1 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

2 I. INTRODUCTION

3 Plaintiffs Albert Thompkins and Natalie Katie Bernice Johnson (“Plaintiffs” or “Class
4 Representatives”) respectfully moves for final approval of a $975,000.00 non-reversionary, Gross
5 Settlement Amount (“GSA”) memorialized in the Parties’ Class and PAGA Action Settlement 6 Agreement and Class Notice (“Agreements”, “Settlement Agreement” or “S.A.”) which after 7 deductions for attorneys’ fees and costs, the Class Representative Service Awards, Settlement 8 Administration fees, and the payment to the LWDA, will provide an estimated Net Settlement 9 Fund (“NSF”) to the participating Class Members of approximately $ as follows:

10

	Total Amount
Gross Settlement Fund	$975,000.00
Attorneys’ Fees (1/3 of GSA)	$325,000.00
Actual Litigation Costs	$37,118.14
Administrator Costs	$30,000.00
PAGA Penalty	$100,000.00
Class Representative Service Awards	$20,000.00
Net Class Settlement Amount	$511,889.26¹

17 The Settlement was preliminarily approved on October 3, 2025. On January 30, 2026 the 18 Court-approved Notice Packet (consisting of the Notice of Class Action and PAGA Settlement, 19 Change of Address form, and pre-printed return envelope) was sent to 4,163 Class Members via 20 U.S. First Class Mail.² Through these means, the Notice Packet informed the Class Members of 21 their rights and benefits under the Settlement, including their estimated Settlement Payments if 22 they did not request exclusion, and the March 31, 2026 deadline to dispute workweeks, request 23 exclusion, or object to the Settlement.³ Following the March 31, 2026 deadline, one (1) objection
24 has been raised and one (1) Class Member opted out. These results demonstrate the overall

1 tremendous support for this Settlement which represents a 99.98% participation rate.⁴ As a result 2 of the successful Notice campaign, the compendium of information available to the Parties and 3 their counsel, and Class Counsel's and Class Members' support for this Settlement as fair and 4 reasonable, it now merits final approval.

5 II. RELEVANT PROCEDURAL HISTORY AND FACTUAL BACKGROUND

6 For a discussion of relevant procedural history and facts regarding this case, please see the 7 Declaration of James Hawkins In Support of Final Approval ("Hawkins Decl.") at paragraphs 2 to 8.

8 III. SUMMARY OF SETTLEMENT AND NOTICE PROCESS

9 Under the preliminarily-approved Settlement, Defendant will pay $975,000.00 ("Gross 10 Settlement Amount" or "GSA") for the release of Class Members' claims, which are only those 11 claims actually alleged in the action or that could have been alleged based on the facts stated in 12 the operative Complaint, consistent with principles of res judicata. (See, Rangel v. PLS Check 13 Cashers of California, Inc., 899 F.3d 1106 (9th Cir. 2018).⁵ Further key terms include:

14 "Class Members" means "All current and former non-exempt employees employed by 15 Host in California at any of the Airports⁶ during the time period of January 30, 2019 through May 16 1, 2025. (Settlement Agreement ¶¶ 1.5, 1.6, 1.13). Defendant represents there are approximately 17 4,250 in the Class Period.

18 "Aggrieved Employees" means "All current and former non-exempt employees employed 19 by Host in California at any of the Airports during the time period of March 25, 2020, to the date 20 of May 1, 2025. (Settlement Agreement ¶¶ 1.4, 1.5, 1.33). Defendant represents there are 21 approximately 3,054 Aggrieved Employees.

24
25 ⁴ Id., ¶¶ 14-15.

26 ⁵This Motion occasionally cites federal case law and commentaries thereon which construe authority for conditional 27 class certification and settlement approval in California courts. The California Supreme Court has authorized and 28 urged California's trial courts to use federal resources for guidance in considering class issues. Vasquez v. Superior Court, 4 Cal.3d 800, 821 (1971); Green v. Obledo, 29 Cal.3d 126, 145-46 (1981).

⁶ "Airports" means Fresno Yosemite International Airport, John Wayne International Airport, Oakland International Airport, Palm Springs Airport, Sacramento International Airport, San Diego International Airport, San Francisco International Airport and/or San Jose International Airport." (Settlement Agreement ¶ 1.5).

1 Class Counsel Award. The Settlement provides for an attorneys’ fees and costs award of 2 1/3 of GSA (i.e. $325,000.00), a typical percentage⁷ in the resolution of common fund wage and 3 hour cases. Class Counsel have devoted numerous hours to and faced significant risk in the 4 prosecution of these matters and, more importantly, made a substantial fund available to a large 5 number of otherwise-underrepresented, low-paid workers. Class Counsel also incurred ordinary 6 litigation costs over the past 5 years and now seeks costs of $37,118.14. Notably, this amount 7 does not account for additional future expenses in overseeing the settlement process, making 8 appearances, filing court documents, ensuring claims administration compliance with this Court’s 9 orders, responding to Class Members, etc. Since costs in the amount of $37,118.14 are reasonable 10 and served to benefit the Class, they warrant reimbursement. (Settlement Agreement ¶ 3.2.2).

