MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I. SUMMARY OF MOTION

Plaintiffs Andrea Rodriguez (“Plaintiff Rodriguez”) and Rajveer Kaur (“Plaintiff Kaur”) (together, the “Plaintiffs”) seek approval of the Private Attorneys General Act Settlement Agreement and Release (“Settlement,” “Agreement,” or “Settlement Agreement”) entered into between Plaintiffs, individually and on behalf of the State of California with respect to PAGA Members, and Defendant Kan Di Ki, LLC (“Defendant”), pursuant to California Labor Code section 2699(l)(2).¹ Plaintiffs and Defendant (together, the “Parties”) have agreed to resolve the above-captioned action, brought pursuant to the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, California Labor Code section 2698, et seq. (“PAGA”), for a Total Settlement Amount of $725,000.00.²

The Settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable, as it represents a reasoned compromise of a disputed claim that has been reached through arm’s-length negotiations, in light of the risks, complexity, and expense of further litigation, and the strengths of the PAGA claim. The Settlement meets the requirements for Court approval based upon the relevant fairness factors. The Court is respectfully requested to approve the Settlement, award the Attorneys’ Fees and Costs, Settlement Administration Costs, and General Release Fees and approve the LWDA Payment.

The Settlement Agreement and moving and supporting papers for this motion are being concurrently submitted to the LWDA and Plaintiffs now move for an order granting approval of the Settlement, in conformity with California Labor Code section 2699(l)(2).³

II. FACTUAL BACKGROUND AND RELEVANT PROCEDURAL HISTORY

For a discussion of relevant procedural history and facts regarding this matter, please see the Declaration of Vartan Madoyan at paragraphs 7 to 12 and the Declaration of Kristen Agnew at Paragraphs 2 to 7.

¹ The Private Attorneys General Act Settlement Agreement and Release (“Settlement Agreement”) is attached as “EXHIBIT 1” to the Declaration of Vartan Madoyan (“Madoyan Decl.”).

² Settlement Agreement, § 4(a). The Total Settlement Amount is subject to possible increase pursuant to Section 4(b) of the Settlement Agreement.

³ As noted in the concurrently-filed Proof of Service, the settlements papers were submitted to the LWDA.

1 III. SUMMARY OF THE SETTLEMENT TERMS

2 A. Scope of the Settlement

3 If the Court grants approval of the Settlement, Plaintiffs and the State of California with respect
4 to PAGA Members⁴ will release the Released Parties⁵ from the Released Claims⁶.

5 B. Funding and Distribution of the Total Settlement Amount

6 Under the terms of the Settlement Agreement, Defendant will pay a Total Settlement Amount
7 of $725,000.00⁷, including: (1) Attorneys' Fees and Costs to be paid to Lawyers for Justice, PC,
8 Diversity Law Group, P.C., and Webber & Egbert Employment Law, P.C. (collectively, "Plaintiffs'
9 Counsel"), (2) General Release Fees to Plaintiffs, (3) Settlement Administration Costs to be paid to the 10 PAGA Settlement Administrator, and (4) Net Settlement Amount to be paid to the California Labor and 11 Workforce Development Agency ("LWDA") and PAGA Members. The Net Settlement Amount will 12 be the Total Settlement Amount less the Court-approved Attorneys' Fees and Costs, Settlement
13 Administration Costs, and General Release Fee; the Net Settlement Amount is currently estimated to be 14 no less than $434,911.67.⁸ The Net Settlement Amount will be distributed as follows: 75% of the Net
15 Settlement Amount (or approximately $326,183.75) will be distributed to the LWDA ("LWDA
16 Payment") and 25% of the Net Settlement Amount (or approximately $108,727.92) ("Employees'
17 Portion") will be distributed to the PAGA Members on a pro rata basis, based on their Compensable
18 Pay Periods.⁹ The Total Settlement Amount is $725,000.00, however, pursuant to Section 4(b) of the 19 Settlement Agreement, if the actual number of Compensable Pay Periods during the period March 2, 20 2020 through September 30, 2023 is more than 10% of 45,000 Compensable Pay Periods (i.e., 49,500
21 Compensable Pay Periods), then, at the election of Defendant, either (a) the Total Settlement Amount
22 will increase on a pro-rate basis equal to the percentage increase in the number of Compensable Pay
23 Periods worked by the PAGA Members above 10% or (b) the PAGA Group Release Period shall end
24 on the date on which the number of Compensable Pay Periods reaches 49,500 ("Alternate End Date").¹⁰

25 ⁴ Settlement Agreement, § 4(a)(1)-(5), and Madoyan Decl., ¶ 15. "PAGA Release Period" is defined as the period of March 2, 2020, through June 23, 2024. Id., § 4(a)(5).

