1 Plaintiff JOSE I. VASQUEZ CARRANZA (“Plaintiff”), individually and on behalf of 2 other members of the general public similarly situated, and as a private attorney general, based 3 upon facts that either have evidentiary support or are likely to have evidentiary support after a 4 reasonable opportunity for further investigation and discovery, alleges as follows:

5 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

6 1. Plaintiff brings this action against Defendants FANTASY COOKIE
7 CORPORATION and DOES 1 THROUGH 50 (hereinafter also collectively referred to as 8 “Defendants”) for California Labor Code violations, unfair business practices, and civil penalties
9 stemming from Defendants’ failure to pay overtime compensation, failure to provide meal 10 periods, failure to authorize and permit rest periods, failure to pay minimum wage, failure to 11 timely pay wages, failure to provide accurate wage statements, failure to maintain accurate time
12 and payroll records, and failure to reimburse necessary business-related expenses.

13 2. Plaintiff’s First through Eighth Causes of Action are brought as a class action on 14 behalf of himself and similarly situated current and former employees of Defendants (hereinafter
15 collectively referred to as the “Class” or “Class Members,” as defined more fully in paragraph 16 13, below) pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure section 382. The monetary damages
17 and restitution sought by Plaintiff exceeds the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court 18 and will be established according to proof at trial.

19 3. Plaintiff’s Ninth Cause of Action is brought as a representative action on behalf of 20 himself and certain other current and former employees of Defendants against whom one or more
21 of the alleged violations was committed (hereinafter collectively referred to as the “Aggrieved
22 Employees”) pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2698, et seq. Plaintiff is an aggrieved
23 employee against whom one or more of the alleged violations occurred. The civil penalties sought
24 by Plaintiff exceed the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court and will be established 25 according to proof at trial.

26 4. The Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to the California Constitution,
27 Article VI, Section 10, which grants the superior court “original jurisdiction in all other causes” except those given by statute to other courts. The statutes under which this action is brought do not specify any other basis for jurisdiction.
28

5. This Court has jurisdiction over Defendants because, upon information and belief, Defendants are citizens of California, have sufficient minimum contacts in California, or otherwise intentionally avail themselves of the California market so as to render the exercise of jurisdiction over them by the California courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice.

6. Venue is proper in this Court because, upon information and belief, Defendants maintain offices, have agents, and/or transact business in the State of California, County of Los Angeles.

PARTIES

7. Plaintiff JOSE I. VASQUEZ CARRANZA is an individual residing in the County of Los Angeles, State of California.

8. Defendant FANTASY COOKIE CORPORATION is and at all times herein mentioned was, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of California, and registered to do business in the State of California.

9. Plaintiff is ignorant of the identities of defendants Does 1 through 50, inclusive, and therefore sues these defendants by such fictitious names. The Doe defendants may be individuals, partnerships, or corporations. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that, at all times mentioned herein, each of the Doe defendants was the parent, subsidiary, agent, servant, employee, co-venturer, and/or co-conspirator of each of the other defendants, and was at all times mentioned acting within the scope, purpose, consent, knowledge, ratification and authorization of such agency, employment, joint venture and conspiracy. Plaintiff will amend this Complaint to allege their true names and capacities when ascertained. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that each of the fictitiously named Doe defendants is responsible in some manner for the occurrences herein alleged, and that Plaintiff's damages as herein alleged were proximately caused by its conduct. FANTASY COOKIE CORPORATION and Doe

Defendants 1 through 50 are collectively referred to herein as “Defendants.”

10. Defendants are and at all times herein mentioned were, (a) conducting business in the County of Los Angeles, State of California, and (b) the employer of Plaintiff consistent with the California Labor Code and Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders (“Wage Orders”).

11. Plaintiff further alleges that Defendants, directly or indirectly controlled or affected the working conditions, wages, working hours, and conditions of employment of Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees so as to make each of said Defendants employers and employers jointly liable under the statutory provisions set forth herein.

