Attorneys for Plaintiff and the Class

SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA
FOR THE COUNTY OF STANISLAUS

LISA LEFANTY, individually, and on behalf of all others similarly situated,

Plaintiff,

v.

KAISER FOUNDATION HOSPITALS; DOES 1
to 20, inclusive,

Defendant.

Case No. CV-21-004330

Assigned to the Hon. Sonny S. Sandhu;
Dept. 24

PLAINTIFF'S NOTICE OF MOTION AND MOTION FOR PRELIMINARY APPROVAL
OF CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT; AND MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES IN SUPPORT

Date: March 4, 2025
Time: 8:30 a.m.
Dept.: 24

Complaint Filed: August 13, 2021

TO ALL PARTIES AND THEIR ATTORNEYS OF RECORD:

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that on March 4, 2025, at 8:30 a.m., or as soon thereafter as the matter may be heard, before the Honorable Sonny S. Sandhu, judge presiding, in Department 24 of the above referenced Court, located at 801 10th Street, Modesto, CA 95354, Plaintiff Lisa Lefanty (“Plaintiff”) will and hereby moves this Court for the following relief with respect to the Class and Representative Action Settlement Agreement (“Agreement” or “Settlement Agreement”) entered into by Plaintiff and Defendant Kaiser Foundation Hospitals (“Defendant” or the “Hospital”):

1. That the Court approve the Agreement referenced above;
2. That the Court certify the following Class for settlement purposes: all persons who were employed by Defendant as Assistant Nurse Managers and/or Assistant Department Administrators under job codes 06017 and 949013 in the State of California at any time during the period of August 13, 2017 through November 5, 2024 (the “Class”);
3. That Plaintiff Lisa Lefanty be appointed as the Class Representative;
4. That Timothy B. Del Castillo and Kent L. Bradbury of Castle Law, and Larry W. Lee and Kristen M. Agnew of Diversity Law Group, P.C., be appointed as Class Counsel;
5. That the Court preliminarily approve the Agreement and the Gross Settlement Amount in the amount of Eleven Million Dollars ($11,000,000);
6. That the Court finds on a preliminary basis that the Agreement appears to be within the range of reasonableness of a settlement, including the amount of the PAGA penalties, Class Representative Service Payment, attorneys’ fees and costs, settlement administration costs, and the allocation of payments to Class Members, that could ultimately be given final approval by this Court;
7. That the Court approve the mailing of the proposed Notice of Class Action Settlement and Hearing Date for Final Court Approval (“Class Notice”) to be sent to Class Members;
8. That the Court appoint CPT Group as the Settlement Administrator; and
9. That the Court schedule the matter for a Final Fairness and Final Approval hearing.

1 This Motion is made pursuant to Rule 3.769 of the California Rules of Court, which provides for 2 court approval of the settlement of a purported class action and allows the Court to preliminarily certify
3 a class for settlement purposes.

4 The basis for this Motion, filed without any opposition from Defendant, is that the proposed 5 settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable, and the procedures proposed by the Parties are adequate to 6 ensure the opportunity of Class Members to participate in, opt-out of, or object to the settlement.

7 This Motion will be based on the attached Memorandum of Points and Authorities, the 8 Settlement Agreement and the proposed Notice, and the supporting Declarations of Kent L. Bradbury,
9 Larry W. Lee, Kristen M. Agnew, Plaintiff Lisa Lefanty and Julie Green of CPT Group, upon the oral 10 arguments of counsel (should there be any), and on the complete records and file herein.

1 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

2 I. INTRODUCTION

3 This is a wage and hour class and representative PAGA action arising from Defendant Kaiser
4 Foundation Hospitals' ("Defendant" or the "Hospital") alleged misclassification of Assistant Nurse
5 Managers and/or Assistant Department Administrators (collectively, "ANMs") as exempt employees.
6 Prior to the settlement of this Action, Plaintiff Lisa Lefanty ("Plaintiff") and Defendant (jointly referred 7 to as the "Parties") thoroughly investigated the facts relating to the claims alleged in the operative
8 Complaint against Defendant. The Parties each propounded and responded to written discovery, Plaintiff
9 sat for a two-day deposition, and Defendant produced over five thousand pages of documents relating to 10 the exempt status of the ANM role, including a sampling of emails sent to and/or received by ANMs, 11 and documents tracking the workload of ANMs.

12 Thereafter, the Parties participated in a full day of private mediation and were ultimately able to 13 reach the current settlement. Significantly, the entire Gross Settlement Amount is non-reversionary, such 14 that no monies will revert to Defendant. The Parties believe that this amount is fair, adequate, and 15 reasonable, especially given the risks and uncertainty of class certification and the merits of this case.

16 While Plaintiff and her counsel believe that they could prevail on class certification and on the 17 merits of the claims at trial, they recognize the inherent risks in drawn-out litigation and the specific risk
18 that Plaintiff could fail to establish liability or that certification is appropriate. Based on their own
19 independent investigation and evaluation, the Parties and their respective counsel are of the opinion that 20 the settlement for the consideration and on the terms set forth the Class and Representative Action
21 Settlement Agreement ("Agreement" or "Settlement Agreement")¹ is fair, reasonable, and adequate and 22 is in the best interests of the Class and Defendant in light of all known circumstances and the expenses
23 and risks inherent in litigation. Therefore, the Parties respectfully request that the Court grant this 24 Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action Settlement.

28 ¹ A true and correct copy of the Settlement Agreement is attached to the Declaration of Kristen Agnew as Exhibit 1.

