1 TO ALL PARTIES AND TO THEIR ATTORNEYS OF RECORD:

2 PLEASE TAKE NOTICE THAT, on July 16, 2025 at 9:00 a.m., before the Honorable 3 Tamara L. Mosbarger, judge presiding in Department 1 of the above-referenced Court located at 4 1775 Concord Avenue, Chico, CA 95928, Plaintiffs Andrea Brazell, Nichole Smith, and Susana 5 Carrillo (collectively, “Plaintiffs”) will and hereby do move the Court for an Order: (1) granting 6 final approval to the Class of the settlement; (2) fully and finally approving and directing 7 distribution to the Class of the settlement sum pursuant to the terms of the Stipulation of Resolution 8 (“Settlement Agreement” or “Settlement”) in this matter; (3) fully and finally approving the Class 9 Representatives’ Enhancement Payments; (4) fully and finally approving the Settlement 10 Administrator’s costs; and (5) fully and finally approving the award of attorney’s fees and costs.

11 This Motion is unopposed by Defendant Oroville Hospital (“Defendant”) and made 12 pursuant to Rule 3.769 of the California Rules of Court, which provides for court approval of the 13 settlement of a purported class action and allows the Court to grant final certification of a class for 14 settlement purposes. In light of the overwhelmingly positive response, as shown by the lack of any 15 objections to the settlement, there is no question that the settlement is fair, reasonable and adequate 16 and thus should be granted final approval.

17 This Motion will be based on the Memorandum of Points and Authorities included herein, 18 the [Proposed] Order Granting Final Approval of Settlement and Judgment, upon the class papers 19 previously filed with this Court, and the supporting Declarations of Edward Choi, Larry Lee, 20 Dennis Hyun, Andrea Brazell, Nichole Smith, Susana Carrillo, and Yami Burns of Phoenix 21 Settlement Administrators, upon the oral arguments of counsel (should there be any), and on the 22 complete records and file herein.

1 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

2 I. INTRODUCTION

3 Plaintiffs Andrea Brazell, Nichole Smith, and Susana Carrillo (collectively, “Plaintiffs” or 4 “Class Representatives”) submit this Memorandum in support of the Motion for Final Approval of 5 Class Action Settlement.

6 The Stipulation of Resolution (“Settlement Agreement,” or “Settlement”) entered into by 7 and between Plaintiffs and Defendant Oroville Hospital (“Defendant”) (Plaintiffs and Defendant 8 are collectively referred to as “Parties”) provides for a settlement fund of Three Million Two 9 Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars and zero cents ($3,250,000.00) (the “Gross Settlement 10 Amount,” or “Settlement Fund”) to be created for the benefit of the Class. From this Settlement 11 Fund, attorney’s fees, litigation costs, enhancement payments to Plaintiffs, Private Attorneys 12 General Act (“PAGA”) penalties, and the costs of settlement administration are to be paid.

13 The history of this litigation was previously detailed in Plaintiffs’ preliminary approval 14 motion, and thus is incorporated herein.

15 Pursuant to the Court’s ruling, the settlement administrator, Phoenix Settlement 16 Administrators (“PSA” and/or “Settlement Administrator”), distributed the Class Notice to all 17 5,042 Class Members. (See Declaration of Yami Burns With Respect to Notice and Settlement 18 Administration (“Admin Decl.”) at ¶¶ 3-5.) There have been zero (0) objections filed to the 19 Settlement and only six requests for exclusion from the Settlement. (Id. at ¶¶ 8-9). Thus, there is a 20 99.88% participation rate with not a single objection. (Id. at ¶11). This favorable response by the 21 Class supports the Court’s Preliminary Approval Order finding that the Settlement is fair, adequate 22 and reasonable, and further supports the granting of this instant Motion.

23 In sum, as a result of the notice process, and in light of the complete lack of any objections 24 and only six requests for exclusions, the Court may confirm its preliminary approval as this 25 process supports the Court’s initial finding that the Settlement is fair, adequate and reasonable.

