MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I. INTRODUCTION

Plaintiff Javier Santiago (“Plaintiff”) seeks preliminary approval of a proposed $350,000 non-reversionary, wage and hour class action settlement with Defendant Cal Tech Precision, Inc. (“Defendant”). The Settlement will provide substantial monetary payments to approximately 219 class members. And, as set forth more fully below, the proposed Settlement satisfies all the criteria for settlement approval under California law. The Settlement was reached after extensive investigation, discovery, and negotiations. The negotiations were at arms-length and were, initially, facilitated by an experienced class action mediator, Kelly A. Knight Esq., over the course of a full day of mediation that was conducted via Zoom. Although the Parties did not resolve the case at mediation, the Parties engaged in substantive negotiations and discussions following the mediation, which included additional exchanges of documents, and eventually reached a settlement on in November 2023. Accordingly, Plaintiff requests that the Court preliminarily approve the proposed Settlement, certify the proposed settlement class, approve the proposed notice, and set a final approval hearing.

II. SUMMARY OF THE LITIGATION AND SETTLEMENT

A. Plaintiff’s Claims

This is a wage and hour class action and PAGA representative action. Plaintiff and putative class members worked in California as hourly-paid or non-exempt employees for Defendant during the class period. Defendant is based in Anaheim, California and specializes in the manufacturing of complex structural aerospace parts. (Declaration of Justin F. Marquez in Support of Plaintiff’s Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action Settlement [“Marquez Decl.”], ¶ 2.)

Plaintiff alleges that Defendant’s payroll, timekeeping, and wage and hour practices resulted in Labor Code violations. Plaintiff alleges that Defendant failed to pay for all hours worked. Plaintiff further alleges that Defendant failed to provide employees with legally compliant meal and rest periods, and Defendant failed to reimburse business expenses. Based on these allegations, Plaintiff asserts related claims for failure to provide accurate wage statements, failure to pay all final wages at termination, unfair business practices, and civil penalties under PAGA. (Id. at ¶ 3.)

On April 15, 2021, Plaintiff filed a putative wage-and-hour class action complaint against Defendant for: (1) failure to pay minimum and straight time wages (Labor Code §§ 204, 1194, 1194.2, and 1197); (2) failure to pay overtime wages (Labor Code §§ 1194, and 1198); (3) failure to provide meal periods (Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512); (4) failure to authorize and permit rest periods (Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512); (5) failure to timely pay final wages at termination (Labor Code §§ 201-203); (6) failure to provide accurate itemized wage statements (Labor Code § 226); (7) failure to indemnify employees for expenditures (Labor Code § 2802); and (8) unfair business practices (Business and Professions Code 17200 et seq.). On August 15, 2023, Plaintiff filed the First Amended Complaint against Defendant adding claims for civil penalties under Private Attorneys General Act “PAGA” (Labor Code § 2698 et seq.). Plaintiff sent a notice to Defendant and the California Labor & Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) alleging similar wage and hour violations pursuant to the PAGA (Cal. Lab. Code §§ 2699, et seq.) on April 15, 2021. (Marquez Decl., ¶ 4.)

B. Discovery and Investigation

Following the filing of the Complaint, the parties exchanged documents and information before mediating this action. Defendant produced a sample of time and pay records for class members. Defendant also provided documents of its wage and hour policies and practices during the class period, and information regarding the total number of current and former employees in its informal discovery responses. Following mediation, Defendant also provided financial-related documents evidencing Defendant’s ability to fund a settlement. (Id. at ¶ 5.)

After reviewing documents regarding Defendant’s wage and hour policies and practices, analyzing Defendant’s timekeeping and payroll records, reviewing financial-related documents with the assistance of a financial forensic accountant, Class Counsel was able to evaluate the probability of class certification, success on the merits, Defendant’s maximum monetary exposure for all claims, and Defendant’s ability to fund a settlement. (Id. at ¶ 6.) Class Counsel also investigated the applicable law regarding the claims and defenses asserted in the litigation.

1 (Id.) Class Counsel reviewed these records and prepared a damage analysis prior to mediation.

2 (Id.)

3 C. Settlement Negotiations

4 On January 20, 2022, the parties participated in private mediation with experienced class 5 action mediator Kelly A. Knight, Esq. (Id. at ¶ 7.) The mediation was conducted via Zoom.
6 The settlement negotiations were at arm's length and, although conducted in a professional 7 manner, were adversarial. The parties went into the mediation willing to explore the potential 8 for a settlement of the dispute, but each side was also prepared to litigate their position through 9 trial and appeal if a settlement had not been reached. (Id.) Although the Parties were unable to 10 resolve the matter at mediation, the Parties engaged in substantive follow-up negotiations and 11 discussions regarding the strengths and weaknesses of Plaintiff's claims, Defendant's defenses, 12 and Defendant's ability to fund a settlement, the Parties reached a settlement the material terms 13 of which are encompassed within the Settlement. (Id. at ¶ 8, Ex. 1 [Class Action and PAGA 14 Settlement Agreement and Class Notice].)

