GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

INTRODUCTION

1. This is a Class Action, pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 382, against UNIX PACKAGING, LLC, a California limited liability company, and any of its respective subsidiaries or affiliated companies within the State of California ("UNIX"), UNIX PACKAGING, INC., a California corporation, and any of its respective subsidiaries or affiliated companies within the State of California ("UNIX INC.") and SOUTH BAY SAFETY INC., a California corporation, and any of its respective subsidiaries or affiliated companies within the State of California ("SOUTH BAY" and, collectively with UNIX, UNIX INC., and DOES 1 through 100, as further defined below, "Defendants") on behalf of Plaintiff and all other current and former non-exempt California employees employed by or formerly employed by Defendants ("Class Members").

2. This is also a representative action, pursuant to the Labor Code Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, codified at Labor Code section 2698, et seq. ("PAGA"), against Defendants, as a proxy of the Labor and Workforce Development Agency of the State of California ("LWDA"), on behalf of Plaintiff and all other current and former non-exempt employees of Defendants working within the Civil Penalty Period, as further defined herein, and, as it pertains to the alleged claims for failure to comply with Labor Code section 2810.5, Labor Code section 203, Labor Code section 226, Labor Code section 227.3, Labor Code section 246, et seq., Labor Code section 2802, restraints on competition, whistleblowing and freedom of speech on behalf of all employees of Defendants working within the Civil Penalty Period (collectively, "Aggrieved Employees").

PARTIES

A. Plaintiff

3. Plaintiff is a resident of the State of California. At all relevant times herein, Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges that Defendants employed Plaintiff as a non-exempt employee, with duties that included, but were not limited to, driving forklifts and working on the production line. Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that Plaintiff

1 worked for Defendants from approximately April of 2019 through approximately August of 2020.

2 B. Defendants

3 4. Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that defendant UNIX is,
4 and at all times relevant hereto was, a limited liability company organized and existing under and 5 by virtue of the laws of the State of California and doing business in the County of Los Angeles,
6 State of California. Plaintiff is further informed and believes and based thereon alleges that UNIX
7 is a "client employer" within the meaning of Labor Code section 2810.3, that procures workers from 8 SOUTH BAY. At all relevant times herein, defendant UNIX employed Plaintiff and other similarly 9 situated employees within the State of California.

10 5. Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that defendant UNIX
11 INC., is, and at all times relevant hereto was, a corporation organized and existing under and by 12 virtue of the laws of the State of California and doing business in the County of Los Angeles, State
13 of California. Plaintiff is further informed and believes and based thereon alleges that UNIX, INC., 14 is a "client employer" within the meaning of Labor Code section 2810.3, that procures workers from 15 SOUTH BAY. At all relevant times herein, defendant UNIX INC. employed Plaintiff and other 16 similarly situated employees within the State of California.

17 6. Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that defendant SOUTH
18 BAY is, and at all times relevant hereto was, a corporation organized and existing under and by
19 virtue of the laws of the State of California and doing business in the County of Los Angeles, State
20 of California. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that SOUTH BAY is a
21 labor contractor within the meaning of Labor Code section 2810.3 that provides outplacement
22 staffing and payroll services for various industries and professions, including for UNIX and UNIX
23 INC. At all relevant times herein, SOUTH BAY employed Plaintiff and similarly situated 24 employees within the State of California.

25 7. The true names and capacities, whether individual, corporate, associate, or otherwise,
26 of defendants sued herein as DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, are currently unknown to Plaintiff,
27 who therefore sues defendants by such fictitious names under Code of Civil Procedure section 474.
28 Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that each of the defendants designated

1 herein as DOE is legally responsible in some manner for the unlawful acts referred to herein.
2 Plaintiff will seek leave of court to amend this Complaint to reflect the true names and capacities of 3 the defendants designated hereinafter as DOES when such identities become known. Plaintiff is 4 informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that each defendant acted in all respects pertinent
5 to this action, as the agent of the other defendant(s), carried out a joint scheme, business plan or 6 policy in all respects pertinent hereto, and the acts of each defendant are legally attributable to the 7 other defendants. Whenever, heretofore or hereinafter, reference is made to "Defendants," it shall 8 include UNIX, SOUTH BAY, and any of their parent, subsidiary, or affiliated companies within the 9 State of California, as well as DOES 1 through 100 identified herein.

10 JOINT LIABILITY ALLEGATIONS

11 8. Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that all the times
12 mentioned herein, each of the Defendants was the agent, principal, employee, employer, 13 representative, joint venture or co-conspirator of each of the other defendants, either actually or 14 ostensibly, and in doing the things alleged herein acted within the course and scope of such agency, 15 employment, joint venture, and conspiracy.

16 9. All of the acts and conduct described herein of each and every corporate defendant 17 was duly authorized, ordered, and directed by the respective and collective defendant corporate 18 employers, and the officers and management-level employees of said corporate employers. In 19 addition thereto, said corporate employers participated in the aforementioned acts and conduct of 20 their said employees, agents, and representatives, and each of them; and upon completion of the 21 aforesaid acts and conduct of said corporate employees, agents, and representatives, the defendant
22 corporation respectively and collectively ratified, accepted the benefits of, condoned, lauded, 23 acquiesced, authorized, and otherwise approved of each and all of the said acts and conduct of the 24 aforementioned corporate employees, agents and representatives.

25 10. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that there exists such a 26 unity of interest and ownership between Defendants, and each of them, that their individuality and 27 separateness have ceased to exist.

28 / / /

11. As a result of the aforementioned facts, Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges that Defendants, and each of them, are joint employers.

JURISDICTION

12. Jurisdiction exists in the Superior Court of the State of California pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 410.10.

13. Venue is proper in Los Angeles County, California pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure sections 392, et seq. because, among other things, Los Angeles County is where the causes of action complained of herein arose; the county in which the employment relationship began; the county in which performance of the employment contract, or part of it, between Plaintiff and Defendants was due to be performed; the county in which the employment contract, or part of it, between Plaintiff and Defendants was actually performed; and the county in which Defendants, or some of them, reside. Moreover, the unlawful acts alleged herein have a direct effect on Plaintiff and Class Members in Los Angeles County, and because Defendants employ numerous Class Members in Los Angeles County.

