Case No. CIVSB2108083

*Assigned for all purposes to:
Hon. David Cohn; Dept. S-26*

[Amended as a matter of right, pursuant to Labor Code section 2699.3(a)(2)(C)]

FIRST AMENDED CLASS ACTION COMPLAINT FOR:

1. Failure to Pay Minimum Wages;
2. Failure to Pay Overtime Wages;
3. Failure to Provide Meal Periods;
4. Failure to Permit Rest Breaks;
5. Failure to Reimburse Business Expenses;
6. Failure to Provide Accurate Itemized Wage Statements;
7. Failure to Pay All Wages Due Upon Separation of Employment; and
8. Violation of Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.
9. Enforcement of Labor Code § 2698 et seq. ("PAGA")

1 Plaintiff Gerardo Velasquez, individually and on behalf of others similarly situated,
2 alleges as follows:

3 NATURE OF ACTION AND INTRODUCTORY STATEMENT

4 1. Plaintiff Gerardo Velasquez (“Plaintiff”) brings this putative class and
5 representative action pursuant to the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, Cal. Lab. Code. §
6 2698 et seq., against defendants Citrus Motors Ontario, Inc., and DOES 1 through 20, inclusive
7 (“Defendants”), on Plaintiff’s own behalf and on behalf of Defendants’ non-exempt employees
8 throughout California.

9 2. Defendants are in the automobile industry.

10 3. Through this action, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants engaged in a systematic
11 pattern of wage and hour violations under the California Labor Code and Industrial Welfare
12 Commission (“IWC”) Wage Orders, all of which contribute to Defendants’ deliberate unfair
13 competition.

14 4. Plaintiff is informed and believe, and thereon alleges, that Defendants have 15 increased their profits by violating state wage and hour laws by, among other things:

- 16 (a) failing to pay all wages (including minimum wages and overtime wages);
- 17 (b) failing to provide lawful meal periods or compensation in lieu thereof;
- 18 (c) failing to authorize or permit lawful rest breaks or provide compensation
19 in lieu thereof;
- 20 (d) failing to reimburse necessary business-related costs;
- 21 (e) failing to provide accurate itemized wage statements; and
- 22 (f) failing to pay all wages due upon separation of employment.

23 5. Plaintiff seeks monetary relief against Defendants on behalf of himself and all
24 others similarly situated in California to recover, among other things, unpaid wages, un-25 reimbursed business expenses, benefits, interest, attorneys’ fees, costs and expenses, and 26 penalties pursuant to Labor Code §§ 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 226, 226.3, 226.7, 246, 510, 512, 27 558, 1174, 1174.5, 118.12, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2751, 2800, and 2802, 2698, et
28 seq., and Code of California Civil Procedure § 1021.5.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

6. This is a class action pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 382. The monetary damages and restitution sought by Plaintiff exceed the minimal jurisdictional limits of the Superior Court and will be established according to proof at trial.

7. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to the California Constitution, Article VI, § 10, which grants the Superior Court original jurisdiction in all causes except those given by statutes to other courts. The statutes under which this action is brought do not specify any other basis for jurisdiction.

8. This Court has jurisdiction over all Defendants because, upon information and belief, they are citizens of California, have sufficient minimum contacts in California, or otherwise intentionally avail themselves of the California market so as to render the exercise of jurisdiction over them by the California courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice.

9. Venue is proper in this Court because, upon information and belief, Defendants reside, transact business, or have offices in this county, and the acts and omissions alleged herein took place in this county.

THE PARTIES

10. Plaintiff is a resident of California and worked for Defendants during the relevant time periods as alleged herein.

11. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges that at all times hereinafter mentioned, Defendants were and are subject to the Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders as employers, whose employees were and are engaged throughout this county and the State of California.

12. Plaintiff is unaware of the true names or capacities of the defendants sued herein under the fictitious names DOES 1 through 20, but will seek leave of this Court to amend this Complaint and serve such fictitiously named defendants once their names and capacities become known.

13. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that DOES 1 through 20 are or were the partners, agents, owners, shareholders, managers, or employees of Defendants at all relevant times.

14. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that each defendant acted in all respects pertinent to this action as the agent of the other defendant, carried out a joint scheme, business plan, or policy in all respects pertinent hereto, and the acts of each defendant are legally attributable to the other defendant. Furthermore, defendants in all respects acted as the employer and/or joint employer of Plaintiff and the class members.

15. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that each and all of the acts and omissions alleged herein were performed by, or are attributable to, Defendants and/or DOES 1 through 20, acting as the agent or alter ego for the other, with legal authority to act on the other's behalf. The acts of any and all Defendants were in accordance with, and represent, the official policy of Defendants.

16. At all relevant times, Defendants, and each of them, acted within the scope of such agency or employment, or ratified each and every act or omission complained of herein. At all relevant times, Defendants, and each of them, aided and abetted the acts and omissions of each and all the other Defendants in proximately causing the damages herein alleged.

17. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that each of said Defendants is in some manner intentionally, negligently, or otherwise responsible for the acts, omissions, occurrences, and transactions alleged herein.

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

18. Plaintiff brings this action under Code of Civil Procedure § 382 on Plaintiff's own behalf and on behalf of all others similarly situated who were affected by Defendants' Labor Code, Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, and IWC Wage Order violations.

19. All claims alleged herein arise under California law for which Plaintiff seeks relief authorized by California law.

20. Plaintiff's proposed class consists of and is defined as follows:

1 Class

2 All California residents currently or formerly employed by Defendant as non-
3 exempt employees in the State of California at any time between September 28,
4 2016¹ and the date of class certification (“Class”).

5 21. Plaintiff also seeks to certify the following subclasses of employees:

6 Waiting Time Subclass

7 All members of the Class who separated their employment with Defendant at any
8 time between September 18, 2017 and the date of class certification (“Waiting 9 Time Subclass”).

10 22. Plaintiff reserves the right to modify or re-define the Class, establish additional 11 subclasses, or modify or re-define any class or subclass definition as appropriate based on 12 investigation, discovery, and specific theories of liability.

13 23. Members of the Class and the Waiting Time Subclass described above will be 14 collectively referred to as “Class Members.”

15 24. There are common questions of law and fact as to the Class Members that 16 predominate over any questions affecting only individual members including, but not limited to,
17 the following:

18 (a) Whether Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and Class Members all wages 19 (including minimum wages and overtime wages) for all hours worked by 20 Plaintiff and Class Members.

21 (b) Whether Defendants required Plaintiff and Class Members to work over 22 eight (8) hours per day, over twelve (12) hours per day, and/or over forty 23 (40) hours per week and failed to pay them proper overtime compensation 24 for all overtime hours worked.

25
26
27 ¹ The statute of limitations for this matter was tolled between April 6, 2020 and October 1, 2020
28 pursuant to Cal. Rules of Court, Appendix I, Emergency Rule No. 9.

- 1 (c) Whether Defendants deprived Plaintiff and Class Members of timely meal
2 periods or required Plaintiff and Class Members to work through meal
3 periods without legal compensation.
- 4 (d) Whether Defendants deprived Plaintiff and Class Members of rest breaks
5 or required Plaintiff and Class Members to work through rest breaks.
- 6 (e) Whether Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiff and Class Members for 7 necessary business-related costs expended for the benefit of Defendants.
- 8 (f) Whether Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and Class Members 9 accurate itemized wage statements.
- 10 (g) Whether Defendants were required to and failed to pay wages weekly to 11 Plaintiff and Class Members.
- 12 (h) Whether Defendants failed to timely pay the Waiting Time Subclass all 13 wages due upon termination or within seventy-two (72) hours of 14 resignation.
- 15 (i) Whether Defendants' conduct was willful or reckless.
- 16 (j) Whether Defendants engaged in unfair business practices in violation of 17 Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

18 25. There is a well-defined community of interest in this litigation and the proposed 19 Class and subclasses are readily ascertainable:

20 (a) Numerosity: The Class Members are so numerous that joinder of all
21 members is impractical. Although the members of the Class are unknown to Plaintiff at this time,
22 on information and belief, the Class is estimated to be greater than fifty (50) individuals. The 23 identities of the Class Members are readily ascertainable by inspection of Defendants'
24 employment and payroll records.

25 (b) Typicality: Plaintiff's claims (or defenses, if any) are typical of the claims
26 (or defenses, if any) of the Class Members because Defendants' failure to comply with the 27 provisions of California's wage and hour laws entitled each Class Member to similar pay,
28 benefits, and other relief. The injuries sustained by Plaintiff are also typical of the injuries

1 sustained by the Class Members, because they arise out of and are caused by Defendants'
2 common course of conduct as alleged herein.

