CLASS ACTION

[Assigned to: Hon. Lawrence P. Riff, Dept. 7]

PLAINTIFF'S MOTION FOR FINAL APPROVAL OF CLASS ACTION AND PAGA SETTLEMENT; MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

[Filed concurrently with: Declaration of Justin F. Marquez; Declaration of Lluvia Islas; and Proposed Order]

FINAL APPROVAL HEARING

Date: November 2, 2023

Time: 10:00 a.m.

Dept: 7

1 TO THE COURT AND TO ALL PARTIES AND THEIR COUNSEL OF RECORD:

2 PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that on November 2, 2023 at 10:00 a.m., in Department 7 of 3 the Los Angeles County Superior Court, 312 North Spring Street, Los Angeles, California 90012, 4 pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure § 382 and California Rules of Court 3.769 et seq., Plaintiff
5 Tony Nunez (“Plaintiff”) will and hereby does move the Court for an Order granting final approval 6 of the proposed class and PAGA action settlement between Plaintiff and Defendant Gabriel 7 Container (“Defendant”). Plaintiff further move the Court for an Order:

- 8 1. Certifying a Class for settlement purposes;
- 9 2. Approving the settlement as fair and reasonable and finding that class members were 10 given notice of the settlement, and advised of their right to participate in the settlement, 11 object to the settlement, or exclude themselves from the settlement, in a reasonable 12 manner;
- 13 3. Appointing Plaintiff as Class Representatives for settlement purposes;
- 14 4. Appointing Plaintiff’s Counsel, Wilshire Law Firm, PLC, as Class Counsel for 15 settlement purposes;
- 16 5. Approving payment of administrative expenses to Phoenix Settlement Administrators 17 as the Settlement Administrator in the amount of $7,500.00;
- 18 6. Approving payment of $130,000.00 in attorney’s fees, which is 33.33% of the 19 Maximum Settlement Amount, and costs in the amount of $17,274.10 for litigating this 20 action to Class Counsel;
- 21 7. Approving the payment to the California Labor Workforce Development Agency in the 22 amount of $18,750.00;
- 23 8. Directing that the clerk of the Court enter the Court’s order as a final judgment; and,
- 24 9. Without affecting the finality of the final judgment, reserving continuing jurisdiction 25 over the parties for the purposes of implementing, enforcing and/or administering the 26 Settlement or enforcing the terms of the judgment.

27 The motion will be based upon this notice, the attached memorandum of points and 28 authorities, the Declarations of Justin F. Marquez and Lluvia Islas filed concurrently herewith, the

1 records and files in this action, and any other further evidence or argument that the Court may 2 properly receive at or before the hearing.

3 Respectfully submitted,

1 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

2 I. INTRODUCTION

3 Plaintiff Tony Nunez (“Plaintiff”) seeks preliminary approval of a proposed $390,000.00 4 non-reversionary, wage and hour class and PAGA representative action settlement with Defendant 5 Gabriel Container (“Defendant,” and together with Plaintiff, the “Parties”). The Settlement will 6 provide substantial monetary payments to 159¹ class members. And, as set forth more fully below, 7 the proposed Settlement satisfies all the criteria for settlement approval under California law.

8 The proposed settlement satisfies all the criteria for settlement approval under California
9 law. A presumption of fairness exists as the Settlement was reached through extensive, 10 mediated arm’s-length negotiations, sufficient investigation and discovery allowed Class 11 Counsel to act intelligently, and Class Counsel is experienced in similar wage-and-hour 12 litigation. Upon the Court’s approval of the settlement, participating class members will receive 13 an average individual net settlement class payment of approximately $1,242.14, with the 14 highest individual net settlement class payment to be paid of approximately $2,948.80.²
15 (Declaration of Lluvia Islas with Respect to Notice and Settlement Administration [“Islas 16 Decl.”], ¶ 13.) The deadline to opt-out or object to the settlement was September 25, 2023; as 17 of filing this Motion, there were zero requests for exclusion and zero written objections to the 18 settlement. (Id. at ¶¶ 8-9.) Thus, the proposed Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate and 19 is in the best interests of the Settlement Class Members.

20 Plaintiff’s request for attorneys’ fees in the amount of $130,000.00, reimbursement of 21 attorney costs and expenses in the amount of $17,274.10, an incentive award for Plaintiff in the 22 amount of $10,000.00, Settlement Administration Costs of $7,500.00, and payment to the 23 California Labor Workforce Development Agency “LWDA”) in the amount of $18,750.00 are 24

25 ¹ In Plaintiff’s Motion for Preliminary Approval of the Settlement, Plaintiff indicated that 26 there were approximately 142 class members at that time based on the initial information provided 27 by Defendant for the class period. In the final class mailing list provided to the Settlement Administrator by Defendant, the list states that there are 159 participating class members in the class period. (Islas Decl., ¶ 3.)

28 ² These figures only include class payments. Employees within the PAGA Group will also receive additional PAGA payments of up to $103.63. (Islas Decl., ¶ 14.)

also reasonable and thus should be approved by the Court.

Accordingly, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court grant final approval of the Settlement.

II. SUMMARY OF THE LITIGATION AND SETTLEMENT

A. Plaintiff's Claims

This is a wage and hour class and Private Attorneys General Act ("PAGA") (Cal. Lab. Code §§ 2699, et seq.) representative action. Plaintiff and the putative class members worked in California as hourly-paid or non-exempt employees for Defendant during the class period. Defendant operates a company that manufactures cardboard containers in Santa Fe Springs, California. (Declaration of Justin F. Marquez in Support of Plaintiff's Motion for Final Approval of Class Action Settlement ["Marquez Decl."], ¶ 2.)

Plaintiff alleges that Defendant's payroll, timekeeping, and wage and hour practices resulted in Labor Code violations. Plaintiff alleges that Defendant failed to pay for all hours worked and failed to provide employees with legally compliant meal and rest periods. Based on these allegations, Plaintiff asserts claims against Defendant for failure to pay minimum and straight time wages, failure to pay overtime wages, failure to provide meal periods, failure to authorize and permit rest periods, failure to timely pay all final wages at termination, failure to provide accurate itemized wage statements, unfair business practices, and civil penalties under PAGA. (Id. at ¶ 3.)