26 ⁵ The definition of the "Released Parties" is set forth in the Settlement Agreement, § 9(a).

27 ⁶ The definition of the "Released Claims" is set forth in the Settlement Agreement, § 9(a).

28 ⁷ Settlement Agreement, § 4(a), Madoyan Decl., ¶ 16, and see footnote 2.

⁸ Id., § 4(a)(4).

⁹ Settlement Agreement, § 8(b)(1).

¹⁰ Id., § 4(b)

No later than 7 calendar days after the Effective Date, Defendant will provide the PAGA Settlement Administrator with the PAGA Member List, containing the contact information and other information required to calculate payment for each PAGA Member.¹¹ No later than 14 business days of the Effective Date, Defendant will transmit the Total Settlement Amount to a qualified settlement account established by the PAGA Settlement Administrator for administration of the Settlement.¹²

No later than 14 calendar days after the PAGA Settlement Administrator receives the PAGA Member List and Total Settlement Amount, it will calculate payments and mail the Cover Letter¹³ and Individual Settlement Share¹⁴ checks (together, the “PAGA Settlement Package”) to all PAGA Members by first-class U.S. mail.¹⁵ For each PAGA Settlement Package returned as undeliverable within 30 calendar days of the initial mailing, the PAGA Settlement Administrator will promptly attempt to locate an alternate, updated address for such Aggrieved Employee by using a skip-trace search and shall attempt one re-mailing of the PAGA Settlement Package.¹⁶

The Individual Settlement Share checks issued to Aggrieved Employees will remain valid for 90 calendar days, and thereafter, will be canceled.¹⁷ Funds associated with canceled checks will be transmitted to the State Controller’s Office Unclaimed Property Division in the name of the PAGA Members(s) at issue and in the amount of his or her respective Individual Payment(s).¹⁸

C. Standards for Approval of PAGA Settlement

PAGA allows an “aggrieved employee” to bring a civil action on behalf of the State of California to recover civil penalties that normally the LWDA can pursue on behalf of employees against an employer without employees’ involvement or approval. Unnamed employees need not be given notice

¹¹ Id., § 8(c)(1).

¹² Settlement Agreement, § 8(a).

¹³ The Parties have prepared a simple Cover Letter for transmission to the PAGA Members along with their Individual Settlement Share checks, substantially in the form attached as “EXHIBIT A” to the [Proposed] Order and Judgment and as “EXHIBIT A” to the Settlement Agreement. The Cover Letter informs the PAGA Members about the Actions and the Settlement.

¹⁴ Each PAGA Member’s share of the Employees’ Portion (“Individual Settlement Share”), will be calculated by the PAGA Settlement Administrator based on their Compensable Pay Periods. Id., § 8(b). The payments to PAGA Members for their Individual Settlement Share are considered 100% penalties to be reported on IRS Form 1099, if required. Id., §§ 4(c) & 8(b)(1).

¹⁵ Id., § 8(c)(3).

¹⁷ Id., § 8(c)(4).

of the PAGA claim, nor do they have the ability to opt-out of the representative PAGA claim.¹⁹ Before bringing a civil action under PAGA, an employee must comply with California Labor Code section 2699.3. See Cal. Lab. Code § 2699(a). Plaintiffs have complied.²⁰

Settlement of a PAGA action requires court approval. See Cal. Lab. Code § 2699(l)(2). However, a PAGA claim is asserted on a non-class basis, and is a law enforcement action rather than a class action.²¹ A court's review of a PAGA settlement involves consideration of unique factors that render the approval process distinct from, and simpler than the two-step court approval process for a class action settlement. A court reviewing a PAGA settlement need only "ensur[e] that a negotiated resolution is fair to those affected." Williams v. Superior Court (2017) 3 Cal.5th 531, 549 (citing Cal. Lab. Code § 2699(l)(2)). Although California Labor Code section 2699(l) does not set forth the criteria on which a PAGA settlement is to be judged, courts have approved settlements of PAGA claims.²²

