MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I. INTRODUCTION

Plaintiff Alberto Conchas Jimenez (“Plaintiff”) seeks preliminary approval of a proposed $485,000.00 non-reversionary, wage and hour class action settlement with Defendant The Castine Group (“Defendant” or “Castine”). The Settlement will provide substantial monetary payments to approximately 72 class members. And, as set forth more fully below, the proposed Settlement satisfies all the criteria for settlement approval under California law. The Settlement was reached after extensive investigation, discovery, and negotiations. The negotiations were at arms-length and were facilitated by an experienced class action mediator, Jason Marsili, Esq., over the course of a full day of mediation that was conducted via Zoom. After extensive negotiations and discussions regarding the strengths and weaknesses of Plaintiff’s claims and Castine’s defenses, the Parties reached a settlement on December 11, 2023. Accordingly, Plaintiff requests that the Court preliminarily approve the proposed Settlement, certify the proposed settlement class, approve the proposed notice, and set a final approval hearing.

II. SUMMARY OF THE LITIGATION AND SETTLEMENT

A. Plaintiff’s Claims

This is a wage and hour class action and PAGA representative action. Plaintiff and putative class members worked in California as hourly-paid or non-exempt employees for Castine during the class period. Castine is based in Sunnyvale, California and provides electrical construction work to clients throughout Northern California. (Declaration of Justin F. Marquez in Support of Plaintiff’s Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action Settlement [“Marquez Decl.”], ¶ 2.)

Plaintiff alleges that Castine’s payroll, timekeeping, and wage and hour practices resulted in Labor Code violations. (Marquez Decl. ¶ 3.) Plaintiff alleges that Castine failed to pay for all hours worked. (Id.) Plaintiff further alleges that Castine failed to provide employees with legally compliant meal and rest periods, and Castine failed to reimburse business expenses. (Id.) Based on these allegations, Plaintiff asserts related claims for failure to provide accurate wage statements, failure to pay all final wages at termination, unfair business practices, and

1 civil penalties under PAGA. (Id.)

2 On January 12, 2021, Plaintiff filed a putative wage-and-hour class action complaint
3 against Defendants M.D.E. Electric Company and The Castine Group (collectively, 4 “Defendants”) for: (1) failure to pay minimum and straight time wages (Labor Code §§ 204, 5 1194, 1194.2, and 1197); (2) failure to pay overtime wages (Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1198); (3) 6 failure to provide meal periods (Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512); (4) failure to authorize and 7 permit rest periods (Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512); (5) failure to timely pay final wages at 8 termination (Labor Code §§ 201-203); (6) failure to provide accurate itemized wage statements 9 (Labor Code § 226); and (7) unfair business practices (Business and Professions Code 17200 et 10 seq.). Plaintiff sent a notice to Defendants and the California Labor & Workforce Development 11 Agency (“LWDA”) alleging similar wage and hour violations pursuant to PAGA (Cal. Lab.
12 Code §§ 2699, et seq.) on January 13, 2021. (Id. at ¶ 4.) On April 26, 2024, Plaintiff filed a 13 First Amended Complaint, which included an additional cause of action for civil penalties
14 pursuant to PAGA. (Id.)

15 B. Discovery and Investigation

16 Following the filing of the Complaint, the parties exchanged documents and information 17 before mediating this action. (Marquez Decl. ¶ 5.) Castine produced a sample of time and pay 18 records for class members. (Id.) Castine also provided documents of its wage and hour policies 19 and practices during the class period, and information regarding the total number of current and 20 former employees in its informal discovery responses. (Id.) Plaintiff also appeared for a 21 deposition and Plaintiff’s counsel deposed multiple individuals employed by Defendant. (Id.)

22 After reviewing documents regarding Castine’s wage and hour policies and practices, 23 analyzing Castine’s timekeeping and payroll records, and interviewing Class Members, Class 24 Counsel was able to evaluate the probability of class certification, success on the merits, and 25 Castine’s maximum monetary exposure for all claims. (Marquez Decl. ¶ 6.) Class Counsel also 26 investigated the applicable law regarding the claims and defenses asserted in the litigation. (Id.)
27 Class Counsel reviewed these records and prepared a damage analysis prior to mediation. (Id.) 28

1 C. Settlement Negotiations

2 On December 6, 2021, the parties participated in private mediation with experienced 3 class action mediator, Lisa Klerman, Esq. (Marquez Decl. ¶ 7.) However, the mediation failed.
4 (Id.)

5 On September 1, 2022, Defendant M.D.E. Electric Company (“M.D.E.”) filed a Motion 6 for Summary Judgment to have M.D.E. dismissed from the case. (Marquez Decl. ¶ 8.) On 7 December 1, 2022, after the Parties conducted extensive discovery into the issues and after fully 8 briefing the motion, the Court denied M.D.E.’s Motion for Summary Judgment. (Id. at ¶ 9.)

