12 delivery services.

13 3. Through this action, Plaintiffs are alleging that Defendants have engaged in a
14 systematic pattern of wage and hour violations under the California Labor Code (“Labor Code”), all 15 of which contribute to Defendants’ deliberate unfair competition.

16 4. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and thereon allege, during the relevant time
17 period, Defendants had a consistent policy of violating state wage and hour laws by, among other 18 things:

- 19 (a) Misclassifying Plaintiffs and other workers as independent contractors;

21 overtime wages;

23 thereof;
- 24 (d) Failing to provide meal periods or compensation in lieu thereof;

5. Plaintiffs bring this lawsuit seeking monetary relief against Defendants on behalf of himself and all others similarly to recover, among other things, unpaid wages and benefits, interest, attorney's fees, costs and expenses and penalties pursuant to Labor Code §§ 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 226, 226.3, 226.7, 226.8, 510, 512, 558, 558.1, 1182.12, 1174, 1174.5, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800, 2802, and 2698, et seq.

6. Plaintiffs, on behalf of themselves and all class members, pursuant to Business and Professions Code sections 17200, et seq, also seek injunctive relief and restitution for the unfair, unlawful, or fraudulent practices alleged in this Complaint

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

7. The monetary damages and restitution sought by Plaintiffs exceed the minimal jurisdictional limits of the Superior Court and will be established according to proof at trial.

8. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to the California Constitution, Article VI, § 10, which grants the Superior Court original jurisdiction in all cases except those given by statutes to other courts. The statutes under which this action is brought do not specify any other basis for jurisdiction.

9. This Court has jurisdiction over all Defendants because, upon information and belief, Defendants have sufficient minimum contacts in California or otherwise intentionally avail themselves of the California market so as to render the exercise of jurisdiction over them by the California courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice.

10. Venue is proper in this Court because, upon information and belief, Defendants transact business or have at least one facility in this county, or acts and omissions alleged herein took place in this county.

THE PARTIES

11. Plaintiffs are citizens of California. Plaintiffs were employed by Defendants during the Class Period in California.

12. Defendants were and are, upon information and belief, a corporation doing business throughout the State of California, and at all times hereinafter mentioned, an employer as defined in

1 and subject to the California Labor Code and Industrial Welfare Commission (“IWC”) Wage Orders,
2 whose employees are and were engaged throughout this county and the State of California.

3 13. The true names and capacities, whether individual, corporate, associate, or otherwise,
4 of the Defendants sued herein as Does 1 to 10, inclusive, are currently unknown to Plaintiffs, who
5 therefore sue said Defendants by such fictitious names under California Code of Civil Procedure
6 § 474. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that each of the Defendants
7 designated herein as a Doe is legally responsible in some manner for the unlawful acts referred to 8 herein. Plaintiffs will seek leave of court to amend this Complaint to reflect the true names and 9 capacities of the Defendants designated hereinafter as DOES when such identities become known.

10 14. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that each Defendant
11 acted in all respects pertinent to this action as the agent of the other Defendants, carried out a joint 12 scheme, business plan or policy in all respects pertinent hereto, and the acts of each Defendants are 13 legally attributable to the other Defendants. Furthermore, Defendants in all respects acted as the 14 employers and/or joint employers of Plaintiff and the class members.

15 CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

16 15. Plaintiffs bring this action under Code of Civil Procedure § 382 on behalf of 17 themselves and all other members of the general public similarly situated who were affected by 18 Defendants’ Labor Code, Business and Professions Code §§ 17200 and IWC Wage Order violations.

19 16. All claims alleged herein arise under California law for which Plaintiffs seek relief
20 authorized by California law.

21 17. Plaintiffs’ proposed Class consists of and is defined as follows:

22 Class

23 All hourly non-exempt employees who performed work for Defendants in 24 the State of California from September 4, 2016¹ through June 1, 2022.

25 ///

26 ///

27 _____
28 ¹ The statute of limitations for this matter was tolled between April 6, 2020 and October 1, 2020, pursuant to Cal. Rules of Court, Appendix I, Emergency Rule No. 9.

