padilla
25 Action, with the Lucero Action as the lead case. (Haber Decl., ¶ 5.)

26 B. Discovery and Investigation

27 Following the filing of the initial complaint, the Parties engaged in formal and informal 28 discovery before mediating this action. Defendant produced a sample of time and pay records

1 for settlement class members. Defendant also provided documents of its wage and hour policies 2 and practices during the settlement class period, and information regarding the total number of 3 current and former employees in its discovery responses. (Haber Decl., ¶ 6; Dacre Decl., ¶ 4.)

4 After reviewing documents regarding Defendant's wage and hour policies and practices 5 and analyzing Defendant's timekeeping and payroll records, Class Counsel was able to evaluate 6 the probability of class certification, success on the merits, and Defendant's maximum monetary 7 exposure for all claims. (Dacre Decl., ¶ 4; Haber Decl., ¶ 7.) Class Counsel also investigated
8 the applicable law regarding the claims and defenses asserted in the litigation. (Id.) Class 9 Counsel reviewed these records and prepared a damage analysis prior to mediation. (Id.) This 10 extensive investigation and discovery allowed Class Counsel to act intelligently and effectively 11 in negotiating the Settlement.

12 C. Settlement Negotiations

13 On December 19, 2022, and July 12, 2023, the Parties participated in private mediation 14 sessions with experienced employment mediator Steven H. Kruis, Esq. (Dacre Decl., ¶ 5; Haber 15 Decl., at ¶ 8.) The mediation sessions were conducted via Zoom, however the Parties were 16 unable to reach a resolution following the mediation sessions. (Id.) On March 19, 2024, the 17 Parties participated in a third mediation session with experienced employment mediator, Hon.
18 Amy D. Hogue (Ret.). The mediation was also conducted via Zoom. (Id.) The settlement 19 negotiations were at arm's length and, although conducted in a professional manner, were 20 adversarial. The Parties went into the mediation sessions willing to explore the potential for a 21 settlement of the dispute, but each side was also prepared to litigate their position through trial 22 and appeal if a settlement had not been reached. (Id.) After multiple mediation sessions and 23 extensive negotiations and discussions regarding the strengths and weaknesses of Plaintiffs' 24 claims, Defendant's defenses, and further negotiations regarding the settlement terms, the 25 Parties reached a settlement on March 5, 2025, the material terms of which are encompassed
26 within the Settlement Agreement. (Id. at ¶ 9, Ex. 1, Settlement Agreement.)

27 Class Counsel has conducted a thorough investigation into the facts of this case. Based 28 on the foregoing discovery and their own independent investigation and evaluation, Class

Counsel is of the opinion that the Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate and is in the best interests of the Settlement Class Members in light of all known facts and circumstances, the risk of significant delay, the defenses that could be asserted by Defendant both to certification and on the merits, trial risk, and appellate risk. (Id. at ¶ 14.)

Indeed, the $1,200,000.00 Settlement represents approximately 54% of the realistic maximum recovery of $2,230,037.66. (Id. at ¶ 24.) Although Class Counsel estimated that Defendant’s maximum potential liability for all claims was approximately $17 million, when the risk of prevailing at certification and trial are factored into the equation, Class Counsel believes that Defendant’s realistic exposure was $2,230,037.66, meaning the Settlement achieves a significant recovery. (Id. at ¶¶ 15-28.) Considering the risk and uncertainty of prevailing at class certification and at trial, this is an excellent result for the Class. (Id. at ¶ 26.) Additionally, during the investigation and mediations sessions, it was revealed that Defendant was facing financial difficulties that may limit the recovery available to Plaintiffs and the putative class. (Id.) Indeed, because of the proposed Settlement, class members will receive timely, guaranteed relief and will avoid the risk of an unfavorable judgment.

D. Key Terms of the Proposed Settlement

The Settlement’s key terms include:

1. Class Definition: For settlement purposes only, the Parties agree to the certification of a class pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 382 defined as: “all persons employed by Defendant in California and classified as an hourly-paid or non-exempt employee who worked for Defendant during the Class Period.” (Settlement, § 1.5.)

2. Class Period: “means the period from January 13, 2017 to July 15, 2024.” (Settlement, § 1.12.)

3. Participating Class Members: “means a Class Member who does not submit a valid and timely Request for Exclusion from the Settlement.” (Settlement, § 1.35.)

4. Allegedly Aggrieved Employee: “means a person employed by Defendant in California and classified as an hourly-paid or non-exempt employee who worked for Defendant during the PAGA Period.” (Settlement, § 1.4.)

1 5. PAGA Period: “means the period from March 30, 2021 to July 15, 2024.” (Settlement, 2 § 1.31.)

3 6. Gross Settlement Amount: “means $1,200,000.00 which is the total amount Defendant
4 agrees to pay under the Settlement except as provided in Paragraph 8 below. The Gross Settlement
5 Amount will be used to pay Individual Class Payments, Individual PAGA Payments, the LWDA
6 PAGA Payment, Class Counsel Fees, Class Counsel Expenses, Class Representative Service 7 Payment and the Administrator’s Expenses.” (Settlement, § 1.22.) “Defendant shall fully fund the 8 Gross Settlement Amount in two installments as follows: (a) the first installment shall be one-half 9 (50%) of the Gross Settlement Amount (i.e., $600,000.00) and shall be paid within five (5) business 10 days of the Effective Date, or by April 15, 2025, whichever occurs later. If the Court has not 11 granted final approval of the Settlement by April 15, 2025, then the funding date shall be within 12 five (5) business days of the Effective Date. (b) The second installment shall be one-half (50%)
13 of the Gross Settlement Amount, plus Defendant’s full share of payroll taxes, and shall be paid no 14 more than 12 months after Defendant’s payment of the first installment described above.
15 Defendant will make its best efforts to provide the full funding within 6 months of paying the first 16 installment.” (Settlement, § 4.3.)