3 (c) Adequacy: Plaintiff will fairly and adequately represent and protect the 4 interests of all Class Members because it is in Plaintiff's best interest to prosecute the claims
5 alleged herein to obtain full compensation and penalties due. Plaintiff's attorneys, as proposed 6 class counsel, are competent and experienced in litigating large employment class actions and 7 versed in the rules governing class action discovery, certification, and settlement. Plaintiff has 8 incurred and, throughout the duration of this action, will continue to incur attorneys' fees and 9 costs that have been and will be necessarily expended for the prosecution of this action for the 10 substantial benefit of the Class Members.

11 (d) Superiority: The nature of this action makes use of class action
12 adjudication superior to other methods. A class action will achieve economies of time, effort, and 13 expense as compared with separate lawsuits and will avoid inconsistent outcomes because the 14 same issues can be adjudicated in the same manner for the entire Class and Waiting Time
15 Subclass at the same time. If appropriate, this Court can, and is empowered to, fashion methods
16 to efficiently manage this case as a class action.

17 (e) Public Policy Considerations: Employers in the State of California violate
18 employment and labor laws every day. Current employees are often afraid to assert their rights
19 out of fear of direct or indirect retaliation. Former employees are fearful of bringing actions
20 because they believe their former employers might damage their future endeavors through 21 negative references and/or other means. Class actions provide class members who are not named 22 in the complaint with a type of anonymity that allows for the vindication of their rights while 23 affording them privacy protections.

24 GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

25 26. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants employed Plaintiff and other 26 California residents as non-exempt employees or employees throughout California at 27 Defendants' California business location(s).
28

1 27. Defendants continue to employ non-exempt employees or employees within
2 California.

3 28. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that at all times herein
4 mentioned, Defendants were advised by skilled lawyers, employees, and other professionals who
5 were knowledgeable about California's wage and hour laws, employment and personnel
6 practices, and the requirements of California law.

7 29. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or
8 should have known that Plaintiff and Class Members were entitled to receive wages for all time
9 worked (including minimum wages and overtime wages) and that they were not receiving all 10 wages earned for work that was required to be performed. In violation of the Labor Code and 11 IWC Wage Orders, Plaintiff and Class Members were not paid all wages (including minimum 12 wages and overtime wages) for all hours worked, including, but not limited to requiring Plaintiff
13 and Class Members to work off-the-clock and through meal periods, rounding the hours worked
14 by Plaintiff and Class Members to Defendants' advantage, and failing include bonuses and other
15 incentive pay in the overtime rate paid to Plaintiff and Class Members.

16 30. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or
17 should have known that Plaintiff and Class Members were entitled to receive all required meal
18 periods or payment of one (1) additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's and Class Members' regular 19 rate of pay when they did not receive a timely, uninterrupted meal period. In violation of the 20 Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders, Plaintiff and Class Members did not receive all meal periods
21 or payment of one (1) additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's and Class Members' regular rate of 22 pay when they did not receive a timely, uninterrupted meal period.

23 31. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or
24 should have known that Plaintiff and Class Members were entitled to receive all rest breaks or 25 payment of one (1) additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's and Class Members' regular rate of pay
26 when a rest break was late, missed, or interrupted. In violation of the Labor Code and IWC Wage
27 Orders, Plaintiff and Class Members did not receive all rest breaks or payment of one (1)
28

1 additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's and Class Members' regular rate of pay when a rest break
2 was missed, late, interrupted, or on-duty.

3 32. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or
4 should have known that Plaintiff and Class Members were entitled to reimbursement and/or 5 indemnification for all necessary business expenditures or losses as a direct consequence of the 6 discharge of their duties, or of their obedience to the directions of Defendants. In violation of the 7 Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders, Plaintiff and Class Members incurred necessary business
8 expenses or losses, such as buying tools required for work, but were not reimbursed nor 9 indemnified of such expenses or losses that were incurred as a direct consequence of the 10 discharge of their duties, or of their obedience to the directions of Defendants.

11 33. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or 12 should have known that Plaintiff and Class Members were entitled to receive itemized wage
13 statements that accurately showed the following information pursuant to the Labor Code: (1)
14 gross wages earned; (2) total hours worked by the employee; (3) the number of piece-rate units
15 earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis; (4) all 16 deductions, provided that all deductions made on written orders of the employee may be 17 aggregated and shown as one item; (5) net wages earned; (6) the inclusive dates of the period for 18 which the employee is paid; (7) the name of the employee and only the last four digits of his or 19 her social security number or an employee identification number other than a social security
20 number; (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer; and (9) all applicable
21 hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at 22 each hourly rate by the employee. In violation of the Labor Code, Plaintiff and Class Members 23 were not provided with accurate itemized wage statements.