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

12. Plaintiff brings the First through Eighth Causes of Action as a class action on his own behalf and on behalf of all other members of the general public similarly situated, and, thus, seeks class certification under Code of Civil Procedure section 382.

13. The proposed class is defined as follows: All current and former non-exempt employees of any of the Defendants within the State of California at any time commencing four (4) years preceding the filing of Plaintiff’s complaint up until the time that notice of the certified class action is provided to the class (hereinafter referred to as the “Class” or “Class Members.”).

14. Plaintiff reserves the right to establish other subclasses as appropriate.

15. The Class is ascertainable and there is a well-defined community of interest in the litigation:

a. Numerosity: The Class Members are so numerous that joinder of all Class Members is impracticable. The membership of the entire Class is unknown to Plaintiff at this time; however, the Class is estimated to be over fifty (50) individuals and the identity of such membership is readily ascertainable by inspection of Defendants’ employment records.

b. Typicality: Plaintiff’s claims are typical of all other Class Members demonstrated herein. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the other Class Members with whom he has a well-defined community of interest.

1 c. Adequacy: Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of each Class
2 Member, with whom he has a well-defined community of interest and typicality
3 of claims, as demonstrated herein. Plaintiff has no interest that is antagonistic to 4 the other Class Members. Plaintiff's attorneys, the proposed class counsel, are 5 versed in the rules governing class action discovery, certification, and settlement.
6 Plaintiff has incurred, and during the pendency of this action will continue to 7 incur, costs and attorneys' fees, that have been, are, and will be necessarily 8 expended for the prosecution of this action for the substantial benefit of each Class
9 Member.

10 d. Superiority: A class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and 11 efficient adjudication of this litigation because individual joinder of all Class
12 Members is impractical.

13 e. Public Policy Considerations: Certification of this lawsuit as a class action will 14 advance public policy objectives. Employers of this great state violate 15 employment and labor laws every day. Current employees are often afraid to 16 assert their rights out of fear of direct or indirect retaliation. However, class
17 actions provide the Class Members who are not named in the complaint
18 anonymity that allows for the vindication of their rights.

19 16. There are common questions of law and fact as to the Class that predominate over 20 questions affecting only individual members. The following common questions of law or fact,
21 among others, exist as to the members of the Class:

22 a. Whether Defendants' failure to pay wages, without abatement, or reduction, in 23 accordance with the California Labor Code was willful;

24 b. Whether Defendants had a corporate policy and practice of failing to pay Plaintiff
25 and the other Class Members for all hours worked, and missed, short, late or 26 interrupted meal periods and rest breaks in violation of California law;

27 c. Whether Defendants required Plaintiff and the other Class Members to work more 28

1 than eight (8) hours per day and/or more than forty (40) hours per week and failed
2 to pay the legally required overtime compensation to Plaintiff and the other Class
3 Members;

4 d. Whether Defendants deprived Plaintiff and the other Class Members of meal
5 and/or rest periods or required Plaintiff and the other Class Members to work
6 during meal and/or rest periods without compensation;

7 e. Whether Defendants failed to pay meal period premium wages to Class Members 8 when they were not provided with a legally compliant meal period;

9 f. Whether Defendants failed to pay rest period premium wages to Class Members
10 when they were not authorized and permitted to take legally compliant rest 11 periods;

12 g. Whether Defendants failed to pay minimum wages to Plaintiff and the other Class
13 Members for all hours worked;

14 h. Whether Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members the 15 required minimum wage pursuant to California law;

16 i. Whether Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members proper 17 overtime compensation pursuant to California law;

18 j. Whether Defendants failed to pay all wages due to Plaintiff and the other Class 19 Members within the time required upon their discharge or resignation from 20 employment;

21 k. Whether Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiff and the other Class Members
22 for all necessary business-related expenses and costs in violation of California
23 Labor Code section 2802;