11 PAGA Payment Amount. The Settlement also provides for $100,000.00 to be paid to settle 12 any and all claims for which penalties under PAGA may be sought or are otherwise available. Of 13 the $100,000.00 PAGA Payment Amount, 75% will be paid to the LWDA in the amount of 14 $75,000.00. The remaining 25% will be paid to the Aggrieved Employees in the amount of 15 $25,000.00. (Settlement Agreement ¶ 3.2.5).

16 Class Representative Service Award. The Settlement also provides for a Class 17 Representative Service Payment as a service payment to the Plaintiffs for their role as Class 18 Representatives in the amount of $10,000.00 each (totaling $20,000.00) for their time, risk and 19 effort in bringing the lawsuit, representing the large Class, and in consideration for the claims 20 released.⁸ The proposed $20,000.00 Service Award is also reasonable given the minimal impact 21 these amounts will have on any settling Class Member’s level of recovery. (Settlement Agreement 22 ¶ 3.2.1).

24
25 ⁷See, e.g., Davis v. The Money Store, Inc., Case No. 99AS01716 (Sacramento Super. Ct. 2000)
26 (33 1/3 % fee award); Haitz v. Meyer, et al., No. 572968-3 (Alameda Super. Ct., 1990) (45% fee award); Ibrahimi v.
27 Walgreen, (Contra Costa Super. Ct. 2019) Case No. MSC16-02120) (35% fee award in wage and hour class action);
28 Rippee v. Boston Mkt. Corp., 2006 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 101136 (S.D. Cal. Oct. 10, 2006) (40% fee award); Exhibit “D” (Compendium of Settlement Item Awards).

⁸ Hawkins Decl., ¶ 30; See generally Declaration of Albert Thompkins In Support of Final Approval (“Thompkins Decl.”) and Declaration of Natalie Bernice Johnson In Support of Final Approval (“Johnson Decl.”).

1 Settlement Administration Costs. The settlement administration costs of $30,000.00 are 2 reasonable given the size of the Class and the work required to send the Notice, process settlement
3 checks, set up and administer a settlement website, communicate extensively with Class Members
4 and Class Counsel, and perform post Final Approval administration.⁹

5 Results of the Notice Process. In accordance with the Court’s granting of preliminary 6 approval, the Settlement Administrator sent the Notices by first class mail to all Class Members at 7 their last known addresses, updated using the National Change of Address (“NCOA”) Database.
8 As detailed below, when Notices were returned by the post office, the claims administrator 9 researched further, performed “skip traces” and then, when possible, re-mailed those Notices to 10 better mailing addresses. Only 80 Notice Packets out of the 4,163 Notices were deemed 11 undeliverable – an excellent result in wage and hour actions.¹⁰ The deadline for Settlement Class 12 Members to exclude themselves or object to the Settlement was March 31, 2026. Only one (1)
13 Class Member opted out and one (1) Class Members objected, resulting in 99.98%
14 participation.¹¹

15 The Participating Class Members are expected to receive an estimated, average Individual 16 Settlement Payment of $122.54 with the highest Individual Settlement Payment currently estimated to be 17 $844.04 and the lowest estimated to be $2.60.¹² The average PAGA Payment to the eligible 18 Aggrieved Employees is currently estimated to be $8.19 with the highest PAGA Share currently 19 estimated to be $47.95 with the lowest estimated to be $0.36.¹³ These are significant individual 20 recoveries, particularly in light of the risks of litigation.

21 IV. THE SETTLEMENT MERITS FINAL APPROVAL

22 When evaluating a class action settlement under California Code of Civil Procedure § 382 23 for final approval, a court’s inquiry focuses upon whether the settlement is “fair, adequate and 24 reasonable.” Wershba v. Apple Computer Inc., 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 244-245 (2004); Dunk v. Ford 25 Motor Co., 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1801 (1996). A settlement is “fair, adequate and reasonable”

26 ⁹ Tran Decl., ¶ 20.

27 ¹⁰ Id., ¶ 10.

28 ¹¹ Id., ¶¶ 12-15.

¹² Id., ¶ 12.

¹³ Id., ¶ 19.

1 and, therefore, merits final approval when “the interests of the class are better served by the 2 settlement than by further litigation.” Manual for Complex Litigation (4th ed. 2008) § 21.61, 462 3 (“Manual”). These conditions are met here.

4 While the Court possesses “broad discretion” in determining whether a proposed class 5 action settlement is fair, the Court’s inquiry “must be limited to the extent necessary to reach a 6 reasoned judgment that the agreement is not the product of fraud or overreaching by, or collusion 7 between, the negotiation Parties, and that the settlement, taken as a whole, is fair, reasonable and 8 adequate to all concerned.” Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th at 1801 (quoting Officers for Justice Civil Serv.
9 Comm’n, 688 F.2d 615, 625 (9th Cir. 1982)). A court’s approval of a class action settlement will 10 only be reversed for a clear abuse of discretion. Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th at 1802.