24 34. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or 25 should have known that the Waiting Time Subclass was entitled to timely payment of wages due
26 upon separation of employment. In violation of the Labor Code, the Waiting Time Subclass did 27 not receive payment of all wages within the permissible time periods.
28

35. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or should have known they had a duty to compensate Plaintiff and Class Members, and Defendants had the financial ability to pay such compensation but willfully, knowingly, and intentionally failed to do so in order to increase Defendants' profits.

36. Therefore, Plaintiff brings this lawsuit seeking monetary and injunctive relief against Defendants on Plaintiff's own behalf and on behalf of all Class Members to recover, among other things, unpaid wages (including minimum wages and overtime wages), unpaid meal period premium payments, unpaid rest period premium payments, unreimbursed business expenditures, interest, attorneys' fees, penalties, costs, and expenses.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

FAILURE TO PAY MINIMUM WAGES

(Violation of Labor Code §§ 1194, 1194.2, and 1197; Violation of IWC Wage Order §3-4)

37. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporates by reference all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

38. Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1197 provide that the minimum wage for employees fixed by the IWC is the minimum wage to be paid to employees, and the payment of a lesser wage than the minimum so fixed is unlawful.

39. Plaintiff and Class Members were employees entitled to the protections of Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1197.

40. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and Class Members all wages owed when Defendants did not pay for all hours worked, including, but not limited to, hours spent working off-the-clock and through meal periods while clocked out, and time rounded in Defendants' favor, among others.

41. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay at least minimum wage to Plaintiff and Class Members for all hours worked pursuant to Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1197.

42. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and Class Members the required minimum wage violates Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1197. Pursuant to these sections, Plaintiff and Class

1 Members are entitled to recover the unpaid balance of their minimum wage compensation as
2 well as interest, costs, and attorneys' fees.

3 43. Pursuant to Labor Code § 1194.2, Plaintiff and Class Members are entitled to 4 recover liquidated damages in an amount equal to the wages unlawfully unpaid and the accrued
5 interest thereon.

6 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

7 FAILURE TO PAY OVERTIME

8 (Violation of Labor Code §§ 510, 1194, and 1198; Violation of IWC Wage Order § 3)

9 44. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporates by reference all paragraphs above as
10 though fully set forth herein.

11 45. Labor Code § 1198 and the applicable IWC Wage Order provide that it is 12 unlawful to employ persons without compensating them at a rate of pay either one and one-half
13 (1½) or two (2) times the person's regular rate of pay, depending on the number of hours
14 worked by the person on a daily or weekly basis.

15 46. Specifically, the applicable IWC Wage Orders provide that Defendants are and 16 were required to pay overtime compensation to Plaintiff and Class Members at the rate of one
17 and one-half times (1½) their regular rate of pay when working and for all hours worked in 18 excess of eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek and for the first 19 eight (8) hours of work on the seventh day of work in a workweek.

20 47. The applicable IWC Wage Orders further provide that Defendants are and were 21 required to pay overtime compensation to Plaintiff and Class Members at a rate of two times
22 their regular rate of pay when working and for all hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in 23 a day or in excess of eight (8) hours on the seventh day of work in a workweek.

24 48. California Labor Code § 510 codifies the right to overtime compensation at one
25 and one-half (1½) times the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a
26 day or forty (40) hours in a week and for the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh
27 consecutive day of work, and overtime compensation at twice the regular hourly rate for hours
28

1 worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in a day or in excess of eight (8) hours in a day on the
2 seventh day of work in a workweek.

3 49. Labor Code § 510 and the applicable IWC Wage Orders provide that employment
4 of more than six days in a workweek is only permissible if the employer pays proper overtime
5 compensation as set forth herein.

6 50. Plaintiff and Class Members were employees entitled to the protections of 7 California Labor Code §§ 510 and 1194.

8 51. During the relevant time period, Defendants required Plaintiff and Class Members
9 to work in excess of eight (8) hours in a day, forty (40) hours in a week, and/or on a seventh 10 consecutive day of work, entitling them to overtime wages.

11 52. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and Class
12 Members overtime wages for all overtime hours worked when Defendants failed to pay for time
13 spent working off-the-clock and through meal periods, and time rounded in Defendants' favor,
14 among other reasons. To the extent these hours qualify for the payment of overtime wages,
15 Plaintiff and Class Members were not paid proper overtime wages. Further, when Defendants
16 paid overtime wages, they were sometimes miscalculated because, among other reasons,
17 Defendants did not include all non-discretionary pay in the calculation.

