Plaintiffs,

CRISTIAN BARRERA, individually,

Plaintiff,

v.

AMAZON.COM SERVICES, LLC,

Defendant.

Case No. 1:21-CV-00241-NODJ-BAM – LEAD
Case No. 1:22-CV-00146-NODJ-BAM-MEMBER

PLAINTIFFS' MOTION FOR PRELIMINARY APPROVAL OF CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT

Hearing Date: March 29, 2024

Time: 9:00 a.m.

Courtroom: 8

Floor: 6

Judge: Hon. Barbara A. McAuliffe

NOTICE OF MOTION

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that on March 29, 2024 at 9:00 a.m., or as soon thereafter as the matter may be heard, in Courtroom 8, Sixth Floor, before the Honorable Barbara A. McAuliffe, Plaintiffs Heather Boone, Roxanne Rivera, and Christian Barrera (“Plaintiffs”) will move this Court for an Order: (1) preliminarily approving a proposed settlement of this action (the “Settlement”) and staying all other activity in this action; (2) approving the form and manner of giving notice to the Class (“Notice”); (3) approving the Parties’ agreed-upon deadlines for Class Members to exercise their rights in connection with the proposed Settlement; and (4) scheduling a hearing before the Court to determine whether the proposed Settlement, Plaintiffs’ Fees and Costs Application, and Service Award Application (as defined below) should be given final approval (“Preliminary Approval Order”). The proposed Settlement creates a fund of Five Million Five Hundred Thousand Dollars ($5,500,000.00) to be paid by Defendant for the benefit of the proposed Class Members. If approved, the proposed Settlement would resolve all of the claims raised in this lawsuit.

The grounds for this Motion are that: (1) the proposed Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate such that Notice should be disseminated to members of the Class; and (2) the proposed Notice adequately apprise the Class Members about the terms of the Settlement and their rights with respect to it.

This motion is based on the Memorandum of Points and Authorities submitted below, the Settlement Agreement (attached hereto as Exhibit “1”) and the accompanying Declaration of Don Foty (“Foty Declaration”) (attached hereto as Exhibit “2”).

Respectfully submitted,

1 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

2 I. INTRODUCTION

3 Plaintiffs submit this motion for preliminary approval of the proposed class settlement that 4 resolves all the claims in this lawsuit for $5,500,000.00. If the Court approves this settlement, the 5 Class Members will each receive a monetary payment that is proportionally based on their dates 6 of employment and weeks worked. It includes no claims procedure, and no reversion to Amazon 7 for uncashed checks issued to the Class Members. A copy of the Settlement Agreement is attached 8 as Exhibit 1. Plaintiffs seek: (1) preliminary approval of the terms of the Settlement and a stay of 9 all non-settlement related activity in this case; (2) approval of the Notice to be sent to the Class 10 Members; (3) approval of the Parties' agreed-upon deadlines for the Class Members to exercise 11 their rights in connection with the proposed Settlement; and (4) entry of a Preliminary Approval 12 Order setting a Final Approval Hearing and directing the Notice to be sent to the Class Members.

13 Plaintiffs believe that the proposed settlement is fair and reasonable and will provide a 14 benefit to the Class Members. While the Parties have different views on the availability of class 15 certification, the merits of the case, and any damages at issue, the Settlement provides monetary 16 relief to each Class Member that does not properly exclude himself/herself from the Settlement.
17 Indeed, the Settlement provides for a recovery that is, as calculated by Plaintiffs, approximately 18 100% of the amount of unpaid wages that in Plaintiffs' view is owed to the Class Members as a 19 result of completing COVID-19 screenings off the clock at approximately one minute per shift.
20 This recovery is significant given that Defendant Amazon.com Services, LLC, maintains that it 21 complied with the law and that the amount of time associates spent off the clock because of 22 COVID-19 screenings was a matter of seconds.

23 Under the Settlement, each Class Member who does not properly opt out will receive a 24 settlement award that corresponds to his/her dates of employment and weeks worked. If approved 25 by the Court, each Class Member will receive their proportionate share of the Net Settlement Fund.
26 That is, hypothetically, if a putative Class Member worked 2% of the aggregate pay periods
27 worked by all Class Members, his/her proportionate share of the settlement would be two percent 28 (2%) of the Net Settlement Fund. The Settlement also resolves Plaintiffs' claims under the