11 A. THE SETTLEMENT IS PRESUMED FAIR

12 “[A] presumption of fairness exists where: (1) the settlement is reached through arm’s-13 length bargaining; (2) investigation and discovery are sufficient to allow counsel and the court to 14 act intelligently; (3) counsel is experienced in similar litigation; and (4) the percentage of objectors 15 is small. Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th at 1802 (citing Newberg & Conte, Newberg on Class Actions 16 (2002) § 11.41, pp. 11-91). Here, the Settlement clearly meets these points and, as this Court noted 17 in its preliminary approval Order, it is, thus, presumed fair.

18 The Settlement was reached through arm’s-length negotiations. On October 12, 2023, the 19 Parties participated in an all-day mediation presided over by Hon. Amy Hogue, Ret., and again on 20 March 28, 2024, but were unable to reach a resolution. After the two mediation sessions, and with 21 the help of the mediator, subsequent negotiations resulted in the class-wide resolution of this matter 22 to fully resolve the Class and PAGA Actions.¹⁴ Finally, as discussed infra, one Class Members 23 objected, and one opted out. Accordingly, the presumption that the Settlement is fair applies. See 24 In re Bluetooth Headset Prod. Liab. Litig., 654 F.3d 935, 948 (9th Cir. 2011) (the presence of a 25 neutral mediator is a factor weighing in favor of finding of no collusion); In re Apple Computer,

12 B. AS THIS COURT PREVIOUSLY FOUND, THE RELEVANT CRITERIA
13 SUPPORT FINAL APPROVAL

14 California Courts consider several factors in deciding whether to grant final approval of a 15 class action settlement, including (1) the amount offered in settlement, (2) the risks inherent in 16 continued litigation, (3) the complexity, expense, and likely duration of the litigation absent 17 settlement, (4) the extent of discovery completed and the stage of the proceedings when settlement 18 was reached, (5) the experience and views of class counsel, and (6) the reaction of class members.
19 Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th at 1801; Wershba, 91 Cal.App.4th at 244-45; Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, 20 Inc., 168 Cal.App.4th 116, 119 (2008). Here, evaluation on each of these factors favors final 21 approval of the Settlement.

22 1. The Value of the Settlement and the Risks Inherent in Continued
23 Litigation Favor Final Approval

24 In seeking approval, a settling party must provide sufficient information to “enable the 25 court to make an independent assessment of the adequacy of the settlement terms.” Kullar v.
26 Foot Locker Retail, Inc., 168 Cal. App. 4th 116, 131-32 (2008). However, “[i]t is well-settled 27 law that a cash settlement amounting to only a fraction of the potential recovery will not per se 28 render the settlement inadequate or unfair.” See Officers for Justice v. Civil Serv. Comm’n of City & Cty. of San Francisco, 688 F.2d 615, 628 (9th Cir. 1982). “The proposed settlement is

1 not to be judged against a hypothetical or speculative measure of what might have been achieved
2 by the negotiators.” Id. at 625. “Estimates of a fair settlement figure are tempered by factors 3 such as the risk of losing at trial, the expense of litigating the case, and the expected delay in 4 recovery (often measured in years).” In re Toys R Us-Delaware, Inc.-- Fair & Accurate Credit 5 Transactions Act (FACTA) Litig., 295 F.R.D. 438, 453 (C.D. Cal. 2014). In other words, in 6 valuing the claims within a realistic range of outcomes, the settling plaintiff should discount the 7 value of the settled claims for risks such as changes in the law, the probability of success, and 8 other factors.¹⁵

9 Settling parties are not, however, required to partake in a hypothetical accounting 10 exercise: “Kullar does not ... require any such explicit statement of [maximum] value; it 11 requires a record which allows ‘an understanding of the amount that is in controversy and the 12 realistic range of outcomes of the litigation.’” Munoz v. BCI Coca-Cola Bottling Co., 186 Cal.
13 App. 4th 399, 409-10 (2010) (quoting Kullar, 168 Cal. App. 4th at 120 (emphasis added)).
14 Overall, “the most important factor” in determining “whether a settlement is fair and reasonable” 15 is the “strength of the case for plaintiffs on the merits, balanced against the amount offered in 16 the settlement.” Id. at 409 n.6 (quoting Kullar, 168 Cal. App. 4th at 130). As explained in detail 17 below, the Gross Settlement Amount is within the range of reasonableness in light of the nature 18 and magnitude of the claims being settled and the various potential impediments to recovery.