In a PAGA case, the court's focus is not on the monetary amounts but on whether the total settlement amount achieves PAGA's objectives. The purpose of PAGA is "to incentivize private parties to recover civil penalties for the government that otherwise may not have been assessed and collected by overburdened state enforcement agencies." See Ochoa-Hernandez, supra, 2010 WL 1340777, at *4 (citing Arias, supra, 46 Cal.4th at 986). Penalties recovered under PAGA are, in part, to "be distributed to the [LWDA] for enforcement of labor laws . . . and for education of employers and employees about

IV. THE SETTLEMENT IS FAIR AND SHOULD BE APPROVED

The Settlement resulted from hard-fought negotiations, fulfills PAGA’s objectives, is fair, adequate, and reasonable, and meets all of the criteria for approval for the reasons discussed below.

A. The Factors Giving Rise to a Presumption of Fairness Exist

The Parties reached the Settlement after conducting extensive, arm’s-length settlement negotiations and the involvement of a neutral mediator Hon. Jeffrey Winikow (Ret.).²³ A settlement that is “the product of extensive and hard-fought adversarial negotiations between the parties” is entitled to a presumption of fairness. Wershba v. Apple Computer, Inc. (2001) 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 245.

As discussed in the Declarations of Vartan Madoyan, Kristen Agnew, and Shaelyn A. Stewart, the Settlement is presumptively fair because: (1) it is the product of adversarial non-collusive, and arm’s-length negotiations; (2) it was negotiated by counsel with significant experience in similar complex labor and employment matters; and (3) it occurred after counsel for the Parties engaged in significant investigation to evaluate the strength and potential value of the PAGA claim, and risks and expenses of litigating this claim through trial.²⁴

Based on all of the information available to the Parties, the Parties agree that this matter is well-suited for settlement given the strengths and weaknesses of the PAGA claim and the facts and circumstances of the case.²⁵ Plaintiffs’ Counsel have extensive experience handling representative and class action wage-and-hour litigation and used that experience to achieve a settlement recovery for Plaintiffs, the State of California, and the PAGA Members.²⁶ Therefore, the Court should give considerable weight to the competency, experience, and opinion of counsel and the involvement of a neutral mediator in assuring that the settlement is a product of arm’s length bargaining.²⁷

B. The Relative Strengths and Weaknesses of the PAGA Claim and the Range of ²³ Madoyan Decl., ¶ 18.

²⁵ Madoyan Decl., ¶ 36.

²⁶ Madoyan Decl., ¶¶ 2-7; Agnew Decl. ¶ 9-15; Stewart Decl. ¶ 2-3.

²⁷ See Kirkorian v. Borelli (N.D. Cal. 1988) 695 F.Supp. 446, 451 (opinion of experienced counsel entitled to considerable weight); Boyd v. Bechtel Corp. (N.D. Cal. 1979) 485 F.Supp. 610, 616-17, 622 (recommendations of plaintiffs’ counsel given presumption of reasonableness); Satchell v. Fed. Express Corp. (N.D. Cal. Apr. 13, 2007) 2007 WL 1114010, at *4 (assistance of experienced mediator confirms settlement is non-collusive).

Possible Outcomes Strongly Favor Approval of the Settlement

For a discussion of the relative strengths and weaknesses of the PAGA claim and the range of possible outcomes in the litigation, see the Declaration of Vartan Madoyan at paragraphs 22-32.

C. The Settlement Avoids Risky, Complex, and Lengthy Further Litigation

Courts favor voluntary conciliation and settlement of complex litigation. Class Plaintiffs v. City of Seattle (9th Cir. 1992) 955 F.2d 1268, 1276. Generally, unless the settlement is clearly inadequate, its acceptance and approval are preferable to lengthy and expensive litigation with uncertain results. Nat'l Rural Telecomms. Coop. v. DIRECTV, Inc. (C.D. Cal. Jan. 5, 2004) 221 F.R.D. 523, 526.