1 California Labor Code Private Attorneys General Act (“PAGA”), including a payment to the State 2 of California.

3 The Court should grant this Motion because the Settlement complies with the requirements 4 for preliminary approval. At the preliminary approval stage, “the settlement need only be 5 potentially fair.” Kang v. Credit Bureau Conn., Inc., No. 1:18-cv-01359-SKO, 2023 U.S. Dist.
6 LEXIS 95641, at *15 (E.D. Cal. June 1, 2023) (quoting Acosta v. Trans Union, LLC, 243 F.R.D.
7 377, 386 (C.D. Cal. May 31, 2007)). “Preliminary approval of a settlement has both a procedural 8 and substantive component.” Martinez v. Knight Transp., Inc., No. 1:16-cv-01730-SKO, 2023 9 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 51757, at *27 (E.D. Cal. Mar. 24, 2023) (quotation omitted). Preliminary 10 approval is thus appropriate where the proposed settlement (1) appears to be the product of serious, 11 informed, non-collusive negotiations, and (2) falls within the range of possible approval, has no 12 obvious deficiencies, and does not improperly grant preferential treatment to class representatives 13 or segments of the class. Id.; see also Cashon v. Encompass Health Rehab. Hosp. of Modesto, 14 LLC, No. 1:19-cv-00671-SKO, 2023 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 169355, at *9-10 (E.D. Cal. Sep. 21, 2023) 15 (“Federal courts generally find preliminary approval of the settlement and notice to the 16 proposed class appropriate if “the proposed settlement appears to be the product of 17 serious, informed, non-collusive negotiations, has no obvious deficiencies, does not improperly 18 grant preferential treatment to class representatives or segments of the class, and falls within the 19 range of possible approval.”).

20 Here, the Settlement satisfies these requirements as (1) the release narrowly covers only 21 those claims asserted in this lawsuit; (2) the Parties have not agreed to any limit on a potential fee 22 award or litigation costs award;<sup>1</sup> (3) the Class Members can easily opt out; (4) there is no claims 23 process to receive a payment; (5) there is no reversion to Amazon; and (6) all Class Members who 24 do not timely opt-out will receive a payment. Furthermore, the Parties reached a settlement 25 following arm’s-length negotiations with an experienced mediator, Lisa Klerman.

26
27
28 <sup>1</sup> Class Counsel intends to later file Plaintiffs’ Fees and Costs Application and Service Award Application.

1 Therefore, the Parties believe that the Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate and 2 therefore, the Preliminary Approval Order should be entered and the Notice disseminated to Class 3 Members.

4 II. FACTUAL BACKGROUND

5 Plaintiffs allege that following the outbreak of the COVID-19 pandemic, Amazon instituted 6 a company-wide policy requiring its hourly, non-exempt employees at its fulfillment centers and 7 distributions centers to undergo a COVID-19 screening prior to the start of their scheduled shifts.
8 (Dkt. 1). The screenings were required by Amazon, were conducted on the premises of Amazon, 9 and were controlled by Amazon. (Id.) Amazon did not automatically pay for the time spent by its 10 employees completing the COVID-19 screenings. (Id.)

11 The process for conducting the screenings was similar across all Amazon fulfillment 12 centers and distributions centers. Under Amazon's company-wide policy, every hourly employee 13 was required to (1) report to a designated location at an Amazon facility, (2) wait in line standing 14 six feet apart from other employees, (3) answer questions about whether they had any signs or 15 symptoms of the Coronavirus, (4) have their temperature taken, (5) wear an Amazon approved 16 mask, and (6) pass the health examination to work that day. (Id.)

17 After passing the screening, employees at Amazon were allowed to clock-in for the day.
18 The time clocks at the Amazon facilities were located at different distances from the screening 19 area. Additionally, some employees clocked-in on a mobile app before they began the screening 20 process, and were thus on the clock during the screening process. During approximately 20% of 21 the shifts, Amazon employees clocked-in before the screening process began.

22 Amazon maintains that its employees rarely, if ever, had to wait prior to completing the 23 screening, particularly after it installed thermal scanners soon after it implemented COVID-19 24 screening procedures. Amazon asserts that with the introduction of the body scanners, workers 25 spent at most a few seconds being screened.

