8. Cal. Lab. Code § 1198.5, Failure to Provide Employment Records

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

1 Plaintiff David Gonzalez by and through his undersigned attorneys, alleges as follows:

2 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

3 1. This will be a representative action brought under the California Labor Code Private 4 Attorneys General Act (“PAGA”), seeking relief under state law on account of unpaid wages, damages, 5 continuing wages, liquidated damages, penalties, restitution and attorneys’ fees and costs. action in 6 court found in codes other than the Code of Civil Procedure.”

7 2. Venue as to Defendants is proper in this judicial district, pursuant to California Business
8 & Professions Code section 17203 and California Code of Civil Procedure sections 395(a) and 395.5.
9 Defendants maintain an office, transact business, have an agent, or are found in the County of Los 10 Angeles and are within the jurisdiction of this Court for purposes of service of process.

11 INTRODUCTION

12 3. Plaintiff David Gonzalez (“Gonzalez”) is an individual, who, during the time periods
13 relevant to this Complaint, was and is a resident of the County of Los Angeles, State of California.

14 4. Defendant National Basketball Association, Inc. (“NBA”) is a Delaware limited liability 15 company, which at all times relevant herein, conducted business within the County of Los Angeles of 16 the State of California.

17 5. Defendant Rattling Stick, Inc. (“Rattling Stick”) is a Delaware limited partnership, which 18 at all times relevant herein, conducted business within the County of Los Angeles of the State of 19 California.

20 6. Defendant Joe Biggins (“Biggins”) is an individual, who at all times relevant herein, 21 conducted business within the County of Los Angeles of the State of California.

22 7. Defendants Doe One through and including Doe Ten are sued herein under the provisions
23 of section 474 of the California Code of Civil Procedure. Plaintiff is currently ignorant of the true
24 names and capacities, whether individual, corporate, associate, or otherwise, of the defendants sued 25 herein under fictitious names and therefore sue such defendants by such fictitious names. Plaintiff will 26 seek leave to amend this complaint to allege the true names and capacities of said fictitiously named 27 defendants when their true names and capacities have been ascertained. Plaintiff is informed and 28 believes and thereon alleges that each of the fictitiously named defendants is legally responsible in some

1 manner for the events and occurrences alleged herein, and for the damages suffered by the Class.

2 8. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that all defendants, including the
3 fictitious Doe defendants, were at all relevant times acting as actual agents, conspirators, ostensible
4 agents, alter egos, partners and/or joint venturers and/or employees of all other defendants, and that all
5 acts alleged herein occurred within the course and scope of said agency, employment, partnership, and 6 joint venture, conspiracy or enterprise, and with the express and/or implied permission, knowledge, 7 consent authorization and ratification of their co-defendants; however, each of these allegations are 8 deemed “alternative” theories whenever not doing so would result in a contradiction with other 9 allegations.

10 GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

11 9. Defendant Rattling Stick is a production company that employed Plaintiff and Aggrieved 12 Employees as crew members for a commercial entitled “NBA #11120” (“Production”).

13 10. Plaintiff Gonzalez was hired to work on August 17, 2019 as a best boy grip. He worked 14 12 hours that day. Once his employment ended, Defendants were required to pay him by the next week.
15 Plaintiff’s final pay was not wired to him until April 27, 2020 after several requests. He was not 16 provided a wage statement.

17 11. Although Plaintiff should have been paid in full for the accrued minimum wages, issued
18 legally compliant wage statements, and reimbursed for all expenses no later than as required by Code § 19 201.5, they have yet to be paid properly.

20 12. Defendants failed to fully compensate Plaintiff and other nonexempt workers who 21 performed services on the Production or other such projects produced in California for Defendants 22 (“Aggrieved Employees”) for work performed. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees worked on the 23 Production as well as on other California motion picture projects produced by the defense, yet not being 24 paid timely or with appropriate wage statements, all due to Defendant’s insufficient funding of the 25 payroll accounting function.

