Complaint Filed: June 17, 2021
FAC Filed: May 12, 2022

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that on November 21, 2025, at 10:30 a.m., in Department SSC-1 of the above-entitled Court, located at 312 North Spring Street, Plaintiff Amit Singh (“Plaintiff” or “Class Representative”) will and hereby does move for an order granting final approval as follows:

1. Making final the Court’s previous preliminary certification of the class for settlement purposes, and approving the Amended Class Action and PAGA Settlement Agreement (hereafter, “Settlement,” “Agreement,” or “Settlement Agreement”), on the grounds that the Settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable because, inter alia:

- A Net Settlement Amount of approximately $1,772,333.33 will be fully distributed to the Class Members who do not submit a timely and valid Opt Out (“Participating Class Members”); and

This motion is made pursuant to Rules 3.764, 3.769, and 3.1113(e) of the California Rules of Court, which, respectively, require that a memorandum in support of class certification not exceed 20 pages, require approval by the Court of a class action settlement, and permit the Court to extend the page limit for memoranda, and California Labor Code section 2699(l)(2), which requires approval by the Court of a PAGA settlement. Unless otherwise specified, all citations and references to the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, California Labor Code sections 2698, et seq. ("PAGA") are to the version of that statute prior to the recent amendment effective July 1, 2024; the amended statute does not apply to the Action, or the Settlement pursuant to California Labor Code section 2699(v)(1), as amended, because the notice to the Labor and Workforce Development Agency was filed prior to June 19, 2024.

This Motion is based upon the following Memorandum of Points and Authorities; the Declarations of Class/PAGA Counsel (Vartan Madoyan), Class Representative (Amit Singh), and Settlement Administrator (Mary Butler of Simpluris) in support thereof; the pleadings and other records on file with the Court in this matter; and such evidence and oral argument as may be presented at the hearing on this Motion.

MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I. SUMMARY OF MOTION

Plaintiff Amit Singh (“Plaintiff” or “Class Representative”) seeks final approval of: (1) the settlement reached between Plaintiff and Defendant Ryder Truck Rental, Inc. (“Defendant”) (together with Plaintiff, the “Parties”), which provides for Defendant’s payment of a Gross Settlement Amount of $3,350,000.00;² (2) attorneys’ fees in the amount of $1,116,666.67, which is thirty-three and one-third percent (33.33%) of the Gross Settlement Amount, and reimbursement of litigation costs and expenses in the amount of $30,000.00 (together, referred to as the “Attorneys Fees and Costs”) to Lawyers for Justice, PC (“Class/PAGA Counsel”); (3) payment in the amount of $16,000.00 to Simpluris, Inc. for settlement administration fees; (4) payment in the amount of $15,000.00 to Plaintiff Amit Singh (“Class Representative Enhancement Award”); and (5) allocation of $400,000.00 for penalties under the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, California Labor Code § 2698, et seq. (“PAGA Fund”).³

Plaintiff requests that the Court make final its preliminary certification of the class for settlement purposes. The Settlement resolves the Class Released Claims and provides relief to a class consisting of the following individuals: all current and former hourly-paid or non-exempt employees of Defendant who were employed in California at any time during the Class Period (i.e., the time period of June 17, 2017 through October 13, 2023) (the “Class” or “Class Members”).⁴

The Settlement also resolves the PAGA Released Claims pertaining to the employment of the following alleged aggrieved employees: all individuals who were employed by Defendant in a hourly-paid or non-exempt position at any time during the PAGA Period in the state of California (i.e., the time period of April 13, 2020 through October 13, 2023) (the “PAGA Employees”).⁵

This matter involved, and the settlement is the product of, meaningful and extensive investigations, formal and informal discovery, depositions, and review and analysis of a large volume of information, documents, and data exchanged by the Parties in the course of litigation and mediations and

1 settlement negotiations (which involved two full day mediations - one conducted by Antonio Piazza Esq.,
2 and the other conducted by Paul Grossman, Esq.).⁶

3 This case has required 712.70 hours of attorney time by Class/PAGA Counsel.⁷ As will be
4 demonstrated herein, the request for attorneys' fees, which represents thirty-three and one-third percent
5 (33.33%) of the Gross Settlement Amount, is fully supported by the use of the percentage-fee method.
6 Courts have historically awarded fees of up to fifty percent (50%) of the recovery. The requested
7 attorneys' fees are also supported under the lodestar cross-check method.⁸

8 The requests for Attorneys' Fees and Costs, Enhancement Payment, settlement administration
9 fees, and allocation for the PAGA Fund were fully disclosed in the Notice of Class Action and PAGA
10 Settlement that was mailed to the Class Members. Most importantly, as of the date of this Motion, no
11 Class Member has objected to the Settlement or to the contemplated Attorneys' Fees and Costs, Class
12 Representative Enhancement Award, settlement administration fees, or allocation of the PAGA Fund.

13 The Settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable, and is the product of arm's-length, good-faith 14 negotiations by experienced counsel presided over by highly-regarded mediators experienced in 15 mediating wage-and-hour class action lawsuits. Accordingly, the Court should grant final approval of the 16 Settlement, and award the Attorneys Fees and Costs, Class Representative Enhancement Award,
17 settlement administration fees, and allocation for the PAGA Fund in the full amounts requested herein.

18 In order to efficiently present the Court with adequate information to determine whether to grant
19 final approval of the Settlement, and award Attorneys Fees and Costs, Class Representative
20 Enhancement Award, settlement administration fees, and allocation for the PAGA Fund. Plaintiff also 21 moves for an order permitting the filing of this single consolidated memorandum, although it exceeds the 22 page limit established by California Rules of Court, Rule 3.764, instead of filing several separate motions.

23 II. RELEVANT PROCEDURAL HISTORY AND FACTUAL BACKGROUND SINCE
24 PRELIMINARY APPROVAL

25 For a discussion of relevant procedural history and facts since preliminary approval, please see 26 the Declaration of Vartan Madoyan at paragraphs two to four.

27 ⁶ Declaration of Vartan Madoyan ("Madoyan Decl.") ¶ 9.

⁷ Madoyan Decl., Exh. 1.

28 ⁸ Applying a modest multiplier of 1.85, the total enhanced lodestar fees are $1,120,720.75, and Class/PAGA Counsel seeks an attorneys' fees award of $1,116,666.67 (equal to 33.33% of the Gross Settlement Amount).