26 III. PROCEDURAL HISTORY

27 On February 23, 2021, Plaintiffs Heather Boone and Roxanne Rivera filed the lead case in 28 these consolidated actions alleging that Amazon (1) failed to pay them for all hours worked, (2)

1 failed to pay them overtime wages, (3) provided to them invalid wage statements, and (4) a 2 derivative violation of California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200 et seq. (through violation 3 of California Labor Code § 2802 and/or California Labor Code § 226). (See Dkt. 1.). Boone and 4 Rivera filed this lawsuit as a collective action under the Fair Labor Standards Act, 29 U.S.C. § 5 201, et seq. and as a Rule 23 Class Action under the California Labor Code. Id. They sought 6 damages on their own behalf and on behalf of a putative class. Id. Boone and Rivera later added
7 to their lawsuit representative claims under PAGA. On November 12, 2021, Plaintiff Cristian 8 Barrera filed a class action against Defendant in California state court based on the same 9 allegations, which was later removed to federal court and consolidated with Boone. Barrera v.
10 Amazon.com Services LLC, Case No. 1:22-cv-00146 (E.D. Cal.) (Barrera I). On January 25, 2022, 11 Barrera filed a separate action under PAGA in Orange County Superior Court, also based on the 12 same allegations. Barrera v. Amazon.com Services LLC (Orange County Sup. Ct. Case No. 30-13 2022-01242167-CU-OE-CXC) (Barrera II) (collectively with Boone and Barrera I, the 14 “Actions”).

15 Since the inception of this case, Amazon disputed all liability. In June 2021, Amazon filed 16 a Motion to Dismiss arguing that the time spent undergoing Covid screenings is not compensable 17 under the law. (Dkt. 24). On March 11, 2022, the Court granted in part and denied in part 18 Amazon’s Motion to Dismiss. (Dkt. 39). In the decision, the Court held that the facts as pled by 19 the Plaintiffs establish that the time spent in the COVID-19 screenings are compensable under both 20 the California Labor Code and the Fair Labor Standards Act (“FLSA”). (See id.) Afterwards, 21 Amazon sought an interlocutory appeal under section 1292(b) (Dkt. 44), which the parties have 22 fully briefed and is pending. Boone and Rivera’s Counsel also moved to be appointed by the Court 23 as interim class counsel. (Dkt. 62). Findings and Recommendations recommending that the Court 24 grant the motion for appointment as interim class counsel were issued on May 30, 2023. (Dkt.
25 74). On October 18, 2023, the Court adopted that recommendation in full and granted the Boone 26 plaintiffs’ motion to appoint their counsel as interim class counsel. (Dkt. 80).

27 Along with this motion practice, the Parties engaged in informal merits-based and class 28 discovery for settlement purposes. Amazon produced substantial visual evidence of the COVID-

1 19 screenings collected by security cameras at several facilities in California. (Ex. “2” – 2 Declaration of Don Foty at ¶ 15). Additionally, Amazon produced the payroll data and time clock 3 data for the California Class. (Id.) Plaintiffs retained three experts: (1) Chad Staller (economist), 4 (2) Nichols Briscoe (economist), and (3) Richard Drogin, Ph.D. (Id.) Plaintiffs then produced to 5 Amazon two expert reports and a damages analysis. (Id.) The expert reports provide an evaluation 6 of the surveillance data and the amount of time spent undergoing the COVID-19 screenings. (Id.) 7 This procedural history demonstrates that significant issues pertaining to liability, damages, and 8 class certification were fully developed and explored prior to reaching this Settlement.

9 IV. MEDIATION

10 On April 6, 2023, the Parties attended a full-day mediation with experienced mediator Lisa 11 Klerman. Ms. Klerman is a well-regarded mediator who has mediated hundreds of class action 12 cases involving claims under the California Labor Code. Based on the discovery and investigation 13 undertaken, Plaintiffs were able to engage in well-informed settlement negotiations with 14 Defendant. Negotiations between the Parties were rigorous and conducted at arms-length. Indeed, 15 the mediation on April 6, 2023 was unsuccessful. Nevertheless, the Parties continued to negotiate 16 with the assistance of Ms. Klerman. Ms. Klerman played an active role in the settlement 17 negotiations, including identifying each side’s strengths, weaknesses, and risks. Ms. Klerman also 18 had the benefit of detailed briefs, dozens of exhibits (including statistical modeling), and hours of 19 in-person discussions with the Parties and their counsel. This process culminated in a tentative 20 settlement at the end of August 2023.

21 V. SETTLEMENT TERMS

22 The Settlement provides for significant monetary relief to the Class Members. The 23 Settlement is for $5,500,000.00. After deductions discussed below, the remaining amount of the 24 Settlement is to be divided amongst the Class Members proportionally based on their dates of 25 employment and weeks worked. Defendant also agrees to pay the employer’s share of the 26 applicable payroll taxes in addition to the gross settlement amount. There will be no claims process 27 because the Claims Administrator will process checks for everyone who does not properly request 28 to be excluded.