26 In addition to the results of the notice process, for the same reasons as set forth earlier in 27 Plaintiffs’ Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action Settlement, the following represents 28 the key points previously covered supporting approval of the Settlement:

- The Settlement Fund provides a total settlement sum of $3,250,000.00;
- Attorney's fees in the amount of $1,137,500.00;
- Class counsel's actual costs of $29,097.59 (which is substantially less than the preliminarily approved amount of $40,000);
- Settlement Administration Costs of $31,000;
- Class representatives' enhancement payments totaling $30,000;
- PAGA amount of $100,000.00 (75% to be paid to the LWDA and 25% to Aggrieved Employees); and
- The average payable to class members is $381.73 each after deductions for fees, costs, representative awards and PAGA payment (Admin Decl. ¶ 13).

With this additional information, the Court should grant Final Approval consistent with the Preliminary Approval Order.

II. THE SETTLEMENT

A. Class Members Were Provided Proper Notice.

The notice procedures required by the Preliminary Approval Order have been followed and satisfy all due process rights of Class Members.

The Preliminary Approval Order contemplated that the Notice Packet, as approved in the Preliminary Approval Order, be sent to all Class Members by first class mail, as specified in the Settlement Agreement. The Preliminary Approval Order contemplated, further, that Phoenix would serve as the Settlement Administrator.

As clearly stated in the Declaration of the Settlement Administrator, notice was provided to Class Members as required by the Preliminary Approval Order. The Settlement Administrator received a Class Member mailing list from Defendant that included 5,042 Class Members, and, on April 29, 2025, each of the persons identified on the mailing list was sent the Notice Packet via first class mail. (Admin Decl. at ¶ 5.) Ten (10) Notice Packets were returned to PSA. Nine (9) notices were re-mailed to class members with addresses obtained through skip tracing. (Id. ¶ 6). Only one (1) Notice Packet remains undeliverable because an updated address could not be located through skip-trace. (Id. ¶ 7.) Thus, there is a 99.98% notice success rate. Moreover, not a single

1 class member has objected and only six class members have requested exclusion out of the 5,042-
2 member class, such that there is a 99.88% class member participation rate. (Id. ¶¶ 8-9.)

3 The provision of the notice to Class Members and administration of the settlement as 4 described above meets the requirements for the “best notice practicable” in this case as necessary
5 to protect the due process rights of Class Members. See, e.g., Phillips Petroleum Co. v. Shutts, 472
6 U.S. 797, 811-12 (1985) (provision of “best notice practicable” with description of the litigation 7 and explanation of opt-out rights satisfies due process); Eisen v. Carlisle & Jacquelin, 417 U.S.
8 156, 174-75 (1974) (individual notice must be sent to class members who can be identified through 9 reasonable means); Mullane v. Central Hanover Bank & Trust Co., 339 U.S. 306, 314 (1950) (best 10 practicable notice is that which is “reasonably calculated, under all the circumstances, to apprise 11 interested parties of the pendency of the action and afford them an opportunity to present their 12 objections”).

13 Here, the Class Members were provided with a mailing regarding the settlement that 14 explained the settlement, right and process to opt-out or object, and allowed Class Members to 15 seek information, ask questions, and seek additional forms. As such, proper notice has been given 16 to the Class Members.

17 The Court, therefore, may proceed to determine the fairness and adequacy of the 18 Settlement, and order its approval, secure in the knowledge that all absent Class Members have 19 been given the opportunity to participate fully in the exclusion, objection, and the approval 20 process.

21 III. THE SETTLEMENT TERMS ARE FAIR, ADEQUATE AND REASONABLE, 22 AND THE SETTLEMENT SHOULD BE GIVEN FINAL APPROVAL

23 A. The Terms Of The Settlement, The Negotiation Of The Settlement And The 24 Reception Of The Settlement By Class Members All Strongly Support The 25 Conclusion That The Settlement Is Fair, Adequate And Reasonable

26 Without reiterating the Parties’ showing that the Settlement Agreement and the negotiation 27 process that led up to it was fair and adequate, as set forth in detail in the Motion for Preliminary 28 Approval of Class Action Settlement, the Parties highlight the following facts. The Agreement

1 was the product of negotiation between highly able and experienced attorneys on both sides, 2 possessed of the relevant data and extensive legal research which they had carefully analyzed.
3 (Declaration of Edward Choi (“Choi Decl.”) at ¶¶ 8-13.) In addition, the resolution of this case 4 was reached only after the production and analysis of class payroll data and months of 5 negotiations. (Id. at ¶¶ 4-8). Again, the case did not resolve notwithstanding a full day of 6 mediation with Steve Serratore, Esq. (Id. at ¶¶ 4-5). Rather, the Parties resolved this matter after 7 months of arms’ length negotiations with Mr. Serratore’s help. (Id.)