1 III. THE CLASS SHOULD BE CERTIFIED FOR SETTLEMENT PURPOSES

2 For the reasons previously addressed by way of Plaintiff's moving and supporting papers
3 for the Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action Settlement (namely, that the relevant
4 class certification factors are satisfied, i.e., ascertainability, numerosity, community of interest,
5 typicality, adequacy of representation, superiority, and manageability), as well as the reasons
6 discussed herein regarding the completion of the due process notice procedure, the Court is 7 requested to now make final its preliminary certification of the class for settlement purposes.

8 IV. SUMMARY OF THE SETTLEMENT TERMS, NOTICE PROCESS, AND PLAN OF 9 DISTRIBUTION

10 Under the terms of the Settlement Agreement, Defendant has agreed to pay a Gross Settlement
11 Amount of $3,350,000.00 on a non-reversionary basis,⁹ and separately the amounts necessary to pay its 12 share of payroll taxes contributions. Within ten (10) business days after the Effective Date, Defendant
13 shall transmit the Gross Settlement Amount to the Settlement Administrator.¹⁰ Subject to approval by the 14 Court, the Net Class Settlement Amount will be calculated by deducting the Attorneys Fees and Costs,
15 Class Representative Enhancement Award, settlement administration fees, and PAGA Fund.¹¹ The Net
16 Class Settlement Amount, which is estimated to be $1,772,333.00, will be fully distributed to 17 Participating Class Members in accordance with the Settlement Agreement.¹² The PAGA Fund of 18 $400,000.00 will be distributed to the Labor and Workforce Development Agency ("LWDA")
19 (in the amount of $300,000.00) and to the PAGA Employees (in the amount of $100,000.00) in 20 accordance with the Settlement Agreement.¹³

21 Simpluris, Inc. ("Settlement Administrator" or "Simpluris") will determine each Participating
22 Class Member's (i.e., Class Members who did not timely opt out of the class settlement) pro rata share
23 of the Net Class Settlement Amount ("Individual Settlement Payments"),¹⁴ according to the following
24 methodology: the Individual Settlement Payments to each Participating Class Member shall be
25 determined based on the number of Qualifying Pay Periods applicable to that Participating Class

Member.¹⁵ The result of this division will yield a “Settlement Payment Rate.”¹⁶ The gross amount of each Participating Class Member’s Individual Settlement Payment shall be calculated by multiplying the number of Qualifying Pay Periods applicable to that Participating Class Member by the Settlement Payment Rate.¹⁷

The Settlement Administrator will calculate each PAGA Employees’ pro rata share of the twenty-five percent (25%) portion of the PAGA Fund (“PAGA Payment Share”), in accordance with the Settlement Agreement.¹⁸ The PAGA Payment Share to each PAGA Employee shall be determined based on the number of Qualifying PAGA Periods applicable to each PAGA Employee.¹⁹ The Net PAGA Settlement Amount shall be divided by the total number of Qualifying PAGA Pay Periods for all PAGA Employees.²⁰ The gross amount of each PAGA Employee’s PAGA Payment Share shall be calculated by multiplying the number of Qualifying PAGA Pay Periods applicable to that PAGA Employee by the PAGA Payment Rate.²¹

Class Members had forty-five (45) calendar days from the initial mailing of the Class Notice (“Response Deadline”) to dispute the number of Qualifying Pay Periods and/or Qualifying PAGA Pay Periods credited to each of them, opt out of the class settlement, and/or object to the class settlement.²² The Response Deadline was August 21, 2025, and the extended Response Deadline was September 4, 2025, for Class Members who were re-mailed the Notice of Class Action and PAGA Settlement.²³ As of the date of this motion, the Settlement Administrator has received two (2) written requests for exclusion from the class settlement (“Opt Out Form”) and zero (0) written objections to the class settlement from Class Members.²⁴

Each Individual Settlement Payment will be allocated as follows: thirty percent (30%) as wages, which will be reported on an IRS Form W-2, and the remaining seventy-percent (70%) as interest and penalties, which will be reported on an IRS Form 1099.²⁵ The Settlement Administrator will withhold the employee's share of taxes and withholdings with respect to the wages portion of the Individual Settlement Payments, and issue checks to Participating Class Members for their Individual Settlement Payments.²⁶ Defendant will pay the employer's share of payroll taxes and contributions with respect to the wage portion of Individual Settlement Payments in addition to the Gross Settlement Amount.²⁷ The PAGA Payment Shares will be allocated as one hundred percent (100%) penalties, will not be subject to taxes or withholdings, and will be reported on an IRS Form-1099, (if applicable) by the Settlement Administrator.²⁸

The Settlement Administrator shall distribute the following payments within twenty (20) business days after the Effective Date: Individual Settlement Payments to Participating Class Members, Attorneys' Fees and Costs to Class/PAGA Counsel, Class Representative Enhancement Award to Plaintiff, PAGA Payment Share checks to PAGA Employees, the payment to the LWDA, and settlement administration fees to itself.²⁹

Individual Settlement Payments and PAGA Payment Share checks will be valid for one hundred eighty (180) calendar days from the date the checks are mailed, and thereafter, shall be void.³⁰ The funds associated with such voided checks will be distributed by the Settlement Administrator to the California State Controller's Office in the name of the individual Participating Class Member or PAGA Employee, pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure Section 384.³¹ All Participating Class Members and PAGA Employees shall be bound by the terms and conditions of this Settlement Agreement regardless of whether or not they cash or otherwise negotiate their Individual Settlement Payment and/or PAGA Payment Share checks.³²

V. THE SETTLEMENT ADMINISTRATION PROCESS

The Court directed Simpluris to administer and effectuate the notice and settlement administration process, as set forth in the Court's May 22, 2025 Preliminary Approval Order. On June

23, 2025, Simpluris received a mailing list from Defendant's counsel that contained each Class Members' and PAGA Employees' full name, last known mailing address, and number of Qualifying Pay Periods and Qualifying PAGA Pay Periods, and such other information as was necessary for Simpluris to calculate workweeks during the Class Period (the "Class Data").³³

The Class Data contained information for 1,344 individuals identified as Class Members.³⁴ The mailing addresses contained in the Class Data were processed and updated utilizing the U.S. Postal Service's National Change of Address Database ("NCOA").³⁵

On July 7, 2025, Simpluris mailed the Class Notice via U.S. first class mail to all 1,344 individuals identified as Class Members in the Class Data.³⁶

A total of 97 Class Notices were returned, and seven (7) of those notices were returned with a forwarding address.³⁷ Simpluris performed a skip-trace search on the other 90 Class Notices that were returned to Simpluris without forwarding addresses, located an updated address for 73 Class Members, and promptly re-mailed the Class Notice to the updated addresses.³⁸ There are only seventeen (17) mailed Class Notices that remain undeliverable.³⁹