26 13. Emergency Rule 9 as promulgated by the Judicial Council of California on insert date, 27 provides: “Notwithstanding any other law, the statutes of limitations and repose for civil causes of 28 action that exceed 180 days are tolled from April 6, 2020, until October 1, 2020.” The Advisory Committee Comment notes that: “Emergency rule 9 is intended to apply broadly to toll any statute of limitations on the filing of a pleading in court asserting a civil cause of action. The term “civil causes of action” includes special proceedings. (See Code Civ. Proc., §§ 312, 363 [“action,” as used in title 2 of the code (Of the Time of Commencing Civil Actions), is construed “as including a special proceeding of a civil nature”). . . . The rule also applies to statutes of limitations on filing of causes of action in court found in codes other than the Code of Civil Procedure.”

14. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Wage Order 12 of the California Industrial Welfare Commission applied to Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees. In part, the Wage Order reflects employer obligations regarding hours and days of work, reporting time pay and records (obligations which the employer, here, failed to fulfill, both with respect to Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees). The Wage Order provides, in relevant part:

3. Hours and Days of Work.

(A) Daily Overtime - General Provisions

(1) The following overtime provisions are applicable to employees 18 years of age or over and to employees 16 or 17 years of age who are not required by law to attend school and are not otherwise prohibited by law from engaging in the subject work. Such employees shall not be employed more than eight (8) hours in any workday or more than 40 hours in any workweek unless the employee receives one and one-half (1.5) times such employee’s regular rate of pay for all hours worked over 40 hours in the workweek. Eight (8) hours of labor constitutes a day’s work. Employment beyond eight (8) hours in any workday or more than six (6) days in any workweek is permissible provided the employee is compensated for such overtime as follows:

(a) Employees may be employed up to a maximum of sixteen (16) hours including meal periods in any one day from the time they are required and do report until dismissed, provided the employee is compensated for such overtime at not less than:

(1) For daily employees and weekly employees, excluding weekly employees guaranteed more than forty (40) hours a workweek and “on call” employees, one and one-half (1.5) times the employee’s regular rate of pay for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours up to and including twelve (12) hours in any one workday, and for the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh (7th) consecutive day of work in a workweek; and

(2) Double the employee’s regular rate of pay for all hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in any workday, , and for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours on the seventh (7th) consecutive day of work in a workweek.

(3) Overtime payments shall not be compounded and all payments made by the employer for daily overtime on the basis herein above specified shall be applied toward any sum for weekly overtime.

(4) The overtime rate of compensation required to be paid to a nonexempt full-time salaried employee shall be computed by using the employee’s regular hourly salary as one fortieth (1/40) of the employee’s weekly salary. The overtime rate of compensation required to be paid to a nonexempt full-time salaried employee shall be computed by using the employee's regular hourly salary as one-fortieth (1/40) of the employee's weekly salary.

7. Records.

(A) Every employer shall keep accurate information with respect to each employee including the following:

(1) Full name, home address, occupation and social security number.

(2) Birth date, if under 18 years, and designation as a minor.

(3) Time records showing when the employee begins and ends each work period. Meal periods, split shift intervals and total daily hours worked shall also be recorded. Meal periods during which operations cease and authorized rest periods need not be recorded.

(4) Total wages paid each payroll period, including value of board, lodging, or other compensation actually furnished to the employee.

(5) Total hours worked in the payroll period and applicable rates of pay. This information shall be made readily available to the employee upon reasonable request.

(6) When a piece rate or incentive plan is in operation, piece rates or an explanation of the incentive plan formula shall be provided to employees. An accurate production record shall be maintained by the employer.

(B) Every employer shall semimonthly or at the time of each payment of wages furnish each employee, either as a detachable part of the check, draft, or voucher paying the employee's wages, or separately, an itemized statement in writing showing: (1) all deductions; (2) the inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid; (3) the name of the employee or the employee's social security number; and (4) the name of the employer, provided all deductions made on written orders of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item.

(C) All required records shall be in the English language and in ink or other indelible form, properly dated, showing month, day and year, and shall be kept on file by the employer for at least three years at the place of employment or at a central location within the State of California. An employee's records shall be available for inspection by the employee upon reasonable request.

Cal. Code Regs., Title 8 §§ 11110, 11120.

