1 Plaintiff HECTOR ALMAZAN (“Plaintiff”), individually and on behalf of other members
2 of the general public similarly situated, and as a private attorney general, based upon facts that
3 either have evidentiary support or are likely to have evidentiary support after a reasonable
4 opportunity for further investigation and discovery, alleges as follows:

5 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

6 1. Plaintiff brings this action against Defendants HATHAWAY-SYCAMORES
7 CHILD AND FAMILY SERVICES and DOES 1 THROUGH 50 (hereinafter also collectively
8 referred to as “Defendants”) for California Labor Code violations, unfair business practices, and 9 civil penalties stemming from Defendants’ failure to pay overtime compensation, failure to 10 provide meal periods, failure to authorize and permit rest periods, failure to pay minimum wage,
11 failure to timely pay wages, failure to provide accurate wage statements, failure to maintain 12 accurate time and payroll records, failure to reimburse necessary business-related expenses, and 13 failure to pay accrued but unused vacation time.

14 2. Plaintiff’s First through Ninth Causes of Action are brought as a class action on 15 behalf of himself and similarly situated current and former employees of Defendants (hereinafter
16 collectively referred to as the “Class” or “Class Members”, as defined more fully in paragraph 17 13, below) pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure section 382. The monetary damages
18 and restitution sought by Plaintiff exceeds the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court 19 and will be established according to proof at trial.

20 3. Plaintiff’s Tenth Cause of Action is brought as a representative action on behalf 21 of himself and certain other current and former employees of Defendants against whom one or 22 more of the alleged violations was committed (hereinafter collectively referred to as the 23 “Aggrieved Employees”) pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2698, et seq. Plaintiff is an 24 aggrieved employee against whom one or more of the alleged violations occurred. The civil 25 penalties sought by Plaintiff exceed the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court and will 26 be established according to proof at trial.

27 4. The Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to the California Constitution, 28 Article VI, Section 10, which grants the superior court “original jurisdiction in all other causes” except those given by statute to other courts. The statutes under which this action is brought do not specify any other basis for jurisdiction.

5. This Court has jurisdiction over Defendants because, upon information and belief, Defendants are citizens of California, have sufficient minimum contacts in California, or otherwise intentionally avail themselves of the California market so as to render the exercise of jurisdiction over them by the California courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice.

6. Venue is proper in this Court because, upon information and belief, Defendants maintain offices, have agents, and/or transact business in the State of California, County of Los Angeles.

PARTIES

7. Plaintiff HECTOR ALMAZAN is an individual residing in the County of Los Angeles, State of California.

8. Defendant HATHAWAY-SYCAMORES CHILD AND FAMILY SERVICES, is and at all times herein mentioned was, a non-profit corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of California, and registered to do business in the state of California.

9. Plaintiff is ignorant of the identities of defendants Does 1 through 50, inclusive, and therefore sues these defendants by such fictitious names. The Doe defendants may be individuals, partnerships, or corporations. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that, at all times mentioned herein, each of the Doe defendants was the parent, subsidiary, agent, servant, employee, co-venturer, and/or co-conspirator of each of the other defendants, and was at all times mentioned acting within the scope, purpose, consent, knowledge, ratification and authorization of such agency, employment, joint venture and conspiracy. Plaintiff will amend this Complaint to allege their true names and capacities when ascertained. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that each of the fictitiously named Doe defendants is responsible in some manner for the occurrences herein alleged, and that Plaintiff's damages as herein alleged were proximately caused by its conduct. HATHAWAY-SYCAMORES CHILD AND FAMILY SERVICES and Doe Defendants 1 through 50 are collectively referred to herein as "Defendants."

10. Defendants are and at all times herein mentioned were, (a) conducting business in the County of Los Angeles, State of California, and (b) the employer of Plaintiff consistent with the California Labor Code and Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders (“Wage Orders”).