14. Plaintiff is an "aggrieved employee" under PAGA, as Plaintiff was employed by Defendants during the applicable statutory period and suffered one or more of the Labor Code violations set forth herein. Accordingly, Plaintiff seeks to recover civil penalties, as the term "civil penalty" is defined under ZB N.A. v. Superior Court (2019) 8 Cal.5th 175, under the Labor Code Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, codified at Labor Code section 2698, et seq. ("PAGA") plus reasonable attorneys' fees and costs, for Plaintiff and all other aggrieved current and former employees of Defendants during the Civil Penalty Period.

15. Specifically, Plaintiff seeks to recover PAGA civil penalties through a representative action permitted by PAGA and the California Supreme Court in, among other authorities, Arias v. Superior Court (2009) 46 Cal.4th 969. According to the same authorities, class certification of the PAGA allegations described herein is not required.

16. During the period beginning one (1) year preceding the provision of notice to the LWDA regarding the herein-described Labor Code violations (the "Civil Penalty Period"), Defendants violated, inter alia, Labor Code sections 96, 98.6, 200, 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 226, 226.3, 226.7, 227.3, 232, 232.5, 246, et seq., 432, 510, 512, 558, 1102.5, 1174, 1174.5, 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1197.5, 1198.5, 2699, 2802, and 2810.5, among others.

17. Labor Code section 2699, subdivisions (a) and (g), authorizes aggrieved employees such as Plaintiff, on behalf of Plaintiff and all other aggrieved current and former employees within the statutory period, to bring a civil action to recover civil penalties pursuant to the procedures specified in Labor Code section 2699.3.

18. On or around April 27, 2021 and September 23, 2021, Plaintiff provided written notice pursuant to Labor Code section 2699.3 online and by certified mail, with return receipt requested, of Defendants' violation of various, including the herein-described, provisions of the Labor Code, to the LWDA, as well as by certified mail, with return receipt requested to Defendants, and each of them.

19. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699.3, subdivision (a)(2)(A), the LWDA did not provide notice of its intention to investigate Defendants' alleged violations within sixty-five (65) calendar days of the April 27, 2021 postmarked date of the herein-described notice sent by Plaintiff to the LWDA and Defendants.

20. On April 6, 2020, the Judicial Council of California approved Appendix I – Emergency Rules Related to COVID-19. Pursuant to the Amended Emergency Rule 9 of the California Rules of Court, subdivision (a), the statutes of limitations and repose for civil causes of action were tolled from April 6, 2020 until October 1, 2020.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

21. For at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this action and continuing to the present, Defendants have failed to pay overtime wages to Plaintiff and Class Members, or some of them, in violation of California state wage and hour laws as a result of, without limitation, Plaintiff and Class Members working over eight (8) hours per day, forty (40) hours per week, and seven consecutive work days in a work week without being properly compensated for hours worked in excess of (8) hours per day in a work day, forty (40) hours per week in a work week, and/or hours worked on the seventh consecutive work day in a work week by, among other things, failing to accurately track and/or pay for all minutes actually worked; engaging, suffering, or permitting

1 employees to work off the clock, including, without limitation, by requiring employees: to come
2 early to work and leave late work without being able to clock in for all that time, to suffer under 3 Defendant's control due to long lines for clocking in, to complete pre-shift tasks before clocking in 4 and post-shift tasks after clocking out, to clock out for meal periods and continue working, to don 5 and doff uniforms and/or safety equipment off the clock, detrimental rounding of employee time 6 entries, editing and/or manipulation of time entries to show less hours than actually worked, and for 7 paying straight pay instead of overtime pay, to the detriment of Plaintiff and Class Members.

8 22. For at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this Action and continuing to the 9 present, Defendants have failed to pay minimum wages to Plaintiff and Class Members, or some of 10 them, in violation of California state wage and hour laws as a result of, among other things, failing
11 to accurately track and/or pay for all hours actually worked at their regular rate of pay that is above 12 the minimum wage and by requiring employees: to come early to work and leave late work without 13 being able to clock in for all that time, to suffer under Defendants' control due to long lines for 14 clocking in, to complete pre-shift tasks before clocking in and post-shift tasks after clocking out, to 15 clock out for meal periods and continue working, to don and doff uniforms and/or safety equipment
16 off the clock, detrimental rounding of employee time entries, editing and/or manipulation of time
17 entries to show less hours than actually worked to the detriment of Plaintiff and Class Members.

18 23. For at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this Action and continuing to the 19 present, Defendants have failed to provide Plaintiff and Class Members, or some of them, full, 20 timely thirty (30) minute uninterrupted meal period for days on which they worked more than five 21 (5) hours in a work day and a second thirty (30) minute uninterrupted meal period for days on which 22 they worked in excess of ten (10) hours in a work day, and failing to provide compensation for such 23 unprovided meal periods as required by California wage and hour laws.

24 24. For at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this action and continuing to the 25 present, Defendants have failed to authorize and permit Plaintiff and Class Members, or some of 26 them, to take rest periods of at least ten (10) minutes per four (4) hours worked or major fraction 27 thereof and failed to provide compensation for such unprovided rest periods as required by 28 California wage and hour laws.

1 25. For at least three (3) years prior to the filing of this action and continuing to the 2 present, Defendants have failed to pay Plaintiff and Class Members, or some of them, the full
3 amount of their wages owed to them upon termination and/or resignation as required by Labor Code
4 sections 201 and 202, including for, without limitation, failing to pay overtime wages, minimum 5 wages, and premium wages.