SECOND AMENDED CLASS ACTION COMPLAINT

18. Plaintiffs also seek to certify the following Subclass:

Independent Contractor Subclass

All California citizens who performed work for Defendants in the State of California from September 4, 2016 through June 1, 2022 who were misclassified as independent contractors.

19. Members of the Class and Subclass described above will collectively be referred to as “class members.” Plaintiffs reserve the right to establish other or additional subclasses, or modify any Class or Subclass definition, as appropriate based on investigation, discovery and specific theories of liability.

20. This action has been brought and may properly be maintained as a class action under the California Code of Civil Procedure § 382 because there are common questions of law and fact as to the Class that predominate over questions affecting only individual members including, but not limited to:

- a. Whether Defendants misclassified Plaintiffs and class members as independent contractors rather than non-exempt employees;
- b. Whether Defendants failed to pay at least minimum wage for all hours worked by Plaintiffs and class members;
- c. Whether Defendants failed to pay overtime wages earned by Plaintiffs and class members;
- d. Whether Defendants failed to provide Plaintiffs and class members with meal periods;
- e. Whether Defendants deprived Plaintiffs and class members of paid rest breaks or required Plaintiffs and class members to work through rest breaks without compensation;
- f. Whether Defendants failed to pay all wages to Plaintiffs and class members for time spent in rest breaks;
- g. Whether Defendants failed to timely pay Plaintiffs and class members all earned wages during their employment;

SECOND AMENDED CLASS ACTION COMPLAINT

- h. Whether Defendants failed to timely pay Plaintiffs and former class members all wages due upon termination or within 72 hours of resignation;
- i. Whether Defendants failed to furnish Plaintiffs and class members with accurate itemized wage statements;
- j. Whether Defendants required Plaintiffs and class members to incur expenses to perform their job duties without reimbursement;
- k. Whether Defendants required Plaintiffs and class members to use their personal funds for business expenses and then failed to adequately reimburse them;
- l. Whether Defendants' conduct was willful or reckless; and
- m. Whether Defendants engaged in unfair business practices in violation of Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

21. There is a well-defined community of interest in the litigation and the Class is readily ascertainable.

- (a) Numerosity: The members of the Class are so numerous that joinder of all members is impractical. Although the members of the Class are unknown to Plaintiffs at this time, on information and belief, the Class is estimated to be greater than 100 individuals. The identity of the class members are readily ascertainable by inspection of Defendants' employment and payroll records.
- (b) Typicality: The claims (or defenses, if any) of Plaintiffs are typical of the claims (or defenses, if any) of the Class because Defendants' failure to comply with the provisions of California wage and hour laws entitled each class member to similar pay, benefits and other relief. The injuries sustained by Plaintiffs are also typical of the injuries sustained by the Class because they arise out of and are caused by Defendants' common course of conduct as alleged herein.
- (c) Adequacy: Plaintiffs are qualified to, and will fairly and adequately represent and protect the interests of all members of the Class because it is in their best

SECOND AMENDED CLASS ACTION COMPLAINT

1 interest to prosecute the claims alleged herein to obtain full compensation and
2 penalties due him and the Class. Plaintiffs' attorneys, as proposed class
3 counsel, are competent and experienced in litigating large employment class
4 actions and are versed in the rules governing class action discovery,
5 certification and settlement. Plaintiffs have incurred and, throughout the 6 duration of this action, will continue to incur attorneys' fees and costs that
7 have been and will be necessarily expended for the prosecution of this action
8 for the substantial benefit of each class member.

9 (d) Superiority: The nature of this action makes the use of class action
10 adjudication superior to other methods. A class action will achieve economies 11 of time, effort and expense as compared with separate lawsuits, and will avoid 12 inconsistent outcomes because the same issues can be adjudicated in the same
13 manner and at the same time for each Class. If appropriate this Court can, and 14 is empowered to, fashion methods to efficiently manage this case as a class
15 and/or collective action.

