Before the Court is Plaintiff Kevin Lam’s (“Lam” or “Plaintiff”) unopposed Motion for Final Approval of Class Action and PAGA Settlement and for Attorneys’ Fees, Costs, and Class Representative Service Payment (the “Motion”). Plaintiff and Defendant M4D, LLC (“M4D” or “Defendant”) (collectively, the “Parties”) have entered into a Class Action and PAGA Settlement Agreement (the “Agreement” or “Settlement”) and an Addendum to Class Action and PAGA Settlement Agreement (the “Addendum”). The Court, having reviewed and considered the Motion, its accompanying memorandum, the Agreement and Addendum, and the declarations in support thereof (and all exhibits thereto), finds that the Motion should be, and hereby is, GRANTED. The Court finds and concludes as follows: This Order incorporates the Agreement and Addendum. The Court has jurisdiction over the subject matter of this proceeding and over all Parties to this proceeding. In addition, the Court has personal jurisdiction over all parties with respect to the Action and the Agreement and Addendum. The Court hereby finds the Agreement involves the resolution of a bona fide dispute and was entered into in good faith.

CERTIFICATION OF SETTLEMENT CLASS

Plaintiff Kevin Lam previously moved for entry of an order conditionally certifying the following proposed Class for settlement purposes: “all individuals who worked for M4D as nonexempt employees in California at any time between February 5, 2017 and August 28, 2022.” (“Settlement Class”) By Court Order dated October 18, 2023, the Court granted that motion. Class certification is appropriate when the class is ascertainable and there is “a well defined community of interest in the questions of law and fact involved affecting the parties to be represented.” Dunk v. Ford Motor Co. (1996) 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1806; see Cal. Code Civ. Proc. § 382. Civil Procedure Code § 382’s requirements essentially mirror those of Federal Rule 23: numerosity, typicality of the class representatives’ claims, adequacy of representation, predominance of common issues, and superiority. Linder v. Thrifty Oil Co. (2000) 23 Cal.4th 429, 435 (“The community of interest requirement involves three factors: (1) predominant common questions of law or fact; (2) class representatives with claims or defenses typical of the class; and (3) class representatives who can adequately represent the class.”) (internal quotations and citations omitted); see also Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(a); Hanlon v. Chrysler Corp. (9th Cir. 1998)

1 150 F.3d 1011, 1019, overruled on other grounds by Wal-Mart Stores, Inc. v. Dukes (2011) 564
2 U.S. 338.

3 The Court, having considered the Parties' arguments and the evidence submitted in 4 support of those arguments, finds that all requirements of certification for settlement purposes
5 continue to be met for the proposed Settlement Class.

6 The Court therefore confirms its previous conditional certification of the Settlement
7 Class for settlement purposes and confirms its previous Order appointing The Gould Law Firm
8 and Garcia & Pham to serve as Class Counsel.

9 FINAL APPROVAL OF THE PROPOSED SETTLEMENT

10 For the reasons stated in greater detail below, the Court grants final approval to the 11 proposed Settlement as fair, reasonable, and adequate. See Cal. Rules of Ct. 3.769(a); Fed. R.
12 Civ. P. 23(e)(1)(B)(i). The Court finds that the individual Class Payments provided for by the 13 terms of the Agreement are fair and reasonable. The Court orders the payment of those 14 individual Class Payments to Settlement Class Members in accordance with the terms of the 15 Agreement and Addendum. Based on a review of the papers submitted by Plaintiff, the Court
16 finds that the Settlement: (a) resulted from efforts by Plaintiff and Class Counsel who adequately
17 represented the Class; (b) was negotiated at arm's length with the assistance of an experienced 18 class action mediator; (c) provides relief for the Class that the Court finds to be adequate, taking 19 into account (i) the costs, risks, and delay of trial and appeal; (ii) the proposed method of 20 distributing relief to the Class, including the method of processing payments to Settlement Class 21 Members; and (iii) the terms of the proposed award of attorneys' fees, including timing of 22 payment; and (d) treats Settlement Class Members equitably relative to one another. In making
23 this final approval finding, the Court considered the nature of the claims, the amounts of benefits
24 paid and received in the Settlement, the allocation of settlement payments among Settlement
25 Class Members, the fact that Defendant does not admit any liability and does not characterize 26 this Settlement as an admission of liability, and the fact that the Settlement represents a 27 compromise of the Parties' respective positions rather than the result of a finding of liability at 28

1 trial. The Court further finds that the terms of the Agreement and Addendum have no obvious
2 deficiencies and do not improperly grant preferential treatment to any individual Class Member.

3 NOTICE AND ADMINISTRATION

4 The Parties have designated CPT Group, Inc. as the Settlement Administrator. CPT
5 Group has submitted a declaration, which this Court has reviewed, which confirmed that Class
6 Notice was provided to the Settlement Class pursuant to the Preliminary Approval Order of 7 October 18, 2023, and the procedures set forth in the Agreement. The Settlement Administrator
8 shall continue to perform all the duties of the Settlement Administrator set forth in the 9 Agreement. Settlement Administrator CPT Group will calculate Individual Class Payments to 10 Class Members and distribute those awards. The Court finds that the Class Notice provided to 11 the Settlement Class, as described in CPT Group's Declaration, satisfied the requirements of due 12 process and California law and provided the best notice practicable under the circumstances, 13 including individual notice to all Settlement Class Members who could be identified through 14 reasonable effort. The Class Notice was reasonably calculated to apprise Settlement Class
15 Members of the nature of this litigation; the scope of the Settlement Class, the Class claims,
16 issues, or defenses; the terms of the Settlement Agreement; the right of Settlement Class
17 Members to appear, object to the Settlement Agreement, and exclude themselves from the 18 Settlement Class and the process for doing so; of the Final Approval Hearing; and of the binding
19 effect of a class judgment on the Settlement Class.