Prior to reaching the Settlement, the Parties investigated the veracity, strength, and scope of the PAGA claim and allegations and considered thousands of pages of information, documents, and data relevant to Plaintiffs' claims and Defendant's defenses thereto.²⁸ The Parties thoroughly and sufficiently evaluated the PAGA claim and related allegations, including, and not limited to, calculating the potential monetary recovery under PAGA.²⁹ Plaintiffs' Counsel performed other work as well, which is discussed in the Declaration of Vartan Madoyan and Kristen Agnew.³⁰

Had the case not settled, the Parties would have conducted extensive additional formal discovery, including propounding additional written discovery requests as well as multiple depositions of party and percipient witnesses all over the State of California, to prepare the cases for trial. From the inception of this litigation, Defendant indicated that it would aggressively litigate the cases.³¹ Even if Defendant failed on its defenses, litigating a complex PAGA action comes with inherent risks and costs, and the litigation could continue beyond entry of judgment if either party were to appeal adverse rulings.³² Additionally, there is a real possibility that Plaintiffs could recover nothing, either for themselves or on behalf of the State of California or other PAGA Members after years of costly and labor-intensive litigation. Avoiding these risks and the likelihood of future contentious litigation, which would involve significant costs, favors settlement.

1 D. The Settlement Is Fair, Adequate, and Reasonable

2 The Settlement provides significant benefits to the State of California and the PAGA Members
3 and falls well-within the range of acceptable settlements under the circumstances. “[T]he very essence
4 of a settlement is compromise, ‘a yielding of absolutes and an abandoning of highest hopes.’” Officers
5 for Justice v. Civil Service Comm’n (9th Cir. 1981) 688 F.2d 615, 624. “The proposed settlement is not 6 to be judged against a hypothetical or speculative measure of what might have been achieved by the 7 negotiators.” Id. at 625.

8 The Settlement is a compromise of highly disputed claims. Plaintiffs and their counsel recognize 9 the expense and length of continued proceedings necessary to pursue the matter through trial and any 10 possible appeals.³³ Plaintiffs and their counsel have also taken into account the uncertainty and risk of 11 the outcome of further litigation, and the difficulties and delays inherent in such litigation.³⁴ Plaintiffs 12 and their counsel are also aware of the burdens of proof necessary to establish liability, both generally
13 and in response to Defendant’s defenses thereto, and the difficulties in establishing Defendant’s liability
14 for, and the right to recover, penalties on behalf of Plaintiffs, the State of California, and other PAGA
15 Members.³⁵ Plaintiffs and their counsel have also taken into account Defendant’s agreement to enter into 16 a settlement that confers significant relief upon the PAGA Members and the State of California.³⁶

17 Considering all of the facts in this case, Plaintiffs and their counsel have determined that the 18 Settlement represents a fair, adequate, and reasonable resolution of the PAGA claim, and that it is in the 19 best interests of the PAGA Members and the State of California.³⁷

20 The result achieved in this case, and the monetary recovery provided by this settlement, are well-
21 within the range of an acceptable settlement under the circumstances, especially when compared to trial
22 court penalties assessments in contested cases and the settlement of PAGA claims in other cases. Here, 23 the value obtained for settlement of the PAGA claim is significant, and it will be distributed in accordance 24 with and in fulfillment of the objectives of the PAGA statute.

1 E. The Experience and Views of Plaintiffs’ Counsel Favor Approval of the 2 Settlement

3 Plaintiffs’ Counsel is highly experienced in complex representative and class action wage-and-
4 hour litigation.³⁸ In the view of Plaintiffs’ Counsel, the benefits conferred by the settlement are eminently
5 fair and reasonable, and in the best interests of the State of California and the PAGA Members in light
6 of the risk, delay, and uncertainty of continued litigation and the substantial monetary benefits provided
7 for by the Settlement.³⁹ Furthermore, courts have acknowledged that “the interests of plaintiff, counsel
8 and other potentially aggrieved employees are largely aligned. All stand to gain from proving as 9 convincingly as possible as many Labor Code violations as the evidence will sustain[.]” Williams, supra, 10 548 (citing Cal. Lab. Code § 2699(g)(1)(i)).

11 V. THE REQUESTED ATTORNEYS’ FEES AWARD SHOULD BE APPROVED

12 A. A Fee Award of a Percentage of the Entire Fund Is Appropriate

13 The Settlement provides for attorneys’ fees in an amount of up to 35% of the Total Settlement
14 Amount, which is $253,750.00 (assuming the Total Settlement Amount remains $725,000.00)⁴⁰, subject
15 to approval and award by the Court.⁴¹ The requested attorneys’ fees award is commensurate with: (1)
16 the risk that Plaintiffs’ Counsel took in bringing and litigating the case, (2) the time, effort, and expense
17 dedicated to the case, (3) the skill and determination that Plaintiffs’ Counsel have shown, (4) the results
18 that Plaintiffs’ Counsel have achieved in the case, (5) the value that Plaintiffs’ Counsel have achieved in 19 the case, and (6) the other cases that Plaintiffs’ Counsel have turned down in order to work on this matter.