11. Plaintiff further alleges that Defendants, directly or indirectly controlled or affected the working conditions, wages, working hours, and conditions of employment of Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees so as to make each of said Defendants employers and employers jointly liable under the statutory provisions set forth herein.

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

12. Plaintiff brings the First through Eleventh Causes of Action as class action on his own behalf and on behalf of all other members of the general public similarly situated, and, thus, seeks class certification under Code of Civil Procedure section 382.

13. The proposed class is defined as follows: All current and former non-exempt employees of any of the Defendants within the State of California at any time commencing four (4) years preceding the filing of Plaintiff’s complaint up until the time that notice of the certified class action is provided to the class (hereinafter referred to as the “Class” or “Class Members.”).

14. Plaintiff reserves the right to establish other subclasses as appropriate.

15. The Class is ascertainable and there is a well-defined community of interest in the litigation:

- a. Numerosity: The Class Members are so numerous that joinder of all Class Members is impracticable. The membership of the entire Class is unknown to Plaintiff at this time; however, the Class is estimated to be over fifty (50) individuals and the identity of such membership is readily ascertainable by inspection of Defendants’ employment records.
- b. Typicality: Plaintiff’s claims are typical of all other Class Members demonstrated herein. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the other Class Members with whom he has a well-defined community of interest.
- c. Adequacy: Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of each Class Member, with whom he has a well-defined community of interest and typicality of claims, as demonstrated herein. Plaintiff has no interest that is antagonistic to the other Class Members. Plaintiff's attorneys, the proposed class counsel, are versed in the rules governing class action discovery, certification, and settlement. Plaintiff has incurred, and during the pendency of this action will continue to incur, costs and attorneys' fees, that have been, are, and will be necessarily expended for the prosecution of this action for the substantial benefit of each Class Member.

- d. Superiority: A class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of this litigation because individual joinder of all Class Members is impractical.
- e. Public Policy Considerations: Certification of this lawsuit as a class action will advance public policy objectives. Employers of this great state violate employment and labor laws every day. Current employees are often afraid to assert their rights out of fear of direct or indirect retaliation. However, class actions provide the Class Members who are not named in the complaint anonymity that allows for the vindication of their rights.

16. There are common questions of law and fact as to the Class that predominate over questions affecting only individual members. The following common questions of law or fact, among others, exist as to the members of the Class:

- a. Whether Defendants' failure to pay wages, without abatement, or reduction, in accordance with the California Labor Code was willful;
- b. Whether Defendants had a corporate policy and practice of failing to pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members for all hours worked, and missed, short, late or interrupted meal periods and rest breaks in violation of California law;
- c. Whether Defendants required Plaintiff and the other Class Members to work more than eight (8) hours per day and/or more than forty (40) hours per week and failed to pay the legally required overtime compensation to Plaintiff and the other Class Members;

- 1 d. Whether Defendants deprived Plaintiff and the other Class Members of meal
2 and/or rest periods or required Plaintiff and the other Class Members to work
3 during meal and/or rest periods without compensation;
- 4 e. Whether Defendants failed to pay meal period premium wages to Class Members 5 when they were not provided with a legally compliant meal period;
- 6 f. Whether Defendants failed to pay rest period premium wages to Class Members
7 when they were not authorized and permitted to take legally compliant rest 8 periods;
- 9 g. Whether Defendants failed to pay minimum wages to Plaintiff and the other Class 10 Members for all hours worked;
- 11 h. Whether Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members the 12 required minimum wage pursuant to California law;
- 13 i. Whether Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members proper 14 overtime compensation pursuant to California law;
- 15 j. Whether Defendants failed to pay all wages due to Plaintiff and the other Class 16 Members within the time required upon their discharge or resignation from 17 employment;
- 18 k. Whether Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiff and the other Class Members
19 for all necessary business-related expenses and costs in violation of California
20 Labor Code section 2802;
- 21 l. Whether Defendants failed to pay accrued and unused vacation time in violation 22 of Labor Code section 227.3;
- 23 m. Whether Defendants complied with wage reporting as required by the California
24 Labor Code, including section 226;
- 25 n. Whether Defendants' conduct was with malice, fraud or oppression;
- 26 o. Whether Defendants' conduct was willful or reckless;
- 27 p. Whether Defendants engaged in unfair business practices in violation of 28 California Business & Professions Code section 17200, et seq. based on their improper withholding of compensation and deduction of wages;

q. The appropriate amount of damages, restitution, and/or monetary penalties resulting from Defendants' violation of California law; and

r. Whether Plaintiff and the other Class Members are entitled to compensatory damages pursuant to the California Labor Code.

GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

17. Defendants are a mental and social services provider.

18. Defendants employed Plaintiff to work as a Program Support Specialist from approximately October 2019 to February 4, 2021.

19. At all relevant times set forth herein, Defendants employed Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees as hourly-paid or non-exempt employees.

20. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants had the authority to hire and terminate Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees; to directly or indirectly control work rules, working conditions, wages, working hours, and conditions of employment of Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees; and to hire and terminate the employment of Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees.

21. At all times herein mentioned, Defendants were subject to the Labor Code of the State of California and the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Orders.

22. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges that Defendants engaged in an ongoing and systematic scheme of wage abuse against their hourly-paid or non-exempt employees. As set forth in more detail below, this scheme involved, inter alia, regularly requiring Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to work off the clock without compensation, thereby failing to pay them for all hours worked, including minimum and overtime wages. Defendants also implemented time rounding practices that resulted in the systematic underpayment of wages to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees, including minimum and overtime wages. Defendants also implemented policies that prohibited Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees from accurately recording the actual time worked, resulting in a failure to pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees all wages owed. In addition,

1 Defendants routinely failed to permit Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to take 2 timely and duty-free meal periods and rest periods in violation of California law. Defendants also 3 failed to reimburse Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees for all necessary business-4 related expenses, and failed to pay wages owed for accrued vacation time upon termination of 5 employment.

6 23. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants have implemented
7 policies and practices which failed to provide Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees
8 with timely and duty-free meal periods. Defendants routinely failed to relieve Plaintiff, the Class,
9 and the Aggrieved Employees of all duties during their meal periods, regularly failed to relinquish
10 control over Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees during their meal periods,
11 regularly failed to permit Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees a reasonable 12 opportunity to take their meal periods, and regularly impeded or discouraged Plaintiff, the Class,
13 and the Aggrieved Employees from taking thirty (30) minute uninterrupted meal breaks no later
14 than the end of their fifth hour of work and/or from taking a second thirty (30) minute
15 uninterrupted meal break no later than their tenth hour of work for shifts lasting more than ten 16 (10) hours. Defendants also failed to maintain accurate records of meal periods taken by Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees.

17 24. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants did not adequately
18 inform Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees of their right to take meal periods under 19 California law. Moreover, Defendants systematically disregarded their own written policies
20 regarding the provision and timing of meal periods for Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
21 Employees. Instead, Defendants' actual policy and practice was to schedule Plaintiff, the Class,
22 and the Aggrieved Employees in a way the prohibited them from taking timely and duty-free meal
23 periods, and to require Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to work through their 24 meal periods, for which they were not compensated. Moreover, Defendant required that Plaintiff, 25 the Class and Aggrieved Employees to answer phone calls at all times during meal periods.

26 25. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants failed to pay
27 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees premium wages for meal periods that were missed, late, interrupted, or shortened in violation of California law. Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were entitled to receive all meal periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at their regular rate of pay when a meal period was missed, short, late, and/or interrupted. Notwithstanding this knowledge, Defendants routinely failed to provide legally compliant meal periods to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees, and routinely failed pay one additional hour of pay to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees at their regular rate of pay when a meal period was missed, short, late, and/or interrupted.

26. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants have implemented policies and practices which prohibited Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees from taking timely and duty-free rest periods. Defendants regularly failed to provide, authorize, and permit Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to take full, uninterrupted, off-duty rest periods for every shift lasting three and one-half (3.5) to six (6) hours and/or two full, uninterrupted, off-duty rest periods for every shift lasting six (6) to ten (10) hours, and failed to make a good faith effort to authorize, permit, and provide such rest breaks in the middle of each work period.

27. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants did not adequately inform Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees of their right to take rest periods under California law. Moreover, Defendants systematically disregarded their own written policies regarding the provision and timing of rest periods for Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees. Instead, Defendants' actual policy and practice was to schedule Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees in a way that regularly prohibited them from taking timely and duty free rest periods, and to regularly require Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to work through their rest periods.

28. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees premium wages for rest periods that were missed, late, interrupted, or shortened in violation of California law. Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were entitled to receive all

1 rest periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at their regular rate of pay when a rest period
2 was missed, short, late, and/or interrupted. Notwithstanding this knowledge, Defendants routinely
3 failed to authorize and permit Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to take duty-free
4 rest periods, and failed to pay one additional hour of pay to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
5 Employees at their regular rate of pay when a rest period was missed, short, late and/or 6 interrupted.

7 29. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly required
8 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to perform work off the clock. Although 9 Defendants prohibited overtime, Defendants still regularly required that Plaintiff, the Class, and 10 the Aggrieved Employees complete all of their assigned duties. To do so, Plaintiff, the Class, and 11 the Aggrieved Employees were regularly required to perform work off the clock for which they 12 were not compensated.

13 30. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants employed a time
14 rounding policy that was not neutral and designed to consistently round time in Defendants' favor,
15 ensuring that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were oftentimes not paid for all 16 time worked.

17 31. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants implemented policies
18 that prohibited Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees from accurately recording the 19 actual time worked, resulting in a failure to pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees 20 all wages owed.

21 32. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Plaintiff, the Class, and the 22 Aggrieved Employees worked more than eight (8) hours in a day, and/or forty (40) hours in a 23 week.

24 33. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to 25 pay all overtime compensation owed to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees when 26 they worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a single work day and/or forty (40) hours in a single 27 work week, or in excess of twelve (12) hours in a single work day and/or eighty (80) hours in a 28 single work week. Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the

1 Aggrieved Employees were entitled to receive certain wages for overtime compensation and that
2 they were not receiving wages for overtime compensation.

3 34. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants failed to pay
4 overtime to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees for all overtime hours worked 5 based on regular rates of pay correctly calculated to include all applicable remuneration.

6 35. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to 7 pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees at least minimum wages for all hours
8 worked. Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved 9 Employees were entitled to receive at least minimum wages for all hours worked and that they 10 were not receiving at least minimum wages for all hours worked. Defendants' failure to pay
11 minimum wages included, inter alia, failing to pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
12 Employees at the required minimum wage pursuant to California law, requiring Plaintiff, the 13 Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to perform work off the clock, implementing time rounding
14 policies that resulted in the systematic underpayment of wages to Plaintiff, the Class, and the 15 Aggrieved Employees, and requiring Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to undergo security checks prior to clocking in and after clocking out for their shift.

16 36. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to 17 pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees all wages owed to them upon discharge or 18 resignation. Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
19 Employees were entitled to receive all wages owed to them upon termination within the time
20 permissible under California Labor Code section 202. Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
21 Employees did not receive payment of all final wages owed to them upon discharge or resignation, 22 including overtime compensation and minimum wages within any time permissible under 23 California Labor Code section 202.

24 37. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to 25 pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees all wages within any time permissible
26 under California law, including, inter alia, California Labor Code section 204. Defendants knew 27 or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were entitled to 28

1 receive all wages owed to them during their employment. Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
2 Employees did not receive payment of all wages, including overtime compensation, minimum
3 wages, meal and rest period premiums, and vested by unused vacation time.

4 38. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to 5 provide complete or accurate wage statements to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
6 Employees. Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
7 Employees were entitled to receive complete and accurate wage statements in accordance with 8 California law, but, in fact, they did not receive complete and accurate wage statements from 9 Defendants. The deficiencies included, inter alia, the failure to include the total number of hours 10 worked, the actual gross wages earned and the correct rates of pay.