17 7. Uncashed Checks: “For any Class Member whose Individual Class Payment check or 18 Individual PAGA Payment check is uncashed and cancelled after the void date, the Administrator 19 shall transmit the funds represented by such checks to the California Controller’s Unclaimed 20 Property Fund in the name of the Class Member thereby leaving no ‘unpaid residue’ subject to the 21 requirements of California Code of Civil Procedure Section 384, subd. (b).” (Settlement, § 4.4.3.)

22 8. Release by Participating Class Members: “All Participating Class Members, on behalf 23 of themselves and their respective former and present representatives, agents, attorneys, heirs, 24 administrators, successors, and assigns, release Released Parties from all claims that were alleged, 25 or reasonably could have been alleged, based on the Class Period facts stated in the Operative 26 Complaint, including, any and all claims involving any recovery of unpaid minimum wages and 27 unpaid overtime (Cal. Lab. Code §§ 204, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1198), failure to provide meal and 28 rest periods (Cal. Lab. Code §§ 226.7, 512), failure to provide accurate wage statements (Cal. Lab.

Code § 226), failure to pay all wages due at separation (Cal. Lab. Code §§ 201-203), failure to reimburse business expenses (Cal. Lab. Code § 2802), and violation of Unfair Business Practices (Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code §§ 17200, et seq.). Except as set forth in Section 6.3 of this Agreement, Participating Class Members do not release any other claims, including claims for vested benefits, wrongful termination, violation of the Fair Employment and Housing Act, unemployment insurance, disability, social security, workers' compensation, or claims based on facts occurring outside the Class Period.” (Settlement, § 5.2.) This Release will be deemed effective on the date when Defendant fully funds the entire Gross Settlement Amount and funds all employer payroll taxes owed on the Wage Portion of the Individual Class Payments. (Settlement, § 5.)

9. Release by Aggrieved Employees: “All Allegedly Aggrieved Employees are deemed to release, on behalf of themselves and their respective former and present representatives, agents, attorneys, heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns, the Released Parties from all claims for PAGA penalties that were alleged, or reasonably could have been alleged, based on the PAGA Period facts stated in the Operative Complaint and the PAGA Notice, including any and all claims involving any alleged failure to pay minimum wages or overtime, failure to provide meal and rest periods, failure to provide accurate wage statements, failure to pay all wages due at separation, and failure to reimburse business expenses, including Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 210, 216, 223, 225.5, 226, 226.3, 226.7, 245-248.5, 256, 432, 432.5, 432.7, 510, 512, 558, 558.1, 1024.5, 1174, 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 1198.5, 1199, 2699, 2699.3, 2802, 2810.5 during the PAGA Period. Allegedly Aggrieved Employees only release these claims for the duration of the PAGA Period.” (Settlement, § 5.3.)

10. No Reversion: “None of the Gross Settlement Amount will revert to Defendant.” (Settlement, § 3.1.)

11. PAGA Allocation: “PAGA Penalties in the amount of $100,000.00 to be paid from the Gross Settlement Amount, with 75% ($75,000.00) allocated to the LWDA PAGA Payment and 25% ($25,000.00) allocated to the Individual PAGA Payments.” (Settlement, § 3.2.5.) Class Counsel submitted the proposed settlement to the LWDA before filing this Motion for Preliminary Approval. (Haber Decl., ¶ 9.)

1 12. Net Settlement Amount: “means the Gross Settlement Amount, less the following
2 payments in the amounts approved by the Court: Individual PAGA Payments, the LWDA PAGA
3 Payment, Class Representatives’ Service Payment, Class Counsel Fees Payment, Class Counsel
4 Litigation Expenses Payment, and the Administration Expenses Payment. The remainder is to be 5 paid to Participating Class Members as Individual Class Payments.” (Settlement, § 1.28.)

6 13. Distribution Formula: “An Individual Class Payment calculated by (a) dividing the 7 Net Settlement Amount by the total number of Workweeks worked by all Participating Class
8 Members during the Class Period and (b) multiplying the result by each Participating Class 9 Member’s Workweeks.” (Settlement, § 3.2.4.) As to PAGA: “The Administrator will calculate 10 each Individual PAGA Payment by (a) dividing the amount of Aggrieved Employees’ 25% share 11 of PAGA Penalties $25,000.00 by the total number of PAGA Period Pay Periods worked by all 12 Aggrieved Employees during the PAGA Period and (b) multiplying the result by each Aggrieved 13 Employees’ PAGA Period Pay Periods.” (Settlement, § 3.2.5.1.)