9 On April 27, 2023, the parties participated in another private mediation with experienced 10 class action mediator Jason Marsili, Esq. (Marquez Decl. ¶ 10.) The mediation was conducted 11 via Zoom. (Id.) The settlement negotiations were at arm’s length and, although conducted in a 12 professional manner, were adversarial. (Id.) The parties went into the mediation willing to 13 explore the potential for a settlement of the dispute, but each side was also prepared to litigate 14 their position through trial and appeal if a settlement had not been reached. (Id.) After extensive 15 negotiations and discussions regarding the strengths and weaknesses of Plaintiff’s claims and 16 Castine’s defenses, the Parties reached a settlement the material terms of which are 17 encompassed within the Settlement that was executed in December 2023. (Id. at ¶ 11, Ex. 1 18 [Class Action and PAGA Settlement Agreement and Class Notice].)

19 Class Counsel has conducted a thorough investigation into the facts of this case.
20 (Marquez Decl. ¶ 21.) Based on the foregoing discovery and their own independent 21 investigation and evaluation, Class Counsel is of the opinion that the Settlement is fair, 22 reasonable, and adequate and is in the best interests of the Settlement Class Members in light 23 of all known facts and circumstances, the risk of significant delay, the defenses that could be 24 asserted by Castine both to certification and on the merits, trial risk, and appellate risk. (Id.)

25 Indeed, the $485,000.00 Settlement represents approximately 64% of the realistic 26 maximum recovery of $760,330.64. (Id. at ¶ 30.) Although Class Counsel estimated that 27 Castine’s maximum potential liability for all claims was approximately $5.3 million, when the 28 risk of prevailing at certification and trial are factored into the equation, Class Counsel believes

1 that Castine’s realistic exposure was $760,330.92, meaning the Settlement achieves a significant 2 recovery. (Id. at ¶¶ 23-34.) Considering the risk and uncertainty of prevailing at class 3 certification and at trial, this is an excellent result for the Class. (Id. at ¶ 30.) Indeed, because 4 of the proposed Settlement, class members will receive timely, guaranteed relief and will avoid 5 the risk of an unfavorable judgment. (Id.)

6 D. Key Terms of the Proposed Settlement

7 The Parties used the Los Angeles Superior Court’s Form Class Action and PAGA
8 Settlement Agreement and Class Notice. The Settlement’s key terms include:

9 1. Class Definition: For settlement purposes only, the Parties agree to the certification 10 of a class pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 382 defined as: “all current and former 11 non-exempt employees of the Castine Group who worked in California any time or times between 12 January 12, 2017, through the date of preliminary approval of the Parties’ settlement agreement by 13 the Court, and excluding persons who are currently represented by counsel and have a civil action 14 pending, and also excluding any persons who opt-out of the class.” (Settlement, § 1.5.)

15 2. Class Period: “means the period from January 12, 2017, through the date of 16 preliminary approval of the Stipulation of Settlement.” (Settlement, § 1.11.) However, in the 17 event the number of actual workweeks exceeds the number of workweeks outlined in Section 8 of 18 the Settlement, Defendant may request to shorten the Class Period so that end date does not trigger 19 the escalator clause. In the event this option is exercised, the Parties will submit an amended 20 proposed order reflecting the new Class Period and an updated Class Notice before the Class Notice 21 is distributed to the class members.

22 3. Participating Class Members: “means a Class Member who does not submit a valid 23 and timely Request for Exclusion.” (Settlement, § 1.35.)

24 4. Aggrieved Employees: “means all current or former non-exempt employees who 25 worked for the Castine Group in the State of California from January 13, 2020, through the date of 26 preliminary approval of the parties’ settlement agreement by the Court.” (Settlement, §§ 1.4.)

27 5. Gross Settlement Amount: This amount is $485,000.00, for all claims, including 28 wages, interest, the Class Counsel Award, Litigation costs, Settlement Administration Costs,

1 payment to the Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) for the alleged PAGA
2 penalties, all other penalties, and the Class Representative Service Award. (Settlement, § 1.22.)

3 6. Uncashed Checks: If a settlement check is returned to the Settlement Administrator 4 as undeliverable, the Settlement Administrator shall promptly attempt to obtain a valid mailing 5 address by performing a skip trace search and, if another address is identified, shall mail the check 6 to the newly identified address. Any settlement checks remaining uncashed after one hundred and 7 eighty (180) days shall be transmitted to Legal Aid at Work, located at 180 Montgomery Street, 8 #600, San Francisco, California 94104, consistent with Code of Civil Procedure Section 384, subd.
9 (b). (Settlement, § 4.4.3.)