11 39. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to 12 keep complete or accurate payroll records for Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees.
13 Defendants knew or should have known that Defendants were required keep complete and 14 accurate payroll records for Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees in accordance with 15 California law, but, in fact, did not keep complete and accurate payroll records.

16 40. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to 17 maintain accurate records relating to Plaintiff's, the Class', and the Aggrieved Employees' work 18 periods, meal periods, total daily hours, hours per pay period, and applicable pay rates.

19 41. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to 20 pay Plaintiff, the Class, and Aggrieved Employees for vested but unused vacation time.
21 Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and Aggrieved Employees were 22 entitled to receive all wages owed to them upon termination, including vested and unused vacation
23 time. Plaintiff, the Class, and Aggrieved Employees did not receive payment of all final wages 24 owed to them upon discharge or resignation, including vested and unused vacation time.

25 42. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants failed to provide 26 Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees with suitable seating, despite the fact that the nature of 27 their work reasonably permitted the use of seats.

28 43. Throughout the time period involved in this Case, Defendants failed to reimburse

1 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees for all necessary business-related expenses,
2 including but not limited to personal protective equipment. Defendants knew or should have 3 known that Defendants were required to reimburse Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
4 Employees for all necessary business-related expenses and costs, but, in fact, failed to do so in 5 violation of California law.

6 44. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants knew or should have 7 known that they had a duty to compensate Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees
8 pursuant to California law. Defendants had the financial ability to pay such compensation, but 9 willfully, knowingly, and intentionally failed to do so, and falsely represented to Plaintiff, the 10 Class, and the Aggrieved Employees that they paid all wages owed to them, all in order to increase 11 Defendants' profits.

12 45. California Labor Code section 218 states that nothing in Article 1 of the Labor
13 Code shall limit the right of any wage claimant to "sue directly ... for any wages or penalty due 14 to him [or her] under this article."

15 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

16 (Violation of California Labor Code §§ 510 and 1198)

17 (Against All Defendants)

18 46. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and
19 every allegation set forth above.

20 47. California Labor Code section 1198 and the applicable Industrial Welfare
21 Commission ("IWC") Wage Order provide that it is unlawful to employ persons without 22 compensating them at a rate of pay either time-and-one-half or two-times that person's regular 23 rate of pay, depending on the number of hours worked by the person on a daily or weekly basis.

24 48. Specifically, the applicable IWC Wage Order provides that Defendants are and 25 were required to pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members employed by Defendants, and working 26 more than eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek, at the rate of 27 time-and-one-half for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty 28 (40) hours in a workweek.

1 49. The applicable IWC Wage Order further provides that Defendants are and were 2 required to pay Plaintiff and the Class overtime compensation at a rate of two times their regular 3 rate of pay for all hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in a day and for all hours worked 4 in excess of eight (8) hours on the seventh day of work in a workweek.

5 50. California Labor Code section 510 codifies the right to overtime compensation at 6 one-and-one-half times the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a 7 day or forty (40) hours in a week or for the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh day of 8 work, and no overtime compensation at twice the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess 9 of twelve (12) hours in a day or in excess of eight (8) hours in a day on the seventh day of work.

10 51. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and the other Class Members regularly 11 worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day, and/or in excess of forty (40) hours in a week.

12 52. During the relevant time period, Defendants intentionally and willfully failed to 13 pay overtime wages owed to Plaintiff and the other Class Members.

14 53. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members the unpaid 15 balance of overtime compensation, as required by California laws, violates the provisions of 16 California Labor Code sections 510 and 1198, and is therefore unlawful.

17 54. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194, Plaintiff and the other Class 18 Members are entitled to recover unpaid overtime compensation, as well as interest, costs, and 19 attorneys' fees.

20 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

21 (Violation of California Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512(a))

22 (Against All Defendants)

23 55. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and
24 every allegation set forth above.