II. PROCEDURAL HISTORY

A. The PAGA Notice and Initial Complaint.

On April 29, 2021, Plaintiff filed a written notice with the California Labor & Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) alleging that Defendant violated Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 226, 226.3, 226.7, 256, 510, 1174, 1194 and 1197.1, IWC Wage Order MW-2014, MW-2017; IWC Wage Order No. 5-2001, pursuant to Labor Code section 2699 (“PAGA Notice”). See Declaration of Kristen M. Agnew (“Agnew Decl.”) ¶ 3, Exhibit 2. More specifically, Plaintiff alleged that Defendant misclassified Plaintiff and other ANM’s as exempt, although their position did not qualify for any exemption under California law. See id. Subsequently, on or about Jan 12, 2022, Plaintiff filed Amended PAGA Notice with the LWDA. See id. at ¶ 4, Exhibit 3.

On August 13, 2021, Plaintiff initiated the Action against Defendant in Stanislaus County Superior Court. In the Complaint, Plaintiff alleges class and representative PAGA claims predicated on Defendant’s alleged policy and practice of misclassifying ANMs as exempt employees. See Agnew Decl. ¶ 5. As a result of the alleged misclassification of ANMs, Plaintiff’s original Unverified Class Action Complaint alleged that Defendant: (1) failed to pay minimum wages for all hours worked; (2) failed to provide meal and rest periods; (3) failed to provide accurate wage statements; (4) failed to pay all wages upon termination; (5) failed to pay overtime wages; and (6) engaged in unlawful business practices. See id. Plaintiff also asserted a claim for civil PAGA penalties predicated on the Labor Code violations set forth in the PAGA Notice. See id.

On September 22, 2021, Defendant filed its Answer to Plaintiff’s Unverified Class Action Complaint, stating its general denial of all facts and allegations of the Complaint, and setting forth its affirmative defenses, including those predicated on the executive and administrative exemptions. See Agnew Decl. ¶ 6.

B. The Parties Engaged in Meaningful Discovery and Investigation.

As detailed in the Agnew Declaration, the Parties propounded and responded to written discovery, and stipulated to the production of the contact information of putative class members. See Agnew Decl. ¶¶ 7-10. Ultimately, Defendant produced over five thousand pages of documents, which

1 included documents relevant to the asserted exemption defenses, such as job descriptions, a sampling of 2 emails sent to and/or received by Assistant Nurse Managers, and documents tracking the patient
3 workload of Assistant Nurse Managers. See id. at ¶ 10. Plaintiff also sat for a two-day deposition. See id.
4 at ¶ 12.

5 In addition to formal discovery, Class Counsel extensively investigated the misclassification
6 claims alleged in the Action. See Agnew Decl. ¶ 12. Class Counsel expended a significant amount of 7 time and resources interviewing putative class members and obtained over one hundred declarations
8 from ANMs. See id.

9 C. The Parties Participated in Private Mediation.

10 On or about February 5, 2024, the Parties agreed to participate in private mediation with Jeff 11 Ross, an experienced wage and hour class action mediator. See Agnew Decl. ¶ 13. In advance of the 12 mediation, Defendant provided data points regarding the size of the putative class and value of the 13 claims, including, the number of putative class members, the number of putative class members who 14 terminated employment, the aggregate number of pay periods worked by putative class members, the 15 number of pay periods worked during the PAGA liability period, and the average salary of putative class 16 members. See id.

17 On August 7, 2024, the Parties engaged in mediation with Mr. Ross. See Agnew Decl. ¶ 14.
18 After the exchange of further information and extended negotiations following mediation, the Parties
19 reached the present class-wide settlement, memorialized by a written Memorandum of Understanding
20 (“MOU”) fully executed on September 17, 2024. See id. The mediation and all subsequent settlement
21 discussions were conducted at arms’ length. See id. at ¶ 17.

22 D. The Operative First Amended Complaint.

23 As a condition of settlement, the Parties agreed to stipulate to the filing of a Second Amended 24 PAGA Notice and First Amended Class Action Complaint for Damages (“Operative Complaint”) for the 25 purpose of ensuring that all claims covered by the settlement are alleged therein, including by adding 26 claims under the Fair Labor Standards Act, adding claims under Labor Code section 2802, and 27 expounding on the allegation supporting the off-the-clock and related unpaid wage claims. See Agnew
28 Decl. ¶ 18. The Operative Complaint was filed on January 23, 2025. The allegations in the Operative Complaint conform to the release discussed in Section III-H, infra. The Second Amended PAGA Notice was filed with the LWDA on January 17, 2025. See Agnew Decl. at ¶ 18, Exhibit 4.

III. THE PROPOSED TERMS OF THE SETTLEMENT.

A. Class and PAGA Employee Definitions.

The proposed Class consists of the following group of employees: “all persons who were employed by Defendant as Assistant Nurse Managers and/or Assistant Department Administrators under job codes 06017 and 949013 in the State of California at any time during the Class Period.” See SA § 1.5. The Class Period (also referred to as the Settlement Period) is defined to mean the period from August 13, 2017 through November 5, 2024. See id. at § 1.6. Defendant has represented that there are approximately 2,725 individuals that comprise the Class. See Agnew Decl. ¶ 18.

The Settlement also resolves the claims of “Aggrieved Employees,” which is defined to mean “all persons who were employed by Defendant as Assistant Nurse Managers and/or Assistant Department Administrators under job codes 06017 and 949013 in the State of California at any time during the PAGA Period.” See SA § 1.4. The PAGA Period means the period from April 29, 2020 through November 5, 2024. See id. at § 1.30.

B. The Gross Settlement Amount.

The Settlement Agreement requires the payment of Eleven Million Dollars ($11,000,000.00) as the Gross Settlement Amount. See SA § 1.21.² None of the Gross Settlement Amount will revert to Defendant. See id. at § 3.1. In addition to the Gross Settlement Amount, Defendant shall pay its share of any payroll taxes owed. See id.