15. At all relevant times mentioned herein, section 201.5 of the California Labor Code provided in part:

(a) For purposes of this section, the following definitions apply:

(1) "An employee engaged in the production or broadcasting of motion pictures" means an employee to whom both of the following apply:

(A) The employee's job duties relate to or support the production or broadcasting of motion pictures or the facilities or equipment used in the production or broadcasting of motion pictures.

(B) The employee is hired for a period of limited duration to render services relating to or supporting a particular motion picture production or broadcasting project, or is hired on the basis of one or more daily or weekly calls.

(2) "Daily or weekly call" means an employment that, by its terms, will expire at the conclusion of one day or one week, unless renewed.

1 (3) "Next regular payday" means the day designated by the employer, pursuant to Section
2 204, for payment of wages earned during the payroll period in which the termination occurs.

3 (4) "Production or broadcasting of motion pictures" means the development, creation,
4 presentation, or broadcasting of theatrical or televised motion pictures, television
5 programs, commercial advertisements, music videos, or any other moving images, 6 including, but not limited to, productions made for entertainment, commercial, religious, or educational purposes, whether these productions are presented by means of film, tape, live broadcast, cable, satellite transmission, Web cast, or any other technology that is now in use or may be adopted in the future.

7 (b) An employee engaged in the production or broadcasting of motion pictures whose employment terminates is entitled to receive payment of the wages earned and unpaid at 8 the time of the termination by the next regular payday.

9 (c) The payment of wages to employees covered by this section may be mailed to the employee or made available to the employee at a location specified by the employer in 10 the county where the employee was hired or performed labor. The payment shall be deemed to have been made on the date that the employee's wages are mailed to the 11 employee or made available to the employee at the location specified by the employer, whichever is earlier.

12 (d) For purposes of this section, an employment terminates when the employment relationship ends, whether by discharge, lay off, resignation, completion of employment 13 for a specified term, or otherwise.

14 (e) Nothing in this section prohibits the parties to a valid collective bargaining agreement from establishing alternative provisions for final payment of wages to employees covered 15 by this section if those provisions do not exceed the time limitation established in Section 204.

16 Cal. Lab. Code § 201.5. At all relevant times mentioned herein, section 201.5 of the California Labor 17 Code controlled the final payment of wages to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees.

18 16. At all relevant times mentioned herein, section 203 of the California Labor Code
19 provided:

20 If an employer willfully fails to pay, without abatement or reduction, in accordance with 21 Sections 201, 201.5, 202 and 202.5, any wages of an employee who is discharged or who quits, the wages of the employee shall continue as a penalty from the due date thereof at 22 the same rate until paid or until action therefore is commence; but the wages shall not continue for more than 30 days.

23 Cal. Lab. Code § 203.

24 17. By failing to pay Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees all wages when due at the end of 25 employment, Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees are entitled to continuing wages pursuant to section 26 203 of the California Labor Code.

27 18. At all times relevant herein, section 204 of the California Labor Code provided in part:
28

1 All wages, other than those mentioned in Section 201, 201.3, 202, 204.1, or 204.2, earned
2 by any person in any employment are due and payable twice during each calendar month,
3 on days designated in advance by the employer as the regular paydays. Labor performed 4 between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month shall be paid for between the 16th and the 26th day of the month during which the labor was performed, and labor performed between the 16th and the last day, inclusive, of any calendar month, shall be paid for between the 1st and 10th day of the following month.

5 Cal. Lab. Code § 204.

6 19. In no event should Plaintiff or the Aggrieved Employees have been paid later than the 7 time periods established by sections 201.5, 203 or 204 of the California Labor Code, but certain
8 payments to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were made months after they were due, or not at all,
9 leading to penalties and civil penalties under sections 203 and 204 of the California Labor Code.

10 20. At all times relevant herein, section 210 of the California Labor Code provided:

11 In addition to, and entirely independent and apart from, any other penalty provided in this
12 article, every person who fails to pay the wages of each employee as provided in Sections 13 204, 204b, 204.1, 204.2, 205, 205.5, and 1197.5, shall be subject to a civil penalty as 14 follows: (a) For any initial violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each failure to pay 15 each employee; (b) For each subsequent violation, or any willful or intentional violation, two hundred dollars ($200) for each failure to pay each employee, plus 25 percent of the amount unlawfully withheld.