16 (e) Public Policy Considerations: Employers in the State of California and other 17 states violate employment and labor laws every day. Current employees are 18 often afraid to assert their rights out of fear of direct or indirect retaliation.
19 Former employees are fearful of bringing actions because they believe their 20 former employers might damage their future endeavors through negative
21 references and/or other means. Class actions provide the class members who 22 are not named in the complaint with a type of anonymity that allows for the 23 vindication of their rights at the same time as affording them privacy
24 protections.

25 GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

26 22. Plaintiffs performed services for Defendants during the relevant time period. During 27 the relevant time period, Plaintiffs were classified by Defendants as an independent contractor.

23. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and thereon allege, that at all times mentioned herein, Defendants were advised by skilled lawyers, employees and other professionals who were knowledgeable about California wage and hour law, employment and personnel practices and the requirements of California.

24. Through this action, Plaintiffs allege that Defendants have engaged in a systematic pattern of wage and hour violations under the California Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders, all of which contribute to Defendants' deliberate unfair competition.

25. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and thereon allege, that Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and class members were entitled to receive wages for all time worked (including minimum and overtime wages) and that they were not receiving all wages earned for work that was required to be performed. In violation of the Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders, Plaintiffs and class members were not paid wages (including minimum and overtime wages) for all hours worked when Defendants failed to pay or underpaid Plaintiffs and class members for all hours worked, among other things.

26. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and thereon allege, that Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and class members were entitled to receive all rest breaks or payment of one (1) additional hour of pay at Plaintiffs and class members' regular rate of pay when a rest break was missed, and were entitled to payment of wages for time spent when rest breaks were taken. In violation of the Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders, Plaintiffs and class members did not receive paid rest breaks or payment of one (1) additional hour of pay at Plaintiffs and class members' regular rate of pay when a rest break was missed.

27. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and thereon allege, that Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and class members were entitled to receive all meal periods or payment of one (1) additional hour of pay at Plaintiffs' and class members' regular rate of pay when they did not receive a timely, uninterrupted meal period. In violation of the Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders, Plaintiffs and class members did not receive all meal periods or payment of one (1) additional hour of pay at Plaintiffs' and class members' regular rate of pay when they did not receive a timely, uninterrupted meal period.

28. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and thereon allege, that Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and class members were entitled to timely payment of wages during their employment. In violation of the California Labor Code, Plaintiffs and class members did not receive payment of all wages within permissible time periods.

29. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and thereon allege, that Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and Waiting Time class members were entitled to timely payment of wages upon separation of employment. In violation of the California Labor Code, Plaintiffs and Waiting Time class members did not receive payment of all wages including, but not limited to, unpaid wages within permissible time periods.

30. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and thereon allege, that Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and class members were entitled to receive complete and accurate wage statements in accordance with California law. In violation of the California Labor Code, Plaintiffs and class members were not furnished with complete and accurate wage statements showing their total hours worked, rate of pay, employer name, employer address, employee name, employee identification number, number of hours or pieces worked at each hourly or piece rate, and gross and net wages, among other things.

31. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and thereon allege, that Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and class members were entitled to reimbursement for necessary expenditures incurred in connection with the performance and execution of their job duties. In violation of the California Labor Code, Plaintiffs and class members did not receive adequate reimbursement for necessary business expenses, including but not limited to reimbursement for use of personal vehicles and cell phones for work purposes.

32. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and thereon allege, that at all times mentioned herein, Defendants knew or should have known that it had a duty to compensate Plaintiffs and class members, and that Defendants had the financial ability to pay such compensation but willfully, knowingly and intentionally failed to do so, all in order to increase Defendants' profits.

1 33. Therefore, Plaintiffs bring this lawsuit seeking monetary and injunctive relief against
2 Defendants on behalf of himself and all class members to recover, among other things, unpaid wages,
3 interest, attorneys' fees, penalties, reimbursements, costs and expenses.