19 Defendant denies any wrongdoing and denies liability with respect to the matters alleged

22 ¹⁵ Federal district courts also recognize that there is an inherent “range of reasonableness” in determining 23 whether to approve a settlement “which recognizes the uncertainties of law and fact in any particular case and the 24 concomitant risks and costs necessarily inherent in taking any litigation to completion.” In re World Trade Ctr.
25 Lower Manhattan Disaster Site Litig., 66 F. Supp. 3d 477, 482 (S.D.N.Y. 2015); see also Nat’l Rural Telecomm.
26 Coop. v. Directv, Inc., 221 F.R.D. 523, 527 (C.D. Cal. 2004) (“well-settled law that a proposed settlement may be 27 acceptable even though it amounts to only a fraction of the potential recovery”); In re Global Crossing Sec. and 28 ERISA Litig., 225 F.R.D. 436, 461 (S.D.N.Y. 2004) (“settlement amount’s ratio to the maximum potential recovery need not be the sole, or even dominant, consideration when assessing settlement’s fairness”); In re IKON Office Solutions, Inc. Sec. Litig., 194 F.R.D. 166, 184 (E.D. Pa. 2000) (“the fact that a proposed settlement constitutes a relatively small percentage of the most optimistic estimate does not, in itself, weigh against the settlement; rather the percentage should be considered in light of strength of the claims”); Officers for Just. v. Civ. Serv. Comm’n of City & Cty. of San Francisco, 688 F.2d 615, 628 (9th Cir. 1982) (it is “the complete package, taken as a whole rather than the individual component parts, that must be examined for overall fairness”).

1 in the Complaint and believe that they have valid defenses to all of Plaintiffs' claims. Defendant 2 further contends that they complied with all wage and hour laws applicable to the employment 3 of Plaintiffs and other Class Members. To date, no class has been certified and no court has 4 made any findings that Defendant engaged in any wrongdoing or in any wrongful conduct, or 5 otherwise acted improperly or in violation of any law, rule or regulation with respect to any of 6 the issues presented in this action. Defendant contends it implemented written policies and 7 maintained practices that complied with the requirements of the California Labor Code and 8 applicable California Wage Orders. Defendant contends all minimum wages, overtime wages, 9 and double time wages were paid in compliance with California law and applicable California 10 Wage Orders. In addition, an individualized investigation into the circumstances surrounding 11 failure to pay wages is warranted because such claims can only be decided on a case-by-case 12 basis, common issues do not predominate and class certification is neither superior nor proper.
13 Defendant contends that Plaintiffs and Class Members were not subject to any bonuses or other 14 remuneration requiring recalculation of the regular rate for overtime. Lastly, Defendant asserts 15 it maintained a policy of no off the clock work, and the facts and circumstances regarding off 16 the clock were not supported in this case. (Hawkins Decl., ¶¶ 13, 22-41.)

18 Defendant contends Plaintiffs could not successfully argue that derivative waiting time 19 penalties were owed. Further, Plaintiffs would still face a difficult, if not impossible, hurdle to 20 overcome the willfulness threshold required by Labor Code section 203. Plaintiffs evaluated 21 and considered the former Class Members who have separated from Defendant's employ during 22 the Class Period. Plaintiffs applied the three-year statute of limitations and argued that the 23 employer's underlying violation was willful. Defendant disagreed with this analysis, with 24 respect to the "willfulness" prong and argued that Plaintiffs could not show willfulness. The 25 considerable risk that Defendant could defeat certification and prevail on its defenses defeating 26 any and all recovery to the class warranted a compromise of the class claims. Similarly, 27 Defendant contend that they have complied with all such requirements with respect to payroll 28

1 records and wage statements at all times. Further, Plaintiffs would still face a difficult, if not 2 impossible, hurdle to overcome the willfulness threshold required by Labor Code section 226.
3 (Id. ¶ 37.)

4 Defendant contends its practices have been in compliance with applicable law as set forth 5 above, and that Plaintiff has no basis for asserting a claim under the UCL. (Id.)

6 Accounting for the risks of continued litigation and impediments to discovery, Plaintiffs 7 determined that a settlement amounting to $975,000.00 was fair and reasonable, and accounts 8 for an approximate 18% of total possible damages and penalties and courts have routinely 9 approved settlements that provided a similar discounted range of the maximum potential 10 recovery. (Hawkins Decl. ¶ 40). See, e.g., In re Warfarin Sodium Antitrust Litig., 212 F.R.D.

5 v. Katz, 447 F.2d 431, 433 (5th Cir. 1971); Kullar, 168 Cal.App.4th 116, 120 (2008). As California 6 jurists have recognized, there exists “an overriding public policy favoring settlement of class 7 actions.” Ferguson v. Lieff, Cabraser, Heimann & Bernstein, 30 Cal.4th 1037, 1054 (2003) (citing 8 Franklin v. Kayrpo Corp., 884 F.2d 1222, 1229 (9th Cir. 1989) (“public policy favor[s] the 9 compromise and settlement of disputes”)). The alternative to a class action, namely numerous 10 individual actions, could tax private and judicial resources for years. Given the relatively modest, 11 though not inconsequential, amount of damages individual Class Members allegedly incurred, it 12 would be uneconomical to secure individual legal representation, even for those with the resources 13 to do so. But, here, the Settlement provides all Class Members, regardless of their means, the 14 opportunity of monetary recovery in a prompt and efficient manner, without the risk of the Court 15 denying class certification and/or finding no liability, and these workers recovering nothing at all.