24 l. Whether Defendants complied with wage reporting as required by the California
25 Labor Code, including section 226;

26 m. Whether Defendants' conduct was with malice, fraud or oppression;

27 n. Whether Defendants' conduct was willful or reckless;
28

1 and overtime wages. Defendants also implemented policies that prohibited Plaintiff, the Class,
2 and the Aggrieved Employees from accurately recording the actual time worked, resulting in a
3 failure to pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees all wages owed. In addition,
4 Defendants routinely failed to permit Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to take 5 timely and duty-free meal periods and rest periods in violation of California law. Defendants also 6 failed to reimburse Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees for all necessary business-
7 related expenses.

8 23. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants have implemented
9 policies and practices which failed to provide Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees
10 with timely and duty-free meal periods. Defendants routinely failed to relieve Plaintiff, the Class,
11 and the Aggrieved Employees of all duties during their meal periods, regularly failed to relinquish
12 control over Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees during their meal periods,
13 regularly failed to permit Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees a reasonable
14 opportunity to take their meal periods, and regularly impeded or discouraged Plaintiff, the Class,
15 and the Aggrieved Employees from taking thirty (30) minute uninterrupted meal breaks no later
16 than the end of their fifth hour of work and/or from taking a second thirty (30) minute 17 uninterrupted meal break no later than their tenth hour of work for shifts lasting more than ten 18 (10) hours. Defendants also failed to maintain accurate records of meal periods taken by Plaintiff, 19 the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees.

20 24. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants did not adequately
21 inform Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees of their right to take meal periods under
22 California law. Moreover, Defendants systematically disregarded their own written policies
23 regarding the provision and timing of meal periods for Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
24 Employees. Instead, Defendants' actual policy and practice was to schedule Plaintiff, the Class,
25 and the Aggrieved Employees in a way that prohibited them from taking timely and duty-free
26 meal periods, and to require Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to work through 27 their meal periods, for which they were not compensated.

1 25. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants failed to pay
2 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees premium wages for meal periods that were
3 missed, late, interrupted, or shortened in violation of California law. Defendants knew or should
4 have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were entitled to receive all
5 meal periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at their regular rate of pay when a meal
6 period was missed, short, late, and/or interrupted. Notwithstanding this knowledge, Defendants
7 routinely failed to provide legally compliant meal periods to Plaintiff, the Class, and the 8 Aggrieved Employees, and routinely failed to pay one additional hour of pay to Plaintiff, the 9 Class, and the Aggrieved Employees at their regular rate of pay when a meal period was missed,
10 short, late, and/or interrupted.

11 26. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants have implemented
12 policies and practices which prohibited Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees from 13 taking timely and duty-free rest periods. Defendants regularly failed to provide, authorize, and 14 permit Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to take full, uninterrupted, off-duty rest 15 periods for every shift lasting three and one-half (3.5) to six (6) hours and/or two full,
16 uninterrupted, off-duty rest periods for every shift lasting six (6) to ten (10) hours, and failed to 17 make a good faith effort to authorize, permit, and provide such rest breaks in the middle of each 18 work period.

19 27. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants did not adequately
20 inform Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees of their right to take rest periods under
21 California law. Moreover, Defendants systematically disregarded their own written policies
22 regarding the provision and timing of rest periods for Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
23 Employees. Instead, Defendants' actual policy and practice was to schedule Plaintiff, the Class,
24 and the Aggrieved Employees in a way that regularly prohibited them from taking timely and 25 duty free rest periods, and to regularly require Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees 26 to work through their rest periods.

27 28. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants failed to pay
28

1 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees premium wages for rest periods that were
2 missed, late, interrupted, or shortened in violation of California law. Defendants knew or should
3 have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were entitled to receive all
4 rest periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at their regular rate of pay when a rest period
5 was missed, short, late, and/or interrupted. Notwithstanding this knowledge, Defendants routinely
6 failed to authorize and permit Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to take duty-free
7 rest periods, and failed to pay one additional hour of pay to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
8 Employees at their regular rate of pay when a rest period was missed, short, late and/or 9 interrupted.