4 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

5 FAILURE TO PAY MINIMUM WAGES

6 (Violation of Labor Code §§ 1182.12, 1194, 1194.2, and 1197)

7 34. Plaintiffs hereby re-allege and incorporate by reference all paragraphs above as
8 though fully set forth herein.

9 35. Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1197 provide that the minimum wage for employees fixed
10 by the IWC is the minimum wage to be paid to employees, and the payment of a lesser wage than 11 the minimum so fixed is unlawful.

12 36. During the relevant time period, failed to pay Plaintiffs and class members all
13 minimum wages owed when Defendants did not pay for all hours worked, and did not pay for time
14 spent in rest breaks, among other reasons. Plaintiffs and class members were not being paid at least 15 minimum wage for their work.

16 37. During the relevant time period, Defendants regularly failed to pay at least minimum
17 wage to Plaintiffs and class members for all hours worked pursuant to Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1197.

18 38. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiffs and class members the minimum wage as 19 required violates Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1197. Pursuant to these sections, Plaintiffs and class 20 members are entitled to recover the unpaid balance of their minimum wage compensation as well as 21 interest, costs and attorney's fees.

22 39. Pursuant to Labor Code § 1194.2, Plaintiffs and class members are entitled to recover
23 liquidated damages in an amount equal to the wages unlawfully unpaid and interest thereon.

24 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

25 FAILURE TO PAY OVERTIME

26 (Violation of Labor Code §§ 510, 1194, and 1198; Violation of IWC Wage Order)

27 40. Plaintiffs hereby re-allege and incorporate by reference all paragraphs above as
28 though fully set forth herein.

1 41. Labor Code § 1198 and the applicable IWC Wage Order provide that it is unlawful
2 to employ persons without compensating them at a rate of pay either one and one-half (1½) or 3 two (2) times the person's regular rate of pay, depending on the number of hours or days worked 4 by the person on a daily or weekly basis.

5 42. Specifically, the applicable IWC Wage Orders provide that Defendants are and 6 were required to pay overtime compensation to Plaintiffs and Class Members at the rate of one
7 and one-half times (1½) their regular rate of pay when working and for all hours worked in excess
8 of eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek and for the first eight (8)
9 hours of work on the seventh day of work in a workweek.

10 43. The applicable IWC Wage Orders further provide that Defendants are and were 11 required to pay overtime compensation to Plaintiffs and Class Members at a rate of two times their 12 regular rate of pay when working and for all hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in a day
13 or in excess of eight (8) hours on the seventh day of work in a workweek.

14 44. California Labor Code § 510 codifies the right to overtime compensation at one and 15 one-half (1½) times the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day
16 or forty (40) hours in a week and for the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh consecutive 17 day of work, and overtime compensation at twice the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess 18 of twelve (12) hours in a day or in excess of eight (8) hours in a day on the seventh day of work in 19 a workweek.

20 45. Labor Code § 510 and the applicable IWC Wage Orders provide that employment
21 of more than six days in a workweek is only permissible if the employer pays proper overtime
22 compensation as set forth herein.

23 46. Plaintiffs and Class Members were non-exempt employees entitled to the 24 protections of California Labor Code §§ 510 and 1194.

25 47. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiffs and Class
26 Members overtime wages for all overtime hours worked when Plaintiffs and Class Members
27 worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day, forty (40) hours in a week and/or for a seventh
28 consecutive day of work in a workweek, or when Plaintiffs and Class Members worked in excess

SECOND AMENDED CLASS ACTION COMPLAINT

1 of twelve (12) hours in a day and/or in excess of eight (8) hours on the seventh day of work in a
2 work week.

3 48. In violation of state law, Defendants knowingly and willfully refused to perform
4 their obligations and compensate Plaintiffs and Class Members for all wages earned and all hours 5 worked.

6 49. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiffs and Class Members the unpaid balance of 7 overtime and double time compensation, as required by California law, violates the provisions of 8 Labor Code §§ 510 and 1198, and is therefore unlawful.