10 7. Release: “Effective on the date when Defendant fully funds the entire Gross 11 Settlement Amount and employer payroll taxes owed on the Wage Portion of the Individual Class 12 Payments, Plaintiff and Participating Class Members release the Released Parties from all Released
13 Class Claims that arose during the Class Period. The “Released Class Claims” include all claims 14 that were asserted in the Action, or that arise from or could have been asserted based on any of the 15 facts, circumstances, transactions, events, occurrences, acts, disclosures, statements, omissions or 16 failures to act alleged in Plaintiff’s Complaint, regardless of whether such claims arise under federal, 17 state and/or local law, statute, ordinance, regulation, common law, or other source of law. The 18 Released Claims specifically include, but are not limited to Labor Code §§ 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 19 226, 226.7, 510, 512, 1174, 1194, 1194.2, and 1197 and the related IWC Wage Order No. 16-2001
20 and Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq., and include claims based on alleged violations 21 of these Labor Code and Wage Order provisions) and all other claims, such as those under the 22 California Labor Code, Wage Orders, regulations, and/or other provisions of law, that could have 23 been pleaded based on the facts asserted in the Action, including: (1) failure to timely pay employees 24 upon separation or discharge; (2) failure to pay all wages due and owing for time worked; (3) failure 25 to provide meal or rest periods of compensation in lieu thereof, (4) failure to provide accurate 26 itemized wage statements, (5) all related violations of the applicable Wage Orders; (6) all related 27 violations of California’s unfair competition law; and (7) interest, fees, and costs (“Released 28 Claims”). The enumeration of these specific statutes shall neither enlarge or narrow the scope of res judicata based on the claims that were asserted in the Action or could have been asserted in the Action based on the facts and circumstances alleged in any Complaint on file in the Action. Plaintiff's Release does not extend to any claims and causes of actions related to the case entitled Alberto Jimenez v. M.D.E. Electric Company, Inc., et al., case number 21CV385485." (Settlement, § 5.2.)

8. No Reversion: "None of the Gross Settlement Amount will revert to Defendant." (Settlement, § 3.1.)

9. PAGA Allocation: The settlement includes $25,000.00 allocated to Plaintiff's claims under PAGA, with 75% of which ($18,750.00) being paid to the LWDA and 25% ($6,250.00) being paid to the Aggrieved Employees. (Settlement, § 1.34.) Class Counsel submitted the proposed settlement to the LWDA before filing this Motion for Preliminary Approval. (Marquez Decl., ¶ 10.)

10. Net Settlement Amount: The "Net Settlement Amount" is the amount that remains and that shall be paid to Settlement Class Members after the following amounts are subtracted: (1) attorneys' fees and Litigation costs, (2) Administrative Costs, (3) enhancement to the Named Plaintiff, and (4) the penalties recoverable pursuant to the PAGA. (Settlement, § 1.28.)

11. Distribution Formula: "The Administrator will calculate each Individual Class Payment by (a) dividing the Net Settlement Amount by the total number of Workweeks worked by all Participating Class Members during the Class Period and (b) multiplying the result by each Participating Class Member's Workweeks." (Settlement, § 3.2.4.) As to PAGA: "The Administrator will calculate each Individual PAGA Payment by (a) dividing the amount of the Aggrieved Employees' 25% share of PAGA Penalties ($6,250) by the total number of PAGA Period Pay Periods worked by all Aggrieved Employees during the PAGA Period and (b) multiplying the result by each Aggrieved Employee's PAGA Period Pay Periods." (Settlement, § 3.2.5.1.)

12. Tax Allocation: "23% of each Participating Class Member's Individual Class Payment will be allocated to settlement of wage claims (the "Wage Portion"). The Wage Portions are subject to tax withholding and will be reported on an IRS W-2 Form. 10% of each Individual Class Payment will be allocated to the settlement of claims for interest and 67% of each Individual

Class Payment will be allocated to the settlement of claims for penalties (together, the “Non-Wage Portion”).” (Settlement, § 3.2.4.1.)

13. Class Representative Service Award: Subject to Court approval, Plaintiff shall be paid an enhancement award not to exceed $10,000.00. (Settlement, § 3.2.1.) This amount is for Plaintiff’s time and effort in bringing and presenting the action, and in exchange for a general release of all claims, known or unknown, pursuant to Civil Code Section 1542. (Settlement, § 5.1.) If the Court approves a lesser enhancement, then the unapproved portion or portions shall revert into the Net Settlement Amount to be distributed between the participating Settlement Class Members on a pro-rata basis. (Settlement, § 3.2.1.)

14. Attorneys’ Fees and Costs: The Settlement provides that Defendant will not oppose a fee application of up to 33 1/3% ($161,666.67) of the Gross Settlement Amount, plus out-of-pocket costs not to exceed $50,000.00. (Settlement, § 3.2.2.)

15. Notice of Proposed Class Action Settlement: The Notice sets forth in plain terms, a statement of the case, the terms of the Settlement Agreement, the approximate amount of attorneys’ fees, costs, and service award being sought, and an explanation of how the settlement allocations are calculated. (Settlement, Ex. 1, Class Notice.) Class Members will be notified by first-class mail of the settlement. (Settlement, § 7.4.) ILYM Group, Inc., the proposed Settlement Administrator, will undertake its best efforts to ensure that the notice is provided to the current addresses of class members, including conducting a national change of address search and re-mailing the notice to updated addresses. (Id.; Marquez Decl., ¶ 14, Ex. 3 [Settlement Administrator Bid].)

III. DISCUSSION

To prevent fraud, collusion, or unfairness to the class, the settlement of a class action requires court approval. (Dunk v. Ford Motor Co. (1996) 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1800-01.) This Court has wide discretion to determine whether the proposed settlement is fair. (Mallick v. Super. Ct. (1979) 89 Cal.App.3d 434, 438.) Fairness is presumed when: (1) the settlement is reached through arm’s-length bargaining; (2) investigation is sufficient to allow counsel and the court to

1 act intelligently; (3) counsel is experienced in similar litigation; and (4) the percentage of objectors
2 is small. (Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th at p. 1800.)

