[Amount in Controversy Greater Than $25,000.00]

COMES NOW plaintiff CIA E. SLATER ("Plaintiff"), as an aggrieved employee, and on behalf of all other aggrieved employees under the Labor Code Private Attorneys' General Act of 2004, and alleges as follows:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This is a representative action, pursuant to the Labor Code Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, codified at Labor Code section 2698, et seq. ("PAGA"), against JO-ANN STORES, LLC, an Ohio limited liability company, and any of its respective subsidiaries or affiliated companies within the State of California ("JO-ANN"), and LEONARD GREEN & PARTNERS, L.P., a Delaware limited partnership, and any of its respective subsidiaries or affiliated companies within the State of California ("LG&P," and together with JO-ANN and DOES 1 through 100, as further defined below, "Defendants"), as a proxy of the Labor and Workforce Development Agency of the State of California ("LWDA"), on behalf of Plaintiff and all other current and former non-exempt employees of Defendants working within the Civil Penalty Period, as further defined herein, and, as it pertains to the alleged claims for failure to comply with Labor Code section 2810.5, Labor Code section 203, Labor Code section 226, Labor Code section 227.3, Labor Code section 246, et seq., Labor Code section 2802, restraints on competition, whistleblowing and freedom of speech on behalf of all employees of Defendants working within the Civil Penalty Period (collectively, "Aggrieved Employees").

2. Jurisdiction exists in the Superior Court of the State of California pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 410.10.

3. Venue is proper in Los Angeles County, California pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure sections 392, et seq. because, among other things, Los Angeles County is where the causes of action complained of herein arose; the county in which the employment relationship began; the county in which performance of the employment contract, or part of it, between Plaintiff and Defendants was due to be performed; the county in which the employment contract, or part of it, between Plaintiff and Defendants was actually performed; and the county in which Defendants, or some of them, reside. Moreover, the unlawful acts alleged herein have a direct effect on Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees in Los Angeles County, and because Defendants employ numerous

1 Aggrieved Employees in Los Angeles County. Finally, Los Angeles is the proper venue for the 2 Action because this Action under PAGA may be maintained in any county in the State of California.

3 4. Plaintiff is an "aggrieved employee" under PAGA, as Plaintiff was employed by 4 Defendants during the applicable statutory period and suffered one or more of the Labor Code 5 violations set forth herein. Accordingly, Plaintiff seeks to recover civil penalties, as the term "civil 6 penalty" is defined under ZB N.A. v. Superior Court (2019) 8 Cal.5th 175, under the Labor Code 7 Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, codified at Labor Code section 2698, et seq. ("PAGA") plus 8 reasonable attorneys' fees and costs, for Plaintiff and all other aggrieved current and former 9 employees of Defendants during the Civil Penalty Period.

10 5. Specifically, Plaintiff seeks to recover PAGA civil penalties through a representative 11 action permitted by PAGA and the California Supreme Court in, among other authorities, Arias v.
12 Superior Court (2009) 46 Cal.4th 969. According to the same authorities, class certification of the 13 PAGA allegations described herein is not required.

14 6. During the period beginning one (1) year preceding the provision of notice to the 15 LWDA regarding the herein-described Labor Code violations (the "Civil Penalty Period"), 16 Defendants violated, inter alia, Labor Code sections 96, 98.6, 200, 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 226, 17 226.3, 226.7, 227.3, 232, 232.5, 246, et seq., 432, 510, 512, 558, 1102.5, 1174, 1174.5, 1194, 1197, 18 1197.1, 1197.5, 1198.5, 2699, 2802, and 2810.5, among others.

19 7. Labor Code section 2699, subdivisions (a) and (g), authorizes aggrieved employees 20 such as Plaintiff, on behalf of Plaintiff and all other aggrieved current and former employees within 21 the statutory period, to bring a civil action to recover civil penalties pursuant to the procedures 22 specified in Labor Code section 2699.3.

23 8. On or around March 12, 2021, Plaintiff provided written notice pursuant to Labor 24 Code section 2699.3 online and by certified mail, with return receipt requested, of Defendants' 25 violation of various, including the herein-described, provisions of the Labor Code, to the LWDA, 26 as well as by certified mail, with return receipt requested to Defendants, and each of them.