9 50. Pursuant to Labor Code § 1194, Plaintiffs and Class Members are entitled to 10 recover their unpaid overtime and double time compensation as well as interest, costs, and 11 attorneys' fees.

12 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

13 FAILURE TO PROVIDE MEAL PERIODS

14 (Violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512; Violation of IWC Wage Order)

15 51. Plaintiffs hereby re-allege and incorporate by reference all paragraphs above as
16 though fully set forth herein

17 52. Labor Code § 226.7 provides that no employer shall require an employee to work
18 during any meal period mandated by the IWC Wage Orders.

19 53. Section 11 of the applicable IWC Wage Order states, "[n]o employer shall employ
20 any person for a work period of more than five (5) hours without a meal period of not less than 30
21 minutes, except that when a work period of not more than six (6) hours will complete the day's 22 work the meal period may be waived by mutual consent of the employer and the employee."

23 54. Labor Code § 512(a) provides that an employer may not require, cause, or permit 24 an employee to work for a period of more than five (5) hours per day without providing the 25 employee with an uninterrupted meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes, except that if the 26 total work period per day of the employee is not more than six (6) hours, the meal period may be 27 waived by mutual consent of both the employer and the employee.

1 55. Labor Code § 512(a) also provides that an employer may not employ an employee
2 for a work period of more than ten (10) hours per day without providing the employee with a second
3 meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes, except that if the total hours worked is no more
4 than twelve (12) hours, the second meal period may be waived by mutual consent of the employer
5 and the employee only if the first meal period was not waived.

6 56. During the relevant time period, Plaintiffs and Class Members did not receive 7 compliant meal periods for working more than five (5) and/or ten (10) hours per day because their 8 meal periods were missed, late, short, interrupted, and/or they were not permitted to take a second 9 meal period.

10 57. Labor Code § 226.7(b) and section 11 of the applicable IWC Wage Order requires 11 an employer to pay an employee one (1) additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of 12 compensation for each work day that a compliant meal period is not provided.

13 58. At all relevant times, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiffs and Class Members meal
14 period premiums for missed, late, short, and/or interrupted meal periods pursuant to Labor Code §
15 226.7(b) and section 11 of the applicable IWC Wage Order.
16 As a result of Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiffs and Class Members an additional hour of pay for 17 each day a compliant meal period was not provided, Plaintiffs and Class Members suffered and
18 continue to suffer a loss of wages and compensation

19 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

20 FAILURE TO PERMIT REST BREAKS

21 (Violation of Labor Code § 226.7)

22 59. Plaintiffs hereby re-allege and incorporate by reference all paragraphs above as
23 though fully set forth herein.

24 60. Labor Code § 226.7(a) provides that no employer shall require an employee to work
25 during any rest period mandated by the IWC Wage Orders.

26 61. Section 12 of the applicable IWC Wage Order states "every employer shall authorize 27 and permit all employees to take rest periods, which insofar as practicable shall be in the middle of 28 each work period" and the "authorized rest period¹² time shall be based on the total hours worked daily

SECOND AMENDED CLASS ACTION COMPLAINT

1 at the rate of ten (10) minutes net rest time per four (4) hours or major fraction thereof” unless the 2 total daily work time is less than three and one-half (3½) hours.

3 62. Labor Code 226.7(d) provides that a rest period mandated by state law or IWC Wage
4 Order “shall be counted as hours worked, for which there shall be no deduction from wages.”

5 63. During the relevant time period, Plaintiffs and class members did not receive a ten 6 (10) minute net rest period for every four (4) hours or major fraction thereof worked because they
7 were required to work through their daily rest periods and/or were not authorized to take their rest
8 periods.

9 64. Labor Code § 226.7(b) and section 12 of the applicable IWC Wage Order requires an 10 employer to pay an employee one additional hour of pay at the employee’s regular rate of 11 compensation for each work day that the rest period is not provided.

12 65. At all relevant times, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiffs and class members the full 13 rest period premium for missed or interrupted rest periods pursuant to Labor Code § 226.7(b) and 14 section 12 of the applicable IWC Wage Order.