1 The fees and costs associated with retaining a third-party administrator to administer the 2 terms of the Settlement will be deducted from the Settlement. (Ex. “1”). Plaintiffs have obtained 3 settlement administration quotes from several vendors and ultimately selected Rust Consulting to 4 administer the Settlement because it provided the lowest bid. (Ex. “2” at ¶ 18). In administering 5 the Settlement, the Parties have agreed to use their best efforts to keep the costs as low as possible, 6 including by sending the Notice via electronic mail where possible. (Id.)

7 The Settlement provides for an enhancement award of $10,000 each to the three named 8 Plaintiffs, which if approved will be deducted from the Settlement. The award is to compensate 9 the named Plaintiffs for the time, expense, and risks they incurred in litigating this action on behalf 10 of the Class Members. Plaintiffs will file an application for the service award in connection with 11 moving for final approval of the Settlement.

12 Further, Plaintiffs’ Counsel will move the Court for an award of reasonable attorneys’ fees 13 of up to one-third of the Settlement as well as reimbursement of litigation costs. Plaintiffs will file 14 an application for approval of the attorneys’ fees and costs in connection with moving for final 15 approval of the Settlement. See, e.g., Hudson v. Libre Tech., Inc., 2019 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 196964, 16 *34 (S.D. Cal. Nov. 13, 2019) (“At the preliminary approval stage, the Court does not need to 17 determine attorney’s fees.”). Any amount of the requested fees and costs award not approved by 18 the Court will be included in the distribution to the Class.

19 In consideration for the above relief, the Class Members who do not opt out of the 20 Settlement will release all claims, actions, demands, causes of action, suits, debts, obligations, 21 demands, rights, liabilities, or legal theories of relief, that are based on the facts and legal theories
22 asserted in the operative complaints of the Actions, or which relate to the primary rights asserted 23 in the operative complaints, including without limitation claims for (1) failure to pay all wages in 24 violation of Labor Code §§ 204, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, (2) failure to pay overtime 25 wages in violation of Labor Code §§ 510, 558, and IWC Wage Order 42001, (3) failure to provide 26 accurate itemized wage statements in violation of Labor Code § 226, (4) failure to maintain 27 accurate records in violation of Labor Code §§ 226 and 1174, (5) failure to pay wages upon 28 separation of employment in violation of Labor Code §§ 201-203, 218, (6) engaging in unlawful,

1 unfair and/or fraudulent business practices in violation of Business & Professions Code §§ 17200
2 et seq., and (7) failure to pay overtime wages in violation of 29 U.S.C. § 207. Notwithstanding 3 the above, the Released Class Claims shall only include claims related to or arising from COVID-4 19 screenings. The period of the Released Class Claims shall extend to the limits of the period
5 from April 1, 2020 through July 17, 2021 for Class Members who did not work at the facility
6 known as OAK4 in Tracy, California, and from April 1, 2020 through February 23, 2022 for Class
7 Members who worked at the facility known as OAK4 in Tracy, California. The res judicata effect 8 of the Judgment will be the same as that of the Release.<sup>2</sup>

9 The Settlement also allocates $100,000.00 to the California Labor and Workforce 10 Development Agency (“LWDA”) and members of the Class, including any individuals who opt 11 out of the class-action settlement (“PAGA Settlement Members”), in connection with resolution 12 of the PAGA claims in the Actions (“PAGA Settlement Amount”). As required by PAGA, 13 Seventy-Five Percent (75%) of the PAGA Settlement Amount will be paid to the LWDA and 14 Twenty-Five Percent (25%) of the PAGA Settlement Amount will be distributed to PAGA 15 Settlement Members proportionally based on their dates of employment and weeks worked.

16 In addition, there are four individuals who worked for Defendant outside California and 17 underwent COVID-19 screening who joined this case under the FLSA. Payments of $50.00 to 18 each of these four individuals, for a total of $200, will be deducted from the Settlement. These 19 individuals will release all claims, actions, demands, causes of action, suits, debts, obligations,
20 demands, rights, liabilities, or legal theories of relief, that are based on the facts and legal theories
21 asserted in the Second Amended Complaint in Boone, or which relate to the primary rights asserted 22 in the Second Amended Complaint in Boone, including without limitation claims for failure to pay

23 <sup>2</sup> The Release at issue also covers Plaintiffs’ claims under California Labor Code 226 for invalid 24 wage statements. This claim was based primarily on the assertion that Amazon identified the hours 25 worked inaccurately on the wage statements by not including the amount of time spent in the 26 COVID screenings. The Settlement at issue takes into consideration the fact that this wage 27 statement claim is a derivative claim from the underlying wage claim and that there were risks to 28 pursuing this claim given that Amazon argued that there was a good faith dispute as to whether the additional time was worked by the Class Members and should have been listed on the wage statements at all.