27 ///

28 ///

9. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699.3, subdivision (a)(2)(A), the LWDA did not provide notice of its intention to investigate Defendants' alleged violations within sixty-five (65) calendar days of the March 12, 2021 postmarked date of the herein-described notice sent by Plaintiff to the LWDA and Defendants.

PAGA REPRESENTATIVE ALLEGATIONS

10. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice of failing to pay overtime wages to Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees in the State of California in violation of California state wage and hour laws as a result of, without limitation, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees working over eight (8) hours per day, forty (40) hours per week, and/or seven (7) straight workdays in a workweek without paying them proper overtime wages, as a result of, without limitation, failing to accurately track and/or pay for all minutes actually worked; engaging, suffering, or permitting employees to work off the clock, including, without limitation, by requiring employees: to remain on-call, to suffer under Defendants' control to complete pre-shift tasks before clocking in and post-shift tasks after clocking out (including answering calls from dispatch and others), to clock out for meal periods and continue working, to don and doff uniforms and/or safety equipment off the clock, to attend company meetings off the clock, to make phone calls or drive off the clock; failing to include all forms of remuneration, including non-discretionary bonuses, incentive pay, meal allowances, and other forms of remuneration into the regular rate of pay for the pay periods where overtime was worked and the additional compensation was earned for the purpose of calculating the overtime rate of pay; and detrimental rounding of employee time entries, editing and/or manipulation of time entries to show less hours than actually worked, to the detriment of Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees.

11. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a practice or policy of failing to compensate Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees with minimum wages for all hours worked or otherwise under Defendants' control as a result of, without limitation, failing to accurately track and/or pay for all minutes actually worked; by requiring employees: to remain on-call; to suffer under Defendants' control to complete pre-shift tasks before clocking in and post-shift tasks after clocking out (including answering calls from dispatch and others), to clock out for meal

1 periods and continue working, to don and doff uniforms and/or safety equipment off the clock, to 2 attend company meetings off the clock, to make phone calls or drive off the clock; detrimental 3 rounding of employee time entries, editing and/or manipulation of time entries to show less hours 4 than actually worked; failing to pay reporting time pay; paid time off and vacation time owed; and 5 failing to pay split shift premiums, to the detriment of Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees.

6 12. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice 7 of failing to provide Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees a thirty (30) minute uninterrupted, 8 timely, and complete meal period for days on which the employee worked in excess of five (5) and 9 ten (10) hours per day without being afforded uninterrupted, timely, and complete 30-minute meal 10 periods or compensation in lieu thereof including, without limitation, by interrupting meal periods; 11 not providing timely meal periods; failing to provide first and second meal periods; providing short 12 meal periods; requiring that employees carry cellular telephones or walkie-talkies during meal 13 periods; not permitting employees to leave the premises; otherwise requiring on-duty/on-call meal 14 periods; and/or auto-deducting meal periods that could not be auto-deducted by law or during which 15 employees worked, as required by California wage and hour laws

16 13. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice 17 of failing to provide Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees paid, uninterrupted, timely, and 18 complete rest periods of at least ten (10) minutes per four (4) hours worked or major fractions 19 thereof, or compensation in lieu thereof, including, without limitation, by failing to provide rest 20 periods all together; requiring that they be bundled together and/or with meal periods; interrupting 21 them; requiring that employees carry cellular telephones or walkie-talkies during rest periods not 22 providing them in a timely fashion; and not permitting employees to leave the premises; and/or 23 otherwise requiring on-duty/on-call rest periods, as required by California wage and hour laws.

24 14. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice
25 of failing to comply with Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a) by intentionally failing to furnish 26 Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees with itemized wage statements that accurately reflect gross 27 wages earned; total hours worked by the employee; net wages earned; all deductions; all applicable 28 hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each

1 hourly rate by the employee; the legal name of the employer and/or the name and address of the legal 2 entity securing the employer's services if the employer is a farm labor contractor; and other such 3 information as required by Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a).