On March 12, 2021, Plaintiff filed a putative wage and hour class action complaint against Defendant for: (1) failure to pay minimum and straight time wages (Labor Code §§ 204, 1194, 1194.2, and 1197); (2) failure to pay overtime wages (Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1198); (3) failure to provide meal periods (Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512); (4) failure to authorize and permit rest periods (Labor Code §§ 226.7); (5) failure to timely pay final wages at termination (Labor Code §§ 201-203); (6) failure to provide accurate itemized wage statements (Labor Code § 226); and (7) unfair business practices (Business and Professions Code 17200, et seq.). On the same day, Plaintiff sent a notice to Defendant and the California Labor & Workforce Development Agency ("LWDA") alleging similar wage and hour violations pursuant to the

1 PAGA. (Id. at ¶ 4.)

2 On December 3, 2021, Plaintiff filed a First Amended Class & Representative Action
3 Complaint, which added a claim for civil penalties under the PAGA. (Id. at ¶ 5.)

4 B. Discovery and Investigation

5 Following the Initial Status Conference, Plaintiff propounded formal written discovery.
6 However, the Parties later agreed to stay formal discovery in exchange for participating in 7 private mediation and engaging in informal discovery. In advance of mediation, Defendant 8 produced a sample of timekeeping and pay records for the class members, which included time 9 records and corresponding pay records for approximately 25% of the total shifts in the class 10 period. Defendant also provided documents of its wage and hour policies and practices during 11 the class period and information regarding the total number of current and former employees.
12 (Id. at ¶ 6.)

13 After reviewing documents regarding Defendant's wage and hour policies and analyzing 14 Defendant's timekeeping and payroll records with the assistance of a retained expert, Class 15 Counsel was able to evaluate the probability of class certification, success on the merits, and 16 Defendant's maximum monetary exposure for all claims. Class Counsel also investigated the 17 applicable law regarding the claims and defenses asserted in the litigation. Class Counsel 18 reviewed these records and prepared a damage analysis prior to mediation. (Id. at ¶ 7.)

19 C. Settlement Negotiations, Preliminary Approval, and Class Size.

20 On May 31, 2022, the Parties participated in private mediation with experienced class 21 action mediator Honorable Steven R. Denton (Ret.) The mediation was conducted via Zoom.
22 The settlement negotiations were at arm's length and, although conducted in a professional 23 manner, were adversarial. The Parties went into the mediation willing to explore the potential 24 for a settlement of the dispute, but each side was also prepared to litigate their position through 25 trial and appeal if a settlement had not been reached. (Id. at ¶ 8.)

26 After extensive negotiations and discussions regarding the strengths and weaknesses of 27 Plaintiff's claims and Defendant's defenses, the mediator issued a mediator's proposal that the 28 Parties ultimately accepted approximately one week later. (Id. at ¶ 9.) The Parties subsequently

1 negotiated and drafted a long-form agreement, the material terms of which are encompassed
2 within the Settlement Agreement. (Id. at ¶ 9, Ex. 1 [Class and Representative Action Settlement 3 Agreement].)

4 Class Counsel has conducted a thorough investigation into the facts of this case. Based 5 on the foregoing discovery and their own independent investigation and evaluation, Class 6 Counsel is of the opinion that the Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate and is in the best 7 interests of the Settlement Class Members in light of all known facts and circumstances, the risk 8 of significant delay, the defenses that could be asserted by Defendant both to certification and 9 on the merits, trial risk, and appellate risk. (Id. at ¶ 13.)

10 D. Key Terms of the Proposed Settlement

11 Under the Settlement, Defendant will pay $390,000.00, plus applicable employer-side 12 taxes, to resolve this Litigation. The Settlement’s key terms include:

13 1. Settlement Class: For settlement purposes only, the Parties agree to the certification 14 of a class pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 382 defined as: all individuals employed 15 by Defendant in California and classified as an hourly-paid or non-exempt employee during the 16 Class Period. (Settlement, ¶ 2.)

17 2. Class Period: means September 15, 2016 through June 27, 2023, which is the date
18 the Court granted preliminary approval of the settlement. (Settlement, ¶ 4.)

19 3. Participating Class Members: “all Class Members who do not submit a valid request 20 to be excluded from the settlement, consistent with the terms set forth in this Settlement 21 Agreement.” (Settlement, ¶ 18.)

22 4. PAGA Group: means “all non-exempt, hourly-paid California employees employed 23 by GABRIEL CONTAINER during the PAGA Period.” (Settlement, § I(15).)

24 5. PAGA Period: means September 15, 2019 through June 27, 2023, which is the date
25 the Court granted preliminary approval of the settlement. (Settlement, ¶¶ 4, 17.)

26 6. Maximum Settlement Amount: This amount is $390,000.00 and will be used to pay 27 Individual Settlement Payments, Individual PAGA Payments, the LWDA PAGA Payment, Class 28 Counsel Fees, Class Counsel Expenses, Class Representative Service Award, and the

1 Administrator's Expenses. (Settlement, ¶ 10.) Defendant shall fully fund the Maximum 2 Settlement Amount, plus all employer-side taxes, no later than 90 days after the Effective Date as 3 described in the Settlement Agreement. (Settlement, ¶ 39.)

4 7. Uncashed Checks: For any Participating Class Member whose Individual 5 Settlement Payment check is uncashed and cancelled after the void date (not less than 180 days 6 after the date of mailing), the Administrator shall transmit the funds represented by such checks to 7 the California State Controller's Unclaimed Property Funds in the name of the Class Members 8 thereby leaving no "unpaid residue" subject to the requirements of California Code of Civil 9 Procedure § 384, subd. (b). (Settlement, ¶ 66.)