14 14. Tax Allocation: “20% of each Participating Class Member’s Individual Class 15 Payment will be allocated to settlement of wage claims (the “Wage Portion”). The Wage Portions 16 are subject to tax withholding and will be reported on an IRS W-2 Form. The remaining 80% of 17 each Participating Class Member’s Individual Class Payment will be allocated to settlement of 18 claims for interests and penalties (the “Non-Wage Portion”). The Non-Wage Portions are not 19 subject to wage withholdings and will be reported on IRS 1099 Forms.” (Settlement, § 3.2.4.1.)

20 15. Class Representative Service Awards: “Class Representative Service Payment to 21 the Class Representatives of not more than $10,000.00 each ($20,000.00 total) (in addition to any 22 Individual Class Payment and Individual PAGA Payment the Class Representative is entitled to 23 receive as a Participating Class Member).” (Settlement, § 3.2.1.)

24 16. Attorneys’ Fees and Costs: “A Class Counsel Fees Payment of not more than 35%, 25 which is currently estimated to be $420,000.00 and a Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment 26 of not more than $50,000. Defendant will not oppose requests for these payments provided that 27 do not exceed these amounts.” (Settlement, § 3.2.2.)

1 17. Notice of Proposed Class Action Settlement: The Notice sets forth in plain terms, a 2 statement of the case, the terms of the Settlement Agreement, the approximate amount of attorneys’ 3 fees, costs, and service awards being sought, and an explanation of how the settlement allocations
4 are calculated. (Settlement, Ex. A, Class Notice.) Class Members will be notified by first-class 5 mail of the settlement. (Settlement, § 4.4.1.) Apex Class Action Administration, the proposed 6 Settlement Administrator, will undertake its best efforts to ensure that the notice is provided to the 7 current addresses of class members, including conducting a national change of address search and 8 re-mailing the notice to updated addresses. (Id.; Haber Decl., ¶ 10, Ex. 2 [Settlement Administrator 9 Bid].)

10 III. DISCUSSION

11 To prevent fraud, collusion, or unfairness to the class, the settlement of a class action 12 requires court approval. (Dunk v. Ford Motor Co. (1996) 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1800-01.) This 13 Court has wide discretion to determine whether the proposed settlement is fair. (Mallick v. Super.
14 Ct. (1979) 89 Cal.App.3d 434, 438.) Fairness is presumed when: (1) the settlement is reached 15 through arm’s-length bargaining; (2) investigation is sufficient to allow counsel and the court to 16 act intelligently; (3) counsel is experienced in similar litigation; and (4) the percentage of objectors
17 is small. (Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th at p. 1800.)

18 In considering whether a settlement is reasonable, the trial court should consider relevant 19 factors, which may include the strength of plaintiff’s case, the risk, expense, complexity and likely 20 duration of further litigation, the risk of maintaining class action status through trial, the amount 21 offered in settlement, the extent of discovery completed and the stage of the proceedings, the 22 experience and views of counsel, the presence of a governmental participant, and the reaction of 23 the class members to the proposed settlement. (Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc. (2008) 168 24 Cal.App.4th 116, 128.) In order to approve a class action settlement, the court must satisfy itself 25 that the class settlement is within the “ballpark” of reasonableness. (Id. at p. 133.) The record 26 need not contain an explicit statement of the maximum theoretical recovery. (Munoz v. BCI Coca- 27 Cola Bottling Co. of Los Angeles (2010) 186 Cal.App.4th 399, 408-9 [holding that Kullar does not 28 require “an explicit statement of the maximum amount the plaintiff class could recover if it

1 prevailed on all its claims”, but instead, only an “understanding of the amount that is in controversy
2 and the realistic range of outcomes of the litigation.”].)

3 As discussed below, Class Counsel has provided information exceeding the threshold 4 required to provide this Court with materials and information necessary to determine that the 5 proposed settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable.

6 A. The Settlement Is Fair, Reasonable, Adequate, and the Product of 7 Investigation, Litigation, and Negotiation

8 1. The Settlement Is the Product of Discovery, Investigation, and Informed 9 and Non-Collusive Arm’s-Length Negotiations

10 Courts presume the absence of fraud or collusion in the negotiation of a settlement, unless 11 evidence to the contrary is offered; thus, there is a presumption here that the negotiations were 12 conducted in good faith. (Conte & Newberg, Newberg on Class Actions (3rd Ed.) § 11.51.)
13 Settlement is favored, and settlement agreements are realistically assessed. (Stamburgh v. Super.
14 Ct. (1976) 62 Cal.App.3d 231, 236; Priddy v. Edelman (6th Cir. 1989) 883 F.2d 438, 447 [“The 15 fact that a plaintiff might have received more if the case had been fully litigated is no reason not 16 to approve the settlement.”].)

17 The Settlement was reached following extensive negotiations following multiple mediation 18 sessions with experienced employment mediators, Steven H. Kruis, Esq. and Hon. Amy D. Hogue 19 (Ret.). (Haber Decl., ¶ 8.) The settlement negotiations were at arm’s length and, although 20 conducted in a professional manner, were adversarial. (Id.) The Parties went into the mediation 21 sessions willing to explore the potential for a settlement of the dispute, but each side was also 22 prepared to litigate their or its position through trial and appeal if a settlement had not been reached.
23 (Id.) After extensive negotiations and discussions regarding the strengths and weaknesses of 24 Plaintiffs’ claims and Defendant’s defenses, the Parties reached an agreement. (Haber Decl., ¶ 9.)