The Settlement Administrator has received zero (0) objections and two (2) Opt Out Forms from Class Members by the Response Deadline of August 21, 2025, or the extended Response Deadline of September 4, 2025 for those Class Notices that were re-mailed.⁴⁰

To date, there are 1,342 Class Members who did not submit a timely and valid Opt Out Form ("Participating Class Members"), and who will be paid their Individual Settlement Payment of the Net Class Settlement Amount. The Net Class Settlement Amount of approximately $1,772,333.33 and the PAGA Fund of $400,000.00 will be distributed in accordance with the terms of the Settlement.⁴¹

VI. THE COURT SHOULD GRANT FINAL APPROVAL OF THE CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT.

In reviewing a class settlement, the court need not reach any ultimate conclusions on the issues of fact and law that underlie the merits of the dispute. 7-Eleven Owners for Fair Franchising v. Southland Corp. (2000) 85 Cal.App.4th 1135, 1146. The inquiry is not whether the settlement agreement is the best one that class members could have possibly obtained, but whether the settlement, taken as a whole, is “fair, adequate, and reasonable”—and the trial court has broad discretion to determine this. Chavez v. Netflix, Inc. (2008) 162 Cal.App.4th 43, 52-55. A settlement need not obtain 100 percent of the damages sought in order to be fair, reasonable, and ultimately, meaningful. Wershba v. Apple Computer, Inc. (2001) 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 251. Even if the proposed settlement affords relief that is substantially narrower than it would be if the case were to be successfully litigated, that is no bar to a class settlement because the public interest may indeed be served by a voluntary settlement in which each side gives ground in the interest of avoiding prolonged litigation. Id.

To determine whether the settlement is fair and reasonable, relevant factors to consider are:

the strength of plaintiffs’ case, the risk, expense, complexity and likely duration of further litigation, the risk of maintaining class action status through trial, the amount offered in settlement, the extent of discovery completed and the stage of the proceedings, the experience and views of counsel, the presence of a governmental participant, and the reaction of the class members to the proposed settlement.

Dunk v. Ford Motor Co. (1996) 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1801. The list of factors is not exclusive and the court can consider different factors based on the circumstances of each case.” Wershba at 245. At the final approval stage, a presumption of fairness exists where, as here:

“(1) the settlement is reached through arm’s-length bargaining; (2) investigation and discovery are sufficient to allow counsel and the court to act intelligently; (3) counsel is experienced in similar litigation; and (4) the percentage of objectors is small.”

Id. at 1802. “Due regard should be given to what is otherwise a private consensual agreement between the parties.” Dunk at 1801.

A. The Settlement Resulted from Arm’s-Length Negotiations Based Upon Extensive Investigation and Formal and Informal Discovery.

The Parties actively litigated the case since the initial complaint was filed on June 17, 2021. Class/PAGA Counsel conducted significant investigation, and extensive formal and informal discovery

1 and depositions to assess the veracity, strength, and scope of the claims, and was preparing for class
2 certification and trial prior to reaching the Settlement.⁴²

3 The Parties informally exchanged a volume of information, documents, and data throughout the 4 course of the litigation and in connection with the mediations and settlement negotiations.⁴³ Class/PAGA
5 Counsel informally exchanged a large volume of information, documents, and data obtained from 6 Plaintiff, Defendant, and other sources, including but not limited to: employment records of Plaintiff, a
7 detailed sampling of Plaintiff, Class Members, and aggrieved employees timekeeping, payroll,
8 and reimbursement data, Defendant's Employee Handbook, company policy acknowledgements
9 (including, but not limited to, Meal and Rest Break Policy Acknowledgement, Union Regulated
10 Employee Acknowledgement, and Non-Exempt Employee Overtime Pay Acknowledgement), 11 internal memoranda, job descriptions, operations and employment policies, performance
12 evaluations, practices, and procedures documents (including, but not limited to, Time Records
13 Policy, Overtime Policy, Working Hours and Pay Policy, Meal and Rest Breaks Policy, Uniform
14 Policy, Mobile Phone Use Policy, Expense Reporting, Open Door Policy, Workplace Conduct,
15 Discipline Policy), union agreements, among other information and documents.⁴⁴ Class/PAGA
16 Counsel had the opportunity to interview Plaintiff and other percipient witnesses.⁴⁵ Class/PAGA Counsel
17 developed liability, damages, and penalties valuation models in the course of litigation and in connection
18 with the mediations and settlement negotiations, and met and conferred with Defendant's counsel on 19 numerous occasions, e.g., to discuss issues relating to the pleadings, case management, motion practice,
20 and production of information, documents, and data in the course of litigation and in connection with the 21 multiple mediations and settlement negotiations, and settlement.⁴⁶ Other work performed by 22 Class/PAGA Counsel included, and was not limited to, case strategy and analysis; researching,
23 drafting, reviewing, and/or revising the pleadings, motion-related papers, the mediations briefing
24 and supporting materials, and settlement documents; drafting and propounding multiple sets of 25 formal written discovery requests on Defendant and notices of depositions of Defendant's persons most knowledgeable designees (along with accompanying requests for production of documents); defending the deposition of Plaintiff, and reviewing Defendant's responses and objections to written discovery requests and deposition notices and accompanying requests for production of documents; and preparing for and attending court proceedings, mediations, and settlement negotiations, among other tasks.⁴⁷

The Parties participated in a formal, full-day mediation conducted by Antonio Piazza, Esq., who is well-regarded mediator experienced in mediating complex labor and employment matters, but this mediation was unsuccessful.⁴⁸ The Parties attended a second mediation on July 14, 2023 conducted by Paul Grossman, Esq., also a well-regarded mediator experienced in handling complex labor and employment matters, which was a successful mediation.⁴⁹ In the course of mediations and settlement negotiations, the Parties exchanged extensive information, documents, and data and discussed all aspects of the case, including and not limited to, the risks and delays of further litigation, the risks and delays of further litigation, the risks and expenses to the Parties of proceeding with class certification, representative adjudication, and trial; the law relating to class certification, manageability, off-the-clock theory, rounding, regular rates of pay, meal and rest periods (including inter alia, on premises breaks), expense reimbursements, recordkeeping and wage statement requirements, representative PAGA claims and penalties, and wage-and-hour law and enforcement; Plaintiff's claims and allegations, and Defendant's defenses thereto, as well as the evidence produced and analyzed; and the possibility of appeals, among other things.⁵⁰ During all settlement discussions, the Parties conducted their negotiations at arm's length in an adversarial position.⁵¹ Arriving at a settlement that was acceptable to the Parties was not easy.⁵² Defendant and its counsel felt very strongly about Defendant's ability to prevail on the merits and to avoid class certification and representative adjudication and prevail on the merits, while, Plaintiff and Class/PAGA Counsel believed that they would be able to obtain class certification and prevail at trial.⁵³ After conducting