16 Class Counsel also considered that, even if Plaintiffs prevailed, on both class certification 17 and liability, the remaining processes could be lengthy and costly, potentially including appeals.
18 As such, even a successful judicial resolution at the trial court level can be just the beginning of a 19 lengthy, expensive process, stalling payments to class members for years. This judicial purgatory 20 is compounded by the risk of adverse appellate rulings, which would remand the action to the trial 21 court for further litigation, possibly with negative precedent.¹⁷ The complexity, expense, and delay 22 of continued litigation in this matter supports final approval of the Settlement.

1 D. THE DISCOVERY AND FACTUAL INVESTIGATION SUPPORT
2 APPROVAL

3 The Settlement comes at a point in the litigation where counsel for Plaintiffs and Defendant 4 had clear views of the strengths and weaknesses of their respective cases. “[T]he extent of 5 discovery completed and the stage of the proceedings” are factors courts consider in determining 6 the fairness, adequacy and reasonableness of a settlement.” Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th at 1794. Class 7 Counsel conducted extensive pre-filing due diligence and engaged in informal discovery. The 8 parties also engaged in substantial discovery, including Defendant’s production of all of its written 9 wage and hour policies, and data consisting of time records, payroll records, and other data for 10 employees of Defendant, including tens of thousands of lines of data and hundreds of pages of 11 other employment related documents. Undoubtedly, the parties have thoroughly investigated, and 12 are sufficiently knowledgeable of the facts to form educated assessments regarding their respective 13 positions and the value of the case.¹⁸

14 All of this was confirmed by the extensive mediation, during which all of the claims and 15 defenses were thoroughly argued and vetted by the experienced mediator, which led directly to the 16 mediator’s proposal that is the basis of the agreed settlement.

17 E. THE EXPERIENCE AND VIEWS OF COUNSEL FAVOR FINAL
18 APPROVAL

19 Class Counsel supports the Settlement as fair, reasonable, and adequate, and believes it in 20 the best interest of the Class as a whole.¹⁹ Class Counsel has substantial experience prosecuting 21 complex litigation and/or class action lawsuits, has prosecuted a multitude of such cases involving 22 the same issues as presented here.²⁰ As discussed above, Class Counsel is intimately familiar with 23 the litigation, having conducted extensive investigation and negotiation on behalf of the class. The

4 F. THE CLASS MEMBERS' REACTION FAVORS FINAL APPROVAL

5 Finally, when determining if a settlement is reasonable, a court looks to “the reaction of 6 class members to the proposed settlement.” Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th at 1801; Wershba, 91 7 Cal.App.4th at 244-245; Kullar, 168 Cal.App.4th at 119. Here, Class Members’ response to the 8 Settlement has been favorable; there is only one opt out and one objection. The result speaks volumes 9 about the fairness, reasonableness, and adequacy of this Settlement. Class Members’ reaction thus 10 shows tremendous support for the Settlement. Accordingly, the Settlement as a whole is presumed to 11 be fair, reasonable, and adequate, and the Court should grant final approval of the Settlement in its entirety.
12 Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th at 1802.

14 V. THE COURT-ORDERED NOTICE PROGRAM IS CONSTITUTIONALLY 15 SOUND AND HAS BEEN FULLY IMPLEMENTED

16 California statutory and case law vests the Court with discretion in fashioning an 17 appropriate notice program. Cal. Civ. Code § 1781; Cartt v. Superior Court, 50 Cal.App.3d 960, 18 973-974 (1975). To protect the rights of absent class members, the parties must provide the class 19 with the best notice practicable, but due process does not require actual notice to parties who 20 cannot reasonably be identified. See, Phillips Petroleum Co. v. Shutts, 472 U.S. 797, 811-812
21 (1985); Eisen v. Carlisle & Jacquelin, 417 U.S. 156 (U.S. 1974); Manual § 21.311, n. 882 at 432; 22 Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 3.766(d).

23 The Court-approved Notice program met this standard and has now been fully 24 implemented. The Settlement Administrator mailed the Notice Package to the entire class on 25 January 30, 2026. Only 80 Notice Packets out of the 4,163 mailed Notices were deemed 26 undeliverable. This is unquestionably an excellent result.²¹ Moreover, the singular objection and 27

1 the single opt-out request to the Settlement demonstrates that the Class does overall support the 2 Settlement. It is a good result for those Class Members who were harmed.

3 VI. AN AWARD OF ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS IS APPROPRIATE

5 A. A COMMON FUND FEE AWARD IS WARRANTED

6 Public policy promotes approval of fee requests since “[t]he function of an award of 7 attorney’s fees is to encourage the bringing of meritorious...claims which might otherwise be 8 abandoned because of the financial imperatives surrounding the hiring of competent counsel.” City 9 of Riverside v. Rivera, 477 U.S. 561, 578 (1986) (internal quotation marks and citations omitted).
10 Additionally, attorneys’ fees are awarded based on the value of the common benefit made available 11 to the class, regardless of whether the settlement contains a reversion provision. Williams v. MGM- 12 Pathe Communs. Co., 129 F.3d 1026, 1027 (9th Cir. 1997); Boeing Co. v. Van Gemert, 44 U.S.
13 472, 480-81 (1980). In this case, there will be no reversion of any kind to the Defendant, further 14 rendering the fees request appropriate. Specifically, the Settlement provides for an attorneys’ fee 15 award of 1/3 of the Gross Settlement Amount (i.e. $325000.00), a typical percentage in the 16 resolution of common fund cases.²² Class Counsel has devoted numerous hours to and faced 17 significant risk²³ in the prosecution of this matter and, more importantly, made a substantial fund 18 available to a large number of otherwise-underrepresented, low-paid workers.