3 In considering whether a settlement is reasonable, the trial court should consider relevant 4 factors, which may include the strength of plaintiff's case, the risk, expense, complexity and likely 5 duration of further litigation, the risk of maintaining class action status through trial, the amount 6 offered in settlement, the extent of discovery completed and the stage of the proceedings, the 7 experience and views of counsel, the presence of a governmental participant, and the reaction of 8 the class members to the proposed settlement. (Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc., (2008) 168 9 Cal.App.4th 116, 128.) In order to approve a class action settlement, the court must satisfy itself 10 that the class settlement is within the "ballpark" of reasonableness. (Id. at p. 133.) The record 11 need not contain an explicit statement of the maximum theoretical recovery. (Munoz v. BCI Coca- 12 Cola Bottling Co. of Los Angeles (2010) 186 Cal.App.4th 399, 408-9 [holding that Kullar does not 13 require "an explicit statement of the maximum amount the plaintiff class could recover if it 14 prevailed on all its claims", but instead, only an "understanding of the amount that is in controversy 15 and the realistic range of outcomes of the litigation."].)

16 As discussed below, Class Counsel has provided information exceeding the threshold 17 required to provide this Court with materials and information necessary to determine that the 18 proposed settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable.

19 A. The Settlement Is Fair, Reasonable, Adequate, and the Product of 20 Investigation, Litigation, and Negotiation

21 1. The Settlement Is the Product of Discovery, Investigation, and 22 Informed and Non-Collusive Arm's-Length Negotiations

23 Courts presume the absence of fraud or collusion in the negotiation of a settlement, unless 24 evidence to the contrary is offered; thus, there is a presumption here that the negotiations were 25 conducted in good faith. (Conte & Newberg, Newberg on Class Actions (3rd Ed.) § 11.51.)
26 Settlement is favored, and settlement agreements are realistically assessed. (Stamburgh v. Super.
27 Ct. (1976) 62 Cal.App.3d 231, 236; Priddy v. Edelman (6th Cir. 1989) 883 F.2d 438, 447 ["The 28 fact that a plaintiff might have received more if the case had been fully litigated is no reason not

1 to approve the settlement.”].)

2 The Settlement was reached following extensive negotiations following multiple 3 mediations conducted with the assistance of experienced class action mediators, Lisa Klerman, 4 Esq. and Jason Marsili, Esq. (Marquez Decl. ¶¶ 7, 10.) The settlement negotiations were at arm’s 5 length and, although conducted in a professional manner, were adversarial. (Id.) The parties went 6 into the mediations willing to explore the potential for a settlement of the dispute, but each side 7 was also prepared to litigate their or its position through trial and appeal if a settlement had not 8 been reached. (Id.) After extensive negotiations and discussions regarding the strengths and 9 weaknesses of Plaintiff’s claims and Castine’s defenses, the Parties reached an agreement. (Id. at 10 ¶ 11.)

11 Prior to reaching this settlement, Class Counsel conducted informal discovery concerning 12 the claims set forth in the Litigation, such as a sample of class member timekeeping and payroll 13 records, Castine’s policies and procedures concerning the payment of wages, the provision of meal 14 and rest breaks, issuance of wage statements, and providing all wages at separation, as well as 15 information regarding the number of putative class members and the mix of current versus former 16 employees, the wage rates in effect, and the amount of meal and rest period premium wages paid 17 to class members. (Id. at ¶¶ 5-6.) In conjunction with their extensive factual investigation, Class 18 Counsel investigated the applicable law regarding the claims and defenses asserted in the litigation.
19 (Id.) Thus, Plaintiff and her counsel were able to act intelligently and effectively in negotiating 20 the proposed Settlement. (Id.)

21 Class Counsel also has considerable experience and has demonstrated competence with 22 litigating wage and hour class actions. (Id. at ¶¶ 45-56.) Again, this supports the position that the 23 terms of the Settlement are premised on objective evidence that has been considered and weighed 24 in light of the risks, expenses, and time consumption to both sides of continued litigation of this 25 action.

1 2. The Settlement Is Fair and Reasonable in Light of the Parties’
2 Respective Legal Positions

3 A settlement is not judged against what might plaintiff recover had he prevailed at trial, nor 4 does the settlement have to provide 100% of the damages sought to be fair and reasonable.
5 (Wershba v. Apple Computers, Inc. (2001) 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 246, 250 [“Compromise is inherent 6 and necessary in the settlement process . . . even if the relief afforded by the proposed settlement 7 is substantially narrower than it would be if the suits were to be successfully litigated, this is no 8 bar to a class settlement because the public interest may indeed be served by a voluntary settlement 9 in which each side gives ground in the interest of avoiding litigation.”].)

10 This settlement avoids the risks and the accompanying expense of further litigation.
11 (Marquez Decl., ¶ 32.) While Plaintiff is confident in the merits of his claims, a legitimate 12 controversy exists as to each cause of action. (Id. at ¶ 31.) Plaintiff also recognizes that proving 13 the amount of wages due to each class member would be an expensive, time-consuming, and 14 uncertain proposition. (Id.)