2 with the aid of the mediator's evaluation, the Parties agreed that this matter was well-suited for settlement
3 given the legal issues relating to Plaintiff's principal claims, as well as the costs and risks to the Parties that
4 would attend further litigation.⁵⁴

5 The Settlement takes into account the strengths and weaknesses of each side's position and the 6 uncertainty of how this matter might have concluded at certification, trial, and/or appeals.⁵⁵ The 7 Settlement was based on a large volume of facts, evidence, and investigation.⁵⁶ Additionally,
8 Class/PAGA Counsel has extensive experience in handling complex wage-and-hour actions, including
9 significant experience in employment class action litigation.⁵⁷

10 B. The Risks Inherent in Continued Litigation Favor Final Approval of the 11 Settlement.

12 The risks inherent in litigating the claims through certification proceedings, trial, and/or appeals,
13 favor resolving this matter for a Gross Settlement Amount of $3,350,000.00.⁵⁸ The Settlement was 14 calculated using information and data uncovered through extensive case investigation, formal and 15 informal discovery, and the exchange of information in the context of litigation, mediations, and 16 ongoing settlement negotiations.⁵⁹ Had the action not settled, Defendant would have vigorously
17 challenged class certification, manageability, and liability. Defendant contended that individualized 18 questions of fact predominated over any common issues, and these issues would pose challenges to 19 certification and representative adjudication. Defendant would have likely argued again at trial, if any,
20 that Plaintiff's claims were not appropriate for class-wide and/or representative adjudication. On the 21 other hand, Defendant also faced the risk of the Court certifying a class and allowing a jury to decide 22 Plaintiff's claims on a class-wide or representative basis. Also, preparation for trial would have been 23 expensive for all Parties.

24 It is preferable to reach an early resolution of a dispute because such resolutions save time and 25 money that would otherwise go to litigation. If this matter had settled after further litigation, the settlement

1 amount would have taken into account the additional costs incurred, and there might have been less
2 money available for Class Members, PAGA Employees, and the State of California after all was said
3 and done. This is not just an abstract contention. The risks and expenses of further litigation outweighed
4 any benefit that might have been gained otherwise. These risks of further litigation include a
5 determination that the claims were unsuitable for class treatment and/or representative adjudication,
6 failure to obtain certification, class de-certification after certification of a class, allowing a jury to decide
7 the claims asserted in this matter, and the real possibility of no recovery after years of litigation.
8 Additionally, the Parties were moving into the phase of the litigation where they would have to conduct a
9 significant amount of additional discovery, including and not limited to, depositions of Defendant's
10 Person Most Knowledgeable designees, expert witnesses, and percipient witnesses, such as managers, 11 supervisors, and other current and former employees throughout the State of California. Additional 12 discovery would have certainly arisen, which would have cost the Parties additional time and money. In 13 contrast, the Settlement provides real and significant benefits for the Class, PAGA Employees, and the 14 State of California here and now, while avoiding the further expenses, risks, and delay of prolonged 15 litigation with only the possibility of recovery.

16 It would be grossly inefficient for such a large class of current and former employees to bring
17 individual actions to recover from Defendant for the alleged violations of wage-and-hour laws.
18 Moreover, the potential individual recovery that could be obtained by a Class Member would not be 19 significant enough to provide him or her with the incentive to sue. By granting final approval of the 20 Settlement, the Court can approve a resolution that provides a certain and substantial recovery for Class
21 Members, PAGA Employees, and the State of California.

22 C. The Settlement Is Fair, Reasonable, and Adequate.

23 The Settlement, which provides for a Gross Settlement Amount of $3,350,000.00, represents a
24 fair, reasonable, and adequate resolution of this matter. The Settlement was calculated using information 25 and data uncovered through extensive case investigation, formal and informal discovery, and the 26 exchange of information in the context of litigation, mediations, and extensive settlement negotiations.
27 The Settlement takes into account the potential risks and rewards inherent in any case and, in particular, in 28

1 this matter. Moreover, considering the facts in this matter, the Gross Settlement Amount represents a
2 considerable recovery.

3 The Gross Settlement Amount will be fully paid out, in accordance with the terms of the 4 Settlement. As discussed in Section IV, supra, each Participating Class Member will be paid a pro rata
5 share of the Net Class Settlement Amount (which is currently estimated to be $1,772,333,33), based on 6 the number of Qualifying Pay Periods credited to them, and each PAGA Employee will be paid a pro
7 rata share of the twenty-five (25%) share of the PAGA Fund, based on the number of Qualifying
8 PAGA Pay Periods during the PAGA Period credited to them.⁶⁰ The highest Individual Settlement
9 Payment to a Participating Class Member is currently estimated to be $3,058.77 and the average
10 Individual Settlement Payment is currently estimated to be $1,320.67.⁶¹ The highest PAGA Payment
11 Share to a PAGA Employee is current estimated to be $177.49 and the average PAGA Payment
12 Share is currently estimated to be $91.91.⁶² These are significant individual recoveries, particularly in 13 light of the risks of litigation.

14 Class/PAGA Counsel believes that the Settlement as a whole is fair, reasonable, and adequate.⁶³
15 Although Class/PAGA Counsel's recommendations are not conclusive, the Court can properly take the 16 recommendations into account, particularly if Class/PAGA Counsel appears to be competent, has 17 experience with this type of litigation, and significant discovery and investigation have been completed,
18 as is the case here. Conte & Newberg, Newberg on Class Actions (4th Ed., 2002) § 11.47. Accordingly,
19 the Court should grant final approval of the Settlement.

20 D. The Class Was Represented by Competent Counsel.

21 Class/PAGA Counsel has extensive experience in employment class action law and complex
22 wage-and-hour litigation.⁶⁴ Lawyers for Justice, PC has been appointed class counsel in numerous
23 complex wage-and-hour cases, and has recovered millions of dollars for individuals in California.⁶⁵ Both Parties' counsel were capable of assessing the strengths and weaknesses of the Class Members' claims against Defendant and the benefits of the Settlement under the circumstances of the lawsuit and in the context of a private, consensual settlement agreement.