25 Prior to reaching this settlement, Class Counsel conducted formal and informal discovery
26 concerning the claims set forth in the litigation, including depositions of Plaintiffs and Defendant’s 27 Person Most Knowledgeable, the exchange of information such as a sample of class member 28 timekeeping and payroll records, Defendant’s policies and procedures concerning the payment of wages, the provision of meal and rest breaks, issuance of wage statements, and providing all wages at separation, as well as information regarding the number of putative class members and the mix of current versus former employees, the wage rates in effect, and the amount of meal and rest period premium wages paid to class members. (Id. at ¶¶ 5-6.) In conjunction with their extensive factual investigation, Class Counsel investigated the applicable law regarding the claims and defenses asserted in the litigation. (Id.) Thus, Plaintiffs and their counsel were able to act intelligently and effectively in negotiating the proposed Settlement. (Id.)

Class Counsel also has considerable experience and has demonstrated competence with litigating wage and hour class actions. (Id. at ¶¶ 39-48; Dacre Decl., ¶¶ 10-12.) Again, this supports the position that the terms of the Settlement are premised on objective evidence that has been considered and weighed in light of the risks, expenses, and time consumption to both sides of continued litigation of this action.

2. The Settlement Is Fair and Reasonable in Light of the Parties' Respective Legal Positions

A settlement is not judged against what might plaintiff recover had he prevailed at trial, nor does the settlement have to provide 100% of the damages sought to be fair and reasonable. (Wershba v. Apple Computers, Inc. (2001) 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 246, 250 [“Compromise is inherent and necessary in the settlement process . . . even if the relief afforded by the proposed settlement is substantially narrower than it would be if the suits were to be successfully litigated, this is no bar to a class settlement because the public interest may indeed be served by a voluntary settlement in which each side gives ground in the interest of avoiding litigation.”].)

This settlement avoids the risks and the accompanying expense of further litigation. (Dacre Decl., ¶ 6; Haber Decl., ¶ 26.) While Plaintiffs are confident in the merits of their claims, a legitimate controversy exists as to each cause of action. (Id. at ¶ 25.) Plaintiffs also recognize that proving the amount of wages due to each class member would be an expensive, time-consuming, and uncertain proposition. (Id.)

The proposed settlement of $1,200,000.00 therefore represents a substantial recovery when compared to Plaintiffs' reasonably forecasted recovery. (Id. at ¶¶ 15-28.) Because of the proposed

1 Settlement, class members will receive timely, guaranteed relief and will avoid the risk of an 2 unfavorable judgment. When considering the risks of litigation, the uncertainties involved in 3 achieving class certification, the burdens of proof necessary to establish liability, the probability 4 of appeal of a favorable judgment, it is clear that the settlement amount of $1,200,000.00 is within 5 the “ballpark” of reasonableness, and preliminary settlement approval is appropriate. (Id.) Indeed, 6 each Settlement Class Member is eligible to receive an average net benefit of approximately 7 $482.12. (Id. at ¶ 27.)

8 3. Class Counsel Has Extensive Experience in Class Action Litigation

9 The settlement negotiations were conducted by highly capable and experienced counsel.
10 Class Counsel have a strong record of vigorous and effective advocacy for their clients and are 11 experienced in handling complex wage and hour class action litigation. (Haber Decl., ¶¶ 39-48; 12 Dacre Decl., ¶¶ 10-12.) Although Plaintiffs and their counsel were prepared to litigate the claims 13 alleged in the litigation, they support the proposed Settlement as being in the best interests of the 14 class.

15 B. The Proposed Class Notice of Settlement Should Be Approved

16 The proposed Notice, in the form attached to the Settlement Agreement, should be approved 17 for dissemination to the class. The Notice informs the class of the terms of the settlement and of 18 their rights to be excluded from the settlement. And if there are class members who wish to object 19 to this proposed class action settlement, they will have the opportunity to file their objections and 20 be heard at the Final Approval Hearing. Accordingly, the proposed Notice meets all the 21 requirements of Rule 3.769(f) of the California Rules of Court.

22 C. The Proposed Attorneys’ Fees and Costs Are Reasonable

23 Under the Settlement, subject to the Court’s approval, Defendant agrees to pay Class 24 Counsel reasonable attorneys’ fees in amount of $420,000.00, which is 35% of the Gross 25 Settlement Amount, and up to $50,000.00 in costs. These amounts are disclosed to all class 26 members in the proposed Notice and are reasonable.

1 1. Class Counsel Request an Award of Fees Based on the “Common Fund”
2 Method

3 California courts have long awarded attorneys’ fees as a percentage of the benefit created 4 by counsel in creating a common fund. The California Supreme Court held that “when a number 5 of persons is entitled in common to a specific fund, and an action brought by a plaintiff or plaintiffs 6 for the benefit of all results in the creation or preservation of that fund, such plaintiff or plaintiffs 7 may be awarded attorneys’ fees out of the fund.” (Serrano v. Priest (1977) 20 Cal.3d 25, 34, 8 quoting D’Amico v. Bd. of Medical Examiners (1974) 11 Cal.3d 1.)