C. Allocation to PAGA Penalties.

The Settlement allocates Three Hundred Thousand Dollars ($300,000.00) of the Gross Settlement

² The Gross Settlement Amount was calculated with, and is premised on, Defendant’s representation that Class Members worked 350,101 workweeks from August 13, 2017 through June 23, 2024. See SA § 8. In the event the actual number of workweeks worked by Class Members during the Class Period exceeds 385,112 workweeks (i.e. increases by more than ten percent (10%)), the Gross Settlement Amount shall increase proportionately for the percentage increase over ten percent (10%). See id. The workweek value shall be calculated by dividing the Gross Settlement Amount by 350,101 workweeks. See id. Defendant may elect to not contribute more and keep the covered workweeks capped at 385,112. See id. Should Defendant elect to cap the workweeks at 385,112 and not contribute more to the Gross Settlement Amount, the Class Period will close on the date the workweeks reach 385,112. See id.

Amount shall be allocated to PAGA penalties (“PAGA Penalties”). See SA § 1.33. Seventy-Five percent (75%) of the PAGA Penalties —i.e. the sum of Two Hundred Twenty-Five Thousand Dollars ($225,000.00)— will be paid to the LWDA. See id. at §§ 1.26, 3.2.5. The remaining twenty-five percent (25%) —i.e. the sum of Seventy-Five Thousand Dollars ($75,000.00) —will be distributed to Aggrieved Employees. See id. at § 3.2.5.

D. Individual Settlement Payments.

The balance of the Gross Settlement Amount remaining after deduction of approved attorneys’ fees and costs, the Class Representative Service Payment, payment of PAGA penalties to the LWDA and Aggrieved Employees, and Settlement Administration Costs, is the “Net Settlement Amount.” See SA § 1.27, 3.2.1, 3.2.2, 3.2.3, 3.2.5. Class Counsel estimates that the Net Settlement Amount will be at least $6,960,833.34. See Agnew Decl. ¶ 29.

The Net Settlement Amount will be available for distribution to Settlement Class Members (e.g. Class Members who do not opt-out of the settlement). See SA § 1.34.³ Settlement Class Members will be entitled to receive a portion of the Net Settlement Amount on a pro rata basis, based upon the total number of pay periods each Settlement Class Member worked during the Class Period. See id. at § 3.2.4. This is fair, as it directly allocates greater recovery to individual Settlement Class Members who have allegedly suffered greater harm. See Agnew Decl. ¶ 24. On raw average, each Settlement Class Member may potentially recover approximately $2,554.43. See id. at ¶ 29. The amount actually paid to each Settlement Class Member may increase or decrease depending on the actual number of workweeks and pay periods worked during the Class Period and/or the number of timely Requests for Exclusion received. See id.

One-third (1/3) of each Settlement Class Member’s Individual Class Payment will be allocated to settlement of wage claims and the remaining two-thirds (2/3) of each payment will be allocated in equal portions to settlement of claims for interest and penalties. See SA § 3.2.4.1.

Separately, Aggrieved Employees will be entitled to receive twenty-five percent (25%) of the PAGA Penalties on a pro rata basis, based upon the total number of pay periods each Aggrieved Employee

³ Class Members do not need to do anything should they wish to receive their share of the settlement funds. This substantially decreases the amount of burden each Class Member must bear in order to receive his/her settlement share. If a Class Member does not wish to take part in this settlement and be bound by the release of the class claims, he/she must submit an exclusion request. Such obligations are thoroughly identified in the Notice Packet. See SA, Exhibit A.

1 worked during the PAGA Period, regardless of whether the employee submits a timely and valid Request
2 for Exclusion from the Settlement Agreement. See SA See id. at § 3.2.5.1.⁴ The Individual PAGA
3 Payments shall be allocated as 100% penalties. See id.

4 The funds represented by uncashed settlement checks will be paid out pursuant to California Code
5 of Civil Procedure section 384 to the cy pres recipient, Lawyers' Committee for Civil Rights. See SA §
6 4.3.3. Neither Plaintiff nor Class Counsel maintains an interest in and/or relationship with the Lawyers'
7 Committee for Civil Rights. See Agnew Decl. ¶ 31; Declaration of Larry W. Lee ("Lee Decl.") ¶ 3; 8 Declaration of Kent Bradbury ("Bradbury Decl.") ¶ 17.

9 E. Attorneys' Fees and Reimbursement for Litigation Costs.

10 As part of the Settlement, Defendant does not object to Class Counsel's request for attorneys' fees
11 in the amount of one-third of the Gross Settlement Amount, which is currently estimated to be Three 12 Million Six Hundred Sixty-Six Thousand Six Hundred Sixty-Six Dollars and Sixty-Six Cents
13 ($3,666,666.66), and litigation costs up to Forty Thousand Dollars ($40,000.00), subject to the Court
14 finally approving this Settlement. See SA § 3.2.2. Any portion of the requested attorneys' fees and/or costs
15 not approved by the Court shall be added to the Net Settlement Amount. See id.

16 F. The Class Representative Service Payments to Plaintiff.

17 Plaintiff requests the payment of Class Representative Service Payment in the amount of Fifteen
18 Thousand Dollars ($15,000.00). See SA § 3.2.1. This amount is intended to compensate Plaintiff for her 19 effort and work in prosecuting this case, including meeting and communicating with Class Counsel,
20 preparing for and attending a two-day deposition, reviewing the pleadings and documents in this case, 21 including the PAGA Notice, Complaints and the Settlement Agreement. See Agnew Decl. ¶ 27.
22 Moreover, in consideration for the Class Representative Service Payment, Plaintiff also executed a general
23 release of all claims including a waiver under California Civil Code §1542, which other members of the 24 Class did not have to do. See SA § 5.1.1. Any portion of the Class Representative Service Payment that is 25 not approved by the Court shall become part of the Net Settlement Amount. See id. at § 3.2.1.

26 ⁴ There is no right to opt-out of or object to the PAGA settlement under the Settlement Agreement. See 27 SA § 5.3. Any Aggrieved Employee who opts out of the Settlement Agreement for purpose of the 28 proposed class action settlement will still be bound by the release of the PAGA claims and receive a portion of the PAGA penalties.