E. There Are No Written Objections to the Class Settlement.

The Settlement has been well received by the Class – not a single Class Member objected to the Settlement.⁶⁶ Specifically, no objections have been made as to the Gross Settlement Amount or contemplated Attorneys' Fees and Costs, Class Representative Enhancement Award, settlement administration fees, and allocation for the PAGA Fund. California courts have consistently found that a small number of objectors indicates support for a settlement and strongly favors final approval.⁶⁷

Here, the lack of any objections speaks volumes about the fairness, reasonableness, and adequacy of this Settlement. Accordingly, the Settlement as a whole is presumed to be fair, reasonable, and adequate, and the Court should grant final approval of the Settlement in its entirety. Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th at 1802.

VII. THE ATTORNEYS' FEES REQUESTED SHOULD BE APPROVED.

A. A Fee Award of a Percentage of the Entire Fund Is Appropriate.

Under the terms of the Settlement Agreement, Defendant will pay a Gross Settlement Amount of $3,350,000.00.⁶⁸ The settlement agreement provides for attorneys' fees of up to thirty three and one-third percent (33.33%) of the total value of the monetary settlement (i.e., $1,116,666.67).⁶⁹ In light of Class/PAGA Counsel's successful prosecution and resolution of this matter, the requested attorneys' fees are appropriate and reasonable.

Where the amount of a settlement is a "certain easily calculable sum of money," California courts may calculate attorneys' fees as a reasonable percentage of the settlement. Weil and Brown, California Practice Guide, Civil Procedure Before Trial, Chapter 14, § 14:145; In re Bluetooth Headset Prods. Liab. Litig. (9th Cir. 2011) 654 F.3d 935, 942 (The percentage method is particularly appropriate where a monetary settlement has been recovered and "the benefit [recovered can be] easily quantified.");

1 see also Laffitte v. Robert Half Int'l Inc. (2016) 1 Cal.5th 480, 503; Dunk at 1808. Courts may calculate
2 and award attorneys' fees as a percentage of a monetary fund that has, by litigation, been preserved or 3 recovered for the benefit of others. Laffitte at 486 & 506. Trial courts "retain the discretion to forgo a
4 lodestar cross-check and [may] use other means to evaluate the reasonableness of a requested percentage
5 fee." Id. (internal quotes omitted); see also Wershba, supra, 91 Cal.App.4th at 253.

6 Courts award fees as an economic incentive for lawyers to pursue litigation that will enhance and 7 facilitate access to the judicial system for meritorious claims, deter wrongdoing, and address multiple
8 similar alleged wrongs that would not be economically feasible to pursue individually, such as here. See 9 A. Conte, Attorney Fee Awards (2d ed. 1993) 104, at 6.

10 The percentage fee method is preferred in representative actions because "it better approximates
11 the workings of the marketplace than the lodestar approach." Lealao v. Beneficial Cal., Inc. (2000) 82
12 Cal.App.4th 19, 49. California law provides that the award for attorneys' fees should be equivalent to 13 fees freely negotiated in the legal marketplace and paid in comparable litigation based on the result
14 achieved and risk incurred. Id. at 47-50; Laffitte at 503. In cases where the settlement agreement
15 provides that the defendant will pay the plaintiff's attorneys a percentage of the fund created by the 16 settlement, use of that percentage method is appropriate. Lealao at 32. Fee awards that are too small will 17 "chill the private enforcement essential to the vindication of many legal rights and obstruct the 18 representative actions that often relieve the courts of the need to separately adjudicate numerous claims."
19 Id. at 53. Therefore, fees in representative actions should approximate the probable terms of a contingent
20 fee contract negotiated by a sophisticated attorney and client in comparable litigation. Id. at 48. "The 21 ultimate goal . . . is the award of a 'reasonable' fee to compensate counsel for their efforts, irrespective of 22 the method of calculation." Consumer Privacy Cases (2009) 175 Cal.App.4th 545, 557-58 (quoting 23 Apple Computer, Inc. v. Superior Court (2005) 126 Cal.App.4th, 1253, 1270).

24 Class/PAGA Counsel's application for attorneys' fees in light of the facts and circumstances
25 surrounding the case is well-within the range of reasonableness. Courts have awarded fees as high as 50%
26 of the settlement in complex actions, depending on the circumstances of the case.⁷⁰

27 ⁷⁰ See In re Ampicillin Antitrust Litig. (D.D.C. 1981) 526 F.Supp. 494 (awarding attorneys' fees in the amount of 45% of the $7.3
28 million total settlement amount); Beech Cinema, Inc. v. Twentieth-Century Fox Film Corp. (S.D.N.Y. 1979) 480 F.Supp. 1195
(awarding approximately 53% of the settlement as attorneys' fees). California courts routinely approve attorneys' fees awards
"average[ing] around one-third of the recovery." Chavez v. Netflix, Inc. (2008) 162 Cal.App.4th 43, 66 n.11 (lower court found the range of contingency fees in marketplace to be 20%-40% and determined such a percentage fee was appropriate).

1 Class/PAGA Counsel has performed significant work in this matter, as discussed in the 2 Declaration of Vartan Madoyan with the very real possibility of an unsuccessful outcome and no fee
3 recovery of any kind.⁷¹ In the present matter, Class/PAGA Counsel has borne all of the risks and costs
4 of litigation and will not receive any compensation until recovery is obtained.⁷² Class/PAGA Counsel is 5 experienced in complex wage-and-hour litigation and used that experience to obtain a significant 6 settlement recovery for Plaintiff, the Class, and the State of California.⁷³ Considering the amount of 7 fees requested, work performed, risks incurred, results obtained, and experience of Class/PAGA
8 Counsel in handling similar matters, Plaintiff maintains that the requested attorneys' fees are reasonable 9 and should be awarded.

10 Compensating class counsel in class litigation on a percentage basis, as requested herein, makes 11 good sense because: (1) it is consistent with the private marketplace where contingent fee attorneys are 12 customarily compensated on such a basis; (2) it aligns the interests of class counsel and absent class 13 members in achieving the maximum possible resolution of the case; and (3) it encourages the most 14 efficient and expeditious resolution of the litigation by providing an incentive for early, yet reasonable,
15 settlement. The attorney fee request here satisfies all of these factors and should be approved on a 16 percentage basis.

