I, DOUGLAS HAN, hereby declare as follows:

1. I am an attorney duly licensed to practice law before all courts of the State of California. I am the founding member of Justice Law Corporation. I am the attorney of record for Plaintiff Rason Williams (“Plaintiff Williams”), and Diversity Law Group, P.C. is the attorney of record for Marquise Woodson (“Plaintiff Woodson”) in the instant action (collectively, known as “Plaintiffs”). Justice Law Corporation and Diversity Law Group, P.C. are the proposed Class Counsel for Plaintiffs and the Class in the instant action. I have personal knowledge of the facts set forth below and if called to testify I could and would do so competently.

2. In May of 2004, I graduated from Pepperdine University School of Law with a Juris Doctor degree. In May of 2001, I obtained a Bachelor of Science degree in Political Science with a minor in English from University of Houston.

3. From January of 2004 to May of 2004, I served as a Judicial Extern to the Honorable Lourdes G. Baird of the United States District Court for the Central District of California.

4. Since inception, our firm has almost exclusively focused on the prosecution of consumer and employment class actions, involving wage-and-hour claims, unfair business practices or consumer fraud. Since that time, our firm has successfully litigated to conclusion over two hundred fifty (250) wage-and-hour class or representative actions. Currently, we are the attorneys of record in over a dozen employment-related putative class actions in both state and federal courts in the State of California. During this relatively short time, in association with other law firms, we have obtained millions of dollars on behalf of thousands of individuals in California.

EXAMPLES OF CLASS ACTION RESULTS

21 8. This case involves all persons employed by Defendants Corovan Corporation,
22 Corovan Moving & Storage Co., and Klinger Moving Company (“Defendants”) in California in a
23 non-exempt hourly paid position and any non-exempt hourly Temps placed or assigned at 24 Defendants during the period of time starting on January 11, 2017 and ending on November 1, 2021
25 (“Class,” “Class Members,” and “Class Period”).

26 ///

27 ///

1 9. On October 29, 2020, Plaintiff Williams provided written notice to the
2 California Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) and Defendants. On January 11,
3 2021, Plaintiff Williams filed a representative Private Attorney General Act of 2004 (“PAGA”)
4 action in the Superior Court of California, County of Alameda. This action was predicated on 5 Defendants’ alleged failure to: (a) pay minimum and overtime wages; (b) provide meal and rest
6 breaks; (c) timely pay wages during employment; (d) timely pay wages upon termination; (e) provide
7 complete and accurate wage statements; and (f) reimburse business expenses.

8 10. On January 5, 2021, Plaintiff Woodson provided written notice to the LWDA
9 and Defendants. On January 25, 2021, Plaintiff Woodson filed a representative PAGA action in the 10 Superior Court of California, County of San Diego, which was later transferred to Alameda County.
11 This action was predicated on Defendants’ alleged failure to: (a) provide duty-free meal breaks; (b)
12 pay premium wages for missed meal breaks; (c) reimburse business expenses; and (d) provide 13 accurate wage statements.

14 11. After Plaintiffs’ counsel determined their lawsuits against Defendants
15 asserted similar allegations, Plaintiffs worked together to litigate their lawsuits. Pursuant to this, the 16 Parties attended mediation on Plaintiffs’ claims with mediator Lynn S. Frank on August 3, 2021.
17 Under the auspices of the mediator, the Parties reached an agreement on settlement of the actions
18 via a mediator’s proposal.

19 12. In line with the settlement, Plaintiffs submitted amended written notices to 20 the LWDA and Defendants. Plaintiff Williams then filed a First Amended Complaint (“FAC”) on 21 February 16, 2022 that consolidated both lawsuits and designated Plaintiff Williams’ lawsuit as the 22 lead case. The FAC also added eight (8) wage-and-hour class action causes of action.

23 13. Defendants generally and specifically deny all liability or wrongdoing of any 24 sort regarding any of the claims alleged, make no concessions or admissions of liability of any sort,
25 and contend that for any purpose other than settlement, this case is not appropriate for class
26 treatment. Defendants assert several defenses to the claims and have denied any wrongdoing or 27 liability arising out of any of the alleged facts or conduct in this case.

1 14. After Plaintiffs filed their lawsuits, both Parties engaged in discovery.
2 Plaintiffs propounded form interrogatories, special interrogatories, requests for admissions, and
3 requests for production of documents to Defendants. Thereafter, the Parties met and conferred and 4 agreed to engage in an informal exchange of information and then attend mediation.