10 29. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly required 11 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to perform work off the clock. Although 12 Defendants prohibited overtime, Defendants still regularly required that Plaintiff, the Class, and 13 the Aggrieved Employees complete all of their assigned duties. To do so, Plaintiff, the Class, and 14 the Aggrieved Employees were regularly required to perform work off the clock for which they 15 were not compensated.

16 30. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants employed a time
17 rounding policy that was not neutral and designed to consistently round time in Defendants' favor,
18 ensuring that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were oftentimes not paid for all 19 time worked.

20 31. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants implemented policies
21 that prohibited Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees from accurately recording the 22 actual time worked, resulting in a failure to pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees 23 all wages owed.

24 32. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Plaintiff, the Class, and the 25 Aggrieved Employees worked more than eight (8) hours in a day, and/or forty (40) hours in a 26 week.

27 33. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to 28

1 pay all overtime compensation owed to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees when 2 they worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a single work day and/or forty (40) hours in a single
3 work week, or in excess of twelve (12) hours in a single work day and/or eighty (80) hours in a 4 single work week. Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the 5 Aggrieved Employees were entitled to receive certain wages for overtime compensation and that 6 they were not receiving wages for overtime compensation.

7 34. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants failed to pay
8 overtime to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees for all overtime hours worked 9 based on regular rates of pay correctly calculated to include all applicable remuneration.

10 35. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to 11 pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees at least minimum wages for all hours
12 worked. Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved 13 Employees were entitled to receive at least minimum wages for all hours worked and that they 14 were not receiving at least minimum wages for all hours worked. Defendants' failure to pay
15 minimum wages included, inter alia, failing to pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
16 Employees at the required minimum wage pursuant to California law, requiring Plaintiff, the 17 Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to perform work off the clock, and implementing time
18 rounding policies that resulted in the systematic underpayment of wages to Plaintiff, the Class,
19 and the Aggrieved Employees.

20 36. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to 21 pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees all wages owed to them upon discharge or 22 resignation. Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
23 Employees were entitled to receive all wages owed to them upon termination within the time
24 permissible under California Labor Code section 202. Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
25 Employees did not receive payment of all final wages owed to them upon discharge or resignation, 26 including overtime compensation and minimum wages within any time permissible under 27 California Labor Code section 202.
28

1 37. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to
2 pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees all wages within any time permissible
3 under California law, including, inter alia, California Labor Code section 204. Defendants knew 4 or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were entitled to 5 receive all wages owed to them during their employment. Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
6 Employees did not receive payment of all wages, including overtime compensation, minimum
7 wages, meal and rest period premiums.

8 38. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to 9 provide complete or accurate wage statements to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
10 Employees. Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved 11 Employees were entitled to receive complete and accurate wage statements in accordance with 12 California law, but, in fact, they did not receive complete and accurate wage statements from 13 Defendants. The deficiencies included, inter alia, the failure to include the total number of hours 14 worked, the actual gross wages earned, and the correct rates of pay.

15 39. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to 16 keep complete or accurate payroll records for Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees.
17 Defendants knew or should have known that Defendants were required to keep complete and 18 accurate payroll records for Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees in accordance with 19 California law, but, in fact, did not keep complete and accurate payroll records.

20 40. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to 21 maintain accurate records relating to Plaintiff's, the Class's, and the Aggrieved Employees' work
22 periods, meal periods, total daily hours, hours per pay period, and applicable pay rates.

23 41. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants failed to reimburse
24 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees for all necessary business-related expenses.
25 Defendants knew or should have known that Defendants were required to reimburse Plaintiff, the 26 Class, and the Aggrieved Employees for all necessary business-related expenses and costs, but,
27 in fact, failed to do so in violation of California law.

42. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants knew or should have known that they had a duty to compensate Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees pursuant to California law. Defendants had the financial ability to pay such compensation, but willfully, knowingly, and intentionally failed to do so, and falsely represented to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees that they paid all wages owed to them, all in order to increase Defendants' profits.

43. California Labor Code section 218 states that nothing in Article 1 of the Labor Code shall limit the right of any wage claimant to “sue directly ... for any wages or penalty due to him [or her] under this article.”

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code §§ 510 and 1198)

(Against All Defendants)

44. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and every allegation set forth above.

45. California Labor Code section 1198 and the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission (“IWC”) Wage Order provide that it is unlawful to employ persons without compensating them at a rate of pay either time-and-one-half or two-times that person’s regular rate of pay, depending on the number of hours worked by the person on a daily or weekly basis.

46. Specifically, the applicable IWC Wage Order provides that Defendants are and were required to pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members employed by Defendants, and working more than eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek, at the rate of time-and-one-half for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek.

47. The applicable IWC Wage Order further provides that Defendants are and were required to pay Plaintiff and the Class overtime compensation at a rate of two times their regular rate of pay for all hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in a day and for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours on the seventh day of work in a workweek.

48. California Labor Code section 510 codifies the right to overtime compensation at one-and-one-half times the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or forty (40) hours in a week or for the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh day of work, and no overtime compensation at twice the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in a day or in excess of eight (8) hours in a day on the seventh day of work.

49. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and the other Class Members regularly worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day, and/or in excess of forty (40) hours in a week.

50. During the relevant time period, Defendants intentionally and willfully failed to pay overtime wages owed to Plaintiff and the other Class Members.

51. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members the unpaid balance of overtime compensation, as required by California laws, violates the provisions of California Labor Code sections 510 and 1198, and is therefore unlawful.

52. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194, Plaintiff and the other Class Members are entitled to recover unpaid overtime compensation, as well as interest, costs, and attorneys' fees.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512(a))

(Against All Defendants)

53. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and every allegation set forth above.

54. At all relevant times, the relevant IWC Order and California Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512(a) were applicable to Plaintiff and the other Class Members' employment by Defendants.

55. At all relevant times, California Labor Code section 226.7 provides that no employer shall require an employee to work during any meal or rest period mandated by an applicable order of the California IWC.

56. At all relevant times, the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code

1 section 512(a) provide that an employer may not require, cause or permit an employee to work
2 for a work period of more than five (5) hours per day without providing the employee with a meal
3 period of not less than thirty (30) minutes, except that if the total work period per day of the 4 employee is no more than six (6) hours, the meal period may be waived by mutual consent of 5 both the employer and employee.

6 57. At all relevant times, California Labor Code section 512(a) further provides that 7 an employer may not require, cause or permit an employee to work for a work period of more
8 than ten (10) hours per day without providing the employee with a second uninterrupted meal 9 period of not less than thirty (30) minutes, except that if the total hours worked is no more than 10 twelve (12) hours, the second meal period may be waived by mutual consent of the employer and 11 the employee only if the first meal period was not waived.

12 58. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and the other Class Members who were 13 scheduled to work for a period of time longer than six (6) hours, and who did not waive their 14 legally-mandated meal periods by mutual consent, were required to work for periods longer than 15 five (5) hours without an uninterrupted meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes.

16 59. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and the other Class Members who were 17 scheduled to work for a period of time in excess of ten (10) hours were required to work for 18 periods longer than ten (10) hours without a second uninterrupted meal period of not less than 19 thirty (30) minutes.

20 60. During the relevant time period, Defendants intentionally and willfully required
21 Plaintiff and the other Class Members to miss their meal periods and to take meal periods that 22 were late, shortened, or interrupted, and failed to compensate Plaintiff and the other Class
23 Members the full meal period premium for missed, shortened, late, or interrupted meal periods.