6 26. For at least one (1) year prior to the filing of this Action and continuing to the present,
7 Defendants have failed to furnish Plaintiff and Class Members, or some of them, with itemized wage
8 statements that accurately reflect gross wages earned; total hours worked; net wages earned; all
9 applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours
10 worked at each hourly rate; the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer; and other 11 such information as required by Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a). As a result thereof,
12 Defendants have further failed to furnish employees with an accurate calculation of gross and gross 13 wages earned, as well as gross and net wages paid.

14 27. For at least three (3) years prior to the filing of this action and continuing to the 15 present, Defendants have failed to indemnify Class Members, or some of them, for the costs incurred 16 in purchase and maintenance of personal cellular phones used for work-related purposes.

17 28. Plaintiff, on his own behalf and on behalf of Class Members, brings this action
18 pursuant to, including but not limited to, Labor Code sections 200, 201, 202, 203, 226, 226.7, 510,
19 512, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 2802, 2810.3, et al., and California Code of Regulations, Title 8, section 20 11010, seeking overtime wages, minimum wages, payment of premium wages for missed meal and 21 rest periods, waiting time penalties, wage statement penalties, failure to indemnify work-related 22 expenses, other such provisions of California law, and reasonable attorneys' fees and costs.

23 29. Plaintiff, on Plaintiff's own behalf and on behalf of Class Members, pursuant to 24 Business and Professions Code sections 17200 through 17208, also seeks (an) injunction(s)
25 prohibiting Defendants from further violating the Labor Code and requiring the establishment of 26 appropriate and effective means to prevent further violations, as well as all monies owed but 27 withheld and retained by Defendants to which Plaintiff and Class Members are entitled, as well as 28 restitution of amounts owed.

1 30. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants have had a policy or practice of
2 failing to comply with the notice requirements of Labor Code section 2810.5 (i.e., the Wage Theft
3 Protection Act of 2011) by, among other things, failing to provide Plaintiff and other Aggrieved
4 Employees with the rates of pay and overtime rates of pay applicable to their employment;
5 allowances claimed as part of the minimum wage; the regular payday designated by Defendants; the 6 name, address, and telephone number of the workers' compensation insurance carrier; information
7 regarding paid sick leave; and other pertinent information required to be disclosed by Defendants
8 under Labor Code section 2810.5. Plaintiff is informed and believes this violation further involves 9 mandatory payroll or workplace injury reporting.

10 31. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and 11 other Aggrieved Employees with the amount of paid sick leave required to be provided pursuant to 12 California law (including, without limitation Labor Code section 246, et seq.), and also did not 13 permit its use upon request as contemplated under California laws, to the detriment of Plaintiff and 14 all other Aggrieved Employees. Plaintiff is informed and believes this violation further involves 15 mandatory payroll reporting.

16 32. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants have had a policy or practice of 17 failing to pay Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees their wages in accordance with Labor Code 18 Section 204, which requires that: "[l]abor performed between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, of 19 any calendar month shall be paid for between the 16th and 26th day of the month during which the 20 labor was performed, and labor performed between the 16th and the last day, inclusive of any 21 calendar month, shall be paid for between the 1st and 10th day of the following month."

22 33. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice
23 of preventing Plaintiff and/or Aggrieved Employees from using or disclosing the skills, knowledge
24 and experience they obtained at Defendants for purposes of competing with Defendants, including,
25 without limitation, preventing Employees from disclosing their wages in negotiating a new job with 26 a prospective employer, and from disclosing who else works at Defendants and under what 27 circumstances that they might be receptive to an offer from a rival employer. Plaintiff is informed 28 and believes that this policy and/or practice violates Business and Professions Code sections 17200,

1 16600 and 16700, and, by virtue thereof, various provisions of the Labor Code, including Labor
2 Code sections 232, 232.5, and 1197.5, subdivision (k).

3 34. Defendants had and have a policy or practice of preventing Plaintiff and/or other
4 Aggrieved Employees from disclosing violations of state and federal law, either within Defendants
5 to their managers or outside to private attorneys or government officials, among others, in violation
6 of Business and Professions Code section 17200, and, thus, in violation of Labor Code section
7 1102.5. In addition, Plaintiff is informed and believes that Defendants' herein-described policies
8 and/or practices prevent Plaintiff and/or other Aggrieved Employees from disclosing information
9 about unsafe or discriminatory working conditions, or about wage and hour violations in violation
10 of Labor Code section 232 and 232.5.

11 35. Defendants had and have a policy or practice of preventing Plaintiff and/or other
12 Aggrieved Employees from engaging in lawful conduct during non-work hours, thus violating state 13 statutes entitling employees to disclose wages, working conditions, and illegal conduct, including,
14 without limitation, Labor Code sections 96, subdivision (k), 98.6, 232, 232.5, and 1197.5, 15 subdivision (k). Plaintiff is informed and believes that this lawful conduct includes the exercise of 16 Plaintiff's and/or other Aggrieved Employee's constitutional rights of freedom of speech and 17 economic liberty.

18 36. Plaintiff, in Plaintiff's representative capacity, seeks civil penalties under Labor
19 Code sections 210, 226.3, 558, 1174.5, 1197.1, and 2699 for the herein-described acts, which violate
20 the California Labor Code as described above, including on behalf of Plaintiff and other Aggrieved
21 Employees pursuant to PAGA.

22 CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

23 37. Plaintiff brings this action on behalf of Plaintiff and Class Members as a class action
24 pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 382. Plaintiff seeks to represent a class of all current 25 and former non-exempt employees of Defendants within the State of California at any time
26 commencing four (4) years preceding the filing of Plaintiff's complaint up until the time that notice
27 of the class action is provided to the class (collectively referred to as "Class Members").

28 / / /

1 38. Plaintiff reserves the right under California Rule of Court rule 3.765, subdivision (b)
2 to amend or modify the class description with greater specificity, further divide the defined class
3 into subclasses, and to further specify or limit the issues for which certification is sought.

4 39. This action has been brought and may properly be maintained as a class action under 5 the provisions of Code of Civil Procedure section 382 because there is a well-defined community
6 of interest in the litigation and the proposed Class is easily ascertainable.