20 Plaintiffs’ Counsel are entitled to recover reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs as a matter of right
21 under PAGA. See Cal. Lab. Code § 2699(g)(1) (“Any employee who prevails in any [PAGA] action 22 shall be entitled to an award of reasonable attorney’s fees and costs.”). Plaintiffs’ Counsel are also 23 entitled to fees and costs under California Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5, as the instant PAGA
24 action is by definition “for the benefit” of others and secures monetary recovery for a large number of 25 aggrieved employees, as well as the State of California.⁴² The settlement will also provide funds to the

8 Courts award fees as an economic incentive for lawyers to pursue litigation that will enhance 9 and facilitate access to the judicial system for meritorious claims, deter wrongdoing, and address multiple 10 similar alleged wrongs that would not be economically feasible to pursue individually, such as here. See 11 A. Conte, Attorney Fee Awards (2d ed. 1993) 104, at 6.

12 The percentage method is particularly appropriate where a monetary settlement has been 13 recovered and “the benefit [recovered can be] easily quantified.” In re Bluetooth Headset Prods. Liab.
14 Litig. (9th Cir. 2011) 654 F.3d 935, 942. Where the amount of a settlement is a “certain easily calculable

5 Plaintiffs’ Counsels’ application for attorneys’ fees in light of the facts and circumstances
6 surrounding the case is well-within the range of reasonableness. Courts have awarded fees as high as 7 50% of the settlement in complex actions, depending on the circumstances of the case.⁴³

8 Plaintiffs’ Counsel have performed significant work in this matter, as discussed in the 9 Declaration of Vartan Madoyan and Kristen Agnew, with the very real possibility of an unsuccessful
10 outcome and no fee recovery of any kind.⁴⁴ In the present matter, Plaintiffs’ Counsel have borne all of 11 the risks and costs of litigation and will not receive any compensation until recovery is obtained.⁴⁵
12 Plaintiffs’ Counsel are experienced in complex wage-and-hour litigation and used that experience to 13 obtain a significant settlement recovery for Plaintiffs, the PAGA Members, and the State of California.⁴⁶
14 Considering the amount of fees requested, work performed, risks incurred, results obtained, and 15 experience of Plaintiffs’ Counsel in handling similar matters, Plaintiffs maintain that the requested 16 attorneys’ fees are reasonable and should be awarded.

17 B. The Requested Fee Award is Reasonable Based on the Factors Considered in 18 Determination of Fee Awards

19 The factors which courts consider in determining whether fee awards are reasonable, all of which 20 support the fee award requested by Plaintiffs’ Counsel, are: the time and labor required; the novelty and 21 difficulty of the questions involved; the skill requisite to perform the legal services properly; the 22 preclusion of other employment by the attorney due to the acceptance of the case; the customary fee;
23 whether the fee is fixed or contingent; the time limitation imposed by the client or the circumstances; the amount involved and results obtained; the experience, reputation, and ability of the attorney; the undesirability of the case; the nature and length of the professional relationship with the client; and awards in similar cases. Camden I Condominium Association, Inc. v. Dunkel (11th Cir. 1991) 946 F.2d 768, 772. Some of the most relevant factors to this Court's fee determination will be addressed below.

It should be highlighted that the percentage award sought is commensurate with the time, effort, and expense dedicated to the case, the contingent nature of Plaintiffs' Counsels' representation and the risks taken in commencing the case, the skill and determination required, the results that Plaintiffs' Counsel have achieved, and the value of the settlement that Plaintiffs' Counsel have obtained on behalf of Plaintiffs, the PAGA Members, and the State of California. For the reasons discussed herein, an award of attorneys' fees in the amount of 35% of the Total Settlement Amount is reasonable.