4 15. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice
5 of failing to comply with Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a) by intentionally failing to furnish 6 Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees with documents signed to obtain or hold employment 7 under Labor Code section 432, personnel records under Labor Code section 1198.5, and time records 8 under Labor Code section 1174, making it difficult for Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees to 9 calculate their unpaid wages and/or premium payments, to the detriment of Plaintiff and other 10 Aggrieved Employees.

11 16. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice 12 of failing to timely pay Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees, among other wages, all wages 13 owed as a result of Defendants' practice or policy of failing to pay, among other wages, overtime 14 wages, minimum wages, premium wages, paid time off and vacation time owed as required by Labor 15 Code sections 201, 202, and 203.

16 17. At all relevant times herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice of failing 17 to pay Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees their paid time off and vacation time owed upon 18 separation of employment as wages at their final rate of pay in violation of Labor Code section 227.3 19 and applicable Wage Orders.

20 18. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants have had a policy or practice of 21 failing and refusing, and continue to fail and refuse, to reimburse employees, including, without 22 limitation, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees, with their costs incurred for driving personal 23 vehicles (i.e., mileage and gas), purchasing uniforms, providing uniform and other deposits, 24 separately laundering mandatory uniforms, for the purchase of tools and safety equipment (including 25 work boots to handle oil), for the purchase and maintenance of cellular phones and cellular phone 26 plans, in direct consequence of the discharge of their duties, or of their obedience to the directions 27 of Defendants, as required by Labor Code 2802.

1 19. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants have had a policy or practice of 2 failing to comply with the notice requirements of Labor Code section 2810.5 (i.e., the Wage Theft 3 Protection Act of 2011) by, among other things, failing to provide Plaintiff and other Aggrieved 4 Employees with the rates of pay and overtime rates of pay applicable to their employment; 5 allowances claimed as part of the minimum wage; the regular payday designated by Defendants; the 6 name, address, and telephone number of the workers' compensation insurance carrier; information 7 regarding paid sick leave; and other pertinent information required to be disclosed by Defendants 8 under Labor Code section 2810.5.

9 20. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and 10 other Aggrieved Employees with the amount of paid sick leave required to be provided pursuant to 11 California law (including, without limitation Labor Code section 246, et seq.), and also did not 12 permit its use upon request as contemplated under California laws, to the detriment of Plaintiff and 13 all other Aggrieved Employees.

14 21. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants have had a policy or practice of 15 failing to pay Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees their wages in accordance with Labor Code 16 Section 204, which requires that: "[l]abor performed between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, of 17 any calendar month shall be paid for between the 16th and 26th day of the month during which the 18 labor was performed, and labor performed between the 16th and the last day, inclusive of any 19 calendar month, shall be paid for between the 1st and 10th day of the following month."

20 22. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice 21 of preventing Plaintiff and/or Aggrieved Employees from using or disclosing the skills, knowledge 22 and experience they obtained at Defendants for purposes of competing with Defendants, including, 23 without limitation, preventing Employees from disclosing their wages in negotiating a new job with 24 a prospective employer, and from disclosing who else works at Defendants and under what 25 circumstances that they might be receptive to an offer from a rival employer. Plaintiff is informed 26 and believes that this policy and/or practice violates Business and Professions Code sections 17200, 27 16600 and 16700, and, by virtue thereof, various provisions of the Labor Code, including Labor 28 Code sections 232, 232.5, and 1197.5, subdivision (k).

23. Defendants had and have a policy or practice of preventing Plaintiff and/or other Aggrieved Employees from disclosing violations of state and federal law, either within Defendants to their managers or outside to private attorneys or government officials, among others, in violation of Business and Professions Code section 17200, and, thus, in violation of Labor Code section 1102.5. In addition, Plaintiff is informed and believes that Defendants' herein-described policies and/or practices prevent Plaintiff and/or other Aggrieved Employees from disclosing information about unsafe or discriminatory working conditions, or about wage and hour violations in violation of Labor Code section 232 and 232.5.