15 Class Counsel has conducted a thorough investigation into the facts of this case. Based 16 on the foregoing discovery and their own independent investigation and evaluation, Class 17 Counsel is of the opinion that the Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate and is in the best 18 interests of the Settlement Class Members in light of all known facts and circumstances, the risk 19 of significant delay, the defenses that could be asserted by Defendant both to certification and 20 on the merits, trial risk, and appellate risk. (Id. at ¶ 16.)

21 Indeed, the $350,000.00 Settlement represents 55% of the realistic maximum recovery
22 of $631,958.20. (Id. at ¶ 25.) Although Class Counsel estimated that Defendant's maximum 23 potential liability for all claims was approximately $6 million, when the risk of prevailing at 24 certification and trial are factored into the equation, Class Counsel believes that Defendant's 25 realistic exposure was $631,958.20, meaning the Settlement achieves a significant recovery.
26 (Id. at ¶¶ 16-29.) Considering the risk and uncertainty of prevailing at class certification and at 27 trial, this is an excellent result for the Class. (Id. at ¶ 25.) Indeed, because of the proposed 28 Settlement, class members will receive timely, guaranteed relief and will avoid the risk of an

1 unfavorable judgment.

2 D. Key Terms of the Proposed Settlement

3 The Parties used the Los Angeles Superior Court’s Form Class Action and PAGA
4 Settlement Agreement and Class Notice. The Settlement’s key terms include:

5 1. Class Definition: For settlement purposes only, the Parties agree to the certification 6 of a class pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 382 defined as: “all persons employed 7 by Cal Tech Precision in California and classified as an hourly-paid or non-exempt employee 8 during the Class Period.” (Settlement, § 1.5.)

9 2. Class Period: “means the period that starts on April 15, 2017 and shall end on 10 August 22, 2022.” (Settlement, § 1.13.)

11 3. Participating Class Members: “means a Class Member who does not submit a valid 12 and timely Request for Exclusion from the Class Settlement.” (Settlement, § 1.38.)

13 4. Aggrieved Employees: means a person employed by Defendant in California and 14 classified as an hourly-paid or nonexempt employee who worked for Defendant during the PAGA
15 Period from April 15, 2017 to August 22, 2022. (Settlement, §§ 1.4, 1.13.)

16 5. Gross Settlement Amount: This amount is $350,000.00, for all claims, including 17 wages, interest, the Class Counsel Award, Litigation costs, Settlement Administration Costs, 18 payment to the Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) for the alleged PAGA
19 penalties, all other penalties, and the Class Representative Service Award. (Settlement, § 1.24.)

20 6. Uncashed Checks: If a settlement check is returned to the Settlement Administrator 21 as undeliverable, the Settlement Administrator shall promptly attempt to obtain a valid mailing 22 address by performing a Class Member Address Search and, if another address is identified, shall 23 mail the check to the newly identified address. Any settlement checks remaining uncashed after 24 one hundred and eighty (180) days shall be transmitted to the Orange County Public Law Center, 25 601 W. Civic Center Dr., Santa Ana, CA 92701, consistent with Code of Civil Procedure Section
26 384, subd. (b) (“Cy Pres Recipient”). (Settlement, §§ 4.4.2, 4.4.3.)

27 7. Release: “All Participating Class Members, on behalf of themselves and their 28 respective former and present representatives, agents, attorneys, heirs, administrators, successors,

1 and assigns, release Released Parties from all claims that were alleged, or reasonably could have 2 been alleged, based on the facts stated in the Operative Complaint or ascertained in the course of 3 the Action, including any and all claims for: (1) failure to pay minimum and straight time wages
4 (Cal. Lab. Code §§ 204, 1194, 1194.2 and 1997); (2) failure to pay overtime wages (Cal. Lab. Code 5 §§ 1194 and 1198); (3) failure to provide meal periods (Cal. Lab. Code §§ 226.7 and 512); (4)
6 failure to authorize and permit rest periods (Cal. Lab. Code § 226.7); (5) failure to timely pay final 7 wages at termination (Cal. Lab. Code §§ 201-203); (6) failure to provide accurate itemized wage 8 statements (Cal. Lab. Code § 226); (7) failure to indemnify expenditure (Cal. Lab. Code § 2802);
9 and (8) violation of California’s Unfair Competition Law, California Business and Professions
10 Code §§ 17200, et seq. Except as set forth in Section 6.3 of this Agreement, Participating Class 11 Members do not release any other claims, including claims for vested benefits, wrongful 12 termination, violation of the Fair Employment and Housing Act, unemployment insurance, 13 disability, social security, workers’ compensation, or claims based on facts occurring outside the 14 Class Period.” (Settlement, §6.2).

15 8. No Reversion: “None of the Gross Settlement Amount will revert to Cal Tech 16 Precision.” (Settlement, § 3.1.)