1 G. Settlement Administration Costs.

2 Finally, the Settlement provides for the payment of the fees and expenses reasonably incurred by 3 the Settlement Administrator. See SA § 3.2.3. The Parties have agreed to utilize CPT Group to 4 administer the settlement, with the administration costs estimated to be $17,500.00. See id. at §§ 1.2,
5 1.3, 3.2.3; Declaration of Julie Green (“Admin. Decl.”) ¶ 8, Exhibit B. Any portion of the settlement
6 administration costs not used or approved by the Court shall be added to the Net Settlement Amount.

7 H. Scope of the Class and PAGA Release.

8 Upon the final approval of the Settlement, Plaintiff and all Settlement Class Members will provide 9 a release to the Released Parties. Settlement Class Members will release the following claims:

10 [A]ny and all claims, debts, liabilities, demands, obligations, penalties,
11 premium pay, guarantees, costs, expenses, attorney’s fees, damages, actions
12 or causes of action of whatever kind or nature, whether known or unknown, 13 contingent or accrued, under any legal theory under federal and state law 14 for any alleged failure to pay all wages due (including minimum wage and 15 overtime wages), claims regarding misclassification, failure to pay for all 16 hours worked (including off-the clock work), failure to provide meal and 17 rest periods, short/late meal and rest periods, failure to relieve of all duties 18 during meal and rest periods, combining of meal and rest periods, that 19 Defendant’s exemption permit from the Division of Labor Standards 20 Enforcement is not valid or does not apply to Class Members, failure to 21 timely pay wages and final wages, failure to properly calculate the regular 22 rate of pay, failure to pay or properly calculate meal or rest period premiums,
23 failure to pay or properly calculate paid sick leave, including paid sick leave
24 under the Healthy Workplaces, Healthy Families Act, donning and doffing, 25 pre or post-shift testing or inspections, health status related activities
26 including testing, reporting, and queuing for testing, reporting time pay,
27 failure to furnish accurate wage statements including claims derivative 28 and/or related to these claims, liquidated damages, conversion of wages, that the Labor Code Section 514 exemption does not apply to Defendant’s employees, pre and post-shift work and record-keeping violations, up to and including the date of preliminary approval by the Court. This Release shall include all claims and theories arising under the California Labor Code, wage orders, and applicable regulations, including Labor Code Sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 206, 218, 218.5, 226, 226.3, 226.7, 227, 245 et seq., 510, 511, 512, 515, 517, 551, 552, 558, 1174, 1175, 1182.12, 1194, 1194.2, 1197,
1197.1, 1198, 1198.5, and 1199, all claims and theories arising under Labor
Code Section 2802 as well as claims under Business and Professions Code section 17200 et seq. based on alleged violations of the above Labor Code provisions, as alleged in the Action.

1 See SA § 5.2. The temporal scope of the release shall correspond to the Class Period. *See id.*⁵

2 Additionally, upon the final approval of the Settlement, Plaintiff and all Aggrieved Employees will 3 release the following claims:

4 [A]ll claims under the PAGA premised on the facts and/or allegations in 5 the Operative Complaint or PAGA Notices that arose during the PAGA
6 Period.

7 See SA § 5.3. As shown, the scope of the release is narrow and is limited to the claims that were, or that 8 could have been, asserted in the Operative Complaint.

9 IV. THE COURT SHOULD GRANT PRELIMINARY APPROVAL OF THE SETTLEMENT

10 To prevent fraud, collusion, or unfairness to the class, the settlement of a class action requires court
11 approval. Dunk v. Ford Motor Co., 48 Cal. App. 4th 1794, 1800-01 (1996). In considering whether a 12 settlement is reasonable, the trial court should consider relevant factors, which may include the strength 13 of plaintiff's case, the risk, expense, complexity and likely duration of further litigation, the risk of 14 maintaining class action status through trial, the amount offered in settlement, the extent of discovery
15 completed and the stage of the proceedings, the experience and views of counsel, the presence of a 16 governmental participant, and the reaction of the class members to the proposed settlement. Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc., 168 Cal. App. 4th 116, 128 (2008).

17 In order to approve a class action settlement, the court must satisfy itself that the class settlement
18 is within the "ballpark" of reasonableness. Kullar, 168 Cal. App. 4th. at 133. The record need not contain 19 an explicit statement of the maximum theoretical recovery. Munoz v. BCI Coca-Cola Bottling Co. of Los 20 Angeles, 186 Cal. App. 4th 399, 408-409 (2010).

21 As demonstrated in Sections II-A to II-C, the Settlement was reached through arm's length
22 negotiations between experienced wage and hour attorneys. Agnew Decl. ¶¶ 14-17.

26 ⁵ The release does not include any Labor Code section 2802 claims released by Class Members in connection with the 27 following actions: Jones, et al. v. Kaiser Foundation Hospitals, et al. (Los Angeles Sup. Ct. Case No. 23STCV04104), Uribe, 28 et al. v. Southern California Permanente Medical Group (Los Angeles Sup. Ct. Case No. 22STCV11259), and LeDoux v.
The Permanente Medical Group, Inc. (Alameda County Sup. Ct. Case No. 22CV019164). See SA § 5.2.

A. The Settlement is Fair and Reasonable as it Recognizes the Inherent Risk of Litigation.

Although Plaintiff and Class Counsel believe in the merits of the Action, they also believe the Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate, given the inherent risks of litigation, including the substantial risks relative to class certification, the costs of pursuing such litigation, and the risks associated with the Court's discretion to reduce PAGA penalties. See Agnew Decl. ¶¶ 32-52; Bradbury Decl. ¶¶ 11-13; Lee Decl. ¶ 2.⁶

The core dispute in this Action is whether Defendant misclassified Assistant Nurse Managers as exempt employees under the executive exemption. The executive exemption applies to employees who spend more than one-half of their work time engaged in managerial work, such as supervising multiple employees, participating in personnel decisions and employee development. Defendant maintains that it complied with the law, had lawful and compliant practices. Defendant further maintains that based on the work performed by ANMs, Class Members are exempt from California's overtime laws. See Agnew Decl. ¶ 34.