24. Defendants had and have a policy or practice of preventing Plaintiff and/or other Aggrieved Employees from engaging in lawful conduct during non-work hours, thus violating state statutes entitling employees to disclose wages, working conditions, and illegal conduct, including, without limitation, Labor Code sections 96, subdivision (k), 98.6, 232, 232.5, and 1197.5, subdivision (k). Plaintiff is informed and believes that this lawful conduct includes the exercise of Plaintiff's and/or other Aggrieved Employee's constitutional rights of freedom of speech and economic liberty.

25. Plaintiff, in Plaintiff's representative capacity, seeks civil penalties under Labor Code sections 210, 226.3, 558, 1174.5, 1197.1, and 2699 for the herein-described acts, which violate the California Labor Code as described above, including on behalf of Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees pursuant to PAGA.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

(Civil Penalties Under Labor Code § 226.3 – Against All Defendants)

37. Plaintiff re-alleges each and every allegation set forth in the preceding paragraphs and incorporates each by reference as though fully set forth hereat.

38. Defendants had and have a policy or practice of failing to comply with Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a) by intentionally failing to furnish Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees with itemized wage statements that accurately reflect gross wages earned; total hours worked; net wages earned; the name and address of each employer with whom they have been placed to work; all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate; the legal name of the employer and/or the name and address of the legal entity securing the employer's services if the employer is a farm labor contractor; and other such information as required by Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a).

40. Labor Code section 226.3 further provides that “[t]he civil penalties provided for in this section are in addition to any other penalty provided by law.”

41. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants had and have a policy or practice of failing to furnish non-exempt employees, including, without limitation, Plaintiff, with itemized wage statements that accurately reflect gross wages earned; total hours worked; net wages earned; all deductions; all applicable hourly rates in effect and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate in effect during the pay period; the legal name of the employer and/or the name and address of the legal entity securing the employer's services if the employer is a farm labor contractor; and other such information as required by Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a).

42. Pursuant to Labor Code section 226.3, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover civil penalties for Defendants' violation of Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a) in the amount of two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period for the initial violation, and one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period for each subsequent violation.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of Labor Code § 558 – Against All Defendants)

43. Plaintiff re-alleges each and every allegation set forth in the preceding paragraphs and incorporates each by reference as though fully set forth hereat.

44. Pursuant to Labor Code section 558, subdivision (a): "Any employer or other person acting on behalf of an employer who violates, or causes to be violated . . . any provision regulating hours and days of work in any of the Industrial Welfare Commission" shall be subject to a civil penalty as follows:

- (2) For each subsequent violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages;
- (3) Wages recovered pursuant to this section shall be paid to the affected employee.”

50. At all times mentioned herein, Labor Code section 1174, subdivision (d) has required every person employing labor in California to “[k]eep, at a central location in the state or at the plants or establishments at which employees are employed, payroll records showing the hours worked daily by and the wages paid to, and the number of piece-rate units earned by and applicable piece rate paid to, employees employed at the respective plants or establishments. These records shall be kept in accordance with rules established for this purpose by the commission, but in any case, shall be kept on file for not less than three years. An employer shall not prohibit an employee from maintaining a personal record of hours worked, or, if paid on a piece-rate basis, piece-rate units earned.”

51. Pursuant to Labor Code section 1174.5, “[a]ny person employing labor who willfully fails to maintain the records required by subdivision (c) of [Labor Code] Section 1174 or accurate and complete records required by subdivision (d) of [Labor Code] Section 1174, or to allow any member of the commission or employees of the division to inspect records pursuant to subdivision (b) of [Labor Code] Section 1174, shall be subject to a civil penalty of five hundred dollars ($500).

52. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants have willfully failed to maintain the records required by Labor Code subdivision (c), failed to maintain accurate and complete records required by Labor Code subdivision (d), and/or failed to allow inspection of records as required by Labor Code subdivision (b).

53. As a direct and proximate result of the herein-described Labor Code violations, pursuant to Labor Code section 1174.5, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover civil penalties for Defendants' herein-described Labor Code violations in the amount of five hundred dollars ($500) per violation per Aggrieved Employee.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of Labor Code § 1197.1 – Against All Defendants)

54. Plaintiff re-alleges each and every allegation set forth in the preceding paragraphs and incorporates each by reference as though fully set forth hereat.