25 56. At all relevant times, the relevant IWC Order and California Labor Code sections 26 226.7 and 512(a) were applicable to Plaintiff and the other Class Members' employment by 27 Defendants.

28 57. At all relevant times, California Labor Code section 226.7 provides that no

1 employer shall require an employee to work during any meal or rest period mandated by an
2 applicable order of the California IWC.

3 58. At all relevant times, the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code
4 section 512(a) provide that an employer may not require, cause or permit an employee to work
5 for a work period of more than five (5) hours per day without providing the employee with a meal
6 period of not less than thirty (30) minutes, except that if the total work period per day of the 7 employee is no more than six (6) hours, the meal period may be waived by mutual consent of 8 both the employer and employee.

9 59. At all relevant times, California Labor Code section 512(a) further provides that 10 an employer may not require, cause or permit an employee to work for a work period of more
11 than ten (10) hours per day without providing the employee with a second uninterrupted meal 12 period of not less than thirty (30) minutes, except that if the total hours worked is no more than 13 twelve (12) hours, the second meal period may be waived by mutual consent of the employer and 14 the employee only if the first meal period was not waived.

15 60. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and the other Class Members who were 16 scheduled to work for a period of time longer than six (6) hours, and who did not waive their 17 legally-mandated meal periods by mutual consent, were required to work for periods longer than 18 five (5) hours without an uninterrupted meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes.

19 61. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and the other Class Members who were 20 scheduled to work for a period of time in excess of ten (10) hours were required to work for 21 periods longer than ten (10) hours without a second uninterrupted meal period of not less than 22 thirty (30) minutes.

23 62. During the relevant time period, Defendants intentionally and willfully required
24 Plaintiff and the other Class Members to miss their meal periods and to take meal periods that 25 were late, shortened, or interrupted, and failed to compensate Plaintiff and the other Class
26 Members the full meal period premium for missed, shortened, late, or interrupted meal periods.

27 63. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other
28 Class Members the full meal period premiums due pursuant to California Labor Code section

16 (Against All Defendants)

17 75. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and
18 every allegation set forth above.

19 76. At all relevant times, California Labor Code sections 1194, 1197, and 1197.1

5 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

6 (Violation of California Labor Code §§ 201, 202, 203)

7 (Against All Defendants)

8 80. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and
9 every allegation set forth above.

10 81. At all relevant times herein set forth, California Labor Code sections 201 and 202

12 discharge are due and payable immediately, and if an employee quits his or her employment, his 13 or her wages shall become due and payable not later seventy-two (72) hours thereafter, unless the 14 employee has given seventy-two (72) hours' notice of his or her intention to quit, in which case 15 the employee is entitled to his or her wages at the time of quitting.

16 82. During the relevant time period, the employment of Plaintiff and many other Class
17 Members with Defendants ended, i.e. was terminated by quitting or discharge. Defendants
18 intentionally and willfully failed to pay Plaintiff and other Class Members who are no longer

20 a copy of the statement or a record of the deductions shall be kept on file by the employer for at 21 least three years at the place of employment or at a central location within the State of California.

22 88. Defendants have intentionally and willfully failed to provide Plaintiff and the 23 Class with complete and accurate wage statements. The deficiencies include, but are not limited
24 to the failure list the total number of hours worked, the actual gross wages earned and the correct

26 89. Because of Defendants' violation of California Labor Code section 226(a), 27 Plaintiff and the Class have suffered injury and damage to their statutorily-protected rights.

28 90. More specifically, Plaintiff and the Class have been injured by Defendants'

1 intentional and willful violation of California Labor Code section 226(a) because they were 2 denied both their legal right to receive, and their protected interest in receiving, accurate and 3 itemized wage statements pursuant to California Labor Code section 226(a).

4 91. Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to recover from Defendants the greater of their
5 actual damages caused by Defendants' failure to comply with California Labor Code section 6 226(a), or an aggregate penalty not exceeding four thousand dollars per employee.