10 8. Release by Participating Class Members: "means any and all claims, damages, or 11 causes of action alleged in, or arising out of, the allegations in the Complaint and First Amended 12 Complaint, filed in the Action and the PAGA Notice, which were alleged or that could have been 13 alleged by NUNEZ and/or any Participating Class Member in such complaints and/or the PAGA 14 Notice based on any of the factual allegations contained in such complaints and/or the PAGA 15 Notice, including, but not limited to, claims under state, federal (i.e., Fair Labor Standards Act 16 (FLSA)) or local law, including, but not limited to claims for unpaid wages, claims for the failure 17 to pay minimum wages, claims for the failure to pay overtime wages, claims related to missed meal 18 and rest breaks or periods and nonpayment of premium pay for such, failure to comply with 19 itemized employee wage statement provisions, failure to pay wages due at separation, failure to 20 timely pay wages during employment, failure to keep requisite payroll records, unfair competition, 21 the payment of any penalties (including PAGA). The Released Claims specifically include, but are 22 not limited to, all claims arising under California Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 23 218.5, 226, 226.7, 510, 512, 558, 558.1, 1174, 1174.5, 1182.12, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 24 1199, 2698 et seq., 2800, the Wage Orders of the California Industrial Welfare Commission, 25 California Business and Profession Code sections 17200, et seq., California Code of Civil 26 Procedure section 1021.5, and California common law of contract, interest and claims for 27 attorney's fees relating in any way to those claims alleged and mentioned in the complaint(s) and/or 28 PAGA Notice." (Settlement, ¶ 23.) This release only becomes effective upon the funding of the Maximum Settlement Amount. (Settlement, ¶ 68.)

9. Release by Aggrieved Employees: “means any and all claims for civil penalties under PAGA based on the labor code violations alleged in the PAGA Notice sent by Plaintiff to the LWDA, including California Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 226, 226.7, 510, 512, 1174, 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800, 2698, et seq., the IWC Wage Orders as well as all facts, theories, or claims for civil penalties that would be considered administratively exhausted under applicable law by the PAGA Notice Plaintiff sent to the LWDA.” (Settlement, ¶ 24.) This release only becomes effective upon the funding of the Maximum Settlement Amount. (Settlement, ¶ 69.)

10. No Reversion: “This settlement is made on a non-reversionary basis.” (Settlement, ¶ 38.)

11. PAGA Allocation: The settlement includes $25,000.00 allocated to Plaintiff’s claims under PAGA, with 75% of which ($18,750.00) being paid to the LWDA and 25% ($6,250.00) being paid to the Aggrieved Employees. (Settlement, ¶ 44.) Class Counsel submitted the proposed settlement to the LWDA before filing the Motion for Preliminary Approval. (Marquez Decl., ¶ 10.)

12. Net Settlement Fund/Amount: “means the portion of the Maximum Settlement Amount, less the amounts approved and awarded by the Court for: (1) the attorneys’ fees of Class Counsel; (2) the litigation costs and expenses of Class Counsel; (3) the Service Award to the Class Representative; (4) the payment to the LWDA pursuant to PAGA; (5) all costs of administration, including, without limitation, the Settlement Administrator’s fees and expenses. (Settlement, ¶ 11.)

13. Distribution Formula: The Individual Settlement Payments will be calculated based on a prorated basis using the number of workweeks that Participating Class Members and PAGA Group Members worked for Defendant during the Class Period and PAGA Period, as further detailed in Paragraph 61 of the Settlement Agreement.

14. Class Representative Service Award: Subject to Court approval, Plaintiff shall be paid a service award not to exceed $10,000.00. (Settlement, ¶ 43.) This amount is for Plaintiff’s time and effort in bringing and presenting the action, and in exchange for a general release of all claims, known or unknown, pursuant to California Civil Code Section 1542. (Settlement, ¶ 70.)

1 If the Court approves a lesser enhancement, then the unapproved portion shall revert into the Net
2 Settlement Amount to be distributed between the Participating Class Members. (Settlement, ¶ 43)

3 15. Attorneys' Fees and Costs: The Settlement provides that Defendant will not oppose 4 a fee application of up to 33.33% of the Gross Settlement Amount or $130,000.00, plus out-of-5 pocket costs not to exceed $20,000.00. (Settlement, ¶ 42.)

6 16. Court Approved Notice of Class Action Settlement and Hearing Date for Final Court 7 Approval: The Notice, which was previously approved by this Court, set forth, in plain terms, a 8 statement of the case, the terms of the Settlement Agreement, the approximate amount of attorneys' 9 fees, costs, and service award being sought, and an explanation of how the settlement allocations 10 are calculated. (Islas Decl., ¶ 5, Ex. A.) Class Members were notified by first-class mail of the 11 settlement. (Id. at ¶¶ 5-6.) Phoenix Settlement Administrators, the proposed Settlement 12 Administrator, undertook its best efforts to ensure that the Notice was provided to the current 13 addresses of class members, including conducting a national change of address search and re-14 mailing the notice to updated addresses. (Id. at ¶¶ 3-7.)

15 E. Class Notice and Settlement Administration.

16 This Court granted preliminary approval on June 27, 2023. (Marquez Decl., ¶ 9.)
17 Notices explaining class member rights were mailed out to all 159 class members in the mailing 18 list provided by Defendant. (Islas Decl., ¶¶ 3, 5.) To date, only seven notice packets remain 19 undeliverable after remailing attempts were made. (Id. at ¶ 6.) There were zero requests for 20 exclusion and zero objections to the settlement. (Id. at ¶¶ 8, 9.)