17 9. PAGA Penalties: The settlement includes $10,000.00 allocated to Plaintiff’s claims 18 under PAGA, with 75% of which ($7,500.00) being paid to the LWDA and 25% ($2,500.00) being 19 paid to the Aggrieved Employees. (Settlement, §1.37.) Class Counsel submitted the proposed 20 settlement to the LWDA before filing this Motion for Preliminary Approval. (Marquez Decl., ¶ 21 10.)

22 10. Net Settlement Amount: The “Net Settlement Amount” is the amount that remains 23 and that shall be paid to Settlement Class Members after the following amounts are subtracted: (1) 24 attorneys’ fees and Litigation costs, (2) Administrative Costs, (3) enhancement to the Named 25 Plaintiff, and (4) the penalties recoverable pursuant to the PAGA. (Settlement, § 1.30.)

26 11. Distribution Formula: “An Individual Class Payment calculated by (a) dividing the 27 Net Settlement Amount by the total number of Workweeks worked by all Participating Class
28 Members during the Class Period and (b) multiplying the result by each Participating Class

Member's Workweeks." (Settlement, § 3.2.4.) As to PAGA: "The Administrator will calculate each Individual PAGA Payment by (a) dividing the amount of the Aggrieved Employees' 25% share of PAGA Penalties ($2,500) by the total number of PAGA Period Pay Periods worked by all Aggrieved Employees during the PAGA Period and (b) multiplying the result by each Aggrieved Employee's PAGA Period Pay Periods." (Settlement, § 3.2.5.1.)

12. Tax Allocation: Any settlement money paid to Settlement Class Members will be allocated as 25% wages, 75% to penalties and interest. (Settlement, § 3.2.4.1.)

13. Class Representative Service Award: Subject to Court approval, Plaintiff shall be paid an enhancement award not to exceed $10,000.00. (Settlement, § 3.2.1.) This amount is for Plaintiff's time and effort in bringing and presenting the action, and in exchange for a general release of all claims, known or unknown, pursuant to Civil Code Section 1542. (Settlement, § 6.1.) If the Court approves a lesser enhancement, then the unapproved portion or portions shall revert into the Net Settlement Amount to be distributed between the participating Settlement Class Members on a pro-rata basis. (Settlement, § 3.2.1.)

14. Attorneys' Fees and Costs: The Settlement provides that Defendant will not oppose a fee application of up to 33 1/3% ($116,666.67) of the Gross Settlement Amount, plus out-of-pocket costs not to exceed $20,000.00. (Settlement, § 3.2.2.)

15. Notice of Proposed Class Action Settlement: The Notice sets forth in plain terms, a statement of the case, the terms of the Settlement Agreement, the approximate amount of attorneys' fees, costs, and service award being sought, and an explanation of how the settlement allocations are calculated. (Settlement, Ex. A, Class Notice.) Class Members will be notified by first-class mail of the settlement. (Settlement, § 8.3.2.) CPT Group, Inc., the proposed Settlement Administrator, will undertake its best efforts to ensure that the notice is provided to the current addresses of class members, including conducting a national change of address search and re-mailing the notice to updated addresses. (Id.; Marquez Decl., ¶ 11, Ex. 2 [Settlement Administrator Bid].)

III. DISCUSSION

To prevent fraud, collusion, or unfairness to the class, the settlement of a class action

requires court approval. (Dunk v. Ford Motor Co. (1996) 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1800-01.) This Court has wide discretion to determine whether the proposed settlement is fair. (Mallick v. Super. Ct. (1979) 89 Cal.App.3d 434, 438.) Fairness is presumed when: (1) the settlement is reached through arm's-length bargaining; (2) investigation is sufficient to allow counsel and the court to act intelligently; (3) counsel is experienced in similar litigation; and (4) the percentage of objectors is small. (Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th at p. 1800.)

In considering whether a settlement is reasonable, the trial court should consider relevant factors, which may include the strength of plaintiff's case, the risk, expense, complexity and likely duration of further litigation, the risk of maintaining class action status through trial, the amount offered in settlement, the extent of discovery completed and the stage of the proceedings, the experience and views of counsel, the presence of a governmental participant, and the reaction of the class members to the proposed settlement. (Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc., (2008) 168 Cal.App.4th 116, 128.) In order to approve a class action settlement, the court must satisfy itself that the class settlement is within the "ballpark" of reasonableness. (Id. at p. 133.) The record need not contain an explicit statement of the maximum theoretical recovery. (Munoz v. BCI Coca-Cola Bottling Co. of Los Angeles (2010) 186 Cal.App.4th 399, 408-9 [holding that Kullar does not require "an explicit statement of the maximum amount the plaintiff class could recover if it prevailed on all its claims", but instead, only an "understanding of the amount that is in controversy and the realistic range of outcomes of the litigation."].)

As discussed below, Class Counsel has provided information exceeding the threshold required to provide this Court with materials and information necessary to determine that the proposed settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable.