18 53. In violation of California law, Defendants knowingly and willfully refused to 19 perform their obligations and compensate Plaintiff and Class Members for all wages earned and 20 all hours worked.

21 54. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and Class Members the unpaid balance of 22 overtime compensation, as required by California law, violates the provisions of Labor Code §§
23 510 and 1198, and is therefore unlawful.

24 55. Pursuant to Labor Code § 1194, Plaintiff and Class Members are entitled to 25 recover their unpaid overtime and double time compensation as well as interest, costs, and 26 attorneys' fees.

28 ///

1 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

2 FAILURE TO PROVIDE MEAL PERIODS

3 (Violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512; Violation of IWC Wage Order § 11)

4 56. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporates by reference all paragraphs above as
5 though fully set forth herein.

6 57. Labor Code § 226.7 provides that no employer shall require an employee to work
7 during any meal period mandated by the IWC Wage Orders.

8 58. Section 11 of the applicable IWC Wage Order states, “[n]o employer shall 9 employ any person for a work period of more than five (5) hours without a meal period of not 10 less than 30 minutes, except that when a work period of not more than six (6) hours will 11 complete the day’s work the meal period may be waived by mutual consent of the employer and 12 the employee.”

13 59. Labor Code § 512(a) provides that an employer may not require, cause, or permit
14 an employee to work for a period of more than five (5) hours per day without providing the 15 employee with an uninterrupted meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes, except that if 16 the total work period per day of the employee is not more than six (6) hours, the meal period may 17 be waived by mutual consent of both the employer and the employee.

18 60. Labor Code § 512(a) also provides that an employer may not employ an employee
19 for a work period of more than ten (10) hours per day without providing the employee with a 20 second meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes, except that if the total hours worked is no
21 more than twelve (12) hours, the second meal period may be waived by mutual consent of the 22 employer and the employee only if the first meal period was not waived.

23 61. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and Class Members did not receive 24 compliant meal periods for working more than five (5) and ten (10) hours per day because their 25 meal periods were missed, late, short, interrupted, on-duty, and/or they were not permitted to 26 take a second meal period.

62. Labor Code § 226.7(b) and section 11 of the applicable IWC Wage Order require an employer to pay an employee one (1) additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of compensation for each work day that a compliant meal period is not provided.

63. At all relevant times, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and Class Members meal period premiums for missed, late, and/or short meal periods pursuant to Labor Code § 226.7(b) and section 11 of the applicable IWC Wage Order.

64. As a result of Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and Class Members an additional hour of pay for each day a compliant meal period was not provided, Plaintiff and Class Members suffered and continue to suffer a loss of wages and compensation.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

FAILURE TO PERMIT REST BREAKS

(Violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7; Violation of IWC Wage Order § 12)

65. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporates by reference all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

66. Labor Code § 226.7(a) provides that no employer shall require an employee to work during any rest period mandated by the IWC Wage Orders.

67. Section 12 of the applicable IWC Wage Order states “[e]very employer shall authorize and permit all employees to take rest periods, which insofar as practicable shall be in the middle of each work period[,]” and the “[a]uthorized rest period time shall be based on the total hours worked daily at the rate of ten (10) minutes net rest time per four (4) hours or major fraction thereof[,]” unless the total daily work time is less than three and one-half (3½) hours.

68. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and Class Members did not receive a ten (10) minute rest period for every four (4) hours or major fraction thereof worked, including working in excess of ten (10) hours in a day, because they were required to work through their rest periods, were required to remain on-duty during rest periods, and/or were not authorized to take their rest periods.

69. Labor Code § 226.7(b) and section 12 of the applicable IWC Wage Order requires an employer to pay an employee one (1) additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of compensation for each work day that a compliant rest period is not provided.

70. At all relevant times, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and Class Members rest period premiums for missed, late, and/or interrupted rest periods pursuant to Labor Code § 226.7(b) and section 12 of the applicable IWC Wage Order.

71. As a result of Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and Class Members an additional hour of pay for each day a compliant rest period was not provided, Plaintiff and Class Members suffered and continue to suffer a loss of wages and compensation.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

FAILURE TO REIMBURSE BUSINESS EXPENSES

(Violation of Labor Code §§ 2800, 2802)

72. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporates by reference all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

73. Labor Code § 2800 states that “[a]n employer shall in all cases indemnify his employee for losses caused by the employer’s want of ordinary care.”