16 Cal. Lab. Code § 210. Further, the Defendants' policy has been to devote insufficient manpower and 17 other resources to the payroll accounting function, with the inevitable result that employees are routinely 18 paid in tardy fashion, in violation of sections 203 and 204 of the California Labor Code.

19 21. Defendants failed to pay proper minimum wage to Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees.

20 22. At all relevant times mentioned herein, section 1194 of the California Labor Code
21 provided:

22 Notwithstanding any agreement to work for a lesser wage, any employee receiving less 23 than the legal minimum wage or the legal overtime compensation applicable to the 24 employee is entitled to recover in a civil action the unpaid balance of the full amount of this minimum wage or overtime compensation, including interest thereon, reasonable attorney's fees, and costs of suit.

25 Cal. Lab. Code § 1194.

26 23. Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees were not timely paid the minimum wages and/or 27 overtime to which they were entitled. Accordingly, they are entitled to liquidated damages under 28 section 1194.2.

1 24. At all relevant times mentioned herein, section 558.1 of the California Labor Code
2 provided:

3 (a) Any employer or other person acting on behalf of an employer, who violates, or 4 causes to be violated, any provision regulating minimum wages or hours and days of 5 work in any order of the Industrial Welfare Commission, or violates, or causes to be 6 violated, Sections 203, 226, 226.7, 1193.6, 1194, or 2802, may be held liable as the 7 employer for such violation.

8 (b) For purposes of this section, the term "other person acting on behalf of an employer"
9 is limited to a natural person who is an owner, director, officer, or managing agent of the 10 employer, and the term "managing agent" has the same meaning as in subdivision (b) of 11 Section 3294 of the Civil Code.

12 (c) Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit the definition of employer under existing 13 law.

14 Cal. Lab. Code § 558.1. Defendants are the joint employers or other persons acting on behalf of an 15 employer who violated, or caused to be violated the relevant sections of the Code referenced herein.

16 25. At all relevant times mentioned herein, section 558 of the California Labor Code
17 provided:

18 Any employer or other person acting on behalf of an employer who violates, or causes to 19 be violated, a section of this chapter or any provision regulating hours and days of work 20 in any order of the Industrial Welfare Commission shall be subject to a civil penalty as 21 follows: (1) For any initial violation, fifty dollars ($50) for each underpaid employee for 22 each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount 23 sufficient to recover underpaid wages. (2) For each subsequent violation, one hundred 24 dollars ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee
25 was underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages. (3)
26 Wages recovered pursuant to this section shall be paid to the affected employee.

27 Cal. Lab. Code § 558. Defendants are the employers or other persons acting on behalf of an employer 28 who violated, or caused to be violated the relevant sections of the California Labor Code referenced herein.

 26. At all relevant times mentioned herein, section 226 of the California Labor Code
provided:

 (a) An employer, semimonthly or at the time of each payment of wages, shall furnish to his or her employee, either as a detachable part of the check, draft, or voucher paying the employee's wages, or separately if wages are paid by personal check or cash, an accurate itemized statement in writing showing (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee, except as provided in subdivision (j), (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided that all deductions made on written orders of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the

1 employee and only the last four digits of his or her social security number or an 2 employee identification number other than a social security number, (8) the name and 3 address of the legal entity that is the employer and, if the employer is a farm labor
4 contractor, as defined in subdivision (b) of Section 1682, the name and address of the 5 legal entity that secured the services of the employer, and (9) all applicable hourly rates
6 in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each
7 hourly rate by the employee and, beginning July 1, 2013, if the employer is a temporary 8 services employer as defined in Section 201.3, the rate of pay and the total hours worked for each temporary services assignment. The deductions made from payment of wages shall be recorded in ink or other indelible form, properly dated, showing the month, day, and year, and a copy of the statement and the record of the deductions shall be kept on file by the employer for at least three years at the place of employment or at a central location within the State of California. . . .