A. The Settlement Is Fair, Reasonable, Adequate, and the Product of Investigation, Litigation, and Negotiation

1. The Settlement Is the Product of Discovery, Investigation, and Informed and Non-Collusive Arm's-Length Negotiations

Courts presume the absence of fraud or collusion in the negotiation of a settlement, unless evidence to the contrary is offered; thus, there is a presumption here that the negotiations were

1 conducted in good faith. (Conte & Newberg, Newberg on Class Actions (3rd Ed.) § 11.51.)
2 Settlement is favored, and settlement agreements are realistically assessed. (Stamburgh v. Super.
3 Ct. (1976) 62 Cal.App.3d 231, 236; Priddy v. Edelman (6th Cir. 1989) 883 F.2d 438, 447 [“The 4 fact that a plaintiff might have received more if the case had been fully litigated is no reason not 5 to approve the settlement.”].)

6 The Settlement was reached following extensive negotiations following one day of 7 mediation with experienced employment mediator, Kelly A. Knight, Esq. (Marquez Decl. ¶ 7.)
8 The settlement negotiations were at arm’s length and, although conducted in a professional manner, 9 were adversarial. (Id.) The parties went into the mediation willing to explore the potential for a 10 settlement of the dispute, but each side was also prepared to litigate their or its position through 11 trial and appeal if a settlement had not been reached. (Id.) After extensive negotiations and 12 discussions regarding the strengths and weaknesses of Plaintiff’s claims and Defendant’s defenses, 13 the Parties reached an agreement. (Marquez Decl. ¶ 8.)

14 Prior to reaching this settlement, Class Counsel conducted informal discovery concerning 15 the claims set forth in the Litigation, including samples of pay data and timesheets for class 16 members. Defendant also produced financial-related documents that Plaintiff analyzed with the 17 assistance of a financial forensic accountant. (Id. at ¶¶ 5-6.) In conjunction with their extensive 18 factual investigation, Class Counsel investigated the applicable law regarding the claims and 19 defenses asserted in the litigation. (Id.) Thus, Plaintiff and his counsel were able to act intelligently
20 and effectively in negotiating the proposed Settlement. (Id.)

21 Class Counsel also has considerable experience and has demonstrated competence with 22 litigating wage and hour class actions. (Id. at ¶¶ 40-51.) Again, this supports the position that the 23 terms of the Settlement are premised on objective evidence that has been considered and weighed 24 in light of the risks, expenses, and time consumption to both sides of continued litigation of this 25 action.

26 2. The Settlement Is Fair and Reasonable in Light of the Parties’ 27 Respective Legal Positions

28 A settlement is not judged against what might plaintiff recover had he prevailed at trial, nor

1 does the settlement have to provide 100% of the damages sought to be fair and reasonable.
2 (Wershba v. Apple Computers, Inc. (2001) 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 246, 250 [“Compromise is inherent 3 and necessary in the settlement process...even if the relief afforded by the proposed settlement is 4 substantially narrower than it would be if the suits were to be successfully litigated, this is no bar 5 to a class settlement because the public interest may indeed be served by a voluntary settlement in 6 which each side gives ground in the interest of avoiding litigation.”].)

7 This settlement avoids the risks and the accompanying expense of further litigation.
8 (Marquez Decl., ¶ 27.) While Plaintiff is confident in the merits of his claims, a legitimate 9 controversy exists as to each cause of action. (Id. at ¶ 26.) Plaintiff also recognizes that proving 10 the amount of wages due to each class member would be an expensive, time-consuming, and 11 uncertain proposition. (Id.)

12 The proposed settlement of $350,000.00 therefore represents a substantial recovery when 13 compared to Plaintiff’s reasonably forecasted recovery. (Id. at ¶¶ 16-29.) Because of the proposed 14 Settlement, class members will receive timely, guaranteed relief and will avoid the risk of an 15 unfavorable judgment. When considering the risks of litigation, the uncertainties involved in 16 achieving class certification, the burdens of proof necessary to establish liability, the probability 17 of appeal of a favorable judgment, and Defendant’s ability to fund a settlement, it is clear that the 18 settlement amount of $350,000.00 is within the “ballpark” of reasonableness, and preliminary 19 settlement approval is appropriate. (Id.) Indeed, each Settlement Class Member is eligible to 20 receive an average net benefit of approximately $814.31. (Id. at ¶ 28.)

21 3. Class Counsel Has Extensive Experience in Class Action Litigation

22 The settlement negotiations were conducted by highly capable and experienced counsel.
23 Class Counsel have a strong record of vigorous and effective advocacy for their clients and are 24 experienced in handling complex wage and hour class action litigation. (Marquez Decl., ¶¶ 40-25 51.) Although Plaintiff and his counsel were prepared to litigate the claims alleged in the litigation, 26 they support the proposed Settlement as being in the best interests of the class.