1. Time & Labor

Plaintiffs' Counsel have used their experience and skills in litigating complex wage-and-hour actions to bring this matter to a successful conclusion. Prior to commencing this lawsuit, Plaintiffs' Counsel conducted a significant amount of investigation into the factual and legal issues, Defendant's business, and its operations and employment policies, practices, and procedures.⁴⁷ During the litigation of the case, Plaintiffs' Counsel interviewed and obtained information from Plaintiffs, Defendant, and other sources, conducted legal research, reviewed and analyzed thousands of pages of documents and data, prepared for and participated in mediation and robust settlement discussions, evaluated the PAGA claim, and calculated the potential monetary recovery under PAGA.⁴⁸ Plaintiffs' Counsel also met and conferred with Defendant's counsel regarding the pleadings, case management, discovery, motion practice, arbitration, mediation, and settlement negotiations, among other issues.⁴⁹ Plaintiff's Counsel performed other work including, inter alia, case strategy and analysis; researching, drafting, reviewing, and revising pleadings, court filings, motion-related papers (e.g., with respect to Plaintiff Rodriguez's Opposition to Defendant's Ex Parte Application, Plaintiff Rodriguez's Opposition and Sur-Opposition to Defendant's Motion to Compel Arbitration and supplemental briefing, Plaintiff Kaur's Opposition to Defendant's Demurrer and Request to Stay, and settlement approval motion papers), briefs for settlement negotiations and mediation, and the settlement agreement; propounding written discovery requests and notices of depositions of Defendant's persons most knowledgeable designees; claims evaluation and analysis; preparing for and participating in settlement negotiations and the mediation; and appearing for court proceedings.⁵⁰ Counsel for the parties have further invested time to research the applicable law, which is evolving as it relates to representative PAGA actions, off-the-clock theory, meal and rest periods, illegal rounding, business expense reimbursements, regular rate of pay calculations, reporting time pay, Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders, arbitration agreements, wage-and-hour enforcement, Plaintiffs' claims, and Defendant's defenses, as well as facts discovered.⁵¹

Plaintiffs' Counsel dedicated the full extent of staffing and monetary resources necessary to prosecute the case with maximum efficiency and has fully and actively participated in the litigation process. In light of the value of time expended and the carrying of costs involved in this litigation, the requested attorneys' fees award is fair, adequate, and reasonable.

2. The Skill Required to Perform Legal Services Properly

The skill required to properly litigate this case is evident not only in the results achieved, but in the steps necessary to reach the same. Defendant retained highly-respected counsel to represent its defenses. Plaintiffs' Counsels' effort and skill were used to, among other things, investigate the allegations and gather facts, research the legal issues, analyze data, documents, and information obtained from multiple sources, to evaluate the PAGA claim and negotiate the settlement. Despite all of the obstacles that had to be overcome, Plaintiffs' Counsel used its extensive experience and skill in the handling of complex wage-and-hour matters to advocate for and obtain a recovery now, with maximum efficiency, as opposed to the possibility of recovery in the future, after significant expense and time.⁵²

3. Whether the Fee Is Fixed or Contingent

Plaintiffs' Counsel have provided representation on a contingency basis, have borne all of the risks and costs of litigation, and will not receive any compensation until recovery is obtained.⁵³ If Plaintiffs' Counsel had not been successful, the time that they have devoted to litigating the case would have been for naught and would not have produced any fee or any reimbursement of costs or expenses.

⁵⁰ Madoyan Decl., ¶ 19; Agnew Decl. ¶ 2-7.

⁵¹ Madoyan Decl., ¶ 19

⁵² Id., ¶¶ 18-32.

⁵³ Id., ¶¶ 32 & 34.

Plaintiffs' Counsel is well-experienced in complex wage-and-hour litigation and used that experience to obtain a great result in this matter.⁵⁴ The skill and determination that Plaintiffs' Counsel have shown throughout the prosecution of the case justifies the requested attorneys' fees and costs. Considering the amounts requested, work performed, and risks incurred, the requested fees and costs are reasonable and should be awarded.

4. The Amount Involved and the Results Achieved

The Settlement is an excellent resolution given the uncertainty and risks of further litigation.⁵⁵ Had the case not settled, Defendant would continue to vigorously defend the case, and would have challenged liability, merits, and sought a reduction in the amount of any civil penalties. Defendant, however, faced risks too, including and not limited to, the risk of trial and the risk of having the Court assess civil penalties. Additionally, preparing for trial would have been extraordinarily expensive for the Parties. At this stage, the settlement is preferred over continued litigation because such resolution saves time and money that would otherwise go to litigation. The risks and expenses of further litigation outweighed any benefit that might have been gained otherwise. The Settlement provides an immediate recovery and avoids an uncertain result in the future and additional risk, expense, and delay (e.g., prolonged expert discovery, trial preparation, and appellate review of those proceedings).