19 The “common fund” method, or “percentage-of-the-benefit” analysis, calculates attorneys’ 20 fees based on a percentage of the common benefit to the class. In re Consumer Privacy Cases, 175
21 Cal.App.4th 545 (2009); Serrano v. Priest, 20 Cal.3d 25 (1977). In cases where a common fund 22 has been created—i.e., where each class member will “receive a mathematically ascertainable

²³ Class Counsel undertook this matter solely on a contingent basis, with no guarantee regarding the potential duration of the litigation or even the ultimate reimbursement of fees or costs. Looking, ad hoc, at the fact that if a settlement did occur, that doesn’t change the risks accepted at the inception of the case or at any point along its timeline. Nor, looking more broadly, does it account for the countless cases that do not settle, do not settle well and/or are dismissed after sometimes thousands of hours of work thereon.

1 payment”²⁴—California state courts,²⁵ the Ninth Circuit²⁶ and the United States Supreme Court²⁷ 2 agree that awarding attorneys’ fees as a percentage of the common fund is the proper method.²⁸

3 The Serrano factors further justify the common fund fee award.²⁹ Serrano explained the 4 trial courts may consider additional factors when considering a fee award: (1) time and labor 5 required, (2) the contingent nature of the fee agreement, (3) extent to which the nature of the 6 litigation precluded other employment by the attorneys, (4) experience, reputation, and ability of 7 the attorneys who performed services in the litigation and their displayed skill, (5) amount involved 8 and the results obtained, and (6) the informed consent of the client to the fee agreement. Serrano,

10 1. Time and Labor

11 Class Counsel has invested considerable amounts of time and labor in litigating the Class’ 12 claims, incurring approximately 473.40 hours combined in prosecuting this litigation.³⁰ In so 13 doing, Class Counsel drew on their experience litigating wage and hour class actions against 14 employers very much like this one in order to minimize wasted effort. Class Counsel’s efforts 15 include, inter alia, conducting written discovery (both formal and informal), production and 16 review of documents, obtaining data for mediation, interviews with putative Class Members, a 17 mediation session and continued hard-fought negotiations.³¹

21 ²⁷The United States Supreme Court has always computed common fund fee awards on a percentage of the fund basis.
22 Boeing Co. v. Van Gemert, 444 U.S. 472, 100 S.Ct. 745 (1980); Central Railroad & Banking Co. of Georgia v. Pettus,

23 ²⁸A lodestar approach (enhanced by a multiplier) can be used as an alternative to the common fund theory when “there 24 is no way to gauge the net value of the settlement or any percentage thereof.” Hanlon v. Chrysler Corp., 150 F.3d 1011, 1029 (9th Cir. 1998).

25 ²⁹*Serrano v. Priest*, 20 Cal.3d 25 (1977); Dunk v. Ford Motor Co., 48 Cal.App.4th 1794 (1996).

26 ³⁰Hawkins Decl., ¶ 54; Bibiyan Decl., ¶ 17.

27 ³¹Attorney fee awards in common funds cases are intended to compensate class counsel for work performed both 28 before and after the date of judgment. In nearly every class action, the efforts during litigation and in pursuing approval of the settlement are only part of the overall work picture. Post-judgment, class counsel is required to stay in close contact with the claims administrator to ensure payment of the settlement proceeds, to communicate with class members, with their CPAs (regarding the tax treatment of settlement proceeds), even with other attorneys, to report compliance with the terms of the Court’s final approval order thereon and myriad other tasks. Although rarely discussed in connection with requests for attorneys’ fees and costs, it’s not unusual for some of these efforts to take place years after judgment. With a class of this magnitude, these are efforts that will assuredly be required by Class Counsel.

1 2. Contingent Nature of Fees, Preclusion of Other Employment and 2 Informed Consent of Plaintiff

3 The fee award is further supported by the contingency risk assumed in prosecuting the 4 case.³² The California Supreme Court has recognized that attorney fee awards should be enhanced 5 to compensate attorneys for the risks of loss involved in contingency cases. Ketchum v. Moses, 24 6 Cal.4th 1122, 1133 (2001); Graciano v. Robinson Ford Sales, Inc., 144 Cal.App.4th 140, 154 7 (2006); See also, In re Consumer Privacy Cases, 175 Cal.App.4th at 556.