7 A. Numerosity

8 40. The potential Class Members as defined are so numerous that joinder of all the 9 members of the Class is impracticable. While the precise number of Class Members has not been 10 determined yet, Plaintiff is informed and believes that there are at least eighty (80) Class Members
11 employed by Defendants within the State of California.

12 41. Accounting for employee turnover during the relevant periods necessarily increases 13 this number. Plaintiff alleges Defendants' employment records would provide information as to the 14 number and location of all Class Members. Joinder of all members of the proposed Class is not 15 practicable.

16 B. Commonality

17 42. There are questions of law and fact common to Class Members. These common 18 questions include, but are not limited to:

- 19 A. Did Defendants violate Labor Code sections 510 and 1194 by failing to pay all hours 20 worked at a proper overtime rate of pay?
- 21 B. Did Defendants violate Labor Code sections 510, 1194 and 1197 by failing to pay 22 for all other time worked at the employee's regular rate of pay and a rate of pay that 23 is greater than the applicable minimum wage?
- 24 C. Did Defendants violate Labor Code section 512 by not authorizing or permitting 25 Class Members to take compliant meal periods?
- 26 D. Did Defendants violate Labor Code section 226.7 by not providing Class Members 27 with additional wages for missed or interrupted meal periods?

28 / / /

- 1 E. Did Defendants violate applicable Wage Orders by not authorizing or permitting
2 Class Members to take compliant rest periods?
- 3 F. Did Defendants violate Labor Code section 226.7 by not providing Class Members 4 with additional wages for missed rest periods?
- 5 G. Did Defendants violate Labor Code sections 201 and 202 by failing to pay Class
6 Members upon termination or resignation all wages earned?
- 7 H. Are Defendants liable to Class Members for waiting time penalties under Labor Code 8 section 203?
- 9 I. Did Defendants violate Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a) by not furnishing 10 Class Members with accurate wage statements?
- 11 J. Did Defendants fail to indemnify Class Members for all necessary expenditures or 12 losses incurred in direct consequence of the discharge of their duties or by obedience 13 to the directions of Defendants as required under Labor Code section 2802?
- 14 K. Did Defendants violate the Unfair Competition Law, Business and Professions Code 15 section 17200, et seq., by their unlawful practices as alleged herein?
- 16 L. Are Class Members entitled to restitution of wages under Business and Professions
17 Code section 17203?
- 18 M. Are Class Members entitled to costs and attorneys' fees?
- 19 N. Are Class Members entitled to interest?

20 C. Typicality

21 43. The claims of Plaintiff herein alleged are typical of those claims which could be 22 alleged by any Class Members, and the relief sought is typical of the relief which would be sought 23 by each Class Member in separate actions. Plaintiff and Class Members sustained injuries and 24 damages arising out of and caused by Defendants' common course of conduct in violation of laws
25 and regulations that have the force and effect of law and statutes as alleged herein.

26 D. Adequacy of Representation

27 44. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately represent and protect the interest of Class 28 Members. Counsel who represents Plaintiff is competent and experienced in litigating wage and 1 hour class actions.

2 E. Superiority of Class Action

3 45. A class action is superior to other available means for the fair and efficient
4 adjudication of this controversy. Individual joinder of all Class Members is not practicable, and 5 questions of law and fact common to Class Members predominate over any questions affecting only 6 individual Class Members. Class Members, as further described therein, have been damaged and 7 are entitled to recovery by reason of Defendants' policies and/or practices that have resulted in the 8 violation of the Labor Code at times, as set out herein.

9 46. Class action treatment will allow Class Members to litigate their claims in a manner
10 that is most efficient and economical for the parties and the judicial system. Plaintiff is unaware of 11 any difficulties that are likely to be encountered in the management of this action that would 12 preclude its maintenance as a class action.

13 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

14 (Failure to Pay Overtime Wages – Against All Defendants)

15 47. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference all of the allegations contained in 16 the preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth hereat.

17 48. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and Class Members were employees or former
18 employees of Defendants covered by Labor Code sections 510, 1194 and 1199, as well as applicable
19 Wage Orders.

20 49. At all times relevant to this Complaint, Labor Code section 510 was in effect and 21 provided: "(a) Eight hours of labor constitutes a day's work. Any work in excess of eight hours in 22 one workday and any work in excess of forty hours in any one workweek . . . shall be compensated
23 at the rate of no less than one and one-half times the regular rate of pay for an employee."

24 50. At all times relevant to this Complaint, Labor Code section 510 further provided that 25 "[a]ny work in excess of 12 hours in one day shall be compensated at the rate of no less than twice
26 the regular rate of pay for an employee. In addition, any work in excess of eight hours on any 27 seventh day of a workweek shall be compensated at the rate of no less than twice the regular rate of 28 pay."

51. Four (4) years prior to the filing of the Complaint in this Action through the present, Plaintiff and Class Members worked for Defendants during shifts that consisted of more than eight (8) hours in a workday and/or more than forty hours in a workweek, and/or seven (7) consecutive workdays in a workweek, without being paid overtime wages for all hours worked as a result of, including but not limited to, failing to accurately track and/or pay for all minutes actually worked; engaging, suffering, or permitting employees to work off the clock, including, without limitation, by requiring employees: to come early to work and leave late work without being able to clock in for all that time, to suffer under Defendants' control due to long lines for clocking in, to complete pre-shift tasks before clocking in and post-shift tasks after clocking out, to clock out for meal periods and continue working, to don and doff uniforms and/or safety equipment off the clock, detrimental rounding of employee time entries, editing and/or manipulation of time entries to show less hours than actually worked, and for paying straight pay instead of overtime pay, to the detriment of Plaintiff and Class Members.

52. Accordingly, by requiring Plaintiff and Class Members to, at times, work greater than eight (8) hours per workday, forty (40) hours per workweek, and/or seven (7) straight workdays without properly compensating overtime wages at the proper overtime rate of pay, Defendants, on occasion, willfully violated the provisions of the Labor Code, among others, sections 510, 1194, and applicable IWC Wage Orders, and California law.