7 92. Plaintiff and the Class are also entitled to injunctive relief to ensure compliance

9 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

20 business-related expenses and costs including their failure to reimburse Plaintiff and the Class for 21 costs incurred as a result of, including not limited, simple negligence.

22 96. Defendants have intentionally and willfully failed to reimburse Plaintiff and the 23 Class for all necessary business-related expenses and costs. Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to 24 recover from Defendants their business-related expenses and costs incurred during the course and 25 scope of their employment, plus interest accrued from the date on which the employee incurred
26 the necessary expenditures at the same rate as judgments in civil actions in the State of California.

27 EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

28 (Violation of California Labor Code § 227.3)

1 (Against All Defendants)

2 97. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and
3 every allegation set forth above.

4 98. California Labor Code § 227.3 affirms “whenever a contract of employment or

6 off his vested vacation time, all vested vacation shall be paid to him as wages at his final rate in 7 accordance with such contract of employment or employer policy respecting eligibility or time
8 served.”

9 99. Defendants’ failure to pay Class Members unused and accrued vested vacation
10 time at the time of the Class Members’ separation from employment with Defendants violates 11 Labor Code § 227.3.

12 100. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants’ conduct, Plaintiff and similarly 13 situated Class Members have suffered substantial losses according to proof, as well as pre-14 judgment interest, costs, and attorneys’ fees pursuant to statute and applicable law.

15 NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

16 (Violation of Cal. Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.)

17 (Against All Defendants)

18 101. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and
19 every allegation set forth above.

20 102. Defendants’ conduct, as alleged herein, has been, and continues to be, unfair,
21 unlawful and harmful to Plaintiff and the Class, to the general public, and Defendants’
22 competitors. Accordingly, Plaintiff seeks to enforce important rights affecting the public interest
23 within the meaning of Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5.

24 103. Defendants’ activities as alleged herein are violations of California law, and 25 constitute unlawful business acts and practices in violation of California Business & Professions
26 Code section 17200, et seq.

27 104. A violation of California Business & Professions Code section 17200, et seq. may 28 be predicated on the violation of any state or federal law. In this instant case, Defendants’ policies

1 and practices of requiring employees, including Plaintiff and the Class, to work overtime without 2 paying them proper compensation violate California Labor Code sections 510 and 1198.
3 Additionally, Defendants' policies and practices of requiring employees, including Plaintiff and 4 the Class, to work through their meal and rest periods without paying them proper compensation
5 violate California Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512(a). Moreover, Defendants' policies and 6 practices of failing to timely pay wages to Plaintiff and the Class violate California Labor Code
7 sections 201, 202, 203 and 204.

8 105. Defendants also violated California Labor Code sections, 221, 226(a), 1194, 1197, 9 1197.1, 510, 1174(d), 2800, 2802, and 227.3.

10 106. As a result of the herein described violations of California law, Defendants 11 unlawfully gained an unfair advantage over other businesses.

12 107. Plaintiff and the Class have been personally injured by Defendants' unlawful 13 business acts and practices as alleged herein, including but not necessarily limited to the loss of 14 money and/or property.

15 108. Pursuant to California Business & Professions Code sections 17200, et seq.,
16 Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to restitution of the wages withheld and retained by Defendants
17 during a period that commences four years prior to the filing of this Complaint; an award of 18 attorneys' fees pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5 and other applicable 19 laws; and an award of costs.

20 TENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

21 (Violation of California Labor Code § 2699, Et Seq.)

22 (Against All Defendants)

23 109. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and
24 every allegation set forth above.

25 110. Plaintiff brings his tenth cause of action as a representative action on behalf of 26 himself and similarly Aggrieved Employees in the capacity as a private attorney general pursuant 27 to the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, California Labor Code section 2698, et seq.
28 ("PAGA").