21 III. THE SETTLEMENT MERITS FINAL APPROVAL

22 The law favors the settlement of lawsuits, particularly in class actions and other complex 23 cases. (See e.g., Neary v. Regents of Univ. of California (1992) 3 Cal.4th 272, 277-81.) Factors 24 to be considered in evaluating a class action settlement include “the strength of plaintiffs’ case, the 25 risk, expense, complexity and likely duration of further litigation, the risk of maintaining class 26 action status through proceedings, the experience and views of counsel, the presence of a 27 government participant, and the reaction of the class members to the proposed settlement.” (Kullar 28 v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc. (2008) 168 Cal.App.4th 116, 128.) A presumption that a settlement is

1 fair and reasonable exists where, as here, the following four factors are present: “(1) the settlement 2 is reached through arm’s length bargaining; (2) investigation and discovery are sufficient to allow 3 counsel and the court to act intelligently; (3) counsel is experienced in similar litigation; and (4) 4 the percentage of objectors is small.” (Wershba v. Apple Computers, Inc. (2001) 91 Cal.App.4th 5 224, 245.)

6 Whether a class action settlement should be approved is a question committed to the trial 7 court’s broad discretion. (Id. at pp. 234-35.) In exercising its discretion, the Court should give 8 “[d]ue regard ...to what is otherwise a private consensual agreement between the parties.” (Dunk 9 v. Ford Motor Co. (1996) 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1801.) “The inquiry ‘must be limited to the extent 10 necessary to reach a reasoned judgment that the agreement is not the product of fraud or 11 overreaching by, or collusion between, the negotiating parties, and that the settlement, taken as a 12 whole, is fair, reasonable and adequate to all concerned.” (Id. [internal citations omitted].)

13 A. The Settlement Reflects a Reasonable Compromise.

14 A settlement is not judged against what the plaintiff might recover had she prevailed at 15 trial, nor does the settlement have to provide 100% of the damages sought to be fair and reasonable.
16 (Wershba, supra, 91 Cal.App.4th at pp. 246, 250 [“Compromise is inherent and necessary in the 17 settlement process...even if the relief afforded by the proposed settlement is substantially narrower 18 than it would be if the suits were to be successfully litigated, this is no bar to a class settlement 19 because the public interest may indeed be served by a voluntary settlement in which each side 20 gives ground in the interest of avoiding litigation.”].)

21 The settlement obviates the significant risk that this Court may deny certification of all or 22 some of Plaintiff’s claims. (Marquez Decl., ¶ 13.) While Plaintiff is confident in the merits of 23 their claims, a legitimate controversy exists as to each cause of action. (Id.) Plaintiff also 24 recognizes that proving the amount of wages due to each class member would be an expensive, 25 time-consuming, and uncertain proposition. (Id.) Furthermore, even if Plaintiff obtained 26 certification of all or some of the claims, continued litigation would be expensive, involving a trial 27 and possible appeals, and would substantially delay and reduce any recovery by the class. (Id.)

28 Because of the proposed Settlement, class members will receive timely, guaranteed relief

1 and will avoid the risk of an unfavorable judgment. When considering the risks of litigation, the 2 uncertainties involved in achieving class certification, the burdens of proof necessary to establish 3 liability, the probability of appeal of a favorable judgment, it is clear that the settlement amount of 4 $390,000.00 is within the “ballpark” of reasonableness, and preliminary settlement approval is 5 appropriate. (Id.) Indeed, each Settlement Class Member is eligible to receive an average benefit 6 of approximately $1,242.14, and the highest estimated net payout is expected to be approximately 7 $2,948.80. (Islas Decl., ¶ 13.)

8 B. The Settlement was Reached After Arms-Length Negotiations Following 9 Informal Discovery.

10 The Settlement was reached over the course of a full-day mediation with experienced 11 employment mediator Honorable Steven R. Denton (Ret.) and a subsequent mediator’s proposal, 12 which was eventually accepted by the Parties. (Marquez Decl. ¶¶ 8-9.) The settlement 13 negotiations were at arm’s length and, although conducted in a professional manner, were 14 adversarial. The Parties went into the mediation willing to explore the potential for a settlement 15 of the dispute, but each side was also prepared to litigate their position through trial and appeal 16 if a settlement had not been reached. (Id.)

17 Prior to reaching this settlement, Class Counsel conducted informal discovery concerning 18 the claims set forth in the Litigation, such as class member timekeeping and payroll records, 19 Defendants’ policies and procedures concerning, inter alia, the payment of wages, the provision 20 of meal and rest breaks, issuance of wage statements, and providing all wages at separation, as 21 well as information regarding the number of putative class members and the mix of current versus 22 former employees. (Id. at ¶¶ 6-7.) In conjunction with their extensive factual investigation, Class 23 Counsel investigated the applicable law regarding the claims and defenses asserted in the 24 Litigation. (Id.) Thus, Plaintiff and his counsel were able to act intelligently and effectively in 25 negotiating the proposed Settlement. (Id.)

26 C. Plaintiff’s Counsel Has Substantial Class Action Experience.

27 Class Counsel also has considerable experience and has demonstrated competence with 28 litigating wage and hour class actions. (Id. at ¶¶ 29-40.) Class Counsel has substantial experience

1 in all facets of litigation in state and federal court, including discovery, law and motion, trial, 2 appeals, arbitration and mediation. Class Counsel has litigated numerous class actions on behalf 3 of plaintiffs and have been lead counsel or otherwise exercised significant case handling 4 responsibilities in numerous cases resulting in millions of dollars in class action settlements. (Id.)

5 Based on Class Counsel's experience as employment and class action attorneys, Class 6 Counsel is eminently qualified to evaluate the strength of Plaintiff's claims, the strength of 7 Defendant's defenses against certification, the strength of Defendant's defenses on the merits, and 8 the fairness of the Settlement. Their opinion that final approval of the Settlement would be in the 9 best interests of class members in light of the significant risks of litigation is entitled to great 10 weight. (See Kullar, supra, 168 Cal.App.4th at 129 ["The court undoubtedly should give 11 considerable weight to the competency and integrity of counsel and the involvement of a neutral 12 mediator in assuring itself that a settlement agreement represents an arms' length transaction 13 entered without self-dealing or other potential misconduct"].)

14 D. There Are No Objections to the Settlement.

15 No class member has objected to the Settlement, and no class member has requested 16 exclusion from the Settlement. (Islas Decl., ¶¶ 8-9.) The overwhelmingly positive response of 17 the class strongly supports final approval of the Settlement. (See, e.g., In re Lifelock, Inc.
18 Marketing and Sales Practices Litigation (D. Ariz. 2010) 2010 WL 3715138, *6 [relatively few 19 objections and requests for exclusion support approval].)