Plaintiff contends that, on an individual and collective basis, ANMs spend only a small percentage of time engaging in duties that are typically thought of as being managerial tasks. Agnew Decl. ¶ 33. Plaintiff further contends that ANMs spend more than fifty percent of their workday performing direct patient care side-by-side with nurses and other hourly, non-exempt employees. See id.

Defendant maintains that the Hospital complied with the law, had lawful and compliant practices, and properly classified ANMs as exempt employees. See Agnew Decl. ¶ 34. Defendant contends that the primary function of an Assistant Nurse Manager is to supervise the delivery of nursing services and patient care. See id. Indeed, as argued by Defendant, the complexity of the work performed by ANMs, coupled with the number of employees under their supervision, precludes an ANM from primarily engaging in work related to direct patient care. See id. Defendant further contends that, to the extent that an individual ⁶ Despite the asserted fairness of the settlement terms, as set forth in the Notice of Settlement of Class and Representative Action ("Notice"), should any Class Member wish to pursue his or her own case for the claims being released herein, each Class Member has the right to submit a request for exclusion (i.e., opt-out) from the settlement. Moreover, as set forth in the Notice, Class Members are advised of their right to object to any of the terms contained in the Stipulation and attend the final approval hearing.

1 ANM occasionally performs direct patient care, it is incidental to managerial work, such as providing 2 clinical supervision.

3 Class Counsel strongly believes that Plaintiff's claims are certifiable. See Agnew Decl. ¶ 35;
4 Jaimez v. Daiohs USA, Inc., 181 Cal.App.4th 1286, 1299 (2010) (holding trial court improperly denied
5 class certification by "focusing on the potential conflicting issues of fact or law on an individual basis,
6 rather than evaluating whether the theory of recovery advanced by the plaintiff is likely to prove amenable
7 to class treatment"); Metrow v. Liberty Mutual Managed Care LLC, 2017 WL 4786093, at *12 (C.D. Cal., 8 2017) (granting class certification despite some variation in job duties because "the work each class 9 member actually performs is sufficiently similar to determine whether or not it is primarily 10 administrative"). Class Counsel, however, also appreciates the acute challenges presented at class 11 certification. See Agnew Decl. ¶ 35. Actions asserting claims predicated on misclassification typically 12 involve both common and individualized issues. See Duran v. U.S. Bank National Assn., 59 Cal.4th 1, 27
13 (2014) ("Job requirements and employer expectations of how duties are to be performed may often be 14 established by evidence relating to a group as a whole"); Sav-on Drug Stores, Inc. v. Superior Court, 34
15 Cal.4th 319, 336-37 (2004) ("Any dispute over 'how the employee actually spends his or her time' 16 [citation], of course, has the potential to generate individual issues).

17 Here, Class Counsel anticipated that, in opposition to class certification, Defendant will rely on 18 declarations from putative class members that highlight the individual experiences of ANMs. See Agnew 19 Decl. ¶ 37. In this respect, Defendant argues that the day-to-day experiences of ANM varied widely based 20 on a variety of factors. See id. at ¶ 36. By way of example, Defendant argues that some ANMs worked in 21 outpatient facilities. See id. In this setting, rarely, if ever, would there be an occasion for an ANM to 22 provide direct patient care. See id. Relatedly, ANMs who have spent years working in an office setting
23 may lack the clinical competency to provide direct patient care. See id. Even within the hospital setting, 24 the experiences of ANMs may vary depending on their department, the level of care required by their 25 patients, and influxes in staffing. See id. Thus, as argued by Defendant, even if the evidence establishes 26 that some ANMs were misclassified, the evidence will also establish that other ANMs spent the majority 27 of their shifts performing managerial work. See id.

28 Furthermore, Plaintiff's underlying claims also face unique challenges from Defendant. The off-the-clock and meal period claims are particularly susceptible to arguments concerning manageability. See

1 Agnew Decl. ¶¶ 40, 44, 45. Defendant argues that any claim for unpaid wages is not suitable to be
2 adjudicated on a class-wide basis because the amount of overtime worked by ANMs will vary widely and
3 require mini-trials inquiring into the circumstances of each individual’s experience. See Agnew Decl. ¶
4 40. Relatedly, with respect to meal periods, an employer’s only obligation is to make the break available
5 to employees – not to police them. See Brinker Rest. Corp. v. Superior Ct., 53 Cal. 4th 1004, 1040, 273
6 P.3d 513, 537 (2012) (“On the other hand, the employer is not obligated to police meal breaks and ensure 7 no work thereafter is performed”). As argued by Defendant, an adjudication of the alleged meal period
8 violations would require individualized assessments as to the circumstances of each missed, delayed or 9 interrupted break. See Agnew Decl. ¶ 45.

10 The derivative wage statement and waiting time penalties claims are vulnerable to merit based 11 challenges at summary judgment. See Agnew Decl. ¶¶ 48, 51. As argued by Defendant, the derivative 12 wage statement violation is vulnerable to a motion for summary judgment based on the weaknesses of the 13 underlying primary claims. See Maldonado v. Epsilon Plastics, Inc., 22 Cal. App. 5th 1308 (2018) (finding 14 that the employees did not suffer a violation under 226(a) where their wage statement cause of action was 15 derived from an underlying wage and hour violation for overtime). Additionally, Plaintiff faces the 16 additional burden of demonstrating that any alleged omission of information from the wage statements
17 was a “knowing and intentional failure” by Defendant to comply with Labor Code section 226(a).