5 15. Prior to the mediation, the Parties conducted significant investigation and
6 discovery of the facts and law both before and after this case was filed. Specifically, Defendants
7 produced hundreds of documents relating to their policies, practices, and procedures regarding 8 reimbursement of business expenses, paying non-exempt employees for all hours worked, meal and 9 rest period policies, and payroll and operational policies (i.e., employee handbook). As part of 10 Defendants' production, Class Counsel also reviewed time records, pay records, and information
11 relating to the size and scope of the Class, as well as data permitting Class Counsel to understand
12 the number of workweeks and pay periods in the Class Period. Class Counsel also interviewed
13 dozens of Class Members who worked for Defendants throughout the Class Period.

14 16. The Parties agree the above-described investigation and evaluation, as well as 15 the information exchanged during the settlement negotiations, are more than sufficient to assess the 16 merits of the Parties' positions and to compromise the issues on a fair and equitable basis.

17 17. Based upon the information provided by Defendants and interviews Class
18 Counsel had with non-exempt employees, Plaintiffs contend – and Defendants deny – Defendant:
19 (a) provided non-compliant meal and rest breaks; (b) failed to pay employees premium wages for 20 non-compliant meal and rest breaks; (c) failed to pay employees for all hours worked; (d) failed to 21 compensate employees at their regular rate of pay for businesses and incentives; (e) failed to 22 reimburse employees for necessary business expenses; (f) failed to issue non-compliant wage
23 statements; and (g) failed to provide employees with timely wages.

24 18. The Parties agreed to go to mediation with experienced wage-and-hour
25 mediator, Lynn S. Frank on August 3, 2021. During the mediation, the Parties discussed the risks of 26 continued litigation as well as the risks of certification and risks on the merits of the claims versus 27 the benefits of settlement. With the assistance of the mediator, the Parties reached an agreement on 28

1 settlement, the terms of which were memorialized in the Joint Stipulation and Settlement Agreement
2 (“Agreement,” “Settlement Agreement,” or “Settlement”).

3 19. The Settlement Agreement was reached because of arm’s-length negotiations.
4 Though cordial and professional, the settlement negotiations have always been adversarial and non-
5 collusive in nature. At the mediation, both Parties’ counsel conducted extensive arm’s-length
6 settlement negotiations until an agreement was ultimately reached by all Parties.

7 20. Plaintiffs and Class Counsel believe in the merits of the case but recognize 8 the expense and length of continued proceedings necessary to continue the litigation against 9 Defendants. Plaintiffs and Class Counsel have also considered the uncertainty and risk of further
10 litigation, the potential outcome, and the difficulties and delays inherent in such litigation. Plaintiffs
11 and Class Counsel have conducted extensive settlement negotiations, including formal mediation.
12 Based on the foregoing, Plaintiffs and Class Counsel believe the settlement set forth in the Settlement
13 Agreement is a fair, adequate, and reasonable settlement, and is in the Class’s best interests.

14 21. The Parties investigated and evaluated the factual strengths and weaknesses
15 of Plaintiffs’ claims and Defendants’ defenses before reaching the proposed Settlement and engaged
16 in investigation, research, and discovery to support the Settlement. The Settlement was only possible
17 following significant investigation and evaluation of Defendants’ relevant policies and procedures
18 and data Defendants produced for the putative class. Furthermore, this case has reached the stage
19 where “the Parties certainly have a clear view of the strengths and weaknesses of their cases”
20 sufficient to support the Settlement. (Boyd v. Bechtel Corp. (N.D.Cal. 1979) 485 F.Supp. 610, 617.)

21 22. Although Plaintiffs believe the case is suitable for certification, uncertainties
22 with respect to certification are always present. As the California Supreme Court ruled in Sav-On 23 Drug Stores, Inc. v. Superior Court (2004) 34 Cal.4th 319, class certification is always a matter of 24 the trial court’s sound discretion. Decisions following Sav-On Drug Stores, Inc. have reached
25 different conclusions concerning certification of wage-and-hour claims.¹

26
27 ¹ (See, e.g., Harris v. Superior Court (2007) 154 Cal.App.4th 164 [reversing decertification
28 of class claiming misclassification and ordering summary adjudication in favor of employees], review granted Nov. 28, 2007, (2007) 171 P.3d 545 [not cited as precedent, but rather for

1 23. The proposed Class is ascertainable and numerous as to make it impracticable
2 to join all Class Members, and there are common questions of law and fact that predominate over
3 any questions affecting any individual Class Member. Plaintiffs contend as former hourly-paid, non-
4 exempt employees of Defendants, their claims are typical of the claims of the Class, and Class
5 Counsel will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the Class. Plaintiffs assert the prosecution
6 of separate actions by individual Class Members would create the risk of inconsistent or varying
7 adjudications, and a class action is superior for the fair and efficient adjudication of the case.