15 66. As a result of Defendants’ failure to pay Plaintiffs and class members an additional 16 hour of pay for each day a rest period was not provided, Plaintiffs and class members suffered and
17 continue to suffer a loss of wages and compensation.

18 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

19 FAILURE TO PAY WAGES UPON SEPARATION

20 OF EMPLOYMENT AND WITHIN THE REQUIRED TIME

21 (Violations of Labor Code §§ 201, 202, 203, 204, and 210)

22 67. Plaintiffs hereby re-allege and incorporate by reference the previous paragraphs, as
23 though fully set forth herein.

24 68. California Labor Code §§ 201 and 202 provide that if an employer discharges an 25 employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately,
26 and that if an employee voluntarily leaves his or her employment, his or her wages shall become due 27 and payable not later than seventy-two (72) hours thereafter, unless the employee has given seventy-

two (72) hours previous notice of his or her intention to quit, in which case the employee is entitled to his or her wages at the time of quitting.

69. During the relevant time period, Defendants willfully failed to pay Plaintiffs and Waiting Time Subclass Members all their earned wages upon termination including, but not limited to, minimum wages, either at the time of discharge or within seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendants' employ.

70. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiffs and Waiting Time Subclass Members all their earned wages at the time of discharge or within seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendants' employ, is in violation of California Labor Code §§ 201 and 202.

71. California Labor Code § 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay wages owed promptly upon discharge or resignation as required under California Labor Code §§ 201 and 202, then the wages of the employee shall continue as a penalty from the due date, and at the same rate until paid or until an action is commenced; but the wages shall not continue for more than thirty (30) days.

72. Defendants willfully failed to pay Plaintiffs and Waiting Time Subclass Members all wages due and, as a result, owe Plaintiffs and Waiting Time Subclass Members regular daily wages for each day they were not paid, at their regular rates of pay up to a thirty (30) day maximum pursuant to California Labor Code § 203 all in an amount to be shown according to proof at trial.

73. Based on these violations, Plaintiffs and the Waiting Time Subclass they seek to represent request relief as described herein and below.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

FAILURE TO FURNISH ACCURATE ITEMIZED WAGE STATEMENTS

(Violation of Labor Code § 226)

74. Plaintiffs hereby re-allege and incorporate by reference the previous paragraphs, as though fully set forth herein.

75. California Labor Code § 226(a) requires employers to furnish their employees with an accurate itemized writing that shows gross wages earned, total hours worked, all deductions, net wages earned, the inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid, the name of the

SECOND AMENDED CLASS ACTION COMPLAINT

1 employee and the portion of his or her social security number as required by law, the name and
2 address of the legal entity that is the employer and all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay
3 period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee.

4 76. Defendants have intentionally and willfully failed to provide Plaintiffs and class
5 members with complete and accurate wage statements. The deficiencies include, among other things,
6 the failure to list the gross wages earned, net wages earned, hours worked, and all applicable hourly
7 rates in effect during the pay period.

8 77. As a result of Defendants' violation of California Labor Code § 226(a), Plaintiffs and 9 class members have suffered injury and damage to their statutorily protected rights. Specifically,
10 Plaintiffs and class members have been injured by Defendants' intentional violation of California
11 Labor Code § 226(a) because they were denied both their legal right to receive, and their protected
12 interest in receiving, accurate itemized wage statements under California Labor Code § 226(a). In 13 addition, because Defendants failed to provide the accurate rates of pay on wage statements,
14 Defendants have prevented Plaintiffs and class members from determining if all hours worked were 15 paid at the appropriate rate and the extent of the underpayment. Plaintiffs have had to file this lawsuit
16 in order to analyze whether in fact Plaintiffs were paid correctly and the extent of the underpayment,
17 thereby causing Plaintiffs to incur expenses and lost time. Plaintiffs would not have had to engage in 18 these efforts and incur these costs had Defendants provided the accurate rate of pay. This has also 19 delayed Plaintiffs' ability to demand and recover the underpayment of wages from Defendants.