111. PAGA specifically provides for a private right of action to recover civil penalties for violations of the Labor Code as follows: “Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any provision of this code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the Labor and Workforce Development Agency or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards, agencies, or employees, for a violation of this code, may, as an alternative, be recovered through a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of himself or herself and other current or former employees pursuant to the procedures specified in Section 2699.3.” Cal. Lab. Code § 2699(a).

112. Plaintiff was employed by Defendants and the Labor Code violations alleged above were committed against him during his time of employment. Plaintiff is therefore, an “aggrieved employee” under PAGA.

113. As set forth in detail above, during all times relevant to this Action, Defendant has routinely subjected Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to violations of California Labor Codes by:

- a. Failing to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees all earned minimum wage compensation in violation of Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1198 et seq.
- b. Failing to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees all earned overtime compensation in violation of Labor Code §§ 204, 510, 1194, and 1198 et seq.
- c. Failing to provide legally required meal periods to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees, and failing to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees an additional hour of premium pay for meal period violations in violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512.
- d. Failing to provide authorize and permit Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to take duty-free rest periods, and failing to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees an additional hour of premium pay for rest period violations in violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512.
- e. Failing to timely pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees all wages at end of their employment in violation of Labor Code § 203.

- 1 f. Failing to timely pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees all wages owed 2 during employment in violation of Labor Code § 204.
- 3 g. Failing to furnish Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees with complete, accurate, 4 itemized wage statements in violation of Labor Code § 226.
- 5 h. Failing to maintain accurate records relating to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved
6 Employees' work periods, meal periods, total daily hours, hours per pay period,
7 total wages and compensation, and applicable pay rates in violation of Labor Code
8 § 1174(d) and the applicable IWC Wage Order.
- 9 i. Failing to reimburse Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for necessary 10 business-related expenses in violation of Labor Code §§ 2800 and 2802.
- 11 j. Failing to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for all vested but unused 12 vacation time in violation of Labor Code § 227.3.
- 13 k. Failing to provide Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees with suitable seating in 14 violation of Labor Code § 1198 and the applicable IWC Wage Order.

15 114. Pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2699 and 2699.5, Plaintiff, 16 individually and on behalf of the Aggrieved Employees and the State of California, requests and 17 is entitled to recover penalties against Defendants for the Labor Code violations described above,
18 including but not limited to penalties under California Code of Regulations Title section 11010,
19 penalties under California Labor Code sections 2699, 558, 210, 1197.1, 226, 226.3 and 1174.5, 20 and any and all additional penalties and sums as provided by the California Labor Code and/or 21 other statutes. The exact amount of the applicable penalties, in all, is in an amount to be shown 22 according to proof at trial.

23 115. Plaintiff has exhausted his administrative remedies pursuant to Labor Code §
24 2699.3. On March 25, 2021, Plaintiff, through his counsel of record, by online filing with the Labor
25 and Workforce Development Agency ("LWDA") and by certified mail to the Defendants, notified
26 Defendants and the LWDA of the specific provisions of the Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders
27 that Defendants have violated, including the facts and theories to support the violations, and of 28 Plaintiff's intent to bring a claim for civil penalties under PAGA. Plaintiff also paid the filing fee

1 required under Labor Code § 2699.3. As of the filing of this Complaint, more than sixty-five (65)
2 days have elapsed since the mailing of Plaintiff's March 25, 2021 notice, and the Labor and
3 Workforce Development Agency has not indicated that it intends to investigate the violations
4 discussed in the notice. Accordingly, Plaintiff may commence a civil action to recover penalties
5 for himself and other Aggrieved Employees pursuant to Labor Code § 2699.3.

6 116. Plaintiff was compelled to retain the services of counsel to file this court action to 7 protect his interests and the Aggrieved Employees, and to assess and collect the civil penalties
8 owed by Defendants. Plaintiff therefore seeks an award of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs
9 pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(g)(1), and any other applicable statute.

10 117. Plaintiff may amend this complaint as a matter of right pursuant to California
11 Labor Code § 2699.3 as this complaint has been filed within sixty days of the time periods
12 specified in Labor Code §2699.3.