53. As a result of the unlawful acts of Defendants, Plaintiff and Class Members have been deprived of overtime wages in amounts to be determined at trial, and are entitled to recovery, plus interest and penalties thereon, attorneys' fees and costs, pursuant to Labor Code section 1194 and 1199, Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5 and 1032, and Civil Code section 3287.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

(Failure to Pay Minimum Wages – Against All Defendants)

54. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference all of the allegations contained in the preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth hereat.

55. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and Class Members were employees or former employees of Defendants covered by Labor Code sections 1197, 1199 and applicable Wage Orders.

1 56. Pursuant to Labor Code section 1197 and applicable Wage Orders, Plaintiff and 2 Class Members were entitled to receive minimum wages for all hours worked or otherwise under 3 Defendants' control.

4 57. For four (4) years prior to the filing of the Complaint in this Action through the 5 present, Defendants failed to accurately track and/or pay for all hours actually worked at their 6 regular rate of pay that is above the minimum wage and by required employees: to come early to 7 work and leave late work without being able to clock in for all that time, to suffer under Defendants'
8 control due to long lines for clocking in, to complete pre-shift tasks before clocking in and post-shift
9 tasks after clocking out, to clock out for meal periods and continue working, to don and doff
10 uniforms and/or safety equipment off the clock, detrimental rounding of employee time entries,
11 editing and/or manipulation of time entries to show less hours than actually worked to the detriment 12 of Plaintiff and Class Members.

13 58. As a result of Defendants' unlawful conduct, Plaintiff and Class Members have 14 suffered damages in an amount, subject to proof, to the extent they were not paid minimum wages 15 for all hours worked or otherwise due.

16 59. Pursuant to Labor Code sections 218.6, 1194, 1194.2, Code of Civil Procedure
17 sections 1021.5 and 1032, and Civil Code section 3287, Plaintiff and Class Members are entitled to 18 recover the full amount of unpaid minimum wages, interest and penalties thereon, liquidated 19 damages, reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit.

20 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

21 (Failure to Provide Meal Periods – Against All Defendants)

22 60. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference all of the allegations contained in 23 the preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth hereat.

24 61. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and Class Members were employees or former 25 employees of Defendants covered by Labor Code section 512 and applicable Wage Orders.

26 62. Pursuant to Labor Code section 512 and applicable Wage Orders, no employer shall 27 employ an employee for a work period of more than five (5) hours without a timely meal break of 28 not less than thirty (30) minutes in which the employee is relieved of all of his or her duties.

1 Furthermore, no employer shall employ an employee for a work period of more than ten (10) hours
2 per day without providing the employee with a second timely meal period of not less than thirty (30)
3 minutes in which the employee is relieved of all of his or her duties.

4 63. Pursuant to Labor Code section 226.7, if an employer fails to provide an employee
5 with a meal period as provided in the applicable Wage Order of the Industrial Welfare Commission,
6 the employer shall pay the employee one (1) additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate
7 of compensation for each workday that the meal period is not provided.

8 64. For four (4) years prior to the filing of the Complaint in this Action through the 9 present, Plaintiff and Class Members were not provided complete, timely 30-minute, duty-free 10 uninterrupted meal periods every five hours of work without waiving the right to take them, as 11 permitted. Moreover, Defendants failed to provide one (1) additional hour of pay at the Class
12 Member's regular rate of compensation on the occasions that Class Members were not provided 13 compliant meal periods.

14 65. By their failure to provide Plaintiff and Class Members compliant meal periods as 15 contemplated by Labor Code section 512, among other California authorities, and failing to provide 16 compensation for such unprovided meal periods, as alleged above, Defendants willfully violated the 17 provisions of Labor Code section 512 and applicable Wage Orders.

18 66. As a result of Defendants' unlawful conduct, Plaintiff and Class Members have 19 suffered damages in an amount, subject to proof, to the extent they were not paid additional pay
20 owed for missed, untimely, interrupted, incomplete and/or on-duty meal periods.

21 67. Plaintiff and Class Members are entitled to recover the full amount of their unpaid
22 additional pay for unprovided compliant meal periods, in amounts to be determined at trial, plus
23 interest and penalties thereon, attorneys' fees, and costs, under Labor Code sections 226 and 226.7,
24 Code of Civil Procedure sections 1021.5 and 1032, and Civil Code section 3287.

25 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

26 (Failure to Provide Rest Periods – Against All Defendants)

27 68. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference all of the allegations contained in 28 the preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth hereat.

1 69. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and Class Members were employees or former
2 employees of Defendants covered by applicable Wage Orders.

3 70. California law and applicable Wage Orders require that employers “authorize and 4 permit” employees to take ten (10) minute rest periods in about the middle of each four (4) hour
5 work period “or major fraction thereof.” Accordingly, employees who work shifts of three and-a-6 half (3 ½) to six (6) hours must be provided ten (10) minutes of paid rest period, employees who 7 work shifts of more than six (6) and up to ten (10) hours must be provided with twenty (20) minutes
8 of paid rest period, and employees who work shifts of more than ten (10) hours must be provided 9 thirty (30) minutes of paid rest period.

10 71. Pursuant to Labor Code section 226.7, if an employer fails to provide an employee
11 with a meal period or rest period as provided in the applicable Wage Order of the Industrial Welfare
12 Commission, the employer shall pay the employee one (1) additional hour of pay at the employee’s 13 regular rate of compensation for each work day that the rest period is not provided.

14 72. For four (4) years prior to the filing of the Complaint in this Action through the 15 present, Plaintiff and Class Members were not authorized or permitted to take complete, timely 30-16 minute, duty-free uninterrupted rest periods every four (4) hours of work or major fraction thereof.
17 Moreover, Defendants failed to provide one (1) additional hour of pay at the Class Member’s regular 18 rate of compensation on the occasions that Class Members were not authorized or permitted to take 19 compliant rest periods.