9 Class Counsel seeks an award of attorneys’ fees on the “percentage of recovery/common 10 fund” theory. The purpose of this approach is to “spread litigation costs proportionally among all 11 the beneficiaries so that the active beneficiary does not bear the entire burden alone.” (Vincent v.
12 Hughes Air West, Inc. (9th Cir. 1977) 557 F.2d 759, 769.) In Quinn v. State of California (1995) 13 15 Cal.3d 162, the California Supreme Court stated: “[O]ne who expends attorneys’ fees in 14 winning a suit which creates a fund from which others derive benefits may require those passive 15 beneficiaries to bear a fair share of the litigation costs.” (Id. at p. 167.) Similarly, in City and 16 County of San Francisco v. Sweet (1995) 12 Cal.4th 105, the California Supreme Court recognized 17 that the common fund doctrine has been applied “consistently in California when an action brought 18 by one party creates a fund in which other persons are entitled to share.” (Id. at p. 110.)

19 The California Supreme Court affirmed in Laffitte v. Robert Half Int’l Inc. (2016) 1 Cal.5th 20 480 that, “when class action litigation establishes a monetary fund for the benefit of the class 21 members, and the trial court in its equitable powers awards class counsel a fee out of that fund, the 22 court may determine the amount of a reasonable fee by choosing an appropriate percentage of the 23 fund created.” (Id. at p. 503.) The court explained: “The recognized advantages of the percentage 24 method—including relative ease of calculation, alignment of incentives between counsel and the 25 class, a better approximation of market conditions in a contingency case, and the encouragement 26 it provides counsel to seek an early settlement and avoid unnecessarily prolonging the litigation—27 convince us the percentage method is a valuable tool that should not be denied our trial courts.”
28 (Id. [internal citations omitted].)

2. The Requested Fee Award Is in Line with Typical Cases

According to a leading treatise on class actions, “[n]o general rule can be articulated on what is a reasonable percentage of a common fund. Usually 50% of the fund is the upper limit on a reasonable fee award from a common fund in order to assure that the fees do not consume a disproportionate part of the recovery obtained for the class, although somewhat larger percentages are not unprecedented.” (See Conte & Newberg, Newberg on Class Actions (3rd Ed.) § 14.03.) Attorneys’ fees that are fifty percent of the fund are typically considered the upper limit, with thirty to forty percent commonly awarded in cases where the settlement is relatively small. (Id.; see also Van Vranken v. Atlantic Richfield Company (N.D. Cal. 1995) 901 F. Supp. 294 [stating that most cases where 30-50 percent was awarded involved “smaller” settlement funds of under $10 million].)

Here, Plaintiffs request attorneys’ fees equal to 35% of the Gross Settlement Amount, which is in line with the prevailing guidelines established in California case law and academic literature and is consistent with awards in California. (See Chavez v. Netflix, Inc. (2008) 162 Cal.App.4th 43, 66, n.11 [“Empirical studies show that, regardless whether the percentage method or the lodestar method is used, fee awards in class actions average around one-third of the recovery.”].) Accordingly, Plaintiffs respectfully request that the Court approve the attorneys’ fees as negotiated by the Parties and requested herein.

3. This Matter Involves A “Fee-Shifting” Provision of the Labor Code

Labor Code § 1194 (a) provides for the recovery of “minimum wage or overtime compensation, including interest thereon, reasonable attorney’s fees, and costs of suit.” Under this section, Plaintiffs would be permitted to recover their actual attorneys’ fees, even if those fees were larger than the total class recovery at the conclusion of this case. This settlement is beneficial in that it limits the risk of continued expenses and consumption of time, energy, and resources facing Defendant while at the same time rewarding Class Counsel for their decision to assume risk by taking on this matter. In fact, prosecution of this action involved significant financial risk for Class Counsel. (Dacre Decl., ¶ 7; Haber Decl., ¶¶ 37-38.) Class Counsel undertook this matter solely on a contingent basis, with no guarantee of recovery. (Id.) Once counsel undertook this litigation

1 on behalf of the Class, Class Counsel committed to pursue it to its conclusion, placing its fiduciary 2 duty to the Class ahead of all other concerns.

3 4. The Experience, Reputation and Ability of Class Counsel Support the 4 Requested Fee Award

5 As demonstrated by their past experience in pursuing class actions on behalf of consumers
6 and employees, Class Counsel possess considerable expertise in litigating class actions. (Dacre 7 Decl., ¶¶ 10-12; Haber Decl., ¶¶ 39-48.) Class Counsel has been involved as lead counsel or co-
8 counsel in several class actions that resulted in millions in recovery. (Id.) Because it is reasonable 9 to compensate class counsel commensurate with their skill, reputation and experience, Class 10 Counsel's requested fee award is supported here.

11 Class Counsel's experience in wage and hour class actions was integral in evaluating the 12 strengths and weaknesses of the case against Defendant and the reasonableness of the settlement.
13 Practice in the narrow field of wage and hour litigation requires skill and knowledge concerning 14 the rapidly evolving substantive law (state and federal), as well as the procedural law of class 15 action litigation. Based on these and other factors, Class Counsel has frequently received fee 16 awards of this percentage from the gross recovery for the class. Therefore, the requested fee award 17 is reasonable and fair.