27 B. The Proposed Class Notice of Settlement Should Be Approved

28 The proposed Notice, in the form attached to the Settlement Agreement, should be approved

1 for dissemination to the class. The Notice informs the class of the terms of the settlement and of 2 their rights to be excluded from the settlement. And if there are class members who wish to object 3 to this proposed class action settlement, they will have the opportunity to file their objections and 4 be heard at the Final Approval Hearing. Accordingly, the proposed Notice meets all the 5 requirements of Rule 3.769(f) of the California Rules of Court.

6 C. The Proposed Attorneys' Fees and Costs Are Reasonable

7 Under the Settlement, subject to the Court's approval, Defendant agrees to pay Class 8 Counsel reasonable attorneys' fees in amount of $116,666.67, which is 33 1/3% of the gross 9 Settlement Amount, and up to $20,000.00 in costs. These amounts are disclosed to all class 10 members in the proposed Notice and are reasonable.

11 1. Class Counsel Request an Award of Fees Based on the "Common Fund"
12 Method

13 California courts have long awarded attorneys' fees as a percentage of the benefit created 14 by counsel in creating a common fund. The California Supreme Court held that "when a number 15 of persons is entitled in common to a specific fund, and an action brought by a plaintiff or plaintiffs 16 for the benefit of all results in the creation or preservation of that fund, such plaintiff or plaintiffs 17 may be awarded attorneys' fees out of the fund." (Serrano v. Priest (1977) 20 Cal.3d 25, 34, 18 quoting D'Amico v. Bd. of Medical Examiners (1974) 11 Cal.3d 1.)

19 Class Counsel seeks an award of attorneys' fees on the "percentage of recovery/ common 20 fund" theory. The purpose of this approach is to "spread litigation costs proportionally among all 21 the beneficiaries so that the active beneficiary does not bear the entire burden alone." (Vincent v.
22 Hughes Air West, Inc. (9th Cir. 1977) 557 F.2d 759, 769.) In Quinn v. State of California (1995) 23 15 Cal.3d 162, the California Supreme Court stated: "[O]ne who expends attorneys' fees in 24 winning a suit which creates a fund from which others derive benefits may require those passive 25 beneficiaries to bear a fair share of the litigation costs." (Id. at p. 167.) Similarly, in City and 26 County of San Francisco v. Sweet (1995) 12 Cal.4th 105, the California Supreme Court recognized 27 that the common fund doctrine has been applied "consistently in California when an action brought 28 by one party creates a fund in which other persons are entitled to share." (Id. at p. 110.)

1 The California Supreme Court affirmed in Laffitte v. Robert Half Int'l Inc. (2016) 1 Cal.5th 2 480 that, “when class action litigation establishes a monetary fund for the benefit of the class 3 members, and the trial court in its equitable powers awards class counsel a fee out of that fund, the 4 court may determine the amount of a reasonable fee by choosing an appropriate percentage of the 5 fund created.” (Id. at p. 503.) The court explained: “The recognized advantages of the percentage 6 method—including relative ease of calculation, alignment of incentives between counsel and the 7 class, a better approximation of market conditions in a contingency case, and the encouragement 8 it provides counsel to seek an early settlement and avoid unnecessarily prolonging the litigation—9 convince us the percentage method is a valuable tool that should not be denied our trial courts.”
10 (Id. [internal citations omitted].)

11 2. The Requested Fee Award Is in Line with Typical Cases

12 According to a leading treatise on class actions, “No general rule can be articulated on what 13 is a reasonable percentage of a common fund. Usually 50% of the fund is the upper limit on a 14 reasonable fee award from a common fund in order to assure that the fees do not consume a 15 disproportionate part of the recovery obtained for the class, although somewhat larger percentages 16 are not unprecedented.” (See Conte & Newberg, Newberg on Class Actions (3rd Ed.) § 14.03.)
17 Attorneys’ fees that are fifty percent of the fund are typically considered the upper limit, with thirty 18 to forty percent commonly awarded in cases where the settlement is relatively small. (Id.; see also 19 Van Vranken v. Atlantic Richfield Company (N.D. Cal. 1995) 901 F. Supp. 294 [stating that most 20 cases where 30-50 percent was awarded involved “smaller” settlement funds of under $10 21 million].)

22 Here, Plaintiff requests attorneys’ fees equal to 33 1/3% of the Settlement Amount, which 23 is in line with the prevailing guidelines established in California case law and academic literature 24 and is consistent with awards in California. (See Chavez v. Netflix, Inc. (2008) 162 Cal.App.4th 25 43, 66, n.11 [“Empirical studies show that, regardless whether the percentage method or the 26 lodestar method is used, fee awards in class actions average around one-third of the recovery.”].)
27 Accordingly, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court approve the attorneys’ fees as negotiated 28 by the parties and requested herein.