18 Furthermore, Defendant contends that it maintained a “good faith” belief that ANMs are properly 19 classified as exempt, which precludes the imposition of Section 226 and waiting time penalties, and 20 further undermines the certainty of recovering these damages even if Plaintiff prevailed on liability. See
21 Naranjo v. Spectrum Security Services, Inc., 15 Cal.5th 1056, 1087 (2024) (employer’s failure to include
22 meal and rest period premium pay on the wage statements was not “knowing and intentional” because it
23 had a good faith belief that it was not in violation of Labor Code section 226); Hill v. Walmart, Inc., 32
24 F.4th 811 (9th Cir. 2022) (upholding good faith defense because defendant reasonably believed wages
25 were not due and owing at time of separation of employment); Chavez v. Converse, Inc., 2020 WL 26 1233919, at *1 (N.D. Cal. 2020) (holding that an employer’s failure to pay is not willful where there is 27 uncertainty in the law or a “good faith mistaken belief that wages are not owed”); Naranjo v. Spectrum 28 Security Services, Inc., 88 Cal.App.5th 937, 948 (2023) (trial court properly declined to impose waiting time penalties where employer provided a “good faith” defense supported by the evidence).

With respect to evaluating the reasonableness of the settlement of the PAGA claim, the Court’s focus is not the amount that aggrieved employees will ultimately receive as a result of a settlement. Instead, “a trial court should evaluate a PAGA settlement to determine whether it is fair, reasonable, and adequate in view of PAGA’s purposes to remediate present labor law violations, deter future ones, and to maximize enforcement of state labor laws.” See Moniz v. Adecco USA, Inc., 72 Cal.App.5th 56, 77 (2021); see also Kang v. Wells Fargo Bank, N.A., 2021 WL 5826230, at *15 (N.D.Cal., 2021) (evaluating a PAGA settlement under the standard of whether the settlement terms “are fundamentally fair, reasonable, and adequate in view of PAGA’s public policy goals”). Here, the Settlement vindicates the rights of Aggrieved Employees who have experienced alleged violations of the Labor Code. O’Connor v. Uber Technologies, Inc., 201 F.Supp.3d 1110, 1134 (N.D. Cal. 2016) (“If the settlement for the Rule 23 class is robust, the purposes of PAGA may be concurrently fulfilled. By providing fair compensation to the class members as employees and substantial monetary relief, a settlement not only vindicates the rights of the class members as employees but may have a deterrent effect upon the defendant employer and other employers, an objective of PAGA”). The Settlement is also consistent with the State’s public policy favoring resolution of disputes. “California law favors the settlement of disputes as our high court clarified in Neary[]. Settlement is efficient; it reduces costs, saves resources, and minimizes court congestion. [] The parties are best positioned to understand their interests and resolve a dispute in a mutually beneficial manner without court intervention into the settlement.” Consumer Advocacy Group, Inc. v. Kintetsu, 141 Cal. App. 4th 46, 62-63 (2006) (citing Neary v. Regents of Univ. of Cal., 3 Cal. 4th 273, 277- 278 (1992)).

C. Potential Estimated Value of the Class and Representative PAGA Claims.

1. The Estimated Class Damages and Penalties.

Based on the class data provided by Defendant and the declarations obtained from Class Members, Class Counsel estimates that Defendant could face potential maximum liability of up to approximately $41,498,454.25 for the class claims, if Plaintiff prevailed at class certification and on the merits. See Agnew Decl. ¶¶ 38, 39, 41, 43, 47, 50, 52.

Even assuming Plaintiff ultimately prevailed on the PAGA claims, the Court still has discretion to reduce any PAGA penalties. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(e)(2), the Court can decline to award PAGA penalties where “if, based on the facts and circumstances of the particular case, to do otherwise, would result in an award that is unjust, arbitrary and oppressive, or confiscatory.” Indeed, as shown in the Court of Appeal’s decision in Carrington v. Starbucks Corp., 30 Cal. App. 5th 504 (2018), while the plaintiff prevailed on his PAGA claim upon trial, the trial court reduced the maximum PAGA penalty amount by 90%, citing the employer’s good faith attempt at complying with the law. Id. at 517. Upon review, the Court of Appeal found such a reduction to be proper. Id. at 539. Here, Defendant asserted that a substantial reduction in potential PAGA penalties was warranted because: (1) at a minimum, a good faith dispute exists as to whether ANMs may be properly classified as exempt employees; (2) any alleged violations of the Labor Code were inadvertent; and (2) Defendant maintains compliant wage and hour policies. See Agnew Decl. ¶ 55. Thus, even if Plaintiff was to successfully prove her claims at trial, there is a possibility that the Court may only award a small percentage of PAGA penalties, as the Court has discretion to do so.

approximately 10% of the total maximum, a more realistic estimate of Defendant’s maximum exposure is $42,592,884.25. See id. In this case, the Gross Settlement Amount is approximately 25.82% of the total estimated liability. See id. Numerous courts have held that gross settlements approximating between 8 and 25% of the defendant’s potential exposure are fair and reasonable.⁷

D. The Court Should Preliminarily Approve the Proposed Class Representative Service Payment to Plaintiff.

Plaintiff respectfully requests the payment of Class Representative Service Payment in the amount of Fifteen Thousand Dollars ($15,000.00). See SA § 3.2.1. Plaintiff personally met with Class Counsel on various occasions to discuss the case, provide documents and information to Class Counsel, review and verify discovery responses, and review the Settlement Agreement. See Declaration of Lisa Lefanty (“Lefanty Decl.”) ¶ 9. Plaintiff also prepared for, and appeared at, a two-day deposition. See id. In addition to the invaluable services that Plaintiff provided, she also took significant risks, both professionally and monetarily, in acting as the Class Representative and seeking benefits on behalf of the Class. See id. at ¶¶ 6, 7. Because the claims alleged by Plaintiff involved the payment of costs to the prevailing party, Plaintiff could have possibly faced paying the fees and costs of Defendant, had she not prevailed in this action. See id. at ¶ 7.