9 Cal. Lab. Code § 226. Defendants did not provide Plaintiff or other Aggrieved Employees wage
10 statements with all required information, at all, much less make the required deductions and appropriate 11 tax payments.

12 27. At all relevant times mentioned herein, section 2810.3 of the California Labor Code
13 provided:

14 (a) As used in this section:

15 (1) (A) "Client employer" means a business entity, regardless of its form, that obtains or is provided workers to perform labor within its usual course of business from a labor contractor.

16 . . .
(2) "Labor" has the same meaning provided by Section 200.

17 (3) "Labor contractor" means an individual or entity that supplies, either with or without a contract, a client employer with workers to perform labor within the client employer's usual course of business.

18 . . .
(4) "Wages" has the same meaning provided by Section 200 and all sums payable to an employee or the state based upon any failure to pay wages, as provided by law.

19 (5) "Worker" does not include an employee who is exempt from the payment of an overtime rate of compensation for executive, administrative, and professional employees pursuant to wage orders by the Industrial Welfare Commission described in Section 515.

20 (6) "Usual course of business" means the regular and customary work of a business, performed within or upon the premises or worksite of the client employer.

21 (b) A client employer shall share with a labor contractor all civil legal responsibility and civil liability for all workers supplied by that labor contractor for both of the following:

22 (1) The payment of wages.

23 (2) Failure to secure valid workers' compensation coverage as required by Section 3700.

24 (c) A client employer shall not shift to the labor contractor any legal duties or liabilities under Division 5 (commencing with Section 6300) with respect to workers supplied by the labor contractor.

25 (d) At least 30 days prior to filing a civil action against a client employer for violations covered by this section, a worker or his or her representative shall notify the client employer of violations under subdivision (b).

26 (e) Neither the client employer nor the labor contractor may take any adverse action 27 against any worker for providing notification of violations or filing a claim or civil 28 action.

(f) The provisions of subdivisions (b) and (c) are in addition to, and shall be supplemental of, any other theories of liability or requirement established by statute or common law.

...

Cal. Lab. Code § 2810.3.

CLASS-ACTION ALLEGATIONS

28. Plaintiff brings this action on behalf of themselves and all others similarly situated as a class action pursuant to section 382 of the Code of Civil Procedure. Plaintiff seek to represent a “203 Class” composed of and defined as follows:

For the period four years and 180 days prior to the filing of this Complaint to date, all persons paid on account of services provided for Defendants in the production of Motion Pictures¹ (such persons are referred to hereafter as 203 Class Members, and such period is referred to hereafter as the Class Period).

Further, Plaintiff seek to represent a “226 Class” composed of and defined as follows:

For the period one year and 180 days prior to the filing of this Complaint to date, all persons paid on account of services provided for Defendants in the production of Motion Pictures² (such persons are referred to hereafter as 226 Class Members, and such period is referred to hereafter as the Class Period).

A. Numerosity

29. The potential members of each Class as defined are so numerous that joinder of all the members of either Class is impracticable. The number of Class Members is great, but not so great as to make the class unmanageable. It, therefore, is impractical to join each Class Member as a named plaintiff. Accordingly, utilization of a class action is the most economically feasible means of determining the merits of this litigation.

30. Despite the size of the proposed Classes, the Class Members are readily ascertainable through an examination of the records that Defendants are required by law to keep. Likewise, the dollar amount owed to each Class Member is readily ascertainable by an examination of those same records.

B. Commonality

31. There are questions of law and fact common to each Class that predominate over any questions affecting only individual Class Members. These common questions of law and fact include, without limitation:

² See Cal. Lab. Code § 201.5 defining Motion Pictures.

- a. Whether Defendants failed to pay all wages in a timely fashion in violation of sections 201.5, 203 and/or 204 of the Code.
- b. Whether Defendants' failure to provide accurate itemized wage statements to each and every employee violates section 226(a).
- c. Whether Defendants untimely and/or nonpayment of wages give rise to liquidated damages for failure to pay minimum wages under section 1194.2.
- d. Whether Defendants had a policy to provide only a first meal break but regardless of the number of hours worked.