15 The proposed settlement of $485,000.00 therefore represents a substantial recovery when 16 compared to Plaintiff’s reasonably forecasted recovery. (Id. at ¶¶ 23-34.) Because of the proposed 17 Settlement, class members will receive timely, guaranteed relief and will avoid the risk of an 18 unfavorable judgment. When considering the risks of litigation, the uncertainties involved in 19 achieving class certification, the burdens of proof necessary to establish liability, the probability 20 of appeal of a favorable judgment, it is clear that the settlement amount of $485,000.00 is within 21 the “ballpark” of reasonableness, and preliminary settlement approval is appropriate. (Id.) Indeed, 22 each Settlement Class Member is eligible to receive an average net benefit of approximately 23 $3,310.19. (Id. at ¶ 33.)

24 3. Class Counsel Has Extensive Experience in Class Action Litigation

25 The settlement negotiations were conducted by highly capable and experienced counsel.
26 Class Counsel have a strong record of vigorous and effective advocacy for their clients and are 27 experienced in handling complex wage and hour class action litigation. (Marquez Decl., ¶¶ 45-28 56.) Although Plaintiff and her counsel were prepared to litigate the claims alleged in the litigation, they support the proposed Settlement as being in the best interests of the class.

B. The Proposed Class Notice of Settlement Should Be Approved

The proposed Notice, in the form attached to the Settlement Agreement, should be approved for dissemination to the class. The Notice informs the class of the terms of the settlement and of their rights to be excluded from the settlement. And if there are class members who wish to object to this proposed class action settlement, they will have the opportunity to file their objections and be heard at the Final Approval Hearing. Accordingly, the proposed Notice meets all the requirements of Rule 3.769(f) of the California Rules of Court.

C. The Proposed Attorneys' Fees and Costs Are Reasonable

Under the Settlement, subject to the Court's approval, Castine agrees to pay Class Counsel reasonable attorneys' fees in amount of $161,666.67, which is 33 1/3% of the gross Settlement Amount, and up to $50,000.00 in costs. These amounts are disclosed to all class members in the proposed Notice and are reasonable.

1. Class Counsel Request an Award of Fees Based on the "Common Fund" Method

California courts have long awarded attorneys' fees as a percentage of the benefit created by counsel in creating a common fund. The California Supreme Court held that "when a number of persons is entitled in common to a specific fund, and an action brought by a plaintiff or plaintiffs for the benefit of all results in the creation or preservation of that fund, such plaintiff or plaintiffs may be awarded attorneys' fees out of the fund." (Serrano v. Priest (1977) 20 Cal.3d 25, 34, quoting D'Amico v. Bd. of Medical Examiners (1974) 11 Cal.3d 1.)

Class Counsel seeks an award of attorneys' fees on the "percentage of recovery/ common fund" theory. The purpose of this approach is to "spread litigation costs proportionally among all the beneficiaries so that the active beneficiary does not bear the entire burden alone." (Vincent v. Hughes Air West, Inc. (9th Cir. 1977) 557 F.2d 759, 769.) In Quinn v. State of California (1995) 15 Cal.3d 162, the California Supreme Court stated: "[O]ne who expends attorneys' fees in winning a suit which creates a fund from which others derive benefits may require those passive beneficiaries to bear a fair share of the litigation costs." (Id. at p. 167.) Similarly, in City and

1 County of San Francisco v. Sweet (1995) 12 Cal.4th 105, the California Supreme Court recognized 2 that the common fund doctrine has been applied “consistently in California when an action brought 3 by one party creates a fund in which other persons are entitled to share.” (Id. at p. 110.)

4 The California Supreme Court affirmed in Laffitte v. Robert Half Int’l Inc. (2016) 1 Cal.5th 5 480 that, “when class action litigation establishes a monetary fund for the benefit of the class 6 members, and the trial court in its equitable powers awards class counsel a fee out of that fund, the 7 court may determine the amount of a reasonable fee by choosing an appropriate percentage of the 8 fund created.” (Id. at p. 503.) The court explained: “The recognized advantages of the percentage 9 method—including relative ease of calculation, alignment of incentives between counsel and the 10 class, a better approximation of market conditions in a contingency case, and the encouragement 11 it provides counsel to seek an early settlement and avoid unnecessarily prolonging the litigation—12 convince us the percentage method is a valuable tool that should not be denied our trial courts.”
13 (Id. [internal citations omitted].)

14 2. The Requested Fee Award Is in Line with Typical Cases

15 According to a leading treatise on class actions, “No general rule can be articulated on what 16 is a reasonable percentage of a common fund. Usually 50% of the fund is the upper limit on a 17 reasonable fee award from a common fund in order to assure that the fees do not consume a 18 disproportionate part of the recovery obtained for the class, although somewhat larger percentages 19 are not unprecedented.” (See Conte & Newberg, Newberg on Class Actions (3rd Ed.) § 14.03.)
20 Attorneys’ fees that are fifty percent of the fund are typically considered the upper limit, with thirty 21 to forty percent commonly awarded in cases where the settlement is relatively small. (Id.; see also 22 Van Vranken v. Atlantic Richfield Company (N.D. Cal. 1995) 901 F. Supp. 294 [stating that most 23 cases where 30-50 percent was awarded involved “smaller” settlement funds of under $10 24 million].)