18 D. The PAGA Allocation is Reasonable

19 Where settlements negotiate a good faith amount for PAGA penalties and "there is no 20 indication that this amount was the result of self-interest at the expense of other" class members, 21 such amounts are generally considered reasonable. (Hopson v. Hanesbrands Inc. (N.D. Cal. Apr.
22 3, 2009) No. CV-08-0844 EDL, 2009 WL 928133 at *1, 9.) Courts have approved amounts for 23 PAGA penalties in the range of zero to two percent of the total maximum amount of the Settlement.
24 (Id. [approving a PAGA payment of 0.3%, or $1,500]; see also Jack v. Hartford Fire Ins. Co. (S.D.
25 Cal. Oct. 13, 2011) 2011 WL 4899942 at *6 [approving a PAGA payment of 0.25%]; McKenzie v.
26 Fed. Express Corp. (C.D. Cal. Jan. 23, 2012) 2012 WL 12882124 at *5 [acknowledging that courts 27 approve PAGA claim settlements in the range of zero to two percent of the total settlement].) Here, 28 the amount to be paid to the LWDA is larger than many other PAGA settlement amounts approved by the courts where seemingly nominal amounts were allocated for such claims. (See, e.g., Zubia

1 v. Shamrock Foods Co. (C.D. Cal. Dec. 21, 2017) No. CV1603128ABAGRX, 2017 WL 10541431, 2 at *14 [approving a PAGA settlement of 0.1%]; Hopson, supra, 2008 WL 3385452, at *1
3 [approving a PAGA settlement of 0.3% or $1,500]; Garcia v. Gordon Trucking, Inc. (E.D. Cal.
4 Oct. 31, 2012) No. 1:10-CV-0324 AWI SKO, 2012 WL 5364575, at *3 [approving a PAGA
5 settlement of 0.27%].) Here, the Parties negotiated a good faith amount of $100,000.00, 75%
6 percent of which ($75,000.00) will be paid to the LWDA and 25% ($25,000.00) to be distributed 7 to the Aggrieved Employees. (Settlement, § 3.2.5.) The $100,000.00 settlement amount equates 8 to approximately 8.3% of the Gross Settlement Amount, which far exceeds amounts that are 9 routinely approved. The Parties negotiated to allocate 8.3% of the Settlement to PAGA penalties 10 in good faith and this amount is reasonable considering that the maximum PAGA penalties were estimated at $2,879,900.00 (which assumed $100 per pay period). (Haber Decl., ¶ 23.)

11 E. The Service Awards to Named Plaintiffs Are Reasonable

12 Named plaintiffs in class action lawsuits “are eligible for reasonable incentive payments to 13 compensate them for the expense or risk they have incurred in conferring a benefit on other 14 members of the class.” (Munoz, supra, 86 Cal.App.4th at p. 412.) Courts routinely grant approval 15 of class action settlement agreements containing enhancements for the class representatives, which 16 are necessary to provide incentive to represent the class, and are appropriate given the benefit the 17 class representatives help to bring about for the class. (See Rodriguez v. W. Publ'g Corp. (9th Cir.
2009) 563 F.3d 948, 958-59.)

18 Service awards are particularly important to plaintiffs in wage and hour cases because they 19 promote the important public policies underlying the wage and hour laws. This strong policy is 20 codified in California Labor Code § 90.5, which provides, “it is the policy of this state to vigorously 21 enforce minimum labor standards in order to ensure employees are not required or permitted to 22 work under substandard unlawful conditions” Nonetheless, the California Supreme Court has 23 noted that “retaliation against employees for asserting statutory rights under the Labor Code is 24 widespread,” despite anti-retaliation statutes designed to protect employees. (Gentry v. Super. Ct.
25 (2007) 42 Cal.4th 443, 460-61.) In this context, class representatives should be rewarded for 26 assuming the risk of retaliation for the sake of class members. (See Frank v. Eastman Kodak Co.
27 (W.D.N.Y. 2005) 228 F.R.D. 174, 187.)
28

1 Under the settlement agreement, subject to the Court’s approval, Defendant agreed to pay
2 Service Awards in an amount of not more than $10,000.00 each to named Plaintiffs Nicolas Lucero
3 and Julian Mendoza Padilla ($20,000.00 total). This amount is also in exchange for Plaintiffs’ 4 general release of all claims against Defendant. Courts routinely approve enhancement awards in 5 excess of $10,000.00 for plaintiffs represented by Class Counsel. (See, e.g., Moreno v. Pretium
6 Packaging, L.L.C. (C.D. Cal. Aug. 6, 2021) 2021 WL 3673845, *3 [“The Court concludes a 7 $10,000 incentive award is appropriate.”]; Suarez v. Bank of America, National Association (N.D.
8 Cal., Jan. 11, 2024, No. 18-CV-01202-LB) 2024 WL 150721, at *4 [“The court approves awards 9 of $10,000 for each class representative.”].) Class Counsel represent that Plaintiffs devoted a great 10 deal of time and work assisting counsel in the case, communicated with counsel very frequently 11 for litigation and to prepare for mediation, and were frequently in contact with Class Counsel 12 during the mediation. (See generally Plaintiffs’ declaration; Dacre Decl., ¶ 8; Haber Decl., ¶¶ 29-13 33.) This amount is reasonable particularly in light of the substantial benefits Plaintiffs generated 14 for all class members. (Id.)