1 3. This Matter Involves A “Fee-Shifting” Provision of the Labor Code

2 Labor Code § 1194 (a) provides for the recovery of “minimum wage or overtime 3 compensation, including interest thereon, reasonable attorney’s fees, and costs of suit.” Under this 4 section, Plaintiff would be permitted to recover his actual attorneys’ fees, even if those fees were 5 larger than the total class recovery at the conclusion of this case. This settlement is beneficial in 6 that it limits the risk of continued expenses and consumption of time, energy, and resources facing 7 Defendant while at the same time rewarding Class Counsel for their decision to assume risk by 8 taking on this matter. In fact, prosecution of this action involved significant financial risk for Class
9 Counsel. (Marquez Decl., ¶¶ 38-39.) Class Counsel undertook this matter solely on a contingent 10 basis, with no guarantee of recovery. (Id.) Once counsel undertook this litigation on behalf of the 11 Class, Class Counsel committed to pursue it to its conclusion, placing its fiduciary duty to the Class 12 ahead of all other concerns.

13 4. The Experience, Reputation and Ability of Class Counsel Support the 14 Requested Fee Award

15 As demonstrated by their past experience in pursuing class actions on behalf of consumers 16 and employees, Class Counsel possess considerable expertise in litigating class actions. (Marquez 17 Decl., ¶¶ 40-51.) Class Counsel has been involved as lead counsel or co-counsel in several class 18 actions that resulted in millions in recovery. (Id.) Because it is reasonable to compensate class
19 counsel commensurate with their skill, reputation and experience, Class Counsel’s requested fee 20 award is supported here.

21 Class Counsel’s experience in wage and hour class actions was integral in evaluating the 22 strengths and weaknesses of the case against Defendant and the reasonableness of the settlement.
23 Practice in the narrow field of wage and hour litigation requires skill and knowledge concerning 24 the rapidly evolving substantive law (state and federal), as well as the procedural law of class
25 action litigation. Based on these and other factors, Class Counsel has frequently received fee 26 awards of this percentage from the gross recovery for the class. Therefore, the requested fee award 27 is reasonable and fair.

28 ///

1 D. The Service Award to Named Plaintiff Is Reasonable

2 Named plaintiffs in class action lawsuits “are eligible for reasonable incentive payments to 3 compensate them for the expense or risk they have incurred in conferring a benefit on other 4 members of the class.” (Munoz, supra, 86 Cal.App.4th at p. 412.) Courts routinely grant approval 5 of class action settlement agreements containing enhancements for the class representatives, which 6 are necessary to provide incentive to represent the class and are appropriate given the benefit the 7 class representatives help to bring about for the class. (See Rodriguez v. W. Publ'g Corp. (9th Cir.
8 2009) 563 F.3d 948, 958-59.)

9 Service awards are particularly important to plaintiffs in wage and hour cases because they 10 promote the important public policies underlying the wage and hour laws. This strong policy is 11 codified in California Labor Code section 90.5, which provides, “it is the policy of this state to 12 vigorously enforce minimum labor standards in order to ensure employees are not required or 13 permitted to work under substandard unlawful conditions....”). Nonetheless, the California 14 Supreme Court has noted that “retaliation against employees for asserting statutory rights under 15 the Labor Code is widespread,” despite anti-retaliation statutes designed to protect employees.
16 (Gentry v. Super. Ct. (2007) 42 Cal.4th 443, 460-61.) In this context, class representatives should 17 be rewarded for assuming the risk of retaliation for the sake of class members. (See Frank v.
18 Eastman Kodak Co. (W.D.N.Y. 2005) 228 F.R.D. 174, 187.)

19 Under the settlement agreement, subject to the Court’s approval, Defendant agreed to pay 20 a Service Award in the amount of $10,000 to Plaintiff. This amount is also in exchange for 21 Plaintiff’s general release of all claims against Defendant. Class Counsel represent that Plaintiff 22 devoted a great deal of time and work assisting counsel in the case, communicated with counsel
23 very frequently for litigation and to prepare for mediation, and was frequently in contact with Class 24 Counsel during the mediation. (Marquez Decl., ¶¶ 30-34.) This amount is reasonable particularly 25 in light of the substantial benefits Plaintiff generated for all class members. (Id.) Indeed, in Karl 26 Adams, III, et al. v. MarketStar Corporation, et al., No. 2:14-cv-02509-TLN-DB, Class Counsel 27 Justin F. Marquez helped negotiate a $2.5 million class action settlement for 339 class members, 28 and the court approved a $25,000 class representative incentive award for each named plaintiff.

1 (Marquez Decl., ¶ 34.)

2 When compared with the amounts awarded in typical class action cases, the amount 3 requested here is particularly reasonable. Indeed, a 2006 study examining the average incentive 4 award given to class action plaintiffs from 1993 to 2002 found that the “average award per class 5 representative was $15,992 and the median award per class representative was $4,357.” (Theodore 6 Eisenberg & Jeffrey P. Miller, “Incentive Awards to Class Action Plaintiffs: An Empirical Study”, 7 53 UCLA L. Rev. 1303, 1308 (2006.) That same study found that named plaintiffs in employment 8 discrimination class actions received an average award of $69,850 and a median award of $31,081, 9 while named plaintiffs in other employment class actions received an average award of $12,121
10 and a median award of $13,059. (Id. at p. 1334.) The authors of the study found that higher awards 11 in employment cases reflected the “courts’ wish to make representative plaintiffs whole by 12 compensating them for the high costs of their service to the class, including risks of stigmatization
13 or retaliation on the job.” (Id. at p. 1308.)