55. Pursuant to Labor Code section 1197.1, subdivision (a): "Any employer or other person acting either individually or as an officer, agent, or employee of another person, who pays

1 or causes to be paid to any employee a wage less than the minimum fixed by an applicable state or 2 local law, or by an order of the commission shall be subject to a civil penalty, restitution of wages, 3 liquidated damages payable to the employee, and any applicable penalties imposed pursuant to 4 Section 203 as follows:

5 (1) For any initial violation that is intentionally committed, one hundred dollars 6 ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the 7 employee is underpaid. This amount shall be in addition to an amount
8 sufficient to recover underpaid wages, liquidated damages pursuant to Section 9 1194.2, and any applicable penalties imposed pursuant to Section 203.

10 (2) For each subsequent violation for the same specific offense, two hundred fifty 11 dollars ($250) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the 12 employee is underpaid regardless of whether the initial violation is 13 intentionally committed. This amount shall be in addition to an amount
14 sufficient to recover underpaid wages, liquidated damages pursuant to Section 15 1194.2, and any applicable penalties imposed pursuant to Section 203.

16 (3) Wages, liquidated damages, and any applicable penalties imposed pursuant to 17 Section 203, recovered pursuant to this section shall be paid to the affected 18 employee.”

19 56. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants caused 20 Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees not to be paid minimum wages as a result of Defendants, without 21 limitation, routinely failing to pay Plaintiff or other Aggrieved Employees’ wages for all hours 22 worked or otherwise under Defendants’ control due to, without limitation, routinely failing to 23 accurately track and/or pay for all hours actually worked; detrimental rounding or manipulation of 24 time entries; paying straight pay instead of overtime or otherwise failing to pay overtime hours at 25 the proper overtime rate of pay; engaging, suffering, or permitting employees to work off the clock.

26 57. As a direct and proximate result of the herein-described Labor Code violations, 27 pursuant to Labor Code section 1197.1, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees are entitled to 28 recover civil penalties for Defendants’ herein-described Labor Code violations in the amount one

1 hundred dollars ($100) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period for the initial violation, and 2 two hundred and fifty dollars ($250) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period for each 3 subsequent violation.

4 SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

5 (Civil Penalties Under Labor Code § 2699 – Against All Defendants)

6 58. Plaintiff re-alleges each and every allegation set forth in the preceding paragraphs 7 and incorporates each by reference as though fully set forth hereat.

8 59. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699, subdivision (a), notwithstanding any other 9 provision of law, any provision of the Labor Code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed 10 and collected by the LWDA or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards, agencies or 11 employees for a violation of the Labor Code may, as an alternative, be recovered through a civil 12 action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of himself or herself and other current or former 13 employees pursuant to the procedures specified in Labor Code section 2699.3.

14 60. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699, subdivision (f), for all provisions of the Labor 15 Code except those for which a civil penalty is specifically provided, the established civil penalty for 16 a violation of those provisions is as follows: if, at the time of the alleged violation, the person 17 employs one or more employees, the civil penalty is one hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved 18 employee per pay period for the initial violation and two hundred dollars ($200) for each aggrieved 19 employee per pay period for each subsequent violation.

20 61. Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that Defendants, and 21 each of them, violated the Labor Code sections described herein, including, without limitation, for 22 the failure to: pay overtime wages and minimum wages; provide meal and rest periods or 23 compensation in lieu thereof; provide accurate, itemized wage statements; pay timely wages during 24 employment and after employment separation; provide employees the opportunity to inspect 25 employment records; reimburse Aggrieved Employees for costs incurred in furtherance of their 26 work duties; provide notice as required under Labor Code section 2810.5; provide the proper accrual 27 and use of paid sick leave; paying employees all owed paid time off and vacation time owed by 28 separation at the proper rate of pay; and placing restraints on competition, whistleblowing and

1 freedom of speech, entitling Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees to civil penalties for each of 2 these Labor Code violations in the amounts set forth in Labor Code section 2699, subdivision (f).

3 62. Moreover, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees within the State of California 4 whom he seeks to represent are entitled to an award of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs in 5 connection with their herein-described claims for civil penalties.