20 73. By their failure to authorize and permit Plaintiff and Class Members to take rest
21 periods contemplated by California law, and one (1) additional hour of pay at the employee’s regular 22 rate of compensation for such unprovided rest periods, as alleged above, Defendants willfully
23 violated the provisions of Labor Code section 226.7 and applicable Wage Orders.

24 74. As a result of Defendants’ unlawful conduct, Plaintiff and Class Members have
25 suffered damages in an amount, subject to proof, to the extent they were not paid additional pay 26 owed for rest periods that they were not authorized or permitted to take.

27 75. Plaintiff and Class Members are entitled to recover the full amount of their unpaid
28 additional pay for unprovided compliant meal periods, in amounts to be determined at trial, plus

1 interest and penalties thereon, attorneys' fees, and costs, under Labor Code sections 226 and 226.7,
2 Code of Civil Procedure sections 1021.5 and 1032, and Civil Code section 3287.

3 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

4 (Failure to Pay All Wages Due Upon Termination – Against All Defendants)

5 76. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference all of the allegations contained in 6 the preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth hereat.

7 77. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and Class Members were employees or former
8 employees of Defendants covered by Labor Code sections 201, 202 and 203, as well as applicable
9 Wage Orders.

10 78. Pursuant to Labor Code sections 201 and 202, Plaintiff and Class Members were 11 entitled upon termination to timely payment of all wages earned and unpaid prior to termination.
12 Discharged Class Members were entitled to payment of all wages earned and unpaid prior to 13 discharge immediately upon termination. Class Members who resigned were entitled to payment 14 of all wages earned and unpaid prior to resignation within 72 hours after giving notice of resignation 15 or, if they gave 72 hours previous notice, they were entitled to payment of all wages earned and 16 unpaid at the time of resignation.

17 79. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that in the three (3)
18 years before the filing of the Complaint in this Action through the present, Defendants, due to the 19 failure to provide overtime wages mentioned above, failed to pay Plaintiff and Class Members all 20 wages earned prior to resignation or termination in accordance with Labor Code sections 201 or 21 202.

22 80. Plaintiff is informed and believes Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and Class
23 Members all wages earned prior to termination or resignation in accordance with Labor Code
24 sections 201 and 202 was willful. Defendants had the ability to pay all wages earned by Plaintiff
25 and Class Members at the time of termination in accordance with Labor Code sections 201 and 202,
26 but intentionally adopted policies or practices incompatible with the requirements of Labor Code 27 sections 201 and 202 resulting in the failure to pay all wages earned prior to termination or 28 resignation.

81. Pursuant to Labor Code section 203, Plaintiff and Class Members are entitled to waiting time penalties from the date their earned and unpaid wages were due, upon termination or resignation, until paid, up to a maximum of thirty (30) days.

82. As a result of Defendants' unlawful conduct, Plaintiff and Class Members have suffered damages in an amount subject to proof, to the extent they were not paid for all wages earned prior to termination or resignation.

83. Pursuant to Labor Code section 203 and 218.6, Code of Civil Procedure sections 1021.5 and 1032, and Civil Code section 3287, Plaintiff and Class Members are entitled to recover waiting time penalties, interest, and their costs of suit, as well.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Failure to Provide Accurate Wage Statements – Against All Defendants)

84. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference all of the allegations contained in the preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth hereat.

85. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and Class Members were employees or former employees of Defendants covered by Labor Code section 226, as well as applicable Wage Orders.

86. Pursuant to Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a), Plaintiff and Class Members were entitled to receive, semi-monthly or at the time of each payment of wages, an accurate itemized statement that accurately reflects, among other things, gross wages earned; total hours worked; net wages earned; all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate; and the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer, among other things.

87. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that in the one (1) year before the filing of the Complaint in this Action through the present, Defendants failed to comply with Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a) by adopting policies and practices that resulted in their failure to furnish Plaintiff and Class Members with accurate itemized statements that accurately reflect, among other things, gross wages earned; total hours worked; net wages earned; all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate; and the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer, among other things.

1 88. Defendants' failure to provide Plaintiff and Class Members with accurate wage
2 statements was knowing, intentional, and willful. Defendants had the ability to provide Plaintiff
3 and the other Class Members with accurate wage statements, but willfully provided wage statements
4 that Defendants knew were not accurate.

5 89. As a result of Defendants' unlawful conduct, Plaintiff and Class Members have 6 suffered injury. The absence of accurate information on Class Members' wage statements at times
7 has delayed timely challenge to Defendants' unlawful pay practices; requires discovery and 8 mathematical computations to determine the amount of wages owed; causes difficulty and expense
9 in attempting to reconstruct time and pay records; and led to submission of inaccurate information 10 about wages and amounts deducted from wages to state and federal governmental agencies, among 11 other things.

12 90. Pursuant to Labor Code section 226, subdivision (e), Plaintiff and Class Members
13 are entitled to recover $50 for the initial pay period during the period in which violation of Labor
14 Code section 226 occurred and $100 for each violation of Labor Code section 226 in a subsequent 15 pay period, not to exceed an aggregate $4,000.00 per employee.

16 91. Pursuant to Labor Code sections 226, subdivisions (e) and (g), Code of Civil 17 Procedure section 1032, Civil Code section 3287, Plaintiff and Class Members are entitled to 18 recover the full amount of penalties due under Labor Code section 226, subdivision (e), reasonable 19 attorneys' fees, and costs of suit.

20 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

21 (Violation of Labor Code § 2802 – Against All Defendants)

22 92. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference all of the allegations contained in 23 the preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth hereat.

24 93. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and Class Members were employees or former 25 employees of Defendants covered by Labor Code section 2802 and applicable Wage Orders.

26 94. Labor Code section 2802, subdivision (a) provides that "an employer shall indemnify 27 his or her employee for all necessary expenditures or losses incurred by the employee in direct 28 consequence of the discharge of his or her duties . . ."