17 The percentage method is consistent with, and is intended to mirror, the practice in the private 18 marketplace where contingent-fee attorneys typically negotiate percentage-fee arrangements with their 19 clients. The named plaintiff's agreement to pay a contingent fee is powerful evidence of a reasonable fee.
20 One of the best ways to demonstrate the value of counsel's work to the class is to review the 21 consideration agreed to be paid by the named plaintiff. If the named plaintiff has employed counsel on a 22 contingency-fee basis, it would indeed be inequitable for the members of the class, who will enjoy the 23 benefits of the settlement without incurring the risks of bringing the claim, to pay less than the named 24 plaintiff. In this case, Plaintiff has agreed to a contingency fee agreement of at least thirty-three and one-
25 third percent (33.33%) of the recovery.⁷⁴

⁷² Id., ¶¶ 10-11, & 20.

⁷³ Id., ¶¶ 14-18.

28 ⁷⁴ Madoyan Decl., ¶ 10.

Class/PAGA Counsel has obtained a substantial recovery on behalf of Plaintiff, the Class, and the State of California and the results achieved justify an attorneys' fees award that is the equivalent of the standard market fee and that is consistent with the contingency-fee agreement entered into by and between Plaintiff and Class/PAGA Counsel. Thus, the requested attorneys' fees are appropriate.

B. The Attorneys' Fees Requested Are Reasonable Based on the Factors Considered in Determination of Fee Awards.

The factors which courts consider in determining whether fee awards are reasonable, all of which support the fee award requested by Class/PAGA Counsel, are: the time and labor required; the novelty and difficulty of the questions involved; the skill requisite to perform the legal services properly; the preclusion of other employment by the attorney due to the acceptance of the case; the customary fee; whether the fee is fixed or contingent; the time limitation imposed by the client or the circumstances; the amount involved and results obtained; the experience, reputation, and ability of the attorney; the undesirability of the case; the nature and length of the professional relationship with the client; and awards in similar cases. Camden I Condominium Association, Inc. v. Dunkel (11th Cir. 1991) 946 F.2d 768, 772. Some of the most relevant factors to this Court's fee determination will be addressed below.

The award of attorneys' fees in the amount of $1,116,666.67 (i.e. one-third of the Gross Settlement Amount) is commensurate with the time, effort, and expense dedicated to this matter, the contingent nature of Class/PAGA Counsel's fee recovery and the risks taken, the skill and determination required, the results that Class/PAGA Counsel has achieved, and the value of the settlement that Class/PAGA Counsel has obtained in this matter.

1. Time & Labor.

Class/PAGA Counsel used its experience and skills, and dedicated the full extent of resources, to litigate and bring this matter to a successful conclusion.⁷⁵

As outlined in the Declaration of Vartan Madoyan, Class/PAGA Counsel has fully and actively participated in litigation of this matter.⁷⁶ Prior to commencing the lawsuit, Class/PAGA Counsel had conducted a significant amount of investigation into the factual and legal issues, Defendant's business and ⁷⁵ Madoyan Decl., ¶¶ 7-9, & 12.

⁷⁶ Madoyan Decl., ¶ 7-9; Exh. 1.

its operations, and employment policies, practices, and procedures.⁷⁷ During the litigation of this matter, Class/PAGA Counsel had the opportunity to interview Plaintiff and other percipient witnesses; reviewed and analyzed of a large volume of information, documents and data obtained from Defendant, Plaintiff, and other sources; and prepared liability, damages, penalties, and valuation calculations.⁷⁸ Class/PAGA Counsel also met and conferred with Defendant's counsel on numerous occasions e.g., to discuss issues relating to the pleadings, case management, motion practice, informal discovery, and the production of information, documents and data among other things, and prepared for and attended court proceedings, mediations, and settlement negotiations.⁷⁹

Counsel has dedicated staffing and monetary resources necessary to prosecute this matter diligently and with maximum efficiency and has fully and actively participated in the litigation process.⁸⁰ The Attorney Task and Time Chart, which is attached as “EXHIBIT 1” to the accompanying Declaration of Vartan Madoyan, sets forth in detail the hours that attorneys at Lawyers for Justice, PC have spent performing tasks in this matter.⁸¹ Class/PAGA Counsel has spent 712.70 hours performing tasks and to obtain a significant recovery in this matter.⁸² These hours were required to bring this matter to its successful conclusion. In light of the value of Class/PAGA Counsel's work and the carrying of costs involved in litigating this matter, the requested attorneys’ fees are fair, adequate, and reasonable.

2. The Skill Required to Perform Legal Services Properly.

The skill required to properly litigate this matter is evident from the results achieved, the steps necessary to reach those results, and that Defendant retained well-respected counsel to represent it.

Class/PAGA Counsel exercised its skill to perform significant investigation, analysis, and research prior to filing the case, during the litigation, and prior to and during the mediations and settlement negotiations. Class/PAGA Counsel took steps to prepare the matter for class certification and representative adjudication and had every intention of taking this matter to trial on a class-wide basis if Defendant did not offer an appropriate class-wide settlement. Despite all of the obstacles that had to be overcome, as demonstrated in the Declaration of Vartan Madoyan, Class/PAGA Counsel used its extensive experience in the handling of class actions and complex wage-and-hour matters in order to obtain the Settlement with maximum efficiency.⁸³

3. Whether the Fee Is Fixed or Contingent.

Plaintiff entered into a contingency fee agreement with Class/PAGA Counsel, and the representation of the Class provided by Class/PAGA Counsel has been wholly contingent.⁸⁴ Class/PAGA Counsel has invested 712.70 hours of time to obtain relief on behalf of Plaintiff, the Class, and the State of California.⁸⁵ Class/PAGA Counsel has also incurred litigation costs and expenses in the amount of $45,945.06, but are voluntarily reducing their reimbursement of actual costs to $30,000.00, pursuant to the Settlement Agreement.⁸⁶ Thus, Class/PAGA Counsel has borne all of the risks and costs of litigation and will not receive any compensation until recovery is obtained.⁸⁷

In determining the reasonableness of a fee award in a class action settlement, whether or not representation is provided on a contingency basis is an important factor:

A contingent fee must be higher than a fee for the same legal services paid as they are performed. The contingent fee compensates the lawyer not only for the legal services he renders but for the loan of those services. A lawyer who both bears the risk of not being paid and provides legal services is not receiving the fair market value of his work if he is paid only for the second of these functions. If he is paid no more, competent counsel will be reluctant to accept fee award cases.