20 78. California Labor Code § 226(a) requires an employer to pay the greater of all actual 21 damages or fifty dollars ($50.00) for the initial pay period in which a violation occurred, and one
22 hundred dollars ($100.00) per employee for each violation in subsequent pay periods, plus attorney's
23 fees and costs, to each employee who was injured by the employer's failure to comply with California
24 Labor Code § 226(a).

25 79. Defendants' violations of California Labor Code § 226(a) prevented Plaintiffs and 26 class members from knowing, understanding and disputing the wages paid to them, and resulted in 27 an unjustified economic enrichment to Defendants. As a result of Defendants' knowing and 28 intentional failure to comply with California Labor Code § 226(a), Plaintiffs and class members have

SECOND AMENDED CLASS ACTION COMPLAINT

1 suffered an injury, the exact amount of damages and/or penalties is all in an amount to be shown
2 according to proof at trial.

3 80. Plaintiffs and class members are also entitled to injunctive relief under California
4 Labor Code § 226(g), compelling Defendants to comply with California Labor Code § 226, and seek 5 the recovery of attorneys' fees and costs incurred in obtaining this injunctive relief.

6 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

7 FAILURE TO REIMBURSE ALL BUSINESS EXPENSES

8 (Violation of Labor Code §§ 2800, 2802)

9 81. Plaintiffs hereby re-allege and incorporate by reference all paragraphs above as
10 though fully set forth herein.

11 82. Labor Code § 2800 states that an employer shall in all cases indemnify its employee
12 for losses.

13 83. Labor Code § 2802 requires employers to indemnify their employees for all 14 necessary expenditures or losses incurred by employees in direct consequence of the discharge of 15 their duties.

16 84. Section 9 of the applicable IWC Wage Order states that when tools or equipment
17 are required by the employer or are necessary to the performance of a job, such tools and equipment
18 shall be provided and maintained by the employer.

19 85. During the relevant time period, Defendants required Plaintiffs and class members
20 to use their personal vehicles and personal cell phones for work, without properly compensating 21 them.

22 86. In violation of Labor Code §§ 2800 and 2802, Defendants failed to indemnify
23 Plaintiffs and class members for these expenses.

24 87. In committing the violations as herein alleged, Defendants have intentionally and 25 willfully failed to fully reimburse Plaintiffs and class members for necessary business-related costs
26 and expenses. As a direct result, Plaintiffs and class members have suffered and continue to suffer 27 substantial losses relating to the use and enjoyment of such compensation, wages, expenses, and 28 attorney's fees.

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION
UNFAIR BUSINESS PRACTICES

(Violation of Business and Professions Code §§ 17200 et seq.)

88. Plaintiffs hereby re-allege and incorporate by reference the previous paragraphs, as though fully set forth herein.

89. California Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq., prohibits acts of unfair competition, which includes any "unlawful, unfair or fraudulent business act or practice"

90. A violation of California Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq. may be predicated on the violation of any state or federal law. In the instant case, Defendants' policies and practices have violated state law causing Plaintiffs and class members to suffer and continue to suffer injuries in fact. As alleged herein, Defendants systematically engaged in unlawful conduct in violation of the California Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders, such as failing to pay minimum wages, failing to authorize or permit paid rest breaks, failing to provide meal periods, failing to pay wages for time spent in rest breaks and/or recovery periods, failing to pay all wages due and owing upon separation of employment and in a timely manner, failing to furnish accurate wage statements, and failing to reimburse business expenses, all in order to decrease their costs of doing business and increase their profits.

91. At all times relevant herein, Defendants intentionally avoided paying Plaintiffs and class members wages and monies, thereby creating for Defendants an artificially lower cost of doing business in order to undercut their competitors and establish and/or gain a greater foothold in the marketplace.

92. At the time Plaintiffs and class members were hired, Defendants knowingly, intentionally and wrongfully misrepresented to each of them their conformance with the California Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders including proper payments required by law.