95. For three (3) years prior to the filing of the Complaint in this Action through the present, Defendants required Plaintiff and Class Members, or some of them, to incur, at times, necessary expenditures or losses in direct consequence of the discharge of their duties or at the obedience to the directions of Defendants that included, without limitation: the purchase and maintenance of personal cellular phones used for work-related purposes.

96. During that time period, Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges that Defendants failed and refused, and still fail and refuse to reimburse Plaintiff and Class Members for those losses and/or expenditures.

97. As a result of Defendants' unlawful conduct, Plaintiff and Class Members have suffered damages in an amount subject to proof, to the extent they were not reimbursed for the herein-described losses and/or expenditures.

98. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2802, Code of Civil Procedure sections 1021.5 and 1032, and Civil Code section 3287, Plaintiff and Class Members are entitled to recover reimbursement for their herein-described losses and/or expenditures, reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit.

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Unfair Competition – Against All Defendants)

99. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference all of the allegations contained in the preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth hereat.

100. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges that the unlawful conduct of Defendants alleged herein constitutes unfair competition within the meaning of Business and Professions Code section 17200. Due to their unlawful business practices in violation of the Labor Code, Defendants have gained a competitive advantage over other comparable companies doing business in the State of California that comply with their obligations to compensate employees in accordance with the Labor Code.

101. As a result of Defendants' unfair competition as alleged herein, Plaintiff and Class Members have suffered injury in fact and lost money or property.

1 102. Pursuant to Business and Professions Code section 17203, Plaintiff and Class
2 Members are entitled to (an) injunction(s) prohibiting Defendants from further violating the Labor
3 Code and requiring the establishment of appropriate and effective means to prevent further
4 violations, as well as restitution of all wages and other monies owed to them under the Labor Code,
5 including interest thereon, in which they had a property interest and which Defendants nevertheless 6 failed to pay them and instead withheld and retained for themselves. Restitution of the money owed
7 to Plaintiff and Class Members is necessary to prevent Defendants from becoming unjustly enriched
8 by their failure to comply with the Labor Code.

9 103. Plaintiff and Class Members are entitled to costs of suit under Code of Civil 10 Procedure section 1032 and interest under Civil Code section 3287.

11 NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

12 (Civil Penalties Under Labor Code § 210 – Against All Defendants)

13 104. Plaintiff re-alleges each and every allegation set forth in the preceding paragraphs
14 and incorporates each by reference as though fully set forth hereat.

15 105. At all relevant times herein, Labor Code section 204, requires and required that:
16 “[l]abor performed between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month shall be paid for 17 between the 16th and 26th day of the month during which the labor was performed, and labor 18 performed between the 16th and the last day, inclusive, of any calendar month, shall be paid for 19 between the 1st and 10th day of the following month.”

20 106. At all relevant times herein, Labor Code section 210, subdivision (a) states and stated 21 that “[i]n addition to, and entirely independent and apart from, any other penalty provided in this 22 article, every person who fails to pay the wages of each employee as provided in Sections 201.3, 23 204, 204b, 204.1, 205, 205.5, and 1197.5, shall be subject to a civil penalty as follows: (1) For any 24 initial violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each failure to pay each employee” and “(2) For 25 each subsequent violation, or any willful or intentional violation, two hundred dollars ($200) for 26 each failure to pay each employee, plus 25 percent of the amount unlawfully withheld.”

27 107. At all relevant times herein, Defendants have had a consistent policy or practice of 28 failing to pay Plaintiff and/or Aggrieved Employees during their employment on a timely basis as

1 per Labor Code section 204. Thus, pursuant to Labor Code section 210, Plaintiff and other
2 Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover civil penalties for Defendants' violations of Labor
3 Code section 204, in the amount of one hundred dollars ($100) for each Aggrieved Employee for 4 each initial violation per employee, and two hundred dollars ($200) for each Aggrieved Employee
5 for each subsequent violation in connection with each payment that was made in violation of Labor
6 Code section 204.

7 TENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

8 (Civil Penalties Under Labor Code § 226.3 – Against All Defendants)

9 108. Plaintiff re-alleges each and every allegation set forth in the preceding paragraphs
10 and incorporates each by reference as though fully set forth hereat.

11 109. Defendants had and have a policy or practice of failing to comply with Labor Code
12 section 226, subdivision (a) by intentionally failing to furnish Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees
13 with itemized wage statements that accurately reflect gross wages earned; total hours worked; net
14 wages earned; the name and address of each employer with whom they have been placed to work;
15 all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours
16 worked at each hourly rate; the legal name of the employer; and other such information as required
17 by Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a).

18 110. Labor Code section 226.3 states that “[a]ny employer who violates subdivision (a)
19 of Section 226 shall be subject to a civil penalty in the amount of two hundred fifty dollars ($250)
20 per employee per violation in an initial citation and one thousand dollars ($1,000) per employee for 21 each violation in a subsequent citation, for which the employer fails to provide the employee a wage 22 deduction statement or fails to keep the records required in subdivision (a) of Section 226.”

23 111. Labor Code section 226.3 further provides that “[t]he civil penalties provided for in 24 this section are in addition to any other penalty provided by law.”

25 112. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants had 26 and have a policy or practice of failing to furnish non-exempt employees, including, without 27 limitation, Plaintiff, with itemized wage statements that accurately reflect gross wages earned; total 28 hours worked; net wages earned; all deductions; all applicable hourly rates in effect and the

1 corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate in effect during the pay period; the legal 2 name of the employer and/or the name and address of the legal entity securing the employer's services
3 if the employer is a farm labor contractor; and other such information as required by Labor Code
4 section 226, subdivision (a).

5 113. Pursuant to Labor Code section 226.3, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees are 6 entitled to recover civil penalties for Defendants' violation of Labor Code section 226, subdivision
7 (a) in the amount of two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period
8 for the initial violation, and one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay 9 period for each subsequent violation.

10 ELEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

11 (Violation of Labor Code § 558 – Against All Defendants)

12 114. Plaintiff re-alleges each and every allegation set forth in the preceding paragraphs
13 and incorporates each by reference as though fully set forth hereat.