8 The results after mailing of the Class Notice support confirmation of the Court’s 9 preliminary approval of the settlement with final approval of the settlement, as evidenced by the 10 fact that there is not a single Class member who has objected to the current settlement. (Admin 11 Decl. at ¶ 9).

12 The Court may appropriately infer that the class action settlement is fair, adequate and 13 reasonable when, among other reasons, few class members object to it. See Class Plaintiffs v. City 14 of Seattle, 955 F.2d 1268, 1291 (9th Cir. 1992) The Court should further construe the lack of any 15 objection to this current settlement, as well as there was only six opt-outs from a class of 5,042 16 individuals, as an indication that Class Members themselves view the settlement as fair, adequate 17 and reasonable. (Admin Decl. at ¶¶ 8-9).

18 B. Under Well-Established Legal Principles, the Court Should Grant Final 19 Approval to the Settlement

20 1. Standard of Review

21 On a motion for final approval of a class action settlement under Civil Code § 1781(f) and 22 Federal Rules of Civil Procedure (“FRCP”) Rule 23(e), a court’s inquiry is whether the settlement 23 is “fair, adequate and reasonable.”¹ Officers for Justice v. Civil Serv. Comm’n, 668 F.2d 615, 625
24 (9th Cir. 1982), cert. denied subnom., Byrd v. Civil Serv. Comm’n, 459 U.S. 1217 (1983). A 25 settlement is fair, adequate and reasonable, and therefore merits final approval, when “the interests 26
27

28 ¹ Both Civil Code § 1781(f) and FRCP Rule 23 have been expressly authorized by the California Supreme Court for use in all California class action litigation. See Vasquez v. Superior Court (1971) 4 Cal. 3rd 800, 820-821.

1 of the class are better served by the settlement than by further litigation.” See Manual for Complex 2 Litigation Fourth (Fed. Judicial Center 2004) (“Manual”), § 21.6 at 309.

3 The law favors settlement, particularly in class actions and other complex cases, where 4 substantial resources can be conserved by avoiding the time, cost, and rigors of formal litigation.
5 See 4 Newberg on Class Actions 4th § 11.41 (2008); Chemical Bank v. City of Seattle, 955 F.2d 6 1268, 1276 (9th Cir. 1992); Van Bronkhorst v. Safeco Corp., 529 F.2d 943, 950 (9th Cir. 1976).

7 Although the Court possesses “broad discretion” in determining that a proposed class 8 action settlement is fair, the Court’s role must be limited to the extent necessary to reach a 9 reasoned judgment that the agreement is not the product of fraud or overreaching by, or collusion 10 between, the negotiating parties, and that the settlement, taken as a whole, is fair, reasonable and 11 adequate to all concerned. See Officers for Justice, supra 688 F.2d at 625. Accordingly, the Court 12 should give due regard to what is otherwise a “private consensual agreement” between the parties.
13 Id.; see also Church v. Consolidated Freightways, Inc., 1993 WL 149840 (N.D. Cal. 1993); In re
14 Wash. Pub. Power Supply Sys. Sec. Litig., 720 F.Supp. 1379 (D. Ariz. 1989), aff’d sub nom., City
15 of Seattle, 955 F.2d 1268; Manual § 21.6 at 309 (“The judicial role in reviewing a proposed 16 settlement is critical, but limited to approving the proposed settlement, disapproving it, or 17 imposing conditions on it. The judge cannot rewrite the agreement.”)