8 24. This case involves about two thousand fifty-nine (2,059) Class Members.
9 Thus, the Class is sufficiently numerous.² All Class Members can and will be identified by 10 Defendants to the Settlement Administrator through a review of its employment records concerning 11 hourly-paid non-exempt persons employed by Defendants in California during the Class Period.

12 25. Plaintiffs assert common issues of fact and law predominate as to each of the 13 claims alleged. Plaintiffs contend all hourly-paid non-exempt persons employed by Defendants
14 during the Class Period were subject to the same or similar employment practices, policies, and 15 procedures. All Plaintiffs' claims surround Defendants' alleged common schemes of: (a) failing to 16 maintain compliant meal and rest break policies and practices; (b) failing to reimburse business
17 expenses; and (c) failing to fully and properly compensate employees.

18 26. Plaintiffs are former employees of Defendants. Plaintiffs allege they and the 19 Class Members were employed by the same company and injured by Defendants' common policies
20 and practices related to: (a) meal and rest breaks; (b) uncompensated off-the-clock work; (c)
21 underpaid and properly calculated overtime wages and premium wages; (d) unreimbursed business
22 expenses; (e) untimely paid wages; and (f) inaccurate wage statements. Plaintiffs seek relief for these

27 ² (See Ghazaryan v. Diva Limousine, Ltd. (2008) 169 Cal.App.4th 1524, 1531, n.5 [finding 28 that a proposed class of "as many as 190 current and former employees" is sufficiently numerous].)

claims and derivative claims on behalf of the Class. Plaintiffs' claims as alleged arise from the same employment practices and are based on the same legal theories as those applicable to the Class.

27. Plaintiffs have proven to be adequate Class Representatives. Specifically, Plaintiffs have conducted themselves diligently and responsibly in representing the Class in this litigation, understand their fiduciary obligations, and have actively participated in the prosecution of this case. Plaintiffs have spent time in meetings and conferences with Class Counsel to provide Class Counsel with a complete understanding of their work environment and requirements. Furthermore, Plaintiffs have no interest averse to the interests of the other Class Members.

28. The proposed Settlement is the product of serious, informed, non-collusive negotiations, has no obvious defects, does not improperly grant preferential treatment to the Class Representatives, or segments of the Class, and falls within the range of fair and reasonable settlements. I believe this non-reversionary settlement is in the best interests of the Class as fair, reasonable, and adequate. Thus, I recommend approval of the Settlement.

29. The Settlement Agreement calls for the payment of the Plaintiffs' Counsel Award of up to $710,611.30. This request is fair, reasonable, and adequate to compensate Class Counsel for the substantial work they have put into this case and the risk they assumed by taking it in the first place. I have practiced law in Southern California since December of 2004, with most of my time focused solely on the prosecution of employment and wage-and-hour class action litigation. I am aware that the common and acceptable rate for contingency representation in wage-and-hour class action litigation is normally forty percent (40%) before trial, with the range being from thirty-three and one-third percent (33.3%) up to fifty percent (50%).

30. The Plaintiffs' Counsel Award is intended to reimburse Class Counsel for all uncompensated work they have already done and for all the work they will continue to do in carrying out and overseeing notification of the Class, communication with the Class regarding the proposed Settlement, and the settlement administration if the Settlement Agreement is preliminarily approved.

31. Class Counsel took this case on a contingent fee basis against a business represented by a reputable defense firm. When we take contingent fee-based cases, we must pay careful attention to the economics involved. Accordingly, when taking these cases, we anticipate that we shall, if successful, receive a fee that exceeds our normal hourly rate; otherwise, the risk is often too great to bear. Even when we work long hours, the number of hours in a day is limited. Therefore, when we take on one matter, we are unable to take on other matters. When Class Counsel became involved in this case, we realized the time commitment that it would entail, and we were forced to turn down matters that we otherwise could have handled. We were forced to do so because of the thorough factual investigation and development this case required. In sum, this case claimed a significant portion of Class Counsel's time and attention throughout its pendency.

32. The requested fee is reasonable for the services provided to Settlement Class Members and for the benefits they will receive.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the California that the foregoing is true and correct. Executed on this 7th of June 2022, at Pasadena, California.