14 IV. CERTIFICATION FOR SETTLEMENT PURPOSES IS WARRANTED

15 A. Legal Standard

16 The proposed Settlement Class is well suited for class certification. All the claims derive 17 from a core set of alleged violations of California’s wage and hour laws and regulations. For the 18 reasons set forth more fully below, for purposes of settlement only, the Class satisfies the 19 prerequisites for certification under Code of Civil Procedure § 382. Section 382 provides: “when 20 the question is one of a common or general interest, of many persons, or when the parties are 21 numerous, and it is impracticable to bring them all before the court, one or more may sue or defend 22 for the benefit of all.” (Code Civ. Proc., § 382.) There are two requirements to section 382: “(1)
23 There must be an ascertainable class; and (2) there must be a well-defined community of interest 24 in the questions of law and fact involved affecting the parties to be represented.” (Daar v. Yellow 25 Cab Co. (1967) 67 Cal. 2d 695, 704 [citations omitted].) To clarify these requirements, the 26 California Supreme Court has looked to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23 to explain that the 27 community-of-interest requirement itself embodies three factors: “(1) predominant questions of 28 law or fact; (2) class representatives with claims or defenses typical of the class; and (3) class

1 representatives who can adequately represent the class.” (Richmond v. Dart Indus., Inc. (1981) 29
2 Cal. 3d 462, 470.)

3 California law and policy favor the fullest and most flexible use of the class action device.
4 (Id. at pp. 469-73.) Indeed, “Courts long have acknowledged the importance of class actions as a 5 means to prevent a failure of justice in our judicial system” particularly where the rights of 6 consumers are at issue. (Linder v. Thrifty Oil Co. (2000) 23 Cal. 4th 429, 434.) Any doubt as to 7 the appropriateness of class treatment should be resolved in favor of certification. (Richmond, 8 supra, 29 Cal.3d at pp. 473-75.)

9 B. Plaintiff Maintains That the Criteria for Class Certification Are Satisfied for 10 Settlement Purposes.

11 1. The Classes Are Ascertainable and Numerous

12 The proposed class that Plaintiff seeks to represent is easily ascertainable and includes 13 approximately 219 employees of Defendant.

14 Plaintiff maintains that there is an easily ascertainable class, defined by objective and 15 precise criteria. Because class members are identified using specific criteria in the regular business 16 records of Defendant, i.e., job position, the class is ascertainable. (Wilner v. Sunset Life Ins. Co.
17 (2000) 78 Cal.App.4th 952, 959-60 [class membership defined by ownership of product that is the 18 subject of the lawsuit is sufficient to make the class ascertainable].)

19 “The requirement of Code of Civil Procedure section 382 that there be ‘many’ parties to a 20 class action suit is indefinite and has been construed liberally.” (Rose v. City of Hayward (1981) 21 126 Cal.App.3d 926, 934.) “Where a question is of common interest to ‘many’ persons, an action 22 may be maintained as a class action even where the parties are numerous and it is in fact practicable
23 to join them all.” (Id.) “No set number is required as a matter of law for the maintenance of a 24 class action.” (Id.) “Thus, our Supreme Court has upheld a class representing the 10 beneficiaries 25 of a trust in an action for removal of the trustees.” (Id., citing Bowles v. Super. Ct. (1955) 44 Cal.2d 26 574; see also, Collins v. Rocha (1972) 7 Cal.3d 232 [upholding a 35 member class.]) Therefore, 27 Plaintiff contends that numerosity is plainly satisfied.

28 ///

1 2. There are Many Common Issues of Law and Fact Which Predominate

2 The Court should grant conditional class certification for settlement purposes here on the 3 grounds that questions of law and fact common to all class and subclass predominate over any 4 individual questions. This inquiry tests whether proposed classes are sufficiently cohesive to 5 warrant adjudication by representation. (See, e.g., Clothesrigger, Inc. v. GTE Corp. (1987) 191 6 Cal.App.3d 605.)

7 Here, the employment practices at issue are: whether Defendant had legally compliant 8 policies and practices to provide employees with meal periods; whether Defendant had legally 9 compliant policies and practices authorizing and permitting its employees to take rest periods; 10 whether Defendant had legally compliant policies and practices for all hours worked, including 11 overtime wages; whether Defendant reimbursed employees for business expenses; whether final 12 payment of wages was untimely and excluded unpaid wages, including meal period premium 13 wages, and rest period premium wages; and whether the wage statements were consequently non-14 compliant. Plaintiff contends that the factual and legal issues are the same for all the identified 15 class members, including Plaintiff. Further, all class members suffered from, and seek redress for, 16 the same alleged injuries.