74. Labor Code § 2802(a) states that “[a]n employer shall indemnify his or her employee for all necessary expenditures or losses incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the discharge of his or her duties, or of his or her obedience to the directions of the employer”

75. Labor Code § 2802(b) states that “[a]ll awards made by a court . . . for reimbursement of necessary expenditures under this section shall carry interest at the same rate as judgments in civil actions. Interest shall accrue from the date on which the employee incurred the necessary expenditure or loss.”

76. Labor Code § 2802(c) states that “[f]or purposes of this section, the term “necessary expenditures or losses” shall include all reasonable costs, including, but not limited to, attorney’s fees incurred by the employee enforcing the rights granted by this section.”

77. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and Class Members incurred necessary business-related costs that were not fully reimbursed by Defendants, including, but not limited to tools required for work.

78. In violation of Labor Code §§ 2800 and 2802, Defendants failed to reimburse or indemnify Plaintiff and Class Members for their expenses due to Defendants' knowing and intentional failure to reimburse necessary business expenditures in connection with Plaintiff's and Class Members' work and job duties.

79. As a direct result, Plaintiff and Class Members have suffered and continue to suffer losses, and therefore seek complete reimbursement and indemnification of necessary business expenditures or losses, interest thereon at the required rate, and all reasonable costs in enforcing the rights under Labor Code § 2802, including, but not limited to attorneys' fees.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

FAILURE TO PROVIDE ACCURATE ITEMIZED WAGE STATEMENTS

(Violation of Labor Code § 226; Violation of IWC Wage Order)

80. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporates by reference all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

81. Labor Code § 226(a) requires Defendants to provide each employee with an accurate wage statement in writing showing nine pieces of information, including, the following: (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided that all deductions made on written orders of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee and the last four digits of his or her social security number or an employee identification number other than a social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer, and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee.

1 82. During the relevant time period, Defendants have knowingly and intentionally
2 failed to comply with Labor Code § 226(a) on wage statements that were provided to Plaintiff
3 and Class Members. The deficiencies include, among other things, the failure to correctly state
4 the gross and net wages earned, total hours worked, all applicable hourly rates in effect, and the 5 number of hours worked at each hourly rate by Plaintiff and Class Members.

6 83. As a result of Defendants' knowing and intentional failure to comply with Labor
7 Code § 226(a), Plaintiff and Class Members have suffered injury and damage to their statutorily-
8 protected rights. Specifically, Plaintiff and Class Members are deemed to suffer an injury
9 pursuant to Labor Code § 226(e) where, as here, Defendants intentionally violated Labor Code §
10 226(a). Plaintiff and Class Members were denied both their legal right to receive, and their 11 protected interest in receiving, accurate itemized wage statements under Labor Code § 226(a). In 12 addition, because Defendants failed to provide the accurate rates of pay on wage statements,
13 Defendants prevented Plaintiff and Class Members from determining if all hours worked were 14 paid at the appropriate rate and the extent of the underpayment. Plaintiff had to file this lawsuit
15 in order to analyze the extent of the underpayment, thereby causing Plaintiff to incur expenses
16 and lost time. Plaintiff would not have had to engage in these efforts and incur these costs had 17 Defendants provided the accurate hours worked, wages earned, and rates of pay. This has also 18 delayed Plaintiff's ability to demand and recover the underpayment of wages from Defendants.

19 84. Plaintiff and Class Members are entitled to recover from Defendants the greater of 20 all actual damages caused by Defendants' failure to comply with Labor Code § 226(a) or fifty
21 dollars ($50.00) for the initial pay period in which a violation occurred and one hundred dollars
22 ($100.00) per employee for each violation in subsequent pay periods in an amount not exceeding 23 four thousand dollars ($4,000.00) per employee, plus attorneys' fees and costs.

24 85. Defendants' violations of California Labor Code § 226(a) prevented Plaintiff and 25 Class Members from knowing, understanding, and disputing the wages paid to them and resulted 26 in an unjustified economic enrichment to Defendants. As a result of Defendants' knowing and 27 intentional failure to comply with California Labor Code § 226(a), Plaintiff and Class Members
28

1 have suffered an injury, in the exact amount of damages and/or penalties to be shown according
2 to proof at trial.

3 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

4 FAILURE TO PAY ALL WAGES DUE UPON SEPARATION OF EMPLOYMENT

5 (Violation of Labor Code §§ 201, 202, and 203)

6 86. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporates by reference all paragraphs above as
7 though fully set forth herein.

8 87. Labor Code §§ 201 and 202 provide that if an employer discharges an employee,
9 the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately, and that 10 if an employee voluntarily leaves his or her employment, his or her wages shall become due and 11 payable not later than seventy-two (72) hours thereafter, unless the employee has given seventy-
12 two (72) hours previous notice of an intention to quit, in which case the employee is entitled to 13 his or her wages at the time of quitting.