18 A court’s approval of a class action settlement will only be reversed for a clear abuse of 19 discretion. See Dunk v. Ford Motor Co. (1996) 48 Cal. App. 4th 1794, 1801; see also Officers for 20 Justice, 688 F.2d at 626 (“reverse only upon a strong showing that the district court’s decision was 21 a clear abuse of discretion”); Chemical Bank, 955 F.2d at 1276; Ackerman v. Kassar, 1993 WL 22 326453 (9th Cir. 1993); Linney v. Cellular Alaska P’ship, 151 F.3d 1234, 1238 (9th Cir. 1998).

23 As the court in 7-Eleven Owners for Fair Franchising v. Southland Corp cautioned: “[i]t 24 cannot be overemphasized that neither the trial court in approving the settlement nor this Court in 25 reviewing that approval have the right or duty to reach any ultimate conclusions on the issues of 26 fact and law which underlie the merits of the dispute. It is well settled that in the judicial 27 consideration of proposed settlements, ‘the [trial] judge does not try out or attempt to decide the 28 merits of the controversy,’ [citation] and the appellate court ‘need not and should not reach any dispositive conclusions on the admittedly unsettled legal issue.” 7-Eleven Owners for Fair Franchising v. Southland Corp. (2000) 85 Cal. App. 4th 1135, 1146.

2. The Settlement Is Presumed To Be Fair

The Court should begin its analysis with the presumption that the settlement is fair and should be approved:

[A] presumption of fairness exists where : (1) the settlement is reached through arm’s-length bargaining; (2) investigation and discovery are sufficient to allow counsel and the court to act intelligently; (3) counsel is experienced in similar litigation; and (4) the percentage of objectors is small.

Dunk v. Ford Motor Co (1996) 48 Cal. App. 4th 1794, 1802; 7-Eleven Owners for Fair Franchising, 85 Cal. App. 4th at 1146; accord, Ellis v. Naval Air Rework Facility, 87 F.R.D. 15, 18 (N.D. Cal. 1980); In re Wash. Pub Power Supply, 720 F Supp at 1387.

The settlement in the case at bar warrants approval and carries a presumption of fairness. As previously noted in the application for Preliminary Approval, this current settlement was negotiated at arms’ length with the assistance of an experienced mediator. (Choi Decl. at ¶ 4-5). Class Counsel engaged in formal discovery, including taking the deposition of Defendant’s PMK and in significant investigation before settling. (Id. at ¶¶ 8-10.) Furthermore, Class Counsel is highly experienced in this type of litigation. As shown in the supporting declarations, Class Counsel has significant experience in class actions and employment wage and hour matters. (Choi Decl. at ¶17; Declaration of Larry W. Lee (“Lee Decl.”) ¶¶ 5-6; Declaration of Dennis Hyun (“Hyun Decl.”) at ¶¶ 3-6).

3. Two-Way Costs and Other Risks Inherent In Continued Litigation Favor Final Approval

To assess the fairness, adequacy and reasonableness of a class action settlement, the Court also should weigh the immediacy and certainty of substantial settlement proceeds against the risks inherent in continued litigation. See also In re General Motors Corp., 55 F.3d 768, 806 (3d Cir. 1995) (“present value of the damages plaintiffs would likely recover if successful, appropriately discounted for the risk of not prevailing, should be compared with the amount of the proposed

1 settlement”) (internal citations omitted); Girsh v. Jepson, 521 F.2d 1 53, 157 (3d Cir. 1975); Boyd
2 v. Bechtel Corp., 485 F. Supp. 610, 616-17 (N.D. Cal. 1979).

3 If Plaintiffs pursued this case without settlement and failed to prevail, Defendant would 4 have likely sought its costs against Plaintiffs. Should individual, current or former employees of 5 Defendant want to bring individual claims on the same causes of action, they would each face the 6 uncertainty of prevailing and the possibility of paying costs to Defendant. Accordingly, such 7 claims likely would not be brought by many of these current and former employees—thus, this 8 lawsuit achieves a true benefit for the class that they might not otherwise get or seek as 9 individuals. Here, given that a fair and reasonable settlement has been reached, neither Plaintiffs 10 nor any of the class members will be required to pay for Defendant’s litigation costs.