24 61. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other
25 Class Members the full meal period premiums due pursuant to California Labor Code section 26 226.7.

27 62. Defendants' conduct violates the applicable IWC Wage Order and California
28

1 Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512(a).

2 63. Pursuant to the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code section
3 226.7(b), Plaintiff and the other Class Members are entitled to recover from Defendants one
4 additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of compensation for each work day that the 5 meal period was not provided.

6 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

7 (Violation of California Labor Code § 226.7)

8 (Against All Defendants)

9 64. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and 10 every allegation set forth above.

11 65. At all times herein set forth, the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor
12 Code section 226.7 were applicable to Plaintiff and the other Class Members' employment by 13 Defendants.

14 66. At all relevant times, California Labor Code section 226.7 provides that no
15 employer shall require an employee to work during any rest period mandated by an applicable
16 order of the California IWC.

17 67. At all relevant times, the applicable IWC Wage Order provides that "[e]very 18 employer shall authorize and permit all employees to take rest periods, which insofar as 19 practicable shall be in the middle of each work period" and that the "rest period time shall be 20 based on the total hours worked daily at the rate of ten (10) minutes net rest time per four (4)
21 hours or major fraction thereof unless the total daily work time is less than three and one-half 22 (3.5) hours."

23 68. During the relevant time period, Defendants required Plaintiff and other Class
24 Members to work four (4) or more hours without authorizing or permitting a ten (10) minute rest 25 period per each four (4) hour period worked.

26 69. During the relevant time period, Defendants willfully required Plaintiff and the 27 other Class Members to work during rest periods, failed to allow Plaintiff and the other Class 28

1 Member to take any rest period and/or failed to authorize and permit Plaintiff and the other Class
2 Members to take uninterrupted, duty-free rest breaks.

3 70. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other
4 Class Members the full rest period premium due pursuant to California Labor Code section 226.7
5 for work performed during rest periods, and/or for failure to authorize and permit Plaintiff and 6 other Class Members from taking uninterrupted rest periods.

7 71. Defendants' conduct violates applicable IWC Wage Orders and California Labor
8 Code section 226.7.

9 72. Pursuant to the applicable IWC Wage Orders and California Labor Code section
10 226.7(b), Plaintiff and the other Class Members are entitled to recover from Defendants one

16 80. During the relevant time period, the employment of Plaintiff and many other Class

6 89. Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to recover from Defendants the greater of their 7 actual damages caused by Defendants' failure to comply with California Labor Code section 8 226(a), or an aggregate penalty not exceeding four thousand dollars per employee.

9 90. Plaintiff and the Class are also entitled to injunctive relief to ensure compliance

18 consequence of the discharge of his or her job duties or in direct consequence of his or her job
19 duties or in direct consequence of his or her obedience to the directions of the employer.

20 93. Plaintiff and the Class incurred necessary business-related expenses and costs that 23 costs incurred as a result of, including but not limited to, simple negligence.

24 94. Defendants have intentionally and willfully failed to reimburse Plaintiff and the

98. A violation of California Business & Professions Code section 17200, et seq. may be predicated on the violation of any state or federal law. In this instant case, Defendants' policies and practices of requiring employees, including Plaintiff and the Class, to work overtime without paying them proper compensation violate California Labor Code sections 510 and 1198. Additionally, Defendants' policies and practices of requiring employees, including Plaintiff and the Class, to work through their meal and rest periods without paying them proper compensation violate California Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512(a). NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code § 2699, Et Seq.)

(Against All Defendants)

103. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and every allegation set forth above.

104. Plaintiff brings his ninth cause of action as a representative action on behalf of himself and similarly Aggrieved Employees in the capacity as a private attorney general pursuant to the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, California Labor Code section 2698, et seq. ("PAGA").