14 88. During the relevant time period, Defendants willfully failed to pay the Waiting
15 Time Subclass all their earned wages upon termination, including, but not limited to, proper
16 minimum wage and overtime compensation, meal period premiums, and rest period premiums
17 either at the time of discharge or within seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendants'
18 employ.

19 89. Defendants' failure to pay the Waiting Time Subclass all their earned wages at the 20 time of discharge or within seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendants' employ is in
21 violation of Labor Code §§ 201 and 202.

22 90. Labor Code § 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay wages owed
23 immediately upon discharge or resignation in accordance with Labor Code §§ 201 and 202, then 24 the wages of the employee shall continue as a penalty from the due date at the same rate until 25 paid or until an action is commenced; but the wages shall not continue for more than thirty (30)
26 days.

27 91. Pursuant to Labor Code § 203, the Waiting Time Subclass is entitled to recover
28 from Defendants the statutory penalty, which is defined as the Waiting Time Subclass members'

1 regular daily wages at their regular hourly rate of pay for each day they were not paid, up to a
2 maximum of thirty (30) days.

3 EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

4 VIOLATION OF BUSINESS AND PROFESSIONS CODE §§ 17200, ET SEQ.

5 (Violation of Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.)

6 92. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporates by reference all paragraphs above as
7 though fully set forth herein.

8 93. California Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq., prohibits acts of 9 unfair competition, which includes any “unlawful, unfair or fraudulent business act or practice . .
10 . .”

11 94. A violation of California Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq., may 12 be predicated on a violation of any state or federal law. In the instant case, Defendants’ policies
13 and practices violated state law, causing Plaintiff and Class Members to suffer and continue to 14 suffer injuries-in-fact.

15 95. Defendants’ policies and practices violated state law in at least the following 16 respects:

- 17 (a) Failing to pay all wages earned (including minimum wage and overtime 18 wages) to Plaintiff and Class Members at the proper rate in violation of 19 Labor Code §§ 246, 510, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, and 1198.
- 20 (b) Failing to provide compliant meal periods without paying Plaintiff and 21 Class Members premium wages for every day said meal periods were not 22 provided in violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512.
- 23 (c) Failing to authorize or permit compliant rest breaks without paying 24 Plaintiff and Class Members premium wages for every day said rest
25 breaks were not authorized or permitted in violation of Labor Code § 26 226.7.
- 27 (d) Failing to reimburse Plaintiff and Class Members for necessary business-
28 related expenses in violation of Labor Code §§ 2800 and 2802.

1 (e) Failing to provide Plaintiff and Class Members with accurate itemized
2 wage statements in violation of Labor Code § 226.

3 (f) Failing to timely pay all earned wages to the members of the Waiting
4 Time Subclass upon separation of employment in violation of Labor Code
5 §§ 201, 202, and 203.

6 96. As alleged herein, Defendants systematically engaged in unlawful conduct in 7 violation of the California Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders, such as failing to pay all wages
8 (minimum and overtime wages), failing to provide meal periods and rest breaks or 9 compensation in lieu thereof, failing to reimburse necessary business-related costs and 10 expenses, failing to furnish accurate wage statements, failing to pay wages weekly, and failing 11 to pay all wages due and owing upon separation of employment in a timely manner to the 12 Waiting Time Subclass, all in order to decrease their costs of doing business and increase their 13 profits.

14 97. At all relevant times herein, Defendants held themselves out to Plaintiff and Class
15 Members as being knowledgeable concerning the labor and employment laws of California.

16 98. At all times relevant herein, Defendants intentionally avoided paying Plaintiff and 17 Class Members wages and monies, thereby creating for Defendants an artificially lower cost of 18 doing business in order to undercut their competitors and establish and/or gain a greater 19 foothold in the marketplace.

20 99. By violating the foregoing statutes and regulations as herein alleged, Defendants'
21 acts constitute unfair and unlawful business practices under California Business and Professions
22 Code §§ 17200, et seq.

23 100. As a result of the unfair and unlawful business practices of Defendants as alleged 24 herein, Plaintiff and Class Members are entitled to injunctive relief, disgorgement, and 25 restitution in an amount to be shown according to proof at trial.