11 The risks of this case were weighed by Class Counsel and should be considered a 12 significant issue by the Court in its determination of final approval. Class Counsel obtained a very 13 substantial settlement for the Class that resulted in a fair recovery which at the same time provides 14 for finality and eliminates an award of costs to Defendant against Plaintiffs and/or Class Members.
15 Indeed, and the settlement payment to each Class Member will be on average will be 16 approximately $381.73 each after deductions for fees, costs, Plaintiffs’ enhancement awards and 17 PAGA payment. (Admin Decl. at ¶ 13.)

18 The Settlement Agreement also affords the Class prompt, fair relief, while avoiding 19 significant legal and factual battles that otherwise may have prevented the Class from obtaining 20 any recovery at all. While Class Counsel believe the Class Members’ claims are meritorious and 21 can be successfully litigated, they are experienced and fully understand the inherent risks and 22 uncertainty involved with such matters as the denial of class certification, the outcome of a 23 potential trial, and the outcome of any appeals that would inevitably follow should the Class 24 prevail at trial.

25 Class Counsel has also assessed the same risks in connection with the current settlement.
26 Because the settlement provides immediate and substantial relief, without the attendant risks and 27 delay of continued litigation – not to mention the threat of litigation costs – Class Counsel believe 28 that the settlement warrants the Court’s final approval.

1 4. The Complexity, Expense and Likely Duration of Continued Litigation
2 Against Defendant Favor Final Approval

3 Another factor considered by courts in approving a settlement is the complexity, expense, 4 and likely duration of the litigation. See Officers for Justice, 688 F.2d at 625; Girsh, 521 F.2d at 5 157. In applying this factor, the Court must weigh the benefits of the settlement against the 6 expense and delay involved in achieving an equivalent or more favorable result at trial. See Young 7 v. Katz, 447 F.2d 431, 433-434 (5th Cir. 1971).

8 As noted above, continued litigation could have led to appeals on a number of issues. On 9 the other hand, the settlement that was reached provides to all Class Members – regardless of their 10 means – fair relief in a prompt and efficient manner. Were the Court to deny final approval, the 11 Class Members would be left without a remedy as a practical matter and courts across the State 12 would have to address the issues presented here in a piecemeal, costly, and time-consuming 13 manner. The settlement in this case is therefore consistent with the “overriding public interest in 14 settling and quieting litigation” that is “particularly true in class action suits.” See Van Bronkhorst 15 v. Safeco Corp., 529 F.2d at 950 (footnote omitted); see also 4 Newberg at § 11.41.

16 5. The Opinion of Experienced Counsel Favors Final Approval

17 Class Counsel supports the settlement as fair, reasonable and adequate, and in the best 18 interest of the Class Members as a whole. (Choi Decl. at ¶ 10.) Similarly, counsel for Defendant 19 is also in favor of this settlement.

20 The endorsement of qualified and well-informed counsel of a settlement as fair, reasonable, 21 and adequate is entitled to significant weight by the Court in its final approval determination. See
22 Officers for Justice, 688 F.2d at 625; Ellis, 87 F.R.D. at 18; Boyd, 485 F.Supp. at 617; Linney, 151 23 F.3d at 1242.

24 6. Discovery, Mediation, and the Settlement Discussions Undertaken In 25 This Action Favor Final Approval

26 Prior to negotiating the settlement, Class Counsel engaged in significant investigation on a 27 number of topics and categories. Plaintiffs and Defendant engaged in written discovery, Plaintiffs’ 28 counsel conducted the Defendant’s PMK deposition and an extensive meet and confer process that

1 resulted in Defendant producing all of the data necessary to allow Plaintiffs to conduct an exposure
2 analysis. (Choi Decl. at ¶8). Further, on November 20, 2023, the Parties engaged in mediation 3 with well-respected mediator Steven G. Serratore, Esq. (Id. at ¶ 4). The mediation did not result in 4 settlement. (Id.) After the mediation, Plaintiffs received additional data to conduct an analysis of 5 Defendant’s financial condition and retained an expert witness to do the same. (Id. at ¶ 5).
6 Thereafter, the Parties continued to engage in settlement negotiations spanning months of arms’ 7 length negotiations with Mr. Serratore’s help and involvement, ultimately resulting in this 8 settlement. (Id.)