15 When compared with the amounts awarded in typical class action cases, the amount 16 requested here is particularly reasonable. Indeed, a 2006 study examining the average incentive 17 award given to class action plaintiffs from 1993 to 2002 found that the “average award per class 18 representative was $15,992 and the median award per class representative was $4,357.” (Eisenberg 19 & Miller, Incentive Awards to Class Action Plaintiffs: An Empirical Study (2006) 53 UCLA L.Rev.
20 1303, 1308.) That same study found that named plaintiffs in employment discrimination class 21 actions received an average award of $69,850 and a median award of $31,081, while named 22 plaintiffs in other employment class actions received an average award of $12,121 and a median 23 award of $13,059. (Id. at p. 1334.) The authors of the study found that higher awards in 24 employment cases reflected the “courts’ wish to make representative plaintiffs whole by 25 compensating them for the high costs of their service to the class, including risks of stigmatization 26 or retaliation on the job.” (Id. at p. 1308.)

27 IV. CERTIFICATION FOR SETTLEMENT PURPOSES IS WARRANTED

28 A. Legal Standard

The proposed Settlement Class is well suited for class certification. All of the claims derive from a core set of alleged violations of California’s wage and hour laws and regulations. For the

1 reasons set forth more fully below, for purposes of settlement only, the Class satisfies the 2 prerequisites for certification under Code of Civil Procedure § 382. Section 382 provides: “when 3 the question is one of a common or general interest, of many persons, or when the parties are 4 numerous, and it is impracticable to bring them all before the court, one or more may sue or defend 5 for the benefit of all.” (Code Civ. Proc., § 382.) There are two requirements to section 382: “(1) 6 [t]here must be an ascertainable class; and (2) there must be a well-defined community of interest 7 in the questions of law and fact involved affecting the parties to be represented.” (Daar v. Yellow 8 Cab Co. (1967) 67 Cal. 2d 695, 704 [citations omitted].) To clarify these requirements, the 9 California Supreme Court has looked to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23 to explain that the 10 community-of-interest requirement itself embodies three factors: “(1) predominant questions of 11 law or fact; (2) class representatives with claims or defenses typical of the class; and (3) class 12 representatives who can adequately represent the class.” (Richmond v. Dart Indus., Inc. (1981) 29
Cal. 3d 462, 470.)

13 California law and policy favor the fullest and most flexible use of the class action device.
14 (Id. at pp. 469-73.) Indeed, “Courts long have acknowledged the importance of class actions as a 15 means to prevent a failure of justice in our judicial system” particularly where the rights of 16 consumers are at issue. (Linder v. Thrifty Oil Co. (2000) 23 Cal. 4th 429, 434.) Any doubt as to 17 the appropriateness of class treatment should be resolved in favor of certification. (Richmond, supra, 29 Cal.3d at pp. 473-75.)

18 B. Plaintiffs Maintain That the Criteria for Class Certification Are Satisfied for 19 Settlement Purposes.

20 1. The Class is Ascertainable and Numerous

21 Plaintiffs maintain that the proposed class that Plaintiffs seeks to represent is easily 22 ascertainable and includes approximately 1,286 employees of Defendant.

23 Plaintiffs maintain that there is an easily ascertainable class, defined by objective and 24 precise criteria. Because class members are identified using specific criteria in the regular business 25 records of Defendant, i.e., job position, the class is ascertainable. (Wilner v. Sunset Life Ins. Co.
26 (2000) 78 Cal.App.4th 952, 959-60 [class membership defined by ownership of product that is the 27 subject of the lawsuit is sufficient to make the class ascertainable].)

28 “The requirement of Code of Civil Procedure section 382 that there be ‘many’ parties to a

1 class action suit is indefinite and has been construed liberally.” (Rose v. City of Hayward (1981)
2 126 Cal.App.3d 926, 934.) “Where a question is of common interest to ‘many’ persons, an action 3 may be maintained as a class action even where the parties are numerous and it is in fact practicable
4 to join them all.” (Id.) “No set number is required as a matter of law for the maintenance of a 5 class action.” (Id.) “Thus, our Supreme Court has upheld a class representing the 10 beneficiaries
6 of a trust in an action for removal of the trustees.” (Id., citing Bowles v. Super. Ct. (1955) 44 Cal.2d 7 574; see also Collins v. Rocha (1972) 7 Cal.3d 232 [upholding a 35 member class.]) Therefore, 8 Plaintiffs contend that numerosity is plainly satisfied.

9 2. There are Many Common Issues of Law and Fact Which Predominate

10 The Court should grant conditional class certification for settlement purposes here on the 11 grounds that questions of law and fact common to all class and subclass predominate over any 12 individual questions. This inquiry tests whether proposed classes are sufficiently cohesive to 13 warrant adjudication by representation. (See, e.g., Clothesrigger, Inc. v. GTE Corp. (1987) 191 14 Cal.App.3d 605.)

15 Here, Plaintiffs maintain that the employment practices at issue are: whether Defendant had 16 legally compliant policies and practices for all hours worked, including overtime wages; whether 17 Defendant had legally compliant policies and practices to provide employees with meal periods; 18 whether Defendant had legally compliant policies and practices authorizing and permitting its 19 employees to take rest periods; whether Defendant reimbursed employees for business expenses; 20 whether payment of wages during employed was timely; whether final payment of wages was 21 untimely and excluded unpaid wages, including meal and rest period premium wages; whether 22 wage statements were consequently non-compliant; and whether Defendant failed to keep requisite 23 payroll records. Plaintiffs contend that the factual and legal issues are the same for all of the 24 identified class members, including Plaintiffs. Further, Plaintiffs contend that all settlement class 25 members suffered from, and seek redress for, the same alleged injuries.