Further, given that future employers are much less likely to hire individuals who have filed suit against their prior employer, particularly cases of this nature, Plaintiff may face prejudice in the future from other potential employers. Plaintiff took this risk upon herself. See Lefanty Decl. ¶ 6. Class Members did not have to file individual lawsuits and bear the risks of payment of fees and costs if they did not ⁷ See, e.g., In re Mego Fin. Corp. Secs. Litig., 213 F.3d 454, 459 (9th Cir. 2000) (holding that class action settlement recovering 16% of potential exposure was fair and reasonable; “[i]t is well-settled law that a cash settlement amounting to only a fraction of the potential recovery does not per se render the settlement inadequate or unfair. Rather, the fairness and the adequacy of the settlement should be assessed relative to risks of pursuing the litigation to judgment”; noting that whether the settlement is fair and adequate depends on the “the difficulties in proving the case”); Bellinghausen v. Tractor Supply Co., No. 13-CV-02377-JSC, 2015 WL 1289342, at p.*6 (N.D. Cal. Mar. 20, 2015) (holding that class action settlement recovering between 8.5% and 25% of the defendant’s potential exposure was fair); Van Ba Ma v. Covidien Holding Inc., U.S. Dist. Ct. Case No. 8:12-cv-02161 (C.D. Cal. 2014) (granting preliminary approval of wage and hour class settlement which obtained only 9.1% of projected damages, given the risks of continued litigation); Villegas v. J.P. Morgan Chase & Co., No. CV 09-00261 SBA EMC, 2012 WL 5878390, at p.*6 (N.D. Cal. Nov. 21, 2012) (holding that gross class action settlement of approximately 15% of the potential recovery was fair and reasonable).

1 prevail, nor did they have to face the potential for retaliation and not getting future employment had they 2 filed a public lawsuit.

3 Notably, courts have routinely granted approval of representative enhancements for far greater
4 amounts than the $15,000.00 sought by Plaintiff in this case. See, e.g., Van Vranken v. Atlantic Richfield
5 Co., 901 F. Supp. 294, 299-300 (N.D. Cal. 1995) (incentive award of $50,000); In re Dun & Bradstreet
6 Credit Servs. Customer Litig., 130 F.R.D. 366, 374 (S.D. Ohio 1990) (two incentive awards of $55,000,
7 and three incentive awards of $35,000); Brotherton v. Cleveland, 141 F. Supp. 2d 907, 913-14 (S.D. Ohio
8 2001) (granting a $50,000 incentive award); Enter. Energy Corp. v. Columbia Gas Transmission Corp., 9 137 F.R.D. 240, 251-52 (S.D. Ohio 1991) ($50,000 awarded to each class representative); Glass v. UBS
10 Fin. Servs., No. C-06-4068, 2007 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 8476, at *51-52 (N.D. Cal. Jan. 27, 2007) (awarding 11 $25,000 incentive award in FLSA overtime wages class action); Cook v. Niedert, 142 F.3d 1004, 1016
12 (7th Cir. 1998) (affirming $25,000 Incentive award to class representative in ERISA case). Here, Plaintiff 13 requests an enhancement of $15,000, which is reasonable and consistent with case law.

14 E. The Requested Attorneys' Fees and Litigation Costs Are Reasonable, Fair, and 15 Appropriate.

16 California state and federal courts have recognized that an appropriate method for determining 17 award of attorneys' fees is based on a percentage of the total value of benefits to Class Members by the 18 settlement. Wershba v. Apple Computer, Inc., 91 Cal. App. 4th 224, 254 (2001); Serrano v. Priest, 20 Cal.
19 3d 25, 34 (1977) ("Serrano III"); Boeing Co. v. Van Gemert, 444 U.S. 472, 478 (1980); Vincent v. Hughes
20 Air West, Inc., 557 F.2d 759, 769 (9th Cir. 1997). The purpose of this equitable doctrine is to avoid unjust 21 enrichment of counsel and to "spread litigation costs proportionally among all the beneficiaries so that the 22 active beneficiary does not bear the entire burden alone." Vincent, 557 F.2d at 769.

23 Under California law, the award of attorneys' fees in common fund wage and hour class action
24 settlements should start with the percentage method. See Laffitte v. Robert Half Int'l, 1 Cal. 5th 480, 503
25 (Aug. 11, 2016) ("We join the overwhelming majority of federal and state courts in holding that when 26 class action litigation establishes a monetary fund for the benefit of the class members, and the trial court 27 in its equitable powers awards class counsel a fee out of that fund, the court may determine the amount of 28 a reasonable fee by choosing an appropriate percentage of the fund created"). Under the percentage of the fund method, the Court's objective remains to "mimic the market" in fixing a reasonable fee. See Gaskill

1 v. Gordon, 160 F.3d 361, 363 (7th Cir. 1998) (J. Posner) (“When a fee is set by a court rather than by
2 contract, the object is to set it at a level that will approximate what the market will set...The judge, in 3 other words, is trying to mimic the market in legal services”).

4 The results delivered by Class Counsel also support the requested percentage of the fund. Here,
5 the Parties have agreed to a payment of a maximum of one-third of the Gross Settlement Amount for 6 payment to Class Counsel as attorneys’ fees, which is currently estimated to be Three Million Six Hundred 7 Sixty-Six Thousand Six Hundred Sixty-Six Dollars and Sixty-Six Cents ($3,666,666.66). See SA § 3.2.2.
8 The Parties have agreed to a payment of the foregoing attorney’s fees and, thus, this payment should be 9 presumed to be fair.