8 Class Counsel undertook this matter solely on a contingent basis, with no guarantee 9 regarding the potential duration of the litigation or the ultimate recovery of fees or costs. While 10 Class Counsel believes the claims in this case are meritorious, it also recognized the factual and 11 legal challenges involved in complex litigation, generally, as well as the specific risks posed by 12 the facts in this case. While attorneys who represent corporations are routinely paid on an hourly 13 basis, plaintiffs in wage and hour cases can rarely afford to pay their attorneys by the hour, 14 especially if they expect to be represented by a law firm well known for achieving good results.
15 As firms committed to wage and hour class actions, including the one at hand, Class Counsel must 16 accept these cases on a wholly contingent basis, with no guarantee of recovery of fees, or even the 17 reimbursement of litigation costs. As California case law recognizes, Class Counsel's commitment 18 to this litigation should not be assessed in a vacuum.³³ The 473.40 hours Class Counsel spent on 19 litigation, investigation and settlement efforts in this case prevented them from pursuing other 20 hourly or contingency fee-based work.

21 Therefore, the agreement of Plaintiffs to enter contingency fee arrangements supports the 22 requested attorney fee award. Glendora, 155 Cal.App.3d at 472. Here, Plaintiffs entered into

1 consensual contingency fee agreements and expressly endorse Class Counsel's request for 2 attorneys' fees and costs. Additionally, Class Members have been notified of the requested 3 attorneys' fees and costs by means of the Notice.³⁴ In light of the work performed, risks assumed 4 and results achieved, it is clear that Class Counsel's fee request is supported and should be 5 approved.

6 3. Experience of Class Counsel

7 The experience and ability of Class Counsel were essential to the settlement achieved here.
8 Class Counsel developed an extensive factual record, convinced Defendant of its exposure, and 9 expertly negotiated the terms of the Settlement. Only counsel who have a successful history 10 litigating these types of cases and who are well versed in class action litigation and wage and hour 11 law in this jurisdiction could have effectively marshaled the evidence and presented it to achieve 12 this Settlement.³⁵ "The overall result and benefit to the class from the litigation is the most critical 13 factor in granting a fee award." In re Omnivision Techs., 559 F. Supp. 2d 1036, 1046 (N.D. Cal.
14 2007). Here, Class Counsel was still able to secure a great result for Class Members despite the 15 risks in this case.

16 B. THE LODESTAR METHODOLOGY ALSO JUSTIFIES APPROVAL OF 17 THE REQUESTED FEES

18 While the percentage-of-the-benefit approach is endorsed as the better approximation of the 19 workings of the marketplace than the lodestar approach, courts may also use the lodestar method to "cross-20 check" the results of the other.³⁶ The lodestar is calculated based on reasonable hours at reasonable 21 prevailing hourly rates for the attorneys, and counsel is entitled to compensation for every hour reasonably

23 ³⁴ Litigants are familiar with one-third fee recoveries being the norm—this percentage (or higher awards of 35% or 24 40%) being common in employment, personal injury and other areas of litigation within the commonplace experience 25 of these class members. Also, as suggested by the compendium of examples cited throughout this brief, it is a judicial benchmark as well. Indeed, "[e]mpirical studies show that...fee awards in class actions average around one-third of the recovery." 4 Newberg § 14.6

26 ³⁵ Hawkins Decl., ¶¶ 46-50; Bibiyan Decl., ¶¶ 9-13.

27 ³⁶ Laffitte, supra, 1 Cal.5th at 505 (explaining that "[a] lodestar cross-check is simply a quantitative method for bringing a measure 28 of the time spent by counsel into the trial court's reasonableness determination" and "the lodestar calculation . . . does not override the trial court's primary determination of the fee as a percentage" and "does not impose an absolute maximum or minimum on the potential fee award."); see also, e.g., Vizcaino, 290 F.3d at 1050 ("[W]hile the primary basis of the fee award remains the percentage method, the lodestar may provide a useful perspective on the reasonableness of a given percentage award.").

1 spent on the matter. Ketchum v. Moses (2001) 24 Cal.4th 1122, 1131-33. The reasonableness of hours is 2 assessed by “the entire course of the litigation, including pretrial matters, settlement negotiations, discovery, 3 litigation tactics, and the trial itself[.]” Vo v. Las Virgenes Municipal Water Dist. (2000) 79 Cal.App.4th 4 440, 447.

5 Class Counsel’s fee request is reasonable when calculated using the lodestar method.
6 Under the lodestar method, a base fee amount is calculated from a compilation of time reasonably 7 spent on the case and the reasonable hourly compensation of the attorney. Serrano, 20 Cal. 3d at 8 48. The court then may enhance this lodestar figure by a “multiplier” to account for a range of 9 factors, such as the novelty and difficulty of the case, its contingent nature, and the degree of 10 success achieved. Id. at 49; see also Ketchum v. Moses, 24 Cal.4th 1122, 1132-36 (2001); Thayer 11 v. Wells Fargo Bank, 92 Cal.App.4th 819, 834 (2001), [“[t]here is no...rule limiting the factors 12 that may justify an exercise of judicial discretion to [adjust the] lodestar”].