1 overtime in violation of 29 U.S.C. §§ 201 et seq. Notwithstanding the above, the Released Non-2 California Claims shall only include claims related to or arising from COVID-19 screenings. The 3 period of the Released Non-California Claims shall extend to the limits of the period from April 4 1, 2020 through March 31, 2022. The res judicata effect of the Judgment will be the same as that 5 of the Release.<sup>3</sup>

6 All Class Members will receive a Notice of the proposed Settlement in the form attached 7 as Exhibit A to the Settlement Agreement. (See Ex. “1-A”). Individuals who wish to opt out of 8 the Settlement may mail a Request for Exclusion to the Settlement administrator within 60 days 9 from the initial email or mailing of the Class Notice (the “Response Deadline”). Further, 10 individuals who wish to object to the Settlement are to submit the objection within the Response 11 Deadline identifying (i) the objector’s full name, address, and signature, (ii) the case name and 12 case number, (iii) a written statement of the grounds for the objection, and (iv) a statement whether 13 the objector intends to appear at the Final Approval Hearing. The procedures for opting out of, and 14 objecting to, the Settlement are clearly and simply explained in the Notice. Finally, any Class 15 Member may submit a dispute as to the number of workweeks identified in Amazon’s records by 16 the Response Deadline as well. Therefore, the Class Members’ rights are fully protected by the 17 Settlement. They can seek to be excluded from the Settlement, can object to the Settlement, or 18 dispute the number of workweeks that forms the basis of their individual recovery.

19 VI. THE COURT SHOULD PRELIMINARILY APPROVE THE SETTLEMENT

20 Approval of a proposed class settlement is within the broad authority of the district court.
21 See Hanlon v. Chrysler Corp., 150 F.3d 1011, 1025 (9th Cir. 1998); City P’ship Co. v. Atlantic 22 Acquisition Ltd. P’ship, 100 F.3d 1041, 1044 (1st Cir. 1996) (“Great deference is given to the trial 23 court [regarding its decision to approve a class action settlement].”). The district court’s decision,

25 <sup>3</sup> The Settlement at issue resolves the FLSA claims of the non-California opt-in plaintiffs. The 26 Settlement takes into consideration that Amazon argued that its hourly employees who worked 27 outside of California did not regularly work overtime. Under the FLSA, a cause of action only 28 exists when an employee works more than 40 hours in a week or was not paid at least $7.25 per hour. Additionally, some courts have found that there is no viable claim for COVID-19 screening time under the FLSA. See, e.g., Pipich v. O’Reilly Auto Enters., No. Civ. A. 21-CV-1120-L-LL, 2022 WL 788671 (S.D. Cal. Mar. 15, 2022).

1 however, is “restrained by “the clear policy in favor of encouraging settlements.” Durrett v.
2 Housing Auth. of Providence, 896 F.2d 600, 604 (1st Cir. 1990) (citation omitted). Indeed, “there 3 is a strong judicial policy that favors settlements, particularly where complex class action litigation 4 is concerned.” Allen v. Bedolla, 787 F.3d 1218, 1223 (9th Cir. 2015) (citation omitted).

5 “A district court may approve a proposed settlement in a class action only if the 6 compromise is fundamentally fair, adequate, and reasonable.” In re Heritage Bond Litig., 546 F.3d 7 667, 674-75 (9th Cir. 2008) (citing Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e)). In determining whether a proposed 8 settlement should be preliminarily approved, the court considers both procedural and substantive 9 factors:

10 As noted in the Manual for Complex Litigation, Second, [sic] “[i]f the proposed 11 settlement appears to be the product of serious, informed, non-collusive 12 negotiations, has no obvious deficiencies, does not improperly grant preferential 13 treatment to class representatives or segments of the class, and falls within the 14 range of possible approval, then the court should direct that the notice be given to 15 the class members of a formal fairness hearing * * *.” Manual for Complex Litigation, Second §30.44 (1985). In addition, “[t]he court may find that the settlement proposal contains some merit, is within the range of reasonableness required for a settlement offer, or is presumptively valid.’ Newberg on Class Actions §11.25 (1992).”

16 In re Portal Software, Inc. Sec. Litig., No. C-03-5138 VRW, 2007 WL 1991529, at *5 (N.D. Cal.
17 June 30, 2007) (quoting Schwartz v. Dallas Cowboys Football Club Ltd., 157 F. Supp. 2d 561, 570 18 n.12 (E.D. Pa. 2001)).

19 Under these criteria, Plaintiffs respectfully submit that preliminary approval of the 20 proposed Settlement should be granted and dissemination of the Notice should be ordered.