Cates v. Chiang (2013) 213 Cal.App.4th 791, 823 (internal quotes and citations omitted). Class/PAGA Counsel litigated this matter on a contingent basis with all of the concomitant risk factors inherent in such an uncertain undertaking. Had Class/PAGA Counsel not been successful, the time that Class/PAGA Counsel has devoted to litigating this matter would have been for naught, and would not have produced any fee or any reimbursement of costs or expenses. See Vizcaino v. Microsoft (9th Cir. 2002) 290 F.3d 1043, 1048-49 (discussing the risks of engaging in litigation without certainty of compensation).

4. The Amount Involved and the Results Achieved.

The Settlement represents an excellent resolution of this matter, given the risks inherent in litigating the matter through class certification proceedings, trial, and/or appeals. Had this matter not settled, Defendant would have vigorously challenged certifiability, manageability, and liability. Defendant, however, faced risks if the Court certified a class and allowed a jury to decide the claims. Additionally, preparing this matter for trial would have been expensive for the Parties. The Settlement at this stage is preferred over continued litigation because such resolutions save time and money that would otherwise go to litigation. The risks and expenses of further litigation outweighed any benefit that might have been gained otherwise. The Settlement provides an immediate recovery, as opposed to an uncertain result in the future after costly, risk, and prolonged litigation involving expert discovery, trial preparation, class certification proceedings, and appellate review of those proceedings.

The results achieved, in light of the difficulties inherent in similar cases and the specific difficulties faced in this matter, are considerable.⁸⁸ Class/PAGA Counsel obtained a settlement of $3,350,000.00.⁸⁹ The Settlement has yielded a positive response from the Class Members—no Class Members objected to the class settlement.⁹⁰

5. The Reputation and Ability of the Attorneys.

Lawyers for Justice, PC is a recognized class action law firm that employed its attorneys' knowledge, skills, and experience in bringing this case to a successful conclusion.⁹¹ Class/PAGA Counsel has years of complex and class action litigation experience, has recovered millions of dollars on behalf of thousands of individuals in California, and has successfully handled numerous significant wage-and-hour class action and complex cases.⁹²

C. The Lodestar Methodology Also Justifies Approval of the Requested Fees.

While the percentage-of-the-benefit approach is endorsed as the better approximation of the workings of the marketplace than the lodestar approach, courts may also use the lodestar method to “cross-check” the results of the other.⁹³ The lodestar is calculated based on reasonable hours at reasonable prevailing hourly rates for the attorneys, and counsel is entitled to compensation for every hour

4 (2000) 79 Cal.App.4th 440, 447.

5 As discussed above in Part VII.B.1, supra, and also discussed in the Declaration of Vartan
6 Madoyan, Class/PAGA Counsel expended significant time and labor in this highly contested matter.⁹⁴
7 Class/PAGA Counsel has been actively involved in the prosecution of the case, and the work performed
8 in said case has precluded other employment.⁹⁵ Class/PAGA Counsel bore the risk that, despite all of its
9 efforts and skills employed, there may be no recovery.⁹⁶ Ultimately, Class/PAGA Counsel was successful
10 in reaching a settlement of $3,350,000.00.⁹⁷ The Attorney Task and Time Chart sets forth in detail the 11 numerous tasks that Class/PAGA Counsel performed in this matter, and the time required for 12 completing those tasks.⁹⁸ The chart demonstrates that Class/PAGA Counsel has spent a total of 712.70
13 hours litigating this matter and finalizing the Settlement.⁹⁹ In light of the facts and circumstances of this
14 matter, as well as the results that Class/PAGA Counsel has achieved, Class/PAGA Counsel has spent a 15 reasonable number of hours performing work on this matter. In addition, Class/PAGA Counsel will 16 continue to perform work on this matter through the date of final approval and in connection with the 17 implementation of the Settlement.

18 As set forth in the Declaration of Vartan Madoyan, the professional background and experience
19 of Class/PAGA Counsel support a reasonable rate of compensation of at least $850 per hour for services
20 provided by Class/PAGA Counsel.¹⁰⁰ Lawyers for Justice, PC has been awarded attorneys’ fees,
21 compensating the firm at the blended rate of at least $850 per hour for legal service performed, by courts
22 of this state.¹⁰¹ While the circumstances of every case are unique, the fact remains that the work
23 performed by Class/PAGA Counsel in this matter justify the requested attorneys’ fees.

Applying the rate of $850 per hour to 712.70 hours worked by Class/PAGA Counsel, would place a base lodestar value of $609,795.00 on the services provided by Class/PAGA Counsel. However, courts typically apply a multiplier in consideration for risk, efficiency, and/or obtaining a substantial result, to enhance the lodestar for purpose of cross-check. Ketchum at 1133-34 (holding that a risk multiplier may be applied to compensate contingency fee attorneys at a fair market rate).¹⁰² The risks involved, skill required, complexity of the matter, and results obtained warrant upward enhancement of the lodestar.¹⁰³ In determining whether or not to enhance the lodestar, California courts take into account multiple factors, many of which were specifically addressed above in § VII.B, supra. See Cates at 822-23. Multiple factors warrant enhancement of the lodestar in the cases, including the following: the time and labor required; the skill requisite to perform the legal services properly; the preclusion of other employment by the attorney due to the acceptance of these cases; the contingent nature of the fee; the amount involved and results obtained; the experience, reputation, and ability of the attorney; and awards in similar cases. Ketchum at 1134. Therefore, a multiplier of 1.85 should be applied. Thus, the base lodestar value of $605,795.00 times a modest multiplier of 1.85¹⁰⁴ results in a total enhanced lodestar of $1,120,720.75.

The lodestar method as a cross-check to the percentage award sought herein, strongly supports the reasonableness of the requested attorneys' fees. The nature of the work performed, skill exercised, and the outcome in this matter—which involves an outstanding monetary recovery involving a Gross ¹⁰² Courts have approved fee awards with multipliers of 2 and even higher. See, e.g., City of Oakland v. Oakland Raiders (1988) 203 Cal.App.3d 78 (affirming a 2.34 multiplier without remand); Wershba, supra, 91 Cal.App.4th at 255 ("Multipliers can range from 2 to 4 or even higher."); Sutter Health Uninsured Pricing Cases (2009) 171 Cal.App.4th 495, 512 (applying a 2.52 multiplier on a lodestar cross-check); Chavez v. Netflix, Inc. (2008) 162 Cal.App.4th 43, 66 (applying a 2.5 multiplier in a consumer class action).