13 Here, Class Counsel spent approximately 473.40 hours combined litigating this matter and 14 finalizing the Settlement for a lodestar value of approximately $382,008.00.³⁷ In light of the facts and 15 circumstances of this matter, as well as the results that Class Counsel have achieved, Class Counsel have 16 spent a reasonable number of hours performing work on this matter. In addition, Class Counsel will 17 continue to perform work on this matter through the date of final approval and in connection with the 18 implementation of the Settlement. Where “exceptional effort produced an exceptional benefit,” a fee award 19 may be enhanced. Thayer v. 92 Cal. App. 4th at 838; In re Vitamin Cases, 110 Cal. App. 4th 1041, 1058-20 1059 (2003) (high-quality work from counsel supports multiplier). Here, Class Counsel’s combined 21 lodestar exceeds the requested $325,000.00 amount, and are not seeking to apply a multiplier. Therefore, 22 the requested attorneys’ fees in the amount of $325,000.00 is reasonable warranted.

23 24 C. CLASS COUNSEL’S COSTS ARE REASONABLE

25 Over the course of this litigation, Class Counsel incurred ordinary litigation costs over the 26 past five years totaling $37,118.14. While the Settlement provided a ceiling for litigation costs of 27

28 ³⁷ Hawkins Decl., ¶ 53; Bibiyan Decl., ¶17 .

1 $45,000.00, Class Counsel kept costs at bay and are now respectfully seeking litigation costs in 2 the amount of $37,118.14.³⁸ Notably, this amount does not account for additional future expenses 3 in overseeing the settlement process, making appearances, filing court documents, ensuring claims 4 administration compliance with this Court's orders, responding to Class Members, etc. Since these 5 costs are reasonable and serve to benefit the class, they warrant reimbursement.³⁹

6 VII. REPRESENTATIVE PLAINTIFF DESERVES THE PROPOSED
7 ENHANCEMENT AWARD

8 The Settlement further provides for, and Plaintiffs now requests and Service Award 9 payments of $10,000.00 each totaling $20,000.00. A Service Award to the lead Plaintiffs in class 10 action litigations are commonplace and are "intended to compensate class representatives for work 11 done on behalf of the class, to make up for financial or reputational risk undertaken in bringing the 12 action".⁴⁰ Service Awards "are intended to advance public policy by encouraging individuals to 13 come forward and perform their civic duty in protecting the rights of the class and to compensate 14 class representatives for their time, effort and inconvenience ... Federal authority is in accord."⁴¹

15 Courts in California may consider the following factors in determining the appropriateness 16 of such an award: (1) the risk to the class representative in commencing suit, (2) the notoriety and 17 personal difficulties encountered by the class representative, (3) the amount of time and effort 18 spent by the class representative, (4) the duration of the litigation, and (5) the personal benefit (or 19 lack thereof) enjoyed by the class representative as a result of the litigation. Van Vranken v.

452 (W.D. Pa. 1987)

25 ⁴⁰ Plaintiffs risked being "blacklisted" by other future employers for having sued this defendant in a class action.
26 As well stated by a New York Southern District Court: "[T]he fact that a plaintiff has filed a federal lawsuit is 27 searchable on the internet and may become known to prospective employers when evaluating the person . . . Even 28 where there is not a record of actual retaliation, notoriety, or personal difficulties, class representatives merit recognition for assuming the risk of such for the sake of absent class members." Guippone v. BH S&B Holdings LLC, 2011 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 126026, at 4, 20 (S.D.N.Y. Oct. 28, 2011).

omitted).

1 Atlantic Richfield Co., 901 F. Supp. 294, 299 (N.D. Cal. 1995).

2 The proposed Service Award is reasonable given the work the Plaintiffs performed on 3 behalf of fellow Class Members, the risks they faced and those continued to be faced for their 4 participation in the litigation (e.g., retaliation from future employers), and the minimal impact the 5 request will have on the amount of any class member's level of recovery. As detailed in Plaintiffs' 6 declarations, previously submitted in support of Preliminary Approval, Plaintiffs spent 7 considerable time prosecuting this action with Class Counsel. This included and was not limited 8 to frequent emails and telephone calls with counsel to address issues surrounding the 9 organizational structure of the company, job duties they and other Class Members performed, 10 production of document, responding to discovery, and communications surrounding mediation and 11 settlement.⁴²

12 VIII. REIMBURSEMENT OF ADMINISTRATION FEES IS APPROPRIATE

13 As set forth in the accompanying APEX Class Action LLC ("APEX") Declaration, the total costs 14 incurred and to be incurred by APEX for the notice and settlement administration process are $30,000.00.
15 This amount includes the total cost for services in connection with the administration of the 16 Settlement, including fees incurred and anticipated future costs for completion of the 17 administration. This amount includes the total cost for services in connection with the 18 administration of the Settlement, including fees incurred and anticipated future costs for 19 completion of the administration.⁴³

20 Accordingly, the Court should grant final approval of payment to APEX., a necessary third-party 21 for its handling of the notice and settlement process, in the amount of $30,000.00.

22 IX. CONCLUSION

23 Based upon the foregoing, Plaintiffs respectfully request the Court grant final approval of 24 the Settlement and approve Class Counsel's application for attorneys' fees and costs, the PAGA