93. At all relevant times herein, Defendants held themselves out to Plaintiffs and class members as being knowledgeable concerning the labor laws of California.

94. At all times relevant herein, Plaintiffs and class members relied on and believed Defendants' representations concerning their conformance with California's wage and hour laws all to their detriment.

95. As a result of Defendants' intentional, willful, purposeful and wrongful misrepresentation of their conformance with the California Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders, Plaintiffs and class members suffered a loss of wages and monies, all in an amount to be shown according to proof at trial. By violating the foregoing statutes and regulations as herein alleged, Defendants' acts constitute unfair and unlawful business practices under California Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

96. Defendants' violations of the California Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders and their scheme to lower their payroll costs as alleged herein, constitute unlawful business practices because they were done in a systematic manner over a period of time to the detriment of Plaintiffs and class members.

97. As a result of the unfair business practices of Defendants, as alleged herein, Plaintiffs and class members are entitled to injunctive relief, disgorgement and restitution in an amount to be shown according to proof at trial.

98. Plaintiffs seek to enforce important rights affecting the public interest within the meaning of California Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5. Defendants' conduct, as alleged herein, has been, and continues to be, unfair, unlawful and harmful to Plaintiffs, class members and to the general public. Based on Defendants' conduct as alleged herein, Plaintiffs and class members are entitled to an award of attorneys' fees pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5.

NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

ENFORCEMENT OF LABOR CODE §§ 2698 ET SEQ. (“PAGA”)

99. Plaintiffs hereby re-allege and incorporate by reference the previous paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

100. Pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(a), any provision of the Labor Code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) or any of its departments, divisions, ~~commissions~~, boards, agencies, or employees for violation of the Labor Code may, as an alternative, be recovered through a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of himself or herself and other current or former employees pursuant to the procedures specified in Labor Code § 2699.3.

101. For all provisions of the Labor Code except those for which a civil penalty is specifically provided, Labor Code § 2699(f) imposes upon Defendants a penalty of one hundred dollars ($100.00) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation and two hundred dollars ($200.00) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent pay period in which Defendants violated these provisions of the Labor Code.

102. Defendants' conduct violates numerous Wage Order and Labor Code sections, including, but not limited to, the following:

- (a) violation of Labor Code § 226.8 for misclassification of employees as independent contractors;
- (b) violation of Labor Code §§ 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 510, 1194, 1197, and 1198 for failure to timely pay all earned wages (including minimum wage and overtime wages) owed to Plaintiffs and other aggrieved employees during employment and upon separation of employment as herein alleged;
- (c) violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512 for failure to provide meal periods to Plaintiffs and other aggrieved employees and failure to pay premium wages for missed meal periods as herein alleged;
- (d) violation of Labor Code § 226.7 for failure to permit rest breaks to Plaintiffs and other aggrieved employees and failure to pay premium wages for missed rest periods as herein alleged;
- (e) violation of Labor Code § 226 for failure to provide accurate itemized wage statements to Plaintiffs and other aggrieved employees as herein alleged;
- (f) violation of Labor Code §§ 2800 and 2802 for failure to reimburse Plaintiffs and other aggrieved employees for necessary business expenses as herein alleged; and

(g) violation of Labor Code §§ 1174 and 1174.5 for failure to maintain accurate and complete records showing, among other things, the hours worked daily by and the wages paid to aggrieved employees.

103. Plaintiffs are “aggrieved employees” because they were employed by the alleged violator and had one or more of the violations committed against them, and therefore are properly suited to represent the interests of all other aggrieved employees.

104. Plaintiffs have exhausted the procedural requirements under Labor Code § 2699.3 as to Defendants and is therefore able to pursue a claim for penalties on behalf of themselves and all other aggrieved employees under PAGA.

105. Pursuant to Labor Code §§ 2699(a), 2699.3 and 2699.5, Plaintiffs are entitled to recover civil penalties, in addition to other remedies, for violations of the Labor Code sections cited above.

106. For bringing this action, Plaintiffs are entitled to attorney’s fees and costs incurred herein.