20 Factors to be considered in evaluating a class action settlement include "the reaction of the 21 class members to the proposed settlement." (Kullar, supra, 168 Cal.App.4th at p. 128.) The 22 reaction here has been overwhelmingly positive. Courts have approved class action settlements in 23 lesser circumstances. (See, e.g., Hughes v. Microsoft Corp. (W.D.Wash. 2001) 2001 U.S. Dist.
24 LEXIS 5976, 2001 WL 34089697, *8 [court found that the "class members overwhelmingly 25 support[ed] the settlement" where there were over 37,000 notices sent out, 2,745 class members 26 participated in the settlement, "only nine objections were submitted", and there were 86 timely 27 opt-outs and over 20 additional defective or untimely opt-outs, "these indicia of the approval of 28 the class of the terms of the settlement support a finding of fairness under Rule 23"], citing Hanlon

1 v. Chrysler Corp. (9th Cir.1998) 150 F.3d 1011, 1027 [despite vigorous objections and appeal by 2 objectors, “fact that the overwhelming majority of the class willingly approved the offer and stayed 3 in the class presents at least some objective positive commentary as to its fairness”, court did not 4 abuse its discretion in approving settlement].)

5 IV. THE COURT SHOULD AWARD PLAINTIFF THE REQUESTED AMOUNTS OF 6 FEES, COSTS AND AN ENHANCEMENT PAYMENT.

7 Under the Settlement, subject to the Court’s approval, Defendant has agreed to pay Class 8 Counsel reasonable attorneys’ fees in the amount of $130,000.00, which is one-third of the 9 Maximum Settlement Amount, and costs up to $20,000.00 for litigating this Action. In addition, 10 Defendant will not oppose an application for the payment of Settlement Administration Costs and 11 a Class Representative Service Payment. Settlement Administration Costs are $7,500.00, and 12 Plaintiff will apply for a Service Payment in the amount of $10,000.00. The proposed attorneys’ 13 fees and expenses, as well as the requested Enhancement Award, were disclosed to the Class 14 Members in the proposed Notice of Proposed Class Action Settlement.

15 “In general, questions whether a settlement was fair and reasonable, whether certification 16 of the class was proper, and whether the attorney fee award was proper are matters addressed to 17 the trial court’s broad discretion.” (Wershba, supra, 91 Cal.App.4th at pp. 234-235.) “Courts 18 recognize two methods for calculating attorney fees in civil class actions: the lodestar/multiplier 19 method and the percentage of recovery method.” (Id. at p. 254; Vincent v. Hughes Air West, Inc.
20 (9th Cir. 1977) 557 F.2d 759, 769.)

21 A. Counsel Requests an Award of Fees Based on the “Common Fund” Method.

22 California courts have long awarded attorneys’ fees as a percentage of the benefit created 23 by counsel in pursuing claims on behalf of a class. The California Supreme Court held that “when 24 a number of persons is entitled in common to a specific fund, and an action brought by a plaintiff 25 or plaintiffs for the benefit of all results in the creation or preservation of that fund, such plaintiff 26 or plaintiffs may be awarded attorneys’ fees out of the fund.” (Serrano v. Priest (1977) 20 Cal.3d 27 25, 34 [quoting D’Amico v. Board of Medical Examiners (1974)
28 11 Cal. 3d 1.]

1 Class Counsel intends to seek an award of attorneys’ fees on the “percentage of recovery/2 common fund” theory. The purpose of the common fund/percentage approach is to “spread 3 litigation costs proportionally among all the beneficiaries so that the active beneficiary does not 4 bear the entire burden alone.” (Vincent v. Hughes Air West, Inc. (9th Cir. 1977) 557 F.2d 759, 769.)
5 In Quinn v. State of California (1995) 15 Cal. 3d 162, 167, the California Supreme Court stated:
6 “[O]ne who expends attorneys’ fees in winning a suit which creates a fund from which others 7 derive benefits may require those passive beneficiaries to bear a fair share of the litigation costs.” 8 Similarly, in City and County of San Francisco v. Sweet (1995) 12 Cal.4th 105, 110, the California 9 Supreme Court recognized that the common fund doctrine has been applied “consistently in 10 California when an action brought by one party creates a fund in which other persons are entitled 11 to share.”

12 The California Supreme Court affirmed in Laffitte v. Robert Half Int’l Inc. (2016) 1 Cal.5th 13 480 that, “when class action litigation establishes a monetary fund for the benefit of the class 14 members, and the trial court in its equitable powers awards class counsel a fee out of that fund, the 15 court may determine the amount of a reasonable fee by choosing an appropriate percentage of the 16 fund created.” (Id. at p. 503.) The court explained: “The recognized advantages of the percentage 17 method—including relative ease of calculation, alignment of incentives between counsel and the 18 class, a better approximation of market conditions in a contingency case, and the encouragement 19 it provides counsel to seek an early settlement and avoid unnecessarily prolonging the litigation—20 convince us the percentage method is a valuable tool that should not be denied our trial courts.”
21 (Id. [internal citations omitted].)

22 Several courts have expressed frustration with the alternative “lodestar” approach for 23 deciding fee awards, which usually involves wading through voluminous and often indecipherable 24 time records. Commenting on the lodestar approach, Chief Judge Marilyn Hall Patel wrote: “This 25 court is compelled to ask, ‘Is this process necessary?’ Under a cost-benefit analysis, the answer 26 would be a resounding, ‘No!’” (In re Activision Securities Litigation (N.D. Cal 1989) 723 F. Supp.
27 1373, 1375.) The percentage approach is preferable to the lodestar because: (1) it aligns the 28 interests of class counsel and absent class members; (2) it encourages efficient resolution of the 1 litigation by providing an incentive for early, yet reasonable, settlement; and (3) it reduces the 2 demands on judicial resources. (Id. at pp. 1378-79.) The Ninth Circuit now routinely uses the 3 percentage of the common fund approach to determine the award of attorney’s fees. (See, e.g., In 4 re Pacific Enterprises Securities City and County of San Francisco Litigation (9th Cir. 1994) 47

5 F.3d 373, 378-79 [approving attorney’s fee of 33 1/3%.])

6 1. The Standard Fee Award in Class Actions Has Resolved Itself As One- 7 Third Of The Recovery In Common Fund Cases.