25 Here, Plaintiff requests attorneys’ fees equal to 33 1/3% of the Settlement Amount, which 26 is in line with the prevailing guidelines established in California case law and academic literature 27 and is consistent with awards in California. (See Chavez v. Netflix, Inc. (2008) 162 Cal.App.4th 28 43, 66, n.11 [“Empirical studies show that, regardless whether the percentage method or the lodestar method is used, fee awards in class actions average around one-third of the recovery.”].) Accordingly, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court approve the attorneys’ fees as negotiated by the parties and requested herein.

3. This Matter Involves A “Fee-Shifting” Provision of the Labor Code

Labor Code § 1194 (a) provides for the recovery of “minimum wage or overtime compensation, including interest thereon, reasonable attorney’s fees, and costs of suit.” Under this section, Plaintiff would be permitted to recover his actual attorneys’ fees, even if those fees were larger than the total class recovery at the conclusion of this case. This settlement is beneficial in that it limits the risk of continued expenses and consumption of time, energy, and resources facing Castine while at the same time rewarding Class Counsel for their decision to assume risk by taking on this matter. In fact, prosecution of this action involved significant financial risk for Class Counsel. (Marquez Decl., ¶¶ 43-44.) Class Counsel undertook this matter solely on a contingent basis, with no guarantee of recovery. (Id.) Once counsel undertook this litigation on behalf of the Class, Class Counsel committed to pursue it to its conclusion, placing its fiduciary duty to the Class ahead of all other concerns.

4. The Experience, Reputation and Ability of Class Counsel Support the Requested Fee Award

As demonstrated by their past experience in pursuing class actions on behalf of consumers and employees, Class Counsel possess considerable expertise in litigating class actions. (Id. at Decl., ¶¶ 45-56.) Class Counsel has been involved as lead counsel or co-counsel in several class actions that resulted in millions in recovery. (Id.) Because it is reasonable to compensate class counsel commensurate with their skill, reputation and experience, Class Counsel’s requested fee award is supported here.

Class Counsel’s experience in wage and hour class actions was integral in evaluating the strengths and weaknesses of the case against Castine and the reasonableness of the settlement. Practice in the narrow field of wage and hour litigation requires skill and knowledge concerning the rapidly evolving substantive law (state and federal), as well as the procedural law of class action litigation. Based on these and other factors, Class Counsel has frequently received fee awards of this percentage from the gross recovery for the class. Therefore, the requested fee award is reasonable and fair.

D. The Service Award to Named Plaintiff Is Reasonable

Named plaintiffs in class action lawsuits “are eligible for reasonable incentive payments to compensate them for the expense or risk they have incurred in conferring a benefit on other members of the class.” (See Munoz v. BCI Coca-Cola Bottling Co. of Los Angeles (2010) 186 Cal.App.4th 399.) Courts routinely grant approval of class action settlement agreements containing enhancements for the class representatives, which are necessary to provide incentive to represent the class, and are appropriate given the benefit the class representatives help to bring about for the class. (See Rodriguez v. W. Publ'g Corp. (9th Cir. 2009) 563 F.3d 948, 958-59.)

Service awards are particularly important to plaintiffs in wage and hour cases because they promote the important public policies underlying the wage and hour laws. This strong policy is codified in California Labor Code § 90.5, which provides, “it is the policy of this state to vigorously enforce minimum labor standards in order to ensure employees are not required or permitted to work under substandard unlawful conditions”) Nonetheless, the California Supreme Court has noted that “retaliation against employees for asserting statutory rights under the Labor Code is widespread,” despite anti-retaliation statutes designed to protect employees. (Gentry v. Super. Ct. (2007) 42 Cal.4th 443, 460-61.) In this context, class representatives should be rewarded for assuming the risk of retaliation for the sake of class members. (See Frank v. Eastman Kodak Co. (W.D.N.Y. 2005) 228 F.R.D. 174, 187.)

Under the settlement agreement, subject to the Court’s approval, Castine agreed to pay a Service Award in the amount of $10,000 to Plaintiff. This amount is also in exchange for Plaintiff’s general release of all claims against Castine. Class Counsel represent that Plaintiff devoted a great deal of time and work assisting counsel in the case, communicated with counsel very frequently for litigation and to prepare for mediation, and was frequently in contact with Class Counsel during the mediation. (Marquez Decl., ¶¶ 35-39.) This amount is reasonable particularly in light of the substantial benefits Plaintiff generated for all class members. (Id.) Indeed, in Karl Adams, III, et al. v. MarketStar Corporation, et al., No. 2:14-cv-02509-TLN-DB, Class Counsel Justin F.

1 Marquez helped negotiate a $2.5 million class action settlement for 339 class members, and the 2 court approved a $25,000 class representative incentive award for each named plaintiff. (Marquez
3 Decl., ¶ 39.)