21 A. The Settlement Agreement Resulted from Arm’s-Length Negotiations and Is 22 Not the Product of Collusion.

23 The Court should look to whether the proposed settlement appears to be the product of 24 collusion among the negotiating parties. In re Mego Fin. Corp. Sec. Litig., 213 F.3d 454, 458 (9th 25 Cir. 2000), as amended (June 19, 2000). In applying this factor, courts give substantial weight to 26 the experience of the attorneys who prosecuted the case and negotiated the settlement. See In re 27 Tableware Antitrust Litig., 484 F. Supp. 2d 1078, 1080 (N.D. Cal. 2007); see also Hanlon, 150 28 F.3d at 1027 (courts are deferential “to the private consensual decisions of the parties.”) (citing

1 Officers for Justice v. Civil Serv. Comm 'n., 688 F.2d 615, 625 (9th Cir. 1982)). Indeed, when a 2 settlement is negotiated at arm's-length by experienced counsel, there is a presumption that it is 3 fair and reasonable. See Tableware, 484 F. Supp. 2d at 1080; City P'ship, 100 F.3d at 1043 ("When 4 sufficient discovery has been provided and the parties have bargained at arm's-length, there is a 5 presumption in favor of the settlement.").

6 To that end, the courts have recognized "[t]he assistance of an experienced mediator in the 7 settlement process confirms that the settlement is non-collusive." Satchell v. Fed. Express Corp., 8 No. C03-cv-2659 SI, 2007 WL 1114010, at *4 (N.D. Cal. Apr. 13, 2007); In re Immune Response
9 Sec. Litig., 497 F. Supp. 2d 1166, 1171 (S.D. Cal. 2007).

10 Here, the Parties only attended mediation after the Court decided Amazon's Motion to 11 Dismiss, after sufficient information had been exchanged, and Plaintiffs' expert reports were 12 prepared. By that point in time, the record had been well-developed through fact and expert 13 analysis. The proposed Settlement here is the product of extensive, arm's-length negotiations, 14 which included an all-day mediation session with Lisa Klerman -- a private mediator experienced 15 in class action matters. (Ex. "2" at ¶ 16). The Parties attended mediation in April 2023. (Id.)
16 However, the mediation was initially unsuccessful. (Id.) Ms. Klerman then assisted the Parties 17 during the next four months and an agreement was finally reached. (Id.)

18 The negotiations were lengthy and in-depth. (See id.) The Parties discussed the merits of 19 the case, class certification, and damages. (See id.) Counsel were thus able to make informed 20 assessments regarding the merits of their claims and defenses. See In re Charles Schwab Corp.
21 Sec. Litig., No. C 08-01510 WHA, 2011 WL 1481424, at *5 (N.D. Cal. Apr. 19, 2011) ("the class 22 settlements were reached on the eve of trial when class counsel had completed discovery and had 23 conducted extensive motion practice and were thus well aware of the issues and attendant risks 24 involved in going to trial as well as the adequacy of the amount of the class settlement."). The 25 negotiations were informed by the knowledge Plaintiffs' Counsel gained through informal 26 discovery, with the aid of a statistics expert who calculated an estimate of the amount owed. Based 27 on their familiarity with the factual and legal issues, and armed with a thorough understanding of 28

1 the strength and weaknesses of the claims at issue, the Parties were able to negotiate a fair 2 settlement, taking into account the costs and risks of continued litigation. The negotiations were 3 at all times hard-fought and have produced a result that the Parties believe to be in their respective 4 interests. (Ex. “2” at ¶¶ 16, 24). In fact, when it appeared that the Parties were unable to reach an 5 agreement, Ms. Klerman continued working with the Parties to try to bridge the gap between their 6 respective positions. (Id. at ¶¶ 16, 24); see also Zynga, Inc., 2015 WL 6471171, at *9 (“The use 7 of a mediator and the presence of discovery ‘support the conclusion that the Plaintiff was 8 appropriately informed in negotiating a settlement.’”).