9 As detailed above, each of the factors counsel strongly in favor of final approval of the 10 Settlement by this Court.

11 IV. THE REQUESTED CLASS REPRESENTATIVE ENHANCEMENT SHOULD BE 12 APPROVED

13 Plaintiffs have requested, and Defendant does not oppose, an enhancement of Ten 14 Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00) for each Plaintiff, pursuant to the terms of the Settlement 15 Agreement for a total of Thirty Thousand Dollars ($30,000.00). Plaintiffs request that this Court 16 approve such service payment in light of the efforts Plaintiffs put into this case, the absence of any 17 objection to their service payment, and the excellent result achieved.

18 As shown in the supporting declaration, the Class Representatives spent significant time 19 with Class Counsel on a number of occasions to discuss the case, including providing substantive 20 information regarding Defendant’s practices, and providing documents related to her own claims 21 and the claims of the Class. As part of their duties as Class Representatives, Plaintiffs provided 22 invaluable information, evidence, and documents that resulted in this settlement. (Declaration of 23 Andrea Brazell (“Brazell Decl.”) at ¶¶ 5-6; Declaration of Nichole Smith (“Smith Decl.”) at ¶¶ 3-24 4; Declaration of Susana Carrillo (“Carrillo Decl.”) at ¶¶ 3-4).

25 In addition to the invaluable services the Class Representatives provided, they also 26 assumed significant risks, both professionally and monetarily, in acting as Class Representatives.
27 Because the claims alleged by Plaintiffs involved the payment of costs to the prevailing party, 28 Plaintiffs could have possibly faced paying the costs of Defendant had Plaintiffs not prevailed in

1 this action. (Brazell Decl. at ¶ 8; Smith Decl. at ¶ 6; Carrillo Decl. at ¶ 6).Moreover, given that 2 future employers are much less likely to hire individuals who have filed suit against their prior 3 employer, particularly cases of this nature, the Class Representatives could face negative 4 employment prospects in the future. (Brazell Decl. at ¶ 9; Smith Decl. at ¶ 7; Carrillo Decl. at ¶ 7).

5 The Class Representatives assumed such risks from which the whole class benefited. Class 6 Members did not have to file individual lawsuits and bear the risks of payment of costs if they did 7 not prevail, nor did they have to face the potential for retaliation and not getting future 8 employment had they filed a lawsuit which is a public record. These are significant benefits, even 9 apart from the time the Class Representatives had spent working on this case that weigh in favor of 10 granting the requested enhancement.

11 Courts have routinely granted approval of settlements containing such enhancements. In 12 League of Martin v. City of Milwaukee, 588 F. Supp. 1004 (E. D. Wis. 1984), the court held that 13 the proposal settlement properly granted the named plaintiffs individual relief. It is “not 14 uncommon for Class Members...to receive special relief in settlement... [The Plaintiff]...had been 15 instrument in prosecuting this lawsuit since the date it was filed.” Id. at 1024. In Kyriazi v.
16 Western Elec. Co., 527 F. Supp. 18 (D. N. J. 1981), a named plaintiff in a Title VII class action 17 was awarded individual relief of back-pay and interest, reinstatement, punitive damages and 18 counsel fees. Similarly, in Women’s Committee for Equal Employment Opportunity v. NBC, 76
19 F.R.D. 173 (SDNY 1977), the court approved as fair a settlement that included awards to 16 20 named plaintiffs of virtually all the damages they sought.

21 In Lo Re v. Chase Manhattan Corp., 1979 U. S. Dist. LEXIS 12210, 19 FEP Cas. (BNA)
22 1366 (SDNY 1979), the court approved a class representative payment of $229,000 out of a 23 $1,579,000 settlement fund to the named plaintiff for his individual claims. One of the factors 24 considered by the court in determining that such payments were fair was the fact that none of the 25 absent Class Members objected to the enhancements. The court held that this fact showed that the 26 Class Members were not offended by these enhancements. Id. at 17. In the present case, there are 27 no objections filed by any individual to the requested amounts. As such, one can infer that none of 28 the Class Members have any disagreement with such individual enhancement. Furthermore, and

1 as explained above, the Class Representative took substantial risk in bringing the current benefits 2 to the class.