4 When compared with the amounts awarded in typical class action cases, the amount 5 requested here is particularly reasonable. Indeed, a 2006 study examining the average incentive 6 award given to class action plaintiffs from 1993 to 2002 found that the “average award per class 7 representative was $15,992 and the median award per class representative was $4,357.” (Eisenberg 8 & Miller, Incentive Awards to Class Action Plaintiffs: An Empirical Study (2006) 53 UCLA L.Rev.
9 1303, 1308.) That same study found that named plaintiffs in employment discrimination class 10 actions received an average award of $69,850 and a median award of $31,081, while named 11 plaintiffs in other employment class actions received an average award of $12,121 and a median 12 award of $13,059. (Id. at p. 1334.) The authors of the study found that higher awards in 13 employment cases reflected the “courts’ wish to make representative plaintiffs whole by 14 compensating them for the high costs of their service to the class, including risks of stigmatization 15 or retaliation on the job.” (Id. at p. 1308.)

16 IV. CERTIFICATION FOR SETTLEMENT PURPOSES IS WARRANTED

17 A. Legal Standard

18 The proposed Settlement Class is well suited for class certification. All of the claims derive 19 from a core set of alleged violations of California’s wage and hour laws and regulations. For the 20 reasons set forth more fully below, for purposes of settlement only, the Class satisfies the 21 prerequisites for certification under Code of Civil Procedure § 382. Section 382 provides: “when 22 the question is one of a common or general interest, of many persons, or when the parties are 23 numerous, and it is impracticable to bring them all before the court, one or more may sue or defend 24 for the benefit of all.” (Code Civ. Proc., § 382.) There are two requirements to section 382: “(1) 25 There must be an ascertainable class; and (2) there must be a well-defined community of interest 26 in the questions of law and fact involved affecting the parties to be represented.” (Daar v. Yellow 27 Cab Co. (1967) 67 Cal. 2d 695, 704 [citations omitted].) To clarify these requirements, the 28 California Supreme Court has looked to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23 to explain that the community-of-interest requirement itself embodies three factors: “(1) predominant questions of law or fact; (2) class representatives with claims or defenses typical of the class; and (3) class representatives who can adequately represent the class.” (Richmond v. Dart Indus., Inc. (1981) 29 Cal. 3d 462, 470.)

California law and policy favor the fullest and most flexible use of the class action device. (Id. at pp. 469-73.) Indeed, “Courts long have acknowledged the importance of class actions as a means to prevent a failure of justice in our judicial system” particularly where the rights of consumers are at issue. (Linder v. Thrifty Oil Co. (2000) 23 Cal. 4th 429, 434.) Any doubt as to the appropriateness of class treatment should be resolved in favor of certification. (Richmond, supra, 29 Cal.3d at pp. 473-75.)

B. Plaintiff Maintains That the Criteria for Class Certification Are Satisfied for Settlement Purposes.

1. The Classes Are Ascertainable and Numerous

The proposed class that Plaintiff seeks to represent is easily ascertainable and includes approximately 72 employees of Castine.

Plaintiff maintains that there is an easily ascertainable class, defined by objective and precise criteria. Because class members are identified using specific criteria in the regular business records of Castine, i.e., job position, the class is ascertainable. (Wilner v. Sunset Life Ins. Co. (2000) 78 Cal.App.4th 952, 959-60 [class membership defined by ownership of product that is the subject of the lawsuit is sufficient to make the class ascertainable].)

“The requirement of Code of Civil Procedure section 382 that there be ‘many’ parties to a class action suit is indefinite and has been construed liberally.” (Rose v. City of Hayward (1981) 126 Cal.App.3d 926, 934.) “Where a question is of common interest to ‘many’ persons, an action may be maintained as a class action even where the parties are numerous and it is in fact practicable to join them all.” (Id.) “No set number is required as a matter of law for the maintenance of a class action.” (Id.) “Thus, our Supreme Court has upheld a class representing the 10 beneficiaries of a trust in an action for removal of the trustees.” (Id., citing Bowles v. Super. Ct. (1955) 44 Cal.2d 574; see also, Collins v. Rocha (1972) 7 Cal.3d 232 [upholding a 35 member class.]) Therefore,

1 Plaintiff contends that numerosity is plainly satisfied.

2 2. There are Many Common Issues of Law and Fact Which Predominate

3 The Court should grant conditional class certification for settlement purposes here on the 4 grounds that questions of law and fact common to all class and subclass predominate over any 5 individual questions. This inquiry tests whether proposed classes are sufficiently cohesive to 6 warrant adjudication by representation. (See, e.g., Clothesrigger, Inc. v. GTE Corp. (1987) 191 7 Cal.App.3d 605.)

8 Here, the employment practices at issue are: whether Castine had legally compliant policies 9 and practices to provide employees with meal periods; whether Castine had legally compliant 10 policies and practices authorizing and permitting its employees to take rest periods; whether 11 Castine had legally compliant policies and practices for all hours worked, including overtime 12 wages; whether Castine reimbursed employees for business expenses; whether final payment of 13 wages was untimely and excluded unpaid wages, including meal period premium wages, and rest 14 period premium wages; and whether the wage statements were consequently non-compliant.
15 Plaintiff contends that the factual and legal issues are the same for all of the identified class 16 members, including Plaintiff. Further, all class members suffered from, and seek redress for, the 17 same alleged injuries.