C. Typicality

32. There is a well-defined community of interest in the questions of law and fact common to the Class Members.

33. The claims of the named Plaintiff is typical of the claims of each Class, which claims all arise from the same general operative facts, namely, Defendants did not compensate its employees as required by the Code and applicable Wage Order. Plaintiff and all members of the Classes sustained injuries and damages arising out of and caused by Defendants in violation of laws, regulations that have the force and effect of law, and statutes as alleged herein. Plaintiff have no conflict of interest with the other Class Members and are able to represent the Class Members' interests fairly and adequately.

D. Adequacy of Representation

34. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately represent and protect the interests of the members of each Class. Counsel who represents Plaintiff is competent and experienced in litigation large employment class actions. Neither Plaintiff nor his counsel have any conflict with either Class.

E. Superiority of Class Action

35. A class action is superior to other available means for the fair and efficient adjudication of this controversy. Individual joinder of all Class Members is not practicable, and questions of law and fact common to the Class predominate over any questions affecting only individual members of the Class. Each member of the Class has been damaged and is entitled to recovery by reason of Defendants' illegal policy and/or practice of failing to pay hourly wages, failing to provide Class Members rest and meal periods without legal compensation. Class action treatment will allow those similarly situated

1 persons to litigate their claims in the manner that is most efficient and economical for the parties and the
2 judicial system. Plaintiff is unaware of any difficulties that are likely to be construed in the management
3 of this action that would preclude its maintenance as a class action. The disposition of all claims of the 4 members of the Class in a class action, rather than in individual actions, benefits the parties and the 5 Court. The interest of the Class Members in controlling the prosecution of separate claims against 6 Defendants is small when compared with the efficiency of a class action.

7 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

8 (Continuing Wages, California Labor Code §§ 201.5, 203, 204
9 On Behalf of Plaintiff and the 203 Class Against All Defendants)

10 36. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates herein by reference the allegations contained in this
11 Complaint as though fully set forth herein.

12 37. Defendants employed Plaintiff. As of the date of filing of this Complaint, Plaintiff has 13 not been timely compensated in full for their services.

14 38. Defendants' failure to compensate Plaintiff and the 203 Class within the time for which 15 provision is made by section 201.5 of the California Labor Code, despite their knowledge of their 16 obligation to do so, was and is "willful" as the word is used in section 203.

17 39. Pursuant to section 203 of the California Labor Code, Plaintiff and the Class Members 18 are entitled to continuing wages from Defendants in an amount according to proof. Plaintiff and 19 Aggrieved Employees are also entitled to recover costs and reasonable attorneys' fees under section 20 218.5 of the California Labor Code in the total sum of at least $20,250.00.

21 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

22 (Failure to Provide Compliant Pay Stubs, Cal. Lab. Code § 226(a)
23 On Behalf of Plaintiff and the 226 Class Against All Defendants)

24 40. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates herein by reference the allegations contained in this
25 Complaint as though fully set forth herein.

26 41. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and the 226 Class with wage statements 27 conforming to the requirements of section 226(a) of the Code.

28 42. The foregoing was intentional misconduct of Defendants that injured Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees insofar as they were deprived of information to which they were legally entitled,

1 including but not limited to, hours worked, the inclusive dates of the pay period, the name and address
2 of the legal entity that is the employer, and all applicable rates of pay.

3 43. The failure of Defendants to provide compliant wage statements violates section 226(a)
4 of the Code. The failure caused them injury by depriving them of information to which they are legally 5 entitled. Accordingly, Plaintiff and Class Members are entitled to damages in an amount according to 6 proof and costs and reasonable attorney's fees in accordance with the provisions of Code section 226(e),
7 all in a sum according to proof. Plaintiff is entitled to an amount according to proof of at least $50 each,
8 not including interest thereon, reasonable attorneys' fees and cost of suit.

9 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

10 (Liquidated Damages for Unpaid Minimum Wages,
11 California Labor Code §§ 510, 1194, 1194.2 and 1198