3 Here, this litigation has resulted in a significantly valuable benefit to the class, and the 4 Class Representative took on substantial risk in helping to get this financial benefit to the class. As 5 such, the enhancement should be awarded to the named Plaintiffs for their commitment, 6 dedication, and risks taken for this litigation. Accordingly, the court should find that the 7 enhancement as fair and reasonable.

8 V. THE REQUESTED ATTORNEYS' FEES SHOULD BE APPROVED

9 Class Counsel has achieved an excellent settlement in this litigation, as set forth in the 10 Settlement Agreement and this Motion. The proposed settlement provides substantial benefits to 11 the Class and was reached after aggressive investigation and litigation by Class Counsel. Class 12 Counsel and Plaintiffs achieved a $3,250,000.00 settlement fund for the benefit of the Class to 13 compensate the Class for the claims alleged. There have been no objections filed against the 14 Settlement or to Class Counsel's request for attorneys' fees in the amount of $1,137,500.00. As 15 more fully detailed below, Class Counsel's request for attorney's fees and reimbursement of costs, 16 is fair, reasonable, and adequate. Accordingly, final approval should be granted.

17 A. An Award of Attorneys' Fees and Costs is Requested When A Common Fund 18 Has Been Created for the Benefit of the Class

19 Class Counsel's application for an award of attorneys' fees in the amount of $1,137,500.00 20 of the $3,250,000.00 settlement fund created on behalf of the Class is reasonable and fair. The 21 requested fee represents fair compensation for undertaking complex, risky, expensive, and time-22 consuming litigation on a contingent basis.

23 Class Counsel seeks a fee award calculated as 35% of the total value of the Settlement for 24 the successful prosecution and resolution of this action. California state and federal courts have 25 recognized that an appropriate method for determining award of attorneys' fees is based on a 26 percentage of the total value of benefits to Class Members by the settlement. Wershba v. Apple
27 Computer, Inc. (2001) 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 254; Serrano v. Priest (1977) 20 Cal. 3d 25, 34
28 [Serrano III]; Boeing Co. v. Van Gemert, 444 U.S. 472, 478 (1980); Vincent v. Hughes Air West,

1 Inc., 557 F. 2d 759, 769 (9th Cir. 1997). The purpose of this equitable doctrine is to avoid unjust
2 enrichment to the Class and to “spread litigation costs proportionally among all the beneficiaries so 3 that the active beneficiary does not bear the entire burden alone.” Vincent v. Hughes Air West, Inc., 4 supra, 557 F. 2d at 769.

5 Under California law, the award of attorneys’ fees in wage and hour class action 6 settlements is proper under the percentage method. See Laffitte v. Robert Half Int’l, 1 Cal. 5th 480, 7 503 (Aug. 11, 2016) (“We join the overwhelming majority of federal and state courts in holding 8 that when class action litigation establishes a monetary fund for the benefit of the class members, 9 and the trial court in its equitable powers awards class counsel a fee out of that fund, the court may 10 determine the amount of a reasonable fee by choosing an appropriate percentage of the fund 11 created.”). Under the percentage of the fund method, the Court’s objective remains to “mimic the 12 market” in fixing a reasonable fee. See Gaskill v. Gordon, 160 F.3d 361, 363 (7th Cir. 1998) (J.
13 Posner) (“When a fee is set by a court rather than by contract, the object is to set it at a level that 14 will approximate what the market will set... The judge, in other words, is trying to mimic the 15 market in legal services.”).

16 An award of thirty-five percent (35%) of the fund in attorneys’ fees mimics the 17 marketplace as it “is supported by the fact that typical contingency fee agreements provide that 18 class counsel will recover 33% if the case is resolved before trial and 40% if the case is tried.”
19 Fernandez v. Victoria Secret Stores LLC, 2008 WL 8150856, *16 n. 59 (C.D. Cal. July 21, 2008) 20 (citing Brickman, Effective Hourly Rates of Contingency-Fee Lawyers: Competing Data and Non- 21 Competitive Fees (Fall 2003) 81 Wash U. L. Q. 653, 659 n. 11). Indeed, “empirical studies [that] 22 show that...fee awards in class actions average around one-third of the recovery.” Chavez v.
23 Netflix, Inc., 162 Cal. App. 4th 43, 66 n.11 (2008).