18 3. Plaintiff's Claims Are Typical of the Claims of the Class

19 The typicality requirement does not focus on the individual characteristics or circumstances 20 of the representative plaintiff compared to those of the remainder of the class, but rather upon the 21 typicality of the proposed representative's claims as they relate to the defendant's conduct and 22 activities. (Classen v. Weller (1983) 145 Cal.App.3d 27, 47 ["[t]he only requirements are that 23 common questions of law and fact predominate and that the class representative be similarly 24 situated" vis-à-vis the class.].) A representative plaintiff's claims are typical of the class if they 25 arise from the same event, practice or course of conduct, and if the claims rest on the same legal 26 theories. (Id.) That is precisely the case here. Plaintiff is a former employee of Castine; as such, 27 she alleges that she was subject to the same policies and practices as other similarly situated 28 employees.

1 4. Plaintiff and His Counsel Meet the Adequacy Requirement

2 The adequacy of representation requirements is met by fulfilling two conditions: first, a 3 named plaintiff must be represented by counsel qualified to conduct the pending litigation; second, 4 a named plaintiff's interests cannot be antagonistic to those of the class. (McGhee v. Bank of 5 America (1976) 60 Cal.App.3d 442, 451.)

6 All of these requirements are met here for settlement purposes. Plaintiff retained counsel 7 with extensive experience in prosecuting complex class actions, including similar class actions that 8 previously settled. (Marquez Decl., ¶¶ 45-56.) Class Counsel unquestionably is "qualified, 9 experienced and generally able to conduct the proposed litigation." (Miller v. Woods (1983) 148 10 Cal.App.3d 862, 875.) In addition, Plaintiff has no conflicts, and Plaintiff has, with counsel, 11 litigated this case and diligently reviewed the settlement terms, showing his dedication. Plaintiff's 12 willingness to serve as a representative demonstrates his serious commitment to bringing about the 13 best results possible for the class. (McGhee, supra, 60 Cal.App.3d at p. 451.)

14 5. A Class Action is Superior to a Multiplicity of Litigation

15 Finally, in making its class certification decision, the Court must determine that a class 16 action would be superior to alternative means for the fair and efficient adjudication of the litigation.
17 By consolidating many potential individual actions into a single proceeding, this Court's use of the 18 class action device enables it to manage this litigation in a manner that serves the economics of 19 time, effort and expense for the litigants and the judicial system. Absent class treatment, similarly-20 situated employees with small but nevertheless meritorious claims for damages would, as a 21 practical matter, have no means of redress because of the time, effort and expense required to 22 prosecute individual actions. (Gentry v. Super. Ct. (2007) 42 Cal. 4th 443, 457-62; Leyva v.
23 Medline Ind. (9th Cir. 2013) 716 F.3d 510, 515.) Moreover, in the context of settlement, the 24 superiority concerns are essentially non-existent.

25 V. THE PROPOSED NOTICE IS CONSTITUTIONALLY SOUND

26 A. The Proposed Notice Plan Satisfies Due Process

27 Notice requirements are set forth in the California Rules of Court. Cal. Rules of Court, 28 Rule 3.766 (e) and (f). California law vests the Court with broad discretion in fashioning an

1 appropriate notice program. (Cartt v. Super Ct. (1975) 50 Cal.App.3d 960, 973-74.) There is no 2 statutory or due process requirement that all class members receive actual notice, but in this matter, 3 the class members will receive direct mailed notice. As the Court of Appeals has explained, “[t]he 4 notice given should have a reasonable chance of reaching a substantial percentage of the Class 5 Members” (Id. at p. 974.) In this case, notice of the proposed settlement will be provided 6 by direct mailing, the best possible form of notice.

7 B. The Notice is Accurate and Informative

8 The proposed Notice should be approved. It will be disseminated through direct U.S. first 9 class mail to the last known address for each Class Member. It informs the Class Members of the 10 terms of the settlement and their right to be excluded from the Settlement. And if there are Class 11 Members who wish to object to this proposed class action settlement, they will have the 12 opportunity to file their objections and be heard at the Final Approval Hearing.

13 The Notice also fulfills the requirement of neutrality in class notices. (Conte & Newberg, 14 Newberg on Class Actions (3rd Ed.) § 8.39.) It summarizes the proceedings to date and the 15 terms and conditions of the settlement agreement, in an informative and coherent manner. It 16 makes clear that the settlement agreement does not constitute an admission of liability by the 17 Castine, who denies all liability, and it recognizes that this Court has not ruled on the merits of 18 the action. It also states that the final settlement approval decision has yet to be made. The 19 Notice thus complies with the standards of fairness, completeness, and neutrality required of a 20 combined settlement-certification class notice.

21 VI. CONCLUSION

22 For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court grant preliminary 23 approval of the proposed settlement and set a Final Approval Hearing on November 2024 or later.

24 Respectfully submitted,