8 According to a leading treatise on class actions, “No general rule can be articulated on what 9 is a reasonable percentage of a common fund. Usually 50% of the fund is the upper limit on a 10 reasonable fee award from a common fund in order to assure that the fees do not consume a 11 disproportionate part of the recovery obtained for the class, although somewhat larger percentages 12 are not unprecedented.” (See Conte & Newberg, Newberg on Class Actions (3rd Ed.) § 14.03.)
13 Attorneys’ fees that are fifty percent of the fund are typically considered the upper limit, with thirty 14 to forty percent commonly awarded in cases where the settlement is relatively small. (See Id.; 15 see also, Van Vranken v. Atlantic Richfield Company (N.D. Cal. 1995) 901 F. Supp. 294 [stating 16 that most cases where 30-50 percent was awarded involved “smaller” settlement funds of under 17 $10 million].)

18 The settled-for 33 1/3% fee award is consistent with the average fee award in class actions.
19 Indeed, the custom and practice in class actions is to award approximately one-third of a fund as a 20 fee award. (See Chavez v. Netflix, Inc. (2008) 162 Cal.App.4th 43, 66, n.11 [“Empirical studies 21 show that, regardless whether the percentage method or the lodestar method is used, fee awards in 22 class actions average around one-third of the recovery.”].) Thus, Plaintiff’s fee request is in line 23 with the prevailing guidelines established in California case law and academic literature and is 24 consistent with awards in California. Accordingly, Plaintiff requests that the Court approve the 25 attorneys’ fees requested herein.

26 2. This Matter Involves A “Fee-Shifting” Provision of the Labor Code.

27 Class Counsel is entitled to recover fees under Labor Code § 1194, which provides, in part:
28

1 [A]ny employee receiving less than the legal minimum wage or the legal overtime 2 compensation applicable to the employee is entitled to recover in a civil action the 3 unpaid balance of the full amount of this minimum wage or overtime compensation, 4 including interest thereon, reasonable attorney's fees, and costs of suit.

5 (Cal. Lab. Code § 1194.)

6 As this litigation culminated in a settlement that provided for a recovery of unpaid wages, 7 including unpaid minimum wages and overtime compensation, Plaintiff is entitled to recover 8 reasonable attorneys' fees and costs under the California Labor Code.

9 Class Counsel is also entitled to a fee award under California's private attorney general 10 statute, Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5. "The award of attorneys' fees is proper under Section 11 1021.5 if '(1) plaintiffs' action 'has resulted in the enforcement of an important right affecting the 12 public interest,' (2) 'a significant benefit, whether pecuniary or nonpecuniary, has been conferred 13 on the general public or a large class of persons' and (3) 'the necessity and financial burden of 14 private enforcement are such as to make the award appropriate.'" (Press v. Lucky Stores (1983) 15 34 Cal.3d 311, 317-318.) The fundamental objective of the statute is "to encourage suits enforcing 16 public policies by providing substantial attorneys' fees to successful litigants in such cases."
17 (Graham v. DaimlerChrysler Corp. (2004) 34 Cal.4th 553, 565.)

18 This action resulted in the enforcement of an important right affecting the public interest, 19 as Plaintiff sought to enforce Settlement Class Members' rights to recover statutory wages arising 20 from Defendants' failure to pay all wages and failure to provide meal and rest breaks. (See Murphy 21 v. Kenneth Cole Productions, Inc. (2007) 40 Cal.4th 1094, 1113 [noting that "health and safety 22 concerns" are what motivated the Industrial Wage Commission to adopt mandatory meal and rest 23 periods].)

24 This action also conferred a significant benefit on a large class of persons. Notice was sent 25 to 61 Settlement Class Members, and no Settlement Class Members requested exclusion. The 26 Settlement provides a significant monetary benefit, in that it permits all persons who worked for 27 Defendants during the applicable class period to obtain compensation for unpaid wages and missed 28 meal and rest periods.

1 Finally, the necessity and financial burden of private enforcement render an award 2 appropriate. Without the incentive of an attorneys' fee award, Plaintiff could not have afforded to 3 hire counsel to pursue this case, as the cost of litigating this matter far outweighed Plaintiff's 4 potential recovery. (See Ryan v. California Interscholastic Federation (2001) 94 Cal.App.4th 5 1033, 1044 ["As to the necessity and financial burden of private enforcement, an award is 6 appropriate where the cost of the legal victory transcends the claimants' personal interest; in other 7 words, where the burden of pursuing the litigation is out of proportion to the plaintiff's individual 8 stake in the matter."].)

9 3. The Experience, Reputation and Ability of Class Counsel Support the 10 Fee Award.

11 As demonstrated by their past experience in pursuing class actions on behalf of consumers 12 and employees, Class Counsel possesses considerable expertise in litigating class action matters.
13 Class Counsel has been involved as lead counsel or co-counsel in dozens of class actions resulting 14 in a multitude of beneficial results to class members in California. Because it is reasonable to 15 compensate class counsel commensurate with their skill, reputation and experience, a fee award of 16 33 1/3% of the Maximum Settlement Amount, a percentage considered within the norm in class 17 action practice, is certainly justified here.

18 Class Counsel's experience in wage and hour class actions was integral in evaluating the 19 strengths and weaknesses of the case against Defendants and the reasonableness of the settlement.
20 Practice in the narrow field of wage and hour litigation requires skill and knowledge concerning 21 the rapidly evolving substantive law (state and federal), as well as the procedural law of class 22 action litigation. Based on these and other factors, Class Counsel has frequently received fee 23 awards amounting to 33 1/3% of the recovery for the class. Therefore, the requested fee award is 24 reasonable and fair.