10 Further, it is not uncommon for courts to award attorneys’ fees as one-third or 33.3% of the 11 settlement amount in wage and hour class action settlements. For example, in McKinnon v. Best Buy Co.,
12 Inc., (Alameda Superior Court Case No. RG03082294), the court awarded over $9 million as attorneys’
13 fees, which was 33% of the maximum settlement amount of $26.9 million. At the time of final approval, 14 Class Counsel will also provide the court with declarations and time records to show that a payment of 15 one-third of the recovery is justified and fair even under the lodestar method.

16 The Parties have also agreed to reimbursement of Class Counsel’s litigation costs. Class Counsel
17 have, at their own risk, expended costs, for example, to file this instant action, service of process, payment 18 of mediation fees and other litigation related costs. Lee Decl. ¶ 4. Based on the foregoing, the court should 19 preliminarily approve the attorney’s fees and costs being requested by the Parties.

20 F. The Settlement Administrator’s Fees are Reasonable.

21 The Parties request that CPT Group be appointed as the claims representative in this case. The 22 Parties have agreed to an estimated payment of Seventeen Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($17,500.00)
23 to CPT Group to send notices and to administer this settlement. See SA §§ 1.2, 1.3, 3.2.3; Admin. Decl. ¶
24 8. CPT Group is a well-recognized class action settlement administrator. See Admin. Decl. ¶ 6, Ex. A.

25 V. THE PROPOSED CLASS MEETS ALL CERTIFICATION REQUIREMENTS

26 A. The Class is Ascertainable and Sufficiently Numerous.

27 The Class that Plaintiff seeks to conditionally certify is ascertainable. “Class members are 28 ‘ascertainable’ where they may be readily identified without unreasonable expense or time by reference to official records.” Lee v. Dynamex, Inc., 166 Cal. App. 4th 1325, 1334 (2008). Defendant has determined

1 that there are approximately 2,725 employees that comprise the Class. See Agnew Decl. ¶ 19. Thus, the 2 Class is sufficiently numerous. See Preston v. Porch.com, Inc., 2022 WL 1214710, at *3 (S.D. Cal., 2022)
3 (a “presumption of numerosity created by twenty-five to thirty members”); Rannis v. Recchia, 380
4 Fed.Appx. 646, 650 (9th Cir. 2010) (district court “did not abuse its discretion in determining that the 5 class of 20 satisfies the numerosity requirement”).

6 B. There are Common Questions of Law and Plaintiff Claims are Typical of the 7 Class.

8 The commonality requirement is met when there are questions of law and fact common to the class.
9 See Hanlon v. Chrysler Corp., 150 F.3d 1011, 1019 (1998) (“The existence of shared legal issues with 10 divergent legal factual predicates is sufficient, as is a common core of salient facts couple with disparate
11 legal remedies within the class”). Commonality requires only that some common legal or factual questions
12 exist; the plaintiffs need not show that all issues in the litigation are identical. See Richmond v. Dart
13 Industries, Inc., 29 Cal. 3d 462, 473 (1981). Defendant’s conduct is central to the commonality inquiry.
14 See City of San Jose v. Superior Court, 12 Cal. 3d 447, 460 (1974); Vasquez v. Superior Court, 4 Cal. 3d
15 800, 812-13 (1971). Where the employer’s conduct is uniformly directed at a class of employees, as it is 16 here, the class wide impact of the Defendant’s policies satisfies the commonality requirement. See 17 Stephens v. Montgomery Ward & Co., 193 Cal. App. 3d 411, 421 (1987). Here, Plaintiff alleges, in part,
18 that Defendant, as a matter of its corporate policy, practice, or procedure violated the Labor Code by 19 misclassifying ANM’s as exempt, although their position did not qualify for any exemption under 20 California law. See Lefanty Decl. ¶¶ 2-4. In other words, Plaintiff was allegedly subjected to the same 21 policy and practice as other Class Members. Thus, Plaintiff’s claims are typical to those of Class Members.

22 C. Plaintiff and Class Counsel Have Adequately Represented the Class.

23 The adequacy requirement is also met. “Adequacy of representation depends on whether the 24 plaintiff’s attorney is qualified to conduct the proposed litigation and the plaintiff’s interests are not 25 antagonistic to the interests of the class.” McGhee v. Bank of Am., 60 Cal. App. 3d 442, 450 (1976). Here, 26 Plaintiff does not have any interests adverse to the Class, nor have any such issues been raised or presented.
27 See Lefanty Decl. ¶ 8. Plaintiff has taken all necessary steps to represent the interests of the Class, by 28 providing information and documents. See id. at ¶ 9. For such reasons, Plaintiff has adequately represented the Class Members and will continue to do so.

Further, as detailed in their declarations, Class Counsel are experienced and well-qualified class action litigators who have litigated many wage and hour class actions and have each been certified as class counsel in numerous other class actions, particularly wage and hour class actions. Agnew Decl. ¶¶ 59-65; Bradbury Decl. ¶¶ 3-8; Lee Decl. ¶¶ 5-8. From the inception of the case, Class Counsel have solely represented the interest of the Class. For example, Class Counsel expended significant time and resources propounding and responding to written discovery, preparing for and defending Plaintiff's deposition, exchanging informal discovery, drafting a mediation statement, and attending mediation. See Agnew Decl. ¶¶ 7-15. Finally, the mediation and settlement were also obtained for the benefit of the Class, not for the individual Plaintiff.

VI. NOTICE TO THE LWDA

Concurrently with the filing of this motion, Plaintiff submitted the Settlement Agreement and supporting documents to the LWDA. See Agnew Decl. ¶¶ 65, 66, Exhibit 4.

VII. CONCLUSION

Here, the proposed settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable. It will result in both substantial monetary benefits to Class Members; it is non-collusive; and it was achieved as the result of informed, extensive, and arm's length negotiations conducted by counsel for the respective Parties who are experienced in wage and hour class action litigation. For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court grant preliminary approval of the proposed settlement, sign the proposed Order, approve and authorize mailing of the proposed Class Notice, and set a date for a final approval hearing.