9 Additionally, Plaintiffs’ Counsel carefully evaluated the merits of the case, but recognize 10 that there exist challenges in this litigation that could pose significant risks regarding their ability 11 to prevail and the scope of damages if the case were to proceed to trial, and thereafter, an appeal 12 before the Ninth Circuit. Even if Plaintiffs emerged victorious after appeal, there can be no doubt 13 that the appeal would be lengthy and costly for all sides. Charles Schwab Corp. Sec. Litig., 2011 14 WL 1481424, *5 (approving settlement; “prosecuting these claims through trial and subsequent 15 appeals would have involved significant risk, expense, and delay to any potential recovery”). As 16 such, Plaintiffs’ Counsel believes the Settlement is fair and reasonable. (Ex. “2” at ¶¶ 21 - 24).
17 See, e.g., In re NVIDIA Corp. Derivative Litig., No. C-06-06110-SBA (JCS), 2008 WL 5382544, 18 at *4 (N.D. Cal. Dec. 22, 2008) (“[S]ignificant weight should be attributed to counsel’s belief that 19 settlement is in the best interest of those affected by the settlement.”); In re Omnivision Techs., 20 Inc., 559 F. Supp. 2d 1036, 1043 (N.D. Cal. 2008) (counsel’s recommendation weighed in favor 21 of settlement, given counsel’s familiarity with the dispute and significant experience in securities 22 litigation).

24 B. The Settlement Has No Obvious Deficiencies and Falls Well Within the Range
25 for Approval.

26 When evaluating the adequacy of a settlement, courts balance a plaintiff’s expected 27 recovery against the value of the offer. Tableware, 484 F. Supp. 2d at 1080; Portal Software, 2007
28 WL 1991529, at *6. This case involves a range of disputed issues including the merits of Plaintiffs’

1 claims, how much time was spent waiting in line and completing the screening, how much time 2 was spent walking to the time clocks following the screening, the number of shifts when screenings 3 occurred, the number of instances when Amazon employees clocked-in before the start of the 4 screening process, and whether the time spent walking to the time clocks at Amazon facilities is 5 compensable. While Plaintiffs believe that the Class Members have meritorious claims, Defendant 6 denies, and continues to deny, each and all of the claims and contentions asserted by Plaintiffs.
7 Likewise, Defendant disputes Plaintiffs' damages calculation.

8         The Settlement is fair and reasonable because it provides for a recovery that is, as calculated 9 by Plaintiffs, approximately 100% of the amount of unpaid wages that in Plaintiffs' view is owed 10 to the Class Members for spending approximately on minute off-the-clock as a result of the 11 COVID-19 screenings. (Ex. "2" at ¶¶ 22, 23). Based upon a review the surveillance data produced 12 by Amazon, Plaintiffs believe that the reasonable range of time spent waiting-in line and being 13 screened was between 58 seconds and one minute and nine seconds. The median amount of time 14 was identified by Plaintiffs' expert at 48 seconds and the average amount of time was identified at 15 one minute and three seconds. The settlement provides a recovery of approximately one minute 16 of screening time. Ultimately, the Settlement provides an excellent result for the Class Members, 17 particularly considering the risk of no recovery if Plaintiffs and the Class Members were 18 unsuccessful through trial and appeal.

19         C.     The Settlement Meets the Requirements for Preliminary Approval.

20         In evaluating the fairness of a settlement award, "the settlement's benefits must be 21 considered by comparison to what the class actually gave up by settling." Martinez v. Knight 22 Transp., 2023 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 51757, at *30 (quoting Campbell v. Facebook, Inc., 951 F.3d 23 1106, 1123 (9th Cir. 2020)). To determine whether a settlement "falls within the range of possible 24 approval," a court must focus on "substantive fairness and adequacy" and "consider plaintiffs' 25 expected recovery balanced against the value of the settlement offer." Martinez v. Knight Transp., 26 2023 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 51757, at *30 (quotation omitted); see also Harris, 2011 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 27 48878, at *11 (noting that courts "must estimate the maximum amount of damages recoverable in 28

1 a successful litigation and compare that with the settlement amount” in determining “the value of 2 the settlement against the expected recovery at trial”).

3 But the court “need not reach any ultimate conclusions on the contested issues of fact and 4 law which underlie the merits of the dispute.” Cashon, 2023 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 169355, at *10 5 (quoting Chem. Bank v. City of Seattle, 955 F.2d 1268, 1291 (9th Cir. 1992)). Rather, the court 6 should weigh, among other factors, the strength of a plaintiff’s case; the risk, expense, complexity, 7 and likely duration of further litigation; the extent of discovery completed; and the value of the 8 settlement offer. Id.

9 Here, the amount of the Settlement is fair and adequate when viewed in light of the risks 10 and delays associated with continued litigation. Here, the Settlement allocates approximately one 11 minute of additional pay per shift to each Class Member, which falls within the range of estimated 12 amount of time worked off the clock. (See Ex. “2” at ¶¶ 22, 23).