26 3. Plaintiffs’ Claims Are Typical of the Claims of the Class

27 The typicality requirement does not focus on the individual characteristics or circumstances 28 of the representative plaintiff compared to those of the remainder of the class, but rather upon the typicality of the proposed representative’s claims as they relate to the defendant’s conduct and activities. (Classen v. Weller (1983) 145 Cal.App.3d 27, 47 “[t]he only requirements are that

1 common questions of law and fact predominate and that the class representative be similarly 2 situated” vis-à-vis the class.].) A representative plaintiff’s claims are typical of the class if they 3 arise from the same event, practice or course of conduct, and if the claims rest on the same legal 4 theories. (Id.) Plaintiffs maintain that is precisely the case here. Plaintiffs are former employees
5 of Defendant; as such, they allege that they were subject to the same policies and practices as other 6 similarly situated employees.

7 4. Plaintiffs and Their Counsel Meet the Adequacy Requirement

8 Plaintiffs maintain that the adequacy of representation requirements is met by fulfilling two 9 conditions: first, a named plaintiff must be represented by counsel qualified to conduct the pending 10 litigation; second, a named plaintiff’s interests cannot be antagonistic to those of the class.
11 (McGhee v. Bank of America (1976) 60 Cal.App.3d 442, 451.)

12 Plaintiffs maintain that all of these requirements are met here for settlement purposes.
13 Plaintiffs retained counsel with extensive experience in prosecuting complex class actions, 14 including similar class actions that previously settled. (Haber Decl., ¶¶ 39-48; Dacre Decl., ¶¶ 10-15 12.) Class Counsel unquestionably is “qualified, experienced and generally able to conduct the 16 proposed litigation.” (Miller v. Woods (1983) 148 Cal.App.3d 862, 875.) In addition, Plaintiffs 17 have no conflicts, and Plaintiffs have, with counsel, litigated this case and diligently reviewed the 18 settlement terms, showing their dedication. Plaintiffs’ willingness to serve as a representative 19 demonstrates her serious commitment to bringing about the best results possible for the class.
20 (McGhee, supra, 60 Cal.App.3d at p. 451.)

21 5. A Class Action is Superior to a Multiplicity of Litigation

22 Finally, in making its class certification decision, the Court must determine that a class 23 action would be superior to alternative means for the fair and efficient adjudication of the litigation.
24 By consolidating many potential individual actions into a single proceeding, this Court’s use of the 25 class action device enables it to manage this litigation in a manner that serves the economics of 26 time, effort and expense for the litigants and the judicial system. Absent class treatment, similarly-27 situated employees with small but nevertheless meritorious claims for damages would, as a 28 practical matter, have no means of redress because of the time, effort and expense required to

1 prosecute individual actions. (Gentry, supra, 42 Cal.4th at pp. 457-62; Leyva v. Medline Ind. (9th
2 Cir. 2013) 716 F.3d 510, 515.) Moreover, in the context of settlement, the superiority concerns 3 are essentially non-existent.

4 V. THE PROPOSED NOTICE IS CONSTITUTIONALLY SOUND

5 A. The Proposed Notice Plan Satisfies Due Process

6 Notice requirements are set forth in the California Rules of Court. (Cal. Rules of Court, 7 Rule 3.766 (e), (f).) California law vests the Court with broad discretion in fashioning an 8 appropriate notice program. (Cartt v. Super Ct. (1975) 50 Cal.App.3d 960, 973-74.) There is no 9 statutory or due process requirement that all class members receive actual notice, but in this matter, 10 the class members will receive direct mailed notice. As the Court of Appeals has explained, “[t]he 11 notice given should have a reasonable chance of reaching a substantial percentage of the Class 12 Members” (Id. at p. 974.) In this case, notice of the proposed settlement will be provided 13 by direct mailing, the best possible form of notice.

14 B. The Notice is Accurate and Informative

15 The proposed Notice should be approved. It will be disseminated through direct U.S. first 16 class mail to the last known address for each Class Member. It informs the Class Members of the 17 terms of the settlement and their right to be excluded from the Settlement. And if there are Class 18 Members who wish to object to this proposed class action settlement, they will have the 19 opportunity to file their objections and be heard at the Final Approval Hearing.

20 The Notice also fulfills the requirement of neutrality in class notices. (Conte & Newberg, 21 Newberg on Class Actions (3rd Ed.) § 8.39.) It summarizes the proceedings to date and the 22 terms and conditions of the settlement agreement, in an informative and coherent manner. It 23 makes clear that the settlement agreement does not constitute an admission of liability by the 24 Defendant, who denies all liability, and it recognizes that this Court has not ruled on the merits 25 of the action. It also states that the final settlement approval decision has yet to be made. The 26 Notice thus complies with the standards of fairness, completeness, and neutrality required of a 27 combined settlement-certification class notice.

28 VI. CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court grant preliminary approval of the proposed settlement and set a Final Approval Hearing.