25 B. While the Lodestar Method is Not Necessary in Common Fund Cases, Courts
26 May Perform a Cross-Check to Award Fees.

27 Although California supports the common fund doctrine, the lodestar method can be used 28 to cross-check fee awards. "It may be appropriate in some cases, assuming the class benefit can

1 be monetized with a reasonable degree of certainty, to “cross-check” or adjust the lodestar in 2 comparison to a percentage of the common fund to ensure that the fee awarded is reasonable and 3 within the range of fees freely negotiated in the legal marketplace in comparable litigation.” (In re
4 Consumer Privacy Cases (2009) 175 Cal.App.4th 545, 557.)

5 Applying the lodestar method requires a two-step process. The first step is to multiply the 6 number of hours reasonably expended by a reasonable hourly rate. The second step is to apply a 7 multiplier to the lodestar to take into account various factors. “The purpose of such adjustment is 8 to fix a fee at the fair market value for the particular action. In effect, the court determines, 9 retrospectively, whether the litigation involved a contingent risk or required extraordinary legal 10 skill justifying augmentation of the unadorned lodestar in order to approximate the fair market rate 11 for such services.” (Id. at pp. 556-57.) “Under certain circumstances, a lodestar calculation may 12 be enhanced on the basis of a percentage-of-the-benefit analysis.” (Id. at p. 557.)

13 Wilshire Law Firm’s current lodestar is at least $119,900 based on at least 206 hours of 14 work performed by Class Counsel thus far. (Marquez Decl., ¶¶ 20-21.) Accordingly, the requested 15 fee of $130,000.00 is reasonable and fair as it is based on a multiplier of 1.1. To be sure, trial 16 courts have substantial discretion in adjusting the lodestar to account for various factors. (See 17 Lealao v. Beneficial California, Inc. (2000) 82 Cal.App.4th 19, 26, 39-45; see also Serrano, supra, 18 20 Cal.3d at p. 49.) In addition, it has been held that “[m]ultipliers can range from 2 to 4 or even 19 higher.” (See Wershba, 91 Cal.App.4th at p. 255; see also Van Vranken, supra, 901 F. Supp. At 20 p. 298 “[m]ultipliers in the 3-4 range are common in lodestar awards for lengthy and complex 21 class action litigation”].)

22 1. Class Counsel’s Rates Have Been Approved by Several Courts.

23 Class Counsel provides a declaration to support their lodestar hourly rates. “Affidavits of 24 the plaintiffs’ attorney and other attorneys regarding prevailing fees in the community, and rate 25 determinations in other cases, particularly those setting a rate for the plaintiffs’ attorney, are 26 satisfactory evidence of the prevailing market rate.” (United Steelworkers of America v. Phelps 27 Dodge Corp. (9th Cir. 1990) 896 F.2d 403, 407.) Class Counsel has received final approval of 28 their hourly rates in other wage and hour class action settlements. These rates are not opposed or 1 challenged.

3 2. The Lawsuit Provided a Public Benefit.

4 Class Counsel's choice to litigate this matter provided a public benefit to 159 California 5 employees. Moreover, the California Supreme Court stated that "Labor Code section 1194 confirms 6 "a clear public policy ... that is specifically directed at the enforcement of California's minimum wage 7 and overtime laws for the benefit of workers." [citation omitted]." (Sav-on Drug Stores, Inc. v.
8 Super. Ct. (2004) 34 Cal.4th 319, 340.) Given the financial risks and numerous attorney hours 9 attendant to the litigation of Plaintiff's claims, this factor supports Class Counsel's fee request and 10 encourages the private enforcement of legal rights for the general good.

11 3. Applying a Positive Multiplier Is Appropriate.

12 Once this lodestar figure has been determined, the Court may take into account other 13 "enhancement" factors to adjust the lodestar award. While Plaintiff seeks a multiplier of 1.1 14 here, the overall reasonableness of Plaintiff's request is underscored by the fact that a 15 significantly higher multiplier would be justified under applicable law.

16 Contingency fees should be higher than fees for the same legal services paid concurrently 17 with the provision of the services. (Ketchum v. Moses (2001) 24 Cal.4th 1122, 1132-33.) "A 18 lawyer who both bears the risk of not being paid and provides legal services is not receiving the 19 fair market value of his work if he is paid only for the second of these functions. If he is paid 20 no more, competent counsel will be reluctant to accept fee award cases." (Id. at p. 1133.)
21 Application of that rule is particularly appropriate where the case is brought to redress important 22 rights of vulnerable persons. (Id.) A risk enhancement is "earned compensation; unlike a 23 windfall, it is neither unexpected nor fortuitous. Rather it is intended to approximate market-24 level compensation for such services which typically pay a premium for the risk of nonpayment 25 or delay in payment of attorney's fees." (Id. at p. 1138.)

26 "Multipliers can range from 2 to 4 or even higher." (Wershba, supra, 91 Cal.App.4th at 27 p. 255; see also Sutter Health Uninsured Pricing Cases (2009) 171 Cal. App. 4th 495, 512
28 [applying a 2.52 multiplier on a cross-check in an antitrust class action]; Chavez, supra, 162

1 Cal. App. 4th at p. 60 [applying a 2.5 multiplier on a lodestar cross-check]; Vizcaino v. Microsoft
2 Corp. (9th Cir. 2002) 290 F.3d 1043, 1051 n.6 [“most” common fund cases apply a multiplier
3 of 1.0-4.0]; Been v. O.K. Industries Inc. (E.D. Okla. 2011) 2011 WL 4478766, *11 [citing a 4 study “reporting [an] average multiplier of 3.89 in survey of 1,120 class action cases” and 5 finding that a multiplier of 2.43 would be “per se reasonable”].) The intermediate court in 6 Laffitte, after finding that “2 to 4” is a reasonable range for multipliers on a cross-check, 7 affirmed a 2.13 multiplier. (Laffitte v. Robert Half Int’l (2014) 231 Cal. App. 4th 860, 881-82.) 8 The intermediate court opinion was affirmed in full by the California Supreme Court in its new 9 decision guiding lower courts on assessing fees.