17 3. Plaintiff's Claims Are Typical of the Claims of the Class

18 The typicality requirement does not focus on the individual characteristics or circumstances 19 of the representative plaintiff compared to those of the remainder of the class, but rather upon the 20 typicality of the proposed representative's claims as they relate to the defendant's conduct and 21 activities. (Classen v. Weller (1983) 145 Cal.App.3d 27, 47 ["[t]he only requirements are that 22 common questions of law and fact predominate and that the class representative be similarly 23 situated" vis-à-vis the class.].) A representative plaintiff's claims are typical of the class if they 24 arise from the same event, practice or course of conduct, and if the claims rest on the same legal 25 theories. (Id.) That is precisely the case here. Plaintiff is a former employee of Defendant; as 26 such, she alleges that she was subject to the same policies and practices as other similarly situated 27 employees.

28 ///

1 4. Plaintiff and His Counsel Meet the Adequacy Requirement

2 The adequacy of representation requirements is met by fulfilling two conditions: first, a 3 named plaintiff must be represented by counsel qualified to conduct the pending litigation; second, 4 a named plaintiff's interests cannot be antagonistic to those of the class. (McGhee v. Bank of 5 America (1976) 60 Cal.App.3d 442, 451.)

6 All of these requirements are met here for settlement purposes. Plaintiff retained counsel 7 with extensive experience in prosecuting complex class actions, including similar class actions that 8 previously settled. (Marquez Decl., ¶¶ 40-50.) Class Counsel unquestionably is "qualified, 9 experienced and generally able to conduct the proposed litigation." (Miller v. Woods (1983) 148 10 Cal.App.3d 862, 875.) In addition, Plaintiff has no conflicts, and Plaintiff has, with counsel, 11 litigated this case and diligently reviewed the settlement terms, showing his dedication. Plaintiff's 12 willingness to serve as a representative demonstrates his serious commitment to bringing about the 13 best results possible for the class. (McGhee, supra, 60 Cal.App.3d at p. 451.)

14 5. A Class Action is Superior to a Multiplicity of Litigation

15 Finally, in making its class certification decision, the Court must determine that a class 16 action would be superior to alternative means for the fair and efficient adjudication of the litigation.
17 By consolidating many potential individual actions into a single proceeding, this Court's use of the 18 class action device enables it to manage this litigation in a manner that serves the economics of 19 time, effort and expense for the litigants and the judicial system. Absent class treatment, similarly-20 situated employees with small but nevertheless meritorious claims for damages would, as a 21 practical matter, have no means of redress because of the time, effort and expense required to 22 prosecute individual actions. (Gentry v. Super. Ct. (2007) 42 Cal. 4th 443, 457-62; Leyva v.
23 Medline Ind. (9th Cir. 2013) 716 F.3d 510, 515.) Moreover, in the context of settlement, the 24 superiority concerns are essentially non-existent.

25 V. THE PROPOSED NOTICE IS CONSTITUTIONALLY SOUND

26 A. The Proposed Notice Plan Satisfies Due Process

27 Notice requirements are set forth in the California Rules of Court. Cal. Rules of Court, 28 Rule 3.766 (e) and (f). California law vests the Court with broad discretion in fashioning an

1 appropriate notice program. (Cartt v. Super Ct. (1975) 50 Cal.App.3d 960, 973-74.) There is no 2 statutory or due process requirement that all class members receive actual notice, but in this matter, 3 the class members will receive direct mailed notice. As the Court of Appeals has explained, “[t]he 4 notice given should have a reasonable chance of reaching a substantial percentage of the Class 5 Members” (Id. at p. 974.) In this case, notice of the proposed settlement will be provided by 6 direct mailing, the best possible form of notice.

7 B. The Notice is Accurate and Informative

8 The proposed Notice should be approved. It will be disseminated through direct U.S. first 9 class mail to the last known address for each Class Member. It informs the Class Members of the 10 terms of the settlement and their right to be excluded from the Settlement. And if there are Class 11 Members who wish to object to this proposed class action settlement, they will have the 12 opportunity to file their objections and be heard at the Final Approval Hearing.

13 The Notice also fulfills the requirement of neutrality in class notices. (Conte & Newberg, 14 Newberg on Class Actions (3rd Ed.) § 8.39.) It summarizes the proceedings to date and the 15 terms and conditions of the settlement agreement, in an informative and coherent manner. It 16 makes clear that the settlement agreement does not constitute an admission of liability by the 17 Defendant, who denies all liability, and it recognizes that this Court has not ruled on the merits 18 of the action. It also states that the final settlement approval decision has yet to be made. The 19 Notice thus complies with the standards of fairness, completeness, and neutrality required of a 20 combined settlement-certification class notice.

21 VI. CONCLUSION

22 For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court grant preliminary 23 approval of the proposed settlement and set a Final Approval Hearing in January 2025.