¹⁰³ Even when courts have opted to award fees in settlement fund cases based on time reasonably expended on the action, courts have generally awarded these fees based on the actual time expended (the lodestar) in conjunction with a multiplier of between 2 and 4. Kerr v. Screen Extras Guild, Inc. (9th Cir. 1975) 526 F.2d 67. Adjustment of the base lodestar figure to compute an award of attorneys' fees for a claim under the California Labor Code is appropriate. See id., at 1135-36; Serrano v. Priest (1977) 20 Cal.3d 25, 48-49. Courts frequently apply multipliers to enhance the lodestar to reflect the risks involved, the complexity of the litigation, and the other relevant facts. Vizcaino, 290 F.3d at 1051; Graham v. DaimlerChrysler Corp. (2004) 34 Cal.4th 553, 579 ("One of the most common fee enhancers [...] is for contingency risk."). Such an enhancement "mirrors the established practice in the private legal market of rewarding attorneys for taking the risk of nonpayment by paying them a premium over their normal hourly rates for winning contingency cases." Vizcaino, 290 F.3d at 1051; accord Ketchum, 24 Cal.4th at 1132-33. A risk multiplier also serves to bring the financial incentives for enforcing important rights "into line with incentives [attorneys] have to undertake claims for which they are paid on a fee-for-services basis." Ketchum at 1132.

¹⁰⁴ Larger multipliers have been awarded in similar cases, and the total amount of fees sought by Class/PAGA Counsel is also reasonable compared to fees awarded in similar cases. Courts routinely enhance lodestar amounts based on multipliers that "range from 2 to 4 or even higher." Wershba, supra, 91 Cal.App.4th at 255 (emphasis added); see also, e.g., Chavez v. Netflix, Inc. (2008) 162 Cal.App.4th 43, 66 (approving multiplier of 2.5); Vizcaino, 290 F.3d at 1051 (approving multiplier of 3.65); Wal-Mart Stores, Inc. v. Visa U.S.A., Inc. (2d Cir. 2005) 396 F.3d 96, 123 (approving multiplier of 3.5); Craft v. County of San Bernardino (C.D. Cal. 2006) 624 F.Supp.2d 1113, 1125 (awarding multiplier of 5.2 and referring to other cases with cross-check multipliers ranging from 4.5 to 19.6).

Settlement Amount of $3,350,000.00 (with a Net Class Settlement Amount of approximately at least $1,772,333.33 to be paid to Participating Class Members (with gross Individual Settlement Payments averaging approximately more than $1,320.67), payment of $100,000.00 to PAGA Employees, and payment of $300,000.00 to the LWDA)—support the percentage fee sought. Accordingly, the Court is respectfully requested to award attorneys’ fees in the amount of $1,116,666.67 to Class/PAGA Counsel.

VIII. REIMBURSEMENT OF CLASS/PAGA COUNSEL'S LITIGATION COSTS AND EXPENSES SHOULD BE APPROVED.

The Settlement provides for reimbursement of litigation costs and expenses of up to $30,000.00. As set forth in the Declaration of Vartan Madoyan, Class/PAGA Counsel seeks reimbursement of $30,000.00 in litigation costs and expenses incurred in this matter.¹⁰⁵ This amount was reasonable and necessary in the prosecution of this matter and to obtain the Settlement, and is equal to the amount allocated under the Settlement Agreement.¹⁰⁶ In fact, as noted above, Class/PAGA Counsel actually incurred more than $45,000 in actual litigation costs but have voluntarily reduced the amount to $30,000 for purposes of settlement. Accordingly, Plaintiff requests that the Court award litigation costs and expenses in the amount of $30,000.00 to Class/PAGA Counsel.

IX. THE SETTLEMENT ADMINISTRATION COSTS SHOULD BE APPROVED.

As set forth in the accompanying Simpluris Declaration, the total costs incurred and to be incurred by Simpluris for the notice and settlement administration process are $16,000.00.¹⁰⁷ The costs incurred and to be incurred include, but are not limited to, establishing and maintaining a settlement fund account; establishing and maintaining a calendar of administrative deadlines and responsibilities; processing, issuing, and transmitting settlement payments; distributing notice of the Settlement to the Class; receiving and validating Opt Outs, objections, or workweeks disputes submitted by Class Members; calculating employer taxes and providing appropriate forms and calculations to Defendant; providing counsel with weekly reports; and other tasks as the Parties mutually agree or the Court orders Simpluris to perform.¹⁰⁸

¹⁰⁵ Madoyan Decl., ¶ 19.

¹⁰⁶ Ibid.

¹⁰⁷ Simpluris Decl., ¶ 20.

¹⁰⁸ Id., ¶ 3.

Accordingly, the Court should grant final approval of payment to Simpluris, a necessary third-party for its handling of the notice and settlement process, in the amount of $16,000.00.

X. THE CLASS REPRESENTATIVE ENHANCEMENT AWARD SHOULD BE APPROVED.

Plaintiff requests a Class Representative Enhancement Award, in the amount of $15,000.00 to himself, for his efforts and work spearheading the prosecution of this matter and serving as the Class Representative. The Enhancement Award is more than reasonable under the circumstances of this case.¹⁰⁹

Plaintiff spent over 100 hours on this matter, a substantial amount of time and effort providing the facts and evidence necessary to support the prosecution of the claims.¹¹⁰ Plaintiff was available whenever Class/PAGA Counsel needed him and actively tried to obtain, and gave, information to support the pursuit of this matter.¹¹¹ Plaintiff also spent time reviewing discovery requests and providing information and documents in response thereto, and he spent considerable time preparing and appearing for his deposition in this matter.¹¹² Plaintiff's work was crucial in obtaining a significant settlement sum of $3,350,000 for the benefit of the Class Members, PAGA Employees, and the State of California. And as indicated above, not one single Class Member has objected to the Settlement including as to the Enhancement Award.

Accordingly, it is appropriate and just for Plaintiff Amit Singh to receive $15,000.00 as a reasonable Class Representative Enhancement Award, in addition to his Individual Settlement Payment.

XI. CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, the Court is respectfully requested to grant final approval of the Settlement, approve and award Attorneys' Fees and Costs to Class/PAGA Counsel, the Class Representative Enhancement Award to Plaintiff, Settlement administration fees to the Settlement

Cal. 1995) 901 F.Supp. 294, 299 (Relevant factors considered by courts are the financial and other risk to, the notoriety and personal difficulties encountered by, and the amount of time and efforts spent by the class representative, as well as the duration of the litigation and the personal benefit (or lack thereof) enjoyed by the class representatives as a result of the litigation; approving $50,000 participation award to a single class representative based on such factors).