10 Factors considered in determining whether a lodestar multiplier is appropriate generally 11 include: (1) the risks presented by the contingent nature of the case; (2) the novelty and difficulty 12 of the questions involved and the skill requisite to perform the legal service properly; (3) the 13 nature of the opposition; (4) the preclusion of other employment by the attorney due to 14 acceptance of the case; and (5) the result obtained and the importance of the lawsuit to the 15 public. (Serrano, supra, 20 Cal. 3d at pp. 48-49.) All of these factors favor approval of a 16 multiplier along the lines of those approved in the cases above.

17 The major consideration in determining the necessity of a multiplier is the contingent nature 18 of the award. (Ketchum, supra, 24 Cal.4th at pp. 1132-33.) Further, the possibility of no recovery 19 is only one of the uncertainties involved in taking on such a case. Other uncertainties are the 20 amount that will be recovered, uncertainty as to the cost, both in effort and expenses, and 21 uncertainty about how much time will pass before the recovery is obtained. (Id. at pp. 1132-1133, 22 1138.) Here, Class Counsel have been the only counsel to represent Class Members in this matter 23 and have borne the entire risk and costs of litigation purely on a contingency basis. Class Counsel’s 24 outlay of time and money in this case has been significant.

25 The other factors are also present here. Class Counsel are skilled attorneys who have 26 had success in wage-and-hour class actions. This case required experienced and competent 27 lawyers and expertise in the issues presented herein. Defendant’s contentions underscore the 28 risk of prevailing at class certification and trial, and any of these obstacles could have prevented

1 recovery completely. Further, proceeding to trial would have added years to the resolution of 2 this case because of the difficult legal and factual issues raised and the likelihood of appeals.
3 Despite these risks, Class Counsel took this case on a contingency basis. Yet, there are only so 4 many cases that Class Counsel can take at any one time. Consequently, there were other 5 meritorious cases presented to Class Counsel that would have generated substantial fees, but 6 were declined, during the pendency of this action in order to devote the attention necessary to 7 achieve favorable results. (Marquez Decl., ¶ 26.) Considered against the risks of continued 8 litigation, and the importance of the employment rights and a speedy recovery, the relief 9 provided under the Settlement represents a very strong result for the Class.

10 C. Costs Are Reasonable.

11 As of the date of filing this Motion, Class Counsel has incurred around $16,974.10 in costs, 12 and they anticipate incurring at least $300.00 in additional costs up to the time the Court enters a 13 judgment in this action and schedules a hearing on distribution. (Id. at ¶¶ 11, 28, Ex. 3.) 14 Accordingly, Class Counsel respectfully requests reimbursement of up to $17,274.10 in costs.
15 Notably, Defendant has agreed that it will not oppose any cost award request up to $20,000.00.
16 The categories of costs are set forth in the accompanying Declaration of Justin Marquez, and these 17 costs are easily seen to be both reasonable and necessary.

18 D. The Enhancement Payment to the Plaintiff Is Reasonable.

19 Named plaintiffs in class action lawsuits “are eligible for reasonable incentive payments to 20 compensate them for the expense or risk they have incurred in conferring a benefit on other 21 members of the class.” (Munoz v. BCI Coca-Cola Bottling Co. of Los Angeles (2010) 186 22 Cal.App.4th 399, 412.) Courts routinely grant approval of class action settlement agreements 23 containing enhancements for the class representatives, which are necessary to provide incentive to 24 represent the class, and are appropriate given the benefit the class representatives help to bring 25 about for the class. (See Rodriguez v. W. Publ'g Corp. (9th Cir. 2009) 563 F.3d 948, 958-59.) The 26 California Supreme Court has also noted that “retaliation against employees for asserting statutory 27 rights under the Labor Code is widespread,” despite anti-retaliation statutes designed to protect 28 employees. (Gentry v. Super. Ct. (2007) 42 Cal.4th 443, 460-61.) Plaintiffs should therefore be

1 rewarded for assuming the risk of retaliation for the sake of class members. (See Frank v. Eastman
2 Kodak Co. (W.D.N.Y. 2005) 228 F.R.D. 174, 187.)

3 Under the settlement agreement, subject to the Court's approval, Defendant agreed to pay 4 a Service Award in the amount of $10,000.00 to Plaintiff. This amount is also in exchange for 5 Plaintiff's general release of all claims against Defendant. Plaintiff has submitted a declaration 6 demonstrating that Plaintiff devoted at least 60 hours of time and work assisting counsel in the 7 case from the start of retaining Class Counsel through April 2023, which has included 8 communicating with counsel very frequently in the course of litigation and to prepare for 9 mediation. (See, generally, Declaration of Plaintiff Tony Nunez filed in Support of Plaintiff's 10 Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action Settlement; see also Marquez Decl., ¶¶ 14-18.)

11 When compared with the amounts awarded in typical class action cases, the amount 12 requested here is particularly reasonable. Indeed, a 2006 study examining the average incentive 13 award given to class action plaintiffs from 1993 to 2002 found that the "average award per class 14 representative was $15,992 and the median award per class representative was $4,357." (Theodore 15 Eisenberg & Jeffrey P. Miller, "Incentive Awards to Class Action Plaintiffs: An Empirical Study", 16 53 UCLA L. Rev. 1303, 1308 (2006).)

17 E. Administration Expenses Should be Approved.

18 Phoenix Settlement Administrator, estimates that it will incur a total of $7,500.00 in costs 19 associated with the administration of this Settlement. (Islas Decl., ¶ 15.) These expenses are 20 reasonable, based upon the size of the class, claim and exclusion tracking, and Class Member 21 payment processing.

22 V. CONCLUSION

23 For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court grant final approval 24 of the proposed settlement.

25 Dated: October 11, 2023

Respectfully submitted,