105. PAGA specifically provides for a private right of action to recover civil penalties for violations of the Labor Code as follows: "Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any provision of this code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the Labor and Workforce Development Agency or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards, agencies, or employees, for a violation of this code, may, as an alternative, be recovered through a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of himself or herself and other current or former employees pursuant to the procedures specified in Section 2699.3." Cal. Lab. Code § 2699(a).

106. Plaintiff was employed by Defendants and the Labor Code violations alleged above were committed against him during his time of employment. Plaintiff is therefore, an "aggrieved employee" under PAGA.

1 107. As set forth in detail above, during all times relevant to this Action, Defendants
2 have routinely subjected Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to violations of California Labor
3 Codes by:

- 4 a. Failing to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees all earned minimum wage
5 compensation in violation of Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1198 et seq.
- 6 b. Failing to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees all earned overtime
7 compensation in violation of Labor Code §§ 204, 510, 1194, and 1198 et seq.
- 8 c. Failing to provide legally required meal periods to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved 9 Employees, and failing to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees an additional 10 hour of premium pay for meal period violations in violation of Labor Code §§ 11 226.7 and 512.
- 12 d. Failing to provide authorize and permit Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to 13 take duty-free rest periods, and failing to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved
14 Employees an additional hour of premium pay for rest period violations in 15 violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512.
- 16 e. Failing to timely pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees all wages at the end 17 of their employment in violation of Labor Code § 203.
- 18 f. Failing to timely pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees all wages owed 19 during employment in violation of Labor Code § 204.
- 20 g. Failing to furnish Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees with complete, accurate, 21 itemized wage statements in violation of Labor Code § 226.
- 22 h. Failing to maintain accurate records relating to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved
23 Employees' work periods, meal periods, total daily hours, hours per pay period,
24 total wages and compensation, and applicable pay rates in violation of Labor Code
25 § 1174(d) and the applicable IWC Wage Order.
- 26 i. Failing to reimburse Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for necessary 27 business-related expenses in violation of Labor Code §§ 2800 and 2802.

j. Failing to pay reporting time wages to Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees in violation of Labor Code § 1198 and the applicable IWC Wage Order.

108. Pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2699 and 2699.5, Plaintiff, individually and on behalf of the Aggrieved Employees and the State of California, requests and is entitled to recover penalties against Defendants for the Labor Code violations described above, including but not limited to penalties under California Labor Code sections 2699, 558, 210, 1197.1, 226, 226.3 and 1174.5, and 11971.1, and any and all additional penalties and sums as provided by the California Labor Code and/or other statutes. The exact amount of the applicable penalties, in all, is in an amount to be shown according to proof at trial.

109. Plaintiff has exhausted his administrative remedies pursuant to Labor Code § 2699.3. On February 24, 2021, Plaintiff, through his counsel of record, by online filing with the Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) and by certified mail to the Defendants, notified Defendants and the LWDA of the specific provisions of the Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders that Defendants have violated, including the facts and theories to support the violations, and of Plaintiff’s intent to bring a claim for civil penalties under PAGA. Plaintiff also paid the filing fee required under Labor Code § 2699.3. As of the filing of this Complaint, more than sixty-five (65) days have elapsed since the mailing of Plaintiff’s February 24, 2021 notice, and the Labor and Workforce Development Agency has not indicated that it intends to investigate the violations discussed in the notice. Accordingly, Plaintiff may commence a civil action to recover penalties for himself and other Aggrieved Employees pursuant to Labor Code § 2699.3.

110. Plaintiff was compelled to retain the services of counsel to file this court action to protect his interests and the Aggrieved Employees, and to assess and collect the civil penalties owed by Defendants. Plaintiff therefore seeks an award of reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(g)(1), and any other applicable statute.

111. Plaintiff may amend this complaint as a matter of right pursuant to California Labor Code § 2699.3 as this complaint has been filed within sixty days of the time periods specified in Labor Code § 2699.3.