The results achieved, in light of the difficulties inherent in similar cases and the specific difficulties faced in this case, are considerable. Plaintiffs' Counsel obtained a settlement that provides for a Total Settlement Amount of $725,500.00, and it is currently estimated that the Net Settlement Amount available for distribution, is approximately $434,911.67.⁵⁶

5. The Reputation and Ability of the Attorneys

Plaintiffs' Counsel are recognized class action and complex litigation law firms, and its attorneys employed their knowledge, skill, and experience to bring the case to a successful conclusion. Plaintiffs' Counsel have years of wage-and-hour class action and complex litigation experience, have recovered millions of dollars on behalf of thousands of individuals in California, and have successfully handled numerous significant wage-and-hour class action and representative action cases.⁵⁷

⁵⁶ Settlement Agreement, § 4(a) and see footnote 2.

⁵⁷ Madoyan Decl., ¶¶ 2-7; Agnew Decl. ¶ 9-15; Stewart Decl. ¶ 2-3.

VI. REIMBURSEMENT OF PLAINTIFFS' COUNSELS' LITIGATION COSTS AND EXPENSES SHOULD BE APPROVED

The Settlement provides for reimbursement of litigation costs and expenses of up to $30,000.00. As set forth in the Declarations of Vartan Madoyan, Kristen Agnew, and Shaelyn A. Stewart, Plaintiffs' Counsel seeks reimbursement of $15,038.33 in litigation costs and expenses.⁵⁸ These expenses were reasonable and necessary in the prosecution of this matter and to obtain the Settlement, and is less than the maximum amount allocated under the Settlement Agreement.⁵⁹ The cost savings of $14,961.67 will be part of the Net Settlement Amount.⁶⁰ Accordingly, the Court is requested to award reimbursement of litigation costs and expenses to Plaintiffs' Counsel in the amount of $15,038.33.

VII. THE SETTLEMENT ADMINISTRATION COSTS SHOULD BE APPROVED

As set forth in the Settlement Agreement, the Parties have agreed to retain, subject to approval by the Court, Simpluris, Inc., to handle the administration of the Settlement. The fees and expenses of the PAGA Settlement Administrator are estimated not to exceed $6,300.00. These costs include, but are not limited to, expenses for preparing, translating, printing, and mailing the Cover Letter and Individual Settlement Shares checks to the PAGA Members (i.e., PAGA Settlement Packages); performing skip-trace searches; re-mailing the returned PAGA Settlement Packages; and handling inquiries from PAGA Members regarding the Settlement, among other things. Accordingly, the Court should grant approval of the Settlement Administration Costs in the amount of up to $6,300.00 to Simpluris, Inc., a necessary third-party for handling the settlement process.

VIII. THE GENERAL RELEASE FEE SHOULD BE APPROVED

The Settlement provides for a General Release Fee to be paid to each Plaintiff in the amount of $7,500.00 for their broader individual waiver and release of claims with a California Civil Code Section 1542 waiver (set forth in Section 9(b) of the Settlement Agreement).⁶¹ It is reasonable and just for Plaintiffs to each receive this payment. Plaintiffs contributed considerable time and effort to the litigation

⁶¹ Settlement Agreement, §§ 4(a)(2) & 9(b). The PAGA statute recognizes that a plaintiff employee may pursue or recover other remedies and relief available to the plaintiff employee under state or federal law through an action under PAGA. See, Cal. Lab. Code § 2699(k)(1) (formerly Cal. Lab. Code § 2699(g)(1)). As such, it is appropriate for Plaintiff to receive a payment for her broader individual release of claims.

of the cases in order to enforce the California Labor Code on behalf of the State of California and for the benefit of other PAGA Members. Plaintiffs discussed their employment with their counsel, gathered and produced relevant documents and information, and provided the facts and evidence necessary to attempt to prove the allegations.⁶² Plaintiffs were available whenever their counsel needed them and tried to obtain and provide documents and information that would aid in the litigation of the PAGA claim and pursuit of recovery on behalf of the State of California and PAGA Members.⁶³

IX. CONCLUSION

For the reasons discussed above and in the accompanying declarations, the Court is respectfully requested to approve the Settlement, including the plan of allocation and distribution of the Total Settlement Amount.