13 Additionally, the Settlement “does not improperly grant preferential treatment to the 14 [Plaintiffs] or segments of the class.” Portal Software, 2007 WL 1991529, at *5. Plaintiffs will be 15 receiving their proportionate share of the Class Damages according the same formula as the rest of 16 the Class Members. See NASDAQ, 176 F.R.D. at 102 (settlement may be approved preliminarily 17 where it does not improperly grant preferential treatment to class representatives or segments of 18 the class”). While the Settlement anticipates the possibility that Plaintiffs’ Counsel will apply for 19 a service award for Plaintiffs, the Settlement is in no way conditioned on them receiving this award.
20 This demonstrates that the Settlement is fair and reasonable to all.

21 Moreover, the Settlement resolves the claims raised by Plaintiffs under PAGA and 22 allocates a fair amount to the State of California. The amount allocated to the State of California 23 is fair and reasonable because had this case proceeded to trial, the Court could exercise its 24 discretion to award a minimal PAGA penalty given the small amount of time allegedly at issue 25 and Amazon’s efforts to pay for the time.

26 D. The Proposed Notice Plan Meets All Requirements.

27 The proposed form of the Notice fully complies with the requirements of Rule 23, due 28 process, and is substantially similar to the prior notice of class certification approved by California

Courts. The Notice apprises the Class Members of the nature of this case, the definition of the Classes and the claims that will be released. Additionally, the Notice provides: (1) information regarding the nature and claims raised in this lawsuit; (2) a summary of the Settlement Agreement's principal terms; (3) the Settlement Class definition; (4) the total number of workweeks each respective Settlement Class Member worked for Amazon during the Class Period; (5) the dates which comprise the Class Period and the PAGA Period; (6) instructions on how to submit Requests for Exclusion, Notices of Objection, and workweeks disputes; (7) the deadlines by which the Settlement Class Member must postmark or fax Requests for Exclusion, Notices of Objection, and workweeks disputes; (8) the claims to be released; and (9) the Settlement Administrator's contact information, including the website address where the electronic versions of the materials in the Notice Packet will be available; and (10) states the date, time and location of the Final Approval Hearing and advises Class Members to check the Court's PACER site. These disclosures are thorough and should be approved.

E. CAFA Notice.

Under the Class Action Fairness Act (CAFA), 28 U.S.C. § 1715, "[n]ot later than 10 days after a proposed settlement of a class action is filed in court, each defendant that is participating in the proposed settlement shall serve upon the appropriate State official of each State in which a class member resides and the appropriate Federal official, a notice of the proposed settlement[.]" Defendant has agreed to separately prepare and mail the notice required by 28 U.S.C. § 1715 (b).

F. Schedule for Final Approval Proceedings.

As set forth in the Settlement Agreement, the following is the proposed schedule for the remaining deadlines in the preliminary and final approval proceedings:

| ACTION                                                     | DEADLINE                                      |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------|
| Deadline for Mailing CAFA Notice, 28 U.S.C. § 1715 (b)            | 10 days after filing Motion for Preliminary Approval |
| Deadline for Production of Class List to Settlement Administrator | 30 days after entry of Preliminary Approval Order    |
| Deadline for Sending Notice                                       | 60 days after entry of Preliminary Approval Order    |

|--------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Deadline to Opt-Out            | 120 days after entry of Preliminary Approval Order                                                                                          |
| Filing Deadline for Objections | 120 days after entry of Preliminary Approval Order                                                                                          |
| Final Approval Hearing         | After deadline for following objections and opt-out requests but in no event, sooner than 90 days after entry of Preliminary Approval Order |

VII. CONDITIONAL CLASS CERTIFICATION IS APPROPRIATE

Plaintiffs request conditional certification under Rule 23 for settlement purposes only. In sum, this class should be certified because liability in this case primarily involves the resolution of one central issue: whether the time spent waiting in line and completing the screening is compensable under California law. Resolution of this issue can be resolved on a class basis because the policies and procedures for the screening were the same for all Class Members and there is common proof that is applicable to all Class Members. Additionally, any question concerning damages are irrelevant to class certification. The fact that class members may have been affected by uniform policies/practices to varying degrees or have suffered varying damages is not a bar to certification. Leyva v. Medline Indus. Inc., 716 F.3d 510, 514 (9th Cir. 2013) (“the presence of individualized damages cannot, by itself, defeat class certification under Rule 23(b)(3).”). For these reasons, the requirements for class certification under Rule 23(a) and (b)(3) have been satisfied.

CONCLUSION

Accordingly, Plaintiffs respectfully request that the Court grant preliminary approval of the proposed Settlement, approve the Notice, and enter the proposed Preliminary Approval Order submitted herewith.

Respectfully submitted,