14 115. Pursuant to Labor Code section 558, subdivision (a): "Any employer or other person 15 acting on behalf of an employer who violates, or causes to be violated . . . any provision regulating 16 hours and days of work in any of the Industrial Welfare Commission" shall be subject to a civil 17 penalty as follows:

- 18 (1) For any initial violation, fifty dollars ($50) for each underpaid employee and for each 19 pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient 20 to recover underpaid wages;
- 21 (2) For each subsequent violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid 22 employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to 23 an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages;
- 24 (3) Wages recovered pursuant to this section shall be paid to the affected employee."

25 116. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon allege, that Defendants, and 26 each of them, violated, or caused to be violated, the Labor Code sections described herein, including 27 causing Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees not to: be paid overtime wages and minimum 28 wages; receive meal and rest periods or compensation in lieu thereof; be paid timely wages during

1 their employment and after their employment separation; receive accurate, itemized wage 2 statements; be provided with the opportunity to inspect employment records; be provided with 3 notice as required under Labor Code section 2810.5; be provided with the proper accrual and use of 4 paid sick leave; and/or be paid out all paid time off and/or vacation wages owed at the proper rate 5 of pay.

6 117. As a direct and proximate result of the herein-described Labor Code violations,
7 pursuant to Labor Code section 558, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover
8 civil penalties for Defendants' herein-described Labor Code violations in the amount fifty dollars
9 ($50) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period for the initial violation, and one hundred dollars
10 ($100) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period for each subsequent violation.

11 TWELFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

12 (Violation of Labor Code § 1174.5 – Against All Defendants)

13 118. Plaintiff re-alleges each and every allegation set forth in the preceding paragraphs
14 and incorporates each by reference as though fully set forth hereat.

15 119. At all times mentioned herein, Labor Code section 1174, subdivision (b) has required 16 every person employing labor in California to “[a]llow any member of the commission or the 17 employees of the Division of Labor Standards Enforcement free access to the place of business or 18 employment of the person to secure any information or make any investigation that they are 19 authorized by this chapter to ascertain or make. The commission may inspect or make excerpts,
20 relating to the employment of employees, from the books, reports, contracts, payrolls, documents, 21 or papers of the person.”

22 120. At all times mentioned herein, Labor Code section 1174, subdivision (c) has required 23 every person employing labor in California to “[k]eep a record showing the names and addresses of 24 all employees employed and the ages of all minors.”

25 121. At all times mentioned herein, Labor Code section 1174, subdivision (d) has required 26 every person employing labor in California to “[k]eep, at a central location in the state or at the 27 plants or establishments at which employees are employed, payroll records showing the hours
28 worked daily by and the wages paid to, and the number of piece-rate units earned by and applicable

1 piece rate paid to, employees employed at the respective plants or establishments. These records
2 shall be kept in accordance with rules established for this purpose by the commission, but in any
3 case, shall be kept on file for not less than three years. An employer shall not prohibit an employee
4 from maintaining a personal record of hours worked, or, if paid on a piece-rate basis, piece-rate units
5 earned.”

6 122. Pursuant to Labor Code section 1174.5, “[a]ny person employing labor who willfully
7 fails to maintain the records required by subdivision (c) of [Labor Code] Section 1174 or accurate
8 and complete records required by subdivision (d) of [Labor Code] Section 1174, or to allow any 9 member of the commission or employees of the division to inspect records pursuant to subdivision
10 (b) of [Labor Code] Section 1174, shall be subject to a civil penalty of five hundred dollars ($500).

11 123. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants have 12 willfully failed to maintain the records required by Labor Code subdivision (c), failed to maintain 13 accurate and complete records required by Labor Code subdivision (d), and/or failed to allow 14 inspection of records as required by Labor Code subdivision (b).

15 124. As a direct and proximate result of the herein-described Labor Code violations,
16 pursuant to Labor Code section 1174.5, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees are entitled to 17 recover civil penalties for Defendants’ herein-described Labor Code violations in the amount of five 18 hundred dollars ($500) per violation per Aggrieved Employee.

19 THIRTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

20 (Violation of Labor Code § 1197.1 – Against All Defendants)

21 125. Plaintiff re-alleges each and every allegation set forth in the preceding paragraphs
22 and incorporates each by reference as though fully set forth hereat.

23 126. Pursuant to Labor Code section 1197.1, subdivision (a): “Any employer or other 24 person acting either individually or as an officer, agent, or employee of another person, who pays 25 or causes to be paid to any employee a wage less than the minimum fixed by an applicable state or 26 local law, or by an order of the commission shall be subject to a civil penalty, restitution of wages, 27 liquidated damages payable to the employee, and any applicable penalties imposed pursuant to 28 Section 203 as follows:

- 1 (1) For any initial violation that is intentionally committed, one hundred dollars
2 ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the 3 employee is underpaid. This amount shall be in addition to an amount
4 sufficient to recover underpaid wages, liquidated damages pursuant to Section
5 1194.2, and any applicable penalties imposed pursuant to Section 203.
- 6 (2) For each subsequent violation for the same specific offense, two hundred fifty 7 dollars ($250) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the 8 employee is underpaid regardless of whether the initial violation is 9 intentionally committed. This amount shall be in addition to an amount
10 sufficient to recover underpaid wages, liquidated damages pursuant to Section
11 1194.2, and any applicable penalties imposed pursuant to Section 203.
- 12 (3) Wages, liquidated damages, and any applicable penalties imposed pursuant to 13 Section 203, recovered pursuant to this section shall be paid to the affected 14 employee.”

15 127. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants caused 16 Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees not to be paid minimum wages as a result of Defendants, without 17 limitation, routinely failing to pay Plaintiff or other Aggrieved Employees’ wages for all hours
18 worked or otherwise under Defendants’ control due to, without limitation, routinely failing to 19 accurately track and/or pay for all hours actually worked; detrimental rounding or manipulation of