20 OBJECTIONS AND EXCLUSIONS

21 The Court notes that zero Class Members filed objections to the Settlement, zero Class
22 Members requested to opt out of the Settlement, and there were zero workweek challenges, i.e.
23 no disputes were received. All Settlement Class Members shall be bound by the terms of the 24 Agreement and Addendum upon entry of this Final Approval Order.

25 PAGA

26 As part of the Settlement, Plaintiff seeks approval of PAGA Penalties to the 27 California Labor and Workforce Development Agency ("LWDA") and Aggrieved Employees
28 defined as "an individual who worked for M4D as a nonexempt employee in California at any

1 time between February 5, 2020 and August 28, 2022.” Defendant’s records reflect that there
2 are 48 Aggrieved Employees (between the start of the PAGA Period on February 5, 2020 and 3 the date of mediation on June 28, 2022). The Court approves $25,000.00 of the Gross 4 Settlement Amount to be allocated for PAGA Penalties, with 75% ($18,750.00) allocated to 5 the LWDA PAGA Payment and 25% ($6,250.00) allocated to the Individual PAGA
6 Payments. The Court finds the settlement of PAGA Penalties in this Action to be fair, 7 reasonable, to serve public interest, and to be consistent with PAGA’s objectives.

8 ATTORNEYS’ FEES, COSTS, AND CLASS REPRESENTATIVE SERVICE PAYMENT

9 The Court has reviewed the declarations regarding Plaintiff’s efforts in this case and 10 hereby determines that the requested Class Representative Service Payments to Class 11 Representative Kevin Lam of $10,000.00 is appropriate under the circumstances of the case and 12 the time and effort spent by Plaintiff in litigating the case on behalf of the Class. The Court finds
13 and determines that the attorneys’ fees request of $250,000.00, or one third of the Gross
14 Settlement Amount, is reasonable under both methods used in California courts for determining 15 fee awards in class action cases: the lodestar method and the percentage-of-the recovery method.
16 The percentage requested is within the range of percentage awards approved in California. See 17 Chavez v. Netflix, Inc. (2008) 162 Cal.App.4th 43, 66 n.11 (“Empirical studies show that,
18 regardless whether the percentage method or the lodestar method is used, fee awards in class
19 actions average around one-third of the recovery.” The Court further finds and determines that 20 the litigation costs request of $10,345.35 is relevant to the litigation and reasonable in amount.
21 Class Counsel has submitted a declaration showing that these costs were necessary to secure the 22 resolution of this litigation. Pursuant to the terms of the Settlement, and the authorities, evidence, 23 and argument submitted by Class Counsel, the Court hereby awards Class Counsel attorneys’ 24 fees in the amount of $250,000.00 and litigation costs in the amount of $10,345.35 to be paid
25 from the Gross Settlement Amount as final payment for and complete satisfaction of any and all 26 attorneys’ fees and costs incurred by and/or owed to Class Counsel. The Court finds and 27 determines that the payment to CPT Group in the amount of $9,000.00 is fair and reasonable for 28 settlement administration in a class of this size. The Court hereby awards CPT Group the amount

1 of $9,000.00 as an Administrative Expenses Payment for its work on the settlement
2 administration in this case. Defendant or any Released Parties, as defined in the Agreement, shall 3 not have any further liability in this Action for costs, expenses, interest, attorneys' fees, or for 4 any other charge, expense, or liability, except as provided for by the Agreement and Addendum
5 or in any action to enforce the terms of the Agreement. The Court finds and determines that the 6 Releases contained in the Settlement Agreement are appropriate and shall bind all Class
7 Members who did not timely opt out of the class portion of the Settlement.

8 JUDGMENT

9 The Court hereby enters FINAL JUDGMENT in this case in accordance with the terms
10 of the Agreement and Addendum, Preliminary Approval Order, and this Order. Nothing in this 11 Order or Judgment shall preclude any action to enforce the Parties' obligations pursuant to the 12 Agreement or pursuant to this Order, including the requirement that Defendant make payments 13 in accordance with the terms of the Agreement. In accordance with, and for the reasons stated in 14 this Order, judgment shall be entered within the meaning and for purposes of California Code of 15 Civil Procedure §§ 577, 904.1(a) and Rules 3.769 and 8.104 of the California Rules of Court.
16 Pursuant to California Rule of Court 3.769(h), California Code of Civil Procedure § 664.6, and 17 the Addendum to the Agreement, this Court shall retain jurisdiction over the Parties to enforce 18 the terms of the Judgment. CPT Group, Inc. shall disburse the settlement funds in accordance 19 with the Class Action and PAGA Settlement Agreement and Addendum to Class Action and 20 PAGA Settlement Agreement.