26 101. Plaintiff seeks to enforce important rights affecting the public interest within the 27 meaning of California Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5. Defendants' conduct, as alleged 28 herein, has been and continues to be unfair, unlawful, and harmful to Plaintiff, Class Members,

1 and the general public. Based on Defendants' conduct as alleged herein, Plaintiff and Class
2 Members are entitled to an award of attorneys' fees pursuant to California Code of Civil
3 Procedure § 1021.5.

4 NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

5 ENFORCEMENT OF LABOR CODE §§ 2698 ET SEQ. ("PAGA")

6 102. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporate by reference the previous paragraphs 7 as though fully set forth herein.

8 103. Pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(a), any provision of the Labor Code that provides
9 for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the Labor and Workforce Development
10 Agency ("LWDA") or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards, agencies, or 11 employees for violation of the Labor Code may, as an alternative, be recovered through a civil 12 action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of himself or herself and other current or 13 former employees pursuant to the procedures specified in Labor Code § 2699.3.

14 104. For all provisions of the Labor Code except those for which a civil penalty is 15 specifically provided, Labor Code § 2699(f) imposes upon Defendants a penalty of one hundred 16 dollars ($100.00) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation and two
17 hundred dollars ($200.00) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent pay
18 period in which Defendants violated these provisions of the Labor Code.

19 105. Defendants' conduct violates numerous Wage Order and Labor Code sections, 20 including, but not limited to, the following:

- 21 a. violation of Labor Code §§ 201-203, 204, 210, 510, 1182.12, 1194, 1197, 22 and 1198 for failure to timely pay all earned wages (including minimum
23 wage and overtime wages) owed to Plaintiff and other aggrieved
24 employees during employment and upon separation of employment as 25 herein alleged;
- 26 b. violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512 for failure to provide meal
27 periods to Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees and failure to pay 28 premium wages for missed meal periods as herein alleged;

- 1 c. violation of Labor Code § 226.7 for failure to permit rest breaks to
2 Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees and failure to pay premium
3 wages for missed rest periods as herein alleged;
- 4 d. violation of Labor Code § 226 for failure to provide accurate itemized
5 wage statements to Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees as herein 6 alleged;
- 7 e. violation of Labor Code §§ 1174 and 1174.5 for failure to maintain 8 accurate and complete records showing, among other things, the hours
9 worked daily by and the wages paid to aggrieved employees; and
- 10 f. violation of Labor Code §§ 2800 and 2802 for failure to reimburse all 11 business expenses to Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees.

12 106. Plaintiff is an “aggrieved employee” because he was employed by the alleged 13 violator and had one or more of the violations committed against him, and therefore is properly
14 suited to represent the interests of all other aggrieved employees.

15 107. Plaintiff has exhausted the procedural requirements under Labor Code § 2699.3
16 as to Defendants and is therefore able to pursue a claim for penalties on behalf of himself and 17 all other aggrieved employees under PAGA.

18 108. Pursuant to Labor Code §§ 2699(a), 2699.3 and 2699.5, Plaintiff is entitled to 19 recover civil penalties, in addition to other remedies, for violations of the Labor Code sections
20 cited above.

21 109. For bringing this action, Plaintiff is entitled to attorney’s fees and costs incurred
22 herein.

23
24 PRAYER FOR RELIEF

25 On Plaintiff’s own behalf and on behalf of all others similarly situated, Plaintiff prays
26 for relief and judgment against Defendants, jointly and severally, as follows:

- 27 1. For certification under California Code of Civil Procedure § 382 of the proposed 28 Class and any other appropriate subclass;

2. For appointment of Gerardo Velasquez as class representative;
3. For appointment of Aegis Law Firm, PC, as class counsel for all purposes;
4. For compensatory damages in an amount according to proof at trial;
5. For an award of damages in the amount of unpaid compensation including, but not limited to, unpaid wages, unreimbursed expenses, benefits, and penalties;
6. For economic and/or special damages in an amount according to proof at trial;
7. For liquidated damages pursuant to Labor Code § 1194.2;
8. For statutory penalties to the extent permitted by law, including those pursuant to the Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders;
9. For injunctive relief as provided by the California Labor Code and California Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.;
10. For restitution as provided by Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.;
11. For an order requiring Defendants to restore and disgorge all funds to each employee acquired by means of any act or practice declared by this Court to be unlawful, unfair, or fraudulent and, therefore, constituting unfair competition under Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.;
12. For pre-judgment interest;
13. For civil penalties;
14. For reasonable attorneys' fees, costs of suit, and interest to the extent permitted by law, including, but not limited to, Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5 and Labor Code §§ 226(e), 1194, and 2698 et seq.; and
15. For such other relief as the Court deems just and proper.