24 Further, “the response of the class members to attorneys’ fee notice, though not decisive, is 25 relevant to the... reasonable determination” regarding fees. Swedish Hospital v. Shalala, 1 F.3d 26 1261, 1272 (D.C. Cir. 1993). A positive response rate tends to suggest that the court’s 27 “approximation of the market” for fees is well supported. Id. at p. 1269. In this case, the class 28 notice specifically notified class members that Plaintiffs’ Counsel would be seeking thirty-five

1 percent (35%) of the settlement fund as attorneys' fees. To date, not a single class member has 2 objected to the settlement. This strong favorable response also supports the requested fees.

3 In addition, it is recognized that one of the primary factors justifying an enhanced 4 attorney's fees reward is the attendant risks inherent in the litigation. As observed in City of 5 Detroit v. Grinnell Corp., 495 F. 2d 448, 470 (2d Cir. 1974).

6 Here, it is clear that a settlement fund of $3,250,000.00 has been created. For Class 7 Counsel, the fees here were wholly contingent in nature and the case presented far more risk than 8 the usual contingent fee case. Among the risks was the cost inherent in class action litigation, as 9 well as a long battle with a corporate Defendant who had retained a premier and highly-10 experienced defense firm. Plaintiffs' counsel invested their own time and money into this case, 11 which they could have lost if Defendant prevailed in this action. As such, the requested fee of 12 $1,137,500.00 should be awarded.

13 VI. THE COURT SHOULD APPROVE THE REQUEST FOR REIMBURSEMENT OF 14 COSTS

15 The request for reimbursement of costs, in the amount of $29,097.59 is fair and reasonable.
16 Pursuant to the terms of the Settlement Agreement, Plaintiffs are allowed to seek reimbursement of 17 litigation costs up to a maximum of $40,000.00. To date, Class Counsel has expended a total of 18 $29,097.59 in litigation related costs. (Choi Decl. at ¶ 18; Exh. A; Hyun Decl. ¶ 9, Exh. A; Lee 19 Decl. at ¶ 7; Exh. A). The authority for the court to award this is the parties' settlement agreement 20 and Labor Code §§ 218.5, 226, 1194, and the PAGA. As such, this request should be approved.

21 VII. THE SETTLEMENT ADMINISTRATOR'S FEES AND COSTS SHOULD BE 22 APPROVED

23 Pursuant to the terms of the Settlement Agreement, PSA's fees and costs are to be paid out 24 of the class settlement funds. The settlement administration fees in this matter amount to Thirty 25 One Thousand Dollars ($31,000.00). (Admin Decl. at ¶ 16, Ex. B). As shown herein, PSA carried 26 out its duties as required by the Settlement Agreement by providing notice to class members and 27 will continue to carry its duties by handling the distribution of the settlement funds. For such 28 reasons, the Settlement Administrator's fees should be approved.

1 VIII. CONCLUSION

2 For all the foregoing reasons, and on the basis of the authorities cited herein, Plaintiffs 3 respectfully submit that the standards for final approval have been met, and the terms of the 4 Settlement Agreement are fair, adequate and reasonable.

5 Accordingly, Plaintiffs respectfully request that the Court enter an Order in the form 6 proposed and submitted:

- 7 1. Granting final approval to the proposed Settlement Agreement; 8 2. Approving distribution of the settlement funds pursuant to the terms of the 9 Settlement Agreement;
10 3. Approving Plaintiffs' request for their enhancement payments pursuant to the terms 11 of the Settlement Agreement;
12 4. Approving Plaintiffs' request for an award of the Class Counsel's fees and costs 13 with payment pursuant to the terms of the Settlement Agreement; 14 5. Approving Plaintiffs' request for payment of the settlement administration costs 15 with payment pursuant to the terms of the Settlement Agreement; and 16 6. Entering final judgment as to all members of the Settlement Class in this action.
